Bridge-Breakfast In Spring Motif Given for Club

Of interest in the social circles was the breakfast given at the Schneider hotel Wednesday morning by Mrs. A. B. Goldston for the members and guests of the Queen of Clubs.

An arrangement of bright red tulips formed the centerpiece at the long breakfast table. Matching place cards and tables further ornamented the table.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. W. V. Jarratt who made high score for Mr. H. C. Wilson for second high, and to Mrs. Crawford Atkinson, cut.

Members present were Misses: I. B. Hughey, Crawford Atkinson, Carl Boston, Howard Buckingham, Joe Burrows, Raymond Harnah, W. V. Jarratt, H. D. Keys, B. O. Lilly, R. S. Lawrence, L. N. McCullough, Carl M. Smith, H. C. Wilson, and F. A. Howard.

Two breakfast parties were Mrs. E. H. Turner and her sister Mrs. Dorothy E. Schirmer of Galveston.

Kingsmill Club Has Discussion on Family Magazines

"Magazines for the Family" was studied by the Kingsmill Home Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. N. B. Cude this week.

The magazines were brought to the club for study by Mrs. O. G. Smith. Many magazines are classified for ages of the family and the study of the magazines should be made when there are young and aged or mainly the children of the children of the teen age in the family, it was pointed out. If the parents will read books or magazines with the younger set and decide the ones more suitable for the school age, it will benefit them in many ways.

Mrs. C. W. Moot led a round table discussion on magazines for the family.

A pie supper will be given in Kingsmill this evening by the members of this home demonstration club.

Picnic Entertains Intermediates of McCullough-Harrah

Intermediate classes of the McCullough-Harrah Methodist club were entertained at a picnic given near Skellytown this week.

Games of baseball and horseshoes were played by the group.

Those sponsoring the event were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cress, A. N. Rogers, Jerry Nelson, Chester Harris, Henry English and Mrs. E. Stokes.

Party food for the members should be simple and have a "party" air.

Super during the regular hour of the meal. Place crushed cucumber in mashed potato or hold in lettuce. Add a helping of buttered green beans. Put around the sandwiches on the edge of the plates.

FLAPPER FANNY By Sylvia

"It'll make millions! No more fightin' over who carries the umbrella! Just put another handle on it an' you got dual control."

Mrs. Brown Will Head Local Club

Officers for the new year were named at the meeting of the Harvester Mother's club yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. W. Graham.

Mrs. J. W. Brown was re-elected president of the organization and Mrs. Graham was selected vice-president while Mrs. M. W. Watkins was elected secretary-treasurer.

The club voted to have an ice cream supper in the red school building on Friday, April 29, to benefit the reserve fund for next fall. Plans were also discussed for making a football quilt to be sold to raise money for the same fund.

Attending the meeting were Misses Roy Jones, E. E. Reynolds, S. A. Hays, 2 Mrs. D. J. W. Brown, F. W. W. Atkinson and M. V. Watkins.

P-T-A Will Install Officers Monday

MAGGIE CITY, April 22—New officers of the P-T-A Teacher association will be installed at a social to be held Monday night, conducted by Mrs. C. E. Thompson, retiring president. The meeting will be the regular monthly social.

Mrs. A. B. Pinnell is the new president, Mrs. J. M. Bruton, vice president, Mrs. Boyd Beck, secretary.

This week the P-T-A completed its annual report to the district association to students.

Local Auxiliary To Attend District Meeting at Canyon

Plans were made to attend the district meeting of the women's auxiliaries in Canyon on Wednesday, April 27, by the members of the local Episcopal auxiliary who met at the parish house Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Perry as hostess.

The members will meet and go in a group to the conference where a box is to be presented to the Little House of Fellowship at Canyon by the Pampans.

Mrs. Roy Wallrabenstein who had charge of the program, spoke on "Peace."

Tea was served by the hostess to Misses C. P. Buckler, R. C. Sowder, Morris Levine, Roy Wallrabenstein, S. G. Surratt, W. S. Kiser, Leo Dodd, S. L. Lewis, and the Rev. Robert J. Snell.

of beauty baths, which important salons feature right now.

Your Face Gets a Mask

Nothing irons out weary lines so quickly or makes one feel lovelier in a hurry as a good facial. Watch the skilled operator's hands as she applies a cleanser, massages tissue cream into your face, neck and shoulders, spreads a mask from base of your throat to hairline. Notice that she then covers your eyes with cotton pads that have been dipped in eye lotion and throws a warm blanket over you before she tiptoes away and stays away until the mask has dried and you have had a short nap. Remember all these details when you are giving yourself a home facial.

After the mask comes more tissue cream (if your skin is very dry, make a double mental note on this) and after it has been wiped away, application of skin tonic—ice cold, of course. The operator probably will drop a small piece of ice in the bowl of tonic, then wrap it in clean cotton and rub it lightly over your skin. Note that she never puts ice directly on your face.

Now, rested and glowing, you are led to the shampoo bowl where your soiled hair is scrubbed and rinsed, scrubbed two more times and rinsed for several minutes or until it is free from every trace of soap. Prig to this you had a haircut—a fine one which will make the job of keeping your coiffure neat and smart, infinitely easier.

Immediately after, a coiffure expert dresses your hair, giving you what is known in the best shops as a foundation set. This means that you end up with waves and curls which can be arranged several ways. While he's working, you ask questions about the condition of your hair and what can be done at home to correct dandruff, excessive oiliness or dryness. You decide to follow his suggestions carefully for a few months at least.

A makeup job is your next treat. You look carefully at the shades of rouge, lipstick and powder the operator uses on your face. You ask her the trade names of each, and if you are very pleased with the results of her work, you write down the names of the colors which are so flattering and resolve to buy them for home use. When you are ready to leave, she looks like a new person. Furthermore, you feel that you have received more than your money's worth—in new beauty ideas as well as in beneficial treatments.

Glorifying Yourself By ALICIA HART.

One of the most efficacious—certainly one of the pleasantest—ways to get rid of that "I'm tired and I look dreadful" feeling is to go to a de luxe beauty salon and let experienced operators beautifully trim and dress your hair. This isn't exactly an inexpensive procedure, but in addition to making you look and feel years younger, it will give you interest in home routines and give you new ideas on how to do them more satisfactorily.

If you can afford "the works," begin with a body treatment, including a few exercises to relax taut nerves, several reducing routines designed to correct whatever figure defects you have. Under the watchful eye of an exercise teacher you'll learn how to do more expertly the routines you already know and pick up some new ones. Afterward, you can have a professional massage, followed by any one of a number

Club Has Dessert-Bridge Thursday

Entertaining members and guests of a newly organized bridge club, Mrs. L. C. McClellan was hostess at a dessert-bridge given yesterday afternoon in her home.

Red tulips set the color note in the reception room where punch, ice cream, and cake were served to the groups at individual tables.

The award for high score in the bridge games was presented to Mrs. J. T. Roberts, to Mrs. Jim White for second high, and Mrs. Wiley Pearce received the traveling prize.

Club members attending were: Misses Jim White, W. A. Robinson, R. A. Thompson, J. P. Wehrung, Wiley Pearce, H. A. Gilliland, Alfred Gilliland, and Lloyd Bennett.

Guests for the afternoon were Misses J. T. Roberts, Sherman White, Tex De Weese, and Harry Connor of Dalhart.

The Social CALENDAR

FRIDAY
Kingsmill Home Demonstration club will have a pie supper at 8 o'clock in Kingsmill. All of the club members are asked to take two pies and be present at 7:30 o'clock.

Junior department of the First Christian church will have a "hot dog" supper in the church basement at 7 o'clock.

SATURDAY
Trebble Cief club will have a regular practice at 2:30 o'clock in the city club rooms.

Women of Circle Six of WMS Meet In Home of Member

Mrs. C. A. Smith was hostess to the members of circle six of the Women's Missionary society of the First Methodist church who met in regular session at her home this week.

Following the opening song and the devotional by Mrs. Bob Ewing, a program from "Out of Aldersgate" was presented by Mrs. Marvin Boring and Mrs. Herman Van Sickle.

Refreshments were served to Misses Marvin Boring, Buckwalter, W. G. Crowson, Bob Ewing, Russell Kennedy, Farris Oden, William Tinsley, Herman Van Sickle, Eril Ward, Campbell, White, Ralph Jones, and the guest, Mrs. Tom Rush.

The circle will meet in the general business session on Monday afternoon, April 25, at the church. The regular circle meeting is to be on May 4 with Mrs. L. N. Aatchinson, 922 East Francis street.

Kisses and tortes require long slow baking. Individual kisses ordinarily require about 30 minutes and large tortes an hour.

To make a "rose jar" collect petals from several types of roses. (Select those with a heavy perfume.) Sprinkle the leaves over a flat surface in the sun and leave them until they have dried very crisp. Then put them in a jar and put on a cover. The fragrance will keep for several months.

A little vinegar or lemon juice will add to the piquancy of greens. It should not be cooked into the greens, but sprinkled over them just before they are served.

Use equal parts of lime or lemon juice in place of the vinegar called for in French dressing recipes.

Sensational USED CAR UNLOADING SALE

You know what happens when business gets caught with a BIG INVENTORY.

It's Better to cut prices and unload; to carry over CASH, not stock.

Local used car dealers have been caught with an overabundance of used cars due to heavy trade-ins on the NEW '38's, a mild winter, and the curtailed number of purchasers because of unemployment, etc.

SO THE PUBLIC PROFITS

Many guaranteed, rebuilt used cars are being thrown on the market today in a city-wide "clean-up" sale. Dealers have cut the prices to a point where you save by spending. It's a serious business with them, as it costs money to carry cars until the BIG spring demand starts.

