

Freedom Foundation To Give Awards On Washington's Birthday

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (UPI)—Gen. Harold K. Johnson, a survivor of the Bataan "Death March" of World War II and former Army chief of staff, was named the recipient Friday of Freedom Foundation's highest honor.

Johnson, 57, a retired four-star general, will receive the George Washington Award and a $5,000 check Saturday at Valley Forge Military Academy, Wayne, Pa., during a ceremony held annually on George Washington's Birthday. Other top award winners are: orchestra leader Lawrence Welk, Santa Monica, Calif.; the Rev. Dr. Leon H. Sullivan, Philadelphia, founder of the Opportunities Industrialization Center (OIC); J. Howard Wood, Chicago, Ill., publisher of the Chicago Tribune; and Stan Musial, St. Louis, Mo., former National League star and a member of the baseball Hall of Fame.

More than 1,800 organizations, schools and individuals were listed as award winners for "outstanding achievement in bringing about a better understanding of the American way of life."

Sixty of the top winners were invited to accept their awards at the 20th annual ceremony. The other awards will be presented at some 200 regional and local ceremonies throughout the country after Feb. 22. The foundation cited Johnson

"for a lifetime of exemplary character, earnest scholarship, and superior leadership as he served in the U.S. Army 35 years with bravery and distinction in peace and in war."

Welk, winner of the National Service Award, was cited "for his extensive, quiet, conscientious endeavors to emphasize fundamental ideals of the American credo through his life in television entertainment."

Sullivan was awarded the American Exemplar Medal "for his untiring effort to inspire all people to help themselves through their own work in free enterprise as owners, shareholders and employees." OIC now provides job training for ghetto residents in 78 cities.

Free Enterprise

Wood, president of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, was named winner of the Free Enterprise Exemplar Medal. He was cited "for complete commitment through his brilliant career from reporter to publisher to an unceasing fight for freedom of the press and for the public's right to know."

Musical, honored for "his vital, strong, personal example to American youth, of integrity, sportsmanlike conduct, self-reliance and patriotism," was named recipient of the Freedom Leadership Medal. He is a national official of "Speak Up for America."

Six recipients of national recognition awards were George

Foreman, Houston; Olympic heavyweight boxing gold medal winner, Luke Greene, Atlanta, Ga.; KWQT-TV news personality, Mrs. Margaret Moore, anti-crime crusader of Indianapolis, Ind.; George Putman, Los Angeles, Calif.; KTTV-TV news commentator; syndicated columnist Alice Widener, New York; and Mrs. Chester H. Lehman, a Pittsburgh philanthropist.

Smith's Tax Bill Has Its Trouble

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Legislators, skeptical of the chances of passing the tax bill suggested by Gov. Preston Smith, today began examining other ways of raising the $250.5 million new revenue Smith's spending proposals would require. Smith's overall tax program, revealed at a joint legislative session Thursday, generated little enthusiasm in the legislature, although most legislators found something in it they liked.

Even some of Smith's associates conceded his plan had little chance of passing. One noted that the legislature, not the governor, has written every major tax program in the last 10 years.

Smith proposed $148.8 million in higher taxes on tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, services and rental equipment. Liberals objected that virtually all of these taxes would hit consumers rather than business.

Local Merchants Offer Goods To Auction for MOD

Processed beef, dinner for two, savings bonds, permanent waves, groceries, radios, household appliances and gift certificates are among the items to be sold to the highest bidder at the Gray County March of Dimes auction tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the Pampa High School auditorium.

Several thousands of dollars worth of merchandise will be auctioned off at the affair, according to Charles Martin, M.O.D. drive chairman.

All proceeds from the sales will go to the March of Dimes fight against birth defects.

Businesses and merchants who are donating merchandise and services to the event include Andis and Bond Cattle Co., Panhandle Meter Service Co., Joe Fortin Enco, Joe Hawkins Appliance, Foster's Furniture, Texas Furniture, and also, Cock O' Walk, LaSabor Restaurant, Furr's, Field's Men and Boys Wear, Citizen's Bank & Trust Co., Gibson's Pharmacy (See AUCTION, Page 3)

Plan in Trouble

He said the state could pick up $71.6 million without raising taxes by spending mineral royalty income, but Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin is expected to hold that plan unconstitutional.

Smith proposed to raise another $38.5 million from non-tax sources by collecting a $10 surcharge, in addition to the regular fine and court cases from everyone convicted of a traffic violation.

But the chairman of the house tax committee, Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas, said he thinks that plan is unworkable.

Most legislators praised parts of Smith's budget message, but reporters found only one Rep. John A. Traeger of Sequim-who was willing to endorse the entire program without qualification.

School Board Will Get PCTA Proposal

FROM TEACHERS

By WANDA HUFF
News Staff Writer

A teachers' committee, authorized by the executive board of Pampa Classroom

Teachers Association, made public its proposals Thursday night for a written professional communications agreement between Pampa teachers and the School Board.

