Phillips Starts Huge Gasoline Plant Near Borger

A $200,000 refinery for Pampa and the largest casinghead gasoline plant in the world for Borger are major developments in the Panhandle oil field.

Practically all arrangements are complete for the construction of a 5,000-barrel refinery on the Toronto Pipeline company property about 3 miles west of Pampa.

Contracts for Gray county production are being drawn up, and it is expected that an ample supply of crude will be ready by the time the refinery is in operation toward the middle of the summer.

ROUND WORLD IN 24 DAYS IS NAVY PROJECT

Kentucky Flier Would Hon From Seattle to Tokyo

BAD WEATHER HALTS BREMEN

Spanish Aces Will Try to Swan Way to New York

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., April 6.—(P)—The open season on trans-oceanic and world flights is here again.

Lieutenant George R. Pond, U. S. N. who has announced plans for an attempt to fly around the world in 24 days in a specially designed monoplane was at Modesto, Calif., today going forward with his project.

Lieutenant Bert Hall of Bowling Green, Ky., disclosed in New York last night that he would try a solo non-stop flight from Seattle, Washington to Tokyo—4,300 miles—late this month or early in May.

Although the details of Lieutenant Pond's undertaking were not made public, it was understood that Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith, Australian flier, his partner in four attempts to break the world's endurance flight record here recently, would probably accompany him.

Pond expects to start from New York flying to Europe, across Asia to Yokohama, thence to an "Francisco" and back to New York again.

Big Prize Offered If Lieutenant Hall flies from Seattle to Japan he will find a pot of gold $27,000 worth, at the end of the hop. This is in the form of a prize offered by the Seattle chapter of the National Aeronautics association and the Imperial Japanese aviation society.

All that is visible in the plans of Col. Charles Lindbergh shows nothing in the nature of other projected distance flights. Trying out his new monoplane at San Diego yesterday, the flying Col. onel submitted to photographers for a moment, remained up about an hour and then went back into seclusion. His new plane is equipped to carry only enough fuel for one thousand miles of flying.

DUBLIN, April 6.—(P)—Snow, sleet and fog over the Atlantic today kept the German plane Mremen-in its hangar at Bladonell airdrome and the flyers utilized their time in further preparations for the hopoff to New York.

Part of the Durakumia was removed from one wing and mechanics tested the wings for any weakness that might have resulted from the heavy landing on a test flight Monday.

"All we can do is to hope from day to day," said Baron von Huenefeld, sponsor of the flight, as he bused himself with plans for taking off from the sodden airfield with his heavily laden plane.

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier April 6.—(P)—Advices from Seville today said Captains Jimenez and Iglesias, Spanish aces in the Moroccan campaign, had decided to try a non-stop flight from Spain to New York.

They recently broke the Spanish record for duration when they remained aloft 28 hours and have been preparing to set a new world's distance record with a flight to British India. They were scheduled to start yesterday, but the hop was postponed for the announced reason that they needed to have a new motor installed in their plane.

Equestrian Prince Gets the Horse Laugh

Princely dignity it seems, goeth simultaneously with a fall. Here is the crestfallen Wales walking home after one of his recent upsets and the spectators at the race are trailing him with who look suspiciously like dirty laughs.

The young lady at the right, for instance, seems to be reflecting that the prince is the sort of fellow who seldom sits out a dance—or a horse race. He tumbled while riding for the Inter-Regimental Challenge Cup at Riseley, Bradfordshire.

Easter Cantata to Be Given Sunday Evening Beautiful

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, the choir of the Methodist church will present the Easter Cantata "Victory" by Henry Wildemere. This production under the direction of Prof. R. B. Fisher, will probably be the largest of its kind ever presented in Pampa.

In "Victory," by solo, duet, trio, quartet, and chorus are related the events of the beautiful Easter story. The thread of the narrative begins with Christ leaving Pilate's hall going to Calvary, and weaves on through his bitter experiences until his death and resurrection. It is a story of great import, made all the more striking, in its musical setting.

Fourteen voices will be presented in solo parts, while the supporting chorus will number about thirty. The choir is fortunate in having voices capable of handling the difficult passages.

The opening number depicts the journey of Christ to Calvary. It is appealing in its tenderness and pathos and is especially touching when describing the death of Christ. In harmony with the thought come the sorrowful strains in the music. One visualizes the tramping of Roman soldiers as they leave the crucified Christ, then the bitter cries of those who care. Dismal and bleak is the touch of death when as light penetrates the darkness, hope and Victory is felt. Like wild fire it spreads through the believers and all sing their expression of hope in confidence and joy.

Through strains that weave their way into the heart, first a bit doubtful, then with assurance; strains tender enough to express the selfishness

Contract Likely Will Be Awarded This Evening

Nine paving companies today made unexpectedly low bids in the new Pampa paving project of 27 1-2 city blocks. Company representatives were here from a radius of more than 1,000 miles, and never before have several of these companies been known to bid on projects other than highway paving.

Contract paving seemed to hold the interest of those present, all nine companies making bids on the brick paving, while the bitulithic and vibrolithic type received four bids each.

The lowest bid received today for the 3 inch brick with 5 inch base type of paving was $2.97 a yard, while the same paving used here in the last project was awarded to the Stuckey Construction company, low bidder, at $3.06 a yard, last year.

No action is letting the contract was expected before this evening, according to City Manager P. M. Gwin.

Those placing bids for the paving of the 27 1-2 city blocks were the Western Paving company of Oklahoma City; J. Stanton and son of Leavenworth, Kan., and Dalhart; Stuckey construction company of Wichita Falls and Pampa; Cook and Come of Ottawa, Kans., and Ardmore, Okla., Fuller Construction company, Dallas; Carl Pleasant company Tulsa and Amarillo; Jordan Construction company Childress and Plainview; L. H. Lacy company, Dallas; and Fry Brothers of Iola, Kans.

