GENERAL MANAGER OF TEXAS PRISON SYSTEM QUILTS

CONFERENCE IS TO CONVENE IN CITY TUESDAY

One of Best Meetings of Year Expected by Church

THOUSAND TO BE IN PAMPA

Many Transfers Will Be Made This Session

All indications are that the session of the Northwest Texas annual conference which will open here next Tuesday evening will be one of the most interesting held in the state this year.

Bishop John M. Moore of Dallas will arrive Tuesday morning and will immediately go into a session with the eight presiding elders, who are: E. E. White, Abilene district; W. M. Pierce, Amarillo district; Mark M. Beavers, Plainview district; W. M. Murrell, Clarendon district; D. B. Deak, Lubbock district; L. M. Lipscomb, Stamford district; and J. O. Hames, Vernon district; and J. H. Hamblen, Stanton district.

Many Changes Likely Advance information indicates that many preachers will be transferred throughout the conference. Some of these have served five years, and a few have served five years at their locations. Since many of these are in the larger cities, much deliberation by the bishop and his cabinet will be necessary in replacing and exchanging men. Other items of interest will include the Amarillo college project, which will be definitely settled at this conference.

Last year Amarillo Methodists asked the conference for an extension of time to meet their promise concerning the proposed college. Failure to fulfill that promise will mean withdrawal of the conference's proposition to Amarillo, it is said. It is reported that the board of education will recommend to the conference that the project be dropped.

Another matter of much interest will be the election of delegates to the general conference which will convene in Dallas in June. Those who are in the race and gaining favor are W. M. Murrell of the Clarendon district; J. W. Hunt, president of McMurray college; O. P. Clark, pastor of the First Methodist church, Sweetwater; L. M. Lipscomb, presiding elder of the Sweetwater district; Joe Hames, presiding elder of the Vernon district; and the following who are less active: D. B. Deak, presiding elder of the Lubbock district; Will Pierce, presiding elder at Amarillo; Dick Stewart, pastor of the First Methodist church at Stamford.

According to custom, Bishop Moore will have this matter settled at the opening session of the conference. This will mean that practically the entire conference will be here Tuesday night in order to be on hand for the first business session of Wednesday morning.

Expect 1,000 Visitors The conference as a whole will set (See CONFERENCE, page 6.)

THE WEATHER VANE OKLAHOMA and WEST TEXAS: Fair, somewhat warmer tonight; Wednesday fair.

AND A SMILE NEWARK, N. J., (P)—Merrily the war rages over who was the tallest fellow in the A. E. F. Three claimants follow (all the same height): Nicholas Casale, Newark, 4 feet 10; weight 110; Braggio Raimondon, Lake Hopatcong, N. J., 109; William Geyer, Pittsburgh, Pa., 99.

FIVE DIRECTORS OF B. C. D. WILL BE NAMED

Terms Automatically to Expire Next Jan. 1

Selection of five directors of the Board of City Development will be carried out by January 1 or before to fill places which automatically will become vacant at that time.

When the Board was organized one year ago under the provisions of the city charter, the fifteen directors appointed by the city commission drew for length of terms. Five men drew three-year terms, two five-year terms, and the remaining ten terms of one year. The five members whose terms are about to expire are Judge Ivey E. Duncan, Clyde Fatheree, T. D. Hobart, E. F. Thomas, and Olin E. Hinckle.

Under the provisions of the charter, the present directors will nominate ten men, whose names will be submitted to the city commission. The commission will appoint five of these ten to serve during the coming year on the Board.

The B. C. D. directors last night appointed M. E. Brown, Scott Barcus, and T. F. Smalling to make a study of prospective new directors, and to submit a list to the Board for consideration at the December session, when ten names will be sent to the city commission for action.

It was decided last night that the next Chamber of Commerce luncheon will be held November 25, when delegates to the Oil Field Highway association No. 41 will be guests of the Chamber at the meal.

Plans are going forward for the annual poultry show under B. C. D. auspices. This will be held Dec. 5, 6, and 7 at the new Thut-Saunders building.

Texas Pipeline Run Cut 20 Per Cent

Following the announcement Nov. 1 that Texas company would limit purchases of crude oil in Carson, Gray and Hutchinson counties to 80 per cent of what it had been purchasing from wells connected to the Texas Pipe Line company, Humble Pipe Line company officials stated today that they had made no prororation of oil runs but indicated that a similar cut in their crude purchases is being considered. Heretofore most of the oil in the Marland-Finley area has been purchased by the Texas company. Proration by all the pipeline companies was deemed necessary by them at the oil operators meeting here Oct. 29 if the production of the county increased.

Prairie Pipe Line officials stated at the meeting that they had been buying more oil than they could handle and operators are expecting the Prairie to follow the Texas company's lead.

"This action is necessary due to storage being full and receipts cannot exceed pipe line capacity, which is 80 per cent of present runs," the Texas company stated in announcing the proration.

The company is now taking 17,000 barrels daily in the three counties.

New Oil Leases Recent leases filed in the office of county clerk are as follows: H. F. Young to C. C. Hightower, 1-64 interest in section 34, block B-2; E. F. Huston to C. B. Cox, south one-half of the southwest quarter of section 36, block 25, 80 acres; W. E. Davis to Operators Royalty company, 2-25 interest in section 20, block H, A. W. Wallace survey; Frank Knappenberger to British American Oil company, east 160 acres of section 61, block B-2; R. A. Mackle to Delaney and Associates, Oil company, Inc., northeast quarter of section 115, block B-2, 160 acres.

