Probe Of Murder Charges Against Berets Suspended

SAIGON (UPI)—The Army has temporarily suspended its investigation of murder charges against eight Special Forces (Green Beret) officers, the civilian lawyer for one of the accused said today.

Attorney George Gregory, 31, of Cheraw, S.C., conferred for three hours today with his client, Maj. Thomas E. Middleton of Jefferson, S.C., at Long Binh military stockade, 15 miles north of Saigon.

"I suppose this suspension is to work out the attorney thing," Gregory said. "I don't know how long the suspension will be for but the pre-trial investigation is about half finished."

The investigation is to determine whether the Army will hold a general court martial or special court martial or dismiss the case, Gregory said.

Middleton and seven other Green Berets officers including the former commander of the U.S. 5th Special Forces group, Col. Robert B. Rheault, are held on investigation of planning and carrying out the murder of a Vietnamese civilian last June 20.

Gregory said Monday the slain man was a double agent, working as a spy for both the Communists and the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA).

the moon than in free space or on earth.

"A number of experts prior to the flight predicted that a good deal of difficulty would be encountered by people trying to work on the moon," reported the first man to set foot on the Moon. "This wasn't the case.

"After landing, we felt very comfortable in lunargravity. It was in fact, preferable both to weightlessness and to earth gravity."

The moon's gravity is only one-sixth as strong as earth's and Armstrong and Edwin E. Aldrin Jr., walked, skipped and even hopped about the rock-strewn surface of Tranquility Base July 20 without difficulty.

Armstrong, Aldrin and Michael Collins, who remained in lunar orbit in the command ship Columbia, described in their first public report what it was like to explore the moon. In the process, they narrated some of the most spectacular lunar photography ever taken.

Boysish-looking Armstrong, appearing nervous before several hundred newsmen and an international television audience said his biggest problem on the moon was the lack of time.

"We had the problem of a five-year-old boy in a candy store," he said.

The 30-year-old civilian, wearing a dark gray suit and clasping and unclasping his hands during the first minutes under hot television lights, described the historic landing operation in matter-of-fact detail.

Lebanon Goes To U.N. About Air Attacks

By United Press International

Israeli Premier Golda Meir said today Israel had carried out bombing air attacks Sunday and Monday against Jordan and Lebanon to "cool" the frontiers and halt the Arab guerrilla raids directed against Israeli farming communities.

Her statement at a news conference in Haifa coincided with diplomatic reports in London that the Soviet Union had warned Egypt strongly against escalating the Middle East conflict into fullscale war with Israel.

UPI diplomatic correspondent K. C. Thaler said Russia delivered the warning because it did not want to get involved at a time both Washington and Moscow are seeking ways to ease East-West tension, and because the Kremlin fears Egypt would lose a new war—and a billion dollars worth of Russian-supplied equipment.

Lebania complained to the U.S. Security Council Monday night against an Israeli air raid in the Mount Hermon area which it said killed seven persons, including a woman burned fatally by a napalm bomb, but did not call for a meeting of the council.

Israel countered with unofficial statements by political sources that they believed attacks Sunday and Monday against Jordan and Lebanon had delivered a "message" to the leaders of the two countries to keep their guerilla attack under control.

Mrs. Meir followed up these unofficial comments by telling a news conference in Haifa the Israeli air attacks were carried out to "cool" the border.

The Lebanese Foreign Ministry said its U.N. delegate had submitted "an urgent" and strongly-worded complaint to the (U.N.) Security Council to expose the (Israeli) aggression.

Macabre Murders Bear Startling Similarities

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A six-man team of police detectives today probed two macabre murder cases which bore startling similarities—senseless, savage stabbings with almost ritualistic overtones.

Police maintained there was no direct physical evidence to connect the stabbing deaths of a middle-aged couple Sunday and the mass murder Saturday of actress Sharon Tate and her four guests at a secluded estate.

But an officer said, "It is unusual to have the same team on two cases unless there's an indication the cases are linked."

The sole suspect in the Tate murders, William Garretson, 19, a caretaker at the Benedict Canyon home leased by the actress, was released Monday.

Detectives today leaned toward the theory the stabbings Sunday of market owner Leno La Bianca and his wife Rosemary in their home might be a "copy" by a new assailant of the earlier murders.

In both cases, the victims, stabbed numerous times, were left with their heads covered by hoods and cords knotted around their necks. Police revealed Monday the same method was used to scrawl "death to pigs" in the La Bianca case and "pig" in the Tate case.

The murderer apparently dipped the heel of his hand in the blood of his victims and smeared the words in letters from eight inches to one foot high.

A new suspect in the Tate case was still sought by police today. He was an acquaintance of Garretson and officers said he lived in the Southern California area and had not been home since the murders, an indication that his house was staked out.

Psychiatrist Says Clyde Durbin Suffers From Split Personality

AUSTIN (UPI)—Two entirely different personalities dwelled in the body of Clyde Durbin Jr., 22, for at least the last 10 years, according to a Dallas psychiatrist testifying for the defense in Durbin's murder trial.

Dr. Joseph Lindsay of the Beverly Hills Hospital in Dallas described Durbin as a chronically schizophrenic and the fourth generation in his family to suffer from a split personality.

Lindsay's testimony came Monday as the defense opened its case which it hopes will save Durbin from the electric chair.

Defense attorney Frank Maloney was expected to continue this line of defense—that Durbin is not guilty by reason of insanity—in today's eighth day of testimony and the 14th day of Durbin's trial.

Durbin, a university dropout who usually sits erect on the straight-backed defendant's bench and moves his body only when Judge Tom Blackwell enters or leaves 147th District Court, is on trial for the murder of John Albert White, 21, a university student from Corpus Christi, Tex.

White's body was found Jan. 8 in the muddy waters of Bull Creek. His picnic date, Keitha Morris, 19, a university student from White Deer, Tex., was found dead the next day in a Burnet County lake.

"Although Maloney did not have his client enter a plea at the start of the testimony last week, Maloney's tactics during the state's presentation of its case and the presentation of a psychiatrist Monday indicate Maloney is seeking to save his client with an insanity ruling. The state is seeking the death penalty.

Friday, Maloney's objection to introduce a tape recording of Durbin's oral confession was sustained by Judge Blackwell, but Maloney turned around and introduced the tape himself to show "the state of mind" of Durbin.

And when the defense opened its case, in Monday's abbreviated session, Lindsay said Durbin was an angry, frightened man who suffered from a split personality the same as his mother, grandmother and great grandmother.

Durbin's father, a well-built crew cut man who attends every session of the court, and who brings his son soft drinks during recesses, sat outside the courtroom when Lindsay talked about his wife's illness.

The prosecution, led by Dist. Atty. Bob Smith, demanded Lindsay produce test results that led to the diagnosis of chronic schizophrenia.

The court recessed early to permit one juror to attend the funeral of his grandfather in Taylor, about 30 miles northeast of Austin.

Lindsay said Durbin has a split personality "probably well formed by the time he was 10 or 12 years old." Because of similar problems with his mother, Lindsay said Durbin was "confused and impulsive—a kind of child that one day gets spanked for spilling milk and the next day gets laughed at when he burns the house down."

