COBB BLASTS EYESTON AUTO SPEED RECORD

Londoner Travels 350.2 Miles Per Hour

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah, Sept. 15 (AP)—Wealthy John A. Cobb of London smashed the world's automobile speed throne today with an unprecedented mark of 350.2 miles per hour.

The Doughty fur broker smashed the record of 345.40 miles per hour established here August 27 by Captain E. T. Eyston, retired British army officer.

Cobb, a new man at high speed racing, flashed through the measured mile at 353.29 miles north and 347.16 on the southward jaunt. Eyston's average for the north run was 347.49 and for the south 343.51.

Eyston has announced he will run tomorrow, thereby continuing their costly and hazardous duel at speed in the six miles a minute class. The former officer watched his record fall while flying along the course.

His seven-ton "Thunderbolt," with a remodeled nose and tail to perfect the streamlining, has been ready 10 days. Cobb's permit expired this morning, leaving the captain, who hoisted the record from 301.295 to 311.42 last November, a clear path for an attempt to regain his lost honors.

Cobb, his black and aluminum-colored racer, thundering through the mile at a clip until recently believed impossible, was timed at 10.19 seconds for the north mile compared with Eyston's 10.36, and at 10.37 for the return sprint, compared with Eyston's 10.48.

Cobb's second average was 10.38; Eyston's 10.42. The big Englishman also shattered the kilometer record with an average of 350.07 miles per hour, compared with Eyston's 345.21.

The millionaire fur broker was jubilant. His aides disclosed he would remain here with his "Railton" and make further runs if Eyston regains the record.

As to his sensations, Cobb said: "It just kept going and faster until it seemed the car couldn't stand more. My vision was blurred. I could hardly see anything at all. Cobb said he had the car at full throttle.

"She's got more speed though," he said. "I'd have been faster, I believe, if the track had been firmer."

Cobb ran under almost perfect weather conditions.

T. A. Landers of McLean gave an outline of the highway accomplishments in the McLean area in recent years. C. O. Green spoke briefly on the early highway history of the section.

JUDGE SCENTS TROUBLE IN COURTROOM

A clove of garlic held up proceedings in federal court in Greenville, S. C. A witness had eaten the garlic and just couldn't seem to disguise the fact. At least the court scented the trouble and Judge Wyche recessed for the day at 3 p. m., several hours ahead of schedule. If you are prone to eat Charoeseese and "want to be alone," we'd suggest a clove of garlic. It's guaranteed to run even your best friends away... to say nothing of your enemies.

When you advertise your rooms, apartments or houses for rent in The News Want Ads you'll find it difficult to do alone. The prospective tenants just naturally beat a path to your door.

'We Want Food'--And They Got It!

Here's a sample of what happened at a Republican state rally near Pittsburg when a hungry crowd attracted by the promise of free food broke through police lines and raided the dining hall. Most of the crowd of 55,000 went hungry as the demonstrators grabbed great slabs of roast ox and trampled much of the food during the half-hour riot.

Jaycees Guard Secret Of Reception Comedy For Teachers Tonight

Members of the cast of nine Jaycees that are to present a comedy skit as the feature of a banquet and reception for 216 teachers of Gray county at the red brick school building on the high school campus at 7:30 p. m. tonight, were guarding their secret act with extra precautions today, following a rehearsal at the Pampa Chamber of Commerce last night.

Carnegie Kenney, chairman of the Jaycees committee, sponsors of the event, would not even tell the names of those participating in the act, nor give an inkling of what is in store for those attending the affair tonight.

The act will be the concluding number on the program. Ken Bennett is arranging for music to be played during the banquet and he will sing two songs during the comedy skit. Walter E. Rogers, Pampa city attorney, will act as toastmaster for the banquet. The address of welcome will be made by a local business man.

W. M. Braley, McLean high school principal, will make the response for the teachers, and the 40-minute comedy act will follow, concluding the program.

The reception and banquet is being given for the teachers of the county by Pampa business men and the affair is sponsored by the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce. A total of 216 tickets had been sold this morning. Clarence Kenney, chairman of the committee in charge, of arrangements, said.

Violators Of Bus Law Will Be Fined

Following conversations with drivers of buses for the Pampa Independent school district, an officer of the sheriff's department stated today that beginning Monday they would start making arrests and prosecute those found guilty of driving past school buses while the vehicles were receiving or discharging passengers, in violation of the law.

The fine for the first offense is $32.20 in such cases, plus mileage at seven cents a mile, according to the distance an officer drives in making the arrest.

Despite frequent warnings, motorists continue to violate the school bus passing law, according to Joe Shelton, superintendent of the buses for the Pampa Independent School district, who on Tuesday reported several cases in which school children had had narrow escapes from being hit by automobiles while crossing the highway in going to and from the school buses.

LINDSEY OFF TO TESTIFY IN ANOTHER TRIAL

Deputy Travels Many Miles In Going To Court

Chief Deputy Sheriff O. T. Lindsey might become an entrant in a contest to decide who is Gray County's most-traveled peace officer, if such an event were ever held.

Deputy Lindsey made a trip to Panhandle today to testify there in a case in which Ellis Bonham and O. D. James are each charged with three counts of burglary. The pair was arrested two months ago and charged with burglary here. They have been held in the Gray County jail.

Monday night, Deputy Lindsey returned to Pampa from Vega, where he had appeared in court there as a character witness in a cattle theft case.

In the week of September 26, Lindsey and Deputy George Inman, who with his family last night returned from a 4,600 mile vacation trip to California, are to go to San Angelo where they are to testify in a case in which A. E. Fowler is charged with theft of a motor car. Fowler was found asleep beside a tank near Kingsmill, and was alleged to have had possession of a car stolen in San Angelo. He was brought to jail in Pampa, then later released into the custody of Tom Green County officers.

Gold Shipments To States Reach Peak

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (AP)—Secretary Morgenthau disclosed today that the European crisis has caused the "largest flight to the dollar in history."

The treasury head declined to estimate the amount of foreign funds sent here for safe keeping but figures on recent treasury gold actions indicate several hundred million dollars of foreign coin have arrived here in the last few weeks.

"This movement proves," Morgenthau declared, "that the United States is the financial center of the world and can resist the kind of nervousness that people with money fear."

"This is no reason for alarm over this movement. If people want to send money here for refuge, we are glad to accommodate them."

The secretary said he was in constant touch by transatlantic telephone and cable with the financial authorities of England, France, Belgium, Switzerland and the Netherlands for the purpose of cooperating with them as signatories of the 1936 tripartite monetary agreement in stabilizing international exchange.

Negro Identified As Girl's Attacker

RUSTON, La., Sept. 15 (AP)—A negro was held today after Sheriff Bryan Tolpelt said a Louisiana Tech co-ed identified him as the man who attacked her twice and so badly fractured the skull of her escort, J. W. Bredlove, 29, that little hope for his recovery is held.

The sheriff said he took the negro to the Monroe jail "due to the intense feeling aroused in Ruston as news of the crime circulated."

The girl told him, the sheriff said, "that the negro leaped on the couple's car near here early yesterday, beat Bredlove unconscious with a heavy instrument, and then forced her to go with him to nearby woods and attacked her."

The sheriff said the girl told him the negro returned to the car, put the unconscious Bredlove into a rear compartment, and drove several hours around the country, with the girl beside him.

The co-ed said the negro again attacked her, the sheriff relate, then returned where the car had been parked and disappeared.

The negro denied any part in the assault and attacks, the sheriff added.

CHAMBERLAIN TALKING WITH ADOLF HITLER

Prime Minister Will Try To Buy Peace

MOSCOW, Sept. 15 (AP)—The Soviet army newspaper, Red Star, declared today that Prime Minister Chamberlain's policy was "not only to make an agreement with an aggressor but also to help liquidate a democratic state (Czechoslovakia) in the center of Europe."

