Gray County Voters To Cast Ballots Again Saturday

ATTORNEY FAILS TO SHAKE WEINBERG

INTEREST KEEN IN LOCAL AND STATE RACES

Runoff Ticket Will Have Only 20 Candidates

Voters of the Top O' Texas area today began making preparations to go to the polls Saturday and cast their ballots in the runoff primary.

Indications were that the total vote in the second primary would be one of the largest in history. A near record vote is forecast because of intense interest in county, district and state races.

In the first primary, 5075 votes were cast. There never have been as many votes cast in the runoff as in the first primary, and the election Saturday is not expected to be an exception. However, close observers report that election interest is higher than usual.

Absentee voting indicates that only a little more than one-half of the first primary ballots will be cast in the runoff. In the first primary 400 voted absentee. In the second, 225. However, many of the first group were teachers who have returned to Pampa. Also more people were vacationing than last year.

Candidates today were closing heated campaigns. The sheriff's contest between Cal Ross and Art Hurd holds chief interest in the county. The other runoff contests are between W. E. James of Alameda and D. R. Henry, for county treasurer; W. T. Wilson and G. M. Carpenter, both of McLean, candidates for county commissioner of precinct No. 4.

In the only district race, C. E. Cary and Clifford Braly, both of Pampa, are candidates for district attorney.

W. Lee O'Daniel injected interest into state races by endorsing six candidates. Local supporters of C. V. Terrell, candidate for railroad commissioner, have waged a stiff campaign for his reelection. His opponent is Jerry Sadler of Kilgore.

Other candidates:

For lieutenant governor, Coke R. Steverson and Pierce Brooks; for attorney general, Walter Woodul and Gerald C. Mann; for associate justice of supreme court, W. H. Davidson and Richard Critz; for judge of court of criminal appeals, Harry N. Graves and James A. Stephens; for general land office commissioner, Bascom Giles and William H. McDonald.

Reaper Band Will Practice Tomorrow

Junior high band will practice tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock in the Red building and every morning next week at the same hour. Practice will last one and one-half hours. All students eligible to play in the reaper band are urged to be on hand for the first practice, A. C. Cox, director, announced.

O'DANIEL TO SPEAK

DALLAS, Aug. 25 (AP)—Governatorial Nominee W. Lee O'Daniel will be the principal speaker for natural resources day at the State Fair here Oct. 15. O'Daniel accepted yesterday following a visit to Fort Worth by John M. Spellman, director general of the Institute of Natural Resources.

NO PANTS NO PRINCE

Prince Bertil of Sweden arrived late at a ceremonial luncheon in Philadelphia the other day because he could not locate the trousers to his only civilian suit aboard the warship that brought him over. After a vain search from keelson to the captain's bridge, he had to go in uniform to a civilian party, utterly against the protocol in such cases provided. This shows that recent advice from a national tailor's convention should be heeded by all; the well dressed man must have at least 24 two-piece suits. Speakers Ask Votes For Terrell "To Save Panhandle Oil Field"

Speakers at a well-attended rally at the court house last night told why they believe W. Lee O'Daniel wants C. V. Terrell, chairman of the Railroad Commission, reelected.

The gubernatorial nominee, they said, fears that if Mr. Terrell is not elected the tax structure of the oil industry will collapse through lack of proper regulation of production, and as a consequence business will be in such a shambles that there will not be sufficient tax funds to finance old age pensions.

Ennis Favors, Gray county campaign manager for Mr. O'Daniel, pleaded with large crowds sitting on the courthouse lawn grass to "give W. Lee O'Daniel a chance. Don't hog-tie him before he goes into office by electing him who O'Daniel says will not cooperate with him."

C. V. TERRELL

"Not only the future prosperity and development of the Panhandle oil field depends on the reelection of Mr. Terrell," City Attorney Walter Rogers declared, "but the old age pensions, the Railroad Commission regulates 12 billion dollars worth of industries, which would pay their share of taxes, but if through regulation the industries or parts of them, collapse, how can Mr. O'Daniel possibly raise the money to pay the old-age pensions?"

Allowable Slash Frased

"That's why he wants you to vote for C. V. Terrell for railroad commissioner. He can trust Mr. Terrell. He knows that Mr. Terrell will not throw the huge East Texas oil field wide, open and cut the Panhandle allowable and the allowances of other small fields to the amount of oil they can refine."

"They talk about a saddle in this race," Mr. Rogers shouted. "If there is a saddle you can be dead certain

Roller Skaters To Frolic On Street

Another in the series of the regular Thursday night roller skating parties, sponsored by the Presbyterian church as a part of the summer recreational program, will be held tonight in West Kingsmill St. two blocks west of Somerville St.

The skating party will get under way at 7 o'clock and will last until 9 p. m., according to Bob Smelage, who will be in charge of the sound truck and supervision of tonight's program.

Corrigan Rides Atop Lufkin Fire Truck

LUFKIN, Aug. 25 (AP)—Douglas Corrigan smilingly winged off to Austin in his bargain-priced flying machine today at the end of a 40-minute celebration by Corrigan enthusiasts.

Five thousand persons lined this town's main streets for a parade in which the young Texas-born ocean leaper rode atop a fire truck.

That blazing red vehicle was pressed into service when plans of his well-wishers to use an ancient Model-T car went awry. The old car wouldn't budge.

"Other things got mixed up, too," Corrigan blandly grinned in apparent reference to his haywire hop to Ireland.

He left for Austin at 9:50 a. m. He planned to fly to San Antonio today and to Galveston, place of his birth, tomorrow.

AUSTIN, Aug. 25 (AP)—Texas officially opened its arms to smiling Douglas Corrigan today.

Arriving at the capital's municipal airport at 11:40 a. m., he was met by Governor James V. Allred and welcomed while thousands cheered.

Corrigan flew to Austin from Lufkin.

CONGRESSIONAL RACES HEATED

(By The Associated Press)

Sharing the limelight with state offices at stake in the forthcoming run-off primary Saturday were two congressional races where candidates were heat-dily bidding for votes.

Particularly hot was the north-west Texas contest between the incumbent Rep. W. D. McFarlane of Graham and Ed Gossett, Wichita Falls attorney, in which hot words have been shouted from platforms in 25 counties. While there has been no New Deal issue, Gossett at Seymour last night took cognizance of Graham's designation as "my friend" by President Roosevelt in July when he said he would "not attempt to ride into any office on anybody's

Labor Day Picnic Will Give Kiddies Last Fling At Summer

One of the main objectives of the community picnic to be held at McClellan dam Labor day, September 5, is to entertain all of the children in the Top of Texas area.

The sponsors hold this community picnic mostly for the fun of the kiddies. Most schools in this area postponed their opening day until the next day after this picnic. This gives the school children one last fling at summer before the fall term of school starts.

Nearly every conceivable type of contest will be held for the children: pig and cracker eating contests, tire rolling races, three-legged races, relay races, 100-yard dashes, and distance races will be held. Each contest has cash awards for prizes.

One of the biggest free fireworks displays for the pleasure of the kids will be held at night, and it is the sponsors' hope that there will not be a single kid left at home to miss this wonderful spectacle.

Refreshments on Ground

Red lemonade and pink ice cream, hot dogs and hamburgers, all of which make a picnic a success, can be had on the picnic ground.

Parking Space Plentiful

One of the main reasons the dam site was chosen for the community picnic that will be held Labor Day, Monday, September 5, at McClellan Dam was the beautiful shade trees that are on the picnic grounds. There is more shade in this spot than can be found anywhere in Gray county.

One of the main reasons the dam site was chosen for the community picnic that will be held Labor Day, Monday, September 5, at McClellan Dam was the beautiful shade trees that are on the picnic grounds. There is more shade in this spot than can be found anywhere in Gray county.

One of the problems last year has been solved and there is sufficient space at this year's picnic grounds to park over 5,000 automobiles. The ground is level and cars can be parked in rows where anyone desiring to leave at anytime can get in and out without any traffic jam.

Momentous Meeting Between Farley And FDR Scheduled Today

HIDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 25 (AP)—President Roosevelt called James A. Farley today for a conference which may result in an intensified administration drive to defeat anti-new deal Democrats in Congress.

The Roosevelt-Farley talk, scheduled for sometime today or tomorrow, was considered one of the most politically important of the President's stay here.

Mr. Roosevelt presumably wanted to talk with his political generalissimo about campaign developments in a half dozen states. Farley's advice was expected to determine in part whether the President will make a personal bid in Maryland for the defeat of Senator Millard Tydings, an aggressive foe of the administration.

Also among probable topics of conversation between the two were the political situations in New York, Idaho, Georgia, South Carolina and Connecticut.

Farley Attitude Discussed

Thus far Farley has had no part in the President's drive against anti-administration Democrats seeking re-nomination. While the President was traveling westward on his recent campaigning trip Farley was making general political talks on a trip through the northwest to Alaska.