360 Cong Dead When Heavy Fighting Erupts

SAIGON (UPI)—North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops poured out of jungles today to attack U.S. bases near the Cambodian border in a new offensive that erupted into the heaviest fighting in Vietnam since last February.

Communist forces shelled 137 Allied targets including a U.S. Navy hospital where mortar rounds blew up in a ward crowded with 50 wounded men and in an operating room.

American troops killed more than 360 Communist soldiers in repulsing 13 ground attacks mostly in the strategic area between Saigon and the Cambodian border. At least 29 Americans were killed and more than 200 wounded.

Military sources said the new wave of attacks of shelling and on the ground were the start of

Dinis May File Petition For Autopsy

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (UPI)—Dist. Atty. Edmund Dinis may file a petition in a Pennsylvania court today requesting an autopsy on Mary Jo Kopechne, killed in an auto accident involving Sen. Edward M. Kennedy.

Dinis said Monday he and his aides were nearing completion of the petition which "will recite what conditions substantiate our need for exhumation and an autopsy." They hoped to file it today.

Dinis is handling the state's case in the inquest scheduled Sept. 3 into the girl's death.

He said there would be no need to bring the body to Massachusetts if an autopsy is granted by the Luzerne County court in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where the petition will be filed.

However, Dinis said he would ask that any autopsy conducted in Pennsylvania be performed in the presence of a pathologist from Massachusetts.

The dead girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kopechne, of Berkeley Heights, N.J., said Monday they have engaged counsel to fight the Dinis petition in court.

Miss Kopechne, 28, a former campaign worker for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, drowned when a car driven by Edward Kennedy ran off a narrow bridge on Chappaquiddick Island around midnight July 18.

Pampa Hit By Severe Heat Wave

The city of Waco, often a hotspot, recorded its highest temperature ever.

A severe thunderstorm struck the Bryan-College Station area late Monday night, bringing relief from the heat but also knocking out several plate glass windows in the downtown area.

Voters Will Decide On One-Cent Hike

By TEX DEWEESE
News Staff Writer

After listening to arguments pro and con from the floor, the City Council today approved legislation calling for an election Sept. 24 on the one-cent city sales tax in Pampa.

The ordinance was passed on first reading after a motion by Councilman Clyde Carruth and a second by Councilman George B. Cree Jr. They were joined in the unanimous vote by Mayor Milo Carlson and Councilman Leo Braswell. Councilman Hugh Burdette was absent.

The sales tax measure will get its second and final reading at a called meeting next Tuesday morning.

There will be only one voting

Treasure Gone, Sadler Vows To Find Pirates

AUSTIN (UPI)—"We will find these pirates and bring them and their booty into a court of justice if we have to trail them around the world."

That was the vow promised Monday by Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler when he learned treasure off the Texas coast was "plundered by pirates."

Sadler reportedly sent divers to three sites where 400-year-old Spanish galleons were charted to be lying off Padre Island. Sadler said "nothing but craters" are left at the three locations.

"This is a pretty big price for Texas school kids to have to pay to further the interests of a few self-seeking thieves," Sadler said.

Sadler said he had "tips, leads and information" about the identity of the "pirates," but he was not about to divulge any of it.

"If I knew who the thief was, I wouldn't say 'yoo-hoo, you just wait there and I'll catch you,'" Sadler said.

He did vow, however, to catch the pirates. He also implicated a diver who worked for Platoro, Ltd., an Indiana salvaging firm.

Sadler's announcement is only the latest chapter in the continuing controversy involving the land commissioner, the salvaging firm, the courts, an historical society, and the Texas Legislature.

place for the city-wide election. That will be at City Hall. George Ecott was named election judge and Ray Dudley as alternate. Election clerks will be named later.

The action was taken after four persons spoke from the floor in opposition to the sales tax and one spoke for it.

Mayor Milo Carlson and other councilmen were of the opinion, they stated, that the citizens of Pampa should make a choice.

It was explained that because of the city's pinched financial condition and the facing of a current $145,000 deficit in operating funds, voters must decide whether they want the city sales tax or a 50-cent hike in the ad valorem tax rate.

Those at today's meeting who expressed opposition to the sales tax were Norman Fritzier and Jim Stallings, representing the Retail Trade Committee of the Chamber of Commerce; ex-mayor E. C. Sidwell and Mitchell Hill. Speaking for the adoption of the sales tax in preference to the ad valorem tax increase was Robert L. Linecum, manager of ad valorem taxes and claims for Cabot Corp.

Linecum told the council it should consider the overall tax picture as far as increasing ad valorem taxes is concerned. He pointed out that the city is the only one of the three local tax units that can resort to a sales tax. School and county tax units must depend solely on property taxes, he stated.

Linecum added that it was his belief the sales tax offered a more equitable spread of the tax load.

Former Mayor Sidwell again offered his opposition and said the city should not consider the sales tax but should increase the ad valorem tax to meet its obligations.

"I know you gentlemen did not create the problems you are facing now," Sidwell said. "You inherited them."

Sidwell said the city's financial crisis began ten years ago when the voters approved the Canadian River Water Project for Pampa.

"The time has come," he stated, "when it has to be paid for and that's what's causing your trouble. You need to annex the free riders outside the city limits and eliminate tax inequities."

"If you put your team to work—get the uncollected taxes (See SALES TAX, Page 2)

Perryton Sets $2 Million Bond Elections

PERRYTON (Staff) — Ochlilree County citizens will go to the polls Sept. 9 to decide on two separate $2 million bond elections set Monday by the county commissioners and the city council.

The county bond issue is to finance a runway extension project for the proposed beef processing plant by American Beef Packers Inc.

The city council's bond election will provide $340,000 to extend sewage facilities for the plant and $660,000 to establish new water rights and expand present water facilities.

Officials of the beef packing plant have suggested that a 12,000-foot runway will be needed to accommodate Boeing 747 freight liners, which will be used in transporting processed beef to markets.

Details of the meat packing plant have not been disclosed fully and only preliminary work has been done to determine estimated cost of the project, according to County Judge Clarence Morris.

No definite action will be taken until the processing plant has committed itself and the Federal Aviation Agency has submitted matching funds.

Burger Calls For Crash Program

DALLAS (UPI) — Chief Justice Warren E. Burger called today for a crash program to provide the nation's courts with a corps of trained administrators so judges may spend their time judging.

"Such administrators do not now exist, except for a handful who are almost entirely confined to state court systems," he said in a breakfast speech to the Institute of Judicial Administration. "We must literally create a corps of court administrators or court managers and we must do so at once."

The institute is meeting here in conjunction with the 92nd annual convention of the American Bar Association (ABA).

Burger proposed calling together 10 or 12 "of the best informed people in this country" and asking them to plan a training program for the necessary number of court managers. He did not say how many are required.

"It should begin in the next 60 days," he said emphatically. He suggested lawyers and judges for the most part stay out of this planning group, which could be made up of experts in public administration, business administration and about six present court managers where they can be found.

Government Tries To Make Leaders Happy

PARIS (UPI)—With devaluation of the franc only two days old, the government of President Georges Pompidou today moved quickly to placate labor union leaders and militant Gaullists who are not happy.