ACCEPTANCE OF RESIGNATION IS 'WITH REGRET'

W. L. Mead Says He Faces Handicap of Politics

MANY HINDER HIS ACTIVITY

Pernicious Attitude Is Mentioned in Statement

HOUSTON, Nov. 5. (P)—W. L. Mead, general manager of the Texas prison system, resigned today.

The state prison board, in session here, accepted the resignation "with regret," thanking Mr. Mead for his valuable services.

In giving up the post, Mr. Mead said: "My contacts with the political phases of this position during the current year have convinced me my further service here would be under excessive handicaps and the pernicious attitude of some who should be helping confirm this belief."

Chairman W. A. Paaddock said no successor would be chosen at this meeting, but Lee Simmons of Sherman, it was learned unofficially, had been under consideration to fill Mead's place.

Lee Bobbitt of Austin to Speak at McLean Soon

McLEAN, Oct. 5. (P)—Attorney General Robert Lee Bobbitt of Austin will be the principal speaker at the Father and Son banquet which will be held at the First Presbyterian church on the evening of Nov. 7. The banquet is being served by the P.-T.-A.

Every man in the community is being urged to be there especially if he has a son. The men that have no sons are expected to adopt one for the occasion. Visitors from neighboring towns are expected to be here on account of the attorney-general being on the program.

I. E. Jolley, Boy Scout executive, will represent the Boy Scouts. T. A. Landers will represent the fathers and Norvin Ashby will represent the boys on the program. W. Sherman White will be master of ceremonies.

MUCH INTEREST IN MEETING IS BEING SHOWN

A steadily increasing interest and growing crowds this week have marked the evangelistic meeting being held at the First Baptist church by the Rev. George T. Kelley, pastor of Kendall Street Baptist church, Tulsa.

Sunday, in spite of the mud which possibly reduced the attendance at both services, was a day of outstanding importance, according to the pastor, the Rev. D. H. Truhitte, and his assistant, John Lee Harris. More than 300 persons were in Sunday school, large crowds attended the morning and evening sermons, and there were seven additions to the church membership.

Services are being held this week at 10 o'clock in the morning and 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The pastor has cordially invited the public to hear Rev. Kelley during his meeting here.

RETURN FROM TEMPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Jim White and Mr. and Mrs. Ted White have returned from Temple, after spending ten days there. Ted White had a physical examination in the Scott-White sanitarium. During their visit in the city, Mr. and Mrs. Jim White's new Ford sedan was stolen. They returned by train Sunday.

First Air Baby Needs Name

It wasn't an air male, as might be supposed, but a 7 1/2 pound daughter, who was born to Mrs. Margaret Evans in an air plane flying 1200 feet above Miami, Fla. The mother and baby "airless" are pictured above after the first aerial birth on record. In the "flying maternity hospital"—a large cabin plane—were nurses, a doctor, relatives of the mother, and two pilots. An airy name is being sought for the child.

Coroner's Verdict Now Withheld in Death of Aldridge

Justice of Peace T. M. Wolfe and the sheriff's department are still investigating the death of George Aldridge, and announced today that the coroner's inquest has been postponed until sufficient information has been gathered to warrant a verdict.

That the identity of the man who was found dead in bed yesterday noon at a local cottage court with two gas jets on the kitchen range burning low, had not been fully established was indicated today when it was revealed that he gave his name as "Alfred" to L. H. Prichard a week ago. Mr. Prichard is the manager of Garfield court, where the body was found.

The body was first discovered by a H. H. Shoffitt, employee at a gasoline plant near here, who said he was a brother-in-law of Aldridge. Telegrams found in the cottage which were sent to Aldridge a week ago are in possession of the sheriff. It is thought these will assist in clearing up the identity of the man.

Meanwhile, no funeral arrangements have been announced and the body is being held at G. C. Malone Funeral Home.

NATIONALISTS WIN SHANGHAI, Nov. 4. (P)—A Nationalist government communique issued today stated Nationalist troops scored a decisive victory fifty miles west of Chengchow, Honan province, "capturing 20,000 soldiers of the Kuomintang (Peoples' army). As a result, the Kuomintang forces are withdrawing to the west and the Nationalist are approaching Loyang."

Dozen States in Spirited Elections—South Is Watched

By The Associated Press While election contests drew voters of a dozen states to the polls today, the eyes of the nation were fixed primarily upon Virginia, watchful for any indication of what might be expected of the old dominion in future national campaigns.

Mayoralty elections in New York, Boston, and other cities attracted attention but today's balloting in Virginia was considered a crucial test for the Democratic organization there and efforts of the Republican party to solidify its gains of last year's presidential election under leadership of Herbert Hoover.

With a coalition candidate, William Moseley Brown, sponsored by the Republicans and those elements of the Democratic party which supported President Hoover, opposing the candidate of the regular Democratic machine John Garland Pollard, it was inevitable results of the balloting should be compared with the Hoover majority of 25,000, and interpreted as indicating Virginia had definitely joined the column of "doubtful" states or had returned to the "solid" Democratic south.

Both candidates made election-eve speeches, Brown addressing an audience in the mountain section of the state and Pollard in the tidewater. Each faction claimed a victory, estimating its majorities at from 10,000 to 20,000.

In New York City, Mayor James J. Walker's candidacy for re-election on the Democratic ticket, was opposed by Representative Fiorello H. LaGuardia, Republican, Norman Thomas, Socialist, and Richard E. Enright, former police commissioner, running under sponsorship of the Square Deal party.

In addition to this and the Boston contest there were mayoralty elections in cities of Michigan, Indiana, Kansas and Ohio.

