EVANS' COMMANDER SAYS: Misinterpreted Radio Message Led To Crash

SUBIC BAY, Philippines (UPI)—The man in charge of the USS Frank E. Evans at the time of its collision with the Australian carrier Melbourne told investigators his side of the story for the first time today. It indicated his misinterpretation of a radio message led to the crash.

The testimony from Lt. (j.g.) Ronald C. Ramsey, 24, of Long Beach, Calif., was in the form of three unsworn statements made shortly after the collision June 3. They were read into the record of a six-man U.S.-Australian board investigating the crash which killed 74 U.S. sailors.

Ramsey had refused to testify before the board for constitutional reasons after he and another officer, Lt. (j.g.) James A. Hopson, 28, of Kansas City, Kan., were told they were suspected of negligently hazarding their vessel.

The panel previously had said it would not take unsworn statements but today changed its mind. No explanation was given.

In the testimony, Ramsey made these points:

—He believed the carrier was changing its course from 230 degrees to 160 degrees—a sweeping left turn—after ordering the Evans to change its position to 1,000 yards astern of the carrier.

—As the two ships moved on a collision course and began closing in on each other at 38 knots, Ramsey realized the carrier actually had not changed its course. He then ordered a hard right turn, which he believed would have

DOWN TO EARTH—Hebert Bals of Bridgeport, Conn., made an unscheduled landing Tuesday at St. Vincent's Catholic Church, 2300 N. Hobart in his glider. Bals was on his way to Perryton when lack of wind drifts forced him down.

Perryton Bound Glider Makes Unexpected Landing In Pampa

By RON-CROSS
Talk about someone dropping in unexpectedly.

Anyone driving north on U.S. 70 near St. Vincent's Catholic Church Tuesday evening probably thought they were seeing things.

The fellow hitting golf balls on the vacant lot north of the church thought he had really skied one.

Anybody looking out of the church windows would have taken off the other way.

It isn't every day a plane lands inside the Pampa city limits and it's the first time a full-fledged glider has set down in Pampa.

That's what happened yesterday when German born Hebert Bals had to stop 70 miles short of his goal.

Bals, a mechanical engineer from Bridgeport, Conn., was trying to earn a gold bar by flying his long-winged glider from Odessa to Perryton, a distance of about 230 miles.

But several things happened and Bals decided the vacant lot next to the church looked like a pretty good place to land.

It was and he made it in perfectly, stopping about 15 yards short of the church.

"The air currents weren't right and besides, it was getting late in the day," said Bals, who landed shortly before 7 p.m.

"I could have gone a bit farther, about 10 more miles or so, but I just have had to land in the country," he said.

Bals, who works for an aircraft engineering firm, AVCO-Lycoming Co., allowed as how he didn't think it too wise to land out in open country, saying, "There's no telling how long I'd have been out there."

Bals belongs to an association made up of people who like to glide.

Anyone who glides 176 miles gets a silver bar, 326 miles means a gold bar and anything over will get you a gold bar with three diamonds.

Bals was trying for the gold bar but was satisfied to settle for the silver.

"Texas is one of the best states there is for gliding," said Bals, who also flies power driven planes.

Bals took off from Odessa, where the International Gliding Contest was held last year, about 7:20 p.m. Tuesday and had no trouble until he got close to Pampa.

The German native K6CR glider will sail along at 75-80 mph and will go as high as 9,000 feet, although he prefers to remain lower.

If you think Bals is going to take off from here in his glider, think again.

"We'll be taking it back in a trailer sometime late Wednesday," Bals said as he began taking off the wings of the glider.

Seven Syrian Jets Are Shot Down In Battle

By United Press International
Israel today claimed its biggest Middle East victory since the June, 1967, war in an aerial dogfight with Syrian jets Tuesday. Informed political sources in Damascus said the incident could persuade the Soviet Union to provide more warplanes to Syria.

A senior Israeli general staff officer in Tel Aviv said the air battle "will make the Arabs think twice before launching anything big."

Israel said its jet fighters shot down seven Syrian MIG21 jets in a 30-minute dogfight over the Israeli-held Golan Heights in occupied Syria.

Syria said its Soviet-built MIGs shot down four Israeli planes and that Israeli planes downed three Syrian MIGs.

Israeli officials said it brought to 27 and 11 respectively the number of Egyptian and Syrian planes Israel has destroyed since the 1967 war.

In Damascus, informed political sources said the aerial battle over the Golan Heights probably would strengthen the hand of Syrian Defense Minister Hafez al-Assad and President Nureddin al-Assad in their talks with Soviet leaders in Moscow.