There has been general speculation regarding Farley's attitude toward Mr. Roosevelt's proposed "Purge" of anti-administration Democrats.

The projected conference between the chief executive and his postmaster general was expected to clarify Farley's stand.

Mr. Roosevelt presumably wanted information from Farley as to what the administration might accomplish in states now politically questionable.

President Undecided

The President has had several invitations to speak in Maryland in behalf of Representative David Lewis, administration candidate for the senatorial nomination.

In Idaho, the chief executive's problem is whether to throw administration support behind Senator James P. Pope if the latter, defeated in the Democratic primary, should run for re-election as an independent.

The New York situation involves the question of whether Mr. Roosevelt should support Governor Herbert Lehman for the Senate. Lehman opposed the President's Supreme Court reorganization plan.

BORGANS WILL 'GO WESTERN' FOR FALL FAIR

BORGER, Aug. 25—Eyes of the Panhandle are upon Borgers these days as the people of this busy Hutchinson county capital wake knee-deep in plans for the annual Hutchinson county fair which will open Sept. 8 and run through Sept. 10.

To make the event more realistic, the townspeople of Borgers and the surrounding area are preparing to "go Western" and already many are blossoming forth in cowboy and cowgirl regalia as a reminder that "fair days" are not far off. Cowboy hats, boots, gay-colored shirts and neckerchiefs and cowboy boots have become the current style for Borgans.

The Hutchinson county fair, according to Sol Morgenstern, president of the Fair Association, and other officers and members of the board, is going to be bigger and better this year than ever.

Many Prizes Offered

In addition to the many entertainment features, the fair this year will offer a wide variety of premiums and prizes for cattle, junior cattle, sheep, horses, swine, poultry, agricultural products, domestic products, canned goods, and floral exhibits. Due to the fact that no entry fee is being charged, no cash prizes will be given this year, fair officials have announced.

Judging will begin at 10 a. m. on the opening day of the fair and

Autoist Treats His Girl Friends, But Cop Spoils Party

City Traffic Officer George Pope thought he was "seeing things" the other morning as he rode his motorcycle on South Cuyler street. While going south behind a car the officer saw an arm reach out and grab a couple of bottles of pop from a delivery truck parked in the middle of the street.

Officer Pope blinked his eyes behind his colored glasses at a red pop truck and the same hand reached from the same car and grabbed off two more bottles of pop. That was when the officer swung into action.

Riding up beside the car, Officer Pope ordered the driver to pull over to the curb. In the car with him were two fair passengers, each drinking a hot of pop. On the floor of the car were a couple of empties.

In city police court Judge W. M. Craven assessed a fine against Ernest Bynum. He is still in the city's care, working out the $10 fine.

Amarilloans Face Tire Theft Charges

Boyd Jones and Frank Beets were returned to Amarillo last night by state highway patrolmen on warrants charging theft. The two men were arrested here by city officers yesterday morning after officers had been informed that two men were trying to sell tires.

The highway patrolmen told city officers that one of the tires had been stolen from a state highway department patrol car and that tires and wheels had been removed from two Phillips Petroleum company cars in Amarillo sometime Tuesday night.

One wheel on the car driven by the men, said to have been loaned to them, was different than the other three. Two tires in the rear seat and one in the trunk were identified by the highway patrolmen.

One of the men, patrolmen told city officers, was out of jail on a suspended sentence.

POKER-FACED WITNESS CALM UNDER ATTACK

Hines Lawyer Tries To Mix Up Gang Manager

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 (AP)—With a slight grin, George Weinberg, 36, ex-gangster testifying for the state in the conspiracy trial of Hammersmith District Leader James J. Hines, acknowledged under cross-examination today that he was "not a very good purr-er."

Through a barrage of questions by Hines' chief defense counsel, Lloyd Paul Stryker, Weinberg denied that he had "cocked up" his story of a politico-racketeer combine in pre-trial conversations with "Big Harry" Schoenhaus and J. Richard (Dixie) Davis, the "kid-mulchpiece" of the multi-million dollar Schultz policy racket.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 (AP)—Unruffled under a raking cross-examination, George Weinberg, 36, business manager of the old Dutch Schultz gang, today denied accusations by Council for James J. Hines that he stole $200,000 from the Schultz "policy empire."

Weinberg, resuming his testimony against Hines, Tammany district leader on trial charged with conspiring to extend political protection to the gang, was questioned closely about the Schultz treasury.

"What happened to that money?" Defense Counsel Lloyd Paul Stryker demanded, referring to one item of $30,000.

"Well, Schultz—" Weinberg began.

"You stole it, Weinberg, didn't you?" Stryker rasped. "You stole it, didn't you?"

"No," Weinberg replied calmly. "I did not."

Trucker Loses Foot In Abutment Crash

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 25 (AP)—Joe Nelson, 23-year-old Fort Worth trucker, suffered a severed right foot when a truck load of watermelons on which he was riding left the highway and crashed into a bridge abutment seven miles south of here on Highway 66 early today.

C. Sherrill, 22, driver of the truck, escaped injury, but the truck was en route to Colorado with a load of melons when the accident occurred.

Nelson's condition was reported fair at Wichita General hospital.

HEART AT STAKE IN HORSE RACE

Down the long backstretch two horses fought eye to eye—the field far behind. Now they were going into the turn.

"Look-look!" Linda Gordon grabbed her uncle's arm. They were running wide into the stretch now—Golden Fly was bearing out, carrying Merry Maid behind him. Down the last two furlongs the colt and the filly pounded—neck and neck. A great golden chestnut—and a dark bay—they shot under a dark bay—they shot under a line.

A sign flashed from the bulletin board:

PHOTO FINISH

Linda Gordon stood breathless. Her heart beat furiously. This was more than a horse race. Love was at stake. On the next flash of that bulletin board depended the turn of a lifetime.

"You'll live that tensely dramatic moment with Linda Gordon in the new serial coming in this paper, Charles E. Farmer's thrilling story of the Blue Grass turf and Blue Grass romance, "Photo Finish."

ELECTION TO BE SUBJECT FOR SERMON

"The Election" will be the sermon topic of Rev. W. M. Pearce at the Friday evening service of the revival now in progress at the First Methodist church.

A special program has been arranged for the revival services tomorrow. At 10 o'clock Friday morning there will be a special service for elderly people in the church auditorium. Members of the Missionary society have been asked to see that as many elderly people as possible are urged to attend.

The singing service will be held on the church lawn, at 8 o'clock. At the service last night, Louise Smith, Jessie Marie Gilbert and Mrs. Dorothy Peacock sang as a trio, and Nolan Froehner of Georgetown, who is in charge of singing during the revival, sang a solo.

A meeting of the board of stewards was held, following the service.

NEW OFFICERS NAMED BY WMS

New officers of the Cavalry Baptist Women's Missionary society were elected at a business meeting of the society held Monday afternoon at the church.

Plans were made to attend the district Women's Missionary Union meeting at Berger next Tuesday and plans were discussed for the anniversary and homecoming to be held at the local church the first Sunday in September.

Mrs. C. L. Vanderberg called the meeting to order and read the devotional. Election of officers followed the report made by the chairman of the nominating committee.

New officers of the society are: Mrs. C. L. Vanderberg, president; Mrs. L. L. Brewer, vice-president; Mrs. Henry Lane, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Ed Walker, mission chairman.

Other chairman and leaders elected were Mrs. Clayton Teague, mission study chairman; Mrs. L. L. Brewer, benevolence; Mrs. Gordon Smith, personal service; Mrs. Claude Crane, stewardship; Mrs. E. M. Dunworth, young people's leader; Mrs. Charles Hensin, periodicals; Mrs. C. Reed, social.

Mrs. J. H. Tucker, publicity; Mrs. Ed Walker, pianist; Mrs. Addie Buzbee, chorister; Mrs. Addie Buzbee, Stewardship; Mrs. Claude Crane, junior girls auxiliary leader; Mrs. E. T. Clark, auxiliary girls auxiliary leader; Mrs. Ed Walker, junior R. A. leader.

His father was reported too angry to meet him at the ship, but, as pictured above, Mrs. Frederick Stapp of New York gave a warm greeting to her champion stowaway son, 13-year-old Bobby. He had just returned from 16 days in the Caribbean, after stowing away on the S. S. Elena. It was his fourth free sea voyage this year, bringing his illegal trip total to 20,000 miles on an expenditure of 24 cents. Previously he had stowed away to France on the Normandie, to England on the Georgia and to Savannah, Ga., on the City of Chattanooga.

Glorifying Yourself

By ALICIA HART.

Being perfectly groomed, like having lovely skin, hair and a nice figure depends more on the things you are willing to devote to making yourself attractive than on the amount of money you have.