Probably never again will you be able to buy a car so cheap.

Probably never again will you get as good a selection. That's a FACT, and here is an opportunity to buy a SAFE car. It's Good insurance.

Many cars are late '37's—all have been rebuilt—many dealers will trade.

TODAY'S SERMONETTE

Are you refusing to carry Christ's message to some man because you regard him common, unclean, vulgar, beneath your notice? If so, get the message Peter received in a vision. "What God hath cleansed call not that common." The love of God makes all men equal.—Chivers.

THE NEW DEAL

The nice thing about history is that so much of it has gone over the dam in the past few thousand years that man can find a historical basis for almost any argument he wants to make, if he only looks in the right place.

Of course, his opponent may have just as many bases for his own contentions, but the outcome of these things depends on one man boning up on a period the other man doesn't know anything about, or else boning up just a little more on the same period.

All this is inspired by reports of some scholarly papers read at the Chicago meeting of the American Oriental Society, China, it turns out, had itself a New Deal some 2,000 years ago. What happened to China's New Deal should make dandy ammunition for the present anti-New Dealers, but really, there's ammunition enough to go around for everybody.

A gent named Mang Wang announced his imperialism and proceeded to introduce a program of social experimentation that included, among other things, government regulation of basic industries, government control of natural resources, price-control over crops, and easy-term loans to businesses he wished to encourage. Work relief had already been tried and abandoned because the WPA boys of the time fooled around too much. Anyway, the whole thing fell through before Wang joined his ancestors.

"You see?" says Republican.

"I see," says Democrat. "I see China, 1938, with some 370 million rugged individualists living at the minimum subsistence level."

Then Economic Royalist, who scanned another of the Oriental Society's papers, butts in and remarks that private holding companies seem to have had staying powers, because the town of Nuzi, in Mesopotamia, had quite a batch of them 1000 years before Mang Wang's time.

"And where," retorts somebody who hadn't been asked for an opinion at all, "is Nuzi today?"

Oh, it all evens up. History just keeps right on swallowing its tail.

PATCHED FRIENDSHIPS

A woman in Chicago who made a giant quilt out of scraps of celebrities' wearing apparel has refused the offers of a number of museums, explaining that the quilt was made for her granddaughter, Nancy.

What proportion of the world's celebrity population is represented may be suggested by the facts that the quilt took more than six years to make, and holds some 10 million stitches.

The lady's devotion to her task and her granddaughter is thoroughly laudable, but can't somebody who is accomplished in such things break the news to her, in a tactful and gentle way, about the susceptibility of the child mind to sensory impressions, especially in the relaxed state just preceding sleep?

Nancy will get the quilt as soon as she is "old enough to appreciate it," her grandmother says. When she is old enough to appreciate it, how is she going to be able to get to sleep under it, and if she does get to sleep, what kind of dreams is she going to have?

Patches have been contributed by the following celebrities, among others: Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, Charlie McCarthy, General John J. Pershing, Max West, President Roosevelt, ex-President Hoover, and Rear Admiral Byrd, not to mention a number of the crowned heads of Europe.

If Nancy can drift off into untroubled slumbers after a thoughtful glance at a covey gathering like that, even if it's only a gathering by proxy, Nancy deserves the world's most extraordinary quilt.

Behind the Scenes In Washington

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON, April 21—One immediate aim of the new Roosevelt spending-lending program is the creation of another inflationary boom which will revive business activity.

Obviously already is the fact that Mr. Roosevelt is not going to get the united front against the depression which he hoped to align behind this program. His consistent enemies will be reinforced by an army of as yet indeterminate strength which is composed of those who believe that pumping more federal money into the economic system is not a way to end the depression.

Some See Boom

At one extreme are critics who argue that the new Roosevelt program is sure to put the country on the rocks and at the other are

Tex's Topics

Fred Cullum, the auto-man, got somebody's goat early yesterday morning and led it all around town to have a little fun in Mr. Cullum's own inimitable way. . . . First it was delivered to the Daily News editorial rooms and presented to me. . . . The billy-goat nosed into the copy basket and ate up Archer Fullingim's "People You Know" for Thursday, and took a bite out of the day's lead sports story about Dizzy Dean, Bob Feller and Joe Di Maggio. . . . Before the goat could be stopped on his foray, he had chewed Dimaggio's salary down to $25,000.

From the News office, the goat went to the Western Union from where it was delivered by messenger to Sid Patterson, manager of KPND, who was abashed no end. . . . It was such a good-looking goat that Patterson decided to present it to Dick Hughes, the insurance seller. . . . A photographer made an official picture of the presentation which will be filed away for posterity. . . . And, then—of all things, the goat turned up last night at the Governor's Dinner given by the Pampa Kiwanis club in Hotel Schneider, tied to the chair of Kiwanis presy, James B. Massa. . . . Many Pampans got up before breakfast today to greet the Fort Worth Goodwill trippers. . . . The combined Pampa and Fort Worth businessmen had breakfast and broadcast a program over KPND from Hotel Schneider.

A man who took this column over for a day last Sunday as a personal favor to me, has just about come to the conclusion that conducting a column is a thankless and unremunerative task. . . . With the best of intentions, he wrote a thing or two here which got him into a jam—not a serious one—but it got him into a controversy over the respective merits and demerits of English as "she is spoke." . . . He confides very sincerely that he never had any intention of stepping on anybody's toes, and admits he has learned how easy it is to be misunderstood in print. . . . He had planned to write the tail-end of this column every day this week, but yesterday he got so busy at his office that he didn't find time to prepare the copy. . . . He phoned to advise me of his predicament, and said that I'd probably be glad of it, anyway. . . . Which is not the case.

His original plan was to come through with an original final paragraph for this space, because he had observed from time to time that my breath gave out before I got down to the bottom of writing a column, and that, so minded, I would resort to the use of this great pair of shears which I have at my right hand. . . . Incidentally, these are borrowed shears. . . . Somebody walked off my very excellent pair the other day. . . . I miss them, too, because they were presented to me and they have a sentimental value which can't be replaced simply going out and buying a new pair. . . . Will the person who took them by mistake, kindly return them? . . . I think it would be a splendid gesture.

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Two stalwart Harvesters, Archie Walstad and Troy Stalls, won second place for Pampa in the Interscholastic League meet at Canyon.

More than 4,000 persons attended Pampa's first Merchants' carnival and Pure Food show held in the Pla-Mor auditorium under the auspices of the Presbyterian church.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

A tall, undeniably beautiful blonde, Myrtle Alene Gregory, was the well-posed "Miss Pampa" of 1933, chosen in the finals of the beauty pageant staged by David Dallas.

Pampa's new federal building, which to that time had existed only on paper and in indefinite statements was to begin soon to take form in steel and stone.

New Dealers who confidently anticipate a really spectacular boom. In the latter category, for instance, are one or two members of the SEC who have anticipated such a rapid stock market rise that they have been discussing amendment to the SEC rules.

But whatever happens in the next few months seems most likely to be based on good or bad psychology, since any effect of the program's monetary maneuverings admittedly will be a psychological effect and the first real big new money to get into the stream of purchasing power will be that involved in the public works phase, which can hardly get operating before late summer or fall.

Seeking to avoid undue pessimism or undue optimism, this writer can report government economists believe the program's chief immediate effect will be to halt deflationary forces which until now have been spiraling at an alarming degree.

This group happens to include those who accurately foresaw the present depression. Members of the group also thought there would be a "spring rise" in business and when that failed to materialize went running to the higher-ups to urge inflationary action to prevent what they feared might be a real panic.

Hope for Leveling

The most these experts really hope for the next few months is that there may now be some "corrections" in certain lines of business which will level off the previously down-curving chart-lines of business activity and employment.

Business customarily has an upturn in the spring and a down-swing in the summer as a result of what are called "seasonal" factors. But instead of an upturn in March, business actually took a dip.

The hard-headed boys now hope that, as a result of the spending-lending downswing can be avoided. Even that, they believe, would be a real gain and would leave a better foundation for the pickup which nearly everyone in the administration fondly anticipates in the fall.

Man About Manhattan

—By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—9:25 p. m. . . . It is a very black night. . . . The telephone in an east side clinic jangles sharply, and a young interne lifts the receiver. . . . "When did this happen?" he says into the transmitter, after a pause. . . . "Well, don't move her. I'll be there directly."

He hangs up the receiver. . . . "Where is 214 M. avenue, Miss Stephens?" . . . The nurse thinks for a minute. . . . "It's a bad neighborhood, doctor. . . . Perhaps someone should go with you."

The doctor slips off his white jacket and puts on a heavy coat. . . . He goes out chuckling to himself.

Red light, stop. . . . Green light. . . . The old car cuts across town, emerges into Chatham Square known as the Syrian quarter, but what really is the great sprawling settlement of mixed Europeans and Asiatics. . . . He turns into a narrow, dark street where abandoned warehouses are like great empty blobs of gloom. . . . There are a few houses. . . . There are no lights. . . . On an empty corner a cat sends up its half-human, eerie cry. . . . "I'll need my flashlight," murmurs the doc. . . . For some reason he has an odd presentiment of—well, it certainly is a gloomy night!

There is, suddenly, a flashlight in his face. . . . "Just come with me," a voice tells him. . . . "This way. . . . Now, step carefully." . . . The doc shrugs. . . . But he is thinking fast.

The man leads the way up a pair of stairs and into a room in which no light shows. . . . In the vague shadows are human beings, two by two. . . . They are as silent as waxen images. . . . They sit there and say nothing. . . . In the shadows the doc bites his lip, and curses.