On the world's money markets, the franc Monday fared well, trading "remarkably strong" in Frankfurt and at a higher value in London than the official devaluation rate.

Some laborers felt the 12.5 per cent devaluation, announced Friday and effective Sunday night, was taken at their expense in the form of higher prices. The Gaullists implied that devaluation had betrayed the very Gaullist principles Pompidou had said he would defend.

To explain the government's position to labor and hopefully quell their objections, Labor Minister Joseph Fontaine scheduled meetings today and Wednesday with leaders of the major unions.

At the same time, leading officials of France's governing party, the Union for the Defense of the Republic (UDR), contacted staunch Gaullist members who began to speak out against the devaluation Monday and attempted to cool their tempers.

While his political and government lieutenants struggled to hold the line against opposition, Pompidou himself gave the Gaullist dissenters new cause for irritation Monday.

Speaking at his vacation residence of Fort de Breoganon on the south coast of France, Pompidou said he had been convinced former President Charles de Gaulle was wrong in his refusal to devalue since July, 1968—the month the general sacked him as prime minister.

"Since July, 1968, I have been convinced that devaluation was inevitable," he told newsmen. "The situation in which we carried out the devaluation, despite the good technical conditions, was not as good as the situation in 1968."

The nation's largest labor union, the Communist-led General Workers Confederation, expressed its displeasure at the government announced price freeze which will extend until Sept. 15.

"The government should not create an illusion by pretending to stop price increases until mid-September when it has given a bad example in increasing gas and electricity rates dating from Aug. 1, and announced new increases of transport fares," the union said in a statement.

New Poverty Weapon Requested By Nixon

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI)—President Nixon today asked Congress for a comprehensive manpower training system as a buffer against possible rising unemployment and as an improved weapon against poverty.

It was the second installment in Nixon's current trilogy dealing with underadvantaged members of the American labor force. On Monday he asked Congress to provide an assured income for families too poor to care for themselves adequately.

On Wednesday, he planned to submit the third in a series of messages to Congress, dealing with an evolving system for sharing federal revenue with states on a complicated basis of their population and tax rates.

Nixon's message on manpower training was outlined broadly in his address to the nation last Friday. Today, however, he added details to what was a basic, seven-point program.

The details were relatively well-known but an interesting aspect of the Nixon message was the manner in which he envisioned an expanded and coordinated manpower training program might be an effective hedge against unemployment.

He asked Congress to authorize the use of the comprehensive manpower training system as an economic stabilizer.

The President also proposed establishment of a national computerized job bank to match job seekers with job vacancies from liberal sectors of the political spectrum.

There have been prior objections to such a system, based on fears that a "computerized job bank" would end up as federal intervention upon the privacy of an individual.

The President, after outlining his program for Congress, said, "The proposed comprehensive manpower training act is a good example of a new direction in making federalism work. Working together, we can bring order and efficiency to a tangle of federal programs."

The Chief Executive planned a full morning of basically economic conferences, summoning to his Southern California base virtually all of his top command in the war against inflation.

He had an early morning meeting with Labor Secretary George P. Shultz on the manpower training program.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers also was a constant part of the western White House scene, conferring with the President from time to time about Asian affairs and efforts to end the Vietnam War.

During the late morning, the President scheduled a two-hour session with his Cabinet committee on economic policy. Among the ranking members invited were Treasury Secretary David Kennedy, Agriculture Secretary Clifford Hardin, Commerce Secretary Maurice Stans and Paul McCracken, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

Seldom has such a collection of top-level presidential advisers been assembled outside Washington.

Furthermore, this group would be expanded later in the day for what the White House said would be a discussion of pending domestic matters.

This second session at the new complex of White House offices bordering the Nixon estate would involve Dr. Daniel P. Moynihan, White House expert on urban affairs; Bryce N. Harlow, the chief White House liaison man with Congress, and two other key advisers—Dr. Arthur Burns on economics and Dr. Lee DuBridge on science, possibly involving the extent to which the administration will push its space program next year.

Meantime, Nixon was trying to reserve a few afternoon hours each day for recreation. He told reporters of being knocked down twice by the heavy Pacific surf in front of his estate, explaining that even for a native Californian, it would take a few days to adjust to the heavy undertow of this coastal section.

TIA Will Continue Fight Against Rio Airways

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—A spokesman for Texas International Airline said Monday the airline was not finished in its fight against Rio Airways, a airline recently certified to service a number of South Texas cities.

"We expect more legal action in the future," the spokesman said indicating TI would make its next move known in a couple of days.

The Texas Aeronautics Commission issued Rio a certificate Friday to offer commuter service to seven South Texas cities. TI filed a suit to prevent certification, but withdrew it.

According to the spokesman, the TAC's approval of Rio's application made the lawsuit "superfluous."

Rio, founded by a group of former Gov. John Connally, proposed to fly 15-passenger planes on routes serving San Antonio, Austin, Corpus Christi, McAllen, Brownsville, Laredo and Houston.

Vietnam Talks Are In 'Waiting Period'

PARIS (UPI)—A South Vietnamese negotiator said today the Vietnam talks were not deadlocked but merely in a "waiting period" from which the Communists were expected to emerge with counterproposals on national elections.

The South Vietnamese official, who declined to be identified by name, said Allied negotiators were prepared to wait as long as necessary for the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong to make "an appropriate response" to President Nguyen Van Thieu's election offer.

The official said the Communist negotiators must become convinced the United States and South Vietnam will have nothing more to say at the talks until they receive concrete responses to their proposal.

Both sides at the conference have proposed the holding of elections in South Vietnam as a way out of the political impasse.

They differ on the organization and the guarantees of a free vote.

The Communist side so far refuses to accept Thieu's principle of nominees of the present Saigon government on "mixed commissions" to organize the test.

One of their main aims is to overthrow the government of Thieu, and acceptance of his proposal would mean recognition of the regime.

They also reject international surveillance of the vote on the grounds South Vietnamese elections are a matter for the Vietnamese themselves.

JEANE DIXON

FOR WEDNESDAY, AUG. 13
Your birthday Wednesday: Despite some emotional confusion or conflicts, this year will bring you into entirely new life circumstances. Opportunity for fresh starts opens out on all sides and directly ahead, and you have definite advantage of being able to bring to the new situation the results of what you have been doing. Wednesday's natives often inspire, without any reason, emotional competition from contemporaries.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): A streak of helpful coincidence is running Wednesday, if you are willing to go along with the moods and whims of your associates and those you love. Avoid speculation today.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Promises are too easily accepted Wednesday. Verify all the facts as you go; remember that the people telling you the story may not know more than the surface details.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Slay clear of commitment Wednesday, because tomorrow you will see things in a different light. Garbled messages may cause misunderstanding. Double check!

