Child Tries to Stop Father But He Cannot

MURKIN, Nov. 8. (AP)—Mrs. Virginia Farthing died today of wounds inflicted yesterday by her estranged husband, Jim Farthing, just before he took his own life. The woman was shot three times. Failure of Farthing to effect a reconciliation with his wife was believed to have been the cause for the shooting, which occurred at Phillips, near here. The story of the shooting was told by Mrs. J. A. Swinnea, Mrs. Farthing's mother, who was in a room next to that in which the shooting occurred. Farthing came to the Swinnea home yesterday, she said, to beg his wife to come home. She apparently refused; for Mrs. Swinnea heard him say he would go away and not bother her any more. Then, the woman continued, he kissed his 6-year-old son goodbye and several shots were fired. Farthing ran out the back door, raised his pistol to his forehead and pulled the trigger, his son attempting to stop him. Both families came here from Van Zandt county.

Road Conditions Worry Fans Who Will See Game

Anxious glances at the skies today were cast frequently by sport fans who expect to drive to the Perryton-Pampa game on the upper plains city Monday. It was agreed that the route by way of Canadian would be most largely used, but time of driving the approximately 120 miles was problematical. Black land between Pampa and Miami, and above the caprock after the Canadian river bottom land is passed give trouble in wet weather, while the sandy high ways are passable except in the most rainy weather. Numerous Pampa fans plan to drive to Perryton Sunday afternoon, while others will leave as late as 12 o'clock Monday after the American Legion program. Transportation for the Green Jackets, their pep squad members, is greatly needed, and those who can offer appropriate accommodations are asked to call the high school, phone 71. Driving hard toward the form they hope will result in defeat of the Rangers, the Harvesters are training daily despite rough weather. They will be taken to Perryton Sunday. The game is scheduled to begin at 3 p. m.

Mrs. Fred Connor, wife of the local superintendent of the Wilcox Oil and Gas company, underwent a major operation yesterday at McKean and Connor hospital. She was reported today to be recovering satisfactorily.

THE WEATHER VANE WEST TEXAS: Unsettled, rain in southeast portion, colder except in the Panhandle, with cold wave in southeast portion tonight; Saturday, partly cloudy. AND A SMILE MINEAPOLIS. (AP)—A delightful scheme to boost the circulation of The Gopher, undergraduate year book at the University of Minnesota, has failed. Twelve chorus girls were to be on the campus an hour and 15 minutes and kiss everybody who subscribed. Dean C. E. Nicholson put his foot down.

OIL MEN WATCH WILDCAT WITH INTEREST

A spirited fight for leases and drilling contracts in the area surrounding Dillard and others' No. 1 Furneaux brothers in section 202, block B-2, which began spraying seven barrel of oil Wednesday, is being waged here and elsewhere by oil operators this week. The well, a rank wildcat, this week developed into one of the biggest surprises of the Panhandle. It is now shut down for orders and looks very much like it would be a commercial producer and if so opens a vast amount of new territory on the western and southwestern side of Gray county. Geologists of major companies have over run the lease this week and their favorable reports have brought company officials to the area. The well is located in the southeast corner of section 202, block B-2, H. & G. N. R. survey, 8 1-2 miles southwest of LeFors pool. It was spudded in over a year ago, and ten million feet of gas was struck in the upper lime. The gas was found at a depth of 2,800 feet. Drilling continued and the gas flow increased at 3,070 feet. The oil spray began at 3,070 in the hard granite wash and continued until the total depth of 3,075 feet had been reached. The well is located 15 miles northwest of Groom. The land on which it is situated is owned by Furneaux brothers, Dallas. Frank Dillard has the drilling contract. Sheriff E. S. Graves has charge of the large block of land owned by the Furneaux in the southwest part of the county. The west half of section, 112 south-east quarter of section 129, block B-2, a total of 480 acres has been leased to the Lone Star Gas company by Ovie V. Madden and others.

DISTRICT COURT IS TO OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY

Following the granting of a general demurrer in favor of the defendant, Citizens State Bank, Wheeler, which was being sued by D. W. Raber, for $1,500 damages, Judge W. R. Ewing yesterday afternoon, dismissed jurors until next Tuesday. Non-jury cases, mostly divorces, will be tried today and tomorrow. This court will observe Armistice day as all citizens and institutions should. The sacrifices and war horrors of 1918 should not be so easily forgotten. Before any man decides not to observe Nov. 11, he should remember that day in 1918." Judge Ewing said. A special venire of 75 men has been summoned to appear Tuesday morning when W. W. Davis is scheduled to go to trial for a statutory offense. Tom C. Johnson, charged with the same offense, was convicted and was given a 10-year sentence three weeks ago in court here. Johnson is now perfecting his appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin. This is a voluminous record and it is estimated by Bill Holmes, court reporter, that there will be between five and six hundred pages in the record.

Louis R. Corbin, 86, Dies This Morning

Louis R. Corbin 86 years of age, who came to Pampa three years ago, died at 1 o'clock this morning at the residence of his niece, Mrs. W. S. Sweatman, with whom he made his home. Death followed a long illness. The body is at the Stephenson Funeral home, where funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, followed by burial in Fairview cemetery. The Rev. A. A. Hyde, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will be in charge of the last rites. During the active years of his life, Mr. Corbin was a ranchman. He came here from Mercer county, Penn., where he had made his home many years. His wife died several years ago, and no children survive him.