Moscow awaited calmly the outcome of the Chamberlain-Hitler conference at Berchtesgaden. There was no popular excitement. Chamberlain, Red Star said, is "using Czechoslovakia as small change in striking a bargain with Hitler."

BERCHTESGADEN, Germany, Sept. 15 (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain of Great Britain arrived here at 4:02 p. m. today (10:02 a. m., EST) for his talks with Reichsfuhrer Hitler in search of means to assure European peace.

The British leader was received by Dr. Otto Meissner, chief of the chancellery, who conducted him after a short stop at the Grand Hotel to Hitler's home, Berghof on Obersalzberg.

A special train brought Chamberlain and his party from Munich, where he arrived earlier from London by airplane.

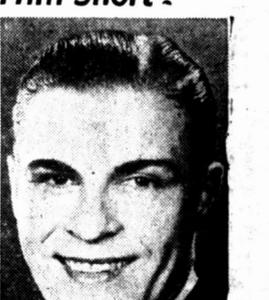

A crowd which had gathered near the railway station cheered Chamberlain when he appeared, walking from the train with Joachim von Ribbentrop, German foreign minister.

War Preparations Speed Alarmingly

BERLIN, Sept. 15 (AP)—DNB, the official German news agency, reported today in a dispatch from Neugersdorf, Saxony, near the Czechoslovak border, that war preparations were alarmingly on the increase.

The dispatch said Czechoslovak state police and Gendarmier had been greatly augmented and that additional classes of army reserves had been called to the colors.

The population of the northern border regions, DNB declared, was in a panic.

(In Prague government authorities, replying to questions concerning troop movements along the frontier, said there was no exceptional military activity.)

The proclamation of Konrad Henlein, Sudeten German leader, demanding annexation of the Sudeten regions by Germany received greater prominence in the German press today than even the visit of Prime Minister Chamberlain to Berchtesgaden.

Foreign diplomats did not hesitate to express the belief that the proclamation was carefully timed to confront Chamberlain at Berchtesgaden with a new situation.

WHAT UNITED STATES WOULD DO IF IN WAR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (AP)—The War Department has been planning for years what to do if the United States should be drawn in another major war—but it hopes the plans never will be used.

Army officers said today one of the department's first steps in event of hostilities involving the United States would be to recommend to Congress immediate enactment of a selective service (draft) law.

Except for minor changes, they said, it would be the same as the one used in 1917 to get dough-boys and their officers for service in France. That act was repealed long since and there is no draft law on the statute books at present.

Married men with families and men with other dependents would be exempt from service but would have to register. Men called for service would be those selected by lot from the physically fit.

A number of other steps would be necessary immediately if the United States should ever be drawn into war. Officials listed them as follows:

1. The calling out of the national guard of 200,000 and the expansion of the regular army, now 170,000, to wartime strength of 200,000.
2. The army would be increased to 1,000,000 men in the shortest possible time.
3. The industrial mobilization plan prepared by Assistant Secretary of War Louis Johnson would go in effect. Then thousands of factories already listed, analyzed and their agreements secured, would start manufacturing the war supplies they have agreed to furnish.
4. The emergency administration recommended in the industrial mobilization plan would be instituted by the President. These are organizations such as the war resources administration.

Statistics indicate that at least 125,000,000 pounds of plant food elements are removed from the soil by erosion in the United States each year.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
Without Colman—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink.

A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

Doing Her Bit for China

While their husbands and sweethearts seek desperately to stem the Japanese onslaught along the bloody Yangtze river front, teenage girls such as the one pictured above guard the outskirts of Hankow. This girl, wearing a foliage-covered hat and crouching under a sheltering tree, is typical of the feminine troops Gen. Chiang Kai-shek is depending upon to furnish the last ditch defense of the city.

Republican committeeman, Boston Curtis, won office here without the sign of a campaign. He collected his 51 votes without even offering a platform.

Boston Curtis, a mule, was entered in Washington's blanket primary election by Kenneth Simmons, Democratic Mayor of Milton, who saw to it that Boston's hoop-print was attached to the filling notice and himself signed as witness.

Simmons said he wanted to demonstrate his belief many voters know not whom they support.

DES MOINES, Ia.—Cotton soaked with chloroform was placed in a case containing two rattlesnakes to make them ready for the hands of John Robertson, taxidermist, who was to stuff them.

One of the snakes died, but the anesthetic produced only a "twilight sleep" for the other while she gave birth to four offspring.

But Mrs. Snake was chloroformed again, and her children preserved for exhibition.

The public safety department estimates there are 189,000 miles of highways, county roads and city streets in Texas.

NEW GENERALS NOW COMMAND WORLD ARMIES

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (AP)—New military chieftains tested by old wars command the world's key armies today.

The men who directed the strategy of millions of fighting men during the World War are no longer at their posts. Nearly all of them are dead.

Now younger officers who learned their soldiering in that and other conflicts carry the batons of command.

Of the great parade of World War generals, three are dead; Hindenburg and Luden 'orff of Germany, Kitchener and Haig of Britain, Foch and Joffre of France, Cadorna and Diaz of Italy, King Albert of Belgium, Grand Duke Nicholas of Russia and others.

Remaining, but retired from service, are Pershing, whose strategy was "to draw the best German divisions to our front and to consume them," Crown Prince Friederich Wilhelm and Field Marshal August von Mackensen of Germany, Marshal Henri Petain and General Maxime Weygand of France.

Today these generals are in command:

France—Maurice Gustave Gamelin, 65; once said by Joffre to carry "a detailed map of every kilometer in France in his head"; educated at Saint Cyr, West Point of France, served in North African campaigns and World War, credited with "pacification of Syria" in post-war disorders.

Britain—Viscount Gort, 52, called "Tiger" Gort; 32 years a soldier; educated at Sandhurst, served in World War, won Victoria Cross for leading Grenadier Guards across Canal Du Nord despite his wounds; became chief of staff Dec. 2, 1937, in charge to inject younger blood into high command.

Italy—Pietro Badoglio, 66, conqueror of Ethiopia; served in Ethiopian campaign of 1896 and Italian-Turkish war of 1912; went into World war a lieutenant colonel and came out a general; educated at Turin Military Academy.

Germany—Walter von Brauchitsch, 56, entered the Imperial German army as a second lieutenant at 19; military academy graduate and son of a general; served with distinction in World War.

Russia—Marshal Klementi E. Voroshilov, 57; no military training until 1918, when he organized detachment to fight against German forces of occupation; rose to command of 10th Red army in fight against White forces; became war commissar in 1925.

United States—Malin Craig, 63, chief of staff; West Point graduate, served in Cuba during Spanish-American war; in World War was chief of staff of 1st army corps in France, then chief of staff of army of occupation; awarded distinguished service medal for "exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services."

HUSBAND TURNS PLUMBER.
LEBANON, Ohio, Sept. 15 (AP)—Principal J. C. Vian of the Lebanon high school told his wife not to bother calling the plumber—he would fix the clogged drain himself. He inserted a wire. It stuck. He removed the drain pipe cap and inserted his finger. The finger stuck, too. An hour later a plumber released him. Then the plumber fixed the drain pipe.

Ever Wonder Why You're Constipated?

Do you ever have days when you just have to drag yourself along, when you feel tired, sunk—because of that constipation? Then why not find out the real cause of your trouble?

What have you had to eat lately? Just things like meat, bread and potatoes? If that's it, you may not have to look any farther. It's likely your trouble is you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and aids elimination.

If "bulk" is what you lack, your ticket is a dish of crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast every day. It contains the "bulk" you need plus Nature's great intestinal tonic, vitamin B<sub>1</sub>.

Eat it every day, drink plenty of water, and join the "regulars" Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

What Does It Take To Win A War?

As the threat of war deepens in Europe, people naturally are trying to figure out which of the rival nations is likely to be the strongest in a knock-down and drag-out fight.

