RED RAIDERS SAY INVADERS NEAR DEFEAT

By JAMES D. WHITE. WITH THE CHINESE RED ARMY IN HOPEH PROVINCE, North China, March 22 (AP)—China's Red army commander, Yu Cheng-Tsao, believes the Japanese army is nearer defeat than at any time since the Oriental war began a little more than eight months ago (July 7).

Guerrilla marches, the Red army general related at his headquarters here in central Hopeh far behind Japanese lines, have isolated large forces of Japanese battling toward the Yellow river on the central China front.

Their communications cut, transport trains wiped out, many of their small railway station garrisons annihilated, and their only food supply in some cases reaching them by airplane. Many Japanese troops are in a precarious position, Yu said.

Among highlights of the situation of the Japanese, as pictured by Yu, were these:

An army of 45,000 Japanese in southern Shansi has been isolated from its supply bases.

Red guerrillas scored five successes in recent days in attacks along the Peiping-Hankow railway, wiping out small station garrisons.

Chinese tactics forced the Japanese to abandon 35 miles of the Peiping-Hankow railway north of the Yellow river.

Cohorts Annihilated. Three transport columns wending their way through tortuous mountain trails to reach the Japanese beleaguered in southern Shansi were annihilated by Chinese snipers, and for six days the Japanese command resorted to airplanes to lead the isolated army.

Thirty thousand Red Chinese soldiers lay across the communication lines of this army eastward from the Peiping-Hankow railroad, he said, while troops of General Chiang Kai-Shek cut another railway in Shansi, leaving the Japanese completely isolated.

Meanwhile, Gen. Chiang's arm crossed the Yellow river northward in four places, according to Yu reports.

Many of the churches will broadcast their programs. Those who wish to listen in should tune in about eight o'clock.

Easter Fashion Parade Starts In NEWS Today

A pre-Easter fashion parade will wind through the pages of this newspaper in the coming days.

The first of six special, strikingly illustrated spring fashion articles by Marian Young, begins on the Daily News section page today. For the first time, some of Fifth Avenue's famous window-mannequins have posed as real fashion models against real backgrounds outside their show-windows. These exclusive pictures are added attractions for the readers.

Ultra-feminine suits, swing-skirted dress frocks, well-adorned hats, romantic evening gowns, and "grown-up" clothes for children are all described in this series.

New Star?

Everyone in Hollywood is wondering whether Charlie Chaplin will have a new leading lady for a story he is now writing, and speculation centers around the young lady pictured above, Dorothy Cominger Meltzer, 25. The girl, who does a little modeling around Carmel, Calif., won't talk about the situation, but her father said she told him Charlie had offered her a part, "but her husband doesn't want her to accept."

ISLANDS AWAIT MOCK ATTACK

HONOLULU, March 22 (AP)—Honolulu's civilians worked and played as usual today but over 22,000 soldiers and sailors awaited wartime society the appearance of an enemy fleet.

Under simulated conditions that included even firearms on army post-graduate to defend the staunchly fortified island of Oahu or other more vulnerable land from an enemy "blue" fleet, representing a government whose relations with the United States were "strained" last week.

The attacking force actually is a part of the United States fleet which left California last week on the most extensive and most secret Pacific maneuvers yet undertaken.

Already five naval planes—presumably from the "blue" fleet—have been reported a thousand miles from Honolulu. Sleek grey destroyers patrol waters outside Pearl harbor watching for the enemy. Navy and army observation planes are ready to take off instantly at the first alarm.

Twenty thousand troops are deployed about the island of Oahu, flanked with artillery and mobile equipment. They have been carrying out minor maneuvers since Thursday.

Submarine crews wait at their posts at the naval base.

The defense forces know only that the "blue" fleet was seen last week off the coast of California "the past few weeks."

Such information is not passed out, it is indicated, the maneuvers this year will follow no set routine, as in 1937. A "surprise" attack is anticipated, and it is the duty of the Hawaiian forces to find out when and where.

WORKERS BEATEN IN SAN ANTONIO STRIKE

SAN ANTONIO, March 22 (AP)—First violence in the five-day-old strike at the Texas Infants Dress Company occurred today as two workers at the plant were beaten and scratched by alleged pickets.

As a result more police were rushed to the factory to reinforce those already stationed there.

The two workers attacked were Toni Ledezma and Luz Plero.

HUBERT HILL GETS 2 YEARS IN BURGLARY

A verdict of two years in the state penitentiary was assessed Hubert Hill, charged with burglary, by a 31st district court jury in Miami at 9 o'clock last night. The jury was out only a half-hour, before submitting its verdict.

Hill was one of the four Pampans who had been charged with burglary in connection with a wave of petty thefts over the Top O' Texas area.

District Judge W. R. Ewing returned to Miami this afternoon to pass sentence.

Selection of jurors for the next district court term in Miami, which will start August 1, is being made by the jury commissioners in that town, as the last week of the current term draws to a close.

Lipscomb will be the place for the next session of district court. A two-week term will be held there starting March 28. Following the Lipscomb term, Judge Ewing will go to Wheeler to preside at a seven-week term there, then return to Pampa for the May term, which opens May 30.

2,361 CAR LICENSES SOLD IN GRAY COUNTY

As the deadline for securing 1938 automobile licenses nears, there has been an increase in the number of Gray county citizens buying licenses at the office of Gray County Tax Assessor Collector F. E. Leach.

For the week ending Saturday, a total of 18,000 were added to the proceeds of the county from the sale of the licenses. To date, 1938 registrations total 2,361.

GREW FILES DEMAND FOR PANAY SINKING

TOKYO, March 22 (AP)—Ambassador Joseph C. Grew today delivered the United States demand for indemnification for the sinking of the gunboat Panay. The amount of indemnity asked was not announced.

Japan previously promised indemnification and other amends as a result of the sinking of the Panay of the Yangtze river patrol in which four foreigners lost their lives on Dec. 12.

One Of Three Hanged Kidnapers Drops Twice

MOONSVILLE, W. Va., March 22 (AP)—Arvil Adkins was gone today to the "glory" he envisioned as he dropped the second time through the gallows death trap in West Virginia's first triple execution for kidnaping.

While guards adjusted straps on the 25-year-old man's arms and legs and 74 men and one woman watched in the witness room last night, something went wrong.

There was a report like a pistol shot and Adkins fell 9½ feet below.

The three were executed for kidnaping Dr. James I. Seder, 78-year-old dry leader, who was held captive in a mine for 11 days last November. Dr. Seder died as a result of pneumonia four days after he escaped.

Near-Freeze Tonight On Plains Predicted

Spring zephyrs lingered 'only briefly in Pampa after making their bow with the first day of Spring yesterday. By mid-afternoon Monday they had gone with the wind, and the mercury shot downward from a day's maximum of 85 degrees.

On top of all that—the official weatherman says that near-freezing temperatures can be expected in the Panhandle tonight with possible light frost in exposed places.

ADMINISTRATION WINS VOTE ON BUREAU BILL

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—Administration leaders beat off today the first move in the senate to exempt a specific federal agency from the executive reorganization bill.

They defeated 50 to 33, proposal by Senator Pittman (D., Nev.) to prevent presidential transfer of the forest service from the agriculture to the interior department.

One administration supporter, Senator Hatch (D., N. M.) joined the opposition for the first time in advocating the Pittman amendment, but announced that he would oppose further exemptions.

SHIRELY TEMPLE WINS $10,000 FOR LIBEL

LONDON, March 22 (AP)—Shirley Temple, of the movies, has been awarded $10,000 in public settlement of a libel action based on an article which appeared October 28, 1937, in "Night and Day," a London journal which has since discontinued publication.

Lord Chief Justice Hewart termed the article a "gross outrage."

