13 Persons Injured In Tank Car Blast

DALLAS (AP) — Explosion of a railroad tank car injured 13 persons, set off flames that destroyed five houses and forced more than 200 persons to flee their homes early today.

A Red Cross spokesman said that in addition to the destroyed houses, 40 others suffered damage, mostly broken windows.

Of the injured, only one was taken to a hospital.

A switchman in the rail yards, Dan Anthony, 22, of Arlington, Tex., said he and fellow workers heard the roar of the derailment and ran to the scene.

"When the dust cleared," he said, "we saw the gas spewing out and settling into the residential area. We started for the office building and the explosion occurred."

Anthony said he and the others were hurled forward by the shock wave and one went through the office door onto the floor.

Dallas residents told of hearing the blast at points more than one mile distant and the flames were visible far across the city.

Officials said the cause of the derailment which presumably touched off the explosion had not been determined.

Wholesale Prices Up Last Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new surge in food prices pushed up wholesale prices faster last month than in March and April, while the nation's unemployment rate remained unchanged at 5.9 per cent.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said today farm products rose 1.4 per cent in May after declining the two previous months. Largely as a result of that, wholesale prices of all commodities rose 0.6 per cent after slight increases the two months before.

The nation's jobless rate failed to show any improvement despite a slight increase in the total number of persons holding jobs. The bureau said 5.9 per cent of the work force was still looking for jobs, the same percentage as in April and March.

The wholesale price news appeared to spell a setback for President Nixon's program of wage and price controls.

The wholesale price index rose 0.6 per cent, or 0.5 per cent on a seasonally adjusted basis.

One encouraging note was the index of industrial commodities, where controls appear to have the most effect. These rose 0.3 per cent in May, the same as in March and a little below the 0.4 per cent of April.

When seasonal factors are discounted, wholesale prices of industrial commodities rose 0.4 per cent, the same as in April.

The most discouraging news for consumers was in the wholesale prices of farm products and processed foods and feeds, most of which are not controlled.

These had fallen 0.4 per cent in March and 0.7 per cent in April, but jumped 1.4 per cent last month. On a seasonally adjusted basis, the increase was still 0.8 per cent.

Especially distressing to housewives was a 4.5 per cent increase in livestock prices, renewing pressure on supermarket prices of meats.

The unemployment figures showed little change in all categories. The jobless rate for adult men was unchanged at 4.3 per cent while the rate for adult women rose 0.5 per cent to 5.9 per cent.

President Nixon's Speech Receives Mixed Reaction

PAMPAN INJURED—Steve Richardson, 1819 Evergreen, was reported in good condition at Highland General Hospital this morning following a one-car accident yesterday afternoon. According to the report of Department of Public Safety Officers, Richardson lost control of his car leaving 400 feet of skid marks before it turned over in the ditch. The driver was pinned in the wreckage for a time. The accident occurred near the north city limits on Highway 70. (Staff Photo)

Congress May Approve Arms Limitation Accord

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's report to Congress on the U.S.-Soviet arms accord drew enthusiastic cheers, condemnation from several Democrats who saw it as a campaign speech and general agreement that the Moscow accords will win legislative approval.

A booming "Yea," primarily from the Republican side of the House chamber, greeted the President as he arrived to report to a joint session of Congress Thursday night.

In the halls afterward, Republicans and many Democrats said the President had made a balanced appeal for congressional approval of the two arms-limitation agreements.

Other Democrats expressed disappointment in harsh terms.

"He had good prime time to talk to the American public with an eye on the November elections," said House Democratic Whip Thomas P. O'Neill Jr. of Massachusetts. "And he didn't tell us a thing we didn't already know."

Democratic presidential contender Sen. George McGovern, campaigning in California, said the absence of all but a passing reference to Vietnam was a "painful weakness" in the address. He pledged support for the agreements, however.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., heading up Democratic platform hearings in Pittsburgh, also noted that Vietnam was barely touched on. Until the war is resolved, he said, "We have not fully achieved our goals for real peace in the world."

Republican Rep. John Ashbrook, seeking his party's presidential nomination, accused Nixon of keeping parts of the agreement secret. Detailing comparisons of Soviet and American weapons capabilities growing from the agreements, Ashbrook said the Soviets "could deploy significantly more weapons than we could."

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., who earlier had complained the Moscow accords "give the Soviets more of everything," called Nixon's nationally broadcast report "a clever campaign speech on foreign policy, full of platitudes and generalities signifying nothing."

Leaders in both the House and Senate predicted Congress will approve the strategic-arms-limitation talks-SALT agreements but set no time-table pending more information.

Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., refused comment on the President's report. So did Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield.

But Senate Armed Services Committee Chairman John C. Stennis, D-Miss., praised the President for making a "good presentation of what he has done." He said the arms agreements stand "a good chance for approval by the Congress."

Reporting that the Moscow summit laid the foundation for a new U.S.-Soviet relationship, President Nixon has quickly asked Congress for approval of the landmark superpower missile pact "to check the wasteful and dangerous spiral of nuclear arms."

Nixon's plea to a half-filled joint session of Congress Thursday night—where he hurried straight-away upon his return to Andrews Air Force Base—won wide praise but enough criticism to show the SALT accords will face some stiff debate.

Nixon called congressional leaders to the White House today before heading for a Florida vacation. The SALT treaty

Corruption Investigation Continues In Legislature

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Investigators and grand juries are probing deep into the state legislature to weed out corruption on the part of elected officials with the resulting scandal upsetting the balance of Texas political power.

Seven legislators or former legislators have either been convicted or indicted in connection with misuse of public funds, conspiracy to accept bribes, or violation of state nepotism laws, more indictments are promised.

