DAILY NEWS' 1928 PROGRAM FOR PAMPA

- One or more new railroads. New city hall and County agriculture. Additional street. Oil Exchange building. Expedite road. Encourage export. Invite new industry. Complete water. More and better. Extend Pampa. Develop dairying. Municipal building. Municipal school. Pampa Fair. Associated County home. High school.

BIG WEEK- of the year pa this week vidual citizen self at the ou ing and everything should for this comm

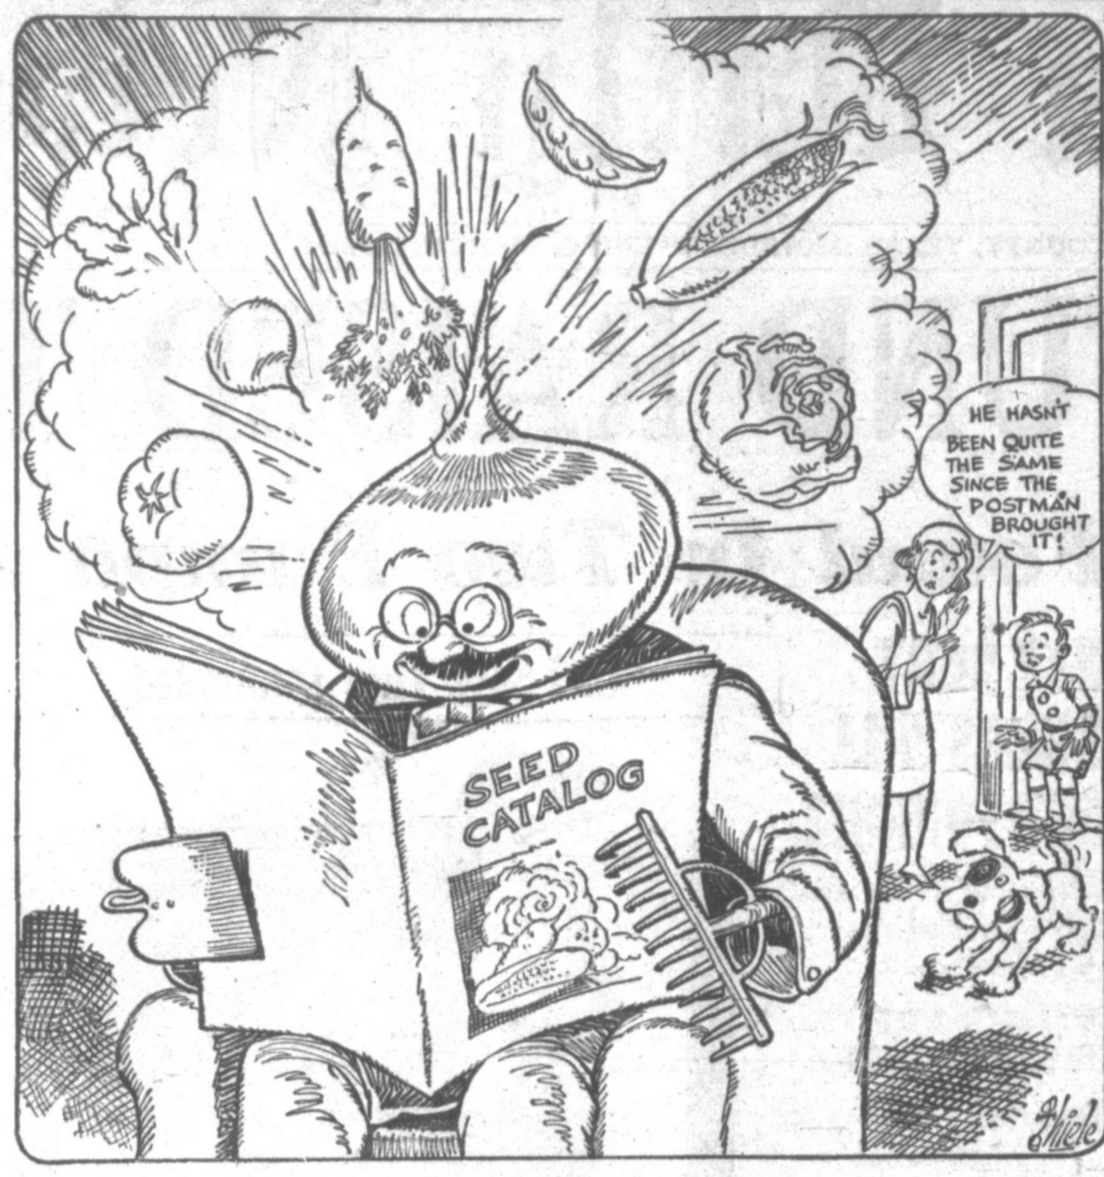

Nothing civic sense Unless a put their wheel, not ing accomp The seat removal election of arch 9-Friday- has not been won. On the contrary, it is surely lost unless Pampa and community cast around 4,000 votes or more. When it is remembered that few elections ever show a thousand votes, it will be seen that NOT A SINGLE VOTE MUST GO UNACCOUNTED FOR on election day. Plan now to vote early Friday morning and then challenge every one you meet to see that he or she has done the same. Only by so doing can Pampa move the county seat as provided by law.

Voters will beware of insidious propaganda-especially on taxation-as election time nears. Remember that a courthouse tax has been levied for several years, but the money has been diverted for other purposes. This year the 25-cent courthouse tax will bring in $25,000, and in a few years this existing tax would pay for an adequate building.

It is regrettable that opponents of removal are making attacks on many new people who have become loyal and progressive citizens. The right of the oil men and women to cast their ballots as the Texas constitution provides is being bitterly denounced. Pampa has become an oil center and much of her population is connected with oil. Moreover, her surrounding territory will require many years to drill out, and to attack the good citizenship of the oil fraternity is to strike at some of Pampa's best citizens and neighbors.

The News has called attention from time to time to the fact that some people norant of oil field development are prone to underestimate the personal worth of flowers of the oil game. While it is true that a rough ment follows the flush days production, it is highly ore important to know that ie majority of oil men are me specimens of American citizens-energetic, well-informed, well paid, and often well educated.

At the present time Pampa and Gray county have few of the floating class. The oil men and women are here to remain as long as there is oil to be drilled, and development of allied industries in that period will result in many of them becoming lifetime residents. Pampa has no apology for encouraging her new citizens to take an interest in Gray county affairs and work to better the county and themselves.

