TUESDAY, MARCH 25 Your birthday Tuesday: The coming year promises many challenges in your effort to consolidate your position. Financial matters work out more easily than partnership ventures Romantic interests depend on life-time understandings, which encounter misunderstandings if you are careless or neglectful, rather than current searchings for excitement. Tuesday's natives nearly all have a delicate sense of taste, color and texture. ARIES (March 21-April 19): Be a bit more flexible, versatile, but don't take any chances. A sense of humor is priceless under present circumstances. Give thought

Tuesday to your health. TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Speculation is to be discouraged today in any situation, particularly in real property. Children also require exceptional care and watchfulness. Call in your older friends and regular consultants to get a consensus opinion, then follow your own intuition

When your son says marijuana, LSD, and other drugs are freely available around his high school he is undoubtedly telling the truth. When he says parents make too big a thing out of it" he is parroting the sales pitch of the pushers.

The sad fact is that parents are desperately ill-equipped to cope with the pot and drug propaganda. For most of them it is something that is simply outside their experience. What are nice middle-aged people expected to know about something which in their childhood was confined to the lowest elements of society? You are correct in seeking 'the facts." But the facts are not easy to come by. Science is just now getting around to serious research on the subject, and for too many kids it is a mathematical certainty that the facts will come too late.

About marijuana, this much is known: It is not physically addictive. The pot cult capitalizes on this. But all it means is that marijuana does not require constantly increasing dosages to produce its mind bending effects, and that a pot user deprived of the weed does not get physically ill from withdrawal pangs.

However, marijuana does tend to become psychologically addictive for some. The evidence suggests that this kind of addiction is to the constant user what alcohol addiction is to the alcoholic. It is something less than a true addiction, as is heroin, but it is something more than a "bad habit."

White Sox's Nixon Has Sympathy for Staub

By MILTON RICHMAN SARASOTA, Fla. (UPI)-Russ Nixon leaned up against the rail in the runway leading from the Chicago White Sox dugout, where it was dark and cool, and said Rusty Staub ought not to work up his blood pressure like that.

Nixon is 10 years older than Staub and sympathizes with the Montreal first baseman-outfielder's predicament but thinks he's making too much of it.

Staub is anguished over the possibility he still may have to go back to Houston in all the continuing hand wringing and breast beating provoked by Donn Clendenon's retirement.

The only one angrier than Staub is Judge Roy Hofheinz, the owner of the Astros. He held a news conference over in Cocoa the other day where they send those missiles up in space and was so burned up by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn's decision, he said he was going to Congress and the Supreme Court. He was so furious he sounded as if he was all strapped in and ready to go to the moon.

Staub claims he'll quit if they ever rule he has to go back to the Astros.

Russ Nixon laughs at that. He knows Staub won't quit even if he has to go back to Houston. Nixon isn't saving he and Staub are identically alike but it is a fact both make their living the same way and Nixon once was in the same spot as Staub and

It was the spring of 1960. Nixon was with the Cleveland Indians and Frank Lane was general manager. Lane used to trade somebody every hour on the hour and this happened to be Nixon's turn to go the the Boston Red Sox for Sammy White.

White announced his retirement, exactly like Clendenon. Lane double-checked, discovered White wasn't kidding, then got after Ford Frick, who then was commissioner, to cancel the deal. Frick took 10 days to do a little checking of his own. then made his decision.

Russ Nixon, who already had played five spring exhibition games with the Red Sox, would have to return to the Indians.

SPORTS PARADE

Nixon didn't have far to go. Less than 200 miles. The Red Sox were training in Scottsdale, Ariz., and the Indians in Tuscon. So he re-joined Cleve-

"I see where Staub says he'll quit before he goes back." Nixon said, leaning against the rail there in the runway after taking pre-game practice with the White Sox infield...

"He says things now." Nixon laughed, "But he'll change his mind. He'd be foolish not to go back. He's a good ballplayer, making better than $50,000 and he's got 10 years ahead of him ... "Yeah, but he says this thing is working on his mind," somebody said, "He says it's disturbing his life." "It disturbed mine, too," Nixon said, "You forget about it after awhile." "Staub rented a big duplex apartment in Montreal and put a lot of things in it. He says it

"He's not alone." Nixon said. "I also lost money on the deal." "How?"

"When I went over the the Red Sox, they gave me a $4,000 raise, then when I went back to the Indians. Lane wouldn't honor my new contract. He said I'd have to go by the old one I had signed with the Indians before they traded me."

"What did you say about that?"

"I couldn't say anything. I played for $4,000 less. But I got the money back that June. They traded me to the Red Sox again. Me and Carroll Hardy for Ted Bowsfield and Marty Keough."

Nixon is 34 now and trying to win one of the catching jobs with the White Sox.

When he heard of Clendenon's retirement he thought about the hassle he figured in nine yeras ago. Commissioner Bowie Kuhn knows all about that deal because Frank Lane filled him in on it.

Lane, with Baltimore now, believes that unless Houston can be satisfied with another player from Montreal, Staub eventually will have to be returned to the Russ Nixon feels the same way.

"I think," he says, "precedent was set in my deal."

No matter what. Nixon says, Rusty Staub ought not to work up his blood pressure like that.
