TAYLOR FLAYS WAR ON RACES

EVIAN-LES-BAINS, France, July 6 (AP)—Myron C. Taylor, head of the United States delegation, gave a blunt warning to the 32-nation conference on refugees today that forced migration of political and racial groups can bring "catastrophic suffering" upon the world.

Addressing the opening session of the meeting, result of President Roosevelt's invitation to other nations to discuss the refugee problem, Taylor said "general unrest and international strain" were unavoidable results of this migration.

PLAINS VOTERS TO TURN OUT FOR THOMPSON

Gray county supporters of Ernest O. Thompson will join the delegations from other counties and go to Amarillo Saturday night for a huge Thompson-for-Governor rally.

The gubernatorial candidate is coming back from a strenuous down-state campaign to speak to the "home folk" and "opinion leaders" by hands will be there from all over the Panhandle to greet the one-time mayor of Amarillo.

Fampa's delegation will take along a band, and Panhandle and McI an will send their hands to the rally.

And there will be seats, plenty of them. Comfortable seats will be arranged on the auditorium lawn.

City lake will be stocked with fish soon.

The announcement was made this morning by City Manager W. E. Williams following a conference with Game Warden Charles Smith of Campbelle who said he can put 1,500 or 2,000 catfish and crappie in the lake within the next few weeks and more at a later date.

The game warden said it is necessary to take fish out of some small lakes in the Panhandle and that he could not come of them in the city lake. City Manager Williams informed the game warden that he could stock the lake at any time.

A tip to the kids and inexperienced fishermen was given by Warden Smith this morning when he urged that the hands be clipped in the water before taking a fish from the water. Otherwise it is estimated that 90 per cent of the fish die when returned to the water.

STATISTICS IN OIL INDUSTRY GROW BETTER

AUSTIN, July 6 (AP)—The oil industry enters the second half of the year with signs of general improvement.

Continued curtailment of production, the beginning of the peak period of gasoline consumption and indications of a possible business upturn have combined to create at least a statistical picture of betterment.

Students of the industry pointed to these factors as favorable elements in bringing supply and demand into balance. Mounting stocks of crude oil and gasoline caused curtailment of production beginning in May and many agreed the lowered output was justified by the results.

Proponents noted crude stocks 3.7 per cent lower than a year ago and a reduction in gasoline supplies of 2,000,000 barrels for the week ended June 25, bringing motor fuel in storage to level only 9.4 per cent greater than a year ago.

Market observers who have estimated probable requirements for the rest of the year asserted confidence demand would be steady in July and August, providing there was not over extension by operators and refiners.

Fuel oil stocks have shown seasonal increase and were 37.2 per cent greater than a year ago but there was belief in some quarters fall consumption would cut heavily into these inventories. A stock market advance and a reduction in steel prices were considered possible indications of a business upturn for the remaining months of the year which might include greater demands for fuel oil.