Political sources in Damascus denied speculation among political observers in Beirut that Syria provoked the air battle to try to persuade the Soviets they need more jets.

In other action Tuesday, Israel said its forces threw back an Egyptian attempt to cross the Suez Canal and killed nine Egyptians and nine Arab guerrillas in two separate battles in the Jordan Valley.

Egyptian gunners fired on an Israeli navy patrol in Israeli-controlled waters in the Suez Canal, wounding an Israeli sailor.

Union Against Rate Increase For Insurance

AUSTIN (UPI) — Two state representatives and the president of the Texas AFL-CIO told the State Insurance Board Tuesday if insurance companies included all their investment profits when considering rates, there would be no need for a rate increase.

Durwood Manford, a board member, however, called the testimony "political propaganda" and said it "borders on the ridiculous."

"I really think that if we put investment income in the rate making, it would have a tendency to raise rates rather than lower them," Manford said.

Insurance premium rates in Texas are decided on the basis of what is a reasonable rate of return to the company and what is a reasonable cost to the policyholder.

H. S. Brown, AFL-CIO chief, said insurance companies reported a $273 million loss in 1967 but made $1.7 billion in investments from money paid as insurance premiums.

"If the board will fulfill this obligation, it will find that no increase in those rates can be justified," Brown said. "All the income of the company, no matter what form it takes, must be considered in order to reach a fair result."

State Reps. John R. Bigham, D-Temple, and R. C. Nichols, D-Houston, joined Brown in asking for the inclusion of all profits.

Nichols, who estimated insurance companies earned about $400 million in 1968 from premium investments alone, said if the board does not consider this income, "I can assure you that you will earn the continuing wrath and contempt of the people in this state."

Man Arrested After Robbery Of Pharr Bank

PHARR, Tex. (UPI) — A man with a paper sack over his head and a revolver in his hand was waiting for Frank Norris, vice president of the Securities State Bank, when Norris arrived Tuesday to open the bank.

Once inside, the bandit, who looked out through two small slits in the sack, told Norris to open the vault. Then he decided to wait until the bank's three tellers arrived so he could clean all the cash drawers.

"At first he got a little greedy and wanted everything," Norris said.

The three entered the bank and after taking the money from the drawers he tied two of them with wire. One of the tellers, Maisie Robie, said her bonds were too tight and when the holdup man went to loosen them for her, his weapon discharged, striking Mrs. Robie in the wrist.

"He got very upset when that happened. He wanted out then," said Norris.

The holdup man took the third teller, Lynette Moore, 20, locked her in the trunk of his getaway car and fled.

Bob Worley, a merchant who owns a store near the bank, followed. Worley followed the car until it ran out of gas and the robber fled on foot. Worley then freed Miss Moore.

Within an hour after it started, police arrested Juan Garcia Mireles, 22, of Pharr and charged him with the robbery. Mireles was shaving his beard at the home of his brother-in-law when he was arrested.

Metropolitan Opera Star Dies In Italian Home

FLORENCE, Italy (UPI) — Mezzosoprano Gladys Swarthout, whose good looks made her one of the Metropolitan Opera's most glamorous stars, died Tuesday at her villa here. She was 64.

Miss Swarthout was best known for her portrayal of Carmen but she also appeared in five movies during the 1930s, sang on radio shows, and between operas, gave many concerts.

She was born Dec. 25, 1904 in Deepwater, Mo., and joined her church choir at 13. After graduating from high school, she enrolled at the Bush Conservatory of Music in Chicago where she studied for three years.

The Chicago Civic Opera Company hired her in 1924 and she went to the Met in 1929, making her debut as La Ciccia in La Gioconda.

Miss Swarthout retired from the Met in 1945 but went on singing until a heart ailment forced her to stop. A delicate operation, performed in 1957, enabled her to resume singing.

She was married to Frank Chapman, a former Met singer,

School Board To Consider Bids For 'Phase One'

Pampa School Board will consider bids for two new elementary school cafeterias and a Pampa High School athletic building during its regular July meeting at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in Pampa Junior High School.

The projects at Mann and Wilson Elementary Schools and PHS are part of the school district's $900,000 Phase I improvement program which voters approved in April.

Projects in Phase I which are underway this summer are parking lots at Pampa Junior High School and Austin Elementary School, and interior remodeling of Carver Educational Services Center.

