

PAMPA BOY SHOT IN EXTORTION PLOT

M'Connell And M'Colm Win By Almost 3-1 Majority

PAIR RETURNED IN LANDSLIDE RECORD VOTE

Roger McConnell and L. L. McColl were re-elected trustees of the Pampa Independent school district yesterday when the largest vote in the history of the school district was cast. When the polls closed at 7 o'clock last night, 1,139 votes had been cast.

Roger McConnell led the ticket with 819 votes, closely followed by L. L. McColl with 809. R. E. Gatlin polled 303 votes and H. W. Waters 271. Twenty-eight ballots were mutilated.

Lee Ledrick was elections judge with J. S. Wynne and B. W. Rose clerks. Voting was brisk during the entire day. More than 100 visited the polls in the high school building the first two hours and from then until closing time at 7 o'clock last night the number increased. At noon 400 persons had voted and that number had doubled by 6 o'clock.

Although no candidate issued any public statement regarding school policies he favored, certain groups in the city assured the lively race by favoring and opposing certain issues. Churches and many prominent citizens were active in the campaign. Even students in the high school debated the questions and many were the parents who were "instructed" how to vote.

Past school elections caused little interest, any where from 50 to 200 voters exercising their rights. Mr. McConnell has been a member of the school board for 12 years. He is a farmer residing in the northwest part of the district. Mr. McColl has been a member of the board less than two months. He was named to fill the unexpired term of Tom Ross, resigned because of ill health. Mr. McColl is manager of the Hinderliter Tool company here.

Mr. Gatlin operates the Consumers Oil company and Mr. Waters operates the H. W. Waters Insurance company. Other members of the school board are C. Hunkapillar, president, P. Buckler, secretary, and J. M. Daugherty. Roy McMillen is business manager.

Phares Relieved Of Duties As Head Of Texas Highway Patrol

AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—L. G. Phares, the man who organized the Texas highway patrol 11 years ago, was out today as its head. C. H. H. Carmichael, director of the state department of public safety, of which the patrol is a division, announced Phares had been relieved of duties as patrol chief.

Incompatibility and a lack of cooperation with other units of the department were given as reasons for the change. The second important case in the department recently, a few weeks ago, C. G. McGraw, head of the bureau of identification, resigned.

It was announced Capt. Homer Garrison, assistant director of the department, would assume direct charge of the patrol, as well as the drivers license and safety divisions, without relinquishing his status of assistant director. Carmichael and W. H. Richardson Jr. of Austin, chairman of the public safety commission, which ordered the change, said Phares had not been discharged from the department, but merely removed as chief of the patrol, and had not been yet assigned to other duties.

Phares III, ill at his home, Phares declined to comment except to say that he had received notice of the ouster, did not know what it was all about and had asked his superiors for further information. Now 58 years old, Phares, a veteran peace officer, formed the highway patrol in 1927 as part of the state highway department, nursing it until it became recognized widely as a model in such police work.

In 1935 the legislature created the safety department, incorporating the patrol and the Texas Rangers as divisions, and Phares was successful in acting director and director. After about a month in the latter position, however, bitter opposition to him developed from a group of sheriffs, and Phares resigned to return to his former post as head of the patrol. Carmichael succeeding him as director.

There had been sharp discussion even over his appointment as director, in April, 1936, with the result See NO. 1, Page 7

RESERVATIONS FOR LUNCHEON BEING URGED

Preliminary to the spring meeting of Oilfield Highway 41 association in Cordell, Okla., Thursday, a meeting of all persons interested in the highway, whether or not they can attend the association meeting, will be held at noon Wednesday at the Schneider hotel.

Those who desire to attend the meeting here have been advised that it will be necessary to telephone the Pampa Chamber of Commerce 384, prior to 9:30 a. m. Wednesday to make reservation. The luncheon is to be concluded at 1:15 p. m. Price of the luncheon is 60 cents.

Marland of Oklahoma members of the Oklahoma Highway commission and other Oklahoma officials will be present at the association meeting in Cordell, Okla., Thursday.

A letter, copies of which were sent to highway boosters over the Top O' Texas area, points out the necessity of "concentrating on Oklahoma." "Let's concentrate on Oklahoma next Thursday Oklahoma has a couple of gaps that should have immediate attention and a big crowd from Texas and Colorado at Cordell April 7 will do more to impress the Oklahoma officials with the importance of the road than anything else.

"We've got dozens of bad gaps now but it will not be impossible to have a solid ribbon of asphalt between Oklahoma City and Denver in the next two or three years if See NO. 4, Page 7

Reelected To School Board

Photos By Fletcher's Studio

An unprecedented number of voters in the Pampa independent school district trooped yesterday to the polls and put their stamp of approval on a newcomer to the board, L. L. McColl, left, and on a veteran member of the board, Roger S. McConnell, right. The trustees were re-elected by an overwhelming majority of nearly three to one. When Mr. McConnell was first elected trustee more than 10 years ago, all pupils in the district attended school in the two buildings on the high school campus. Now they attend school in six buildings.

Kidnaping and Murder Of Mother, Daughter Near El Paso Feared

PECOS, April 2 (AP)—Officers searched fruitlessly today for some clue to the mysterious disappearance of a prominent Berkeley, Calif., mother and daughter, whose car was abandoned on the Old Spanish Trail in the hills of West Texas.

A searching party of 25 men scoured an area about 10 miles southwest of here, but found no trace. They ended the hunt temporarily tonight, but promised to renew it tomorrow. Justice of the Peace R. F. Ross at Balmorhea said he did not believe the women, Mrs. Weston G. Frome and her daughter, Nancy, University of California graduate had met with harm but was unable to explain their disappearance.

Husband Fearful. In Berkeley, Calif., however, the husband and father, assistant sales manager for the Atlas Powder Co. there, expressed fear they had been kidnaped and murdered and planned to leave by plane for El Paso to join the widening search. The automobile (1938 Packard), luggage and tools missing was found Thursday night by Deputy Sheriff Sam Davis of Balmorhea. The motor was in perfect running order and five gallons of gasoline were in the tank.

Justice Ross said that Wednesday afternoon two soldiers of a surveying party working 20 miles west of Balmorhea said the Frome car came by and that the women waved a friendly greeting. Car Scratched Up. Thirty minutes later an army truck returning the soldiers to their maneuvers base near Balmorhea, passed See NO. 5, Page 7

Bombing, Death Threats Mailed To F. S. Brown

A 15-year-old youth was shot down by police and a second youth escaped last night when an extortion plot was nipped in the bud at Harvester Park football stadium just as the intended victim had handed over an envelope which the boy thought contained $1,000 in small bills.

The youth, who was shot three times, is James Brown, 15, who resides at 2200 Alcock street, in Pampa. The intended victim of the extortionists is F. S. Brown, owner and operator of the Standard Food Stores and Markets in Pampa. The two are not related.

The unexpected turn of events for the two extortionists came at 10 o'clock last night when Mr. Brown followed directions given to him in a letter which he received Friday morning and went to Harvester Park to turn over the "money" which was a folded newspaper. However, the entire plot had been unfolded earlier in the day to postal authorities, county sheriff's officers and city police. Two cars of police and sheriff's officers had gone to the park earlier and lay in wait for the appearance of the author of the letter.

The letter, postmarked in Pampa at 4 p. m. Thursday, and addressed to "Mr. Brown, Standard Food No. 1, Pampa, Texas," was marked "Personel" in the left hand corner of the envelope. The note said, in substance: "Bring $1,000 in small bills, tens and twenties in a plain envelope to Harvester Park exactly at 10 o'clock tomorrow night and blink your headlights. If you don't do this I will bomb your store. Don't tell the officers or I will kill you."

Red Pencil Used. On the bottom of the note was drawn crude pictures of a mask and a bomb. In the extreme right hand corner was written, "Ha, Ha." The note was printed with a red pencil. Police Chief Hurst and Constable Otis Hendrix said they saw another youth running from the scene and started in pursuit when he got into an automobile. The officers, however, lost the trail when their car became mired in a ditch they tried to cross in taking a short-cut.

Mr. Brown received the letter in the Friday morning mail and immediately notified police and postal authorities. It was then that they planned the coup which was to prove the extortionist's undoing last night. Three automobiles went to the scene at Harvester stadium after arranging with Mr. Brown to come to the park at 10 o'clock and follow instructions of the extortion letter. Sheriff Earl Talley and Deputy Sheriff Buford Reid were in one car. Deputy Sheriffs O. T. Lindsey and George Inman were in another, and Police Chief Art Hurst and Constable Otis Hendrix, in the third. Each car was placed at a vantage point so that they could close in on the man or men when they showed up. Car Lights Blinking. Shortly before 10 p. m. Mr. Brown drove to the appointed place in his car in which were hidden City Patrolmen Robert Irwin and Welton Wilson. Promptly at 10 o'clock Mr. Brown began to blink the lights of his car as directed. Almost immediately a figure appeared out of See NO. 6, Page 7

Each school in the city will be visited by firemen this week and they will discuss the clean up campaign. Pampa Boy Scouts will take an active part in the campaign. The See NO. 1, Page 7

THREE INJURED IN EXPLOSION

Three men were injured, one believed fatally, in an explosion that occurred at 9 o'clock last night at Skelly gasoline compressor plant 5 at Phillips, near Borger.

