Heart-to-Heart

Sept. 18 is the date on which Los Angeles will greet the vanguard of the American Legion convention, and it's going to be here before you know it. Now, fellows— There's no reason, why everything shouldn't go smooth as silk. A little thought beforehand will do wonders. Get plenty of sleep and fresh air and exercises in the few days remaining. And it wouldn't hurt to practice strolling with a cane.

Advice for Politicians

Condensed from an article written by Meredith Nicholson, United States minister to Nicaragua, for your consideration: Mr. Nicholson addresses the young man contemplating a career in politics. He recommends, among other things, that the young man try to be tolerant, be willing to listen, rid himself of any snobbishness he may have, and do his own thinking.

Behind The Scenes In Washington

By RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Staff Correspondent. WASHINGTON—If you don't like the way the monopoly investigation goes, blame the Yale Law School! Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold, in charge of anti-trust cases and Department of Justice member of the Temporary National Economic Committee, is a professor on leave from the school.

The Nation's Press

SENATOR GEORGE OF GEORGIA (Fort Worth Star-Telegram). Polls and other methods of sampling public opinion in Georgia indicate a strong sentiment in favor of re-nominating Senator George and suggest the President may not have played good politics in his endorsement of Lawrence Camp, the Administration candidate. In playing good politics, it is not always advisable to say what one thinks or to rely on principle rather than expediency.

Sharing The Comforts Of Life...

By R. C. Holton

HEARST'S SPENDING "Mr. Hearst Steps Down" is the title of the leading article in The Saturday Evening Post. In this article it is said that Mr. Hearst "had a career during which, at a plausible estimate, a $100,000,000 went for gratification of one individual's personal or domestic desires."

Just think, how one individual in the United States in one short lifetime, can consume $100,000,000 worth of the comforts of life, when one-third of the people are ill-fed, ill-clothed and ill-housed and when we have so much misery, suffering, ignorance and poverty! Had we intelligent legislators, Mr. Hearst would have been obliged to contribute many times this amount of wealth into the public coffers before he could have spent this amount of wealth on his own desires; and the hundreds of millions that he would have been obliged to pay into the public treasury, in order to spend this amount on his own desires, would have reduced the sacrifices that the great mass of honest workers would have had to make to support the government.

Cranium Crackers

An attempted revolution was recently put down after a Nazi coup de main in the capital of the country which produces 90 per cent of the world's iodine. A candidate to succeed the country's president was placed under arrest.

So They Say

What democracy suffers from today is paralysis of will, and there can be no worse political or social disease than that.

Text's Topix

There's something intriguing about this $30 California oldiers have been promised and are expecting every Thursday, beginning almost any old time now. Counting thirty cents out for church, that makes five dollars and ninety-five cents a day for the six working days of the week. Only they won't be working.

Thousands of old boys who would not be safe in a wheel chair on a railed-in hospital roof will be driving straight-eight and V-12 automobiles hell-bent for election. It's a heartless thought, but it will cut down the number of recipients of the old age benefits after a short time. California will become a mecca for quack medicos and "rejuvenators."

More, but not quite completely, ethical doctors will have a real holiday. If you've ever put your neck out by asking a septuagenarian "how are you feeling today?" you'll get his drift. There's something, real or imagined, wrong with everyone of them, and $20 a week won't cure it, but they'll ante up anyway.

Four Monogram Films in Contest

NEW YORK CITY, Sept. 10—Monogram pictures will have four productions entered in the $250,000 Movie Pic contest sponsored by the various picture companies in launching "Movie Picures of the Greatest Year." The competition gets under way September first and continues until the end of the year.

YOU AND YOUR Nation's Affairs

Politics in Agriculture

Secretary Wallace has announced that he hopes to perfect a plan to subsidize the export of about 100,000,000 bushels of surplus wheat during the current year. The money for the subsidy would come from one-third of the customs receipts that are earmarked for this purpose by the A.A. C. act and legislation of 1935.