"If the architect completes his plans, we will take bids before school starts on four PHS projects, band and music hall, girls' gymnasium, science wing and a library. But if he doesn't, the next projects for bids would be the gymnasium and band-choral music hall," Supt. Dr. James F. Malone said.

Other major construction included in the 43 projects for Phase I are a vocational technical wing and renovation of the PHS auditorium, he said.

The project architect is Herbert Brasher of Brasher, Govette and Rapier, Lubbock.

Trustees will also consider personnel changes, discuss milk and gasoline bids for 1969-70, set a date for the official budget hearing, approve 1968 tax roll adjustments and out-of-district transfers.

Dr. Malone will report to trustees on merits of a constant fee charge for all Pampa schools, discuss his report on summer school and his annual report to the board on status of Pampa Independent School District.

City Schedules 3-Day Review Of Budget Requests

A three-day conference of city department heads to review budget requests for fiscal 1969-70 will start Monday at City Hall.

City Manager Charles Hill said today he will begin the budget review sessions at 10:15 a.m. Monday. That day's session will run through 3 p.m.

Monday reviews will concern proposed budgets of the mayor and city commission, city manager, personnel, tax department, Lovett Memorial Library and Corporation Court.

On Tuesday, budgets for fire, police, public works, street, sanitation, parks and recreation departments will be considered.

Wednesday's review discussion is scheduled on budgets for shop, warehouse, maintenance, health, engineering, public utilities, water production, water distribution and sewage collection and treatment.

The Tuesday and Wednesday sessions start at 10 a.m. and run through 4:30 p.m.

All department heads submitted 1969-70 fiscal year budget requests before the July 1 deadline, the city manager stated.

Results of next week's budget study will be reviewed by the mayor and city commission Monday, Aug. 4.

The city manager said he expects to file the budget with the city secretary Friday, Aug. 22.

Four days later on Tuesday, Aug. 26, the proposed budget will be formally submitted to the city commission. On that date the commission is expected to set Sept. 9 for a public hearing on the budget.

Ordinances establishing the total budget figure and the city tax rate will be introduced for first reading at the Sept. 9 council meeting.

Final reading of the two ordinances is scheduled at the regular commission meeting Tuesday, Sept. 23.

The budget calendar calls for filing the approved budget with the Gray County clerk's office and the state comptroller's office on Oct. 1, beginning of the new fiscal year.

United Fund Sets Goal At $87,200

Pampa's 1969 United Fund Campaign goal has been set at $87,200. The figure is $3000 higher than last year's budget.

Theme of the campaign is "Shoot the Moon."

The announcement was made at a preliminary session of participating agency representatives Tuesday at First National Bank. Clarence Peden, of Houston who will be director of the campaign this year for the second time, acted as adviser.

Jerald Sims, campaign chairman, announced these agency allotments, each figure representing an increase over 1968:

Boy Scouts — $23,650; Girl Scouts — $16,100; Red Cross — $16,200; Salvation Army — $20,400; Milk Fund — $1500; Welfare Index — $550; USO — $800; U.F. Administration — $6850.

Sims described the goal as "realistic" and attainable.

Three agencies cooperating last year have been self eliminated. These are Mental Health, United Community Fund and Cerebral Palsy.

Mergers with other organizations were noted as the cause.

The date of the campaign's official start is yet to be decided, but some tentative

Texan Testifies At His Murder Trial

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (UPI) — Speaking in a voice so low he was asked twice to speak louder, the short, wiry Texan gave his version Tuesday of the events that led to the shooting of two hitchhiking teen-agers.

Richard C. Welch, 26, of San Antonio, Tex., told a California court of how he gave the two teen-agers a ride and how they became scared the pair would "harm me or my wife."

The "next thing I knew he was shot," Welch said at the climax of Tuesday's testimony.

Welch is charged with the Sept. 25 murder of Randy Jenkins, 17, Salt Lake City, and the wounding of his female companion Diane Bradford, 18, of Campbell, Calif.

The slaying occurred in the desert near Mojave, Calif. Welch was apprehended by FBI agents in Del Rio, Tex.

Upon taking the witness stand, the defendant spoke so softly he was twice told to speak louder—first by Judge P. R. Morton and then by defense attorney James Keon.

Welch related he and his wife Anita, 17, picked up Jenkins and Miss Bradford in Bakersfield. The two victims were hitchhiking.

Welch said because of car trouble he stopped at least three times, while the hitchhikers were in the car, once just outside Bakersfield, once just before the mountains and a third time near Tehachapi where the incident occurred.