As a hospital in Borger last night little hope was held that E. E. Scott, 33, plant superintendent, would survive. Scott was burned from head to foot. Only his shoes were not burned off his body.

Bonnie Brown, 34, operator, suffered fatal burns, but his injuries were not believed serious. E. R. Anders, 38, engineer, also suffered burns on the face, but his injuries, as were those of Brown, were pronounced not serious.

Exact cause of the explosion had not been determined last night, but it was believed that gas leaking from some unknown point in the plant filled the 40x120 foot building, causing the explosion which blew off the roof and blew out all the walls except on the east side of the structure.

Superintendent Scott, most seriously injured of the three, was standing in the doorway when the blast occurred. Ten feet away was Guy Christy, working at a still. Christy was uninjured.

The blast also blew the hood off a compressor engine, and set two compressor engines burning, but the fire was put under control by draining out the engine. See NO. 2, Page 7

HJACKERS TAKE $4 FROM PAMPA MAN

A Pampa man identified as a Mr. Hall was robbed of $4 by two men who accosted him as he was passing the Case Planning mill 2179 West Tying, about 10:30 o'clock last night.

Hall, whose first name was not given to police, reported the incident by telephone about 10 minutes after the robbery occurred. Police said. Whether or not either of the men had a gun was not known. One of the men pressed some object against Hall's side, police said.

Hall was walking to his home when the men stopped him at a dark place near the mill. He could give little description of the robbers, police said, and the two hijackers had not been apprehended late last night. See NO. 2, Page 7

7 LOCATIONS IN PANHANDLE

SIX of the seven new locations staked last week in the Panhandle oil field were in Gray county with the seventh in Hutchinson county, which led the previous weeks activity.

The Gray county locations were in widely separated parts of the county. One was in the west of Pampa, two west of LeFors, one south of LeFors and two east of LeFors. The Texas company led activity with three locations; all in the LeFors area.

First new locations were staked in previous territories filed with the local office of the Texas Railroad commission follow: Champlain Refining Company H. B. DOHERTY TO ATTEND MEET

Commander Howard Buckingham of the Pampa American Legion post received word yesterday that National Commander Daniel Doherty of Woburn, Mass., would attend the 18th district convention to be held in Pampa on May 21 and 22.

Commander Doherty will speak at the afternoon session on May 22 after meeting with the Lubbock district the previous day. He will fly here for the convention, the latter said. State commanders from Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado, and Kansas will be invited to attend the convention here.

Rebuilding of Mann Furniture company store building on South Cuyler street, recently gutted by fire, has been started by L. C. Graham, contractor, who was issued a permit for $4,000 for the job. Other permits issued last week were for repairs with the total being $5,300. Total for the year reached $58,775 up to yesterday.

Several new residences are under construction in the Cook-Adams addition but no permits have been taken out as yet. I SAW . . . CAROLYN SUE LIPSHEY WINS FIRST AT DALLAS

Carolyn Sue Lipshey, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lipshey, won first place in the nine-year-old division of the state-wide music contest which was held Friday and Saturday in Dallas.

The talented pianist, who was the youngest entrant in the nine-year-old division at the Panhandle Music Festival held in Amarillo recently, was third in rating among a group of 115 contestants at Amarillo. Carolyn Sue is a pupil of Mrs. May Foreman Carr. I HEARD . . . That a local negro rushed into the county tax collector's office about 11 o'clock Friday night, just as employees were closing up, and panted, "Ah, wants to git me a cah license." When reminded that he was pretty late getting his license, the negro replied, "well sah, ah had to wait 'til after de Louis-Thomas fight to see whether ah was goin' to walk or ride."

Britain Expects To Sign Italian Treaty Within Next 2 Weeks

LONDON, April 2 (AP)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's earnest hope for a British-Italian friendship pact seemed near realization tonight. Informed diplomatic quarter predicted a formal agreement would be signed within two weeks to end the strain existing between London and Rome since the Ethiopian war of 1935-36.

Fresh insurgent gains, meanwhile, heightened prospect of an early end to Spain's civil war which has been a source of irritation between Britain and Italy. Insurgent Generalissimo Francisco's swift drive across Northeast Spain toward the Mediterranean coast and the mass flight of refugees from Spanish territory indicated final victory might come quickly.

Five Wells Tested For Potential Of 2,115 Barrels

CONTINENTAL COMPANY BEGINS BUILDING LOUISIANA PIPELINE

PONCA CITY, Okla., April 2—Continental Oil Company has started construction work on its new 6-inch discharge pipe line from Ville Platte to Tepetate, Evangeline Parish, Louisiana, for which the survey was recently completed. It was announced at the company's office today.

The new line will have a daily capacity of 12,000 barrels. Completion of the pipe line will connect Ville Platte production with Continental's Louisiana pipe line.

The Ville Platte field is a

THREE WELLS COMPLETED IN GRAY COUNTY

Heavy rains last week slowed oil activity in the Panhandle considerably but made farmers jubilant. Only five oil wells were placed on Railroad commission test and new locations dropped to seven.

New oil added to the field potential totaled 2,115 barrels with Gray county's three completions gauged for a total potential of 1,030 barrels. Carson county registered one completion and Hutchinson one.

Best well of the week was the Hobbs Oil company's No. 2 J. T. Hodges in section 14, block X02, L. A. Patillo survey, Hutchinson county which gauged 560 barrels.

Six of the seven new locations staked during the week were in Gray county with Hutchinson county getting the other one. The new locations were widely separated, two being in the west Pampa pool, two in the area west of LeFors which has been quiet for two years and two in the east LeFors pool, also a quiet spot during recent drilling.

The Texas company led activity with three first intentions, all in Gray county. One was east, one south and one west of LeFors. Completions for the week by counties, follow.

In Gray County.
Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 21 Fee Land 227, section 15, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 348 barrels with lime pay between 2,950 and 3,065 feet.

Bradshaw Oil & Gas Company No. 6 Arnold, section 148, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 400 barrels. Lime formation was between 3,198 and 3,280 feet.

Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company No. 5 R. W. Harrah, section 153, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 282 barrels with pay between 3,225 and 3,290 feet in lime.

In Carson County.
Sinclair-Prairie Oil & Gas Company No. 11 Cooper, section 4, block 9, I&GN survey, gauged 525 barrels with lime pay from 3,045 to 3,100 feet.

In Hutchinson County.
Hobbs Oil Company No. 2 J. T. Hodges, section 14, block X02, L. A. Patillo survey, was given a potential of 560 barrels with the lime pay between 2,985 and 3,060 feet.

Continental discovery, two wells having been completed during the past few months, with three more now drilling. Continental has a block of 7,825 acres in this area.

The company is also constructing 25 miles of telephone lines connecting Ville Platte, Tepetate, and its basic loading station. Completion of the project is scheduled for April 20th.

EAGLE TAKES THE RAP

Investigating they discovered the eagle was not injured seriously and they brought it to Roundup.

OIL COMPANIES FILE APPEALS IN HIGH COURT

MEXICO CITY, April 2 (AP)—An appeal to the Supreme Court embracing 22 charges of constitutional violation was drawn up today by foreign oil company executives seeking to regain their $400,000,000 properties expropriated by the government.

Officials of the 17 American and British companies taken over by President Lazaro Cardenas said they would ask the Supreme Court Monday to declare his March 18 decree unconstitutional on grounds which included:

That article 27 of Mexico's constitution authorizes expropriation of land and water only; whereas they lost their tools, plants and equipment.

That the companies were deprived of their properties without due legal procedure.

That no indemnification was paid at the time of the expropriation.

That the properties expropriated were not designated beforehand in accordance with law.

That a government monopoly of petroleum was set up in violation of article 27 of the constitution.

In addition to the Supreme Court appeal, the officials said they would petition the department of national economy for administrative revocation of the Cardenas decree.

Meanwhile, the peso improved in view of the United States government's recognition of Mexico's right to expropriate foreign-owned property and its willingness to see the companies' claims scaled down.

The peso was quoted in unofficial trading at 4.50 to 4.60 to the dollar, an improvement of 10 to 15 points over yesterday's quotations.

Transactions have been carried on by private banks since foreign exchange dealings were suspended at the time of the expropriation.

Some observers said, however, last night's exchange of courtesies between the United States and Mexican governments had done little to improve Cardenas' difficult economic situation.

This was complicated by depreciation of the peso following the expropriation and subsequent dis-

BRITON URGES ARMY AGE BE FIXED AT 17

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, April 2—Leslie Hore-Belisha, Britain's tradition-breaking war minister, has handed his critics another jolt by publicly advocating the age for army recruiting be lowered from 18 to 17 years.

Hore-Belisha now is deep in the formidable task of streamlining Britain's army and finding men to fill it.

Socialists raised a storm in the House of Commons yesterday, protesting that many youths under 18 were being accepted into the army because they falsely stated they were 18. Their amendment to the army bill to prevent recruits from enlisting unless they produced birth certificates was defeated 121 to 61.

The newest army order divides the royal artillery into two branches in line with Hore-Belisha's program to modernize and mobilize the army.

The field branch would have lighter pieces to take abroad in case of war and the coast defense —anti-aircraft branch heavier guns primarily for defense.

When Britain's army crosses the English channel if it should go to another war in Europe it will not be burdened with calvary, horse ar-

HINES MAY BE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNORSHIP

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL
AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—Reports persisted today that two more candidates would enter the race for Governor and thereby make the entry list for that office one of the longest in Texas' history.