The incumbent governor received less than 10 per cent of the vote in the recent Democratic primary.

The lieutenant governor, bidding for the governorship, although never implicated in the scandals, was swept off the Texas political map by the same reformist broom.

The record:

—House Speaker Gus Mutscher, his aide Rush McGinty and State Rep. Tommy Shannon all were convicted of conspiracy to accept bribes from a Houston businessman.

—Former State Rep. Walter Knapp was sentenced last week to four years in prison on conviction of using $1,200 worth of the state's postage stamps to buy a pickup truck.

—State Rep. Tom Holmes of Granbury was indicted last week on charges of diverting $1,995 worth of postage stamps to buy another pickup truck.

—Former State Rep. Hudson Moyer of Amarillo was indicted on charges of using $5,040 worth of postage stamps as partial repayment of a $6,000 bank loan.

—Former State Sen. David Ratliff of Stamford and State Rep. John Allen of Longview were indicted last week on charges they conspired to hire each other's children. The children allegedly held other full-

County Has Only 2 Constable Races In Tomorrow's Run-off

By RAY BAXTER

Saturday's "runoff" election bids fair to become a "runaway" with more than one and one-quarter million votes predicted. Interest lies in two extremes: the Democratic gubernatorial race and hotly campaigned local contests across the state.

In Gray County the latter is the constable's race in Precinct Two. This is closely followed by one at the same level in Precinct One.

In the Pampa precinct the original slate was so long it was referred to as "we, the people." It boiled down to a runoff between Jesse B. Goad and R.R. "Bob" Watson. Candidate interest was precipitated by the decision of long-time incumbent, Bill Doggett, not to seek the office again.

At Lefors, the contest simmered down to R. Ben White and incumbent W.R. Combs in the runoff.

The race for Democratic nominee for governor is running strong between Uvalde rancher Dolph Briscoe and State Rep. Frances "Sissy" Farenthold, the first serious feminine contender for the governor's chair since the days of "Ma" Ferguson.

So heated has been this campaign that Henry C. "Hank" Grover, contender for the Republican nomination for state chief executive, has been directing his guns at both Briscoe and Mrs. Farenthold rather than Albert Bel Fay, his GOP opponent.

The governor level is the only runoff decision Republicans will be making. This prompted a warning and orders to election officials from the secretary of state for Texas.

In the past "crossover" voting has been done on a large scale. This is a violation of Texas election laws and punishable by stiff fines. Many state Republicans with no GOP candidates at local levels have switched to help a friend or preferred candidate. Election officials have been told to "crack down" on this practice.

Some 1,300 crossover votes were cast in one district in the 1968 elections.

The contest for nomination for U.S. senator has been conducted almost exclusively in the state's metropolitan centers since the May election. One-time senator Ralph W. Yarborough is challenging Barefoot Sanders for the privilege of facing Republican Sen. John Tower in the November general election.

Wayne Connally and Bill Hobby have been going hammer-and-tongs for the lieutenant governor nomination. Connally has had the advantage (or disadvantage depending on the point of view) of the family name background. Hobby has had the power (and wealth) of the press (which his family owns) for his sounding board.

The other pair on the ballot are Robert S. Calvert and James Wilson seeking the post of Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Polls will be open 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. Saturday. Republicans will have only one voting place in the county while Democratic boxes have been reduced to seven.

GOP voters will cast their ballots in the city commission room at the Pampa City Hall.

Pampans who vote in precincts 2, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12 and 14 will vote at the Gray County court house Precinct One will vote at the Lefors Civic Center, Precinct Three at Grandview School, Precinct Four at Alanreed School, Precinct Five at the McLean American Legion Hall, Precinct Six at Laketon Store and Precinct Eleven at Hopkins School.

While county voters are still caught up in the heat of runoff balloting, county Democratic leaders are already more concerned with the choice of the person to head the Texas

Federal Court Judge Opposes Wiretapping

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A judge has declared unconstitutional the 1968 federal law allowing wiretapping on grounds that it puts "the privacy of every citizen in jeopardy."

U.S. District court Judge Joseph S. Lord III made the ruling Thursday in connection with a motion by seven defendants in an alleged $10 million gambling case who sought to suppress evidence gathered by electronic surveillance.

U.S. Atty. Peter Vaira, chief of the Justice Department's strike force on organized crime here, discounted any immediate effect the ruling would have.

Poll Shows McGovern Ahead Of HHH

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sen. George McGovern is rated the runaway leader in a poll of California Democrats ready to vote in the state's pivotal presidential primary Tuesday. Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey called the survey baloney.

The California poll by opinion analyst Mervin D. Field gave McGovern a 20 per cent lead in advance of the primary, an election which the South Dakota senator says is likely to determine who wins the Democratic nomination for the White House.

Humphrey called the poll figures "nonsense, baloney."

"A 20-point lead at this time for a candidate is not possible," he said in Bakersfield.

McGovern himself said he had not "felt the margin was that much."

Even before the figures were published today, the McGovern organization had made an effort to play down his reading to avoid the risk involved in casting him as a landslide favorite.

The poll rated McGovern at 46 per cent of the vote, Humphrey at 26 and Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, who is not on the ballot, third with 8 per cent.

Wallace Leads His Opponents In Popularity

WASHINGTON (AP) — If popular votes were delegates, George C. Wallace would be leading the race for the Democratic presidential nomination.

In 16 primaries with some kind of presidential preference voting Wallace has accumulated 3,407,453 votes, compared with 2,372,755 for George McGovern.

