Longview Miss Reigns As New 'Miss Texas'

FORT WORTH (UPI)—Sixty-two lovely Texas misses had to take the advice of the new reigning state queen: "If your best isn't good enough, you just have to accept that."
And all the young women in the Miss Texas Pageant, representing the best of all young women in the state, Saturday night, retired gracefully from the spotlight while the dark haired beauty from Longview stepped up to receive the title's crown.
The new Miss Texas is Dana Dowell, an 18-year-old dark-haired beauty who was a preliminary winner in swimsuit competition.
She is 5 feet, 6 inches tall and measures 36-23-36.
She said her selection as the 1969 queen was unexpected. "I couldn't be more surprised, really," she said after the televised crowning by outgoing queen, Glenda Gindy Propp of Henderson.

She said Sunday her first full day as Miss Texas, the title is "very exciting and I know it's going to be a great year."
Dana, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Dowell, will represent Texas in the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, N. J., in September.
"I hope to bring back the Miss America title for Texas. This is my plan."
The determined young lady is a trap-drum soloist, who performed her talent dressed in a shimmering red sequined jacket and briefs. She has been a drummer since the seventh grade, choosing the instrument because "the drum is the heart beat of the band."
She said she planned to work between now and September perfecting her talent presentation, because that was what worried her most about competing in the Miss America Pageant.
"I want to improve upon it greatly—perfect it more and be more at ease with it."
Miss Dowell, who resides in White Oak but was sponsored by the Longview Jaycees, said she entered the local pageant because "it is the first step in being Miss America."
"Back stage right after her selection, she said:
"Miss America has always been my ideal girl. But she is not perfect. Perfection takes away from individuality and individuality is a necessity for Miss America."
The opportunity to represent Texas in the pageant "is great," she said. "It's what I've worked for all year."

Retirement Plan Approved For County Emloyees

By RON CROSS
Gray County employees received an early Christmas present from county commissioners today with the adoption of a county retirement plan.
The plan, taken from the Texas Employees Retirement Plan, will become effective Aug. 1, of this year.
Five per cent of an employee wage will be put into the retirement plan and the county will match this figure.
Highland General Hospital employees also are covered in the plan, although the hospital will match the five per cent and not the county.
Gray County Judge Sherman Lenning, Jr., made the motion to adopt the plan and commissioner Joe Clark seconded it. Commissioners Hershel Wilks, Truitt Johnson and Jimmy McCracken voted for the plan.
A county employee is eligible to retire when he reaches age 60 and has 12 years' service with the county. A county employee who meets the requirements and was not off work from the county for more than five years also is eligible.
Commissioners turned down the proposal on June 12 saying they wanted more time to study the matter and look into other retirement plans.
Judge Lenning and Deputy Court Clerk Wanda Carter made a trip to Austin two weeks ago to talk with the consulting firm of Rudd and Wisdom. The firm had been studying the plan for the county.
Lenning and Mrs. Carter told commissioners from what they had discovered on their trip, the plan was apparently the best available for Gray County.

Price To Sound Out Sentiment On Major Issues

Every family in the 18th Congressional District soon will receive in the mail a two-page questionnaire from Panhandle Congressman Bob Price. Price announced today he is sending a questionnaire to every home in the district in an effort to determine public sentiment on a number of major issues facing the 91st Congress.
"It is most important and helpful to me to know what members of my constituency are thinking on issues from space to farm problems and the way to settle the war in Vietnam," Congressman Price said.
"We get mail on all these subjects, of course, which I read to keep in close touch with public sentiment in the district. At the same time, however, many people are often too busy to write."
"We have tried to design the questionnaire to make it as easy as possible to mark and return. No envelope will be needed, only a six-cent stamp. I'm hoping for the largest possible response so that I can obtain the most representative sampling possible," Price stated.
Included are questions on the ABM system, inflation, taxes, crime control, electoral college reform, postal reform, the draft, as well as questions relating to agriculture and space which Congressman Price has a special interest in as a member of both the House Agriculture Committee and the House Committee on Science and Astronautics.
"As soon as they are received, we will begin tabulating the results and will make them available to the (See PRICE, Page 2)

