Man attacks Cookie Monster

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A man who kicked, punched and knocked down a theme park worker dressed as Cookie Monster because she wouldn't pose with his 3-year-old daughter was sentenced to a year of probation.

Lee P. McPhatter Jr., 22, of Waldorf, Md., was convicted Wednesday by a judge of simple assault, disorderly conduct and harassment. He also was ordered to take an anger-management class.

Police said McPhatter flew into a rage June 9 when the employee at Sesame Place didn't respond to his daughter's request to have her picture taken with the character.

McPhatter and his girlfriend, Sabrina Quiroz, the child's mother, testified that the 22-year-old theme park worker shoved their daughter several times, flung a paw in McPhatter's face, then tripped.

McPhatter had faced up to two years in prison.

Luck of the draw

CRIPPLE CREEK, CO — It didn't take the Supreme Court to solve this dispute, and there will be no endless re-remuneration or demands for recounts.

Edward Libby won a seat on the City Council in this casino gambling town by drawing a 10 of clubs Tuesday. Noel Perran, who like Libby had received 47 votes in last week's election, drew a seven of hearts.

A recount had left the tally at 47 all, and Libby and Perran agreed to draw cards to determine the winner.

"Ah, well, worse things have happened," Perran, an incumbent, said of his loss. "It was all fair and square."

Winning numbers: 18-24-38-42-44-53

Mules escape in overtime thriller

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal Sportswriter

AMARILLO — In a bi-district showdown between the Muleshoe Mules and the Childress Bobcats here Friday at Dick Bivins Stadium, the first 48 minutes counted for naught.

But the Mules made the most of their opportunities in overtime, fighting off the Bobcats 34-28 to advance in the 3A playoffs.

A.J. Flores scored on a five-yard run in overtime to seal the victory for the Mules. The score came after Muleshoe had forced a Childress fumble on the Bobcats' overtime possession.

The score was knotted at 28-28 at the end of regulation. The Bobcats had survived a late Muleshoe threat by forcing a fumble at the Childress 16 in the final minute.

The Mules won the toss and chose to defend in the first overtime. As they had all night, the Bobcats went to money back Michael Brisco, who had carried 33 times for 247 yards. Brisco powered to the Mule 10 in the OT, but Bryan King's hit forced a fumble and Kyle Atwood was there to claim it for the Mules.

Muleshoe took over with a fresh set of downs at the 25. The Mules' playoff T-shirts may have provided the inspiration for what

New drug may replace java buzz

HOUSTON — A new drug may work better than a jolt of java to keep shift workers awake and alert.

Researchers at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston are participating in a national study on the effectiveness of modafinil on night shift workers who have problems staying awake. A study published in the October issue of the American Journal of Critical Care Medicine showed that the drug helped patients with sleep apnea stay awake and alert during the day, without interfering with their sleep at night.

"Unlike coffee, modafinil promotes wakefulness without stimulating most of nervous system," said Dr. Max Hirshkowitz, associate director of Baylor's Sleep Disorders Center. "As a result, it doesn't cause that jittery feeling associated with high doses of caffeine."

Modafinil targets the hypothalamus, the area of the brain that regulates sleep. It works using the opposite action of sleep inducing drugs like antihistamines, found in

Eagles win for pride in final game

Three Way marks 57 years of gridiron history with inspired victory

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal Correspondent

Weeds may take over Three Way's Eagle field in the future, but the memories made on the gridiron will live for many years to come.

After being eliminated from the playoffs last week, the Eagles had only pride and 57 years of history to play for when Cotton Center came to Eagle Field Friday night.

Following a patriotic presentation and a fireworks display prior to kickoff, the inspired Eagles outscored the Elks 50-40 in the final game to be played on Eagle Field. The school will close at the end of this school year.

Anthony Furgeson proved to be a prophet when he told the students and faculty at the Eagles' pep rally, "We are not going to the playoffs — but we are going to have fun tonight and play a good game."

