American Trade In China Faces Death

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (AP)—If American trade with China follows the pattern traced in Manchukuo, United States exporters may see their business with the Chinese increase for a few years and then go into a tailspin.

Experts here suggested that parallel is likely to occur, with material damage to America's 1937 position as the largest seller in China and the largest buyer of Chinese goods.

Encampment For 4-H Club Girls Planned By Group

Members of the Girls 4-H clubs of Gray county will have an encampment next year along McClellan creek. It was decided by the club members at an achievement day program held in the office of the Gray County Home Demonstration agent.

Exact location and date of the encampment has not been determined. A site near Alanreed is favored and the date will be sometime preceding the annual short course at Texas A. & M. college. The encampment will be the first one held in Gray county since Mrs. Julia E. Kelley began work here as county demonstration agent.

Sponsors of the Gray county clubs will have home demonstration agents from surrounding counties to address the encampment on two topics in which the Gray county club members have indicated interest, the improvement of personality, and personal appearance.

Outstanding contests for the clubs next year will be attendance, clothing work, poultry work, and poultry

Beta Delta Has Annual Chapter Dinner At Hotel

Beta Delta chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society entertained with the annual dinner in the Hotel Schneider recently.

The Thanksgiving theme was carried out in the green and yellow table decorations. A large cornucopia filled with pumpkins, vegetables, fruits, and nuts formed the centerpiece for each of the tables. Favours were hand-made books containing menu, program, and songs for the evening and a miniature turkey.

The following program was given with Mrs. John Bradley presiding: Delta Kappa Gamma greeting song, invocation by Mrs. C. T. ### Slow Starts Waste Gas

When you step on the starter gasoline is pumped into the motor in vapor form. If it doesn't fire and start your motor promptly, it turns back into liquid form and either drains into the crankcase to dilute your oil, or passes out the exhaust pipe...

You can eliminate this waste by stopping at the sign of the Flying Red Horse for fast-firing winter Mobilgas and quick-flowing winter Mobiloil, two important points of Magnolia Winter Proof service.

Get your complete Winter Proof Ticket, now! It's good for lightning-fast starts... longer life for your car... and extra miles for your fuel dollars.

WINTER PROOF for Lightning Fast Starts

WINTER PROOF SERVICE

1. WINTER GASOLINE. WHY? Winter Mobilgas gives quicker starts, faster pick-up, extra mileage and smooth, powerful engine performance.
2. CRANKCASE PROTECTED. WHY? Summer oil thickens and won't flow freely enough in cold temperatures to protect moving parts.
3. CHASSIS PROTECTED. WHY? Under ordinary driving conditions winter Mobilgrease won't Squeeze Out—Wash Out—Congel—stops squeaks and makes your car run smoother.
4. TRANSMISSION PROTECTED. WHY? Your gear-shift lever answers this when it sticks and is hard to move. Winter Mobil Gear Oil makes shifting easy.
5. DIFFERENTIAL PROTECTED. WHY? There are two types of differential gears, and each needs a special winter Mobil Gear Oil to prevent dragging and wear.
6. RADIATOR PROTECTED. WHY? Mobil Radiator Flush loosens rust and scale and re-clogs clogged passages. It prepares your radiator for Mobil Freeze.
7. BATTERY PROTECTED. WHY? Cold weather reduces battery efficiency. Clean and grease terminals; regular servicing speeds cold starts.

Behind The Scenes In Washington By RODNEY DUTCHER Pampa News Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON, Nov. 22—Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson is more than likely to succeed Attorney General Homer S. Cummings when the latter retires in January to practice law—but that's not certain.

Here is a statement that should be demonstrated. The contributor contends a child working lowers the wages of a man. If this be true, then for a child to labor is un-Christian, but because the contributor makes the statement is no proof whatever that it is true.

Field Trials At Palestine Begin

PALESTINE, Nov. 22 (AP)—Sun up at Bethel today found bird dogs, handlers, owners and fans gathered at J. N. Gee's country store for the grand opening of the annual Texas field trials.

With a fresh norther due to strike during the day, officials were gratified over the outlook for favorable weather. The courses on and around the Miles Darden plantation are in excellent condition and birds are more plentiful than ever. Sixteen dogs were sent down this morning for the owner-handler stake, opening event of the four-day meet, and winners will be declared tonight by Judge Frank M. Vestal, of Memphis, and C. C. Stephenson of Holly Springs, Miss.

The Texas open championship, grand and closing event of the trials, has a record breaking entry of 26 prize dogs.

New Stay-Ins Bring Grief To Daladier

PARIS, Nov. 22 (AP)—Premier Edouard Daladier today took firm action to break the wave of stay-in strikes which spread in the defense industries on the eve of British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's visit.

As labor opposition to the government's financial decree laws mounted, the premier's office published the following note:

"M. Daladier had addressed precise instructions to prefects of all departments to put an end immediately to occupations of factories which have taken place."

Mounting labor and political conflicts brought a sudden fall in the franc, adding to the government's worries. The franc was quoted at 38.25 to the dollar and 178.70 to the pound in bank trading this morning compared to 38.08 and 178.67 at yesterday's closing.

Labor's most important challenge to the government's decree laws came in the northern manufacturing town of Denain where 500 men who refused to return to work in the Calix factory after striking yesterday were discharged this morning.

The entire 4,000 workers of the plant, engaged in manufacturing artillery for the government, immediately went on strike and occupied the grounds.

The prefecture ordered mobile guards to clear the factory, but met a prompt warning from the Northern Metal Workers' Union that if the strikers were forced out of the plant a general strike of 10,000 men in the region would be called.

Other protests arose from labor, especially against the decree calling for lengthening of the 40-hour work week in key industries. Quarters close to the government reported today that a plan for settlement of the Spanish civil war would be studied by Premier Daladier and Prime Minister Chamberlain during their talks which begin tomorrow.

The plan was said to have been drawn up already in a rough outline through diplomatic exchanges. It was understood the proposal would be submitted to Germany and Italy for their approval as soon as international tension has sufficiently eased.

