

The Prairie Wind

By CLEO TOM TERRY

Willie Frank Ford, nee' Jones, now of El Paso but formerly of Nubbin Ridge in Hutchinson County renewed an old friendship with Louise Pierce Bowers last Sunday. I, too, knew Louise when we were young and gay! But was not as close to her as was my younger sister. Now talking racing and race horses, Louise owns several race mares yet though she dispersed her stable after Aubra's death—I feel that perhaps we have a tie that my sister doesn't have with Louise for I, too, am "horsey." Louise has one horse racing in El Paso now, Cedar Grande, a fifth generation down (I believe it's that far) from Count Fleet. He will soon be moved to another track, probably in Arkansas.

The Panhandle is, or was, race horse country. I can remember when Gaston Mathis had old Johnny Wilkins, son of Peter McCue, long after Will and Ed Moore sold him to the Hansfords, who sold him to the JA Ranch. I reckon he was way up in his twenties when Gaston got him. I remember when the Mathis boys, Drape and Gaston were training John Brown and Pop Corn lowered the track record at the then big-time track at San Angelo the first time he ever saw a circle track. He was partly trained and handed by Cammie Terry, who thought "Old Johnnie" was the fastest horse he almost ever saw and that he would have been a faster horse on the track if he'd been handled as easy as Poppy. Not only the Mathises, but Matthew "Bones" Hooks, famous Negro race trainer and bronc rider, had a lot to do with Pop Corn's success and his steadiness on the track.

I remember, too, the Deahl horses, especially Chester B and Cabin Camp who could run nearly any distance and the little bay who was their distance horse, Chester B and Cabin Camp were big bays, a funny sort of off-dun bay with big deep dapples. I remember lots of local horses—but the most famous ones were back before my time, still—the stories I've heard of them!

When Cape Willingham was manager of the Turkey Tracks he owned a horse called Clan. Clan was trained down at Mobeetie by John Taylor also a colored trainer. Years later when Cape was living down on the Pecos he swapped Clan for 25 good saddle horses. Will and Ed Moore brought not just Johnny Wilkins but old Panzy, from the Watkins Ranch in Missouri. Dave Lard had old "Monkey." The Chismus, raised the "second" Stalks, by old Cornstalks out of Cora over on the North Plains. Ellie Carter trained Botete. And down near Clarendon Bones Hooks handled a colt by Texas Chief, the colt that finally, after he was old, beat "Old Sweetheart," a horse not a mare, owned by Cliff Phillips but managed, trained and raced by Buster Culwell, the cowboy who came to the Panhandle with the first herd of Rowe cattle to come out of South Texas.

Will Beverly, author of "Twilight on the Range" many years and many horses later owned a light bay called "Happy Jack." The Moss boys had "Old Billie." So, this is race horse country. And my family, both Kirbies and Jones and my later-family the Terrys were, lots of them, or trainers of race horses, so may I be pardoned if I cannot see any more harm in betting on a horse race between horses that have taken years of breeding and training, than in race horses, Gaston Mathis, basketball game that has only taken a year or two to build up? Naturally, neither the ball games nor the races would be perpetrated if it were not for the betting, though only the race betting is open. But me—I get my excitement out of the parade to the posts, and the actual running—without betting a cent! Only steer roping can equal a race for sheer joyous excitement for this old country gal. But I'm going back to the 1930s for I haven't seen a horse race since they became illegal

DRY NAILS INCREASE WITH AGING
Finger and toe nails that peel, split and break can be both a disturbing physical and appearance problem. Your citizens chiefly have this trouble. Nail flexibility depends primarily on the amount of moisture retained.
Because of low winter temperature outside and a heating inside, humidity drops, permitting the surrounding air to absorb moisture from the skin, leading to excessive dryness. Avoid contacts with drying liquids, and every night massage a good nourishing cream into the skin and on the nails.

THE JAYCEE Creed

We Believe:
That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;
That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
That government should be of laws rather than of men;
That earth's great treasure lies in human personality;
And that service to humanity is the best work of life.

THE PAMPA JAYCEES

Sometime between October, 1929, and the summer of 1930 a group of young businessmen in Pampa organized the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce. For 39 years the Jaycees have provided leadership opportunities for young men through community service. Averaging nearly 100 projects each year the Jaycees help sponsor the Career Clinic and College Workshop at Pampa High School. The local club provides opportunities for competition for youngsters of all ages in track, tennis, and golf.

The Jaycees worked with the Gray County Medical Society to offer Pampa Salk vaccine for combating polio. A year later they raised more than 200 pints of blood for leukemia victims from Gray and Roberts counties. Jaycees are active at Christmas time, hanging the Christmas Decorations, handling the Santa Day Parade and taking underprivileged children Christmas shopping. To raise money to finance their projects the Jaycees sell light bulbs each spring, sell programs at the Top O' Texas Rodeo and sponsor the Top O' Texas Community Fair.

Former Texas Attorney General John Ben Shephard said, "You will not always recognize a Jaycee tomorrow. Today he may be an insignificant clerk. But tomorrow he will be hiring and firing clerks by the dozen." The Jaycees provide young men with opportunities to develop their true potential.