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): Family, associates abound with enthusiasm and big ideas. Be alert and get the advantage of their expansive mood. Your intuition will lead you to some profitable little experiment.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): A long cycle of increased social activity begins now. Take the lead and begin organizing life more to your liking. Learn to say no when you need time.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Your timing is essential Wednesday. Prepare for public view of your work. Your friends prosper and will want to include you along with them.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Wednesday best to let well enough alone. Pressing a line of questioning will simply bring you more mystery and confusion. Take a fast today and some time for meditation.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): New proposals are to be taken with care; check any information when you receive it. Emotional acceptance does not always mean financial soundness or logical validity.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Transactions involving information or material from far places run into obstacles Wednesday. Travel arrangements are unreliable at best.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Wednesday your intuition burns bright and clear. Grant credit, or take a loan— whichever is desirable in your situation.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Mobilize home and family to bolster your career. Leave casual friends out of it. Money or property shared with others has to be handled, but with great care.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Close contact with mischievous people causes much confusion later. Family and familiar associates are fine if you give them space and calm. You are most vulnerable to infectious ills at the moment.

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: So much has been said about "louses" who are late with the support check. I'd like to say a few words about the other side.

My husband was stationed in Alaska when his first wife started running around. By the time he got home it was late to save his marriage — or his credit rating. When the case came to court, he was a "gentleman" and didn't use the grounds of adultery, so the judge gave his wife custody of their four children, plus support payments that amounted to two-thirds of his salary.

Two days after we were married his wife shipped the kids to us for their "summer vacation." She came to pick them up 26 months later! During that time we had a child of our own and a second one on the way.

Whenever she gets tired of the kids she ships them to us. They are always shoeless, threadbare and starved for a decent meal. Their support money is obviously used for something else.

I believe a divorced man should support his children, but this is ridiculous. What do you say?

THE OTHER SIDE
DEAR OTHER: Hear hear! But take heart. Divorce reforms are in the works.

DEAR ABBY: There is no law that states a father has a 30-day "grace" period in which to make child support payments. Must the landlord or grocer wait for 30 days?

L.A. LAWYER
DEAR LAWYER: No. But if that's all the longer some of them had to wait, they'd be happy.

DEAR ABBY: I had the same problem as "LOVES POPS." Daddy was 80 years old and he also used a magnifying glass to read the newspaper, but he insisted on driving his automobile. All the people on our street knew what a terrible driver he was, and they'd get out of his way when they saw

Smart Girls' Grooming Tricks
Work Fine And Save Fun Time

Beauty and good grooming take time. Happily, most of you find basic beauty routines pleasant and easily managed.

Keying your grooming to the slinky Fall '68 look, you may be strong on essentials but miss out on important details. When you are in a hurry, you may bypass repairs and minor beauty tasks.

Don't. With a little sleight of hand, you can shave time from most pick-up beauty chores. Some of the clock-watching tricks are old, some are new — but they all work.

1. Instead of reserving a block of time for a shampoo, wash your hair while you shower. It's quicker and easier, rinses the hair shiny clean.

2. Pick a coil so simple that it won't require nightly setting. When a simple style has cut-to-order shape, it can usually be managed without rollers or pin curls.

3. To revive a hairstyle that droops, try one of the safe new curling irons. Or cover a stiff-bristled hairbrush with clean cheesecloth and brush well. Afterward, gently backbrush difficult areas. Smooth into shape and spray lightly.

4. If applying foundation wastes time, switch to a type that's easier to manage. With a slightly dampened sponge, many new liquid, cake and cream foundations may be smoothed on in seconds.

5. For eye make-up repair, keep a small box of cotton swabs, in your pocketbook and another on the dressing table. When mascara and liner smudges appear, a cotton swab will remove them in a single swipe.

6. When oil seeps through foundation at midday, pat the entire face gently with a facial tissue. Without disturbing your make-up, the tissue will absorb the oil and restore a fresh look.

7. In your pocketbook, carry a few foil packets of hand lotion. Each disposable envelope contains just enough for one quick application.

8. If polish chips on one fingernail, remove the polish with a cotton swab dipped in remover. By pinpointing the action, the swab prevents smearing of your other nails.

9. When feet ache wearily, revive them fast. Dip them alternately into hot and cold water, dry briskly and splash with cologne. Then don fresh stockings and shoes.

10. Replace setting-up exercise with isometrics and a favorite sport. Isometrics, these sneaky little figure-firmers, can be practiced in elevators, at stop lights and even during meetings.

FACING UP TO FASHION: Start with a tweed tunic, pants suit and a daily complexion care routine based on anti-bacterial soap that inhibits the growth of bacteria and pampers your skin at the same time.

Pythian Sisters
Members of Pythian Sisters Temple No. 41 met recently at Mrs. Lucille Weathered's home 2134 Chestnut, for a morning coffee, co-hosted by Joyce Howell, who presented a poem in honor of Pearl Bernard.

Mrs. Bernard, charter member, was also presented a corsage from Mrs. Weathered.

Others present were Aletha Altman, Bessie Kosonen, Maggie Smith, Lola Mae Fugate, Bernice Goodlet, Doris Wilson and Cecil Dawes.

Perspiration is an enemy of silk garments. Its salt will deteriorate the sturdiest of silk yarns.

FAMILIES ATTEND WESTBROOK SOCIAL
Relatives and friends of Mrs. Ethel Westbrook met recently in the Knights of Columbus Hall for their annual reunion. After a covered dish luncheon was served at noon, those attending visited and played games.

Those attending were families of Messrs. and Mmes. Otis Kidwell Sr., Melvin Beum, K. N. Westbrook, W. G. Hamlin, Earnest Westbrook, Orwin Bradley, Larry Andrus, Eugene Taylor, Otis Kidwell, Clifton Westbrook, Bill Kidwell, Mmes. Aubrey West and sons; Ethel Westbrook, Troy Ledbetter and sons, Miss Vicki Ellis, Raymond Keys and John Courts, all of Pampa.

HIS LOVING DAUGHTER
DEAR ABBY: Recently a lady who signed herself "LOVES POPS" wrote that she was worried about her 82-year-old father whom she felt was too old to drive as he had already had a few minor accidents.

Wanting to find out what "Pops" chances for survival were, I looked up the 1965 statistics of the National Safety Council, and this is what I came up with:

In the age group "75 and over" there were 15 accidents per 100 drivers per year. In the age group "under 20," the figure was 35. In the age group 20-24, it was 34.

As for fatal accidents: In the age group "75 and over," there were 76 fatal accidents per 100,000 drivers per year. The under 20 drivers were killed at the rate of 89 per 100,000 per year. And the 20-24, at the rate of 101 per year.