The committee accepted teachers' recommendations Thursday for changes in its proposed agreement and said it would ask school administrators if they wanted to be represented on the Communications Policy Committee.

After the PCTA ratifies the study's committee's revised communications agreement, it will be presented to the school board for its consideration, Lewis Rogers, PCTA president, said.

Teachers on the original study committee for this agreement were Lewis Rogers, Howard Graham, John Simon, Mrs. Theresa Nabors, Austin Rudwick, Bill Poits, Bill Mackey, Mrs. Helen Warner, Mrs. Dennis Wyatt, Mrs. Karen Slate, Mrs. Bunny Nichols and Mrs. Roberta Kincaid.

The committee, following a trend in other Texas schools to increase professionalism among school faculties, said its objective was not to organize a "complaint vehicle to the school board."

Truman Suffers Stomach Illness

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Former President Harry S. Truman, 84, was taken from his Independence, Mo., home to Research Hospital late Thursday night, suffering from what a hospital spokesman said was inflammation of the lining of the stomach and the intestines.

Truman's wife, Bess, said the illness was not serious.

"He felt wonderful all day," she said. "He ate a hearty meal just before it happened. He relaxed after dinner and retired for the night."

She said the illness occurred about 12:30 p.m. CST.

"Oh, it's nothing serious," Mrs. Truman said. "It's just a minor attack and I'll be going to see him in the morning."

Hospital spokesman John Ives said Truman's condition was satisfactory and the former president suffered no discomfort.

Demonstrators Want To 'Get' Gov. Reagan

By United Press International

Three thousand demonstrators, many chanting "we want Reagan . . . get him . . . kill 'im," ran wild at the University of California's Berkeley campus Thursday, overturning police vans, stoning law officers and hurling back tear gas cannisters police threw to disperse them.

Gov. Reagan was to arrive today for the second and concluding session of the University of California Board of Regents, and police braced for possible further violence.

Reagan earlier incensed student radicals and nonstudent members of Berkeley's hippie community by declaring the campus in a state of "extreme emergency." National Guard troops were reported ready to move on campus at Reagan's order.

school's disciplinary committee met to discuss action against students who conducted a 16-day sit-in at the university's Administration Building.

Trash Collection Gets First Test In Bad Weather

Pampa's new garbage and trash collection system got its first real bad weather test during the past week and came out with flying colors, according to City Manager Charles Hill.

Hill said today the new equipment had enabled sanitation department workers to pick up two days of garbage this week that could not have been collected with the old equipment.

"We saved two full days of work time that would have been lost," Hill said.

The city manager added that the lighter pickups were able to get through muddy alleys where the old, heavy packer-type trucks would have been unable to operate.

"With all the heavy snow and mud conditions, we have not lost a day," Hill said.

He stated that both Allan Vickers, sanitation department superintendent, and R. B. Cooke, public works director, reported the new equipment enabled trash collections to be made on regular schedule despite the inclement weather.

Berlin Reports Activity of Reds

BERLIN (UPI)—West Berlin police reported Communist troops already moving toward the West German frontier today for war games designed to put a new squeeze on this isolated outpost.

Western officials said they had little doubt the Soviet-East German maneuvers announced Thursday would mean disruption in the flow of trucks and barges bringing vital supplies 110 miles through Communist East Germany to West Berlin.

The Soviet news agency Tass announced the war games for "early March" to coincide with the West German presidential election in West Berlin March 5—an event the Communists have deplored as a "provocation."

Western authorities here said the Communists apparently were careful not to plan the war games during the visit Feb. 27 of President Nixon. The real pressure, they predicted, would come once Nixon leaves and the West German electoral college begins arriving by air.

A garrison of about 250,000 Soviet soldiers is stationed in East Germany alongside about 240,000 East German troops. The war games, Tass said, are intended "to perfect the joint action of troops in different types of combat operations."

Communist border guards Monday and Tuesday shut off traffic to or from West Berlin for about two hours to show their governments' displeasure over the West German plan to go through with the election in West Berlin.

City Residents Protest Zoning Classification For Park Area

By RUTH LEWIS
News Staff Writer

Although Thursday's scheduled meeting of the Pampa Zoning Commission had not been advertised as a public hearing, several residents in the Somerville and Hobart St. area were heard in protests of what they had feared would be retail classification in what is now a residential district.

The area has, however, been zoned as semi-commercial since 1949, a check of records showed today.

Ben Sturgeon, first to speak, suggested that, even though the session was not a public hearing, property owners of a questioned area had a right to be heard. The commission agreed.

Marvin Springer, planning consultant from Dallas, added that "in such a case we have a moral obligation to listen."

Both Sturgeon and E. C. Sidwell, former mayor, spoke for concerned citizens living adjacent to a park-like area owned by heirs of the late C. P. Buckler.

The area, said the protesters, is a public park, maintained for nearly a decade by the city and with use of city equipment. Householders building on adjacent streets had expected the park would continue to be so maintained.

