NG Hunt Looters In Storm-Racked Areas

PASS CHRISTIAN, Miss. (UPI) — National Guardsmen under stern orders hunted for looters and black marketeers today along the storm-ravaged Gulf Coast as authorities fought a monumental sanitation problem. The remnants of Hurricane Camille, meanwhile, brought new deaths in Virginia.

Rescue crews have recovered 240 bodies from the water, mud and rubble of the 600-square-mile area lashed by the strongest hurricane ever to hit the U.S. mainland.

At least nine persons died in flash flooding in Virginia, where squalls from the dying storm dumped up to 10 inches of rain.

Camille, which struck inland

Camille's Final Savagery Hits Historic Virginia

LOVINGSTON, Va. (UPI) — The historic James River swollen by rainstorms spawned by the remnants of Hurricane Camille, pushed toward the sea today leaving shattered mountain villages, bodies and broken roads in its backwash.

More than 20 persons were known dead, and authorities said the toll probably would be much higher when the waters receded.

The James, on whose banks was established England's first colonial colony at Jamestown in 1607, bore down on the capital city of Richmond with floodwaters expected to crest tonight at nearly 40 feet. Flood stage at Richmond is nine feet, and officials prepared for what they feared would be the worst flood in the city's history.

The weather bureau said it was Virginia's worst flood since 1936 as the James and its tributaries flooded from the Allegheny Mountains almost to the Atlantic Ocean.

Entire mountain towns were underwater. Super-Highways were blocked by landslides and rampaging rivers. Railroads bridges were washed away. Authorities said it would be days before they could calculate exactly the death and destruction.

Off Virginia's capes, Camille whipped up seas so fierce that a 58-foot pleasure boat had its hull pierced and its 29 occupants were rescued only after a daring air-sea mission by the Navy and Coast Guard.

Agnew Tours Areas Hit By Hurricane

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew sat and looked through the open door of the H33 military helicopter without expression. It was almost as if he couldn't believe his eyes.

The helicopter lifted east out of Gulfport and aimed toward Biloxi. There, it made a big swing and headed back west along the Gulf Coast past the hurricane-ravaged towns of Pass Christian, Bay St. Louis and Waveland in Mississippi and Port Sulphur in Louisiana.

When the destruction below was particularly terrible, the chopper circled. It did so near Gulfport where three ships are welded together on the sand. It did so over Pass Christian, whose elegant homes and trees have been mauled and twisted.

Romney shook his head from time to time in silent disbelief. Agnew's party did not set down on the ground during the 90-minute survey. It was an eight-hour strictly-business trip from Washington for Agnew, and he spent as much time in conferences before and after the tour as he did making it.

When Agnew arrived in Gulfport, he went into immediate conference with Williams, McKeithen and their staffs.

Agnew asked questions: "Is there anything to do immediately? Is there anything we're not doing that we should?"

Vietnam Talks Enter 31st Session With 'Little Hope'

PARIS (UPI) — The Vietnam talks entered their 31st session today with little hope. Allied negotiators and North Vietnam and the Viet Cong could break the eight-month stalemate in the conference.

The session was set for 10:30 a.m. (6:30 a.m. CDT.)

U.S. chief negotiator Henry Cabot Lodge was in Washington conferring with Nixon administration officials on U.S. strategy in the conference.

Allied spokesmen played down Lodge's trip to Washington and denied there was particular significance in the visit. One U.S. official said it was merely one of a series of planned routine conferences with the administration.

The Allies sought to investigate a remark made at the last session of the talks by Wu Xuan Thuy, chief of the North Vietnamese delegation.

Former Pampan Gives Aid To Storm's Victims

Salvation Army Capt. Bob Tritton, formerly of Pampa, and now of Athens, Ga., talked yesterday to Capt. Jess Duncan, giving him a report on Salvation Army work in the hurricane-stricken areas.

According to Duncan, presently head of Pampa's Salvation Army, Tritton said the Army had fed over 1,500 people in one hour. Tritton said the Army had supplied buildings before the storm struck.

Tritton also reported that he was given the opportunity to help a mother locate her three teenage children from whom she had been separated.

Mrs. Duncan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Varney, who live in Gulf Port, Miss., are presently serving as directors for the disaster area.

The state disaster director for the Salvation Army, Col. Paul Thronberg, has assigned Salvation Army personnel and equipment to the area.

"About 60 officers and volunteers from the state are serving in the disaster area," Duncan said.

The Salvation Army is presently concerned with emergency relief — food, clothing, shelter — in the area.

"We will send money contributed to the disaster directly to the disaster area," Duncan said. Approximately $200 had been received by the Red Cross in Pampa, according to Mrs. Don Wilson, assistant Red Cross director.

Probe Into Viet Murder Ends

LONG BINH, Vietnam (UPI) — The Army questioned a Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) agent and an Army enlisted man today then adjourned its investigation into the case of eight Green Berets suspected of murdering a Vietnamese civilian.

Henry Rothblatt of New York, lawyer for three of the accused, said the men would be cleared.

"This case must be dismissed for every legal and moral reason," Rothblatt said. "The Army has no evidence."