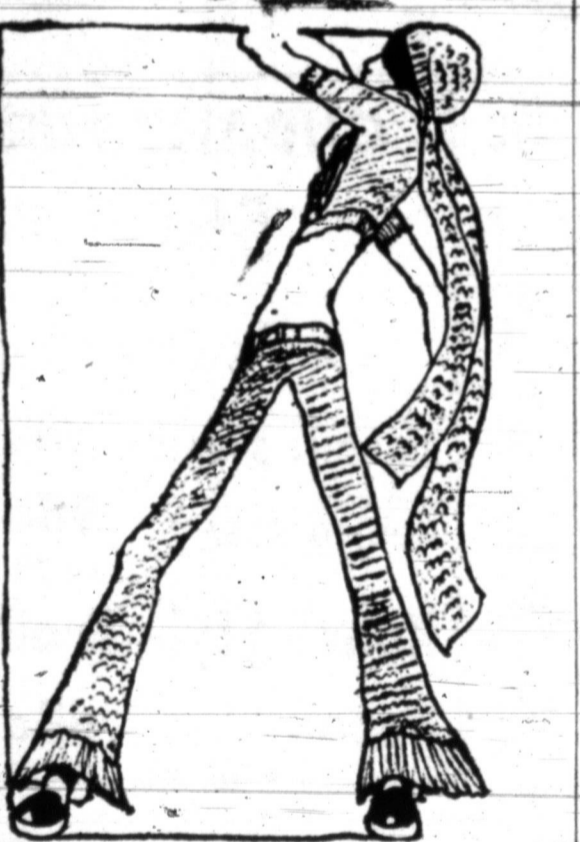

One may say, "The older drivers may have fewer accidents, but those who drive too slowly cause others to have accidents." This may be true occasionally, but more accidents are caused by younger drivers who drive too fast.

So tell "LOVES POPS" that if she has a son under 25, she should worry more about him and quit worrying about Pops.

Texas Politics

By MALOUF ABRAHAM

As we go into our third week things are getting hot and heavy here in Austin and sparks are flying. The budget and tax bills are over in the Senate and the arguments are under way.

They passed a budget of about $5.8 billion for the next two years. This is an increase of two billion dollars over the bill only four years ago—over 50 per cent. There were 17 of us who voted against it.

Then they passed the tax bill which raises around $325 million, but I am happy to tell you that there were 59 of us who voted against it. Frankly, I thought we would be lucky to get 35 votes.

I have taken the position of not voting for any new taxes unless they will reduce the proposed budget. I think all of us realize that it does cost more money to operate our state government. We have increased the teachers salaries, established new colleges, medical schools, dental schools, additional facilities for mental health, etc. and many other things that I feel we need.

However, I think that there are a number of other places where we could cut our spending. Even Washington has tightened their belt in several areas. I need to know if you feel the same way as I do or not. Just one item gives 200 people raises of $2,000 per year, which comes to nearly $800,000 for the two years. So, let me know what you think as it is a pretty lonesome feeling to be backing the pressure if you don't know whether your people are backing you or not.

Catholic Sister To Graduate From WTSU

CANYON (Staff)—Sister M. Emma Oswald of St. Francis Convent in Amarillo will receive a master of education degree at the Aug. 21 summer convocation of West Texas State University.

She is one of the few, if not the first Catholic nun to graduate from the university. She is the first student from the university to have the title "Sister" placed on her diploma, according to Dr. Walter H. Juniper, WTSU academic vice president.

Originally from Switzerland, she came to the United States in 1932. She came to Texas in 1939 from the Canal Zone where she served at Balboa for three years. Prior to her work in the Canal Zone, she served for eight years in California as principal of schools in Long Beach and Los Angeles.

Taking her bachelor of arts degree from Immaculate Heart College in Los Angeles, Calif., she attended colleges in Texas, New Mexico, Missouri and California.

She will wear the traditional graduation cap and gown over her habit. "The gown will cover the shorter habits we have now. Of course I will wear the veil," she said.

She presently teaches fifth grade at St. Lawrence Parochial School in Amarillo. She has also taught at Plainview and Odessa.

Miller Named Brush Control Specialist

COLLEGE STATION — Dr. Roy V. Miller, Jr. on August 1 became area range and brush control specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service with headquarters in Vernon.

Extension Director John E. Hutchison said this is a new position and is being made to strengthen and expand Extension educational programs in brush control and range improvement and use in the range counties of Extension Districts 1-2 and 3 (High and Rolling Plains).

The new specialist, the director added, will be county agricultural agents in his county agricultural agents in his field of work. He will work closely with the agents and their program building committees in developing county and area programs and increasing the number of large scale ranch demonstrations, noted Hutchison.

Miller will also work closely with research personnel in the area and with campus based research.

Washington Report

From Congress

BOB PRICE NEW BRUNSWICK, TEXAS

This week the House debated at great length one of the most important appropriations that comes before it each year: funding of our education programs. When the final vote was taken on Thursday night, a number of amendments had been added to the bill and additional funds had been provided for school libraries, vocational education, college construction, student loans and aid to elementary and secondary schools.

Additional funds for Federally impacted areas, education of the handicapped and facilities for mentally retarded. The amendments adopted on the House floor would add approximately $1 billion to the original budget requested by the Nixon Administration. A total of $17.7 billion was approved. This included funds, not only for the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, but for the Department of Labor and related agencies such as the National Labor Relations Board, the Inter-Agency Committee on Mexican-American Affairs and others.

The great bulk of the funds however, went to HEW. Some of the most interesting appropriation provisions which some members tried to have deleted from the bill. The provision offered by Rep. Jamie Whitten of Mississippi, would forbid the Department of HEW to use any funds appropriated in the bill to force bussing of students, closing of any school or forcing any student to attend a school against the choice of his parents. This would give congressional backing to Freedom of Choice plans and prevent cutting off Federal aid from school districts which the Department did not consider were moving speedily enough in implementing desegregation guidelines. Two attempts to knock this section out of the bill were defeated.

Since this legislation contains most of the money for student loans which Congress appropriates in each fiscal year, a provision was added to the bill which stated that no Federal aid should be granted to student rioters—and no aid should be accorded to colleges that did not act to cut off aid to rioters. Although this sounds wise, I was personally disappointed that no language was written into the Bill which would enforce these sections. They were approved in the Senate and contained in the bill as signed by the President—as a part of the law of the land but there are no provisions for enforcement.

Because of the inclusion of funds for programs—such as vocational education, and aid to school libraries—which are important to the 18th District, I voted for the bill as it finally emerged from three days of floor amendments and debate.

No one will deny the importance of proper education for our young people. They have been brought into a world which is heavy with problems. Perhaps we can at least equip them better through deeper knowledge and better education. The following residents of the 18th District were visitors to my Washington Office this week: Mr. & Mrs. Harry Whitlow, Jr. of Amarillo and Charles Cheryl, Charise, and Don Whitlow; Mr. & Mrs. Dennis Ward of Memphis; Mr. & Mrs. Donald Olson of Canyon; Mr. & Mrs. Bill Sheehan of Dumas.

TAKES TESTIMONY

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House antitrust subcommittee will take public testimony Sept. 10, 11, 17 and 18 on legislation to permit competing newspapers to use the same production facilities. The bill cleared by a Senate subcommittee, follows a Supreme Court ruling which said joint production arrangements violate antitrust laws. Forty-four newspapers in 22 cities have such production arrangements.

Television In Review

NEW YORK (UPI)—The television series is safe for the time being as the backbone of network viewing but NBC-TV is injecting more than 100 specials into its programming for the new season in a development that may alter the pattern in future years.

Don Durgin, president of the network, told a press conference it was the most ambitious and diversified schedule of special programs in television history and by the time he was through dropping the names of stars it began to sound like an understatement.