In Kentucky, the Republican party sought to gain control of the last arm of the state government held by the Democrats, the legislature.

AMARILLO GIRL SAYS DIVORCE IN DISCUSSION

She Overheard Talk of Defendant and Brother

HANDWRITING EXPERT USED

Sticks to Testimony That Letters Vary

WEATHERFORD, Nov. 5. (P)—About "three or four days" before Tom Walton, Jr., 21, was shot to death in his father-in-law's Amarillo law office, R. H. Hamilton had a telephone conversation with his brother, Dexter, about a "divorce," a telephone operator said here today in Hamilton's murder trial.

The operator, Mary Wright, said she was working in the Amarillo long distance office when R. H. Hamilton placed a call to his brother in Dallas. The call completed, she declared she listened in for a moment to see whether the line was all right and heard "someone mention either Tom or Theresa."

Theresa was Hamilton's 17-year-old daughter whom Walton married Feb. 10 while both were students at the University of Texas. Hamilton as a witness had testified he did not know Theresa and Tom were married and that he killed Walton May 4 to protect himself.

"Better Watch Step" The witness declared: "The Hamilton in Amarillo said: 'What shall we do about the divorce?' The Hamilton in Dallas said: 'I wouldn't do anything about the divorce. Just keep it quiet for a while.'"

Later, Miss Wright testified, she listened in just as the call was about to be completed and heard the Hamilton in Dallas say:

"You had better watch your step, or you'll get into something it won't be so easy to get out of."

The state at the noon recess had presented 24 rebuttal witnesses. It was expected arguments would begin tomorrow.

WEATHERFORD, Nov. 5. (P)—The state today continued its assault on the self-defense plea R. H. Hamilton has attempted to establish in his trial for murder in the slaying of his son-in-law, Tom Walton, Jr., 21, last May 4.

Through a handwriting expert, the prosecution attacked the authenticity of letters purported to have been written to Hamilton by his wife, then at Austin, during several weeks preceding the homicide.

The first witness, W. A. Weaver of Dallas, said he had been an "examiner of personal documents" for nine years.

District Attorney Edward Thomerson handed the witness a letter Mrs. Hamilton had written to her husband in pencil, asking whether the letter had been inscribed with the same pencil used for addressing the envelope. Weaver said, since the writing was done in pencil, he could not determine.

A second letter, also from Mrs. Hamilton to her husband, dated April 6, then was handed to the witness, and he said the letter had been written and the envelope addressed with different pens.

Weaver said the letter had been written with a stub pen, the lines about one-fiftieth of an inch in width, while the width of lines on the envelope, about one-hundredth of an inch, indicating it had been addressed with a fine pointed pen.

Weaver next examined a letter dated April 12 from Mrs. Hamilton to her husband, that letter, he said, was written with a stub pen, and the envelope addressed with a fine point pen.

The fourth, he said, was written with a stub pen while the envelope was addressed with a "small, round-pointed pen."

Tests showed different inks were (See HAMILTON, Page 2)

MODERN CITY TRAFFIC CODES ARE NOT FIT TO PRESENT DEMANDS AND SHOULD BE ALTERED, IN THE OPINION OF CARL EVENS OF WICHITA, KANS., PRESIDENT OF THE AUTOMOBILE DEALERS' ASSOCIATION THERE.

Quit pinching lady shoppers who park their cars five minutes over the parking limit and get the traffic policemen out on the thoroughfares where they can catch those maniacs who are adding numbers to Wichita's death toll.

It is not the lady shopper or the busy business man who park their cars overtime in the downtown district who are responsible for the epidemic of deaths—it is the careless driver who finds himself in the residential district away from the reach of the law who kills.

Sweetwater has obtained par for her $750,000 water bonds. While oil and water won't mix, Pampa ought to get more than $96.25 for her city hall bonds.

Mexico gets more war for her money than any nation we know about; her budget amount only to the equivalent of one of our battleships.

A member of this firm considered dieting too late, for one ankle has already rebelled at mounting averdupos.

Rigid examinations conducted by city authorities should be given every driver before he is allowed to drive an automobile in the city's streets. Statistics from other cities were such laws are in effect definitely show that such laws go far in eliminating accidents.

Despite our antipathy to more laws, it must be admitted that over-regulation in the congested business districts does nothing for the residential sections where the children play. Observation of city ordinances is largely confined to that enforced by watchful policemen.

The average speed of many motorists in the residential sections on pavement is nearer twice the speed limit than the 20-mile maximum—when no traffic policemen is in sight. With this led-down in respect for regulations often come disregard for hazards, such as children playing in the street or cars crossing at obscured intersection approaches.

One cannot safely insist upon his theoretical rights on the streets—he must not only drive his own car, but he must assist "the other fellow" by watching the latter, making signs, using brakes, and stopping if necessary. In other words, one can never be sure of the conduct of the other driver, who must be given the benefit of the doubt.

are apt to run in most any direction, there are children in cars who have faulty execution if not judgment, and there are both men and women who look too late and think too slowly.

In this discussion of traffic it would be well to mention that lack of uniformity in passing the intersection of Cuyler and Foster is noticeable. It is going to be necessary to impress upon some drivers that a complete stop is necessary before turning corners against the red light.

Turning at the "red" signal is a broad interpretation of the stop-and-go principle at any rate. Many cities do not permit such turns. According to City Manager F. M. Gwin, the right turn against the "red" is permissible only when it will not interfere with pedestrians.

There are still numerous persons who fail to note or do not understand the electric signals. These should be told of their error, for they will not likely learn any other way. Education is necessary in solving any traffic problem.