"Tonight is the night it all ends," said senior Jordan Gray,

"After 57 years this is the last game. We want to go out on a good note."

Senior running back Robert Rodriguez rushed 27 times for 287 yards and four TDs; threw for two touchdowns and caught three passes for 54 yards. The 5-7, 140 lb. senior also had 19 tackles and was named the Lubbock Avalanche Journal's Player of the Week. Rodriguez finished the

Liberal senators oppose Estrada

WASHINGTON — A spokesman for the Traditional Value Coalition questioned this week why Senator Patrick Leahy (D-VT) and other liberals are opposing the nomination of Miguel Estrada, who has just been nominated for the U.S. Court of Appeals for Washington, D.C.

"Liberals have long pushed for ethnic diversity in our nation's courts, yet when someone as qualified as Estrada is nominated to the federal bench, Leahy claims he is too 'controversial' to be confirmed," said Rev. Martin Garcia, Executive Director of La Amistad, an affiliate organization of the Traditional Values Coalition, that represents the interests of Hispanic churches in the United States and Puerto Rico.

"The only thing that's controversial about Miguel Estrada is that he's not a lock-step liberal who will actively legislate from the bench instead of interpreting the law," said Garcia. "He's being opposed because he respects the U.S. Constitution and opposes judicial activism. Liberals like Leahy want judges who will rule as an unelected

Mule 7th graders capture district crown

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal correspondent

DIMMITT — The seventh grade Mules defeated the Dimmitt Bobcats 34-0 Nov. 8 to win their first district championship with a perfect 9-0 season.

Tony Guzman ran for four touchdowns in the first three periods and Eric Washington added a fifth in the final frame.

The Mule defense kept the Bobcat offense bottled up all night and Guzman and Company took advantage of Dimmitt miscues.

The Mules' offense misfired after returning the opening kick to the Bobcat 25. A motion penalty set the Mules back to the 20 and a five-yard loss on the Mule's first play put the Mules on their own 15. But Guzman went 85 yards around right end for the Mules' first score a minute into the game.

The Bobcats returned the ensuing Mule kick to the Mule 38; Dimmitt's deepest penetration of the game. The Mule defense and a penalty pushed the Bobcats back to midfield, where Cade Smith covered a Dimmitt fumble on the Bobcats' 45.

Guzman broke through the middle of the Bobcat defense for 46-yard scoring run to put the Mules on top 12-0 with a two minutes remaining in the first period. Junior Martinez recovered a second Dimmitt fumble on the Bobcat 14 as the second period began.

A motion penalty set the Mules back five yards before Guzman took a deep hand off and bounced wide right for a 19-yard scoring run to push the Mules to a 20-0 halftime lead.

After intermission, the Mules kept Dimmitt pinned deep in their own territory during the third period. A short Bobcat punt allowed the Mules to start on the Dimmitt 26. After a short pickup, Guzman took a deep pitch from D.J. Robertson and went wide right 22 yards for his fourth TD of the night and a 26-0 Mule lead.

With the Bobcats facing a fourth and long, the Mules blitzed and tackled the Dimmitt running back deep in his own back field on the Bobcat 29. Washington carried to the 20 on two plays and went up the middle for the final 20 yards to paydirt. Kendall Johnson carried the three yards for the two-point conversion and ended all scoring.

The seventh grade Mules open their basketball season next Monday, Nov. 19, at Lubbock Cooper.

Kilmer passes 8th graders to 52-0 victory

By DELTON WILHITE
Journal Correspondent

Kevin Kilmer exercised his strong right arm in Thursday's cold night air, leading the Muleshoe 8th grade to a 52-0 victory over Dimmitt in the final game of the 2001 season.

Kilmer threw a 48-yard scoring strike on the first play of the game to Jarad Flores and kept the arm warm in the second period with a 12-yard toss to Tyler Sheets for the Mules third TD. Kilmer completed passes to Flores, Caleb Heinrich, Eli Villa, and Garrett Behrends for two-point conversions.

