House Defies Governor's Orders

IN LOUISIANA

Desegregation Of Schools Spark Riots

NEW IBERIA, La. (UPI)—Racial brawls, boycotts, sit-down strikes, arrests and tear gas culminated first attempts to desegregate several Louisiana schools.

Police used tear gas Wednesday to break up a demonstration by 300 Negro students demanding to be reassigned to their all-Negro school.

Iberia Parish (county) Sheriff Jerry Wattigny said seven blacks, including three juveniles, were arrested during the demonstration and charged with disturbing the peace. All were released on bond.

Iberia is one of 37 Louisiana parishes under federal court orders to junk freedom of choice plans and attempt full integration through zoning and pairing.

The brawling began when negroes got off buses at New Iberia High School and began fighting with white students. It continued until police came on the school grounds and broke it up.

The high school, with an enrollment of about 2,000, was desegregated previously, by freedom of choice. However, the number of black students jumped from 20 to nearly 500 after a court-ordered plan banned the operation of Henderson High School as a Negro school.

The demonstrating black students said Henderson was their school, and they vowed to march the three miles from New Iberia High and take it over.

State police, deputies and city police blockaded the march. Students staged a sitdown until police started making arrests.

Some of the blacks began throwing rocks, and Wattigny ordered tear gas canisters lobbed into the crowd.

The black students refused pleas by school officials, to attend class at New Iberia High. The school was ordered closed, and officials announced students were withdrawn by noon.

In several other parishes, while parents continued to keep their children out of school, vowing to continue the boycott rather than abandon freedom of choice.

Bids On Fence, Instruments Has School Board's OK

School trustees accepted two low bids Wednesday night which authorized purchase of new band instruments and construction of a chain link fence around the Pampa High School athletic area.

After a two-hour called meeting at Carver Educational Services Center, trustees accepted the low bid of Western Fence Co., Amarillo for $6,538.10 to build a chain link fence around the track and athletic area at high school.

Trustees also accepted the $5,507 low bid from May and Duncan Music Co., Midland, for new band instruments and discussed purchasing a tape recorder, which could be built into the new PHS music building.

After waiting 30 minutes to get a quorum since board president John Spearman, is out of town on vacation, trustees met with Harry Brinson, PHS band director, to discuss quality of band instruments submitted in bids.

The only other band instrument bid received was from Tarpley Music Co. of Pampa for $5,569.67.

Dr. R. M. Hampton, trustee, commented he was "all for buying at home, but if word gets out we buy only at home we may not get bids from anywhere else."

"I agree," Trustee Warren Hasse, said. "When we ask for bids, that's what we're asking for... bids, the one which can give us the best price and best service."

Possible Cure May Be Found For Leukemia

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI)—A possible cure for leukemia may be found in extracts from certain marine organisms.

Speaking Wednesday at the closing of the conference on food and drugs from the sea, Dr. Michael M. Sigel of the University of Miami Medical School said extracts from 20 tropical organisms prolonged the life of mice who had leukemia—cancer of the blood.

Sigel's report noted that while mice with leukemia usually die within 10 days, over one-third of the injected mice lived three to 18 days longer.

And in one experiment, half of the mice injected with extracts from barnacle-like organism called ecteinascidin turbinate apparently were cured of the disease.

Sigel noted, however, the active anticancer agents in the extracts had not been chemically identified.

Sigel emphasized the preliminary nature of his findings. "Please don't say we have found a cure for cancer. This is only a preliminary report."

Warmer Weather Predicted Here

Pampa was passed up by the rainfall activity that hit other parts of Texas overnight and woke up to see a little of the morning sun seeping through parted clouds.

And though Pampa was expected to pass the day with warmer temperatures and partly cloudy weather, a large portion of Texas will remain under the rainy weather.

Texas, soggy from five days of stormy weather, was expected to receive still more rain today over most areas.

More than 6 1/2 inches of rain struck Eagle Pass Wednesday, flooding the streets and forcing several families to evacuate low lying areas. No serious damage was reported.

Thundershower activity increased overnight along the upper coastal region. More rain was predicted for Texas today with temperatures in the 80s to mid 90s.

Latest rainfall totals included Galveston 2.99, Abilene 2.30, Yoakum 2.00, Del Rio 1.70, San Antonio 1.55 and Big Spring 1.15.

Several funnel clouds were reported in Texas but none reportedly did any damage.

State Department spokesman Robert J. McCloskey officially called attention to the fact North Vietnam is sending fewer replacement troops into combat than are being killed by the Allies. He appealed to North Vietnam to acknowledge the situation and to negotiate the wholesale withdrawal of non-South Vietnamese forces.

"We consider these facts significant and have said so on several occasions," McCloskey said.

"However, what we seek is mutual withdrawal of all non-South Vietnamese forces," McCloskey said.

State Department issued a relatively optimistic statement Wednesday that North Vietnam apparently had decided to let the number of its troops in South Vietnam decline for the time being.

But several hours later the Defense Department came out with a much gloomier statement explaining away the decline and saying "the enemy is substantially replacing his losses."

North Vietnamese Infiltration Brings Difference Of Opinions

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department and the Pentagon appeared to differ today on just how much significance to attach to the declining infiltration rate of North Vietnamese troops into South Vietnam.

The State Department issued a relatively optimistic statement Wednesday that North Vietnam apparently had decided to let the number of its troops in South Vietnam decline for the time being.

But several hours later the Defense Department came out with a much gloomier statement explaining away the decline and saying "the enemy is substantially replacing his losses."

State Department spokesman Robert J. McCloskey officially called attention to the fact North Vietnam is sending fewer replacement troops into combat than are being killed by the Allies. He appealed to North Vietnam to acknowledge the situation and to negotiate the wholesale withdrawal of non-South Vietnamese forces.

Kennedy's Rights Decided Before Kopechne Inquest

EDGARTOWN, Mass. (UPI)—The rights of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy and other witnesses at the inquest into the death of Mary Jo Kopechne are to be decided today.

District Court Judge James A. Boyle agreed Wednesday to a second day of the pre-inquest hearing after attorneys for the prospective witnesses, including Kennedy, argued that their clients should have the constitutional protection afforded during criminal trials.

Dist. Atty. Edmund S. Dinis said Wednesday the inquest will begin as scheduled next Wednesday whether or not a Pennsylvania judge permits exhumation of Miss Kopechne's body for an autopsy.

Miss Kopechne, a 28-year-old Washington secretary, was killed July 18 when a car driven by Kennedy plunged off a narrow bridge into a pond on Chappaquiddick Island, across a small bay from Edgartown.

Specifically, Kennedy's attorneys asked that witnesses be permitted to examine and cross-examine witnesses, to present evidence and seek court rulings on the relevancy, competency and materiality of all evidence.

Car-Truck Collision Fatal For WD Mayor

WHITE DEER (Staff)—Mayor Joel P. Sewell, 51, was dead on arrival at Highland General Hospital at 1 p.m. Wednesday following a car-truck collision at the intersection of two county roads about three miles east of here shortly after noon.

The driver of the other vehicle, Roy Gene Hutchinson, a 41-year-old Skellytown resident, was listed in fair condition at the hospital late this morning.

