SPECIAL CITATION — Mrs. Fred Thompson, chairwoman of the Gray County Historical Survey Committee, presents a special citation to County Judge Don Cain from the Texas Historical Commission and Texas Historical Foundation. The judge and county commissioners were cited for their work in aiding historical preservation.

Historical Committee Making Application For 'Bicentennial'

The Gray County Historical Survey Committee is submitting an application to state and national authorities to get the county designated as a Bicentennial County for the 200th anniversary of the nation in 1976.

Mrs. Fred Thompson, chairwoman of the committee, announced the application during the regular business meeting of the organization earlier this week at Furr's Cafeteria.

A detailed program of activities is being worked out to cover the next two-year period and culminate in an outstanding observance July 4th, 1976.

General committee chairmen for the three supervising committees are Heritage Division, Las Pampas Chapter of DAR (Pampa) and Mrs. Vera Back of McLean; Festivals Division, Kay Fancher; and Horizons Division, Mrs. Thelma Bray. General chairman is Mrs. Thompson.

A coin design contest will be conducted by the committee for a commemorative coin which will be sold to finance the cost of the Bicentennial activities. Rules for the contest will be published in the next few days.

Mrs. Thompson also distributed Distinguished Service Awards to all members of the Gray County Historical Survey Committee for accomplishments of the past year.

OFFICIALS SAY SO Pat's Statement Under Duress?

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Authorities are assuming Patricia Hearst was "under duress" when she renounced her former life, called her father a liar, and said she was joining the terrorist Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA).

James Browning, U.S. District Attorney, said there was no evidence the newspaper heiress had been a willing kidnap victim when the SLA dragged her, kicking and screaming, from her Berkeley apartment Feb. 4.

"It is a possibility," Browning said, "but I don't believe it."

"We are assuming that what she said (in a taped message broadcast Wednesday) was said under duress—someone holding a gun at her head or the like—or she felt it was necessary to say those things to get free."

Mother Issues Statement
About the same time Browning was meeting with reporters in San Francisco's

Federal building, Patricia's mother issued a brief written statement saying only a personal meeting with her daughter would convince her that Patty voluntarily joined the SLA.

"Only Patty in person can convince me that the terrible weary words came from her heart and were delivered of her own free will," Catherine Hearst said.

"We are a close family, and I cannot believe that the daughter I know so well has willingly adopted the way of life described by the SLA."

"Until the day of her capture, Patty was a young lady of great assurance who was content with the direction in which she was going," her mother said.

At the University of California, where Patricia was a student until her abduction, a professor of political revolution said she may be the victim of a psychological school of motivation termed "Chang-Fang" or "work spirit."

School Board Controversies Arouse Interest In Election

By CLAY LIVERY
Three matters have caused considerable controversy concerning the Pampa Independent School District election upcoming tomorrow.

Perhaps more interest than has ever been shown before for a local school board election has arisen because of community concern over the make-up of the current board, and the school administration and because of the question of whether the board membership will remain at five or be increased to seven.

Candidates for the two positions to be filled at tomorrow's election are: in the order in which they appear on the ballot, Don Carpenter, Dorothy Stowers, Sam Anderson, Calvin Lacy and Bill Arrington.

Two of the five candidates for the board, Arrington and Carpenter, have openly come out for a change in the administration within the school district.

Arrington has said, "It is past time for a change in administration. I pledge myself to that end."

"I know that our school system has lost some of its respect and dignity due to bad publicity that we have received," Carpenter has stated. "I believe we need a change in our administration to correct this."

An advertisement in today's edition of the News, paid for by Pampans For The 7-Member School Board, says that Pampa citizens do not receive full representation from the five-member board.

The advertisement states, "On a 5-man board, a quorum consists of only 3 men, when 2 members are absent, the 3 who form a quorum can conduct school board business, and only 2 of the 3 can decide how they want to spend your tax dollars. When one member is absent from a 5-man board, 2 friends can prevent necessary action."

Also included in the ad is the statement, "If 5-member school boards are best for children, schools and tax payers, why are 99.9 percent of Texas School Boards 7-member boards?"

Also included on the ballot this year are Gray County School Board candidates and the superintendent of the county board.

C. Bailey Haney of Pampa and J.T. Trew of Alanreed are seeking the member-at-large post. Superintendent Rena Bell Anderson and Precinct 2 trustee W.A. Rankin are running unopposed for those two positions.

Balloting will be tomorrow from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. at the Pampa High School music building.

Tax Debt Wipes Out President Financially

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The $467,000 tax debt President Nixon owes will leave him "almost totally wiped out" financially and may force him to obtain a loan to pay the bill, according to the White House.

Offering a gloomy assessment of the President's financial picture, a presidential spokesman hinted Thursday Nixon may also have to consider selling one of his homes to meet his back-tax obligation.

"He has to completely reassess his financial position, which has been almost totally wiped out by this," deputy White House Press Secretary Gerald Warren told reporters.

A White House statement that the controversial deductions were made without the President's knowledge or approval was labeled "ridiculous" by his tax lawyer, Frank Demarco Jr., in Los Angeles.

"What we did was go over the return page by page," said Demarco. He said it would be ridiculous to believe that he and Arthur Blech, Nixon's tax accountant, made the decisions without instructions from Nixon or his representatives.

Demarco said he feels the deductions could legally be defended, but that they did not show "political astuteness."

While Nixon worried about where the money would come from to settle with the Internal Revenue Service, a potentially bigger headache was building on Capitol Hill.

Warren said Nixon would meet the obligation with "certain cash and probably borrow some money to pay the remainder."

He did not indicate whether Nixon might seek a bank loan or turn to wealthy friends who have helped him financially in the past.

In it, auditors concluded he owed extra taxes on a $117,836 capital gain realized in a San Clemente land transaction and on $92,298 in improvements made with tax dollars primarily for the President's personal benefit "at both homes."

Total In Tornado Deaths Reaches 341 In Disaster

United Press International
More names were added today to the list of tornado deaths as rescue workers from Alabama to Ohio searched through mounds of rubble for victims of the nation's worst cyclonic disaster in a half-century.

Five of the 12 states hit, Ohio, Alabama, Kentucky, Indiana and Tennessee were declared major disaster areas by President Nixon. Vice President Gerald Ford, who flew over part of the Ohio destruction, called it unbelievable.

In Georgia, civil defense authorities said the latest fatality there was a stillborn infant whose mother sustained injuries in Wednesday's flurry of tornadoes.

Thursday, tornadoes struck down in West Virginia, killing a 3-year-old girl near Meadow Ridge, and in southwest Virginia where they were blamed for two more deaths.

The death toll was 341 in 12 states in the Midwest and South and including the border city of Windsor, Ont., where eight died in winds that sounded like "10,000 freight trains."

Kentucky reported 89 dead: Alabama 73; Tennessee 58; Indiana 42; Ohio 41; Georgia 16; North Carolina 5; Michigan 3; Illinois 2; Virginia 2; one each in West Virginia and Oklahoma.

In Indiana, Mayor Carl A. Capper glumly surveyed the shattered business district and wreckage of more than 100 homes of the lake resort town of Monticello and said, "It's not much good as a town any more."

Rain mixed with snow fell today while workers began to search the ruins of a Monticello factory for missing workmen while others watched the Tippecanoe River for the bodies of four still unaccounted for teen-age girls whose small van was blown off a bridge into the water by the giant storm.

How many were injured was not known, but Ohio and Alabama reported 1,000 each.

More tornadoes raked parts of the Southeast Thursday. They brought further death and destruction to a country already reeling from Oklahoma to the Canadian line to Georgia under the impact of a savage spring

In Kentucky, 40 of the fatalities were in the Ohio river town of Brandenburg (pop. 1,690), hit by twisters for the first time since 1950.

"This is the darkest hour in the history of Alabama from tornado damage," said State Civil Defense Director C.J. Sullivan.

Alabama authorities said the city of Jasper and the town of Guin were all but wiped out.

In Tennessee, most of the deaths were in the cooves and valleys of ancient mountains and foothills where the force of the winds was terrifying. Twisters even pulled the insulation out of the walls of houses near Cookeville and wrapped it around trees.

"It looks like a giant yellow and pinkish cotton field," said Charles Denning, editor of the Cookeville Herald Citizen.

In Indiana, four trails of twisters crossed the state. Damage was immense. "I don't have a house anymore," a woman said, standing in the rubble on a street in Monticello, population 4,869, where losses were estimated at $100 million.

Area Towns Slate School, City Voting

Several area towns will have elections tomorrow to determine the make-up of school boards and, in some cases, city officials.

City election polls at City Hall; school at school gymnasium.

Jury Resumes Chapin Review

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Denied the full transcript of the four days of testimony in the case, a federal court jury today resumed deliberating whether Dwight L. Chapin lied to the Watergate grand jury.

The deliberations resumed at 7:30 a.m. CDT, 30 minutes earlier than had been scheduled.

The jury got the case Thursday afternoon after listening to the government say Chapin was irrefutably guilty and the defense say he obviously was innocent of charges he lied about political "dirty tricks" against the Democrats in 1972.

U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell excused the jury for the night when he was told it was not near a decision after four hours of deliberation. He summoned them back at 9 a.m. EDT today to continue debating the case against Chapin, 33, President Nixon's former appointments secretary.

3-DAY AFFAIR FUMC Plans Services In Remodeled Sanctuary

The congregation of the First United Methodist Church of Pampa will be back in the church's sanctuary this Sunday for the first time since the beginning of last October.

Sunday marks the first of three days of services commemorating the re-opening of the church since extensive remodeling of both the interior and exterior of the church began Oct. 9, 1973.

Rev. Ted Dotts, district superintendent of the Pampa district of the United Methodist Church, will preach at both the morning and evening services Sunday. An open house is scheduled Sunday from 2 until 4:30 p.m.

Monday's events begin at 7 a.m. when Rev. Lloyd V. Hamilton, minister of Pampa's First United Methodist Church, will preach.

Bishop Aisie H. Carleton, bishop of the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Conferences of the United Methodist Church, will conduct the consecration service for the remodeled church building and preach beginning at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Following those services there will be a reception at the church for Bishop and Mrs. Carleton.

Tuesday will be Ecumenical Day at the church with pastors of two Pampa churches of two faiths other than Methodist conducting the services.

Rev. Phil Craig of St. Matthews Episcopal Church will preach at the 7 a.m. service and Father Francis Hynes, C.M., of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church will conduct the 7 p.m. service.