The word "curfew" comes from "couvre-feu," or "cover fire," and dates back to the time when each householder covered his fire at a certain time every evening.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—Alcraft proved popular in today's stock market but most other groups had difficulty in attracting even mild support.

Business news, on the whole, continued moderately cheerful, and some comfort was found in the apparent easing of foreign tension, but speculative forces generally exhibited little appetite for the buying side pending more conclusive evidence.

Encouragement was derived from the fact selling was exceptionally light throughout. Transfers approximated 900,000 shares.

Fox Discusses Second Coming

Dr. Fox discussed last night "The End of the World." The discussion of the "Second Coming of Christ" has been badly misinterpreted. Some people have set the time of Jesus' coming and have made out a program of His coming, and they have thereby misrepresented both Jesus and the Scriptures. Then there are others who have put off the second coming of Christ as if He were never coming. Both are in error. I do not know when Jesus is coming, but I know He is coming. That is as certain as that he came the first time," he said.

PRISONERS

Scientists had to be called to aid the penitentiary doctor in caring for the mass hospitalization. From the less seriously affected victims officials learned the "party" was staged Sunday, but they were unable to ascertain details. At 3 a. m. today two of the victims died in quick succession, and the third followed at 4 a. m. Empty Jugs Found In a check of the prison today guards found two empty jugs, bearing poison labels, Prather said, in "screaming letters." He said some of the ailing felons told him they also drank shellac, but that a check of the prison's supply of shellac disclosed none missing. He said, however, that previously officials had learned of prisoners drinking shellac because it contained alcohol. He also disclosed that because some prisoners had drained anti-freeze solution from prison motorcars he had issued strict orders for all penitentiary cars to be parked outside the walls. Prather said the soap compound had been poured from the jugs into other containers, but that he had not learned if any further preparations were made before it was drunk. The compound, he said, was used by the prison to test water for its softness. County Coroner Ted Sexton called an autopsy to investigate the deaths. The warden quoted physicians as saying 20 of the 21 remaining victims of the "party" would recover. Hawaii produces about 216,000,000 cans of pineapple annually. Placed side by side, these cans would reach halfway around the world.

Kiwanis Head Gives Talk On Americanism

A group of Pampa Kiwanis heard their international president, H. G. Hatfield, of Oklahoma City, sound a serious warning note against Communism and Fascism in America as he spoke from five Plains cities at the regular luncheon of the Amarillo club in Amarillo Monday afternoon. The Kiwanis international president said that Americanism would be the main theme of the group during his year as president. "It is time we came to our senses," he said. "Right under our very noses the seeds of Communism and Fascism are being spread as rapidly as they can be spread by the agents of the dictator nations. Perpetuation of Americanism will be the main goal of his administration, Mr. Hatfield said, adding that the officers of other civic clubs—Lions, Rotary, ABC, and other similar organizations—have indicated that they will unite in the campaign. Mr. Hatfield was introduced by Bill Williams, lieutenant-governor for district 5, who was introduced by Irwin Odner, lieutenant-governor-elect. Attending the luncheon from the Pampa Kiwanis club were President James B. Massa, W. V. Jarratt, James M. Collins, Frank Harris and Tex DeWesse.

BOOM

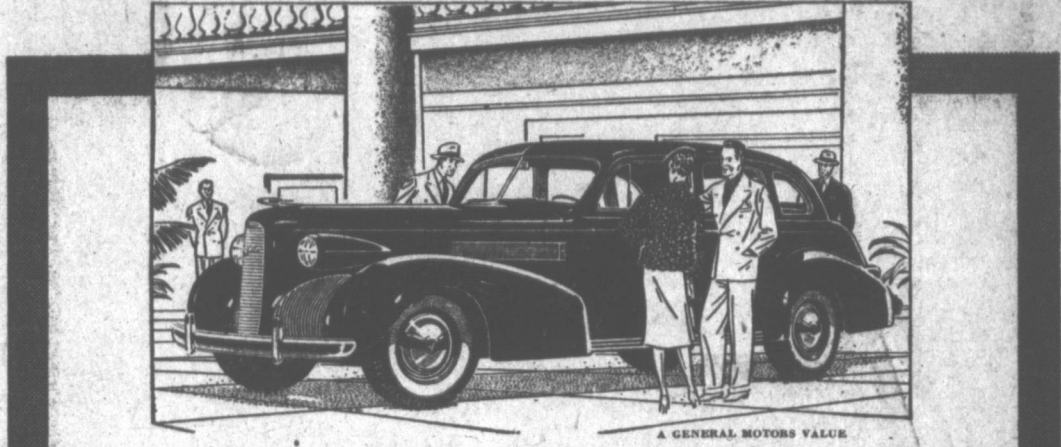

(Continued from page one.) have said their plans would be filed with the war department before the end of this week. In addition to the understanding referred to, the defense program has brought two other results stimulating to utility expansion, he said. One is that standardization of heavy-cost equipment as demanded by the war department eliminates an element of risk in capital investment. The other is that orders for equipment made necessary by the national defense plan, which will be awarded on a competitive basis from the middle of December to the middle of January, are likely to tax electric equipment manufacturing for the next year or two.

Army Enlistments Will Be Received

A regular army officer will be in Amarillo November 28 to complete enlistments for the Regular Army Reserve. Former soldiers, who have been honorably discharged within the past three years, desiring to enlist in this branch, should report to the Amarillo recruiting office Monday morning, bringing their discharge papers with them. Some vacancies still exist for enlistments in the Army. However, these vacancies are rapidly being filled, and young men who contemplate enlisting this winter, should do so before the Army is in full strength and recruiting closed, according to R. A. Jackson, Sgt. DEM. RS.

Profit-Sharing In Industry Advocated

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (AP)—Senator Herring (D-Iowa) said today his special Senate committee hoped to establish evidence that profit-sharing plans actually raise the profits of industries. Increased industrial efficiency brought about by the desire of employees to boost the profits in which they share, he said, has been demonstrated in several of the plans investigated by the committee. Linked with this, he said, has been evidence that labor relations have improved, sabotage has declined and production increased where profit-sharing systems have been established. President Robert E. Wood of Sears Roebuck Co., suggested to the committee yesterday that an allowance on the amount of social security tax paid to the government might be given to those companies which put profit-sharing plans in effect.