"This way," the man tells him. . . . Another man has fallen in behind the doctor. . . . The man who does the talking leads the way. . . . His flashlight is playing against a darkened hallway now. . . . They follow it, and come to a stairs. . . . They go down these stairs, into a basement, which is blacker than the East river's muddy bottom. . . . The doctor swallows in an effort to relieve the tightness at his throat.

To lunge out suddenly and chance all on a blow, and a dash up the stairs?

He thinks: "This is it. . . . They've got me. . . . This is it, all right."

"See here," says the man with the light, "There it is." . . . He plays the beam on a black meter box against the wall. . . . "A fust must have burned out. . . . All the lights went out about a half hour ago, and me with a poker party on upstairs!"

The doctor leans up against a post and fills his lungs with a sudden, full breath. . . . "Didn't you telephone for a doctor? Isn't this 214 M. avenue?"

"Doctor? 214 Naw, this is 204. Ain't you an electrician?"

"I got a call from 214," the medico answers!

"Gee, Doc, I'm sorry. That's old lady Perkins. She must have another fainting spell. . . . She's the one who lives at 214. . . . But me, I'm looking for an electrician. . . . I got a poker party on upstairs. . . . I got seven guests."

More about birthdays:

Little Joe Mitchell, son of Coach and Mrs. Odus Mitchell, was born on Easter Sunday, April 1, and it's likely to be a long time before he has another birthday on Easter Sunday because April Fool's Day comes on Easter Sunday only about once every 78 years. . . . M. P. Downs is another Pampans who was born April 1, and Mrs. D. E. Cassada is another. W. E. Hunt and Aldis Bethis were also born on April 1.

Two Pampa women were born on April 30. When Mrs. Mary Wrye of Mobeetie will be 100 years old. They are Mrs. E. W. Wharrel and Mrs. Leo Recknagel. A. P. Combs, 312 N. Dwight, was also born April 30. Are more people born in April than in any month? Probably not. There are about 12,000 people in Pampa, and it is likely that a census would show about 1,000 born in each month of the year. It is believed that births unlike weddings which traditionally take place in June are evenly spaced throughout the year.

Around Hollywood

—By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — The camera stands there with an eye that looks at and through you, and the lights blaze around you, and what you do in the next few minutes—your screen test—will determine whether you go into movies or . . . keep on working.

Would you be nervous? You bet you would. That first screen test is a nightmare, even now, to most of the people who've survived it and gone on to fame.

Fred MacMurray, just a musician, suffered from shaking knees at the big moment. "Just sing," they told him. Now Fred has sung, his six-feet-and-more draped over a piano, and he could still do it, despite that camera and those lights.

"But walk around," they said, "give it the old zip and dash. Fred borrowed Bob Hope's hat and cane—Bob was in the same stage show—and with those as props survived."

Bob Montgomery's first movie test was simple. He ate an apple. Nobody in New York studio knew what the picture "So This is College" was about, so Bob sent out for a bit of fruit and munched it while the camera turned.

The Capital Jigsaw

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, April 22 (AP)—The next Legislature will be asked to make several changes in the drivers license law, now a little more than two years old.

Most important of the alterations recommended by the committee of citizens appointed by Gov. James V. Allred to study traffic safety problems would increase the power of the department; of public safety to suspend licenses.

Under the present law, a license may be suspended after a public hearing. The committee favors authorizing suspension for not more than 60 days without a hearing, this, however, only on the written recommendation of duly constituted local authorities, supported by proper affidavits.

The purpose of the change would be to make practicable a section of the statute which, although vital to carrying out the intent of the law, has been virtually inoperative. It would not be to give the safety department power to take away a man's license arbitrarily, advocates assert.

The law now makes it mandatory on courts to revoke a license on final conviction of a number of offenses, including negligent homicide, driving while intoxicated and failure to stop and render aid. The courts have been doing this consistently.

The law goes further, however, empowering the safety department, at its discretion and after public hearing, to suspend or revoke licenses where the driver is found to be responsible for an accident resulting in personal injury or serious property damage, habitually reckless or negligent, habitually violating traffic laws, or incompetent to drive a motor vehicle. This is the section which the committee wants to change.

Officials say that hearings simply have been impossible because of cumbersome procedure prescribed and lack of money and manpower. Although some are planned for the near future in certain instances, the fact remains there have been none so far.

If licenses could be suspended for 60 days without the necessity of a public hearing, but with the other safeguards to the driver recommended by the committee, it is argued that most difficulties pertaining to this part of the statute would be surmounted and traffic law enforcement be greatly improved.

A spokesman of the drivers license division of the safety department emphasized that if the proposal was enacted he would not make the period of suspension very long lest it lead to lax cooperation from local officers.

"If a license were taken away for 10 to 15 days," he said, "we probably could get excellent cooperation. It would be a mistake to make the penalty too great."

The habitual offender would be the chief target. The official said he could go into Dallas and find instances of men who had violated traffic laws "eight or nine times" and the same condition existed elsewhere.

"The idea one has a constitutional and inherent right to operate a vehicle is wrong," he continued. "The operation of an automobile is a privilege conferred by government and subject to regulations.

"If someone heaves a brick through the window of a department store, there is little question he ought to be fined. Yet the average person seems to object to being fined for traffic law violations.

"There really ought not to be any argument that government has a right to regulate the driving of motor vehicles and to suspend the privilege if it is abused.

"We seem to accept the principle in part and reject it in part."

The governor's committee has recommended also that ordinary motor vehicle operators be charged a fee of $1 for a license. The approximately 2,500,000 operators now holding licenses got them without cost.

Other proposed changes would redefine chauffeurs, commercial op-

A MOST INCONSISTENT BOOK

We have read parts of a book called "America's Purpose," written by Alfred J. Snyder. It is the first time we ever have received a proposition that the publisher would send us a book free if the editor would agree to review it.

The title of the book was so enticing that we thoughtlessly got ourselves into a trap and agreed to review it if they would send it.

While the book has some very enticing quotations, its whole philosophy is based on the assumption that man was created equal.

He makes such statements as "When man is considered in the infant state, before the inequalities of human institutions have added their advantages and imposed their handicaps, biological differences are insignificant."

Any man who believes that there is practically no difference in human beings at birth, might just as well believe that a baby monkey and a human baby are practically the same. The book throughout contends that it is the duty of society to see that everybody receives an equal amount of comforts of life, whether they produce them or not; that the individual is not responsible to find his own comforts.

If the Communists are not financing this book, we can think of no book that would be better for them to finance with an attempt to indoctrinate Communism into America than this book, with the possible exception of Karl Marx's writings. Done up, as it is, in red, white and blue coverings, with an enticing name and an enticing introduction, it is filled with inconsistencies throughout and as far from being the American Way as night is from day.

Business Men Responding To New Lending Proposals

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Officials of the Securities Commission and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation reported today that business men were responding in increasing numbers to administration lending proposals.

A spokesman said the RFC was "putting the steam on" to take care of loan applications pouring into its 32 regional offices, chiefly from small business men wanting some of the agency's $1,500,000,000 of lendable funds.

From an SEC official came word that the commission has been "swamped" with inquiries about its simplified registration procedure. Undertaken at the request of President Roosevelt as part of his economic program, this simplification was designed to make it easier and faster for business interests to register small issues.

Congressional leaders meanwhile were discussing a proposal that a public works program for railroads be woven into the President's lending-spending campaign.

The carriers would supply materials for maintenance projects, and the government would pay for labor. Workers would be chosen from among those whom the railroads have furloughed.

Chairman Wheeler, Democrat, Mont., of the state interstate commerce committee and his associates are planning with WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins and other officials when they meet next week to draw up emergency railroad legislation.

The Montana said he also favored additional federal loans for some "borderline" railroads which might be expected to stay out of bankruptcy if funds were provided to "tide them over."

Considerable interest centered here on the purpose of President Roosevelt's luncheon conference next Wednesday with Henry Ford, whose personal business policies frequently have run counter to the policies of the Roosevelt administration.

The conference will be one of a series on business conditions which Mr. Roosevelt is holding with government officials and citizens.

Ford, who said yesterday that his solution to current problems is a greatly broadened "back-to-the-farm" movement, had his latest fight with the government over the Wagner labor act, which guarantees workers the right to collective bargaining. In the early days of the administration he declined to sign the automobile code set up under the NRA.

Work on the President's program in congress was concentrated in the house appropriations committee, which yesterday heard Aubrey Williams, deputy Works Progress Administrator and chief of the National Youth Administration, outline the needs of the latter for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

J. B. Speer of Canyon, deputy state superintendent of the Texas Department of Education, was in Pampa today.

Mrs. Kyle Guthrie and baby were dismissed from Pampa-Jarratt hospital yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shouse and W. S. Shouse returned Wednesday from a trip to Hutchinson, Kas., where they visited Lomaine Shouse, who underwent a major operation in a Hutchinson hospital a week ago.

A total of 50 persons were examined for drivers license yesterday by Texas Highway patrolmen J. L. Pingenot Jr. and Norvell Redwine, at the office of county tax assessor.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Leech have returned from a week's trip to Fort Worth, Dallas, and Abilene.

County commissioners are to have their regular meeting Monday.

Members of the Pampa high school band went to Vernon today, where they will participate in the North Texas Band and Orchestra association contests. The high school band, and the Pampa junior high band, also entered in the contests, will return to Pampa tomorrow. Instrumental solo contests were held yesterday but no report of the results have been received here.

Mrs. J. W. Garman, Jr., Mrs. Hamp Waddell and Miss Mable Davis returned last night from Oklahoma City where they saw Helen Hays in "Victoria Regina."

