LINDBERGH'S RELIEF FLIGHT IS IN VAIN

Good Progress in Chamber of Commerce Drive Reported at Noon

OVER HALF OF YEAR'S BUDGET NOW PLEDGED

Workers Attend Rotary Luncheon as Guests Today

COOPERATION IS GREATEST NEED

Success Means Generous Response From All Not Yet Seen

Continued hearty responses to visits of solicitors had brought the total for the Chamber of Commerce membership and finance drive to $7,199.25 at noon today.

This sum was divided between the two squads of workers as follows: J. H. Lavender's team, $4,030.50. Scott Barcus' team, $3,168.75.

The report was made at the Rotary club luncheon which the solicitors attended as guests today. Mr. Lavender and Mr. Barcus, in discussing the drive urged the Rotarians to assist in making it a success by Friday evening; when the campaign will end at a banquet.

It will be necessary for those not already seen to contribute liberally, as was pointed out, because many of the heaviest subscribers have already made their pledges.

Membership cards and buttons were appearing in growing numbers today, as the drive began to show the results of 24 hours of work.

Dumas on charges of murder and conspiracy to commit murder in the killing of two men at Rankin, as alleged bank robbers, has been arrested in Springfield, Missouri, and will be here probably Thursday night by Ranger Captain Roy Aldrich. Greater Flood Sweeps to Gulf in Three States

ATLANTA, Ga., April 25.—(P)—Leaving scenes of desolation and ruin in their wake, flood waters of a dozen or more streams today swept irresistibly their ruinous torrents into more towns and settlements and spreading over additional thousands of acres of South Georgia, South Alabama, and Northwest Florida.

Six persons were known to have lost their lives in tawny waters, and additional loss of life was feared in isolated communities and on farms along the streams. Crop, highway and property loss was believed to be several million dollars and from 3,000 to 5,000 persons homeless.

As the avalanche of muddy water swept southward, the toll of damage mounted, while along the upper reaches of the rivers and smaller streams farmers viewed their silt covered fields, but two or three days ago luxuriant with growing things and townspeople began clearing up the debris and reckoning the loss.

Texas Cattle Drivers Depicted By Borglum In San Antonio Group

Gutron Borglum (left), sculptor, will depict in bronze the cattle driver from Texas ranches to Kansas railroad points after the Civil War... A model of the state is shown above... The Old Trail Drivers' Memorial Association, headed by Mrs. R. R. Russell, sponsors the group, to be placed in San Antonio.

By H. MARTIN GLENN (Associated Press Correspondent)

SAN ANTONIO, (P)—A bronze group of cowboys, horses and longhorn steers will commemorate the deeds of the Texans who saved the financial foundation of the Lone Star state after the Civil war by driving their cattle to market along the old Chisholm trail.

Gutron Borglum, sculptor, already has completed the model of his latest historical work. The artist originally engaged on the Confederate memorial at Stone Mountain in Georgia and now at work on images of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Roosevelt in the Black Hills of South Dakota, will work with somewhat smaller figures when he prepares the group depicting the cattle drive. The statuary will be 32 feet high and 40 feet long. The monument is to be mounted in front of the municipal auditorium in San Antonio on a base of Texas red granite.

The work will cost $100,000, a fourth of which already has been given by old cattle drivers and their friends and descendants.

The cattle drivers saved Texas from financial disaster after the Civil war. There was little money. The state had land and cattle in abundance, but neither could be sold. There was no market for the cattle and no railroad to transport them to packing plants.

Ranchers conceived the idea to market "on the hoof." The enormous herds soon wore a broad scar across the country to Abilene, Wichita and Dodge City, Kas., where they were sold and loaded on trains.

The wide path which the lumbering longhorns followed over plains and rivers was known as the Chisholm trail. Many authors have written about the cowboys who fought against nature's barriers and with Indians and bushwhackers to get the cattle to the rail heads.

It is estimated that 10,000,000 head of cattle and 1,000,000 horses traveled the Chisholm trail. The drives reached their peak in 1884, when 1,000,000 cattle made the trip.

The memorial to the cowboys who did so much to make Texas a wealthy state is being financed by the Old Trail Drivers' Memorial Association. Mrs. R. R. Russell, daughter, sister the wife of one, is the president of and niece of cattle men as well as the organization.