MAYOR URGES OBSERVANCE OF ARMISTICE DAY

Whereas, on the 11th day of November, 1918, an Armistice was declared, ending the awful carnage of the great world war, in which thousands of America's young men were daily sacrificing life that freedom and democracy might not perish. Whereas, it having become a worthy custom of our country through its executives of nation, state, and municipality to set aside this day each year to honor those who have fallen, and to keep in memory that on this day the end of that terrible conflict, was reached. Now therefore, I, D. W. Osborne, mayor of the City of Pampa, by the virtue of said office hereby proclaim Monday, November 11, a holiday and hereby set aside to be observed as Armistice day, and hereby call upon our entire citizenship to, in so far as possible refrain from labor and the usual vocations of life on this day and in reverence pay honor to our fallen defenders pausing in complete silence for one minute at the hour of 11 a. m. in honor to those who fell while their thankful hearts re-echo that on this day came cessation of the world's most terrible conflict. Given under my hand and seal of office this 7th day of November, A. D., 1929. D. W. OSBORNE, Mayor of City of Pampa.

Upton County to Be Cleaned Up by District Attorney

MCCAMEY, Nov. 8. (AP)—Citizens of McCamey looked to their new district attorney, Edward Yarbrough, today, for further developments in his announced clean-up campaign in Upton county. In a statement, Yarbrough asserted nearly every hotel and rooming house in McCamey was a disorderly house, "having as many lewd women as guests, and some of them permitting bootleggers to sell liquor in their places of business." He also made charges against drug stores dealing in liquor. MAYOR THREATENED MENA, Ala., Nov. 8. (AP)—Police were investigating what they described as either an attempt to burn the home of Mayor K. F. Ford of Mena or kidnap his 3-year-old daughter following discovery of the child's bed afire today by her mother who also found a bottle of chloroform on the window sill nearby. The child was rescued before she was seriously burned. MOODY OFFERS REWARD AUSTIN, Nov. 8. (AP)—Governor Moody today offered a reward of $100 for the arrest of the person or persons who murdered Cassie Davis, near Bryan.

LEGION WORK IS OUTLINED IN ADDRESS HERE

State Commander Is Visitor at Local Post

ERNEST C. COX LAUDS PEARSON

Children's Welfare Is Sought in New Statutes

The constructive program of the American Legion, locally, nationally, and in this state was fully detailed last evening by Ernest C. Cox, Commander of the Texas department and former legislator. Mr. Cox was welcomed by Mrs. Willard E. Taylor, president of the Ladies auxiliary, and introduced to the gathering by J. A. Pearson, grand chief de gare of the Texas 40-8. The speaker recalled that Pampa supported his candidacy, and said that on that account he was especially glad to visit the local post. He added, however, that it is the policy of his administration to have a man from headquarters at Austin visit each post in the state this year. Outlining the program in Texas for this year, Commander Cox stated that formation of a children's code, and sponsoring of a child welfare legislative platform would be leading activities. He told of his own work in a Texas orphanage for six years, and urged decentralization of the system to keep the orphans in county homes until placed with adopted parents. The institution can never give the equivalent of parental care, he asserted. He declared that the majority of criminals get their lawless bent before they reach the age of twelve years. Good Citizen Valuable On the other hand, he said, every man who reaches the age of 35 as a good citizen means a productive value of $17,500 to society. The commander urged establishment of a mother's pension to enable destitute mothers to keep their children. In the national program, the Texas department hopes to obtain for this state a $1,500,000 federal hospital, with a big ward for veterans with mental trouble. He said that 11,000 persons with mental disorders were confined in five Texas hospitals for the insane, and that 2,000 others were confined in jails where they should not be. The state officer strongly urged passage of a universal draft law to prevent a repetition of profiteering, which he said created 11,000 millionaires during the world war. He would also have the president given power to set prices and to conscript industries just as man power is drafted. The fundamental step toward any Legion goal, he emphasized, was increased membership. Funds and power owing to political recognition of numerical strength were cited as prerequisite to effective work. The week of November 11-18 has been set aside as membership week, in which the Pampa post will cooperate. Mr. Cox praised J. A. Pearson as "the most earnest and self-sacrificing Legionnaire in Texas", and warmly commended the local man's work as head of the state 40-8 organization. Mr. Pearson responded briefly, pledging 40-8 cooperation in the Legion membership drive. Commander Paul Hill of the Pampa post was chairman of the meeting. He told the state executive that the local program paralleled the state and national aims, and that the intent of the present administration was service to the Pampa community and to veterans in need. He asked for eight volunteers to assist Chairman Scott Barcus in the Red Cross drive November 15 and 16 and Mrs. Taylor asked for the same number of Auxiliary workers. Sam McCarty, state organizer for the Legion, made a brief talk in appreciation of the active work of the Kerley-Crossman post, which he said was among the liveliest of the many live Panhandle organizations. A humorous reading of particular interest to veterans was given by Alden Spees.

Candidates

Rival candidates for president in Mexico's national elections, scheduled for Nov. 17, are Jose Vasconcelos, above, choice of the National Revolutionist party, and Pascual Ortiz Rubio, candidate of the National Anti-Revolutionist party. They seek the post now held by President Emilio Portes-Gil.

FEDERAL FARM BOARD GRANTS LOAN IN TEXAS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. (AP)—Secretary Christensen of the federal farm board telegraphed Governor Moody of Texas that the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton association met requirements of the agricultural marketing act and that upon receipt of applications for loans the board would act without delay. Mrs. H. S. Sitton and baby and Mrs. B. A. Howell and baby were taken from Pampa hospital yesterday to their respective homes here by G. C. Malone funeral home's ambulance.

