WITNESS SAYS KLAN CHIEFS ORGANIZED "NIGHT RIDERS"

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 10.—(AP)—That he witnessed the burning alive of seven or eight men by Ku Klux Klansmen in Texas was the testimony given in federal court here this afternoon by Clarence W. Ludlow, who was called as a witness in the Klan injunction suits.

Ludlow, now a resident of Pittsburgh, said he was a former member of Dallas Klan Number 56, and that he was personally acquainted with Imperial Wizard Hiram Evans.

He described the burning of a white man at Terrell, Texas, saying the victim was "tried" by a Klan "Kangaroo court," tarred, oiled, and then set on fire by a Klansman who applied a match.

Called as a witness in the Klan injunction suits, Ramsey said the night riders were organized "to burn churches and to carry out bombings and assassinations." He said the riders had bombed the West Dayton Klan temple as a means of increasing the Klan membership in that district.

WALSH GETS M'ADOO HELP FOR PRESIDENT

Pointed Out As An Ardent Supporter of Wilson ENDORSEMENT IS GIVEN BY LETTER Outcome of Elections in Three States Is Awaited

WASHINGTON, April 10.—(AP)—Presidential politics advanced another big stride today with clarification of additional convention delegate leanings in two states and as many insular possessions, in which Hoover and Smith figured, and the bringing up to the front line of battle of more oral artillery for Walsh.

Hoover now ahead in the race for the Republican presidential nomination today could lay claim to perhaps 17 more convention delegates as a result of party conventions and other activity yesterday.

Other Monday political developments brought a lengthy tribute to Walsh, Montana's entry in the June Democratic convention, by William G. McAdoo, who engaged in the memorable deadlock with Smith for the 1924 nomination and who heads the slate of Walsh delegates in California, and a decision by the Hoover forces to resume active campaigning in Ohio where his fight has been in abeyance since the death of his April 24 primary opponent, Senator Willis.

McAdoo, a son-in-law of the late President Wilson, in a letter to John B. Elliott of Los Angeles, another of Walsh's lieutenants in California, described the Montana Senator as "one of the strongest supporters of President Wilson's administration."

Representative Burton, veteran member of the House from Cleveland, and representative Free, who represents Hoover's home district in California are to take up the cudgels again for the cabinet officer in Ohio before the primary two weeks hence.

Lowden, neck and neck with Hoover in the Illinois today to put him out in front again in the delegate contest. The former Illinois governor was the only Republican entered in that state's primary today and his managers expected to land at least 30 of the 50 district delegates.

Smith's supporters had claimed most, if not all, of the 50 Democratic district delegates voted on in Illinois today, and also the eight delegates at large to be chosen later.

In Nebraska, former Senator Hitchcock was entered in the Democratic primary and was conceded the "favorite son" support of the state's 16 delegates. There were two delegate slates in the Republican primary, one pledged to Senator Norris with Lowden as second choice.

Ernest Eslick oil operator, formerly of Pampa, now with offices in Amarillo, was here on business today.

PRODUCTION IS SOMEWHAT OFF

TULSA, Okla., April 10.—(AP)—Although the West Texas oil fields gained approximately 16,000 barrels in average daily production of crude oil during the last week, the increase failed to offset a 22,000 barrel loss in the California fields, with the result that the grand total production for the United States showed a decrease of 7,101 barrels during the week ending April 7.

However, there was a gain of 15,070 barrels of light crude oil for the entire country, as all of the California decrease was in heavy crude production.

Oklahoma's total production dropped from 635,470 barrels for the week ending March 31, to 627,675 barrels last week. The principal loss was registered in the greater Seminole area, which dropped about 5,000 barrels.

The Hendricks field area of the West Texas area had the biggest gain of the week, jumping from 195,832 to 209,270 barrels. The Yates field also showed a gain of about 4,000 barrels, despite a pinching-in program.

Slight gains were registered in the Arkansas, North Central Texas, South-west Texas and Long Beach fields, with practically all other areas remaining stationary or showing losses in production.

Total U. S. production for the week ending April 7, was 2,415,309, compared with 2,422,410 for the week ending March 31.