Of the first two times they stopped Welch testified he heard

NAB Recommends Cigarette Ads Be Taken Off TV

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Fearing almost certain strict governmental regulation of cigarette advertising, the National Association of Broadcasters' Television Code Review Board has voluntarily recommended all cigarette ads be eliminated from television by Sept. 1, 1973.

NAB's Radio Code Review Board was expected to follow suit in some fashion today.

The board also recommended prohibiting cigarette commercials in or adjacent to any program primarily directed to youth audiences. And it recommended a subcommittee study guidelines "to further reduce the unique appeal of certain aspects of television cigarette advertising to youth."

The recommendations must be acted upon by NAB's television board of directors before they can go into effect.

Specialists Win The War On Weeds

By SHEILA and ALLAN SWENSON
NEA Garden Specialists
Give a weed an inch and it will literally take a yard. One crabgrass plant can produce as many as 200,000 seeds a season. One dandelion produces a mere 200 seeds, but look at the lawns almost solid with yellow blossoms and you see what that pest can do.
One plantain plant produces over 35,000 seeds a season. Even if only half sprout and reseed next year, you could have 300 million seeds threatening your lawn and garden by the third year.
Luckily, applied science and power give us tools to conquer weeds. One of the greatest developments in weed control was the development of 2,4-D. It's a highly effective herbicide, developed to control broadleaf weeds. From this chemical, scientists developed variations such as 2, 4,5-TP and others. These are selective materials. They do not harm valuable grasses, but they do kill broad-leaved weeds. Chickweed, plantain, dandelion, knowweed, poison ivy, dog fennel, curly dock and many others yield to these materials.

Spray is easiest and fastest. A small tank-type sprayer is best. Spray when air is calm to avoid drift damage to roses and other broad-leaved flowers and shrubs.
Mix a tank every time you mow. As you walk along, simply squirt every weed on your right-hand side. A few mowings later most weeds will be gone. You get best results when weeds are young or growing fast, spring, early summer and fall.

Crabgrass is hated by more gardeners than you can count. But again the scientists found help. Seed lies dormant over winter and germinates in warm spring weather, about when purple lilac blooms. Dacthal is one of the newest and best chemicals to stop crabgrass cold. It's now contained in most crabgrass control materials. This newer material actually prevents crabgrass seed from germinating, so no crabgrass rises to ruin your lawn.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: This is a rather delicate subject. I imagine there are many other married couples who have the same problem, so I hope you'll answer soon.

We live in a small house and the bedrooms are next to each other. We have an eight year old daughter who has started to wake up in the middle of the night and come into our bedroom unexpectedly. She says she feels fine, and there is nothing wrong, but she wakes up and comes into our room to say "hello."

We have told her that she must stay in her bed, but that hasn't done much good.

We want our privacy, Abby, and can't be listening half the night to know whether she is asleep or not, and we don't know how to handle this. If we suddenly put a lock on our bedroom door, she might feel "shut out" or rejected, and this is the last thing we want to do. Can you help us?

NO PRIVACY
DEAR NO: Put a lock on your door, and explain that it is to prevent her (or anyone else) from walking in and startling you. (It's true.) Assure her that you "love" her, and if she "needs" you for anything, she may knock and you will respond.

DEAR ABBY: Some friends of ours have a daughter whose engagement had been announced. Elaborate plans were being made for a big wedding. Well, out of the blue, she ran off and eloped, so of course the big wedding is off. Now we get one of those "ANNOUNCEMENTS" letting us know that she had been married! (They didn't need to send those things, it was the talk of town!)

My question: Do you think we are obligated to send a wedding gift?

JUST ASKING
DEAR JUST: For the umpteenth time, a "gift" is not given in repayment for anything. If it will afford you pleasure to give a gift along with your best wishes, do so. Otherwise, don't.

DEAR ABBY: This is for "Too Much Ironing," who complained about having to iron her husband's undershorts:

Dear Madam: You really have high-class problems. I wonder if you know how lucky you are? I would gladly iron 7, 10, or 20 pair of shorts every week if my husband would leave my panties alone.

When I first found out that my husband was snitching my panties to wear under his shorts I was bewildered and sick. How long he had been doing this I didn't know, but I'm sure it must have been most of the 11 years we had been married because when I look back, a lot of things make sense now that didn't some time ago. My first reaction was to pack my bags and leave him, but there were three good reasons why I stayed. They are three adorable children who deserve a father and mother, and as long as God gives me strength I'll keep my home together, until our children are on their own.