YOUR WILL-POWER... THE MODERN HAZARD TO YOUR NERVES

BEAGLE HOUND English fox-hound in miniature. Solid and big for his inches, true beagle has the long-wearing look of the hound that can last in the chase. One of the oldest breeds in history—close to the original breed of hounds, U. S. standards specify 15 inches maximum height—any true hound color acceptable. HE'S GIVING HIS NERVES A REST.... AND SO IS HE THE frazzling pace of these fast-moving times doesn't mean a thing in the life of the dog. Although his complex, high-keyed nervous system closely resembles our own, when the dog feels his nerves tire he settles down—relaxes—as the beagle hound above is doing. That is instinctive with the dog. We are not so likely to break nerve tension before it gets our nerves upset. Ambition and determination push us on and on... past the warning stage of nerve strain. Will-power silences the instinct to pause and rest. And yet jittery, ragged nerves are a distinct handicap. Don't let your nerves get that way. Learn to ease the strain occasionally. Let up—light up a Camel! It's such a pleasant way to rest your nerves—a brief recess, mellow with the pleasure of Camel's mildness and ripe, rich taste. Yes, no wonder smokers say Camel's costlier tobaccos are so soothing to the nerves. They've learned—millions have—to give nerves relief... They "Let up—light up a Camel" AN ANALYTICAL CHEMIST'S job is intensely nerve straining. No wonder so many of these men break nerve tension often by letting up—lighting up a Camel.

Grim Bulldogs Report Ready For Harvesters

Injury Jinx Overcome By Borger Club

The injury jinx which hit the Borger Bulldogs in the Amarillo and Lamesa games is fast being overcome and a strong Bulldog eleven will be ready for the Pampa Harvesters Thursday afternoon in Borger, according to word from the Bulldog kennel.

Hubert Allen, ace quarterback who does most of his team's running, passing and punting and also plays the safety position, has been running like a wild man all week, assisted by Sickles, halfback, and Raber, fullback, both of whom have been nursing injuries.

Ends Williams and Cannon have been showing up strong with Drake, ace guard, in rushing the pass receiver as the Bulldogs prepared to stop Captain J. W. Graham and his passing. Sullivan, one of the greatest tacklers ever to appear in the Panhandle, is sound and ready to go. It is the other side of the line that is worrying Coach Catfish Smith, it is reported.

Coach Smith, like Pampa's Coach Mitchell, lost his first string tackle through an appendicitis operation. C. W. Brynes was the boy lost by the Bulldogs while the Harvesters lost Glen Nichols, Bill Davis, who relieved in Brynes position, is on crutches because of a bad ankle and Henry Hood, a 165-pound youngster, has been called to fill the slot, and is doing a good job.

The Bulldogs also have one of the district's outstanding centers in Bonmar, a letterman who played a great game against the Harvesters last fall. Alton McQueen, a back last year, but now a guard, rounds out the Bulldog line.

Harvesters Working Hard

Weather hasn't stopped the Harvesters a bit as they prepare to invade the land of the Bulldogs. The boys went through a stiff workout yesterday afternoon.

Looking the situation over, the Bulldogs have a good record. They led the Amarillo Sandies until the last minute of play and that is enough to place them in the favored list. They lost to Lubbock early in the season and dropped to Sullivan and Lamesa while Pampa tied Lamesa and won from Plainview.

Harvester coaches are still working on offense but paying considerable attention to ways and means of stopping Allen, who ran the Sandies well. The work of Coach Sullivan is being looked over. It was the same Sullivan who made holes for Allen all season and who was the power on defense. His outstanding performance was against Amarillo where he stopped Blazing Bill Thompson cold on nearly every thrust.

A block of reserve seat tickets went on sale this morning at the office of the school business manager in the city hall.

Low-Water Dams To Be Built On Brazos

TEMPLE, Nov. 22 (AP)—A series of low-water dams will be constructed on the upper Brazos watershed at a maximum cost of a quarter of a million dollars.

This was authorized yesterday by the Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation District, the dams to be located in Stephens, Knox, Eastland, Baylor, Callahan, Young, King, Dickens, Shackelford, Jones and other counties.

Directors of the district said in addition to general benefits to the valley, the dams would solve the problem of municipal water supply in some places.

These dams are designed to tie in with the 13 large dams planned by the district.

McMillin Wants Coach To Go Into Huddle With Boys

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 22 (AP)—Alvin N. (Bo) McMillin, irrefragable and inventive as even though his Indiana University football team got only one victory the season just closed, started a one-man campaign today for a new rule to make the coach take over the heavy brain work of his quarterback.

The white-haired, soft-spoken Southerner who pilots the Hoosiers says the coach, and not the quarterback, should decide which plays his team is to use on offense. His idea is to have the coach run on the field before each scrimmage, go into a huddle with his boys, tell them what to do and hurry off before they line up for the play.

And Bo, as a member of the rules committee on the National Football Coaches Association, declares he's going to have the committee draw up a rule for this when it meets in Chicago next month and submit it to the rules committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

McMillin's last invention—the five-man backfield—met opposition from Big Ten coaches. But they couldn't stop him from dreaming.

Armstrong Favored To Win Over Garcia

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 (AP)—Although Henry Armstrong will be giving away ten pounds when he defends the welterweight title against Cefterino Garcia at Madison Square Garden Friday, it doesn't show in the odds. The bookmakers have made him a 5 to 8 favorite to retain the crown.

The betting is 2 1/2 to 1 that Garcia will not win by a knockout, and the boys who lay the odds figure that's the only way he can win.

Professional Grid Owners Cleaning Up This Season

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 (AP)—Among those who will join in the spirit of Thanksgiving this week are the owners of the 10 clubs in the National Professional Football League. They are a singularly well-fed set of gentlemen, with a business that is flourishing beyond their wildest dreams of a few years ago.