FIRST SNOW OF SEASON FALLS LAST NIGHT ON PLAINS—COLD TO CONTINUE HERE TOMORROW

Pampa's population awoke today to view the first white blanket of the season. The snow measured nearly two inches, and was followed by sleet which fell for several hours. The temperature was just above freezing, leaving the roads almost impassably slippery. The Panhandle received the edge of the Kansas snow storm, which terminated last night. Continued cold weather and a cloudy sky was predicted for tomorrow. DENVER, Nov. 8. (AP)—Snow which yesterday laid a white blanket over five western states, ranging from three inches to two feet in depth, had stopped falling over most of the territory this morning, and prophecies of rising temperatures and clear skies promised a respite from the biting temperatures which swept down out of the Rocky Mountains three days ago. King Winter apparently established his headquarters near the Kansas-Colorado line and wreaked havoc with activities of beet sugar growers, while bringing a precious gift of needed moisture to the winter wheat region. Goodland, Kansas, reported two feet of snow today, and flurries of snow still were falling. Highways were

DECORATIONS TO BE PLACED BY LEGION

At the suggestion of the Board of City Development, the American Legion this year will have charge of street and store decorations for the Christmas period. The Legion decorations committee, of which Frank Hunt is chairman, is already active in planning to make the city festive in appearance. Arrangements are being made for flag decorations, flags, holly, and other ornaments typical of the Christmas season. The Legion committee asks that merchants wait for its call before planning decorations. The Legion has pledged to give the merchants "their money's worth" in decorations this year.

"Fine" Liquors and Equipment for Making Are Seized

Four blocks from the courthouse, officers of the sheriff's department last night raided a room in a residence and seized 55 gallons of alcohol, "bottled and bonded" whiskey, choice liquors and a de luxe set of bottling and bonding equipment—the finest ever captured here, according to Sheriff E. S. Graves. No arrests were made, as the proprietor of the "wet goods" was absent. Officers making the raid were Sheriff E. S. Graves, Deputies, Weldon Wilson, Herman Wachtendorf and Scott Rheidulal. The capture comprised 33 gallons of pure grain alcohol, 12 gallons of whiskey and a quantity of "J. H. Hennessy & Company, Cognac, made in France," "Ron Bacardi, Superior de Santiago de Cuba, Establecido en 1862," "Liqueur Scots Whiskey, Haig & Haig, distilled in 1879,"—bottled, labeled and sealed exactly in the manner of the "pure stuff." Nine cases of bottles for cognac, gin Bacardi and whiskey were also brought to the sheriff's office, also a silver-plated electric capper, a seal or stamp for the caps to show their genuineness "evidence for the public," said Sheriff E. S. Graves. "To see how the smart modern bootlegger fools those who believe they are buying the real stuff." Each of the empty bottles was properly labeled. Copper seals and wax were among the equipment. A bundle of standard tissue paper wrappers for Haig & Haig whiskey was included in the capture, which was made four blocks northeast of the courthouse.

YOUNG SLAYER GETS NO HELP FROM JURORS

First Verdict in 1928 Overturned for New Trial

AGE EVIDENCE NOT BELIEVED

Charge Was Murder of Oil Worker at Leray, Tex.

EASTLAND, Nov. 8. (AP)—Clyde Thompson today was assessed the death penalty for the second time by a jury here for the slaying of Lucian Shook near the latter's oil field home at LeRay, Tex., Sept. 7, 1928. The verdict was returned at 10 a. m., after the case was given the jury late yesterday. Thompson was given the death penalty in October, 1928, but was granted a new trial by the court of appeals. He also was charged with slaying Leon Shook, a brother of Lucian. The defense attempted to save the defendant from the death penalty by introducing a deposition by his mother that he was born in Oklahoma Oct. 5, 1911, making him 17 years old at the time the crime was committed. The state, however, introduced a statement by Thompson that he was born in 1910. Woodrow Davis, 13, was the state's principal witness. He testified that, his brother, Thomas, and Thompson were hunting the afternoon of the slaying, and that they stopped at Shook's cabin and induced the brothers to join them. He said that as the five of them marched down a trail, Thompson shot Lucian and his brother to death. "Then he beat out their brains with the butt of his pistol," the youth testified.

Five Men Blown to Bits in Blast

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 8. (AP)—Five workmen were blown to pieces in a premature explosion of 80 pounds of dynamite in a shaft of the metropolitan water development at Coldbrook today. Cause of the explosion could not be immediately determined. Fellow workmen told investigators a dynamite explosion had been set off further in the tunnel at an early hour and the five men were on their way toward the entrance, carrying 80 pounds of dynamite in one of the small cars used for that purpose. In some manner, the dynamite exploded. The men were blown to pieces. The victims were: Joseph Edgicomio, 35; J. Piotti, 40; P. Pondel, 41; Joseph Lukes, 38; Joseph Lorenzo, 38.

THIS IS THE SEASON OF SHOPPING, SHOPPERS, SALES, AND PEDDLERS.

On the faith that local people would buy their Christmas goods at home, Pampa merchants are purchasing or have already bought thousands of dollars worth of seasonable merchandise.

Retail merchants are vital assets to any community. Their success is essential to commercial stability. They contribute through taxes and donations for the upkeep of public institutions.

At this time of the year itinerant solicitors are traveling from store to store and house to house. These peddlers contribute nothing to the causes just named. They rarely offer anything for sale that local merchants do not stock.

The "unwelcome" sign should be hung out in the face of itinerant solicitors. The local merchants are worthy of your support. Their goods and their prices merit your attention.

And do not be deceived by mail order solicitors. Do not believe all that those using the mails tell you, and do not assume that you have to buy unsolicited goods sent you.

The practice of using the mails for the purpose of sending unsolicited articles for sale is increasing to an extent which demands legislation prohibiting the same. Under the practice, articles and merchandise are sent to addresses unsolicited, and in the absence of any order therefor, for the purpose of sale and with the request to transmit a price therefor.

together. Following this he is subject to receipt of follow-up letters from the sender, all of which are annoying and some of which are abusive and threatening.

Sending of unsolicited Christmas cards through the mails is a favorite practice. The Better Business Bureau points out that "you do not have to pay for these cards. You do not have to return them. Just put them aside. If an authorized agent calls for them, you may give them to him. If he doesn't call within a reasonable time you may charge storage for the bother you've had in keeping them."

There is a Santa Claus, but Old Saint Nick need not come from abroad. The good fellows who build Pampa are the merchants who have stocked Christmas goods and are cooperating with Santa.