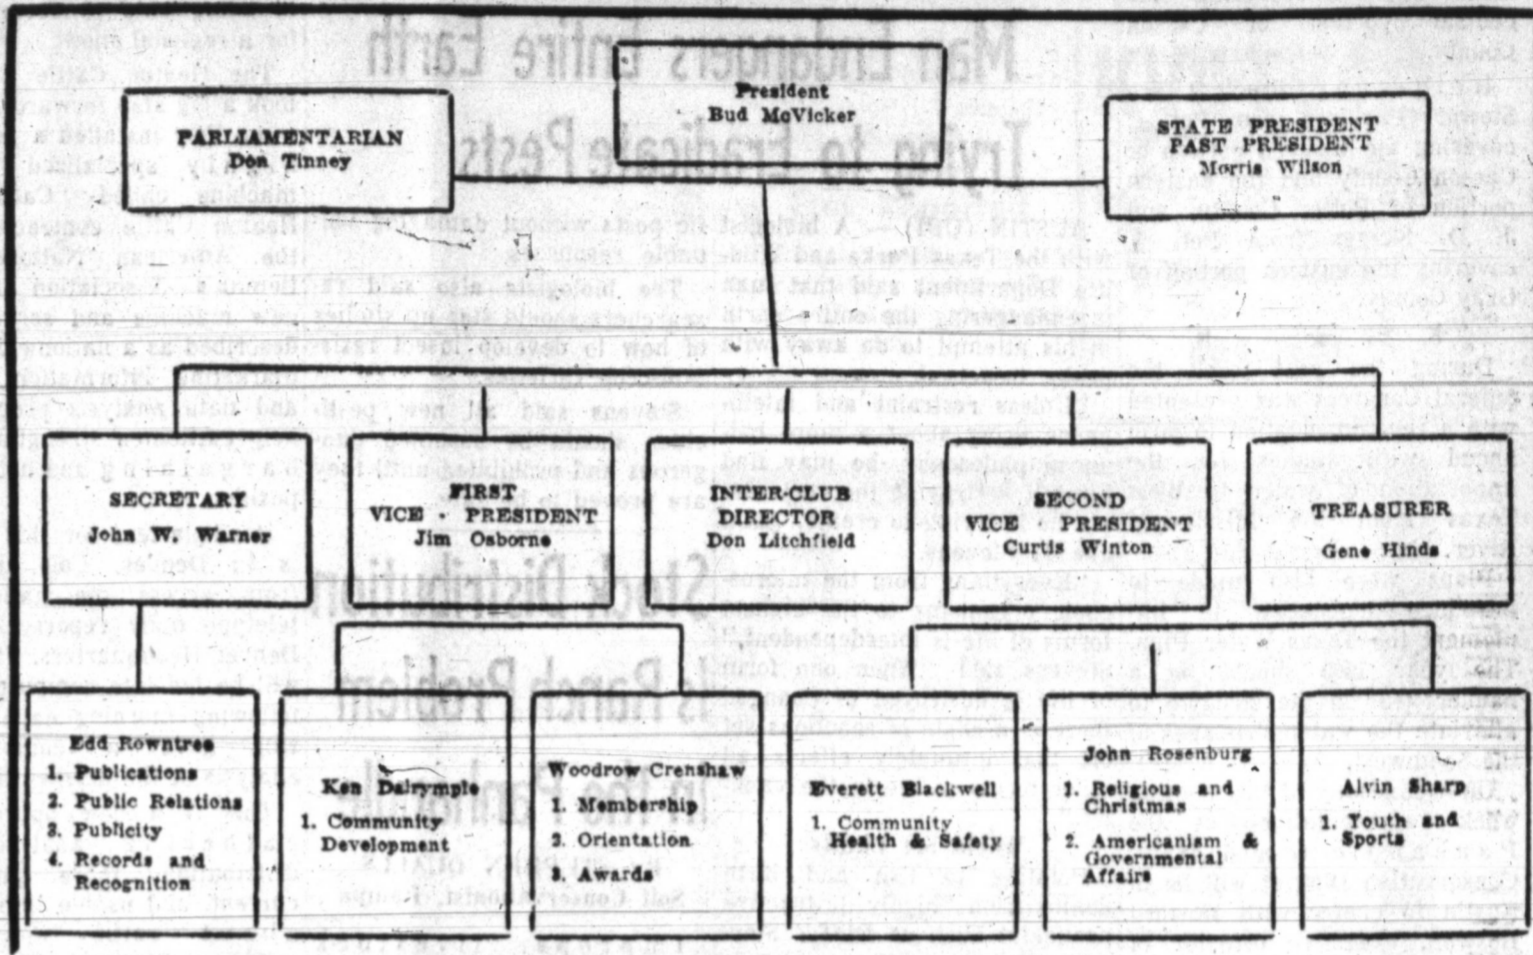

Their Thoughtful Concern and Forward Looking Action Has Made Our Community a Better Place in Which to Live

The Jaycees — young men on the way up — turn their vigorous ability into creative action for the betterment of the entire community. We honor the Jaycees... and solidly back their efforts to make our town even better to work in, live in, shop in, and we pledge ourselves to aid them toward that progress.

The Pampa Jaycee-Ettes were chartered in March, 1962. Since that time the group has added the feminine touch to almost every Jaycee project, plus helping with many civic projects of their own. The purpose of the organization is to assist the Jaycees in community service; to offer friendship and sociability among Jaycee wives and to enlighten others as to the need of voluntary service. Last year at the state convention the Pampa Jaycee-Ettes were selected as the outstanding club in Texas in their population division. In the four categories of judging the Pampa Club won first place in Ways and Means and second place in Aid to Jaycees, civic affairs and other Jaycee-Ettes activities. The Jaycee-Ettes meet in the Southwestern Public Service Reddy Room on the fourth Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. An invitation is always open to all Jaycee wives.

Namath, AFL Stars Play Today

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Joe Namath's dependable knee and a forecast of rain Saturday created a double-barreled threat to Sunday's American Football League All-Star game.

Namath, who quarterbacked the New York Jets to professional football's world championship, is the man everybody wants to watch. But his knee began acting up again Friday and there is a serious question about how long he'll be able to play Sunday.

"I plan to start him," said East coach Wally Lemm of the Houston Oilers: "We'll just have to see how far he can go." Rain could hasten Namath's departure from the game. It was working on sandy soil during practice that aggravated his celebrated knee and there's some question of whether he'll be able to work on wet turf.

"Joe's right knee is the one we're worried about," Lemm said. "I noticed in practice Friday that he was throwing differently. He seemed unwilling to set his right foot to throw." Lemm said that he feared that if Namath favored the knee Sunday and tried to throw with his arm, "he could do himself further damage." The controversial Namath said earlier in the week that he didn't think the All-Star game was worth the risk. Speaking of the $1,000 paid to each member of the winning team and the $1,000 to each loser, Namath price was not disclosed but reportedly was around $35 million. STAR TRADED LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Stars of the American Basketball Association Thursday traded forward Ben Warley to the New York Nets for a high draft choice and an undisclosed amount of cash. Warley has eight years in professional basketball. MCCOVEY HONORED HOUSTON (UPI)—Willie McCovey of the San Francisco Giants will be honored by the

The East, if Namath plays, is rated a slight favorite for this, the eighth, AFL All-Star game. A crowd of more than 50,000, largest ever in this series, is expected for the nationally televised (NBC) contest. Kickoff is set for 1 p.m. CST.

The East has been counting on the passing of Namath (white-shod No. 12) to offset the physical strength of a West from the Oakland Raiders and team dominated by players like the Kansas City Chiefs.

Wranglers Rally For 2-2 Tie

By United Press International Kansas City went on the ice Friday night leading Tulsa for first place in the Central Hockey League's northern division by just a hair—and came off it only a little better off. Tulsa had nothing to do with it. The Oilers sat on their hands while everyone else in the league battled. Kansas City blew a 2-0 lead in the final period for the second time in a row and the lowly Amarillo Wranglers, lurking at the bottom of the southern division by a considerable margin, tied the game. The Fort Worth Wings and the Dallas Black Hawks still are not sure which is the better club. They went into Friday night tied for third in the southern division—and that is the way they came out.

Pete Mahovich scored his second goal of the night while Dallas was a man short in the third period to tie the game 4-4 in front of 9,705 fans in Fort Worth, the largest crowd in CHL history.

Dallas played catchup all night until Jim Stanfield slapped in a goal late in the second period to give the Black Hawks a 4-3 lead.

Ed Hatoun also scored two goals for the Wings. Meanwhile, Oklahoma City widened its margin over second place Houston in the southern division with a 5-3 drubbing of the Apollos and Omaha center Juha Widing scored twice to lead the Knights to a 5-2 victory over the sliding Memphis South Stars.

Omaha is in third place in the northern half of the loop and Memphis is on the bottom. Kansas City had only a one point advantage over Tulsa going into Friday night's contest with the Amarillo club. Kansas City is now 14-13-14 for the season and Tulsa is 14-14-12.