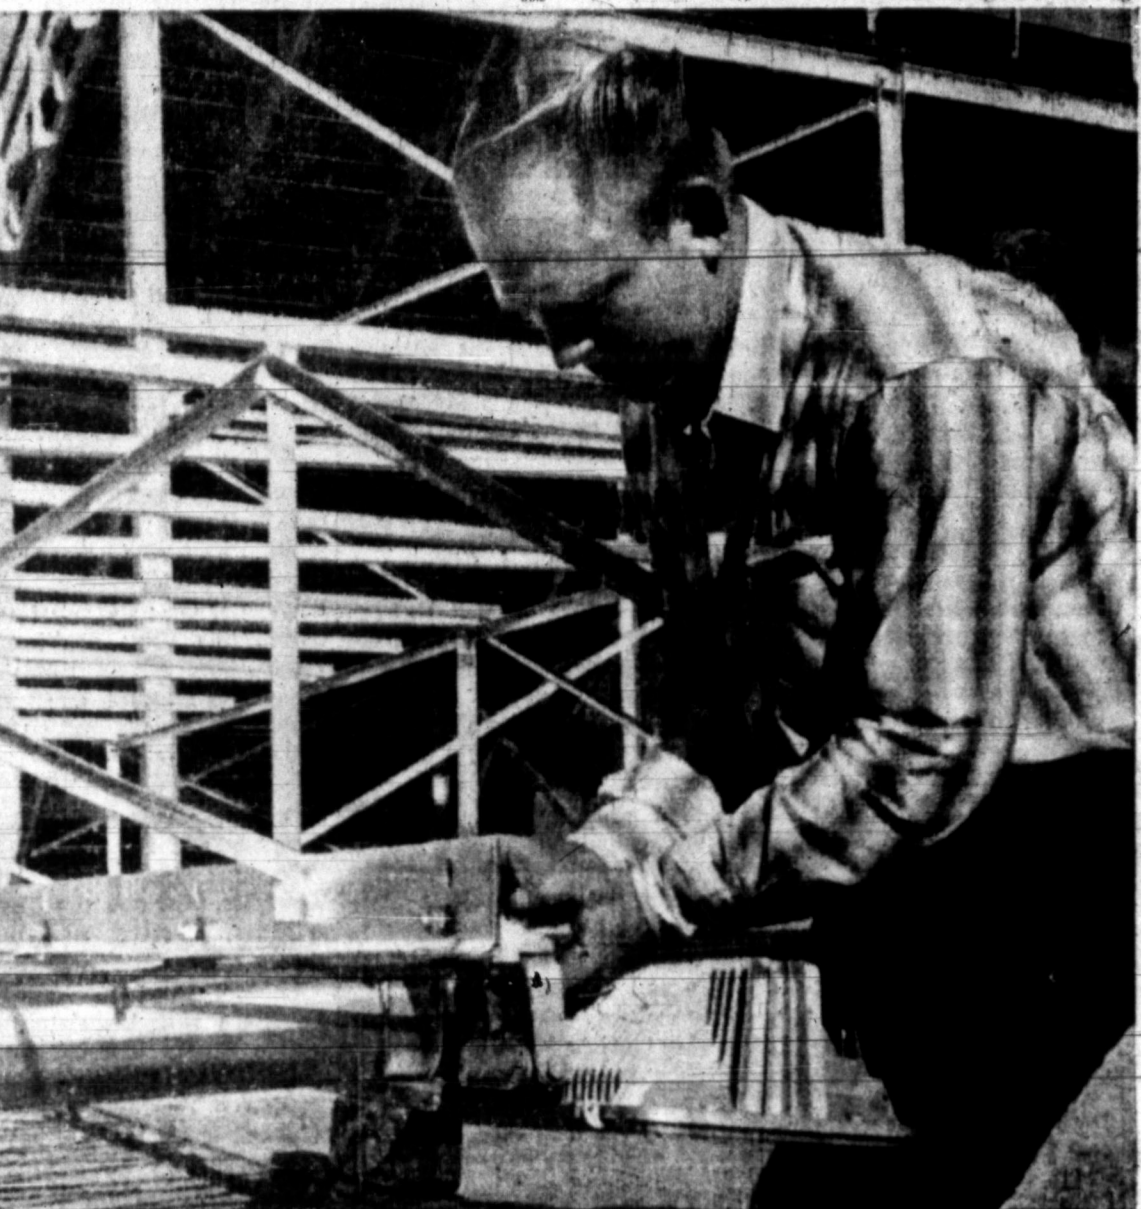

Rothblatt and his fellow defense lawyers formally asked dismissal of charges of murder and conspiracy to murder against the men, one of them the former commander of all Special Forces (Green Berets) in Vietnam.

Col. Harold D. Seaman of Hampton, Va., who presided over the two-day hearing at the stockade at Long Binh, 17 miles north of Saigon, will recommend whether to drop the charges or go ahead with a court-martial.

Col. Robert Rheault, 43, of Vineyard Haven, Mass., former commander of the U.S. Special Forces group, six of his subordinates and an enlisted man have been held in connection with what the Army says was the murder of a Vietnamese last June 20 near the coastal city of Nha Trang.

Along with Rheault and Middleton, the men accused are Maj. David E. Crew of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Capt. Leland J. Brumley of Duncan, Okla.; Capt. Robert F. Marasco of Bloomfield, N.J.; Capt. Budge E. Williams of Athens, Ga.; CWO Edward M. Boyle of New York City and SFC Alvin J. Smith of Naples, Fla.

NEW LIGHTING system for the Pampa High School football field is one step closer to completion as a crew from Electric Supply Co. has started to place the new lights on the steel poles. Shown here placing one of the new lamps in the steel cage that will hold them is Bob Ratliff, Pampa Mobile Home Court No. 13. The lighting system is expected to be complete and the new poles in place in approximately two weeks.

Two Dead, 320 Arrested; Czechs Protest On Invasion Anniversary

PRAGUE (UPI) — Thousands of persons honking horns and shouting "long live Dubcek!" poured into Wenceslas Square today to protest the Soviet-led invasion a year ago.

Resistance leaders had asked that there be five minutes of silence at noon (6 a.m. CDT) but citizens did just the opposite.

An estimated 15,000 persons rushed into the square, scene of two previous nights of fighting with riot police and army troops, as clocks struck noon.

Two persons have died, 320 have been arrested.

Cars and trucks drove into the area, honking their horns so loudly that an army helicopter flying overhead could not be heard.

Police and soldiers in the square took no action against the obviously well-planned demonstration. Only this morning, the Czechoslovak government had ordered reinforcements of police and troops into the area because of earlier disturbances.

As the noise from the square increased, employees of nearby offices and shops nearby went on a five-minute strike.

Two men, one stripped to the waist, climbed onto a bus and shouted, "long live Dubcek!" They referred to Alexander Dubcek whose liberal regime was ousted with the Warsaw Pact invasion.

Crowds began gathering in the square at mid-morning.

Police attempts to break up similar gatherings had set off Wednesday night's six hours of fighting and the violence on Tuesday night. On both days crowds did not gather in the square until 5 p.m.

A government announcement

some of Wednesday's demonstrators which it called "criminal elements," used guns against the police. A radio broadcast labeled them "hostile and hooligan elements."

Streets ran empty during the morning rush hour. All over Prague, a city of one million, people walked to work. One 65-year-old charwoman said she traveled 7.5 miles to her job on foot.

Thousands of persons wore a tiny black-trimmed emblem of the national tricolor.

The government announced two persons had been killed and 320 arrested Wednesday night in six hours of street fighting between hundreds of police and soldiers and 20,000 demonstrators.

The announcement said some of the demonstrators, whom it called "criminal elements," used guns against the police. It did not say whether the dead were police or civilians.

The government announcement today was the first official acknowledgement of the fighting.

"Provocations took place in Prague last night, mostly by young people," it said. "They built barricades on some places and damaged cars. These elements did not hesitate to use fire weapons against the police in which action two persons were killed and several injured."

PANMUNJOM, Korea (UPI) — The United States demanded today Communist North Korea return a downed U.S. helicopter and its three crewmen. The North Koreans refused even to say whether the men were alive.

North Korean Maj. Gen. Ri Choon-Sun demanded the United States tell "the real reason" why the helicopter strayed over the border. He said it was an act of aggression.

U.S. Marine Maj. Gen. Arthur H. Adams said there was no reason to shoot down the unarmed Army OH23 helicopter.

The conference was held at the bleak truce village in the 292nd meeting of Korean Military Armistice Commission since the end of the Korean War in July, 1953.

U.S. military officials said the helicopter became lost Sunday and accidentally flew over North Korean territory. The last message from the craft said it was under fire and was going down.

It was the third incident in Korea involving downing of U.S. military aircraft. A U.S. helicopter was shot down by Peace Problem Will Be Discussed In S.F.

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI) — President Nixon deals with a sticky problem today — how an Asian crisis such as South Korea with 50,000 troops involved in Vietnam War should approach peace.

The President planned to leave here in the late morning and fly to San Francisco for a two-day meeting with President Park Chung-Hee of South Korea. Their conferences will be held in the St. Francis Hotel fronting on Union Square, where there were certain to be a series of anti-Vietnam demonstrations.

The American government planned to give the jaunty, short South Korean chief executive a massive American welcome, including a ticker tape parade with Nixon through the San Francisco financial district.

Some Koreans recently have evidenced fear Nixon's announcement of scaled-down U.S. troop level in Vietnam might be interpreted by North Korea as a weakening of the American stance in Korea. From the meetings in San Francisco, however, there would come a joint statement designed to allay such fears and show the Eastern world that the United States and Korea have not diminished their alliance.

Nixon, being rather careful about such matters, was not expected to deal openly with Park's efforts to seek a third presidential term. The dimension of the South Korean's reception in San Francisco, however, would not be lost on the conflicting political parties in Seoul.