LOCKHART IS KILLED TODAY IN CAR CRASH

Racing Automobile Is Demolished While Speeding

HAD ATTAINED OVER 200 MILES

Accident Apparently Caused by Soft Sand

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., April 25.—(P)—Blowing out of his right rear tire was the cause of the accident which resulted in the death of Frank Lockhart here today while attempting to break the world's automobile speed record, said Odie Porter, official timer of the American Automobile association.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., April 25.—(P)—Frank Lockhart, noted automobile racer, was killed almost instantly here today when he lost control of his machine while racing down the beach at more than 200 miles an hour.

Lockhart had made three fast trips in his Stutz Blackhawk Special and was approaching the grandstand on the fourth when his car appeared to hit a soft spot in the sand. It turned endwise several times, leaped high into the air and made several barrel rolls before landing. Lockhart was thrown out face downward upon the sand.

He was breathing heavily and bleeding profusely from the mouth and about the head when spectators got to him. Physicians at the hospital where he was taken said he probably died a few minutes after being thrown from the car.

On his first run Lockhart had been clocked at 147 miles an hour. The return trip was made at a speed of 193 miles. Starting south on the beach again, the machines' speed was timed at 203.45 miles.

On the final trip it was apparent that he was making more than 200 south of the beginning of the mile stretch directly in front of the grand stand. Lockhart's machine was demolished.

The car in which the famous speed king met his death was the one in which he plunged into the ocean here on Feb. 22 while making an attempt to set a world's record during the annual speed trials.

One of the wind shields over the wheel of the Stutz Special was torn up and hit a photographer standing nearby, as Lockhart entered the mile stretch. He was not seriously injured.

Lockhart had been coming out on the beach for several mornings to make test runs. On his first test this morning he had been clocked at 148 miles and the return trial was made at a speed of 193 miles.

William F. Sturm, Lockhart's manager, said before the tryout that he did not believe Lockhart would make the run or attempt a record today because of the unfavorable beach and because he did not believe Lockhart had his motor tuned up properly.

The beach was said to have been in the worst condition of the past week. Adverse wind had left ridges parallel to the course in which looked like a washboard.

His car was a tiny little white enamel machine weighing less than three thousand pounds. It had a sixteen cylinder motor which Lockhart designed himself. The car cost over $70,000.

Lockhart was said to have held every American record from one to one hundred miles on circular courses. He also held the world's straightway record for 91 1-2 cubic inch displacement motors which was set at the Dry Lake, Calif., course in 1927 when he made 164 miles per hour.

RAILROAD INCOME LESS

AUSTIN, April 25.—(P)—Net operating income of Texas railroads showed a decrease of 32.71 per cent for January and February over the corresponding period of 1927, the state railroad commission reports.

During the 1928 period mentioned, the net income was $3,590,320 for all roads compared with $5,335,876 for the 1927 period.

Mrs. A. J. Crocker is confined to her home by illness but is reported to be doing nicely.

F. A. Cary, local attorney, is confined to his bed with influenza.

Marathon Dance Ends After 51 Hours to Set New State Record

Tired Feet, Speaking Louder Than Offers to Encourage Continuance, Bring Event to End Today

His feet worn out by the terrific demands of a 51-hour grind, Hub Burrows decided he and Miss Crystal Burris had had enough of dancing and the marathon ended at the Pla-Mor this morning at 3 o'clock.

The winners were Miss Sylvia Finley of Pampa and Bill Eiston of Panhandle, who danced five minutes after the runners-up had stopped.

The long grind commenced in the Pla-Mor auditorium Monday morning at 12:01 o'clock with 25 couples entered. The race soon narrowed down to nine couples and so continued until early yesterday morning, when the first of nine dropped out, to be followed by all except the two couples at 11 o'clock.

As far as can be ascertained the mark set here is the record for Texas which was formerly 42 hours 18 minutes, set in Wichita Falls last year.

During the time of the marathon more than 2,500 persons passed through the doorway of the auditorium and interest was keen during the full time. The contestants were given a five minute rest each hour to change shoe and take nourishment.

Music for the contests was supplied by the Pla-Mor orchestra and a Columbia vivatone supplied by the Oder Music House.

Bremen Ready, But Held Back By Bad Storm

LAKE ST. AGNES, Que., April 25.—(By the Canadian Press)—Messages received today from the marooned Trans-Atlantic fliers on greenly Island stated that softening ice had caused them to abandon their hope of flying to Murray Bay in the Junkers monoplane Bremen and that they would leave the island in the Ford relief plane piloted by Balchen.

LAKE STE. AGNES, April 25.—(P)—A snowstorm on the route from Greenly Island today held the trans-Atlantic monoplane Bremen on the ice of Belle Isle Straits, repaired and fueled, ready for a resumption of its flight to New York.