Now that jury approval has been given to shooting in times of apparent danger, it is going to be up to everyone around here to be meek as a lamb. We hereby warn all our enemies and critics to desist and shut-up. Let us hear one word, and the law puts the o-on our shooting you on sight. One of those Chicago sub-machine guns would be valuable in case any one of you darkens our doorway. We have hesitated in the past to plan such devastating destruction, but we hesitate no longer.

Having written about how to prevent a cold, it will probably be just our luck to get a bad one forthwith.

The "poor pedestrians" have slippery payments to watch now, as well as motorists to dodge.

This Cities Service Investor Had an Unusual Desire

HE came into our office with two sets of Cities Service Preferred Stock Certificates. With a little smile, he said confidentially: "I wish the price of this stock would go down for awhile."

The cashier stared in surprise. Stockholders usually want to see the price go up.

"These 134 shares," he held up the larger bundle, "I have bought through the past seven years and paid for with my own money. These other 23 shares I have received free! I call it, through my reinvestment plan. I hold all this stock as a safe investment for the good income which I reinvest. I never expect to sell it so I don't worry about the price; but if the price drops a little, my 'free' shares accumulate faster. My monthly dividends stay the same and I want them to buy more shares for me as fast as possible so when the time comes for me to start taking the dividends in cash, I'll have a good steady income."

B. & P. Club Postpones Rummage Sale One Week

Announcement was made today that the rummage sale to be held by the Pampa Business and Professional Women's club had been postponed from tomorrow to the following Saturday, Nov. 16.

It will be held then, according to the original plans, in the old Cuyler hotel building, next door to the Hokus Hokus grocery store, on South Cuyler street. Wearable clothing, both used and unused, novelties, and household articles will be for sale.

The finance committee of the club will be in charge, with Mrs. W. C. Mitchell directing. The members of the organization are soliciting donations from their friends and will call for bundles. Miss Mabel Davis is head of the collecting committees. Proceeds will be used largely for Christmas charity work.

STOCK TRENDS VARY

NEW YORK, Nov. 8. (AP)—Trading on the New York stock exchange returned to normal again today with price movements decidedly mixed. Early gains which ran from $1 to $10 a share in the active issues, and $10 to $1 in a few specialties, were cut down, or wiped out, before the close, and several of the recent leaders sold $1 to nearly $10 a share below yesterday's final figures. Profit-taking by traders who bought stocks for a turn, and the liquidation of stock bought for supporting purposes were held responsible for the late selling movement.

Mothers of Debs Want Curfew at Hour of 3 a. m.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8. (AP)—A band of 70 mothers of this year's crop of debutantes is intent on a 3 a. m. curfew. "Stop the music at 3 o'clock in the morning," is their slogan in the crusade to discourage dancing till dawn and later among the younger set whose parties their daughters will attend this season. The expectation is that eligible young men now can attend parties and still work next day.

Seating the guests promptly at the designated hour no matter who or how many are late is to be the silent rebuke for the stragglers who keep dinner waiting.

Discussions of ways and means to carrying on the campaign took place yesterday at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Seth M. Milliken in Madison avenue.

Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor, is building a permanent studio of logs on a mountain side in the Black Hills of South Dakota, near the scene of his giant carvings of Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson, and Roosevelt.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

On the 11th day of November, A. D. 1929, the Commissioner's Court of Gray County, Texas, will receive at Pampa, Texas, sealed bids for one or more road maintainers. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check in an amount equal to five (5) per cent of the bid submitted. The Court reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

TEXAS GOAL IS UNCROSSED IN SIX CONTESTS

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS, Nov. 8. (AP)—Texas university's bruising Orange machine, its goal line spotless after six games, will attempt to brush a powerful Baylor eleven from its path to the Southwest conference throne this week.

The outstanding attraction in the Southwest for the week, the bout between two of the section's leading elevens is expected to attract 25,000 spectators to Memorial stadium at Austin. Special trains will run from several cities of the state.

Despite their grueling schedule the Orange team is expected to enter the tilt, slight favorites over the green, which has failed to attain the brilliant form expected of it. Baylor, like Texas, is undefeated in the conference, but the Bears incurred a 27 to 12 setback at the hands of Centenary college two weeks ago.

Vying with the Austin fray in point of interest is the Southern Methodist-Texas A. & M. battle at College Station. The Aggies, twice defeated in the conference, are out of the title race, and the Mustangs are conceded only a fighting chance after being outplayed by Texas in their scoreless duel, but the game promises to be a corker. A loss practically would eliminate the air-minded Methodists.

Texas Christian, one of nine undefeated, untied teams in the country, is expected to ring up its seventh straight victory at the expense of the Rice Owls at Fort Worth. The game should prime the Progs for their crucial combat with Texas the following Saturday. Last year the Owls held T. C. U. to a 7 to 0 decision, but the Christians are expected to win by a longer margin Saturday.

Arkansas, fresh from a 39 to 0 triumph over Louisiana State, heavily est scoring team in the Southern conference, will indulge in a non-conference fray with the Central Oklahoma Teachers at Fayetteville. The Porkers have played their last three games on the road, winning two.

A homecoming crowd will help boost attendance at the Baylor-Texas tilt. Thousands of Longhorn old grads will pour into Austin to see the Orange team that some critics have stamped one of the greatest in the school's history. They will see it pitted against a worthy opponent in Baylor's Bears, a team primed to offer its greatest battle of the season.

Kansas-Sooners Clash Saturday of Chief Interest

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 8. (AP)—For the second consecutive week the Big Six football game in which Kansas plays holds the conference spotlight.

Beaten by Nebraska last week only after the 1928 champions had stood them off on the goal line in the closing minutes, the Jayhawkers tomorrow will invade Norman, Okla., and attempt to divest Oklahoma of its record of no defeat in the conference. Oklahoma and Nebraska are the two unbeaten members, although Nebraska's record is marred by a tie with Missouri.