I am not a martyr nor do I enjoy being married to one I consider less than a man. Love and respect for him have flown out the window, and my marriage has become a "job" and nothing more.

So, to "Too Much Ironing," I say, "Keep that iron hot, lady, and don't complain."

"OLD AT 35"
DEAR OLD: Since this problem is so close to you, I am amazed that you have not made an honest effort to learn more about it instead of flatly condemning that which you do not understand.

A man who secretly wears feminine attire is a "transvestite." And though it may seem unbelievable to you, a transvestite is NOT necessarily a homosexual. So when you describe your husband as something "less than a man" you may be doing him a disservice.

DEAR ABBY: To "HAD IT IN HOUSTON," who doesn't like to drop in on a friend and be expected to "entertain" the nutt by throwing a ball, which the nutt retrieves:

Can you think of a better way to get rid of uninvited guests who make a habit of dropping in without calling first? Actually if you just TOLD that nutt that you didn't care to play, I'm sure he'd understand and take the hint, which shows that some dogs have more sense than some people.

Mixture For Cleaning Knotty Pine Paneling

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Ruth T. can clean her knotty pine paneling with the following mixture: One quart warm water, one tablespoon turpentine and one tablespoon olive oil. Mix in a jar and shake contents well. Soak a clean cloth in this, wring out and rub paneling briskly until clean. This will also clean old oil and wax from furniture and leave a waxlike finish. If I do not use all the mixture, I cap the jar, label it and store it in a safe place until needed.

—NELLIE

DEAR GIRLS — The recipe I have is the same as Nellie's except that it calls for three tablespoons linseed oil instead of the olive oil. Do a small area at a time and dry.

When there is old wax to be removed, use liquid wax to dissolve it. If a higher polish is desired after cleaning, make it as follows: 1/2-cup turpentine, one tablespoon vinegar and one cup boiled linseed oil (purchased as such). Mix together.

—POLLY

Polly's Problem
DEAR POLLY — Do you know the process used to create a simulated oil painting from an ordinary magazine picture? I have read of such a method that has something to do with varnish and cheesecloth. Would appreciate knowing the exact procedure.

Innovations Brighten Appliance Markets

New innovations are lighting the appliance market, according to Miss Jimmie Lou Wainscott, Gray County home demonstration agent, who reports blenders, irons, alarm clocks and even pots and pans have taken an air of sophistication.

Pots and pans now come in strong colors: bright red, yellow, orange, deep blue, green, chocolate, avocado and paisley pattern. One company will supply cookware with a monogram baked on. Plastic dishes come in mix-and-match sets with contrasting designs or reversed colors.

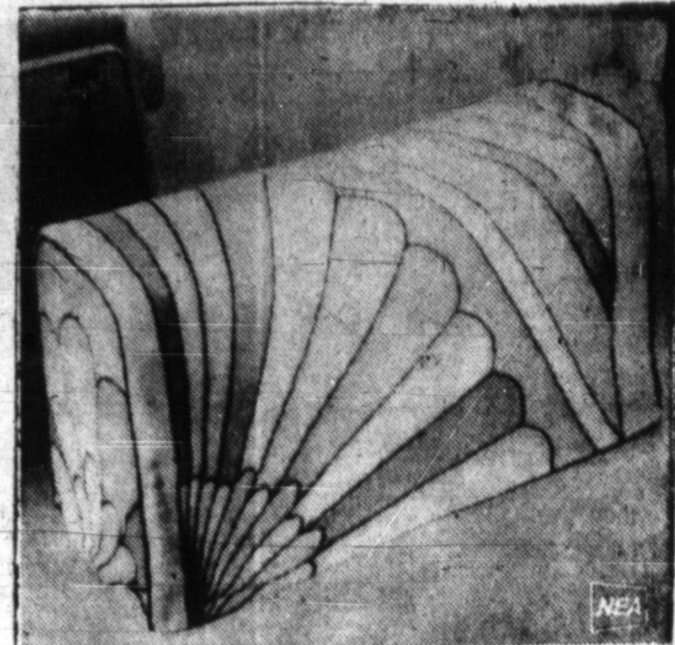

"One blender comes with 16 push-button speeds. Simpler ones are priced low to attract customers, but the top models remain expensive," she said.

"Coffee pots have new styles. One make promises the perfect cup of drip coffee because of a special water flow system that is said to allow the brew to steep just the right length of time," reports Miss Wainscott.

"Irons are slimmed down and donned handy features. One has a special heel rest to prevent it from tipping. Another takes its own temperature and displays it on the top. It's scorch proof!