Sir Patrick Hastings, plaintiff's counsel, refused to read the "heavily publicized" in court but said it was "one of the most horrible libels one can imagine about a child nine years of age."

Hauptmann's Lawyer SEEKS HIS FREEDOM

RIVERHEAD, N. Y., March 22 (AP)—Edward J. Reilly, once chief counsel for Bruno Richard Hauptmann, electrocuted Lindbergh baby kidnaper, today asked a Suffolk county jury to free him from the Kings county hospital for the insane.

Reilly was committed more than a year ago on the application of his mother, Mrs. Helen Reilly. He contends he was committed illegally and yesterday testified he was and is sane.

Opposing his habeas corpus writ, Dr. Charles Parker, superintendent of the hospital, testified through Francis X. Wazeter, assistant attorney general, that Reilly was "mentally sick."

"A physician at the hospital told me there were three ways to obtain freedom," Reilly said at yesterday's hearing, "death, escape and habeas corpus."

"I chose the habeas corpus."

M'CRAW LAUGHS AT RESIGNATION DEMAND

AUSTIN, March 22 (AP)—Attorney General William M'Craw said today he got a "very fine laugh" out of Karl Crowley's suggestion he resign his office if he stayed in the race for governor.

Crowley, solicitor general of the post office department, also suggested that Ernest O. Thomson resign as a member of the railroad commission.

Franco--Will He Rule Spain?

Closer to victory than at any time during the long, bitter Spanish civil war, insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco, caricatured so aptly above by NEA Artist George Scarbo, is in the midst of what he hopes will be a final drive to the Mediterranean. He launched a ruthless bombing attack on Loyalist stronghold Barcelona to turn his victory. The result was at least 1,200 deaths and wholesale destruction to Barcelona, which observers agreed could be saved for utter ruin only by foreign intervention.

800 Delegates Will Attend District 10 Baptist Convention

Pampa Baptists today were beginning to complete arrangements for the lodging of 800-out-of-town delegates who will be in Pampa Thursday and Friday for the first District 10 Baptist convention ever held in the Top O' Texas area in which all phases of organized church work will be represented.

All sessions will be held at the First Baptist church. A broadcast of some of the services has been arranged over KPDM.

Special music for the convention is being arranged by H. W. Miner of Pampa.

At 10:10 a. m., Dr. T. C. Gardner of Dallas, state director of the Baptist Training Union, will deliver the keynote address, "Conquest."

The attack was made by insurgent legionnaires after artillery and airplane bombardment of the new defense lines, hastily constructed by the government in an attempt to halt the insurgent drive eastward.

In the Huesca sector, 70 miles northwest of Caspe, another insurgent force broke through government lines and stormed the village of Lierta, in an attack designed to eliminate the Salient west of Huesca.

Although in insurgent hands, Huesca has been almost surrounded by government troops for a year. It marks the easternmost point of General Francisco Franco's march toward Catalonia in the north.

The fresh gains at Valdeagorri gave the insurgents commanding positions on the Gaudesca-Alcaniz highway, running in a generally east-west direction.

MORGAN AGAIN DECLINES TO GIVE 'REASON'

YELLOW SPRINGS, O., March 22 (AP)—Arthur E. Morgan announced today his flat refusal to meet President Roosevelt's request that he give "any reason" why he should not be removed as chairman of the Tennessee Valley authority.

"I have no further statement to make, other than what I told the President yesterday," Morgan said, following his return to his Yellow Springs home.

President Roosevelt had given Morgan until 1:30 p. m. today to provide "any reason."

There were indications in Washington that if President Roosevelt did not hear from Morgan he might issue an executive order to remove the chairman.

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—Presidential removal or suspension of Arthur E. Morgan as chairman of the Tennessee Valley authority became a virtual certainty today, despite the well-known engineer's challenge of the legality of such action.

After Morgan refused yesterday to resign or retract charges of dishonesty against his co-directors, President Roosevelt gave him until 1:30 p. m. (Central Standard Time)

WARDEN SAYS SPRINGS WILL FRESHEN LAKE

Fears expressed by many Gray county residents that water in the lake on McClellan creek would be stagnant and that game fish would not be able to survive in the water were minimized yesterday by Charles Smith of Canadian, game warden for this section of the Panhandle.

"It has been found by engineers that there is plenty of sub-surface moisture where the lake will be located and when the dam is completed fresh water will come from the ground and keep the lake a fresh water body where fish will thrive," Mr. Smith declared.

The state probably will stock the lake with rock and big mouth bass and carp, game fish, and several members of the perch family and channel cat. Mr. Smith said. The state does not stock lakes with trout which do not thrive in this section.

Closed season on game fish, bass and crappie will be during the months of April and May in the Panhandle. Mr. Smith reminded fishermen fishing for perch and cat is permissible during those months but only with live bait.

Persons arrested and convicted of fishing with artificial bait during the closed season will have their licenses revoked for one year, the game warden warned. He also urged fishermen going to another county to check on the laws of that county before fishing.

I SAW - - -

Guy Andis and he said he can direct you how to get to the site of the proposed Gray county lake on McClellan creek, if you will come by his house which is about 20 miles south of town, three-fourth of a mile off the Clarendon highway. The point is to get to his house.

MAN RETURNED HERE TO FACE FORGERY CHARGE

Sheriff Earl Talley and Deputy Buford Reed returned Friday from a trip to Fort Worth and Longview. From the latter city they brought back S. M. Ritchey, charged here with forgery.

In Fort Worth they were in federal court where they testified in a narcotic case involving Pat Kenreck and D. J. Souter, arrested here December 21 in a raid at a local hotel.

Sheriff Talley said that Kenreck had been taken to Missouri to answer charges in that state, following the Fort Worth trial. Souter's case had to come to trial while the Gray county officers were in Fort Worth.

Prepare the ground for the garden and have it ready for early planting of seeds so that it will hold moisture, she concluded.

Smart Fashion

Featured in a recent New York fashion show, this monotone tweed suit in a soft shade of green won tremendous applause. Notice the new, longer length jacket, beautifully melded to the figure, the medium wide lapels and the slender skirt with one inverted pleat. It's worn over a girde which controls but does not flatten feminine curves, and a new combination brassiere with attached dress shields.

B. M. Baker Art Classes to Show Art Craft Friday

On March 25, B. M. Baker school will exhibit craft work done by Palo Duro art students and exhibited in the Panhandle Historical museum in Canyon by the Palo Duro Art club.

The crafts on exhibit were pottery by Lenora Giles of Pampa, and basketry by Miss Kate Warren of Cee Vee. Miss Giles is offering these two crafts for exhibition in the Baker art room from 2:00-3:00 Friday afternoon for the art students and people who are interested in art crafts.

Of unusual interest in the clay exhibit is an original statue of a personification of the "Wind." She is modeled as a tall graceful woman standing erect at the edge of a cliff. Her hair and clothing are blown violently by the wind, forming repeated lines of delicate designs. With the whimsical moods of her subject in mind, Miss Giles prepared a special mixture of colors, resulting in a cool transparent blue green tint.

Another interesting figure in the collection is "The Stray Cat," a simply modeled figure of a woman holding a child in her arms. Both figures seem intrigued by the stealthy approach of a huge stray cat to a bowl of food at their feet. Since the atmosphere created is one of stolid, common everyday folk, Miss Giles glazed these figures a heavy greyed blue-purple.

Other subjects in the collection are several vases of a variety of shapes and colors. Also there is a little brown jug which she made for her father's birthday, since his favorite fiddling selection is "Little Brown Jug."

Miss Giles was the student assistant in the Baylor College Art department for two years. She glazes, packs and fired all the pottery in that department for three years.