But McGovern has 497½ convention delegates lined up and predicts he will have 1,300 by the time the Democratic National Convention opens in Miami Beach July 10. Wallace has 323 delegates—about the number he is expected to take to the convention.

McGovern, more than one million votes behind Wallace, isn't even in second place in popular votes. He trails Hubert H. Humphrey's 2,654,906, although Humphrey is in third place with 295½ delegates.

Wallace has entered 13 primaries and won five of them, finishing second in another five. Humphrey has won four of 13, coming in second four times. McGovern has won five of 12 and finished second three times.

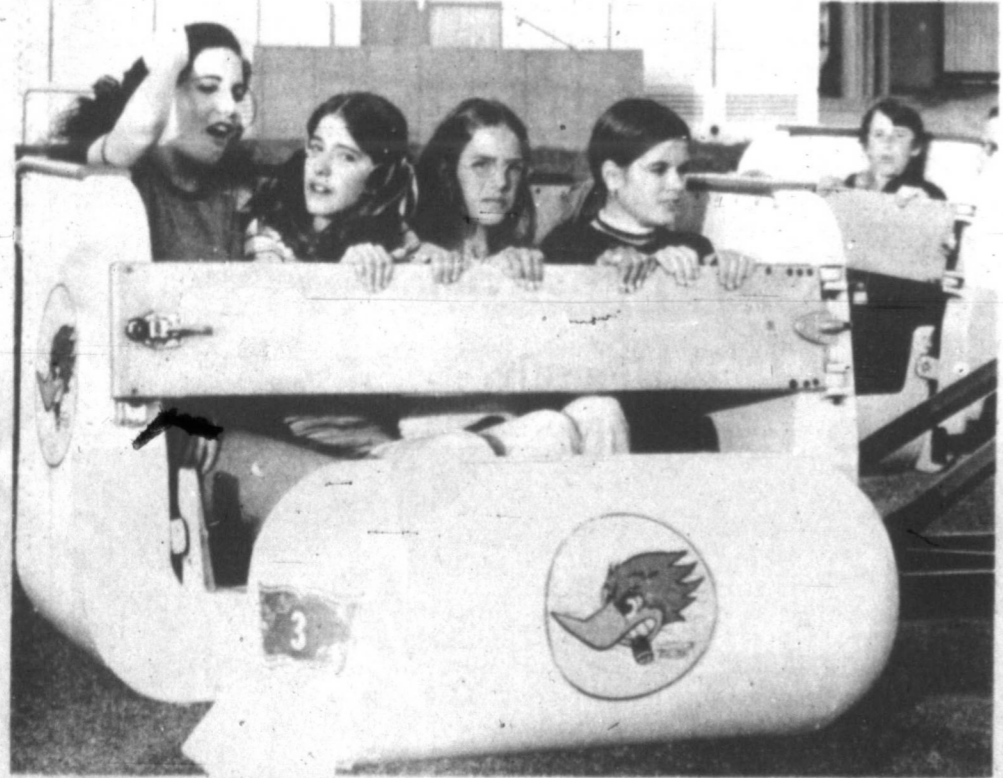

Fashion Show, And Beauty Contest Set

The annual Fall Fashion Show and Miss Top o' Texas Beauty Pageant, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, has been scheduled for Saturday night, Aug. 12, at 8 p.m. in the new M.K. Brown Auditorium.

Pampa stores will be showing the latest in fall fashions, and beautiful girls will be vying for the honor of "Miss Top o' Texas."

Neighboring towns in the Top o' Texas area also will be invited to sponsor a contestant in the beauty pageant. A cash prize of $250 will go to the winner.

A director for the show will be selected within the next few days and final details announced, according to J.C. Roberts and Ken Platner, co-chairman of the Retail Trade Committee of the chamber.

ARE YOU SURE ABOUT THIS?—Four young girls are getting ready to ride the Scrambler during activities at the annual "Pride of Pampa" carnival currently underway at Coronado Shopping Center. Not all of them seem to be completely assured about the ride. From left are Carol Tarpley, Margaret Thompson, Mary Sidwell and Lindy Laycock, all 14. Pampa To Celebrate Fourth Of July With 'Honor America Day' Program

Pampa will join with other cities and towns throughout the United States on July 4 with an Honor America Day program and free fireworks display at Recreation Park.

Chamber of Commerce President Roy Sparkman, commenting on the program today, said "The Fourth of July will mark the 196th anniversary of the founding of our nation, and it is both fitting and proper that we pause in everyday activities to honor our great nation with appropriate ceremonies."

Communities throughout the nation are declaring the 1972 Independence Day as Honor America Day in an effort to encourage an expression of appreciation for the blessings and greatness of the U.S.

The local program will be held in the Top O' Texas Rodeo Arena at Recreation Park and will get underway at 7:30 p.m. with games and contests arranged by the Gray County Chamber of Commerce with Richard Guggisberg and Andy Smith in charge.

Following the contests will be a colorful 30-minute extravaganza put on by the Kuwadi Indian Dancers of Amarillo. The group will consist of some 35 highly-costumed dancers doing authentic routines of their Indian ancestors.

The program will be climaxed by a brief patriotic ceremony including presentation of the colors, invocation, the National Anthem, and an Honor America Day address by Gray County Sheriff Rufe Jordan, followed immediately by the giant free fireworks display furnished by the Burnett Fireworks Company of Enid, Okla., and fired by the local fire department.

The program, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, is traditional in Pampa. It started some 15 years ago and has annually attracted huge crowds to Recreation Park. The program is financed through contributions from local business firms, professional people, and individuals in the Pampa area.