Already this season they have enticed 1,016,255 cash customers to their games, and there still are seven league contests to be played, not counting the big play-off between the Eastern and Western divisions of the league. Last year's total attendance was only slightly over 1,000,000, and that was a record.

The money game is booming everywhere. At least five clubs already have set new individual crowd marks. They are Detroit, Green Bay, Cleveland, Washington and Philadelphia. On one day this fall 129,000 persons paid their way into the professional stadiums.

The men who bank-rolled the professional sport through the lean years are getting it back fast. One of the beauties of their position is the small original investment. Only Green Bay owns and operates its own park, as a community enterprise. All the others are happy to hire the big baseball plants and let somebody else pay the taxes. George Washington Redskins, is feuding with Clark Griffith and threatening to build himself a stadium, but he doesn't mean it much.

Irish First And Frogs Second In Grid Rankings

By DREW MIDDLETON.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 (AP)—Notre Dame, unchecked in eight major starts this season, holds its place at the top of the Associated Press football ranking poll for the second straight week. Close behind is Texas Christian with Duke, Tennessee and Pittsburgh within striking distance.

The writers gave Notre Dame 48 votes for first place and 807 points while T. C. U. had 28 first ballots and 746 points. Duke was third with 553 points and Tennessee and Pitt tied for fourth with 523 points.

This week's operations should tell the story for the season. Each of the leaders, has terrific opposition just ahead; Notre Dame meeting Southern California, Texas Christian playing Southern Methodist, Duke undergoing the acid test against Pitt, and Tennessee playing Kentucky an old and dangerous rival.

The rankings as cast by 84 sports writers: (first place votes in brackets, points scored on 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis):

TEAM	Pts.
Notre Dame (48).....	807
Texas Christian (28).....	746
Duke (3).....	553
Tennessee (3).....	523
Pittsburgh (2).....	523
Oklahoma.....	351
Carnegie.....	336
Minnesota.....	152
California.....	151
Cornell.....	147
Second 10: Holy Cross 79, Michigan 52, Dartmouth 38, Southern California 36, Northwestern 35, Villanova 33, Texas Tech 25, Fordham 21, Santa Clara 13, Georgetown 11.

27 Girls Report For Basketball

PHILLIPS, Nov. 20.—Twenty-seven girls of the Phillips high school have reported daily for the past month to Coach R. F. Newman to make up the Phillips Phillippette basketball team.

Eight of the girls are experienced and around them Coach Newman will build his team. The girls have been practicing on the fundamentals of the game, passing the ball, shooting goals and running plays.

Captains of the team are Dolores Bailey and Willie Pearl Clark. Other girls that have lettered are Betty Dunstan, Thelma Happer, Kathryn Langen, Ruby Roberts, Sarah Stephenson and Lillian Stull.

Others coming out are Gene Eller, Wanda Rose Hooten, Hildred Hopper, Mildred Kossey, Lavon Ostrom, Lorene Robinette, Claudine Robertson, Billy Jo Smith, Vivian Stull, Marcella Umphries, Mary Lee Williams, Beulah Mae Garrett, Gwendolyn Ostrum, Virginia Jo See, Effie Jo Carter, Mary Holloman, Virginia Ogle and Emma Robertson.

Coach Newman will attend the meeting of the coaches of the girls' teams, to make out the fall schedule.

All-American Rose Bowl Tackle To Coach Pansies

From Rose bowl to Flower bowl comes the coach of the Pampa Pansies who will meet the Phillips-Borger Lillies in a football game at Harvesters field the afternoon of Dec. 8. The Pansy coach is All-American Truman Spain who played tackle for the SMU Mustangs. His last game was in the Rose Bowl in California in 1935 and he is now a Pampian, working for an oil company.

Assisting Coach Spain will be Coach J. C. Prejean of the Pampa Harvesters and a former foe of Spain's. Prejean is a graduate of Texas University and twice he played opposite to Spain. The two coaches will announce practice date soon.

The Pansies will be composed of bonafide members of Pampa's three civic clubs and every one of them has played outstanding football in high school or college.

The Lillies will be members of the civic clubs of Phillips and Borger who challenged the locals to a good old game of football.

There will be no burlesque or make-believe football played but straight hard ball.

Catfish Smith, coach of the Borger Bulldogs, will be the Lily mentor. Athletic directors for the game will be Roy Bourland of the Lions club, Dan McGrew of the Kiwanis club and C. T. Hunkapillar of the Rotary club.

The local executive board is composed of Hol Wagner of the Rotarians, Garnet Reeves of the Kiwanians, and Bill Bratton of the Lions. Each club has named a steering committee, as follows: Lions—Dr. H. H. Hicks, Mack Graham, Roy Bourland, Bill Bratton, and Chick Hickman. Rotary—Dick Hughes, Sid Patterson, and Hol Wagner. Kiwanis—Frank Harris, Tex DeWeese, Bill Jarratt, and Garnet Reeves.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 (AP)—If Mr. Diogenes will stop at Florida U. with his lamp, he'll find that honest man he was looking for... The lad is Ed (Fats) Wasek, a freshman lineman from Chicago... Like others on the frosh varsity, Fats was getting room and board assistance for playing football... But he decided—without criticism from the coaches—that he just didn't have it... So he voluntarily went to Coach Josh Cody and said he was giving up the scholarship held because he couldn't give enough in return... Needless to say, Josh is still speechless... And brave Fats is trying to keep on in college without help... Alice Marble, the tennis honey, makes her singing debut in the Waldorf-Astoria Dec. 1.

TCU In Swell Condition For Dallas Game

(By The Associated Press)

When El Al'rich, Texas Christian University's mighty center, made the observation recently that the Horned Frogs were good because they were in the best condition of any squad he had ever seen, he could back up his statement by showing the small number of injuries on the team this year.

This week is no exception. Coach Dutch Meyer couldn't find even a stubbed toe as his Frogs returned to the practice field to get ready for the battle with Southern Methodist at Dallas Saturday when the Southwest conference championship is at stake.

Southern Methodist was in fairly good shape. Jack Sanders, regular tackle, had a shoulder injury but it wasn't expected to handicap his efforts Saturday. The same team that smothered Baylor last week will be ready for action.