The easiest way to do this is the obvious way—count noses among the opposing armies, and assume that the side with the most troops has the advantage. But the fallacy in this is the fact that not all soldiers are the same. Take two battalions of equal size, equip and train them in precisely the same way, give them leaders of equal skill—and still they won't be the same in fighting power.

This was touched on by Major John H. Burns in a recent article in the Infantry Journal. Major Burns suggests that we pay altogether too much attention to the "genius" of famous military leaders, and not enough to the qualities of the humble foot-sloggers who do the actual fighting. The deciding factors in a battle, a campaign, or a war, he believes, may be the psychology of the opposing soldiers, their racial and national background, their general adaptability to the business of fighting.

Major Burns points, as an illustration, to the way the famous Swiss infantry of a few centuries ago broke up the cavalry charges of the armored knights. The Swiss carried long pikes, and in line of battle formed a bristling, steel-pointed hedge that ruined every cavalry charge directed against it.

The French decided to adopt the same tactics, and trained their men accordingly. But what the Swiss did perfectly the French troops were unable to do at all. For some queer reason, the "pike hedge" that worked so well for the Swiss did not work at all for the French.

The armies of the Central Powers in the World War gave equally striking examples of the same sort of thing.

In connection with the most modern of all weapons, the airplane, the same truth is evident. Students of the war in the Far East, for instance, report that although the Japanese are vastly superior to the Chinese in air power they are likely to run into real trouble the first time they face an air fleet equal in size to their own. Man for man, the Japanese just don't seem to be as good aviators as, say, the Chinese—or the Russians. No one seems to know just why this should be; but the difference does exist all agree.

That "next war" we are all dreading may well be won by just some such difference—some little quirk in psychological make-up or racial background which no one was able to figure on in advance.

Behind The Scenes In Washington

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15—Headaches were freely predicted for the administrator of the wage-hour act. But they're piling up in even greater numbers than anyone anticipated.

They march upon Administrator Elmer F. Andrews and his deputy, Paul F. Sifton, in the form of huge question marks—mostly involved questions as to who's covered by the law, which Congress tossed out to fall in the administrator's lap.

No one knows any answers yet. The Wage and Hour Division hasn't even hired a general counsel, let alone the big legal staff which must decide those questions, present findings to Andrews, and prepare to defend its answers in the courts. Andrews has been trying to get Calvert Magruder, former general counsel of the Labor Relations Board, away from the Harvard Law School faculty.

The law's automatic provisions for an initial minimum wage of 25 cents an hour and maximum 44-hour week take effect Oct. 24.

JUST WHAT IS COMMERCE

Before that time, employers must be advised what industries are to be considered in interstate commerce and thus affected. The act's language is broad, asserting, "Commerce" means trade, commerce, transportation, transmission, or communication among the several states or from any state to any place outside thereof." Already the question is asked: How about manufacturers who buy raw materials, outside the state, but manufacture and sell only inside?

The law exempts persons in "professional capacities." The Wage-Hour Division is being asked if this means nurses, clerks, newspapermen, private secretaries, office forces, and so on. Must workers affected be actually producing goods or are watchmen, firemen, outside workers, research workers, electricians, engineers, repair shop workers, and maintenance men covered by the hour limitations?

What is seasonal labor? The law exempts certain persons employed for 14 weeks or less, but answers to this question will require a huge amount of investigation.

QUESTIONS GALORE

The law exempts persons engaged in the "first processing" in food industries and processing of other agricultural products for up to 14 weeks in any calendar year when employed in the "area of production," as defined by the administrator. What, Andrews would like to know, is the "area of production," in this, that and a thousand other cases?

Another nice little job for the administrator is computation of money value of board, lodging, and other facilities which are given as part of wages in many industries.

And what is a "trade association"? The Commerce Department lists 2,000 of them, but finds some hardly deserving as it sends out a searching questionnaire in a phase of the "monopoly" investigation. On the other hand, the Wage-Hour

Sharing The Comforts Of Life...

By R. C. Hodges

One of the writers in "You and Your Nation's Affairs" remarked the other day that it is very difficult to write any tax law that does not retard production. And with the ever increasing demand for taxes, this claim should be more and more considered.

But there is a great difference in the amount which the different tax systems retard production and there is great difference in the kind of production it retards.

We should aim at the tax system that, as little as possible, retards the production of the very common necessities of life. And if there must be any retarding in production, it should retard things that are not used as necessities.

Taxing a man for adding to the wealth of the world and adding to the tax duplicate, does more to retard production than any other kind of a tax system. That is the kind of a tax system the United States adopted a quarter of a century ago. If we would reverse it, and tax a man because he rapidly consumed, or destroyed, wealth in satisfying his own pleasures and rapidly reduced the tax duplicate, this method would retard production less than any other method we have ever heard of.

And we cannot divide more than is produced. Any system that retards production affects the humblest worker. This is true because those people with large incomes will have practically all the comforts of life whether production is large or small, but the humblest worker, when it costs him too much energy to get more comforts, is obliged to do without these comforts when their production is retarded by bad tax laws. So, bad tax laws are of more importance to the great mass of humble workers who are above the charity group than any other class.

BETTER NEWSPAPERS, A GREAT NEED
One of the things that this country needs as much as anything else is better newspapers throughout the land—Newspapers that have the principles back of them that Benjamin Franklin had back of the newspaper he published.

And if people would demand the kind of a newspaper that Franklin gave them, there would be more of them. On this subject, Franklin said, "Whenever I was obliged to insert anything of personal abuse, and the writers pleaded, as they generally did, the liberty of the press, and that a newspaper was like a stage-coach, in which any one who would pay had a right to a place, my answer was, that I would print the piece separately if desired, and the author might have as many copies as he pleased to distribute himself, but that I would not take upon me to spread his detraction; and that, having contracted with my subscribers to furnish them with what might be either useful or entertaining, I could not fill their papers with private altercation, in which they had no concern, without doing them manifest injustice."

Would that papers of today were careful to print only things useful or entertaining to the readers and not give half-truths and not sell covetousness, envy and hate in order to appeal to the people who do not think through complicated questions!

POLITICAL FOG

When we get away from the Universal Rule, or equality before the law, or an attempt to approach free enterprise, or the competitive system, we are like a man traveling in foggy weather. "Those at some distance before him on the road he sees wrapped up in the fog, as well as those behind him, and also the people in the fields on each side, but near him all appears clear, though in truth he is as much in the fog as any of them."

That is exactly what is happening now, both in the Republican and the New Deal parties; when they attempt to further regulate the lives of men, they are in a fog. They think they can see how the lives of men should be regulated, if they are only given control. But history proves that not even a father can regulate the lives of his own children and select their occupations. If a father, whose motives would be for the best interest of the child, cannot do this, it is a fantasy to believe that politicians, whose main interest is keeping their control and thus their interest is prejudiced, could wisely regulate the lives of each individual. If they really believe they can, they are in a fog.

Probably they do not even believe it, but desire the power that this scheme would give them and they enjoy it as long as the public will put up with it.

The Nation's Press

"THEN DEMOCRACY IS INDEED THREATENED" (Christmas Club Magazine)

In a situation where thirteen millions of people are on relief, the very foundations of democracy are threatened. Their very dependency may disqualify them for intelligent and purposive citizenship. The problem is bigger than any political party. And if any political party succeeds in its temptation to manipulate this dispossessed group for ulterior ends, then Democracy is indeed threatened.

DANGERS FROM WITHIN

(New York Times)

In his annual address at Southampton, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler pointed to the two great dangers to which democracy stands exposed today. One of these is that of attack from the totalitarian States. Between Fascism and Communism he finds more in common than between either and democracy. So much is this so that "they may one of these days find themselves in steadily increasing sympathy and collaboration because of their hatred of democracy."