Harry Hines, member of the State Highway commission, admitted in Dallas his political hat was "getting loose" on his head, while from Wichita Falls came the report Tom L. Hunter, oil operator, might decide to make a fourth try for the governorship.

Meanwhile, former Governor James E. Ferguson, whose intentions constituted still another important question mark, stated again in Austin his wife, Miriam A. Ferguson, had not made up her mind whether to get into the contest.

Other announced candidates, including Attorney General William McCraw and Ernest O. Thompson, Railroad Commissioner, were perfecting organizations, working on platforms and otherwise preparing for the campaign.

Statements Promised
Both Hines and Hunter promised statements soon, the former saying he had been bombarded recently with questions of whether he would toss his hat in the ring.

"I am entirely satisfied with the situation from reports throughout the state," Hines said, "but I feel duty bound to confer with my business associates and organizations in which I participate to determine whether I can in justice to them do so."

Hunter said he was continuing to receive a flood of messages and personal visits urging him to become a candidate and Wichita Falls sources expressed the opinion he was seriously considering running.

"Mrs. Ferguson has not decided," Ferguson said. "I note the so-called leading candidates have not stated their views on important issues. Why don't they do so? The people know where we stand."

Against Sales Tax
He added there was nothing to a report the Fergusons had decided to support Karl Crowley, Post Of-ice solicitor whose announcement for Governor was a high spot of the political week.

In his announcement, Crowley said the people wanted to know what relief would be offered to a debt-ridden state and whether candidates were willing for great out-of-state interests to "continue to rob Texas."

Previously he had called on McCraw and Thompson to resign their public offices or get out of the gubernatorial race and said he himself was returning to Washington to quit his job there before beginning his campaign.

MINERS ACQUITTED

HARLAN, Ky., April 2 (AP)—A group of union coal miners were acquitted by a Circuit Court jury today of charges they considered to intimidate non-union miners and union members who broke the rules by fastening bells around their necks. The defendants included John Gross, president of the Verda Local, U. M. W., a prominent cheerer from a small crowd in the court greeted the verdict.

Tex's Topics

I learned something Friday. . . . And that was not everybody who reads this column can take it long enough to read through to the end. . . . Friday, you know, was April Fool's Day and the column's content was in keeping with the spirit of the day. . . . People still were calling last night to congratulate me upon a streak of good fortune in getting that Hollywood contract for a movie with Ben Bernie, Walter Winchell, Alice Faye and Lou Lipra, the sensational Italian actress, recently come to our shores from Mussolini's home town. . . . The idea was that you were supposed to discover in the last line that the screen cutie from Italy had spelled her name backwards. . . . However, not too many got the point, it seems.

Several of my creditors got a bit worried about it, too. . . . I'll know better than to try to pull another one like that. . . . Capt. Herman Lambrecht, who has been ailing ever since the climate of San Antonio got to him three weeks ago, is up and going again. . . . Eugene Mann tells a funny story about Mrs. Harriett Hunkapillar forgetting a couple of passengers and leaving them stranded in Amarillo the other day. . . . Mrs. Carl Boston and Mrs. A. C. Green can you give you more of the details. I understand. . . . Pampa Kiwanians got an awful shock Friday when they read Page One of their "Kiwanis Klatter," monthly club paper. And, then they were reminded at the bottom of the page to take a slant at the calendar.

Sally Rand may open Southern Association baseball with a dance at home plate. This would be the best bit of fanning the season would see. . . . Latest international complication: An American living in France contests the validity of a divorce obtained by her Argentine husband in Mexico. . . . Eleven more Russians face a firing squad. The typical Russian these days is the one with his back to the wall. . . . American Indians want legalized firewater. Next they'll want aspirin to put the fire out. . . . On a fine spring day congressmen forgot golf to do a lot of work. More evidence of their unpredictability.

No one has ever been able to fathom electricity, or in other words, what comes out of the TVA. . . . There were 8,000 fewer theaters in the world last year than the year before. Dictators were more interested in the goose-steep than Donald Duck, and in Mausers than Mickey Mouse. . . . The European situation is not the reason Kentucky plans to appoint 10 new colonels this year. . . . Hitler is reported interested in a new title. But of course every large-scale real estate operator realizes the importance of good titles. . . . A Chicago woman hired a maid who said "she'd like to clean up here" and left a few hours later with $4,000 in jewels. She's one maid who does what she says she'll do.

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY.
 County officials had the busiest day since the removal of the court house to Pampa when the voters of the county unanimously declared the removal of the polls.

ROBERTA COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MET HERE TO CONFER WITH GRAY COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, ENGINEERS, LOCAL BUSINESS MEN, AND OTHERS REGARDING THE CREATION OF A BRIDGE ACROSS THE CANADIAN RIVER AT A POINT 25 MILES NORTH OF PAMPA.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY.
 As many as 75 men interested in the Boy Scout movement were expected to meet at the high school gymnasium for the second lesson of the adult leaders' training course.

The big football game of the spring season was definitely set for April 11: Coaches Odus Mitchell and Argus Fox announced. The game was to be between the graduating Harvesters and the 1933 prospects.

And corporations earning between $6500 and $25,000, even though corporations earning less than $25,000 are given special "relief" provisions, would pay more than under the House plan.

And the net result would be that all corporations would pay the Treasury $75,000,000 more than they would if the present corporate surplus tax law were retained and $97,000,000 more than the House plan would levy. Treasury estimates on which both Senate and House rely say the present law would bring in $873,000,000 in corporate income taxes for 1938, the House plan $851,000,000 and the Finance Committee bill $948,000,000.

A $110,000 net income company would pay $1530 tax under the Senate plan as against $1325 under the House bill. A $100,000 net income corporation which distributed 75 per cent of its earnings would pay $14,748.40 under present law, $17,000 under the House bill and $18,000 under the Senate plan.

On the other hand, a $100,000 income company which distributed no profits would pay $20,000 under the House bill and only $18,000 under the Senate plan.

The Securities and Exchange Commission has just dropped charges against a New York public accountant accused of misrepresenting himself as an SEC officer—a charge which, if proved, would have disqualified him from practice before the commission. Evidence was largely based on a conference between the accountant and two corporation officials. SEC found the charges not substantiated.

The record shows that most of the Billmore conference of Oct. 12 took place in the bar, and that each of the persons present had two or three alcoholic drinks," the SEC found solemnly. "This circumstance does not inspire great confidence in the memory of the witnesses as to exactly what was said on that occasion."

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—In all the rendezvous of fiction, in all the short stories and novels and films there is no character so uniquely temperate as Charlie Chan.

You are certainly well acquainted with Chan. Before Earl Derr Biggers died he had him in six novels. Hollywood has sent him tracking criminals through 18 pictures. And millions have listened to his adventures on the radio.

But consider these points: Chan never carries a gun. He has never been known to lie or boast. He never smokes or takes a drink.

This is the character laid down by Biggers and that is how it must be with all subsequent authors who write new Chan stories for the films or radio.

To me the character of Chan is even more of a phenomenon than Tarzan or Mickey Mouse. His creator patterned him after a sergeant on the Honolulu police force and made him a factor in this entertainment-loving world that goes on and on like another of Tennyson's restless rivers.

Today Mrs. Earl Deer Biggers, a blue-eyed, brilliant woman, lives in a lovely Georgian house, surrounded by green lawns in Can Marino, California. She is a portrait painter and she likes to attend the races at Santa Anita. Just a few miles away from her home, but she is vigilant in her duty to Chan. She would not think of letting him sip a highball, or adopt a bragadostio tone in telling about his latest exploits.

With her staff of lawyers and advisers she watches over old Charlie as carefully as if he were a child slated for kidnapping.

And he is a valuable child at that. Her contract with 20th Century-Fox calls for four new Chan pictures a year, and for each of these she receives $10,000. Then there are the radio rights which bring in something like $1,400 a week.

I suppose she is very grateful to the actor, Warner Oland, who has done so admirably by her husband's greatest character. Oland has made so many Charlie Chan pictures that he gets fan mail addressed to "Mr. Chan." And people hail him as Chan on the street. Frequently he obliges autograph hunters with a scrawled "C. Chan."

The studios have gone so far to safeguard their prize hero as to groom a stand-in for Oland, in event of long illness or his death. Perhaps you've noticed the young Chinese boy who plays Chan's son in the pictures. His real name is Keye Luke and he will be the new Chan in the event one is ever needed.

Meanwhile, the old boy continues to be the scourge of murderers and blackmailers. He tracks them down and outwits them. Though they have him cornered and threaten him with blackjacks and guns, he never stoops to the crude, strong-arm methods of our modern G-men. Not Charlie. Mrs. Earl Derr Biggers might not like it.

Webb Pupil Wins Three-R Contest

WEBB, April 2—First place in the 3-R contest at the Gray County Interscholastic League tournament in LeFors Friday was won by Dorothy Jean Kratzer. Second place was awarded Norma Lee Lantz. Both are Webb students.

Other Webb students who placed were Burtie Fae and Wayne Quarles, second and third respectively, in junior declamation.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

Every morning "Judge" O. B. Grant, oil scout for the Texas company and one of Pampa's most popular and picturesque characters, calls up LaVerne (Tillie) Ballard at the Railroad Commission office to see if there's any new oil or gas locations for wells on file. Friday morning, he called up as usual. "Nothing today, Judge," said Tillie. Then she got to thinking. In a few minutes she called him back.