Escaped Prisoners Apprehended In Louisiana By Local Resident

NATCHITOCHE, La. (UPI)—Leo Martin turned the tables on three desperate escaped prisoners and held them at bay with a submachine gun Sunday until officers arrived at his isolated home.
One of the prisoners was wounded slightly in the hip by Martin and taken to a Natchitoches hospital. The other two were held in Natchitoches Parish (county) Jail.
Luther Pettie, 29; Jerry Robert Williams, 23, and James M. Sumner, 29, escaped from the Longview, Tex., County Jail by overpowering a guard and then dashed across East Texas into the cotton fields and piney woods of Louisiana. At different times they held 13 persons as hostages.
They broke out of jail by overpowering Jailer J. M. Neely and then escaped in a police car, taking Neely and Gregg County Sheriff's Deputy William Brown with them. Brown was held as a hostage most of the day.
They drove east at high speed and shot it out with Harrison County deputies in a gun battle near Marshall, Tex., 23 miles from Longview. A deputy was wounded.
The three crossed the Louisiana-Texas border and police followed them into the home of Herbert Desoto near Mansfield, 47 miles southeast of Marshall. They held Desoto's wife and three children as hostages.
They talked to law officers outside the home who finally agreed to give the trio a three-hour head start if they released the hostages unharmed. The men fled the house, taking Brown with them.
They went to Derry, La., over 100 miles southeast of Mansfield, and broke into the home of Jack Sterns. While there, they talked by telephone with Louisiana Gov. John J. McKeithen (See PRISONERS, Page 2)

ABM Backers Acknowledge Pentagon Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate backers of President Nixon's antimissile proposal have acknowledged that the Pentagon does not plan to set out any of the missiles for another year.
But they remain opposed to any legislative attempt to directly forbid the Defense Department from a deployment during that time period.
The deployment question has been at the heart of the debate in the Senate, where discussions on the issue went into their second week today.
But the contention that deployment is really no issue came out last Friday in a little-noticed exchange on the Senate floor between Sens. John G. Tower, R-Tex., and Barty M. Goldwater, R-Ariz.
The two senators said the Defense Department has no intention of installing computers, radar or the actual missiles for the Safeguard antiballistic missile (ABM) system between now and next July 1 at the initial proposed sites in Montana and North Dakota.
The Pentagon has asked for $759.1 million for ABM spending in the fiscal year which began July 1. That request has provided the platform for the ABM debate. Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., have offered an amendment which would prohibit any of the $759.1 million from being used for Safeguard deployment.

Vietnamese Girls Give Leathernecks Medals

SAIGON (UPI)—A Marine battalion that weathered the greatest North Vietnamese shelling of the war left for Okinawa today, its 1,300 men wearing yellow and red victory medallions around their necks.
The 1st Battalion, 9th Marine Regiment — one of the first Leatherneck units to arrive in Vietnam, on June 16, 1965—was the first full Marine unit to leave under President Nixon's withdrawal plan.
In its 1,490 days and 15 campaigns in Vietnam, the battalion defended Con Thien and Khe Sanh when the North Vietnamese unleashed their heaviest shelling of the war against the two northern bases. Leatherneck losses were costly. A band played and South Vietnamese girls waved goodbye as the men boarded the USS Paul Revere in Da Nang for the two-day voyage to Okinawa. A total of 8,000 Marines—the entire 9th Regiment—will be pulled out of Vietnam by September.
In Saigon, the U.S. Military Command reported another day of light combat. A top officer within the command said the Viet Cong planned to seize Tay Ninh City northwest of Saigon as the seat of their new government.
Vietnamese girls hung victory medallions around the Marines' necks—yellow and red for South Vietnam's national colors. The government commander of the northern provinces, Lt. Gen. Hông Xuan Lam, told the departing troops:
"We will never forget the 1st Battalion of the 9th Marine Regiment. I assure you that all your blood and sacrifice in this land has been your most valuable contribution to the spirit of democracy."
Headquarters in Saigon said Viet Cong and North Vietnamese gunners shelled 20 towns and Allied bases overnight, with four of the barrages causing casualties or damage. Six Americans were wounded.
The U.S. officer who reported the threat to Tay Ninh City, 55 miles northwest of Saigon, said the Viet Cong planned an offensive along the Cambodian border beginning no later than July 20.
He said the purpose was to seize Tay Ninh City and declare it the capital of the provisional revolutionary government, which the guerrillas have named to replace their National Liberation Front.
Waves of B52 bombers went after the Communist troops threatening Tay Ninh City overnight, military spokesmen said. The guerrillas invaded the city. South Vietnam's fourth largest last month but were thrown out.