Three other conference teams prepared to close the season in Thanksgiving day games. The Texas Longhorns, who battle their ancient rivals, the Texas Aggies, at Austin, counted three squadmen—Tackle Park Myers, Guard Ted Dawson, and Halfback Nelson Fuest—on the injured list. None was expected to be able to play against A. and M. The Aggies took things easy, polishing up their plays and working to perfect their defense.

The Arkansas Razorbacks, who finish the campaign against Tulsa University at Tulsa Thursday, had a half-dozen regulars and reserves out with injuries, among they Kay Eakin, backfield stalwart, and Zach Smith, wingman.

The Baylor Bears and Rice Owls play at Houston Saturday. It was the Bears' finale but the Owls will still have a conference tilt left—S. M. U. at Houston Dec. 3. Baylor has Milt Merka, fullback, out with injuries and he may not be able to play against Rice.

Rice was cheered over prospects even after the Cardinals, being able to play against Baylor. Cordell did not get into the game against T. C. U. last week and Ernie Lain, Owl passer, played only a few minutes. Lain was also expected to be ready to go against the Bears.

Official Accused Of Souvenir Smuggling

CORPUS CHRISTI, Nov. 22 (AP)—Those cute Mexican souvenirs Arthur Priel distributed for the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce were smuggled into the United States, a federal indictment charged today.

A true bill charging Priel with 16 counts—eight of smuggling and eight of transporting and concealing smuggled goods—was in the hands of the federal clerk.

The former conventions manager of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce was accused of smuggling in miniature serapes, baskets, canes and shoes from Mexico through Laredo, Texas. The overt acts, the indictment charged, occurred in 1937 and 1938.

Federal attorneys today said the total value of the goods listed in the indictment was $750.

144 Records To Be Presented For Approval

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 (AP)—A total of 144 record performances in track and field, swimming, weight lifting and horsehoe pitching, five of them from existing world records, will be presented to the Amateur Athletic Union for approval at its annual convention at Washington Dec. 2, 3 and 4.

The list, compiled by Paul R. Jordan, chairman of the records committee, is topped by the greatest mile running performance ever listed, Glenn Cunningham's 4:04.4 mile made on Dartmouth College's indoor track last March.

Cunningham's record, and all the rest that are not bettered by others on the same list, likely will be accepted as American records.

Cunningham's mile would not receive international recognition because the I. A. A. F. does not accept records made indoors. Wayne Rideout's three-quarter mile mark of 3:00.3, made at Princeton, N. J., last June, is only one-tenth of a second better than the mark held by Josef Mestert of Belgium. The I. A. A. F. requires a fifth-second margin in long races.

World records in swimming that will come up for American recognition are Ralph Flanagan's 5:56.5 for the 500 meters free style over a 25-yard course and Jack Kasley's 1:08.6 for the 100 meters breast stroke.

Flanagan is the chief record-breaker on the list with 14 marks up for consideration.

"Noteworthy performance" include distance medley, 9:59.4, North Texas State Teachers College.

Approximately 18,500,000 of the world's 33,275,000 telephones are in North America.

Referee 'Taken Apart' In Murderous Mat Battles

Sailor Tex Watkins, the wild man from Post, defeated the highly publicized Joe Banaski of Oklahoma City in the main event of Promoter Cliff Chambers' wrestling card last night. Banaski pinned Watkins with ease in the first fall but was unable to cope with Watkins' rough stuff in the final two.

John Nrmakic, former referee, and Scotty Williams went to a draw in the preliminary that stole the show. The two were not satisfied trying to murder each other but took the referee, Big Train Clements, to town with them. They wrestled, slugged and woolly affair. After wrestling for a while, Kopecky got rough. Then Johnson lost his head for the second time in the local ring. He slugged the referee out of the way and went after Kopecky like a wildman. Before Clements could get to him he had the cotton picker in a bad way.

The rest of the battle was a torrid affair with the both grapplers mixing with the referee when he tried to control things.

Watkins opened the main event by getting Banaski in a headlock. The Oklahoma man stayed in the hold for nearly five minutes before he grabbed both of Watkins wrists, almost pulled him inside out, and applied an alligator clutch to win in five minutes.

Argues With Crowd

Watkins refused to leave the ring at the rest period and spent his time arguing with the crowd—and the sailor is witty. Watkins wrestled orthodox and unorthodox, never letting Banaski get started, and won in 13 minutes with a Japanese Crab hold.

On top of his man with the gong, Watkins led the battling in the final stanza. He slugged and roughed and Banaski protested to the referee, finally taking a swing at him. That was when Banaski stepped in and took a full nelson. He rushed Banaski to the ropes but the Oklahoma man put his foot against them, pushed back and landed on Watkins, pinning his shoulders. The referee, however, was in no condition to count Watkins out and he slipped from the hold and in some unknown manner pinned Banaski's shoulders as the referee rolled over and counted three.

SERIAL STORY LOVERS AWEIGH

BY BETTY WALLACE

CAST OF CHARACTERS
JUDY ALCOTT—admiral's daughter. She faced a choice between two navy suitors.

Yesterday, somehow, with aching heart, Judy lives through Dwight's wedding, wishes him well, but she wonders if he will be happy with Marvel!

CHAPTER XIV

JUDY saw Jack Hanley almost every night. They played monopoly at the Bells' house, although Bill continually complained that if the stakes were seafigs and promotions instead of real estate and railroads, he'd like the game better.

Judy was scarcely aware, she told herself firmly, that Dwight Campbell was now Marvel's husband, and away on a honeymoon with her.

Then the Campbells returned. And to everyone's incredulous surprise, Marvel leased a house close to the station. "I should have thought she'd take the royal suite at the Coronado," said Diane.

"She had that before. Maybe a house is a change."

"But such a house! Actually, it's small!"

The Navy was soon to be undecieved about Marvel's house. Small it might be, but she was bent on making it perfect. Things arrived from exclusive shops in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Judy tried not to be curious, not to want to see Dwight. And then the invitation came. A housewarming. Judy turned it over in her fingers. Marvel should have called, as a new bride, on the admiral and Captain Lane and then in order on each of the wives of the officers next in rank.

