World Watches With Delight

By United Press International
The world reacted with delight, wonder, praise and prayers today to the U.S. Apollo 11 departure for the moon. A few said they regretted the monumental cost of the lunar voyage in a world still plagued by hunger and disease.

From Buenos Aires to Bangkok and Moscow to Montreal, people sat by radios and television to follow Apollo. Communist China's 700 million people were not told about it.

"It makes Columbus' voyage look like small stuff," said Madrid cab driver Jose Maria Martinez. "Estupendo!" shouted a Spanish television commentator as the Saturn rocket lifted the astronauts.

Never before had Soviet newspapers and radio and television reported an American space mission so promptly. The reaction of Soviet people was praise mixed with some regret that the United States would be

American Command Says Fewer GIs Die In Vietnam

ROOF FOR HEALTH CLUB ADDITION—Workmen for Pam-Tex are putting the finishing touches on the roof for the new health club addition to the Pampa Youth and Community Center. The new addition, which is located on the east side of the present building, will include a modern, well-equipped health club and two regulation handball courts.

Drop In U.S. Deaths Attributed To Lull

SAIGON (UPI) — American headquarters today reported 148 GIs killed in Vietnam last week, the fewest since the first week of the year when a cease-fire was in effect.

The drop in U.S. deaths was attributed directly to the lull in Viet Cong and North Vietnamese attacks, now in its fourth week. Another 1,612 Americans were wounded.

Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, got his investigation of the lull under way today for President Nixon, trying to determine if the withdrawal of more U.S. troops was feasible.

U.S. headquarters reported 750 more GIs would be sent home Friday—all of them U.S. 9th Division troops whose base camp was shelled overnight. No one was killed.

The command's weekly casualty report said the 148 GIs killed was the fewest since 101 died the first full week of the year, partially covered by a standdown for New Year's.

Viet Cong and North Vietnamese losses were put at 2,051 dead, also lowest since the first week of 1969, while South Vietnamese losses were 352 killed and 1,088 wounded—an increase of 105 dead and 502

House Group To Begin Panhandle Tour Tomorrow

Some 50 persons comprising members of the House Agriculture Committee, national and state agriculture and conservation officials will be guests at a reception in the Starlight Room of Coronado Inn here tomorrow night.

Jim Campbell, in charge of arrangements, said today all plans had been finalized for the Pampa visit of the delegation which will arrive in Amarillo tonight and early tomorrow morning to begin a tour of the Texas Panhandle.

Stops tomorrow will be made southwest of Amarillo, Tulia, Dimmitt, Hereford, Pritchard and Plainview.

From Plainview the group will fly into Pampa arriving about 8 p.m. at Perry Lefors Airport. The Starlight Room reception is scheduled for 8:30 p.m.

Following the reception a dinner will be held for members of the tour party only in the Pampa Club.

Campbell said the official host for the reception and dinner will be the Pampa Chamber of Commerce.

He said everything will be on the informal side with no speeches scheduled.

Among top officials coming along with approximately 15 members of the House Agriculture Committee will be Clarence Palmy, assistant secretary of agriculture; W. R. Foage, chairman of the House agriculture committee; Kenneth Frick, national administrator of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service; James Smith, administrator of (See HOUSE, Page 2)

Senate Finance Committee Has Secret Session

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Finance Committee meets in secret session today to explore possible compromise between those who want higher taxes to fight inflation and those who want fairer taxes and their price for voting for higher taxes.

But such a compromise appeared most unlikely—if for no other reason than one man's fairer tax is another man's higher tax bill.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., summoned his committee into closed session and invited his opponents—Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Asst. Leader Edward M. Kennedy and the other members of the Democratic Policy Committee—to come along and discuss it all men of good will.

Workers Have March, Protest Dismissal

CORPUS CHRISTI (UPI) — With a fiery sun sending temperatures over 100 degrees, 250 garbage workers marched a mile and a half through the streets of Corpus Christi Wednesday to the City Hall in a mass protest against their recent dismissal.

Meanwhile, some 500 delegates to the Texas AFL-CIO convention staged a block-long march in support of the sanitation workers and met the workers at City Hall.

When the two groups converged, Hank Brown, president of the state labor organization, told the rally Corpus Christi was "a lousy anti-labor town."

Inside the City Hall, an apparently unperturbed City Council refused to change its stand on the sanitation workers dispute. The council said if anyone had a grievance they could have their name placed on the agenda to speak before a future council session.

Five Jurists Are Picked In Trial

HOUSTON (UPI) — Jury selection neared the halfway mark Wednesday in the retrial of Tom R. Vessels with five jurists chosen to reconsider his conviction for the rape of a Pampa housewife.

Court was to resume at 9 a.m. today.

Four jurors were picked by defense and prosecution attorneys Tuesday just before that day's session ended.

Monster Not Damaged By Submarine

LONDON (UPI) — The House of Lords was assured Wednesday that a midget American submarine would not "damage or assault" the Loch Ness monster.

Lord Milman said he wanted to be sure anyone operating a submarine in the loch "would not subject any creatures that might inhabit it to damage or assault."

He asked if the submarine's plan to take a tissue sample with a retrievable dart from any monster it finds "can be done without danger and disturbance."

—He was told it was impossible to say if the 1876 Cruelty to Animals Act would be violated "unless and until" the monster was found.

First Step On The Moon Will Bring Dreams True

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Apollo 11 astronauts Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. "Buzz" Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins, half-way on their epic journey to the moon, raced smoothly today toward the footsteps that will shake the universe next Monday.

Russia's mysterious unmanned Luna 15 went into lunar orbit and started maneuvers that Soviet scientific sources said were aimed at beating the Americans back to earth with a scoop full of lunar soil.

Armstrong, Aldrin and Collins awoke shortly after 8 a.m. EDT and ran through systems checks with ground control. They were plagued once again with noisy radio communications that more than once halted their conversations with ground controllers.

After the spectacular launch from Cape Kennedy Wednesday on the moon-landing trip, the U.S. astronauts had a quiet day today coasting through space at speeds as high as 3,600 miles per hour.