Retrial Begins In Houston For Tom R. Vessels

HOUSTON—The retrial of convicted Pampa rapist, Tom R. Vessels, was delayed until 10:30 a.m. today.
United Press International in Houston reported the delay in the case but did not know the reason.
It is believed the delay was caused by late arriving subpoenas in Pampa Sunday. Assistant Police Chief George Wallace and Gray County Deputy Sheriff D. L. Day received their call to court only Sunday.
Vessels, who was convicted of the rape of a Pampa housewife in 1968, and sentenced to death in the electric chair, won a new trial from the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.
The court ruled evidence was suppressed when Vessels' attorney, Warren Burnett of Odessa, made his plea.
The ex-convict spent two years in the state penitentiary (See RETRIAL, Page 2)

Ireland Has Outbreak Of Violence

BELFAST (UPI)—Prime Minister James Chichester-Clark cut short a vacation in Britain and returned to Belfast today in an effort to end Northern Ireland's worst outbreak of violence this summer. More than 40 persons were injured by daylight and another 40 were arrested.
Daylight brought relative calm to Londonderry and Dungiven, the scenes of arson and street fighting, but armed police carrying metal shields kept both towns under tight control.
In Londonderry, 21 policemen and 18 civilians were injured during the fighting, when hundreds looted shops and battled police for the third time in 48 hours. Policemen trapped in an alley fired shots into the air to disperse the crowd.
In Dungiven, 15 miles west of Londonderry, rioters hurled a gasoline bomb into a hall where several policemen were trapped. Reinforcements, stoned by the crowd when they arrived, rescued the policemen. Two other persons were injured in Dungiven from gunfire.
It was the first serious violence in Northern Ireland since Chichester-Clark became prime minister almost three months ago with promises to right the conditions that triggered a series of civil rights demonstrations beginning last October.
Civil rights leaders condemned the renewed street violence. "This has nothing to do with civil rights," said Eamonn McCann, an outspoken activist. "The primeval instincts have come to the surface. It is a religious war."
The hoodliganism was condemned by the Londonderry Citizen's Action Committee, the city's civil rights organization.

Workers Fired, Prepare Appeal

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (UPI)—Sanitation workers in Corpus Christi, fired last week when they walked off their jobs, planned today to appeal their dismissals to the Civil Service Commission.
The 140 workers left their jobs Thursday because they were not covered by Civil Service regulations. No sooner was the walkout announced than the city fired all the workers.
William Bonilla, president of the Congress of United Mexican-Americans, said the workers planned to make their appeals to the Civil Service Commission in response to letters from the city notifying the workers of their dismissal.
Bonilla said the commission must give the men a hearing. "The walkout, the dismissal and the appeals coincided with the annual convention of the Texas AFL-CIO, beginning later this week in Corpus Christi."
The workers also planned to march from the city's sanitation yard to City Hall Wednesday. They scheduled their march so it would end just before the start of the 2 p.m. City Council meeting.
Since the walkout, only four trucks and 20 men collected the city's garbage.

36 Men Charged For Illegal Entry Into The U.S.

FORT WORTH (UPI)—Police Sunday arrested 36 men and held them all for investigation of illegal entry into the United States.
The bulk of the arrests were made at a motel.
An official of the U.S. Immigration Service in Dallas said the number of arrests was unusually high. He said about 10 arrests of that type were made in the Fort Worth area each week.
Two motorcycle police arrested 26 of the suspected aliens Sunday afternoon at a motel. Patrolman J. H. Mitchell said he and another police officer noticed three men in front of the motel exchanging money.

