This Should Sell More Cotton

A very fetching young lady is Miss Eliza Bowie, of Natchez, Miss., a member of the famous Bowie knife family, and what she wants to fetch is a bigger market for the South's cotton. So she dons a pair of the new long staple bales, propped up on top of a big bale of cotton, turns on a smile, and exhibits a pair of bodies that she hopes will prove that legs can be beautiful, healthy in cotton. Well, what do you think?

INVADERS CUT OFF CATALONIA

HENDAYE, France (AP)—Spanish invaders driving to win the civil war this spring cut Catalonia from the rest of Spain in a move to accomplish their first great objective and swept on today toward Barcelona, their enemy's provisional capital. A secondary advance was moving toward Valencia. Communications between these two major coastal cities remaining to the government were severed yesterday when invaders reached Tortosa, locking down upon the Mediterranean. Machine-guns and field artillery tracked the road from Tortosa, rendering useless the last highway link between Catalonia and the rest of Spain.

TVA INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE APPOINTED

WASHINGTON, April 5 (AP)—Vice President Garner and Speaker Bankhead named three Democrats and two Republicans from each legislative body today to conduct the congressional investigation of the Tennessee Valley Authority and private power companies in the area. Speaker Bankhead named Rep. James Hamilton, N. Y. Democrat; Democrat Ark. Thompson; Democrat Texas Jenkins; Democrat Okla. and Volunteer Republican N. J. Vice President Garner appointed Senators Donahay, Democrat Ohio; Dewey, Democrat N. H.; Schwarz, Democrat, W. Va.; McNary, Republican, Ore.; and Borah, Republican, Idaho. The Republican members named by Bankhead were recommended by House Republican leader Smith of New York. Garner told reporters he had consulted no one, not even the appointees, before announcing the selections. The joint committee will make a broad investigation of TVA order of Congress following discovery by House committee of the TVA. It will report to President Roosevelt, chairman of the committee, and to the Senate.

The Roving Reporter Sees Bunch of Good Looking L'Fors Women

BY THE ROVING REPORTER Well, the Roving Reporter saw more good-looking women school boys last night at LeFors than he ever saw before, in one bunch—and that's not an insult to the Pampa teachers because he never saw them in one bunch. More than that, LeFors has a 16-year-old high school girl by the name of Charlotte Barrett. This should be queen of something or other. She is one of the prettiest girls the R. R. ever saw. This girl is a brunet with black hair and eyes. She was the glamor girl of the party. You ought to see her! Well, the occasion was an Hawaiian party which the R. R. crashed with a technique that was as smooth as One-Eyed Connolly's, king of all gate crashers, in his better days. The high school teachers were the hosts and host-

Dust Eclipse For Kansas Sun

Swirling black across the Kansas prairies 48 hours after the heaviest rainfall this year, choking dust blotted out the sun, eclipse-like, as shown above in the striking picture taken at Wichita. Descending white twisters ripped through other parts of Kansas, and four other states, the dust clouds were mistaken for tornado formations and some residents ran to shelter in nearest cellars.

METEOR CRASHES NEAR CHICAGO LAST NIGHT

CHICAGO, April 5 (AP)—A small meteorite fell into a parkway in suburban Winnetka last night and the sound of the crash and the bright light started rumors of an explosion. Policemen Lester Barker and Thomas Schultz found a two-inch fragment of the meteorite, which had cut a five inch hole in the sod and buried itself.

Opponents Seek To Nullify Bill In Amendments

WASHINGTON, April 5. (AP)—Republicans and revolting Democrats virtually abandoned hope today of killing the government reorganization bill in the house, but concentrated instead of trying to riddle it with amendments. Although granting that concessions made by administration leaders probably would swing enough votes to pass the measure, the opponents sought to strike out three more controversial provisions. Those provisions would create a new welfare department, substitute a single administrator for the three-man civil service commission, and create an auditor general to check up on federal expenditures. Elimination of those sections would strip the bill of everything except general presidential authority to consolidate and revise federal agencies, and permission to employ six White House assistants. Under a compromise by administration lieutenants, the president's reorganization orders could be overridden by a majority vote of congress. Various agencies, including the veterans bureau, could not be incorporated in other departments. Democratic backers of the bill were so confident of eventual victory that they made no attempt to complete a poll to determine how the members would vote. Representative Rayburn of Texas, Democratic floor leader, declared in a radio address last night that the legislation would have been passed months ago "had it not been made the opportunity for the demonstration of hostility by the President's foes." Texas His Opposition Shortly before Rayburn's speech, Representative Barton (R., N. Y.) told a radio audience that a Democratic revolt had defeated plans of house leaders, "to jam the bill through with practically no debate." "Now the strategy is to buy off important elements of opposition by specious amendments, private promises and secret understandings," he asserted. The house had to dispose of a stack of minor legislation before resuming the acrimonious debate over the bill late this afternoon. Leaders decided not to hurry the discussion unduly, but they hoped to reach a final vote this week. No matter what form the house bill finally takes, a small group of representatives meeting quietly behind closed doors will have the last word on controversial points of the reorganization program. If and when the house passes the measure, Vice President Garner and Speaker Bankhead will appoint a "conference committee" to settle differences between the house and senate versions of the legislation.