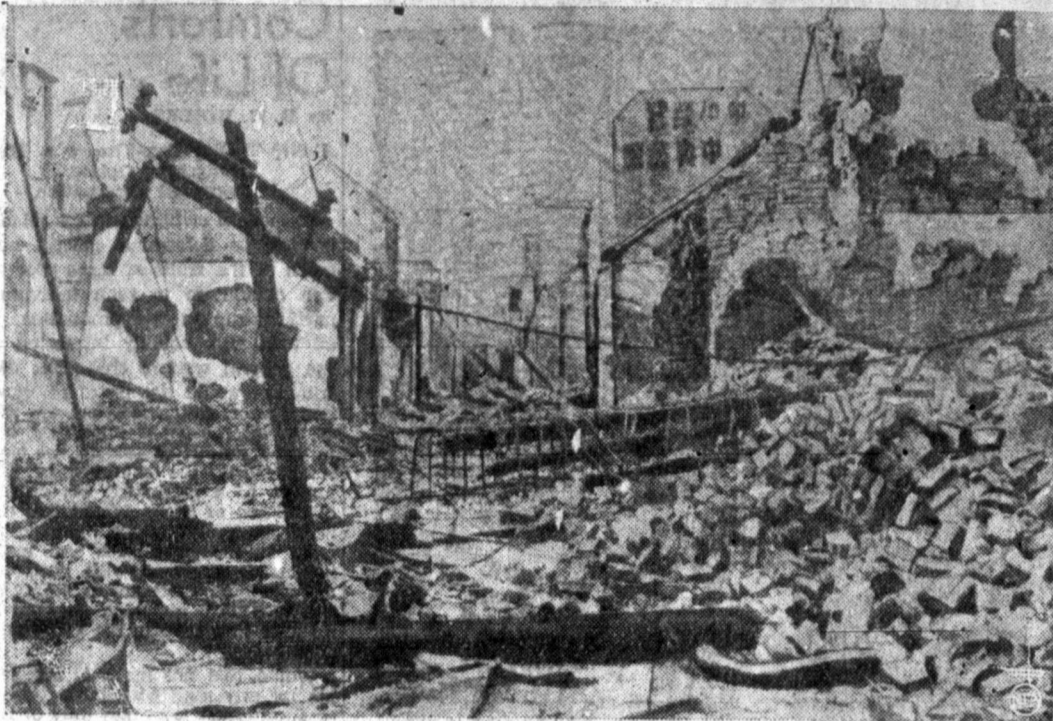

Crude oil and gasoline markets generally remained firm last week. The Oil and Gas Journal reported a decline of 32,906 barrels daily in production of the nation's oil wells for week ended July 2. The average daily production was 3,946,433.

Total Texas production increased 3.78 barrels daily to 1,191,930, including an increase of 1,081 to 364,930 for the vast East Texas field, the world's largest reservoir.

The Railroad Commission, regulatory body for the industry in Texas, lifted a compulsory Saturday shutdown of wells for July but continued Sunday closings, an order generally welcomed in the industry.

The Commission estimated average daily production in Texas this month would be 1,334,047 barrels considering the Sunday holidays and an average 1.85 per cent produced under actual allowances for the year.

4,500,000 AUSTRIANS READY TO FLEE NAZI RULE, EXILES TELL AMERICANS IN FRANCE

By ROY PORTER.

EVIAN-LES-BAINS, France, July 6 (AP)—An Austrian refugee leader told American delegates he believed 4,500,000 Austrians would flee Nazi rule if a 32-nation conference opening today could find them a new homeland.

Arthur Rosenberg, representing the Federation of Austrian Exiles at the meeting inspired by President Roosevelt to try to help German Jews and refugees, said about 75 per cent of Austrians would leave their country if allowed to take a substantial part of their property with them.

The United States delegation, headed by Myron C. Taylor, former head of the United States Steel Corporation, took the lead in preliminary negotiations for settling the refugee problem—made acute by the Austro-German Union on March 13.

The Americans made it plain, however, that the United States' attitude was one of helplessness rather than direction. Officials said they were trying to help shape plans but "we do not intend to be the final judges of whatever may be done."

Consequently some hesitation was shown in considering French plans to make Taylor chairman of the conference, officially known as the Intergovernmental Committee on Political Refugees.

Taylor said he was inclined to refuse to serve and other Americans said frankly they hoped "it would not happen."

The conference program listed four important items:

1. Steps to facilitate settlement in other countries of German political refugees who, for the purposes of the conference, were defined as "persons desiring to leave Germany as well as those who have left already."
2. Immediate assistance for the most urgent cases within existing immigration laws.
3. A system of registering refugees who lack official papers and are unable to obtain any.
4. Establishment of a permanent intergovernmental committee to work out long-range refugee problems in cooperation with existing agencies.

