DOWNTOWN, Pa. (AP) — David Eisenhower says he's been considering running for public office but hasn't made any definite plans.

Eisenhower, grandson of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and son-in-law of former President Richard Nixon, said Tuesday the idea of running for office "has been in the back on my mind."

He said he has "stayed in touch" with state politics but is not yet ready to seek office.

"I'm not sure I'm really interested," said Eisenhower, here for a speech at a local Republican club. "Everything is too close. We won't be settled for about a year."

Eisenhower and his wife, the former Julie Nixon, have a home in Gettysburg, Pa. but recently moved to Capistrano Beach, Calif., near former President Nixon's San Clemente retreat. Eisenhower is working on a biography of Nixon that he said would be titled "Going Home to Glory."

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The best way to put a child at ease, says entertainer Danny Kaye, "don't do something — just stand there."

Kaye has visited children around the world for 24 years as a goodwill ambassador for the U.N. Children's Fund.

He made the remark to reporters Tuesday after U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim presented him with the UNICEF award for distinguished service. The award is a stylized metal statuette of a parent and child.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A federal judge has agreed to hear Sara Jane Moore's request that her life prison term be set aside and she be allowed to withdraw her plea of guilty to the attempted assassination of former President Gerald R. Ford.

U.S. District Judge Samuel Conti on Tuesday set May 19 for oral arguments. He ordered that Mrs. Moore's attorney be allowed to confer with her client at Terminal Island Federal Prison in Los Angeles before the hearing. Mrs. Moore is not required to attend the hearing.

The attorney filed an eight-page motion April 15 asking for the hearing and claiming that Mrs. Moore had not entered the guilty plea voluntarily or with a full understanding of the consequences.

Mrs. Moore was charged with firing a pistol at Ford outside the St. Francis Hotel here Sept. 22, 1975. A bystander deflected the gun and the shot missed.

GOP tax cut plan gains in Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter's economic stimulus tax bill faces a major test as the Senate approaches a vote on a Republican proposal for across-the-board tax cuts.

The GOP plan for the permanent tax cuts appeared to be gaining some support following Carter's withdrawal of his earlier proposal for one-time $50 tax rebates to most Americans to give the economy a quick jolt.

The vote was scheduled today.

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, chairman of the Senate Budget Committee, said some permanent tax reduction appears to be the only available alternative.

His committee gave a cold reception Tuesday to three top administration officials who argued against cutting the tax rates.

The GOP proposal calls for cutting tax rates by 5 to 14 percent on the first $20,000 of taxable income. It would cost $7.9 billion a year in lost revenues.

The stimulus bill also contains permanent changes in the standard deduction that would save $6 billion a year for 47 million taxpayers who earn less than $20,000 and do not itemize.

Carter favors changing the standard deduction, but has said he would veto any additional tax cut.

The GOP plan would aid all taxpayers, but 90 per cent of the benefits would go to those earning $30,000 a year or less.

A family of four making $10,000 would save $205 a year from the standard deduction change and $58 from the permanent tax cut. If that family makes $20,000, it would get nothing from the standard deduction change but $156 from the rate reduction. At the $30,000 level, the family would save $220 from the rate cut.

Treasury Secretary Michael Blumenthal, Budget Director Bert Lance and presidential economic adviser Charles Schultze told Muskie's committee that permanent tax cuts should await Carter's promised overhaul of the tax code.

Putting cuts in effect now, Schultze said, would jeopardize administration economic plans, especially the effort to balance the budget by 1981.

The administration's efforts to hold the line were complicated by an earlier Senate action. After going along with Carter's recommendation to delete the $50 rebates and other payments, the Senate voted to leave in the tax bill $906 million worth of business incentives.

Carter had recommended also dropping these. The version before the Senate gives businesses a choice between tax credits for investment and for increasing employment.

Before Carter announced his change of policy April 14, the House had passed the bill with provision for the rebates and an employment tax credit for business.

But the House gave an indication Tuesday that it is ready to go along in general with the Senate on the issue. It deleted funds for the rebates from its binding budget, but left the business stimulus in, despite arguments that it was inequitable to keep the incentives for business and deny help to individuals.

Deadlock remains in weapons treaty

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Carter administration has made "absolutely no progress" toward breaking the deadlock with the Soviet Union over a new treaty to limit nuclear weapons, U.S. officials say.