Remodeling of the church, which included both rebricking the outside of the church sanctuary and complete renovation of the inside of the building, cost approximately $300,000, Rev. Hamilton said.

The refurbishing of the inside of the church included redoing the ceilings and walls on all floors of the church as well as the construction of several rooms inside the building.

Remodeling of the church included the construction of two entrances, one at the south of the building where the old entrance was and another at the north end of the sanctuary.

Both a drive-up ramp and a walk-up ramp were constructed at the north entrance to the church to enable church members who are unable to climb stairs to attend services. Rev. Hamilton said. Those ramps are covered to protect church-goers from inclement weather.

The original sanctuary of the church, which now has a membership of approximately 1,600, was constructed in 1926. This is the first major remodeling done on the original building. The Educational Building of the church was added in 1951.

Rev. Hamilton said that besides the fact the remodeling of the church enhances the appearance of the sanctuary itself, "it is also a complement to downtown Pampa."

While serving primarily as a place of worship, the church has also provided places for various community organizations to meet.

Both the Lions and the Kiwanis Clubs of Pampa have met in the Fellowship Hall of the church for many years. Boy Scout Troop 80 meets at the church also.

Rev. Hamilton and the congregation of the church have issued an invitation for all members of the community to join in the reopening of the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church during the three-day affair.

'Busy Bees' Aid Visually Handicapped

Pampa's club for the visually handicapped will meet Saturday at 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church, according to Mrs. Louella Deist, president.

Mrs. Diane Grooters will teach the group to make handicrafts called "The Eyes of God."

"This craft originated with the Spanish and Indians years ago," Mrs. Grooters said. "It is a very pretty work."

Pampa Jaycee-Ettes will furnish transportation to and from the meeting. Those needing transportation are asked to call Mrs. Kerrick Horton at 669-3668.

The "Busy Bees," as the group calls themselves, was formed in January. They meet the first Saturday of each month at the First Christian Church.

The group is for people who are blind or who have some visual handicap.

Simon Says All States To Get Allocations Boost

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Every state in the union will get increased gasoline allocations in April of at least 90 per cent of 1973 levels, Federal Energy Administrator William E. Simon announced Thursday.

April allocations represent a 5 per cent boost over March, when states were given 85 per cent of the

DESTER S. KIMBRELL
Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday in Community Christian Center for Dester S. Kimbrell, 71, 945 E. Grodon, who was dead on arrival early Thursday at Highland General Hospital.

The Rev. Ronald Palermo, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Memory Gardens Cemetery by Carmichael - Whatley Funeral Directors, Inc.

Mr. Kimbrell was born March 16, 1903 in Marshall, Ark., and moved to Pampa in 1961 from Shamrock. He had been employed by Pampa Country Club Golf Course since 1961.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret, of the home; two sons, Cleo, Pampa, and Clifford, Houston; four daughters, Mrs. Leola Smith, Pampa; Mrs. Marie Hassler, Skellytown; Mrs. Evelyn Vanderpool, Denver, Colo.; and Mrs. Clessie Ferris, Pampa; his mother, Mrs. Donnie Kimbrell, Leslie, Ark.; one brother, Lester, Leslie, Ark.; and 22 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

gasoline they used in 1973.

Simon said gasoline suppliers had been ordered to draw 11.1 million barrels from their stocks to meet the April allocations.

Oil supplies will be replenished shortly from the Middle East following the end of the Arab embargo.

However, Simon's deputy John Sawhill warned at a news conference that long gasoline lines are likely this summer if drivers fail to continue observing conservation measures.

"I expect the American people to continue conservation," he said, adding, "If we see a relaxation of these conservation measures, if we see an abandonment of car pooling, if we see people exceeding or not heeding the 55 miles an hour speed limit... then the situation could get worse."

With winter behind most of the nation, Sawhill said the FEO intended to push for summer energy conservation.

26 TONS Customs Agents Seize Pot Haul

HOUSTON (UPI)—U. S. Customs agents, anticipating a bumper crop of Mexican marijuana, seized 26 tons of the illegal plant valued at $16 million on the street during a beefed-up campaign.

The total haul over a five-month period along the 2,300-mile international border accounted for an additional $29 million of contraband drugs and other merchandise, Customs Commissioner Vernon Acree said Thursday.

"Our Customs patrol has made an impressive record in the past few months," Acree said. "From Nov. 1, 1973 until the end of February, when the intensified inspection program began, the patrol seized more than 34 tons of marijuana, worth $18.8 million; 34 pounds of hashish worth $142,000; 31 pounds of cocaine worth $7.3 million and 3.7 pounds of heroin worth $1.8 million and more than 70 pounds of amphetamines worth $1 million."

"In the course of these seizures, patrol officers arrested 214 persons for violations of assorted federal laws," Acree said. "During this period they also seized over $64,000 worth of merchandise, over $200,000 in cash for currency violations and more than 100 vehicles of various types."

The five-week campaign was promoted by unusually high yields of marijuana in the Mexican states of Sonora, Chihuahua and Sinaloa, Acree said.

He said 50 inspectors, 50 patrol officers and six detector dog teams were detailed from Customs regions from around the country to aid the regular Border Patrols.

The regular officers were joined by Customs tactical air units in a program aimed at intercepting contraband arriving from Mexico.

The customs patrol is a mobile force that uses helicopters, light aircraft and special purpose vehicles and surveillance and patrols along the borders between ports of entry.

Beck, Carlson Appointed To Hospital Board

Mrs. Amy Russell, administrator of Worley Hospital, announced today that Curt Beck and Milo Carlson have been appointed to the board of directors of Worley Hospital.

Carlson has been a long-time resident and businessman in Pampa and has been mayor of the city in the past. In addition to his appointment to the board of directors of Worley Hospital, he is chairman of the building committee for the First Baptist Church.

Beck has resided in Pampa for a number of years and is associate director of the Research and Development Department of Cabot Corporation. He is very active in civic affairs and is currently serving on the Pampa school board.

Mrs. Russell said she is pleased that the two men have agreed to contribute their time "to provide real representation" of the community in the management of Worley Hospital.

Worley Hospital is now owned by American Medical International, Inc., the third largest corporation of its kind, owning and managing 46 hospitals in the U.S. and two foreign countries, in addition to research and medical laboratories in the U.S.

Dr. Richard D. Falkenstein is the chief of staff at Worley.

Osorio, Carr Trial Nearing Completion

DALLAS (UPI) — Final arguments in the government's case against former state officials John Osorio and Waggoner Carr were due today in their trial springing from the 1971 Sharpstown stock fraud.

U.S. District Judge William M. Taylor conferred with attorneys for each side Thursday out of the presence of the eight-man, four-woman jury.

Stock fraud, filing of false reports to the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and conspiracy to file false reports were the charges against former Texas Attorney General Carr and Osorio, onetime state insurance commissioner.

They were accused of fraudulently borrowing $880,000 on unregistered stock of RIC International Industries, Inc.

Dallas businessman David Hoover was being tried in the same action on a count alleging stock fraud.

Carr testified that he knew nothing about the bank loans because he relied on accountants' audits when he signed an SEC report prepared by them.

U.S. Attorney Robert

Mahony alleged that false reports were made to conceal RIC's true financial status from prospective stock purchasers.

Osorio and Carr also said they had depended upon advice of securities attorneys that pledging the RIC stock as loan collateral was legal.

During the three week trial, the government has submitted exhibits intended to prove that restrictive labels on the RIC stock had been removed before it was offered as loan collateral.

Tom Max Thomas, a government witness, denied a defense statement that he had lied in earlier testimony concerning a memorandum and a conversation with Osorio.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sivage during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Muleshoe, Mr. W. H. Johnson of Friona, Mrs. Exer Murchinson and Mrs. Lorene Tucker of Shamrock, Mrs. Ola Cooper of Optima, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Jochetz of Pampa.

Miss Roe Ann Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Burnett of Wylie, and former teachers and coach in the Wheeler School System, won third place in the state for her end sheets which will be featured in the 1974 PIRATE, which is the school year book of Wylie High School. This was at the Interscholastic League Press Conference which was held in Austin, March 21, 22, and 23. We wish to congratulate Roe Ann on this honor.

Miss Gay Louise Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Martin, and Michael Gary Snowden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Snowden of Tye, were united in marriage on Saturday March 16 in the Hillcrest Church of Christ of Abilene. Rev. Eugene Henderson officiated.

Wedding music was provided by Harold Lipford and a musical group.

Miss Carol Purser of San Antonio was maid of honor and Miss June Hardin of Pampa, cousin of the bride, and Miss Cindy Curry of Lubbock, served as bridesmaids.

The bride's attendants were attired in similar dresses in orange fashioned in an A-line design featuring scooped necklines and puffed sleeves.

Candlelighters and ushers were Joe Martin, brother of the bride, and Dale Cheairs of Abilene.

Galloway Hitched To Burr's Future

By VERNON SCOTT
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Don Galloway, who plays detective Ed Brown in "Ironside," has hitched his future to a star named Raymond Burr who stars in the series' title role and will follow him to another series.

A handsome, all-America type, Galloway can be seen working with Burr tonight in a rerun of "Portrait: A Man Whose Name Was John."

Again, Burr leads and Galloway follows. Burr plays Pope John while Galloway portrays his secretary-priest.

"I've really liked working with Ray for the past seven years," Galloway said. "We have one more season to go in 'Ironside,' and then we head for Fiji."

Burr owns a large island, Naituba, in the Fiji group which he raises a variety of crops. Galloway visited him there last year and became a South Sea island fanatic.

"Ray and I have formed R.B. Production," he said, "and we're going to film a new adventure drama out there. This time I won't be playing a detective."

"And I'm going to have more to say than 'The lab reports didn't check out, chief, or I wouldn't be doing the series.'"

The move will mean uprooting his family and spending more than six months a year in the tropical paradise.

"My wife, Linda, is all for it," he said. "I'll bring a tutor along for my two little daughters. As a family we're awfully close to Burr. The girls call him Uncle Ray."

"There are a lot of advantages to living out there. One of them would have to be the 7,000-mile distance from the studio."

Asked if he wouldn't prefer to star in a series of his own, Galloway didn't hesitate. He said it would depend on the role, the scripts and the producers. Meanwhile, he is content being a second banana.

If nothing else, Galloway is series wise. Before "Ironside" came along he was a regular member of three series — "Arrest and Trial," "90 Bristol Court" and "The Secret Storm," a soap opera he would just as soon forget.