But it is conceivable, as Dr. Butler points out, that the greater threat to democracy today comes from within. Though it continues in many countries, it is not so affected by a certain paralysis of will. At home Dr. Butler calls attention to three particular practices and policies that threaten it. One is "revolution by taxation"—the use of the taxing power, not primarily to provide funds to carry on an efficient and liberal government, but to redistribute the national wealth and "to penalize as though they were criminals those individuals whose honest accumulations are large." Another is an excessive growth in the power of the Presidential office. The third Division finds quite a few "trade associations," some of them obviously phony, springing up overnight and demanding representations on the "industry committees" which are to decide how much specific industries should increase the bottom minimum toward 40 cents an hour.

My Dear Mr. Lewis:
The Profit Motive
I understand—you will correct me if I am wrong—that you have more than once privately stated that the profit motive is an all important aspect of labor because expectations of profit is so large a factor in expanding industry and employment. As we have said, labor rises and falls as industry rises and falls. And now it is being proved, as perhaps never before, that when the opportunity for industry to function in the belief that it will show a profit instead of a loss is impeded, industry does not and cannot take care of unemployment.

In this country—with its unique advantages, its natural wealth, broad home markets, industrial resources, management, and willing and skilled labor—there are about thirteen million people unemployed, to say nothing of more millions on part time jobs. It is largely because Mr. Roosevelt, in his desire to gain credit for his administration, has foolishly, and I think selfishly, knocked out enterprise, and a good deal of old enterprise, into a cocked hat.

Labor Has Been Promised Bread and Given a Stone
For years and years labor has been soft-soaped to the queen's taste. Organized labor has been assessed large sums to elect politicians or keep them in office. It has been courted and appeased by the passage of countless statutes which have raised wages, reduced working hours, and granted other benefits. It has gained higher wages scales, but a mighty stigma change to work for them. Meantime unorganized labor, which is the overwhelming majority of labor, has gained nothing whatever—beyond the promise of a great favor of humanity that he will continue to have his share of the pie.

Well, so far as against private enterprise along present lines—even if it takes the last job from the last man.

Yet, many wage earners undoubtedly love Mr. Roosevelt. He has a way with words and his good voice and optimism arouse hopes. They love him too for his promises of less work and more pay—whether business sinks or swims. And, they are filled with admiration for the cheerfulness with which he has borne the sufferings—mostly caused by himself.

The other night I took part in a round table radio broadcast in which Mrs. Eleanor Herrick, Regional Director of the National Labor Relations Board, discussed unemployment. While Mrs. Herrick frankly admitted that the New Deal has not done much to reduce unemployment, she said nevertheless that it had given working people a great psychological uplift.

Maybe this is true. Yet one is tempted to ask whether the average wage earner prefers a psychological cocktail and his pocketbook empty, or a stomach full of food and an empty stomach, but more substantial satisfaction of an actual job.

In 1932 I worked and voted for Mr. Roosevelt. I do not regret it. Mr. Hoover was a terrific failure. Besides Mr. Roosevelt had done what he vitally needed. He has preached social justice and quickened the country's interest in social problems, even though he has not shed light on them. He has put over the social security law which, whether we like its details or not, is a profoundly important achievement—even though the Treasury has already spent, for purposes other than social security, 890 out of the 730 millions collected.

There is the C. C. C. and the B. E. C. and the New Deal has other things standing in its credit. And it would have more had not Mr. Roosevelt formed a habit of submitting almost every proposal to the test: How many votes will it gain? How many will it lose?

My Opinion of Mr. Roosevelt
In 1936 I did not vote for Mr. Roosevelt. By that time I had come to the practice of setting up administrative boards in a great variety of fields and then attempting by legislation to give them authority "practically to control the administration of the major portion of the people's business." What is striking about all this is that many of those who are engaged in these governmental activities are fearful lest the totalitarian State, whether Communist or Fascist, find a foothold in the United States, and yet "what they are doing way by day is to imitate the totalitarian State in the field which has particularly attracted their personal interest and activity."

NEW DEFINITIONS
(New York Times)
What is perhaps most interesting in the President's speech in Maryland yesterday is its definition of the difference between "conservatives" and "liberals." According to the President a man is a "conservative" if he admits some particular evil but fears that government intervention to cure it might prove a greater evil. On the other hand, "people who feel that the past should be brought up to the present by using every legitimate instrument to cure the job," government included, I call "liberals" or "progressives."

The implication of this is that "conservatives" are people who fear extensions of governmental power, while "liberals" are people who would cure the job, governmental evils by increasing governmental power. There is no admission in the President's speech that increased governmental power might itself sometimes be an evil, at least potentially, nor is there any hint in it that opposition to excessive governmental power was excessive to the heart of historic liberalism.

AUSTIN, Sept. 15—The national Administration's Farm Program, target of considerable sniping in Texas, the nation's No. 1 cotton growing state, appears to be facing a spreading offensive.

A leader in the fight against it is J. E. McDonald, state agriculture commissioner, who plans to carry the warfare into adjacent states. He will first with a series of Texas speeches two out of state appearances in mid-September, one at Ardmore, N. M., and another at Oklahoma City.

The Texas commissioner has broken with Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace, some recent sniping at Clarendon last Tuesday night. Ernest Cobe, Junior High head-man, will address Pampa Kiwanians Friday noon. His talk will be aired via KPND at 12:45 o'clock. John Sullivan and Clarence Gamble will be back at the mixer Friday night for the aircast of the Pampa-Fort Worth High grid game from Harvey stadium.

Advance notices say that Heinie Hindman soon is to get promotion that will take him far from Pampa. Mac McWilliams is pretty puffed up over a new box at his house. The wise one say it's a pretty safe bet Pampa will take Amarillo at Butler Field, Amarillo, on Oct. 20. Lawton, Okla. High school is having eligibility trouble over an ex-Pampa. See today's sports page for details.

It'll soon be circus day. And will the kids have fun with The Roving Reporter is all flutter about his planned interview with Brink "Em Back Alive" Frank Buck. Personally, I'm looking forward to that period in the performance where Mr. Buck brings out his lions to let 'em look at the crowd.

Well, even if I don't pronounce any of them correctly, what of it? Nobody notices it, anyway.

On M. G. Johnson's desk, you'll read the "On the shores of the ocean lie the bones of countless millions who, at the dawn of victory, stopped to rest—and, resting, died."

There seems to be little organized sentiment in Texas for the present program, McDonald reports. The Texas grange through its master, Ralph W. Moore of Granger, has recorded sharp criticism of the farm program and Secretary Wallace.

On record for the domestic allotment plan are the West Texas Banker's Association, Texas Cotton Association and Texas Ginner's Association.

McDonald believes 95 per cent of those who understand the domestic allotment program favor it. He reports a growing resentment against reduction pointing, among other things, to a farmers meeting at Athens where a county agriculture agent was booed when he attempted to explain the administration's program. County agents administer the plan but McDonald claims a majority realize it is unworkable and a more enduring constructive plan is inevitable.

He has urged farmers to cooperate with agents so the restriction program may have a complete test which, he believes, will demonstrate its impracticality.

When congress was considering the farm act McDonald was a frequent Washington visitor seeking approval of the domestic allotment plan. When the act emerged—minus the allotment feature—he advised Texas farmers to give it a fair trial.

"It's like buying a horse," he explained. "You want to know how well it works before you paid for it."

Now he's convinced the horse is not a good worker and is urging farmers to exchange it for a better one.

Enrollment in the rural schools of Gray county and LeFors was believed to exceed the census enumeration by more than 100, John B. Healy, county superintendent, announced.

Dr. Malcolm Brown anxiously is awaiting opening of the quail season.

When dove hunting recently, he kept a weather-eye open (I don't think that's against the hunting laws) and knows right where to go for quail when the legal date rolls around. He says that at least a thousand quail in counties covered flew up and tried to take his gun away from him. It was almost a case of having to shoot in self-defense, but he didn't.