Pampa's support Friday will be from many professions, and there will be no distinction between oil and wheat, rig and desk. We are all Gray countians, and, if we meet the requirements laid down in the constitution of this state, no one can successfully challenge our right to vote. The ballot is the basis of our government, and West Texas people are intelligent enough to judge what should and should not be done. Fail not; vote early Friday morning.

Children should be taught obedience. Even the new mechanical man obeys, and he may get lots of good jobs on that account.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON - It comes to the ears of your correspondent that there is more dissention than ever in the Department of State and that a showdown is likely in the long and acrid war between the diplomats and the consuls.

Attempts to confirm the story at the department's official information bureau are unsuccessful, but the non-diplomats in Mr. Kellogg's incubator are all of a twitter at discovery of an alleged plan to deliver all instead of nearly all the nicer jobs in the department and in the Foreign Service to young men of wealth and social position in preference to men of lesser means and more experience.

A sub-committee of the Senate foreign relations committee has been investigating, secretly, the administration of the Rogers Foreign Service Act which was supposed to put the consular and diplomatic branches on an even basis. You will have to ask someone else why the secrecy which prevents the public from learning what's wrong with its State Department.

The consular officers in the department, along with other non-diplomatic officers, are frothing at a scheme concocted by diplomats which they say is designed to get all consuls into the field where they can't fight back, enable the diplomatic crowd to rule the roost without a contest and permit rich young cookie pushers to be pushed rapidly ahead.

A new civil service classification has been arranged for the department, offering jobs as 'Junior State Department Officers' at $1860 a year. It is explained at the Civil Service Commission that this is to provide the department with young men of "proper background." A college education is required.

The plan is the brain child of Alexander Kirk, wealthy and socially important executive officer of the department and chairman of the personnel efficiency board. Now the department's insurgents say this: Any young man of college education won't work at $1860 a year unless he has private means and is assured of promotion. A young man dependent on what he earns is barred-it is said that 90 per cent of Foreign Service men have independent means. The dominant diplomatic clique, as usual, talks about "social background."