If the streets were zoned for retail or semi-commercial use, their properties would be seriously devalued, they believed.

Sidwell said that he had been told by the late C. P. Buckler that the park was to belong to the city "and I doubt," Sidwell added, "that city records will show any taxes having been paid on the property since that time."

Quentin Williams, real estate dealer who has represented the Buckler family, reported that numerous requests from prospective business owners had been checked but the clouded (See ZONING, Page 3)

Bomb Explodes In Supermarket

JERUSALEM (UPI)—A bomb planted by Arab guerrillas exploded today in a supermarket thronged with women and children. Two persons were killed and 33 injured, 13 of them seriously.

Police identified one of the dead as a male student from Uruguay. The other victim was a woman among a crowd in the Israeli sector of Jerusalem buying food before the Jewish sabbath.

Two other bombs, one inside the supermarket and the other near the British consulate in another section of the city were discovered by police. One was dismantled by bomb disposal experts and the other was exploded without damage.

The explosion in the supermarket brought new tension to the Middle East already gripped by fears of Israeli retaliation for the Arab guerrilla machine-gun attack on an El Al Israeli airliner in Zurich.

A wave of apprehension ran through Lebanon where officials expressed dismay at the supermarket explosion. The Beirut International Airport with 13 Arab planes destroyed was the object of the last major Israeli retaliatory strike.

Police set up roadblocks between the Arab and Israeli sector of Jerusalem to prevent clashes between Arabs and Jews but by early afternoon no incidents had been reported.

Most of the 150 shoppers in the supermarket near the King David Hotel in Jerusalem were women and children. But among the injured were four United Nations officials including an Australian identified as a Mr. Skinner.

Police said the explosion was caused by "primitive gelignite charges" placed in coffee cans on a shelf among some oil cans in a corner of the store.

Scores of screaming women and children fought to get out of the supermarket into the street. Some customers leaped out of second floor windows. Ten of the store's 13 plate glass windows were broken and the interior of the store was littered with broken bottles, ripped open cans and split packages.

Police said the bombs were of the same type as that which went off in the Mahne Yehuda market place in the Israeli sector of Jerusalem last November, killing 11 people. After that incident angry Israeli youths beat up every Arab they could find.

In a move to head off similar incidents police escorted Arabs working in the Israeli sector of the town to their homes and moved into the Arab sector of the city to localities.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—"Get Smart," the long-running comedy series that was canceled officially by NBC-TV this week, has been picked up by the competing CBS-TV network for next season.

Programming for the upcoming season is, at this point, still subject to switches—but unless plans are changed, "Get Smart" will simply continue as before, with viewers merely having to tune in on a different channel.

Assuming CBS-TV definitely keeps "Get Smart" on the air, it will not be the first time the network picked up a show from a competitor. As an example, some years ago it got the Fred MacMurray series, "My Three Sons," from ABCA, and it's still running very strong in the ratings.

Leaked Out

The CBS-TV schedule that has been leaked out also reveals that the network is making a firm bid to establish the Doris Day series as the big hit it was expected to be, but has not yet become.

What CBS-TV currently planning to do is insert Miss Day's show in its potent Monday night lineup, between "Mayberry, U.S.A." and the Carol Burnett series. Other series on CBS-TV Monday night are "Gunsmoke" and the Lucille Ball program.

Miss Day's transfer to Monday nights would dislodge a very successful series, "Family Affair," which now is slotted on early time period on Thursdays next season. It will be followed on Thursdays by the new one-hour Jim Nabors variety show, Nabors has quit his long-run "Gomer Pyle" situation comedy series as of this season.

Children's Show

"Gentle Ben," the children's show about a boy and his bear, is currently scheduled for cancellation by CBS-TV. But the Glen Campbell Variety Hour, which had its debut this midseason, has won renewal. It is produced by the same firm that puts on the Smothers Brothers series. The Smothers, according to the pencilled-in schedule, will be back on the network too.

Over at NBC-TV, an announcement of next season's new shows says the previously-set Bill Cosby half-hour series will concern "a big city high school gym teacher and assistant coach who moonlights—principally as a private investigator—to make ends meet."

NBC-TV's upcoming Debbie Reynolds situation comedy, also previously set, will be about "an on-the-go suburban housewife with a family circle that include her sportswriter husband, a domineering older sister, an easy-going brother-in-law and a chubby, myopic 10-year-old nephew."

Yet another new NBC-TV series, the hour-long "Bracken's World," is described by sources at the network as "something like 'Peyton Place' in a movie studio—but on a higher plane."

Carson Free Library May Receive Grant

Carson County Free Library has been tentatively approved for a grant of $50,000, according to word from Lee B. Brawner, assistant state librarian and assistant director of State Library Services and Construction program.

The grant is subject to verification by Feb. 28 of $75,000 from the H. G. (Friday) Hughes estate.