Miss Kate Warren has a very interesting array of sewed and woven work. Her baskets are notifiable for their graceful shapes, intricate designs, and lasting sturdiness of construction. Miss Warren received her training from College of Industrial Arts, Denton, where at the completion of her craft work, she was offered a large sum of money for one particularly beautiful piece to be put into the college permanent exhibit of student art work. She also taught basketry in the Campfire Girls organization in Orange.

Outstanding in her exhibit is a basket made of California pine needles and dyed raffia. Her design is worked in with very intricate stitches and brilliant colors of orange, green and black.

Another little basket has an odd handle attachment so that when the lid is removed from the basket, it becomes a clever little pin tray.

Two mats exhibited are interesting in their contrasting sizes of red and the use of green celophane to accentuate the design.

News in Coats

In a season when there's much talk about coats that are fitted and flared, conservatives and those who shop with an eye on the budget still will want this type of topcoat. Of navy and white wool tweed in novelty, broken herringbone design, it is flattering to women of all ages and sizes. And it's a "backlog" model—something equally and sure to be as smart next year and the year after as it is right now. It's shown over a navy town sheer, and would be just as stunning over a tweed sports skirt and a couple of sweaters.

One could not fail to note the many different stitches Miss Warren employs so expertly in her pieces. Some of them known as lazy squaw, plain knot, wheat stitch, and double eight. In her weaving she uses from one to three or four weavers.

The Art Department of Baker school cordially invites all those interested to be present Friday afternoon.

California officials are trying to stop the practice of squirting acid into tide pools to force devilfish out of hiding places.

Jolly Stitchers Plan Exhibit in Spring Activities

Jolly Stitchers of B. M. Baker school have elected a new set of officers to direct their spring activities. Their new and competent leader is Hetty Jo Tucker, assisted by the secretary, Betty Dooley, publicity chairman, Anna Mae Graham.

To add variety and interest to their meetings the girls voted to have an exhibition of their work every other Thursday, and only the work completed within each new space of two weeks could be entered. There was no limit as to the number of articles to be entered. Each exhibit was duly inspected and discussed and the two girls having the nicest pieces were awarded a skein of embroidery thread each. The lucky ones, so far, have been Norma Jo Kennimer who entered an embroidered pillow, Lorraine David, with embroidered tea towels and table scarf, and Betty Ray Dooley, with embroidered tea towels.

The girls have just completed sewing with raffia which they dyed themselves, and some table hot plate mats, with original designs introduced.

To climax their activities of the year, they are enthusiastically planning an exhibit of all the work which they have completed to be held in Miss Mary McKamy's room Friday afternoon from 2 until 4 o'clock, March 25. At that time, it was voted, competent judges, selected by their sponsors, Miss Lenora Giles and Miss McKamy, should inspect the work displayed and award a sewing kit to the girl having the most pieces on exhibit, and to the one having the most outstanding piece of workmanship. Their parents are cordially invited to come and see the exhibit.

After the exhibit the club plans to outline its activities for the remainder of the year to include mock initiation of the fifth grade girls who are interested in becoming next year's sixth grade stitchers. These fifth grade pledges will be allowed to sew in the club during the last month of school to get a foretaste of pleasure that next year holds for them.

CANYON, March 22—Another instructor with a national reputation has been added to the faculty of the Summer Art Colony in the Palo Duro canyon. It is announced by Miss Isabel Robinson, head of the art department of West Texas State college.

FLYING BLIND

In thick weather, it is often necessary for airplanes to "fly blind" . . . to depend on instruments rather than vision and charted landmarks. Almost uncannily in their accuracy, such instruments are nevertheless second choice in the navigation of the air.

Shoppers who trot off down-town to the stores without first consulting the advertisements of those same stores are likewise flying blind. And needlessly so. The advertisements in this paper are here for your guidance, for your safe landing in the Ports of Value.

Study them in the comfort of your home. . . map your course before you put on your hat and drop the latch-key into your handbag. Compare the products offered, their prices, their general advantages. Then set out on your shopping-trip prepared for what you will see, what you will wish to have sent home.

Let the advertisements serve as guiding beacons of buying. It's the smart thing to do.

FAMILIES OF OPERATORS TAKE MEXICO

LAREDO, March 22 (AP)—Oil operators, accompanied by their families, prepared to leave Laredo today as a result of the expropriation of American and British oil properties by the Mexican Government.

MEXICO CITY, March 22 (AP)—President Lázaro Cárdenas assured American industry today that expropriation of foreign oil companies was "exceptional" and no similar measure was in prospect against other business.

As the treasury department took the first steps toward fixing the sum to be paid to the British and American oil companies for loss of their $400,000,000 properties, President Cárdenas gave his assurances to industry in general in a statement that:

"No other measure which might affect the confidence of the country will be taken against other business, properties, bank deposits, values and other investments, which the government is ready to protect in accordance with the law."

The President said his government would take necessary steps to protect and encourage investments and business enterprises which might aid the economical development of the country and bring benefits of social character.

Secretary of the treasury Eduardo Suarez invited representatives of the 17 expropriated oil companies to confer with him on indemnity for their property and the terms of payment.

Labor is planning a great parade here Wednesday to demonstrate its support of the government for taking over the oil industry.

Foreign currency dealings were suspended by the Central Bank of Mexico last week, and other banks have followed suit.

The "industrial peso" rate probably would be around 360 pesos to the dollar, that for luxuries considerably higher—to discourage any great flight of national currency.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—A break of more than 4 points in Westinghouse helped unseat an already shaky stock market leading to losses in virtually all departments.

The flop in the "blue chip" electric equipment followed estimates of a sharp decline in earnings, not only for this company but for those in other lines, and served to accentuate a market outlook for the near future.

TOM CONNALLY SCHEDULED TO RUN IN 1940

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—The ballot of the 1940 senatorial race in Texas is expected to carry the name of Tom Connally of Marlin, seeking re-election for the third consecutive term in the United States senate.

The senator declined to comment on the subject at this advance date, but it is generally understood by Texas colleagues in the nation's capitol that year after next will find him stumping the state and recalling a record of public service that dates back to 1901.

Senator Connally first came to the nation's capital as representative of the eleventh Texas district, in 1917. He was returned to the house every two years until taking his seat in the senate, March 4, 1929.

The tall, dignified Texan was born in McLennan county on August 19, 1877. He attended the public schools at Eddy and then went to Baylor university, where he received his degree in 1896.

His education in law at the University of Texas, and commenced the practice of law in Waco. A short time later he moved to Marlin.

From 1901 to 1904 he was a member of the Texas legislature. From 1906 to 1910 he was prosecuting attorney of Falls county.

Shortly after he took his seat in Congress America entered the World War and in 1918 he left the house to join the army. He served as captain and lieutenant of the twenty-second infantry brigade, eleventh division, but never went overseas.

His Texan's career in the senate has been marked by his activity in legislation affecting agriculture and the petroleum industry.

He was co-author of the Jones-Cannally act, relieving oil producers of a basic commodity under the provisions of the old agricultural adjustment act.

PLEA MADE TO RETAIN TAXATION ON PROFITS

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—Roswell Magill, undersecretary of the treasury, appealed to the senate finance committee today to retain the tax on profits.

He told the committee, in which a strong movement for repeal of the tax has been evident.

The tax revision bill passed by the house, Magill said, approximately 88 percent of the 200,000 corporations which paid taxes in 1935 would be exempt from the undistributed profits tax.

The house bill also had attempted to prevent hardships upon corporations both by specified exemptions and by lower rates.

The undersecretary urged re-statement in the bill of the special undistributed profits tax on closely-held corporations which was drafted by the house ways and means committee.

REORGANIZATION BILL FOES CHANGE TACTICS

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—Senate opponents of the government reorganization bill changed their tactics today, endeavoring to ward off exemptions rather than modification of the entire program.

They urged adoption of an amendment by Senator Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, which would prevent presidential transfer of the forest service from the agriculture to the interior department.