MANY THINGS OF INTEREST IN News For Farmers

WHEAT QUOTAS
Marketing quotas for wheat farmers are a possibility for 1939, according to the government.

If on May 15 the supply of wheat, both the carry over from the old crop and the prospective new crop, is estimated to be over the quota level, a vote of the wheat farmers will be taken on the question of whether there will be quotas.

A majority is necessary to establish or defeat quotas, and if they are established all wheat farmers will be requested to hold a part of the supply of wheat off the market, and those who do not comply will be forced to pay fines of 15c a bushel on the amount marketed above the individual farm quota.

PAYMENTS TO FARMERS
Many payments of money to farmers under the AAA will be made by the government during the fall when a total of more than 700 millions is expected to have been turned over to them before the end of October.

According to the estimates of some authorities about 18 states will receive more than 5 million dollars.

States having the most chance of getting that much are Arkansas, South Carolina, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, North Carolina, California, Louisiana, North Dakota, Wisconsin, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Georgia, Alabama, Texas, and Kansas.

HORSE DISEASE
A new infectious disease of horses and mules, commonly called "sleeping sickness," "brain fever," or "western horse disease," which first appeared in the United States in 1930 has now spread to thirty states, the government announced in warning farmers to be on the lookout for it.

A federal report said that 170 thousand cases of the disease were found in the United States in 1937, and that 30 per cent of the afflicted animals died.

It was urged that farmers take precautionary measures by administering vaccines before the horses are exposed to the disease. Consultation with veterinarians was recommended.

REFUND TAXES
Six million dollars is appropriated by the second deficiency bill for the government to pay cotton ginners refunds if they paid taxes under the Bankhead. Kerr controls laws for tobacco and potatoes.

The last day in June, 1939, will be the final opportunity to register claims for refunds according to the law.

COTTON INSURANCE
The U. S. Department of Agriculture announces that hundreds of thousands of the nation's farmers are expected to participate in the wheat crop insurance program provided for under the new Farm Act, and on account of this large response farm leaders in various regions predict that next year Congress will authorize crop insurance for cotton, fruits, and other products.

HOG PRICES STEADY
Steady to higher prices for hogs are in prospect for the summer months according to the government.

The effects of reduced supplies upon prices, however, is expected to be partly offset by weak consumer demand for meats.

TO SECURE FARMERS
Thirty million dollars will be spent by the Farm Security Administration in order to help farm tenants who are unable to make a living from their farms, the government announced.

Plans for the exact means of helping and the methods of spending the money have not been completed but are now being worked out.

NO WHEAT RECORD
Deterioration during June of the winter wheat crop has caused a bandment by most authorities of hope that the United States would harvest an all-time record crop this year.

CHINESE FORCES GAIN ON THREE WAR FRONTS

By LLOYD LEHRBAS SHANGHAI, July 6 (AP)—Chinese forces, at the end of the first year of the war with Japan, gained momentary advantages on three fronts today.

Along the Yangtze river about Hukow they succeeded in laying new mines to harry Japanese in a newly planned offensive toward Hankow, the provisional capital of China.

A defensive boom was strengthened across the Yangtze, between Wuzsch and Tienkaicheng, 30 miles above the Kiukiang which is the next objective of that offensive.

Along the Yellow river, where disastrous floods halted a Japanese push toward Hankow in June, Chinese asserted they had inflicted 700 casualties and forced Japanese to retreat between Yuanku and Puchang, in southern Shansi province after three days of fighting.

Along the coast, northeast of Nanking in Kiangsu province, Chinese said they had captured the towns of Fowning, 90 miles south of Hangchow, and Yencheng, 130 miles south. Japanese were reported to have retreated to Tunglai, reversing their offensive to establish a stronger grip on the province.

The Japanese, meanwhile, continued to lay the groundwork for the new effort to reach Hankow—by way of Kiukiang northward up the Yangtze, and in a roundabout maneuver southward from Captured Hukow across Lake Poyang, to Nanchang, Chinese air base, whence they would turn back north and west by land toward the China capital.