Park is attempting to repeal a constitutional ban on more than two terms for any president. His term expires in 1971 and he has promised to resign immediately if a referendum permitting a third term is defeated.

Park has been telling recent interviewers North Korea is winding up for another war, aimed at the South. Nixon has a somewhat less urgent attitude. But he is convinced North Korea presents an ever-present threat. As a consequence, he has said nothing about reducing the U.S. troop level in Korea which is about 50,000 men — roughly equivalent to the South Korean force level in Vietnam.

Bill To Raise Taxes Presented To Legislature

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — A bill that would raise Texans' taxes by $344.6 million over the next two years was offered to the legislature today on a take it or leave it basis.

One senator predicted the Senate would choose to leave it, even though that might require another special session of the legislature.

A 10-man tax conference committee scheduled a meeting at 9 a.m. to formally approve a "compromise" tax bill hammered out informally Wednesday night in Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes' office.

The committee's five-part tax package includes $59.8 million worth of business taxes, $177.2 million in increased and broadened sales taxes, $81.6 million in higher cigarette taxes, and a new $26 million tax on drinks served in private clubs.

One of the Senate's tax conferees, Sen. Don Kennard, D-Ford, said Wednesday he doubted the Senate would accept the package because it contains a one-half per cent sales tax hike that the Senate has rejected 10-21, and because it does not include an $81 million broadening of the corporate franchise tax proposed by the Senate.

Conference committee reports cannot be amended, so the House and Senate must accept or reject the entire package.

Rejection by either House would require the tax negotiators to start over again, and there are only six days left in the special session.

Gov. Preston Smith says he will call another special session immediately if the legislature fails to solve the state's financial problems in the current one.

The "compromise" tax bill raises:

- $137.2 million by increasing the state sales tax from 3 to 3 1/2 per cent. That would make the sales tax 4 1/2 per cent for the 8.5 million Texans who live in cities that have a 1 per cent local sales tax.

March Against Fear Staged In Arkansas Town

HAZEN, Ark. (UPI) — With a handful of unarmed black militant marchers a two-day walk away—Mayor Jerry J. Screeton threw up road blocks, armed 130 auxiliary policemen with shotguns and closed all businesses in preparation for the "march against fear."

The marchers—which numbered eight at the most—were to pass through Hazen Saturday.

The six foot-tall Negro militants spent the night at Forrest City with plenty of rubbing alcohol and epsom salts close at hand, planning to resume their "walk against fear" at daybreak.

The group, calling itself the "Invaders of Memphis" and led by Lance "Sweet Willie Wine" Watson, left West Memphis Wednesday on the five-day march that will end Sunday with a rally on the Capitol steps in Little Rock.

Pampans Suffer More Hot Temps

The forecast for the Pampa area continues to sound like a broken record with few clouds, high temperatures and a chance for showers.

Though light to heavy rains have fallen across the entire state during the week, Pampa has yet to claim her 20 per cent chance.

Isolated thunderstorms dumped heavy rains in the state Wednesday, and more scattered showers were forecast for today.

Beeville had 2 inches of rain in an hour Wednesday, bringing its six-hour total to 3 inches. Alice had 1.25 inches of rain in six hours. McAllen got more than an inch of rain, and the Beaumont-Port Arthur area received nearly that much.

Austin, Brownsville, Cotulla, Houston, Laredo, San Antonio and Victoria received lesser amounts.

A reported tornado was sighted near Amarillo Wednesday night but never touched ground.

Waco reported the highest temperature in Texas Wednesday with 103 degrees while it was 102 at Childress, 101 at Abilene, and 100 at Dallas, El Paso, Mineral Wells, San Angelo and Wichita Falls.

Two Accident Victims Remain In Critical Condition

A Wichita Falls woman and Pawnee City, Neb. youth, both involved in a two-car accident near Perryton Wednesday, remained in critical condition today in St. Anthony's Hospital, Amarillo, according to a hospital spokesman.

Mrs. Lois Hollenshead, 31, and Mark A. Torczon, 17, were both in the hospital's intensive care unit.

Mrs. Hollenshead's husband, the driver of a car in which she was a passenger, and her two children, Lydia, 11, and Douglas, 9, were listed in satisfactory condition at Ochilner General Hospital in Perryton.

A hospital spokesman said the boy would be transferred later today to St. Anthony's. He is his father, a sergeant in the Air Force, and sister suffered cuts and bruises.

Both Mrs. Hollenshead and Torczon suffered severe head injuries, according to the Amarillo hospital spokesman. All five were injured when their two cars collided five miles south of Perryton at about 8 a.m. Wednesday.

NO STRIKE—JUST TEA

JURBY, Isle of Man (UPI)—There was no air controllers strike, so the pilot of a Viscount airliner with 25 vacationers on board became puzzled when he had to circle the airport for 25 minutes without a reply from the control tower.

When they returned the pilot learned the tower staff had been out having afternoon tea. Airport officials promised an investigation.

County Judge and Mrs. S. R. Lenning Jr., 1727 Evergreen, are in Arkansas where they will pick up their two sons, Gary and Roy, who have been vacationing in the summer home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Lenning Sr., 2110 N. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Scott, 2535 Christine, and son Steve, have returned from Little Rock, Ark., where they visited with their son, Dennis.

WRONG BOTTOM

SUNDERLAND, England (UPI)—Trevor Wormald, 22, pleaded guilty in court Wednesday of practicing the Italian art of "bottom pinching" he had read about.

New Jersey is also known as the "Garden State."

Missouri is also known as the "Show Me State."

The state song of Maryland is "Maryland, My Maryland."

Survivors are his widow: two daughters, Mrs. Johnny Baucaum, Newton, Miss.; and Mrs. Bill Ward, Mobile, Ala.; two sons, Leo and Jerry, both of Forrest; four brothers and five sisters, including Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Altman, Stanley Harmon and Mrs. Erwin, all of Pampa.

WHITE DEER (Staff)—Funeral services for James Timothy Hill, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Hill, White Deer, were held today at graveside in the Vega cemetery.

The infant died Wednesday, one day after he was born in Northwest Texas Hospital, Amarillo. Burial was directed by N. S. Griggs and Sons Funeral Directors of Amarillo.

Survivors are his parents; two sisters, Kai and Kisti, of the home; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Halliburton, Vega, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hill, Canadian; and a great-grandmother, Mrs. Lydia Halliburton, Vega.

NO HOPE

TEHRAN (UPI)—The American Embassy in Athens has written an Iranian worker to suggest he forget Jacqueline Onassis and find himself another woman; the Tehran newspaper Kayhan said Wednesday.

The newspaper published the letter to Abraham Simounian of Abadan who has been writing daily letters to Mrs. Onassis imploring her to divorce her husband, Aristotle Onassis and marry him, the newspaper said.

He also appealed to American authorities in Greece asking them to help persuade Mrs. Onassis to get a divorce, Kayhan said.

FW&D Abandons Tracks, Sidings In Pampa Area

Fort Worth and Denver Railway Co. has given notice it has abandoned a line of railroad extending from milepost 253.00 at Wellington to milepost 331.29 at Pampa—effective Aug. 4.

Some 78.29 miles of sidings, spur tracks and appurtenances in Collingsworth, Wheeler and Gray Counties will no longer be used by the railroad company.

The action follows a washout of a bridge between Pampa and Shamrock, which could be repaired, but the expense would not compensate for the amount of traffic over the rails, according to company officials.

The Fort Worth and Denver Railway has not operated north of Shamrock for the past two months because of the washout. The Santa Fe Railway will serve Fort Worth and Denver industries in the Pampa area.