And contrary to belief, the yellow signal is not to give the Scotch brethren time to start their motors. It is to permit shifting of gears and to give pedestrians time to reach the curbs before the "go" or green light flashes.

There is some use for trash-littered alleys after all. Percy, the office mouse, says that the trash makes it possible for him to dodge about and escape prowling cats and dogs while visiting his friends in Pampa Mouseland.

Sweetwater has obtained par for her $750,000 water bonds. While oil and water won't mix, Pampa ought to get more than $96.25 for her city hall bonds.

Amarillo Man Will Speak Here

W. M. Pearce, presiding elder of the Amarillo district, will be one of the prominent speakers during the coming session of the annual conference here. Rev. Pearce has been very successful as a pastor and as a leader in the Northwest Texas conference.

The discussion now falls into the hands of gubernatorial candidates, and the verbal mud will fly while we plow through the mud on the highways.

There is not a city in the country which does not look well in its printed publicity, and we suppose you could refer to Chamber of Commerce as municipal beauty parlors. There is no accounting for tastes, however, and we prefer to draw our own conclusions and give boosters from other towns the same privilege.

Considering how virtuous a skillful attorney can make most any defendant appear, perhaps the law ought to provide a few Carnegie-type medals for the juries to bestow if they feel so impressed.

Death, we suppose, is a success if your funeral notice is as large as the write-up of your marriage. Few words, however, are so much better than volumes that bespeak a regrettable demise.

Pampa strikes one with its "newness". But let's have some more new trees, new shrubbery, new efforts to have a green as well as a young city. Let's match the greenness of the wheat field next spring.

Stock Market Is Closed for Election

NEW YORK, Nov. 5. (AP)—The stock market was closed today because of the election after an isolated session in which prices showed a net decline of two to 17 points on a turnover of 6,202,930 shares.

The rally which was expected when the market opened yesterday after a two-day selling holiday failed to develop, and in its place appeared selling pressure which was the dominant note throughout an orderly session.

Volume of trade and range of prices was regarded by operators as normal contrasted with the behavior of the market last week, when after a wild selling stampede on Tuesday in which 16,140,030 shares were dumped, the market came back sharply in a three-hour session Thursday with gains up to 36 points and a total of 7,149,390 shares.

For the first day since Oct. 24, the beginning of the big slump, the ticker was able to keep close to the market. It closed 30 minutes after the last sale.

Curtailed sessions from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. tomorrow, Thursday and Friday with complete suspension of business Saturday has been ordered by the board of governors of the stock exchange and officials of the curb exchange in a further effort to permit brokerage houses to catch up with the bookkeeping entailed by the tremendous volume of trade last week. It was found the two-day holiday over the week-end had not afforded sufficient time for overworked staffs to complete their tasks.

velope and in the fifth mess declared, while the envelope in, the sixth letter were written with different pens, as the case with the seventh letter and envelope.

Letters are Compared Thomerson had Weaver compare the writing on six envelopes, all of which the witness said had been written with a fine pointed pen while the others were written with a stub.

An eighth letter was written with the same pen as its envelope but with "different ink; or the same ink in a different condition," Weaver declared.

The witness told how he used chemicals to restore the original color of ink and the letters were clipped to a card-board and passed to the jury for examination.

The direct examination concluded, R. E. Underwood of defense counsel asked Weaver where he was born and he said "in Tennessee."

"What part?" Underwood asked. "In middle Tennessee, I think."

"Why don't you know?"

"I left there when I was three and never went back."

"You were not enough interested in your birthplace to find out?"

"No sir."

Underwood asked whether Weaver ever had obtained a college degree and when the witness replied he had not, the lawyer asked: "Do you know anything about chemistry?"

"No sir."

"Do you know anything about the chemical composition of inks?"

"No sir."

"Do you know the difference between an atom and a molecule?"

"No sir."

"Then you know absolutely nothing about chemistry?"

"No sir."

WEATHERFORD, Nov. 5. (AP)—Mrs.

Grace Walton today testified in the murder trial of R. H. Hamilton, the man who shot her 21-year-old son, Tom Walton, Jr., to death last May 4.

Mrs. Walton talked in a low voice, difficult to hear despite the tense quiet in the court.

The slain child's mother said she lived in Dallas now, but had resided in McAlester, Okla., and Amarillo.

She traced her son's movements for some time before he was slain last May 4, saying he left the University of Texas "some time in April."

She said Tom visited her at the Tourist Inn, where she was manager, the morning of the homicide, and made a telephone call.

"He said: 'Is Judge Hamilton in?' Is this Judge Hamilton. This is Tom Walton speaking," then he left the hotel."

"How long after he left did you receive word he had been hurt?"

"Within 10 or 15 minutes," she said she reached the hospital within 30 minutes.

The state ended its examination and the defense declines to cross-examine.

The state's rebuttal closed with Mrs. Walton's testimony.

Oil Suit Settled Without Hearing

The case of W. B. Saulsbury vs. Panhandle Royalties Corporation was continued until the next term of court by agreement of the attorneys yesterday afternoon.

The case set for today, W. C. Heaston and others vs. L. D. Looper, was settled out of court. C. L. and J. G. Heaston and W. C. Campbell agreed to pay $64,000 to L. D. Looper on condition that W. C. Heaston will pay Looper all damages that may be awarded against him and all costs in case.

Judge W. R. Ewing was hearing divorce cases this afternoon.