Senator Clark, Democrat, Mo., prepared a score of amendments exemplifying other bureaus.

southern Shansi below Taiyuan resulted in 1,700 Japanese dead, while the Chinese lost but 200, Yu said.

SHANGHAI, March 22 (AP)—Fighting raged today across a highly Grand canal, as Chinese and Japanese, their lines but 50 yards apart in some places, battled for possession of Shun, vital junction point of the Lungai and Tientsin-Pukow railways.

Gunfire was audible in Suchow, 22 miles from the battlefield as Japanese ranged their heavy artillery along the north shore of the canal and opened bombardment of the Chinese lines.

However, Japanese were in a position for an eastward flanking movement toward Taierschwang.

At Suchow they would cut the east-west Lungai line, connecting their north and central China conquests and move into position for an easy advance by railway to Hankow, temporary central Chinese central government capital.

CHAMBERLAIN TRYING TO PLEASE EVERYBODY

LONDON, March 22 (AP)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and his cabinet worked today on a "stabilization declaration" to keep political peace at home and pointed toward restoration of Britain's historic balance of power in European affairs.

Cabinet sessions today and tomorrow were expected to produce a unanimous expression of foreign policy to be presented by Chamberlain to the House of Commons on Thursday.

Observers said, Chamberlain likely would proclaim support of League of Nations principles and maintenance of a traditional friendship with France.

There was a feeling among political commentators that Chamberlain was seeking to reassure Germany, Czechoslovakia (with its fear of German Nazi incursion), and France (ally of the Czechs) all at the same time, with the same policy and with offense to none.

TODAY'S SERMONETTE

Man's heart must be right before he can worship God, and the place or time of worship is unrestricted. Worship, to be real, must be from the desire of the heart, for only when this is true is worship acceptable. God is a spirit and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in Truth. —Chivers.

Meddlers, reformers and dreamers who believe that the remedy for unemployment is more government ownership and control as to business and that the cause of the depression is the large profits of business, should change their beliefs—if they were at all honest or consistent in their contentions—when they realize that the average annual profit for all manufacturing corporations for the ten years, 1926 to 1935, inclusive, averaged 2.80 per cent a year.

After putting the cigars into circulation, Mr. Mann was back in the office a little later wondering what the terrible aroma was that barged into his nostrils in the editorial department. And they had to break the news to him that it was caused by his own cigars.

The Capitol Jigsaw

AUSTIN, 22 (AP)—A move to change the name of the department of public safety to the "Texas State Police" is favored by W. H. Richardson, Jr., of Austin, chairman of the public safety commission and Col. H. H. Carmichael, department director. The Alternation may be recommended to the regular session of the legislature which convenes in January as only the legislature could authorize it.

NOTICE GIVEN SURVEYS MADE BY STUDENTS

DALLAS, March 22 (AP)—Forsaking theories of the classroom for the realities of life, college students of the southwest have become a practical force in affairs of government.

Students in sociology at Southern Methodist University made two surveys this year that attracted the attention of the city and county officials. The first was a study of the urban beer tavern, which revealed that 70 per cent of the places were "fronts" for other activities of doubtful legal, or moral, purpose, and the second a survey of ownership of houses in Little Mexico, Dallas' largest Mexican colony. The latter became of importance when city officials undertook a campaign to improve sanitary and living conditions in the section.

Not to be outdone by S. M. U. students, University of Texas students gathered evidence and signed complaints against establishments operating marble and slot machines in the university neighborhood. Last fall the Daily Texan led a campaign that resulted in a cleanup of eating places in Austin.

To the students of the University of Tulsa (Okla.), however, belongs the credit for being among the first to experiment in practical politics.

One day, Prof. Oscar Winslow Hoop, who retired from the United States army after 30 years service with the title of lieutenant-colonel, was lecturing to a class in political science.

"As the grand jury was in session," he said, "the stretch of local politics gave a splendid opportunity to inveigh against the indifference of the ordinary citizen to the quality of candidates and their conduct in office."

"What have you done about it?" inquired one student.

Newspapers the next day announced that a professor of history at Tulsa university had filed for the office of police and fire commissioner. With his students conducting a systematic, intensive campaign, Prof. Hoop easily was elected.

Texas Christian university students also get a glimpse into the practical workings of politics as Prof. W. J. Hammons of T. C. U. is candidate for mayor of Fort Worth.

Co-ed Taking a Syphilis Test

The nation-wide campaign to obtain voluntary blood tests for venereal diseases is bearing fruit at the University of Kansas, where a co-ed is pictured, above, being tested for syphilis. University officials expect more than 1000 students to take voluntary tests during the school year as a result of the campaign conducted by the Daily Kansan, student newspaper.

PACIFISTS IN SENATE JUMP ON NAVAL BILL

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—The administration's naval expansion bill, outspoken critics indicated today, will become a vehicle for far-reaching debate on foreign policy, neutrality and national defense.

Senate opponents of the bill, which the house passed yesterday 282 to 100, are led by Senators Borah, Republican, Idaho, and LaFollette, Progressive, Wis. They were expected to demand on their strategy soon after disposal of the government reorganization bill.

LaFollette, calling the projected $1,100,000,000 expenditure for new ships "preposterous," criticized particularly the proposal of naval experts to develop fleets capable of defending the United States on both coasts at the same time.

"We seem suddenly to have discovered the Atlantic ocean," he commented "I always thought it was an asset from a defense standpoint, but now it seems that it is a liability—which is silly."

Senator Nye, Republican, N. D., said the "big navy" bill was warlike and would call for "the most insane program that could be pursued."

Chairman Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, of the senate foreign relations committee said, however, there was no doubt that the bill would pass in virtually the same form as it was approved by the house. He added:

"The United States hasn't any partners among the nations, doesn't want any partners. Because of that, we must be prepared to make other nations afraid to attack us. It's the cheapest kind of peace insurance."

Senator Norris, Independent, Neb., told reporters he had "modified" his previous opposition to increasing naval armaments because of unsettled world conditions, but expressed belief the pending bill goes "too far."

As approved by the house, the measure carried no funds for construction, but President Roosevelt has recommended that work be started on two of the three battleships it would authorize and on two of the nine cruisers.

Naval officials estimated it would require from four to six years to carry out the program, provided congress makes the money available.

In addition to the battleships and cruisers, the bill would authorize 950 airplanes, 20 aircraft carriers, 23 destroyers, nine submarines, five destroyer tenders, three submarine tenders, 11 seaplane tenders and three repair ships.

Furs worth $2,285,700, were shipped from Alaska in 1937, an increase of $368,000 compared with 1936.

They will be subject to American immigration laws, Focke said.

FSA SUPERVISOR GIVES ADVICE TO FARMERS OF GRAY COUNTY

Every business man realizes the importance of considering the future needs of his business and how these may be met, and the farm home is no exception to this rule, according to Miss Vera Martin, home management supervisor for the Farm Security Administration in Gray County.

At this time of the year Miss Martin and George C. Jones, rural rehabilitation supervisor for this agency, are busily engaged in helping farm families plan their needs and devising ways to meet them.

Each farm family cooperating with the FSA is assisted in determining its needs for the next year, which includes the needs for crops, food for the family, clothing, medical attention, schooling, recreation and similar requirements, not forgetting the amount of money necessary from month to month. After the needs are estimated a budget is outlined and the family is encouraged to live within that budget which is based on thrift.

Farmers are taught the value of balanced rations for their livestock. They are encouraged to improve the care and breeding of livestock to insure maximum production. They are advised to plant their field crops in accordance with approved practices for the locality in which they live, not forgetting the importance of soil conservation methods.

Another important phase of the FSA's planning program is the storage of surplus feeds in production years for use in years when production is below normal. It is here that trench silos prove their usefulness.