Max Weaver, investigating patrolman, said Sewell was going north across the intersection and Hutchinson was traveling west when the right front of Sewell's car and the left front end of Hutchinson's pick-up hit.

Gordon Ruthardt, White Deer, was the first person to arrive at the scene and called for police and an ambulance.

The men were taken by ambulance to Highland General Hospital where Sewell was dead on arrival.

Hutchinson was treated for a broken hip, broken pelvis and lacerations.

He was born in Plainview where he lived until moving to White Deer in 1962. He was a member of Masonic Lodge 709 of Plainview, Klhiva Shriners in Amarillo, Pampa Scottish Rite Association, American Legion Post 548 in White Deer and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 5399 in Plainview.

He operated Joe Sewell Oil Field Service Company in White Deer and was elected mayor here in April, 1968.

He was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Plainview.

Funeral services for Mr. Sewell will be held at 10:30 a.m. Friday at First United

Solons Provide State Two-Month Budget

AUSTIN, Tex. — (UPI) — Texas legislators, faced with an approaching financial crisis and a month-long tax deadlock, take a stab at settling both of those issues today.

The House, defying Gov. Preston Smith's orders for a full two-year state budget, Wednesday passed an emergency two-month spending plan that would allow the state to keep operating if the tax stalemate is not broken by the time the new fiscal year begins Sept. 1.

Elementary, Jr. High Students To Sign Up

Pampa's seven elementary schools and two junior high schools will begin enrollment for the new school year at 8:30 a.m. Friday, but buses will not run until the first day of school, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

Students are asked to report to schools within their districts.

"Buses will not run for registration because we did not have enough students riding to warrant paying the cost of sending all the buses out," Supt. Dr. James F. Malone said. "It cost $500 to run the buses on one route. Buses will run beginning with the first day of school."

Dr. Malone also announced the school board has approved a policy of closed campus at lunch time for seventh grade students for the students' own protection and to reduce problems of Pampa merchants.

"Beginning with this school year, seventh grade students in both Pampa Junior High School and Lee Junior High School will not be permitted to leave the campus during the lunch period. After careful consideration, the board has adopted this policy, because trustees and the administration believe these younger students need more adequate supervision and protection," Dr. Malone said.

Dr. Malone explained "that since this is the first year out of elementary school, and self-contained cafeterias, most of the seventh graders need to gradually grow up. They need to learn they are not supposed to violate street crossing ordinances and are not supposed to go in and out of stores without reasons."

He added the policy was passed for the students' protection because Lee Junior High is near a major highway, and Pampa Junior High is in a busy downtown area, with several streets intersecting near the school.

High school registration started Wednesday with students enrolling alphabetically starting with seniors Wednesday, juniors today and sophomores completing enrollment Friday.

House members also approved a full two-year budget, and began hearings on tax proposals to finance spending in the biennium. But Speaker Gus F. Mutscher gave no indication that the House or Senate had made any changes in position since tax negotiations broke down as the first special legislative session closed Tuesday night.

The Senate scheduled action on its own version of an emergency spending bill and a two-year budget proposal today.

Gov. Preston Smith opened the second called session by giving legislators a severe tongue-lashing, and telling them he is "sick and tired" of the bickering that marked the 30-day session that ended in failure Tuesday night.

The primary concern in both houses Wednesday was obviously to pass some type of emergency budget that would allow the state to continue operating if no tax bill is agreed upon by the end of the month.

House and Senate tax writers have not made any attempt to resolve their differences since the new session began.

Instead, Speaker Gus F. Mutscher chose to conduct "full public hearings" on tax proposals before bringing the question to the House again.

The tax package suggested by Mutscher's chief tax writer, Rep. Ben Atwell, D-Dallas, was only a variation of proposals made by the House earlier.

Atwell's plan would raise $339 million with a 4 1/2 cent hike in cigarette taxes, a 25 cent permanent and another 25-cent temporary increase in the franchise tax, a $15 tax on coin operated machines, an increase in the sales tax to 3 1/2 percent and extension of the sales tax to auto repairs and some other services.

Mutscher said he would like to see the House vote on a tax bill tonight, and send it to the Senate for consideration on Friday.

The emergency 60 day budget approved by the House Wednesday would provide for the same spending increases called for in the two-year budget the House wrote during the first called session. It would automatically expire at the end of October because of a lack of funds to support it.

The two-year budget bill passed by the House calls for about $298 million in new taxes.

Soviet Union To Consider Air Attacks On China

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Intelligence reports the Soviet Union may be considering an air attack on China's nuclear installations has caused serious concern at highest levels here over possibility of war between the two Communist giants.

The reports, coming from Communist sources of varying degrees of credibility, assert Soviet leaders have been sounding out their Warsaw Pact partners, as well as some Communist party leaders in Western Europe, as to what their attitude would be if the Soviet Union had to take such an extreme step.

Some authorities here believe the reports have been planted by Moscow for psychological effect against Peking. In view of the steadily increasing bitterness between Russia and China and their recurrent border clashes, however, the intelligence reports are being considered very seriously at the highest levels in the Nixon administration.

The assumption of those authorities who tend to believe the reports is that the Soviet Union wants to determine whether such extreme action would cost it support within the international Communist community, particularly in Eastern Europe.

Pampa Classroom Teachers Association honored the district's 39 new faculty members at a Coffee today prior to the general faculty meeting at Carver Educational Services Center.

Pampa teachers met with Supt. Dr. James F. Malone and other school administrators and consultants in a get-acquainted coffee hour before the orientation meeting.

The PCTA public relations committee organized the coffee, with the assistance of Mrs. Doty Warner, PCTA president, and Mrs. F. J. Slate, committee chairman.

During the faculty meeting, teachers discussed joining professional teachers' organizations, heard Dr. Malone's annual report and discussed legislation passed this year concerning teachers, Mrs. Warner said.

If it comes from a Hdwe. store we have it, Lewis Hdwe. (Adv.)

A CAR-TRUCK collision at the intersection of two county roads Wednesday about noon resulted in the death of Joel P. Sewell, White Deer mayor, and in injuries to Roy Gene Hutchinson, a Skellytown resident. Hutchinson's pickup was also totally demolished. Hutchinson was listed in fair condition at Highland General Hospital this morning.

Oklahoma Man Held Here Pending FBI Investigation

An 18-year-old Weatherford, Okla. man, Donald E. Wardell, was being held in city jail today awaiting questioning by the Federal Bureau of Investigation on possible car theft charges.

The car Wardell was found in Wednesday night had been reported stolen but he (Wardell) told police the car belonged to him and he had found the car after he had reported it stolen.

Officers found Wardell and a Pampa girl parked on a local street, knew the vehicle was stolen and brought Wardell to the police station.

Wardell said he had reported the vehicle stolen in Oklahoma City, but later found it on a parking lot and called police and told them he had found his car.

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol told Pampa police they had no record of the car reported being found and asked Pampa police to hold Wardell for the FBI.

Pampa police checked the registration of the car this morning and found it was registered to Don Wardell of Weatherford.

Infiltration . . .