Before his death last July Hughes had planned for the library to be known as the Callaghan Library. The name was to honor the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Asberry Callaghan, parents-in-law of Hughes. The building was to be patterned after the Killgore Memorial Library, Dumas. Plans had been drawn with this end in view and several lots had been deeded as a site for the library at the corner of Fourth and WASHINGTON (UPI)—The first judgment, then, must be that during these years in Washington, a good many men in the antipoverty program, in and about the executive office of the President and in the Congress, men of whom the nation had a right to expect better, did inexcusably sloppy work. If administrators and politicians are going to play God with other persons' lives (and still other persons' money), they ought at least get clear what the divine intention is to be.

"This is the essential fact: The government did not know what it was doing. It had a theory. Or, rather, a set of theories. Nothing more."

These are the words of Daniel P. Moynihan in the concluding chapter of "Maximum Feasible Misunderstanding," a book in which the former policy planner in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations gives his version of what went wrong in the war on poverty's community action programs.

Moynihan, to the contempt of some recently departed New Frontier and Great Society Democrats, now has become the man in the middle of the new administration's effort to shape a Nixon antipoverty program. As executive officer of the President's Urban Affairs Council, the tall and elegantly shaggy Harvard professor is at the center of power and action. If the Nixon administration's ideas for helping the poor go sour, Moynihan also will be in the bullseye of the most obvious target of political opportunity for crats.

Moynihan does have a special vulnerability to the critical flak that the Nixon administration, like any other, can expect to encounter in Capitol Hill and in other hostile territory. He is a Democrat and, as Republican

Robert S. McNamara learned during the Kennedy and Johnson administrations, he can expect special and gleeful attention from his own party for Republicans as well as Democrats.

Moreover, there are plenty of Republicans who believe Nixon could get along better without a Democratic liberal at his ear. They will eagerly await the first opportunity to demand that Moynihan be returned to the academic life in Cambridge.

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM

UPI Foreign News Analyst

When the outside world thinks of Palestine refugees, as it sometimes must, it usually is in terms of a ragged, sullen people living in cardboard and corrugated iron shacks, nursing a hatred for Israel and dreaming impossible dreams of a return to their homeland.

It is a picture which still retains considerable accuracy but it is a changing picture which only in recent weeks has begun to come sharply into focus.

What has emerged is a concept of Palestine as a nation, landless, to be sure, but more than an idea.

For the first time, a popular Palestinian leader has come forward in the form of Yassir Arafat, who not only is head of Al Fatah, the most active of the Arab commando groups, but also is chairman of the Palestinian Liberation Organization (PLO).

PLO links political and military elements and is given quasi government status by the Arab states. Its representatives have appeared before the United Nations.

As head of PLO, Arafat has access to such other Arab notables as President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic and King Hussein of Jordan, both of whom have been pushed into the background by the militant Al Fatah leader.

PLO and its commando forces now are an element which the United States, Soviet Union, Britain and France must consider as they ponder a settlement of the Middle East crisis.

Historically, Palestine has always included the territory between the Mediterranean and Jordan River, and between Egypt and Syria.

In 1947, the UN voted a three-way partition of the area into independent Jewish and Arab states and a Jerusalem having international status. The three were to be linked by an economic union.

The 1948 Arab-Israeli War marked the end of that plan, the Israelis taking over most of the area and Jordan the rest. Today, the PLO refers to Israel as "occupied Palestine" and is pledged to recapture it.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

L. C. LYNCH, Pastor
Freewill Baptist Church

WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED?

May the Holy Spirit make these few words in answer to this great question so plain that you will be able to say, "I see it, and I will now believe!" You ask "What must I do to be saved?"

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved.

Your salvation depends on what you do with Jesus Christ. Accept Him and you are saved; reject Him and you are lost. Thus saith the scriptures: "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9.

First receive Christ as a Saviour. But as many as received Him to them gave He power to become the sons of God. Even to them that believe on His name gave He the power.

Begin the Christian life in an humble and trusting way as the child begins with the alphabet at school. Do not look for miracles. Do not try in yourself to live a Christian life but trust in God, read the Bible, and pray that you may grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord.

Believe that spirit of Christ will come into your heart and cause you believe and delight in doing His will, not because you are happy, but because you are trusting Him to do what He has promised to do. If you will forsake your sins, He says He will blot them out and give you the holy spirit. Believe the word of the Lord, because it is His eternal word, and He cannot lie.

One may say "I have too many things I cannot understand to keep me from living a Christian life." He says He will help you to bear your troubles. Try Him; trust Him. He says He will give us strength for labor, courage for conflict and doubt, the power to resist temptation, and grace sufficient for every day. Take Him at His word and you will know for yourself how blessed it is to trust and obey.

"He that hath My commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth And he that loveth Me shall be loved by My Father and I will love Him and will manifest my self to Him." John 14:1.

May you be able to say "Lord Jesus, I come to You just as I am, take away my sins and give me the Holy Spirit to help me trust Thee always, and to do Thy will in all things."