Step number one in the right direction is to realize the importance of taking excellent care of your clothes. No matter how little you are willing to invest in several shoulder shaped hangers and remember to hang up your dresses the minute you take them off. Try not to wear the same dress two days in succession. This saves pressing. And constant pressing often wears a fabric. By giving the dress a day of rest without wearings, the wrinkles often will come out without the aid of a hot iron.

And do have hat stands for your hats. No hat, regardless of its original cost, is going to retain its shape and chic if you toss it on a table or a closet shelf every time you take it off. Hats, like dresses need a rest now and then, too. And they'll be happier looking bonnets if they take their occasional rest in a hat box with plenty of tissue paper stuffed into their crowns.

If, when you are putting on an old dress, you will try to remember and catch again the feeling for it the first time you wore it, you'll look better in it once you get it on. You wouldn't have pulled it on haphazardly, not bothering to straighten it here and pat it there, when it was new, would you? Don't treat it badly now.

And do use shoe trees. Also remember to have new lifts put on often enough, to brush suede shoes carefully before each wearing and to use creamy dressing on patent leather ones. The better care you give shoes, the longer they'll last.

Naturally, scrupulous cleanliness and daintiness are the foundations of perfect grooming. A daily bath, (two or even three a day in summertime), regular use of a deodorant or an anti-perspirant, clean stockings and fresh underwear every morning—these are the rules. No woman can possibly look her best in any dress if she knows that the slip beneath it isn't spic and span.

AMARILLO GIRL BECOMES BRIDE OF E. J. LEWIS

Eugene J. Lewis of Pampa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis of Pampa, and Miss Betty Margaret Ferring, daughter of Mrs. John Ferring of Amarillo, were married Saturday morning at Sacred Heart Cathedral in Amarillo. Rev. T. J. Drury officiated.

The couple are at home at 608 West Francis in this city. Mr. Lewis is associated with the Lewis Hardware Company. He came to Pampa on June 5, 1933. He attended school in Kansas.

Mrs. Lewis is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy, Amarillo.

Miss Ruth May Ferring, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore navy blue crepe with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

WMS TO ADD NEW CIRCLE

Another missionary circle is to be formed, it was announced at a meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the First Methodist church, held Monday at the church. The new circle will be the seventh in the local church and each member of the present circles have been urged to bring a member for the new group.

The missionary circles have been assigned the responsibility for a large attendance at the morning service of the revival, held at 10 o'clock daily in the church sanctuary. A count of the members of each circle present at the service will be made.

At the meeting of the W. M. S. Monday, both Rev. W. M. Pearce, pastor of the First Methodist church and Rev. Hubert H. Bratcher, pastor of the McCullough Memorial Methodist church, were on the program. Rev. Pearce made the announcements concerning the revival now in progress at the church and Rev. Bratcher spoke on the effects of liquor and tobacco in relation to crime.

Rev. Pearce also made a talk on the topic of how the church helps young people.

The meeting opened with the playing of an organ solo by Miss Catherine Pearce, and group singing of "More Love to Thee," followed by a prayer.

Mrs. Horace McBee, president, presided at the business session when officers gave their reports.

As the next regular meeting of the society comes on September 5, Labor Day, it was decided that no meeting would be held on that date.

The devotional was led by Mrs. McBee and the meeting was concluded with the singing of "An Evening Prayer" by Janice Purviance.

TWIN SISTERS BEAR SONS SAME DAY

On the same day recently, Mrs. Douglas Robinson, left above, and her sister, Mrs. Francis T. Carmody, right, twin daughters of former New York Governor Nathan L. Miller, gave birth to sons in the same New York hospital. Mrs. Robinson's son, Theodore, arrived first, and sixteen hours later, Mrs. Carmody's son, Terence, was brought into the world by the same physician who attended her sister.

Picnic Held By Third Year Class

Members of the third year junior boys department of the First Christian church held a picnic at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon near LePore. Mrs. Charles Thomas, teacher, was in charge of the outing.

Those attending were Gene Steg, Ralph and Ray Pauley, Clayton Noblitt, Charles Riggins, John Mullin, Alvin Dizin, F. H. Meskimen, John Miller.

Guests were the following girls, Doretha Thomas, Margaret Benman, Betty Lou Batton.

Mothers present were Mrs. Steg, Mrs. Ralph Pauley, Mrs. Emily Noblitt, and Mrs. W. E. Riggins.

In India, after the wedding ceremony, the bride and the bridegroom are tied together by the corners of their garments to signify that they are united for life.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter gets into the blood. These poisons may start nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, itching, no sleep, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

The Life Story of W. LEE O'DANIEL

A Saga of American Success

CHAPTER 14

BEATING THE BUSHES

By C. L. DOUGLAS AND FRANCIS MILLER

(Copyright, 1938, by the Scripps-Howard Newspapers of Texas. Reproduction in whole or in part expressly prohibited.)

All business was suspended in Rosenberg that hot July afternoon. Huddled around signs hung on the doors of the smaller merchants, announcing to any prospective customer that the proprietor would be out for a few hours.

But that was really unnecessary. Rosenberg, almost to a man . . . and woman, too . . . had dropped everything to gather at the intersection of Highway 90 and the town's main street.

"This Banjo Man, as his opponents sometimes called him, was scheduled to roll in at 3:30 p. m., and Rosenberg, typical of hundreds of small Texas towns, knew of O'Daniel long before he had announced for the governorship. His homespun philosophy and hillbilly music often had supplied their entertainment through the radio in the absence of big city amusements.

More than an hour before scheduled time the usually quiet street was jammed. Wagons from adjoining communities had come in early. All sorts of motor cars chugged in to jumble the ill-managed traffic situation.

Sacks of Hillbilly Flour, moved from store shelves, occupied prominent places on the sidewalks in honor of the expected visit. A happy, hopeful crowd, buzzing with light conversation, waited . . .

FALSE ALARM SOUNDS, WOMAN TELLS OF DELAY
Three-thirty came . . . and went. Four . . . and still no O'Daniel. The crowd, a little impatient, craned necks toward the San Antonio highway. Folks shifted weight from one foot to the other. But nobody went away. They had confidence in their idol. He wouldn't disappoint them. He'd be there.

Four-thirty. Could it be possible that . . .
But no! Down the highway a sound truck was roaring along, and from it came blasts of hillbilly music. Into the crowds it sped, the tunes bringing goose-bumps of joy to the people who swarmed around it.

But look . . . this wasn't W. Lee O'Daniel! Out of the truck stepped a well-dressed woman. The record of hillbilly music coming from a phonograph in the car was shut off.

"Don't go 'way, folks!" the woman fairly shouted. "O'Daniel is coming. He's just been delayed. And while we're waiting I'd like to say a few words in the interest of my husband's candidacy for railroad commissioner."
Then came the explanation of the delay—as if the woman was an advance herald for the expected O'Daniel.

BLOCKING OF ROADS

FORCE IMPROMPTU STOPS

The nearby town of Wharton, the woman explained, had been left off the O'Daniel speaking list, but the highway over which he must travel passed right through the town. So the citizens of Wharton had assembled, parking their cars so thick they blocked the road, and when W. Lee's big white truck tried to get through the people just made it stop. They forced O'Daniel to speak and his band to play.

The same thing had occurred at El Campa and Victoria, on the route from a rally at Corpus Christi that day. O'Daniel was running late now for all his scheduled stops, making about three impromptu appearances for each one on the date book.

When he finally arrived in Rosenberg he was more than two hours late, but the cheers of the crowd seemed nonetheless tumultuous because of the delay. Following his customary small town entrance procedure he sent his truck into the midst of the crowd ahead of himself, parking his own inconspicuous sedan about half a block behind. Then, when the crowd had settled around the truck, he made a spectacular entrance through lanes of admirers, waving his hands, calling "howdy's" to greeters, getting slapped on the back much too often for his comfort.

GIFTS PILED HIGH IN BACK OF SOUND TRUCK

O'Daniel's own composition, "My Million Dollar Smile" always was the opening selection of a public appearance, and that afternoon as the Hillbilly Boys broke into the strains of the tune, O'Daniel made his way to the microphone atop the truck and began crooning the words in his pleasant voice.

A little old lady made her way through the crowd, just as hundreds of other little old ladies had been doing in hundreds of other towns on the speaking circuit. In her hands she carried a beribboned shoe-box filled with fried chicken. She passed it up to her idol, to receive a gracious bow and a charming smile.

Then came another fan, bringing a cake made with Hillbilly flour, and it went to be added to a great collection of gifts already stacked in the rear of the sound truck. There must have been more than half a dozen boxes of food contributed before the opening song was completed at Rosenberg—but Rosenberg was no more generous than other places on the route.

ECHOES RESEMBLE BRUSH ARBOR AMENS

Mr. O'Daniel's opening remark always put the "common people" audience in good humor.
Lambasting the "professional politicians" from the very beginning, he would say:

"Folks, heretofore I've always WORKED for an HONEST living, but . . . LOOK AT ME NOW!"
The crowd always roared, and Rosenberg was no exception. That familiar battle cry of Texas politics

"Pour it on 'em!" rang out like "amens" at a brush arbor camp meeting.