"Judge, I forgot to tell you that there's a new location on file in Plot 23, but I don't know the number of the lot," she said.

"That's all right, Tillie," replied the Judge, who practiced law for a number of years. "I'll find it. It's probably somewhere in the Talley addition." And Tillie answered, "It likely is somewhere in the suburbs of Pampa." Twenty, thirty, forty minutes went by. Then Tillie's curiosity got the best of her.

She went over to the Texas company office and she found the Judge coming out of the elevator. He had a map or two under his arms and his hands full of records and books. "You know, Tillie," he said, "I can't find that location anywhere. I've just been in the Talley addition." He says that plot number sounds familiar, and that he thinks he handled the abstract, but we can't find it. Then Tillie began laughing. "Why, you old sucker," she said, "you're standing on it. Do you know this is April Fool?" And the last Tillie heard as she re-entered the Rose building was the Judge's threats.

News Clearing House

Pampa Texas, April 2, 1938.

Editor, Pampa Daily News.
 Dear Sir:

The following article, I should like to have you publish under your News Clearing House Section. To the People of Pampa:

I read with a great deal of interest your article appearing in Thursday's Daily News written by Mr. J. N. Duncan relative to the Fairgrounds and grandstand project being built by the Federal WPA and the City of Pampa. From the letter it appears that Mr. Duncan would have the people believe that the City Commission has not been called on to pay but a very small amount of the cost of this project and that they have no control over what is spent in the future in repairing it.

Mr. Duncan must have failed to read in Monday's News the article carrying the figures which showed that the taxpayers had spent $37,500 of their own funds on this project, besides 50 odd thousands of dollars of federal money. The petition that was circulated and the information that was given the people before the project was acquired was that the only cost to the city would be the cost of the land. Since the land cost was only $9,000, about $28,000 was spent unintentionally by the City to get the project in the condition it is now. As far as any rebuilding is concerned, it occurs to me that the people have no more assurance now than they did in the beginning that they will not be out another $28,000.

It is peculiar that Amarillo has secured three underpasses, Lubbock over $100,000 for street improvements and other cities large grants for water improvements all through WPA, and the only thing Pampa has

Around Hollywood

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—The labors that hang heavily over movie production grow steadily. In its task of pleasing everybody and offending none, Hollywood is finding it more and more difficult to make pictures the way it would like to make them.

Practically heartbroken in his own picturesque way was Director William Wellman the other day.

"For five years I've wanted to kill off an actor this way," he said, "and I finally got it into the script of 'Men with Wings.' Fred MacMurray's an aviator, taken prisoner in Spain. He's facing a firing squad, right beside his waiting grave, and he's given a chance to say his last words. He looks up at the sky, says, 'There's one thing I'd like to know—just what is this war all about?'"

But, Wellman's pet scene is out of the picture. Spain—one side or the other—might take offense. Or some of the people elsewhere who are "interested" in Spain.

New Prexy Has Plans
 The Motion Picture Relief Fund has a new president—Jean Hersholt—and a new set-up under jurisdiction of Actors, Writers and Directors guilds.

The funds, to help those within the industry down on their luck, has been operating with insufficient money, and Hersholt's first step will be a scheme to more than double the present intake.

Clients of the fund will remain anonymous as before. The names of some of them—once great stars—would be startling if revealed.

Movie sounds the microphone never picks up: the exploding of a theory; the dropping of an option; the breaking of a heart.

It's happening again: the general soft-pedaling of the terms "musical" applied to film productions. The studios are swinging quickly away from the vogue which dominated their output these past several years. Zanuck's high-powered musicals are going temporarily into the discard; several pretentious musicals announced by Paramount are being quietly overlooked; and the word going the rounds that the public is "fed up" with the single-swingings.

The letter is not being written with any thought of telling the people who to vote for in the coming City election, as the people should study the things in question and make up their own minds. It is being written, however, with the idea of presenting certain facts that will cause the people to think.

Sharing the Comforts Of Life . . .

By R. C. HOILES

BOTH WEAK.
 Dorothy Thompson, as all patriotic citizens should do, greatly resents the spread of dictators in Europe. She points out very aptly that it is not due to the strength of the countries headed by dictators but it is due to the weakness of the democracies. . . . Were the democracies strong and virile and functioning as a practical democracy should, democracies would be so strong economically that these dictators who crush private initiative, would not be able to gain as they have been in the last few years. . . . But democracies have been doing many of the same things that the dictators have done: namely, they have confiscated inalienable rights, which man himself has no right to barter away, nor does the government have a right to barter away. . . . As a result, the democracies are so economically weak that there is no concerted effort to preserve them or to defend the principles that have become so badly distorted and misapplied.

It was not the strength of the barbarians that destroyed Rome. It was the weakness of the morals of the Romans that permitted it. Just so, it is not the strength of the dictators, but it is the misconception of what democracy means that has weakened our democratic social structure.

How's Your Health?

By IAGO GALDSTON, M. D.

New Views of Epilepsy
 Hippocrates wrote a classical description of epilepsy some 400 years before Christ. He argued that epilepsy, then known as the sacred disease, is no more sacred than any other disease.

Like all other afflictions, epilepsy is due to certain specific causes. What these are, Hippocrates did not know; nor do any of his followers even today.

Epilepsy has been studied intensively. It has been found that the "falling sickness," characterized by recurring and sudden loss of consciousness and of muscle control, is a symptom complex with many causes. Some are known.

Brain injuries, new growths or hysteria may give rise to "epileptic seizures." But the cause of the true epileptic fit is a mystery. A new theory maintains that "epilepsy is due to the development of abnormal rhythms in the brain."

This theory is based on facts revealed by electro-encephalograms (graphic records of electrical changes arising in the brain) of normal brains, and of epileptics' brains during fits.

Discussing their theory of epilepsy three doctors of the Harvard Medical school write:

"Each cell may be considered as a rhythmically acting unit, like a muscle cell in the heart, which contains electro-chemical mechanisms which regulate the frequency and amplitude of the cardiac (heart) contractions. When cells become organized into tissues or organs, rate regulation is developed as a special function of a certain cell or cells. . . . In our opinion, in epilepsy certain of the rate-regulating mechanisms (of the brain) are defective."

"As regards frequently regulation, the brain may be likened to a motorcar which is being driven along a road with a ditch on the right called the too slow ditch and a ditch on the left called the too fast ditch. The rate regulating mechanisms of the brain normally steer along the center of this road, but when these mechanisms are out of order they steer the brain first to one side and then to the other. The more defective the steering mechanism, the less quickly are deviations from the normal corrected."

This theory clarifies the nature of epilepsy, but we still don't know what causes the "steering mechanism" to break down.

SLAYING CONFESSION REJECTED BY POLICE

EL CENTRO, Calif., April 2 (AP)—San Diego police declared today Basil Coleman, 55, claimed to have confessed and then denied the brutal slaying of Ruth Muir, Y. W. C. A. secretary at La Jolla, Calif., two years ago, was not the man they sought.

"He's not the man we want," Sgt. Ed Diechmann of the San Diego Police homicide squad told Sheriff R. W. Ware, after he had questioned Coleman here at length. "He just can't be."

Coleman was held by Ware, however, for further investigation in connection with an attack on Magdalena Saguna, 10-year-old school girl, which had led to his being taken in custody.

Sheriff Ware previously had said Coleman was "mentally unbalanced," alternately admitting and denying he had killed Miss Muir, who was vacationing at La Jolla from Riverside and formerly had lived in San Antonio, Texas.

But he declared Coleman's confession checked with the known facts in the Muir killing and he wanted San Diego officers to question him. Diechmann had handed the Muir investigation.

SOVIET CLAIMS JAPAN TRIED TO BRIBE ENVOY

MCSCOW, April 2 (AP)—The Soviet Russian government today

protested to Japan that the Japanese charge d'affaires at Kabul, Afghanistan, attempted to enlist the new Soviet minister to Afghanistan as a Japanese spy.

K. A. Mikhailoff recently replaced Boris Skvirsky as Soviet Minister at Kabul.

(Skvirsky, well known in the United States as one of the first Soviet diplomatic agents in Washington, was not mentioned in the December 24, 1937, announcement of Mikhailoff's appointment to the post he formerly held.)

"At that time diplomatic circles speculated on his fate, since his removal was disclosed after the arrest and execution of Vladimir Zuckerman, foreign office department head who was among eight high Soviet officials to face the firing squad for treason."

Behind the Scenes In Washington

WASHINGTON, April 3—Chairman Pat Harrison and his Senate Finance Committee may be kept busy explaining a hurried leap to "relieve business" which would have the effect of increasing the total corporation tax burden by around 10 per cent.

The committee substituted a flat 18 per cent rate on corporation profits for the House proposal of a 20 per cent tax with four cents deductible for each dollar paid out in dividends—known as the "20-16 plan."

Corporations with net incomes of less than $6600 would pay a smaller tax under the committee bill than under the House bill. So would corporations which distribute little or none of their profits through dividends.

But corporations above the $25,000 mark which distributed considerable sums of earnings through dividends would pay more in taxes than they would under the present law.