The victory gave the Mule 8th graders an 8-2 record.

Kilmer dropped back on the first play of the night and hit Flores in stride on the Bobcat 23. Flores out-raced a defender to the endzone to put the Mules up 8-0 with less than a minute off the clock.

The Mule defense pushed the Bobcats back to their two and forced them to punt. The punt was short and the Mules resumed business on Dimmitt's 32. Juan Carlos Reyes moved the Mules to the 15 and from the shotgun, Flores sped wide left and cut back to paydirt. As the first period came to a close, the Mules lead 16-0.

The Bobcats drove to the Mule 18 before the Mule defense stiffened. Flores and Reyes picked up yardage in large chunks as the Mules advanced to the Bobcat 12. Kilmer rolled right and tossed to Sheets at the one. He stepped into the end zone to put the Mules up 24-0 with 1:35 left before half.

Reyes took a deep pitch wide right and raced 59 yards to paydirt before the first half ended with the Mules leading 30-0.

The second half was more of the same with Brady Black going 45 yards for the Mules' first tally after intermission. Jerry Colunga claimed a Dimmitt fumble on the Bobcat 38 as the third period ended. Black went up the middle on a 25-yard scoring blast to push the Mules to a 46-0 advantage. Heinrich picked off a Dimmitt pass on the Bobcat 40 and the Mules quickly moved to the Cats' three. Villa carried the final three yards on the hammer to end the scoring with the Mules on top 52-0.

The Mules will open their basketball season with a road trip to Lubbock Cooper Monday, Nov. 19.

followed, sporting a picture of a hammer and the words "The Tradition Continues."

The Mules gave the ball to A.J. Flores on the hammer for seven yards to start the overtime.

Lincoln Riley kept on the option out of the shotgun for a Mule first down to the 11 and Flores picked up six more yards on the second hammer of the extra period.

Flores then took a pitch from Riley the final five yards to bury the stake in the Bobcats' hearts.

"There is nothing better than this — nothing better than this!" said Flores after the game. "When we came together in the final huddle, Lincoln (Riley) called the play and everyone looked up and said let's put it in. It was over right there. They could not stop us when we wanted to go — nobody can stop us with a line like ours."

The game was a battle of offenses, with neither team having much success stopping the other; Muleshoe's balanced attack was contrasted by the power and speed of the 6-2, 190 lb. Brisco.

Muleshoe took a 14-0 lead early in the third period only to see the Bobcats battle back behind Brisco.

"It was a game of field position," said MHS head coach David Wood. "With our bend-but-don't-break defense, a short field is hard to defend. We let them have two short fields in the second half and they caught up. I thought all week long we would have the upper hand on offense."

White team ends season with win at Dimmitt

By DELTON WILHITE
 Journal Correspondent

DIMMITT — The Muleshoe White Team won their final game of the football season by trouncing their Bobcat counterparts 30-14 here last Thursday.

The Mules extended their season record to 6-2, as Ariel Flores scored for the Mules in each quarter. The Mules owned a 16-8 lead at intermission and recovered a Bobcat fumble on the Dimmitt 22 early in the second half.

Facing third-and-twenty on the Dimmitt 32, Flores took a pitch from Logan Ruthardt wide around right end 32 yards to paydirt. Federico Arzola scored the two-point conversion to give the Mules a 22-8 advantage. The ensuing Mule kickoff went into the end zone and the Bobcats had to start on their own 20. After only gaining seven yards on four downs, the Mules took over on the Dimmitt 27.

Arzola moved the Mules to the Bobcat four-yard line as the final period got underway. Flores scored his fourth TD of the night from four yards out to give the Mules

"I told the kids in the huddle before the over time, 'It's the new tradition versus the old tradition . . . let's see who has the strongest tradition' and you saw the kids rise to the occasion," Wood added.