To Eliminate Secretary Shortage, Mend Executive Manners In Office

NEW YORK (UPI)—The boss who mumbles when dictating checks up on secretary, not giving her credit for intelligence. This type often spends an hour on the phone making airline reservations. She could do it faster and better.

Both types have troubles keeping good secretaries.

The International Secretary of the Year—Mrs. Bobbye Ogden of Dallas—says such bosses complain about the secretary shortage.

"Such men," she said in an interview, "frequently are young and don't know how to treat a secretary as a person."

Other Marks

Other marks of bosses least likely to rate passing grades:—The time waster who fiddles the day away, dictates a flock of letters 30 minutes before closing and demands that they get in the mail that same day.

—The one who constantly checks up on secretary, not giving her credit for intelligence. This type often spends an hour on the phone making airline reservations. She could do it faster and better.

—The boss who doesn't say where he's going or when he'll be back.

—The boss who only makes throat-clearing noises in response to a secretary's cheery "Good Morning" or "How are you."

—Mrs. Ogden, secretary to Fred Brown, hotel consultant and president of Innkeepers Management Services Inc. and Florence Miller, Cosmetics Inc., won her title at the annual convention of the National Secretaries Association.

She also told of some characteristics of beginning secretaries least likely to succeed. Samples:

Some Characteristics

—Tells everybody in office of personal affairs.

—Discloses confidential business information to anyone who listens.

—Files nails, brushes hair, powders nose and puts on false eyelashes at the desk.

—In a crisis, blows up or goes home early. When asked to stay late she won't if it interferes with her personal life.

—Every payday she registers disgust over salary and skimpy fringe benefits.

—Nine times out of 10 she's unable to retrieve files and records she's responsible for.

—Won't ask questions when she doesn't understand something. She's afraid people will think she's stupid.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: As a law enforcement officer I am frequently called to come and break up a fight in which the husband and wife are going at it tooth and nail. And when we get there, the place is a shambles, and the fighters are nursing each other's wounds. Sometimes one or both need to be taken to the emergency room of the hospital for treatment of cuts and broken bones. And do you know what? Neither one will swear out a complaint against the other. We've been called to the same house repeatedly to break up these domestic fights. Yet, if no charges are filed, nothing can be done.

What is the matter with people like that, Abby? Are they nuts, or am I?

OFFICER: They're a little "nuts." Some people have a neurotic need to be punished. They even provoke it. But there is nothing you can do about it as long as this "need" persists.

DEAR ABBY: My son is 12, and in the sixth grade. About two months ago he came home from school and announced that he had to stay up until eleven o'clock to watch a movie his teacher wanted the whole class to see. It dealt with some period of history they were studying. His usual bedtime is 9 p.m. but I decided that once wouldn't hurt, so I let him. Well, a week later it happened again, so I said, "No, I'll watch the movie and tell you about it!" I spent two hours watching a movie that even I didn't understand.

This has happened six times already, and I am sick and tired of that teacher telling my child how late he can stay up. I'd go and talk to that teacher but my son would rather I didn't. Should I anyway? Or should I ignore the whole thing and continue doing my son's

Veterans' Auxiliary Meets For Dinner With VFW Group

About 40 members of Ladies Auxiliary and Pampa Post 1657 Veterans of Foreign Wars met in VFW Hall recently for a covered dish supper.

Tim Duke, son of Rev. and Mrs. J.W. Duke, was introduced by Cleo Goff, Chairman of Post No. 1657 VFW Voice of Democracy scholarship program. He gave the speech on "Freedom's Challenge" which won him second place in district No. 9 competition. Bill Smith, senior at Panhandle High School who won first place, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas M. Smith of Panhandle.

Voice of Democracy program sponsored by Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U.S. and its Auxiliary with the cooperation of the national and state Association of Broadcasters is a national broadcast scriptwriting program designed to give high school students the opportunity to voice their opinions on patriotic themes and to present them by the broadcast media.

Jerry Coley, commander of District No. 9, presented a VOD trophy to Duke for the district and also a VOD medal as a personal gift from him. After Rev. and Mrs. Duke were introduced, Mrs. Duke was