And "pour it on 'em" O'Daniel did!

... the gum shoe old age assistance inspectors have popped up in all places to haunt grandpas and grandmas. They are so thick they are inspecting each other by mistake.

... the burning issue in this campaign is old age pensions. They ask where we are going to get the money? That was what they said before any pensions were paid. One source would be economies in government."

... If elected governor I will ask every city and town in Texas to form committees to determine the type of factory best suited to each city and town. I will gather these committees in Austin to work out a full program of industrial development. . . . many of my friends wear today the uniform of honest work—overalls. I myself have worn overalls many years of my life and have done the hardest kind of labor. I have scooped coal for the railroad and if that doesn't burn into a man love and respect for his comrades, nothing else will.

... I have been wounded by things said about me, but remember, my friends: 'Blessed are ye when men shall revile you and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for My Sake.'

It's your campaign, not mine. The boys and girls have some little flour-carrers they're going to pass around. If you want to put any money in them you shall have the opportunity.

But don't go away from here and say that W. Lee O'Daniel asked you to put any money in. I'm just giving you an opportunity. If you want to join the people's candidate against the professional politicians."

CROWD GETS OPPORTUNITY TO PAY FOR CAMPAIGN

Daughter Molly and the boys passed around the barrels which were labeled, "Flour, not pork," and the electorate shelled out.

There was no barrel passing that afternoon in Rosenberg, because the truck was running two hours late, but that night in Galveston's Menard Park three large paper sacks of cash were carried aboard the truck.

On the next night, Saturday, W. Lee and his band appeared in Houston for an appearance at Miller Memorial Theater and although the newspapers variously estimated attendance from 6,000 to 15,000, bus and street car representatives who stood at entrances with punch-addresses estimating the turnout so that transportation could be provided for the show—placed the total at 26,000. It was the largest turnout in the history of Texas political rallies and more than half of them held up their hands when W. Lee took a straw poll.

The sound truck, plink-plinking "The Hillbillies are politicians now," rolled in under the trees of Turkey Creek near Cleburne to find 15,000 picnicking farm folk waiting—on a farm rented for the rally because there wasn't room in town.

It was, old-timers said, the biggest political rally Johnson County had witnessed since Jim Bogg debated George Clark on the courthouse square during the gubernatorial race in '92.

"My goodness!" exclaimed the candidate of the common folks, "What's going on here . . ."

There was an echo of that, too, from the camps of Bill McCraw, Ernest Thompson, Tom Hunter, and the others aspiring to the nomination.

The hillbilly boy who had never lived in the hills really was coming round the mountain—a mountain of Texas votes.

ALLIED PREDICTION AROUSES EDITOR ESTES

Governor Jimmy Allred, who never did like Candidate Bill McCraw, grinned as he sat behind his desk at Austin.

"I believe W. Lee O'Daniel will lead the ticket," said the astute Jimmy, who had just been appointed a federal judge. "I'm beginning to think there won't even be a run-off."

Carl Estes, fiery East Texas editor, sent a wordy telegram to the governor.

"Isn't it a fact that you have been putting words in W. Lee O'Daniel's mouth?" he asked. "It looks like you would have kept quiet after you got your plum from the Federal Government. I have kept out of this campaign because you kept out. Are you ready to come in again? If so, pull the hillbilly flour sack off your face and come on out into the water . . . and I'll tell them what I know about his Kansas political hitchhiker who is trying to thumb a ride on a flour sack into the governor's office."

The always outspoken El Paso Herald-Post chirped:

"William McCraw is the last hope of the Texans who want to keep a bunch of clowns and wildmen out of the state capitol at Austin. The next governor of Texas will be either William McCraw or Chief Clown Lee O'Daniel and his troupe of hillbilly assistants."

Old Jim Ferguson, former governor and onetime wise man of Texas politics, wouldn't surrender.

"Whatever chance O'Daniel may have had to be governor," he said in his newspaper, The Forum, "he threw away when he announced his platform to be the Ten Commandments."

"They DON'T like mountain music!" sang the Hillbilly Boys, as they continued to titillate about the country.

The O'Daniel ground swell had risen. It had become, in fact, a rip tide.

Germans Protest Sudeten Demands

PRAHA, Czechoslovakia, Aug. 25 (AP)—Germans belonging to democratic parties in Czechoslovakia protested on two fronts today against the Sudeten German party's demands for autonomy within the republic.

A delegation from the German social democratic party visited Viscount Runciman, unofficial British mediator, and told him autonomy for the Sudeten Germans would force Nazi principles on a large number of inadequately organized and somewhat inarticulate Germans who wished to preserve democratic government.

Let's Keep The BCD Alive

Civic-minded citizens of Pampa hope that city commissioners will find some spot to retrench on next year's budget figures without slashing the fund allotment of the Board of City Development.

The BCD, it is generally agreed, is of just as much value to Pampa's development and growth right now as it has been at any time since its inception.

Some are of the opinion that to cut the BCD fund at this time would fall into the category of being penny wise and pound foolish.

As one citizen told the commissioners right before last when the proposed cut was being discussed, the BCD has earned its bread in multiple fashion if no other factor was considered than the highway projects in which it has been successful this year alone.

Cutting the BCD operating money to merely a matter of paying the salary of office help would, it is believed from all the facts at hand, seriously cripple Pampa's growth.

City officials, one feels certain, appreciate what the BCD means to Pampa and are just as desirous as anyone that it continue on its present financial basis.

For the best interests of the city as a whole, it would seem that their request is not out of line.

Behind The Scenes In Washington

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—World tension over Germany's immediate intentions in Czechoslovakia will increase in the next few weeks. This fact and the fear in Washington and other capitals that tension will lead to explosion lie behind the speeches in which Senator Hull denounced "international lawlessness" and President Roosevelt emphasized America's concern over other nation's "wanton brutality."

Although about a million Germans have been called out for maneuvers, the U. S. government has no inside information on Hitler's plans—and it is doubted here that Hitler himself knows just what he will do.

Reports of differences between Hitler and his army generals are considered authentic. The generals do not believe Germany is sufficiently stocked for a European war and they advise against invasion of Czechoslovakia. But they also advised against the Austrian adventure.

Diplomatic and military officials in Washington suspect Hitler won't attack. The Hull and Roosevelt speeches were designed to notify the world that American sympathy—and perhaps more—would be ranged against Germany in case her aggression provoked a war.

Sharing The Comforts Of Life...

By E. C. Hollen

FREE MEDICAL SERVICE

With the President advocating an extension of the Social Security Act and free medical service, and a contributor contending that voters should write to their Senators demanding an Act for free medical service, the subject becomes worthy of consideration.

The contributor contends that the American Medical Association is a monopolistic group and must be broken up. Does the contributor know what a monopoly is? If there is any thing that is not a monopolistic group, it is the medical profession.

Great doctors are different from great businessmen. When a doctor makes some new medical discovery that will be of benefit to his fellow-doctors, he immediately makes it public to the world.

In another manner the doctors are anything but monopolistic. Practically every doctor gives away hundreds of dollars worth of services free every year, but certainly they are entitled to retain the right to determine to whom they will give free service.

One reason why free medical services would not be practical is that there is a vast difference in doctors and different people want a choice of doctors to serve them. If everyone should receive all the medical service he really could use, it would be an extremely expensive undertaking.

And the pay for this would not come from the rich, as the taxes are not now coming from the rich, but it would come from the great middle class of honest workers. The wealth that would be paid the doctors would have to come from this class and they now are not able to pay the running expenses of the Federal Government at the rate of $100 per year for every worker.

CONSIDER THE PH. D. (Baltimore Evening Sun)

From time to time some flackjack in the academic world kicks up a rumpus which gets into the newspapers. The latest squawk appears in the New York Times, which today carries an extensive report of a Town Hall address by Dr. E. W. Knight, professor of education at the University of North Carolina, who is at present serving on the summer session staff of Columbia.

Such which passes under the name of research, especially in education and some other sciences (he declared) is really no research at all. I doubt whether many of the three thousand who receive their Ph. D.'s each year in this country have blazed new trails in the field of knowledge.

Even knows, some of the published theses are dull enough, in all conscience. Moreover, more often than not they are confined to some extremely narrow interpretation of an already overcrowded field.

How's Your Health?

By IAGO GILDSTON, M.D.

"Birthmarks" are skin blemishes which are due to the abnormal development of blood vessels in the superficial and deeper layers of the skin.

The common types are called technically—spider birthmarks, strawberry marks, and port wine marks. These terms are more or less descriptive of the general appearance of the mark.

Spider birthmarks usually consist of central veins with a number of radiating smaller veins which, with some stretch of the imagination may look like spiders.