Judy thought of the meticulous Navy gradings. The numbers that even in officers of the same rank determined one and forever who called on whom first on arriving at a new station. Who took command in a group, who sat nearest the head of the table, even though all were of the same rank. This might seem ridiculous to people on the outside. Probably it seemed ridiculous to Marvel, if she so much as knew of it, which Judy doubted. But there were good and sufficient reasons for the law.

It was a pity that Marvel should begin at once to flaunt tradition and custom. Dwight had been careful about making his way from the first. He had accepted sage advice, done duty on a battleship as soon as he graduated. He had requested transfer to a destroyer at the end of his three years, and for his first shore duty chosen postgraduate work at the Academy. Now he was on the Texarkana, and his career was set.

Jack's career had not been so cut and dried. His choice of flying, his success in it, removed him from the groove. And now his faith in dirigibles, his desire to get back to them, was setting him still further apart. But he was a good officer, a skillful flyer.

Her mother came in and found her still with the card in her fingers. Mrs. Alcott did not comment about the calls Marvel hadn't made. She only said, "I doubt if I shall attend her housewarming. But go, if you like."

"Like!" said Judy.

"I expect the new house is very beautiful."

"I am curious," Judy admitted. At that, she might not have gone if Dwight hadn't come to see her one evening. He explained that Marvel was tied up in a beauty salon downtown.

The pulse in her wrists was leaping, but she managed to speak to him coolly and matter-of-factly. "You're looking well, Dwight. I know you must be very happy."

"Happy!" His eyes shone. Then his brow clouded. "You got a bid to the housewarming. I know. That's what I wanted to talk to you about."

"Yes?"

He floundered. He said at last, "Marvel—well—she doesn't like me to tell her what to do. She's proud, and she's had so much social experience. But of course, it isn't Navy—doesn't understand—" His eyes besought her.

"Look here, Judy. I know I've got a colossal nerve, but I wish you'd hint to Marvel that we—well—she—ought to call around—you know what I mean. I'm afraid the brass hats are going to think she's got a healthy courage, asking them to her house first."

JUDY said slowly, "I don't see how I can tell Marvel anything. It's her own business. And she—you'll pardon me, Dwight, but—I don't think she likes me very well."

"Nonsense! Of course she likes you. She's headstrong, used to her own way. I guess 'in a blundering ass sometimes and she doesn't want anyone laying down the law to her. If there were some older woman—your mother, maybe."

Judy looked back at him levelly. "Mother would never dream of it, Dwight. I couldn't ask her."

He flushed. He looked uncomfortable. "I guess I'm making a bigger mess of this than it was to begin with. But curse it, all you and I were such good friends, and I had more or less depended on you to—" That was the climber in Dwight, her mind told her.

She said, "You know I tried. Listen, she's not a baby, and she's no fool, either. She'll get on to it. People will forgive her first few mistakes after a while."

His brow furrowed. "I hate having her get off on the wrong foot and maybe never fitting in." "That's a matter of temperament, isn't it?" And Marvel's nature was to scintillate. To be the Queen Bee. There were no Queen Bees in the Navy. Just admirals' wives, and by the time they got to be the wife of an admiral, they had learned much hard common sense.

He leaned forward. "Judy, you and I don't have to stand on ceremony. We were such good friends! You know I think the world of you. Don't let me down now! It's a delicate problem, nothing a man can handle. Promise me you'll speak to Marvel. Can't you strike up one of those beautiful friendships women are always getting into? You pop around a lot with Diane Bell. Why can't you let Marvel in on the combination? In between recipes and bridge games, she'd learn a lot."

Judy suppressed a smile. "Marvel's not quite the type for recipes and bridge games, Dwight." But then, looking at him, feeling again the ache of loss, she softened. She was a triple-starred, stupid fool, but she couldn't keep herself from saying, "All right, Dwight. I'll do my best. I'll try to talk to her. I promise."

Mexican Hunting Regulations And Seasons Listed

EAGLE PASS, Nov. 21 (AP)—For a minimum of $25.52, an American citizen may hunt white-tail deer, wild bear, white wing dove, mourning dove, ducks, quail and geese for one month in any state in Mexico.

The fee represents $10 for a minor hunting license; 84 cents for a tourist immigration card; $4.08 for a gun importation permit and 60 cents for an auto importation permit.

Mexico requires that non-residents must join a sporting club duly authorized by the Mexican government in order to establish responsibility that hunting regulations and the game seasons will be obeyed.

After joining a sporting club, the hunter must obtain one of two kinds of hunting license from a game warden in any Mexican border town.

The minor hunting license, costing $10 and good for one month in one designated state qualifies the holder to kill in season five white-tail deer maximum, two in possession at one time; two wild bear; 25 white wing dove in possession; 50 mourning dove in possession; 50 ducks in possession; 15 quail in possession; 50 geese maximum, 10 in possession.

The major license, costing $16 American money, and good for six months, permits the hunter to kill one bear, one mule deer, five white-tail deer (no more than two in possession at one time), 10 wild bear, two wild turkeys in possession at one time; 25 white wing dove in possession; 50 mourning dove in possession; 50 ducks in possession; 15 quail in possession; 50 geese maximum, 10 in possession.

session, 15 quail in possession, 50 geese maximum, 10 in possession. In obtaining the gun permit the non-resident should have a letter of recommendation from his hometown Chamber of Commerce, or any county or civic authority showing his citizenship and responsibility.

Following are Mexico's game seasons for 1938-39, effective until changed by legislative decree: Bear—Oct. 1 to Feb. 28; mule deer—Nov. 1 to Dec. 16; white-tail deer—Oct. 16 to Feb. 14; wild boar—Nov. 1 to April 30; turkey—Oct. 31 to Feb. 1; Pheasant—Dec. 1 to Feb. 28; white-wing dove—Sept. 16 to Feb. 28; mourning dove—Nov. 1 to Feb. 28; ducks—Nov. 16 to March 15; quail—Nov. 1 to March 28; geese—Nov. 15 to March 16.