"We haven't got a title for the Fiji show yet," he said. "But we're already committed to six hours of film. We'll bring some key technical people from Hollywood and hire the rest in the islands."

"They don't have any motion picture equipment out there suitable for our purposes. But all it takes is one unit Cinemobile or its equivalent and we're in business."

"It will be a change working with Ray in a standing position. When we did this Pope John special and in a couple of flashbacks for our own show Ray got out of the wheel chair — and I couldn't get over the habit of looking down when I spoke lines to him."

"I look forward to working with Ray eye-to-eye. He is one of the finest, most creative actors I've ever seen."

"I don't know how to go about building up a burning desire to become a big star myself. I simply want to become a great actor. Until then, I'm working steadily — and these days there's a lot to be said for that."

Use Trash To Feed The World?

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — With the help of some hungry bacteria, Dr. Clayton Callihan and his colleagues at Louisiana State University hope to use mountains of trash to feed the world.

Callihan is part of an LSU research team working on a project to harvest protein-rich bacteria grown on a cellulose waste solution.

"We could almost feed the world with the wastes we have in the United States," said Callihan, a chemical engineering professor.

He uncorked a jar of brown crumbs and sprinkled out a few grains of what may be the food of the future.

The crumbs taste like bland crackers but Callihan said that by adding the proper flavor a cook may one day be able to turn out anything from steak to bacon and eggs.

The LSU Foundation recently entered into a contract with Bechtel International, a San Francisco engineering firm, to build a $10 million demonstration plant to begin manufacturing the food for use as a protein supplement for animals.

By the end of the decade Callihan hopes it may be used for human diets because of its high protein content as an inexpensive source of high protein.

"Steak is only about 22 percent protein. Our bugs run almost 60 percent protein," Callihan said.

The process developed by Callihan, Dr. Vadake R. Srinivasan and several other scientists starts with cellulose wastes such as paper, leaves, trees, sawdust or sugar cane stalks.

"Our microorganisms don't seem to care much where the cellulose comes from, they'll eat it regardless," Callihan said. "The only preference we've really found is in computer printout paper. They really like that."

"We grow bugs on cellulose. We feed them the cellulose, they eat it and when they get big enough we harvest them."

The cellulose is first ground, then cleaned in a special solution, heated and then washed again. It is put in fermentors with water and fertilizer and then the bacteria are added.

Callihan said there is no comparison between the growth rate of the bacteria and present protein sources.

"If you took a thousand-pound steer and fed it all it would eat for 24 hours that steer might gain two pounds, a pound of which would be protein."

"But if you took a thousand pounds of our bugs

He said that by adding vitamins the food may someday supply most human nutritional needs.

"We can make a reasonably balanced diet this way and it will be essentially fat free," he said.

"We've got lots of cellulose waste. Urban areas will pay Bechtel $10 to $15 a ton just to dispose of it," he said.

The food is not ready for human consumption because it contains too much nucleic acid, a contributing factor to gall stones and kidney stones.

But Callihan said the LSU team is working on reducing the nucleic acid content.

VOTE FOR THE 7-MAN PAMPA SCHOOL BOARD
In the Pampa Independent School District Election Saturday, April 6, 1974

HORSE AND BUGGY DAYS ARE PAST
Pampa became a 5 member school district by special permission of the Texas Legislature over 50 years ago. Since then Pampa, no longer a small community, has grown to more than 20 thousand people with a 4 million dollar school budget. Pampa deserves full representation.

DANGERS OF A 5-MAN BOARD? EASIER TO CONTROL!
Consider: on a 5-man school board, a quorum consists of only 3 men, when 2 members are absent, the 3 who form a quorum can conduct school board business, and only 2 of the 3 can decide how they want to spend your tax dollars; the two can establish policies affecting your children and school administration. When one member is absent from a 5-man school board, 2 friends can prevent necessary action! If voters approve the 7-man school board issue April 6, 1974, the Pampa Independent School District will add 2 more members one year later, in May, 1975.

7 MEMBERS ARE HARDER TO CONTROL THAN 5
Who wants to control the Pampa School Board? Those special interest groups and individuals who are affected by Board decisions! Quote a former Pampa Superintendent of Schools: "If a school superintendent has only 5 friends in town, he needs to make sure that all 5 of those friends are on his school board." Most Texas school districts, that had 5-member boards, have returned to 7-man boards. Recently Dumas, Shamrock and Miami returned to 7-man boards. If 5-member school boards are best for children, schools and tax payers, why are 99.9% of Texas School Boards 7-member boards? Yes, it may take more time for discussion at meetings, but men and women who serve without remuneration will give the time necessary for better representation.

VOTE FOR THE 7-MEMBER BOARD
Vote for the 7-member Board for best representation for Children, Schools and Taxpayers. Vote against the 5-man board and special interest control of your children's education and your tax dollars!

VOTE FOR THE 7-MAN PAMPA SCHOOL BOARD!

Vote For Don Carpenter April 6th

If elected as your candidate to serve as a board member to the Pampa Independent School System, I will do my best to make decisions that will make a better educational system for our community.

- This I Believe:
1. School business is big business and needs close attention.
 2. Our schools need a good educational program.
 3. Our schools need a well-rounded sports program for both boys and girls.
 4. We need Administrators, Coordinators and Educational People that will be honest with themselves and the Public.

State-Owned Versus Free

Paul Poirat, editor of Freeman magazine (Foundation for Economic Education, Irvington - in Hudson, New York), once wrote that it is a contradiction in terms to argue that slaves can out-produce free men. The truth of that assertion can be demonstrated. The best illustrations, however, are those in which the two systems — the slave on the one hand, the free on the other — operate side-by-side.

ALL THAT GLITTERS Tuning In On The Congress

WASHINGTON — Don't hold your breath, but within a few years millions of Americans may actually be able to look upon the arcane wonders of Congress in full session, or push the button on their car radio and hear Capitol Hill transacting public business. The House of Representatives has generally been slow to act on such innovation, but from the other side of the Capitol comes word that the leadership may soon recommend opening Senate floor sessions to live television and radio.

THE STRING IS OUT IMPEACHMENT BLESCHER '74

INSIDE LABOR Are There Two Dick Nixons?

WASHINGTON — All this past week Dick Nixon tried to fill in time for a haircut still badly needed by Friday despite his daily press scalping. It had been a tight week jammed with unreported developments ranging from tough lobbying by police and fire fighters union leaders seeking a precedent-smashing overtime pay law on to juggling international phone calls to Dr. Kissinger with messages for Party Secretary Brezhnev, Prime Minister Wilson and Chancellor Willy Brandt.

PAUL HARVEY Precautionary Surgery?

By PAUL HARVEY Probably 15 million Americans have gallstones. Most of them will die of some other cause — and go to their graves with gallstones. But if the X-ray reveals that you have gallstones, the surgeon is likely to recommend surgery. It's the thing to do right now — precautionary surgery. It's almost a fad and such fads come in waves.

INSIDE WASHINGTON $1.5 Billion 'Refresher' Proposed For The IDA

By ROBERT ALLEN WASHINGTON — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee is just about set to report out that House-rejected $1.5 billion "refresher" for the International Development Association (IDA) — the "easy money" branch of the World Bank. Spearheading this backstage drive are committee chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., and Sen. Jacob Javits, N.Y., ranking Republican. Aim of the bipartisan backers of the huge new IDA handout is to ram it through the Senate in the hope that will induce the House to reverse its decisive rejection last December — 248 to 155.

John Raitt's Singing Out All Over The Country

John Raitt, portraying King Arthur in "Camelot," is scheduled for a Saturday, April 6, 8 p.m. performance in the M.K. Brown Memorial Auditorium.

The local showing is being sponsored by the Pampa Fine Arts Association, Mrs. Home Johnson, president.

Admission is $7.50 for adults, and $4 for students, according to Mrs. E.H. Brainard II, ticket sales chairman.

HUMAN INTEREST FEATURETTE By BRUCE VILANCH Chicago Today

John Raitt's bustin' out all over!

With talent, for one (his voice can still shake the rafters in even the largest convention halls). With activity, for another (he was on the road 48 weeks last year, all of them gainfully employed as an actor). With pride (his daughter Bonnie is a brand new folk-rock singing star with three big albums to her credit). And with the old machismo (at around 50, he is still playing the swaggering musical heroes of his youth, and he has just married a former beauty queen who is far from even being 30 yet!).

What does he do with his spare time? There is NO spare time. Just because he hasn't done Broadway, or movies, or TV in quite a while, the national media thinks John has been sitting quietly at home, spinning his daughter's hot new records. Nothing could be farther from the truth — NOTHING!

"I've been everywhere,

Just ask."

Okay. Where has he been? Well, just last year, John wrapped up a tour that took him by bus and truck and limousine and a la-shank's mare to more than 110 cities in 10 months — 60,000 miles as no crow ever flew — in "Carousel" and "Kiss Me, Kate," which he also presented through John Raitt Productions.

Once he finishes a stint in Chicago starring in "I Do! I Do!" with Patrice Munsel, John will be off again, 40 cities in 10 weeks, as King Arthur in "Camelot," toppling a cast of professionals he and his staff recently assembled in New York.

"This kind of thing, to me, is what the theatre is really about. Bringing live acting to towns that ordinarily never see a professional company."

"Yeah, it's tough, but it's the most rewarding kind of work."

"We've been snowed out, bombed out, blacked out, and still the people come. Last tour we arrived in Wheeling, W. Va., with our scenery truck stuck up to its axles in snow 260 miles from the theatre. We had no scenery, no costumes, no orchestrations. Of course, I could play 'Carousel' with three crates and a banana, so I went on and asked the audience to imagine us with all our props intact. 2700 people, and we only had three refunds in the crowd."

"When we came back to Wheeling the next time, the place was sold out again. But this time the marquee said: 'John Raitt — With Props.'"

And if all this isn't enough to boggle the mind — Raitt has decided to branch out to the West Coast, where he lives occasionally. He and his partner, Donald Cox, have taken over the six million-dollar Kabuki Theatre in the Japanese Cultural Center in San Francisco and will open it in April as the San Francisco Dinner Theatre. Raitt, himself, will star in the first production, hiring other stars for other shows thereafter. He even plans the world premiere of a new musical he will co-produce at his new theatre home. Raitt has optioned the rights to the musical version of William Inge's "Come Back Little Sheba," with music by Clint Ballard and book and lyrics by Lee Goldsmith. His life-long friend, Dan Dailey, will direct.