The Pentagon's statement quoted Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, as saying July 20 that the United States would "have to wait another few months" before knowing what North Vietnam is up to.

U.S. experts acknowledged intelligence estimates of the movement of North Vietnamese troops may be inaccurate. The experts could not be specific about the number of troops moving south per month. But they did supply these figures:

A year ago, infiltration of men proceeded at the rate of about 10,000 to 11,000 a month. Currently, North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces, by the Allied count, are losing about 10,000 to 12,000 a month. Of these casualties, about 70 per cent are North Vietnamese soldiers and 30 per cent are Viet Cong.

This would indicate North Vietnamese troops are infiltrating southward at a rate lower than 1,600 to 3,000 a month.

Rotarians Hear Report On PHS Football Team

"You can't be mentally tough until you are physically tough," said Swede Lee at the Wednesday noon Rotary Club meeting.

The Pampa High School athletic director and head football coach was the luncheon speaker at yesterday meeting.

Lee explained Pampa has been going through a rebuilding program and will continue to do so this season. He considered he had a good first year here and this year would be better.

He told the Rotarians of the improved discipline of the team and the hard work applied to the fundamentals of football.

The head mentor explained each young man had been asked to set a goal what they would want to be, and then back off and see if it was attainable.

He stressed it was also necessary to set a deadline on attaining the goal.

Lee felt the Harvesters were in for a good year, with faster backs and heavier more experienced linemen.

Curried Eggs Are Budget Bargain

One of the best ways for today's housewife to maintain the high quality of her meals despite higher food costs is to buy items that are 100 per cent usable. This will help prevent costly food waste. Eggs are a good example. Every bit of them is used.

Eggs being a rich source of top quality protein and reasonably priced, can be used occasionally in main course dinners when the price of beef or other sources of essential protein is too high for budget comfort.

CURRIED EGGS with rice is a no-waste main dish.

CURRIED EGGS

- 1/4 cup instant minced onion
 - 1/4 cup water
 - 1 tablespoon curry powder
 - 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 - 1/4 cup flour
 - 1 cup chicken stock
 - 1 cup milk
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
 - 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
 - 1/2 teaspoon instant garlic powder
 - 3 cups cooked rice
 - 12 hard-cooked eggs
- Soften instant minced onion in the 1/4 cup water. Sauté with curry powder in butter. Blend in flour. Add stock and milk. Cook until mixture is of medium thickness, stirring constantly. Add seasonings.
- Peel eggs, leave whole and arrange over rice platter. Pour over curry sauce.

Bake A Gala Cake For School Party

For a gala back-to-school party (or for any special occasion), here's a really beautiful cake for celebration — with calories! But what delicious calories!

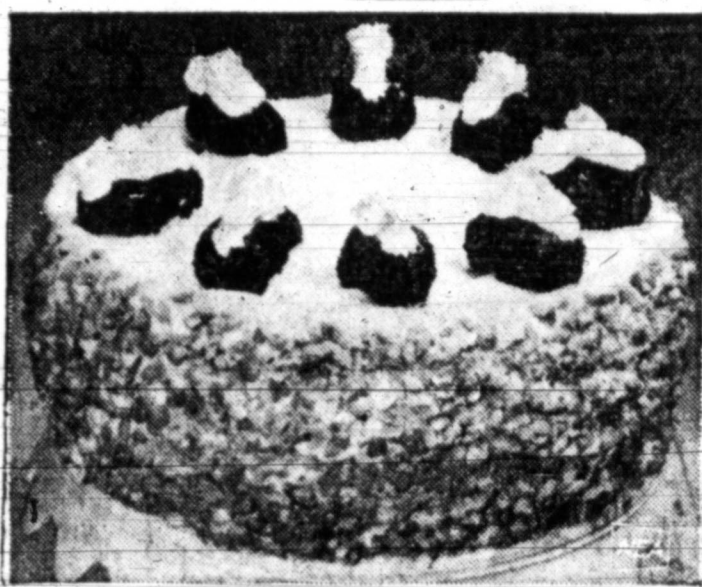

STUFFED PRUNE PEANUT CAKE

- 2 cups large prunes
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 large navel orange, seeded
- 2 and 2-3 cups biscuit mix
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 6 tablespoons vegetable shortening
- 2 eggs
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 2 cups finely-chopped peanuts
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 1 package (1 lb.) confectioners' sugar

Gradually beat in sugar, alternately adding sugar and light cream until frosting holds its shape. Spread on top and sides of cake. Reserve about 1/2 cup of the frosting for stuffing prunes.

Press remaining peanuts into sides of cake. Using a pastry bag with a star tip, fill reserved pitted prunes with frosting. Arrange on top of cake. Sprinkle prunes with chopped peanuts. Makes 9-inch layer cake.

It's best to combine defuzzing with shower or bath. Hair softened by hot water and suding is skimmed off easily. Dry hair is as tough as copper wire of the same size, and as difficult to cut!

Combine prunes, sugar and enough water to cover prunes. Cover and cook until prunes are tender. Add water from time to time to prevent sticking.

Pit 8 of the prunes carefully to keep them whole, reserve for decorating top. Chop remaining pitted prunes and combine with one-half of the orange, which has been chopped. Add water and simmer until prunes are thick and spreadable. Cool and reserve.

Combine biscuit mix and sugar. Add shortening, eggs and 1/2 cup of the milk. Beat until smooth, and beat in remaining milk. Fold in 1/2 cup of the peanuts. Pour batter into 2 greased 9-inch layer cake pans.

Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) for 35 to 40 minutes or until top springs back when lightly touched. Unmold layers and cool.

Spread prune filling between layers. Cream butter until soft

Novel stuffing for roast chicken.

For Fall Weather Try Roast Chicken

Chicken is one of the best food buys. Particularly true for a 4-to-5-pound roasting chicken because there is more meat in relation to bone. Use leftovers in sandwiches or chicken casserole.

For a novelty, fill chicken with rice and pimento-stuffed olives.

- OLIVE-RICE STUFFED CHICKEN
- One-third cup diced celery
- 1/4 cup pine nuts (pignoles)
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 2 cups cooked rice
- One-third cup chopped pimento-stuffed olives
- One-third cup dark, seedless raisins
- 1 teaspoon instant minced onion
- 1/2 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
- 1/2 teaspoon crushed rosemary
- Salt to taste

4 to 5 pound roasting chicken

Saute celery and pine nuts in 2 tablespoons butter until nuts are lightly browned, 3 to 5 minutes. Combine celery, nuts, olives, raisins, onion and seasonings; toss lightly.

Sprinkle chicken cavity with salt. Stuff with rice mixture. Brush with melted butter. Roast in 375-degree oven 2 1/2 to 3 hours. Baste chicken frequently. Stuffing may be used for 2 broiler-fryer chickens. Roast them in 375-degree oven for 30 minutes a pound.

Grapes Add Tang To Ham Slices

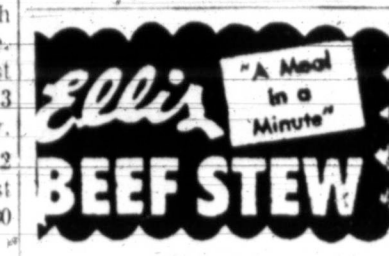

A smart woman noted for her search of food bargains, reports on her latest slices from a shank of ham with grapes. We followed her advice. Now we pass it on to you. We feel certain you will enjoy it, too, and save a little money.