60 Acres Consumed By Grassland Fire

A grass fire burned through 60 acres Wednesday on the Jake Osborn ranch, 25 miles north of Pampa.

Pampa firemen answered the call about 2:30 p.m. Cause of the fire is unknown.

At 7 p.m. Wednesday firemen were called to a car fire in the 100 block of N. Gray. The vehicle belongs to Alvin Robbins.

Firemen listed cause of the fire as a flooded carburetor.

Two Accident Victims Remain In Critical Condition

A Wichita Falls woman and Pawnee City, Neb. youth, both involved in a two-car accident near Perryton Wednesday, remained in critical condition today in St. Anthony's Hospital, Amarillo, according to a hospital spokesman.

Mrs. Lois Hollenshead, 31, and Mark A. Torczon, 17, were both in the hospital's intensive care unit.

Mrs. Hollenshead's husband, the driver of a car in which she was a passenger, and her two children, Lynda, 11, and Douglas, 9, were listed in satisfactory condition at Ochilvie General Hospital in Perryton.

A hospital spokesman said the boy would be transferred later today to St. Anthony's. He is his father, a sergeant in the Air Force, and sister suffered cuts and bruises.

Both Mrs. Hollenshead and Torczon suffered severe head injuries, according to the Amarillo hospital spokesman.

All five were injured when their two cars collided five miles south of Perryton at about 8 a.m. Wednesday.

BLUEBERRY TRIFLE CAKE—luscious.

Food Page

For Fun Dessert, Serve
A Blueberry Trifle Cake

Have fun while the sun shines, fun with plump juicy blueberries in this case. If you plan to entertain at home over Labor Day weekend, make this handsome Blueberry Trifle Cake as a delicious farewell to summer.

BLUEBERRY TRIFLE CAKE

- 1 package yellow cake mix
- 1 cup (1/2-pt.) heavy cream whipped
- 1 teaspoon brandy or rum flavoring
- 1/4 cup confectioners' sugar
- 2 cups fresh blueberries
- 1/2 cup pecans

Prepare cake mix according to package directions. Pour batter into a well-greased and floured 9-inch spring form pan. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) for 40 to 50 minutes, or until cake tests done. Unmold and cool thoroughly. Scoop out the center of the cake leaving a shell 3/4-inch thick. Cube cake removed until you have 3 cups of cubes. Mix cream with brandy flavoring and sugar. Fold in cake cubes, blueberries and pecans. Spoon mixture into cake shell. Chill for several hours and then cut into wedges to serve. Yield: One 9-inch cake.

GINGERED FRESH BLUEBERRY COMPOTE
1 pint fresh blueberries
1 cup fresh orange juice
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1/4 cup confectioners' sugar
2 tablespoons minced preserved ginger
Fresh mint leaves for garnish
Wash blueberries and place in serving bowl. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over blueberries. Chill 1 to 2 hours. Serve in sherbet glasses or fruit dishes. Garnish with fresh mint leaves. Six servings.

Food Buying Guide

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The following guide to the nation's food buys for the weekend was prepared by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and Interior for UPI.

USDA's Food and Nutrition Service reports that food shoppers will find ample displays of meat and poultry and adequate stocks of vegetables and fruit in food stores and supermarkets this fourth weekend in August.

Broiler-fryer, chickens and turkeys continue to be readily available in all areas.

Peanut Cookies Perk Up Picnic

Everyone likes cookies. Particularly on a picnic. You will find this chocolate peanut version very, very pleasant.

- CHOCOLATE-PEANUT DREAMS
- One 6-ounce package (1 cup) semisweet chocolate pieces
- 1 1/2 cups miniature marshmallows
- 1/4 cup chunk-style peanut butter
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 1 cup flaked or shredded coconut
- 1/2 cup salted peanuts
- 1 cup rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked)

Melt chocolate pieces, marshmallows, peanut butter and butter in top of double boiler over hot, (not boiling,) water. Stir until smooth. Remove from heat; stir in milk, coconut, peanuts and oats. Mix thoroughly. Drop by teaspoons onto waxed paper. Chill thoroughly. Store in refrigerator. Makes three dozen.

BLUEBERRY TRIFLE CAKE—luscious.

For Fun Dessert, Serve A Blueberry Trifle Cake

Have fun while the sun shines, fun with plump juicy blueberries in this case. If you plan to entertain at home over Labor Day weekend, make this handsome Blueberry Trifle Cake as a delicious farewell to summer.

BLUEBERRY TRIFLE CAKE

- 1 package yellow cake mix
- 1 cup (1/2 pt.) heavy cream whipped
- 1 teaspoon brandy or rum flavoring
- 1/4 cup confectioners' sugar
- 2 cups fresh blueberries
- 1/2 cup pecans

Prepare cake mix according to package directions. Pour batter into a well-greased and floured 9-inch spring form pan. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) for 40 to 50 minutes, or until cake tests done. Unmold and cool thoroughly. Scoop out the center of the cake leaving a shell 3/4-inch thick. Cube cake removed until you have 3 cups of cubes. Mix cream with brandy flavoring and sugar. Fold in cake cubes, blueberries and pecans. Spoon mixture into cake shell. Chill for several hours and then cut into wedges to serve. Yield: One 9-inch cake.

GINGERED FRESH BLUEBERRY COMPOTE

- 1 pint fresh blueberries
- 1 cup fresh orange juice
- 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
- 1/4 cup confectioners' sugar
- 2 tablespoons minced preserved ginger
- Fresh mint leaves for garnish

Wash blueberries and place in serving bowl. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over blueberries. Chill 1 to 2 hours. Serve in sherbet glasses or fruit dishes. Garnish with fresh mint leaves. Six servings.

Food Buying Guide

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The following guide to the nation's food buys for the weekend was prepared by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and Interior for UPI.

USDA's Food and Nutrition Service reports that food shoppers will find ample displays of meat and poultry and adequate stocks of vegetables and fruit in food stores and supermarkets this fourth weekend in August.

Broiler-fryer chickens and turkeys continue to be readily available in all areas.

Peanut Cookies Perk Up Picnic

Everyone likes cookies. Particularly on a picnic. You will find this chocolate peanut version very, very pleasant.

CHOCOLATE-PEANUT DREAMS

- One 6-ounce package (1 cup) semisweet chocolate pieces
- 1 1/2 cups miniature marshmallows
- 1/4 cup chunk-style peanut butter
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 1 cup flaked or shredded coconut
- 1/2 cup salted peanuts
- 1 cup rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked)

Melt chocolate pieces, marshmallows, peanut butter and butter in top of double boiler over hot, (not boiling) water. Stir until smooth. Remove from heat; stir in milk, coconut, peanuts and oats. Mix thoroughly. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto waxed paper. Chill thoroughly. Store in refrigerator. Makes three dozen.

Television In Review

NEW YORK (UPI)—Anyone who is uptight and wants to do his thing will have to get down to the nitty gritty without the aid of Cab Calloway.

Cab is alive and well and appearing as an actor on television and Broadway but those who use the flabby clichés of the day (like "the above") to say so are liable to be put down by the master.

Long before this generation had its first hangup Cab was helping compile the "Hepster's Dictionary," a reference book of the jive talk popular in the era of the big bands when his fame as maestro, singer and composer was international.

As Cab happily recalled it those were the torrid '30's when "solid" gave "okay" a lot of competition and cats who dug what was cooking were on the beam. Some jive words and phrases are still around—pot, for instance—but only an optimist would predict longevity for the verbalisms now beating the gums (as Cab might say) of the young.