Buffalo Expected to Take O.J. In First Round Football Draft

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Buffalo Bills were expected to get the tastiest morsel of the 1969 college football draft in America O.J. (Orange Juice) Simpson of Southern California during the annual pro football selections Jan. 28-29.

Buffalo, which finished with the worst record in football, is entitled to the first pick and there was no doubt new head coach Johnny Rauch would go for Simpson, whose exploits were the sensation of the West Coast. Rauch resigned Thursday as coach of the Oakland Raiders.

The Atlanta Falcons won a coin toss from the Philadelphia Eagles for the right to choose second. The world champion New York Jets pick last among the 26 teams from the participating National and American Football Leagues.

Los Angeles, which selects 21st as its regular first round turn, also gets two other opening round picks through deals with the Detroit Lions and Washington Redskins. The Rams are hurting for running backs and a speedster like Paul Gillipson of Houston could fill their needs.

Teams get 30 minutes to make up their minds on first and second round picks. Subsequent rounds are limited to five minutes for selections.

After Buffalo, Atlanta and

Philadelphia, the next first round selections will be made by Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Boston. San Francisco goes next with a choice acquired from New Orleans and Los Angeles follows with the Detroit pick.

Rounding out the first round action: 9. San Diego (from Denver); 10. Los Angeles (from Washington); 11. Miami; 12. Green Bay; 13. Chicago; 14. New York Giants; 15. Houston; 16. San Francisco; 17. New Orleans (from Minnesota); 18. San Diego; 19. St. Louis; 20. Cleveland; 21. Los Angeles; 22. Oakland; 23. Kansas City; 24. Dallas; 25. Baltimore; 26. New York Jets.

Gary judge's advice to parents: Induce your boy to be a Newspaper carrier

'He will gain a confidence in himself that will stand him in good stead for the rest of his life,' Judge Kaplan says in courtroom

Judge Richard S. Kaplan, of the Gary, Indiana, City Court, recently told parents in his courtroom that most boys' troubles begin because they have nothing to do.

"Unless boys are given some program of activities," Judge Kaplan said, "they become bored, and boredom is a dangerous state for both children and adults."

"A solution is to induce your boy to join the large ranks of newspaper carriers. All he has to do is apply at a local newspaper and he will start on a lucrative and pleasant occupation."

He Will Learn Initiative
"As a newspaperboy—and some of our greatest men in America started as newspaperboys—your son will learn initiative. He will meet his neighbors, he'll learn the meaning of working and earning his own money, and he'll gain a sense of importance and independence."

"You will rarely find a newspaperboy who is a juvenile delinquent."
"Give him this inspiration to begin a business-building program now which will pay increasing dividends after the close of school and even when school begins. He will gain a confidence in himself which will stand him in good stead for the rest of his life. This is one sure way to prevent your son from becoming bored and it will keep him out of trouble."

LIGE TARVIN

What is an Impala?

The Zulus gave us the word. To them, it's a small African antelope. This little fellow is barely over two feet high. But he's noted for his ability to leap great distances. Chevy's Impala is considerably larger than its African namesake. But the ability to leap is quite evident. Consider the leap of Chevy's Impala over all competition. It's a fact that more people choose Impala.

Why is this so? Maybe astrology. Ventilation has something to do with it. Or maybe it's the new inner fenders. They absorb corrosion and keep your Impala looking new longer. Any number of new features make Impala a desirable choice. The best thing you can do is drive one. Then you'll know why Impala is several jumps ahead.

Bulldogs Blitz Harvesters

By RON CROSS
Borger finished second in first half play of District 4-4A Friday night while Tascosa won the first half title and Pampa finished in a tie for third.

The Bulldogs caught Pampa cold and the Harvester defense could not contain the tall, confident Bulldogs offense that rolled to a 64-45 victory.

It was simply a case of cold Pampa vs. hot Borger and the Bulldogs had its gym sizzling. Borger connected on 51 per cent of its field shots (25 of 49) and hit 59 per cent in the second half when the Harvesters came apart at the seams. With well over five minutes left in the game coach Sterling Gibson tried something different, his second team the rest of the way.

This made no difference to Borger coach Duane Hunt who played his top seven starters the entire game.

Pampa hit only 35.7 per cent from the field (15 of 42), and only seven of 22 in the second half.

Tascosa finished first half play by downing Amarillo, 59-54; Palo Duro edged Caprock, 61-51; Monterey, clipped Lubbock, and Coronado downed Plainview.

Thus the Rebels closed out the first half of District 4-4A competition with a 9-0 mark, followed by Borger at 8-1; then came Pampa and Monterey at 6-3 each; Coronado, 5-4; Palo Duro, 4-5; Amarillo, and Plainview both had 3-6 marks, Lubbock, 1-8 and Caprock, 0-9.

The Pampa Shockers won a thriller, their fifth in a row, 70-69. The Shocks now stand 7-4 for the season.

Mike Jordan paced the scoring with 23 points, Hood had 15, Jenkins 13, Thompson 9, Brimfield 8 and Johnston 2. Borger led 40-35 at halftime.

The Bulldogs got double figure scoring from three players, same as Pampa, with Carl Taylor leading both teams with 17, Earl O'Steen hit 14 and 6-6 Mike Steinkoenig collected 12 before fouling out in the fourth quarter.

Johnny Epperson paced the Pampa attack with 13, Jim Hollis added 11 and Billy Thomas hit 10, despite playing only half the game.

Pampa battled the Bulldogs well in the first quarter but could never quite get a spark ignited in the final three periods.

The lead changed hands five times in the first period with the Harvesters at one time holding a three point advantage, 13-10. But the quarter closed with a tie, 13-13.

The Bulldogs jumped in front 14-13 and Pampa was never to get closer than one point, that at 17-16 again.

Borger led 21-16 with 5:47 left in the half and upped that margin to 31-23 at halftime. Pampa pulled to within four twice in the third period, the last time at 34-30 with 5:12 left but Borger had pulled away to a 44-35 advantage when the quarter ended.

In the fourth period things again started to go badly for Pampa, who could not work against the Dogs full court press, so the subs came in and things got worse.

The Harvesters open second half play Tuesday by playing host to Palo Duro, one of the three teams that beat them in first half play. The Dons won the first encounter, 55-53 on a goal-tending charge.

THE TWO TALLEST — Pampa's Jim Gallman (6-6) and Borger's Mike Steinkoenig at 6-7 battle for a rebound in Pampa's 64-45 loss to the Bulldogs Friday night in Borger.

Geoffrion Is Hospitalized Following Rumors He's Fired

By United Press International
A coach's nightmare—a last place team and publisher reports that he's about to be fired—compounded by an uneasy stomach probably were the causes that had Bernie (Boon-Boom) Geoffrion in a hospital today.

The rookie Ranger coach was taken to Oakland's Peralta Hospital Friday night after he collapsed in the dressing room following New York's 3-1 National Hockey League victory over the Oakland Seals. He was later described as being in "fair" condition.

Earlier this week, a Toronto sports columnist, Dick Eddoes, published a report that the one-time Montreal Ace was about to be discharged and replaced by New York General Manager Emile Francis.