Home management supervisor work with the farm wives in home improvement, family health, production of poultry flocks and gardens to meet needs of the family's balanced diet and also add to the family's annual income through food preservation and sales of surplus commodities.

In setting up a farm and home plan the rehabilitation supervisor and the home management supervisor for the Department of Agriculture agency know that in order to develop properly balanced plans the family must fully recognize the need for keeping expenditures well within their income. This is why the budgets are so necessary. Quite often debt adjustments are necessary, and this phase of the program is given careful attention by voluntary county committees working with this federal agency.

The Farm Security Administration makes loans to needy and worthy farm families in order to help them get started on a balanced, live-at-home program. Full details of this rural rehabilitation plan can be obtained from either Mr. Jones or Miss Martin who maintain offices in McLean, each Thursday of the week.

WTSC Has Largest Madrigal Library

CANYON, March 22—By reason of the recent death in Chicago of D. A. Clippinger, foremost American authority on Madrigal music, attention has been directed to the fact that West Texas State College—through the generosity of the late famous master of singing—has the largest madrigal library in the United States.

Mr. Clippinger gave the College the 40,000-piece library of his Chicago Madrigal Club in 1931 when he relinquished direction of the group he had guided 31 years. He came to Canyon on May 17, 1932 and directed the College Madrigal Club in a special program. While here—and on other occasions also—he stated that his former pupil, Prof. Wallace E. Clark of West Texas State, had become second to none in America with respect to knowledge, appreciation, and production of madrigal music.

26 SAILORS JAILED IN GALVESTON SIT-DOWN

GALVESTON, March 22 (AP)—The Norwegian freighter Binna was en route today to Japan with a cargo of scrap iron while 26 members of its original crew, arrested last week after they tied up the ship with a sit-down strike, were still held in Galveston county jail.

The ship sailed last yesterday with a crew of 25 Norwegians recruited here and at New Orleans, after bonds of $52,000 had been posted in federal court at Houston where 16 of the 26 had filed suits for damages and wages.

J. W. Focke, consul for Norway in Texas, said the 26, detained under a provisional treaty between Norway and the United States, would be held for 60 days pending a decision whether they would be returned to their homeland for trial.

If the men are not returned they will be subject to American immigration laws, Focke said.

"You're known as a great Camel smoker, Mr. Shaw. Are they really so different from other cigarettes?"

"Yes, Ben, I think that Camels are a lot different. That's why they're the racing drivers' favorite cigarette. You see, a cigarette has to have something out of the ordinary to score such a hit with fellows like us. As I always say, there are so many things that mean a great deal in smoking. One big angle that carries weight with me is that Camels agree with me! I've smoked a good many thousands of Camels in the past 10 years, so I know that from experience."

PLAINVIEW'S SHOW TO LAST APRIL 19-23

PLAINVIEW, March 22—Offering the usual free gate, outstanding midway attractions, rodeo, horse show and prospects of appearance of some of the finest cattle in the Panhandle, the eleventh annual Panhandle Plains Dairy Show is rapidly being shaped for readiness on April 19 to 23 inclusive.

Taking on the air of a spring festival the five-day exposition will be balanced by a varied entertainment program that will include a pageant on Tuesday night when the queen of the dairy show will be selected from young ladies representing plains and West Texas towns, dances, the Silver State Shows on the midway and other attractions.

Pete Smith, show manager, has predicted this year will bring one of the outstanding expositions in the history of the association.

C. E. Martin, hale county agent, general superintendent, said all department superintendents had accepted their posts and were working toward a record breaking exposition.

Miss Chloe Hufferaker, Hale county home demonstration agent, and superintendent of the home products department, is making preparations for an educational program and exhibition of dairy foods manufacturing that will represent a wide Panhandle area.

Dr. E. C. Nicholl of Plainview, superintendent of the horse show, said prospective exhibitors from Amarillo, Sudan, Plainview, Lubbock and Clovis, New Mexico had indicated they would exhibit animals.

The people of Texas unquestionably respect the high office of attorney general and railroad commissioner being used to slay any business interest and the propaganda that is being spread that the governorship is to be bought by the foreign corporations spending millions of dollars can only be quieted by the resignation of yourself and Commissioner Thompson from your respective offices or withdrawal from the governor's race.

There are about 48,000 British ex-service men between 40 and 60 who are chronically ill and compelled to apply for public assistance; and 25,000 under treatment in municipal hospitals.

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—Karl A. Crowley, solicitor general of the post office department, suggested today Ernest O. Thompson, railroad commissioner, and William McCraw, attorney general of Texas, resign their offices if they remain in the race for governor of that state.

Crowley, who said he would resign his federal position if he decided to enter the gubernatorial contest, made public telegrams addressed to Thompson and McCraw in which he said they were deceiving the support of "predatory" interests.

He said he planned to fly to Fort Worth Thursday and would announce then whether he would be a candidate.

In his telegram to Thompson, Crowley demanded he make known his stand on taxation of oil, gas and sulphur "now escaping practically tax free because of foreign corporations exploiting and controlling our state."

"Your friends say these predatory interests are going to put up $2,000,000 for you," he continued, "and have bought control of many newspapers and the services of many newspaper reporters. . . ."

"They also point out that you have 300 employees who have turned themselves into political campaign workers. . . . I think you should resign as commissioner or retire from the governor's race."

He demanded of McCraw his views on "sale of liquor by the drink, horse racing, dog racing, gambling, political fixing, racketeering by foreign corporations."

"You friends say," he wired McCraw, "that you do not intend to collect the $100,000,000 back taxes unpaid or to try the anti-trust suit filed by Governor Allred against the foreign oil companies when he was attorney general, that you never had any intention of trying to recover the millions of dollars worth of school land just recently flished from the school children of Texas and that your anti-trust suit against the cement companies was to hold them in line because some of them were known to favor your leading opponent."

"The people of Texas unquestionably respect the high office of attorney general and railroad commissioner being used to slay any business interest and the propaganda that is being spread that the governorship is to be bought by the foreign corporations spending millions of dollars can only be quieted by the resignation of yourself and Commissioner Thompson from your respective offices or withdrawal from the governor's race."

"Camels are preferred by the tobacco growers, who know leaf tobacco from the ground up"

according to the observation of tobacco planters themselves

"I'VE BEEN planting tobacco for twenty years," says Harry C. King, a successful grower. "Camel bought the choice lots of my last tobacco crop—paid more for my best leaf tobacco. So I know they use finer, more expensive tobaccos in Camel cigarettes. That's one mighty good reason why my cigarette is Camel."

THOMAS MIDDLETON and his twin brother James have been growing tobacco for 14 years. "The Camel people bought up my best tobacco last year," Tom Middleton says. "They have for 12 years. When anyone talks about finer, more expensive tobaccos, that means Camels to me. I smoke 'em—my brother smokes 'em—and so do most of us around here who grow and know tobacco."

"DOWN AT THE tobacco warehouse they told me they'd never seen finer tobacco than my last crop," says J. E. Jenkins, veteran tobacco grower. "Camel bought all the top grades. It just shows that the Camel people make sure to get the choice lots of tobacco. I prefer Camels every time. I know what those finer, more expensive tobaccos in Camel cigarettes mean to smokers."

LOVE LAUGHS AT THE DOCTOR

BY ELINORE COWAN STONE Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.

Yesterday, Constance accepted the invitation to ride home with Doctor Rogers and returning to her work next morning feels vaguely uneasy about affairs at the store.

CHAPTER XI

ELSA O'DARE was sitting at her desk when Constance went in. "You wanted me, Miss O'Dare?" Constance asked uneasily without exactly knowing why.

Elsa O'Dare laid down the papers she was sorting, folded slim, perfectly groomed hands on the desk top, and looked up thoughtfully.