Cab plays the Angel Gabriel in the NBC-TV "Hallmark Hall of Fame" production of "The Littlest Angel," an original musical based on Charles Tazewell's Christmas story. To take the role he did a little moonlighting on his featured role in the Broadway musical "Hello Dolly."

"The Littlest Angel" will be broadcast the night of Dec. 6 which the network insists is the holiday season. Others might think they were rushing it a bit but Christmas programs are often careless of time—this one was taped in February with the tinsel and wrappings of the last celebration scarcely down the incinerator. And here and there this hot and humid summer television people are trying desperately to whip up the festive spirit for other shows

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Even if I didn't have a calendar handy, I could tell the time is drawing near for school to start again. The signs are evident in household magazines, which are now featuring back-to-school advice for parents.

Getting parents prepared for the reopening of school is one of the major chores that household magazines have taken into themselves.

I gather it doesn't much matter whether the students and teachers are prepared. Students and teachers are only incidental to the educational process. The important thing is to make sure the parents know what they are doing.

One of the articles I have been reading contains detailed instructions on how a parent should go about handling his child's homework. This is always a major problem.

Police On Guard As AVCO Golf Gets Underway

SUTTON, Mass. (UPI)—Policemen outnumbered the big names of the professional golf tour today for the start of the $150,000 AVCO classic.

Officials of the PGA, the host Pleasant Valley Country Club and local law enforcement agencies appeared to have "overreacted" somewhat in the wake of civil rights demonstrations that threatened to interrupt the PGA championships last week in Ohio.

Estimates varied on the number of policemen mixing with the expected gallery of more than 20,000 on this lush central Massachusetts course but there were close to 100 uniformed and plainclothes officers slated for security duty during the four-day tournament.

South Africa's Gary Player, runnerup in the PGA test and the target of demonstrating groups in Ohio, shot an even-par 72 during Wednesday's pro-am test and admitted that the nearly two dozen policemen who accompanied him along with several hundred fans had "disturbed my concentration while putting."

Player, the top favorite and leading gallery attraction in the 72-hole chase of the $30,000 first prize, didn't want to discuss the Ohio disturbance though he did allow it was the "worst week my career."

Player, who had a 283 total on a slightly shorter version of the same course in 1965, agreed he had to be ranked among the favorites but at the same time named Billy Casper, who fired a two-under 70 Wednesday, as a strong contender because of his putting ability. The Pleasant Valley greens average more than 10,000 square feet.

Missing from the field were Arnold Palmer, winner of the top prize on the same course one year ago, leading money winner Frank Beard, current earnings runnerup Dave Hill, and gallery favorite Jack Nicklaus.

The tournament sponsors didn't really get upset, however, until Ray Floyd, winner in the PGA championship last Sunday, was scratched at the last minute.

Footballers, Queens Highlight Greenbelt

Thursday short subjects about noting in particular...

Our sincerest apologies to Steven Guitierrez and Jeanne Johnel of Canadian, Odie Kizziar and Linda Yost of Perryton; Janice Ware and Tommy Cole of Wheeler; Charlotte Dickey, Mobeetie; Bruce Locke and Becky McBrayer of White Deer.

The above mentioned young ladies were queen candidates in the Greenbelt Bowl game played last Saturday in Childress and the above mentioned young men played in the game.

The Greenbelt Bowl publicity committee didn't send out a roster or list of queen candidates.

The game was also dedicated to Keitha Morris who was the 1967 Greenbelt Bowl Queen and Jack Smith of Childress who was to play in the game but was killed in a car accident.

Football practice is underway for Class B through AA schools and after trips to White Deer and Canadian and word from Lefors, it looks like it's going to be an exciting year in the Panhandle.

Both Canadian and White Deer are small in personnel but both have good size and speed. Both will be suffering from inexperience.

Scott Dunham, who begins his first year at Lefors, says

You Don't Say...

By RON CROSS

his squad is small but has lots of enthusiasm and hustle. Dunham's team is inexperienced with 10 freshmen, nine sophomores, four juniors and two seniors reporting for practice.

Pampa and other AAAA schools start practice Monday and the Harvesters check out shoes and the like Monday at 8 a.m.

And the Harvester Club is in full swing again.

Tuesday, beginning at 7:30 p.m., everybody is invited to an ice cream supper at Harvester Stadium.

There you will have a chance to meet the varsity players and I doubt you will recognize any of 'em. They've all grown up to be big boys who have a "we can't lose attitude." Great, eh.

Memberships to the Harvester Club will also be available and the emphasis of the ice cream social is on membership and the ice cream is free.

All the good wishes that he needs goes to Buz Tarpley who got the golfer's dream earlier this week.

Buz made an ace on the three par No. 5 at Pampa Country Club. He aced the 150-yard hole with a seven-iron. Buz was playing with E. M. Wilson, Chusley Leonard and two out-of-town guests.

He shot a 76 for the 18 hole round. Anybody's likely to go to pieces after a hole-in-one.

The Cowboy-Green Bay game is a sellout, as it always is, and tickets are scarce for the Jet-Cowboy game in Dallas on Sept. 6. The Pack is the underdog against Dallas and New York with Joe Namath apparently back in good form in an even choice.

Carl McAdams, White Deer and Oklahoma University great is on the injury list again for the Jets. He probably will be back in action when the Jets journey to Big D.

Competing with the Pancel tournament this weekend will be the XII invitational in Dalhart at the Country Club.

This is the first year for the tournament to be played over the full 18 hole layout with the final nine having just been completed.

A set of irons, set of woods, golf bag and golf shoes will be given the top four finishers in each flight. Tee off times will fall between 8 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Anyone interested in playing should contact Fred Pendergrass at the country club.

Former Harvester and Houston star Kenny Hebert is being allowed to practice with the Minnesota Vikings, while pro football czar Pete Rozelle studies a trade between Pittsburgh and the Vikings.

The fellow the Steelers traded Kenny for has come up with a bad leg and the transactions may be shot.

Grid Giants Cut Seven Players, Two Veterans

By United Press International
 The New York Giants have exacted the first penalties for their embarrassing 37-14 exhibition loss to the New York Jets last Sunday.

Seven players were cut from the roster Wednesday, including two veterans who seemed assured of jobs. They were running back Ronnie Blye, who represented the Giants' only outside threat, and linebacker Barry Brown, a four-year veteran obtained last year from Baltimore.

Another player dropped was rookie running back George Irby, and it may not be too coincidental that he and Blye were involved in a kick-off blunder that led to an important Jets' touchdown.

The four other players released, all rookies, were defensive back Ken Parker of Fordham, guard Byron Jones of North Texas State, offensive tackle Ken Riley of Arlington State and defensive back Dick Perrin of Bowling Green.

The Jets had reason for mixed emotion on their own part Wednesday. Cornerback Johnny Sample was admitted to Lenox Hill Hospital for further treatment of a back strain, on tackle Tom Sarkisian and quarterback Jim Corcoran.

The San Francisco Forty-Niners released tackle Dave Hettema of New Mexico and wide receiver Tom Jones of Alabama A&M, running back Jeff Jordan and linebacker Maxie Baughan, both of whom were injured, participated in workouts with the Los Angeles Rams, quarterback Jim Hart of the St. Louis Cardinals is bothered by a jammed index finger on his right hand and may not be able to play in Saturday night's exhibition against the Minnesota Vikings at Memphis, Tenn.