- Combines the best of radial and standard ply tires
- Has 2 fiber glass belts that reduce squirming tread
- 2 cross plies of nylon cord give you better handling
- With Riverside* lifetime quality and road hazard guarantee; dependable 30-month treadwear guarantee

The tire the experts asked for:

"Looking at our results, it is easy to see why radial ply tires are so appealing. But the more we look, the more we feel that all the advantages are a result of the belt, which stabilizes the tread, and not the radial plies themselves. In fact, the areas where the radial tires show signs of weakness can be related to the radial plies, not the belt. We can't help but think that a combination tire—a cross ply with a belt—would be an admirable solution."

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My three children and I drove 150 miles for a visit to my hometown recently. (My husband couldn't go. He was working.)

We stayed with my parents, but I contacted my in-laws so we could make plans to see them, too.

I think my in-laws are unreasonable. Let me explain: I married a widower with two small children. We now have a third child, also. Since these in-laws cared for the two children of my husband's former marriage until we wed, they figure my husband and I owe them something. Of course, we do. But how much?

They demanded that I drop off the two older children to visit them, and when I left town I could pick them up. They do not care to see me, or my other child.

I flatly refused, saying we would ALL come to see them, but no, they didn't want us. My mother-in-law even refused to talk to me.

I don't know what I have done except to try to give the children a home and a mother and father instead of grandparents. They seem to resent me for this.

Since they didn't want all my children, I refused to let them have the two older ones. Was I wrong?

I invited them to my home anytime to visit the little ones, but they refused. I'd like your views.

BEWILDERED

DEAR BEWILDERED: If you invited your in-laws to visit the children, you have no reason to feel guilty. Your husband should tell his parents that showing such obvious favoritism to his two older children creates problems that he and his family will have to live with, so to please more reasonable.

DEAR ABBY: Medical science has sure given folks a lot of excuses for their shortcomings. We don't have any more drunks, tryants, or ill-tempered and unreasonable people anymore. They are all "sick." Same goes for liars. I know a woman who would rather lie than tell the truth, and do you know what? I'm told to have "compassion" for her because she's "sick." So now, lying is a disease, too! I would sure appreciate your comments on this.

CICERO

DEAR CICERO: People lie because they feel insecure, inadequate and inferior. It takes a truly healthy-minded courageous person to tell the truth, no matter how "bad" it makes him appear. So since lying is a symptom of a character deficiency, perhaps your friend IS "sick."

DEAR ABBY: I am a 52-year-old widow who will soon marry Paul, a very nice 55-year-old widower. Here is my problem: First let me explain that while dating I never wore the rings I got from my deceased husband because I didn't want to inhibit any man who might have an interest in me.

Paul and I didn't have an "official engagement," and certainly nothing was ever mentioned about a ring, but he "surprised" me with a lovely little diamond, and I do mean "little."

Abby, my first diamond is nearly three times the size of this one. (I had intended resetting it to wear after I married.) Now what shall I do? I hate to hurt Paul, but if I wear a diamond, I'd prefer wearing the larger one.

PERPLEXED

DEAR PERPLEXED: Reset the larger diamond and wear it on your right hand. But wear Paul's ring on your "engagement" finger.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NICE BUT INSULTED": If a "nice" girl is constantly being "insulted" by propositions, she should check her

Pampa Twentieth Century Club Members Elect Officers, Hear Report On President George Washington's Life For First Program In 1969

The first 1969 meeting of the Twentieth Century Club of Pampa met recently in the home of Mrs. Jack P. Foster, president, as Mrs. David McGahey called the meeting to order.

The nominating committee's slate of officers for 1969-70, were unanimously elected. Officers elected were Mrs. Fred Neslage, president; Mrs. W. Easley vice-president; Mrs. Charles Fagan, secretary; Mrs. Steve Odom, treasurer; Mrs. David McGahey, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Rex Rose reporter.

Mrs. F.M. Culberson, program leader for the day, introduced her subject "History" with a word description of George Washington as seen through the eyes of one of his officers: "First in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Mrs. Culberson opened her program by challenging members with two questions: "What is the aim of studying history?" and "Can we profit by the experiences of others?"

In order to understand and evaluate a person and his activities it is necessary to know the environmental stage of his life-including its political, social and economic facets.

"During the time of 1732-99 the colonies were formulating the French and Indian War was fought, the restrictions of the British culminated in the Boston Tea Party, the first Continental Congress was convened and the Revolutionary War fought and won," she said.

"The unity of the colonies in their fight for freedom disintegrated with the victory and the Constitutional Convention finally produced a composite of compromises ending in the Constitution and Bill of Rights and the election of the first President of United States-George Washington."

"Much has been written and appearance. There's something wrong with her packaging."

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

many myths and folktales have evolved but many were false and do not reveal the true man. It is only through research and the reading of his memos and letters that the real man can be appreciated.

George Washington was born Feb. 22, 1732, to Augustine Washington and Mary Ball Washington-a well to do colonial family who were able to provide the niceties of life and a good education for his son.

"During his teens Washington learned to manage the plantation with its 20 slaves and epitomize the position of a Virginia Country Gentleman. He has been described as loving and lovable, sober, quiet, dignified, dependable, religious and somewhat self-conscious."

"He studied to be a surveyor and accepted a commitment which took him to the west. Wherever he went this height, size, and flamboyant choice of clothes made him spectacular.

At the age of 18 he owned 1,500 acres of land. Following a trip abroad, he returned and built Mt. Vernon. Washington was commissioned in the Militia. During those expeditions he became acquainted with danger, hardship and illness.

"At the age of 27 he retired from military life and married a widow with two children—Martha Curtis, and they made Mt. Vernon their home," she said.

"As the drumbeats of revolution stirred the colonists, Washington attended the Assembly at Philadelphia and accepted the Commander of the Army when nominated by John Adams. For this tour of duty he was given $500 a month. The eight years of the war was a period of "trying a man's soul."

The symbols of independence became hardships, disappointments, shortages of supplies and men, and a series of defeats. The victory at Yorktown Oct. 17, 1781, was a turning point in the war and resulted in the Peace Treaty in Paris two years later.

"In gratitude for his leadership, Washington was proffered the position of king which he declined. He surrendered his Commission and returned to Martha and Mt. Vernon.

"The five years following the war the colonists drifted toward anarchy. As the leaders in the country realized this danger, a Constitutional Convention was called. The result was the drafting of the Constitution and its presentation to the colonies for ratification. This was accomplished and Washington became the first President to be elected by the first Electoral College.

"President Washington was inaugurated April 30, 1789, and served two terms. The Capitol was moved from New York to Philadelphia and finally to Washington D.C., its present site.

"Following the many issues and controversies that the establishment of a government produced, Washington left office embittered, unpopular and at odds with the citizens and even some of his closest friends.

"Again, Washington retreated to Mt. Vernon, his dream and refuge. Here he relaxed and enjoyed being a Virginia Planter. His chief remorse was the lack of children of his own, but he enjoyed his stepchildren and their children.