Does home need a "face lifting?"

Sometimes homes, like people, are taken for granted and signs of weariness go unnoticed. Homes, too, need beauty treatments. They come out of them renewed, refreshed, stimulating once more to all who meet them.

Early Spring is the time to plan 'face the lifting' of the rooms in which you live. Carefully planned, a little money now can go far. Fortunately, authentic news of the latest, the best designed, the most economical in home furnishings and accessories is printed for you day after day on these pages. National manufacturer and local merchant advertise to help you.

Perhaps slip covers on davenport and wing chair will make faithful but a little weary pieces look like new... Perhaps summer draperies will make your living-room so fresh and gay that you yourself will hardly know it. A new rug may be the prescription that your home needs. A new lamp can light more than a corner—it can shine into the hearts of all who see it. Glassware, a new table, porch furniture, all can enter into your home's face lifting.

Look about your home as if you had never seen it—and follow the advertising on these pages!

SPEED CAUSES MOST DEATHS ON HIGHWAYS

AUSTIN, April 22 (AP)—A new highway map, replete with skull and cross bones and tombstone decorations, has made its appearance.

Although it's not intended for distribution among motorists, those with a heavy accelerator foot might profit by study of it, highway patrolmen say.

The hollow-eyed skulls and a neat little grave yard accoutrements tell a story of speed and its often disastrous results.

The skulls appear along stretches of cardinal routes where officers actually trailed 31,256 automobiles as part of a five-month research project. On the tombstones laconic figures tell the number of deaths along those highway sectors.

Taking all cars into consideration, 8,582 or 27.5 per cent were traveling between 56 and 60 miles an hour. Legal maximum speed for private vehicles is 45.

A total of 624 drivers, including all sections studied, were exceeding 71.

A meager 16.9 per cent of the 31,256 were driving at 45 or less.

Officers don't contend speed in excess of the legal maximum necessarily results in death but piecing together information from the survey they found there were certain minimum safe speeds on certain highways.

Dangerous Speeds Vary
This supposition, of course, includes perfect daylight driving conditions, a mechanically safe car and a competent driver.

For instance, it became evident accidents began to happen when cars were driven more than 60 miles an hour on U. S. Highway 81 between San Antonio and San Marcos. Thirty-one persons died along that sector last year and the speed check just completed showed the average speed of all cars exceeding the maximum limit there was 64.2.

On state Highway 35 in Polk county, a narrow and winding road, the mishaps became numerous when cars exceeded 42.

The highest theoretically safe speed on U. S. 80 from Howard county to Pecos was found to be 54 yet all cars observed exceeding 45 in that sector averaged between 61 and 66.

On state Highway 4 in Starr, Wilbrey, Cameron and Hidalgo counties, which claimed 64 lives last year, officers found the safe maximum was about 55. But when they trailed motorists along the narrow, overcrowded road they discovered those driving faster than 45 averaged between 55.3 and 57.6.

Copies of the map will be sent highway patrol as a possible guide in patrolling their districts.

MEXICO PREPARES TO ANSWER BRITISH NOTE

MEXICO, April 22 (AP)—The Mexican government prepared today to draft a reply to a reiterated British protest against expropriation of British-owned oil companies.

The second British note was delivered to Foreign Minister Eduardo Hay by the British minister, Owen T. Clair O'Malley, last night.

The protest again called Mexico's expropriation "unjustified" and expressed the view that restitution of the properties was "the only practical means of avoiding a serious injury to extensive British interests."

It also rejected the Mexican contention that incorporation in Mexico of Agula, subsidiary of Royal Dutch Shell and largest of the 17 British and American companies nationalized, debarred Britain's diplomatic intervention.

Meanwhile U. S. Ambassador Joseph Daniels was en route to the United States, with a stop scheduled in Washington to confer with Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

The Mexican ambassador to Washington, Francisco Castillo Najera, was scheduled to leave for the United States today after a three hour conference with President Lazaro Cardenas yesterday.

NAVY EXPANSION HAS APPROVAL OF DANIELS

PORT WORTH, April 22 (AP)—Joseph Daniels, United States ambassador and World war secretary of the navy, said here today he believed naval expansion necessary.

The ambassador, en route to Washington to report to Secretary of State Cordell Hull, was questioned on his views of the current naval expansion program as he prepared to continue his trip northeastward by plane.

"I hate it," he said, "and I don't know of but one thing worse we could have done—and that would be not to do it. It's a shame to have to spend all that money on a navy, but with world conditions as they are, it's necessary."

POPE PIUS PRAISES AMERICAN BISHOPS

VATICAN CITY, April 22 (AP)—Monsignor James B. O'Reilly of New York said today that Pope Pius had told him that "in the troubled world of today the Catholics of America are one of our great consolations."

Monsignor O'Reilly, who is secretary of the Catholic Near East Welfare association, was received by the Pope in private audience for presentation of his annual report. The American prelate said the Pontiff expressed high regard for the bishops of the United States, saying they were "very responsive to all appeals from the Holy See."

LANDON WARNS AGAINST PLAN FOR SPENDING

TOPEKA, Kas., April 22 (AP)—Alf M. Landon called upon "an articulate citizenry" today to make it clear to congress that "this huge appropriation" proposed in President Roosevelt's new recovery program must be met by adequate tax provisions.

The 1936 Republican presidential nominee, in an address prepared for delivery to the Optimist club, said the President's proposal has ended the "period of uncertainty" as to the government's fiscal policy.

"We are again upon an inflationary course," he said.

"If every time there is a recession in business the only way out that a government can find is a further huge expenditure program to be applied on top of expenditures already too great, then we shall go bankrupt."

"If the government spends money, it must collect revenues to match the expenditures. . . . It is not yet too late to pull up and save ourselves and pay our honest debts. We can pay the public debt of these United States if we are honest and economical. But we will have to economize—we will have to stop our spendthrift course."

The nation's hope, he said, "lies in congress, backed by an articulate citizenry, to continue to take action and assume leadership."

"Congress must decide if we are to take the hard road, or if we shall dash gaily and blindly into this intoxicating hilarity of inflation by meeting our current expenditures for the ninth successive year with I. O. U.'s."

All responsibility, Landon said, must not be placed upon congress, and the citizenry must not be "indifferent."

President Roosevelt "is gambling," he said, "that he can raise the national income by a policy of government spending.

"But this program is the opposite pieged by his secretary of treasury only five months ago. With several ways to check the depression, the President has chosen the one that the record of his administration shows will not work."

The destructive Dutch elm disease came into the United States between 1925 and 1933 on burl elm logs shipped from Europe to cabinet makers in the Middle West.

'Bumble-Bee' Plane Buzzes into Limelight

Habitues of Floyd Bennett airport in New York rubbed their eyes the other day when this airplane without a tail appeared over the airport in its first test in the metropolitan area. Developed by James E. Taylor, Jr., who is shown in the photo examining one of the two fins which act as air brakes, the plane is of the pusher type, has a 95 h. p. engine and a propeller in the rear, and is capable of approximately 120 miles an hour top-speed. Washington officials are keenly interested in the bumble-bee-shaped craft, both for military reasons and because it may prove to be relatively cheap to build.

Loyalists Flee Over Pyrenees

Swept from their homes by the inexorable tidal wave of Gen. Franco's Rebel drive to the sea, little groups of the pitiable flotam of war continue to drift over the jagged snow-covered peaks of the Pyrenees Mountains to find a harbor of safety across the French border. As seen in the photo above, where Catalonian non-combatant men, women and children are shown crossing a frigid mountain creek they escape with little but their lives and what possessions can be carried.

Dance of Life Ends in Death

Carnegie Kin Lost in Air

Official and private planes criss-crossed Long Island and Connecticut, while the U. S. Coast Guard patrolled adjacent waters in a widespread search for Andrew Carnegie Whitfield, 28-year-old nephew of the late Andrew Carnegie, missing in his private plane since April 15. The amateur flier, pictured above with the former Elizabeth Halsey at their marriage last June, put his silver monoplane into the air from Roosevelt Field, L. I., for an announced 15-minute hop to Brentwood, 20 miles away—then literally vanished into the air.

High Steppin'

Dare-devil acrobats? No, just a pair of swing music addicts who thought a regulation dance floor was much too tame and decided to strut their stuff on a narrow plank 19 stories above a Chicago business street. They are Betty and Ben Fox of Oak Park, Ill., and they performed a giddy "Big Apple" for the benefit of open-mouthed Easter paraders below.

They Have Reasons for Smiling

Believes in Watching Pennies for U. S.

JOHN CARSON, consumer's counsel for the Bituminous Coal Commission, is one government official who believes Uncle Sam's money should be spent sparingly—so he will turn back $50,000 of his appropriation for the year.

Cagey Way to Keep Kiddies Safe

"Please do not touch or feed," reads the sign on these youngsters' caged-in playground atop Mt. Tamalpais in California. The parents of little Edward and Martha Wolford, who operate a tavern on the summit of the mountain, built the cage to keep the children from falling off cliffs and also to forestall hikers who give the children candy, cake and sandwiches. Edward is 2 years old, Martha 16 months.

Didn't Beg Pardon But Got It

Although deprived of even the few minutes martyrdom in jail which he had expressed a desire to undergo, Dr. Francis E. Townsend above, 71-year-old old-age pension crusader nevertheless expressed himself as "very happy" to receive the Presidential pardon which he is pictured waving proudly. The pardon relieved him of a $100 fine and a sentence of 30 days in jail for contempt of the House of Representatives imposed when he walked out of a House committee investigation into his political organization, Old-Age Revolving Pensions, Inc.