Starting Sept. 2 and continuing through to next summer there will be one special night, multi-special nights and even rare all-special nights. For an example of the latter make note of the night of Nov. 12—a Bill Cosby Special, followed by Johnny Carson's only special of the season, followed by a Diana Ross and The Supremes special.

and winding up with a musical, "Norman Rockwell's America," featuring Jonathan Winters.

This is a venture not without fiscal peril but if there is any insurance in talent NBC has certainly taken it out. Durgin divided the specials into three classes—"star," "drama" and "informational-cultural."

In the "star" special category he recited a list that included Julie Andrews, Jack Benny, Perry Como, Bing Crosby, Tony Curtis, Goldie Hawn, Lena Horne, Rowan and Martin (without the Laugh-In team), Jack Paar, Debbie Reynolds and Bob Hope whose nine contributions will begin Sept. 22 in a program featuring over 20 other comedians as guests.

Durgin promised 14 dramas, more, he said, than any other network and an impressive list of informational-cultural programs.

PIPE SMOKER

WASHINGTON, Mo. (UPI)—Nelson Hall isn't the type of fellow to be told "put that in your pipe and smoke it." He won the world's pipe smoking championship Saturday by puffing on a teaspoon of burley tobacco for 86 minutes and three seconds.

Four-Day Art Festival Stated At Borger

BORGER (Staff)—The Magic Plan Plains Arts and Crafts Association will stage a four-day downtown festival here Aug. 12-16.

Over 300 outstanding local and area artists will exhibit works between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Aug. 12-13-16 and between 10 a.m. and 9 p.m. Aug. 14-15.

Special demonstrations on art techniques are also scheduled.

A Pampa artist, Mrs. Mildred Prince, will demonstrate painting of miniatures at 4 p.m. Aug. 15. Other demonstrations are planned by two Amarillo painters, Ben Kohn and Harold Scott; Estelle Pruitt of Panhandle and Borger artists, Roseylee Palmer, Dorene Kirk, T. C. Donnell and Peaches Stevens.

A painting by Bob Johnson, Borger, will be given away during the festival.

All exhibitors will be honored at a reception at 3:30 p.m. Aug. 12 in Borger Motor Hotel.

Other features of the fine arts festival will be Indian and Hindu dances and a street square dance.

CAREER CORNER by F. J. Lahn

MORE CHANGE. Messner also notes two significant trends, both factors in upgrading job requirements for ad managers and agency account execs: (1) The new emphasis on the total marketing process, including marketing services, rather than ads only, and (2) management's broader communications requirements (need to talk to other audiences besides business buyers — government, plant communities, etc.). A college degree is usually necessary, and could be in liberal arts, journalism, business administration or in engineering or science.

Messner says either kind of education can be acceptable, depending upon the nature of the advertiser company or the agency account assignment.

EARNINGS. Generally about $10-20,000. A very few earned over $50,000 last year. Promotion typically may be to director of marketing, vice president of sales, director of communications or assistant to the president.

Women account for only about 1 per cent; however, a qualified, determined woman can be successful.

FOR MORE INFORMATION. According to several ad men who have done both industrial and consumer advertising, it's just as much fun selling a hundred carloads of widgets as selling 100,000 footballs. If you'd like to know more, the AIA will send you a free 22-page booklet, "Careers in Industrial Advertising," single copies only, if you mail me a postcard in care of this newspaper. Please allow several weeks for delivery.

Drivers' Ed Testing To Start Wednesday

Drivers' Education tests will begin at 8 a.m. Wednesday on the high school parking lot.

Students, who have completed classroom work, are asked to report to the high school for assignment of hours, according to A. R. Nooncaster, coordinator.

Nooncaster said students must be 16 years of age and have a restricted driving license in order to be tested.

Board To Be Named To Mange Center

WHITE DEER (SPL)—Plans are being formulated to name a management board for the newly-established Community Center here.

The Center will be located in the former Presbyterian Church building, which was recently given to the community to be used as a meeting place for civic and social functions.

To make reservations to use the center, persons are asked to contact Felix Ryals or Bob Martin at Wheeler-Evans elevator office.

USCG Applications Now Being Accepted

WASHINGTON — Congressman Bob Price announced that applications for appointment as Cadet, United States Coast Guard, Class of 1974 are now being accepted. Candidates interested in competing for appointment to the U. S. Coast Guard Academy must submit their application forms to the Academy prior to December 15, 1969, and must arrange through their secondary school guidance counselor to participate in the prescribed College Entrance Examination Board (CEEB) tests. Only those test results prior to or including the December 6, 1969 administration of the College Entrance Examination Board tests will be accepted.

Congressman Price emphasized the opportunity offered qualified young men who choose this four-year academic program which leads to a Bachelor of Science degree and a commission as an officer in America's oldest continuous seagoing armed service.

"Appointments are made solely on a nationwide competitive basis; there are no separate quotas for states or districts and no special categories," he said. "I urge all qualified young men who are interested in this worthwhile profession to write for details and application form as soon as possible to the Director of Admissions, U. S. Coast Guard Academy, New London, Connecticut 06320."

To be eligible for the next competition for appointment to the Coast Guard Academy, a candidate must be single, a citizen of the U.S., in excellent physical condition and must have reached his seventeenth but not his twenty-second birthday by July 1, 1970.

A high school diploma is the minimum educational requirement, although high school seniors assured of being graduated by June 30, 1970, are eligible to enter the competition if they will have at least 15 credits by that time. All applicants must have completed three units of English, and three units of mathematics including algebra and plane or coordinate geometry or their equivalents.

HOPES FOR RELEASE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The state department says it hopes its decision to let the three war prisoners released by North Vietnam return home without heavy military control will encourage Hanoi to release other prisoners. The prisoners are being allowed to return by commercial airlines and were permitted to talk with reporters. Hanoi previously expressed displeasure when men it released were taken home on military aircraft.

Extra Work By Players Encourage Coaches

All you have to do to know that the opening of football practice is less than two weeks away is take a look at a slightly slimmer Swede Lee and take a look in the coaches' office at Pampa High School.

Fall practice opens August 25 with two-a-days on tap until school starts. The coaches are ready, eager to get started.

Believe it or not so are the players. Even though faced with those tough Swede Lee practices in that hot August sun the players are even more eager than the coaches to get started.

Just about everybody will laugh at you when you tell 'em the Harvesters are gonna have a winning season this year.

But it's been a long time since we've had a group of young men as dedicated as the current crop of Harvester footballers.

Take John Jenkins for example.

Jenkins was asked to make quite a switch in positions this past spring, from split end to quarterback.

Had he been able to stay at his familiar position, Jenkins probably would have made the All-District team without a sweat.

But he made the switch. He looked only so-so in the spring football game.

He knew he had a lot of things to improve on and has been working all summer to improve on them.

You Don't Say...
By RON CROSS

He knew he had to be bigger, faster, smarter and be able to pass better.

He runs from home to the Country Club and back every day with weights on his ankles. He lives a pretty free piece from the country club.

John's mother had to take two jobs and buy another box to keep her offspring in food.

"A grown horse couldn't eat more," she moaned.

After eating, which is almost all the time, he works out on weights. He's currently 6'3 by 265 pounds.