Your Horoscope

JEANE DIXON

YOUR BIRTHDAY SATURDAY: You may find this year gets out of hand, both for overexpanding your achievements and in complicating relationships with other people. It is probable that you will wind up doing the thinking for both sides. Avoid the temptation of letting any opponents know how well you understand their weaknesses, as they learn too readily from your attacking comments. Saturday's natives are often ready to give up, just when that is the least indicated course to follow.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): Your judgment about money-making schemes is not very exact now. Let well enough alone; particularly resist any effort to rush you into deals without full exploration.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): Expect everybody to be stubborn Saturday. Select and limit your social contacts to those you know fairly well rather than odd acquaintances. Your petitions are better presented later on.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Aside from an uncanny streak of awkward coincidence and a tendency to mix up figures, you can have lots of fun getting fine results with little effort.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Take care of yourself first, and you will be able to do something very important at just the right time for somebody else. Romantic indiscretion is almost certain to expand into an unconstructive situation.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Home, property, people under your protection become fretful. You, in turn, are oversensitive. Avoid unprescribed medications for the time being.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): At best this is a somewhat confusing day for all matters having to do with keeping facts and details clear. The big temptation is to believe flattering compliments and indulge in wishful thinking.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Well meaning friends and relatives spoil all sorts of arrangements if you give them too much information or confuse them with ideas and knowledge beyond their needs or proper concerns.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Your career has been developing normally, at least in your planning, now the personal side of your life needs cultivation. You won't be able to hold special information long.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Keep matters simple and open to inspection. If you stoop to gossip, nobody will believe you anyway, so no complaint can be brought to bear. Your own affairs are sufficiently important to merit your full attention.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Saturday you must be explicit in your discourse to avert dissension. There are people seeking enough leeway to reinterpret the situation into something they can enjoy easier.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Emotional and intellectual confusion is about par for the course. Public figures do err or have erroneous remarks attributed to them. Do not be misled. Nobody is apt to follow your suggestions, so save your breath now.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): Take the weekend routines in stride without regard to comments arising on all sides. Do not permit yourself to be baited into discussions.

Six Club Members Plan Stock Show Duties for March

Worthwhile Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. O.G. Smith, 1004 W. Oklahoma, recently for the general meeting.

Mrs. May Cude, president, presided over the business hour, as members planned work for the Fat Stock Show and Sale, March 2, 3, 4 and 5. Worthwhile Club will work Sunday, March 2. All club members will bake two pies.

John Warner discussed why people should make a will and said "in most cases it would help save expenses."

Members attending were Mmes. John A. King, John T. King, Pearl Ferguson, Boyd Brown, W.G. Kinzer, N.B. Cude. Guests were Mrs. Ray Barnard, G.L. Lunsford and the speaker and his guest, John Kenny.

The next meeting will be a covered dish luncheon in the home of Mrs. Boyd Brown, east of Pampa.

presented a rose bud corsage by Bill Earls, commander of Post No. 1657.

Auxiliary will meet for regular business meeting in VFW Hall 7:30 p.m. March 4.

Pampa Goes After District

GOLFERS HARRY Aureli, left, and Sherwin Cox were to start for the PHS linksters today when they opened the season in Andrews. Both are returning lettermen.

By RON CROSS
Pampa goes after its second straight District 4-4A basketball crown, beginning at 8 o'clock tonight in West Texas State Fieldhouse.

Pampa meets Tascosa, the first half district winner in a one-game showdown for the title. The Harvesters won the second half title by posting an 8-1 record while Tascosa went 6-3 in the second half and 9-0 in first half play. This will be the third meeting this season between the two clubs. Tascosa won both of the previous games, 48-46 in Pampa and 45-44 in Tascosa.

Both are defensive minded clubs but both can score while working for the good shot. Tascosa paced the district in defense the first half with a 47 point per game defensive average and Pampa with a 47.4 mark.

In district competition overall Tascosa has a 49.3 defensive average and Pampa stands at 51.9. Also through the 18 district games the Harvesters have averaged 61.5 points per game and Tascosa has averaged 59.9 points per contest.

Pampa coach Sterling Gibson, in his first season as Harvesters head man, has guided his club to an 19-7 season record and 14-4 overall district mark.

Olympians To Compete in Track Meet

NEW YORK (UPI)—Indoor track and field fans may get a repeat performance tonight when Olympic decathlon champion Bill Toomey competes in a modified version of the world's most grueling athletic events at the star-studded U.S. Olympic Invitational meet at Madison Square Garden.

The invitational, blue-ribbon event of New York's 1969 indoor games calendar, is expected to attract the largest crowd of the indoor season.

Toomey, winner of the 1968 decathlon at Mexico City, is among 36 Olympians from the U.S., Canada and Europe, taking part in the meet. Highlight of the 26-event program is the "mini-decathlon" featuring the 30-year-old athlete from Laguna Beach, Calif.

The mini-decathlon will consist of five events—the shotput, 65-meter dash, high jump, long jump and 400 meters. It marks only the second time in the past 30 years that a decathlon-type event has been tried indoors.

Golfers Open Today, Trackmen Saturday

Pampa High School golfers and tracksters open the 1969 season starting Friday in Plainview and Andrews. Golf coach Buddy Williams took a squad of five linksters to Andrews for the two-day meet. The golfers left Thursday.

Making the golf trip were Harry Aureli, Sherwin Cox, Lee Waters, Kris Gamblin and Joe Foster. Aureli and Gamblin are seniors and Cox and Foster are juniors.

Pampa thinclads will participate in the annual Plainview Relays scheduled Saturday on the Bulldogs all weather track. Preliminaries are scheduled Saturday morning and finals will be held Saturday afternoon.

Players To Give Owners New Proposal

NEW YORK (UPI)—The major league players, after agreeing to meet with a federal mediator Monday in an attempt to settle their pension fund dispute with the owners, said they would make a "new proposal" today for the owners' consideration.