Bonnie (the daughter) approves! He says of her: "We never encouraged her either. I always thought it was nice that she seemed musical, but it didn't strike me should would make a career of it. Now, of course, (he says in all modesty) she's making more money than me. Not that she cares, of course. She'll never change."

"But what amazes me is how she's caught on. It all happened so fast. And in a way I never expected. See, she has got this black sound that I could never imagine her picking up. I don't know WHERE she learned it. We went to see her in Carnegie Hall, and there she was BELTING out these blues songs. I thought it was AMAZING. But I love what she's doing. It's so all-encompassing; it hits on all the American musical styles."

Bonnie couldn't believe it when her dad married his second wife ("He's just married this young, beautiful girl," she said shortly after the wedding. "He's all right, you know!"). Kathy, the new Mrs. Raitt, helps in all ways with the shows — public relations, stage manager, associate producer, ego-builder, biggest fan. She is a former Miss Nevada — in fact, she's a former Miss Everything, being the self-admitted veteran of 30 — count 'em — 30, beauty pageants. Whew! What an incredible family!!

Whole frozen chickens that weigh three pounds or less defrost in about 12 hours at refrigerator temperature. To thaw at room temperature, allow 2 to 3 hours per pound for whole chicken, or 1-1/2 to 2 hours per pound for smaller part.

Uncooked chicken can be stored safely at average freezer temperature for a year.

Researchers have discovered that virus infections can be carried from one fabric to another and live for long periods of time. But hot water washing of clothing tends to help eliminate the problem.

Homemakers are advised to store spices away from light to avoid discoloration or loss of color.

In sewing many of today's fabrics, homemakers are urged to keep an eye out for lint on the sewing machine parts which could lead to skipped stitches.

Foliage plants such as Dracaena, Philodendron, Sansevieria and Coleus are especially suited to planter boxes in the home to add a decorative touch.

Home economists suggest that the homemaker choose her automatic dishwasher on the basis of average daily load and ease of loading features.

An increase in interest in home sewing has brought an increase in gadgets to make the task easier, such as the hem clip, the automatic tailor tacker, tape stitching guides and the automatic buttonhole cutter.

The rage in kitchen fashion is a range of coordinated towels, aprons, potholders and small appliance covers. All washable.

A quality Dynel wig or hairpiece looks and feels like real hair. And, like real hair, it can be washed at home — and still hold its curl and style. Before washing it, brush wig gently to remove loose soil and hairspray. Then swish wig up and down in cold sudsy water. Rinse in cold water also. Don't wring, twist or hold under hair dryer or any other heat source. Let it drip dry.

The linen look will be big in the spring.

Your Horoscope

By Jeanne Dixon

SATURDAY, APRIL 6

Your birthday today: This promises to be a bonanza year in which all your realistic endeavors gain, generating the means for idealistic plans and expansive progress in bringing them to reality. Relationships grow swiftly and are tested quickly by events. Past activities reflect all year in unexpected results, recognizable only on hindsight as to their causes. Today's natives are nearly always interested in meta-physics, magic, occult phenomena.

Aries [March 21-April 19]: Problems of the past or their repercussions reappear for fresh attention, final solution. Your plans are apt to run into opposition.

Taurus [April 20-May 20]: Old work needs completion, deserves a high priority. Personal limitations, your own and those of others, cause delays, temporary inconveniences.

Gemini [May 21-June 20]: A sense of urgency pervades your whole day. Just be sure of where you focus your energy; stay with whatever you do to its logical stopping point.

Cancer [June 21-July 21]: You are in the midst of a conflict—personal affairs as opposed to business obligations. You may have set this up by neglecting to do certain things.

Leo [July 22-Aug. 22]: Take the view that you needn't be rushed into any drastic action today. It's a good time for lump sum, once and for all payment of outstanding accounts.

Virgo [Aug. 23-Sept. 22]: The real or symbolic settlement of accounts characterizes most of today's program. An old dream may come true thru just a little extra effort.

Libra [Sept. 23-Oct. 22]: You can sell anything today — be sure of what you do sell. Your intelligence wins you respect as you exercise and expand your persuasive ability.

Scorpio [Oct. 23 - Nov. 21]: Special favors seem beyond reach, although some will probably be asked of you. A review of your daily living should stir plans for practical change.

Sagittarius [Nov. 22-Dec. 21]: Don't push your luck assuming anything about your friends and what they can do for you, particularly where you've done favors for them.

Capricorn [Dec. 22-Jan. 19]: Devote the weekend to rest and the search for inner peace. There's enough backlog to catch up to fill all idle moments.

Aquarius [Jan. 20-Feb. 18]: Something you thought was over and done with remains to be done again. Others find matters just as inconvenient as you do, let them be first to grumble.

Pisces [Feb. 19-March 20]: Letting well enough alone is again a fine art. Leaving yourself adequate reserves is more important than ever as all sorts of temptations abound.

FTC Issues New Guides For Furniture Industry

COLLEGE STATION — The Federal Trade Commission's (FTC) new guides for the furniture industry are now in effect, one authority noted this week.

She's Patricia A. Bradshaw, housing and home furnishings specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The Texas A&M University System.

Essentially a revision of 1963 trade practice rules, the FTC felt that earlier standards didn't adequately cover changes in technology and materials.

These new regulations, effective March 21, 1974, also will eliminate some misleading advertising and other deceptive practices.

For example, manufacturers must inform consumers if an item uses plastic, vinyl, marble dust or other products to simulate wood, leather, marble, slate, etc.

"Furniture with veneered construction or simulated finishes must have attached tags or labels stating such information," the specialist said.

In the past, some retailers removed tags and labels that gave information about an item's construction and composition. Miss Bradshaw continued.

The new guides aim to stop this — and also set down specific rules concerning labeling.

First, manufacturers can't use names of countries to indicate style, because some consumers confuse this with where the item was made.

For example, a piece of furniture manufactured in

SUDDEN INTERRUPTION PALO ALTO, Calif. (UPI) — "And now, ladies and gentlemen..." the master of ceremonies at the Cubberly High School Senior Frolics began.

But before he could finish his introduction, six naked girls and six naked boys, streaked across the stage and out to waiting cars in the parking lot.

The audience gave them a standing ovation and the show went on.

Dear Abby

Advice on husband's 'generosity' stands

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1974 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Your outdated advice to the woman whose husband wanted her to have sex with other men really irked me. I'd have advised her to ask her husband why he wanted to share her. If it was because he didn't love her and wanted to get rid of her, then I fully agree, she shouldn't put up with it. But, did you ever stop to think that maybe the husband enjoyed her so much in bed that he wanted to show others what a great wife he has? Or it's possible that his sexual enjoyment may really be heightened if she has sex with other men?

Please don't call this perverted, or say that this man needs a psychiatrist. He doesn't need one. Read the sex manuals. This is an accepted sex practice and is widely accepted nowadays. SEE THE LIGHT

DEAR SEE: I'm sorry I cannot agree with you. No man in our culture who truly loves his wife wants her to have sex with other men. If his own sexual enjoyment is heightened by such a need, it suggests either that he may have unconscious homosexual feelings or that he consciously or unconsciously has a need to degrade his wife.

DEAR ABBY: What happens to a man when he becomes 59 years of age and wants to be young again? My husband dislikes being addressed as "Grandpa," is now sporting sideburns and a mustache [which he dyes], asked for a bicycle for Christmas, and is shamelessly carrying on a flirtation with a 38-year-old woman.

Our 24-year-old daughter, who is a nurse, refers to his behavior as "the male menopause syndrome," and I call it "the fountain of youth disease."

What do you call it? CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED: I call it "geriatricophobia"—fear of growing old. [Don't try to find it in the dictionary—I just made it up.] It's harmless, unless the flirtation has gone beyond the conversation stage.

DEAR ABBY: I am not well-known, but I am a professional artist. Abby, you would not believe how many friends and relatives expect me to GIVE them a painting! They don't consider the hours I invest, not to mention the costs, such as canvases, paints, brushes, frames, etc.

This is how I make my living, but in spite of all the requests I've had, none of these people have ever bought me as much as a meal.

People obviously have the mistaken idea that an artist is supposed to be rewarded just knowing that someone wants to hang his painting. Many other artists have this problem. Help us all and print this letter, please. Also some advice, if you have any. TEXAN

DEAR TEXAN: Consider it done. Now, if your friends and relatives get angry with you for refusing to give them a painting—give 'em the brush.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-Agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Cal. 90212.

KARPIN ON BRIDGE

By FRED KARPIN

There are no hard and fast rules that determine when the adversely held trumps should be picked up immediately. Probably the nearest thing to a principle is this: unless a more important use exists for declarer's own or dummy's trumps, the defenders' trumps should be gathered in as quickly as possible.

In today's deal we have an example of when the defenders' trumps should not be picked up promptly.

East-West vulnerable. South deals.

NORTH
♠ A K 8 4 3
♥ A J 9
♦ 7 5 2

WEST ♠ J 9 6 2
♦ J 10 9 3
♣ K 8 5 2

EAST ♠ Q 10 7 5
♦ Q 8 6 4

SOUTH
♠ K Q 10 8 6 3 2
♥ A K
♦ A Q J 10
♣ 7 6 5 4 3 2

The bidding:
South West North East
2♥ Pass 2♠ Pass
3♥ Pass 6♥ Pass
7♥ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Jack of ♠.

South's seven-heart bid was an optimistic call: he had no reason to assume that he could avoid losing a club trick. North's bidding, on the other hand, was sound: he had at least three sure winners opposite a partner who, in opening with a two-heart bid, guaranteed that he held at least nine winning tricks in his own hand.

The inexperienced player would probably have gone down at the grand slam contract. He would have won the opening diamond lead, and then cashed the ace and jack of trumps, picking up the outstanding spades. The ace and king of spades would have been cashed next. South discarding thereon his ten and jack of clubs. A club would then be led, South finessing his queen. West's king would now take the setting trick.

Proper play of this hand would be to lead a low trump to the board's nine at trick two, after which the three of spades would be trumped with a high trump (just in case West was void of spades). Then would come a trump to dummy's jack (picking up East's remaining trump enroute). A second spade would then be ruffed, and this would be followed by another trump lead to the board's ace.

Now would come the ace and king of spades, upon which South would toss away his jack and ten of clubs. With both opponents following suit to all four spade leads, dummy's remaining spade would now be a winner; and on it South would discard his club queen.