"I'm given to understand," she said, "that you allowed a gentleman who came here with one of our customers to drive you home last night."

"Why, yes," Constance said, wondering. "Yes, I did. His mother was kind enough to suggest it."

"I'm not questioning the personal propriety for your doing so. There was in Elsa O'Dare's faint smile something puzzling that Constance was to remember later.

"But there happens to be a rule in the store that none of our employees shall accept attentions from the male relatives or—ah, appendages—of our customers. It is, I believe, much resented—but there it is."

"I don't resent it," Constance said, flushing. "I simply didn't know anything about it."

She thought, why didn't Miss Letts warn me?

"Well—" Elsa O'Dare raised her shoulders in a little shrug. "You know now. . . . You have been duly admonished. Don't do it again. That is all, I think."

PAULINE was loitering in the corridor when Constance went out. She shot a furtive, probing look from under her lashes at Constance's untroubled face, and as if dissatisfied with what she saw there, bit her lip and turned away.

But Constance was not so untroubled as she seemed. She was beginning to realize that at least two of the women here—Pauline and her ally, Miss Letts—disliked her enough to want to see her humiliated. And Constance had never before known an open enemy.

There was another letter from Derek for her when she went home that night.

"Miss Thorvald and I went for a long horseback ride yesterday," Derek wrote. "Perhaps I should tell you that the Baron has placed a beautiful mount at my disposal. Miss Thorvald is magnificent on horseback—much as poets and artists like to think Joan of Arc must have been. She needs only a battle standard to make a really heroic figure."

"I think you would like her tremendously. To appreciate the unusual quality of her charm, one must see her in her natural environment, the gorgeous golden California out-of-doors—or, perhaps, at the piano. . . . Have I told you that she has a glorious contralto voice? She is making a collection of strange, barbaric songs that I have never heard before—wild plaintive airs with haunting phrases and unusual, Oriental-sounding intervals. When she sings them, they seem the echo of loves and fears and triumphs and deaths from some far-remote, unknown land."

"In a day or so I hope I shall feel well enough acquainted with her to tell her of our engagement. I shall have to be careful. She is so kind that it would make her frightfully uncomfortable to realize that a crimp she put into our plans."

It would, Constance had to admit to herself. Hildegard Thorvald was kind. It had occurred to her that Derek, Constance thought, that I'm being made a little uncomfortable, too.

"Mr. Thorvald is so busy, and young George is away so much," Derek wrote on, "that she and I are often alone in the evenings. She enjoys being read to, and I have been reading to her lately some of the books of travel and exploration of which she buys so many. For some strange reason she seems particularly interested in Tibet. She has a huge illuminated globe on which she follows the text as I read."

CONSTANCE was finding her own evenings unendurably lonely. Since the beginnings of Derek's swift courtship until he went away there had hardly been an evening that she had not spent with him, dancing at play or a concert, or quite as often sitting in her cozy chintz-hung apartment.

It was almost impossible to touch an article that had not some poignant association with him: the armchair in which he used to lounge, his fingers clasped behind his handsome blond head, while she sat on a footstool, her head against his knee, and they talked and talked and talked. . . . The gateleg table at the window, where they had eaten so many gay, informal little suppers by candle light. . . . The piano, where he sometimes sat for hours—for Derek loved music, and played remarkably well.

It was three days before another letter came. Derek had a great deal to say about the convenience of the studio Mr. Thorvald had fitted for him—about the bridal beauty of the fruit trees—about his moonlight horseback rides. . . . At long last, Constance found the paragraph for which she had been waiting:

"Something came up here after I wrote you last that has made it impossible to bother Miss Thorvald with my own affairs for the immediate present."

"It seems that there is some trouble about her brother, to whom she is devoted. I do not clearly understand the circumstances; but I gather that the young cub has got himself mixed up with some woman, and that his father is furious. The poor girl is in a terrible spot between the two. I am sure you will agree with me that it is out of the question to intrude our plans on her just yet."

If Constance felt that some of this chivalrous tenderness might have been devoted to her own need, she suppressed the thought. Besides, it was not chivalry she wanted from Derek. If he did not long for her as she did for him, then she did not wish anything from him, she told herself. . . . And one could not blame Derek for that fine sensitivity that made him so sympathetic to the moods of those about him.

There was no reference to young George in the next letter, or to Derek's impending talk with Miss Thorvald—nor in the next.

CONSTANCE continued to write cheerful, chatty letters about her experiences at the store—there seemed, strangely enough, to be so little else she had to tell Derek about, since of the one thing closest to her heart she would not write. She thought some of her efforts really amusing, even though sometimes she composed them with tears in her eyes.

Derek's one reference to her work had been to say, "I am a little hurt, darling, that you did not take my suggestion that you give yourself a complete rest until we can get married."

On what? Constance thought a little grimly. . . . But of course it wasn't Derek's fault that she had thrown her money around like a prodigal fool.

In the meantime, it was rumored in the department that Louelle was better. Elsa O'Dare referred to it once.

"I hope we'll be able to keep you, too. . . . That is, if you care to stay."

Constance, ignoring the implied question, murmured her thanks. One day Constance, opening the door into the room where several of the girls were laughing and talking, found herself entering on a full stop. As she crossed the room, she was conscious of veiled glances following her.

Then Pauline, who was bending over a magazine open on a table, said smoothly, "Here's something that may interest you, Constance."

Gertrude cried, "Pauline!" sharply and someone tittered.

Knowing that she was walking into a trap, but seeing no possible retreat with dignity, Constance moved over to the table and glanced down at the open page. The magazine to which Pauline pointed was a pictorial bulletin of gossip concerning the great and near-great—the famous and the merely famous.

On the page spread before Constance was the caption: CITRUS PRINCESS AND INTERNATIONAL PRIZE WINNER.

she saw a picture of Hildegard Thorvald and Derek snuggled as they lounged under palm trees. The story beneath began, "It is rumored that a romance is ripening between the beautiful Hildegard Thorvald and the handsome young artist imported from the east to paint."

Constance did not read any further.

LIL ABNER A Gentleman of the Old School

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

THE belief that pan-beating will bring down a swarm of bees is very old, but modern authorities give it no credence. Aristotle mentions it in his writings, and the poet Virgil states it as a fact in the Fourth Georgic. The custom is practiced widely throughout the world today.

HARVESTERS AND EXES NOW IN SCHOOL WILL SCRIMMAGE THURSDAY

GIEN NICHOLS, AGE PROSPECT, IN HOSPITAL

Potential power of the 1938 Harvester football squad will be tested on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Harvester field when the Harvesters now out for spring training clash with the exes still in school. No admission will be charged and fans will be welcomed at the field.

Only Giem Nichols will be missing from the Harvester lineup. The powerful Nichols, candidate for both fullback and center, was taken to Tampa-Jarral hospital yesterday afternoon. Nichols spent last week in bed with a serious attack of influenza. Complications followed and he was taken to the hospital for observation.

Carl Brown, huge tackle, reported to practice yesterday afternoon for the first time since having his tonsils removed. He has been ordered to take things easy for a few days but will be ready to participate in the scrimmage. Brown has lost considerable weight, now being under the 200-pound mark.

Coach Oduis Mitchell and J. C. Frejman failed to name a starting lineup after a long workout yesterday afternoon. "Maybe tomorrow," was their only remark to questions popped regarding a starting eleven.

After looking the situation over, the railbirds who braved yesterday's sand storm figure that Captain J. W. Graham will be at quarterback, calling signals from right halfback. Pete Druway at the short position and Bob Karr at fullback. That will leave the other halfback open to a fight among Albert Kemp, Melvin Watkins, John Kidwell, Grover Lee Heskell, Doyle Aulis, and a few others.