Brick companies and their representatives at the letting of the contract were the United Clay Product company of Leavenworth, Kan., represented by J. J. Brown; Thurba Brick company of Thurbur, Texas, represented by Al Jones and the Coffeyville Brick company of Coffeyville, Kans., represented by Ray Williams. The brick used in the 24 blocks of paving completed was supplied to the

90 Runners Leave Amarillo today for Groom—42 Miles

AMARILLO, April 6.—(P)—Accepting the added handicap of adverse weather, the 90 runners and walkers remaining in the trans-continental marathon today turned toward Groom 42 miles east of here.

The thirty-third lap of 37 miles from Vega yesterday was one of the most exacting since the start at Los Angeles March 4. As they lined up at Vega a flurry of snow offered variety from the cloud of Panhandle silt that had engulfed the caravan. Rain followed the snow, continuing at intervals throughout the trek.

Pat De Marr of Los Angeles, was the first to arrive here. His mark of 5:29:42, gave him an elapsed time of 297:24:44, for the 1,189 miles. John Solo Passaic, N. J. was second in 6:05:07. Andrew Payne, Claremore, Okla., Philip Granville, Hamilton, Ontario, and Arne Suominen of Detroit, finished less than 20 minutes behind Solo. Suominen of Detroit, finished less than 20 minutes behind Solo. Suominen continued to lead in elapsed time with 196:07:43.

Lion Escapes From Express Car and Real Hunt Is On

GREENVILLE, April 6.—(P)—A wild animal search with all the aspects of a real jungle hunt is under way here following the escape early today of a full-grown lion from a cage in an express car, in which the animal was being shipped from the Marshall Park zoo at Dallas to Independence Mo.

Brick companies and their representatives at the letting of the contract were the United Clay Product company of Leavenworth, Kan., represented by J. J. Brown; Thurba Brick company of Thurbur, Texas, represented by Al Jones and the Coffeyville Brick company of Coffeyville, Kans., represented by Ray Williams. BLAST ON LEASE OF WHITE-LANE

Ralph Florence and Martin Stovall to Recover

(Special To The News) BORGER, April 6.—(P)—Three men were badly injured, one perhaps fatally, in a boiler explosion on the White-Lane lease nine miles east of here today.

George Mantz, an employe of the White-Lane Oil company, is near death in a local hospital, where he and the other injured men were rushed by L. V. McMillan, another employe of the company, who dragged them out of live steam following the blast.

Mantz has brain concussions, his back and right side are deeply burned, and bits of steel and gravel were blown deeply into his body. He is suffering from hemorrhages.

Ralph Florence and Martin Stovall are badly burned and have severe skin lacerations caused by flying gravel and bits of steel, iron and wood. Florence has broken hips, and Stovall has a badly bruised arm.

The cause of the explosion has not been ascertained. The boiler room was blown almost to bits and live steam covered the spots where the men fell. Florence was a White-Lane employe, and Stovall works for the Cokerell-McIlroy.

Lions Planning Good Program For Clarendon Visit

Pampa Lions are making big plans for their inter-club visit in Clarendon next Tuesday evening. Local members will give the program. Several stunts are under way, and it is the ambition of the club to outdo the visit of the Clarendon club here a few months ago.

Yesterday the club enjoyed an extemporaneous speech by Miss Catherine Vincent, who will represent Pampa at Canyon in the Interscholastic League meet next week. Joe Strother played several piano solos, and Olin E. Hinkle gave a news review of the day.

Visitors were D. A. Knox and C. O. Busby.

Precinct 1 Bond Issue Fails By Only Three Votes

The $75,000 road bond issue in Precinct one failed to pass in the precinct election yesterday by three votes. Although LeFors voted 107 for the passing of the bonds and none against, the measure was defeated.

The total vote was 118 for the issue and 62 against.

This money was to have been used to erect three bridges across the North for of Red River, one at LeFors, one on the Mel B. Davis ranch and one north of McLean about nine miles. Also to keep the precinct roads in repair.

It is expected that another issue will be voted on in the near future and greater efforts made to pass the issue.

PRAY FOR RAIN; DELUGE TURNS INTO FLOOD

Yesterday's mist, rain, hail, sleet, and snow amounted to .55 of an inch in precipitation, according to the government gauge operated by the News.

Wheat farmers are jubilant, believing this added moisture will carry the crop well toward maturity.

Today was cool but nearly clear, completing the cycle of Panhandle weather and forecasting the early return of spring.

SALINA, Kas., April 6.—(P)—An unusually heavy snow set in during the night following a short heavy rain, and was continuing today. At daylight two to four inches of slush lay on the walks and roads.

Too Much Rain LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 6.—(P)—Rains, prayed for earlier in the week when forest fires were sweeping through Ouachita national forest, have come to Arkansas in such abundance since Tuesday night that possible floods menace today.

Cloudbursts visited all sections of the state, sent small streams on rampages gave rivers a dangerous impetus and wrecked highways.

However, low streams and bottom lands will take care of most of the excess water, weather observers believe.

More than three inches of rain have fallen in sections of Northwest Arkansas and upper reaches of the White river were nearing flood stages. Considerable farm land has been flooded and loss of livestock was reported.

Gales Break Wires High winds which reached gale velocity at many places came with the rains, damaging property and disrupting telephone service.

The tornado toll in Northwest Arkansas was set at two dead and 16 injured, two of whom were not expected to live. Marion Spears whose son was killed when the Spears home near Lincoln was demolished, died today.