Muleshoe took the lead with 3:35 left in the first period with a pitch to Flores, who followed Jeffrey Skipworth and Chance Turney five yards to paydirt.

D.J. Dominguez made his first of four conversion kicks to put the Mules up 7-0. The scoring drive covered 52 yards in nine plays. Both teams threatened before intermission could not cash in on their scoring opportunities.

Muleshoe had deferred to the second half and chose to receive to open the third frame. Facing a second-and-three on the Bobcat eight, Riley rolled to his right and with a Bobcat hanging on his left arm launched a seven-yard scoring strike to Dominguez. The score put the Mules up 14-0 early in the third period.

But the Bobcats clawed back, as Brisco scored on runs of nine and 18 yards to tie the game at 14 apiece.

Flores, who had mishandled a pitch to set up the Bobcats' second TD, redeemed himself by returning the ensuing Bobcat kickoff 84 yards to put the Mules back on top, 21-14.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

WHEN PROPHETS DISAGREED!

HANANIAH, THE SON OF AZUR, A BENJAMITE OF GIBECN, WAS A FALSE PROPHET IN THE REIGN OF ZEDEKIAH KING OF JUDAH! IN THE 4TH YEAR OF HIS REIGN (B.C. 595), HANANIAH HAD THE TEMERITY TO WITHSTAND JEREMIAH THE PROPHET, AND PUBLICLY PROPHESY, IN THE TEMPLE, THAT WITHIN TWO YEARS ALL THE CAPTIVES, WHICH HAD BEEN TAKEN BY NEBUCHADNEZZAR, ALONG WITH THE GOLD VESSELS FROM THE TEMPLE, WOULD BE RETURNED FROM BABYLON TO JERUSALEM (JER. 28). THIS INDICATED THAT THERE WERE UNDERHANDED NEGOTIATIONS GOING ON WITH EGYPT — A PLAN THAT JEREMIAH PREACHED AGAINST, TIME AFTER TIME! HANANIAH CORROBORATED THIS BY TEARING THE YOKE FROM OFF THE NECK OF JEREMIAH, WORN IN TOKEN OF THE SUBJECTION OF JUDAH TO THE BABYLONIAN EMPIRE. BUT JEREMIAH'S REPLY TO THIS WAS TO TELL HANANIAH THAT HE SHOULD MAKE...

IRON YOKES, SO FIRM WAS THE DOMINION OF BABYLON FOR YEARS AND YEARS TO COME! AS A FURTHER REBUKE, JEREMIAH PREDICTED HANANIAH'S DEATH BEFORE THE YEAR SHOULD PASS — WHICH CAME ABOUT JUST AS JEREMIAH PROPHESIED! PERHAPS HANANIAH HAD THE LAST LAUGH, OUT OF THE GRAVE — FOR IT WAS HIS GRANDSON, IRIJAH, CAPTAIN OF THE WARD, WHO ARRESTED JEREMIAH AT THE GATE OF BENJAMIN, ON THE CHARGE OF DESERTING TO THE BABYLONIANS! (JER. 37:13) THIS EPISODE, OUT OF THE LIFE OF JEREMIAH, THROWS INTERESTING LIGHT UPON THE JEWISH POLITICS OF THAT TIME AND THE DIVISION OF THE PARTIES THAT WERE FOR BABYLON ON THE ONE HAND, AND EGYPT ON THE OTHER — ALMOST LIKE IT IS TODAY!!

Again the Bobcats responded, as Brisco scored from 18 yards out. But a failed PAT try left the Mules up 21-20.

The Mules were forced to punt as the final period started, but got the ball back when Brisco fumbled on the Childress 38. Daniel Campolla jumped on the loose ball for the Mules.

From the Bobcat 32, Riley rolled to his right, pumped once and threw to Brennan Broyles on the sideline to give the Mules a first-and-goal at the five. Flores picked up four yards on the hammer and Riley scored on a one-yard sneak for a 28-

20 Mule lead.

The Bobcats tied the game for the final time when Brisco scored on a seven-yard jaunt up the middle and Polley found Gostnell open for the two-point conversion to force the OT.