The ends will be tough to pick although Bob Andis and Eugene Flemming have been looking good while being pressed by the Clemmons brothers and others. Tackles will be harder to name unless Brown is able to go. Solomon is being worked at center where he is showing great promise. That will leave Leonard Dull, Jack Hessey, Carroll Montgomery, James Carlisle, James Evans and others in the possible starting list.

New guards will be in the lineup with Mathews and Nelson graduating. Starters will be selected from Welby Parker, Bill Stiles, Truman Rumble, the Bailey brothers, Carl Ripple and others. R. G. Candler and Herbert Maynard are working for a center call.

Orphans May Attend School At Corsicana

HOUSTON, March 22 (AP)—If a proposal before the Texas grand lodge of the Odd Fellows, in convention here, to send I. O. O. F. orphans home students to the Corsicana public schools passes, Corsicana high schools may again back the illustrious Texas schoolboy athletes.

The proposal will be presented to the convention here today. Among the 70 boys in the orphan home, between 30 and 40 are of high school age and the majority of them participate in football, basketball and other athletic activities. The I. O. O. F. home is a member of the Texas Interscholastic league, ranked as a Class B school.

The home has won the Class B district and bi-district championship in the Central Texas football section five times in the past six years, and has produced several outstanding griders.

Among the star athletic products of the I. O. O. F. home are the Miller brothers, Dick and Hardy who starred with the state champion Longview high school last fall, and Jay Arnold, fullback and Emmert Husey, guard, who played at Greenville several years ago when that northern Texas school was in its football hey-day. Dick Miller, Arnold and Husey were all-state honorees.

Corsicana is a Class A high school and the addition of the talent from the orphans home would materially aid Coach Johnny Pierce's eleven. Corsicana won the state grid title in 1932, but has had lean seasons in late years.

Willard Hefschberger

Johnny Vander Meer

By HARRY GRAYSON Sports Editor, NEA Service

TAMPA, March 21—The Cincinnati Reds are running, which wouldn't be so unusual if not for the fact that they're managed by the ultra-conservative Bill McKechnie.

Wilkinsburg Will likes to play 'em close to the vest, but says that there are too many AA players on the Rhineland roster to play major league baseball as it should be played.

"This outfit has to run to get anywhere," smiles McKechnie, pointing out that it finished a smacking last—40 games behind the New York Giants—in 1937.

McKechnie was credited with having performed something in the nature of a miracle in guiding the stungless Boston Bees to fifth place last season—only one game behind the fourth-place St. Louis Cardinals.

The 39-year-old right-hander, Jim Turner and Lou Pette, established a major league precedent to enable Wilkinsburg Will to do this. Never before in all the history of the big leagues had two first-year men each accounted for 20 games.

And it is with superlative pitching that McKechnie this trip hopes to hoist the Reds from the dark and damp confines of the cellar.

Baseball clubs seldom have such a pitching nucleus and as many fine mound prospects as the Reds, and McKechnie hopes to do something with the assemblage. Along this line, he considers Willard McKee Hefschberger the most important individual on his payroll.

Will thought enough of Willard to pay the New York Yankees organization $25,000 for his contract, and to give its Newark farm First Baseman Les Scarsella for the forthcoming campaign.

Has What It Takes Schmozzie Lombardi is a splendid nutter and thrower, but a catcher has to be able to do something besides hit and throw to satisfy McKechnie, who emphatically does not like Lombardi's handling of catchers. He would like to make a deal for the large Lombardi.

The fiery Hefschberger was the niftyest of the Newark Bears, who signed the international rag by 25 games and comes to the Reds with a background of eight years of minor league stardom. He was rated the slickest backstop in the minors.

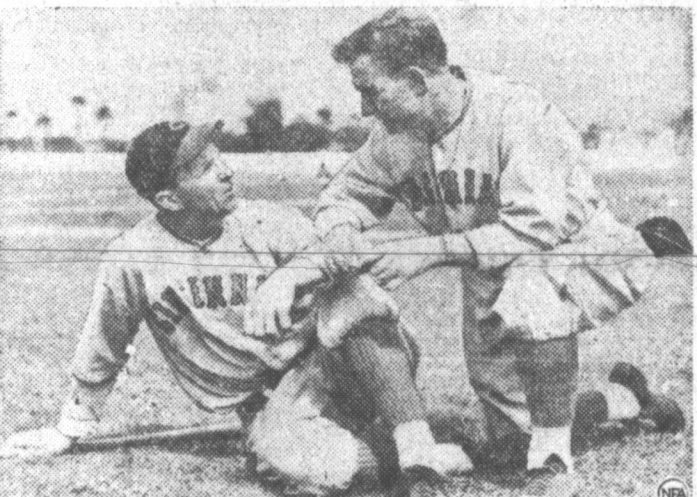

McKechnie also put the veteran Virgil Davis to work on his young pitchers. The versatile Dee Moore, with Syracuse last term, is another star.

McKechnie has an established pitching luminary in Paul Derringer. Long Lefty Lee Grissom struck the National League's new strike-out king. Gene Scott had an earned run average of 2.98. Peaches Davis' sinker keeps the ball on the ground. Al Hollingsworth has exceptionally fine control for a left-hander.

Whitney Moore, back from Syracuse, has everything a young right-hander needs, and like John Vander Meer, a left-hander recalled from the same club, has been a strike-out specialist in the minors.

Dutch Gehrman, a big lumberjag from Oregon, was voted the top right-hander in the Piedmont League last year, his first in the professional game. Joe Vitelli bagged 17 games for Albany. Ted Kleinhans, the left-handed workhorse, is up again—this time from Kansas City, and Joe Cascarella completes the present staff.

McKechnie Should Do Frank McCormick, Alex Kampouris, Billy Myers, and Lew Riggs will form the Red infield at the outset. McCormick, a flossy-fielding, right-hand throwing and hitting first baseman, packs power, loves to play and hit .322 for Syracuse. Euck Jordan is here to back him up, and Linnus Frey is the extra infielder.

Ival Goodman, right now on the sidelines with an abscessed tooth, and Dusty Cooke, back from Minneapolis where he hit .345 will play plenty of outfield, but McKechnie may start with Harry Craft in center and Lee Gamble in left.

Gamble and Craft, Mississippi State football captain of 1934, are so fast a pair of flycatchers as you would care to see. Gamble made nine hits in 13 swings that were good for 15 bases in his first three spring games. He looks like a sweet spring hitter, and McKechnie proposes to let him get 'em while the getting's good. His only handicap appears to be a weak arm.

Craft and Gamble exchanged jobs last June. Craft going from Waterloo to Syracuse, Craft hit .377 for Waterloo, and wasn't slowed down to any noticeable extent with the Chiefs or later with the Reds. Gamble wound up with a Western League mark of .347.

Handy to Have Around McKechnie has Georgg (Kiddo) Davis, the former Giant who still is a corking defensive outfielder, as a safety valve. The club doesn't want Chick Hafey.

Anthony Bongiovanni, up from the Portland Coastiers, has a long way to go. That's a break for National League linotype men, but Bill McKechnie wouldn't spare them if he had any idea that Bongiovanni could swat the ball against the boards.

As things are, Wilkinsburg Will is trying to figure out how some of his noble athletes can steal first base.

PHOENIX FLASH DEFEATS WILD BILL VENABLE

Local wrestling fans who failed to see the card at the Pampa Athletic arena last night missed the best series of matches in recent years. Every battle was a thriller from whistle to whistle with Andy Tremaine of Phoenix, Ariz., downing Wild Bill Venable in the main event and the other two going to draws with the bell saving Dick Sampson from George Hartly in the semi-final.

The large crowd sat forward when Slim Hall and Jack Mandell went into action. It was a case of two elongated grapplers together with Mandell finding out that he isn't tall after all. Fall stepped over and around the big fellow and once he came out of a tough arm hold with Mandell and Referee Big Train Clements both in a head scissor.