SHAWNEE, Okla., April 6.—(P)—With property loss in the torrential flood which swirled through this city Wednesday night, causing four known deaths, loss fixed at $234,800 on the basis of an investigation involving 143 families and 25 merchants, Shawnee was ready today to begin the task of rehabilitation.

Damage Half Million Other items not included in the survey would place the approximate damage figure somewhere between $400,000 and $500,000 and this figure also was consistent with estimates of H. T. Douglas, chairman of the relief committee and other officials active in relief work.

Virtually no suffering has been reported to Mayor Wimmer, as all victims of the torrent had promptly fled from local charity organizations pending the adoption of a permanent policy of relief and rehabilitation.

CHICAGO, April 6.—(P)—A heavy wet blanket of snow covered Nebraska today, putting telegraph and telephone wires out of commission, delaying railroad and interurban trains and blocking the highways.

IT IS WORTHY of the attention of women all over the county to cooperate through the organization of a county club federation. Women have so many things in common especially of a civic and educational nature, that their working as a unit is highly desirable.

There are a number of projects which can best be brought about through county-wide work. One of these is county home demonstration activity. From another standpoint, meeting together will result in better individual community programs. Tomorrow's mass meeting of Gray county women should be largely attended.

It was bound to come—the use of movies for educational work in the most advanced form. The educational world has been slow to make use of one of the most effective instruments, but visual education is getting under way.

Harvard is planning definitely to take the lead in making and exploiting educational movies. An educational film center will be established eventually to produce for national distribution pictures in nearly every field of learning and human pursuit. The combined resources of Pathé picture corporation and Harvard university have been mustered to make motion pictures part of the educational structure in the United States.

The production lots are Harvard campuses and classrooms, the directors are Harvard professors, and the photographers are Pathe trained men. At least 30 educational films will be released during the coming summer.

"The motion picture will not displace books or lectures," says Dr. Kirtley F. Mather of Harvard. "but it will merely add to already existing educational machinery. How decidedly more interesting will be geography, economics, and natural science if taught by film along with the textbook."

"At least a dozen companies have aimed at this goal in the past. All of them failed because they did not attack the problem from the point of view of the trained teacher." The power of the movies has been recognized since the inception of the industry, yet this power generally was criticized as a dangerous influence. Like any other strong industry, that of the motion picture can be misused. Proper use of the movies will result in more effective criticism of unworthy efforts, to the betterment of the craft.

"The codfish has been put back in the sea, the shoe in its box, the bean pot in the oven, and the Massachusetts automobile registration plate is again going to be simply a tag—numbers there, and nothing more."

This clever paragraph is from the Christian Science Monitor of Boston, where a legislative committee was finally urged to eliminate the codfish from state emblems. In the first place, we learn it cost the state a lot of money to embellish each plate with a codfish. It was necessary that each fish be a work of art, and mass production was virtually impossible. And again, the non-fish industries got jealous and reminded the legislators that Massachusetts had more assets than codfish, and that the state ought to pass the advertising around. Turning out 700,000 traveling billboards was job enough, but if beans, et cetera, were added the task would be untenable, henceforth prevail.

So unembellished numbers will Texas might do well to abolish the "front" and "rear" wording that causes out-of-state visitors to have so much fun over our own plates.

Pampa May Enter Hose Reel Team in Firemen's Contest

H. Huff, Younger Cockrell, L. P. Dugal, and W. P. Fussell have been elected to represent the Pampa Volunteer Fire department at the state meeting in Denton June 12 to 15. Besides the delegates elected, the fire chief, Ben White, and the fire marshal, John V. Andrews, will make the trip.

The advisability of organizing a hose reel team to compete in the races was taken under consideration, and E. E. Green of Electra, now residing in Pampa, was chosen to train the Pampa team and construct the hose cart.

A committee composed of Chief Ben White, Assistant Chief Alex Schneider, Jr., Bennie Rose, Harry Hoare, and Lloyd Bennett was appointed to appear before the city commission in the immediate future in an effort to get insurance protection for the members of the department attending fires. At the present time the members of the department voluntarily answer calls, but in case of accident while attending these fires they would be without insurance.

School Trustees to Be Chosen Saturday

Tomorrow the voters of Pampa will elect three trustees to serve on the Pampa Independent school district board of education for the coming year. Three trustees are elected one year and two the following year. Trustees will be elected in all the independent school districts in the county tomorrow, in addition to district trustees.

Voting will take place in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The polls will be open at 8 a. m., and close at 7 p.

m. Four names have been placed on the ticket, C. P. Buckler and R. S. McConnell for reelection and J. M. Dodson and Robert Woodward.

Seven trustees will be elected to take office as a board of education in the newly organized LeFors Independent school district at the election tomorrow.

Districts 2 and 8 were recently consolidated into an independent district due to the lack of accommodations to take care of the pupils in the two districts where there are more than 100 pupils attending in LeFors and to place buses on routes to carry the students to the centrally located institution.

Those seeking offices as trustees are Miss Birdie Short, George Thut, J. H. Palmer, E. Bacchus, and R. E. Nipper, penter, E. Bacchus, and R. E. Nipper.

GIRL ALONE

BY ANNE AUSTIN AUTHOR OF "SAINT AND SINNER"

THIS HAS HAPPENED
Sally Ford is "farmed out" to Clem Carson, farmer, the summer she is 16 and leaves the orphanage, the only home she knows from the time she is four. She meets David Nash, athletic and student of scientific farming, who is working on the Carson farm for the summer. David likes the orphan, openly preferring her to Pearl, Carson's daughter. This angers Pearl and Carson.

