Wilson to Be Honored This Afternoon at Grave

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11. (P)-Proud of America's achievements in the cause of world peace and paying impressive tribute to the world war dead, the government's officialdom, headed by President Hoover, joined with the rest of the nation today in observing the eleventh aniversary of the signing of the Armistice.

Opening the commemoration was the recital of burial services over the plain marble slab in Arlington cemetery under which lies America's unknown Soldier, and then as the most notable exercise of the afternoon a memorial service at the tomb of Woodrow Wilson, the wartime president in the national cathedral. To climax the observance of the historic event. President Hoover will deliver an address tonight under the auspices of the American Legion to a distinguished audience of government officials, dip-'omats and world war veterans.

Throughout the nation, exercises, parades and addresses formed the program of commemoration. The 12,000 posts of the American Legion, numbering 850,000 war veteran members, took the leadership in ceremo many communities where army, naval or marine detachments are stationed, a military display formed part of the observance, but the guns and swords were brought out on dress parade to commemorate not war but this

ARMISTICE DAY

By JAMES W. GOOD Secretary of War

LEVEN years ago today, the guns that for four years had elamored their dreadful chorus from the North Sea to the Swiss Alps, were silenced. The greatest war of all history, a vast and desperate struggle reaching to the roots of

We, with other peoples, had made a solemn sacrifice for smelloration of the world and each passing year has brought a deeper appreciation of the nebility and significance

No words we speak, no monuments we build, can pay dequate tribute to the devotion, the heroism and endurance of those who gave their lives and all that life means in order that we might schieve victory, but as each succeeding November brings another Armistice day we keep faith with them by reconsecrating ourselves to the establishment of lasting peace.

Since we celebrated this day of human triumph a year ago much progress has been made along definite lines to insure international amity. The outlawry of war and the proposed disarmament conference are palpable evidence that we stand with all our moral and material strength on the side of peace.

We are true to our trust with the dead and as, with the coming of this day, we look backward down the lengthening vista of the years, we gratefully remember their heroic spirit and derive new inspiration and courage to meet our obligations as beneficiaries of their sacrifices.

BORGER, Nov. 11. (A)-The beginning of what may prove a new and less sanguinary chapter in Borger's his. tory was awaited today with the filing of a petition for an election of city officers to replace those appointed during Borger's recent military rule.

ARMISTICE DAY

The activity of our nation is suspended for a moment today in remembrance of the lull that suddenly fell over the crimson chaos of France eleven years ago. Surrounded by the sweet joys of peace, we meditate on the devotion to duty that swept away youth's right to live and broke the hearts of old age. May we humbly justify that devotion by a reverence for the ideals in which it originated.

Posses Search Mountains for Train Robbers

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 11. (A)-Two men who wrecked the West Coast Limited of the Southern Pacific railroad in the mountainous country six miles west of Saugus, Calif., and robbed the frightened passengers were sought today throughout Southern California.

Railroad officials announced the enineer, R. C. Ball, was the only casualty and the amount of loot taken from passengers was approximately $500. Ball received possibly fatal burns when his locomotive overturned and the boiler exploded.

The robbers, carrying out an apparently well planned plot, chose a curve in the tracks to pry loose ten lengths of rail with tools they are believed to have stolen from an equipment shed at Saugus.

The speeding locomotive hit the weakened rails and plowed into ditch, overturning and carrying with it baggage and mail cars and oaches. Seven other cars of the rain remained upright.

As the train crashed to a halt, two masked men waving revolvers appeared in a sleeping car four lengths from the end of the train.

They encountered Conductor Otis French. One of the said: "There the money you have, if you don't Welfare association.