"There's a battery-powered bathroom-scale that features a raised black screen on which over-sized numbers light up to show your weight. Many others come in different styles, including the latest butterfly shape.

"A 'his and hers' electric alarm clock with two faces and alarms lets him get up early and her sleep on until the second alarm. A lamp-clock-radio is new that wakes you in stages: first the light and radio, then the alarm, she suggested.

Give your sewing machine a well-earned spring cleaning and top-it off with a gay spring bonnet made from a Pucci-patterned dust. A cover such as this protects the machine from dust and adds a decorative note to the sewing area.

Wow! Those Wonderful Mets

By United Press International
 It was the biggest game in their history, the great confrontation, and for eight innings the New York Mets rolled over and played dead for Ferguson Jenkins and the Chicago Cubs.

Then in one brief flurry it was over and the Mets, the National League's miracle team this season, had beaten the Eastern Division leading Cubs, 4-3, Tuesday with a three-run ninth-inning burst. The victory cut the Cubs' lead to four games, the closest the Mets have ever been to first place in their eight-year history.

And the architect of the victory was Ed Kranepool, the

Pampan Still Second In Bronc Riding

DENVER (UPI) — The tight race for the all-around rodeo cowboy championship grew even tighter as a result of rodeo competition over the July 4th holiday period, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said Monday.

Two Oregon cowboys— Doug Brown 23, of Silverton, and Larry Mahan, 25, of Brooks—are only $374 apart. The all-around title is based on earnings in two or more rodeo events.

Mahan, who is after his fourth straight title, has won $23,434 to $23,060 for Brown, who only $5,000 behind in the standings. Brown also leads the bull riding category with $15,949 in prize money.

Biggest money-winner over the weekend was Bob Ragsdale of Chowchilla, Calif., who garnered $2,008 in calf roping and steer wrestling at St. Paul, Ore., and Cody, Wyo.

Dean Oliver, 39, of Boise, Idaho, enroute to a record eighth world crown in calf roping, snared $1,359 at the same two rodeos and at Livingston, Mont., to push his earnings in that category to $16,842.

Other current event leaders include Bob Berger, Halstead, Kan., saddle bronc riding, $10,695; Gary Tucker, Carlsbad, N. M., bareback bronc riding, $12,484; Roy Duvall, Boynton, Okla., steer wrestling, $17,620, and Tiny Bradford, Tucson, Ariz., team roping, $5,145.

The standings:
 All-around — 1. Mahan, 2. Brown, 3. Oliver $17,804, 4. Berger $17,096, 5. Ronny Sewall, Chico, Tex., $16,539.
 Saddle broncs—1. Berger, 2. Mahan $10,306, 3. Bill Smith, Cody, Wyo., $9,890.
 Bareback broncs—1. Tucker, 2. Jim Ivory, Pampa, Tex., $10,273, 3. Royce Smith, Iona, Idaho, $9,819, 4. Clyde Vamvoras, Burk Burnett, Tex., $8,837.
 Bull riding—1. Brown, 2. Da $8,850, 3. Gary Lefew, Santa Vid Glover, Clarksville, Tex.,

Opening-Game Win
 Jim Hunter's eight-hitter provided Oakland with its opening game win over Chicago. Sal Bando drove in one run and scored the other on Dick Green's sacrifice fly. Tommy McCraw brought the White Sox a split with a bases-loaded triple in the sixth of the nightcap. Joe Horlen picked up his sixth win with a seven-hitter. Jim Nash lost his sixth game in 10 decisions.

Pampa Plays Palo Duro After Loss To Bulldogs

By RON CROSS
 Borger got all the help it needed from Pampa, here Tuesday night and with the help of seven Rebel errors went on to score a 17-5 American Legion baseball victory.

Only eight of the Borger runs were earned, although the Bulldogs pounced on three Pampa pitchers for 13 hits.

Pampa, now 4-7 in Legion District play, has an 8 p.m.

game this evening against Palo Duro in Amarillo.

Tonight's game is a makeup of a contest rained out earlier in the season and the Rebels may have one more contest, a makeup game with Wheeler.

Al Gomez started on the mound for Pampa and lasted just two innings, giving up six runs, only two of which were earned, on four hits. Larry Kotara worked until one was out in the sixth and Ricky

Harris worked until two were out in the ninth and Cliff Gage finished up. Kotara gave up six runs on four hits, two earned runs and Harris was touched for five hits and five runs, all the runs coming in the ninth.