Millionth

"Now they can't cheat me any more," says Walter Donaldson, above, the millionth adult who has been taught to read and write by the Adult Education Division of WPA. Donaldson lives with his wife and eight children in a log cabin in the mountains near Orlando, W. Va.; WPA employs about 5000 teachers in adult education work, conducting classes all over the nation to "reduce the ranks of the 4,250,000 total illiterates registered in the 1930 census."

Nation's First Egg-Roller

Apparently in high spirits as hostess to 50,000 children who jammed the White House lawn for the traditional Easter Monday egg-rolling, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is pictured above greeting little Barbara Rose Griffin of Arlington, Va. The happy guests did not mind several showers that soaked them, and the egg-rolling game, starting sedately enough; developed into a wild carnival of children "pasting" each other with eggs that turned the placid White House lawn into a sod omelet garnished with broken balloons, pop bottles, Easter egg straw and trampled newspapers.

Expects Baby

"We hope it will be a boy," says Mrs. Florence Hill Rudd, 13-year-old child mother, pictured above with her daughter, Florence, born one year ago. Mr. Stork is expected to pay a return visit to the Rudd home in Valley, Calif., about May 1. The young husband and father is a lumber mill worker.

The Annual Presidential Fling

Play ball! With the presidential pitching arm upraised for its annual fling, the chief executive is pictured as he threw out the first one to start off the 1938 baseball season. And the hometown Senators came through for the President by outslugging Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics, 12-6.

Some Multiple Blessed Eventing Here

The five baby goats pictured above are rare animals, indeed, because they're all brothers and sisters born at the same time. If you count them you will discover that there are five—kid quintuplets, in fact. J. L. McFall, goat breeder who lives near St. Louis and who owns Nancy, their mother, said he had heard of only one such case before. Kids, it seems, are usually born in pairs, and even triplets are considered rare—no kidding.

These Champions Box Here Tonight

Tonight at the Pampa Athletics arena, promptly at 8:30 o'clock, amateur boxing will return to Pampa with Golden Gloves champions from Pampa meeting Abilene's title holders. The championship bouts will be preceded by several exhibitions to give fans 30 rounds of boxing.

Admission will be $1 for ringside reserve seats, 40 cents general admission and 25 cents for children. Several good ringside tickets were available this morning but they were going fast.

Here is tonight's boxing card:
First bout at 8:30 p. m.
Exhibitions:
160 Lbs.—Black Lightning, Pampa, vs. Eddie Mack, Shamrock.
112 Lbs.—Ed Cassada, Pampa, vs. Doug Keyser, Pampa.
118 Lbs.—Frank Bills, Shamrock, vs. LeRoy Reagan, Pampa.
135 Lbs.—Howard Hendrix, Pampa, vs. Jack Moffitt, Abilene.
165 Lbs.—J. P. Mathews, Pampa, vs. G. E. Woods, Abilene.
Championship bouts:
112 Lbs.—Benny Moore, Shamrock, vs. Al West, Abilene.
118 Lbs.—Frank "Rusty" White, White Deer, vs. Neah Valdez, Abilene.
126 Lbs.—Jake Bible, Alameda, vs. Kenneth Terry, Abilene.
135 Lbs.—Arvol Hix, Pampa, vs. Lon McMillen, Abilene.
147 Lbs.—Cleave "Red" Drake, Pampa, vs. Obid Nelson, Abilene.
160 Lbs.—Maurice Hutchinson, Pampa, vs. Jack Menatree, Abilene.
175 Lbs.—Jap Gillis, Pampa, vs. Gordon Woods, Abilene.

The match is being sponsored by the Pampa Amateur Athletic association and proceeds, after expenses have been deducted, will be used for the advancement of amateur sports in Pampa. The meet has been sanctioned by the state and a state referee, Pat Garrison, will be the third man in the ring. A. A. U. rules will govern the bouts with each being three rounds of two minutes each and no overtime in case of the decisions by the judges.

Exhibitions First.
Inability of Abilene to furnish a heavyweight reduced the championship battles to seven. Two local champions will be unable to take the ring tonight because of injury or illness. T. J. Watt, Pampa's flashy lightweight, has been unable to get in shape following an illness which kept him from participating in the state event, and A. C. Burleson, welterweight, is in the hospital after being gored by a bull.

Opening the card will be a battle between two negroes, Black Lightning of Pampa and Eddie Mack of Shamrock, in the 155-pound class.

Then will come a battle that began in the local Golden Gloves tournament—a meeting between Doug Keyser and Ed Cassada at 112 pounds. LeRoy Reagan has returned to Pampa and will meet Frankie Bills of Shamrock at 118 pounds. Bible was one of the tournament favorites and since has won every school tournament in which he has participated. Howard Hendrix, local youth, will battle Jack Moffitt of Abilene in the 135 pound class. J. P. Mathews, local boy and winner of the Shamrock, Wheeler and Canadian tournaments, will battle G. E. Woods of Abilene.

Come On, Champs.
Then will come the parade of champions. Little Benny Moore of Shamrock, who went to the quarter finals in the state meet, will tangle with Al West, Abilene's champion in the 112-pound class.

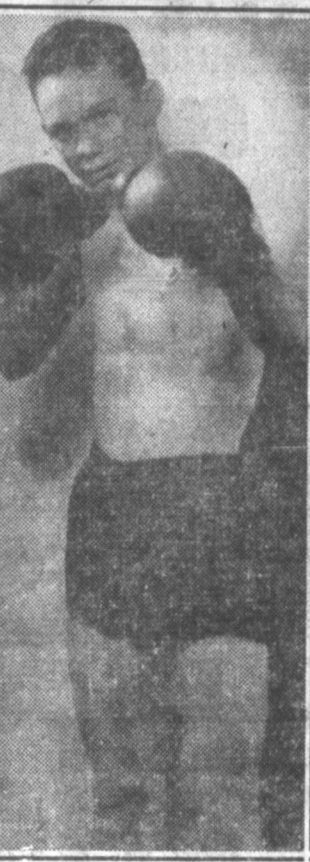

Franklin "Rusty" White of White Deer will then take on Neah Valdez of Abilene, state champion in the 118-pound class. White was unable to make the trip to the state tournament and his wish has been to meet Valdez and test his ability.

One of the top favorites of the Pampa tournament, Jake Bible of Alameda, will battle Kenneth Terry of Abilene who is also state A. A. U. champion in the 126-pound class.
Replacing Watt at 135 pounds will be Arvol Hix of Pampa whose opponent will be Lon McMillen who won the state title in his class. Boxing is scheduled to be paramount in the battle. Hix won for Pampa in dual meet with Wichita Falls champions recently.

Gills Reduced.
Cleave "Red" Drake of Pampa will replace the injured Burleson in meeting Obid Nelson of Abilene at 147 pounds. Drake won his match in Wichita Falls.
Another favorite in the local tournament and the boy who showed plenty of comeback in Fort Worth, Maurice Hutchinson of Pampa, will tangle with Jack Menatree. Hutchinson was knocked down in the first round at the state tournament but he had broken a bone in his hand but he came back to wage a one-handed fight to lose by a shade.

The other big battle, and the last on the card, will see Jap Gillis, who entered the local tournament as a heavyweight but who has reduced to a lightweight, meet Gordon Woods of Abilene.

Above are some of the "local" boys who will participate in the amateur boxing tournament at the Pampa Athletics arena tonight when Pampa and Abilene Golden Gloves champions meet. First bout will be at 8:30 o'clock with admission $1 ringside reserve and general admission 40 cents.

EIGHT REGIONAL MEETS WILL DECIDE 400 AUSTIN ENTRIES

(By The Associated Press)
Eight regional track and field meets tomorrow will determine the selection of approximately 400 athletes who will go to Austin the first week in May to contest for state laurels.

Meets will be held at Canyon, Abilene, Denton, Longview, Huntsville, San Marcos, Kingsville and Alpine. Winners of the first four places in each event will become eligible for the state meet.

Woodrow Wilson of Dallas, defending state champion, ruled favorite in the region 3 meet at Denton but faced an uphill struggle to repeat with the team title at Austin.

District team winners at the regional meets are: Region 1—Claude, Pampa; Lubbock, Childress; region 2—Loraine, Baird, San Angelo, and Brady; region 3—Harold, Ft. Worth Poly, Woodrow Wilson, McGregor; region 4—Campbell, Texarkana, Grand Saline, Lufkin; region 5—Bryan, Conroe, John Reagan (Houston), Fort Arthur; region 6—Carizo Springs, Jefferson (San Antonio), Austin, Schulenberg; region 7—Victoria, Corpus Christi, Freer, Harlingen; region 8—Austin (El Paso), Fort Stockton, Wink, Marfa.

Three Southwest Universities to Hold Track Meet

DALLAS, April 22 (AP)—Baylor, Texas Christian and Southern Methodist universities will meet here tomorrow in a Southwest Conference triangular track meet.
The meet had been planned for Waco. Jimmy Stewart, Athletic Director at Southern Methodist university, said Baylor authorities requested the change because their track was not in condition.

Longhorns Open Series Against Baylor's Bears

(By The Associated Press)
The University of Texas Longhorns and the Baylor University Bears opened a two-game baseball series at Waco today with Tommy Fine as Baylor's hurler. Ducey is expected to pitch tomorrow.

The Longhorns, consistent Southwest Conference champions, had three hurriers available, John Garnett, southpaw, Ned McDonald and John Langrhans.

The Rice-T. C. U. game at Fort Worth yesterday was postponed because of rain.

LYN LARY, Indians—doubled with bases loaded in eighth to give tribe 4-3 win over Browns.