The owners haven't yet agreed to meet with the federal mediator but Frank Brown, regional director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said, "It is very rare for an invited party in a labor dispute to decline an invitation from the federal mediator."

Commenting on the players who have signed, he said, "It has been the position of the player's association not to exert any pressure on the players regarding the signing policy. Rather, the matter has been left to each player for his individual decision. Some, due to personal obligations or pressures, have signed contracts."

DAN CARLTON will probably see action for Pampa tonight when the Harvesters meet Tascosa for the District 4-4A basketball title in West Texas State Fieldhouse. Game time is 8 p.m.

Indians Lack Hitting

PROSPECTUS—Alvin Dark was rewarded for a surprising third-place finish last year with a new five-year contract. But he still needs some punch in the lineup if the Tribe is to continue to climb. Pitching is excellent, with Tiant, McDowell and Siebert, but long-ball threat is still needed.

CATCHING—Duke Sims and Joe Azcue alternated last season, but Indians want a look at Ray Fosse, who hit .301 at Portland last year. If he doesn't make it, Azcue (.280) and Sims (.249) will alternate again.

INFIELD—Tony Horton will remain at first, Larry Brown at second and Max Alvis at third. Horton (.249) had best average of the three. Shortstop will go to Zoilo Versalles, who will be Dark's special project. If Versalles regains some of his 1965 form (he was MVP in the league), Indians will be happy. Rating: C plus.

Nixon Suggests Election Reform To US Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon has urged Congress to "reform" the system of electing U.S. presidents in ways that would have allowed him to beat John F. Kennedy in 1960.

In his message to Congress, Nixon asked the already deeply divided lawmakers to choose their own plan for "more closely" matching the electoral vote with the popular ballot.

Nixon ruled out election by direct popular mandate as not likely to win approval. He said 40 per cent of the electoral vote should be sufficient to elect a president.

White House officials said Nixon would be "happy to settle" for the so-called proportional plan under which each state's electoral votes are awarded in direct proportion to the candidate's percentage of the popular vote.

Another alternative, which could fall under Nixon's broad definition of trying to match electoral and popular votes and which has sizable support in Congress, is the district plan.

Under this plan, each congressional district gets one electoral vote and each state gets two at large.

In effect, Nixon gave Congress more encouragement than guidance. He proposed eliminating the office of elector, but not the Electoral College, and a provision that if no candidate gets 40 per cent of the electoral vote, the top two candidates vie in a runoff with the winner of the popular vote becoming president.

Both these suggestions would breeze through Congress and have little difficulty getting ratification by three-fourths of the states.

But on the crucial question of how to elect a president that has bounded Congress for years Nixon refused to take a definite position.

His message said "I have not abandoned my personal feeling... that the candidate who wins the most popular votes should become president."

Crummie Indicted On Rape Charge

A 31st Judicial District grand jury indicted Willie Charles Crummie, 43 year-old Pampa Negro, for rape, a capital offense, in District Court here this morning.

Crummie has three days to appear before Judge Grainger McManey and enter a plea of guilty or innocent.

Crummie has been charged with the rape of a 55-year-old white Pampa woman in her apartment last Saturday morning.

At a preliminary hearing Tuesday afternoon, the woman identified Crummie as her attacker.

Comer, Buzzard Open Law Office

Pampa attorney Harold Comer announced today that he and another city attorney, Ross Buzzard, had formed a law partnership and would have offices in a suite in the Hughes Building Annex.

Comer has been a Pampa attorney for five years and ran for county judge two years ago. Buzzard had been a partner with Gordon, Gordon and Buzzard for the past 18 years.

(Continued From Page 1) agreement was to present a way for teachers and the board to maintain the free and open channels of communication which we now have," Rogers said.

In reporting a history of professional communications to teachers attending the meeting in Robert E. Lee Junior High School, Rogers said in 1967 the Texas Legislature passed Senate Bill 72 which permitted "boards of trustees of independent, rural and common school districts, and their administrative personnel to consult with teachers on ways to formulate educational policy and conditions of employment."

"The bill also stated," he said, "trustees may adopt reasonable rules and regulations and agreements to provide for consultation. This statute shall not limit or affect power of trustees to manage and govern their school districts."

The committee, authorized by PCTA to write the agreement, thought "this would help recognize teachers as professionals, which for so long we have not been," Wendell Watson, committee member, said.

"There is a need for it. We don't want to dictate to the board but to cooperate with the board to make our school system the best that we can. There is nothing at all in this proposed agreement that smacks of labor unions. That is not the idea," Watson said.

Rogers stressed the reason for a written agreement is "to make teachers available to share their training and experience with the board and maintain free exchange of ideas. The way it is now, if the board needs to consult with teachers, they have to call some in and we don't believe that is the best way to present the teachers' views."