They had a brief rocket firing on their schedule to make sure their course was correct, and a television transmission at 7:30 p.m. EDT from 151,000 miles above earth.

The Luna 15, "moonscraper," meanwhile, reached the moon and dropped into orbit around it today. Russian scientific sources said the spacecraft will circle the moon for about 24 hours and then try to land, scoop up some moon soil and bring it back.

If it does not stay long on the moon, the Russian craft could get back to earth as much as two days before Armstrong, Aldrin and Collins splash down in the Pacific July 24.

The Soviet news agency TASS, in the first official announcement on the orbiting of the Luna spacecraft, called it "the moon's new artificial satellite" but did not elaborate.

Ground communicator Bruce McCandless at the Houston Space Center told the astronauts about Luna 15's progress today in his morning "news broadcast." He also reported to the astronauts on the worldwide reaction to their own flight.

At 9 a.m., Armstrong, Aldrin and Collins were 114,304 miles from earth.

Their launch atop a 36-story Saturn rocket was so accurate that they skipped a scheduled course adjustment Wednesday night, giving them an extra two hours of rest.

Their tasks completed, they began their rest about 9 p.m. EDT after a bedtime snack. Collins was asleep 30 minutes or an hour before Armstrong and Aldrin—the men who are scheduled to land the Eagle lunar module on the southwest edge of the Sea of Tranquility Sunday.

They are the ones who will (See MOON, Page 2)

South Americans Quit Fighting

By United Press International
Honduras and El Salvador agreed to a cease-fire in their three-day-old war Wednesday night and bargained with Organization of American States (OAS) mediators into this morning on how to settle the conflict permanently.

There was no immediate word from the battlefield on whether the advance by El Salvador troops into Honduras indeed had stopped. One invasion spearhead had been reported pushing across southern Honduras.

OAS peace teams in both war capitals relayed the results of their efforts back and forth by radio. Separate talks at OAS headquarters in Washington focused on the plight of Salvadorans living in Honduras—one of the causes of the war.

V. C. Reject Saigon's Offer Of Settlement

PARIS (UPI) — The Viet Cong delegation to the Paris peace talks today categorically rejected the Saigon offer to settle the Vietnam War through jointly controlled and internationally supervised elections.

Mme. Nguyen Thi Binh, the foreign minister of the Viet Cong's Provisional Revolutionary Government, told delegates at the 26th meeting of the conference:

"Loyal to the supreme interests of the nation and the country, the delegation of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Vietnam categorically exposes and rejects the so-called 'solution for free elections' as a treachery of the U.S. and the Saigon administration."

Before the formal rejection, South Vietnam chief negotiator Pham Dang Lam and U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge had urged the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese

No Shortage Of Water In Sight; Peak Hit Tuesday

Pampa's prolonged hot spell during the past two weeks has not overtaxed the city's water well supply.

B. M. Wofford, public utilities director, said today the heaviest demand so far this summer came on Tuesday of this week when 7,149,000 gallons were pumped.

Capacity of Pampa's 14 water wells is 11,000,000 gallons per day. Slightly more than 6,800,000 gallons of water were pumped yesterday.

Wofford said the heaviest water consumption last year came on July 18 when 8,167,000 gallons were pumped.

The all-time record since 1950 was on July 9, 1966, with 8,294,000 gallons.

"Pampa is in no immediate danger of a water shortage," Wofford said, "as long as there is no serious breakdown of pumping equipment."

Russia's Luna 15 Now Orbiting Around Moon

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russia's Luna 15 "moonscraper" spaceship went into orbit around the moon today, but scientific sources said the vehicle would not attempt an immediate landing in Russia's race to recover moon soil before the Apollo astronauts do.

Sir Bernard Lovell, director of Britain's Jodrell Bank Observatory, said the initial orbit was two hours and "we assess that the Russians are checking the guidance techniques prior to a possible landing."

Russian scientific sources said the spacecraft will circle the moon for about 24 hours

ATTACKS ZONING
HOUSTON (UPI)—An attorney for the Houston Independent School District has attacked a federal court's zoning recommendation which would permit students to go only to schools within their zones, as a means of speeding up desegregation in the Houston schools. Joe Reynolds said Wednesday zoning would be more restrictive than the free-choice method currently employed by the school district.

The Police Blotter

Anyone walking in the 700 block of N. Nelson at night had better be careful. You could get shot.

A group of armed and mad neighbors toured the neighborhood Wednesday night after a woman took a shot at a prowler. The woman had called the Gray County Sheriff's office Tuesday night to report prowlers and when the man showed up again last night the woman took matters into her own hands.

Pampa police officers T. J. Hill and Fred Brown and Deputy Jimmy Shelton investigated but the prowler, spured on by the buckshot, apparently made his getaway.

Pampa police officer Jim Woods solved two cases Wednesday night. Woods, Brown and Lt. Jess Goad answered a call at 1901 Fir about 2 a.m. where Cecil M. Olsen told them he had seen two youths set fire to some waste on his porch.

About 30 minutes later Woods was patrolling the street with his lights out and noticed a youth in a pickup at the David Holt residence, 1601 Fir.

As the officer approached the pickup the youth broke and ran. Woods caught him running down a creek.

The youth, 15, and another 15-year-old were brought to police headquarters where they admitted the incident at the Olsen residence.

According to the report the boys then admitted causing an explosion July 9 at Stephen F. Austin school where a drain pipe was heavily damaged. The boys were released to their parents.

Three young boys were talked with and released by police after a man reported they had damaged his river buggy and broke into a tool shed.

James E. Johnson reported $150 damage to the buggy and shed. Two Pampa men told police they were trying to park their car at the Chapparel Lounge No. 1 on Brown St. last night and had asked another man to move his car.

According to the police report the two men were attacked and one hit in the face with a beer bottle. No arrests were made.

Three young girls decided to

Review Of Budget Requests Ended By City Manager

A four-day conference with city department heads reviewing budget requests for fiscal 1969-70 was concluded today by City Manager Charles Hill.