The Bureau of Mines estimated today a daily average supply of 3,305,000 barrels of domestic crude oil would be needed to meet the nation's market demand during December.

This was 85,500 barrels under the estimate for November and 4 per cent lower than the actual demand in December, 1937.

The Bureau said the decline from a year ago resulted chiefly from the fact that provision was made for an increase of only 3,400,000 barrels in gasoline stocks, compared with an actual increase of 6,614,000 barrels in December, 1937. December demand for motor fuel was estimated by the Bureau at 40,100,000 barrels, almost two per cent higher than actual consumption in December, 1937.

Motor fuel exports for the month were estimated at 3,300,000 barrels compared with November estimate at 3,800,000. December gasoline production was estimated at 830,000 barrels.

The Bureau said the daily average crude oil production and runs to still during the four weeks, October 1 to 29, were 3,280,000 barrels and 3,230,000 barrels, respectively. The Bureau estimated the December daily average crude oil demand by states, in barrels, included:

Texas, 1,343,900; California, 589,700; Oklahoma, 500,700; Louisiana, 248,000; Arkansas, 51,600.

Twenty-one hour—every three minutes—was the average number of forest fires occurring in the United States last year.

Old Dobbin is making a comeback in Kentucky which had 7,000 more horses on farms at the start of 1938 than in 1937.

Plains Chemists Hear Dr. Pierle Discuss Brown Tooth Stain Tests

PHILLIPS, Nov. 22—The Panhandle Plains chapter of the American Chemical Association, met in the Phillips Community hall Saturday evening.

A short business session was conducted by the chairman, Dr. C. A. Pierle of Canyon.

At the conclusion of the dinner Dr. C. A. Pierle gave an interesting discussion on his experiments, concerning the brown tooth stain prevalent in this section of Texas.

After the teeth were cut off the pig was placed on the same diet as the control pig, the new teeth grew in with a normal length, with ends of the old teeth being the only ones that contained the brown stain.

Pictures were also shown of rats whose teeth were decayed. The bone structure of the rat was shown in its effectiveness as to how the proper diet aided in growing normal teeth and an improper diet caused irregular teeth.

Italian Paper Raps U. S. On Jew Question

ROME, Nov. 22 (AP)—Virginia Gayda, Fascist editor considered closest to Premier Mussolini, asked today why the United States and other nations which lament the treatment of the Jews in Germany and Italy do not offer the sanctuary.

In the newspaper Giornale D'Italia, Gayda named Britain and her dominions, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Switzerland and several Latin American countries as well as the United States among those which, he said, had failed to make their compassion for Jews concrete.

Board Finds 45 Kinds Of Texas Trees

AUSTIN, Nov. 22 (AP)—Trees recently occupied technicians of the research staff of the State Planning Board who compiled the following list of those which grow in Texas:

Ash—Grows in the alluvial portions of Northeast Texas.

Basswood—Found in the Eastern, South Central and Southwestern portions of the state.

Bay—As far west as the Brazos river in low, moist soils. Used in cabinet making.

Beech—In many sections east of the Trinity river in bottom lands. Extensively used in the manufacture of furniture and flooring.

Birch—Along streams in East Texas but too scattered to be of commercial value.

Bois D'Arc—Also known as Osage Orange. Grows in the Red River valley and many sections of East Texas. It is heavy and hard and in great demand for piling for bridges and years ago was used in farm wagons and axles.

Catalpa—In East Texas and bottom lands. Used for fence posts. Catsclaw—A small tree found along the Rio Grande, with a bloom attracting honey bees.

Cedar—Grows all over Texas. Cherry—Found in East and West Texas. It is in great demand but the growth is insufficient for commercial use.

Chinquapin—East of the Neches river, it is used for fence posts but has little commercial value.

Corkwood—Along the Gulf Coast and in the lower Brazos river valley. It is the lightest of Texas woods and is used as floats for fishing nets.

Cottonwood—Grows along streams in almost every section of the state. Cypress—In the swampy regions of East Texas and along streams as far West as the Neches and Prio rivers.

Dogwood—Throughout the forest regions of East Texas. Elm—In Central, Northern and Eastern portion of the state.

Fir—Found in limited quantities in the Trans-Pecos region. Gum—In the bottomlands of East Texas.

Gum Elastic—Also known as Chittan Wood. It grows in East and South Texas and over the Edwards Plateau and Grand Prairie, reaching its largest sizes along the coast.

Hackberry—In the central and Western parts of the state. Hawthorn—Also known as the white or red haw or thorn bush, it grows almost anywhere.

Hickory—Grows in bottom soils of East Texas and is used in making handles, etc. Holly—A small evergreen growing in the bottom soils of East and South Texas.

Huckleberry—A shrub in most sections of Texas except near Matagorda Bay where it attains good size.

Ironwood—Growing along the uplands of East Texas it is used for handles, mallets, etc. Locust—Found only East of the Brazos and in coastal regions.

Maple—Has a limited growth in some sections of East Texas. It was only recently introduced into this state.

Magnolia—Used in the manufacture of furniture, this tree grows generally in Eastern and South-eastern Texas.

Mesquite—White this wood takes a beautiful finish, it is not used commercially. It grows generally throughout Central and Western Texas but most luxuriously from the Colorado river valley south to the Rio Grande.

Mimosas—A beautiful small tree growing in a limited area in the central Edwards Plateau regions.

Mulberry—Grows throughout East Texas and westward through the Central and Middle West. The Mexican mulberry is found south of the Colorado river in West Texas.

Oaks—There are 50 or more species growing all over the state. Pine—Can be placed in two classifications: Those growing in far East Texas and a limited growth in the trans-Pecos mountains.