BAKED HAM SLICES WITH GRAPES

Buy two slices of ham (shank end) — each slice one-inch thick, cut on the bias. The "on-the-bias" cut is important.

Place one ham slice in a shallow baking pan and cover it with a layer of grapes. Top them with 2 tablespoons light brown sugar, well-scattered, and add a second layer of grapes and 2 more tablespoons sugar. Press firmly, squashing grapes only to bursting point. Add the second slice of ham. Pour 1/2 cup water in bottom of pan and set into 350-degree oven for 45 minutes.

Drizzle natural juice in bottom of pan over ham.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Once upon a time an old man with a red beard was sitting in a rocking chair by the roadside eating a big bowl of rennet dessert.
People began stopping on the road to watch the old man eat his rennet dessert and pretty soon all the people in the world were gathered around the old man's rocking chair.
And when all the people in the world were gathered around the old man's rocking chair, the old man put down his spoon and said:
Asks A Question
"People, I am going to ask you a question, and if you answer correctly I will do something nice for you. When I have finished my rennet dessert, I will let you lick the bowl. Here is the question:
"The war in Vietnam currently is costing an estimated $30 billion a year. What would happen if the war ended?"
"The government would have an extra $30 billion to spend on new domestic programs," the people said.
"Wrong!" said the old man. "A recent report by the Urban Affairs Council shows that any money saved by ending the war would be consumed by military and civilian programs already on the books."
The people were very angry and stamped their feet, so the old man said:
"All right, people, I am going to give you another chance. I will ask you another question and if you answer correctly you may lick the bowl when I have finished. Here is the question:

"It recently was disclosed that the government ended the 1969 fiscal year with a surplus of almost $3.1 billion. What effect did the surplus have on the national debt?"
"The debt was reduced by $3.1 billion," the people said.
"Wrong!" said the old man. "Treasury figures show that during fiscal 1969 the national debt increased by $6.2 billion."
People Storm Forward
The people stormed forward and threatened to turn over the old man's rocking chair, so the old man said:
"You people are poor losers and do not deserve to lick the bowl of my rennet dessert, but I am going to give you one more chance.
Here is the question:
"The United States had 532,500 troops in Vietnam before President Nixon ordered 25,000 withdrawn. How many did it have after the withdrawal?"
"We've got you now," the people said. "The answer is 507,500."
"Wrong!" said the old man. "As of Aug. 2, the troop figure was 537,000."
All the people in the world snote themselves on the foreheads except one small boy on a tricycle. Asked why he did not snote himself, the boy explained that he had been studying "new math" in school.

WARNS AIRLINES

LONDON (UPI)—The City Council of the Royal Borough of Windsor, the area where Queen Elizabeth lives, warned Trans World Airlines and Pan American World Airways to quit flying directly over the Windsor Castle. The council said it was not opposed to the flight routes simply because the castle is the queen's home but because "this is an area of dense housing."

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—The market has not suddenly entered a new bull phase, Bache & Co. believes. By mid-September it may be possible to determine whether the bear phase has been concluded and whether the market has entered a transitional period preparatory to a sustained upward move, the firm adds. Post-Labor Day trading activity could see a pick-up in volume, a more aggressive institutional attitude and more important insight as to whether the July 30 closing low of 801.96 was indeed the bottom level for the 1969 bear market, the firm observes.
Institutional buying interest has been shallow, and there is still a general reluctance to do more than limited buying, notes Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis. As selling pressure eases, upside resistance is reduced, but it would take more significant institutional interests to generate more than a short-term rally in the market. The intermediate term outlook has improved but is not yet positive, the firm observes. Further testing will probably follow the current rally.

Television In Review

By ROBERT MUSEL

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jack Paar is about to emerge from his suburban retreat with another of the specials that underline how much television is missing through his self-imposed absences from the medium to which he owes so much—and which owes him so much.

The man who created the late night talk show formula still slavishly followed by his successors calls this program, "Jack Paar and 60s Lions." It will be shown on the NBC-TV network Sept. 8 (8-9 p.m. EDT).

The title may conjure up an African safari but this sometimes moving, sometimes tense, always entertaining story of his efforts to raise a baby lion and save three others from execution was filmed almost wholly at his home in Bronxville and in Florida.

Introduces Lions

There is a brief African sequence but it serves only to introduce some of the lions and just as important, attractive blonde Marchesa Suki Bisleti who speaks eight human languages and can make herself understood in—honest!—lion language.

Paar's last special was about a trip to Africa and nearly topped the ratings.

Paar still has the intense curiosity that made his talk show the best of the bunch. His mind searches visitors for information like an intellectual vacuum cleaner, would he ever go back to the late-night desk and sofa?

Hears Own Lines

"I never think about it," he said. "But I keep hearing my own lines coming back to me. They all (Johnny Carson, Joey Bishop, Merv Griffin) seem to lack curiosity. I don't think they read as much. They're not as controversial as I was. I don't think any of them has presented anyone new of the impact of Alexander King or Elsa Maxwell or Godfrey Cambridge."

He recalled the days when "Tonight" would spend thousands to bring in guests such as Robert Morley, Malcolm Muggeridge, Richard Burton and Peter Ustinov.

ASKS BAN

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An agreement by 11 domestic airlines to pool an automated reservation system is monopolistic and stifles competition, according to the Justice Department. The department Monday asked the Civil Aeronautics Board either to ban the proposed agreement or to schedule full hearings on it. The airlines are Alaska, Continental, Delta, Eastern, National, Northeast, Northwest, Southern, Trans World, United and Western.

Mainly About Lefors

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Nichols were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Nichols and son of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nichols of Abilene.

Mike Nichols was graduated from Lefors High School and Texas Tech. He is presently engaged in the insurance business.

Bill Nichols, a graduate of Lefors High, is minister of youth in the Southside Baptist Church of Abilene, while completing his work at Hardin Simmons University. Mrs. Nichols is a staff member of the First Baptist Church in Abilene.

Mrs. Claud Nichols was notified Saturday of the death of her brother, Earnest Martin, who resided in Winfield, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Volie Guthrie entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bob Callahan and Rhonda Sunday. Merle Callahan, their daughter, was a former resident and a graduate of Lefors.

At present the Callahans reside in Dallas, where he is minister of education at the Royal Haven Baptist Church. He was with the Central Baptist Church in Pampa and the Paramount Baptist in Amarillo for seven years.

PERFORMS OPERATION

CAPE TOWN (UPI)—A medical team headed by heart surgeon Dr. Christiaan Barnard has joined the heart and lungs of an eight-year-old Italian girl with plastic arteries. Before the operation Tuesday, specialists had given Giovanna Bon only five more years to live.

DENOUNCES EXECUTIONS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers has denounced the latest executions in Iraq as a "bloodbath" which "is a matter of serious concern to people everywhere. We hope this concern will be recognized and serve to bring an end to the series of executions in Iraq," Rogers said in a statement Monday.