Today's session was with Tax Collector Aubrey Jones and his deputy, Bill Wagener. The city manager has been going over budget proposals of various city departments since Monday.

Results of the budget study will be reviewed by the mayor and city commission Monday, Aug. 4.

The tentative schedule calls for the budget to be formally presented to the commission Tuesday, Aug. 26 when the governing body is expected to set Sept. 9 for a public hearing.

Ordinances establishing the total budget figure and the city tax rate will be introduced for first reading at the Sept. 9 council meeting.

Final reading of the two ordinances is scheduled at the regular commission meeting Tuesday, Sept. 23.

The budget calendar calls for filing the approved budget with the Gray County clerk's office and the state comptroller's office on Oct. 1, beginning of the new fiscal year.

Blacks Are Gaining And Taking Pride In Their New Heritage

By FREDERICK H. TREESH
United Press International
Black is now beautiful—that is, blacks are gaining new perceptions of themselves and are taking pride in their heritage.

They are, in the words of Prof. Dan W. Dodson, "willing to make public affirmation to this identity, even at the expense of disruption." And disruption becomes very threatening to the existing power order.

Nowhere is this more relevant than in schools, which have passed through a year of intense disruption and unrest.

White some would counsel retaliation, Dodson, a professor of education at New York University and a trained sociologist, urges his fellow educators to use this black militancy constructively.

"Educators will have missed the point of history if they see these manifestations of growing effort to sage off apathy and acquire power as merely disruption—as sand in the gears of the bureaucracy," Dodson said at a school superintendents' conference on student unrest at Columbia Teachers College last week. "They must understand that the alternative to this kind of upthrust is continued apathy."

He said, quite correctly, that the educational establishment had "demonstrated ignobly that it cannot deal with apathy"—that the plight of Negro children in practically every school system with any number of them stands as testimony to that.

"We might learn to live with militancy, and use it to an educational advantage," Dodson said. "In fact, there is some indication that this militancy has produced some educational stimulation."

In White Plains, N.Y., for example, some virtually non-reading blacks carried copies of Frantz Fanon's "The Wretched of the Earth" and some were reading the report of the U.S. Commission on Civil Disorders.

Dodson said that to understand the problem, it is necessary to comprehend the meaning of power. Because this is social order, there is inherent power at the disposal of those who have status—the white society that dominates the schools—even when the majority of children are black.

"In normal relationships between the powerful and the powerless, the youth of the powerless respond to their lack of potency in one of two ways. The first is to resign in apathy," he said.

The other reaction, Dodson said, is what might be called "siphoning off"—the establishment gets the bright ones of the powerless, gets them to participate, gets them to believe that all will be rewarded according to their initiative and ability, and makes them ashamed of their heritage.

School leadership, Dodson says, must make reconciliation with the black community and include it in decision-making if present disruptiveness is to be coped with.

And if that means living with militancy — and using it, so be it.

Ohio Town Hit By Mad Violence

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (UPI)—Young blacks, protesting alleged mistreatment of a Negro customer by the white owner of a dairy store, touched off a night of racial violence in this Ohio steelmaking town.

The youths ran through the city's East Side lighting fires and smashing store windows, police said. A drug store was set ablaze and a car was overturned and burned. Some looting was reported.

As firemen arrived to douse the blazes, they were hit by a barrage of rocks and bottles. One fireman was hospitalized with minor injuries.

At least 10 persons, including several of the youths, were treated for minor cuts and bruises at local hospitals.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—No "real market strength" is visible to the Alexander Hamilton Institute until interest rates level off and stabilize. The analyst suggests that investors limit new commitments to blue chips, adding that speculative issues in the current market are "only for the stout-hearted."

The last time the Federal Reserve brought about "a super kredit crunch," in 1966, the Dow Jones industrial average tumbled more than 200 points with the result that around Labor Day in that year means were taken to provide "easier money," Walston & Co. observes. For the succeeding 12 months "a new bull market erupted." The company feels that the same sort of pattern should emerge this time when "today's super-tight money starts doing too much damage."

The Dines Letter suggests that investors with "continuing increments of cash" should hold on to it to await a new "bull market signal." At the same time, the analyst says that those who "must remain fully invested in stock because of margin account reasons should stay in those stocks which are 'holding up extremely well.'"

60 KILLED
CALCUTTA (UPI)—A freight train smashed into the rear of a halted passenger train Monday night 200 miles south of Calcutta. Railway authorities said 60 persons were killed and 70 injured. Authorities said the three rear cars of the passenger train were "reduced to matchwood."

ADDS-AUTOGRAPH
WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon has added his autograph to those of nine other presidents on a baseball from the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. Rep. Samuel S. ## Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—With man scheduled to fly to the moon today, I just can't bring myself to review the premiere of Liberace's summer variety series on CBS-TV Tuesday night. I hope you'll understand.

Ray Bradbury, the incomparable science-fiction writer, seems much more appropriate to the occasion. In an interview on NBC Radio's "Monitor" program this past weekend, he discussed the Apollo 11 moon mission and its significance to mankind. And here are remarks of the master craftsman who has so often written of the future with genius and compassion:

"The events of this summer, of this project," he said, "are commensurate with the event when two billion years ago when mankind came out of the seas of earth and made do on the land, and survived, and finally built cities, and came to this summer where we look on the stars and envy the birds, and take off and fly into space. "But it has everything to do...with immortality. We've been asking the questions for thousands of years. We've gone to our theologians. We've said, 'What is life? What is it all about? What are we doing here?' The great mystery stands at the center of everything.

"The theologians have tried to help us, and in some cases have. But the mystery remains. And we've gone to our scientists and we've said, 'Tell us about the atom and the molecule, and the stars.' And they've done their very best. But the mystery remains. "So now we come to this time when we've asked ourselves, 'Why bother being alive? Why be born upon this earth if we must die? What are our chances for survival?'"