Of course the eight outstanding spades didn't figure to be divided nicely and evenly, 4-4. But if they weren't so divided, declarer would always have available, as a last resort, the 50-50 club finesse. Thus the testing of the spades was "on the house."

SALEM, Ore. (UPI)—Oregon experienced 46,482 traffic accidents last year, a decline from 1972 of about 2 1/2 per cent.

The State Motor Vehicles Division reported traffic deaths declined by 14 per cent during 1973, but injuries were down only about 1 1/2 per cent.

Diet Effects Thyroid Troubles

By G.C. THOSTESON, M.D.
Dear Dr. Thosteson: How does diet cause or correct thyroid troubles? My doctor has found nodules on both sides, and I will have surgery to remove them, but I would appreciate hearing from you. I don't even know what questions to ask.

—N.C.O.
There are different kinds of thyroid problems, of which yours is one. Diet neither causes nor corrects such nodules — but we do not know exactly what DOES cause them.

In another type of thyroid trouble — a diffuse enlargement, or "colloid goiter" — diet is a factor to the extent that lack of iodine can cause that trouble. But that is quiet different from nodular enlargement like yours.

A single nodule in the thyroid raises suspicions of cancer. It may not be, of course; but then again it may — so careful examination is mandatory.

But when two or more nodules are present, they usually are NOT cancerous. It is, of course, wise to make such tests as are needed to be certain, and I assume that undoubtedly you have had such tests.

Anyway, surgical removal of such nodules is the usual procedure, and I would go along with your doctor's advice without too much delay.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I would like to know if it is all right to give an eight-month-old baby a half-bottle of Koolaid? I give it to her when she wakes up in the morning and another one late in the afternoon. I do not have time to fix her breakfast before taking her to the nursery. It seems to satisfy her.

—C.R.
Satisfaction and nourishment are not the same.

There's nothing wrong with giving an infant the drink you mention, but not as a substitute for the milk it needs, especially during the first year of life when the greatest single spurt of growth is expected to occur.

Further than that I cannot comment, because I don't know what other nourishment the child is receiving the rest of the day.

How much trouble is really involved in warming up a bottle of milk or opening up a can of fruit? It seems to me you could adjust your schedule to prepare a more wholesome breakfast for her.

Don't shortchange the like in this important year of life for a few extra minutes of sleep in the morning.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My mother passed away from an ovarian cancer and somewhere I read that it is hereditary. When I asked my gynecologist, he sort of glossed over it and said come back in three months, since I am 42 and should be checked more often. I guess the Pap test was negative. I would really like to know the facts so that I can either stop worrying or be little more faithful about tests.

—F.M.
While there can be some hereditary predisposition to cancer, saying that ovarian cancer "is hereditary" is going much too far.

Maybe you have an obsession about cancer. Why not accept the word that there is no sign of cancer now? You also are asking the impossible when you want me — or anyone — to give you some absolute answer as to what will or won't happen in the future.

Just see your gynecologist periodically as he has asked you to do, so if cancer does develop some day, you will catch it early. There is, of course, no guarantee that you ever will have it.

For a comprehensive discussion of how to cope with the change of life, including scores of pertinent questions and their answers, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of Box 1400, Elgin, Illinois 60120, for his booklet, "Make Menopause Easier," enclosing 35 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed (use zip code) envelop to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

'Life Is A Laugh,' Earl Insists

By EARL WILSON
NEW YORK — Life is a laugh (I keep insisting).

The New York "rainy season," which begins Jan. 1 and ends Dec. 31, was at its worst the other night. The Broadway Theater, home of "Candide," developed a leaky roof and sent a trickle of water into the auditorium.

In this show everything happens in the audience and a woman under the trickle of water opened her umbrella and sat there throughout the show. "She didn't even ask for a refund," declared one theater representative. Some of the actors thought the Lady With the Umbrella was "Great Theater."

"Meet my fat friend" will henceforth be a safe thing for a husband to say concerning his wife.

It could be a national catchphrase following Lynn Redgrave's hit in the show "My Fat Friend," and her scaling down till she's just Gorge-Oust!!

If you are a student and expecting to travel this year either overseas or in the United States, you'll be interested in the Student Travel Catalog published by the Council on International Educational Exchange. The Council previously concentrated on student travel abroad but has expanded the information and services available for those who travel here at home.

Perhaps the most helpful aspect of the catalog is the listing of student travel books available and specifically designed for students. For example, there's "Where to Stay — U.S.A.," a 250-page paperback listing over 1000 places to spend the night in the USA. It also includes information on hitchhiking, job possibilities, inexpensive restaurants and other helpful information.

If it's Canada see "Handbook Canada." There is "The Student Guide to New York" and a highly informative and interesting book, "North American Bicycle Atlas" listing almost 100 trips throughout the U.S., Bermuda, Puerto Rico and Canada.

For the foreign traveling student there is information on the International Student Identification Card, American Youth Hostel Passes, information on air fares, charter flights, ship fares, rail passes and a score of other necessary facts.

Also you will find a listing of books which will be helpful to the student traveler and are designed for almost any area of the world.

The catalog provides application and ordering forms for the various passes and books. It also points out that on many college campuses the Council has offices where assistance and the catalog can be obtained. The Student Travel Catalog can also be obtained by writing to Council on International Educational Exchange, 777 United Nations Plaza, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Tornado Suggestions

AUSTIN (UPI)— In the wake of the killer tornadoes that struck nine states Wednesday, the chairman of the Texas Insurance Advisory Association issued a list of eight suggestions to follow before and after a tornado.

J.O. (Jim) Smith said Texas was hit by more than 700 tornadoes from 1968 through 1972, causing 58 deaths and over a million injuries.

"This is the time when Texas communities face the threat of tornadoes and windstorms," Smith said. "Knowing what to do before and after a storm can cut down on the loss of life and property."

The recommendations are:

1. Get in an inside bathroom or closet.
2. Make sure windows are slightly opened to relieve pressure inside the home.
3. Get under a table to avoid injury from debris.

4. Avoid auditoriums, gymnasiums and other buildings with large roofs.

5. If you sight a tornado in open country, move at right angles to the tornado's path. Lie flat in the nearest ditch or ravine. Don't stay in your automobile.

6. If you own a mobile home, anchor it down by using "tie downs" designed to hold it in place.

7. After the storm has hit, stay away from fallen power lines.

8. Make necessary repairs if your home is damaged such as boarding up broken windows.

Just before they molt, ducks and geese fly to waters where they will be safe from their enemies because they are briefly unable to fly while molting their main feathers.

First Christian Church Hosts Former Pampian

"Seven Great Days of Holy Week" will be observed by First Christian Church, April 7-12, according to Ralph T. Palmer, minister.

Dr. Richard W. Crews, Coastal Plains Area Minister and previous minister of the Pampa Church will speak at the morning and evening services on Palm Sunday and each night through Wednesday.

Dr. Crews, his wife Dede and two children Barby and Richie lived in Pampa for 10 years from 1952-1962. Rev. Crews graduated from TCU with a B.A. and B.D. and received his Master's from Graduate Theological Union and his D.D. from TCU in 1962.

After leaving Pampa he went to San Angelo for seven years and then to Lafayette, Calif. for four years. In 1972 he became Area Minister for the Coastal Plains and he and Dede now reside in Houston.

Barby, their daughter, also lives in Houston and teaches high school. Richie Crews and his wife, Cathy, reside in Corpus Christi where Richie is practicing law.

The Same in Any Language will be Dr. Crews' topic for Palm Sunday morning. This morning service will begin with a special "Youth in Action," observance which will include youth, ages two years through high school.

REV. RICHARD CREWS

acting out the entry of Christ into Jerusalem. The Youth Choir, under the direction of Rex and Becky Baker, will sing "Alluia."

A special Maundy Thursday Communion Service is being planned by the Worship Department for April 11 at 7:30 p.m., and a City-wide Good Friday service is being planned by the Pampa Ministerial Alliance in the First Christian Church Sanctuary at 7:30 p.m., Friday, April 12.

First Christian Church would like to invite everyone to come and help observe "Seven Great Days of Holy Week," April 7-12.

LDS Confab Aired Sunday

On Sunday Channel 11, KTVT of Dallas-Fort Worth will be televising the World Conference Broadcast of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The time for the broadcast will be 9-11 a.m.

The program will be broadcast locally on Channel 5 by Pampa Cable TV.

World Conference broadcast from historic Temple Square in Salt Lake City features some of the greatest music and messages for every family member.

The 375-voice Salt Lake Mormon Tabernacle Choir, world-famed for broadcasts, concert tours and recordings, provides the music.

President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Spencer W. Kimball, will be presiding over the conference. Leaders of the Church will offer counsel on how to surmount trials and how to achieve peace of mind.

World conference broadcasts are presented in the public interest by KSL Radio and Television to more than 350 stations in Australia, Canada, Mexico, Central and South America, Europe and the United States.

Local members may watch the address on television at the chapel, 731 Sloan, followed by the monthly fast and testimony meeting.

Bible Church Concludes Series On Spiritual Gifts

The Bible Church of Pampa will conclude its series on Spiritual Gifts by showing a motion picture on the use and development of spiritual gifts in the Peninsula Bible Church of Palo Alto, Calif. The film, entitled "The Emerging Church," will be shown at the Bible Church of Pampa, 2401 Alcock, at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. The public is invited, no charge, no offering.

For those who see the film a printed copy of the verse by verse study of 1 Corinthians 14, on the gift of tongues, will be made available. Tongues was the last increment in the series on gifts.

The regular verse by verse study through the book of Revelation will be interrupted for the showing of this film.

From The Living Bible When is all this going to happen? I really don't need to say anything about that, dear brothers, for you know perfectly well that no one knows. That day of the Lord will come unexpectedly like a thief in the night. When people are saying, "All is well, everything is quiet and peaceful" — then, all of a sudden, disaster will fall upon them as suddenly as a woman's birth pains begin when her child is born. And these people will not be able to get away anywhere — there will be no place to hide.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

Lefors Church of Christ

REV. RONALD LAMB
Pastor

"THE MAN WHO WASN'T THERE"

It was the first Sunday after the crucifixion of Jesus. Many rumors were circulating over the whereabouts of His body. People were confused. Some were afraid. Others were discouraged. Some were convinced He had risen.

Of the closest friends and followers of Jesus we read,

"The first day of the week the disciples were assembled... but Thomas was not with them." (John 20:19-24)

On that first Sunday, the day of Christ's victory over the grave, the disciples assembled to remember Him... "but Thomas was not with them."