The district within the radius of 100 miles of Lake Ste. Agnes was in the grip of a storm of mid-winter intensity.

Two fliers with Paramount News-Associated Press photographers, who made a non-stop flight from the island to the airport here yesterday, said when they left the Bremen she was all ready for a take-off.

Tax Renditions Must Be Made Before April 30

C. O. Busby, city tax assessor and collector reports that April 30 is the final day to render property, according to the state law. He states that if property has not been rendered the owners may call at his office in the city hall and do so before the final date.

"There has never in the history of the city been so few renditions made up to this time," Mr. Busby said this morning.

Medical Missionary Shot by Chinese Soldier in Tsining

HANKOW, China, April 25.—(P)—Refugees reaching Hankow today told appalling stories of the sacking of Kingmen, a city of 600,000 inhabitants about 140 miles northwest of Hankow, by bandits who are stated to have slaughtered at least 5,000 men, women and children.

NEW YORK, April 25.—(P)—The Presbyterian board of foreign missions received an official announcement of the shooting of Dr. Walter F. Seymour in Tsining by cable from the Presbyterian China council at Shanghai today.

"Soldier shot Dr. Seymour through the heart," the cable said. "All officers in Tsining saved. Will leave as soon as possible."

The board believed the only other missionary in that section, in addition to the Seymour party, to be Rev. Charles M. Eames of Jacksonville, Ill. Dr. Seymour had been a medical missionary in the province of Shantung since 1893, it was said at the headquarters of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions in New York.

He married Miss Mary Ada Gochenour of Freeport, Ill., a Methodist missionary, in 1894 and she was with him at Tsining.

Dr. Seymour was born on October 11, 1862 at Reedsburg, Wis.

BENNETT DIES OF PNEUMONIA DESPITE TRIP

Wrong Serum Sent, But Probably Too Late Anyway

BYRD LAUDS DEAD AVIATOR

"Discovered" Real Man Beneath Coat of Grease

QUEBEC, April 25.—(P)—Floyd Bennett, who flew over the north Pole with Commander Richard E. Byrd, died at 10:50 a. m. today from double pneumonia.

Bennett's death came while his wife was near him, herself a patient in the same hospital with tonsillitis. His closest man friend, Commander Byrd, was also there, having cancelled all engagements and rushed here as soon as Bennett's condition became serious.

NEW YORK, April 25.—(P)—Floyd Bennett, born in Warrensburg, N. Y., in 1890, was for the first 35 years of his life an obscure figure whose potentialities awaited only the moment of opportunity for development.

"Found a Man" That moment came in 1925 when Commander E. Byrd was given the pick of the whole navy from which to choose mechanics for his Greenland expedition with Donald MacMillan.

Byrd "discovered" Bennett, a virtually unknown aviation mechanic aboard a man-of-war, a navy "grease ball," indistinguishable from his fellows under the smear of oil that was the garb of his profession. He was not even especially well known on his own ship.

"But once he had his chance," Byrd writes in his recently published book, "Skyward," "he showed he was a good pilot and one of the finest practical men in the navy for handling an airplane's temperamental mechanisms.

"And above that, he was a real man, fearless an' true—one in a million."

Inseparable Chums From the moment that Byrd's keen eyes penetrated the film of grease coating the grubby mechanic and found a man, the two were inseparable. To think of Byrd was to think of Bennett, and vice versa, and therefore much of the material that throws light on the sort of person Bennett really was must of necessity come from Byrd.

QUEBEC, April 25.—(P)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's daring flight through rain and snow to bring anti-pneumonia serum 500 miles from New York to the bedside of Floyd Bennett, fellow flier today was found to have been in vain.

Early today Bennett's physicians diagnosed his illness as Type 3 of lobar pneumonia while the serum which Lindbergh had flown from New York were for treatment of Type 2, from which it previously had been thought the north pole flier was suffering.

Most Virulent Type A bulletin issued by Dr. W. H. DeLaney, superintendent of the Jeffrey Hale hospital and Dr. A. L. Barach of New York, described type 3 as the most virulent type of lobar pneumonia and said, "unfortunately the serum brought from New York by Col. Lindbergh does not cover it."

Early yesterday John D. Rockefeller, Jr., alarmed at the condition of Bennett, stricken while endeavoring to pilot the Ford relief plane to the aid of the trans-Atlantic monoplane Bremen, asked the Rockefeller institute at New York to inquire if there was anything it could do.