Pre-trial Begins For Clyde Durbin

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Pre-trial hearings begin today for Clyde Durbin Jr., the 22-year-old former University of Texas student accused of murdering two UT students last January.
Judge Tom Blackwell is slated to hear preliminary motions in the 147th District Court in Travis County where Durbin is charged with the murder of John Albert White, a 21-year-old Corpus Christi youth.
The actual trial will begin July 28.
Dist. Atty. Robert O. Smith has predicted a speedy trial and said he expects a verdict within two to three weeks.
Durbin is slated to go on trial Sept. 29 in Burnet County on charges of murdering Keitha Morris, a 19-year-old UT coed from White Deer.
Miss Morris and White went on a picnic with another couple Jan. 8.
The other couple left first and White and Miss Morris never returned.
Two youths found White beaten and shot at the popular picnic spot just north of Austin where the couples had spent the afternoon.
The nude body of the coed was discovered floating in Inks Lake in Burnet County the next day. She had been strangled and her neck broken before she was thrown in the lake to drown.
Durbin, son of a Dallas manufacturing firm president, was charged with the double murder eight days later.
The prosecuting attorney has indicated he will ask for the death penalty.

By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our marriage is about to break up over a silly matter like my son's hair!

This is the second marriage for both of us. We are both 40, each has three children, and have been very happily married for four years.

My son (I'll call him John) is 21. He's a responsible boy, holds down a good job, and has never given us any trouble. He lives at home and pays room and board. (He's not eligible for service because of a knee injury.)

John wears his hair in the new "mod" style, longish sideburns, and quite full. I can't say I'm crazy about it, but I find that as long as he's a good citizen, and keeps it clean, he can wear his hair the way he wants to.

My husband and I are at war over this. He says if John doesn't cut his hair we are finished. He can't kick John out of the house because it's my house, but he can leave me, which he is now threatening to do. Imagine! He says, "It's either John or me."

Abby, I love my husband. This is our first serious conflict. He respects your opinion. Can you help me?

DISBURBED IN MASS. DEAR DISTURBED: Your husband strikes me as being childish, unrealistic, and narrow-minded. Since he "respects" my opinion, please tell him for me that I have a 21-year-old son whose hair style is also "mod," but he is a good citizen, and I feel that as long as he keeps it clean and well-groomed, he has earned the right to wear his hair any way he wants to, regardless of my preference.

DEAR ABBY: Maybe I'm too sentimental, overly sensitive, or just plain petty, but I have to get this off my chest!

For all the years before my daughter was married, on Mother's Day, she'd remember me with a lovely card to which she'd add a sweet personal message. Now that she's married, she still sends me Mother's Day cards, but they are always "To Grandma, from Little Tom, Dick, or Harry."

Now Abby, I adore my grandchildren, but I am not their mother! Although my daughter buys, signs, and sends those "Cards to Grandma," they are not an adequate substitute for a Mother's Day card from her. It would mean so much if she would scribble a little message, saying, "Mom, I love you. Have a nice day..." or something like that.

I hope you publish my letter because my daughter never misses your column. There, I feel better already. Thanks, Abby.

HURT DEAR HURT: Mission accomplished.

DEAR ABBY: In a recent column, someone quoted SOCRATES, pointing out that criticism of the young by the elders is nothing new. In your reply you gave your readers the impression that Greece went to the dogs immediately following the death of Socrates, and didn't recover until Melina Mercouri made "Never On Sunday" and Jackie Kennedy married Onassis.

May I point out that the great works of Sophocles, Euripides, and Thucydides came AFTER Socrates? And later still the Greeks produced such scholars as Plato and Aristotle. Melina Mercouri is loved for her patriotic devotion to a free Greece, but Mr. Onassis, with or without Jackie, is hardly the greatest thing that happened to Greece since the original Aristotle.

Sincerely Yours,

FOR TUESDAY, JULY 15, 1969

Your birthday Tuesday: Make careful notes, a diary, as the coming year flies by so swiftly you may not be able to keep all the essential details. Weekend Sports Summary

By United Press International INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI)—Figonero, a four-year-old Argentine colt, won the $162,500 Hollywood Gold Cup Saturday by beating the odds-on favorite, Nodouble, by a length. His time was 1:58 4-5, one fifth of a second off the track and Gold Cup records held by Swaps and Round Table.