OUR SINCERE THANKS

To Senator Grady Hazlewood and the members of the Senate of the State of Texas, 61st Legislature, for the passing of Senate Resolution No. 168 in memory of Mr. Othello Ontje Canadian, Texas, in 1938 and published same Miller, who founded the Hemphill County News, until his death, July 7, 1968. The family is appreciative and grateful beyond measure to have their loved one so honored.

Celebrate Astronauts' Historical Lunar Landing With Moon Watch Party

MIAMI, Fla. — Let's face it! There will be little work done on the East Coast of the United States on the morning of Monday, July 21. Little work, that is, by those of us fortunate enough to be spectators at one of the truly outstanding human achievements of our time.

The event, scheduled for the early morning hours (EDT) of Monday, July 21, will be the first football of a human being on the surface of Earth's sole satellite, its Moon. The men engaged in the Space Program and in reporting and recording it for history will be busy enough.

Thanks to their efforts and to television, the rest of the world can witness an event that has no dramatic or historic equal in our times. It seems only natural that the inhabitants of Earth will pause, gather together before the millions of television screens across the continents, and participate vicariously in man's first step on the Moon.

And when you think about this for a moment — consider, what better time than this to get together with some close friends.

According to the television schedule, and barring any delays or technical troubles, the Lunar Module will set down upon the Moon's surface Sunday, July 20, in the late afternoon (EDT) at 4:23 p.m. (EDT) to be precise.

According to the plan of the mission, the astronauts will remain in the LM (Lunar Module) for some nine hours before Cmdr. Neal Armstrong opens the hatch to venture onto that place where no man before him has ever trod. Direct live television of this historic moment will be transmitted back to Earth starting at 2:12 a.m. (EDT) on the morning of July 21. The telecast is scheduled to last 2 1/2 hours, until 4:57 a.m. (EDT), or from 11:17 p.m. Pacific Daylight Time, Sunday, July 20, to 1:57 a.m. (PDT) July 21.

Even if those on the East Coast decide to break up their parties about midnight in order to watch the climax of mankind's dreams and aspirations while lounging in their pajamas in the comfort of their own living rooms, there is still good reason and no finer occasion for joy than gathering together to share with friends this supreme moment in human endeavor, in the earlier part of the evening.

So why not! Call a few friends tonight and invite them over to your home, backyard, or patio, and enjoy a cookout or cold buffet complemented by a few sociable drinks as YOU toast this moment in history.

Here are a few suggestions that you might consider in keeping with the theme and nature of the event. It's a first in history — a party for a Moon Watch.

THE MOON SHOT

"Official Drink"
Mix 3 quarts of sparkling water with 2 cups of instant orange-flavored breakfast drink (the same beverage as the astronauts will be drinking on the moon). Add 1 quart of light dry rum.

Add several trays of ice cubes, and thinly slice a lime to float the slices on top of the punch.

Ladle into punch cups or "on the rocks" glasses. Garnish with a lime slice, and settle back to contemplate the venture onto that place where no man before him has ever trod. Direct live television of this historic moment will be transmitted back to Earth starting at 2:12 a.m. (EDT) on the morning of July 21. The telecast is scheduled to last 2 1/2

Moon from your own 'Sea of Tranquility.'

"WHAT THE MOON IS MADE OF"

(Color it green until Cmdr. Armstrong proves us wrong)
Ball of molded cream cheese, tinted green with green vegetable coloring; season with horseradish, mustard, and dried beef (which has been shredded and sauteed in butter). Serve on tray with crackers (crescent-shaped, perhaps).

"APOLLO APPETIZER"

1 pkg. lime gelatine
1 cup boiling water
3 ozs. cream cheese
1/2 pint heavy cream
1/2 can crushed pineapple

Dissolve lime gelatine in water. Let cool. Whip heavy cream, and mash the cream cheese while stirring in a little heavy cream and pineapple juice. Mix the creamed cheese, gelatine and whipped cream. Add crushed pineapple, stir and pour in shallow pan. Freeze.

"MOONBURGERS"

3 lbs. ground round steak
1 pint heavy cream
3/4 bottle ketchup

Mix together and form patties. Grill. Makes 8.

"LUNAR SAUCE"

Mix thoroughly:
2-3 cup chili sauce
6 tbsps. pickle relish

4 teps. prepared mustard or horseradish
"BLUE MOONBURGERS"
Spread grilled burgers with blue cheese. Garnish plate with crescent and/or star shaped cutouts of carrot, pickle, black olives, etc.

"ORBITAL COURSES"

Ring mold of tomato aspic filled with a round mound of tuna salad.

Or:
Ring mold of potato salad filled with a round mound of shrimp or chicken salad

Or:
Ring of honeydew melon filled with mound of cottage cheese — garnish with balls of canteloupe, watermelon, and other fresh citrus fruits.

"MERCURY DELIGHTS"

Tear angel cake in bite-size pieces, allowing 4 or 5 pieces for each serving. For four servings, mix 1 cup sifted confectioners sugar and 2 tbsps. dark-dry rum. Add the angel food to the mixture, coating each piece, and then roll in chopped nuts. Let stand on waxed paper until dry.

"FROZEN GEMINI PARFAIT"

1 qt. vanilla ice cream
1/2 cup dark-dry rum
2 cups whipped cream...
Whip slightly softened ice cream with rum. Fold in whipped cream. Fill into parfait glasses, dust with nutmeg and serve at once.

"ROYALE SPLASHDOWN"

2 qts. strong coffee or Espresso
4-5 qt. bottle rum
1 qt. vanilla ice cream...

Mix the coffee and rum. Beat well. Add softened ice cream in spoonfuls.

Now, if all this proves appealing — and moon travel not so distant — it's time to call your nearest travel agent and place your name on the "Waiting List to the Moon." Some airlines really keep one — what's more — you'll get an identification card listing your number.

Apollo 11 Flight Will Dominate The TV Screen

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—This is the week of the scheduled moon-landing mission of the manned Apollo 11 flight on television, and nothing else on the home tube will much matter.