The consuls understand that the new junior officers will take over their jobs and that the rich and socially ambitious young men among them will be able to step into pleasant diplomatic jobs without passing through long, tedious years in the lower grades of the service.

Some malcontents even claim the consuls are fighting for their lives. Once the whole show is managed by a small clique of millionaire diplomats here, the consuls will be far away and unable to take their griefs to Congress, and none of them will be in sight when appointments of ministers, bureau chiefs and assistant secretaries are made.

TWINKLES

It's about time for the politicians to "play ball."

The modern cardinal sin seems to be being pro-British. Senator Willis got an idea from Chicago and looking at Hoover, said "you're it."

Cry of the hour: "Give me Liberty or give me True Stories."

Pampa seems to have got rid of her stills, but she needs a refinery or two.

The wide, open spaces to our south are coming into their own, and the horned toad crop should bring in many a dollar to enterprising Texans, some of whom probably will even create up a few and turn lecturers, sojourning into cities where the office workers read Western thrillers and dream of seeing themselves astride a bucking broncho.

Should PAMPA Have the Court House?---and Why?

PAMPA is on a railroad and will soon have her second railroad.

PAMPA has plenty of hotels and rooming houses that can accommodate all that come.

PAMPA is in the center of the population of the county

PAMPA and her voting precinct have three-fourths of the taxable wealth of the county.

PAMPA is located about ten miles from the center of the county and can be reached by all the people very easily.

PAMPA can offer to the Court House, if built here, a sewer system, water system, light system, and good telephone connections.

PAMPA has the best fire fighting department in the county, which would be good protection for Court House and contents.

PAMPA feels that the people of Gray county would be better served, and more satisfied with a Court House built in Pampa, than if it were built at LeFors.

PAMPA asks that the voters weigh and study this matter carefully. It's not a question as to whether we will build a Court House or not—the County Commissioners will attend to that. The real question to be settled March 9 by the voters is—Where Shall the Court House Be Built? A 25-cent Court House tax is already being levied.

PAMPA asks for a fair consideration and a fair election, and all will be well.

76 Runners Drop Out First Day in National Marathon

Nondescript Group Will Come Across Panhandle Region

PUEBLO, Cal., March 5.—(P)—The $48,500 prize marathon from Los Angeles to New York today was under way with 199 runners and walkers having put behind them the initial lap of 16 miles.

A nondescript group, ranging from youths of 16 years to veterans of 63 started from Los Angeles in the afternoon as a parade of 276 contestants. Seventy-six fell by the wayside as they threaded through the Sunday automobile traffic on the asphalt highway.

The first day's honors went to a slinky Finn, forty years old, Willie Kolehmainen of New York City. Running easily, and finishing strong, he took and maintained the lead. His time for the 16 miles was one hour, 38 minutes.

Gunnar Neilson, also a finish runner of New York City followed his countryman into the first control station here but a few seconds later. Sam Richman of New York City, was third. A staff of physicians was at the control station to attend to blisters and other medical wants as the racers flopped onto their tent cots. The physicians, the promoters of the marathon and newspapermen led the transcontinental parade in two huge buses. C. C. Pyle is the leading promoter of the marathon.

Regular running togs were the costumes of most of the runners, but these were augmented by sun visors, extra sweaters and in a few cases knee length golf hose.

First prize winner will receive $35,000 but the race promises $23,500 more for other finishers. Second place draws $10,000, third $5,000; fourth $2,500; and the next six finishers were promised consolation prizes of $1,000 each.

Today's start called for 36 miles ending at Bloomington, California. The route then runs along a 40-mile grade up through Cajon Pass, across a hundred miles of Mohave desert and then into Arizona through Flagstaff. The runners will stop at Albuquerque, N. M., and go through the Panhandle of Texas along Highway No. 69.

Dazzy Vance Will Air His Dispute With the Robbins

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 5.—(P)—Dazzy Vance, pitcher holdout of the Brooklyn Robbins, will have his salary dispute aired out at a meeting with Manager Robinson and two directors of the club tomorrow. John Scholl is here on a pleasure trip but he will talk business with Vance when Frank B. York, another director, reaches here.