Carl Benefield says he doesn't like a suggestion made recently in this column. Pampa Lions still are recovering from a case of over-eating at Clarendon last Tuesday night. # Around Hollywood

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Some of these movie people don't have to worry about any balmy old-age pension scheme. Most of them would swap the hope of thirty-every-Thursday like this—snaps!—just for a one-way ticket to a healthy, active movie "family series."

Once he's in, he's as hard to get out of the pay as a relative with the inside dope on the producer. And these comfortable niches, the equivalent of life-time berth for actors, are multiplying as the weeks go by.

The Jones Family has kept Jed Prothy and Spring Byington busy for three years now—and they're both free to take inside pictures when they come. Lewis Stone has a lifetime assignment in Judge Hardy, and that Hardy family will never be complete if Mickey Rooney leaves it, or Gemma Parker either.

The Gleasons—Jimmy, Lucile and Russell—have just put forth another family in "The Hinges." It's a first, may be a series. And the popularity of the Beebes in the Crosby film, "Sing You Sinners," argues for a continuation of that, that group too includes Elizabeth Patterson and Brothers Bing, Fred MacMurray and Donald O'Connor.

Where they haven't families in this new studio craze, they have the equivalent in what amounts to old-time stuff—with a difference. The old serials of the late Pearl White's era were two-reelers, each episode having the heroics unfolding from a cliff or caught in the mangle at a laundry or facing some such fate worse than death. Today's are features, telling their story at one sitting, but saving the characters for further use in sequels.

This type of flourishing, Bonita Granville is set for a long time to come as Nancy Drew, the girl detective. So is Frankie Thomas, her youthful vis-a-vis—contracted on his assurance that his adolescent voice won't change before they've trapped the last crook. Lucille Ball as Annabelle, the "Movie Queen" won't be idle either. With her press agent Jack Oakie she's already involved in further laughable adventures—but when Oakie's contract expires she may have to get a new P. A. Those things can't be predicted.

Even Lew Ayres, his come-back as a John Barrymore comedian a little is going to be a serial king. For miles of re-lease ahead he's slated to play "Dr. Kildare" in a series by Max Brand and directed by Charles Brabin. About a "Bulldog Drummond" thing, planned to go on as long as the traffic will bear it. And "Drummond" seems to be holding up, too.

Adventures of one sort and another are all planned ahead as series. Two "sports adventures" with Henry Armetta and Inez Palange as carry-over comedy characters—already have been made. June Lang and Lynn Bari are set as the "Big Town Girls" Michael Whelan's series. Charles Brabin is directing "The Camera Dancers" and Brian Donlevy and Wally Vernon are the "Camera Dancers."

All these pictures are giving actors "permanent" berths—no "permanent" goes in Hollywood.

Shall We Dump Our Wheat?

By ERNEST MINOR PATTERSON
President, American Academy of Political and Social Science

Our crop of wheat this year will probably be one of the largest in our history. As the reports come in, the price falls until some speak of the situation as a major disaster.

Accordingly, plans are being considered to ease the strain. One of them is to be the provision of an "export subsidy" that will permit the sale of 100,000,000 bushels of wheat in foreign markets.

This is a good illustration of modern economic difficulties. First there is what looks like the absurdity of viewing a bounteous crop as a disaster. One would think that a large number of bushels of wheat ought to be welcome especially when so many people are out of work and when, in spite of gigantic relief efforts, many would be glad to have more bread. Yet modern economic life is so intricate that a huge crop may result in so low a price that the farmers who produce the wheat will lose heavily. It is very complicated and perplexing.

But why meet the problem by a subsidy on wheat exports? It is argued that last year we exported nearly 100,000,000 bushels of wheat and that this amount may be thought of as "the American share of world trade." Therefore the wheat interests of other countries ought not to object if we facilitate the sale of this much wheat in foreign markets. A subsidy would have to be paid in some indirect way by American consumers of taxpayers, but this burden may be less serious than that of a demoralized domestic wheat market and the reactions on the rest of us that will come if our farmers have serious financial troubles.

Unfortunately there is another fact to remember before we decide. There is a world-wide feeling against "dumping." This word is used with many meanings, but should be employed to describe selling at a lower price in one market than in another. Usually this means selling abroad at a lower price than at home. This is so serious a matter that many countries, including our own, have anti-dumping laws.

Perhaps some readers will remember that a few years ago there was great excitement in the United States when it was reported that Russia was "dumping" wheat in our markets. The report seems to have been fair, but at the time it aroused intense indignation. The reasons for the objections, however, are easy to understand. The sale here of a considerable amount of Russian wheat had the effect of driving our own wheat prices down. This would have tended to demoralize our markets.

Resentment against dumping is to be expected, but it will occur in other countries as well as here. It is reported that this year wheat production will have almost twice as much available for export as buying countries will need.

Yet "dumping" is very common. Other countries do it so extensively that there may seem to be a justification for our action. It has been suggested that we will arrange an understanding with Canada because we have a trade agreement with her and in order to avoid the charge of "dumping." We may reach an understanding, but the proposed sale would still be "dumping" and there are a large number of other countries affected besides Canada.

WAITING FOR THE ENEMY--WILL IT BE GERMANY?

Communications centers must be guarded from the enemy, and here French machine gunners are pictured behind a barbed-wire barricade as they trained their weapons along a street leading to an underground telephone and telegraph station. Note that the soldiers, although only playing at war, are carrying full field equipment. France is taking no chances on a surprise attack which might catch her unawares. While troops like these were maneuvering at Besancon, near the Swiss border, other soldiers, guns, ammunition and supplies were rushed to the famous Maginot Line which stands as a mighty bulwark between France and Hitler's Germany.

Hitler Would Turn Down Czechs As A Gift, Says Italians

ROME, Sept. 15. (AP)—Italian assurance was given today that Adolf Hitler would not take the Czech population of Czechoslovakia even as a gift. This was interpreted by some diplomats as an indirect offer of Germany to guarantee the Czech integrity of their new frontier if they gave up the Sudeten German areas to the Reich. The assurance, embodied in an open letter to Viscount Runciman, British unofficial mediator of the Sudeten dispute, published in Premier Mussolini's Milan newspaper, Il Popolo d'Italia, was understood to have been written by Mussolini himself. The letter was given a quasi-official character when it also was issued as a government communiqué. The writer of this letter is in a position to tell you—confidentially—that were he to be offered the 3,500,000 Czechs (there are about 10,000,000 Czechs and Slovaks in Czechoslovakia), Hitler would decline such a gift politely but resolutely, the letter said. This could scarcely be given any other interpretation, diplomats said, when that Hitler had assured Mussolini he did not want the "Bohemia of tomorrow" and Mussolini had "confidentially" transmitted the assurance to Runciman and to the world.

Glorifying Yourself

By ALICIA WART.
Large pores and minor blemishes which are likely to be all too evident once you're out of the sun begin to fade need special attention. You can conceal them with makeup, of course, but it's a mistake not to try to eliminate them as quickly as possible. For blackheads, routines which make use of some kind of mask preparation will be efficacious. Once or twice a week, simply wash face and throat carefully, smooth on a mask, especially designed to loosen dust and dirt that have accumulated in the enlarged pores and leave on from 15 minutes to an hour, depending on the directions on the jar. Afterward, rinse off the mask, then, covering forefingers with cotton gauze, gently press out a few of the blackheads. Be careful not to bruise the skin. And do not try to remove all impurities during one treatment, or even five. Be willing to devote several weeks to getting your complexion back into excellent condition. After you have squeezed several spots, put a bit of antiseptic on the irritated areas and let it dry. If your skin is quite oily, apply a special cream for oily skin. Otherwise, pat on generous quantities of regular night cream and go to bed. Next morning, one with oily skin ought to wash again with soap before putting on foundation and make-up. The dry-skinned individual can substitute cleansing cream for soap and water. Never put a layer of fresh make-up on over stale. And make it a number one rule never to go to bed without first cleansing face and throat carefully. Scrupulous cleanliness is the first requisite of smooth, clear, unblemished skin.