Barring changes, it all begins Wednesday with liftoff, and concludes July 24 with splash-down after the eight-day journey.

On Tuesday, NBC-TV and CBS-TV will offer one-hour prime time previews of the flight on its eve. The NBC-TV entry is entitled "Apollo—A Journey to the Moon—The Threshold." The CBS-TV presentation is called "Man on the Moon: The Epic Journey of Apollo 11."

After that comes the real thing, and—again barring changes—the following are some television highlights of the mission for those who care to make note of their scheduled times and would like a handy referral list.

Network reporting of the launching starts at 8 a.m. EDT Wednesday. Liftoff is set for 9:32 a.m. EDT. There will, of course, be countless video reports of the progress of the mission during the eight days.

On Thursday, a color television transmission from space, 15 minutes in length, is tentatively scheduled for 7:32 to 7:47 p.m. EDT.

On Saturday, plans call for a video transmission from the spacecraft as it flies in lunar orbit. Pictures are expected to be seen in the 15-minute period from 4:02 to 4:17 p.m. EDT.

Sunday and Monday, if everything jells, will be the days that give viewers something to tell their future grandchildren about.

Beginning at 11 a.m. EDT Sunday, the networks will wipe out all regular programming for 31 hours and present continuous coverage of the period focusing on man's landing on the moon. This means there will be nothing but moon coverage until 6 p.m. EDT Monday.

There will be a television transmission Sunday from 1:52 to 2:22 p.m. EDT—half an hour—showing the undocking and start of the descent of the lunar module for the moon landing.

Touchdown of the module, is planned for about 4:23 p.m. EDT.

Then, in the middle of the night across the nation—late Sunday in the West, early Monday in the East—the high drama will build.

A television transmission is scheduled from 1:57 to 2:07 a.m. EDT Monday—11 minutes—just before astronaut Neil Armstrong leaves the spacecraft to set foot on the moon.

Quickly following that is the scheduled historic transmission: A program of two hours and 40 minutes, in black and white, live and direct from the moon.

It is planned for about 2:12 a.m. EDT Monday, ending approximately 4:52 a.m. EDT, and occurring overall as astronauts Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin leave the lunar module and carry out their duties on the moon surface.

DALLAS (UPI)—Six hundred, seventy-six high school graduates will get a helping hand into the college classroom next spring if the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks have anything to do with it.

John L. Walker, chairman of the Elk trustees, announced Tuesday at the organization's national convention that scholarships ranging from $600 to $2,500 and totaling $397,600 will be presented to deserving graduates.

Two hundred of the scholarships, ranging from $60 to $2,500 will go to students with high scholastic achievements special awards of $10 will be presented to each of the 138 students who enter award competition but fail to place.

In addition, the Elk foundation through state Elk association will award a total of 338 scholarships of $600 each totaling $202,800. The lesser scholarships have lower academic standards than the more valuable awards.

Man Conspires To Kill Life-long Friend

EDINBURG, Tex. (UPI)—Defense attorney Percy Foreman acted as a legal advisor today for a man charged with conspiring to kill his life-long friend and business partner.

Peter Thomas Scamardo, 32, of Hearne, Tex., is charged with offering two Houston men $2,000 to kill Sam Degelia. Foreman has been retained by one of the two Houston men as a defense attorney.

Scamardo's battery of lawyers is led by Thomas G. Sharpe of Brownsville.

"I have agreed to associate (with Sharpe)," Foreman said. "I want to get what advantage I can. I'm not hired by him as of now. I often hire people to represent me as a lawyer when I represent someone else, and put it into the record that way."

Search and Discovery
 At the "search and discovery hearing" today, Dist. Judge Tom L. Hartley was expected to set a date for Scamardo's trial. The trial probably will not come under at least a month after the special session of the Texas Legislature since one of Scamardo's attorneys, Neil Caldwell of Angleton, is a member of the legislature.

Scamardo was freed on a $50,000 bond after he was indicted in connection with last year's slaying of Degelia. The indictment came only a short time after Scamardo served as a pallbearer at the funeral of his best friend and business partner.

Scamardo's attorneys were expected to make a number of motions for delay at the hearing, including bids to quash the indictment, to suppress certain evidence and to make the state's evidence available for defense examination.

Body in Pump House
 Degelia's "decomposed body was discovered last July in an abandoned pump house, near McAllen, Tex. The victim was shot twice through the head.

Degelia, a wealthy young grain and cotton broker came to the Lower Rio Grande Valley on a business trip. He disappeared shortly after he was seen in a McAllen restaurant where he allegedly went to talk to a potential client.

Charles V. Harrelson, 31, of Houston, and Jerry Watkins, 43, also of Houston, were charged in the actual slaying. Foreman represents Harrelson, also indicted in Brazoria County, Tex., for the murder of Alan Berg, a Houston carpet company executive. Berg's skeleton was found on a beach near Freeport, Tex., four months after he disappeared last year from a Houston tavern.

SUSPENDS TESTING
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Army has suspended open-air testing of nerve gas at the Edgewood, Md., Arsenal and denied it planned to manufacture the gas at a mothballed ammunition plant in Newport, Ind. The Edgewood commanding officer agreed to give Rep. Clarence D. Long, D-Md., a chance to persuade the Pentagon to get an outside scientific body to investigate the safety of the tests. Rep. Richard D. McCarthy, D-N.Y., had made the charges about the Newport plant.

SMOG SPREADS
 LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Smog from Los Angeles is filtering into nearby desert towns, threatening to make the situation as bad in Palm Springs as it is in downtown Los Angeles. The observation was made Tuesday by a group of Riverside County residents who said the invasion of the smog may mean the "twilight of the desert" as a recreational area.

Houston Attorney Says Freedom Of Choice Not Good

HOUSTON (UPI)—A Justice Department attorney charged in a Houston desegregation suit hearing that the "freedom of choice" method of integration is not effective because white students are avoiding Negro schools.