People from the entire Top O' Texas vicinity are extended a cordial invitation to be in Pampa for this annual July 4 event to join in honoring America.

Over 150 Youths Able To Find Summer Jobs: TEC Manager

By LARRY HOLLIS
With school turning out for the summer last week, a number of youth are out looking for employment.

And the Youth Employment Service, operated in the Texas Employment Commission office, is helping many young men and women to find a job.

Bill Ragsdale, TEC manager, expects 300 to 400 applications this summer in the YES program, sponsored jointly by the Top O' Texas Kiwanis Club, Pampa Key Club and TEC.

About 150-200 will be placed in jobs through the program, Ragsdale said. More will get jobs outside of the YES program.

"The whole crop of youth seem pretty eager to work," Ragsdale said.

He said the attitude towards work has changed from what it was several years ago. The young people seem to be aware of the general labor market. They realize they are being hired to work, not just as a favor, Ragsdale said.

Prospects for finding work are up slightly from last year, the manager noted.

Most boys 18 and older will probably find work within two to three weeks. Many of the boys from 16 to 18 will find a job and some under 16, Ragsdale said.

Girls will have the most difficulty in obtaining employment, as there are almost always more applicants than jobs.

"The surprising thing about most of these people," Ragsdale explained, "is the abilities they have."

Many often acquire skills through hobbies, studies and various high school programs.

The high school cooperative vocational programs have been a great help, Ragsdale said. Often an employer who hired a student during the school year will keep the student on during the summer.

The YES program is actually a year-round program but the greatest emphasis is placed during the summer.

Two young people—John Willis, a student at the University of Texas at El Paso, and Mary E. Landers, a senior at Pampa High School—are in the office during the day to help in registering the young people under the YES program.

Among the general jobs that can be filled by youth are lawn mowing, yard work, clean up jobs, fence painting, repair work, baby sitting, car washing and polishing, farm and ranch work, fence riding, delivery service and care of pets.

Among the positions for girls are typist, general office clerk, sales clerk, hospital work and stenography.

"We've got the kids and we're looking for the jobs," Ragsdale said.

Householders and other potential employers wanting to hire youth can call YES at 669-3385.

GENESIS HOUSE BOARD—New officers of the Genesis House board of directors look over plans for the "flea market," to be held from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday at 106 S. Cuyler. They are, left to right, Mrs. Martin Hager, secretary 1712 Holly; Joe Pafford, 1913 Lynn, chairman; and Mrs. Don Boddy, 1913 Faulkner, treasurer. Not shown is Ed Myatt, 2120 Charles, vice chairman.

Nat'l Monument Tours Will Start Tomorrow

Tours of Alibates National Monument, near Lake Meredith, will begin on a temporary basis tomorrow.

The monument will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 7 p.m., with the last tour of the day starting at 6 p.m.

The tours will be conducted daily throughout June on an experimental basis to commemorate the National Parks Centennial, James M. Thomson, monument superintendent, said.

At the end of June the monument may be closed again with tours offered on a reservation basis only or it might remain open during the weekends.

Since March, 1970, tours have been limited by lack of personnel.

Currently signs have been placed to direct visitors from Alibates Road to the monument. Drivers are advised that the 3-mile dirt road has protruding rocks.

The guided tours of the quarries would require about an hour to walk the 1.2 miles over a rough trail. The hike is not recommended for persons with heart trouble or emphysema.

Survivors include her husband, L. D. Moore; one son, Kenneth Ahler of Amarillo; two daughters, Mrs. Emily Farmer of Amarillo and Mrs. Delores Pehdelton of Stinnett; one brother, Loyd Lee of Wheeler; one sister, Mrs. Artie Lee Hunt of Lubbock; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Texas Hoping To Get Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Preston Smith of Texas said Thursday he is hopeful his state can get an estimated $125 million in federal social service funds, including some funds for fiscal year 1972, which ends June 30.

Smith said he has received encouraging words from federal officials about Texas' attempts to qualify for the funds, which were provided beginning in 1967 to supplement such varied services as those to orphans, mentally retarded persons, youth, the elderly and welfare clients.

Mainly About People

School Leaders Review Audio-Visual Post
Members of the Pampa school board met in executive session at 4 p.m. Thursday to clarify the state of audio-visual instruction at Pampa High School.

Aubrey Nooncaster, at one time chairman of the English department at high school, had been serving as A-V instruction director and teaching English classes.

He was assigned to this position under another administrator and there have been some changes in board membership since creation of the position. Therefore it was decided to apprise the board of the position and the work entailed.

Following this review, it was decided that Nooncaster and Dr. James Malone, school superintendent, work with the new principal to determine the status of audio-visual instruction in the high school.

Dr. Malone, in reporting the meeting, stressed that it did not involve any cross purposes at any point. It was simply to study a situation created in a different administrative climate. Since it did involve personnel, it was conducted as an executive session.

Miami Sets Cow-Calling Competition

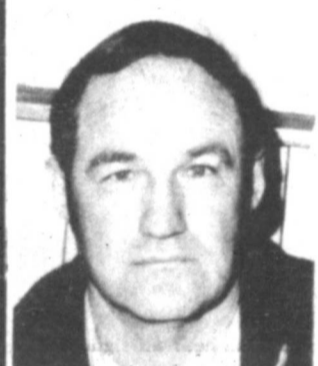

Miami-Festivities for the 24th Annual National Cow-Calling Contest begin tonight at 8 in the Miami high school. The Frontier Follies are on the agenda this evening with the balance of the entertainment coming tomorrow.

Saturday morning a fly-in is scheduled for 8 at the airport and there will be an old-timers reunion at 9 in the community center.