WILD LIFE PRESERVE CREATED AT CHANNING

CHANNING, April 2 (AP)—Tom Belcher, living about five miles northeast of Channing, is creating a wild life preserve in the brakes of the north Canadian river on his farm. The land is rough and thickly covered with mesquite, wild plum, sage and skunkberry, and thousands of quail for many years have wintered in the region where shooting is prohibited. Feed for the wild fowl always is plentiful as Belcher farms on a large scale. The soil conservation service did about $20,000 worth of work on Belcher's land last year, erecting dams, spillways and water gates, and planting trees and shrubbery in the canyons, and placing baffles across gullies to prevent erosion. There is a pond on the land well stocked with fish. Belcher raised about 200 tons of maize heads and several thousand bundles last year.

PRE-EASTER CAMPAIGN WILL BEGIN AT CHURCH

A pre-Easter campaign of evangelism will begin this morning at the First Methodist church and will continue through Palm Sunday, April 10. Pearce, pastor of the church will preach and he will meet the children in the afternoon at 4 o'clock. The pastor, who will direct the visitation, will be assisted by the Rev. Tony Dyess of Anton, who will have charge of the music and young people's services at 7:30 o'clock each evening. These services will be part of the Aldersgate commemoration which Methodists throughout the world are observing as the 200th anniversary of the John Wesley's experiences.

REFUGEES BOMBED BY INSURGENTS' PLANES

CERBERE, France, April 2 (AP)—Spanish insurgent bombing planes rained explosives on the railway line between the French frontier and Port Bou, Spain, tonight just a few hours before four trainloads of refugee Spanish government militiamen arrived at the border en route to Spain. More than 4,000 of the Spanish government's fighting men who fled across the Pyrenees into France rather than surrender to insurgents came to Cerbere from Bagneres de Luchon after a secret vote. Port Bou is just across the border from Cerbere, Mediterranean port at the eastern end of the French-Spanish frontier.

RICE'S HIGH HURDLER BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD IN TEXAS RELAYS

FRED WOLCOTT RUNS COURSE IN 13.9 SECONDS

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT.
AUSTIN, April 2 (AP)—Two-headed Fred Wolcott, Rice Institute's six-foot, two-inch sophomore scouter, bettered the accepted world's 120-yard high hurdles record with a downwind burst of 13.9 seconds at the eleventh annual Texas relays here today.

The southwest's Olympic hopefuls, until last year, had never run the event, moved away from his fine field at the first hurdle and rode the chill wind to a performance that surpassed the 14 seconds record owned by Bob Osgood, University of Michigan.

Referee John L. Griffith, commissioner of the Big Ten conference, and Clyde Littlefield, University of Texas coach, measured the course at the meet's conclusion and pronounced the distance accurate.

Wolcott, a reckless runner who specialized in the low hurdles in school days, toppled over two hurdles but such incidents failed to throw him off a velvety stride. Last year at New Orleans Sugar Bowl meet Wolcott tried the route for the third time in his career and finished a close third to Forrest (Spec) Towns and Alan Tolmich, national A. A. U. high and low hurdle finalist.

Twenty minutes after his hurdle triumph Wolcott returned to the track and won the 100-yard dash in 9.8 to finish high point winner of the meet.

Seven Records Tumble.
Tolmich dished Sam Allen, curly-haired Oklahoma Baptist college timber skimmer, in an exhibition match race but his effort of 14.2 seconds, which equaled the old record he shared with Allen, was far off the incredible pace the rangy Texan set.

Seven meet records tumbled and one was equaled as university, college, junior college and high school tracksters took advantage of the unseasonal "norther."

No points were awarded, but the University of Texas won six first places and tied for two others to pace the university division. Rice pulled up with four firsts; North Texas Teachers and Oklahoma Baptists, two; Texas Christian, Drake, Howard Payne of Brownwood, Tex.; Yankton college of Yankton, S. D., one each.

Brackenridge high of San Antonio topped the school boys with two firsts, while Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio, John Reagan of Houston, Milby of Houston, Schulenberg and Hobbs, N. M., won one each.

In the junior college division, Schreiner Institute of Kerrville won one first while Texas and Rice freshmen tied for the other.

Outstanding in the relays running was the job turned in by North Texas Teachers college quartet of Wayne and Elaine Riceout, the distance twins, Alvin Christen and Henry Morgan, in the college distance medley relay. Over the route of 440, 880, and three-fourths of a mile, the team raced to a 10:14.4 mark, eight and one-fifth seconds better than

Rough Matches On Mat Card Tomorrow Night

DeCorrevont Now Plays Golf

Bill DeCorrevont, the Chicago lad who was hailed as the outstanding high school football player in the nation last year, spreads his activity to other fields these days. that set in 1936 by Archie San Romani and his Kansas State teachers, Harold Cagle, great Yale Oklahoma Baptist quarter-back, turned in a 47.8 seconds anchor for a stunning 3:19.1 college mile relay victory that bettered the old mark of 3:21 set by Oklahoma Baptist and Abilene Christian college in 1935.

Texas muscled football halfback, B. F. (Beefus) Bryan, pulled himself over the bar at 13 feet 10 1/2 inches to shatter by a scant quarter inch the old relays record set by Roy of Loyola of the South.

The six-year-old junior college mile relay mark of 3:26 was clipped by the Rice and Texas freshmen teams in a dead-heat finish. Turney of Rice and Riddle of Texas, anchor men, came down the stretch as a single runner to turn in a composite time of 3:25.8.

Jud Atchison of Texas and Bob Hubbard of Minnesota tied in the broad jump, leaping 24 feet 7 3/4 inches to shatter the old mark of 24 feet 6 7/8 inches which had withstood the challenge of jumpers over the past decade.

Roy Bueck, Schulenberg high school football hero, climbed over the 120-yard high hurdles in 15 seconds flat to crack the old record of 15.3 while Harold Hall of Milby high school, Houston, equalled the 100-yard sprint time of 9.9 seconds.

An evening of action is in store for Pampa wrestling fans tomorrow night when Promoter Cliff B. Chambers presents a "mixed" card headlined by George Hartay and Wild Bill Venable. Hartay to date has been a clean, scientific grappler but whether he can stay that way against Venable is the question before the house.

The preliminary at 8 o'clock sharp will be the "wrestling" match of the night with Dick Sampson and Bob Cummings furnishing the excitement.

A semi-final in which anything can happen will feature Pasha Bey and Andy Tremaine. Bey, naturally, will be rough. Tremaine prefers to wrestle but when the going gets too raw, he changes his tactics. Bey is a Turk and it is his practice to spread a prayer rug at his corner of the ring, then kneel and invoke the blessing of Allah on his work. In the past Allah must have told Bey to "go to town" because his practice has been to leap from his corner and "bam" let it land where it may.

Hartay, one of the classiest grapplers ever to step in a local ring, will face a Venable determined to win at any cost because he had heard that the winner of the main event will get the winner of the semi-final next week and he is banking on Tremaine getting the nod.

A few weeks ago the same Tremaine toppled Venable from a main event perch and it put poor old Bill. That's why Hartay is scheduled to have a busy evening.

Reserve tickets are available at Cretney Drug for 65 cents, tax paid. General admission at the arena will be 40 cents.

Q.C. means Questionable Credit: The result of failure to pay bills promptly — as agreed.

CREDIT is a privilege—a convenience—extended upon the merchant's or professional man's confidence that when bills are rendered, they will be paid promptly, according to terms or agreement.

Pay each bill promptly and you establish a "Prompt Pay" record in the files of the Credit Bureau which, like money in the bank, will grow in value. For promptness in paying makes your credit good—and keeps it good!

But—failure to pay bills on time, through neglect or carelessness, can only establish a reputation for Questionable Credit ("Q.C.") and cause embarrassment—to your creditor just as much as to you. For no one likes asking for payment—even when it's past due.

The remedy for "Q.C." is simple: Bills are due on the first of the month following purchase and past due after the 10th.

Safeguard your credit! Pay all bills by the 10th—or promptly as agreed.

WORKERS WITH SYPHILIS LOSE 168 MILLIONS

When U. S. Public Health physician, C. O. Wenger, appeared to southern plantation owners to allow treatment of their negro workers for syphilis, he argued practically in terms of dollars and cents that healthy help would insure.

Annually American workmen lose $168,000,000 in wages because of the disease. In addition, it is estimated that $100,000,000 a year is expended for medical attention for workers infected with syphilis.