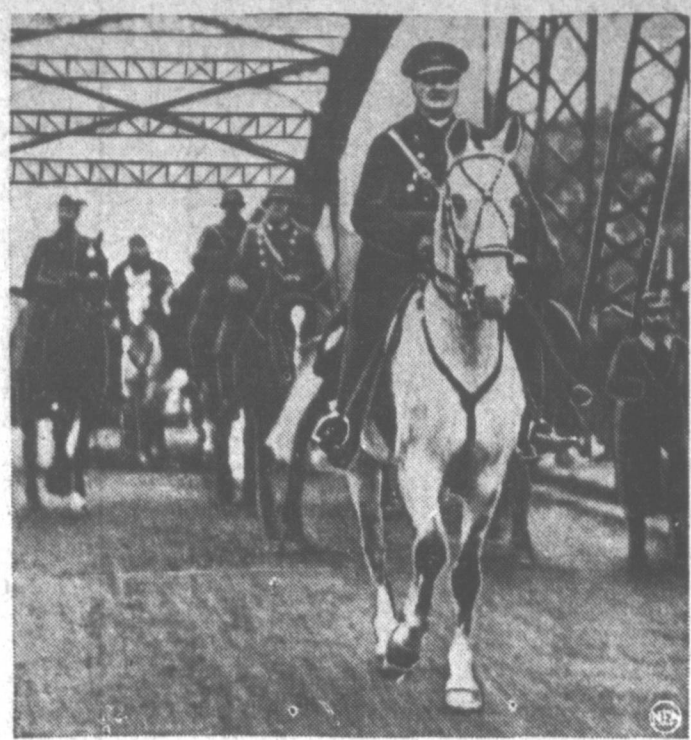

Pecan—The official state tree grows throughout the Central portion of Texas along the water courses.

Persimmon—Of no commercial value, this tree is found as far West as the Neches river. Planer Tree—Also known as the Water Elm, this tree grows as far West as Brazos county and in the coast country as far west as Matagorda county.

Mexican Plum—Also called the wild plum, grows in the southern portions of the state. Privet—Grows in East Texas and has a limited growth in the central part of the state.

Redbud—Also known as the Jud-

Gardens Should Be Watered Now, FSA Agent Says

WELLINGTON, Nov. 22—November is the month to offset next spring's possible drought in the farm garden, warns Vera Martin, county home supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

"Don't wait until plants start growing to water the plot," she says. "Water now. Turn the surplus water from the well into the garden and thoroughly water the land."

This procedure has a twofold purpose: first it will store underground water for the coming year, secondly it will assist in killing insects when it freezes and expands the soil.

Before breaking garden land make a heavy application of well-rotted barn manure, fresh manure may be used but should be applied in the fall or winter and turned under early to decompose.

Here are some garden rules she sets: Locate the plot near the house so the housewife need not walk a mile for an onion.

Have a windbreak if possible. Plant two rows of trees on the windward side not closer than 75 to 100 feet, eight feet apart in the rows, allowing ten feet between rows.

Low growing, bushy trees may be planted on the windward side with taller, faster growing trees on the inside rows.

Locate the garden near the windmill to utilize the surplus water from the tank.

Select mellow sandy soil or garden loam soil.

Only the female bumblebees live through the winter. When spring comes, they crawl forth from their hibernating places and locate a building site. During the early part of the season, only workers or imperfect females are produced, males and perfect females appearing in late summer.

Shamrock To Have Christmas Cantata

SHAMROCK, Nov. 22—The Shamrock Community Christmas cantata is progressing favorably with 55 singers present at rehearsal on last Sunday afternoon.

The title of the cantata is "The Music of Christmas" and will be presented with one hundred voices composed of singers from Shamrock and all surrounding communities.

Rehearsals are held each Sunday afternoon at 3:45 at Clark auditorium.

The group has been organized with B. P. Risinger, president; R. C. Lewis, vice-president; Mrs. J. R. Benson, secretary-treasurer. An arrangement committee was appointed with Mrs. J. H. Caperton, chairman, and Mrs. Chas. Duncum, Mrs. Art Fleming and Mrs. G. F. Geyer, members.

SHAMROCK, Nov. 22—Pampa District F. F. A. in session here Saturday conferred the Future Farmer degree upon ten members representing the 10 chapters of the district. This degree is the highest that can be bestowed upon a member by a district organization.

The meeting was opened with the regular ceremony with James Gunter, Claude, presiding. After roll call and the reading of the minutes W. O. Morrow, Shamrock high school principal, welcomed the some 35 boys to Shamrock and briefly spoke upon the value of vocational agriculture and the F. F. A. in assisting the farm boys in meeting the problems of the day.

Morrow Welcomes Boys The meeting was opened with the regular ceremony with James Gunter, Claude, presiding. After roll call and the reading of the minutes W. O. Morrow, Shamrock high school principal, welcomed the some 35 boys to Shamrock and briefly spoke upon the value of vocational agriculture and the F. F. A. in assisting the farm boys in meeting the problems of the day.

Delegates representing 171,000 members and chapters extending from Maine to Hawaii and from Washington to Puerto Rico, were assembled at this convention. For the second consecutive year, the Texas F. F. A. was selected as second in accomplishment, among the forty-nine state, territorial and insular organizations. Texas, with 524 chapters, and 20,580 members, was surpassed by only one organization, the smaller Wyoming association which consists of 36 chapters and 849 members.

Eleven Objectives Listed The reports of the committee on objectives was read by Chairman Nathan Edwards of White Deer and after discussion the following objectives were adapted for the year 1938-39:

1. Sponsor a district athletic tournament.

2. Each chapter use official opening and closing ceremony at each meeting.

3. Each chapter sponsor a judging contest.

4. Delegates from each chapter attend fat stock show at Amarillo.

5. Hold district summer encampment.

6. Chapters send two delegates to district meetings.

7. Chapters that are hosts to district meetings furnish meals for the two delegates and advisers from the local chapters.

8. Each chapter hold father and son banquet.

9. District committee of three pass on all applications of Greenhands for Future Farmer degree.

10. Chapters to sponsor radio programs at regular intervals.

11. District committee pass on all applications for certificate of merit.

Vocational agriculture teachers of the district were in session at the same time as the boys meeting. E. F. Vance, of College Station and head of the AAA in Texas, presented the next years farm program to the teachers.

The next meeting of the District F. F. A. and of the vocational agricultural Teachers of the Pampa district will be held Jan. 21 at which time the Panhandle chapter will be hosts to the groups.