Right-hander Larry Huffine went the distance for Borger and allowed Pampa eight hits while striking out 15 Rebel batters.

Steve Scott and John Jenkins paced Pampa batters with two hits each and Jenkins upped his RBI lead with a two run double in the ninth.

Borger tallied twice in the first inning, added four more in the second, two in the third and singletons in the fourth and fifth innings. The winners scored twice more in the sixth, without benefit of a hit and added five runs in the ninth.

Pampa scored three times in the third.

Larry Kotara walked, went to second on a single by Gomez and Pampa loaded the bases on Holman's bunt single. Kotara and Gomez both scored on a ground ball by Tommy Hawkins and an error.

The Rebels final two runs came home in the ninth when Hawkins doubled and scored on Scott's double and Jenkins single-pled Scott.

Pampa threatened in the sixth and seventh innings.

In the sixth Scotty King led off with a double and Larry Kotara walked. But Kotara was picked off first and Huffine struckout the next two batters.

With one out in the seventh Hawkins walked, went to second on a single by Scott but Jenkins forced Hawkins at third and Lindsey forced Jenkins at second.

Huffine struckout the side in the eighth, between a pair of walks and fanned three batters in the ninth.

Babe Ruth Team Wins Title

CANYON — The Pampa Babe Ruth 13-year-old All-Stars became Panhandle area champions Tuesday night with a double victory in tournament play here.

The All-Stars drubbed Olton, 10-6 in the first game, then came back to top host Canyon, 10-4 in the nightcap.

The All-Stars beat Spearman, 14-2. Monday night to hit the semifinals.

Friday night the Babe Ruth players host Borger's 14-year-old Pony League stars Sunday in a 2 p.m. contest.

Moody British Favorite

LYTHAM, ST. ANNES, ENGLAND (UPI)—They say Orville Moody doesn't believe in too much practice but he's certainly put in plenty for the British Open golf championship which begins today.

The husky 35-year old former Army sergeant who shocked the golf world by winning the U.S. Open just a year after his discharge, played Lytham's 6,848-yard, par-71 course for nearly a week and "worked real hard."

The results, said the curly-haired golfer from Chickasha, Okla., have pleased him, and he felt confident of becoming the first American to succeed at his first attempt since the late Tony Lema won at St. Andrew in 1964.

"This is my first visit to Britain but I've found I like it. The strong winds have been bothering a lot of the boys; but I don't worry about it. In fact, give me lots of wind and I'll be happy."

SPORTS

The Pampa Daily News

West, a half game ahead of the Braves.

Alex Johnson and Tommy Helms drove in two runs each as the Reds beat the Padres. Tony Cloninger pitched a five-hitter for Cincinnati and singled to ignite a four-run outburst in the fourth inning.

John Stephenson singled home the tie-breaking run as the Giants rallied for five runs in the eighth to stun the Astros. Bob Burda, Ken Hershner and Dave Marshall singled to tie the game and Stephenson drove in the fourth run of the inning with his first hit as a Giant.

Roberto Clemente, Richie Hebner and Freddie Patek drove in two runs each and Steve Blass pitched a three-hitter as the Pirates belted the Expos. Clemente hit his 11th homer and had three hits, as did Patek.

Vada Pinson and Joe Torre singled in runs in the first inning and Phil Gagliano hit his first homer of the season in the second as the Cardinals scored five runs in the first two innings en route to their victory over the Phils.

Bob Gibson scattered eight hits in recording his 11th victory against six losses.

Highlights and Sidelights From the State Capitol

Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex.—Now it's official: The special 30-day legislative session to draft a biennial budget and a $300 million tax bill will start July 28.

Gov. Preston Smith has issued the call and put lawmakers on notice to report back to work on the final Monday in this month.

As expected, Smith worded his session - summoning proclamation so as to try to prevent the legislators from giving him another one-year appropriations bill like that he vetoed on June 21.

However, the Governor told newsmen that if Texans approve a Constitutional Amendment on August 5 calling for annual legislative sessions he might relax his directive to permit a single-year spending pattern. Actually, Smith sees no chance of the amendment being approved. What he expects is that voters will strengthen his demand for biennial budgeting by firmly rejecting annual sessions—as they have done before.

Governor Smith will permit lawmakers to consider subjects in the 30-day session only after they have completed their mandatory duties of financing the government for a two-year fiscal period extending until August 31, 1971.

Apparently Smith will hold no pre-session conferences on a taxation with House Speaker Gus Mutscher and Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes since Barnes is now in Tokyo, Japan.