Cost of Assessing Oil Properties Is Found Very Big

A bill for $7,750 submitted by Thomas Y. Pickett company of Dallas for assessing oil property values in Gray county was strongly disapproved yesterday afternoon by the county commissioners. Due to the absence of Lewis O. Cox and J. E. White no action was taken on the bill. However, Commissioner Cox attended the first part of the session.

Judge Ivey E. Duncan expressed dissatisfaction after it was announced that the valuation of oil property in the county for this year is $15,929,110. The oil valuation last year was $8,313,323.

Mr. Pickett presented the bill. His company is allowed 5 per cent on the total oil rendition for making the assessment. Each of the commissioners present thought the bill too big and told Mr. Pickett that it will be investigated before it is approved.

The three commissioners approving the tax rolls of Tax Assessor F. E. Leech were Cox, Thomas O. Kirby and M. M. Newman, Mr. White not being present. The total valuation of the county for this year was set at $21,000,291.79 while the 1928 valuation was $13,182,449, a gain of about eight million dollars.

The commissioners expressed the opinion that the task of assessing oil property in Gray county was not worth $7,750, since there are commissioners and members of the equalization board capable of giving a fair rendition. If paid, the assessment bill must be drawn from the general fund of the county.

Mrs. Carl Parsons and infant son of Quitaque and the former's sister, Mrs. M. L. Tracy of Denver, Colo., were guests today of Miss Kate Rusk.

East Ward P.-T.-A. to Hold Meeting Thursday

A brief, but interesting program has been announced for the regular meeting of the East Ward Parent-Teacher association next Thursday afternoon. To be followed by a business session. The two will occupy only an hour, it was said.

An entertainment feature will be given by Miss Kathleen Beatty's fourth grade class, and a continuation of the music demonstration, begun by the fifth grade at the last meeting of the P.-T.-A., will be given. Mrs. V. E. Fatheree will make a ten-minute talk on Parent-Teacher activities.

Miss Ollie Lucille Sherrod and Mr. Allen Angerman Married Sunday

Miss Ollie Lucille Sherrod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sherrod, and Mr. Allen Harold Angerman were married on Sunday afternoon in a simple ceremony at the Rev. Tom W. Brabham's study at the Methodist church. The minister performed the ring service in the presence of a few friends of the young couple.

The bride, who came to Pampa two years ago with her parents, formerly lived in Cisco, where she was graduated from high school. She has been office assistant to Dr. T. R. Martin for the last several months, and plans to retain her position.

Mr. Angerman came to this city fifteen months ago from Denver, Colo. He is foreman of the Murray Auto Works. The young couple is at home at the Johnson hotel.

West Ward P.-T.-A. to Meet on Wednesday at 4

A regular meeting of the West Ward Parent-Teacher has been moved forward one day, to be held on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, instead of on Thursday. The change in the date was necessitated, the president, Mrs. W. Purviance, said, because of the first grades' circus of Thursday evening, in which members of the association are to assist the teachers.

A program will be given, and a business session will be held, according to the usual plan, when the association meets Wednesday.

Miss Goma Scott and W. F. Fowler Married

Miss Goma Scott and Mr. W. F. Fowler were married at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Tom W. Brabham, pastor of the First Methodist church, performed the ceremony at his study. Mr. Fowler is a driller with the McMan Oil and Gas company. He and Mrs. Fowler will make their home here.

Pres. James Todd Calls Second Meeting of Pampa Library Executive Board

Because of a lack of a quorum at a called meeting of the executive committee and the board of directors of the Pampa Library association last night, no business was transacted.

The Rev. James Todd, Jr., president of the association, has called another meeting for Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A special effort is being made, he said, to secure the attendance of every member. Important matters will be discussed, and urgent business will be placed before the body. The meeting will be held in the reading room at the Methodist church.

About New York

By RICHARD MASSOCK
NEW YORK—The signs of autumn are unmistakable.

Even if there weren't football games and chrysanthemums, the florists' windows still would glow with branches of russet leaves, sprigs of bayberry and red bittersweet.

Such seasonal signs are, of course, imported into a city where nature hasn't much chance to work. The 'mums come from California, the leaves and berries from New Jersey, New England and other nearby sections.

Perhaps the surest native evidence of fall is on the Hudson. Just now the Sundays are far from melancholy for the hikers strung along the highways of the Palisades, or for the couples who promenade the slopes along Riverside drive, on the Manhattan side.

There the sunset, a long band of color, shading from orange above to purple at the bottom, is reflected in the river. It's no mean sight and the nature-hungry folk are duly impressed.

PIRATE SHIP

Against this sky, at Seventy-ninth street, are the silhouettes of sail masts, two sets of them. One set belongs to the yacht of Count Felix von Luckner, the other to a boat called the Buccaneer tied alongside the sea raider's craft.

The Buccaneer once had a pretty swell future, but it proved a failure. A five-masted barkentine, it was fitted up to be the flagship of a fleet of sea-going club houses.

That was in 1926. Vincent Richards, the tennis player, was the first president of the club, Oswald Hering, an architect, the last. For two years, later the club was dissolved, its liabilities listed at $30,000 and assets at $5,000 including $2,000 for the ship.

This boat, its stern covered with painted pirates and a large skull-and-crossbone design, now is in the custody of the United States marshal under receivership.

Meanwhile it serves as playground for the youthful pirates of upper Manhattan, impressed by its romantic title, although the ship was built only 11 years ago at Beaumont, Texas, and originally was named "City of Beaumont."

Painters, too, are attracted to it. The watchman says it has been sketched more than a hundred times by art students. The outside is intact, but the kids have completely wrecked the interior.