JURY INDICTS TAMPANS IN GAMBLING CLEANUP

TAMPA, Fla., April 5 (AP)—A Hillsborough county grand jury, returning indictments against nine public officials and seven other persons, today called for a cleanup of Tampa gambling and asked the public's cooperation. Included among the defendants were Sheriff J. R. McLeod, former Tampa newspaperman; Police Chief C. J. Woodruff, County Solicitor J. E. Williams; Deputies Sheriff E. C. Logan and El Vestel, Chief of City Detectives W. D. Bush; and Constables Hugh Culbreath, H. C. Graves and Henry Bozeman. The indictments charged the officials with failure to arrest and prosecute gamblers. Sheriff McLeod said "My friends know I will be completely vindicated of these charges."

A Grinning Death's Head Sat On Plane But Stoic Pilot Won Fearful Race

SALT LAKE CITY, April 5 (AP)—A veteran pilot, working stoically against a diminishing fuel supply, repaired a crippled landing gear through the floor of his Western Air Express transport here early today and then braved the ship safely. As the six-passenger plane circled over city airport, an ambulance, fire truck and ground crew held a "death watch" when it appeared the transport, which was carrying no passengers, would have to attempt a crash landing. But Pilot Henry Hollenbeck of Salt Lake City, working on radios, instructions, lowered the left landing gear, stuck in the plane's undercarriage, by means of a strap lashed from one of the transport's seats. As he worked, Co-Pilot A. S. Mooney Jr. of Salt Lake City, dived the plane in monotonous circles over the airport. Hollenbeck, a husky, tanned aviator, scooped at the danger when the big bi-motored sliver ship, its left motor smoking badly, landed. "There was nothing to worry about after repair instructions were telegraphed to the airport from the Lockheed plant in Burbank, Calif., and then radioed to us," he said. Hollenbeck found the wheel was jammed when he prepared to land at Idaho Falls, Idaho, en route on a regular run to Great Falls, Mont. He headed the new-type ship, in use on the Salt Lake-Great Falls run for the past three months, back to Salt Lake City. Western Air officials, expecting Department of Justice agents are en route to Pampa to take charge of the investigation. Police Chief Art Hurst was notified this morning. No other arrests have been made in connection with the plot. Postoffice authorities (turned the case over to the G-men. The youth was shot after F. S. Brown, owner and operator of Standard Food Stores and Markets, had responded to a letter demanding that he take $1,000 to a point south of Harvester field. The two are not related.

DOCTOR LEAVES RIDDLE OF SMOKING EFFECTS

NEW YORK, April 5.—(AP)—Perhaps smoking does not shorten life, despite recent statistical discoveries that even moderate tobacco smoking brings death sooner.

So said Paul D. White, M. D., of Harvard University Medical school, today to the American College of Physicians. He referred to the report by Dr. Raymond Pearl, of Johns Hopkins university, a few weeks ago, who presented the first "life tables" ever made on smoking and found it always bad.

Dr. White did not dispute the correctness of the death tables. But, he said:

"Can we blame the tobacco itself necessarily for this? Isn't it more probable that persons who are intemperate in the use of tobacco are more likely to be intemperate in other respects, as well, thereby jeopardizing their health?"

He left the answer to this riddle for the future to solve.

RESTRICTIONS ON RAIL LOANS MAY BE EASED

WASHINGTON, April 5 (AP)—Administration business advisers gave serious consideration today to proposals to relax restrictions on federal loans to railroads in receiverships.

One representative said such loans would supplement financial aid already being extended to railroads not in receivership. They would fit into whatever program Mr. Roosevelt may advocate for restoring distressed roads to profitable operations. He is expected to send a message on the railroad situation to congress in the next day or so.

Many informed persons believed the administration was depending heavily on revival of the carriers to aid general business recovery.