Roberts County Park is the scene for the afternoon's events. A barbeque will begin at noon and the cow-calling competition will be at 1.

The finals of the beauty contest will follow at 2 and the celebration will conclude at 3 with a team roping contest in the rodeo arena.

Should a man who signed the Sharpstown Bank bills be number two man in Texas?

Do you believe a man like Wayne Connally should be rewarded with a bigger job?

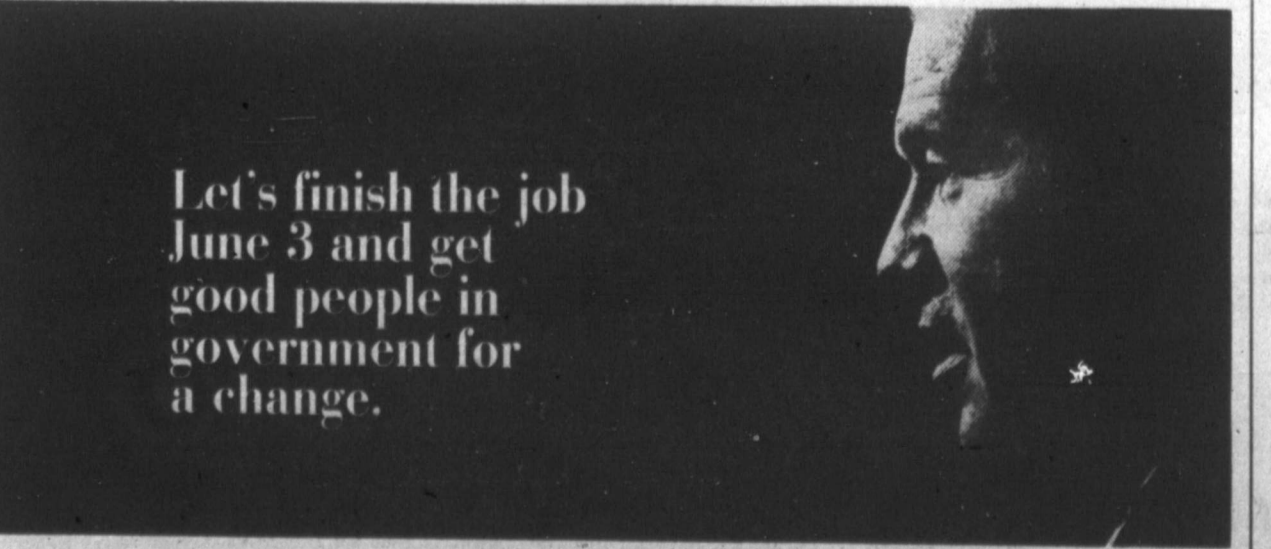

- He signed, approved and urged the passage of the Sharpstown Bank bills.
- He voted for a tax on medicine and food.
- He voted against an ethics bill.
- He has said he sees nothing wrong with an 11% sales tax.
- He is backed and controlled by Austin lobbyists.

He is part of the problem, involved with the same power peddlers who are now in their last ditch fight. After 8 years in state government, if Wayne Connally had any answers wouldn't we have heard them by now?

Only Bill Hobby is free to end the era of disgrace and dishonesty in Austin. As a businessman and problem solver he can give us the best management of our tax dollars that Texas has ever had. His is a voice of reason, of good judgment and logic. We don't need more taxes. More corruption in Austin. We need Bill Hobby.

Only Bill Hobby will make a good Lt. Governor.

Honestly.

Let's finish the job June 3 and get good people in government for a change.

Amorous teacher gets 'F' for pursuit

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1972 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: I've heard of students having crushes on their teachers, but what about the teacher who has a crush on a student?

There's this 14-year-old girl in one of my classes who is just beautiful. I can't keep my eyes off her even tho she is half my age.

Do other teachers have problems like this? What's to be done? My class is her favorite class. I don't believe in anonymous letters so I will sign my name, but please respect my need for anonymity. TEMPTED TEACHER

DEAR TEACHER: Teachers have crushes on students for the same reason students have crushes on teachers. Immaturity. [I refer to a 14-year-old panting after a 28-year-old, and vice versa.] What's to be done? Admire her from afar and keep your eyes, your thoughts [and everything else] off her. Small wonder your class is her "favorite." You've telegraphed your feelings to her, and she got the message.

DEAR ABBY: I live near a lovely elderly couple who buried their only daughter two years ago.

Before this daughter's death she started an afghan for her mother. She was about three-quarters finished when she passed away, poor soul. Well, I love to do needlework and had plenty of time, so I offered to finish the afghan. My neighbor said she would be grateful if only I would.

I finished it gladly, and when I presented it to my neighbor we both cried.

Abby, I was so happy to do that small favor for my neighbor, but she spoiled it all when she gave me a beautiful appreciation card with a $20 bill in it. I was so hurt I just didn't know what to do. I didn't want any pay. I felt it was an honor to finish something her daughter had started for her.

I still want to return the $20, but my husband says I will hurt her feelings something terrible. Please help me decide. HURT

DEAR HURT: Consider the woman's feelings. She expressed her appreciation in a manner that she thought fitting. Don't fault her. I think your husband is right.

DEAR ABBY: "HARD OF HEARING" asks, "So what do I do when I cup my ear and strain to hear until I am nearly exhausted, and people look at me as tho to say, 'I'll give this cheap dumb cluck who's deaf and won't wear a hearing aid a hard time and refuse to speak up?'"