The disciples met to have fellowship with one another, encourage and strengthen each other in their faith in Christ... "but Thomas was not with them."

The disciples set aside their work and home responsibilities to assemble and worship their Lord... "but Thomas was not with them."

At this meeting while the disciples were assembled, the Lord blessed the disciples and encouraged them to be more faithful in living daily for Him... "but Thomas was not with them."

While the disciples were assembled they met the Lord. He spoke to them and the came to know Him better... "but Thomas was not with them."

WHERE WAS THOMAS?

Maybe he went fishing. And if the fishing was good he wouldn't have wanted to waste his time assembling with the disciples.

Maybe he went camping. After all, he had been very busy, needed his rest and wouldn't be expected to assemble with the disciples.

Or maybe there was some work that had to be done around the house. After all, it was that time of year when the yard, garden and flowers needed attention, as well as the little fix-up jobs around the house, so he couldn't take the time to assemble with the disciples.

Maybe it was simply that school was out and he felt no need for assembling with the other disciples. Or he may have felt that he had a responsibility to spend as much time as possible with his children.

We don't know where Thomas was. We just know where he wasn't. "The first day of the week... the disciples were assembled... but Thomas was not with them."

WHY WASN'T THOMAS WITH THEM?

It may have been because he didn't feel it was important to assemble with the other disciples. Or he was not interested in meeting the Lord and being blessed. Perhaps he had forgotten the promise of the Lord, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst."

Maybe he felt he had more important things to do. Or it may have been that he simply disregarded the Bible instruction that says, "Forasmuch as ye assemble yourselves together, as the manner of some is..."

We don't know why, but we do know that "The first day of the week... the disciples were assembled... BUT THOMAS WAS NOT WITH THEM."

On the first day of the week (Sunday), when the disciples assemble... WHERE WILL YOU BE?

Pampa's First Baptist Hears Soloist Sunday

Miss Joe Ann Shelton, former director of program music for the Southern Baptists' Radio and Television Commission for six years, will be in concert Sunday at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church. She is featured soloist on the international Baptist Hour radio broadcast. She also served as director of the Baptist Hour Choir. She has appeared in numerous concerts, including evangelistic tours in Africa, British Guiana and Mexico.

JOE ANN SHELTON

In 1969, Miss Shelton organized the Centurymen, a 100-voice men's chorale composed of ministers of music from Southern Baptist Churches in 22 states. Since then she has spent much of her time helping to develop the choir into a distinctive singing group.

Miss Shelton has sung in the opera production of "Marriage of Figaro," and in 1965 was soloist in a performance of Ron Nelson's oratorio "What Is Man?" at the meeting of the Baptist World Alliance in Miami. She also serves as secretary of the Alliance's Radio and Television Conference.

In the summer of 1966 Miss Shelton was guest singer for the month-long Billy Graham Crusade in London.

She has made numerous appearances on the Day of Discovery television program and was the featured performer in an ABC musical-television special, "Where Jesus Lived."

Her recordings, both as a soloist and as director of the Baptist Hour Choir, have been widely distributed through Christian Home Music and Word Records.

In 1963 Miss Shelton received the "Distinguished Alumni Award" from Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, Oklahoma, where she earned her B.A. in music. She was awarded OBU's Zeta Chi Achievement Award in 1968.

Pampa Chapel Continues Revival

Revival is now in progress at Pampa Chapel, 711 East Harvester, with Rev. Ted Barker of Baxter Springs, Kans., the evangelist. Special singers each night will be Sherry Cook and Carolyn Quesenbury.

Brother Barker has been the Superintendent of the Apostolic Faith Bible College for the last four years and has been instrumental in giving direction to the lives of many young people.

Revival services will begin each day at 7:30 p.m. through April 12.

Pastor Edwin Waterbury gives a special invitation to everyone to attend.

Pampa Hosting District Meet

MILE-RELAY TEAM — The Pampa quartet of (from left) Noel Hansen, Howie Lewis, Chuck Quarles and Steve Mathis has run a 3:27.5 this year and will be a strong contender to capture the event as Pampa hosts the District 3-AAAA Track Meet Saturday. Mathis is listed as "probable" for the meet after pulling a hamstring last week. Rick Leverich will run if Mathis can't.

Jackson Leads Athletics To Win Over Texas, 7-2

ARLINGTON, Tex. (UPI) — Reggie Jackson and Oakland A's owner Charles O. Finley may not always see eye to eye, but after the season-opening performance by Jackson, Finley ecstatically exclaimed, "he can play barefooted for all I care."

Jackson, the American League and World Series most valuable player in 1973, got off to a terrific start Thursday night. The world champions powered to a 7-2 debut under Alvin Dark at the expense of the Texas Rangers' and 1973 nemesis Jim Bibby.

The A's right fielder merely had a four-for-five night against Bibby and his successors — a home run, two doubles and a single as well as stealing a base.

Oddly, the solo homer gave Jackson his only RBI, but his first double ignited a four-run outburst in the second inning that really was all Jim "Catfish" Hunter needed to get credit for the victory. Hunter tired and gave way to Rolfe Fingers in the eighth after successive singles by Jim Fregosi and Rich Billings and a double by Dave Nelson that gave the crowd of 21,907 much to cheer about.

Jackson and Finley were standing together in the dressing room after the game when someone brought up the subject of controversy.

Volleyball Team Vying In Regional Meet Today

WICHITA FALLS — Pampa's girls volleyball team plays Irving at 4 p.m. today at Midwestern University and the winner will compete in the state tournament, a four-team affair, April 19-20 in Austin. Irving is the defending state champion and only one girl off that team was lost to graduation.

Pampa has a chance to become the first Pampa High School team to win an official state championship in athletics since 1959 when Clifton McNeely's boys basketball team did.

In 1960 Pampa sent a girls volleyball team to a state tournament and the Pampa team won. However, UIL (University Interscholastic League) did not sanction volleyball then because there were so few teams.

In fact, Pampa made up this entire district.

The official state titles given by the UIL are in football, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls track, baseball, boys and girls golf, tennis and volleyball. But the first state championship in volleyball was not recognized until 1967.

Bateman Quits As Wheeler Football Coach

WHEELER — Jim Bateman, head football coach and athletic director at Wheeler High School, has resigned here and gone to Uvalde High School as an assistant football coach.

Bateman, in his four years at Wheeler, compiled a 21-18-1 record. At Uvalde, he will be with the team which won the AAA state championship in 1972.

Wheeler's Board of Education is accepting applications for an athletic director — head football coach and for a basketball assistant football coach.

By PAUL SIMS
The Pampa Harvesters are not favored to win the District 3-AAAA Track Meet Saturday at their own Randy Matson Track but several people on the team have good shots at using the meet as their first step towards a trip to Austin in May.

The best Pampa has finished this season is second in the Bobcat Relays in Sunray last month. But Caprock, a 3-AAAA team, won the meet. In Pampa's own Top O' Texas Invitational, Pampa placed fourth, while two district teams, Borger (first) and Tascosa (third) beat them.

In fact, even at the season's outset, Pampa placed behind a district team. In the Plainview Invitational, which opened the Harvesters' track season, Pampa came in sixth, while Amarillo High and Borger placed second and third respectively.

So in the district meet Saturday, Pampa is not the team favorite, although the Harvesters have the potential to upset any of the favorites — Caprock, Tascosa, Amarillo High or Borger.

And now that Steve Mathis might run, Pampa's chances look even better.

Mathis, who pulled a hamstring a week ago while running in the open quarter finals at the Amarillo Relays, was a doubtful competitor for the district meet. Without Mathis, Pampa would have been in serious trouble in both the 440 and the mile relay.

He will not run the 220, an event he has been doing well in recently.

Mathis, in the preliminaries of the mile relay last Friday in Amarillo, ran a 49.2 440, his finest time of the year and one of the best times in either the 440 or a leg in the mile relay this year in West Texas. A watch in the stands clocked him at 48.8.

Pampa, if Mathis is ready, could win the mile relay. Members of that team are Chuck Quarles, Howie Lewis, Noel Hansen and Mathis. Rick Leverich will run if Mathis is unable.

Hansen has a story of his own. The junior trackster is the best 800 man in the area, running his best time ever, a 1:58.3, last week in the Amarillo Relays.

Hansen is known for running just fast enough to beat his competition. Pampa coach Scott Dunnam believes the half miler could run a 1:54 if pressed by better competition than what he has been up against this year.

Howie Lewis, a 6-5 junior, will be co-favorite in the 330 intermediate hurdles with Glenn Gray of Borger.

Lewis' best race of the year was against Gray in the Perryton Sports Festival.

Lewis edged the Borger hurdler, 40.9 to 41.1.

Willis Price will be among the top entrants in the high jump. The Pampa junior has cleared six feet throughout the season.

The finals in the field events start at 10 a.m. Saturday. Preliminaries in the running events begin at 10 a.m. also.

Finals in the running events begin with the 440 relay at 3:30 p.m.

Good weather is expected for the meet, which last year was held in freezing weather in Amarillo.

As a result, no records were set last year.

Meet records include 41.8

in the 440 relay, set in 1969 by Palo Duro, 5:55.6 in the 800, set by Tascosa's David Webb in 1963, 14.0 in the 120 high hurdles, set by Palo Duro's Mark Weeks in 1968, 9.6 in the 100, set by Donnie Joe Morris of Palo Duro in 1969, and 49.5 in the 440, set by Willie Johnson of Borger in 1972.

Other records are: 330 intermediate hurdles — 39.1 in 1967 by Tascosa's Norman Wright.

220 — (tie) 21.4 in 1963 by Palo Duro's Floyd Burke and in 1970 by Borger's Cole Fraley.

Mile — 4:25.3 by Borger's Dennis Carruth.

Mile relay — 3:19.5 by Tascosa in 1966.

Pole vault — 13-1/4 in 1972 by Tascosa's Pat Cauley.

High jump — 6-6 in 1971 by Palo Duro's Elroy Williams.

Shot put — 64-8 in 1963 by Pampa's Randy Matson.

Long jump — 23-0 in 1966 by Tascosa's Jerry Carter.

Discus — 182-8 in 1963 by Pampa's Randy Matson.

Harvesters Test Dons At Optimist Park Today

Pampa High's baseball team, tied with Amarillo High, Caprock and Tascosa for first place in the 3-AAAA standings, plays Palo Duro at 4 p.m. today at Optimist Park in a crucial contest for the Harvesters.