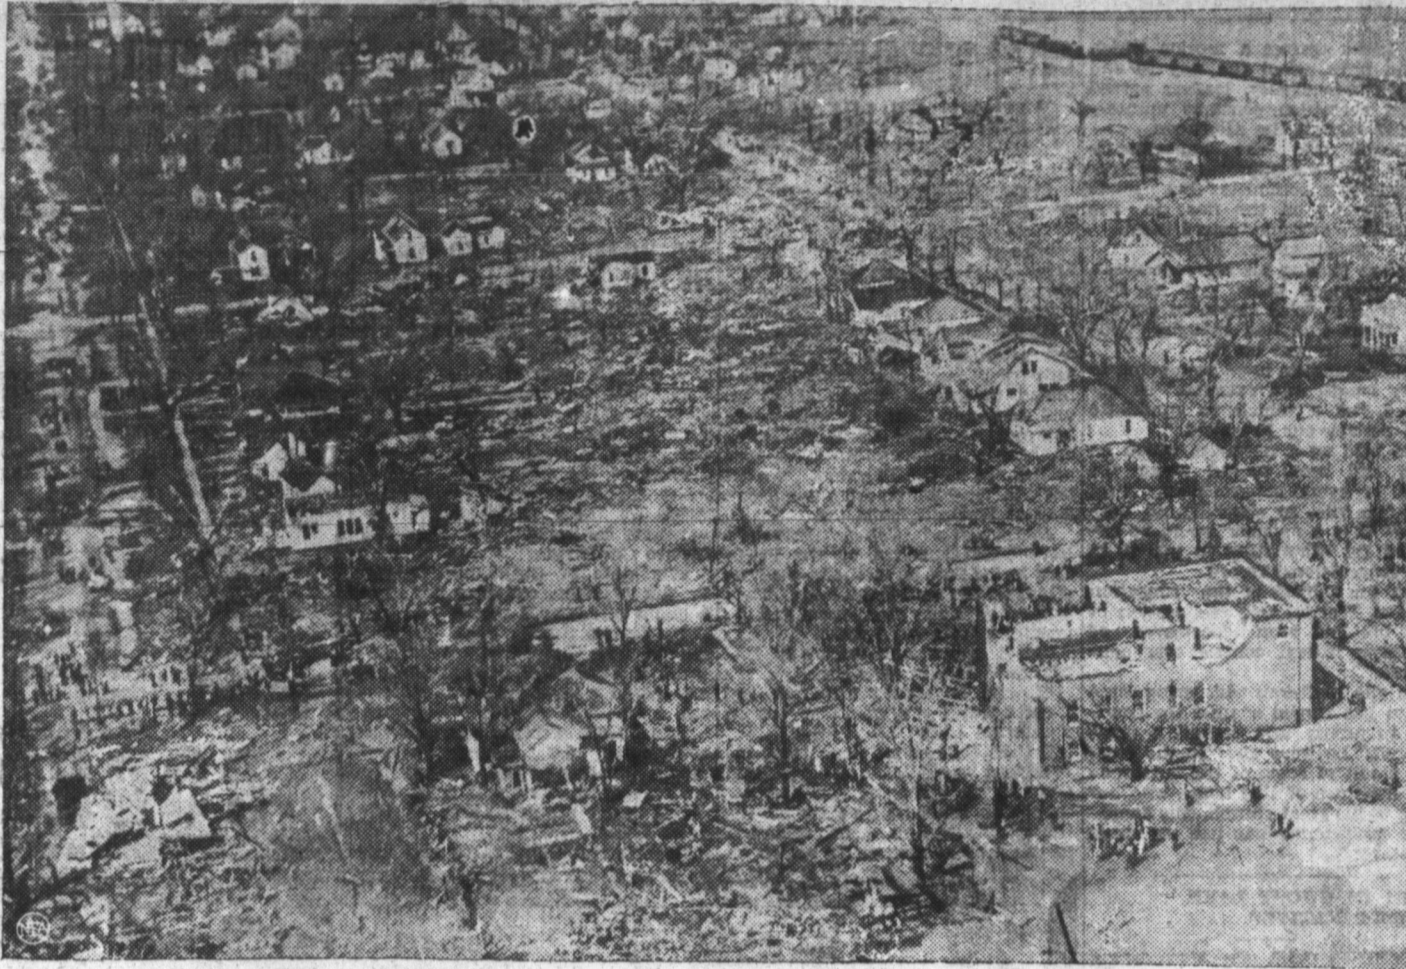

The annual toll is a sum larger than that necessary for the construction of the Boulder, Grand Coulee and Meritt dams. It amounts to more annually than the sum which Senator Robert LaFollette asked of Congress Thursday for a 10-year nation-wide fight against the disease.

The industry, as well as the public generally, should become alert to the menace of syphilis as shown by the findings of a study made in recent years among 12 different groups of workers representing various industries and regions.

Blood tests of workers in these groups showed nearly 4% of every 100 workers infected.

From a strictly dollars-and-cents viewpoint, then it is a paradox that this nation, which claims to be most efficient among all industrial nations, is least efficient in affording the staggering cost of two days a year per worker lost due to venereal disease, this applying to the 28 million gainfully employed men between 18 and 50.

Cyclone Devastates Columbus, Kan.

Here is the scene of complete devastation in Columbus, Kan., as rescuers searched ruins for victims of the tornado which leveled a large part of the southeastern Kansas town of 3,500, killing seven and injuring more than 100 persons. Note the great swath of devastation cut by the wind from the lower left corner of the picture to the upper right, where a train was derailed and two coaches overturned. Note also the brick schoolhouse in the right foreground with the room and an entire side torn away. Many children of grade school age were injured, but none was killed. The twister continued its course northward, striking towns in Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri and Illinois, killing more than 30 and injuring hundreds.

HOUSE COULD VETO MEASURE BY MAJORITY

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—Administration lieutenants, reputedly with President Roosevelt's consent, proposed a compromise on the Government Reorganization bill today in an effort to save that bitterly fought measure from threatened house defeat.

The compromise would give Congress the right to veto Presidential reorganization orders by a simple majority ballot. As the bill now stands, a two-thirds vote of both houses would be necessary.

That concession and another which would keep the education bureau in the interior department, came after a victory for opponents of the bill, who had succeeded in stalling off any attempt to end debate.

Terms of the compromise were announced today in a packed and wildly cheering house by Rep. Warren (D-N.Y.), a member of the special reorganization committee. Reliable persons said his declaration was decided upon after house leaders had conferred by telephone with President Roosevelt, who has been vacationing at Warm Springs, Ga.

Education Bill Issue

This is what the compromise on Congressional overruling of executive orders would do: give Congress the right, within a 60-day period, to accept or override a Presidential reorganization order by adopting a resolution which would not require the President's signature to become effective.

The guarantee to keep the education bureau in the interior department, thereby assuring that it would not be transferred to a proposed new department of welfare, was an outgrowth of protests that the bill would let the government control the education of the nation's youth.

The two features of the compromise must be passed upon as amendments to the bill after the house ends debate. That will not be until some time next week, leaders said. After the house voted 191 to 149

ANTI-MONOPOLY SPEECH PLANNED BY PRESIDENT

ABOARD ROOSEVELT TRAIN ENROUTE TO WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—President Roosevelt tonight conferred with the administration aides in preparation for his long-planned anti-monopoly message to congress.

Robert H. Jackson, former assistant attorney general in charge of anti-trust cases and recently promoted to the solicitor generalship, and Benjamin Cohen, a public works attorney and New Deal bill framer, boarded the presidential special at Atlanta as the President traveled back to Washington from a ten-day stay at Warm Springs, Ga.

Jackson and Cohen frequently have been consulted by the President in the past on methods of strengthening the anti-trust laws. They said they had been requested to meet the train at Atlanta.

"Is it about anti-monopoly legislation?" Jackson was asked.

"It can be almost anything, but I don't think you would be out on a limb on that," he replied.

Recent indications have been the President would ask a congressional study of the monopoly situation, rather than immediate action on the theory insufficient time remained in the present session for action on

President Roosevelt headed back to Washington to go to grips again for his reorganization and other programs after a ten-day rest at his Warm Springs, Ga., mountain cottage.

MEXICANS GIVE TO PAY FOR OIL PROPERTIES

JUAREZ, Chihuahua, Mexico, April 2 (AP)—Mexico dug deep into its pockets today to help pay for expropriation of foreign oil holdings.

Workers, the soldiery and government employees were contributing funds for the national debt of repayment contracted by President Lazaro Cardenas.

The state of Chihuahua, largest in the Mexican confederation, has a quota of 5,000,000 pesos.

Thirty-two Juarez labor unions—among them the powerful GTM controlling Mexico's oil industry laborers—already have raised 15,000 pesos.

The Juarez military garrison has contributed 16,000 pesos, city employees another 2,000, the border customs 4,000, and civil court employees have pledged three to five days salary.

Are You Interested in the City of Pampa?

Each voter should have a voice in the spending of the City's money. Have you had that voice in the past two years? We people of Pampa were informed that the only cost to Pampa for the City Park, on the highway to Miami, would be the purchase price of the land (160 acres east of the city).

Do you know that at least $30,000.00 or $40,000.00 of the Taxpayers' money of Pampa has already been spent in addition to approximately $60,000.00 of Federal money, and for what?

For a piece of land consisting of some 160 acres, bounded on the south by an unpainted, warped board fence and containing a broken down grandstand with a useless horse racing track and a lot of horse stables "BUT NO HORSES!"

Did the voters have any voice in the spending of this money, and can you ever expect any voice if the present City Commission pursues its intention of spending additional thousands of dollars on this project?

Instead of the expenditure of these vast sums of money and labor for a useless race track, the City Commission should have used Federal assistance along with the city's money in the construction of needed permanent improvements for the good of our city. Then we would now have many paved or graveled lateral streets, others oiled, curbing laid, also additional city parks where needed within the city, and sidewalks at least alongside of our main streets. These are improvements needed and used every day of the year.

Other cities in the Panhandle have obtained these permanent improvements.

What is the reason for bringing this important matter to your attention? Simply this, on next Tuesday, April 5th, the people are going to the City Hall voting booth and elect a City Commission to manage your business for the coming two years. You are going to choose between the present Commission which has already expressed themselves as being well pleased with what they have done for four years and a continuation of such management, or for a commission composed of Ed Carr, Lynn Boyd, and Dave Osborne, all experienced in city management, who will work for the sound, useful, permanent and solid betterment of this city.