Quirks In The News

TOO MANY

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Joseph James O'Connor was tired of getting other people's bills. When he is buried Wednesday, his tombstone will bear the name "Gulliver Edward Foyle."

O'Connor changed his name legally in 1965. He told the judge there were too many J. J. O'Connors here.

UNUSUAL DISPLAY

STONEHAM, Mass. (UPI)—The Redstone Shopping Center was treated to an unusual display Monday, not sponsored by the local supermarket. Dawn revealed the shopping center to revealed the shopping center to on walls, posters and even on colored letters a foot tall.

The verbal assault was aimed at the town's police, who recently got into a brawl with 150 youths when they tried to make arrests at a party. Town workers and shopping center maintenance men eradicated the obscenities. Police would not allow anyone to photograph the writings.

TRUTH IN ADVERTISING

MOUNT PLEASANT, England (UPI)—When an automobile firm advertised it would trade for anything, Rachel Smith, 59, believed it. She hauled her 127-year-old piano down to the store and the firm accepted the piano as part payment for a 1967 model.

"MIND YOU," SAID A SPOKESMAN FOR THE FIRM, "WE ARE STILL INTERESTED IN GOOD OLD-FASHIONED MONEY—IF THERE IS ANY STILL LEFT."

BAD TAPE

BLACKPOOL, England (UPI)—The boys down at the coast guard station are used to emergency appeals for a lifeboat, but not coming from a billiard hall.

It happened down at Riley's Billiard Hall, when a maid somewhat overzealously dusted a burglar alarm and set it off.

The device flashed a message to a telephone operator, but somehow its automatic tape became distorted and called for "lifeboat, lifeboat, lifeboat."

The call was promptly switched to the coast guard station and the men sped to the rescue with the requested lifeboat.

"PLEASANT SURPRISE"

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Aviation Administration says success of new regulations requiring landing reservations at congested airports has been "a pleasant surprise." FAA Chairman John A. Shaffer disputed a statement by the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association, a group of private pilots, that traffic flow in New York has worsened. "Traffic is down 5 to 8 per cent but delays are down 37 per cent," Shaffer said, "and August is running even better."

DEAR ABBY: I am a waitress in a very nice restaurant which is located on an interstate highway. It's one of a well-known chain. I greet everyone with a smile and try to give good service. Sometimes I exchange chat with my customers, but I never get overly familiar. I am happily married and have four children.

About three months ago a man came in alone and I served him. I don't know who he is or where he's from. He was well-dressed and well-mannered. He didn't talk much, but he did tell me about his grandchildren. I also told him about my family. I showed no more interest in him than any other customer and he never made a pass at me.

About three weeks later this man came in again and sat in my section. I remembered him, greeted him cheerfully and served him. When he left he gave me a hundred-dollar bill for a tip. I was flabbergasted! I really tried to give it back but he wouldn't take it.

About three weeks later he came in again, and the same thing happened. After it happened a third time I took the three one-hundred-dollar bills down to the bank to find out if maybe they were counterfeit. They were real and legitimate. I haven't spent any of it. I'm afraid if I do, he might turn out to be some kind of eccentric and his family might demand the money back. He seems perfectly sane and normal to me, but I wonder now just what I should do?

PERPLEXED WAITRESS: DEAR PERPLEXED: If you haven't already told your husband, tell him. You are wise to save the money for the time being in case The Last of the Big-Time Spenders turns out to be a disturbed or shady character. Maybe he is on the level, but I'm suspicious. It's a little early for Santa Claus.

DEAR ABBY: I have a wonderful husband and children, too, but don't use my name as this is a small town and I'm known here.

I love my husband and he loves me. So what's my problem? My husband's brother. I feel strongly attracted to him, and it is so frustrating because we are around each other a lot. I know that he feels a strong attraction for me, too. He is also married.

Your Horoscope
JEANE DIXON

FOR FRIDAY, AUG. 29 YOUR BIRTHDAY FRIDAY: Initiative marks your year. The temptation is to begin major ventures half-prepared and with over-confidence. Many times your patience will need special reinforcement. Take time for the habit of meditation, for better pacing. Most of what you attempt this year should be profitable. Friday's natives seldom pay much attention to advice.

ARIES (March 21-Apr. 19): The morning is alive with inspiration and much intuition. Follow your nose to whatever you need; never mind how ridiculous the search may appear.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): If there is any special part of your work that can be done away from public view, do that part first and double check details; do nothing in haste.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Get busy early, tidy up weekend chores. You will need the free time later, so do not waste a minute now. Electrical and mechanical equipment tends to malfunction. Play it safe!

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Your patience now pays off, and you float free of the others to follow your path. The tide changes too, and this helps give you some distance from the mainstream.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Friday is a roller coaster; your apparently stable high perch swoops. Competitors are apt to spread misconceptions of your doings. You find something odd going on in your own backyard. Clear it out.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Credit is not preferred Friday. If it's something that can wait a day or a week, put it off as there may be changes in your money levels shortly.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): You are impatient with the slow pace of chores. Watch for faults in whatever you buy, errors in the change, and the like. Friday: "Take everything with a grain of salt."

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): The rush before the weekend may push you into carelessness if you don't discipline your effort. It does not pay to let one detail stymie you at the expense of your chance to check the next one. (See HOROSCOPE, Page 11)

GROOM (Sp.)—The Woman's Society of Christian Service met recently with Mrs. Bill McKee, president in charge. Mrs. Manuel Ruthardt, program leader, was assisted by Mrs. George Latta and Mrs. James Lanier.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. B. H. Cooper and Mrs. Van Earl. Steed to members: Mmes. Bill McKee, Curtis Schaffer, James Lanier, J. W. Angel, Lynward Harrison, Frank Grantham, E. R. Females have been removing hair for ages, at least, as far back as Cleopatra. Shaving does not make hair grow thicker or denser. . . this is a process that comes with age. Hair removal is highly recommended from the viewpoint of health and hygiene, as well as for the sake of appearance. Over 50,000,000 of the fair sex prefer to remove unwanted hair by shaving, and among these the razor and blade are preferred by three of every four.

Interior Decorators Revive Spanish Motif

BY ALFEE SNODDY
Anyone who seriously considers decorating with a Spanish-Mediterranean motif needs to invest in a trusty tape measure. Interior decorators continue to shake their heads over the widespread interest in Spanish. As recently as two years ago top designers verbally dug a grave for this furnishings style that is massive in form. However, manufacturers were just revving up their production and wouldn't let Spanish rest in peace. It again was a star in showrooms during the recent Southern Furniture Market.

Why are the extremely ornate, heavy and intricately carved pieces of such appeal to homemakers? How did such Spanish-related elements as tile, wrought iron work and brilliantly patterned rugs and bedspreads, not to overlook credenzas, bookcases, armoires or tables in pecan, pine or oak win out over that old standby

Early American - Colonial? leading sales surprisingly are in Norman "Alfie" a former apartment-pocked North student at Syracuse University, east. He relates current interest in Spanish-Mediterranean to the fact that young people want permanency. And there is nothing more stable looking than these massive items. American countries. The home even though most are sealed to fit today's rooms.