6000 DAYS OF PROMPTNESS

DALLAS, (AP)—It would take one person, going to school every day, 36 years to pile up the attendance record of the four sons of H. R. Sisaw, of Mesquite. The quartet has been neither tardy nor absent for a total of 6,000 school days. Bob, 17, just graduated from high school, never missed a day, never was tardy. The other three, Steve, 15; Bill, 13, and Dan, 12, have the same clear records.

To many men in 28 counties, says Daniel W. Lay, regional game manager here for the state game, fish and oyster commission, fur was a more valuable natural resource than oil or lumber.

South Presents No. 1 Economic Problem In U.S., Says President

WASHINGTON, July 6 (AP)—A committee of Southerners approved today a 17-point diagnosis of the South's economic ills as a step toward solving what President Roosevelt has termed the nation's "No. 1 economic problem."

The analysis of conditions in 14 states had been prepared by government experts for the National Emergency Council. The Dixie delegation of 23 businessmen and educators went over it in detail yesterday.

Lowell C. Mellett, NEC director, who arranged the conference at Mr. Roosevelt's suggestion, joined the delegates in explaining that the survey did not contain recommendations. Corrective measures, he added, could be suggested at another time.

The analysis included soil and water resources, ownership of industries, and wage and hour standards. The delegates did not refer specifically, however, to the new wage-hour law.

Mellett said the survey would be submitted to the President for transmission to Congress.

Mr. Roosevelt said in a message of greeting to the conference:

"It is my conviction that the South presents right now the nation's No. 1 economic problem—the nation's problem, not merely the South's. For we have an economic imbalance in the nation as a whole, due to this very condition in the south. It is an imbalance that can and must be righted, for the sake of the South and of the nation."

Points In Survey Chairman John D. M. Hamilton of the Republican National committee, commenting on the President's message, said today he "sincerely hoped that Mr. Roosevelt's concern over the South is not dictated by Partisan political motives."

Details of the 17-point analysis approved by the Southerners will not be made public for about 10 days. However, the survey said generally that:

1. No other similar area in the world gambles on a single crop as the South does on cotton. Southern farmers receive less than one-third of the total farm income, although they constitute one-half of the total rural population.

2. Agriculture is unable to provide an adequate income for the South's workers. Expansion of industry there has been inadequate to absorb workers who have moved from farm to cities.

3. Widespread unemployment is not a depression phenomenon in the South. Absentee ownership of industry and land has added to this problem.

4. The South has a greater excess of population than any other sector. Excess of births is 10 per thousand, compared with a national average of seven per thousand.

5. The South is wealthy in natural resources and advantages, but is poor in ownership and control of these assets.

6. Southern states are compelled to educate one-sixth of the nation's children on one-sixth of the nation's educational expenditure.

The old-time calomel was the doctor's favorite remedy for Biliousness or so-called "Torpid Liver," so prevalent in hot weather, but it had some serious drawbacks from the standpoint of the patient. TWO KILLED AND FOUR BURNED IN TEXAS FIRE

GEORGE WEST, Texas, July 6 (AP)—Four badly burned survivors of an explosion and fire which caused two deaths and destroyed a cafe and residence here fought for life in a clinic at Three Rivers today.

Their number included Jimmie Davis, San Antonio truck driver, whose wife hooked up a hose to refill a fuel gas tank in the rear of Ray's cafe when the blast occurred and flames spread with a roar.

Another was Mrs. J. M. Morris of San Antonio, whose six-year-old daughter, Patsy Jean, died of burns. Also dead was John Lytle, negro cook, who was standing near the tank.

In critical condition were Mr. and Mrs. Voss Yates of San Diego, Texas, like the Morris family, customers in the cafe. J. M. Morris, husband and father, was slightly burned.

Seven others, including four employees of the cafe, were less seriously hurt.