Dr. Barach informed the Institute it

FOR WORTH, April 25.—(P)—A marriage in 1922 which united two of the wealthiest families in the Southwest representing property and money to the amount of more than $20,000,000 was dissolved in circuit court here today when Ann Valiant Waggoner daughter of Tom L. Burnett, millionaire rancher, was granted a divorce from Guy L. Waggoner, son of W. T. Waggoner, millionaire rancher and oil magnate.

Mrs. D. W. Cary is doing nicely following a serious illness.

Worth. R. W. Stevens, special representative, is here to assist the Legion in preparing for the coming engagement.

Before inheriting the school, he and his chums were "broke" so he hires them as instructors and then the fun begins. The entire school falls in love with the new owner, especially one young lady of extreme personality and charm.

It is a riot of fun until the new owner decides to relinquish the principalship.

Citizens Camps Will Be Full

SAN ANTONIO, April 25.—Special enrollment for the citizens' military training camps to be held this summer in the 8th Corps Area is progressing favorably and is considerable ahead of last year, announces Major General T. Q. Donaldson, the Corps Area Commander at Ft. Sam Houston, today.

To date the six camps are approximately 65 per cent filled, with applications coming in at the rate of about 40 per day.

Compared with the eastern section of the United States, where many camps are already full, this seems to be rather a poor showing, unless one takes into consideration the great area covered by the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico, which comprise the 8th Corps Area.

Texas-Made Garments Are Demonstrated at Local Store Saturday

The Pool sisters of Sherman, factor representatives of the Pool products plants at Sherman and McKinney, demonstrated kakis, overalls, and dress shirts at the Kees and Thomas store here Saturday.

In connection with the interesting demonstration, it was said that more than 600 people are employed in the open plants, in which are made shirts, ox, underwear, ties, handkerchiefs, work clothes, riding breeches, and children's play suits. Only thirty-five people were employed in 1913.

The local clothing men believe in patronizing Texas' own factories, which use Texas cotton, especially since the finished products are quality merchandise.

Yankees Siege Guns Get Range As Senators Lose

(By The Associated Press.) The siege gun of the New York Yankees' dread attack has found the range.

The long distance artilleryman, Babe Ruth, propelled two balls into the Yankee stadium bleachers yesterday as the champions subdued the Senators of Washington, 4 to 0.

Those two drives, both into Ruth's favorite target, the right field stands—save him his second and third home runs of the season and put him three games ahead of the schedule he followed last year when he hit 60 circuit drives to establish a new record for him self and others to shoot at.

Yesterday's game was his ninth of the season. He did not hit his third homer last year until his 12th engagement although the dates were identical—April 24.

Herb Pennock, enjoying one of his best left-handed days, shut out the Senators with three hits. Two of these were infield scratches and the other—a double by Lisbee—got into the hit column chiefly because Ruth, playing in close, slipped in the wet grass as he ran out to make the catch.

The Cleveland Indians dropped into a tie with the Yankees for first place in the American league when they bowed to the Browns at St. Louis 5 to 2. Jack Ogden, former Baltimore Star, held the Indians safe, while his teammates kicked in with hits when they meant runs. Lou Blue hit a homer with one on.

Home again, the Philadelphia Athletics romped away with an 11 to 6 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Joe Hauser hit two home runs, each time with Speaker on base, and Mickey Cochrane got one.

The Chicago White Sox went 10 innings to score over the Tigers at Detroit, 5 to 4. Falk's sacrifice scored Metzler with the winning run.

Jess Petty, the Brooklyn crack left hander, registered his first triumph of the season when the Robins buried the Philadelphia Nationals under a 12 to 7 lynch at Ebbets field.

Leach hit a homer with two on in the first.

The Chicago Cubs vanquished Pittsburgh, 7 to 2, at Wrigley Field. Sterrett Blake recording his third victory of the year. The Corsairs stopped Blake's scoreless inning record at 17 straight frames in which the opposition failed to tally. Homers by Hartnett and Stephenson helped the Cubs.

With Alexander pitching, the St. Louis Cardinals had no difficulty overcoming the Reds at Cincinnati, 7 to 2.

The Giants and Braves again were rained out at Boston.

Granville Aims At Leadership of Marathon Race

ROLLO, Mo., April 25.—(AP)—Sullivan, 42 miles east of here was the objective of C. C. "Cross Country" Pyle's caravan of calousses, today.