"Every time I tried to do something I'd find a foot or a leg in the way," remarked Mandell after the battle.

George Hartay and Dick Sampson gave one of the exhibition fans dream about. For 30 minutes the two went at top speed with first one and then the other in trouble. At 29 1/2 minutes Hartay started using a new type of headlock-slam, gotten by backing Sampson into the ropes, locking his hands around his head and then jumping into his mid-section for leverage to throw Sampson high and far. Three of the heaves were followed by a smother and, the referee had counted two when the final gong sounded.

Tremaine Comes Through The pair used every known hold in the wrestling business. Hartay's system is to break in a hurry in any legal way possible. Sampson waits until he gets an opportunity to come up with a hold and the system cost him plenty of misery last night. At times the pair went around the ring like a whirlwind, each trying for a hold.

Likable Andy Tremaine turned on the speed in taking two out of three falls from Wild Bill. Venable opened wrestling but couldn't resist a finger and Tremaine's long locks. Tremaine's speed enabled him to keep away from Venable most of the time while getting behind the woodchopper for a few holds. Finally Venable got mad, planted a couple to Tremaine's jaw, followed up with a couple of slams and a Japanese crab to win in 24 minutes.

The Arizona flash provided a surprise in the second fall which he won in 18 seconds. Venable opened with a headlock but Tremaine came up with three well planted drop kicks and a jackknife which pinned Venable's shoulders to the mat.

Action was faster and more rugged in the final stanza with both maulers out to win. Venable used leg holds to punish Tremaine who got a little tough when Venable started using his fist and crawling through the ropes.

Tremaine showed nice wrestling in breaking from an inside toe hold and coming out with a rolling Boston leg split with which he pinned Venable in 19 minutes.

Western Boxers Beat Easterners

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—Chicago's Golden Gloves turned homeward today with another victory added to the Windy City's skin in the annual inter-city ring competition.

The team of champions, nominally from Chicago but really the product of a half a dozen states, firmed the New York team, drawn from the East, at Madison Square Garden last night, nine matches to seven, the first time in the history of the competition that a visiting team won.

Lonhorns Lose To Oklahomans

AUSTIN, March 22 (AP)—Texas University, beaten 8 to 7 at baseball here yesterday by the University of Oklahoma, had a chance to balance accounts today in the second of a two game series.

Oklahoma staved off a ninth inning rally which netted the Lonhorns two runs by winning, but the Texans had a total of 14 hits to the Sooners' 10.

JIMMY DYKES NOT WORRIED BY EARLY SPRING SETBACK

PASADENA, Calif., March 22 (AP)—

The Chicago White Sox, who serve those bitter pills the Cubs fall to swallow before and after each regular meal of the baseball season, are off to a late start this year, but promise to repeat the dose as soon as they find their stride.

More important, the Sox, aided by the prospects of heavier hitting, hope to administer generously these pills of defeat to members of their own circuit, which is the American League.

Manager James Joseph "Jimmie" Dykes has spared not a sunny day whipping the Sox into shape, and issued his annual ultimatum that the pale hose "will be in there fighting in the first division this year."

To date, the Sox have dropped exhibition games to their rivals from Chicago, the Cubs, as well as the Pittsburgh and Los Angeles, but Dykes is not worried about these early spring setbacks.

Dykes, with the trading of Zeke Bonura for Joe Kuhel, stands to emerge as a goat or a hero during the coming campaign. If the ex-Washington first baseman fields as well as Jimmie expects, and hits as well in the pinches as Jimmie predicts, the loss of Big Bonura may not be felt as much as some of Dykes' critics forecast.

Dykes, from all indications, plans to stand pat on virtually the same pitching staff, which was rated the second best in the league last year. The hurriers are rounding into shape and even long John Whitehead, the non-talkative one, is down to a mere 205 or so.

Included among the new faces the Sox will present in other departments are Mervin Owen and Gerald Walker, late of the Detroit Tigers. Owen has fielded up to expectations, led the league at third base with a .970 average last year, and Dykes hopes he will boost his batting above the .388 mark of 1937.

Walker hit .335 last year and looked so well during the early days of spring training that Rip Radcliff cut short his holdout crusade and hurried into camp, for fear he might not find a berth open in the outfield.

Dolf Camilli Signs Up With Brooklyn

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 22 (AP)—

Dolf Camilli, slugging first baseman of the Brooklyn Dodgers, signed his 1938 contract today. Terms were not announced but it is believed Camilli will draw at least $14,000.

Camilli, a persistent hold-out with the Phillies, recently was purchased by the Dodgers for a reported $65,000. He received $11,500 from the Phillies last season.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ.

PINEHURST, N. C., March 22 (AP)—Down here in God's country (to this author, anyway) the sun shines brightly as they get ready for another north and south open golf tournament. . . . One of the tightest fields on record is turning up for the classic which opens tomorrow.

Dick Metz is the favorite. . . . From here the boys will move over to Greensboro for a three-day tourney with $5,000 as prize money. . . . It will be played over two courses—exclusively Sedefield and the public course, Starmont.

Dope from the coast is Joe DiMaggio can hardly wait to get to St. Pete. . . . And at $25,000 if that's any news to Col. Ruppert. . . . Nick Altrock, clown of the Washington Senators, is in his 40th major league training camp and still is the pet of Dixie. . . . No matter what you think of him, Max Baer is in a position to do a little dactylating in heavyweight circles. . . . And don't you think he won't.

Judge Landis will have plenty to say soon. . . . Nice of the boys to honor Bill McKechnie, manager of the Cincinnati Reds and in this book one of the three smartest pilots in the two big leagues. . . . There is absolutely no truth in the rumor (going the rounds in the South) that Tom Yawkey is considering ditching Eddie Collins. . . . Eddie is tops with the millionaire Red Sox owner. . . . When Bill Terry wired Clyde Clusterman he might wind up in Jersey City, Clavdel began looking up trains for Baton Rouge. . . . You have to bear down on some of these guys.

Wonder what Young Corbett thinks of Fred Apostol's claim that he should be dubbed No. 1 man of the middleweights. . . . Cleveland correspondents report Bob Feller is a lot smarter than last year.

ALLISON GIRLS NOSED OUT BY TULSA STENOS

WICHITA, Kas., March 22 (AP)—With six teams, including the champion Little Rock, Ark. Flyers, already in the second round, 18 teams took to the courts today to finish up first round games in the women's national A. A. U. basketball tournament.

The three-champion Tulsa Stenos were played to a standstill last night by Allison, Texas, high school, the Oklahomans finally pulling through with a 23 to 19 victory.

Today's schedule includes: 4:40 p. m.—Salt Lake City vs. Mesquite, Texas. 6 p. m.—Modesto, Calif., vs. Wolfe City, Texas. 11 p. m.—Galveston, Texas, vs. Garden City, Kas.

Little Rock won by a really one-sided score, defeating Mulvane, Kas., 33 to 8. Wichita defeated Ada, Okla., 24 to 15. Des Moines won over Miller Grove, Texas, 23 to 12. Tampa downed Kansas City, 32 to 24, and Tulepe defeated Colorado Springs, 35 to 19. The Lambuth quintet of Jackson, Tenn., drew a first round bye.

Billiards Finals Set For Tonight

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—Jimmy Caras, young Wilmington, Del., expert, who won the world pocket billiards championship in 1935, aims for the title again tonight when he meets Willie Mosconi of Philadelphia in the final match of a round robin playoff series.

Three players, Caras, Mosconi and Andrew Ponzani of Philadelphia wound up in a tie at the end of the regular title tournament Saturday. Caras defeated Ponzani, 125 to 24. Sunday night and Ponzani came back to rout his fellow Philadelphian 125 to 3 last night.