Let me tell you about a friend of mine. He wears a dummy hearing aid, which looks exactly like a real one, but isn't. His explanation:

"I have a partial hearing loss, but I can hear all right if people will speak up. But for some strange reason they resent being told to speak up. I used to wear a real hearing aid, which as soon as it was discovered, caused everyone to talk so loudly to me they practically shattered my eardrum. So now I wear a dummy hearing aid, which causes people to speak up as soon as they see it."

MRS. H.: ROSWELL, N. MEX.

DEAR MRS. H.: Hear, hear!

DEAR ABBY: I was pleased with your handling of the Reverend Problem in Meadville, Pa.

I am a 76-year-old retired Lutheran pastor and I do not resent it when someone says, "Good morning, Reverend." Some people do not always remember my last name.

Doctors are called "Doctor," and Catholic priests are called "Father," and rabbis are called "Rabbi," so why is our friend in Meadville so sensitive?

Borger 'Fish Fry' Planned

The ninth annual Borger "Fish Fry" will be held from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday at the Aluminum Dome.

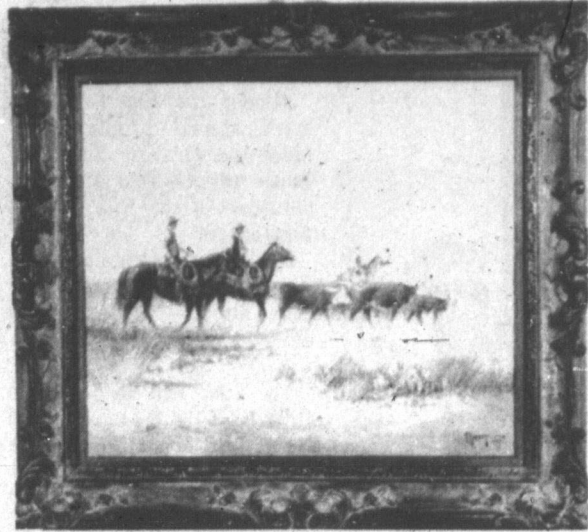

The fish fry is expected to draw seven to 10 thousand people to the Dome for fish, potatoes, salad and all the trimmings, according to Commodore Leonard Riley.

The Borger Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with numerous retailers, is providing various door prizes to be awarded during the festivities.

Continuous drawings will be held at the dome during the serving hours.

Tickets at the door will be $1.50.

Advance tickets for $1 may be purchased at Barney's Pharmacy, Borger Drug and Gift, the Chamber of Commerce, First National Bank, Lindsey Furniture and Panhandle Bank and Trust, all in Borger.

ON EXHIBIT—Above is a sample of the works by G. Harvey of Austin, noted artist, that will be exhibited at Security Federal Savings and Loan Association. The Association commissioned three Western paintings by Harvey. An open house and reception for the public to meet the artist will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday. (Smith Studio)

Pampa Youth On Honor Roll

A Pampa student was one of 49 students named to one of three honor rolls for spring semester at Southwestern Assemblies of God College at Waxahatche, Tex.

Lonny Robbins, a Pampa fresman majoring in education, was named to the Junior College Dean's List.

Ten students made the President's Honor Roll with a straight-A 3.0 grade point average. Twelve were selected for the Bible College Dean's List and 27 for Junior College Dean's List, both requiring at least a 2.5 grade point average.

WINS RUDEL AWARD NEW YORK (AP) — The annual Julius Rudel Award has been given to John L. DeMain, 28, who is presently associate conductor of the NET Opera Theater.

DeMain, who is from Youngstown, Ohio, will be an apprentice to Julius Rudel, director of the New York City Opera, in order to learn about the musical and artistic direction of an opera company.

The award carries a $3,000 grant and the opera company will pay him a salary. The award was first won three years ago by Christopher Keene, now a regular member of the New York City Opera's staff.

Western paintings commissioned by Security Federal Savings and Loan Association.

An open house and reception for the public to meet the artist will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the Association's building.

Other of his recent works and bronzes will be on display.

Honors given to Harvey include the New Masters Award in the Grand National Exhibition and a life membership in the Grand Central Galleries in New York City.

His works have been exhibited with the American Artists Professional League at the Lever House in New York; Allied Artists at the National Academy in New York; the Academic Artists Association at Springfield, Mass.; the Coppini Academy and the White Memorial Museum in San Antonio, and the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum in Canyon.

Called President Lyndon B. Johnson's favorite artist, several of his works were hung in the White House during Johnson's administration.

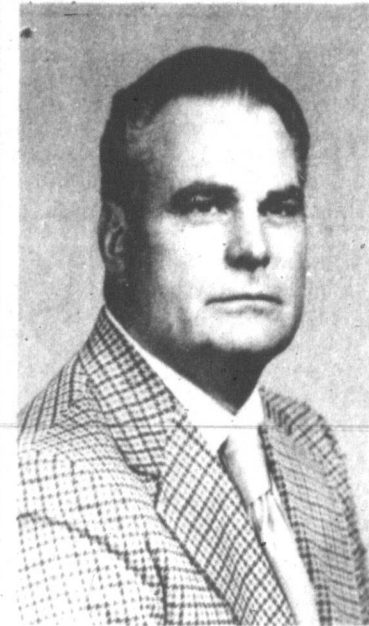

In 1969 he was commissioned to execute 12 paintings of several locations on the Johnson ranch. His works also hang in the home of John Connally.

Within the past two years, Harvey has created bronze sculptures cast in Italy.

Senior Center Corner

By Linnie Lester

There were 51 senior citizens present at the meeting Thursday at the Lovett Library.

Door prizes were awarded to Mrs. Rosa Lee Wedge and Elmer Melton.