The game is not so important for Palo Duro since the Dons, 3-12 for the season, have lost all three district games so far and are out of the running for the first-half title.

But Pampa needs a win to stay tied for the lead. Pampa travels to Amarillo High Tuesday to close out, first-half play.

Palo Duro, a 6-2 loser to the Sandies Thursday, are led by second baseman Robert Douglas, centerfielder Barry Reynolds and shortstop Kim Jolly.

The Dons have been getting good pitching out of Jackie Welch and Jim Rogers, who are both possible starters today.

Welch has no decisions and Rogers has lost twice without a win, but as Don coach Bill McElduff said, "When we get good pitching, we haven't gotten good hitting. We haven't been able to put everything together yet."

There are about 600 members in the average ward (parish) of the Mormon Church.

Either David Edwards, Dennis Edmondson, Gary Davis or Tommy Washington will start for Ronnie White's Harvesters. Edwards was scheduled to throw but the flu has cast some doubt on whether he will be ready.

Pampa is 2-1 in district and 11-6 overall. Pampa's last two games have been extra-inning victories, 3-2 over Tascosa in nine innings and 4-3 over Borger in eight Tuesday.

Boys Wind Up District Play, Girls Golfing In 3rd Round

The boys golf team of coach Deck Woldt winds up its season today with the sixth district round at Greenbelt Country Club in Clarendon while the girls team of coach Tom Lindsey play their third of four district rounds at Amarillo's Tascosa Country Club.

Both rounds have been moved from previously scheduled locations — the boys from Huber Country Club in Borger and the girls from Pampa Country Club.

In the 3-AAAA boys competition, Tascosa leads with 1552, and is followed by Amarillo High, 1569; Borger, 1599; Pampa, 1623; Caprock, 1624; Amarillo B-team, 1640; Tascosa B-team, 1664; Borger B-team, 1751; Palo Duro, 1824; Pampa B-team, 1821; Caprock B-team, 1858; and Palo Duro B-team, 2048.

Contenders for medalist honors are Dan Bentley of Tascosa, 376; Donnie Loerwald of Amarillo, 381; Mark Moore of Tascosa, 385; and Tim Avery of Tascosa, 390.

Wiley McIntire of Pampa has a 397 thus far. Scott Watson (401) and Mickey Lowe (413) are also in the top 11.

Pampa is in sixth place in the girls competition behind Tascosa, 745; Amarillo "B," 763; Amarillo, 778; Palo Duro, 810, and Borger, 812. Following Pampa are Tascosa "B," 885; Borger "B," 921; Caprock, 932, and Palo Duro "B," 938.

Kim Snook of Amarillo is leading the individual play with 175.

The girls' fourth district round is set for April 19 in Amarillo.

Hank Homers, Ties The Babe

PAMPA'S HOPES — The Harvesters' hopes for a district crown are resting on individuals who have done well throughout the season. Among those are Willis Price in the high jump (above), Steve Mathis in the open quarter and mile relay (above, right) and Howie Lewis in the 330 intermediate hurdles. Lewis and Price will be in action Saturday in Pampa in the District Meet while Mathis is a possible entrant because of a hamstring pull.

(Photos by Bill Kincaid)

CINCINNATI (UPI) — Hammering Hank has caught the Babe. Now he'll try to pass him in Saturday's second game between the Atlanta Braves and the Cincinnati Reds.

With his first swing of the 1974 season, Hank Aaron smacked a dramatic three-run homer against the Reds Thursday to tie Babe Ruth's career home run record of 714, a mark once thought unreachable.

"It's a load off my back," said Hank. "But I need one more to break it. When I get it, I'll probably run around the bases backwards."

Hank gets his chance for some fancy basepath footwork here Saturday, when the Braves seek revenge for Thursday's 7-6 loss to the Reds. Both teams were idle today.

Didn't Wait Long

The 52,154 fans who jammed Riverfront Stadium for opening day didn't have to wait long for Aaron's blast.

With two men on base in the first inning, Aaron worked Reds' pitcher Jack Billingham to a 3-1 count. Then Billingham served up a "sinker" that didn't sink and Aaron lined it over the left field wall near the 375-foot mark.

After Aaron circled the bases, the game was stopped for a six-minute ceremony during which Hank took the public address microphone and told the cheering crowd, "I'm just glad it's almost over with."

A Cincinnati policeman, Clarence Williams, 22, stationed in the open area behind the wall and in front of the stands, retrieved the ball and it was immediately presented to Aaron.

Reds Rally

Although Aaron's homer staked the Braves to a 3-0 lead, the Reds rallied to take a 7-6 victory in 11 innings. Pete Rose scored the winning run from second base on a wild pitch.

But the day belonged to Aaron, the 40-year-old slugger who once in his youthful, unsophisticated zeal for the game of baseball, batted cross-handed for a barnstorming team called the Indianapolis Clowns.

A beaming Aaron told more than 100 newsmen after the game he felt like he was off to a good season — his 21st in the major leagues.

"I felt I would hit a home run today," he said. "I was a little disappointed you gentlemen didn't see the other one."

Aaron had hit only one other opening day homer — off the Chicago Cubs' Bob Rush in 1956.

Sunday in Doubt

While Aaron will be in the lineup Saturday, he said he doesn't know if he will play Sunday.

"I was only ordered to play two out of three," he laughed, referring to an edict issued by baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn after the Braves had announced intentions of withholding Aaron until the first home stand in Atlanta.

"I've had a chance to hit one here and I owe the fans in Atlanta a shot at it," Aaron said.

Did that mean Aaron would be something less than a home run hitter here Saturday?

"I'm certainly going to play the game the way it's supposed to be played," he said. "If I get a pitch I can hit out of the ball park, I'm going to try to dispose of it."

The dubious distinction of serving up no. 714 to Aaron didn't seem to bother the easygoing Billingham.

Not Embarrassed

He greeted reporters with his usual boyish grin and mild manner. "I'm not embarrassed at all," Billingham said. "Hank Aaron is a great hitter. He's going to get his homers. I just feel bad that I didn't pitch as good as I know I can pitch."

Asked for the pitch Aaron hit for his homer at 2:40 p.m. EDT, 10 minutes after Vice President Gerald Ford tossed out the first ball, Billingham said:

"It was a sinker that didn't sink. I wanted it to be low and away and to sink, but it sailed into him. It was my mistake. That's what makes Hank Aaron great. He takes advantage of mistakes."

Billingham knew the ball was gone the instant Aaron connected.

"I'm afraid I did," he said. "I said a few words to the ground. Then I turned around and watched it go over the wall."

Billingham Mistake Ties Homer Mark

CINCINNATI (UPI) — Jack Billingham knew Atlanta's Hank Aaron had swatted his 714th career home run the moment the ball left his bat there Thursday afternoon.

"I knew by the way he swung," said the Cincinnati Reds pitcher. "At first I just sort of looked down at the ground, but then I thought I might as well watch it go out."

Billingham, who started in the Reds' 7th inning win, said the home run ball he dished up to Aaron was a sinker which didn't sink like it was supposed to.

"It just kind of sailed into him," said Billingham. "You make a mistake on him and it's gone."

Aaron was thrown a similar pitch in the third inning, Billingham said, and grounded out.

"Any game you pitch as bad as I did and win, you're going to be happy," said Billingham. "I marked this off as one of the four or five bad games I expect during the season."

The game was stopped for six minutes while Aaron was presented the baseball clobbered to tie Babe Ruth's all-time Major League homer record. Billingham said he was "irritated" by the delay and thought the ceremony should have been held after the inning was ended.

"It seemed like a half hour out there," said Billingham.

Tony Perez, the big hero for the Reds whose four runs batted in were overshadowed by Aaron's homer, said he wished the Atlanta slugger would get his next, and record-breaking, home run against Cincinnati's chief rival in the National League West, Los Angeles.

"As long as we won," said Perez, "I'm glad to see him get it (No. 714)."

It Looks Like Girls In Baseball To Be A Reality For New Jersey

TRENTON, N.J. (UPI) — New Jersey girls are a step closer to getting on all-boys Little League teams. The state Assembly narrowly rejected a one-year moratorium on a state order to allow them from the field.

A "Save the Little League" committee called Thursday for a delay to give local leagues time to train women coaches and prepare for the admission of girls. Some volunteers on the committee said they would cancel their seasons rather than allow girls to play this year.

Their next move awaits a decision by Little League, Inc., on whether to ask the state Supreme Court to review a ruling by the Superior Court's Appellate Division that the Little League cannot discriminate on the basis of sex.

The Little League, Inc. executive committee is scheduled to meet today in Williamsport, Pa.

Assemblyman Christopher Jackman, D-Hudson, sponsor of the moratorium, said the defeat by three votes apparently killed any effort to forestall the order to admit girls.

The proposal received 38 favorable votes, with 41 needed for passage. Forty assemblymen opposed it.

"I am not against little girls playing in the Little League," Jackman said, adding that the leagues were only asking for "a little time to implement the program." coaches do to boys when they get hit with a ball, Jackman said. "The average guy is not going to take a chance on going out and rubbing a 12-year old girl."

Los Angeles Falls To Bucks By 112-90

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI) — The offense collapsed, the defense withered and Los Angeles Lakers Coach Bill Sharman summed it all up with: "We'll have to do some soul searching now."

The Lakers fell victim of an awesome Milwaukee attack and smothering Bucks defense Thursday night, suffering a damaging 112-90 loss in the fourth game of their NBA Western Conference best-of-seven playoff series. It was the only NBA game scheduled Thursday night. In tonight's only game, Boston plays at Buffalo, leading in the series 2-1.

Kareem Abdul-Jabbar in tandem with forward Bob Dandridge dominated the Lakers and all but crushed any chance of Los Angeles winning the semifinal series.

"They did everything right and we did everything wrong," Sharman said.

Only twice has a team, down 3-1 in a playoff, comeback to win the series. Los Angeles did it the last time in 1969 against Phoenix. Milwaukee can wrap up the Western Conference title at home Sunday night.

"It might have been the worst game we played all year. It's a shame the game was on national television," said Sharman.

During just three quarters of play, Jabbar hit 12 for 18 and seven free throws for 31 points and grabbed 18 rebounds, while Dandridge netted 12 for 15 and two free throws for 24.

The Lakers started fast, pulling ahead 13-8. But the Bucks rallied to 52-39 lead by halftime and near the end of the third quarter the lead was stretched to 33 points.