They first took it as a prize several months ago, when they clambered up the side and chased a former watchman off with stones. They didn't even give him a chance to walk the plank.

COSTLY PARKING

The barkentine's disposition depends on a federal court order. The City of New York is interested, however. It is said to have a bill for dockage for more than two years and the total is mounting at the rate of $24 a day. If the city took over the ship, which it can't, it still would be a loser.

It also costs Count von Luckner $24 a day, presumably, to keep his four masted home tied to the next pier.

The neighbors along the waterfront have heard, however, that the count will sail within a month for New Guinea. They are interested because they like to see different ships at the dock for variety, especially naval destroyers that bring loads of sailors.

ABOUT FOLKS

(BY A. F.)

Mrs. Jack Rolling, former society editor of the Ranger Times and now saleslady at Lucille's Smart Shop, says short dresses for this season are a thing of the past.

At the postoffice yesterday: O. K. Gaylor, assistant postmaster, says patrons had better mail their Christmas parcels early this year—no mail except special deliveries will be handled from midnight Dec. 24 until the same hour Dec. 25; Mrs. Artie Shepherd checking up the month's money order receipts; E. Hollingshead (at the stamp window) discussing the Hamilton case and the technique of playing basketball; Postmaster W. M. Crawford detailing how S. M. U. outplayed Texas.

The first new fur coat seen this season, a rich sable, was being worn by Mrs. H. W. Johns yesterday.

A. J. "Toughy" Davis, special officer for the Santa Fe, says the hitchhikers have taken to freights since the cold spell began. He said he found six in one car the other day.

Seen and heard in a display window: a cocktail shaker that plays tunes.

SUNDOWN STORIES

GOBLIN PARADE

By Mary Graham Bonner

The witches and goblins persuaded the Little Black Clock to let John and Peggy wait and see the goblin parade. "To you, John, winner of the broomstick race, we do honor," the witches called, and the goblins began to march. The witches sat around the bonfire, as did the Little Black Clock and John and Peggy.

Suddenly the strangest music began. It was played by the goblins' band. There was a little goblin who acted as a drum major and waved a crooked stick.

Then followed little goblins playing instruments that looked like those always played in a band, except they were much smaller and they were all crooked looking.

They played the queerest tunes John and Peggy had ever heard. In fact, the tunes sounded crooked, too.

All the goblins followed the band. They marched while the witches sang and the bonfire sizzled and sputtered and crackled as though it had to be in the celebration, too.

After the parade everyone joined in a dance.

But it was not like an ordinary dance. The chief idea seemed to be to jump as high as possible, and every time they jumped (which was almost all the time) the goblins who were playing in the band blew shrieking, startling notes.

John and Peggy were completely out of breath after the dance was over. Even the fire seemed tired, for instead of bursting up into flames it was quiet and glowing.

They roasted apples, then, on the ends of long sticks. And as John and Peggy were leaving they said they had had the loveliest, witchiest, most goblinish, and glorious time they had ever had at a Halloween party.

BLED SOE TO RUN

AUSTIN, Nov. 4. (AP)—W. H. Bledsoe of Lubbock, former state senator, said here today he would be a candidate next year for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant governor. Bledsoe said he would make a formal announcement later.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Braly, Mrs. C. Herbert Walker, and Miss Willette Cole spent yesterday afternoon in Amarillo.

Youth Is Arrested for Murder After Houston Shooting

HOUSTON, Nov. 5. (AP)—Ferris Moses, 33, and I. J. Watkins, brothers-in-law, fell last night under pistol bullets fired from a parked automobile here. Moses died early today, and Watkins, superintendent of the city dog pound, was taken to a hospital with a shoulder wound. Michael la Tonia, 22, who said his address was "anywhere," was charged with murder.

Watkins told police he and Moses had set out to report to police that "nine men had jumped on" Moses earlier in the evening and had beaten him severely.

"We got in my truck and drove to Heiner and Andrew streets. Moses saw a sedan car parked at the curb and jumped off the truck and approached the car," Watkins said.

"I heard Moses say 'here they are' and two shots were fired. The first shot struck me in the shoulder. The second shot struck Moses. I saw him reel and fall. I jumped from my truck and ran home."

When Watkins reached home Mrs. Watkins called an ambulance. Moses came here from Corpus Christi about three months ago and has been living with his sister, Mrs. Watkins. He was employed as a waiter in a cafe.

FUNERAL FOR CHILD

Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Austin will be held this afternoon at G. C. Malone Funeral Home with Rev. James Todd, Jr., in charge. Burial will be made in the local cemetery at 4:30 p. m.

Good-Morning Biscuits
baked in a jiffy

Just try this time-saving scheme and we'll wager your family will have hot biscuits for breakfast often.

Whenever you make biscuits for the evening meal, mix up enough extra dough for the following morning. Have your biscuits all cut out, put them in the pan and keep them overnight where it's cold. All you have to do the next morning is to heat your oven and bake them.

Try this tested recipe for biscuits given below. Made with Crisco they are light, tender, fluffy and snowy-white. And, of course, their flavor is sweet. How could it be otherwise when the flavor of Crisco itself is so sweet and fresh?

2 cups bread flour      ½ cup milk or water
3 teaspoons baking powder      (for "drop" biscuits)
½ teaspoon salt      ½ cup milk or water
4 tablespoons Crisco      (for "rolled" biscuits)

Sift dry ingredients together 3 times. Work Crisco in with fork. Add liquid gradually.

Form dough into shape, roll ¼ inch thick, cut. For score-shaped biscuits, cut squares, then diagonally in half. Brush top of biscuits with melted Crisco or milk. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Makes about 12 biscuits.