Washington lived only two years following his retirement and died of a strep throat infection that refused to respond to bleeding, a medical device of the time. Washington's deep respect for religion and education was revealed in his bequests to churches and colleges in his will. His undying love for freedom can be noted in his desire for the ultimate freeing of all slaves. Thus had George Washington lived and died "the Father of his Country," she concluded.

Mmes. W. R. Campbell, F. M. Culberson, William Easley, Charles Fagan, Jack Foster, Tom Greenwood, Paul Harbaugh, Raymond Harrah, V. J. Jamieson, David McGahey, Fred Neslage, Steve Odom, Rex Rose, W. A. Skoog, R. W. Stowers and Miss Elsie Cunningham were members present. Mrs. A.W. Brown was a guest.

Your Horoscope JEANE DIXON

Sunday, January 19, 1969

Your birthday today: This year will be a switch to simpler, more effective habits. Attention to causes will be necessary, along with an effort to avoid difficulties rather than try to resolve them after they arise from negligence. Today's natives tend to be collectors of ideas and have talent at putting them to use.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): Attend to your usual Sunday social contacts. Then take the day off for rest, light recreation, expecting no great excitement or serious developments.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): Visit those who do not travel. Do something for these people, without seeking reward. Resolve not to get involved in complicated discussions.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Where you meet people, speak directly to the point so that no confusion arises; everybody hears only what he wants to hear today. Study, reading music are desirable.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Once your Sunday duties are done, much can be accomplished clearing off correspondence, errands, and the like. Your mate would have much to say today in any case, and the ideas are quite worth hearing.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Keep the peace at nearly all costs! Calm discussion will resolve most tensions. Avoid rushing any chore that brings fatigue.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Do your share in the community then turn to work on your personal concerns, creative projects. Take the time to exercise, and to meditate.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): You can create unnecessary problems by meddling. Younger people tend to create dissension, which you are called on to arbitrate.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Refrain from doing repairs on gadgets unless you are well experienced. Exceptional care very strongly urged in the use of edged or power tools, inflammable materials during the week. Pleasant manners, even when you don't feel that way, are a must.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): You will probably find yourself in the midst of a social whirl today, with people gathering around to discuss group action or offer helpful suggestions. Meditation is a proper part of your Sunday.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Family affairs are emphasized. Accept misunderstanding and pay no serious attention, as it will all straighten out quickly. Keep things light by doing nothing that is not required at the moment.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): The early hours are normal. As the day wears on, take things more calmly, and loaf through the afternoon.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): This is more of a day to stay put and do small things rather than go roaring across the country. If you must drive, watch for the irresponsible driver.

Your birthday Monday: New people come into your life from all directions, providing interesting relationships. After the start of spring, the main factor is your own desire to develop. Monday natives often have an abiding enthusiasm for humane causes.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): Just because you meet little resistance doesn't mean you don't work; clear out that backlog! Details pile up in the next couple of weeks. Avoid arguments with women this evening.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): Concentrate on routines for even headway. Enjoy an interlude of pleasant, impersonal contact with associates, neighbors. Plan for a quiet evening at home.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Nothing serious is going to interfere with your life from the outside. You can be disruptive with bit of boredom or a tantrum; don't. Catch up with yourself for a change.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): You may have the feeling that something is brewing and you're left out of it. If you will be patient and abstain from even thinking about prying questions, all will come to your

All Girl Agency Offers 'Super' Service

By NOEL GROVE
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—You can now stand on a street corner of the nation's capital and cry, "It's a bird, it's a plane, no, it's... Supergirl," and be right two times out of three.

The bird with the big S on her shapely chest may be a supergirl, but chances are she's anything but plain.

And the self-styled "super-boys" who have been phoning the all-girl service organization in mock distress can forget them being "faster than a speeding bullet," at least in the context they have in mind. Staff members of Supergirls, Inc., don't claim to be women of steel, but they have a reputation for deflecting passes like Wonder Woman bouncing bullets off her bracelets.

Formed recently as a local franchise of the original Supergirls of New York, Supergirls here is a service bureau set up to handle odd jobs ranging from party planning to playing baby sitter to fishitting for a congressman's aquarium on The Hill during his absence. The firm includes 10 full-time workers, plus about 150 freelance Supergirls on call.

The free-lancers are selected and categorized by the special talents they have to offer Supergirl clients. A look at the jobs the organization has undertaken since it opened this fall shows why. Any one person trying to handle them all would need the stamina of Captain Marvel and the versatility of Plastic Man.

At prices ranging from $5 to $10 per hour, they provide such services as planning private parties and furnishing hostesses and barmaids, giving personalized sightseeing tours, meeting friends and relatives of busy executives and government officials at the airport or train station, doing personal shopping for a client, and running a wide assortment of errands.

Those are the regular jobs, the bread-and-butter work. They get their quota of the unusual as well. Examples:

—Returning a rent-a-car that a client had rented, driven less than two miles, parked, and then forgotten, thereby running up a bill of $160.

—Polishing the silverplated back-seat bar in Liberace's Rolls-Royce.

—Moving a new Washington resident's furniture here from New York, with a Supergirl driving the truck all the way.

—Conducting a billboard campaign in Switzerland, exploring the feminine member of a love triangle to return to her former fiancé.

—Washing Frank Sinatra's Lear jet at National Airport.

—Fulfilling Christmas responsibilities for a busy New York-Washington commuter, including buying gifts for his family, decorating the tree and delivering a puppy to his son on Christmas Day.

Besides the hometown clientele, several out-of-town corporations are on retainers for service when corporation staff members come to the capital on business.

"We perform any service, do any job... as long as it is not illegal or immoral," said chief Washington supergirl Lana Nelson, with a businesslike glint in her gray-green eyes.

There is a reason for the emphasis. Their name leaves them wide open to wisecracks and misinterpretation.

"I got a call one day from someone who asked, 'What are you, some kind of highpowered call-girl outfit?'" said Supergirl Nelson, "and I said, 'Sorry, I think you must have called the wrong service.'"

A recently married applicant for full-time Supergirl status was accepted for employment on the condition she use her maiden name. Her married name was Love.

"We have enough trouble explaining to people what we are not," said Lana, soberly.

What they are may be expanded soon beyond the main New York office and its affiliates in Washington and Atlanta. Supergirl franchises are expected to open soon in Seattle, Los Angeles, Chicago, Denver and New Orleans.

"We have girls on file who are researchers, designers, mixologists, seamstresses and promotion experts," said Lana.

Ready to spring into action at a few moments' notice, they are filled with the inner confidence of a Clark Kent without the quick change into cape and blue tights.

If it comes to that, the atmosphere around today's glass-walled telephone booths will never be the same.

Supergirl Julie, a staff member of Supergirls, Inc., is ready to take over any job in our nation's capital from party planning to baby sitter to a congressman's pets. The firm is comprised of 10 full-time workers and around 150 freelance Supergirls ready to respond to the call to duty.

Hostesses Honor Mrs. Christenson

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — Mrs. Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church, Skellytown. Hostesses were Mmes. Darwin Allen, Leroy Snodgrass, Earl Looper, Ralph Fox, J.M. Grange, Danny Mooney, Morris Brame, Kenneth Crawford, Tom Veale, Edna Dunivin, and Walt Barnett.