LYTHAM ST. ANN'S, England (UPI)—Tony Jacklin of Britain tied a 72 Saturday to win the British Open golf championship with a total of 280, two strokes ahead of Bob Charles of New Zealand.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Unbeaten Dave McNally of Baltimore and Detroit's Denny McLain and Mickey Lolich headed the list of eight pitchers named to the American League All-Star team. The others were Mel Stottlemyre, New York; Ray Culp, Boston; John "Blue Moon" Odom, Oakland; Sam McDowell, Cleveland, and Darold Knowles, Washington.

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (UPI)—Co-drivers Joe Siffert of Switzerland and Brian Redman of England led Porsches into a 1-2-3 sweep of the six-hour Watkins Glen endurance championship for manufacturers Saturday.

American League Roundup

McNally Continues To Be Unbeatable Hurler

Despite the rules committee's attempt to make a molehill out of the mound, and despite the bats of Reggie Jackson and Frank Howard, Baltimore's Dave McNally continues to live in the Era of the Pitcher.

McNally, aided by Merv Rettenmund's two-run, sixth-inning double and the relief of Dave Leonard and Eddie Watt, won his 13th game without a loss Sunday as the Orioles defeated Boston, 6-3.

McNally needs just three victories to tie the American League record for consecutive wins in one season held by Walter Johnson, Joe Wood, Lefty Grove and Schoolboy Rowe.

In other American League games, Minnesota swept two from Seattle, 5-2 and 5-4, Chicago salvaged a split by downing Kansas City, 4-1, after the Royals won the opener, 8-4, Detroit stomped Cleveland, 6-1, but lost the nightcap to the Indians, 9-4, Washington defeated New York twice, 5-4 and 10-1, and Oakland split with California as the A's won the nightcap, 7-5, after the Angels won the first game, 8-5.

Charley Manuel drove in three runs with a double and single to provide Minnesota with the nightcap victory after reserve Frank Quilici drove in two runs with a homer and a single and Jim Kaat scattered nine hits in the first game. Two-run homers by Jackie Hernandez and Bob Oliver powered Kansas City in its opener against Chicago, but White Sox reliever Wilbur Wood stopped the Royals in the nightcap by pitching four perfect innings. Jim Price drove in three runs and Tom Tresh cracked a two-run homer in Detroit's first-game win, then Cleveland rebounded with the help of homers by Ken Harrelson, his fourth in the last five games, and Luis Tiant.

SPORTS

Jackson and Howard continued their home run Derby as Jackson smashed No. 35 for Oakland and Howard hit No. 34 for Washington. Jackson is now one game ahead of Roger Maris and 21 games ahead of Babe Ruth in their record home-run year paces, while Howard is five games ahead of Ruth but nine behind Maris.

Maris can bet his asterisk that his record of 61 homers in 1961 is in danger, but it may be McNally who reaches the record books first.

The completion of a business deal and the harnessing of his defiant spirit were the only factors today delaying Joe Namath's return to pro football—a return expected within the next 48 hours.

Head Coach Weeb Ewbank, following a telephone conversation with Namath late in the Sunday afternoon, explained his star's absence by saying Namath had "a business deal to finalize" and might be ready to report by Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

NOTICE Closed for Vacation July 20 Thru Aug. 2 Easter

By United Press International Ernie Banks, often a star in his long career, and two more unlikely heroes—Ed Kranepool and Ron Swoboda—have set up a dramatic prelude to All-Star week.

Banks drove in four runs in the second game as the Chicago Cubs swept the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-0 and 6-4 Sunday. Kranepool and Swoboda had the deciding hits as the New York Mets kept pace with the Eastern Division-leading Cubs with 4-3 and 9-7 victories over the Montreal Expos.

The sweeps left the Cubs 4½ games ahead of the surprising Mets, with the teams scheduled to open a three-game series today.

Elsewhere, St. Louis won, 4-2, after losing to Pittsburgh, 3-0, Houston outslugged Cincinnati, 9-6, San Diego nipped Atlanta,

1-0, and San Francisco shaded Los Angeles, 3-2. Kranepool's decisive hit came after he twice failed to execute a sacrifice. Tommie Agee drove in four runs for the Mets in the second game with a pair of homers.

Tim McCarver's sacrifice fly in the eighth inning boosted the Cardinals to victory after Roberto Clemente's three-run homer decided the first game. Vada Pinson singled and took third on Joe Torre's single before McCarver's run-scoring fly.