However, Mutscher plans to hold a series of appropriations committee meetings on the budget before July 28 and also endeavor to arrive at a negotiated understanding with the Senate on the perimeters of spending.

"The real key to the success of the session," commented Mutscher, "is how much work we put in before it actually opens." He has already conferred with his tax and appropriations committee chairmen and most of the individual House members.

The speaker wants the House Committee to complete both appropriations and tax bill hearings during the first week of the session and send the measures to the Senate by the end of the second week.

Smith indicates that he will spell out his tax program on the opening day of the session. He has been swapping revenue ideas with staff members but still isn't offering any hints as to his final decision on the type of tax or taxes he will propose.

COURTS SPEAK—An historic federal court decision prohibiting a cut in welfare payments to mothers with dependent children also prevents the State Welfare Department from receiving federal funds unless a new plan for aid to families with dependent children is worked out.

So, the Welfare Department is boxed in. A constitutional restriction limits welfare payments to $60 million a year. At the same time, court rulings continue to make more families eligible for AFDC. This problem will be relieved only if voters approve a Constitutional amendment on August 5 to increase the welfare fund to $80 million. If this amendment fails, an emergency condition will exist which may bring federal action to invalidate the constitutional restriction altogether.

Liquor Control Board has no authority to prevent managers of private locker clubs from buying liquor for club members. So held the Third Court of Civil Appeals in affirming a trial court decision.

Even a "basically illegal" and "fundamentally erroneous" school district assessment procedure does not restrict a district from collecting taxes, says the same court in a Beaumont school case. Twenty-eight taxpayers, alleging that assessments ignored market values, sought an injunction to prevent collections on 1968 tax rolls.

Texas Supreme Court refused to reverse two lower courts' decisions and ruled against 80 Sanger ISD taxpayers in their suit to keep the district from raising taxes by more than doubling assessed valuation of property.

Port of Beaumont Navigation

District lost a $6,300 damages judgment awarded by a local jury when the Texas Supreme Court upheld a court of Civil Appeals reversal. Suit was against the AT&SF Railroad for an accident in the port's facilities. High court held that A T & S F employees were working for the navigation district when the accident happened.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED—Governor Smith named Rep. R. G. (Randy) Pendleton of Andrews to head the governor's Washington office on state-federal relations. Then he called a special election for July 22 in the 73rd district (Andrews, Dawson, Gaines, Lynn, Martin and Yoakum counties) to pick Pendleton's House successor.

Nine members of Texas Tech University board of regents were appointed by Governor Smith. They are: Marshall Forby of Plainview, Roy Furr of Lubbock, Waggoner Carr of Austin, Charles D. Mathews of Dallas, Judson F. Williams of El Paso, R. Trent Campbell of Houston, Frank J. Jannell of San Angelo and James J. Ling of Dallas.

Smith also named nine to the State Manpower Advisory Committee and designated Thomas M. Maes II of Beaumont chairman. Other members include James D. Abrams of El Paso, Gerald R. Brown of Austin, Fred Dillard Coy of San Antonio, Jose L. Gonzales of Laredo, Marion A. Graham of Houston, Harold D. Levy of Fort Worth, Odus Rhodes of Nacogdoches and Mrs. Mae Simmons, Lubbock.

Dr. Billy M. Jones of San Angelo will become president of Southwestern Texas State University at San Marcos on September 1. Dr. Frank Harrison, who has been acting president of the University of Texas at Arlington was made president effective July 1.

Former House Speaker Jim Lindsey of Texarkana has been named chairman of the Real Estate Developers group, a subdivision of the Governor's Committee of 500.

REPUBLICANS REORGANIZE—First complete change in the state Republican guard in seven years has just been approved by the GOP executive committee.

William M. (Bill) Steger, Tyler attorney, was elected state party chairman in a close race with Millard K. Neptune of Austin. Mrs. Malcolm Milburn of Austin was designated vice chairman. She won over Mrs. John-Adunjar of Fort Worth, Peter O'Donnell Jr. of Dallas, who has served as chairman since 1962, moved into a national GOP committee post in Washington this year, and pledged his efforts to improve communications with all elements of party.

DRUG CLAIM PROCEDURE VOID—Texans with claims against five major drug companies involved in a state anti-trust suit were advised by Atty. Gen. Martin to file their claims by August 16.

Under Federal court order, consumers must file a verified statement certified to by a local pharmacist showing their total expenditure for 1954-66 for Aureomycin, Terramycin and tetracyclin products, the name of the product and where purchased.