A more direct attack on the recession as far as the average business man was concerned, however, was foreshadowed by house passage of the senate bill to give the Reconstruction Finance Corporation almost unlimited discretion in making loans to aid commercial and industrial enterprises.

The bill also carried authority for loans to municipalities and other political subdivisions for self-liquidating public works, opening the way for a renewed outflow of federal millions into the channels of trade.

Bill Near FDR.
Senate approval of a single house amendment will send the RFC bill to the White House for President Roosevelt's signature. That amendment eliminated a provision that loans to railroads must be approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Administration officials said the requirement was not needed because it was already a part of the law under which the RFC operates. In effect, the ICC now must certify that the loan is needed, as in the past, on the basis of present and future earnings, to meet its fixed charges.

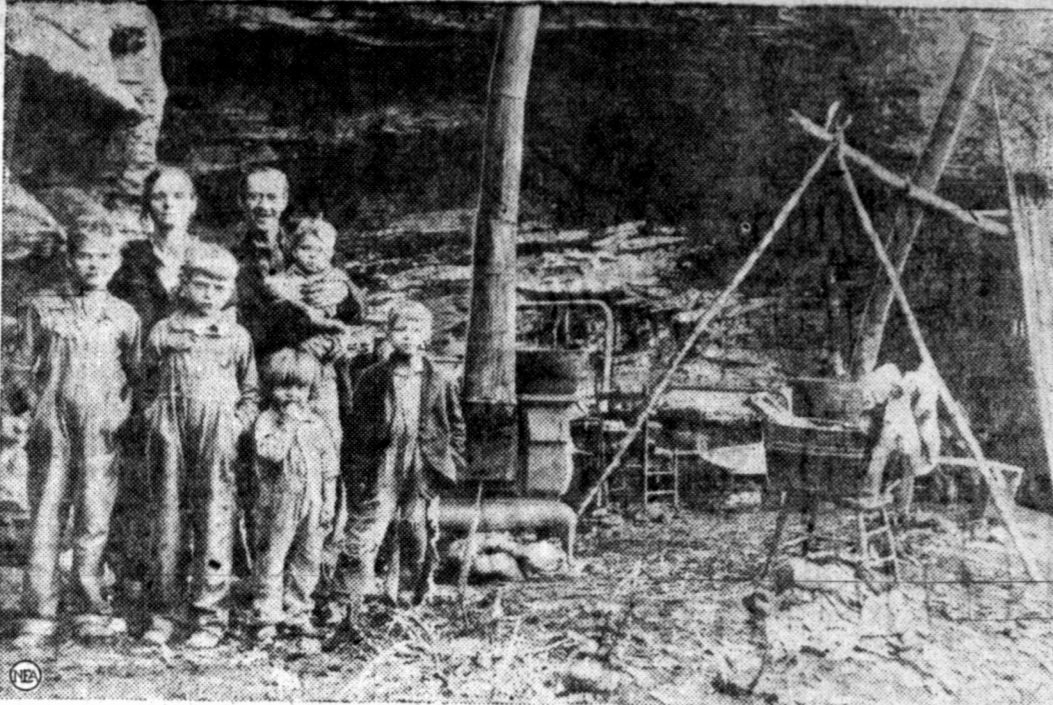

Administration advisers contemplate proposing that congress relax this restriction so the RFC may have a freer hand in approving loans, especially to roads in receiverships. Such loans, one informant said, would be made only to roads having sound financial prospects. Those "hopelessly in the hole" would be unable to obtain aid. In many cases the latter then would have to merge with more profitable lines.

ICC Report Studied.
The President's message on railroads was to accompany a special ICC report which was the subject of a conference yesterday between Mr. Roosevelt and representatives of railroad labor and management. One proposal suggested at the meeting, authoritative persons said, was that the government guarantee the railroads a fair and profitable level of earnings so they could maintain wages and employment and get needed new equipment. Some of the labor spokesmen told the President that the increase in business which could be expected from a resumption of railroad spending probably would pull earnings up far enough to make guaranty payments unnecessary. They estimated that in any case the cost to the government would not exceed $300,000,000 a year.

Official concern over the railroad situation, coupled with the emergency speed with which the RFC lending bill has been shoved thru congress, was regarded by many persons as evidence that the administration does not intend to wait for business to pull itself out of the recession. Government economists say now that the trend is toward a slight improvement this spring, followed by a more substantial upturn in the fall.