When Carson makes insulting remarks about Sally, David hits him. David and Sally, leaving Carson's farm, run away. At daylight they find themselves near a carnival train. Sally is overjoyed to find Eddie Cobb, former inmate of the Home, who runs away to join the carnival. He asks Winfield Bybee, owner of the carnival, to make a place for them. David is placed in the crook's car, while Mrs. Bybee, the real manager of the carnival, dresses Sally in satin trousers and "mae" and sends her on the platform as Princess Lalla, crystal gazer.

The midget, "Pitty Sing," asks Sally to carry her to the car for her supper. Sally gladly responds and nestles the little woman in her arms. Her eyes catch the headlines of the paper the midget holds. She sees a name she has come to fear and loathe—the name of Carson.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XVII
When Sally and carefully deposited the dignified little midget, "Pitty Sing," in the infant-sized high-chair drawn up to a corner table in the dining car, she hurried to the box of the kitchen which took up the other end of the car. The newspaper trembling in her hand. She found David alone in the kitchen, slicing onions into a great pan of frying swiss steak. Onion in-ducted tears streamed down his cheeks, but at the sound of Sally's urgent voice, he turned.

"Oh, David, he wasn't killed!" she cried, taking care to keep her voice low. "It's in the paper—look! But he says, oh, David, he says the most terrible things about us, and the police are looking for us—"

"Hey, there, honey! Steady!" David commanded gently, as he groped for a handkerchief to wipe his streaming eyes. "Now let's see the paper. Thank God I didn't commit murder—what the devil!" he interrupted himself, as his eyes traveled hurriedly down the front page. "By heaven, I almost wish I had killed him! Taa, dirty, lying skunk!"

FARMER ACCUSES HIRED MAN OF ASSAULT TO KILL was the streamer headline across the entire page. Below two streamer lines of heavy italic type informed the reader: "CLEM CARSON SUFFERS BROKEN LEG FOR ATTEMPTING

TO PROTECT ORPHANED GIRL FROM UNIVERSITY STUDENT WORKING ON FARM.

The "story," in small type, followed: "Clem Carson, prosperous farmer living 16 miles from the capital city, suffering from a broken leg, a broken nose and numerous cuts and bruises, sustained late Saturday afternoon at Carson Carson alleges he broke into the garret bedroom of Miss Sally Ford, 16-year-old girl from the state orphanage, who has been working on the Carson farm for her board and room during the summer vacation. According to Carson's story, told to reporter Sunday night after a warrant for the arrest of Sally Ford and David Nash had been issued by the sheriff's office the farmer had been suspicious for several days that one of the hired men, David Nash, A. and M. student during the school year, was paying too much attention to the young girl, for whose safety Carson had pledged himself to the state.

"On Saturday afternoon early the members of Mr. Carson's family, including his wife, brother, mother and leaving Miss Ford alone in the house. The two other hired men had also gone to the city, leaving Carson and young Nash at work on the farm. Carson alleges that he saw Nash enter the house late Saturday afternoon and that when the young man did not return to work in the barn within a reasonable time, Carson left his own work to investigate, fearing for the safety of the girl under his protection.

"After unsuccessfully searching the main floor of the house, Carson alleges, he went to the garret, heard voices coming from Miss Ford's room, opened the door and found it locked. He knocked, but was refused admittance according to the story told the sheriff. Then, determined to save the girl from the man, he climbed to the roof of the porch and made his way to the small window of the great room, from which he saw Miss Ford and the young man in a compromising position. When he tried to enter the room through the window Carson alleges that he was brutally assaulted by young Nash, who, by the way, was boxing champion of the sophomore class at A. and M. A smashing blow from young Nash's fist sent the farmer crashing through the window and down the sloping roof to the ground.

"In the fall, Carson's left leg was broken above the knee. He was still unconscious when Dr. John E. Salter, a local physician, arrived at the deserted farm, summoned by a mysterious male voice by telephone. The sheriff's theory, as well as the doctor's, is that young Nash, for fear that he had seriously injured the farmer, summoned medical help before leaving with

International Sunday School Lesson

By Dr. J. E. Nunn

General Topic—The Resurrection (Easter Lesson.)

Scripture Lesson—Mark 16:1-8, 19, 20.
1. And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, brought spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2. And very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun was risen.

3. And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb?

4. And looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back; for it was exceedingly great.

5. And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were amazed.

6. And he saith unto them, Be not amazed; ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene who hath been crucified: he is risen he is not here; behold, the place where they laid him!

7. But go, tell his disciples and Peter he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.
8. And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them: and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

9. So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken unto them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God.

30. And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

Time—The resurrection, Sunday April 9, A. D. 30. The ascension Thursday, May 18, A. D. 30. Place—The new tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, near Calvary, outside the Damascus Gate in the north wall of Jerusalem. The Mount of Olives, near Bethany.

Golden Text—Because I live, ye shall live also.—John 14:19.

Introduction
The lesson committee interrupts the orderly course of our lesson; that we may observe Easter. We have already studied Christ's repeated prophecies of his crucifixion and resurrection; in this lesson we study the fulfillment of those prophecies. It was a glorious fulfillment, bringing with it salvation for all the world that will accept it and walk in the way of the risen Redeemer.

The Sabbath Day, v. 1.
The Jewish Sabbath was Saturday, the seventh day of the week. Christ was crucified and died on Friday, remained in the grave through Saturday, and rose on Sunday morning. "On the third day" as the Jews reckoned time, counting the part of days involved as entire days. The early Christians at first observed both Saturday and Sunday as sacred days then turned gradually from the sabbath when Christ lay in the grave, and adopted as the day for Christian rest and worship the happy day when the Saviour rose from the dead. We see traces in the New Testament of the beginning of this change. The fact that it was made constitutes one of the proofs of the reality of Christ's resurrection, a very tangible and incontrovertible proof, for this great historic change could have had no other cause than the resurrection of Jesus, v. 1.