ONE MAN IS SHOT, SEVERAL KIDNAPED AND BOXES STUFFED

CHICAGO, April 10.—(AP)—Chicago's section of today's state-wide primary started off with a rush to the polls under a benevolent blue sky and a fusillade of reports of violence which promised records.

Only the heavy voting continued, however, once the city's most elaborate plans for keeping an election clean began to function, and at noon the primary had become remarkably peaceful, considering the issues at stake.

The box score at that hour stood: Shot, one. Kidnaped, four. Beaten, three. Boxes reported stuffed, eleven. Hoodlums active, four. Arrested, four.

BURNING DUMP GROUND TAKES FORD'S FANCY

LONDON, April 10.—(AP)—Henry Ford has discovered a London garbage dump which has been burning a thousand years or so and has set himself the task of working out some scheme by which these fires may be utilized.

His eyes glistened and apparently all his vacation plans have been forgotten.

SINCLAIR LEWIS AND H. L. MENCKEN must have targets; their literary lives depend upon satire. Good objects upon which to vent their criticisms are rather scarce, for they are not satisfied with a public snicker—they want a roar.

They tried God, but the roar was weak and muffled and seemed to come from a doubtful source. Then they tried Rotary and the response has been rather gratifying to them.

Attacks upon Rotary as a fostering agent of American business and profession al ethics and fellowship is a contradictory effort which neutralizes the influence of the author.

Arthur Sapp, president of Rotary International and spokesman for 140,000 business men, comes back with this: "When those two poke fun at Rotary, we Rotarians can feel proud that we are in good company."

Justice Stafford of the District of Columbia Supreme Court gives much of his spare time to making verse. He delves into the works of the masters and tries his hand at sonnets.

The sonnet is a fitting vehicle for an exact judge; it requires masterful exactness, not to mention succinctness and judicial deductions. But of Justice Stafford—he is author.

Alas! the New Scarecrow Doesn't Seem to Be Very Effective.

Lone eagle of the wild Atlantic plans, Tall, laughing boy with sun-glints in your eyes, Playfellow of the lightning and the rain, Co-sentry with old watchers in the skies, Light-hearted prologue to the epic muse, Glad re-uniter of long-riven parts, Bright Hermes of the nations, bringing news Of love still flaming in all human hearts!

A doctor who died in a blood transfusion experiment is hailed as a martyr, but many other public servants have given their life blood just as surely, in long hours spent for the public good.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Should the passing of Senator Frank B. Willis of Ohio prove to have been the "break" fated to decide the choice of the Republican notional convention it apparently will be the first instance of the kind in history.

Death never has removed a candidate for nomination who was conceded a real chance or who stood formidably in the path of a favorite candidate, except perhaps in the case of a president serving his first term.

Parties naturally count in the health of a candidate along with his abilities as a vote-getter. They want a man who can stand the campaign and who can last eight years. The mortality rate among presidents and candidates has been high in the last seven years. Harding died in office and Wilson not long after he left. La Follette, one of the three candidates of 1924, died in 1925. Senator Samuel Ralston of Indiana, who might have had the compromise nomination at the Democratic convention of 1924 had he not refused it, also died in the next year.

Death, however, has decided at least one presidential election. It beat Henry Clay in his campaign against James K. Polk in 1844.

Clay was nominated by the Whigs. His party labored under a handicap because it had been forced to repudiate President Tyler, who had entered the White House when Harrison died a little more than a month after inauguration. If Harrison had died two or three years later, Tyler might not have been able to wreck the party.

Even so, he might have won but for another death—that of Muhlenberg, the Democratic candidate for governor of Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania was regarded in that year as a pivotal state. Muhlenberg was nominated only after a bitter factional fight which so weakened the party that he had no patricular hope of election.

The result was bound to be so close that both parties believed the winner in the state fight would insure the national ticket. Then Muhlenberg died in the middle of the election campaign and the Democrats all united to win with his previously beaten opponent. The Democrats carried the state for governor in October and so virtually effected a victory for Polk in Pennsylvania by 6,000 votes and a majority of 5000 in New York in November.

TWINKLES

A young Pampa father is certain that his first son is to be an aviator, because the tiny lad quits squalling when he is picked up.