Diplomats Differ Over Chamberlain's Visit To Germany

GENEVA, Sept. 15 (AP)—Diplomats of 50 nations split sharply today over the wisdom of the British Premier Chamberlain's visit to Berchtesgaden to see Chancellor Hitler. They all agreed that the result would mean a long stride toward peace or war, but they differed over the direction. Most of them called it a bold move. Win or lose, they said, Chamberlain's visit meant France and Britain had tossed their cards onto the table and Hitler's hand was called. Some of the diplomats here for the league assembly condemned the trip to see Hitler as "humiliating." Perhaps, others said, Hitler planned to continue the crisis until the beginning of winter, when his defenses on the French frontier would be ready. If so, they said, Chamberlain had wrecked his game. Hitler, they declared, could not fail to understand that this must be Chamberlain's last effort for peace.

Chamberlain Urged By British Women

LONDON, Sept. 15. (AP)—Two women were credited in London society circles today with a big part in Prime Minister Chamberlain's decision to cut through centuries of Britain's staid diplomatic red tape to talk face to face with Adolf Hitler. They were Virginia-born Lady Nancy Astor and Lady Chamberlain, widow of the prime minister's late half-brother, Sir Austen Chamberlain, the distinguished statesman. Lady Astor is a leading figure in that mysterious "Cliveden set" which drew attention a few months ago when Chamberlain's unimpeached, "realistic" policy of appeasing Europe's dictators. She and her conservative, "pro-German" coterie were charged by left-wing newspapers with exerting powerful influence at No. 10 Downing Street. The movements of Lady Chamberlain have been even more mysterious. She was in Italy for months sipping tea with Premier Mussolini and his son-in-law, Foreign Minister Galeazzo Ciano, before Chamberlain made the overtures which resulted in the Easter pact of friendship with Italy.

L. A. Will Elect Mayor Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15. (AP)—An election caused by a bomb which exploded Friday in Los Angeles is to have as mayor a former reporter who makes no campaign promises. The bomb exploded last January. It injured a private detective, Harry Raymond, who was seeking evidence of municipal corruption for a citizens committee. Two policemen were convicted of conspiring to kill Raymond. Their trial set off a barrage of charges against the municipal administration of graft and gangland connections. It started petitions circulating for an election to supplant mayor Frank L. Shaw, a suave, affable, former grocer. The most colorful of three rivals for the office is Superior Court Judge Fletcher Bowron.

Rover In Dallas Lives Up To Name

DALLAS, Sept. 15. (AP)—Rover, a little black dog, did considerable living up to his name last night. Suspected of rabies, Rover was picked up by police and carted to the City Emergency Hospital for inspection. He was placed in a box to be sent to the city pound. Garbage collectors came along and tossed Rover and the box in their wagon. Hospital attendants notified police, who found the wagon. Rover, during the transfer back to his old stand in the police car, escaped. Hours later a police squad car found him again near the city hall. Worn out, Rover submitted to an examination. Sure enough—he didn't have rabies symptoms.

Harvesters Plan To Cut Eagles Down To Own Size

Coach W. C. O. Harris and his Riverside Eagles of Fort Worth will arrive in Pampa tonight or early tomorrow morning for their game with the Pampa Harvesters Friday night at 8 o'clock at Harvesters field. General admission tickets, at 75 cents and student tickets at 25 cents, are now on sale at downtown drugstores.

The Riverside coach was undecided when last contacted whether he will drive through to Pampa today or stop over enroute and practice arriving in Pampa early Friday morning. Harvesters coaches today announced their boys as ready as possible for an anticipated tough evening against the big and experienced Eagles.

"The boys have absorbed as much as possible in the time they have been working," Coach Odu Mitchell and J. C. Prejean said today. "We are not holding any jam sessions to speed up their play because it's too early in the season for that method of procedure. That type of practice will come later when the boys have worked together and had become more experienced."

Yesterday's long practice was principally one of checking over plays, pass defense and offense. Pass defense, which has been overlooked in favor of more important things, was given a thorough overhauling yesterday and the boys are expected to look much better tomorrow night in that department.

Even though they won a 67 to 5 game from Clovis last Friday the Harvesters are not rated above the Eagles who will have size and experience on their side. The Eagles will average 198 pounds to the Harvesters average of 158 pounds. Most of the weight difference will be in the line.

An open date in the Tiger schedule was filled when Altus, Okla., matched a game with the Tigers on Oct. 7 at Altus.

Probable starting line-up for Friday: Cash, lb; Glenn, lg; Norman, lt; Roach, c; Jones, rg; Capt. Wingo, rt; Cadra, re; Carpenter, b; Lee, b; Braxton, b; Humphreys, b.

Don Smith, ace halfback on the 1987 Harvesters football team, is having eligibility difficulties at Lawton, Okla., high school where he has been enrolled since mid-term last year.

Although no definite word as to the trouble has been received here, it is believed there has been a protest regarding his guardian, his brother Carl Smith, star player for the Cameron Aggies at Lawton.

Yesterday the News sports editor was asked to check September 1987 papers to prove that Carl left Pampa for Lawton.

The Pampa Harvesters meet the Lawton high school team here on the night of October 7.

2 CONFERENCE GAMES LISTED THIS WEEKEND

DALLAS, Sept. 15 (AP)—Sixty-one games, two of them counting in the championship race, are on the schedule this week in the Texas Inter-scholastic league football campaign.

Ninety of the 109 teams will swing into action, 56 of them playing inter-district games headlined by the clash between state champion Longview and Woodrow Wilson, the Dallas top flihter.

The conference games, earliest in the history of the league, involve the eastern division of the Oil Belt and the El Paso district. Brackenridge plays Mineral Wells to blast off the lid in the hurly-burly battle for the Oil Belt crown with Fabens engaging Austin of El Paso in district 4.

Three inter-sectional games are also scheduled, featured by Fort Arthur's journey to Marblehead, Mass. Gainesville engages Hot Springs, Ark., and Orange plays Lake Charles, La.

Relative strength of Longview and Tyler, a rugged Longview rival in district 9, will be shown in the Longview-Woodrow Wilson game and Tyler's clash with North Dallas, rated close to Woodrow Wilson in the Dallas district.

Denison, a North Texas power, plays Corpus Christi, rated at the top in South Texas, and Wichita Falls, runner-up to Longview in the state race last season, opens the drive against Masonic Home in other feature games.

Amarillo's Golden Sables, picked to give Lubbock a hard battle for the district 1 crown, opens with the Paschal Panthers of Fort Worth, and Plainview, another Panhandle team of promise, engages Bowhe, the El Paso favorite.

Big Spring, potential Oil Belt leader, plays Lamesa, the Class A team that graduated to Class A and started off with a 61-0 victory over Class B Tahoka last week.

Vernon, favorite in district 2 against Wichita Falls, plays the Poly Parrots of Fort Worth, and Lubbock opens the season against North Side, the perennial Fort Worth winner.

LeFors, Sept. 15.—Coaches Francis Smith and John Rankin will take their LeFors Pirates to Clarendon Friday night for their second game of the season. It will be the first battle for the rejuvenated Bronchos of Coach Hutto.

LeFors opened the season last week with a 13 to 0 win over Mobeetie. Although the Pirates took a 72 to 0 game from Clarendon last season they are anticipating a tough night and fans have gotten behind the same team which performed last

SERIAL STORY HIT-RUN LOVE

BY MARGUERITE GAHAGAN
COPYRIGHT, 1938 NEA SERVICE, INC.

CHAPTER I
THE hot spring sun slid suddenly behind the oncoming gray clouds, throwing the traffic court into too-early shadows.

Not even the threat of rain could dampen Patricia McGraw's spirits. While her pencil raced over the whiteness of her pad, covering it with her curlicues of shorthand notes, and the voices of witnesses, judge, and attorneys occupied one side of her mind, the real Pat continued dreaming of the evening's date with Larry Kent.