The strawberry birthmark is prominently elevated above the skin and may be pitted or lobulated. Port wine marks are smoother in texture than the strawberry marks although they too are somewhat elevated.

Besides these three types there are several other forms of birthmarks.

Birthmarks, as the term applies, are present on the affected individual at the same time of birth or are developed shortly thereafter.

Treatment of them depends, naturally, upon the size, type and location of the blemish. Some, like the spider birthmark, are comparatively easy to obliterate.

In a recent study made of the strawberry type of birthmark it was found that this type of skin blemish does not require any treatment since it tends to disappear spontaneously.

The study, which covers a period of seven years, involved 28 patients having 92 strawberry birthmarks. Within the period of the study all of the birthmarks had completely disappeared or were disappearing.

Strawberry birthmarks are either present at birth or appear in the first few months of life and increase both in area and in prominence, sometimes very rapidly.

There's a period in which no change is noticed in the birthmark, it begins to retrogress. The great majority show no trace at all by the end of the fifth year. Thus no drastic measures of treatment are indicated.

Pampa and Borger are going to have a lot more in common when the two cities are brought closer together by the new shortcut highway between the Hutchinson and Gray capitals.

The paved highway cutting the distance between the two Panhandle centers to only 27 miles will be finished late this year, according to present plans.

Men with foresight in each of the two cities right now are working on plans to bring the two cities closer together in proposals for civic improvement, business betterment and industrial expansion in both areas.

There is a road, among others, in Buchanan County, Missouri, which is so very in need of oiling and has been sorely in need of it for about a dozen years.

Speaking of causes for alarm: There is a road, among others, in Buchanan County, Missouri, which is so very in need of oiling and has been sorely in need of it for about a dozen years.

It's called "Sing You Sinners" and it gives both Bing and Uncle Gus a chance to go to town.

Uncle Gus is a race horse, which is a strange critter to gallop into a picture that's more about one interesting family's troubles than it is about racing.

This Beebe family of the story is as real as any that ever sat down to eat roast. There's Ma, who's played in a turn by Elizabeth Patterson.

Well, Joe (that's Bing) leaves home and pretty soon he sends for Ma and Mike so Dave and Martha can get married. That's fine until Ma and Mike arrive and find that Joe's passion for swaps has made him the owner of Uncle Gus instead of his flourishing swapshop business.

During the three years of its existence the National Labor Relations Board has issued some amazing decisions. Employers have ceased to exist.

No orders issued by the board have been more extraordinary than those commanding various employers to restore, with back pay, employees who have engaged in sit-down strikes.

Another court setback for sit-downers was administered on July 22, 1938, by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans.

The court majority, in overruling the order, cited the board's own opinion that the workers had done "a foolish and illegal act." Emphatically, the court declared that "an employer is warranted in discharging his employees when they take and retain exclusive possession of his property against his will."

Ignoring the convictions, the board ordered eleven of those affected to be restored with back pay on the allegation that "the strike was caused by unfair labor practices" on the part of the aircraft company.

AUSTIN, Aug. 23 (AP)—Ever hear a snarl public address system? If you haven't you've missed something. It is funny if the baby isn't scared.

At the political campaign rallies of W. Lee O'Daniel there was plenty of opportunity to hear babies call for their mothers over the air.

If a child became separated from its mother, finding her by simple observation and looking was a pretty hopeless proposition. But O'Daniel had a technique that never failed to click.

The amplified "ma-a-a-ma" that would go rolling over heads of the audience always brought a great laugh, and more important, it brought "mother."

More babies seemed to have been lost at the Kilgore rally than at any other attended by this correspondent. That was the final outdoor meeting in O'Daniel's campaign.

A great deal has been said and written about O'Daniel's "showmanship" and more of the same will be forthcoming probably before he is through with the office of governor.

There is reason to believe he does not like to be called a "showman" or to have it thought his "showmanship" was the chief drawing card for the crowds that greeted him in the campaign.

He remarked one day after the result was known, that his campaign methods were not "a patching" to some he long had used in advertising flour. For years he had travelled about the state with his orchestra, using incidentally, the same bus which figured in the political campaign.

It has been estimated that 25 miles underground the earth's temperature is 2200 degrees Fahrenheit—more than enough to melt metals or rock.

EYSTON SAYS HE'S REACHED SPEED CEILING

WENDOVER, Utah, Aug. 25. (AP)—The world's high speed king, Capt. George E. T. Eyston of England, feels that at almost 360 miles an hour he virtually has reached the ceiling of speed on land.

His chief rival, John Cobb, also of London, holds however that there is no limit to the rate of motion man can attain on the ground.

The lank, nervous Eyston, yesterday was officially timed at 347.18 miles an hour as he rocketed his thunderbolt automobile through the measured mile on the Bonneville salt flat just east of here.

He admitted today dash-board instruments showed he hit "devilish close to 360" on the return run through the mile when failure of an electric-eye timing device nullified his certain new record.

"I've figured it out scientifically," said Eyston, "and I don't think a land speed of much more than 360 miles an hour is possible.

"Racing tires to hold up at great speeds can't be built. At 360 miles the outside of the tire is traveling at the speed of sound, about 700 miles an hour. If they weren't completely shielded, the wind alone would rip them wide open.

Countered Cobb: "If you can get tires that will hold up, if mechanical engineering continues its remarkable develop-

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Wholesome—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is slow in coming, you feel "dopey" and "drowsy" in the morning. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel "dopey" and "drowsy" in the morning. It takes these good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Wholesomely refuse anything else.

'Prisoner'

Youthful veteran of the war in Spain, Alvin Halpern is pictured in Washington as he told the congressional committee investigating "un-American" activities that some 4000 Americans serving with the Loyalists are virtual prisoners. The Eyston youth said he was recruited for the Loyalist army by Communists.

ment, and if you can get long enough straightaway courses, I don't think there's any limit to the speed man could travel."

Cobb, who is awaiting use of the salt flats for a record attempt in his turtle-shaped Railton car, and Sir Malcolm Campbell of England are the only other men who have driven a car faster than 300 miles an hour.

MEXICAN DUTY DROPPED MEXICO CITY, Aug. 25 (AP)—The National Tourist Commission announced today tourists may take $100 worth of merchandise out of Mexico without paying the new 12 per cent export tax. A delegation of the Laredo, Texas, Chamber of Commerce recently urged the Mexican government to take such action.

There are 938 motion picture theaters in the Dominion of Canada, an average of one theater for every 11,500 of the population.

LOVE RESIGNS AS GOLF PRO

Resignation of Del Love as golf professional at the Pampa Country club was accepted at a meeting of the board of directors yesterday. Mr. Love will remain in charge at the club until October 1.

Mr. Love came to Pampa as pro at the Country club on April 1, 1934, from Indian Hills Golf club in Amarillo, where he had served for several years. He has not announced plans for the future.

The pro will have charge of the Top O' Texas golf tournament to be played over the local course Sept. 2, 3, 4, and 5. Many entries from out-of-town golfers are being received daily. Rogers, Amarillo, Shamrock, Clarendon, Memphis, Sayre, Okla., and other cities have already reported that they will send players.

A successor to Mr. Love has not been named by the pro.

Anti-Fascist Plot Charged By Editor

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 (AP)—Called before a congressional subcommittee investigating un-American activities, Girolamo Valentini, anti-fascist editor, declared today he would present evidence of what he called "an organized movement of Mussolini agents to undermine our democracy and fascitize the Italians living in America."

Valentini, who said he was chairman of a New York anti-fascist committee, was the first witness called before a three-man section of the special House committee headed by Rep. Martin Dies (D., Tex.) which has been holding hearings in Washington.

The subcommittee's hearing here was private and had not been announced beforehand. Boylston E. Thomas (R., N. J.), a member of the subcommittee, explained that he and his colleagues planned to inquire into "an important matter about which nothing can be said at present."

Valentini, former editor of La Tampa Libera, Italian language newspaper which has suspended publication, arrived with a subpoena calling for his appearance "with all documents of a fascist character in your possession."

Hamilton Hoots At Political Morality

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—Republican Chairman John Hamilton contends that President Roosevelt "must have had his tongue in his cheek" when he criticized Republican participation in Democratic primaries.

Issuing a statement shortly after two Democratic sermons—Brown of Michigan and Sheppard of Texas—had expressed agreement with the President's comment, Hamilton said last night:

"Taken seriously, Mr. Roosevelt's remarks constitute an indictment of the election laws of a number of so-called states.

"If Republicans have or intend to participate in Democratic primaries—and there is no conclusive proof that they have or so intend—

"It has been and will be in accordance with the provisions of state laws.

"Does Mr. Roosevelt now propose to sponsor some kind of federal 'force' law to compel the states to revise their election laws to suit his views?"