Here Are Tennessee 'Cliff-Dwellers'

Evicted from their home for non-payment of rent and with no other place to go, the impoverished Robert L. Barnes family of Daysville, Tenn., became modern cliff dwellers. Pictured above are the parents and five of their seven children in the crude shelter they found under an overhanging cliff. One bed and a cot was about all the furniture the family had. Note how the stove chimneys lean so the smoke will miss the protruding rocks. But Barnes is an ex-serviceman and when the American Legion Post of Rockwood, Tenn., heard of his plight, the family soon had a real house to live in. The Legionnaires are now trying to buy a small farm for the family.

SYPHILIS CAN BE CURED IN 70 WEEKS WITH 606 AND BISMUTH

Public health faces the problem of stamping out syphilis today with a fairly coherent program. In general, the problem is three-fold and simple in appearance.

1. Find all cases.
2. Subject all cases to immediate treatment to the end of complete cure or of rendering the patient non-infectious.

Any of the tests, the Wassermann, the Kahn, or the Kline, will indicate the presence of the disease. From that point, cure is a matter of routine, if the disease is yet in its early stages and if treatment rules are faithfully followed.

"Treating syphilis," says Surgeon General Thomas Parran, "is as complicated a matter as discovering it. Nearly 30 years ago a man named Ehrlich discovered a preparation he thought would kill syphilis with a single dose. It was made of arsenic, so compounded and treated that it would poison the spirochete when injected into the blood but would not harm the person. He called it 606 because it was his 606th experiment.

"We still use his compound and others like it, but it takes 30 doses of this compound and 40 of bismuth to cure syphilis. The whole treatment extends over a period of 70 weeks. Seventy weeks is a long time, but

New Deal Splits May Not Hurt 1938 Elections

(Editor's note: Political orators are tuning up their voices for the primary election campaigns, ready to "point with pride" or "sneer with alarm." Factors which may enter into these intra-party contests are outlined in three articles, of which the following is the first.)

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, April 5 (AP)—The rift between the conservative and so-called "new deal" elements of the Democratic party, widened by the court bill fight and widened by the struggle over government reorganization, may have but a limited influence on senatorial primaries this year.

Eight of the Democratic senators who joined the court bill opposition early in the fight are up for renomination. So far only two of them—Van Nuys of Indiana and Gillette of Iowa—are facing strong opposition within their party.

Many observers predicted late last summer that the administration would make reprisals against foes of the court bill almost without exception, although Democratic Chairman James A. Farley declared there would be none. So far, at any rate, there has been virtually no outward show of punitive moves.

Of significance in the general political picture is the fact that none of the most aggressive leaders of the court bill opposition has stood for re-election this year. Wheeler of Montana, Burek of Nebraska, Byrd of Virginia—all came up in 1940.

Aligned with the opposition, however, were these six Democrats whose terms are expiring—Clark of Missouri, George of Georgia, Lonergan of Connecticut, McCarran of Nevada, Smith of South Carolina, and Tydings of Maryland.

Van Nuys Defeat Seen
National political developments to date have given them little reason for disquiet. Rumors that the administration might take a hand against George are yet to be confirmed.

In Indiana, where both major parties will nominate at conventions in May, a stiff fight is in prospect among the Democrats for the seat of Van Nuys. If he loses the nomination, as the state party leaders say, he is expected to run as an Independent.

Two other candidates for the nomination are in the field—Samuel D. Jackson, Fort Wayne lawyer, and Alex E. Gordon, Indianapolis labor leader.

Several anti-administration senators, including Burke, have declared their intention to aid Van Nuys' Independent race.

Senator Gillette's opponents in Iowa include Representative Otha D. Wearin, who announced his candidacy after what he described as "conferences at the White House." While the implication was that Wearin had administration backing,

TEXAS CATTLE CAMP MADE IN HOLLYWOOD
HOLLYWOOD, April 5 (AP)—Texas' great open spaces were compressed today into the interior of a movie sound stage.

To save a location trip, Paramount built a cattle camp inside the studio. A herd of steers was brought from San Fernando valley ranch. As they munched alfalfa under transplanted live oak trees, cowboys kept guard.

"The only thing lacking is a stampede," said Director James Hogan.

WOMAN'S LIFE HANGS ON STEEL WIRE LOOP
KANSAS CITY, April 4 (AP)—On a thin steel wire looped about her breast bone depends the life of Mrs. Thomas Edwards.

Her chest crushed in an auto accident, Mrs. Edwards, 34, was suffocating from the pressure of mangled ribs on her lungs.

Surgeons made an incision on each side of her breast bone, pulled the wire through with a needle. A four-pound weight on the other end of the wire raises the bones and allows the lungs to fill.