SEAMAN TALKS ON SUPPORT OF CHURCHES

"Support of the Churches and Their Spiritual Aims" was the topic discussed by the Rev. E. Cecil Seaman, of Amarillo, bishop of the North Texas Episcopal diocese, when he spoke Friday at the regular noon-day meeting of the Pampa Kiwanis club in Hotel Schneider.

Bishop Seaman cited the influence that can be brought by the civic club member who takes an active part in the support of the church's aim in a community.

He urged every member to take an active part in church work in order to make himself a more useful member of the organization and of the city in which he lives.

President J. B. Massa announced to members that a meeting of Kiwanis members at a smoker in Hotel Schneider at 8 p. m. Tuesday. At 7:45 p. m. the same night wives of Kiwanians will meet in the city rooms of City Hall to organize the Kiwanis Amns. Mrs. Jack Goldston, temporary chairman, has called the meeting.

Entertainment at Friday's luncheon was supplied by Jimmy Sullivan, tenor, and Mrs. Claude Morley, pianist. Bishop Seaman was introduced by the Rev. Robert J. Shell, rector of St. Matthews Episcopal Mission in Pampa.

Evangelist

The Rev. J. C. McKenzie, missionary of district No. 19, will do the preaching in the revival meeting at Calvary Baptist church, S. Barnes street, beginning today with the morning service. Rev. McKenzie is a splendid preacher and has had much experience in evangelistic work. He will conduct services twice daily, at 10 o'clock in the morning and at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The evangelist condemns sin in high and low places and his messages are dynamic in the old-fashioned John the Baptist manner.

Joe Strickland of Fort Worth, will have charge of the music. Mr. Strickland has had long experience in the field of evangelism as he was on the staff of state evangelists for several years.

The church wants this to be a revival which will reach the friends of the congregation. The public is urged to attend all of the services of the church with a friendly hand.

Suggestions Given On How to Tackle That Easter Parade

By JOAN DURHAM
AP Feature Service Writer

Three events mark Easter Sunday in most families: Going to church, joining the fashion parade and meeting for the family dinner.

The problem of which church to attend sometimes arises in the case of engaged couples.

Generally a man goes to his wife's church unless his interest in his own is unusually strong, says the Rev. A. Paul Wright, pastor of the second Reformed Church in Tarrytown, N. Y. Consequently, a young man often attends the church of which his fiancée is a member. If both have an equal interest in their respective churches, the couple may go to one church on Christmas and the other on Easter.

Corsage and Collection

It has become customary for the mother of the family to receive an Easter corsage to wear to church. That's just one of those niceties which further binds family devotions. Shoulder corsages are usually worn on the left shoulder, with the blossoms up.

Nearly all churches take up an extra collection or offering on Easter. And many families consider their Easter contributions as important an expression of appreciation as those made at Christmas.

What To Wear

How about hats in church? "I'm afraid Easter hats aren't designed with the church in mind," Mr. Wright remarks. "There's not

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY OF HENRY FORD TO BE OBSERVED APRIL 11

By DAVID J. WILKIE.

DETROIT, April 2 (AP)—Almost 50 years ago a gangling young man and the attractive daughter of a Greenfield village farmer stood in the parlor of the young woman's home and spoke their marriage vows.

They promised, in the Episcopal service of the time, read by the Rev. Stephen, W. Frisbie of St. Paul's church in Greenfield, to "love, honor and obey."

The bridal couple were Henry Ford and Clara Bryant, whose fathers owned adjoining farms, in the Detroit suburb.

April 11, next, there will be an observance of the golden wedding anniversary at Fairlane, the Ford estate in Dearborn. There also will be a birthday observance, for it was on Mrs. Ford's twenty-first birthday that she was married to the farm youth who was destined to become one of the world's most noted industrialists.

Ford said he did not know just what form the anniversary observance would take. "Edsel and Eleanor are fixing up something." Edsel is the Ford's only child and Eleanor is the younger Ford's wife.

Another anniversary celebration lies ahead for Henry Ford, for next July 31 he will be 75 years old and Detroit's city council has initiated plans for an observance to start a fortnight in advance of that date. If the plans materialize it will be the first time in Ford's career that one of his own birthdays has been marked by anything like a formal observance.

Looks 65.

"An era of real prosperity lies ahead," he said. "You need not qualify that with an 'if' for there is no 'if' about it."

Approaching the three-quarter century mark, Ford appears in the very best of health. He stoops a little, but might easily pass for 65.

Mrs. Ford, who finds her greatest outside interest in the farm and garden movement and in social welfare work, apparently is also enjoying good health.

Whatever other observance there may be of the wedding anniversary it is more than probable there will be reminiscences of the first meeting of Henry Ford and Clara Bryant. They were introduced at a dance at Greenfield in 1886.

"It was a case of love at first sight," Ford afterward remarked.

"He made absolutely no impression on me at the time," said Mrs. Ford. "I didn't see him again until a year later."

Wife Was 'Believer.'

"Then I went home and told my parents about him. He was different from other young men.

Ford has always referred to his wife as his greatest supporter. He calls her "The Believer."

When Ford was trying to put together his first horseless carriage in a little brick barn back of their home in what is now downtown Detroit, most of his acquaintances scoffed at him. Mrs. Ford kept telling him the vehicle would go. When it finally did go to the accomplishment of much backfiring and clattering, she sat in the seat beside him.

Because it cost the country too much to feed him, a Muskogee, Okla., prisoner ate himself out of the county jail in 20 days.

MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE TO DISCUSS ACTIVITIES

The Ministerial Alliance will hold the regular monthly meeting on Monday, April 4, at 10 o'clock in the study of the First Baptist church.

Plans then will be made for the noon-day meetings to be held the week before Easter for men only in the city club rooms. The cooperation of the civic clubs in dispensing with their programs is being secured.

The Alliance exists as a clearing house for inter-church activities and for the cooperation of the churches in civic and spiritual enterprises and in its nature is not intended to replace the minister nor the laymen in their individual church obligations.

A cordial invitation is extended to ministers of all denominations to associate themselves with the Alliance.

Family Life May Provide a New Ideal for Women

By RUTH MILLET

American women have a habit of patterning themselves after the woman who happens to be in the limelight at the moment.

So, perhaps, it is a good thing that a typical wife and mother is at last breaking into print.

Good because it gives a more wholesome picture of "success" at forty than the story of our Baltimore belle. And good because it may for a time bring back the old-fashioned picture of a successful woman.

The picture of Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, wife of the American Ambassador to Great Britain, smiling at women from the front pages of their newspapers, ought to set them thinking. For it is the picture of a woman who is making a gay and happy business of bringing up a large family—nine children to be exact—and who doesn't hog the spotlight, because she happens to stand beside a successful man.

The picture of Mrs. Kennedy surrounded by a flock of good-looking, healthy children, and looking little older than the oldest one herself, may for a time replace in the minds of American women the picture of a twice-divorced and childless woman "surrounded" by an ex-king and his sophisticated cosmopolitan set.

It may become their latest ideal of success.

And if it does it will be a fine thing. For one way or another women ought to learn that no matter what the year or how "modern" the woman, the surest way for her to be both happy and successful is the eternal woman's way. To help some man to be happy and successful—and to bring up children of whom she can be proud.

King Zog and Beautiful Countess to Wed Soon

Love-at-first-sight can strike kings as well as commoners, and the proof is the romance between King Zog of Albania and the beautiful Catholic Countess Geraldine Apponyi of Hungary, pictured above, who will be married April 27. The King met the Countess, whose mother was a New Yorker, a year ago, and is said to have fallen in love immediately. Religious obstacles were partially eliminated when the Vatican's Observator Romano announced recently that the Pope would consent to the wedding if King Zog respected the Countess' religion and consented to rearing their children in the Catholic faith. Zog is 42, the Countess 22.

conducted by Kenneth Carman, speech instructor of Pampa High assisted by ten students from Pampa, Childress, LeFors, Memphis, and Clarendon. Betty Shryock, Arvo Goddard and Kathryn Barrett represented Pampa, Jimmie Pite and Helen McGinnis, LeFors; Martha Jeanne Parks and Evan Roberts, Memphis; Polly Price, Barbara Bratcher and Kelly McMillen, Childress; and George Seaton, Clarendon. Sone appeared with other superintendents of the Panhandle and a district board member. "The Parent-Teacher Association, a Nuisance or an Asset?" by Supt. C. A. Cryer, McLean; and an amateur hour conducted by Mrs. Wes Izzard of Amarillo which presented district board members giving their reports.

DANCING

R. R. Price

Well, by the time these lines are read, we will all have the same school board. It matters not with this scribe who constitutes that board. We only hope that these men will realize what a tremendous responsibility they have assumed! We certainly need men in this position who have the cause of our children at heart, morally, intellectually and physically, as well as spiritually. We envy them not. We just ask that they give us a clean administration. No less important is the position of the teacher in our schools; they deal with the child in the formative period in its life. Teachers should live with the fact in mind that their lives are being emulated. Why should not teachers, members of the board, and all others in any way connected with our schools welcome constructive criticism? Why should responsible men on the school board allow a teacher to conduct himself or herself in such a way as to bring this great school system in to reproach; in addition thereto, tolerate something that will ultimately be detrimental to our children? We are opposed to DANCING! We are opposed to school property being used for the same. We are opposed to teachers who DANCE. We hope the NEW BOARD will adjust these matters in their very next meeting in a way that will be for the very best interest of our children—in this let your CONSCIENCE BE YOUR GUIDE. If teachers and members of the board will consider our children, we are not afraid for CONSCIENCE to govern your decision!