The Mules return to action next Friday against the Crane Golden Cranes. The Cranes upset Midland Greenwood in a bi-district contest played Friday in Monahans.

Flores rushed 24 times for 155 yards and had the 84 yard kick off return. Riley carried 17 times for 110 yards and completed nine-of-12-passes for 110 yards.

a 30-8 pad.

The Bobcats found running room outside to put their final tally on the board. It was to little to late, with the Mules up 30-14 as time expired.

The Mules returned the games opening kick off to mid-field. Flores and Arzola moved the Mules deep into Dimmitt territory before Flores went the final 20 yards to score the first points of the game. The scoring drive consumed much of the first period and gave the Mules an 8-0 advantage.

The Mules kicked off and pinned the Bobcats on their own eight-yard line.

The Mule defense not only contained the Dimmitt running game, but also pushed the Bobcats back into their end zone for a safety. Luis Muniz made initial contact on the Bobcat running back to put the Mules on top 10-0 as the second period started.

After returning the Dimmitt kick off to the Dimmitt 45, Daniel Caraveo gained 20 yards on a wingback reverse. Flores scored from 10 yards out to give the Mules a 16-0 lead with 1:35 remaining in the first half.

The Bobcats returned the kickoff into Mule territory and faked a reverse to score from 46 yards out to cut the Mule lead to 16-8 at half time.

The White Team members gained valuable experience as the season progressed and now look forward to off-season drills or basketball.

cold medicines, and gabba agonists, found in alcohol and barbiturates.

Traditional stimulants also stimulate the pleasure centers of the brain.

Abuse and addiction can be a problem with traditional stimulants like caffeine and amphetamines, Hirshkowitz said. "They give such a rush of pleasure that people want to use them again and again."

When shifts fall during the night, from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m., the worker is fighting the natural wake-sleep pattern. Night workers get less sleep than daytime workers do, and the sleep is less restful. According to the National Sleep Foundation 10 to 20 percent of night shift workers report falling asleep on the job, usually during the second half of the shift. As a result, shift workers who work all night may have a hard time sleeping during the day, even though they are tired.

The American Sleep Foundation offers the following tips to help shift workers stay alert on the job:

- Take short breaks throughout the shift.
- Try to work with a "buddy." Talking with co-workers can help keep you alert. And co-workers can be on the lookout for signs of drowsiness in each other.

- Try to exercise during breaks. Do sit ups in the employee lounge, take a walk, play basketball in the parking lot, or climb stairs.

- Try to eat three normal meals per day. Eat healthy snacks, avoiding foods that may upset your stomach.

- If you drink a caffeinated beverage (coffee, tea, colas), do so early in the shift, e.g., before 3 a.m. for the night worker.

- Don't leave the most tedious or boring tasks to the end of your shift when you are apt to feel the drowsiest. Night shift workers hit their lowest period around 4 a.m.

- Exchange ideas with your colleagues on ways to cope with the problems of shift work. Set up a support group at work so that you can support and learn from each other.

HISTORY

season with 1,714 yards.

Chris Kindle completed five of 10 passes for 77 yards, one touchdown and threw one interception.

Anthony Furgeson caught two TD passes and kicked four extra-points.

The Eagles picked up 14 first downs and generated 449 total yards of offense while the Elks had 17 first downs and 386 total yards.

The Elks' Danny Rayes scored on runs of 15, 23, and three yards, while Rowdy Dunlap scored on runs of five and nine yards and caught a 15-yard scoring toss from Chris Ashby on the final Elk drive.

It was fitting that in such an emotionally charged contest, a Three Way goalline stand late in the game halted the Elks at the Eagles' one. Then Three Way drove 99 yards for the score that put the game away.