Gillette has declared that the administration is not against him. More intense than the fights involving anti-court bill senators are several developing around supporters of the measure.

Governor A. B. Chandler of Kentucky has come out against Senate Majority Leader Barkley, and the campaigning in that state until the primary August 6 promises to be as lively as any in the country. Mr. Roosevelt has thrown administration support to Barkley by stating his appreciation of the senator's work.

trilled the streets after the town had been terrorized by the outbreak, one of a number of such clashes in the last two years.

Labor has been a chief support of President Lazaro Cardenas, who expropriated the oil properties of 17 British and American oil companies on March 19.

The companies appealed yesterday to the district court, challenging the constitutionality of the expropriation decree. Both sides were prepared to pursue the case to the supreme court.

It was expected the court proceedings would progress alongside negotiations looking to indemnification of the companies for seizure of their property. The government agreed, it was learned from an authoritative quarter, that any conversations which company representatives had with the government regarding indemnification would not prejudice their legal rights.

President Cardenas had hoped strife between the CTM and the older CROM was ended with the Orizaba peace pact last January. Where the labor department and courts had failed, he succeeded in restoring peace to strife-torn Orizaba, Vera Cruz, where 30 or more workers died and more than 100 were injured in bloody clashes between the rival organizations.

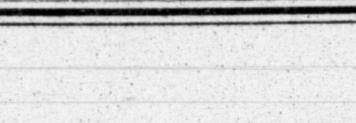

The struggle for control of Orizaba's textile industry over a period of two years had let the Cocoloapan and Mirafuentes mills operate only intermittently.

By the President's intervention the Mirafuentes contract went to CROM, the Cocoloapan contract to CTM, both unions signed a pact of "non-aggression," and operation of the mills was resumed.

Central CHURCH OF CHRIST 500 N. Somerville

WHEN WAS THE CHURCH ESTABLISHED?
For several weeks we have been writing under the above caption; we have learned from the Bible that the church was not established during the personal ministry of Christ. Last week we came a bit closer to showing just where and when the church started, or was established. Now note carefully the following passages: 1. Christ was Priest and King on His throne. (Zech. 6:12). 2. Heb. 7:1 shows Christ was a Priest and King at the same time. 3. Heb. 8:4 shows Christ did not become a Priest until He ascended. These verses teach that the church was not established while Christ was on earth. 4. Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33 show that Christ should sit on David's throne. Psa. 11:4 says this throne is in heaven. Rev. 3:21 shows that Christ is in heaven on his throne. Acts 2:30-31 shows Christ did not sit on this throne until after His resurrection. If our recavers will turn to the second chapter of the Acts, you will not only learn when and where the New Testament church was established; but you will learn what people did to become members of the same. On the day of Pentecost, in Jerusalem as is recorded in the second chapter of the Book of Acts the Gospel was preached in fullness and in fact for the first time on this earth. The people heard, they believed, they repented, and they were baptized. "For the remission of their sins." This put them in Christ, the church, the kingdom, the family of God. Now, "what church was this? What church did they join? What were they? This was the first church established on earth!"

TWO MEXICAN WORKERS DIE IN LABOR RIOT

MEXICO CITY, April 5 (AP)—Renewal of hostilities between the Confederation of Workers of Mexico (CTM) and the regional Confederation of Mexican Workers added to the government's worries today as it prepared for a long legal fight over the expropriated oil industry.

Two workmen were killed and several persons wounded, including two soldiers, in a half hour gun battle yesterday at Acapulco. A score of persons were arrested.

The battle between the two unions started over the right to unload a cargo of building materials from the German ship, Wessert.

Federal troops intervened and prevented a riot.

YOUTHFUL PARTY

Several anti-administration senators, including Burke, have declared their intention to aid Van Nuys' Independent race.

Senator Gillette's opponents in Iowa include Representative Otha D. Wearin, who announced his candidacy after what he described as "conferences at the White House." While the implication was that Wearin had administration backing,

NAMES

in the News

NAMES MAKE HEADLINES. Newspapers, today, as always, are made up of what PEOPLE say, think, propose, dissent from. Governments, institutions businesses—and all their activities—are only the lengthened shadows of MEN!

What is true on the front pages is true, also, on the advertising pages. Advertisements are simply signed statements of MEN, banded together to form a business, who seek your patronage. They back their good name against the products they ask you to buy. They say, in cold black type, that theirs is a name you can trust.

People who get the most for their money in the market-places are people who know the value of familiar, trade-marked products. They buy with confidence. They buy by NAME—and save time, tiresome searching, and money! Are you doing likewise?