Blase New Yorkers probably did not broadcast the fact that that proud city uses tons and tons of onions annually, from Egypt, Chile, the Virgin Islands, Cuba, Texas, Massachusetts, and the Middle West.

Its the sad truth that when some people have hard luck they have to tell about it three times before they give one time to express sympathy or beat a retreat.

Well customers, our new city commission is off for a two-year stretch, and one of the first laps ought to be house numbering. Next to putting up Lions and Rotary "Welcome to Pampa" signs, this numbering business has been the most delayed.

A horse flew over the English channel the other day, and we read that a jackass is going to try to fly to the moon.

BARBS

(By N.E.A. Service Inc.)

The prohibition enforcement department issues a statement that Kansas City and Houston will be dry in June. Believe that and you can believe anything.

The Daughters of the American Revolution have put William Allen White on the blacklist. How does one go about getting on that list, does anyone know?

Senator Blaine of Wisconsin was a trifle peeved because he spoke to so many empty seats in the Senate when for two days he discussed the migratory bird bill. Mr. Blaine is a new senator, but this looks like he has caught on to the legislators' ways.

A Kansas paper, in an editorial on Edward Hickman, calls him Everett Hickman. Ah, fame is fleeting!

A physical examination showed Lindbergh had flat feet. Well, they're something he doesn't use much, anyway.

A Republican is a man who believes that the Democrats got something from Harry Sinclair, too.

Madame Schoemmel set a record by swimming for 32 hours. Maybe she's training to paddle along with Lindbergh on his next transatlantic flight.

Irate Negro Woman Causes Near-Panic When Bullets Fly

Lillie Goss, negro, is in the city jail and Roberta Jesse, also a negro, is under the care of a physician following a shooting this morning which lasted for several minutes. Bullets flew in every direction around the Adams hotel until the magazine of seven shots was exhausted.

The affray was the result of a fight last night in which Roberta Jesse beat Lillie Goss over the head with a baseball bat.

Two of the bullets went through a bathroom window in the hotel and stamped the guests in the lobby, and one went under the bed of a sick man in a residence nearby. Two bullets flew down Ballard street toward the Santa Fe depot and the other two went elsewhere.

Two of the seven bullets entered the coat of the injured woman and one entered the thigh from the back but inflicted only a flesh wound. The fight started at the rear of the hotel where several families of negroes reside, and continued to Ballard street and thence around the hotel again with pedestrians and hotel residents ducking in every direction as the enraged woman emptied the gun in all directions as she ran.

Mel B. Davis Enters Race for Commissioner

Friends of Mel B. Davis have persuaded that life-long resident of the county to enter the race for commissioner of Precinct one in which he has resided his entire life. Mr. Davis has entered the race subject to the Democratic primary, July 28, 1928.

Mr. Davis has always been a prominent figure in Gray county, having served for many years as school trustee in the LeFors district. He is a large shareholder in the LeFors Petroleum company, drilling the LeFors townsite well, and last year escorted a large swimming pool and play ground on his ranch east of LeFors.

In a statement to the News, Mr. Davis said "I am only allowing my name to appear as a candidate for that office after repeated urging by my friends and if elected will to the best of my ability serve my precinct and Gray county."

ELECTION--

Political Armageddon, for he stood before the Republicans of the state asking their endorsement of his seven years in office by renomination to a third term. In Chicago his lot was cast with the Republican faction led by Mayor Thompson and State's Attorney Crowe.

Cameras Are Used Louis L. Emmerson, secretary of state, was Gov. Small's opponent. He headed the ticket of that Republican group led by United States Senator Charles S. Deneen, the "bombing of whose home a fortnight ago tore the sides out of the Chicago political situation.

A novelty in the fighting of fraud was introduced with the equipping of several hundred volunteer voting places with cameras. Pictures were to be taken of all persons whom the watch believed might be a repeater. The films were to be promptly developed and prints made, providing a refutable evidence of repeating, provided the films showed the same voter entering voting places in different precincts.

F. A. Dunegan of Borger and E. C. Dunegan of Panhandle were business visitors here today.