Bucky Harris Bars Golf for Summer

TAMPA, Fla., March 5.—(P)—Warning that he is taking the game more seriously this year than ever before, Bucky Harris, manager of the Washington Senators in training here, has banned the playing of golf after March 15 under threat of suspension. After the league opens any player caught using a niblick instead of a bat will have to work over $500.

RHEM SIGNS CONTRACT

AVON PARK, Fla., March 5.—The St. Louis Cardinals were all "present or accounted for" today. Flint Rhem appeared unannounced last night and after a two hour conference President Sam Breadon announced that the pitcher was signed to a one-year contract.

PIRATES STUDY BASES

PASO ROBLES, Calif., March 5.—(P)—Special attention is being given by the Pirates to sliding and base running. Manager Donie Bush now has a full squad in camp here, Catcher Johnny Gooch, who arrived yesterday, being the last to put in an appearance.

Russian Lion Is Worthy Foe for Coming Pampan

Kid Granite, the fighting Pampa lightweight, is expected to have the toughest fight of his career when he meets Lou Avery, the Russian Lion from Tulsa, in the ten-round main event at the Pampa Athletic club tonight. Both boys will enter the ring at 135 pounds.

Granite has not been troubled with the swelled head since he won a decision over Wildcat Monte here last Monday night, but has been training hard for his battle tonight. A win for the Kid tonight will place him at the top following his recent victories over Eddie Murdock and Monte.

Frankie Farrell, the Pampa flash, and Battling Young of Berger will meet in the eight-round semi-final. Farrell has been showing the result of recent training and has put up some of the best battles staged here.

Battling Young is said to be fast and has one decision over Farrell, but that was before the Pampa boy made his recent comeback in the ring. Two new 140-pound boys, Pete Burkett of Memphis, Tenn., and Kid Buster of Wichita Falls will meet in the six-round special event, while Kid Kolson of Drumright, Okla., and Bob White of Enid, Okla., will tangle in the four-round preliminary.

Five colored boys will indulge in a battle royal to open the evening's boxing card, which commences at 8:30 o'clock.

AXE WILL FALL SOON AT CLEVELAND'S CAMP

NEW ORLEANS, March 5.—(P)—With his full squad of 49 ball players on hand today, Manager Roger Peckinpaugh of the Cleveland Americans planned the initial step in the wedding out process by having his young pitching aspirants open up and show their wares for the first time. The axe probably will fall in a day or two.

Phillies to Play Three Big League Nines This Week

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 5.—(P)—The first leg of spring baseball is over for the Phillies, for Manager Burt Shotton will send his squad against big league teams in three regulation battles this week.

The Phillies will play the Athletics at Fort Myers Wednesday, the Red Sox here Thursday and on Saturday will engage the Athletics in a return game.

Fred Leach and Cy Williams, two of the big guns of the Phillies' batting attack, have not yet reported, but are expected soon.

Athletics to Battle Own Mixed Teams

FORT MYERS, Fla., March 5.—(P)—The Athletics were ordered out today for their opening intramural clash.

Manager Mack announced that his varsity infield would be made up of Hauser, Bishop, Boley, and Hale, with Speaker, Miller and French in the outfield.

Fothergill So Fat He May Forfeit Outfield Berth

SAN ANTONIO, March 5.—(P)—Bob Fothergill, one of the leading batters of the American league, may lose his regular berth in the Detroit outfield this year.

Manager Moriarty has let it be known that he is displeased by the lack of condition in which the outfielder reported training. Fothergill tipped the beams at 229 1-2 pounds and there is some doubt whether he can get down to playing weight by the start of the season. Harry Heilmann, league batting champion, and Harry Rice, obtained from St. Louis, are practically assured of places in the outfield. For the remaining position, Fothergill must beat out "Red" Wingo, who is showing exceptionally well; Paul Eastering, and Dutch Holland.

J. S. WYNN—"With the railroad and court house in Pampa nothing can stop its growth. We will be a second Amarillo in a few years with these two necessities in Pampa."

Ruth's Golf Much Better—Walks Over 17 Miles Sunday

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 5.—(P)—Babe Ruth's golf game is improving. He had one round of 70 yesterday in the course of 63 holes at the Jungle country club course. Ruth's golf caused him to walk about 17 miles. He had a slight limp at the finish.