"Young people," he adds, "who can't afford actual antiques" are big on the items because of their handcrafted or "original" appearance. Just as important, you can use less of the furniture and use it boldly just like contemporary stainless steel or plastic furniture.

CHILL CHASERS—Cotton corduroy and zip-up jackets are synonymous with fall, and these two styles have pile linings for winter warmth as well. At left, tab-button detailing distinguishes a neatly styled jacket with long-mitered panels of corduroy. Right, long roomy welt pockets and stand-up collar are fashionable details of another handsome design. In autumn colors of gold, camel, olive, and brown, both are by Puritan Sportswear.

Art, Civic Club Schedules Meeting
LEFORS — Officers of Lefors Art and Civic Club announced their Fall meetings will begin Sept. 15, at the Civic Center with a special federation program for new members.

Mrs. Mark Harper and Mrs. Carl Hall will present the program to be followed by a salad supper served for members and guests.

The club has compiled material concerning Lefors activities and will present it in a community calendar. Those wishing calendars should request them soon, members said.

So thinks A.W. Metzger, manager of decorative fabrics who says that the pattern of drapery buying has been gradually changing over the last two years.

T.E.L. Class Meets
GROOM (Spl) — The T.E.L. Class of Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Pete Fields recently. Those present were two guests, Mrs. Corrine Wheeler and Carla Cline, and members Mmes. Frank Burgin, Willie Ragsdale, Jodie Helm, Maurine Davidson, J. C. Eschle, Doug Wood, Eulice Monroe and the hostess, Mrs. Fields.

At Southern Methodist University, however, there's a salty glow when coaches mention the line that will try to protect ace passer Chuck Hixson. It is for all practical purposes the same line that allowed Hixson to be dumped only 14 times last season when he put the ball in the air 576 times.

tech Coach Worried About His Offensive Line, Rice Defense
By United Press International
"There isn't a lot you can say about a team this early," So Texas Tech coach J. T. King didn't.
The Red Raiders wound up their conditioning drills Wednesday and planned to begin actual contact today. And while King was worried about his offensive line situation, the same troubles did not burden the folks at SMU. The trouble at Rice was on the defensive, but coach Hogan hopes he took care of that headache.
Texas Tech ran through some basic offensive formations and drills during Wednesday's practice sessions. King said two-day contact workouts would begin today and last until classes begin Tuesday.

IN HOUSTON ASTRODOME TONIGHT

Cowboys Rate Favorites Role

HOUSTON (UPI)—The Dallas Cowboys will be out to sweep a series and win the Governor's Cup tonight against a Houston Oilers team still trying to avenge the loss of Ralph Neeley.
The Cowboys, winners of two of three preseason contests this year, were installed as favorites to win their third straight over the Oilers. A capacity crowd of 50,000 is expected in the Houston Astrodome.
Neeley is one of the reasons the two teams will play a game that in two short years has become one of the biggest football grudge matches in Texas, perhaps second only to the college grid rivalry between Texas and Texas A&M.
Before the NFL and the AFL agreed to a common draft, Cowboy General Manager Tex Schramm signed Neeley after the tackle agreed to play for Bud Adams' Oilers. To help pacify Adams, Schramm agreed to a three-game preseason series between the two clubs.
Dallas won the first two 30-17 and 33-19. Because of the "popularity" of the event, the series no doubt will be renewed and continue to be played under the Dome.
The Oilers the Cowboys will face this time around are a much improved club from the first two meetings. Houston opened its preseason schedule by beating Buffalo and last weekend it dumped the Chicago Bears.
Houston should have beat the NFL Champion Baltimore Colts, but lost the game, 33-29, when Earl Morrall threw a 58-

PAMPA NEWS SPORTS

The pass was caught by Willie Richardson and Miller Farr was defending on the play. In two AFL seasons, only two other receivers have ever beaten Farr on a touchdown pass.
"Houston personnel is basically the same," said Dallas coach Tom Landry after the Cowboys held the first practice Wednesday on the Dome's artificial turf.

"But from the films we've seen the Oilers are definitely better than last season," Landry said.
Houston will bring a defensive alignment into the contest, the Cowboys will not see again the rest of the season. Houston coach Wally Lemm stacks the strong side linebacker in behind the tackle. The defensive tackle stands over the offensive guard, the defensive ends play outside the tight end and the middle linebacker lines up near the weakside guard.
Besides all pros Farr and linebacker George Webster, Landry also cited Oiler standouts like offensive tackle Walt Suggs, fullback Hoyle Granger and tight end Alvin Reed as the mainstays of the club.
But "they have exceptional football players on defense," Landry said. "And Webster is their best player."

Craig Morton, largely responsible for the first two wins in the series, will start at quarterback for Dallas. But Landry said former Heisman Trophy winner Roger Staubach also will see at least a quarter's action.
Pete Beathard, who came to Houston four games deep into the 1967 season and took them from last place to a division title, will be the man under for Houston.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

Our Capsule Policy

The News believes each and every person would get more satisfaction in the long run if he were permitted to spend what he earns on a volunteer basis rather than having part of it distributed involuntarily.

'Have Time For Courtesy'

Some advice by J. Edgar Hoover to policemen of the nation could well be absorbed by nearly everyone else in the country. It's the simple lesson of courtesy, which is exemplified in the Golden Rule. Here is Mr. Hoover's August message to all law enforcement officials: "Emerson once stated that 'life is not so short but that there is always time for courtesy.' This truism expresses a principle which should be a common virtue among all present day law enforcement officers.

The enforcement of the law in our country today is not an easy task. Certainly, law enforcement is subjected to more abuse and criticism than ever before. Some citizens not only verbally attack policemen, but they also physically assault them without provocation. While such unwarranted action can't be condoned, the law enforcement officer should not let hostile public reaction affect the manner in which he performs his duty.

One of the complaints law enforcement officials hear repeatedly is that the personal contact between the public and officers on the streets is decreasing. No doubt this is true, but police officials have valid explanations for the decline. Some of the factors involved include the rapid increase of population, the continuing growth of areas to be patrolled, the lack of manpower, and the obvious advantage of direct, constant communication with motorized patrolmen. Thus, in adopting procedures and changes to meet its obligations in the fight against crime, law enforcement has, out of necessity, but with reluctance, lost some of its valuable personal relationship with the individual citizen. This is why it is so vitally important that every officer be courteous and considerate in the contacts that he does make.

Objectionable traits of one member of a police department can be a serious liability to all members. Arrogance and condescension have no place in law enforcement. If an officer is to uphold the ethics of his profession, he can't let personal feelings or prejudices influence his actions. As a policeman, he is given a public trust, and the public has every right to expect him to serve all citizens alike, with integrity and honor. After all, the good will and assistance of the public are his most valuable assets.

Departments seeking means to improve their public image should check their courtesy ratings. Courtesy is basic to good public relations. While it may be in danger of becoming a lost art in some segments of our complex society, courtesy must be an ingrained habit of every law enforcement officer. He should always have "time for courtesy."

What Is Welfare?