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for two years and am expecting my first baby in about a month. We are both excited about it as this was a planned baby. My mother-in-law who lives out of the city came to visit us last week, and when she saw that I had a cat she said, "Of course when the baby comes you will get rid of the cat!"

I told her "Fluffy" had been with us since she was a kitten and I had no intentions of getting rid of her. Then she went into a big long speech about how cats give babies ringworm, and they have also been known to jump into crib and suck the breath from a baby, suffocating it.

Can you tell me if she is right? If there is any danger in having a cat in my house, I will give Fluffy away.

she has a child, and three, she's older than I am.

I love my mother and don't want to hurt her, so what do you think I should do? Marry this girl without my mother's blessings and hope my mother accepts her later on. Or give up this girl and try to find a girl my mother approves of?

DEBATING: If your mother calls the above-mentioned set of circumstances "strikes," she wouldn't make a very fair umpire. I can't tell you whether or not to marry this woman, but I can tell you that if you are "debating" you're not ready to get married yet.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the wife who wanted to hear from single girls who are having "back alley intimacies" with married men.

How long has it been since you took the trouble to spend one fun-filled hour with your husband? I am not speaking of "physical fun." I mean the fun of sharing a silly joke, dancing around the dining room table, or just relaxing with conversation and maybe a glass of beer. How long has it been since you told your husband you loved him? And appreciated him. And tried to lift his spirits and take his mind off his every day troubles?

This is what goes on between married men and their "back alley" girls friends. I should know.

BEEN THERE CONFIDENTIAL TO JESS: Reforms always come from below. No man with four aces ever asks for a new deal.

My problem is my mother. She doesn't approve. She hasn't given this girl a chance, she just doesn't like her. She says she has three strikes against her. One, she's a divorcee, two,

Domestic Space Problem Develops For Collectors With Moon-O-Mania

By PATRICIA McCORMACK
NEW YORK (UPI) — Help! Help! Help!

I'm suffering from moon-omania. You are, too, if you can't stop collecting things connected with the Apollo 11 mission.

It's leading to a space problem all its own on the homefront. A very simple matter: Not enough space to keep all the oddments I've been dragging home in shopping bags.

The stacks of newspapers dot the living room, halls and other free spaces in our cramped mortgaged cottage. Other bundles of papers and magazines connected with the Apollo project (1 through 11), plus the Mercury and Gemini feats, are in the garage, the car trunk, spaces in the linen closet.

"Boy, was I lucky today," I told my mate, as I struggled into the house the other day with two shopping bags full of moon-landing day papers collected from friends.

"Can you imagine, they were going to throw these out," I gasped.

"Don't you think it's time you call a halt to this," my mate said. "We have just so much room."

"But this is historic," I said. "We can't let any of this get away from us."

"Watch the loose use of the word 'us,' you're the collector," he said. "I'm perfectly content to trust libraries to keep these things."

I waited until after supper to let him in on the really big news—23 copies of a decal marked Apollo 11 and showing an American flag and proclaiming: "Good Old U.S.A.—First on the Moon."

"But we don't have 23 windows," he said.

He should look on the bright side. Instead of collecting all these things I could pester him to buy me a little moon watch.

This $5,000 memento put out for the occasion of Apollo 11's fantastic excursion consists of an arc of diamonds set to simulate the bright side of the moon.

As every moon-omaniaic knows, it's better to stick with the books and papers.

EASY TO SLIP-ON FOR FALL. A flip for day or cascading "George" for evening are just two of the head-line talents of a new idea in hairpieces called the "Slip-On". This new ten-inch postiche is made of 100% human hair. It has an unusually small, slightly domed base with a wired edge so that it can be popped anywhere on the head for fullness, burst of curl, or cascade without a telltale dividing line.

Fashionable Fall Entertaining Goes Indoors With Cheese Fondue Recipe

Think fashioning for Fall... time for coming back indoors, and think entertaining with such fun feasts as fondue.

It's also the time to think about refurbishing and sprucing-up with colorful and gay accent pieces or even going on to bigger things—such as buying new carpet.

Right in step with today's focus on casual living is "In Fashion," a handsome three-level tip sheared carpet, made of luxurious encon polyester. Patterned carpets are so practical and easy to care for — and when made of polyester—a room really comes alive.

Sunny yellows, and golden tones spiced with white accessory pieces are just the right young and fresh look.

FASHIONABLE CHEESE FONDUE

2 1/4 cups milk, scalded
2 cups coarse day-old bread crumbs
3 cups grated processed American cheese (3/4 lb.)
1 teaspoon salt-few drops tabasco

1 teaspoon worchesetshire sauce
2 tablespoons minced onion
1 teaspoon dry mustard
4 eggs, separated

Heat oven to 375 degrees. Cool scalded milk. Combine next 7 ingredients in large bowl. Add milk, mix well. Beat yolks stiff but not dry; fold in. Turn into greased 2-qt. casserole. Set in pan filled with warm water to 1" from top of casserole. Bake 1 1/2 hrs. or until golden brown and firm at center. Makes 6 servings.

IT'S FONDUE TIME! Fun-feasts in a setting such as this are especially enjoyable. Spruce up that corner with colorful accent pieces, or choose new carpet to put fun on a new footing. Shown, "In Fashion," a three-level tip sheared carpet of luxurious, easy-care polyester. Rascinating rocks and minerals displayed are great conversation piece.

American Legion Auxiliary Members Select Officers

The American Legion Auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. J. M. Foster for the August meeting as Mrs. Frank Shotwell chairman of the nominating committee reported on the committee's choices.

Officers elected by acclamation were President, Mrs. Ruth Sewel; Vice President, Molly Butts; Treasurer, Gladys Turner; Secretary, Mrs. Jim Wheeler; Reporter, Libby Shotwell, and Chaplain Mrs. J. M. Foster.

The regular meeting date was changed to the second Thursday of each month at the request of the new president.

Mrs. Lyle K. Stout, was the first to pay her 1970 dues, as the first member of the auxiliary.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Frank Shotwell, where the new officers will be installed.

Your Horoscope

JEANE DIXON

FRIDAY, AUG. 22
Your birthday Friday: Your intuition comes in strong and clear to lead you through the complexities of the year. Friday's natives usually have the will and the ability to hold positions of authority.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Friday it is worth the trouble to present a composed surface. The temptation is to jump to conclusions on hearing or noticing just half the story.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): It seems that people you care about have to balk a bit from time to time just to make sure of the relationship. Formal business should be pursued with particular attention to figures.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Your continued optimism touches others; your patience with their whims is rewarded later. People in authority differ; you may help bridge the gap.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Brevity is the core of real communion Friday. If you offer too many words the effect is blurred. Expect indecision among those working with you; take your own forthright course.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): There is restless movement Friday. Just be sure of why you are pushing, and where it leads. The start of an original line of thought may occur to you now.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Assume that perhaps your whole approach could be changed to have more validity; then have the courage to try to change in midstream (which is where you are). Personalities in conversation may go beyond your plans. Get to the heart of the questions.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Your partners or associates mean well, but somewhere their accuracy is somewhat out of line. Find the error and figure some way to get it straight without an argument over right and wrong.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Thursday's tensions continue. Your friends may insist on discussing your affairs. It is best you draw a line as to what is your life and welfare and what is somebody else's concern.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Put your effort Friday into projecting your personality, your ability, your will to achieve. In dealing with your loved ones, a querulous manner will not work now.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): The day moves quickly, so get an early start. There is much to learn; moments of revelation as to who is doing what and why.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Travel is not very helpful to you Friday. Friends and acquaintances are apt to be toying with speculative enterprises.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): You may assume that everybody is fully aware of whatever the story is. Actually, until you start talking, most people have so little of the tale that it doesn't really matter.