FRANCO TAKES ANOTHER KEY CITY IN SPAIN

(By The Associated Press)
HENDAYE, France (at the Spanish Frontier), April 2.—Seizure of strategic Gandesa by the Spanish Insurgents today capped the concentrated drive in eastern Spain which has added an estimated 2,600 square miles to their conquests in a week.

The fall of Gandesa placed the Insurgents within 21 miles of the Mediterranean, their objective in the offensive to split in two the territory controlled by the government.

The official Insurgent announcement said 2,000 prisoners were taken and other government troops were surrendering.

The advance was described by some military observers as one of the most important of the civil war, now in its twenty-first month.

At the northern end of the Insurgent front, Benabarre, important road center in the northern Aragon, also fell to Generalissimo Francisco Franco's forces.

The Insurgents line extends more than 125 miles from Benabarre, in Huesca province, down into the Catalan provinces of Lerida and Tarragona and south almost to Morella, in Castellon province.

With the sweep eastward gaining momentum, French officials in Paris made preparations for quick evacuation of French citizens from Barcelona, Spanish government provisional capital.

Small border towns in the vicinity of Bagneres de Luchon still were jammed with refugees fleeing from the Insurgent drive.

They were certain of refuge until Monday at least when the perplexing question of whether to send them back to government-held areas in Spain was to be put to the French cabinet.

All refugees were given medical care and provided with food and clothing.

A number of Spanish militiamen among them, anticipating they would be sent back to Spain, voted to return to government territory in their homeland and entrained for a main line railroad connection with Spain.

On the 50-mile Insurgent front in the southern sector of eastern Spain were Generalissimo Franco's troops more than 37 miles from the sea. General Miguel Aranda's soldiers were approaching Morella, southwest of Gandesa, where there is a route through the mountains to the Mediterranean by way of San Mateo and Vinaroz.

Only at Lerida, almost due north of Gandesa and 80 miles from Barcelona, was Franco's advance slowed by the government militiamen whose resistance forced the Insurgents to use the full strength of their mechanized equipment.

Government dispatches said three fresh divisions had been brought up to bolster the defense of Lerida on the north and northeast.

JUAREZ MAYOR BOMB VICTIM

JUAREZ, Chihuahua, Mexico, April 2 (AP)—Chihuahua state authorities, probing yesterday's bomb-assassination of Mayor Jose Borunda of Juarez, tonight held in custody a man described as a close friend of former Governor Rodrigo M. Quevedo, political antagonist of present Governor G. L. Talamantes.

General Quevedo was released from military prison here Friday under 10,000 pesos bond for future court action in connection with the fatal shooting three weeks ago of Federal Senator Angel Posada.

He was believed to be en route in the United States to Laredo, Texas, reportedly for re-entry into Mexico there.

In a long distance telephone conversation with the El Paso Herald-Post, Ignacio J. Lomelo, Chihuahua attorney general, said he was holding in custody Eiren Escobar, who was characterized as a friend of Quevedo.

The attorney general said investigators had arrested Nicolas Chavez, 60, as the man who took a package addressed to the mayor to the railway express office in Chihuahua City Thursday.

He quoted Chavez as testifying he mailed the package, supposedly containing a bomb, at the request of his friend, Escobar. Chavez, however, said he did not know the contents of the package.

Mayor Borunda was mangled by the explosion of a seven-pound nitroglycerin bomb delivered to his office yesterday. The blast, nearly tearing him in half, also killed Domingo Barraza, city hall doorman.

General Jailed.
Quevedo was lodged in military prison here following Senator Posada's death and wounding of four others in a Juarez hotel lobby.

The burst of gunfire followed an apparently accident meeting in the hotel of followers of both Talamantes, of whom Mayor Borunda was an ardent supporter, and Gen. Quevedo.

The general's brother, Jose Quevedo, former mayor of Juarez, fled to El Paso after the shooting and is now held in the U. S. detention farm at La Tuna, Texas, pending extradition proceedings for his return to Mexico.

Federal troops from the Juarez garrison mounted guard around the city hall, the jail and the adjacent plaza of the city market place.

Captain Chris Skippers Hollywood's Navy

By PAUL HARRISON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD, April 3—After 27 years in sail and steam, Captain Chris Christensen has come to anchor in the back-lot lagoons and sound stake tanks of movietown. He goes down to these imitation seas in imitation ships—in schooners built on rollers, in barques fashioned of cardboard and plaster, in clippers mounted on hydraulic jockers.

As commander-without-commission of the movie navy, the captain has been captured by Lugo (Antonio Moreno) a bandit chief. Ramon pursues, kills Lugo, dons his uniform, and goes to Quedabra where Rosita is a prisoner.

Movita, who plays the role of Rosita, is the native girl who appeared in "Mutiny on the Bounty."

of course has some real sailing to do. For when a ship is to be used in a picture, the studio has to have two ships—a real one for long, scenic shots and a duplicate, built on the lot, for closeups. Rigging the real ships in proper character and building and rigging the duplicates is Christensen's job.

Few Dull Moments
When he was only 12 years old, he ran away from his home in Aalborg, Denmark, and shipped as deck boy on the "Knight of the Thistle," an English three-masted barque bound for Buenos Aires. By the time he was 19, Christensen was a first mate, and at 22 received his master's papers.

He had his share of excitement. Once, in the copra trade, his schooner caught fire and burned off Hawaii. He skipped a steamer that was caught in a typhoon in

CAR LICENSE RECEIPTS LAST DAY SHOW DROP

Although the office of the county tax assessor-collector was kept open until a late hour Friday night, the day's receipts from the sale of 1938 automobile licenses was only half of the preceding day.

Receipts Friday totaled $5,500 as compared with receipts of $10,500 Thursday.

A report on the total number of licenses sold is to be made Monday.

the China Sea, and all the superstructure was carried away. In 1916, in a four-master bound for Bermuda, he kept his storm-tossed, foundering ship from going to pieces by dropping chains around the hull. The crew spent 72 hours in the water before they were rescued.

But Cap'n Chris got married and decided to remain ashore. On the chance that Hollywood could use his nautical talents, he came here, but it was not a sea picture that introduced him to movie work. He happened to be at the studio where Douglas Fairbanks was making "The Thief of Bagdad," and a call went out for anyone who knew how to splice a wire cable. Christensen did it; he helped fix up the rigging for the film's famous magic carpet.

LOVE LAUGHS AT THE DOCTOR

BY ELINORE COWAN STONE

Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.

Yesterday, slowly Constance and Derek are breaking down each other. And then one day Hilda suggests that they go for a ride together into the mountains.

CHAPTER XXI

In response to Hilda's suggestion Derek was on his feet at once with one of his most winsome—the perfect guest, eager to oblige his hostess. But the glance he flashed at Constance was triumphant.

Constance said, her voice sweetly regretful, "It would be lovely, Hilda. But I have a letter I must write for the next mail. Perhaps I shall ride this morning either."

Derek's smile set into a moil not quite so winsome as at first; his face went red and then white. "Sorry," he said stiffly. "But there's some work in the studio I probably ought to attend to, anyhow."

Hildegard Thorvald glanced from one to the other in a kind of amused exasperation, shrugged slightly, and said to the maid at her elbow, "You may tell Miguel to take the horses back, Rosita. I won't ride this morning either."

CZECH NATION UNALARMED BY NAZI DANGERS

AUSTIN, April 2. (AP)—Although danger to Czechoslovakia has increased since Germany's annexation of Austria, it is not as great as many Americans believe, says Dr. Eduard Micek, associate professor of Slavonic languages at the University of Texas.

A corresponding member of the American institute at Prague, whose objective is promoting friendly relations between the United States and the Czechs, Dr. Micek is a close observer of the general European situation.

He says Czechoslovakia is well prepared for defense and her people will fight for independence but it should be kept in mind that persons of German descent in Czechoslovakia enjoy every liberty accorded Czechs. They have schools in which the German language is used.

He believes an off hand statement there are 3,500,000 Germans in Czechoslovakia is greatly exaggerated although because if its central location there necessarily are many racial groups near its borders.

Pointing to the close ties between this nation and Czechoslovakia, he says hostilities involving the Czechs would have serious economic repercussions in the United States because of the recent reciprocal trade agreement whereby the United States is exporting cotton, grain and meat and receiving in return glass, jewelry, linen textiles and shoes.

There is a sentimental liking, too, he says. Czechs revere the name of Woodrow Wilson as the statesman responsible for their freedom and many children are named for the former president. There is a Wilson street in almost every city. The wife of the late T. G. Masaryk, first president of the republic or Czechoslovakia, was a native of America.

Dr. Micek estimates more than 300,000 Texans are descendants of Czechs who came to Texas in 1848. "The Czechs are known as a nation always ready to struggle, not for material gain, but for religious and cultural ideals, for freedom of conscience and for national independence and personal rights," he says.

Hence the need of establishing rules and regulations to protect the present lot owners and those who will purchase lots in the future.

While we have no desire to interfere with the style of monuments used, we feel that we should make public this regulation for the protection of the public.