Throughout the years since the very beginning of the exploration of the new world, this has been the land of opportunity. Early history is filled with early explorers' tales of streets paved with gold and the wealth that would reward any daring adventurer willing to migrate to the virgin land.

Over the decades since, millions of people have followed the ocean paths in search of the fulfillment of the promised dream. Some have made it, more in fact than ever before in the history of man. Others have not.

The American is, despite many shortcomings, a generous individual. He has believed that he has an unwritten obligation to his neighbor to help when needed. If another man is unable to care for himself why shouldn't he share in the abundance? If a man temporarily is unable to provide for his family's needs others will help him with the necessities until he is able to return to the work force.

This is as it should be. We are a capitalist society. Each one produces others. What one produces others consume. What one produces others consume. What is consumed is paid for with earnings received by productivity. The more men employed, the larger the market. Voluntary aid, true charity, to the incapacitated is welfare. It is not demeaning. It is our way of proving to the world that we take care of our own. Voluntary aid to the temporarily unemployed is welfare. It, too, is not of itself degrading but a way of showing confidence in our system. It is an investment in the recipient's future, and should provide enough to prevent hunger or misery without encouraging permanent unemployment.

But, when involuntary, government bestowed, tax-provided "welfare" provides a means of remaining unemployed, the time has come for Americans to have a careful look at exactly how much "welfare" can be dispensed without threatening their future.

At last somebody has struck a blow for free enterprise. The grocery chains in Los Angeles pulled the "stopper out of the bottle-neck."

When that Joe T. DeSilva pulled a "whipsaw strike" of retail clerks and struck the Food Giant Co., 23 other chains announced that a strike against one was a strike against all. They sent all unionized clerks home and hired more than 8,000 new employees. Most were students and wives.

This set off a reaction. As a result, about 11,000 clerks at 350 other food markets were idled and are sitting home with their bags on the hassocks. Six other local unions in the area had settled for a 3 year contract giving clerks an increase of 63.5 cents an hour in wages and "fringes."

But DeSilva's bunch wanted another 23 cents an hour on top of the raise. Oh, those poor grocery clerks. Why, before the raise they were only getting $4.60 an hour which included $3.44 in wages.

I think most wives today would be glad to take a union clerks place, especially since these ridiculous demands could only inflate the price of beans and bacon higher than ever. If it would bring prices down any I would send the Elouse & Skirt to help them out for free.

HONORING OUR ASTRONAUTS

The landing of two United States astronauts on the surface of the moon on July 20, 1969 is an event sure to be remembered and honored by all future generations as an historical landmark comparable to the discovery of America by Columbus.

Already there are several movements underway to have July 20 proclaimed a national holiday, and these movements should be encouraged.

In the United States Congress Congressman Jim Tunney of California has announced his intention to introduce a resolution which would make July 20 permanent national holiday in honor of our triumph in space exploration.

In the California State Legislature, State Senator John Schmitz has introduced a resolution which would put both houses of the California Legislature on record as requesting Governor Ronald Reagan to proclaim July 20 as "Space Pioneers Day" in honor of the moon landing by United States astronauts, and also as asking the President and Congress to declare July 20 a national holiday.

This resolution was introduced by a high school student who wrote a letter to the editor of his local newspaper, advocating persuasively the desirability of such a holiday.

No words or actions of ours could do full justice to the heroism and achievement of the crew of Apollo 11 and to the splendid national effort which made their triumphant journey possible. But we should do what we can.

The least we can do is to set apart the day an American became first man to walk on the moon, like the day we declared our independence, as a permanent memorial which will remind us of this great moment.

At last somebody has struck a blow for free enterprise. The grocery chains in Los Angeles pulled the "stopper out of the bottle-neck."

Time was when railroads couldn't seem to do enough for you (well, some of us can still remember), promising you'd sleep like a kitten, feast like a king and wallow in comfort if only you'd go THEIR route.

And to give them their due, they generally delivered. But times, as we are all too sadly aware, have changed. The railroads can still put themselves out—for hogs, rolled steel or, say, phosphate gas. But if you happen to be merely human, traveler beware!

What must be an all-time low point in treatment of paying (even if no longer enough) passengers was reached the other day by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy. The line had been seeking discontinuation of its Omaha, Neb.-Billings, Mont., passenger service and when lower court approval came through, it saw no reason to wait. It halted a Billings-bound train at dawn in mid-Nebraska, routed the passengers out and dispatched them to a bus stop.

THE DIRTIEST FOUR-LETTER WORD

The Prince Of Darkness

By JOHN J. SYNON

Earl Warren's resignation became effective two months ago; June 23.

I have waited these days, without comment much as a man hesitates to pronounce as successful the excision of a cancer. But time's up, now. It looks like Warren is gone, for a fact. Perhaps, then, it is safe to write his political obituary.

What a public life, Earl Warren, so far as I have ever been able to learn, cannot lay claim to a single act of a creditable nature. This, after 50 years of the public trough, in 25 years of following his career and of being in the orbit of those who have known him well, I have never heard mention of a charitable act ever being performed by Earl Warren.

I do have memories of another sort, distinct memories. I will tell you of two.

Clinton Duffy told me, in effect, Warren had none. "Nobody will ever know," this famed penologist said, "how many men have been put to sleep in the Green Room because of the implacable, unbending nature of Warren. Men who should have been reprieved."

Allergy Is Main Cause Of Seasonal Headaches

Q—For several years my husband has had severe headaches in the fall. They last for about six weeks. Believing that they are caused by some pollen, our doctor prescribed an antihistamine. But it didn't help. What would you suggest?

A—Seasonal headaches are almost always due to an allergy. Antihistamines sometimes relieve but never cure them. An allergist may be able to identify the offending allergen and treat your husband by desensitization or other means.

Q—Is there any way a doctor can tell whether a headache is caused by nervous tension, migraine, neuralgia or the forerunner of a cerebral hemorrhage?

A—The headache brought on by tension is usually dull, persistent and felt throughout the whole head or as a constricting band around the head. Migraine, often associated with an attack of zigzag or shimmering blindness and vomiting, is intense and localized in front on one side only. A neuralgic headache is usually located in the region of the cheek bone rather than in the skull.

None of these conditions are a forerunner of a stroke, which is usually a complication of hardening of the arteries and high blood pressure.

Q—Why do I wake up with a severe pain in my forehead almost every morning? Any helpful suggestions?

A—Morning headaches are usually associated with chronic sinusitis or chronic kidney disease. The first step toward relief is to determine the cause.

Q—I get a slight pain in my left or right temple (never both) that lasts a few minutes, then goes away. I blame it on tension, but I wonder whether a brain tumor starts this way?

A—A person with a brain tumor more often than not has no headache in the early stages. When, because of its size or location, the tumor does cause a headache the characteristics vary so widely that the headache is of no value as a diagnostic sign.

Q—Is cancer catching?

A—Although the mode of transmission of cancer is still not well understood, there is THAT IT IS NOT contagious.

Inside Washington

JOHN GOLDSMITH Dominican Rebel Leader Reported in Cuba Since '67 ROBERT ALLEN

WASHINGTON — The story told by a defector from Premier Fidel Castro's Cuban intelligence service is provoking some second thoughts here about the 1965 uprising in the Dominican Republic.