The honoree was presented a kitchen corsage fashioned of two yellow net bows with yellow salad tongs and two magnetic daisy holders.

Miss Connie Christenson presided at the guest register. The honoree was assisted in opening and recording her gifts by Mrs. Danny Mooney and Mrs. Candy Stanton.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth over yellow and centered with a floral arrangement of yellow gladiolas and yellow daisies in a deep yellow pottery bowl and flanked by tall lighted yellow tapers in crystal holders. The large white sheet cake was centered with a doubleheart inscribed in yellow with yellow sugar roses.

Mrs. Candy Stanton, Pampa served cake. Miss Becky McBrayer, White Deer, poured punch.

Beauty Expert Advises Women On Scarf Style

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (Sp) — Headbands and scarfs make beautiful hair fashion accessories for spring, notes a beauty expert provided they are worn to enhance an attractive coiffure and are not an attempt to conceal a sloppy hairdo.

When your hair is ready to be fashionably accented with a new-now headband, keep these hints in mind so that the total effect will flatter you as much as possible:

Choose a headband of narrow or moderate width, rather than a very wide one unless your face is youthful and your features are perfectly proportioned.

The headband placement most becoming to most women is about an inch or so back of the natural hairline. Unless you want to create the illusion of a shorter, rounder face, don't wear a band or scarf at or below the hairline.

If you make your clothes, or if the hem of a purchased fashion yields enough fabric, matching headband to dress or skirt creates an attractive ensemble look.

Sturgeon Addresses B&PW Members

"Parliamentary Procedure" was the program topic for the recent meeting of Pampa Business and Professional Women's Club in City Club Room.

Ben Sturgeon, Pampa attorney, presented a brief historical background on parliamentary law and the necessity for rules in conducting an organization's business.

Members discussed duties of the presiding officer and parliamentarian, order of procedure, points of order, types of motion, voting and debate.

For parliamentary reference, Sturgeon recommended "Parliamentary Law at a Glance" as a reference with "Roberts' Rules of Order, Revised".

Mrs. Pearl Castka, president, presided at the business session, as Mrs. C. C. Rhoades gave the Jan. 3 City Council of Clubs report. Mrs. J. A. Knox gave the membership report. Mrs. Eli Ethridge announced the annual "World Affairs" banquet will be held Feb. 25 in the Coronado Inn Starlight Room.

Bob Izzard, an Amarillo news commentator, will be the banquet speaker. Mrs. H. E. Crocker and Mrs. Ethridge are in charge of banquet information.

Mrs. A. C. Brown and the finance committee will direct the Jan. 28 program and social.

Here Are Jeane Dixon's Predictions For Happenings In 1969

Special Precautions Urged For Protection Of President Nixon

By JEANE DIXON
(C) 1969, Newsday, Inc.

Destiny is all-important where life and purpose are concerned. President-elect Richard Nixon is facing the most difficult tasks and problems of any president yet. Mr. Nixon will not endeavor to carry the image of any other President regardless of his admiration and respect — but will carry his own image.

Richard Nixon comes into office with years of political experience, wisdom, acumen and, not least, foresight. He will gradually shake up and reorganize the government as it has not been shaken up for 50 years. This intention carries good vibrations for the country. I see President Nixon using great common sense in all his approaches, but he will not have the cooperation of the masses, of the minority groups, of those who lack vision, or of the opposing political party.

President Nixon will do more to advance the progress of Negroes than any other man in the last hundred years. But because of sabotaged communications, and the opposition forces, his good works will not be given due recognition.

Tightly controlled minority groups, master minded by the organizational geniuses of the USSR, will take advantage of this lack of cooperation to divide us in the United States; they will block the channels of communication and understanding. The innocent will become the victims. In addition, there are the powerful machinations of a "government within a government," which will organize strong opposition.

This opposition will be led by a family which controls a potent political machine. This opposition will be both national and international in scope. The activities emanating from this source, although even they will not realize it until too late, will be responsible for much agitation — even at times revolution. This will cause more trouble than one could ever dream!

President Nixon will answer many national questions in his Inaugural Address; he will endeavor to end the sit-ins, protest demonstrations and marches. But Mr. Nixon must have maximum protection, and everybody must be on the alert — because a revolt is smoldering. Special precautions must be taken for his personal safety these next few months.

Some of the news media will be unfriendly and will blame the new administration for everything from the Capitol to the Bible. But some leaders with high principles will not compromise; unfortunately, some of them will resign from office rather than be compromised for political purposes.

There is one leader — I do

Africa, Europe and South America.

5. They will test President Nixon's courage and fortitude by causing a flare-up in the Middle East during the Summer of 1969. After Vietnam has been settled according to Mr. Molotov's plan and disarmament set in motion so that the U.S. cannot backtrack, this will leave the Middle East ripe for a Communist takeover.

6. While the U.S. has its sights on landing a man on the moon, the U.S.S.R. is concentrating upon the military aspects of space, since this power may be needed in the final days of Socialist triumph.

7. Under Mr. Malenkov's guidance, internal security within the USSR and loyal Socialist states will be strengthened in order to secure the base for Communism's final victory.

These are the seven steps to doom spelled out for the United States by Mr. "S," Mr. "P" and Mr. "A."

President Nixon, with the help of God, must make the proper decisions so that we may survive as a nation.

President Nixon is not ruling out the spirit of compromise with the enemy. But he will not permit any make-shift arrangement to be made that will leave Southeast Asia to the mercy of the Communists.

President Nixon will enjoy a "honeymoon" with Congress for a limited time only. There will be criticism and shouts of "unpopularity" coming from various legislators, when they see Nixon cut off funds from their various pet projects. However, he will be applauded in other quarters for his courage. His main objective will be to stabilize the currency, and strengthen the dollar.

President Nixon will keep his pledge to the American people regarding law enforcement and "safety in our streets." The law will be enforced without fear or favor, but he will insist that all branches of law enforcement make justice the keystone of their policy while engaged in enforcing the law. He wants no taint attached to his administration, especially in the Justice Department; the many stories surrounding the Jimmy Hoffa case that refuse to die are distasteful to him. Incidentally, Hoffa's star is on the continuous rise.

There will be many changes in industry and in society, and much talk in Congress about the converging tide of problems — more really angry debates than ever before in American history. Because of opposition in Congress, the problems will only be talked about — not really solved — causing a national slow-down of business in 1969.

Money will lose some of its buying power. There will be a steady drain of money from the wealthy and an increase in taxes. The price of gold will rise in the open world market.

There is great danger around our defense set-up, with sabotage which could cause great losses. There will be sabotage this year on aircraft, also in outer space.

There seems to be a heavy death toll around the middle of the year, or just a little past midyear, caused perhaps by human carelessness and sabotage.

Governor Reagan will continue to have trouble with riotous activities, but since he is good for our country and in harmony with God's law, he will meet California's problems head-on. It will not be easy, and he will attempt to hold the line on taxes. Gov. Reagan will become increasingly important in this administration.

This year there will be some sensational developments in New Orleans District Attorney Garrison's investigation of President Kennedy's assassination. He will be able to solve a small part of the mystery surrounding this tragic event by proving that there were channels of communication going back and forth — from Ruby to a prominent New Orleans citizen — and back to Ruby.