Taste Crisco

Then you'll understand why its own sweet, fresh flavor so improves the taste of your cakes, pies, hot breads, cookies and fried foods.

Crisco is a great time-saver. Easy to cream, easy to mix—winter or summer.

He Was Afraid to Eat, States Davis

"I believe I suffered with about the worst case of stomach trouble in Texas during the past twelve years. Foods would lie like rocks in my stomach and I was actually afraid to eat enough to keep from being hungry. I'd suffer so afterwards. Constipation added to my troubles and nothing brought me relief until I got hold of Sargon.

"Now, for the first time in years, I really enjoy hearty meals without any bad effects and I feel in better shape all around than when I came out of the army, twelve years ago! Those Sargon Pills that go along with the tonic are sure fire for constipation and got my bowels regulated perfectly. In my opinion, Sargon is the best medicine on the market."—Earl S. Mandell Gives Too Many Pounds and Gets Beating

CHICAGO, Nov. 5. (AP)—Jimmy McLarnin may not become the next world welterweight champion, but he has accomplished something the present holder of the title, Jackie Fields, found too difficult a task.

McLarnin enhanced his standing as the foremost contender for the welterweight crown last night at the Chicago stadium where he gave Sammy Mandell, ruler of the world's lightweights, a thorough beating, winning a decision at the end of 10 rounds.

Fields attempted to conquer Mandell about a year ago, and received a fine boxing lesson.

Mandell gave McLarnin a facing a year ago last summer when the baby face from Vancouver, B. C., attempted to lift the lightweight title, but last night found that at 143 3-4 pounds McLarnin was too tough for even his marvelous boxing ability. It was the first decision Mandell has ever lost, and was his first real defeat since he was knocked out by Joey Sangor, in 1923, when he was just getting started as a major performer.

Mandell gave away six pounds to the slugger from Vancouver, B. C., and the handicap was too great. McLarnin who was too strong, and too aggressive was credited with six rounds, while Mandell who entered the ring a favorite, was given but two.

Belgian Looks Like Champ in Garden's Show

NEW YORK, Nov. 5. (AP)—The elimination tournament by which Madison Square Garden hopes to produce a generally recognized holder of the vacant flyweight title has passed its first round with only one surprise.

Last night's four ten-round battles between 112-pounders served principally to entrench Eugene Huat, champion of Belgium, more firmly in the favorite's position.

Hunt, conquerer of Spider Placier and Frenchy Belanger, made his New York debut in the principal bout by administering a beating to Izzy Schwartz, New York. His victory came just after Will Davies of Charleston, Pa., who has been packed as the other probable finalist, had succumbed to the punches of Black Bill of Cuba.

The night's two other victors were Midge Wolgast of Philadelphia and Ruby Bradley, Holyoke, Mass., negro. Buffalo eliminated Johnny McCoy of Buffalo, N. Y., from further competition while Bradley defeated Ernie Peters of Chicago. In both bouts the decision was unanimous.

down to work in committee meetings Wednesday afternoon. It is expected that more than 1,000 persons will visit Pampa during the sessions. The local church is making an effort to prepare for an overflow attendance. Loudspeakers are being placed in the basement so that those who cannot be seated in the auditorium may still enjoy the proceedings.

The housing and entertainment committees today were faced with the fact that they lacked 75 rooms of having enough to care for the delegates and officials who will arrive Tuesday for the big conference. They today sounded an S O S call to the community. Every citizen who can spare a room during the week beginning Nov. 12 is asked to phone 624, or Mrs. W. Purviance at No. 45.

"Persons from all parts of Texas and different parts of the United States will be in our city during that week," said a statement issued by the housing committee today. "Reservations have been made at the hotels of the city for people of Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas, New Mexico, Colorado, and several other states. The people that come from these states and communities, or the state of Texas will give Pampa a great name, providing we can entertain them and take care of them while they are in our city. So please do your part in helping to provide entertainment for these delegates."

Exhibit Manager Says Pampa Tracts Were Much Desired

B. Frank Bennett, who has been with the Panhandle-Plains of Texas, Inc., exhibit in the Middle West, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Bennett said that the Panhandle exhibit was seen by hundreds of thousands of persons, and that more than a million copies of publicity tracts were distributed. He said that the demand for Pampa literature at Des Moines, Iowa, exceeded the supply.

Widespread interest in this section was noted by Mr. Bennett in the Middle West.

PERRYTON USES ONLY THREE REGULARS AT BORGER—COACH OF HARVESTERS NOT DECEIVED

Far from deceived by Perryton's poor showing against the Borger Bulldogs yesterday, Coach Odus Mitchell was very serious in discussing the game today.

Borger won, 6 to 0, playing an inspired game at least 100 per cent better than the team showed here. The Bulldogs clearly outplayed their guests, making 10 first downs to 7 for Perryton. It was not a conference game.

But Coach Mitchell learned that there were only three Perryton regulars in the line-up against Borger. And therein lies the secret of the whole performance. It was a green, albeit cocky Perryton line that failed to stop the Borger backs.

With eight regulars in the line-up to replace the subs, it will be an entirely different eleven, Nov. 11. The only three regular players in the game at Borger were in the back-field, and they uncovered next to nothing likely to be used in the Armistice Day encounter with the Harvesters.

In other words, the Borger game gave local school authorities no encouragement, and little inkling of the strength and tactics of the Rangers. Coach Odus Mitchell, Principal L. L. Sone, C. T. Hunkapillar, and possibly other local men were on the sidelines. In answer to their sarcastic remarks about Perryton's "poor" showing, a Perryton school official admitted that the Harvesters will face an entirely different squad next Monday.