"I'm tired of being the family janitor," complained Mrs. Housewife. "Of course, furnace-tending is presumably the job of the man of the house, but I know what it means to run downstairs a dozen times a day to 'fix' it. And this house is never comfortable. It's frosty when we get up in the morning; stuffy an hour or two later. Always too hot or too cold."

Make yours an easy-to-keep home so that furnace tending is OUT. You can have a comfortable home all winter long, no matter what the weather outside. A modern heating system—quiet, clean and automatic—is the answer. But it must be automatic in every sense of the word!

Pirates May Back Into National League Pennant

(By The Associated Press)
By SID FEDER
The fearless prospects of having to tangle with those awful Yankees in another World Series appears to have the National League's leading citizens spared to death of winning their own pennant.

At least, that's the way the current senior circuit looks what with the Pirates having a tough time scratching an even .500 average in their last 20 games, the Giants winning just 13 in the last 27, and those Chicago Cubs playing seventh place ball for the past month.

In fact, the way the favorites have been doing their darndest to kick their chances away, only Frankie Frisch's collapsible Cardinals and Will McKechnie's raw Reds appear to have serious designs on the flag. As matters have been progressing, however, the Pirates won't have much chance to sidestep during the closing drive. They trounced the Boston Beas, 6-2, yesterday, largely through Pep Young's triple with the bases loaded. Although that was only their seventh win in 15 times out, it boosted their first-place margin to six full games.

At that rate, it would appear Pie Traynor's crew will get the pennant whether it wants it or not, based on the traditional minimum of 94 Bucs now are in a spot where they can play less than 600 ball, while their closest rivals must tear along at 750 or better to catch up.

One Hit Game
Of course, the Cardinals can pretty well be counted on now, 18 full games behind the pace setters. But with Lonnie Warneke's lanky arm moving the other fellows down, and Curt (Bargain Counter) Davis starting to click—as witness that one-hit 5-0 decision he posted against the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday—Onkel Frankle may still get his boys into the money.

The Reds are generally regarded as too young to stand the gaff of the stretch drive, but the fact that no other first division club has a good record in the past month makes it barely possible they may come thru. They chalked up their 17th win in 30 starts yesterday with a 3-1 victory over the futile Phillies.

Since Van Pate, the "old man" rookie, tossed a four-hitter to give the Cubs a 6-1 win over the Giants, this left the Reds just half a game out of second place.

13 Games Ahead
It's just about certain the National league winner will meet with the Yankees in the extra-curricular clouting. Gehrig and company split with the Chicago White Sox yesterday to climb 12 full games in front in the American league frolics. Jimmy Dyke's three-run homer paced the Sox to an 8-5 opener win, and Tommy Henrich's two homers gave the Yanks the afterpiece 11-1.

Three changes in the brackets featured the junior circuit program. Cleveland's Indians climbed into a second-place tie by topping the Boston Red Sox, 5-3, on Bruce Campbell's two homers. Washington regained sole possession of fourth place with a close 8-6 edge over the St. Louis Browns, and the Athletics pulled themselves out of the cellar with a top-sided double win over Detroit, 10-5 and 11-1.

SOFTBALL GAMES SCHEDULED AT PICNIC ON LABOR DAY

Girl 'Chute Star in Air Thriller

Lone woman contender in the dangerous delayed-opening parachute jump to be staged at the National Air Races in Cleveland will be Faye Lucille Cox, above, of Cushing, Okla. Billed as America's "No. 1 woman parachute jumper," she will compete against four men.

Followers of softball should have a treat in full at the community picnic to be held at McClellan Dam Labor Day, September 5. Nearly everyone will play softball that day. There will be amateur teams chosen from the ones who do not play regularly all during the day. Four softball games are being scheduled besides the amateur games for the day. The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Pampa will challenge the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Puryton to a softball game that day.

The Lions club at their meeting last Thursday voted to hop on the local Rotary club and challenge them to a soft ball extravaganza. The Lions expect the scene to be somewhere around the century mark with a goose egg for the Rotary. Tentative batteries for the Lions are "Blackie Mackie" McMillen, pitching, and "Smoky" Burrows, catching. The Rotary club has not announced who they will use for their battery.

The Pampa Kiwanis club will challenge the Kiwanis club of Amarillo to a soft ball game, using as pitcher and catcher "Roundhouse" Buckingham, "Dutch" Boshen. These soft ball treats should be enjoyed by the 15,000 people who are expected to attend this second annual community picnic.

HOUSTON TAKES DOUBLEHEADER FROM TULSANS

(By The Associated Press)
The Houston Buffs pounded down the Texas league stretch today in a belated drive that threw chills into the camp of the Tulsa Oilers.

Sweeping a double-header last night to make it three straight wins over the Oilers, the "Little Cardinals" advanced to within three and one-half games of fourth-place Tulsa, battling for a place in the Shreveport play-off.

Beaumont, the loop leader, second place San Antonio, and Oklahoma City, the third-place club, were regarded as "in" with the season only a little more than two weeks to go.

Houston beat Tulsa 5-4 in the first game, using six hits better than the Oilers did their ten and John Goodrick pitched two-hit ball as the Buffs captured the night-cap, 6-0.

Beaumont beat the Fort Worth Cats, 8-7, a homer by Mae Fleming, with two on in the seventh being the decisive blow.

Shreveport celebrated the presence of Douglas Corrigan, the world war flyer, by also doing things in reverse. The Sports lost to Oklahoma City, 2-1.

Dallas couldn't have gotten the San Antonio Missions out with a fire department, the Padres crushing the Herd, 11-0.

Women's Matches Hold Attention In Doubles Meet

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 25 (AP)—Convinced too much idleness rusts champions, Alice Marble and Mrs. Sarah Pauline Fabyan, defending titlists in the women's division of the national doubles tennis tournament at Longwood, today seized the opportunity to become its first 1938 finalists.

Sideline three days by the Sabbath, a bye and a default, Miss Marble and Mrs. Fabyan were so unsteady and timid when they resumed action yesterday they played tag with defeat much too long for comfort before gaining the semi-finals by topping Miss Sylvia Henrotin of France and Mrs. Dorothea Andrus of New York, 6-4, 8-7, 13-10.

With that stiff match behind them, Miss Marble and Mrs. Fabyan were expected to be in form today for their immediate rivals, Kay Stammers and Margot Lumb of England, who had great difficulty gaining a 6-1, 1-6, 11-9 victory over Mrs. Harry Hopman and Dorothy Stevenson of Australia.

The men's field will come to the second last stage today by running off the two remaining quarter-final matches. Adrian Quist and Jack Bromwich of Australia will oppose Garnar Mulloy of Miami and George Toley of Los Angeles, and another pair of Aussies, Harry Hopman and Leonard Schwartz, will take on Yvon Petra and Bernard Destremau of France.

Don Budge and Gene Mako defeated Russell Bobbit, of Atlanta, and Frank Guernsey of Orlando, Fla., in one third-rounder yesterday, and in the other Wilmer Allison and Johnny Van Ryn gained the doubles semi-finals by overthrowing Bobby Riggs and Bryan Grant, 6-1, 8-6, 6-2.

Rice Star Will Play Dallasite In Longview Meet

LONGVIEW, Aug. 25 (AP)—Joe Lucia, Rice Institute star seeded No. 1 in the Longview tennis tournament, faced Fred Higginbotham of Dallas, another seeded player, in semi-finals of men's singles yesterday.

Lucia disposed of Hugh Stephens, Shreveport city champion, yesterday while Higginbotham was taking out Fred Funnell of Dallas.

The other semi-final match pitted Chester Granville of Austin against Gordon Reeder of Kenyon college.

Marjorie LeGrande of Dallas and Jane Johnson of Wichita Falls were the women's singles finalists. Nixon and Grubbe were in the men's semi-finals but other places had not been determined.

Big Spring Loses In VFW Tournament

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 25 (AP)—New Orleans eliminated Bessemer, Ala., and Big Spring, Texas, last night from the national softball tournament held in connection with the national encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, administered a 10 to 1 defeat to Alabama and beating the Texans, 7 to 4.

The victories gave New Orleans the right to meet Clearwater, Fla., today for the title. Clearwater earlier upset Big Spring 6 to 0.

FIRECHIEFS RETAIN TITLE BORGANS LOSE DOUBLEHEADER TO AMARILLO

The Texaco Firechiefs of Amarillo repeated as Panhandle District Softball champions here last night when they took two games from the Alamo Stiffens of Phillips, 10 to 1 and 5 to 1. The Firechiefs had to win the hard way even though they drew two losses during the tournament. A loss to Cities Service of Pampa gave them a setback earlier in the tournament while the Stiffens watched them come up to the first bracket again.

Eddie Norton, Texaco fireball pitcher, was the deciding factor in both wins. In the first game he fanned 10 batters, hit a home run and single, and scored three times. Norton fanned 13 batters in the second game to bring his total for the night to 23. The Stiffens were able to get only two hits off Norton in the first game. One of them was a home run against the right field fence by Shaw, right fielder. Norton yielded seven hits in the second game.