Time will prove that Senator Edward Kennedy's winning of the number two Democratic spot in the Senate may not have been the most advisable move he has made since becoming a senator. It will be clear as times goes on that he will be too busy in his all out effort to give as much time as he should to the Senate. There is a great future for Senator Edward Kennedy, if he will just wait the Lord's timing for him as an individual. His impatience is not in his own best interests.

When President Johnson retires to his Texas ranch he will have many things to be thankful for. However, Mr. Johnson will not stay "retired."

It was a privilege for me to meditate on some of the members of the incoming Cabinet. I am sorry I did not have time to meditate on all of them, but there will be more.

MELVIN LAIRD has vibrations similar to those of Lajos Kossuth (Hungarian patriot), and is a "natural" for the Department of Defense. He will logically reason things out. He's an incisive critic, sometimes too much so for his own happiness. But this will be good for our country. He will never rest until he has carried out his objective.

WILLIAM P. ROGERS has vibrations similar to Adam Smith's (political economist) is quick-witted and clever. He will always expedite his travels whatever his destination, and will even risk his life if need be. He will always have many irons in the fire, but will prove a very capable secretary of state. He has a mind that acts quickly and sees things rapidly. He is capable of making important decisions correctly.

DAVID M. KENNEDY is a man I would like to have for my boss, because he is someone loved by subordinates, as well as his colleagues. Mr. Kennedy looks at life from a higher and more intellectual standpoint than most people. He is great when in a position of authority, especially in government work of any kind. He knows what it is to love his home — that is so important to people today. As time goes by he will take on even more responsibilities.

GOVERNOR GEORGE ROMNEY has a very serious mind. His vibrations are like those of John D. Rockefeller. He is a "child of fate" subject to circumstances caused by others; he possesses a strong will and is very decided in his opinion. But he will be unable to express his true nature to the public and will be much misunderstood. He will be sacrificed for others, and will not get the credit rightfully his. Religion will play a big part in his life, and I see he will leave a large inheritance to philanthropic and charitable causes. He will do well in his new appointment and at the same time enjoy it.

GOVERNOR SPIRO AGNEW has vibrations similar to those of President Theodore Roosevelt and Sargent Shriver. (Both Sargent Shriver and Spiro Agnew will have to dodge some bullets before their lives are over. Assassination attempts will be made but will not be successful, bless them both!) Governor Agnew has great executive power and organizing ability; however, he will make many enemies (not his strong will and forcefulness. Fortunately, he will carry the responsibilities of the vice president efficiently and astutely. A word of caution, Mr. Vice President — check frequently with your doctor to avoid high blood pressure. MRS. ROBERT KENNEDY (I have long been an admirer of her) has wonderful vibrations, similar to those of Charles Evans Hughes and William Randolph Hearst — great individuality, will-power and determination, wonderful romantic qualities. She has original and unconventional ideas, great enthusiasm in everything she attempts. Here are qualities of a dominant leader and Mrs. Kennedy could, if she would, be very successful in the political world. But she has the best interest of all — to be a source of inspiration to her children. Mrs. Kennedy will do some writing later, and it will be very good. She will gain before her life is over. But a word of warning — she should never take any unnecessary risks!

SENATOR EDMUND MUSKIE has vibrations similar to Bismarck's. Owing to his magnetic nature he will have great influence over others through his gift of oratory. While Mr. Muskie is a great senator, he also has the gift of being a preacher and organizer, and is best when working alone, not with a partner unless he is the dominating partner. A word of caution — he, too, should check with his doctor because I get that, when he is older, he could be subject to high blood pressure.

ARISTOTLE ONASSIS has vibrations similar to Pierre Dupont's (destined to fame and fortune) with a natural magnetic personality. Though he keeps busy with his shipping empire, I get the vibrations that he loves art, literature, seeks inventions out of the ordinary, loves the theatre and all beautiful things. It is easy to see the attraction of this man for Jacqueline Kennedy. The only thing I can say at this time is for Mr. Onassis to keep his property and himself well insured. 1969 will be an exciting year for Mr. and Mrs. Aristotle Onassis, but in 1970 there will be other bridges for Jackie Kennedy Onassis to cross.

The constant laughter about how Israel defeated the Arabs in six days is no laughing matter. Russia is re-arming the Arab world, and the only way the Arab world can repay Russia is in oil. Since France and England do not care to be on opposite sides from Russia, America must use her diplomacy very skillfully if another Israel-Arab war is to be averted.

The way to this survival was shown to him and the entire world on Christmas Day 1968, from out of this world.

Down through the ages the astronauts' prayer from the moon will be more of a milestone in our history than their flight.

After the loss of the atomic submarine Scorpion I said that I saw it leaving a "sparkling electrical tunnel" behind it. I be charged with brutality saw something rise up from the bottom of the ocean, and the Scorpion was destroyed by it.

I did not see the submarine destroyed by a torpedo or a missile. Now, to learn the true facts, there should be a combined investigation by the four countries that have mysteriously lost submarines: Israel, France, the United States, and now England. Britain's latest loss should be kept from the people. The results of such an investigation are vitally important to the very survival of the Western world.

I have been picking up for some time now that West Germany will have a new, forceful leader. I already feel his vibrations. He will bring great joy and inspiration to that country.

There will be a great change in the leadership of Red China this year. Indeed, there are many changes looming ahead in leadership internationally. King Hussein will have many difficulties, and a keen disappointment in life. Sukarno will be in the news again this year.

The U.S.S.R. will come up with spectacular space accomplishments in the year 1967.

There will be innumerable spy defections in 1969. Police will be charged with brutality again.

Great new trends and changes in views will start around the world in 1969. Religions will be brought into focus, and the lack of conscientiousness in people will be very disturbing.

Eventually a laxity of morals, an abandoning of Biblical standards and precepts, will bring great dishonor to the whole civilized world.

Planetarium Shows 'Big Bang' Creation

By PRESTON F. KIRK
HOUSTON (UPI) — "In the beginning there was a big bang."

That is not exactly how the Apollo 8 astronauts read the Biblical passage on the creation of the universe, but it is one of the widely accepted theories by scientists today.

The evidence, which some scientists consider valid proof, is presented in a new show called "In the Beginning" at the Burke Baker Planetarium of the Houston Museum of Natural Science through March 1.

Thousands of Houstonians have been crowding beneath the Milky Way just off Main street in Hermann Park since the show opened Jan. 10 to hear at least once again the taped voices of Frank Borman, William Anders and James Lovell initiate the spectacular show with the reading from outer space.

How It Happened

"Genesis tells what happened; we try to find out how it happened," planetarium curator Armand Yramategui said recently.

The enormous mass within which the "big bang" 10 or 11 billion years ago was touched off remains a mystery.

"This takes us back to God,"

Yramategui said.

Carl H. Aiken, assistant director of the museum which alone draws more than 135,000 school children during the school year, said, "The science of cosmology is today about as far along as was geography in the days of Columbus. Certainly is still in its infancy."