As the story is now told, Lt. Col. Francisco Caamano Dengo is in Cuba and has been there since 1967. The Colonel is the man who emerged as the rebel leader in the 1965 revolt.

The Colonel has been missing, and the topic of considerable speculation, since he disappeared in 1967. At that time he was a military attaché at the Dominican Republic's embassy in London — a post to which he was assigned when leaders in both camps were assigned to foreign missions.

In the wake of the intervention by the United States in the 1965 revolt critics here and abroad questioned the Johnson Administration's assessment of the uprising. Though the administration quickly identified Communists active in the rebel cause, doubts were widely expressed as to the depth of Communist influence.

Now it is clear that the leader of the revolt has found his way to Cuba, apparently with the help of Cuban intelligence agents. According to the defector's account, the Colonel made his way to Cuba by way of Paris and Prague.

CLOAK AND DAGGER — Colonel Caamano's story was told by Orlando Castro Hidalgo, who defected to the United States earlier this year. Castro Hidalgo had been a Cuban intelligence official in Paris until that time.

He told U.S. authorities he had been a minor participant in the operation by which Colonel Caamano reached Cuba. However, he said, the jump was masterminded by top officials in Havana and by Armando Lopez Orta, chief of Cuban intelligence operations in Paris. According to the defector's story, the Colonel arrived in Paris in late Oct., 1967. He had shaved off his mustache and was wearing a toupee. He met with Cuban officials there and was eventually taken to Prague on a phony passport. From Prague he was able to go to Cuba.

Despite speculation, which has put the Colonel in various Latin American nations, Castro Hidalgo (no relation to the Cuban premier) said he believes Caamano has remained in Cuba ever since his arrival there.

SEX EDUCATION (Continued) — A propaganda war is being waged in many communities (as noted here previously) over programs of sex education in the schools. Some of the right-wing critics of such "family life" education programs have been contending that they are Communist inspired.

That charge is rooted, (if that is the proper word) in the idea that a major thrust of world Communism is to corrupt youth and turn young people from the path of righteousness with the sinful lure of sex.

One publication, which has often been cited to document that Communist goal, is called "Rules for Revolution." It was supposedly captured from a secret Communist organization by Allied intelligence officers near Dusseldorf in May of 1919.

The first of the "rules," as frequently published in recent years, is: "Corrupt the young. Get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial, destroy their ruggedness."

That portion of the "rules" was quoted in an anti-sex education article in the March 1969 issue of a John Birch Society magazine. The John Birch Society has been actively fighting sex education programs in many communities.

Ersatz House For $10,000 Thanks To Space Science

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) — On the small Rincon Indian reservation north of San Diego stands a brand new prototype house which ought to stir everyone concerned with the nation's heading push toward a population of 300 million by the year 2000.

To the naked eye, at a little distance, it looks like a conventional, even old-fashioned adobe ranch house with a Spanish-style red tile roof. Actually, it could help to revolutionize the housing industry.

The big news about it is that it is the work of 12 aerospace engineers who were eager to show what could be done through applying to the civilian scene some of the key technologies developed in pursuing the remarkable space program.

They have turned out a house that, as designed with three bedrooms and a two-stall garage, could sell for $10,000 if produced in substantial volume. It made somewhat more compact, it is estimated the selling price could be brought to around $6,000.

The prototype is almost wholly a thing of composite materials, principally fiberglass and resins (for bonding). Resins are similarly used to bond metal surfaces in today's aircraft construction. They are also vital to the heat shield of the Apollo spacecraft.

Other engineers have looked at the Rincon model and pronounced it sound and durable, perhaps more resistant to California's occasional earthquakes than anything that could be built.

The new house is conventional in style because the Indian leaders were given their choice and that was it.

Whatever the future of this particular prototype, it is a ringing response to those who say space engineers cannot cut it in the earthbound world.

thinking to the problems of pollution, and there is one cluster of specialists prepared to apply space expertise to almost any imaginable earthly challenge.

The 12 engineers who worked up the Rincon prototype got off and moving because two one-time Yale law school classmates, Ray Lamontagne and Alan Novak, were looking for a chance to implement programs in various fields that seem desperately to need what they call "development technologies."

They formed Material Systems Corp., found a businessman, Joseph Elman, to head it, and put the 12 aerospace experts to work on the house problem.

Starting only last September, these men threw into the tank their average 20 years' experience in space materials' breakthroughs. Their results clearly offer great promise.

Everything in the model is of composite except the core bathroom facilities. The company plans to erect soon a small factory on the Rincon reservation to prepare materials for further construction.

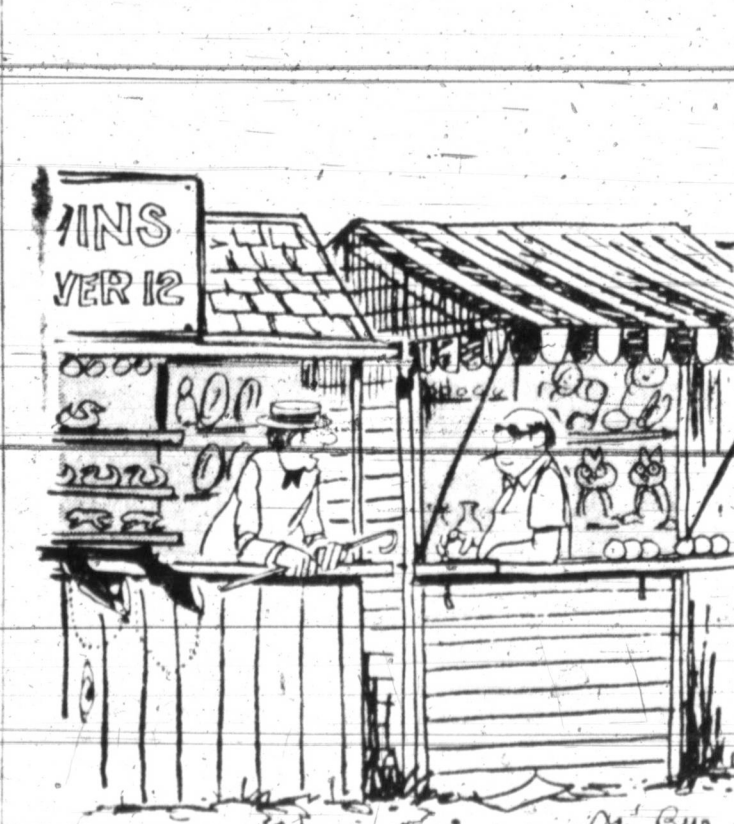

The word is getting about. A New York construction firm has placed an order for siding made of MSC's composite. Architects and others are traipsing to Rincon to study the prototype.

With overhead, start-up costs and the materials pioneering cranked-in, the adobe house at Rincon actually cost $150,000. But Lamontagne and Novak, who have a varied background in public service, insist an ultimate selling price range of $6,000 to $10,000 is reasonable for similar houses in standard production.

The real criminals in the streets are the real-estate speculators who stampede the whites out of a neighborhood and then exploit the blacks who move in.