When he isn't eating and running, John finds time to work on his passing (throws) to the fellows he figures he'll be throwing the ball to this fall.

He hasn't stopped there. At night he reads his play book, and there they were — playing touch football at 9 p.m.," said Lee.

"This type of attitude and devotion makes a coach just want to work that much harder," he said.

Lee and his coaches brought back some ideas from the coaches clinic that they plan on trying.

They were at work Monday going over and expanding running and passing plays.

There will be two new faces among the high school coaches on the "hill" this season.

Lee has hired Jimmy White to help coach the backs and quarterbacks.

White comes from Cedar Hill where he served as backfield coach after stints at Haltom City and Vidor.

Also new is Bryant Clark, who works with the defensive line and comes here from Goliad where he was head coach for three years and won his district two of those three years.

Carl Miller has moved up from Pampa Junior High to help work with the offense to complete the staff, which also includes Bob McAllister, Buddy Williams, James Lay, Ed Lehnick and James Cunningham.

"Sometimes when you go to coaches clinics and try to hire help it's a little hard if they've heard how bad you've been," said Lee. He added, "But we could tell 'em this year how hard our boys were working and it made a lot of difference, that—plus all the construction going on here."

Simpson Begins Drills For Pro Test Friday

By United Press International

Weeb Ewbank keeps insisting he's not thinking that much about New Haven this week. He claims his main worry is what's happening in Buffalo.

And what happened in Buffalo Monday couldn't have been too encouraging for the coach of the New York Jets.

O.J. arrived in Buffalo Monday.

After months of negotiations, O.J. Simpson signed a contract Saturday and came to Buffalo Monday with much fanfare. He received a kiss from Miss Buffalo of 1969 and got the keys to the city.

Will Make Debut

He began practice sessions with the Bills this morning and will make his pro debut in a regular season AFL game on Sept. 14 against the world champion New York Jets.

That's the philosophy Ewbank is talking about for his team's exhibition game this Sunday in New Haven. But then there are exhibition games and exhibition games.

This one is against the New York Giants in the Yale Bowl and it seems unlikely that very many of the players will regard it as just another exhibition.

Although the Jets are the world champions and have stolen much of the Giants' acclaim, there still is a tendency by the Giant followers to claim the Super Bowl victory over the Baltimore Colts was just a fluke upset and the Jets aren't really that good. This ruffles the Jets who want to enjoy full recognition as world champions.

"We're going to prove that the Super Bowl victory wasn't a fluke," linebacker Larry Grantham claims, "after all, we won the world championship."

In Buffalo, coach John Rauch of the Bills said he plans to get Simpson ready for Friday night's exhibition with Detroit. "even if we have to work him 24 hours a day."

Makes Trade

Coach George Allen of the Los Angeles Rams, who practically likes to make a trade every day, picked up wide receiver Dave McDaniel's from the Chicago Bears for a future draft choice. Commissioner Pete Rozelle also upheld the trade last week with the Eagles in which Jimmy Raye was sent to Philadelphia. The Eagles protested when they learned Raye has a pulled groin muscle but the protest was to no avail.

O. J. Pleases Buffalo Crowd

NIAGRA FALLS (UPI)—Youngsters tugged at his arm and stared in awe. Not-so-Youngsters tugged at his through the crowd for a mere glimpse or a handshake.

O. J. Simpson apparently suffered little harm to his popularity in the six months of contract brinkmanship he played with the Buffalo Bills.

Simpson was greeted by a cheering crowd estimated by sheriff's deputies at 2,500—more than turned out for the returning American Football League champions in 1965—as he stepped from a plane at Greater Buffalo International Airport.

He was kissed on the cheek by Miss Buffalo, Kathleen Karpinski, and handed the keys to the city by Mayor Frank A. Sedita.

It was a reception the Bills had not counted on and in fact had hoped to avoid. They did not announce his arrival time, trying to keep the pressure off the University of Southern California running back.

Hebert Traded

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (UPI)—The Pittsburgh Steelers, who traded former University of Houston end-kicker Ken Hebert to Minnesota, may get him back.

The man they traded for him, halfback Corney Davis, reportedly with a sore foot and the Vikings must either compensate with another player or return the 1968 third-round draft choice.

Martin Will Lead Twins In Yankee Series

NEW YORK (UPI)—Billy Martin will be "home" tonight—with his reputation intact.

The little battler, who became a celebrity while playing for the New York Yankees before he was exiled after the infamous "Copacabana incident," will be at Yankee Stadium as manager of the Minnesota Twins. Missing will be one of his pitchers, Dave Boswell, who was battered by Martin in a brawl in Detroit last week.

Martin also made it clear that he expects no reprimand from owner Calvin Griffith for getting involved in the scuffle.

"I don't see why he should anything to me, after all, Boswell hit me first."

Martin predicted Griffith will fine Boswell, who is back in Minneapolis after having four stitches removed from a laceration above the left eye. He still has four stitches in his lip.

But Boswell continued to engage in long distance verbal warfare with Martin.

He said he hoped to continue to pitch for the Twins and help them win this year's pennant—but it would be his last year with the club.

Nicklaus Eyes Victory In PGA Tourney

DAYTON, Ohio (UPI)—Big Jack Nicklaus, tuning up for the Thursday start of the 51st PGA golf championship here, has a message for these fans who wonder when he's going to start playing well:

"I think I've been playing well lately," said the guy who is being tabbed as the favorite for the 72-hole battle over the lush south course of the National Cash Register Club.

"I just haven't been getting anything for it," he grinned.

Nicklaus hasn't scored a victory on the tournament trail since the San Diego Open last February. Despite finishing "up" in several recent tournaments, it's been obvious that his inability to win has been irking him.

Mahan Ups Money In All-Around

DENVER (UPI)—Larry Mahan of Brooks, Ore., the top money-winner on the pro rodeo circuit for the past three years, added another $1,165 to his earnings over the past weekend at Colorado Springs, and Burwell, Neb.

The Rodeo Cowboys Association said Monday the latest winnings boost the 26-year-old cowboy's total for the year to $38,049. He still has a chance to top the record $51,996 which he won in 1967.

Dean Oliver of Boise, Idaho, was winless over the weekend, but remained in second place in the all-around standings with $32,276. Doug Brown of Silverton, Ore., picked up $1,841 in Colorado, Nebraska and Washington rodeos to stay in third place with $31,488.

Brown also leads the bull riding event with $21,570. Other event leaders include Bill Smith Cody, Wyo., saddle broncs, $18,797; Gary Tucker, Carlsbad, N. ## College Presidents Quitting

Way back when, at any rate, a "college" was a "collegium" and Latin was important in the curriculum, there would have been little likelihood of a headline like the one in the U.S. News & World Report. It reads, "Needed Immediately: 200 College Presidents."

Apparently "presidential fatigue" is running high as the heads of colleges and universities find they and their offices seem to be the chief targets of campus radicals. National Assn. of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges reports that presidential vacancies in their 111 schools are running 20 per cent higher than five years ago.

Speaking Of Public 'Service'

More than half the members of the U.S. House of Representatives and one-third of the Senate visited Cape Kennedy at public expense, most of them as guests of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, to watch the Apollo moon launch.