Phillip Granville of Hamilton, Ont., and Ed Gardner, Seattle, who ran to a tie over the 32.4 miles from Waynesville, set off to continue to make a target of the leadership of Andrew Payne, Claremore, Okla., and Epler Garwood of England. Payne headed the big parade through the 1969.3 miles to Rolla with 330:32.42 as his elapsed time.

Thirty-six minutes behind was Guvuzzi who for four days has jogged to dead heats with Payne.

Dempsey Approves Shakespeare Stuff For Gene Tunney

NEW YORK, April 25.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey has no plans to lecture on the life and works of William Shakespeare but he approves Gene Tunney's ventures on that platform.

"He seems to get a big kick out of it," said Dempsey referring to Tunney's appearance as a lecturer on Shakespeare before a Yale class. "It's all right if it helps his racket any. Let him go ahead."

Walker-Hudkins Championship Tilt Is Given Approval

CHICAGO, April 25.—(AP)—Contracts for the world's middle-weight boxing championship match between Al Walker, incumbent, and Ace Hudkins, Nebraska challenger, have just presented to the Illinois state athletic commission by Promoter Jim Mullin and approved.

However, the approval carries one provision. The commission's act must be sanctioned by the national boxing association. Walker stands suspended at present by that body for failure to defend his title.

Promoter Mullin has arranged to hold the match June 21 either at the White Sox park or Soldier field.

Vincent Expected to Give Kopecky Terrific Battle

Another big wrestling match has been scheduled for tomorrow evening at the Pampa auditorium. In the main event Jack Vincent of Chickasha, Okla. will tangle with Joe Kopecky of Tulsa.

Vincent is well known here as a hard-tough wrestler. Although he is not as fast as the wily Kopecky, he makes up for it in strength. He is a former first and second state champion in his class.

Kopecky is known by all in the Panhandle as one who struts himself in his glory, but who is probably the best in his class.

The preliminary event will bring together Leeb Chase, the Roshara, Okla. and Paul Young of Roshara, Young will have an advantage in weight, but the Roshara has the speed and ticks that can overcome the weight advantage.

The opening match will commence at 8:20 o'clock.

Wayland College Needs Endowment Of Over $200,000

PLAINVIEW, April 25.—(AP)—Those interested in the future of Wayland college are rejoicing in the announcement made the past week by Frank Day, president of the board of trustees, that the college is free of debt. The declaration follows a campaign for funds that has been waged in Plainview by the Chamber of Commerce, represented by A. O. Hinn and R. C. Knobloch.

Wayland opened school last fall under the burden of a $24,500 debt and facing a gloomy future. Today it is free of debt and according to A. O. Hinn, Chamber of Commerce president, the next fall will see the brightest future for the institution has ever known.

Several months ago a proposition was made whereby Wayland college would receive $10,000 from a group of Amarillo citizens, $5,000 from the State Highway Convention, $10,000 from Plainview Baptists if the citizens of Plainview would contribute $10,000.

A $200,000 endowment is now the goal of the board of trustees. An American man, who is interested in the college, has offered $25,000 to apply on the proposed endowment and other individuals have indicated that they will be interested in aiding the board to procure the desired amount.

BUILDING FROM WITHIN

As a definite civic policy, it is one of the basic factors in community prosperity. Looking without, for the purpose of bringing in people, industries, and business enterprises of the usual retail variety, is of course necessary.

Practically every city has within its limits at any given period the makings of fine institutions. Clubs, churches, musical organizations, forensic clubs, commercial organizations—all of these can be greatly developed through this "building from within".

Our Factories

Harve Haines, outspoken Republican who is running the Amarillo Board of City Development, has a good idea when he stresses Panhandle farms as "factories".

Many factories change the form of prepared raw products but create little more than finished form. The soil comes nearest to changing otherwise intangible raw materials into usable products.

CREDITORIAL: Pampa News: The first serious attempt to establish a "strictly cash" merchandising system into every retail establishment in town has failed in Plainview, Neb.

The policy installed two months ago in this Nebraska town is that advocated a thousand years ago by O. Khayyam & Co., tent and sailmaker, the head of which firm became famous for his utter disregard of the Volstead Act.

Some Folks Don't Know When They're Well Off

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—The November elections, besides choosing the next president, will determine the complexion of the Seventy-first Congress. The Republicans hope to increase their present bare majority in confidence of retaining or in the Senate and are especially increasing their large margin in the House.

In a presidential year, the national ticket often carries to victory some members of Congress who are later defeated in an off-year.