Clemente's 13th homer in the eighth inning broke a pitching duel between the Pirates' Jim Bunning and Bob Gibson of the Cardinals. The home run came after singles by Matty Alou and Willie Stargell.

Doig Rader singled in the tie-breaking run and Julio Gotay followed with a two-run double as the Astros rallied for seven runs in the seventh inning to beat the Reds.

Joe Niekro, with four outstanding defensive plays by leftfielder Larry Stahl, outdueling brother Phil as the Padres nipped the Braves. Joe allowed six hits and received all the support he needed in the fourth when Ivan Murrell singled home Nate Colbert with the game's only run.

Bobby Bonds homered and singled to drive in two runs as the Giants beat the Dodgers. Tito Fuentes singled, advanced on an infield out and scored on Bonds' first-inning single and Bonds added the eventual winning run in the eighth with his 17th homer.

Mauri Wills a Manny Mota homered for the Dodger runs.

UMP'S LITTLE HELPER — As teammate Art Shamsky slides into home plate, New York Mets' J. C. Martin (9) gives Umpire El Sudol a little help with the call. Martin was right — Sudol called Shamsky safe—then went up to bat himself.

Meredith Ended Up As Good Friend With Dallas Coach

DALLAS (UPI)—Unlike so many professional football players who announced their retirement only to play once again, Don Meredith of the Dallas Cowboys does not think about wearing No. 17 again or calling plays from under center.

"I got to know him more and more over these four years. It's not something you can do quickly," Morton said. Meredith said he tried to telephone Morton before he announced his retirement "But old Curly here is hard to find out there on the coast."

"I was getting prepared to compete against him for the first time and I'm kind of disappointed in a way," Morton said. The University of California product entering his fifth season with the Cowboys said he was told "all the time" his position on the team was as Meredith's understudy. This year, however, he was told he was going to compete with Meredith for the job as quarterback.

"I can't tell you how happy I am that the retirement happened and to be able to say: 'Hey! I'm not going to be able to play anymore,'" Meredith said Sunday.

This happiness may be a new emotion for "Dandy" Don, who admitted Sunday his relations with head coach Tom Landry, the press and the fans were not always the best.

The relationship between the quarterback and his coach "rapidly deteriorated" until they became "very poor" in the early 1960s—a time when the Cowboys were an expansion team and went downhill from there.

But Landry has linked the rise of the Cowboys with the maturity of Meredith. And Don said the feelings between the two men improved as the team did.

Capillculteur Helps Hair To Live Longer And Look Better

Clements Barber Shop, 310 S. Cuyler, is equipped to handle any hair or scalp need from a hair cut to capillculteur, a 30-year-old European hair treatment that could prevent at least 80 per cent of all baldness.

One of Bob Clements' most popular services is hair styling, which is becoming more popular every day. Few things will help a man's ego as much as a hair style.

It makes his hair easier to manage and easier to look at, and it is good for both the scalp and the hair. At Clements', hair styling includes a shampoo and a professional sculptor cut.

Capillculteur is one of the newer aspects of Clements' professional hair treatment.

The 30-year-old practice, which has been slow getting to the United States, was developed in Europe by a company that tried to grow hair on bald heads.

When these glands begin to secrete too much of this lubricant (called sebum), the opening (follicle) for the hair gets more crowded and the hair gets thinner. Finally the hair stops growing completely and the nerves and blood vessels which feed it die.

Capillculteur is a no-guesswork process for cleaning the scalp.

First, Clements will put biosebum on the customer's scalp to clean out the excess sebum. Then he massages the scalp to work the biosebum in and break up dandruff, which is caused by the alkaline properties of sebum.

Next, he dries the hair to further drive in the biosebum and to aid circulation through the scalp area.

A high-protein shampoo follows adding protein to the hair shaft to strengthen it and give it body.

When the customer leaves he feels much better about the condition of his hair and his scalp.

feels better than it has since he was a boy.

The treatment does not stop there. Clements sells a full line of chemically correct hair products to keep hair clean and healthy between visits to the shop.

He can also analyze the condition of anyone's hair on the capilloscope, which magnifies the hair from 200 to 1000 times.

If you want to be sure about the condition of your hair, if you want it styled or just neatly cut, call Bob Clements for an appointment at his new number, 665-1231.