For many weeks now life had been something vivid, magical, quickened with the glamour of love. Before Larry had come with his blond hair so smooth and clean-lined over his broad brow, the days had been a succession of routine tasks familiar to any court stenographer.

Even now the ordinary run of events continued, but overshadowing them was the knowledge that Larry loved her, that soon they would be married.

When Pat realized the nearness of that marriage the scene around her took on a strangeness. For over a year it had been her work-a-day world; now she saw it as a stranger; loving it, yet eager to be away to that still dearer world of her own home.

The case continued. Up on the wall over Judge Micala Kelly's bench the hands of the old clock moved slowly. Sgt. Herman Lewski switched on the lights, chasing the shadows. Desk Officer Timothy O'Shea sought frantically for the keys for a mistaid file. Pat sighed and looked at the clock again.

It was a heavy docket for Saturday. A drunken driving case came on with a woman as the defendant. It was being held up until the reporters got there. Drunken drivers were no rarity, but this was a blond—pretty despite her tear-redened eyes, and disheveled hair.

Photographers and reporters from the Journal, Bee and Gazette went into a huddle with court attendants. Cameras were focused over Pat's shoulder on the blond. Bulbs flashed as the woman raised her hand to swear the truth, the whole truth, and nothing else, so help me.

The arresting officer, with his eyes heavy with need for sleep after a night's patrol duty, told in terse sentences the facts of the case. Speeding on a main thoroughfare, cutting in and out of traffic, a man's car hit the odor of intoxicants on the woman's breath, admission of drinking, and a none-too-steady walking of the line at the precinct station. Familiar routine, yet fascinating as the pulse of a big city.

"Only two bottles of beer, your honor," the woman declared. "The lights at night bother me. I didn't see the car."

Worn alibis, weak excuses, objections by the defense attorney, and each question by young Tom Sweeney, the assistant prosecutor newly assigned to the court in an effort to check reckless and dangerous driving.

The woman waived a jury trial to be tried by the judge. Pat smiled a little. The judge was having a hard time trying to give the case his undivided attention. She watched his gaze waver over the court and then focus on the scene outside. Thinking of a possible golf game that afternoon, she knew.

Her own eyes followed the line of the river while the case was held up for a moment. Not so many months ago it had been locked in ice, the ferries, blunt nosed, and puffing heavy black smoke, breaking a path between the shores. So, too, had her heart been locked in ice, she thought. And then Larry had come.

Life had been so empty before that, she told herself again. Not that it had seemed so at the time. There had been the happy, care-free years of high school with life at home a casual, comfortable affair. With Bill and Joe filling the house with their young friends, their balls, and bats, bicycles, books, marbles. With her mother, easygoing, busy keeping the house running smoothly and pleasantly for big Dennis McGraw, an officer in the police department.

Things had changed swiftly then; had assumed a kaleidoscopic aspect. Her father's death in the line of duty, a rearranged life to fit a widow's pension, her own plans for college changed to a business course.

SOMEHOW, though, as time went on, a new pattern was formed. She took a job in a lawyer's office. The boys went into high school. In two more years they would be finished. Last year she herself, aided by her father's old friends, had secured the position as court stenographer with an opportunity to make a little money on the side typing testimony for attorneys.

Her days had not been drab or unpleasant. Only she had drifted along too settled for her years, too serious, too conscious of responsibilities. Now the burdens were lightened, and Larry had come.

There was nothing about Larry that she had forgotten. She could close her eyes now and remember their first meeting. It had been just after Christmas on a day filled with huge, feathery snow flakes that slipped gently past her cheeks and clung on her thick lashes.

Judge Kelly had asked her to deliver a paper over to the Paramount Auto Sales during the afternoon. Larry was in charge when she entered, handsome, his blue eyes lighting up at her approach.

"I would like to see Mr. Abbot," she had said with as much composure as she could gather. "I'm from Judge Kelly's office." But not even that dignified name could erase the smile from his lips. "Mr. Abbot's out," he said, his

Kansas Fears Foul Play Met Brother

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 15 (AP)—A car found in a used car lot here was identified today by B. E. Vaughn, automobile man of Baldwin, Kas., as the machine which his missing brother, Virgil, 27, was driving May 6 when he left Baldwin for Long Beach, Calif.

B. E. Vaughn said he believed his brother had met with foul play after he left Albuquerque, N. M., for Phoenix, Ariz., July 15.

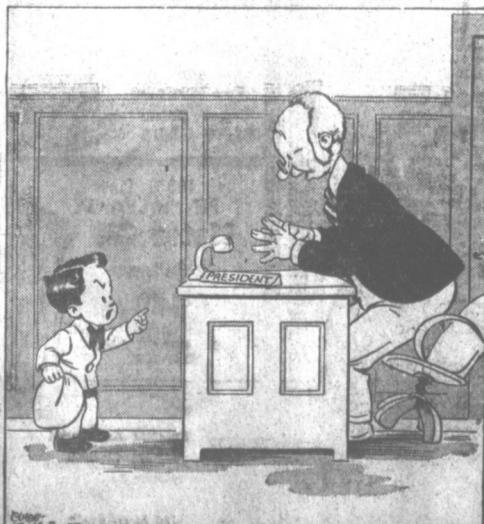

Vaughn said he had been working with federal agents, Texas rangers, Oklahoma and Louisiana police in an attempt to solve the mystery of his brother's disappearance.

He said evidence turned up by federal agents during the investigation indicated his brother's personal effects had been used by another man closely resembling him to sell young Vaughn's car and buy another machine.

Lucas said the investigation showed the car discovered here was sold Aug. 4 to a used car dealer at Lake Providence, La., by a man who represented himself to be Virgil Vaughn. The next day it was sold to a street-vendor dealer and it changed hands again before it was bought by a Tulsa dealer.

Pirates Lose Twin Bill To Giants In Daffy Race

By SID FEDER, Associated Press Sports Writer. They put a blowout patch on the Pirates' pennant bubble today and tried to get it to take off again in what is hilariously referred to these days as the National League "race."

Those forgotten New York Giants, featuring a patched-up infield and a pitching staff relying on sore wings, all but blew the bubble to bits yesterday by taking both ends of a doubleheader from the "choked up" Pirates.

Thus was continued the happy custom of never allowing a dull moment in this daffy senior circuit chase for the Chicago Cubs, by whipping Boston's Bees, climbed to within 2 1/2 games of the top, and the Giants moved to a third-place tie with Cincinnati's Reds, who split a twin bill with Brooklyn.

As a result of the silly set of developments yesterday, the race looks something like this:

Club—	W	L	Pct.
Pittsburgh	77	56	.579
Chicago	75	60	.559
Games behind 2 1/2, games to play 18.
Cincinnati	75	61	.551
Games behind 3 1/2, games to play 18.
New York	75	61	.551
Games behind 3 1/2, games to play 18.

Of course, the Pirates, boasting a lead, are still the boys to beat, but they can't stay up there if they go through many more days like yesterday. Frisco's Hal Schumacher, soon arm and all, "stinker-balled" them to defeat, 3-0, in the first game. In the nightcap, the Giants, just sent a seven-run blast over in the second inning and coasted in at 10-3.

A homer by Gabby Hartnett with the bases loaded gave the Cubs a 6-3 margin over the Bees, but the Bostonians disputed the hit as being just a foul ball and finished the game under protest.

Ernie Lombardi lashed two four-baggers and the Bees-dropped the Dodgers, 8-4, in a doubleheader nightcap after the Brooklynians won the opener, 6-2. Ducky Medwick hit a pair of round-trippers as the Cardinals crushed the Phillies, 12-9 and 8-2.

The American league race saw the Yankees' final game of the year with Cleveland rained out, but the Yanks, nevertheless, advanced to a spot where they need only four wins to clinch the pennant. Boston's second-place Red Sox belted the Tigers 8-2, behind Joe Mauer. In the only other game that escaped the weather man, the Athletics nipped the Browns, 4-3, on Wally Moses' ninth-inning homer, to climb out of the cellar.