Total tax-paid costs of the Congressional visit, which included air travel and hotel accommodations, have not been made public.

The Great Put-Down

The "put-down" has become one of our most popular forms of insult. Throughout history, deflating detractors or the pompous has been applauded and the anecdotes have been repeated and recorded.

Diogenes, the 4th century founder of the sect of Cynics, was sitting on the ground one day when the conqueror Alexander the Great, confronted him and offered to grant a request. Diogenes replied, "Stand aside, you are blocking the sun." A great image deflator indeed.

CAPITOL EYE

'Evil' Days Ahead For Democrats

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA)—Not for a long time have Democratic leaders been so distressed at the general condition of their party as some of them are right now.

Symptomatically, the picture is terribly bleak financially. There is that $6 million debt fastened on the Democratic National Committee, and the not widely known but very real poverty of such an important state party organization as New York's.

With the governorship and U.S. Senate races coming up next year, one source says flatly: "The New York party is bankrupt."

The Democrats' reform committee on national convention delegate selection has had the shorts on money from its beginnings in January. It seems unlikely to get more hard cash than the $50,000 the National Committee originally allotted it. Only a very little outside help appears to have been arranged, despite liberal clamor for major reforms.

As everybody knows, Sen. Edward Kennedy's misfortunes in Massachusetts are regarded as having severely reduced his usefulness as a fund-raiser. Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine and some others have offered to pitch in harder, but they cannot match the Kennedy drawing power.

In New York City, always a crucial political showcase, the conservative Democratic nominee for mayor, City Controller Mario Proccaccio, is being steadily undercut by liberals in his party who are turning to Mayor John Lindsay on the Liberal party ticket.

The divisiveness there and in such other major places as Pennsylvania, Ohio and California puts a gloomy cast on the party's 1970 prospects, even though six juicy GOP governorships are on the line.

The Kennedy matter, of course, has added heavily to that gloom. Everywhere, the party seems deficient in "star quality" and there is a lack of driving leadership. Efforts to produce unity among the factions warring along the ideological spectrum are described by one veteran leader as "mere hand-holding."

WASHINGTON (NEA)—President Nixon's approach has seemed all the more confusing because he has encouraged the most furious type of debating within his administration and within the White House itself.

He has brought in men he considered to be the best, and held on to men he wanted from the Johnson and Kennedy administrations, whether they were "liberals" or "conservatives."

This has led to the most furious inner circle arguments and infighting over issues. Nixon is an attorney and believes thoroughly in the adversary (or protagonist) system of law as practiced in U.S. courts. Under this system, each case is acted on separately (considering precedents) and each side battles for what it believes with all its might.

This type of adversary "fighting" is now going on in the White House, the Pentagon, the Department of State, the Small Business Administration, the Department of Commerce, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and in a number of other departments and agencies.

Each side is leaking—or openly stating—its views and its attitudes to the press. It is known that in the White House the outlook of some advisers is so different from that of other advisers they work with as equals, superiors or assistants, that they quite openly do not trust each other.

Nixon believes this system works in the courts of the United States. He sees no reason why it will not work to advantage in the White House, in the cabinet and in the relations between his administration and Congress.

Postal Reform: Progress But in Opposite Directions
WASHINGTON—Postmaster General Blount is making some progress—in winning congressional support for the far-reaching plan to completely restructure the postal system—but it's still a long way from enactment.

The outcome could go either way. To win, the administration has to do a lot more than it has so far.

There is overwhelming bipartisan support in Congress on the urgent need for extensively overhauling the widely criticized and deficit-plagued postal service. But the far-from-settled key question is how this is to be done—within the existing Post Office Department, or by converting it into a public corporation along the lines of the highly successful Tennessee Valley Authority.

The latter is what the administration strongly advocates. It's vigorously backed on that by Lawrence O'Brien, former postmaster general and Democratic national chairman.

After more than three months of hearings, the House Post Office Committee is split three ways. The Senate committee has done nothing. It has held no hearings, and will not consider the issue until the House acts—which won't be before October, and possibly later.

Of the 26 House committee members, about 15 are closely split between pros and cons, with the remaining 11 still undecided. This group will determine what the committee eventually does.

The administration has its work cut out swaying the undecideds. Graphically indicative of the difficulty of the job is that some of the most powerful opponents are Republicans.

Most among them is Rep. H. R. Gross, Iowa, second-ranking GOP member. The highly regarded veteran legislator has a bill of his own to do the restructuring within the Post Office Department. The postmaster general would be removed from the Cabinet and a long-term executive installed, similar to the comptroller general, who holds office for 15 years.

WASHINGTON: The Doctor Says

By DR. W. G. BRANSTADT
Cotton-Lined Gloves
Relieve "Dispan" Hands

Q—In my work, my hands are constantly in and out of hot soapy water. Now my fingers are splitting and peeling. Can this be prevented?

A—This condition, sometimes called dispan hands, is often kept going indefinitely by overtreatment with strong disinfectants or antibiotic ointments. If you must put your hands in water containing a soap or detergent, you should wear rubber gloves that are lined with cotton. Remove the gloves as soon as you are through and put them where the inside lining can dry out. They should be replaced with new ones at frequent intervals.

Q—My doctor says I have carpal tunnel syndrome in both hands. What does this mean? Would an operation cure it?

A—This is a burning distress in the thumb, index, middle and half of the ring finger plus the corresponding two-thirds of the palm. Later there may be weakness in this area. It may be caused by anything that presses on the median nerve as it passes through the tunnel formed by the muscles and ligaments of the wrist. It may be associated with arthritis but, in many cases, the underlying cause cannot be found.

If treatment is sought early enough an injection of hydrocortisone repeated weekly for several weeks may cure it. If it is chronic and growing progressively worse, the pressure on the nerve should be relieved by a surgical operation.

Vietnam-Expensive Lesson On How To Save Money

By PAUL HARVEY
At one time the United States was trying to police the planet. It maintained military bases in 2,600 different places outside our own country.

There was a time when U.S. military installations abroad comforted our allies, incumbent governments felt that American guns were protecting them against attack from outside and overthrow from within.

At the same time, those host governments profited handsomely from the American dollars spent on and by the almost 2 million Americans and dependents stationed abroad.

But what profited them drained the U.S. Treasury. Further, with the advent of improved intercontinental missiles and supersonic bombers, it became less important to maintain U.S. troops around the Red perimeter. Now it is proved practicable to deliver destruction from a distance.

An Accomplishment Of Free Men

The American achievement of putting men on the moon pointed up more forcefully than anything else could have, the superiority of the free enterprise system, under which men and women live and work in a spirit of freedom and competition, over the Communist system under which men and women are slaves, doing the bidding of their masters.

An audience around the world estimated at 528 million persons watched the two Apollo 11 astronauts place the American Flag on the moon and saw and heard President Nixon speak to the two Americans on the moon and to the other one orbiting it.

By contrast with the overwhelmingly successful Apollo flight, in which Americans not only landed safely on the moon, but walked on its surface, ate, slept, and obtained samples of lunar rock to bring back with them, the Russian attempt to put even an unmanned object on the moon failed miserably.