"They are leaving the area to attend white schools further away," said attorney John Rosenberg. He asked U. S. Dist. Judge Ben C. Connally to consider adopting new zoning methods to integrate the city's schools.

To back up his plan, Rosenberg showed maps and enrollment cards that white students were traveling away from Negro junior and senior high schools to attend white schools further away.

Earlier in the week another plan, estimated to cost more than $1 million and designed by a computer, was presented to the court.

The plan advocated busing 44,000 students to achieve better integration. The program, supported by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was formulated by ABT Associates Inc. of Cambridge, Mass.

Denmark sold the Virgin Islands to the United States in 1917 for $25 million.

CAREER CORNER

OCTAVIA BENNET has a job many girls would like. She works for the president of Columbia Records in New York. This supersecretary says that "College rounds out a secretary's background in many areas. And the more knowledgeable the secretary, the more the boss can delegate responsibility."

ALL THREE VOTE YES for college if possible. In cases where it is not possible for girls who do not acquire business skills in high school or college, a private business school can be quite helpful. Ask your teachers to recommend a good one.

AVERAGE SALARIES for secretaries, according to a June, 1968 survey by the U.S. Department of Labor, are $463 at the bottom level of skill, $522 at the second level, $557 at the third, and $606 at the highest level. Salaries are probably activated typewriters to 5 per cent higher now, based on past increase rates.

FREE ADMINISTRATIVE AID. The National Secretaries Association has several pamphlets, available in single copies of interest to future and present secretaries. Two are "Futura Secretaries Association" which describes an organization for students, and "Certificate of Professional Secretary Capstone" which gives information about the certifying program and examination (means you're a first-rate secretary when you become a C. P. S.). If you want a copy of either or both, send me a stamped, self-addressed long, white envelope in care of this newspaper. Write "Secretary" on outside envelope.

TOMORROW'S SECRETARIES will have to work with increasingly complicated office equipment. Some spare age prospects: voice activated typewriters

Introducing the private-recipe beer.

ENCORE

ENCORE was never meant to be sold. It was our brewmaster's private recipe—the beer he brewed a little at a time for his friends. They enjoyed it privately, on special occasions.

But word soon got around that this was an extraordinary beer. The secret was slow-lager ageing. A time-consuming, rather costly way to make beer. Only recently have we been able to make enough to offer it for sale.

Today, you'll find encore in certain fine restaurants, good bars, and in leading take-home stores. Discover it soon, and see what sets ENCORE apart from all other beers.

What is "Quality"?

Quality is at once the most elusive and yet the most tangible thing in the world.

A Stradivarius violin has it... but to the sharp eye of a good carpenter, a ten-penny nail can also have it. Some ships have quality... some shoes, some books, some beers.

Quality is a thing impossible to define... and just as impossible to counterfeit.

There is no synonym for it... because there is no substitute for it.

ENCORE. Our brewmaster's own.

The Lighter Side Washington Window

By DICK WEST
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—Plant pathologists employed by the U.S. Agricultural Research Service recently made an astounding discovery.
 While examining the infected tissues of a diseased pea vine, they found a micro-organism closely related to three micro-organisms that produce diseases in animals. Imagine that!
 "Scientists are now investigating the implications of this unique relationship with respect to both plant and animal diseases," the Agriculture Department said this week in its report on the affair.
 Well, you can wait around for further word from the scientists if you want to. But I think I already know what the implications are.
 I am confident the investigation will confirm something I have suspected for a long time—namely, that human beings may catch certain diseases from plants, and vice versa.
 A few years ago I developed an ailment the identity of which completely eluded my physician. He kept telling me that the symptoms I described did not fit any malady known to medicine.
 I was about convinced the problem was psychosomatic. Then one night I happened to mention it to a tree surgeon, who was a member of my bowling team.
 He told me the symptoms I had related coincided exactly with the classic syndrome for Dutch Elm Disease.
 "I don't wish to alarm you,"

he said, "but it's usually fatal in elms."
 The fact that I survived could mean that diagnosis was faulty. Or it could mean that Dutch Elm Disease is less acute in persons of English blood.
 Further evidence that plant diseases may be contagious to man came last summer when I had an attack of something that strongly resembled tomato wilt.
 The tomato plants in my backyard began to droop badly and turn yellow. And I noticed I was doing the same thing. But when I bought an anti-wilt preparation from a garden supply dealer and sprayed it on the plants and myself, we both perked up overnight.
 Instances of plants contracting human diseases also may be fairly common. This spring there was something wrong with my roses. They broke out with a lot of red spots. This happened at the same time my son was in bed with chicken pox.
 And last winter three of my Chinese holly bushes died. I guess I should have given them the Asian flu vaccine.

By MERRIMAN SMITH
 UPI White House Reporter
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—Envious of those reporters who'll be travelling with the President from Apollo II splashdown in the Pacific to romantic Bucharest behind the Iron Curtain?
 Well, to begin with, it takes a lot of company money—plus endurance. Also a knowledge of communications from far parts of the world such as Jakarta, Indonesia, where it is difficult to telephone someone two blocks away, much less back to a newspaper or broadcast station in the United States.
 President Nixon's trip to the Pacific and on to Romania begins Tuesday and about 150 will be in the press party traveling with or near him.
 In the two weeks leading up to the beginning of his trip, the press-radio party—as well as members of the accompanying official staff—have been taking shots to prevent plague, cholera, yellow fever, small pox, typhoid fever and hepatitis.
 The press party will move in two chartered airline jets, the big Boeing 707s for intercontinental travel. The rental of such aircraft for 11 days and nights is an expensive matter—an expense borne by the news-gathering organizations and not by the government, as many Americans believe.
 The President will have a few reporters and photographers aboard his plane, Air Force One, as a journalistic pool, but the employers of these pool members will have to pay the same bill as that charged to passengers on the chartered press jets. This is because membership in the Presidential pool rotates from plane to plane.