At the moment the Republicans would seem to have a chance to unseat about six Democrats senators and Democrats only two or three Republican senators. The other seats are certain, or at least reasonably sure to be retained.

A recent unconfirmed rumor is that Mayor Jimmy Walker of New York plans to take the Democratic nomination away from Senator Copeland. That will be decided by the Smith strategists, however. Copeland isn't popular with Tammany, but it may be deemed wise to retain him.

Unless knifed by his Republican enemies, Otis Glenn, the Deneen candidate who recently beat the ousted Frank Smith in Illinois, presumably will win the seat the Senate wouldn't let Smith have. Senate Howell of Nebraska, another Republican, recently renominated, should have an easy victory.

Bruce of Maryland will be nominated by the Democrats, but will have a formidable Republican opponent in November. In Indiana, where the issue of corruption rages, Senator Arthur Robinson is likely to defeat a divided opposition vote for Attorney-General Giltner, but the Democrats are confident of beating him with Albert Stump, who came within a few thousand votes of beating Senator Watson in 1926 and is now the strongest candidate for renomination.

Edwards, New Jersey Democrat, has no opposition in his own party, but will fight for election with one of eight Republican candidates, who include former Governor Stokes,

National Committee man Hamilton Kean and former Senator Frelinghuysen.

TWINKLES

"In the Spring" is a wonderful phrase, unless you happen to be in front of a Chinese spring offensive.

Another good slogan for a certain group is "Smith on the Second Ballot," but not second on the November ballot.

If people worried as much about death as students do about passing their final examinations, this would be quite a different world.

It will be a good day for aviation when the sun worshippers take up aviation.

Publicity is a great thing, but so many people do not read the epitaphs.

Hotel Owner Is Shot by Guest in Chicago Today

CHICAGO, April 25.—(AP)—David Sher, 53, proprietor of the Paradise Arms hotel of Washington Boulevard, was shot dead in the hotel lobby early today by a guest who then fled with two men and a woman companion.

Bennett Dies--

might help by sending serum. At first it was planned to send it by train and then realizing that an airplane could beat the train by man, hours, Lindbergh was appealed to.

"Sure," says Lindbergh. "I'll take it," he answered "Let's go."

Lindbergh's New Ryan Broughman at Curtiss field was warmed up as the flying colonel, a motorcycle police escort clearing the way, started for the field from New York City by auto at 50 miles an hour.

An appeal to the war department however, obtained the loan of a Curtiss Falcon, with maximum speed of 165 miles an hour, several miles a hour faster than the Colonel's own ship.

Waiting at the field for the serum to arrive Lindbergh hastily scanned the maps and weather reports and warned up the army plane. Reports showed stormy weather along the route. Lindbergh asked for a .45-caliber army automatic pistol and ammunition and strapped the weapon about his waist without explanation. It was thought he planned to use pistol for signaling in case of a forced landing after night fall.

Also Took Rats
The serum and three white rats to be used in the diagnosis of Bennett's illness were brought to the field by Thomas A. Appelget, Jr., Mr. Rockefeller's private secretary and he and Lindbergh climbed into the open cockpit.

The plane was headed with the wind always a dangerous takeoff, but Lindbergh took off, saving the few minutes it would have required to taxi down the field, turn and come back for a normal takeoff into the wind. At a speed of 50 miles an hour the plane's wheel struck a slight bump, the right wing wobbled down toward the ground, almost touching, but Lindbergh "gave her the gun" and the plane headed north for its flight of over 500 miles through rain and snow.

Three hours and 42 minutes after the take-off, he swooped down on the Plains of Abraham outside Quebec. Thousands of excited Quebec residents had thronged the field and roared a welcome as he and Mr. Appleget climbed from the plane and ran to a waiting automobile.

They were driven to the hospital where experiments to test the type of pneumonia threatening the life of Bennett were begun on the rats they had brought.

CHANEL introduced this georgette triangle elaborated with embroidery, for evening wear.

BIT O' VERSE

They are too sacred for the years to keep—
To wonder at the strangeness of your name
Set deep in words like lilies blown in flame.

They should go out in fragrances from the east.
Set in an ancient censer of old brass
Until the tenderest word of all must pass.

I'll weave a web
O have the years been wasted?
I shall not let them be!

I'll weave it firmly, tightly.
A strong and lasting net—
Then grief shall pass me lightly.

I'll weave a web of laughter,
And throw it over me,
And gild the years hereafter
In gold of melody.

I'll weave it firmly, tightly.
A strong and lasting net—
Then grief shall pass me lightly.