Bicentennial Leaders To Meet

ABILENE — A large number of West Texas Bicentennial leaders are expected to be in Odessa April 18 to attend a West Texas Bicentennial Leaders

WTCC will hold its annual meeting in Odessa April 18-19-20.

The leaders meeting will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Inn of the Golden West with John Ben Shepperd, past president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and assistant to the president, El Paso Products Co. of Odessa, presiding.

"The meeting is being sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Cultural Affairs and Tourist and Travel Development committees, the Presidential Museum and American Revolution Bicentennial Commission of Texas and Odessa.

In the latest report of West Texas cities who are making plans for active participation in the bicentennial celebration are Plainview, Fort Worth, Amarillo, Big Spring, El Paso, Midland, Mineral Wells, Odessa, San Angelo, Wichita Falls, Lubbock, Del Rio, Arlington and Clarendon.

Plans and progress for a statewide bicentennial celebration in Texas will be told on Friday morning at a panel discussion of

"Bicentennial Opportunity for Energetic West Texas Leadership."

Burvin Hines of Arlington, chairman of WTCC Tourist and Travel Development Committee, and senior vice president of the First National Bank of Arlington, will moderate the discussion.

Appearing on the panel will be Thomas H. Barnett, Jr., chairman of the WTCC Cultural Affairs Committee and vice president, Nelman Marcus Company, Fort Worth; Mrs. Gene Brownrigg of Arlington, executive director, American Revolution Bicentennial Commission of Texas; and Mrs. Norma Selvidge of Clarendon, Donley County Bicentennial Committee.

The theme of the 1974 convention will be "West Texas... Energy - Energetic Leadership." President Emil Rassman of Midland has announced that Gov. Dolph Briscoe will address the convention at the annual banquet on Friday evening.

Congressman George Mahon, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, United States Congress, will be the principal speaker at the opening banquet Thursday evening.

Police, Truckers Fighting

CHICAGO (UPI) — In Illinois, and perhaps elsewhere, the police are having trouble with truckers who use short wave radio equipment to spread speed trap warnings.

Illinois authorities have begun to fight back, and if things go the way they often do it won't be long before the truckers fight back even harder and the whole affair may get escalated into a highly uncivil war.

As it stands now, the state highway patrolmen rarely can get close enough to a speeding truck to cite the driver for breaking the law.

And violations of the speed limit may be at a record high, simply because the speed limit is so low—55 miles per hour at the most.

Some of these long distance truck drivers don't even go that slow to change a tire. Energy crisis or not, they've been passing everything that moves below 80.

where their men are—they just monitor the truckers. Whether this situation has annoyed or pleased the troopers is speculative but it has irritated the motorists who don't have short-wave sets and who get caught by the troopers and passed by the truckers.

Motorists sometimes vote and this fact may have inspired activity on the part of Illinois officials, both Republican and Democrat. They've decided to find out if the Federal Communications Commission's rules permit the truckers to use the public air waves to tell each other where the cops are hiding.

Science Today

By ROBERT MUSEL
LONDON (UPI) — Dr. Bernard Dickens says science is moving too fast for the law, and the day may come when donors in artificial insemination cases find themselves financially liable for the children born of their seed.

Donors and recipients in artificial insemination are prevented from identifying each other and the donors are required to sign a declaration of disclaimer regarding the children, Dr. Dickens said.

"But the effectiveness of the disclaimer has never been (legally) tested," he wrote in an article in a forthcoming symposium, "Population — The New Biology," and because records exist which under judicial compulsion may have to be produced, the donor may claim the same rights and be made to bear the same obligations as any father of an illegitimate child.

Another legal problem that should be solved in its present early stage, he said, is the status and right to inheritance of a child born to a widow a year or more after her husband's death, using his sperm preserved by deep freezing.

This would have to be legally defined, he said, because "present tests of paternity obviously require conception during the husband's life time."

Dr. Dickens, who lectures at the College of Law in London, said there is some controversy over the legal and medical definitions of death.

"Legal" death is the absence of pulse and respiration. But the "medical" and "clinical" version considers death has occurred even in the presence of a heartbeat if there is irreversible brain damage or degeneration "depriving the body of its human animation."

"It may therefore occur," he said, "that transplantable organs are removed without the donor's consent from a body which the doctors consider dead but which the lawyers regard as still alive... an unresolved conflict exists between doctors and lawyers on this vital issue."

He mentioned problems that could arise if a woman could conceive a child and have the embryo transplanted to the body of another woman who would give it birth — now considered theoretically possible. He said it doesn't seem likely anyone but a close relative would agree to such a transplant, but the potential exists and thus so does a possible legal problem.

Dr. Dickens said that "new biological advances expressed in new techniques of producing life and extending life could at some time in the near future shatter the existing legal framework of understanding the nature of human life."

President John F. Kennedy was assassinated Nov. 22, 1963.

Price Testifies On Plan For Vet Disability

WASHINGTON — Congress should increase service-connected disability payments for veterans by 15 per cent, Congressman Bob Price has testified to the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

Price submitted testimony in support of a bill he introduced, earlier to provide such an increase. The Congressman noted that since Aug. 1, 1972 (the date of the last raise in veterans' disability payments) the cost-of-living index has risen 12.7 per cent, and said that with price controls set to expire April 30, "there is little assurance that this amount should not increase substantially in the immediate future."

"Since disability compensation rates do not automatically respond to changes in the cost of living, legislation should be enacted now which will allow for increases in the cost of living in the foreseeable future," Price said.

Price said he has received numerous letters from disabled veterans claiming hardship due to the low level of compensation.

He quoted one as writing, "Some of us die a little every day, but not from regret of our service to this wonderful country. We just ask for a little from you, and our fellow man, who can help us out."

ALLEN FAMILY BIRTHDAY
A birthday dinner celebrating March birthdays for the Allen family was held recently at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Allen. Among those whose birthdays were celebrated were Johnny Allen, Mrs. Ada Lou Lester, and their mother, Mrs. J.E. Allen.

INTERNATIONAL
Today is Friday, April 5, the 95th day of 1974 with 270 to follow. The moon is moving from its first quarter to full. The morning stars are Mercury, Venus and Jupiter. The evening stars are Saturn and Mars. Those born on this date are under the sign of Aries.

American Negro educator Booker T. Washington was born April 5, 1856.

On this day in history:
In 1614, Pocahontas, daughter of Indian Chief Powhatan, was married to English colonist John Rolfe in Virginia.

In 1951, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg of New York City were sentenced to death for stealing atomic secrets for Russia.

In 1964, Gen. Douglas MacArthur died at the age of 84.

In 1968, major American cities were hit by violent riots as an aftermath of the assassination of Martin Luther King.

American Negro leader Booker T. Washington said: "No race shall prosper till it learns that there is as much dignity in tilling a field as in writing a poem."

THE ODDS
SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Las Vegas gamblers may not know what the odds are that two players would draw a royal flush in the same poker game, but Allan L. Wilson says he does — it should happen once every 753,334,487 hands.

Two players actually did draw such an unlikely pairing at a poker table in a Las Vegas casino this week, but the pot was only $28. Under the rules of poker, they split it.

Experts said the odds that a single player would draw a royal flush were 649,766-to-one, but they did not know the chances of a double royal flush until Wilson, a computer expert who has written on gambling odds, worked it out.

WORRY CLINIC

Do you agree with Mildred's remarks about TV and radio commercials? If you were the sponsor, would you want your brief but costly 100 words of sales copy drowned out by loud sound effects in the background?

CASE Z-595: Mildred P., aged 56, is the older of my 2 sisters.

While she was down at our summer farm home, we happened to be viewing TV.

"If I ran a TV station," she irritably exclaimed, "I'd make sure the sound effects and music didn't drown out the spoken words!"

For example, I was watching Hawaii Five-O the other night.

And I didn't object to the sound effects men giving us the noise of the ocean surf, at least for a few seconds, to set the stage.

But they continued to make the dialogue of the actors by that loud booming of the ocean waves.

"We viewers, too, don't even like the sudden surge of excessive sound that signals the onset of the commercials."

The same has long been true of radio, for during its brief commercials — the power is routinely too strong, thus hampering the sponsor's words.

"Yet it is his money that is paying for the entire radio or TV program.

So why don't the sponsors get smart and make sure the viewers or listeners can hear the vital words of the movie stars and especially the sponsor's commercials?"

AMEN AND AMEN
To which I uttered a vociferous "Amen!"

For several years I conducted a 15-minute daily radio program on 129 of America's leading stations, including KYW, WGN, WOR, etc.

And it always irritated me to have the sound effects of music blare out during the commercials.

And I agree with my sister Mildred re the TV noise that often continues as a blaring backdrop for the more interesting dialogue.

"Dr. Crane," you may protest, "maybe the sound effects men try to wake up the viewers, especially when the commercials occur."

But a momentary blaring can set the stage for enough to avoid competing with the spoken dialogue.

Here in Chicago we had a famous restaurant that for 50 years advertised with this slogan:

"No orchestral din."

Many other restaurants could profitably adopt that same motto, for most people enjoy conversation with their meals, instead of blaring trumpets, clashing cymbals and other noisy backdrop effects.

Remember, it is the spoken words that carry the motif of a movie plot or TV play.

So let's have more Applied Psychology employed by our radio and TV media!

In the legitimate theater, we sit enthralled by the gestures, words and personal actions of the characters, without blaring sound effects in the background.

So why do you TV directors seem to be obsessed with a demand for raucous sound effects?

It's the play that holds our attention, not the noisy backdrop!

Many viewers now must even turn down the volume during commercials — and then increase it during the main scenario.

Send for my booklet "How to Write Salable Copy," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 25 cents, for it also applies to movie and TV scripts.

Witnesses Plan Easter Program

Jehovah's Witnesses locally will join with their more than 31,850 congregations worldwide in observing the anniversary of the death of Jesus Christ on April 7 at 7:30 p.m.

This one occasion that Jesus commanded his followers to observe occurs on Nisan 14 according to the sacred Jewish calendar and it corresponds to our April 7 date this year.

Eddie Ripley, local minister, will preside over the memorial celebration which is to be held at the Kingdom Hall at 17th and Coffee Sts. Last year, 3,994,924 attended throughout the earth and it is expected that it will reach a larger figure this year.

Since the memorial celebration falls on Sunday, the regular meetings for that day will be held on Saturday, April 6, at 10 p.m. Jehovah's Witnesses invite all to attend any of these meetings.