 There is nothing particularly new about this arrangement, but every time a President travels extensively, some people—including some members of Congress—object to the Chief Executive hauling around a large group of journalists at Uncle Sam's expense and for his own glorification.
 All this is not to say that Nixon's trip to Asia and Romania will not cost the taxpayers a lot of money. It will, for the planning, protection and communications involved in such a Presidential journey is monumental.

LAND DENIES RUMORS
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—Dr. Francis L. Land has denied rumors that he may be quitting as director of the troubled and costly Medicaid program.
 "I can assure you I have not been asked by anyone nor has it been discussed with me," Land said. He also said the problems of the program can be corrected because abuses such as overcharges amount to only "about 1 per cent."
GRIFFITHS KILLED
 EDINBURGH (UPI)—James Griffiths, a 34-year-old Englishman, has been the first man to be killed by a police bullet in the United Kingdom this century, according to Scotland police. The police said Wednesday that a police sharpshooter fired the shot which killed Griffiths in Glasgow Tuesday.

Griffiths had wounded 15 persons in a wild shooting spree while trying to escape arrest for the recent murder of a Scottish woman.
REQUEST ASYLUM
 MIAMI (UPI)—Five Cuban refugees picked up by the Coast Guard on a life raft close to the north coast of Cuba Wednesday have requested asylum in the United States. The men attracted the attention of an airlift international plane with mirrors and water dyes. The plane, which flies daily to Cuba to pick up refugees released by the Castro regime, radioed the Coast Guard and circled the raft until a Coast Guard helicopter arrived from Key West.

JEANE DIXON

FOR FRIDAY, JULY 18

ARIES (March 21-Apr. 19): — There is a breakthrough available in your earning effort — concerning some very old matter. Your family and associates will be receptive to serious discussion; be truthful with them.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): — The more people care about you the more apt they are to find fault. Settle anything you are doing for relatives. Your money acquires wings, or so it seems. Good music will help your evening.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): — Take an impersonal approach Friday and thrive. Just remember those close to you are overly sensitive, so don't be upset.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): — Old habits, which are no longer feasible cause distress at the time, but things become much easier very quickly. New contracts bring interesting prospects into view.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): — Old relationships turn out to be perhaps very profitable. Expect entertaining and the like to be expensive now.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): — The optimistic viewpoint is a must. Get right down to fundamentals, present your story without sentiment or emotional distress, then get on with your work or business.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): — Confidential information helps in business but hinders in social or romantic interests. Put in a full day's work without wasting your productive time in conversation.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): — You could be drawn into some legal complaint now. If you are at fault, make every effort to avoid further complications.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): — The quiet, friendly manner is the better one as people come to you. Planning is easier and the results smoother now.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): — Make a concerted effort to get a great deal done while the doing is good. Leave the business-like approach in the office; your loved ones not only want to overspend, they need tenderness.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): — Keep the peace Friday — above everything else. In your home life you face a decision now and none of your friends can be of help. A mate would be affected.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a faithful reader of your column and always enjoy it when you make a reference to your husband. Does he help you with your work? And if he does, I would like to ask a favor of you. Would you mind very much if I wrote a letter to him seeking some advice on my problem?

I do so need the help of a kind, gentle, intelligent man. With your permission of course, I could have a box number so we could correspond. I would appreciate this so much.

NEEDS A MAN'S ADVICE
DEAR NEEDS: Occasionally, I'll consult my husband for a man's view point, but I'm careful not to overdo it lest I kill the goose that lays the golden eggs. Sorry, I can't offer you his services, but I'll be glad to serve as "Mrs. In-Between."

DEAR ABBY: My daughter is 19, and Gloria is beautiful, but not just because she is mine. She was Homecoming Queen and got several other honors because of her looks. Well, Gloria got an engagement ring from Rick in May and they plan to be married, although no date has been set.

Gloria has been hearing that Rick has been running around with other girls, so she has been crying her eyes out. When she asked him if it was true, he said, "Sure, I just want to get it all out of my system before I get married."

Do you think Gloria should let him get away with this, or is this what men do nowadays?

BIRMINGHAM
DEAR BIRMINGHAM: A man who is serious about marrying a girl gets everything "out of his system" before he becomes engaged. Gloria should give Rick the gate, and tell him not to come back until his system is drained.

DEAR ABBY: I received two identical, lighted make-up mirrors as graduation gifts, but I didn't need even one, as I received one for Christmas last year.

A friend of my mother's knew I had a lighted makeup mirror because my mother has a big mouth, but she sent me one anyway. Now I am wondering what I should say to this lady in my "thank you" letter? I would feel so insincere and fakey saying, "Thank you very much for the lovely gift. I will certainly enjoy using it, etc." knowing all the time that I will take it back and exchange it for something else the first chance I get. Also, this lady will probably know that I exchanged her gift. Can you help me?

GIRL GRADUATE
DEAR GIRL: Simply thank the lady warmly for remembering you so generously at graduation time, and make no mention of your plans for exchanging her gift.

DEAR ABBY: This might help that newly wed woman whose husband keeps making remarks about how pretty other women are, and what terrific figures they have.

I am a husband who used to do the same thing, and much as I hate to help out the other sex, I'll tell you how my wife cured me. Whenever I made remarks about the desirable qualities of other girls, she would ignore them. But as soon as a good looking, well-built man would pass us on the street, she would rave on and on about how handsome he was. She'd do the same thing when she saw a good-looking man on television. ## For All-Around, Ivory Drops Notch

DENVER, Colo. — Three professional rodeo cowboys claimed the lion's share of the $65,800 in prize money offered at the annual Calgary Stampede, which ended Saturday.

Larry Mahan, 25, Brooks, Ore., won $5,631 in the three riding events, bringing his year's total to $29,627, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said here today.

The cash allowed Mahan to breathe easier in his attempt to win his fourth consecutive all-around cowboy title, which goes to the contestant winning the most in two or more events during the year.

Carew's Steal Of Home Ties Major Record

By United Press International

Rod Carew may "steal" the American League's Western Division title for the Minnesota Twins this season.

Carew, the league's All-Star second baseman, tied a major league record when he stole home for the seventh time this season as the Twins swept the Chicago White Sox, 9-8 and 6-3, Wednesday night.