The "big bang", effected in the show by a startling electronic flash, is supported by complex tests and calculations which indicate the planets and stars are of the same age and similar composition, and continue movement backward from a common center.

Two-Month Job

The show, colorfully supported by spectacular panoramas, storms, auroras, color slides and the 5,000-star space transit planetarium projector, took 10 people over two months to put together.

"We get a lot of help from NASA (National Aeronautics and Space Administration)," Aiken said.

The shows are done for astronomy buffs, school classes, college science seminars and even NASA lectures, but Aiken said "public shows are primarily entertainment; education is secondary."

Income Tax Questions, Answers

EDITOR'S NOTE—This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the Pampa office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published by The News as a public service to taxpayers.

Q—I received my tax forms in the mail but my son didn't. Why is that? He started working last summer and taxes are being taken out of his wages.

A—A tax return is mailed to everyone who filed a return for the previous year. Your son would therefore not receive a tax form if he started working in 1968 as you indicate. Copies of the 1968 tax forms and instructions are available at local post offices and banks.

Q—If I file my 1968 return by the end of January can I forget about the fourth installment of my estimated tax?

A—Yes, if you file your 1968 return by Jan. 31 paying any balance due at that time. But don't forget that 1969 declarations must be filed by April 15.

Q—Last year I sold some stock I had received from my father's estate. Do I have to pay tax on this money?

A—You will only have to include in income any increase between the value of the stock at the time your father died and what you sold it for.

Q—I got married last year and my wife and I both received 1040 tax packages. If we file a joint return, whose label should be put on the form, mine or hers?

A—On joint return the account is primarily identified by the husband's social security number. Therefore, file the return with your label adding your wife's name to it but be sure also to enter your wife's social security number on the return in the space provided for it.

Q—Are farmers subject to the new surcharge?

A—Yes, they like all income taxpayers are subject to the tax surcharge.

Q—I can't find the W-2 form I got from my summer job. What should I do?

A—Contact your former employer and ask him for a duplicate copy of your W-2 statement.

United States, China To Conduct Meetings

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

On Feb. 20, United States and Red Chinese ambassadors sit down in Warsaw for the 135th meeting in a series that began on Aug. 1, 1955, in a spirit of hope and was suspended last January in frustration.

The year 1955 had been a big one.

Then as now the Communist Chinese had caught the United States by surprise.

At the Afro-Asian Bandung Conference in April, Premier Chou En-lai suddenly declared: "The Chinese people are friendly to the American people. The Chinese people do not want to have war with the U.S.A. The Chinese government is willing to sit down and enter into negotiations with the U.S. government to discuss the question of relaxing tension in the Far East and especially the question of relaxing tension in the Taiwan (Formosa) area."

A Summit Meeting

On Aug. 2 of that year, the then U.S. Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, noted at a news conference indications that the Red Chinese pistol aimed at the heads of Americans "had been laid down."

Ten days earlier, President Eisenhower had returned from a summit meeting among heads of state of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union at Geneva. On July 25 he reported:

"There is now a realization that negotiations can be conducted without propaganda and threat and invective."

He said every individual at the Geneva Conference felt the "longing of mankind" for peace.

And in the U.S. Senate, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin, his feud with the White House near a climax, charged that the President had "betrayed the trust" of the American people and that the Communists had been "utterly successful" in weakening the West's will to resist.

That was the beginning.

Two Point Agenda

At the first meeting between U.S. Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson and Red Chinese Wang Ping-nan at Geneva's Palais des Nations, Wang proposed a two-point agenda.

It was, first, return of civilians of both sides to their countries, and, second, other practical matters at issue between the two governments.

It was on the latter that the talks bogged down. They involved a relaxation of the U.S. trade embargo against Red China and U.S. withdrawal from Formosa, i.e., withdrawal of its protection of the National Chinese government of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

As the violence of Red China's cultural revolution has subsided, the Chinese are seeking to renew outside contacts.

In Peking, the wives and children of Soviet diplomats are returning to posts they abandoned two years ago.

The Warsaw Pacts, too, will be a renewal of contacts.

AFTER BLASTING through a mile of solid granite, workmen are carving this huge cavern deep in a hillside in New England. It and two similar chambers will be part of the Churchill Falls hydroelectric project scheduled for completion in 1976. Operations have been underway since 1966 on the massive enterprise.

GUIDE FOR PUBLIC

Pampa Theaters Join In Film Rating Plan

The motion picture industry has launched a voluntary film rating system — known as "Gemrex" — which will guide the public in their selection of movies, and Pampa's three theaters are pledged to cooperate in and conform to the plan, it was announced Saturday by Arville Hayes, manager of the Capri, LaVista and Top O' Texas theaters.

Motion pictures will be reviewed by a code and rating administration of the Motion Picture Association of America which, when it reviews a film as to its conformity with the standards of the MPAA code, will issue ratings, Hayes stated.

Under the system certain films will be restricted for children. This, he stated, reflects a special concern for young people, as well as a serious effort to be of direct help to parents in the fulfillment of their responsibilities.

The rating symbols and their meanings, explained in detail by Hayes, are:

(G) Suggested for General Audiences — This category includes motion pictures that in the opinion of the code and rating administration would be acceptable for all audiences, without consideration of age.

(M) Suggested for Mature Audiences — Adults and Mature Young People — This category includes motion pictures that in the opinion of the administration, because of their theme, content and treatment, might require more mature judgment by viewers, and about which parents should exercise their discretion.

(R) Restricted — Persons under 16 not admitted, unless accompanied by parent or adult guardian — This category includes motion pictures that in the opinion of the administration, because of their theme, content or treatment, should not be presented to persons under 16 unless accompanied by a parent or adult guardian.

(X) Persons under 16 Not Admitted — This category includes motion pictures submitted to the code and rating administration which in the opinion of the administration are rated (X) because of the treatment of sex, violence, crime or profanity. Pictures rated (X) do not qualify for a Code Seal. Pictures rated (X) should not be presented to persons under 16.

The program contemplates that any distributors outside the membership of the MPAA who choose not to submit their motion pictures to the code and rating administration will self-apply the (X) rating.

These ratings and their meanings will be conveyed by advertising, by displays at the theaters of the nation, and in other ways, Manager Hayes advised.

"Thus, audiences, especially parents, will be alerted to the theme, content and treatment of movies," Hayes said. "In our society, where the citizen still has freedom of choice, parents are the arbiters of family conduct. Parents have the primary responsibility to guide their children in the kind of lives they lead, the character they build, the books they read, the movies and other en-

NEW YORK (UPI)—Shearson, Hammill & Co. observes that the market averages are down about 7 per cent in the past month and the market has built up a "ground-swell" of bearishness that will take a little time to be undone. This may be similar to the situation in early 1968, when the market fell about 9 per cent in two months, and was finally jolted out of its lethargy by the bombing halt. "The current decline may fall not far below current levels, the firm says, but a period of indecision is then likely until "a change in monetary policy or some other dramatic event comes along to revive investor interest."

to the public will slow down materially until the overall market regains some upside momentum." Furthermore, the firm says, "unsettled market conditions also greatly increase the potential for loss on new issues."