TARPON RODEO DATES TO BE FIXED TODAY

By DAVE CHEAVENS.
PORT ISABEL, April 22 (AP)—Selection of dates for the third annual international tarpon rodeo at the mouth of the Rio Grande near here again will focus the attention of anglers everywhere on one of the few places in the world where you can stand on dry land and catch silver kings.

Usually it is necessary to hire yourself an expensive boat, pay an expensive guide, and otherwise alarmingly lighten your purse if you are inclined to fish for tarpon. But not so at Boca Chica, where all you have to do is make a quick run along a concrete road south from Brownsville, turn right on the beach, and drive three miles to the mouth of the river that forms the boundary between the United States and Mexico.

All it costs you is the gas and whatever your investment has been in tackle. The river beach, and miles of surf beach, are free and the fishing is as good as it is anywhere. Tarpon run up into the river and are taken by the score from this prolific stretch of water.

This international tarpon rodeo, won in 1937 by Fred Maly, a San Antonio sports writer who is slightly nuts on the subject of fishing, produced a real fishing freak last year. It might have become an international incident, but all entanglements were unsnarled when a line broke. Norman Richardson was fishing on the Mexican side of the river and Ray Pondren on the American side. They simultaneously hooked a large tarpon and were in the midst of a three-cornered battle when Richardson's line parted. Pondren whipped the tarpon down.

Tarpon fishing at the mouth of the Rio Grande usually starts in March, but it has been slow thus far this year. Local anglers are hoping a rise in the river will help. They say the water has been too low and clear for tarpon. Julio Galvan of Matamoros, Mexico, has been selected as captain of the Mexican team, and E. W. Sutherland will head the American team in the rodeo which starts April 28. Maly will head a team from San Antonio, and another team entry has been received from Houston. There are scores of other individual entries.

Fishermen take positions along the river bank, angling in squads of 30 on each side of the boundary stream. It is easy to cast more than half way across the river, and when tarpon begin to hit, there is plenty of excitement.

Yesterday's Stars
(By The Associated Press)
Carl Hubbell, Giants—opened 1938 campaign with eight hit 3-2 victory over Bees and struck out seven.
Forest Presnell, Dodgers—made major league debut with nine-hit shutout against Phillies, 9-0.
Al Todd, Pirates—his two hits, one a double, helped Pirates shade Cardinals 6-5.
Paul Derringer, Reds—limited Cubs to four hits as Cincinnati won first game of season, 6-2.
Johnny Marcum and Joe Vosmik, Red Sox—Marcum winning 13 hits but was tight in pinches and Vosmik's triple drove in winning run as Sox downed Yanks, 3-2.
Hank Greenberg, Tigers—hit 500-foot homer which helped Tigers down White Sox 9-3 for first win of campaign.

Tremaine Expected To Get Rough With Poggi

In Full Dress

A rare sight is this—stern C. I. O. Chief John L. Lewis decked out in white tie and tails—the formal costume the usually informal Lewis wore to the annual Gridiron Club dinner in Washington, in which capital newspaper scribes put the notables, including Mr. Lewis, on the pan.

$250,000 Crowd Expected for May 26 Battle

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Mike Jacobs, czar of boxing, expects the Barney Ross-Henry Armstrong match on May 26 to "do" $250,000 business, one of the biggest purses two little fellows have ever drawn.
The tubs already are beginning to thump for the battle. According to word from Jacobs' office, $30,000 in reservations have been received. Under the scale of prices which Jacobs has fixed $16.50 for a ringside seat to $2.00 for a spot in the rear cut-of-doors, the match could draw $400,000 through the gates of Madison Square Garden's bowl.

Pampa wrestling fans will see a couple of scientific battles and a rough one Monday night at the Pampa Athletic arena. Opening bout will be at 8:30 o'clock, the new starting time because of the approach of summer and longer daylight.

Headline attraction will be Andy Tremaine, the flash from Arizona, and Gorilla Poggi, bad man from the Argentine. Tremaine has established himself the local favorite and one of the most popular since the days of Sailor Otis Chingman, while Poggi is about as popular as Buck Lipscomb which is "nil."

Tremaine got a little rough last week against Prince Omar Youchim and it delighted fans somewhat. It proved that Tremaine is able to take care of himself and he will need all kinds of wrestling to combat the Poggi style.

Soldier Thomas, who appeared here several weeks, will return against Bob Cummings, now top hand on the local mat following victory over a greatly improved Dick Sampson last Monday night. Sampson also will be back, tangle with George Hartay in the preliminary. Both are fast, strong and clean.

GREAT MILERS WILL RACE IN KANSAS MATCH

LAWRENCE, Kas., April 22 (AP)—Kansas relay officials set out to make the 1938 event tomorrow the best in its 16-year history, and they have won by a mile.

It is a very special mile, watching Glenn Cunningham, Archie San Romani, Gene Venzke and Don Lash in their first outdoor race of the season. Fans hopefully scanned weather reports and track conditions to calculate chances of a new world record.

Meanwhile the trail blazers of an army of young athletes representing 21 universities, 30 colleges and 12 junior colleges began to seep into Lawrence to look over the oval where they will seek to better records that already, in most instances, approach the ultimate.

Possibility of new relay marks is dim. A first field last year was able to break one record, Indiana, which won four relay events, set up a new time of 4:23.2 in the mile team race.

However, special event records appeared in peril with several entrants capable of making the grade if conditions are right.
For instance, Fred Wolcott of Rice scissored over the high hurdles in 13.9 seconds at the Texas relays recently. His teammate, Patterson, has been timed in 14.4 and Gatewood of Texas and Lamb of Iowa have made 14.5, which is the meet record.

Gilbert Criter of Colorado has cleared 6 feet 7 1/4 inches in the high jump, and Cox of Texas is credited with a 6-foot 6-inch leap. The meet record is 6 feet 6 3/8 inches.

DALLAS HOLDS 2ND PLACE IN TEXAS LEAGUE

(By The Associated Press)
Where they play today: Oklahoma City at Dallas. Tulsa at Fort Worth. San Antonio at Beaumont (day). Shreveport at Houston.

The Dallas Steers held second place today in the Texas baseball league, only a game and a half behind the league-leading Beaumont Exporters.

Sal Glatto, going the route for the Steers, held the Oklahoma City Redskins to seven hits in a 15-7 victory last night. Jim Moore, Indian hurler, was blasted out of the box in the third. Lester Lowery, southpaw, went the rest of the way and displayed good form until the seventh when the Steers went on their third stampede of the evening and brought in six scores after two men were out.

At Beaumont, Bernardino, San Antonio Mission second baseman, homered in the ninth, but the Missions came out on the short end of a 3-1 score. Joe Rogalski kept eight Mission hits well scattered.

Try Stein gave the Tulsa Oilers a 5-3 victory over the Cubs at Fort Worth, allowing eight hits while Jackie Reid, Cat hurler, gave up nine in seven innings.
The hapless Shreveport Sports, playing at Houston, dropped their ninth straight game, 2-1.

Kilgore Beats Henderson Nine

(By The Associated Press)
Where they play today: Marshall at Texarkana. Henderson at Kilgore. Longview at Tyler. Palestine at Jacksonville.

Rebel Byram, Kilgore pitcher, gained vengeance and an 8-7 victory over the Henderson Oilers in the East Texas league last night. Defeated by the Oilers Wednesday, Byram went in as relief pitcher and stemmed the Kilgore attack as his mates came from behind with a barrage of hitting worth three runs in the last two innings.

At Palestine the Pals squared their series with the Jacksonville Jax, 6-3, by timely hitting in the pinches.

The Tyler-Longview game and the Texarkana-Marshall game were postponed on account of rain.

BETTER GASOLINE

When you head your car for the pump marked with the Orange and Black 66 Shield... you're headed for finer performance and a real saving in money.

You're headed for the self-demonstrating gasoline... now sold by more than 15,000 independent dealers... which has won millions of delighted users in the shortest time in the history of the entire oil industry.

Today, with the opening of the new and greatly enlarged Phillips Research Laboratory, it is impressive to recall Phillips' record of scientific pioneering.

Phillips was first to match gasoline to weather. First to offer high test gasoline at the price of ordinary motor fuel. First to present at all stations the extra-power benefits given by the patented POLYMERIZATION process.

You are sure to find that difference if you get just one trial tankful of Phillips 66 Poly Gas—the stand-out gasoline that costs no more than ordinary motor fuel.

Italian Invasion of Japan

What's this—an Italian invasion of Japan? Yes—a good-will "invasion," with members of an Italian friendship mission, led by Marquis Giacomo Paulucci, pictured as they offered the Fascist salute in honoring the famous Meiji shrine. The enthusiastic reception accorded them was climaxed by an audience with Emperor Hirohito. Thousands lined Tokio's streets to catch a glimpse of Mussolini's emissaries, who conferred with army and navy officials and visited Japanese schools and hospitals. International observers regarded the visit as a staged demonstration of the firmness of the Italian-Japanese unity in the Rome-Berlin-Tokio axis.