Workouts on the diamond started in earnest tomorrow with Ruth primed to bang some homers for the benefit of waiting fans. Golf will be taboo at the Yanks camp with the exception of Sundays.

BROWNS' MORALE BETTER

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 5.—(P)—Manager Dan Howley of the St. Louis Browns declared that his team spirit will be 100 per cent better than that of last year's aggregation which finished in seventh place. While some of the heavy hitters and seasoned faces are missing, the revamped ball team has spirit and a new morale which is causing much comment.

Chicago Cubs Get Two Homers; Beat Sailors 11 to 6

AYALON, Catalina Island, Cal., March 5.—(P)—Home runs by McMillan and Cuyler in the first inning made it easy for Chicago's cubs to win their first baseball game of 1928 by the score of 11 to 6 from the battleship Tennessee team yesterday. These two newcomers in the cubs rank set the example for Johnny Butler, recently acquired from Brooklyn, who drove in two more tallies with a double.

Percy Lee Jones, with his left elbow in pitching condition again held the tars to one hit in his three innings and Pat Malone, the former strikeout king of the American association, did the same. Guy Bush, however, was the victim of a shower of hits which gave the sailors five runs. Sam Hall of the Navy nine cleaned the sacks with a homer in the ninth.

$80,000 For His Discovery

Formula for Stomach Medicine Brings Large Sum

This is C. M. Gordon, widely known Dallas, Texas, pharmacist, who spent twenty years developing "Gordon's," an internal Antiseptic for the stomach and bowels, for which he received $80,000 for the rights to the secret process of compounding.

"The greatest obstacle to the successful treatment of stomach troubles," said Mr. Gordon, "was fermentation (souring of food matter in the stomach and bowels), which inflames and irritates these organs and produces gas that causes much distress. Fermentation can be stopped only with an antiseptic."

"Gordon's" goes right to the seat of the trouble, as it exercises a distinctly antiseptic as well as a digestive effect. It stops and prevents fermentation, soothes and heals any irritated or inflamed condition and will bring quick relief in cases of gas, dyspepsia, heartburn, bloating after meals, excess acid, bad breath, constipation, sick headache, nervousness, when caused by faulty digestion, tones up the digestive organs and stimulates the stomach and bowels to their normal functions. A few doses will convince you. Sold by good druggists, $1.50 per bottle of sixty-four doses—less than three cents a dose.

BRIC-A-BRAC

Little things that no one needs— Little things to joke about— Little landscapes, done in beads. Little morals, woven out. Little wreaths of gilded grass. Little bits of whittled oak Bottled painfully in glass— These are made by lovely folk.

Lonely folk have lines of days Long and fltering and thin; Therefore—little wax bouquets; Prayers cut upon a pin. Little maps of pinkish lands. Little charts of curly seas. Little plats of linen strands. Little verses, such as these.

COUPLE OF NEWSPAPER STAFF ARE MARRIED

BORGER, Mar. 3.—The equilibrium of the Borger Daily Herald was upset for a time Saturday afternoon while two members of the staff made vain but finally successful attempts to "commit matrimony."

Miss Ruth Miller of Mountain View, Mo., and Stockton Henry of Lubbock, both of the job printing department of the Herald, found their best laid plans gone astray when their marriage license was stolen, and when an ambulance stole the bride and a policeman arrested the bridegroom. The latter was locked up and kangaroo'd, but the bride effected her release, rescued Henry, and the pair, having been married, left on a honeymoon trip.

PARIS—(AP)—Not a dress, but a coat is this navy satin model from Suzanne Talbot's spring collection. Like scores of spring models, this one is printed with polka dots. To go with it Talbot designs a hat with a brim of natural colored coarse straw and a crown of navy blue taffeta.

Amusements

AT THE REX

Someone said that "The bigger they are the harder they fall."

The hero—if we should call him that—in the Universal-Jewel farce comedy "The Small Bachelor" which comes Tuesday to the Rex theatre, is just what the title implies—a small bachelor, but he couldn't have fallen any harder if he had been a Samson.

All of which is preambles to the fact that "The Small Bachelor" is the most rollicking hilarious farce comedy to be shown here in many a day, the kind of a picture that makes one want to forgive his worst enemy.