He also emphasized the agreement is "not a way to bypass the present channels of communications. We would not want a breakdown in communications between teachers and principals of their building. We still feel, also, that an individual teacher may meet with the board as we do now. Subjects discussed by an organized communications agreement between the board and teachers would deal with collective subjects that would affect all teachers.

According to the committee,

Girl Scouts Plan to Visit 'Happening'

Seventeen Cadettes of the Quivira Girl Scout Council will leave this weekend for Big Spring, to attend a "Cadette Happening" sponsored by the West Texas Girl Scout Council today through Sunday.

The event will open with a party tonight at Webb Air Force Base. Saturday's schedule will include a speaker on "Dope and Its Dangers" and will offer a choice of films on smoking, dope, and "Values for Teenagers."

"Hypnosis and Its Uses," complete with demonstrations, and a speaker on "The Supernatural" will highlight the afternoon's activities. Dinner will be followed by a style show and a "Sing-In."

After Sunday morning church services, guest speakers will discuss national and international events they have attended. The noon luncheon will conclude with a guest speaker, "Are You With It?"

Girls attending from Pampa are Marsha Crouch, Mary Beth Karr, Cindy McDonald, Gretchen Skelly and Sheryl Whiteley of Troop 125; Pamela Welch and Terry Morris, Troop 22; Carol Cole, Jackie White, Patricia Greenwood, Sonya Keen, Cynthia Gill and Gail Stout, Troop 1.

Four Cadettes from Borger will attend also. Adults furnishing transportation to Big Spring are Mrs. Jewell Snider, Mrs. Joseph Cole, and Mrs. T. M. Whiteley.

Advantages of formulating a written professional agreement, are to "spell our roles and relationships of the people involved, clearly outline guidelines to be followed, define responsibility of those involved, avoid as much as possible future misunderstandings by individuals who may not have had an active role in planning the procedure."

Tax

Also being talked about is an extension of the sales tax to food and drugs, but Smith warned against that. "Let us strive to keep those exemptions," he said.

Smith's tax proposals included: —Increasing the tax on cigarettes from 11 to 14 cents a pack, raising $45 million.

—Increasing the tax on tobacco products to 1959 ratio, raising $6 million.

—Including personal services under the state sales tax, 48.8 million.

—Putting alcoholic beverages under the sales tax, $40 million.

—Placing all equipment rental under the sales tax, $9 million.

The governor also proposed to tap these non-tax revenue sources: —Imposing a $10 penalty on each moving traffic violation fine to bring in $38.5 million.

—Divert part of the mineral royalties from the school fund to general education use, allowing $7.6 million in expenditures.

—Increasing fees of the secretary of state's office, $2.6 million.

Board to Meet On Wednesday

Pampa School Board will meet at 9 a.m. Wednesday with its architect for proposed school construction and remodeling and with principals who have schools designated in Phase I for improvements.

Trustees were scheduled to meet Thursday, but because of conflicting schedules with board members, the meeting was postponed by Superintendent Dr. James Malone.

The board has discussed proposing calling a $900,000 bond issue for school improvements at Mann and Wilson Elementary Schools, Pampa High School, and school parking facilities.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST WASHINGTON (UPI) - Recent reports that some young people are turning on by smoking catnip go a long way toward explaining certain mysteries of my childhood.

Catnip, as you know, is a strongly scented herb with small bluish flowers. Although known primarily as a cat delicacy, it has been used medicinally, usually as a home remedy, in the treatment of such ailments as colic and cholera, an anemic condition sometimes called greensickness.

According to the journal of the American Medical Association, it has never been credited in psychopharmacology with having a psychedelic potential. Same Effect

But youths who have smoked catnip leaves, or tobacco flavored with catnip, claim it produces somewhat the same effect as marijuana or LSD.

While reading of this matter, I got to thinking about a cat used to own and about one of my grandmothers, who was a devotee of catnip tea. Both behaved rather strangely at times.

The cat, for no apparent reason, would suddenly crouch down, lurch forward, race around the floor to get up speed, and then spring into the air, wildly waving his legs and tail.

Occasionally he would land flat on his back in defiance of feline tradition. "What's wrong with that crazy cat?" my mother would exclaim. "He looks like he is trying to fly."

Was Hallucinating Nobody could figure it out at the time, but I now realize that he was hallucinating. Under the mind-bending influence of too much catnip, he fancied himself another Orville Wright.

I also can now understand what used to come over my grandmother late of an afternoon when she was sitting out on the porch in her rocking chair.

She would begin rocking very slowly, gradually accelerating the tempo and all the while making a rhythmic "choo-choo" noise. When she reached full speed, with the wind whistling under the visor of her sunbonnet, she would lift an arm as though pulling a cord and go "toot-toot."

I, being a curious lad, would say, "What in tarnation are you doing, Granminkins?"

"Go peddle your papers somewhere else, sonny," she would reply. "I'm overdue in St. Louis."

That's what too much catnip tea will do for you. In the light of what is known about catnip, it is obvious that the old lady was taking a trip.