The Eagles drove to the Elks' 29 on six straight carries by Rodriguez. On the seventh play of the drive, Rodriguez took a pitch from Kindle and threw a 29-yard scoring strike to Furgeson to put the game out of reach with 2:11 to play. The Elks found the end zone one more time, but it was too little, too late.

Three Way opened the scoring as Kindle connected with Jordan Gray on the Eagles first play of the game. Three Way had recovered an Elk fumble on the Cotton Center 16.

Rodriguez had touchdown runs of 49, 25, 58, and 21 yards and threw a 50-yard scoring strike to Furgeson as the second period began. His second TD toss to Furgeson went 29 yards late in the final period.

The Eagles finished their final season at 4-6 and in a three-way tie for the second playoff spot in the district with Amherst and Cotton Center. But Amherst won the tie-breaker and the post-season berth.

The Eagles opened their final basketball season in their home gym with 64-62 victory over Portales Faith Temple Tuesday (November 13). The Lady Eagles were also victorious, beating Faith Temple 47-38 as Kara Heinrich scored 30 points.

The Three Way girls are scheduled to compete in the Faith Temple Tournament Nov. 15-17 in Portales, while the Eagles were set to travel to Sudan for JV and varsity games on Friday (Nov. 16).

Three Way will host Meadow for JV boys, varsity girls and varsity boys games on Tuesday (Nov. 20) and Bovina next Friday (Nov. 23).

"Like, Do First Impressions, Like, Matter, Dude?"

"First impressions matter. One is a fool to think otherwise." So wrote former Houston minister Bill Love. As I read Bill's words, I thought about an interesting first meeting I had with my wife's niece's then-boyfriend who was welcomed to the table a few years ago at Thanksgiving (and I wonder who we'll meet this year?).

May I state the obvious? This fellow was no blood kin to me. Until I got to know him a bit, I confess that I would have taken some comfort in mentioning that. Nor is he any blood kin to my wife. But the fact that it was my wife's niece who chose this guy, well, that fact gave me pause to think, early on, that some serious weakness might be lurking down toward that end of my children's gene pool. My first impression of the guy wasn't great.

Was it the hair? It might have been combed once for, say, a hospital baby picture.

Was it the somewhat quizzical look in the eyes? I wondered if that look was evidence of an elevator that didn't quite reach the top floor, or, on the other hand, a mark of out of the ordinary intelligence. Or perhaps that's just the look you'd expect from a guy coming from an area that must be the old VW van capital of the world, a young sprout whose parents (maybe even grandparents?) were very likely fully-flowering flower children. Maybe he just didn't know what to make of us, either.

Was it is grammar I found odd? Like, I mean, dude, do all real sentences have to start with "like" and end with "dude"?

Or was it the silver ear-stud sticking out of his lip, certainly his most striking feature? That extra hole in his head particularly in that particular spot looks incredibly uncomfortable and, to me, uncommonly silly.

But I got to spend part of Thanksgiving getting to know this dude. Mark—like that's his name, dude—even took pains to shake my hand and say around his ear-lip-stud in an amazingly unhairlipped way as Thanksgiving ended, "It was good to meet you, sir." "Sir" made me feel really old. But it was, like, a nice touch, I thought, uh, dude.

And then I spent a weekend a few weeks later up in the New Mexico mountains with Mark & company (several of whom have been breathing very thin air too long, I think) as I performed the wedding for another niece. And now Mark impresses me as not that bad a guy.

I still think Bill Love's right. If you don't think first impressions matter, like what world do you live in, dude? If Mark wants a job in the real lower-altitude marketplace where the demand for oxygen-starved snowboarders with lip rings is somewhat depressed, he may have to alter his style a bit. But Bill is also right when he goes on to comment that "there must be more to life than first impressions," and that to Christ, what always mattered and still matters is what is inside.

Did I mention that Mark is majoring in astrophysics?

Curtis Shelburne is minister of the 18th & D Church of Christ in Muleshoe.