Women Came to Anoint Jesus, v. 1.
"Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, brought spices, that they might come and anoint him." On Friday evening, just before the Sabbath, which began at sunset on Friday, the women had prepared for the embalming of the precious body, making a hasty end of their work as the Sabbath drew near (Luke 23:54) whereupon even such work as this might not be done. Joseph of Arimathea, aided by Nicodemus, two members of the Sanhedrin, had laid the body reverently in Joseph's new tomb placing around it a hundred pounds of myrrh and aloes (John 19:38-42). But the work was evidently temporary and the women came to complete it.

Resurrection Morning, v. 2
"And very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun was risen." John says, "while it was yet dark," and all the evangelists give slightly different notes of time proving their independence of one another, but all agree that it was just at dawn. Probably the women started in the dark and reached the tomb just as the first rays of dawn tinged the eastern sky.

"Who Shall Roll Us Away The Stone?"

"And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb?" A very large round stone, rolling in a groove cut in the stone floor, closed the opening of the tomb, which was evidently a cave in the side of the hill, either a natural cave, such as is common in the rocks around Jerusalem, or wholly or partly artificial. The women knew that the stone was too large for all of them together to move. The Roman authorities, acting on the request of the Jewish leaders, had stationed there a guard of Roman soldiers to see that no one should steal Christ's body and then pretend that he had risen from the dead (Matt. 27:62-66). Thus Christ's enemies themselves aided in confirming the truth of his resurrection.

The Apparent Difficulty Overcome, v. 4
"And looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back; for it was exceedingly great." That is, it was so large as to be readily seen in the dim light of speculation at some distance, looking up from below. Angels had done for them, what they could not do for themselves, as angels are always ready to step in and supplement the feeble powers of trusting mortals. They had laid all their worry for nothing, which is usually the case.

The Women See "An Angel," Matt. 28:2, 5.
"And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side." Luke (24:4) speaks of two men. We must remember the dim light, and the confused state of the women's minds. Probably one of the two angels was much more noticeable than the other. At any rate, the narrative is much more credible thus disagreeing in a few minor points than if they were perfect duplicates evidently copied the one from the other. The "young man" is described by Matthew as "an angel," and this is implied in Mark's description of his raiment. "Arrayed in a white robe." Luke (24:4) tells us that his apparel was "dazzling." Matthew (28:3) says that "his appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow." These heavenly beings are everywhere described as gloriously radiant creatures.

The Risen Saviour, v. 6
"He is risen." Only one word in the Greek—the most meaningful word ever written, the word in which is condensed the proof of Christ, the triumph of Christ, Christ's victory over death and sin, the confidence of all Christians, humanity's assurance of immortality. "He is not here." Ye see him in vain here, in the grave; this is the last of all places in which to find Him who is the Resurrection and the life. "Behold the place where they laid him!" The grave was empty, and yet not empty; it was full of hope and cheer for Christians, of confusion for Christ's foes. The fact of the actual resurrection of our Lord is a rock-of-ages that can never be moved.

Tell The Good News, v. 7
"But go, tell his disciples and Peter." Not that Peter, after his denial, had ceased to be reckoned as a disciple, except perhaps in his own despairing thought, but more as one would say "Tell his disciples, and especially Peter do not leave him out." "After his resurrection, Christ was quick and eager to bring peace to the soul of that disciple who had lived in an agony of remorse and shame ever since his denial in the judgment hall. His first message was to him, and it was a message that conveyed the assurance of pardon and abiding love."

"The First Fruits of Them That slept"
"St. Paul informs us that Christ being risen from the dead is 'the first-fruits of them that slept.' There were several resurrections which took place before that of Jesus Christ. Elijah and Elisha raised the dead to life again. Jesus raised the daughters of Jairus the widow's son at Nain, and Lazarus the son of the widow of Bethany. How then can Christ be called the first-fruits of them that slept, since he was not the first to rise from the dead? I will tell you. Those other resurrections were imperfect. Such as were raised, in course of time died again, and were laid in their graves, not to wake again till the last trump. But 'Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more.' He rises, not again to die, but to a life immortal. Thus he is, in very truth, the first-fruits of immortal life of those that slept." S. Barrington-Gould.

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE DISTRIBUTION OF CIRCULARS, HAND BILLS OR OTHER LIKE PAPERS OR ADVERTISING MATTER UPON OR ALONG THE STREETS, AVENUES AND ALLEYS OF THE CITY OF PAMPA, REGULATING THE POSTING OF BILLS UPON TELEPHONE, TELEGRAPH, ELECTRIC LIGHT OR OTHER POLES OR OTHER STRUCTURES WHATSOEVER UPON OR WITHIN THE STREETS, AVENUES OR ALLEYS OF THE CITY OF PAMPA, AND FORBIDDING THE REMOVAL TO OR PLACING UPON ANY STREET, AVENUE OR ALLEY IN THE CITY OF PAMPA ANY WASTE PAPER, FLOOR SWEEPINGS OR MATTER OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER EXCEPT AS HEREINAFTER PROVIDED AND PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR THE VIOLATION THEREOF AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF PAMPA:

SECTION 1. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association of persons to distribute any circulars, hand bills or other advertising matter of like character along or upon any street, avenue or alley within the city of Pampa, Texas or to pass such circulars, hand bills or other advertising matter from person to person upon any sidewalk, street, avenue or alley within the city of Pampa, or to place any circulars, hand bills or any other advertising matter within or upon any automobile, truck, wagon or other vehicle whatsoever when parked or being driven upon any street, avenue or alley within the city of Pampa, Texas.