FIGHT RESULTS

By The Associated Press
JERSEY CITY—Leonard (Young) Zamarrine, Jersey City, outpointed Billy Humphries, England, (10).
BOSTON—George Godfrey, Leiper-ville, Pa., and Jim Byrne, Boston, declared "no" contest, (7). George Carney, Boston, outpointed Pete Pacheco, Denver, (8).
SIOUX CITY, Ia.—Johnny O'Donnell, St. Paul, stopped Harry Carothers, Mobile, Ill., (6).
MIAMI—Young Manuel Quintero, Cuba, stopped Dick Gere, Jacksonville, Fla., (7).

Strict Campaign on Party Lines Is Wished by Texan

AUSTIN, Nov. 8. (AP)—If the party system is to survive there must exist strict discipline, and those who left the Democratic ranks a year ago to vote for the Republican presidential nominee should be barred as candidates in the Democratic primary next year, John Boyle of San Antonio contends.

Boyle was an outstanding advocate of the election of former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York last year.

He is hopeful the religious issue can be divorced from the election next fall, and to this end he is seeking as a gubernatorial candidate a Texan who remained loyal to his party in the up-heaval last November and against whom there cannot be raised the religious "cry."

He declared that in taking this position he realized he was opposing as candidates some of his best friends, but added:

"In my estimation, the Democratic party is bigger than any one man, and I want it to triumph next year in Texas."

He commended the Virginia Democratic managers for the campaign they conducted and declared their lead should be followed by Texas.

"They made it strictly a party fight," he said, "not permitting the religious issue to creep in."

Aged Methodist Minister Is Killed

ALTUS, Okla., Nov. 8. (AP)—The body of E. M. Snyder, 76, Methodist minister, was found in the North Fork of Red river, east of Altus, last night. His car apparently had crashed through the side of a bridge. He was on his way to Altus from Eldorado Springs, Mo., to spend the winter with a son and daughter. He was alone.

BONDS KNOCKS OUT RIGDON IN 45 SECONDS—BORGER BOY SEES TITLE CLAIM DISAPPEAR

A devastating cyclone whose last name is Bonds tore into McLean's Elmer Rigdon last night, delivered 25 terrific blows and knocked him out in the first round for a full count in 45 seconds at the Fla-Mor last night. Cyclone's fists battered the length and breadth of Rigdon's solar plexus, face, and body until he lay groaning in the corner, vainly trying to rise.

As for that flyweight title scrap, if anybody won the fight between K. O. Kitchens and Pug Grubbs, counting blows, it was Kitchens, but counting rounds, it was a draw. As a consequence, Grubbs, styled by his manager-father as the "fly-weight champion of the Southwest" can claim that title no longer. In fact, many from Borger and practically every Pampa contended that Kitchens won the fight.

Kitchens Aggressive

To Kitchens, goes the credit for lead in the 8-round battle through the first six rounds. Kitchens missed many a swing and a blow, but he delivered more than he missed and twice as many as Grubbs, who was on the defensive until the last round which he decisively won in a whirlwind finish.

The Borger boy entered the ring with the expressed intention of knocking out the Pampa and Miami favorite in the first ten seconds, but only four blows were struck in the first round and K. O. delivered two of them.

In the second round, Kitchens began to rush and sent a blow to Grubbs' jaw that caused Pug to stumble and fall to the floor. Kitchens definitely won this round and the fifth.

Pug won the 3rd round and the 8th. The first, fourth and seventh were draws and sixth though classed as a draw would have been given to Kitchens if he had not tripped himself, because he plainly out-pointed Grubbs if the licks were counted. In this round, K. O. slammed Pug on the jaw for a knock-down.

In the third, Pug messed up Kitchens nose which bled profusely throughout the rest of the fight, but K. O. grew wary and the best Pug could do after that was perhaps a dozen blows aimed at Kitchens' solar plexus but which landed elsewhere on the body. Pug attempted no licks which did not land, but he attempted a few, whereas Kitchens was swinging all the time. About half of his blows took effect. Pug is not a slugger. His only blows were short hard jabs delivered close up to Kitchens who stood up and fought in the accepted manner of fighting. Kitchens and Grubbs are the same age—16 years old. The Miami boy weighs 122 pounds while Pug weighs 120.

Although Kid Arthur was on the offensive through four rounds with Jack Hayes, he was stopped every time he started an attack, and was out-pointed badly in the first three rounds. A decision can be safely given to Hayes.

In the preliminaries, Andy Gump won a decision from Earl Cooper. The audience, which filled all the seats and was big considering the bad weather, enjoyed the battle royal between six youngsters.

Before the Bonds-Rigdon debacle, Luther Platter, another Pampa boxer was introduced as the challenger of the winner of the bout. The fight between Platter and Bonds will feature the next card.

University Policy of Leasing Rapped by Oil Executive

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 8. (AP)—E. D. Reeser, president of the American Petroleum Institute, in the principal address before the Texas division of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association here today, declared the action of the board of regents of the University of Texas in leasing mineral lands of the university under three-year term contracts was "diametrically opposed to conservation and sound and sensible business methods."

"The federal government is doing everything it can to defend the development of oil on public lands," Reeser said, "while the University of Texas is actually demanding greater activity in the development of oil, which is not needed at this time. Under such a policy, the opening of new pools could, and probably would, wreck the entire industry and cause a great loss, not only to producers, but to the state of Texas and its great university."

"I believe the regents of your university have not been properly informed on this subject. It is the duty of the Texas division of this association, as well as the individual operators, to do everything possible to have this policy changed. The leases should be for a 10-year period and should contain a clause which would encourage operators in any pool, wherein state lands are affected, to utilize such operations. Surely, neither the University of Texas nor the state wishes to be a party to any wrecking machine, yet the present three-year lease will help to bring about demoralization.