FIESTA PARADE TO BE TODAY

SAN ANTONIO, April 22 (AP)—Originating nearly a half century ago with a visit from a president, San Antonio's week-long Fiesta de San Jacinto celebration moved toward its climax today in the Battle of Flowers parade. While President Benjamin Harrison's visit here in 1891 served as the foundation of the fiesta, other factors are attributed to the origin of the spectacle, climaxed with the Battle of Flowers parade. A jaded horseman, Joseph De Urrutia, an outsider for the expedition of Domingo De Teran, visited the area and led to the establishment of the city of San Antonio more than two centuries ago. A heroic little band, the heroes of the Alamo who stood off Santa Anna and his army for 14 days, and the battle of the republic fought at San Jacinto and leading to a successful conclusion of the Texas revolution—all were the basis for staging the annual celebration. One of the highlights of the first fiesta was a battle of flowers, staged in front of the Alamo. For several years each fiesta had its flower battle, but later the nature of it changed with the passing years. More and more emphasis was placed upon San Antonio and its history—first as an outpost of the far flung Spanish empire in America. It became the desire of the citizens to impress upon visitors to the city the leading role played by the city in development of a new continent. Likewise, the desire grew to show the world that dual races can dwell together in amity, preserving the customs and manners of both.

PUBLIC OPPOSITION TO OIL MARKET BILL SEEN

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—J. Howard Pew, president of the Sun Oil company, told a senate judiciary subcommittee today that if the millions of gasoline consumers knew what was proposed in a bill to divorce marketing from other phases of the oil business, "you'd have an army of them here opposing this legislation." The Philadelphia testified at a hearing on the bill by Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) to separate the business of producing, refining and transportation of petroleum products from the marketing business. "The gentlemen who argue for this will say that of the four divisions of the oil industry, two are now profitable, two are unprofitable," he said. "They want all four made profitable; that is, they want

Man Grabs Rifle, Holds Up Utah Shooting Gallery

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 22 (AP)—A man entered Ray Douglas' shooting gallery last night, picked up a rifle, and asked, is it loaded?
"Sure," said Douglas.
"O. K. then this is a stickup," replied the visitor.
Douglas grasped the weapon and yelled for the police. Arrested, the man gave his name as G. W. Preston, 22.

the consumer to pay enough to insure four profits instead of two." Few said he wondered if proponents of the bill "really believed there is any injustice or unfairness in the present marketing setup."
"I have suspected," he said, "that they hoped through this legislation to fall heir to a department of the business that has been built up through many years at great cost."

TIERRA BLANCA FARM BULL NAMED CHAMPION

PLAINVIEW, Tex., April 22 (AP)—Pansy's dreaming Sam, a Jersey bull owned by the Tierra Blanca farms of Canyon, today was named the senior and grand champion in the Jersey department of the eleventh annual Pinhandle plain dairy show.

It was the second successive year the bull had won the highest honors in this show. Junior championship honors went to Oxford Masterman's Volunteer, also of Tierra Blanca.

The Tierra Blanca farms also represented the senior and grand champion Jersey cow, fancy premier's carling. The junior championship was awarded China Cup's Double Darling, shown by O. Stansell of Floydada. Jack Shelton, vice-director of the A. & M. extension service, judged the Jerseys.

Judging of the Holstein-Friesian class started this afternoon. Clarendon was first. Floydada second and Tula third among the ten teams entered in the vocational agriculture dairy products judging contest.

MINNESOTA LEADS IN COOPERATIVES

ST. PAUL (AP)—Minnesota has 1,800 cooperative organizations, the largest number of any state, a University of Minnesota Agricultural college survey shows.

Creameries lead the list with 642. There are 359 shipping associations, 315 elevator, 194 oil associations, 121 stores, 163 credit unions, 72 potato and produce shipping associations and 34 cheese factories.

BOY MEETS GIRL

It happens every day, so let's not blame the young lady in question if it was a case of love at first sight.

GIRL BAKES CAKE

And, because she was wise, she chose Gladiola Flour and Mary Lane's Yellow Angel Food, an ideal baking pair.

BOY GETS CAKE

The first slice showed him that the girl knew her cakes; the second convinced him it was genuine true love.

GIRL GETS BOY

She knew her pies and tarts as well as her cakes and hearts, so they married and lived happily ever afterward.

You Get Mary Lane's Book of Baking

You may find no husband in the 112 pages of Mary Lane's Book of Baking, 1938 Edition, but you will find 82 simple, practical recipes, each of them adjusted for use with Gladiola Flour so that a baking failure is out of the question. The book is bound with a beautiful plastic binding, is generously illustrated with photographs, and each page contains useful suggestions to help you do an even better job of home-making.

The Book of Baking usually sells for 25c, far below its actual value, but we'll send a copy to Gladiola users for 10c plus a coupon you'll find in 12, 24, and 48-pound sacks of Gladiola Flour. Ask your grocer for Gladiola, send for Mary Lane's Book of Baking, and try Yellow Angel Food in your own oven!

Yesterday: Five miles out of Port-au-Prince, hearing the last whistle of the Empress, Mr. Gregory remembers the importance of a silly bracelet.

CHAPTER XIV

DO you think we should venture out of the city?" Mr. Gregory asked anxiously. They were finishing their lunch at the British club, and seemed loath to leave its coil and conservative protection.

"Why not?" Joyce asked lightly. We have plenty of time, and Dr. Gregory remarked particularly that the ride to the Petionville Club was a "worth-while sight."

"I dare say the road takes us through the jungle." He stood up, smiling. "Well, if you really would like to go, we'd better start."

His tone conveyed the suggestion that she might say, "Oh, never mind, thank you," but she didn't say it. He wanted to go, terrifically, if only or spite.

Their faithful guides were waiting attentively for them. Mr. Gregory mentioned the Petionville Club to the driver, and he grinned in quick understanding.

In less than a few minutes they were out in the country, climbing a mountain road which overlooked the harbor. Here and there a tiny cottage dotted the scenery; makeshift affairs they were, some of narrow shafts of bamboo or sugar cane, some of odd bits of second-hand lumber, but all of them were white-washed in flashing elegance.

This afternoon the only traffic along the road was an occasional native, astride his burro, his long legs hunched up in front to prevent their dragging on the ground. The animals seemed no larger than good-sized dogs, and Joyce visualized the rider dismounting by the simple method of standing up and letting the animal walk out from under him.

A mile or two out they passed a section of roadway undergoing repairs, unusual because it lacked the attendant bustle of concrete-mixers and steam rollers. Along the shoulder were piles of cut logs, and a long, whispering sigh, it died out altogether. The three boys looked at each other in consternation. Mr. Gregory groaned.

"Sounds like we're out of gas," Joyce remarked wearily. The driver quickly disapproved the theory by the old expedient of poking a stick down into the tank to measure. It was half full. The other boys peered uncertainly beneath the hood, their black faces long in distrust. Their magic wagon had stopped!

Mr. Gregory leaned his superior intelligence to a study of the situation, but his knowledge of mechanics was quite obviously limited. They cranked the engine; they shook the car; they crawled under the chassis and looked up; they jiggled wires. But nothing brought a response from the exhausted motor. Minutes passed quickly, and now seven o'clock was not long off, and down in the harbor the Empress was blowing last-warning calls to come aboard.

"We'll have to get another car!" Mr. Gregory cried excitedly. "Where?"

HE mopped his brow nervously; on all the road there was no sign of any other vehicle. "But what will we do?" There was a tremor in his voice.

er reminded them, with an air of responsibility.

"Yes, we must go fast," Mr. Gregory settled himself beside Joyce. "Quarter past six," he noted, glancing at his watch. "We've plenty of time."

"Some car," the driver announced with experience as they drove off. "Some car go six mile in six minute." He placed the accent on the second syllable of "minute."

"That's right," Mr. Gregory conceded. The interpreter shook his head. "Not these car," he pointed out disparagingly.

"Some time these car," the driver corrected him sharply. "Ncn. Not these car." The interpreter was emphatic.

NOW the third boy, the guide who spoke no English, raised his voice in question; in deference to him they resumed the argument in their native tongue. Words flew fast. "Our chauffeur seems to be fighting for the honor of his car," Joyce laughed.

"I rather he kept his eyes on the road," Mr. Gregory replied morosely.

Presently the boy at the wheel bent forward, jiggled a few levers, and waited expectantly. There was a quick response to his efforts; the tune of the motor changed from a tumble to a deep, threatening roar, accented by staccato back-firing. But the car leaped forward to a new lightning pace of about 50 miles an hour.

The driver bent forward to catch the eye of his coupling associate. His words were unintelligible, but his tone said distinctly: "There! What did I tell you?"

The car shook under its tremendous pressure, and in the back seat the customers were jolted under their teeth chattered.

"Hey!" cried Mr. Gregory. "Wait a minute!" The driver turned and smiled, mistaking the order for a compliment.

"Stop, I say! Stop!" It was the motor which obeyed his command. It gave one deep spasmodic check, followed by several put-put-put gasps; then, with a long, whispering sigh, it died out altogether. The three boys looked at each other in consternation. Mr. Gregory groaned.

"Sounds like we're out of gas," Joyce remarked wearily. The driver quickly disapproved the theory by the old expedient of poking a stick down into the tank to measure. It was half full. The other boys peered uncertainly beneath the hood, their black faces long in distrust. Their magic wagon had stopped!

Mr. Gregory leaned his superior intelligence to a study of the situation, but his knowledge of mechanics was quite obviously limited. They cranked the engine; they shook the car; they crawled under the chassis and looked up; they jiggled wires. But nothing brought a response from the exhausted motor. Minutes passed quickly, and now seven o'clock was not long off, and down in the harbor the Empress was blowing last-warning calls to come aboard.

"We'll have to get another car!" Mr. Gregory cried excitedly. "Where?"

HE mopped his brow nervously; on all the road there was no sign of any other vehicle. "But what will we do?" There was a tremor in his voice.

Now that darkness was almost upon them, the country was suddenly stripped of the glamour with which the sunshine had endowed it. The black depths of the jungle forest loomed before them, forbidding and oppressive. Strange eyes seemed to peer through the brush; vague figures darted through it silently.