SECTION 2. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association of persons to in any manner attach any circulars, hand bill placards or other advertising matter to any telephone, telegraph, electric light pole or any structure within the streets, avenues or alleys of Pampa, Texas; except it be by the authority of the owner thereof or a regularly elected or appointed officer of the City of Pampa for the purpose of posting legal notices only.

SECTION 3. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association of persons to sweep, place or permit to be placed upon any sidewalk, street, avenue within the City of Pampa, any waste paper, floor sweepings or waste matter of any kind whatsoever; except same must be placed in metal box with lid or cover attached in such a manner as to prevent such paper or other waste material from becoming scattered upon the streets, avenues or alleys of Pampa, Texas, and such box shall be placed in the alley only and in such a manner as to not obstruct full use of such alleys to public travel.

SECTION 4. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, to dump, throw or place any waste paper or other refuse matter on any private property in such manner that wind or the elements will in their natural course blow or scatter the same upon any street, avenue or alley of the City of Pampa, Texas.

SECTION 5.—Any person violating any provision of the above ordinance shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

SECTION 6. EMERGENCY. It appearing that the City of Pampa is now without a proper ordinance governing the provisions herein contained and it further appearing that public welfare is being jeopardized by the lack of such an ordinance, the rules prescribing three separate readings of all ordinances are hereby suspended and this ordinance shall become in full force and effect on and after its passage and publication as prescribed by law.

Heavy Hitting in Texas Leagues Is Early Feature

DALLAS, April 6.—(AP)—Texas league pitchers are due soon for a warm reception if action of a group of batsmen is an indication of what may be expected when the season begins April 11.

In a game with the Galveston Coed Oels Red Sox, the Houston Buffs cracked out six home runs. Danny Clark, a recent acquisition, getting two and Selph, Powell, Watkins, and Baker one each.

Dick Whitworth, mainstay of the Buffs last year, was in excellent form whiffing eleven Galveston men and leading his mates to a 10 to 4 victory.

Home runs also played a part in Wichita Falls' 6 to 4 victory over Minneapolis as Howard Fitzgerald delivered a circuit-clout in a late-inning rally that overcame a two-run deficit lead.

The San Antonio Bear's were in their water before Ray Kramer and Leo Meadows of Pittsburgh, however getting only seven hits while the Pirates garnered 18, and the latter won 10 to 1.

The Wanser brothers led the Pittsburgh hitters with three singles each while Wright starred afield with 11 chances handled without a bobbie.

Although wet grounds caused postponement of a scheduled clash with the Omaha Crickets, the Fort Worth Panthers had a two-hour drill to fit them for a game today with a Decatur American Legion nine.

Rain deprived Beaumont fans of their last chance to see the Exporters in action before the regular season begins with a contest with Rochester of the International league was postponed.

As a polishing process for tilts with Fort Worth Saturday and Sunday, the Dallas Steers put in an easy day, getting in a free dinner at a luncheon club where they were guests of honor and a short drill afterward.

So far as the number of his player is concerned, Manager Del Pratt of Waco is ready for the season to start the departure of a young outfielder named Orr for Wichita Falls having brought the Cubs within the player limit as regards infielders and outfielders.

Triplex Special Will Assault World Speed Record Very Soon

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., April 6.—(AP)—The gargantuan Triplex Special powered by thirty-six cylinders and owned by J. M. White of Philadelphia today stood ready to attack the world's automobile speed record of 203.2 miles per hour.

Ray Keech, driver of the big racer stated last night that the run would be made in the next few days.

Five Teams From South Qualify in Basketball Meet

CHICAGO, April 6.—(AP)—Five teams from the South, including Carr Creek the "wonder team" with a systematic style of play, today were among the eight qualifiers for the quarter-final round of the national high school basketball tournament at the University of Chicago. The Midwest has two five left in play, and the far west one today's championship games.

Boxing and Wrestling Cards Scheduled for Next Week Here

Boxing and wrestling events will be the sport attractions here next week. One of the best boxing cards of the season will be presented at the Pampa Athletic club Monday night, and a wrestling card of championship caliber is scheduled for Thursday night at the Pla-Mer auditorium.

Featuring Monday night's card at the Athletic club will be the iron jawed Jimmie Carter from Hutchinson and Billie Springfield of California.

who once broke that iron jaw in California. It will be a slugfest match and is scheduled to go ten rounds.

Rusty Cahill, Pampa boy, is returning to the ring in the semi-final to meet Johnnie Thompson, a product of the Pacific coast.

O. D. the fighting newsboy, who has never tasted defeat in the local ring will meet Earl Borden for the fight meet Sonny Jackson here next week.

Two good preliminaries will also be featured in the big card.

Wrestling fans will see that famous Senora Indian, Yaqui Joe, in action against Louis Sandova of eastern fame. This match will be held in the Pla-Mer auditorium Thursday night commencing at 8:30 o'clock under the auspices of the American Legion.

Besides the Indian and the Eastern Joe Kopecky, the hardest boiled wrestler in the state will meet Bull Young in the opening event, which will be a time match, one fall in 30 minutes.

Major Teams Are Gradually Beating Off Minor Nines

NEW YORK, April 6.—(AP)—The humbling of major league baseball clubs by their little brothers continues, although in lesser degree. Only two of the big fellows fell before minor league opposition yesterday but the defeats left no issues in doubt, the losers scoring only one run between them.