Errors Costly. The Stiffens' Cheevering was troubled with errors behind his erratic pitching. He was nicked for nine bingles in the first game, including home runs by Norton and D. Reeves, shortstop, but yielded only five hits in the second battle. His teammates made six errors in each game, three of them letting the Chiefs have four runs in the first inning of the nightcap affair. D. Reeves was the big noise in the Firechief attack in the late games as he banged three singles in three trips to the plate. Moss got the other two hits of the game.

The Firechiefs played outstanding ball in the field, making only one error in the second game. Alamo came up with an even dozen bobbles and most of them were costly. Good Umpiring. An unusual feature of the game was that First Baseman Todd of the Chiefs had only two putouts in the first game and only three in the second. One of the outstanding plays of the tournament went to Shaw in the opening game when the Alamo right fielder raced deep back of first to grab Todd's fly while on the dead run.

P. J. Castleberry and E. C. Snyder called excellent games throughout the tournament. Volunteer umpires handled the bases in fine style all the way. Today's Answers to Cranium Crackers (Question on editorial page.) As the cost is always 100 per cent, he sells the first horse for 25 per cent more, or 125 per cent. If $250 is 125 per cent, 1 per cent is $250 divided by 125, or $2; and 100 per cent, or the cost, is $200 times $2, or $200, the cost of the first horse. Since the cost of the second horse was 100 per cent and he lost 25 per cent, he would sell this horse for 75 per cent. If $250 is 75 per cent, 1 per cent is $250 divided by 75 or $3.33; and 100 per cent, or the cost of this horse, is 100 times $3.33, or $333.33, the cost of the second horse. Thus the two horses cost $200 plus $333.33, or $533.33. As he sold them for $250 each, or $500, he lost $33.33.

By BILL ANDERSON, Business-Manager of the Harvesters. DULING LODGE, Weston, Colo., Aug. 23.—Training is in full swing up here as the Harvesters are putting everything into their two practices each day. We have had a bit of bad luck, however, Bob Karr's trick knee has gone bad on him and he is hobbling around the camp on crutches made from limbs of trees. He will be unable to practice the rest of the time in camp and may be lost for a longer period.

"Buck" Flemming has not completely recovered from an illness before camp opened and as a result he had been conditioning and watching proceedings from the sidelines. The other boys are in tip-top shape. "Chief" Carille is being tried at the fullback position along with Doyle Auids and "Red" Walkins. Carille has the power, Auids the passing and Walkins the speed and it may be that one of them will develop a combination.

Truman Ruple has been shifted to the short position as an understudy to Albert Kemp and he is showing a world of promise. Auids and Kyle seem to have the end jobs sewed up but are being pushed hard by the Clemmons brothers, Herbert Maynard and Aubrey Green who have been shifted from guard to end slots.

Stiles and Parish are still leading the guards with George Nichols, Bailey and Gliddens doing some tall chasing for their jobs. The tackle assignments appear to be a toss-up between Hesse, Montgomery, Glen Nichols and Ripple. The backfield of Kemp, Graham, Dunaway and the fullback seems to be a toss-up between Miller and Miller are giving real accounts of themselves.

At center, Solomon and Candler are staging one of the toughest battles in recent years. Both look good and are working hard. "The boys are having a big time, especially at the table which H. H. Isbell and Aaron Meek keep loaded with good, wholesome food, well-cooked. We may scrimmage Perryman and Ratca at Raton, before coming home.

SERIAL STORY

HAYWIRE HOUSE

BY EDWIN RUTT

COPYRIGHT, 1938
NEA SERVICE, INC.

Yesterday's Not everyone is haywire at the Restorium. Kinks observes as a well-dressed gentleman appears after the Griffin-Chesse feud.

CHAPTER XVI

MR. C. K. TITUS was a quiet man with grave, kindly eyes and a pleasant manner. He arrived at noon the next day after the Great Pierre had returned and, with many "Mon Dieus" and "Parbleus," reincarnated his snakes.

The advent of Mr. Titus appeared to bring a great wave of peace to the Restorium. The days that followed were uneventful. Mr. Titus himself kept his own company, spending long hours in the grounds and rowing on the river. The other members of the household settled down to their usual pursuits.

Much to the surprise of Sally and Kinks, the team of Griffin and Spaldini remained at the Restorium even though the Little Cheese was no longer gunning for them. Bull explained this phenomenon in his inimitable fashion. It appeared that the organization dominated by the Little Cheese was large and widespread. Its members were under orders to give the word to Mr. Griffin on sight. Wherefore he had deemed it advisable to remain where he was until the Little Cheese had had time to round up his cohorts and announce that the feud had been called off.

To add to the general serenity that now prevailed, Wilton Ames had been in and out and making himself most agreeable. And to Sally, Wilton was more than agreeable. He was downright apologetic. Not only had the shares of the Great Divide Copper Company failed to go up; they had cravenly turned tail and slid toward the market's nadir.

THEN one day Kinks brought up the general subject of finances.

"How's the exchequer getting along?" he asked.

"There is," Sally informed him, "just about $400 in the exchequer. Bull Griffin paid for another week in advance and I've hoarded everything and stalled off the tradesmen. In other words, Mr. Parker, we need $200 and we need it in a hurry. You may have forgotten it, but the deadline is 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon."

Kinks wrinkled his brow. "I hadn't forgotten. I've been beating my brain to think of a way to raise some dough. But, honestly, I'm stymied. Isn't there anybody we could borrow from?"

"Not a soul that I know of."

said Sally. "And I don't see how we could approach any of our guests for a loan. We'd have to put up some—some collateral, wouldn't we? And we've nothing but a property already mortgaged." Suddenly she bit her lip. "The—The pitiful part is that if I hadn't been a darn fool, we might have almost made it."

"What do you mean?" said Kinks quickly.

Sally was in the mood for true confessions. Yielding to an impulse she told Kinks everything.

He heard her out. At the end of the recital he stared at her perplexedly.

"But, good heavens, girl," he exclaimed. "Didn't you know that the Great Divide Copper Company has been on the rocks for months?"

"Now how on earth would I know that?" retorted Sally irritably. "If it comes to that, how do you know it?"

"You forget, little one, that I was in the bond and stock business before I became half a hotel proprietor or the proprietor of half a hotel. It's a well-known fact. Our firm laid off Great Divide like poison."

For a moment Sally was silent. "Then you think..." she did not finish it.

"It does not become me to speak ill of my greatest rival," said Kinks. "But it looks as if friend Wilton, for reasons of his own, has slipped over a fast one. I simply can't picture a good house like Brown, Sherlock recommending Great Divide."

Sally pondered. "I don't believe Wilton would do such a thing," she said, at last.

"Well," said Kinks, "there's one way to find out. If you went in and called Brown, Sherlock on the phone, you might get the real low-down. You've just been going on what Wilton's been telling you."

SALLY stood silent for another moment. Then, suddenly, she turned on her heel. Presently Kinks heard her slam the screen door.

He waited 10 minutes. When Sally came back her face was white and set.

"When I get my hands on Wilton Ames," she said bitterly, "I'm going to tear him into little pieces. Those brokers not only didn't recommend Great Divide. They told me distinctly that for a year they've been advising their customers against buying it." Her blue eyes misted suddenly. "Oh, I never heard of such a dirty trick. When he knew darn well how much I want to keep this place."

Kinks patted her shoulder gently.

"If you don't decide to marry those little pieces of Wilton," he said, "you might remember that Parker is still around. And Parker is willin'."

"Oh, go away," said Sally. "That evening Sally went to her room after dinner. Kinks mooned vacantly about, wrestling with the problem of how to raise $200. He finally wound up on the porch where he found Mr. C. K. Titus sitting alone. In a sudden burst of confidence, he told him about their predicament.

Kinks stared after him.

"Huh?" he muttered. "That guy can sure toss other people's troubles over his shoulder. Oh, gee, this is a mess. Dispossessed at 3 tomorrow. And Sally is going to be heartbroken."

He spent a restless, futile night. When he came down next morning two people occupied the dining room. One was Mrs. Clipstack who stood with arms folded, her habitual expression of severity on her face. The other was the Great Pierre. And the Great Pierre was idly passing his hands over a salt-cracker, making it disappear and reappear in a most disconcerting fashion.

Kinks watched him for a second. Then, suddenly, he started. Inspiration, like a great white light, had flooded his brain.

Miner Close Friend Of Wounded Pastor

Harry W. Miner, educational and music director of the First Baptist Church in Pampa, was a close friend of the Rev. G. Kearnie Keegan of Alexandria, La., who was shot and seriously wounded Tuesday at a state-wide Baptist encampment at Mandeville, La.

The father of a boy who drowned at the camp last Saturday is being held by authorities at Mandeville in connection with the shooting.