Bit Of Reform Needed

By its very definition, a tax bill — even a tax reform bill — has got to be unpopular with somebody, so says Don Oakley.

Among other things, a chunk was taken out of the special tax privileges granted oil producers, reducing the depletion allowance from 27 1/2 per cent to 20 per cent.

What began as a tax reform effort, however, gathered such momentum that it ended up as a tax-slashing spree, with hefty cuts not only for those in the lowest income bracket but for the tens of millions of so-called "forgotten Americans" in the $10,000-and-up category.

A Bow To Women Drivers

It is an unchallengeable fact that WOMEN are better drivers than MEN.

Police in Sarnia, Ontario, Canada, decided last May to present awards for courteous driving each week in an effort to encourage safe driving practices on the city's streets.

Things that were looked for in the way of good vehicular deportment included signaling intention to turn, yielding the right-of-way to pedestrians and slowing down for school areas or construction work.

It took a "disgusting" two weeks, reports the Ontario Department of Transport, to find the first courteous driver — a woman.

The next two prize-winners were also women. In one case, police followed 16 male motorists before coming upon a courteous driver — a woman.

The only male to qualify for an award was — you'd never guess — a 19-year-old motorcyclist.

New Politics Thrust On Americans

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) — No vaguer notion has been thrust on the American people in recent times than that encompassed in the phrase, new politics.

Of course, it does immediately conjure up certain things — an end to political bossism of the sort practiced by Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago; fairer representation for all groups in the choice of national convention delegates; heavier participation of young people in the political processes, as voters, candidates, and forefok influences on policy-making.

Yet, even though the phrase is used constantly by politicians, political writers, students and others, "new politics" in fact is an idea awash in confusion.

To illustrate: Richard N. Goodwin, writer and teacher, probably was most strongly identified in 1968 with Sen. Eugene McCarthy, whose presidential candidacy enlisted many of the young and helped to spur talk of the "new politics."

Nevertheless, in an interview on this subject in the magazine Washington Monthly, Goodwin says:

"The students and kids can't be expected to come up with these kinds of things (policies and programs) because they're not old enough and haven't had the experience of the society. . . . History has a lot of brilliant 20-year-old poets but very few brilliant social critics in their 20s."

"I think therefore it's unrealistic and unreasonable for people to say, 'Well, what ideas for the future does the SDS (Students for a Democratic Society) have?'"

In contrast to Goodwin, Lawrence F. O'Brien, long-time aide to the Kennedys, postmaster general under President Johnson, and just recently a Democratic national chairman, would be perceived by most party people as a practitioner of the "old politics."

Nevertheless, O'Brien told this reporter that efforts to reform the Democratic party through existing special committees on convention rules and delegate selection are a mere patch on the job.

He thinks the young people whom Goodwin doubts are "ready" ought to be warped into the party operation quickly and fully.

For a starter, O'Brien wants the voting age lowered to 18 nationwide. But beyond that, he wants many, many more young candidates for office, and an active "idea" role for interested youth in the major councils of his party.

This does not mean turning the party over to the young. But he sees them as bright, imaginative and immediately useful, and does not think they should have to go the "old painful seniority route up the political ladder before holding office or affecting policy directly.

Supposedly, what O'Brien lays out here is all about the "new politics" is all about it. If a definition cannot be found in this realm, then there probably is not very much meaning to the idea at all.

The matter of modernizing convention rules, introducing better balance into delegate selection procedures and so on really falls well within the orbit of the "old politics" — adjusted to keep things in proper working condition.

Was it "new politics" when the U. S. Supreme Court decreed that states must apportion their legislatures fairly and then went on to sustain the principle of "one man-one vote" as the test of fairness?

Since we have representative democracy in this country, one could argue that the court simply was making the "old politics" work by demanding that the states apply thoroughly the principles their constitutions subscribe to — in consonance with the U.S. constitution.

By the same token, what the two Democratic reform committees are trying to do could also be considered just an updating of the old. Conventions and delegate selection methods are supposed to be rooted in fairness. What is "new" is merely reinforcing the processes?

WASHINGTON:

Ho Sniffs Concessions From 'In-A-Hurry' Nixon

By RAY CROMLEY

Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON (NEA) — A decade and a half ago the premier of France publicly promised to resign if he did not achieve a treaty with Ho Chi Minh on Indochina by a fixed date.

Once Ho learned of this promise, he knew that all he had to do was fold his arms and wait patiently. Mendes France was bound to accept his demands in order to meet his self-imposed deadline, made necessary by antiwar feelings within France.

Months before Johnson stopped bombing North Vietnam, Ho confidently told visitors the bombing would halt and predicted the date. Johnson met Ho's predicted date almost on the nose.

These documents and reports indicate Ho's men believe if they wait, and keep the pressure up however haphazardly until next summer, Nixon will be forced to make the concessions they want.

As the Hanoi men seem to see it, Nixon must have most Americans out of Vietnam, and some very good prospects for a settlement before the elections if the Republican party

Seven more community capitalism efforts received some $3.2 million grants in July. One of these is the Georgia Council on Human Relations (GCHR).

They got a 2-year grant of $481,413 to establish a company for the production of channel catfish. At the same time, Mary Holmes College of West Point, Miss., got $144,800 to see if the farmers can raise channel catfish.

Local officials say they estimate that at least 200 poor farmers could raise catfish in their own ponds which would mean an added gross of $325,000 annually. Well, why don't they?

It is a known fact that if you put a couple of catfish in a pond and leave them for awhile there will be more catfish in there than you can haul away in a conestoga wagon. Not only that, you can't hardly kill off the mother and father, even when you pound them over the head with a board.

Of course, it wouldn't do the politicians any good if they was to just tell the poor farmers to raise some catfish and sell them. What is needed is to set up two agencies, one to study it, and the other to fund it, and call it the ECCO (East Central Catfish Committee for Opportunity).

Nope. Nothing can get done righty today unless you go thru proper catfish channels.

The Doctor Says

'Burning Feet' Ailment Is of Varied Origin

Q — What is the cause and treatment of a burning sensation in my feet? I don't have athlete's foot? I have taken vitamins and other medicines but nothing has helped.

A — Possible causes of your trouble are: hardening of the arteries, excessive use of alcohol or tobacco, Raynaud's disease, frostbite, tight shoes or a deficiency of vitamin B. If your doctor can identify the cause, he may be able to direct his treatment to its removal.

WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT — In assailing Sayre's reported contemplated appointment as ambassador to Panama, Rep. Flood sharply challenged his fitness and qualifications.

H. L. Hunt Writes

THE TRAGEDY OF MOISE TSHOMBE

We may never learn the whole truth concerning the death of Moise Tshombe in Algeria. But his death should remind us of the disastrous United Nations intervention against Katanga.

When the Congo received its independence from Belgium, the first premier of the Congo, Patrice Lumumba, did nothing to maintain order. Only in Katanga, led by Moise Tshombe, were the basic standards of civilized life instituted.

Tshombe, realizing that the Congo as a whole was not ready for independence, and recognizing the danger of communist influence over Lumumba, declared Katanga independent.

The United Nations, supposedly concerned with maintaining peace and preserving freedom, moved in to crush Katanga, the only area of the Congo where peace and freedom actually existed.

In a recently published book, Sir Ian Scott, first British ambassador to the Congo, points out that U.N. officials deliberately falsified their reports of events in the Congo and Katanga, so as to put Tshombe in the worst possible light.