The Cleveland Indians lost to Montgomery of the Southeastern league 4 to 0 while Indianapolis downed Cincinnati 11 to 1. The Lions of Montgomery bunched their hits while the Cleveland safeties do not even count in the averages.

Polk, Jackie May could not defend himself with his usually good left and was knocked out in the third round. Only Ethan Allen's late home run saved the Reds from the fate of the Indians.

The best pitching performance of the spring season was contributed by Bill Walker as he left-handed the Giants to a 4 to 0 victory over Washington. The Senators reached the big fellow for only two hits, widely separated. The Giants accorded their most promising recruit, Spotty, support but the Denver southpaw was so good the wobbly fielding could not dull the lustre of his brilliant performance.

The Yankees pounded the ball to win 14 to 4 from Gabby Street's Knoxville team of the Sally league. Ruth ran the scale right up to the home run chord but fell short. He registered a triple double single and drew two passes

Mark Koenig nursed heel and hand trouble as he saw his understudy, Lee Durocher, hit a home run.

Brooklyn's Robins, aroused by an Atlanta defeat the day before, rapped out 21 hits to defeat the Crackers 15 to 2 in the second of the series. Rube Bressler, who in his entire career as a Robin had made but one hit, delivered four. Jigger Stats, appearing as a pinch hitter, hit for the circuit.

The Pittsburgh Pirates won going away from San Antonio, stopping the Texans, 10 to 1. Ray Kremer and Lee Meadows of the Buccaneer shock troops, pitched tight ball.

The White Sox, off in front, kept improving their position until they defeated Louisville, 17 to 6.

Even presents of floral horse shoes and traveling bags to Kent Greenfield and Lancel Richbourg could not stop the Boston Braves and the Nashville volunteers were downed, 13 to 3.

The Browns, Cards, Cubs, and Tigers were kept out of action by rain.

The Philadelphia Athletics, awaiting resumption of their city series with the Phillies, received some bad news during the day. Al Simmons, Connie Mack's best hitter, has been laid low by bad ankles, blamed on his tonsils and may have to have an operation. If he is unable to start the season

McCarthy Reflects Baseball Prospects in Door Knocks

CHICAGO, April 6.—(AP)—Mrs. Joe McCarthy can just about tell what the Cubs are going to do in baseball by the way her husband, who manages them, knocks on the door.

When Joe is discouraged over pennant prospects of the Cubs, she said, he gives two timid raps that spell to her trained ear discouragement and ebbing hope. When the prospects are bright, he gives a series of resounding knocks that shiver the timbers—decimopy knocks like an emperor might give.

And Joe is knocking hard these days, Mrs. McCarthy said.

"Only once did I question him about baseball," said Mrs. McCarthy. "That was last winter. I was curious to know why Pittsburgh was willing to let Kiki Cuyler go if he was as good as he was cracked up to be. So I asked Joe.

"'Babe,'" he said, "'lets go skating, and we did.'"

In all the world... no other flavor just like this....

"Good to the last drop"

SWIFTLY it has won the whole country—this special shade of richness from the old South.

Back of it lies one of the few truly great achievements in the art of blending coffees—the genius of a single man.

No other man, perhaps, could have done it. He had grown to manhood in the old South—that land of good things to eat and drink. More than this, he had the hope of creating in coffee a flavor that no one had ever tasted. And the courage to persist until he had perfected it.

In the blend that this southerner finally offered to the great families of Dixie, there was a new, full-bodied smoothness that delighted them. Long ago Maxwell House Coffee became the favorite of the South.

Today the news of its mellow richness has spread swiftly. Maxwell House is now by far the largest selling coffee in the country.

That shade of difference in his blend has come as a new luxury to men and women everywhere who value the fine things of life. He alone has succeeded in combining coffees just this way.

A new adventure awaits you and your family in the rare flavor of Maxwell House Coffee. The full-bodied, mellow liquor, the rich aroma of this blend will bring a new contentment at breakfast and at dinner. Your grocer has Maxwell House Coffee in sealed blue tins.

MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE

It is pleasing more people than any other coffee ever offered for sale

Three-Quarter Rate
In Effect on Cars

Deputy Ray Wilson reports the sale of three-quarter auto tags to be higher than in former years, due largely to the courthouse being situated in Pampa, where it is easy to take out the license.

The three-quarter rate began April 1 and since that time many used cars have been sold and licenses taken out. New cars are subject to the three-quarter price, also automobiles which have not been driven on the highways since January 1. The owner of the used vehicle must make affidavit that the car has not been in use since the first day of January.

of Christ, those passing from wonder and chaos into the light of full understanding, runs the story, entrancing vibrating with meaning, filling the heart with the immensity of its truth. Each number, of which there are eleven, is beautiful in melody and thought. "Christ Hath Arisen," the final chorus, truly attains the desired climax. In raptures are those who witness and tell of the resurrection. Such a spirit radiates through this powerful finale.

Singing the solo parts are the following: Soprano, Mrs. R. R. Jones, Mrs. H. G. Twiford, Mrs. Lewis Williams, Mrs. H. Gerhard; tenors, R. B. Fisher, Lewis Hardin, basses, Tom W. Brabham, E. D. Zimmerman, H. McBee, P. M. Bailey.

Paving---

Stuckey construction company by Mr. Williams from the Coffeyville Brick company.

The Portland Cement company was represented by Lucian Wright.

Other representatives of companies interested in the letting of the contract were Sam Mangum of the Vibrolithic Asphalt company, and Jones Collins of the Bitulithic Asphalt company of El Paso.