Barbara Kent and Andre Beranger are featured in the opus which was directed by William A. Selter. Miss Kent, in case you may have forgotten, is of the crop of 1927 Wampas Baby stars and the other twelve members of this select gathering must look to their laurels if Barbara is given a few more pictures like this one. Beranger should need no introduction; he has been in several of the best pictures of the past year.

To tell the story would be to spoil viewing it. Sufficient to say that there is not one dull moment from the time Andre first spies Barbara till the final fadeout.

FINALLY TAKES RAISE ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 5.—(AP)—Luther Urban, Braves holdout catcher who thought he was getting the worst of the deal when the tribe management offered him a 30 percent increase over last year's salary, has finally capitulated and has left his Buffalo home for the training camp. Urban will take what he was originally offered.

THE "CANARY" MURDER CASE

CHARACTERS: HILO VANCE, JOHN F.-X. MARKHAM, District Attorney of New York County, MARGARET ODELL (The "CANARY"), CHARLES CLEAVER, a man about town, KENNETH SPOTSWOOD, a manufacturer, LOUIS MANNIX, an importer, KAMBROSE LINDQUIST, a fashionable neurologist, CONY SKEEL, a professional burglar, WILLIAM ELMER JESSUP, telephone operator, HARRY SPIVELY, telephone operator, ARNOLD HEATH, Sergeant of the Homicide Bureau.

He mixed up with a jairolt like Skeel "So I stood all three of 'em to one side, and began looking round for a bad egg—somebody who'd have been likely to be Skeel's accomplice. But I tried to figure out what you might call the physical obstacles in the case—that is, the snags we were up against in our reconstruction of the crime." Again he paused.

THE STORY THUS FAR Margaret Odell is found strangled in her apartment. Skeel's finger prints are found on the scene, but Vance believes Skeel had been hiding in a clothes closet while the girl was murdered. Mannix, Dr. Lindquist and Cleaver all lie about their whereabouts the night of the murder. Spotswoode, who had been calling on the girl, had rushed back to her door at the sound of her scream but had been reassured that everything was all right. Skeel telephoned the murder. He falls to appear, and the next day he is found strangled, evidently by the same person who had killed the "Canary."

CHAPTER XLII Nine o'clock the next morning found Vance at the district attorney's office. He had brought several newspapers with him, and was reading, with much amusement, the first complete account of Skeel's murder. Monday was generally a busy day for Markham, and he had arrived at the office before half past eight in an effort to clean up some pressing routine matters before proceeding with his investigation of the Odell case.

Heath permitted himself a grin of satisfaction. "Well, sir, Dubois, nailed him up! His name ain't Jessup at all. The William part is all right, but his real moniker is Benton. He was convicted of assault and battery in Oakland in 1909, and served a year in San Quentin when Skeel was a prisoner there. He was also grabbed as a lookout in a bank robbery in Brooklyn in 1914, but didn't come to trial—that's how we happen to have his finger-prints at headquarters.

"When we put him on the grill last night, he said he changed his name after the Brooklyn racket, and enlisted in the army. That's all we could get outa him; but we didn't need any more—Now, here are the facts; Jessup served time for assault and battery. He was mixed up in a bank robbery. Skeel was a fellow prisoner of his. He's got no alibi for Saturday night when Skeel was killed, and he lives round the corner. He quit his job suddenly Saturday afternoon.

"He's husky and strong and could easily have done the business. He was planning his getaway when we nabbed him. And—he's the only person who could've unbolted and rebolted that side door Monday night. Is that a case or ain't it, Mr. Markham?" Markham sat several minutes in thought.

"It's a good case as far as it goes," he said slowly. "But what was his motive in strangling the girl?" "That's easy, Mr. Vance here suggested it the first day. You remember he asked Jessup about his feelings for Odell; and Jessup turned red and got nervous."

"Oh, Lord!" exclaimed Vance. "Am I to be made responsible for any part of this priceless lunacy? True, I sent it to a master dyer and cleaner." Advertisement for Pampa Dry Cleaning Co. Text: 'Send it to a Master Dyer and Cleaner', 'It's Better', 'PAMPA DRY CLEANING CO.', 'Phone 294'.