Young Widow to Go to Minnesota With Her Brother

DALLAS, Nov. 8. (AP)—Expressing his happiness over his acquittal, which he said he had felt would be the outcome of his trial, Judge R. H. Hamilton, freed of murder charges in connection with the death of his son-in-law, Tom Walton, Jr., spent yesterday afternoon and last night here with his brother, Dexter, before returning to his home in Amarillo.

Judge Hamilton asked that he be spared "the limelight of publicity," saying he would rather forget about the trial.
His children, after more than a week in court at Weatherford, planned to return to school, Helen to Austin, Robert to his post as instructor at the University of Minnesota, and Theresa Hamilton Walton, his widowed daughter, with her brother Robert to Minnesota.
L. T. Taylor, employe of the Cabot company, entered McKean and Connor hospital last night for treatment.
Dr. R. A. Webb and F. M. Culbertson returned yesterday afternoon from a deer hunt in Arizona. Two deer was their share of the spoils of a party of several men.

Shallimar laughed. "I'm half in love with you already," she declared.

"You mean I'm not to take your love seriously, I suppose."

"Precisely; just as I am not to expect anything of yours."

Among Helen's new friends are EVA ENNIS and her brother ROBERT, who falls in love with her.

Later, Helen and Bob discover their true love for each other, but she tells him it is hopeless.

"Entirely your own fault," Bob retorted. "I'm fed up on ultra modern girls who take everything in life for granted."

"I see. Some girl is responsible for the great unhappiness you speak of."

"Yes." "And you want me to help you forget her?"

"Precisely." Shallimar looked at him appraisingly before answering.

"I wish I could afford to be serious with you, Bob Ennis."

"Fall in love with me and marry me?" Bob asked.

"Just that. But I'm too poor for it."

"Marriage will never mean anything to you until you've had a lot of experience with life," Bob warned her.

She sighed, albeit placidly, in agreement. "I'm afraid not. And so I think I'll accept your left-handed invitation to play, at love and see what comes of it."

FOR A MOMENT SILENCE HUNG BETWEEN THEM. Then: "Are you loyal?" Bob asked her abruptly.

She pondered on the question a bit. "I don't know," she said. "Why?"

"Because the girl I'd like to forget is your friend," Bob explained.

"Of course; I knew that," she replied serenely, "but loyalty is such a complex commodity. One owes a bit of it to oneself, no?"

"Then you have no scruples about it? Not even the fact that you are her guest?"

"Dear boy"—she delighted in the use of these words that made her appear so much more sophisticated and knowing than the young man she addressed them to—"I shall do nothing underhand. That, I think, covers the ethics in the case."

"Then let's dance," Bob requested. Shallimar rose slowly to her feet. Their eyes met, and she understood that he was acknowledging her strength.

In his arms, she did not disappoint him. He willingly gave reins to his imagination and tried to become aroused to a tender feeling for her.

Beautiful she was, and a satisfying dance partner, but he had to admit that he could not plunge into even an infatuation for her.

"But it might come," he persisted in thinking. And all the while not believing himself.

Shallimar did her best. Bob was gallant enough to hide from her his real feeling, which was fast becoming one of mild revulsion.

He was doggedly determined to go through with the thing. If one could get out of love on the rebound he meant to rebound. "And keep on rebounding even if it hurts!"

Suddenly, from Shallimar: "Have you thought," she asked, "that one hopeless love is as painful as another? Have you considered that, Bob?"

"I can't ever love anyone else so much as I love Helen," he answered, and Shallimar felt that he spoke a truth in spite of the generally fatuous character of the remark.

"There's this, too," she took up a little later; "we can't get far with this thing unless Helen invites me to remain at Bramblewood. I don't mind giving up the trip to Canada. Was going up to see my Aunt Kate, but she has neuritis and doesn't really want me anyhow."

"I believe you're clever enough to manage to wiggle an invitation out of Helen."

"Shallimar flared a bit at that. "Do you realize that you're asking a lot from me?" she snapped.

"You started it," Bob reminded her.

"So I did," she was fair enough to admit. "Well, shall we say we're engaged? Then I can tell Helen it would break my heart to leave."

"Yes." To keep his promise, they stayed until the dancing was over for the night at the club house, and drove home through the morning mist that hung over the banks of the river like a cloud.

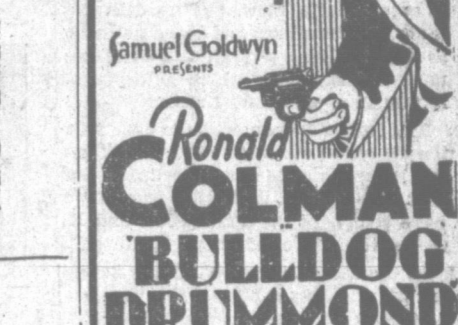

"I wonder if I can get in without waking the house?" Shallimar mused when her eye chanced to fall upon the small clock in the car.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchins, who underwent a major operation more than two weeks ago at Pampa hospital, was moved to her home on East Francis avenue yesterday morning in a Stephenson ambulance.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

International Sunday School Lesson for Nov. 10, 1929.

General Topic:—World Peace Through Mutual Understanding.

Scripture Lesson:—Isa 2:2-4; Acts 17:22-28; John 4:20, 21.

Isa. 2:2. And it shall come to pass in the latter days, that the mountain of Jehovah's house shall be established on the top of the mountain, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow into it.

3. And many peoples shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and ye will walk in His paths; for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem.

4. And He will judge between the nations, and will decide concerning many peoples; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears shall be made into pruning knives; neither shall they learn war any more.

Acts 17:22. And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said, Ye men of Athens, in all things I perceive that ye are very religious.

23. For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, "To the Unknown God." What therefore ye worship in ignorance, this I set forth unto you.