The bases were loaded in the second inning when Carew dashed home to tie the mark set by Pete Reiser of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1946. Trailing Carew on the triple steal was Harmon Killebrew, the lumbering slugger turned thief this season. The stolen base was the fifth this season for Killebrew, who had only seven thefts in his previous 15 years in the majors.

Elsewhere, Baltimore beat Cleveland, 6-5, after dropping a 6-4 decision, Detroit blanked Washington, 3-0, Boston downed New York, 6-2, Oakland whipped Seattle, 6-1 and California defeated Kansas City, 4-2.

Rich Reese slammed two homers and drove in five runs in the opener as reliever Al Worthington posted his fourth victory without defeat. Ted Uhlaender lashed three singles and drove in three runs in the Twins' second-game triumph.

Brooks Robinson's two-out, bases-loaded single in the ninth inning lifted the Orioles over Cleveland, after the Indians had taken the opener with a five-run sixth inning, highlighted by Chuck Hinton's two-run single.

Tony Horton hit two homers in the second game for the Indians, who scored five runs in the sixth inning of the opener on Hinton's two-run single, a bases loaded walk, Cap Peterson's single and Jose Cardenas's sacrifice fly.

Pitches Four-Hitter

Dick Green, Rick Monday and Sal Bando each hit two-run homers and Lew Krausse pitched a four-hitter as the Athletics handed the Pilots their seventh successive loss.

Willie Horton drove in three runs with a bases loaded double in the eighth inning and Mickey Lolich pitched a four-hitter as the Tigers blanked the Senators. Lolich, who recorded his 13th victory in 15 decisions, started the game-winning outburst with a single. An error and a walk filled the bases before Horton doubled.

Andy Messersmith pitched a six-hitter and drove in a run and Jim Spencer drove in two to pace the Angels over the Royals. Messersmith, who struck out 10 batters, doubled in a run in the third and Spencer drove in the decisive run in the fifth on a fielder's choice.

Carl Yastrzemski and George Scott homered and drove in five runs between them to power the Red Sox over the Yankees. Scott, who had three hits, hit a two-run homer in the second and Yastrzemski, who went 4-for-5, had a bases empty homer in the fifth.

MULESHOE—Pampa's Babe Ruth All-Stars stormed into tonight's district tournament finals the hard way, coming back from an opening game loss to win three straight.

Wednesday night the Stars routed Dumas, the team who beat them in the opening game, 9-0, and then setback unbeaten Plainview, 6-3 in a second game.

Gary Haynes shutout Dumas in the first game on two hits and fanned 10 batters while retiring the last 20 straight batters.

Dale Ammons and Al Ferguson hit home runs for Pampa.

In the second game Jeff Hogan stopped the Bulldogs on four hits and Pampa played errorless ball again.

Five of Pampa's six runs were unearned as Plainview had six errors and two of Ammons fly ball scored an insurance run in the seventh.

Plainview's three runs was unearned.

Plainview jumped to a 2-0 lead in the third on a misjudged fly ball but Pampa stormed back to tie it in the fourth and went in front 5-2 in the fifth.

Ammons fly ball scored an insurance run in the seventh.

NELSON RESTORED CLEVELAND (UPI)—The Cleveland Indians restored second baseman Dave Nelson to their roster Monday and assigned pitcher Gary Kroll outright to their Portland, Ore. farm club.

CLOSE PLAY AT HOME — It appears that this runner is under the catcher's tag and safely into home with another run. However, the runner, who was far from home plate (arrow) when he started his slide, ran into the catcher. He stopped short of home plate without the catcher tagging him but as the catcher fell he finally put the tag on the runner. The action took place in the City Little League tournament underway at Optimist Club park.

National League Roundup

Cards Driving Again In East

By United Press International
While the Mets and Cubs battled each other, the Cardinals started a rush that could make the National League's Eastern Division a three-team race.

Cal Koonce sweated out his fourth win of the season in 90-degree weather at Chicago Wednesday as he pitched five scoreless innings to protect the Mets' 9-5 victory over the Cubs and move second-place New York within 3½ games of the division leaders.

Steve Carlton struck out 12 and shut out the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-0, on a five-hitter in boosting St. Louis to its 11th victory in the Cards' last 13 games. St. Louis now is 9½ games back of first, but Red Schoendienst's crew is noted for late season surges.

In other action, San Francisco edged San Diego, 4-3, Los Angeles nipped Houston 3-2, Cincinnati topped Atlanta, 10-7, and Pittsburgh beat Montreal, 8-7.

Tommie Agee calls Willie Field his "kind of park" and responded with two hits in New York's 14-hit assault. Koonce is a former Cub whose knowledge of Chicago weaknesses came in handy.

Bobby Bonds' three-run homer in the fourth inning was the key to Gaylord Perry's 11th victory. Perry ran into trouble in the eighth when San Diego scored three runs. Van Kelly's two-run homer accounted for most of the damage. San Francisco scored its other run on four walks in the first inning by loser Dave Roberts.

1½ Games In Front

Los Angeles moved 1½ games in front of Atlanta and remained two ahead of San Francisco in the Western Division as Willie Davis powered the Dodgers to victory over Houston with an inside-the-park homer and a run-scoring triple. Claude Osteen, winning his 12th, gave up a two-run homer to Jim Wynn, which wasn't enough for Larry Dierker to avoid his seventh loss against 12 wins.

Roberto Clemente's two-run bases loaded single in the ninth inning carried Pittsburgh over Montreal. Willie Stargell homered for the Pirates, while the Expos featured homers by Bob Bailey, Coco Laboy, Rusty Staub and Adolfo Phillips.

CLINCHES BERTH

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (UPI)—Dave Hill's victory in the Buick Open last week clinched his berth on the American Ryder Cup team meeting the British at Southport. It was announced Friday. Hill picked up 70 points for scoring his second victory of the year to move from 13th to seventh place in the standings that determine the 12-man team.