There present expressed their appreciation of the fairness and courtesy extended by A. H. Doucette, city engineer, and for the care he took in explaining the details of the contract; also to P. M. Gwin, city manager, Mayor T. D. Hobart, and Commissioners, Dave Osborne and Lynn Boyd.

Girl Alone---

in when he thought I'd killed a man. I don't suppose he'll turn on us now, particularly since you're such a riot as Princess Lalla. I've been hearing how big you're going over in the Palace of Wonders."

"Honestly, David?" she brightened. "Do you like me dressed up like this?" and she made him a little curtsy.

"You sweet, sweet kid!" he laughed at her tenderness. "Like you like that? You're adorable! But I like your own wild rose complexion better. Now soon or I'll be put in irons for spoiling the supper."

Sally fled, but not before she had blown him an audacious kiss from the tips of her gilded-nailed fingers.

Winfield Bybee had entered the dining car during her talk with David and was seated at his own table, his thin hatchet-faced wife opposite him. When he saw his new "Princess Lalla" almost skipping down the aisle, her eyes sparkling with joy at David's unexpected praise and tenderness, he muttered something to Mrs. Bybee, then beckoned the fantastically clad little figure to his table.

"Would her royal highness honor me and Mrs. Bybee with her presence at dinner this evening?" he boomed, his blue eyes twinkling.

When she had seated herself, after a little flurry of thanks, Bybee leaned toward her and spoke in a confidential undertone: "Me and the wife have seen that piece in the paper about you and Dave, Sally. What about it? Who's lying? You and the boy or Carson?"

Sally had turned the little black lace veil back upon the jeweled-gilt crown so that her big eyes showed like two round, polished sapphires set in bronze. Bybee, searching them with his keen, pale blue eyes, could find in them no guile, no cloud of guile.

"David and I told you the truth Mr. Bybee," she said steadily, but her lips trembled childishly. "You believe us, don't you? David is good, good!"

"All right," Bybee nodded his acceptance of her truthfulness. "Now what was that you were telling me and the wife about your mother?"

Sally's heart leaped with hope. "She—my mother—lived here in Stanton, Mr. Bybee. I have her address, the one she gave the orphanage 12 years ago when she put me there. But Miss Ford, who works in the office at the Home, said they had investigated and found she had moved away right after she put me in the orphanage. But I thought—I hoped—I could find out something while I'm here. But I suppose it would be too dangerous—I might get caught—and they'd send me to the reformatory."

"Haven't I told you I'm not going to let 'em bother you?" Bybee chided her, besting her brows in a terrific frown. "Now, my idea is this—"

"My idea, Winfield Bybee?" his wife interrupted tartly. "Awe's takin' red 't! That's you all over! My idea Sally is for me to scut around the neighborhood where your mother used to live and see if I can pick up any information for you. Land knows, I'll do for you to go around asking questions, but I'll make out like I'm trying to find out where my long-lost sister, Mrs. Ford, is. What was her first name? Got that, too!"

"Her name was Nora," Sally said softly. "Mrs. Nora Ford, aged 28 then—12 years ago. Oh, Mrs. Bybee, you're so good to me! Why are you so good to me?" she added impudently.

"Maybe," Mrs. Bybee answered brusquely. "It's because you're a sweet kid, without any flirty nonsense about you. That is," she added severely, her sharp grey eyes flicking from Sally's eager face to Bybee's, you'd better not let me catch you making eyes at the old Tom Cat of mine!"

"Now, Ma," Bybee flushed and quipped, "don't tease the poor kid. Can't you see she's clear gone on this Dave chap of hers? She wouldn't ever know I was a man if I didn't wear pants. Don't mind her, Sally. She's your friend, too, and she'll try to get or your ma's tracks tomorrow morning before show time."

All are not friendly in the carnival. In the next chapter Sally finds an enemy.

First at the get-away
First on the straight-away

No car in the Victory price class can match the all around brilliance of Victory performance.

The Victory is first at the get-away and first on the straight-away—faster on the hills, faster in traffic—smoother on rough roads.

And accelerates as no other car at the price has EVER done: 5 to 25 miles in 7 1/4 seconds! 10 to 45 miles in 13 1/2 seconds!

The public discovered all this even as the stop watch proved it.

More power per pound of car weight made it possible. Rugged Dodge construction made it practical. And the Victory's unusual design made it SAFE.

For the Victory gravity center is lower and there is no body overhang.... The chassis frame is the full width of the body—and the body sills are eliminated.

Exceptional charm of line and more headroom and seat width are further vital results of this unique construction.

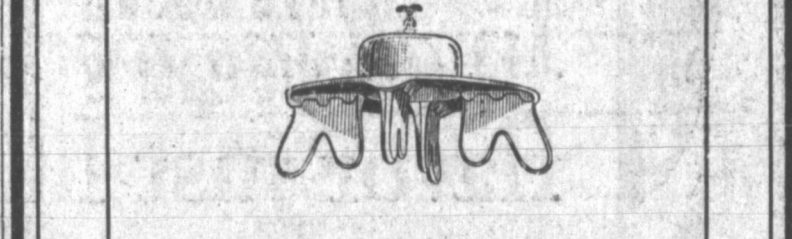

Drive the car today and make your own comparisons!

ZENITH

Washes With Gentle Rubber Hands

Soft rubber hands move the clothes to and fro through steaming suds—so gently as your own hands would do, washing the dirt away quickly and completely.

In three or four minutes ordinary clothes are spotlessly white; in seven or eight the very dirtiest are clean, with no unnecessary wear or loss of time. The Zenith rubber hands hold the boiling clothes from above—keep them submerged in the hot suds—wash them naturally.

There are many other reasons why a Zenith Washing Machine is the most satisfactory and practical. Let us send one to your home on free trial.