24. The God that made the world and all things therein, He, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25. Neither is He served by men's hands, as though He needed anything, seeing He himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26. And He made one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation;

27. That they should seek God, if haply they might feel after Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us;

28. For in Him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets have said, For we are also His offspring.

John 4:20. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe Me, the hour cometh, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father.

Golden Text:—They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Jehovah as the waters cover the sea.—Isa. 11:9.

Time and Place:—Isaiah prophesied in Jerusalem, B. C. 755-679. Paul's address before the Areopagus, in Athens, A. D. 51. Christ talks with the Samaritan woman near Sychar, Dec., A. D. 27, in the first year of His ministry.

Introduction

The present times have two great—pre-eminently great—subjects of thought. They are two reforms: Prohibition of the liquor traffic and abolition of war. Both are world problems, to be solved satisfactorily only by the co-operation of all nations. As to the first, our own country has gone farther than all other nations and is leading the way. As to the second, we must sadly admit that most other nations are far ahead of ours. Last week we studied the first problems; this week we study the second. Toward the solution of it we have given us the words of three wonderful thinkers: Isaiah, the greatest prophet of the Old Testament; Paul, the greatest of the New Testament; and Christ, the supreme leader of the ages, the Son of God, the Saviour of men.

Isaiah's Vision

Our lesson today contains three passages from Isaiah. In the first (2:2-4) he pictures the time when the religion of Jehovah shall be acknowledged by all the nations, when they shall look to Him for guidance, when He shall settle disputes between them, when His will shall be their law. When that day comes, there will be no need for swords and spears to protect the nations from one another. The study of warfare will be obsolete. In the next passage (11:6-10) the prophet pictures the reign of peace among the animals. The wild beasts shall be tamed, and a little child shall lead them. In the third passage (19:23-25) we have a picture of peace between the Jewish people and their two great historical enemies, Egypt and Assyria. The three nations shall all worship Jehovah.

Greatest Sentence

"Nations shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore." "If one were asked to write down the six most often repeated sentences in the first thirty-nine chapters of the Book of Isaiah, he would include this sentence in his list. If one were asked to write the three most famous sentences of Isaiah, the son of Amoz, I suspect that this sentence would have to be one of the three. There are some who think it is the greatest sentence which Isaiah ever wrote."—Rev. Charles E. Jefferson, D. D.

"A Little Child"

In this famous passage Isaiah sees the reign of peace, which he had prophesied as existing among men, extended to the animals. He sees the fiercest and most powerful beasts, the lions, leopards, bears, and wolves, having lost their fierceness and become gentle, playing with and lying down with the lambs, and the calves, and the kids. He sees the wild beasts so tame that a little child can lead them. "Deadly serpents also, such as the asp and the adder, have become harmless." "They shall not hurt nor destroy," and the reason for this beatific condition is that "the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea."

The Areopagus

In his visit to Athens, in the course of his second missionary journey, Paul had a splendid opportunity to declare the unity of the human race, and splendidly did he use it. "And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus," "Areopagus" means "Mars' Hill," Ares being the Greek name of the Latin Mars, the god of war. "The Areopagus" is probably here not the hill itself, but the hall of the Areopagus, the historic council before which Socrates was tried and condemned. "And said, Ye men of Athens." This was the classic opening for an Athenian oration. "In all things I perceive that ye are very religious." Paul's hearers would take this as a tactful compliment, for it was a common saying that in Athens there were more gods (statues of the gods) than men.

The "Unknown God"

"I found also an altar with this inscription, 'To an Unknown God.' So 'Religious' were the Athenians—in their fiercest and most superstitious—that they could not rest easy after filling their city with altars to every god they could hear about, in their own nation and every foreign land, but for fear that some god whom they had not heard about might be omitted, they had reared an altar to him. "The God that made the world and all things therein" This was the "unknown god" of their altar. We must remember that the address is, of course, greatly condensed. "He, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands." Doubtless Paul expanded every phrase of these wonderful sentences. He was surrounded by the most marvelous temples ever erected, temples of which the Athenians were inordinately proud.

Unity of Human Family

"And He made of one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth." God made all men of One, that is, of Himself, the universal Father; and He made men with a view to populating the earth, which He had previously fashioned with loving care as a home for men.

"For in Him we live, and move, and have our being." Whether consciously or not; we are surrounded and upheld by the divine Being. "For we are also His offspring." From the doctrine of the Fatherhood of God springs logically and immediately the doctrine of the brotherhood of men, which Paul was so forcibly preaching.

ABOUT FOLKS

Gen Hamilton, who has been working for the Gulf company here for the last two months, is going back to his home at Tampa, Fla., satisfied. A week ago, for the first time in his 19 years he saw snow on the ground, everywhere. When he came here, he had resolved to stick it out until the first snow fell. Gen says he can't get it out of his head that Florida is the best country on earth. He has suffered a slight displacement on Texas. He did not find great herds of cattle roaming over the wild-staked plains and the cowboys were to be seen only on the screen.

Boy M. M. Newman and Charlie Thut stopping hot chocolate in a drug store. Commissioner Newman: "I'm no politician; don't claim to be. Politics bums me. Playing politics does not bring out the truth. Poly is a Greek word meaning 'many,' and everybody knows what a tick is." An old-timer says you're in good company when you're with Charlie Thut or M. M. Newman.

John Graves Rodman is the little fellow's name. He has blue eyes and skin faintly suggestive of peach blossom. Though just a few months old, he was introduced as the grand-son of Sheriff E. S. Graves in his office yesterday.

From the Fort Worth Star-Telegram: There were two men registered Wednesday at the Seibold who when young stars, grazed thousands of cattle over unfenced sections in West Texas before there were such cities as Pampa, Amarillo, Shamrock, Miami or Canadian. In those days of Indians and buffalo, cowboys and herds containing sometimes close to 10,000 head of cattle, what is now Pampa was the ranch headquarters of the new Matador ranch, which then belonged to an English syndicate.