This afternoon the Harvesters are entertaining Wheeler, the team that surprised them last year and put up a powerful defense.

Walker Spirited Into Oklahoma in Surprise Move

BORGER, Nov. 5. (AP)—Whitey Walker, notorious outlaw wanted on half a dozen criminal charges in Texas and Oklahoma, much to the surprise of his lawyers and himself, was in Oklahoma today to face trial on bank robbery charges.

One man, Curtis Black, already has drawn a 99-year sentence in the robbery for which Walker is to be tried at Ada, Okla., and according to District Attorney Clem Calhoun, who was to have prosecuted Walker here, the prisoner went back to Oklahoma in fear and trembling.

Walker did not leave without a struggle. According to Sheriff C. O. Moore the prisoner, when he realized he was being taken to Oklahoma, attempted, handcuffed as he was, to throw himself out of an automobile.

Because of lack of material witnesses, District Attorney Clem Calhoun sought and obtained a continuance when Walker's trial for the slaying of two Hutchinson county peace officers came up at Sunnet, county seat of this county, yesterday. Sheriff Fred Bowles, armed with extradition papers

Elderly Woman of Skellytown Dies

Mrs. Jessie Ellen Stiles, 68, died in Skellytown at 12:45 o'clock Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Bonner, after an illness of two weeks. Mrs. Stiles went to Skellytown eighteen months ago from Burk Burnett, where she lived seven years with Mr. and Mrs. Bonner until they moved to the Carson county town two years ago. She was well-known in Burk Burnett by both old and young as "Grandmother Stiles."

The body was taken to Burk Burnett Tuesday by G. C. Malone Funeral home. The funeral will be conducted Wednesday at the Owens Funeral home by Rev. Hayes, pastor of the First Baptist church of that city.

had waited quietly in town for several days. Not suspecting any immediate move to bring Walker to trial, or take him to Oklahoma his attorney, Dewitt Bomer of Temple, Texas, had boarded a train for home when Sheriff Moore Hunkapillar and a state Ranger took Walker from his cell quietly and placed him in an automobile. Walker supposed he was being taken to some other county for safekeeping. When the sheriff's car approached another filled with Oklahoma officers, however, Walker was told he was headed for Oklahoma, and made a brief, but violent attempt to escape.

The case in Oklahoma is apt to result in a life sentence, or possibly a death sentence. Walker is indicted in Oklahoma in connection with a bank robbery at Allen, and also is wanted on other charges in two other Oklahoma counties.

He is under indictment in Texas for the deaths of three peace officers and for a jewelry store robbery at Temple.

DEBATE RAGES OVER SHOWING OF NONA REES

By The Associated Press

The week's chief athletic diversion seems to be guessing on Nona Rees, Texas University quarterback. Some 20,000 grandstand field generals who saw the Longhorns held to a scoreless tie by Southern Methodist were convinced they could have improved on Rees' tactics. Also, those of the great radio audience were ready to reveal exactly how the Orange could have scored at least three touchdowns, maybe five. The average reaction to the contest seems to have been: "If Rees had only—"

Off hand, it does strike one that a team strong enough to plow inside its opponents' 20-yard stripe seven times and once make a first down three yards from the goal line should be able to take it on over. The Longhorns, for some reason or other, were painfully impotent inside the 10-yard line. Everything they tried went wrong. At mid-field they looked like world beaters, but when they got within speaking distance of the goal line they were rushed off their feet by a fighting S. M. U. line. Many thought Eddie Beular could have plunged a touchdown for the Steers. He was the team's most consistent gainer all afternoon, but he didn't get a chance at the critical moments.

Whatever his lapses in judgment, however, Rees proved himself much of a football player otherwise. His 80-yard run on the opening kick-off was a thing of beauty. He is dangerous any time he gets hold of the ball and a deadly inter-ferer.

Coach Morley Jennings of Baylor and one of his assistants, Carey Selph, saw the battle and took down copious notes in preparation for this week's fray with the Longhorns at Austin. The Bruin mentor was not at all downcast because his team lost to Centenary the previous Saturday: "It was what they needed. We will be ready for Texas."

Baylor adherents were heartened considerably by Vergil Gilliland's return to form against Texas Tech. The elusive halfback, last year an all-conference choice, had been a big disappointment. He looked like his old self against the Matadors, turning in several brilliant runs. It will enhance the Bruins' chances against Texas plenty if he is "right" Saturday.

The Aggies and Southern Methodist will have an argument of two years' standing to settle this week at College Station. Last year they met at Dallas and the Farmers sprang one of the season's big upsets by scrapping the favored Mustangs to a tie, 19 to 19. Most fans remember what Joel Hunt, Siki Sikes, and the other Aggie stars did to S. M. U. in 1927. Their clash Saturday should be one of the season's most colorful and will attract fans from every section of the state.

Statistics on the Baylor-Texas Tech game indicate the Bears will have to depend on their running attack against Texas this week. Fourteen aeriels were attempted against the Matadors and only three completed. Neither did the Longhorns' overhead game look overly strong against S. M. U. The ends were able to get in the clear repeatedly, but Shelley and Rees were passing too far.

The big noise in state high school right now is the Brownsville Eagles. By overwhelming Brackenridge of San Antonio, 64 to 0, the valley eleven ran its record to 183 points to opponents' none in three district games. Honors in the eighth district practically have been conceded to the Eagles. Amarillo, by defeating Lubbock, virtually sewed up the district 1 title. None of the other six districts is that far progressed.