All at once, in strange and terrifying comprehension, Joyce heard the sound which had haunted her imagination. Slowly it came through the air, as if echoed from some far-away hillside; then quickly it was unbelievably near, as if she herself were the center of it. The dull, primitive tom-tom of the Haitian drums. She listened, straining her ears to locate the source of it, and as she stood there, shuddering in vague, unreasoning fear, she saw first spring to life within the jungle, like signals in answer to the drums.

Mr. Gregory was walking about the car frantically, wringing his hands. "We've got to get away!" he cried. "I won't be marooned on this island!"

There was a rustling in the bushes behind her, and Joyce turned quickly. A little girl stepped out, babbling in excited French. Not until she laid out her wrist, upon which the golden bracelet still jangled, did Joyce recognize her. She stopped down, to catch an idea of what the child was saying.

"Pa-pa . . . . . She caught that word; then something about 'le navire,' the ship. And suddenly she was gone, back into the woods, as quickly as she had come.

"What was she saying?" Joyce asked her interpreter. "She asked about her pa-pa. Ms have heard."

"We'll have to walk!" Mr. Gregory insisted again, his voice shrill and high-pitched. "It's five minutes to seven."

But at that moment the child was back, and following her Joyce saw a tall, tremendous Negro, shadowed by the rays of a lantern he held aloft.

HITLER GETS SOCKS FOR HIS BIRTHDAY

BERLIN, April 22 (AP)—Fuehrer Hitler got enough hand-knitted socks on his 49th birthday to fill an army division.

There were more than 10,000 pairs to be handed over to social welfare organizations. The Fuehrer also got a number of other things to wear, all made by admiring followers.

Other gifts, presented during yesterday's birthday celebration, a three-foot birthday cake, a model of the streamlined, four-passenger "people's car" Hitler wants every German to possess; an ancient Arabian sword belt and a big silver casket from the envoys of Iraq and Bolivia.

Mr. Gregory cried excitedly. "Where?"

HEAT PUT ON ICKES TO SELL HELIUM GAS

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Secretary Ickes told a press conference today that "some quarters" had been putting the heat on him to conclude a contract with German Zeppelin interests for American helium, but that he was hesitant to make the sales without guarantee it would be used as an instrument of war.

The secretary did not name the "quarters" which were applying the "heat," but he assured questioners he was not quarrelling with the state department. The latter has approved a license for the export of the gas from the United States monopoly in Texas.

The German Zeppelin Co. is seeking to purchase helium to inflate a new dirigible to replace the Hindenburg, destroyed in an explosion over Lakehurst, N. J.

Ickes said he was concerned about possible use of American helium to inflate foreign airships that might be used to bomb United States cities.

DALLAS, Tex., April 22 (AP)—Helium gas produced in Texas since establishment of a plant at Amarillo would have brought $200,000,000,000 if sold at 1917 prices, members of the American chemical society were told today.

Helium papers were presented at the society's meeting by H. P. Cady of the University of Kansas, and C. W. Seibel of the U. S. Bureau of mines.

The once rare gas can now be produced by the government's Amarillo plant for about a cent per cubic foot. It lifts aircraft and is used in treatment of several respiratory ailments.

Seibel, describing extraction of helium from natural gas, said carbon monoxide was removed by chemical scrubbing, a refrigeration process involving pressures as high as 2,500 pounds and temperatures as low as 300 degrees below zero.

REDUCED PETROL STOCKS ADVISED BY VAN WOUDE

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—R. G. A. Van Der Woude, president of the Shell Union Oil Company, addressing the annual meeting of stockholders today, warned the oil industry to bring gasoline stocks down to more normal levels.

"In view of present business conditions," Van Der Woude said, "the industry would be well advised to make its estimates on a more conservative basis. A revision upward could always easily be made at a later date, once actual conditions justify it."

He said that, generally, too optimistic views are being maintained about the future demand for gasoline, adding:

"It would be well in the interests of the industry as a whole and the interests of steady employment if such optimism were somewhat moderated."

New Officers of Panhandle Press

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME DEFENDED BY FOUNDER

PITTSBURGH, April 22 (AP)—City Councilman Robert Garland, slightly excited as always about this time of the year, denied once again today that daylight saving time is illegal.

The Irish-born councilman, widely known as the "father of daylight saving," is credited with starting the movement in America back in 1916 when he secured the endorsement of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce.

He headed a group that went to Washington and urged congress to enact that wartime legislation making "fast time" law.

The act was later repealed, but the practice of providing "one more hour of God's sunlight"—As Garland puts it—remained in much of the nation.

The father of "fast time" said that it will be observed for the 21st year in 1938 in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Great Britain, Garland concluded triumphantly, changed time April 10 and France and Belgium on March 27.

DAR ENDORSES NAVAL EXPANSION PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—The Daughters of the American Revolution, urging a foreign policy of "reserved independent action" as opposed to either isolation or collective action, endorsed the President's naval expansion program.

D. A. R. resolutions, passed by the 47th Congress, described the naval building increase as "designed for the peace and independence of the United States and for the preservation of law and order."

In another resolution on internal policies, the congress urged the necessity for "a comprehensive understanding of the American way of orderly change under law and the administration of justice, that representative government may continue."

President Roosevelt arranged to greet the Daughters this afternoon and in so doing stirred a ripple of excitement among the 4,000 delegates and visitors.

GOOD WEATHER BOOSTS HIGGINS MARKET SALE

HIGGINS, April 22—With favorable weather conditions Tuesday and roads in good shape after last week's storm, a large run of livestock was sold at the Higgins Livestock Sale company.

The miscellaneous goods was disposed of before the stock sale began and brought very good prices.

In the hog alley no choice butchers were offered but light weight hogs sold up to $7.20 and packing sows $6.65. Pete Macias of Canadian, J. E. Tarbox and W. F. Brown were the principal consigners.

DRY CLEAN NON- WASHABLE UPHOLSTERY.

Upholstered furniture which cannot be cleaned with a lather of mild soapsuds or a commercial furniture shampoo should be cleaned with a reliable dry-cleaner. First, go over the piece thoroughly with a vacuum cleaner to remove all dust, then clean with a soft clean cloth dampened over small sections until the entire piece is cleaned.

At the end of the 1934 fiscal year, the cost of the World War to the United States had reached nearly 42 billion dollars.

ROAD GRADING IN HUTCHINSON IS COMPLETED

Grading operations on the Pampa-Borger road, Highway 209, were moved into Carson county this week, with the practical completion of grading on the road in Hutchinson.

In addition to the grading in Hutchinson being practically finished, all of the 43 culverts between Pampa and Borger have been constructed and installed.

The bridge over Dixon creek, near Borger, is now complete.

Workmen were scheduled to pour caps for the piling at Spring Creek Vaughn, Howard Jensen, Carolyn bridge today, while at White Deer creek bridge, a pile driven has been set up and driving will probably begin tomorrow.

ALFALFA BILL AGAIN IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 22 (AP)—William F. Murray, "call me the Governor Alfalfa Bill on the ballot," entered from retirement today and plunged into another campaign for the governorship.

He offered a platform of economy to lure the Democratic nomination. Tall, gaunt, gray-haired and bushy-mustached—but heavier than when he left office three years ago—Murray said:

"At 68, I'm a better man than a lot of those now at the capitol who are only 40 because I don't eat and drink myself to death."

The "Face of Tishomingo" declared the "New Deal has no more to do with this election than infant baptism" and said he will campaign on state issues only.

Murray, the eighth candidate to file, has stiff opposition. But he once joked: "The more the merrier."

"I'd rather not be governor if I can't win by a clear majority."

In filing, he struck from the ballot a clause that he had supported his party's candidates in the last election.

Murray said, "with some exception of individuals, all my life I have voted the general Democratic ticket."

In the hog alley no choice butchers were offered but light weight hogs sold up to $7.20 and packing sows $6.65. Pete Macias of Canadian, J. E. Tarbox and W. F. Brown were the principal consigners.

In the cattle yards the sale was a hot affair from start to finish. About one hundred fifty head changed hands before noon and many of these went through the ring later making a nice profit.

The Liner Commission Co. of St. Louis, Mo., was one of the heaviest buyers, and there was more competition evident than at any previous sale for some time.

A car load of medium quality steers were weighed at 7.25 per hundred. These cattle were carrying some flesh weighing on the average about 680 lbs. They had been run on wheat pasture for the past winter. Forty-one head of mixed cattle consisting of almost every kind were sold in a bunch and sold at around $6.35 per hundred. Bulls sold well with a top of $5.25 and several head on the light weight order brought around $4.75 a hundred.

THICK SOLES ADD TO YOUR STATURE.

Fashionable eighteenth century Europeans had their footwear made with elevated soles to protect their delicate slippers from the puddles and dust of the unpaved roadways. A famous Parisian shoe designer recently revived the style in France by creating slippers with five-eighths inch soles, and smart Fifth Avenue shops immediately imported the idea. Draped slippers for evening with thick brilliant soles, patent tattle-toe pumps in black or blue for town wear, or a cross-strap, open-toe, open-heel slipper in brown or black suede with patent soles give ultra smartness to the spring costume, and add a bit of height to your stature.

The sequoia trees of California are thought to be the oldest living things. Some are estimated at 4,000 years old.

Spring! Nature is awake ... are you?

That lacy feeling you call "spring fever" may be just constipation. If it is, try the remedy that comes from Nature's own laboratory—purely vegetable Black-Draught.

Black-Draught sets the lax colon to work again and brings prompt, thorough relief. More, it tends to leave the colon working regularly. Depend on Black-Draught, the "Laxative of the South."