These two real West Texas pioneers are A. B. Harmon, retired merchant of Pampa, Shamrock and Miami; and John Henry, vice president of the First National bank of Pampa. Harmon went into that country in 1885 and Henry in 1883.

"I grazed cattle over what is now Pampa when there wasn't a town within a day's hard riding," Harmon said. "Little did I think then that oil would ever be discovered on that land. It was not until the English cut up most of its ranch into section subdivisions did Pampa spring into existence. There is not much drilling there now, and for several reasons. Production is being reduced because there is no way of handling the oil. There is a shortage of pipe to handle it. I am sure no one can tell when that section will be drilled up. It has just been touched. Pampa is a busy substantial town. The present population is what you might term permanent.

"For 25 years I ran stores in Pampa and Shamrock; saw both of those towns spring into existence and develop. We raised a bumper wheat crop this year and the acreage for next season will be much larger. Our cotton is good.

Oil Field Battle Costs Life of Veteran Officer and Also Member of Ace Pendleton Gang Last Night

HARJO, Okla., Nov. 8. (AP)—A threat to kill, made last summer by a bank bandit suspect against a veteran Oklahoma peace officer, has been fulfilled in an oil field gun battle which also cost the life of the man who made the threat.

James A. Kiersey, sheriff, deputy or police official for the past 18 years, was killed instantly, and Owen Edwards was wounded fatally in a gun fight which followed Kiersey's attempt to arrest Edwards when he had been trapped in an oil field shack here last night.

Edwards, sought as a suspect in the robbery of the First National bank of Minco, Okla., Sept. 17, for the looting of the Bank of Kendrick, in Lincoln county, July 12, and for the raid by a band of robbers, on the bank of Prague, last August was reported to be in Harjo.

Kiersey with a posse of state and county officers, had been tipped that Edwards was in the lunchroom, and the posse surrounded the shack, here in the Greater Seminole oil field.

As Kiersey shoved in the door he was confronted by Edwards, who emptied two automatics at the officer. Kiersey returned the fire as he fell, wounding Edwards, who also was shot by other members of the posse, crowding into the room after Kiersey.

The officer died instantly. Edwards died in an ambulance taking him to a Seminole hospital.

Kiersey, fellow officers said, had arrested Edwards on previous occasions. Last summer, when he was acting chief of police of Durant, Kiersey

"picked up" Edwards, and at that time they said Edwards threatened to kill the officer the next time they met.

Edwards was a fugitive, having escaped from a jail in Arkansas early last summer. He was known to police as a member of the Ace Pendleton gang, and was wanted in several Arkansas cities in connection with bank robberies.

Kiersey, whose home was in Durant, had been sheriff of Bryan county for four terms, a deputy sheriff for several years, had been chief of police of Maud, a nearby oil town, and had been assistant chief of police at Seminole. He is survived by his widow and three children.

CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST

In Hebrews 10:25 we are commanded not to forsake the assembling of ourselves together as some do. If you stay at home on Lord's day instead of going to church and worshipping God, you violate one of the commandments of our Lord.

If you are preparing to go to church and company comes in and you decide that you had better stay home with your friends instead of filling your appointment with the Lord, you say by your actions to your company, "I love you more than I do the Lord, anyway." If this is your way of treating your friends, what is your hope of converting them?

Some people think they live so far from church that they cannot go and worship God. If such should be the case, whether saint or sinner, then there would be but one sensible thing to do, and that is to move closer, for we cannot afford to lose our souls.

LESSON

"Looking at man's moral and religious nature, we find the most striking indications of original and fundamental unity pervading the race. In all there is a sense of the distinction between right and wrong; in all there is an emotion of approval of what is judged to be right, and of condemnation of what is counted wrong; in all there is a conscience, which is constantly either accusing or else expunging its possessor in reference to his deeds; and in all there is a sense of obligation, a feeling of responsibility, a reference to a supreme power from whom that obligation proceeds, and to whom that responsibility is due."

Christ's Teaching

"The hour cometh, when neither, in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father." Christ foresaw the coming of a time when the Samaritan temple on Mt. Gerizim, which had been in ruins for a century and a half, and the glorious temple on Mt. Zion in Jerusalem, should be all one, since true worship of the Father does not lie in such externals. "God is a spirit; and they that worship Him must worship in spirit and truth" and not in "temples made with hands." In the days of Ezra and Nehemiah these mongrel Samaritans had sought to be included with the Jewish people; a proposal which met with strong rebuff. They resented the affront; built a temple of their own at Gerizim, a rival that at Jerusalem; claimed for their mountain a superior holiness to that at Zion, and even defiled the Jewish temple by scattering bones there at the time of the passover. The Jews therefore had no dealings with Samaritans, and held that salvation was only for themselves. But the Lord Jesus brushed all this aside, as a man might a cobweb swinging across a garden pathway. What were these distinctions to Him, so long as those who sought the Father did so in spirit and in truth? The flock was more to Him than the folds, the army than the device on the banner of any single regiment, and so it will be with us, in proportion as we partake of His spirit."—Rev. F. B. Myer, D. D.

Tennyson's Vision

It is the fashion in some quarters to sneer at the men and women who have visions of universal peace, and to call them visionaries; but the optimist is a safer leader than the pessimist, and he can sing with Tennyson:

"For I dip't into the future, far as human eye could see.

Saw the vision of the world, and all the wonders that would be. Till the war-drum throbb'd no longer, and the battle flags were furled In the Parliament of man, The Federation of the world."—Tennyson.

"Were half the power that fills the world with terror, Were half the wealth bestowed on camps and courts, Given to redeem the human mind from error, There were no need of arsenals or forts."—Henry W. Longfellow.