Henderson And Tyler Tied In Playoff Again

HENDERSON, Sept. 15 (AP)—The chips were down in the battle for the East Texas league championship as Tyler's Trojans and Henderson's Oilers moved here for the seventh and final game of the playoff tonight.

Tyler downed Henderson, 9-5, at Tyler last night to square the series. The Trojans hitting the clincher and taking advantage of Oiler mistakes to pile up eight runs in the last three innings.

Higgins Will Play Spearman Friday

HIGGINS, Sept. 15 (Special)—Higgins Coyotes will meet the Spearman football team Friday on the Spearman field for their first game of the season.

Prior to last year, when the boys made a splendid showing, Higgins high school has not had a football team for eight years. Although the boys face a tough schedule this year most of them are players from last year's squad and big things are expected of them.

Coach Teter and his team have been practicing zealously since two weeks before the opening of school here on Sept. 5.

Benighted baseball clubs of the 1870s—the first big-league teams—were thickly-padded pants, neckties and stiff-bosom blouses.

SAYRE YOUTH PLEASES BELL

(By The Associated Press)

Don't look now, but those ear-to-ear smiles adorning the faces of Matty Bell, Southern Methodist football headman, and Dutch Meyer coach of the Texas Christian University Horned Frogs, are caused by sophomore talent in their respective camps.

Matty praised the offensive work of Ray Malouf, triple-threat backfield candidate from Sayre, Okla., who looks due for an important spot in the Mustangs' line-up this season. Several other sophomores were looking good in practice but Bell was a little worried over his offense generally, declaring the defense had not only caught up with but passed it.

Meyer found a sophomore fullback stealing the show in the Texas Christian squad. He's Connie Sparks, a truck horse for work who can crack a line.

Work of second-year men also helped the feelings of Coach Fred Thomson at Arkansas but the news that Ray Cole, fullback, would be out of the opening game because of illness furnished a gloomy note.

Rain halted plans for a lengthy scrimmage at Texas University. Coach Morley Jennings gave the photographers a break by passing up scrimmage session to let his Baylor Bears have their pictures taken but sent the Bruins through a long session to familiarize them with the game under protest.

Coach Jimmy Kitts at Rice Institute expressed pleasure at the blocking efforts of his squad and the defensive play of Dick Brannon end, and Paul Murphy, tackle. Lighter work was in store for the Owls the remainder of the week.

The Texas Aggies went through an intra-squad game which saw Dick Todd take a 30-yard pass to score a touchdown for the regulars. Marland Jeffrey, playing with a substituting team, carried over a counter against another "B" outfit.

Wheeler To Play Mobeetie Friday

WHEELER, Sept. 15—Farring a few slight injuries sustained in last Friday night's clash, the Wheeler Mustangs will take to the gridiron here Friday night to open their conference schedule against a fighting Mobeetie Hornet eleven.

It is expected that a slight knee injury suffered by Pillars, tackle, will be in first class shape by game time Friday. The Hornets will be playing without the aid of Wilton Sims who received a back injury while playing against the LeFors Pirates last week.

Since the Hornets usually play over their heads when meeting the Mustangs, dope rates the two teams about even.

The Hornets have won and lost one in two starts this season while the Mustangs have won in their only encounter. Mobeetie defeated Canadian 20-0 in the season opener and lost to LeFors last Friday night 13-0. Wheeler defeated Miami 24-6 in a non-conference tilt on the local gridiron last Friday night.

Golfer Will Play 576 Holes In 8 Cities Of Nation

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—The end of a marathon golf was forecast today by the fellow who started the epidemic as he packed up to leave for California and the start of a 576-hole, four-day, coast-to-coast finale which bids fair to streamline the old C. C. Pyle bunion derby.

J. Smith Perbee, La Salle street broker, plans to play 144 holes a day on four successive days. Aided by an air-conditioned airplane sleeper plane, he will play over courses in eight cities—72 holes on each of two courses in different cities each day.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BREITZ

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (AP)—How about a little football dope, readers? Notre Dame is in for one of its toughest games . . . I know 100 junkies reported for early practice and all that, but don't be surprised if the Irish drop five or six games . . . Clemson should be plenty hot in the South. Jess Neely, who is doing a swell job down there, has a veteran line and no less than 20-count 'em—capable ball carriers.

Keep an eye on John Carlin, a sophomore down at West Virginia. We're telling you now the guy is hot . . . Also George Stirweits, North Carolina's ace quarterback who probably will be the outstanding performer in the Southern Conference . . . Pitt's starting backfield (that is, No. 1) should be better than Notre Dame's four horsemen of 14 63-4-48 . . . Dartmouth is the crew to watch in the East although Prof. Lou Little at Columbia has a few tricks he hasn't pulled out of his hat yet . . . Correction: Instead of reporting overweight, as we chronicled recently, Marshall Goldberg, who carries the mail for Pitt, checked in weighing 184, six pounds less than he sealed last season.

Five members of Nebraska's starting eleven fell from Lincoln, a city of 80,000 and home of the Cornhuskers . . . In fact, only four of the squad of 65 come from outside the state . . . Florida is all set to go to town . . . In the Southwest, it will be Rice and Texas Christian with several others threatening . . . The most publicized athlete in the Big Ten may be Fred Gage, a Wisconsin sophomore . . . Things don't look so promising at Minnesota, but they will probably spread-eagle the field, at that.

6 AMERICANS AND 2 AUSSIES LEFT IN MEET

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 15 (AP)—Foreign competitors, visibly uneasy, were spending more time around the press box asking for the latest "war" news from Europe than in watching the matches as the national tennis championships reached the quarter-final stage today.

Except for a pair of Australians, Jack Bromwich and Harry Hopman, they all had been eliminated from the men's title hunt, leaving six Americans in virtual command of the situation. But the defeated British, French and Yugoslav delegates still were around, wondering if they would receive calls to hurry home and not to go on west for the Pacific Coast events.

Henner Henkel was the only German sitting in the players' stand. He was ordered to return home a fortnight ago after the German Davis cup team lost to the Australians in the inter-zone final, but he has lingered here as a spectator.

Top interest in the tournament today was centered on the quarter-final tilt between Gene Mako and Gilbert Hunt, two unseeded young men with big ideas. The other men's duel was between Bromwich and Joe Hunt, young

American Davis Cup team alternate, with Bromwich a decided favorite on the strength of his crushing three-set defeat of Frankie Parker two days ago.

Two women's quarter-final matches paired Dorothy Bundy against the machine-like Madame Rene Mathieu of France, and Margot Lumb of England against Nancy Wynne of Australia.

The boys have quit suggesting that Bromwich might possibly lick Budge in the men's final. The red-head left little doubt in anybody's mind that he is the pappy of the amateurs in the manner in which he poured it on luckless Charlie Hare yesterday in three sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-0. Budge still hasn't lost a set in his fourth major championship, and he probably will not lose one.

Little Bryan Grant Jr., ordered by his physician a month ago to abandon tennis, proved that he still has a few shots in his locker by defeating Adrian Quist of Australia, second-seeded on the foreign list. He and Sidney Wood Jr., another veteran, should have themselves quite a battle tomorrow.

Beaumont Could Clinch Place In Finals Tomorrow

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 15 (AP)—The San Antonio Missions and Oklahoma City Indians squared off for their second game in the first round of the Texas League Shaughnessy play-off here tonight while Beaumont and Tulsa, the other teams remaining in the title fight, moved to Oklahoma for resumption of their series.

The Mission-Indian game was scheduled last night but was rained out with San Antonio holding a 2-1 decision in the opener the night before.

Tulsa and Beaumont clash in the third game of their series at Tulsa. Beaumont should have themselves quite a battle tomorrow.