He explains that "United Nations policy, if it could be called a policy, was that Tshombe was a bad thing and everything had to be done to suppress him." Our State Department denied Tshombe a visa to visit the U.S. Yet Tshombe represented the best hope for real progress in the Congo.

Our government furnished airlift for the U.N. soldiers who committed savage atrocities in Katanga. Washington still supports and subsidizes the Congolese government, in spite of its continued use of terrorism against those who oppose it.

The death of Tshombe should encourage a re-evaluation of our policy toward the Congo and toward the United Nations.

Inside Washington

By ROBERT ALLEN and JOHN GOLDSMITH

'Giveaway' Ambassador For Panama Attacked WASHINGTON — President Nixon faces a bruising fight if he appoints Robert M. Sayre as ambassador to Panama.

Basic of his emphatic opposition to Sayre is that he was an active participant in the drafting of the 1967 proposed Panama Canal treaties.

The uproar over these treaties was so massive and vehement that the Johnson Administration shelved them. No effort has ever been made to revive them.

One of the State Department's leading experts on Latin America, Sayre has served in a number of countries there — including Mexico, Peru and Cuba. For several years, he was deputy assistant secretary of state with the Bureau of Inter-American Affairs.

Flood has long strongly advocated removal of State Department control of Panama Canal policy. He wants that placed in the Defense Department.

Nixon Welfare Policy: Fish Or Cut Bait

By PAUL HARVEY

President Nixon's proposal for fundamental reform of government welfare is both reassuring and timely.

At long last, the handout will be replaced by a handup.

Our politically realistic President recognized that taxpayers still outnumber the nonworkers and they, the taxpayers, are fed up with a system that makes it profitable to work.

So carefully was this welfare reform package prepared that even those politicians who are usually intimidated by the welfare bloc vote have voiced approval or said nothing.

There are, however, some individuals and some organizations attempting to scuttle the new concept.

It's the business of the leaders of welfare organizations to persist in their demands for more. The only way they can hope to collect dues and contributions for the support of their organizations is to promise "more."

And because a nationwide TV forum is always so readily available to these self-appointed spokesmen for a few thousand people — America's disorganized majority had better make itself heard lest this ambitious welfare reform should be stilted.

"I emphatically trust," the influential legislator wrote the President, "that you will not appoint anyone as Ambassador to Panama who was associated with the preparation of the abortive 1967 giveaway treaties, but someone who can be depended upon to protect the indispensable sovereign rights, power and authority of the United States over Canal zone territory and the Canal. Those treaties not only were weak and unrealistic, but also perilous to the security of both the United States and the Western Hemisphere, including Panama."

"Except for our presence in Panama today, Soviet power would be dominant there, and would absolutely control the Panama Canal in which the United States has made a net investment, including defense, from 1904 to June 30, 1968, of more than $5 billion, all supplied by the American taxpayer."

Citing the recent visit to Havana of a powerful Russian fleet and authoritative reports of the establishment of a Soviet naval base there, Flood stressed the crucial necessity of preserving the security of the Panama Canal.

"The situation affecting the Canal is of such grave character," Flood declared in his unpublished letter, "that it should not be dictated by shabby sentimentalities. We have enough trouble on our hands with Cuba, which was permitted to pass into the communist orbit, without having another similar, and even more grave, situation at Panama."

"Panama is still a land of endemic revolution and political turmoil," Flood maintains. "For the U.S. to surrender its full sovereign powers over the Panama Canal is not only unrealistic, but fraught with the greatest peril for the security of all the Americas. That's why it is of such urgent importance for us to have an ambassador there who understands that fully and clearly, and not one who would acquiesce in the surrender and subversion of such powers."

Presently workers are encouraged to loaf, fathers are encouraged to leave home, unmarried mothers are encouraged to have additional babies, welfare families are encouraged to migrate to "high payment states."

The Nixon "workfare" plan would change all that.

It would assure a minimum income to everybody willing to work. It would even offer assistance to the long neglected "working poor."

Under each family of four would be a financial floor. Such a family would be assured an income of not less than $1,600 a year — so long as the head of that household works or trains for work.

It'll cost more than the present welfare program at first — $4 billion more. One in every 10 Americans would receive assistance of some kind.

But because the program would encourage workers to work, contributing to our nation's expanding economy, the expense is an investment which would further prime the productivity pump.

President Nixon would pay heads of families now on welfare while they trained for jobs. To enable welfare mothers to work, he would provide day-care centers for their children.

By the time Congress returns from summer recess on Sept. 3, many of our elected lawmakers will be among homefolks.

Because your congressman is persistently subjected to pressures from professional parasites, be sure that he also gets the benefit of your point of view on this long-overdue reform.

Under the President's new program it will always pay to work. Under the new "workfare" program nobody's going to starve — but all able-bodied Americans will be required, as we say in the Ozarks, either to "fish or cut bait."

Will Rogers Day Fete In Full Swing

HIGGINS (Staff) — Preparations are in full swing in Higgins for the annual Will Rogers Day celebration, which will be held Saturday, August 30, 1968.
As in the past the full day of festivities will feature a free barbeque at noon at the city park. A big parade will start the day off. Parade entries will assemble at the ball park north of the school. The parade committee chairman reports a good entry list and stated that several floats are being made locally.
There will be a junior rodeo Friday evening at 8 and another at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday at Slavin Arena. Boys and girls who want to enter the rodeo may contact Marilee Slavin for details and entry blanks, phone 852-2871 or write Box 79, Higgins Texas 79046.
Jim Weese, parade chairman, said that this year there will be three $25 and five $10 awards for first place winners in the parade.
An outside dance will finish the celebration. The dance will be held at the Higgins tennis courts to the music of Frankie McWhorter and the Westerners. The public is assured a good time and everyone is invited.

Pampa Scouts Trained In Leadership

CIMARRON, N.M. (Staff) — Clifford Adkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Adkins, 543 Tigua, and Alvin Adamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Adamson, 103 E. Scott, both of Pampa, are receiving specialized training in Boy Scout Leadership at Philmont Scout Ranch and explorer Base in the Rocky Mountains of northeastern New Mexico.
Adkins, a Life Scout, and Adamson, a First Class Scout, are two of more than 600 Scouts selected from across the nation to participate in the 12-day summer course at the Junior Leader Instructor Training camp, located on the 214-square mile ranch. The purpose of the course is to prepare these Scouts to assist their councils in training other junior leaders. Members of Troop 16 sponsored by the Lions Club, the Scouts are receiving intensive instruction in the skills of leadership and Scoutercraft. The Scouts participating in each session live in tents and are organized into patrols. Throughout the training program, patrol positions are rotated to give each boy a well-rounded experience.

Bollworms Are Serious Pest

Bollworms are a serious pest of cotton throughout Texas, particularly in West Texas, according to Dr. Bill Clymer, Extension area entomologist.
During the month of August bollworm activity often increases and bollworms can cause considerable damage to cotton. In the West Texas area large numbers of eggs and small bollworms are present in some fields. These populations could develop into a real problem on cotton, says the entomologist.
The bollworm is considered a pest of many crops other than cotton. It is also known as the corn earworm and the tomato fruitworm and it readily attacks legumes and many other crops.

WIPE OUT WASHER

After the last load of clean clothes comes out of the washer, use a sudsy cloth to wipe any spilled laundry agents from the machine.

Water and Vinegar

If lint adheres to your washable black garments, make the last rinse halfwater, half-vinegar. The lint will be removed and there will be no vinegar odor.