Mr. Miner said today that he met and became a close friend of the Rev. Mr. Keegan when they were students at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth.

Authorities said the father, Murray McGuire of New Orleans, blamed the minister as head of the encampment for the death of his son, Lawrence McGuire, 15, one of about 500 Louisiana boys attending the annual encampment.

Smith said the boy's body had been recovered by a Coast Guard cutter and brought to shore.

Witnesses said that McGuire met the minister just after the latter left a telephone near the Lake Ponchartrain beach and that the minister placed his hand upon the father's shoulder and told him, "I'm sorry."

A pistol flared almost immediately and five bullets were discharged at the minister, one striking Rev. Mr. Keegan in the abdomen.

Physicians at Baptist hospital here where Keegan was brought said the minister was "resisting easily." He suffered bullet wounds in his right hip and left leg.

Witnesses to the shooting told the sheriff the father appeared resentful over the loss of his son's life while the student was attending the Louisiana Baptist encampment at Mandeville. The sheriff said the man fired on the minister after McGuire alighted from a coast guard cutter that recovered the boy's body.

LIQUOR SALES BANNED

AUSTIN, Aug. 25 (AP)—A reminder liquor and beer dealers must close shop between 7 a. m. and 8 p. m. for the Democratic primary Saturday came today from Liquor Administrator Bert Ford. He added compliance with the law was very good for the first primary July 29.

Mexico Resumes Oil Shipments To U. S.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 (AP)—The first shipment of oil purchased from the Mexican government for refining in the U. S. since the expropriation of American and foreign oil holdings last spring was delivered yesterday in Houston, Tex., the Eastern States Petroleum Co. said today.

The shipment amounted to 40,000 barrels of crude oil of about 29 gravity, the company said. The oil did not originate in the expropriated fields, the company declared, but came from wells of government-owned "petromex," in the Poza Rica field.

The shipment was the first load under a recently negotiated contract between Eastern States and the Mexican government.

The company pointed out in a statement that other American companies are importing oil from other Latin American countries in large amounts, and stated that the shipment was in accord with American laws.

CHUNN NAMED WHITE DEER SCOUTMASTER

WHITE DEER, Aug. 25.—C. B. Chunn, manager of the Southwestern Public Service company, has been elected scoutmaster to succeed Rev. Gordon MacInnes, who will leave next week for Corsicana, where he has accepted the pastorate of the Third Avenue Presbyterian church. Mr. Chunn is a Red Cross instructor, has completed a course in Principles of Scouting taught here last spring by Scout Executive Fred Roberts, and has been a member of the troop committee for nearly a year. Other members of the committee are Mayor A. J. Dauer, Rev. L. E. Walker, pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. Herman Coe, pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. J. A. Zienta, pastor of the Catholic church, and W. J. Stubblefield.

Troop 31 was organized in August, 1934, with 8 members. Rev. MacInnes was elected scoutmaster and has continued to serve in that capacity, except for a few months when he was attending school, during which time, I. E. Cole assumed the duties. The troop now consists of 16 members divided into two patrols, the Flying Eagle and the Buffalo. Jimmie Russell and Ray W. Veale are patrol leaders with Eugene Winget and Floyd Lassiter as assistants. Winget is also scribe. Donald Crumpacker and Jimmie Russell are candidates for senior patrol leader, and will be selected within a few weeks. Billy Stubblefield and Rex Russell are assistant scoutmasters. Stubblefield is a Star Scout and Russell lacks only one merit badge having attained that rank. Only three of the original group are still members of the troop. They are Rex and Jimmie Russell and Donald Crumpacker. These three form the Pi Delta group, a secret organization of scouts of first class or higher rank, designed to honor those of merit and to encourage better work on the part of other members of the troop. Ray W. Veale is also eligible for the group, yet has not been initiated.

Bridge Party Held At Corbin Residence

MIAMI, Aug. 25.—Mrs. S. M. Corbin, Mrs. S. J. Montgomery and Mrs. Horace Smith were the hostesses at a bridge party in the home of Mrs. Corbin Tuesday afternoon. All The Answers Required At This Shamrock Station

SHAMROCK, Aug. 25.—From what is that white fluffy plant we saw growing near here? (cotton) to "when will the World's Fair open in New York?" is the range of questions asked clerks at Shamrock's Highway Courtesy station. Not alone are station agents confined to merely answering questions. One of the attendants even removed a cinder from a little girl's eye. At the station, maintained by the Texas Highway department and operated by college students, guests asking information are asked to register. Over 700 names are now listed. Every state in the Union is represented, as well as Scotland, China, Chile, the Territory of Hawaii, the Philippines and the Netherlands.

MRS. DOYLE OSBORNE HONORED AT SHOWER MONDAY IN MIAMI

MIAMI, Aug. 25.—Complimenting Mrs. Doyle Osborne, the former Miss Irene Jackson, of Pampa, Mrs. C. W. Bowers, Mrs. Dale Low and Mrs. Buford Low were co-hostesses at a miscellaneous shower, Monday afternoon, in the Bowers home. Miss Marion Ramsey presided at the Bridal Book. In the dining room Misses Crystal Noblitt, Frances Finch and Frances Ruth Bowers presided at a beautifully decorated table with a huge punch bowl and wafers as they arrived. The house was decorated with beautiful colorful dahlias and zinnias. Miss Frances Deen Carmichael played a piano number. A poem especially written and dedicated to Mrs. Osborne was read by Mrs. Buford Low, who presented Mrs. Osborne with gifts from many friends. Out of town guests were: Misses Donnie Lee Stroops and Marion O'Brian of Pampa, and Misses Bill Benton, Dyer, Shackleton, Tinsley, Guy Farrington, Fignor, all of Pampa; Mrs. B. F. Jackson, Jr., of Ft. Worth and Miss Florence Jackson of Clovis. MOBEETIE TO OPEN SCHOOL TERM MONDAY

MOBEETIE, Aug. 25.—Mobeetie high and grade schools will open Monday, it has been announced by Supt. M. D. Blankenship. Two new subjects have been added to the high school curriculum this session, home economics III and public speaking. A motion picture machine has been purchased by the high school. It will be used for both entertainment and instruction. The home economics department will have enlarged quarters, according to present plans to move the department into the room formerly used for science classes. Other improvements to the Mobeetie schools include the remodeling of the superintendent's office, the setting out of 200 trees and the planting of grass and flowers on the high school campus, and a thorough repair of the school buses. In training at a camp eight miles north of Briscoe is the Mobeetie football team, coached by Clinton Meek.

D. R. Henry

For County Treasurer

After all that has been said and published regarding the matter, Alanreed was successful in 1918 in electing a County Treasurer who served in that capacity until January 1st, 1929. This is no misleading statement—investigate it.

I want your support on August 27th, and will surely appreciate it. Be sure and go to the polls and vote your choice next Saturday.

FOR SHERIFF

A Tax Payer

A Permanent Citizen

TO THE PEOPLE OF GRAY COUNTY:

I want to express my gratitude and sincere thanks to my good friends over the County who have worked for me in this campaign, and have given me encouragement since I announced. I urge you to continue this work and to be sure and vote Saturday, August 27th.

It has been my effort to submit myself to the voters upon my own qualifications and merit, and upon my desire to be of service to my County. I know that with the experience I have as a peace officer, and the whole-hearted co-operation of the good citizens of the County, that I can and will make Gray County such a sheriff as it is entitled to, with credit to myself and family and to the people. I do not believe that Gray County is a lawless County, or that it is a haven for criminals. I do believe, however, that we have as fine a citizenship here as can be found. I do not promise to do the impossible or make promises I know I cannot fulfill, but I do promise the people that I will track the law and enforce it, without exception.

The juvenile question is a vital one in the enforcement of all laws. A young man or girl, just starting a mischievous career of crime, can, in most cases, be made a better boy or girl, instead of a subject for the State Reformatory or Penitentiary. I intend to devote a large measure of my time, as sheriff, in helping the young boys and girls who get into trouble without realizing the consequences of their deeds, to see their mistake, while, at the same time, be firm and rigid enough with this class of law violators to make them realize that they have made a mistake, and that crime does not pay.

Naturally, we may expect a degree of major violations, such as theft, burglary, swindling and high-jacking. This class of law violation is done generally by hardened, chronic criminals. In order for this class of criminals and law violators to be ferreted out, investigated, arrested, and conviction secured in their cases, the services of an experienced, qualified peace officer is required, along with many long hours of hard work; to protect the property rights of the people against these law violators likewise requires the services of an experienced officer with a force of honest, clean, hard working deputies, unaffiliated with any thought except to safeguard the people in their person and property rights.

As sheriff, I promise the people to faithfully and honestly perform the duties required of me, without prejudice or favor, and with the further promise that if I am elected, no person will ever have an occasion to regret having voted for me.

Respectfully,
ART HURST.