Hostesses serving sandwiches, coffee and cookies were Mmes. L.J. Barber, Ann Briden, Chester Williams, Jerome Warner, and Miss Jimmie Lou Wainscott, all members of home demonstration clubs.

Sponsoring Altrusans present were Mrs. Louise Sewell, chairman; and Mmes. Lora Dunn, Lalar Wilkerson, Olive Hills, Gertrude Barber and Lillian Shaw.

Miss Jay Flanagan is reported to be ill. R.W. Tucker is in Worley Hospital. Mrs. Margaret Connally is in the Pampa Nursing Home. We miss these who were so faithful and hope they will soon be back with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ellis and children of Amarillo visited their grandmother, Mrs. Rosa Lee Wedge, last weekend.

Mrs. Marie O'Mara reports she had a nice trip to El Paso where she attended the wedding of her granddaughter.

Mrs. Edith Lawrence attended the graduation of her grandson, Brent Stephens, at Groom Tuesday.

Guests in the home of Miss Lucy Herlacher last Tuesday were her sister, Mrs. W.H. Farbox, and two nieces, Mrs. James Hair and Haley Marie Hair, both of Spearman.

Mrs. Pearl Erwin, Pampa Nursing Home, is reported to be doing nicely.

Mrs. Ruby Stovall is now touring Europe with a group from this area. She will be gone for three weeks.

Senior Center members received a letter from Mrs. Gladys King, former member, now living in Bixley, Okla., stating she misses everyone. She reported the senior citizens meet there once a month.

J.P. Stephens is very faithful in bringing homemade candy treats to the Center each Thursday.

CHEESE STRATA
 A reader's request.
 12 slices bread, sliced
 1/2 pound cheddar cheese, sliced
 4 eggs
 2 1/2 cups milk
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
 Leave the crusts on the bread or cut them off, just as you like. Arrange 6 slices of the bread in the bottom of a glass oblong 2-quart buttered baking dish (13 1/2 by 8 3/4 by 1 3/4 inches) or similar utensil. Cover with the cheese, then with the remaining bread. In a medium mixing bowl beat the eggs slightly; add milk, salt and mustard and beat to combine; pour over the bread in the baking dish. Let stand 1 hour. Bake in a preheated 325 degree oven for 1 hour. Makes 6 servings.

Million Dollar Bike Ride Set
 Mrs. Hunter Chisum of Pampa has been appointed by Danny Thomas to serve as campaign chairman for the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Million Dollar Bike Ride in Pampa. ESA is an international women's service organization, with several chapters in this area.
 ESA's Million Dollar Bike Ride is a benefit for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, designed to raise $1,000,000 in donations to support research and patient care. St. Jude Hospital is located at Memphis, Tenn., where its staff is involved in finding cures for catastrophic childhood diseases. The hospital, founded by Danny Thomas, is making strides toward finding cures for leukemia and other diseases which kill millions of children each year.
 The local bike ride of 15 miles will be held in approximately four weeks, with support from volunteer bike riders and community sponsorship. A national bike ride will begin July 3 in Washington, D.C. This group will be traveling coast-to-coast collecting funds raised from local ESA bike rides. A check for over $1,000,000 will be presented to Danny Thomas in Los Angeles, Calif., the first of September.
 For more information, call Mrs. Hunter Chisum at 665-4610.

Your Horoscope

SATURDAY, JUNE 3
 Your birthday today: Adventure characterizes the main experience of life this year; it is up to you to react positively and enjoy it. There are many opportunities for experiment and inspiration, but not many openings for application until the last few weeks of the year. Today's natives have strong interest in narrow specialized subjects, and like traveling.

Aries [March 21-April 19]: Your planning produces strange results, and it takes all day to figure out what may have interfered with expected results.

Taurus [April 20-May 20]: Life is lively or vexing with petty annoyances, according to how you look at it. Shield your loved ones from needless complaint.

Gemini [May 21-June 20]: You go along with most people on a drift away from normal plans, have some fun, waste some time. Social affairs promise enjoyment this evening.

Cancer [June 21-July 22]: Sticking to the familiar is likely what you'd most prefer doing, but it simply can't happen—the old groove changes, and some habits are done for the last time.

Leo [July 23-Aug. 22]: Your time and attention on behalf of others creates a richer future for you. This evening's dilemma will give you much to think about.

Virgo [Aug. 23-Sept. 22]: Relax and enjoy the day. Routine chores are to be taken as games, shared like Tom Sawyer's whitewashed fence.

Libra [Sept. 23-Oct. 22]: Your tendency to dwell on pleasure relieves some psychological pressure elsewhere, gives you time and the mood to turn your opinions around.

Scorpio [Oct. 23-Nov. 21]: The general excitement of the day tends to insure little actual work being done. Later hours restore the balance but require reflection.

Sagittarius [Nov. 22-Dec. 21]: Since nothing will be easy or convenient, make a sensible choice and do only what is urgent. Home life conflicts with almost all other activities.

Capricorn [Dec. 22-Jan. 19]: People around you are sociably inclined, but unlikely to contribute anything to your career or immediate personal resources.

Aquarius [Jan. 20-Feb. 18]: Reflection opens your eyes to faults and positive merits. Don't take advantage of new insight too quickly; give yourself time to think.

Pisces [Feb. 19-March 20]: Cooperation comes readily for most casual purposes. Don't make overly-heavy demands on those offering assistance. A balance is needed.

Senator Introduces Legislation To Keep Safety Belts In Autos

WASHINGTON—Barney Oldfield made history in 1922 by putting seat belts on his Indianapolis 500 race car.

Today, 50 years later, seat belts are in the news again.

All cars made after January 1 this year must have warning signals to remind drivers and front seat passengers if they fail to buckle-up.

The federal regulation is an attempt to cut the nation's traffic accident toll which claims 55,000 lives annually.

Of those, about 40,000 are passengers in motor vehicles. The Department of Transportation believes 20,000 might live if everyone used the lap and shoulder belts available to them.

The 1972 belt system are more convenient to use. They stow away on retracting reels and have a single buckle to secure both lap and shoulder portions.

The belts also lock automatically at the proper length to keep occupants securely positioned, thereby providing the greatest amount of protection.

The warning system—a buzzer and "Fasten Belts" sign on the instrument panel—goes on when the car is driven with belts not buckled, or if the right front passenger isn't buckled-up. When the front passenger position is empty, a seat sensor keeps the unbuckled belt from activating the reminders.

If you have purchased a 1972 model, or are riding in a car with one of the new systems for the first time, the American Safety Belt Council offers some tips to make your motoring more convenient:

(1) Get the habit of buckling-up before the car's motor is started. That way, you'll never hear the reminder buzzer or see the "Fasten Belt" message.

(2) Attach shoulder belt to the lap belt buckle before buckling-up. It's easier, and the combination of lap belt and shoulder harness provide optimum safety.

(3) It is important to pull the lap belt from the retractor, completely across the lap in one, smooth, non-stop motion. Then, once buckled, the lap belt will automatically lock at the proper length.

Automatic locking is the special feature of these belts, for it assures a proper fit each time the belts are buckled. But this feature may also confuse some motorists.

If the pulling motion is stopped before the belt is far enough across the lap to be buckled, the locking mechanism engages, preventing further withdrawal of the belt from the retractor.

BACKING SAFETY BELTS—Safety belts should continue to be required safety equipment on automobiles, says U.S. Senator Marlow Cook (R-Ky.), who recently introduced legislation to make sure the Department of Transportation doesn't eliminate the safety belt requirement from present regulations. Cook noted failure of air bags in recent DOT tests as one good reason for keeping seat belts until alternative means of providing occupant safety are proved safe, reliable and effective.

The answer to this premature locking is simple. Let go of the belt so it will retract all the way, then pull it out again—this time far enough to meet the buckle.

Seat belts have been mandatory equipment for several years, but unless more people begin using them the alternative proposed by the federal government—possibly restraints, possibly air bags—may add as much as $300 to the cost of a car.

A recent report by the Office of Science and Technology states that "The air bag cost is substantially higher, and the predicted benefit is no greater, than the corresponding cost and benefit of the well-known, time-tested, three-point belt harness system."

The value and effectiveness of seat belts is documented in studies of 28,780 accidents by Volvo, the Swedish automaker. Non-belted occupants sustained fatal injuries at speeds as low as 12 mph, whereas none of the belted occupants was fatally injured at accident speeds below 60 mph.

A similar study by a General Motors researcher last year showed 99 per cent of the belted occupants in 235 cases suffered only minor injuries or none at all, although 60 per cent of their vehicles showed heavy damage of the type associated with occupant injury.

U.S. Senator Marlow Cook (R-Ky.) recently introduced legislation that would keep seat belts in cars until other more complicated devices suggested by DOT are proved safe, reliable and effective for the nation's drivers.

Senator Cook noted that government tests with experimental vehicles have shown that air bags can fail to work properly, and until they can be made foolproof he suggests the government not allow seat belts to be taken out of federal auto safety regulations.

Worry Clinic

By GEORGE W. CRANE, Ph.D., M.D.

Rev. DuMond has a keen sense of humor. And that is an attribute of the usual successful pastor. Jesus also was a witty sermonizer, as shown by his use of hyperbole re the "mote" vs. "beam." And straining at gnats but swallowing camels!

CASE T-596: Charles DuMond is the talented clergyman of the Chapel Hill United Methodist Church at Indianapolis.

"Dr. Crane," he asked, "could you visit us and deliver both the 9 o'clock and 11 o'clock sermons?"

"We have a beautiful new church in a zooming residential area at the west side of Indianapolis."

Since his church was only 70 miles from our summer home, and we try to accept all such invitations within 100 miles, Mrs. Crane drove me there.

Rev. DuMond is a voracious reader, devouring as many as 5 books per week.

And he has a superb sense of humor.

So he told me a story of a college professor who went bear hunting in the Smoky Mountains.

While waiting atop one of the peaks, he heard a twig snap behind him.

Turning, he viewed an angry bear that had reared up on its haunches only a few feet away.

The professor "froze." He couldn't pull the trigger, though his gun was pointed squarely at the bear's heart.

But when Bruin took a step toward him, the professor headed down the mountain side at a full gallop, with the bear right behind.

When he finally reached a clearing in the valley and saw a cabin thereon, he raced for the door, only to find it locked.

With the bear's hot breath on the back of his neck, the professor whirled in desperation and pulled the trigger.

Luckily, he shot the bear through the heart.

When Bruin crumpled to the ground, the exhausted professor sat down upon him and began wiping his brow.

Just then the cabin's owner unlocked the door and came out.

"Humph!" he snorted in disdain. "You all must be a city slicker!"

"For we uns always shoot the bear whenever we find him on top of them thar mountains!"

The professor sensed the ridicule in the mountaineer's tone.

"Ha!" the professor quickly replied. "That just shows you all don't have horse sense!"

"For you climb all the way to the top of the mountain to shoot a bear."

"And then what?"

"Why, you have to skin him up there, maybe a mile from your cabin, and then tote the carcass all the way home."