The four assessment comes after four weeks of intensive American efforts to reverse the Soviets' rejection of a proposal by President Carter to radically change the approach to a Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty (SALT).

The officials discussed the SALT situation after insisting that they not be quoted by name.

They said the United States has offered no major change in the two proposals turned down March 30 by Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev during talks with Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance in Moscow.

Carter, Vance and national security adviser Zbigniew Brzezinski then tried to promote the rejected approach in subsequent meetings here with Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin.

12-year-old girl questioned in bomb threats

PASADENA, Tex. (AP) — Police questioned today a 12-year-old girl in connection with two school bomb threats and the burglary of a concession stand.

Police said the young girl also tried to shoot two officers.

Officers said Tuesday that when they went to the girl's home Saturday to pick her up she pointed a .22 caliber pistol at two policemen. According to police, the gun was loaded with blanks but they quoted her as saying she thought it was loaded with live cartridges.

They said she pulled the trigger twice while it was aimed at the officers through an open window. The gun failed to fire, they said.

Juvenile officers said they were told by an informant last week that $200 worth of candy was stolen from the concession stand at an empty ball park.

They said further investigation turned up four boys two 16-year olds, one 13 and one 12, who police said admitted they also took part in the candy burglary.

Police quoted the boys as saying the girl bossed them in the burglary.

But the Russians have stayed with their assertion that a new SALT accord should be based on broad principles reached in the November 1974 Vladivostok summit.

The Carter proposal called for major cuts in each nation's nuclear arsenal and banned the development of new strategic weapons systems.

Brezhnev rejected this approach as inequitable. He contended it left the United States with current advantages and cut the Soviet lead where it has a head start.

Vance is scheduled to meet with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko next month in Geneva for what the Carter administration insists will be a major discussion on SALT.

However, Soviet leaders still have not conceded that the Vance-Gromyko meeting will deal with SALT.

Four enter pleas

Pleas entered in county court this week include:

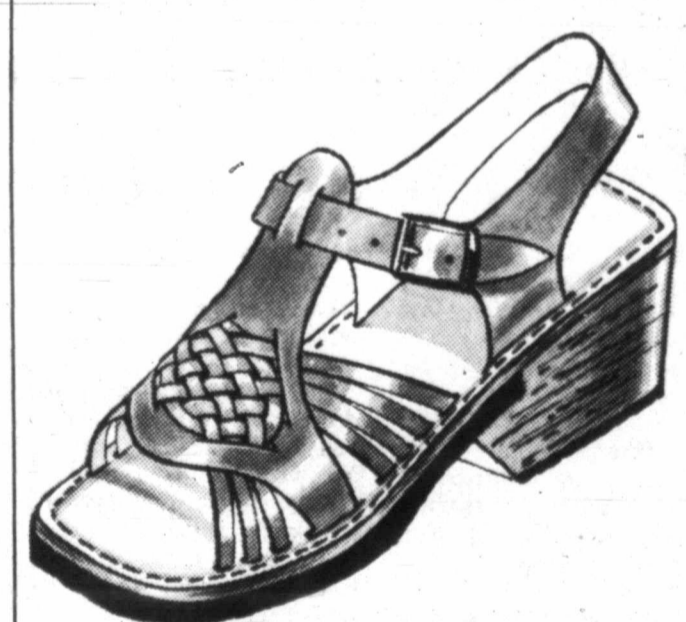

David Newton Bryan, 46, of 706 N. Zimmers, who entered a no contest plea on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was fined $200 and sentenced to 30 days in jail, probated to six months.

Johnny Edward Lee, 48, of Groom, who entered a not guilty plea to a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was found not guilty of the charge, but was found guilty of reckless driving, driving left of center lane, and failure to dim lights. Lee was fined $500.

Joe Mack Helms, 21, of 812 N. Christy, who pleaded guilty to a contest plea on a charge of DWI charge. He was fined $100 and sentenced to three days in jail.

Timothy Lynn Pettit, 20, of 2108 Coffee, listed in Monday's edition of The News as entering a plea of guilty to a DWI charge on Friday, also was charged with possession of marijuana under two ounces. He was fined $200 and put on 180 days probation for that charge.

Four local men win 'outstanding' honors

A Pampa man and three former Pampans will be among an estimated 11,000 men in the United States selected as Outstanding Young Men in America.

Named to be included in the publication's 1977 edition are Randolph Culberson Cain of 1826 Williston, Lonny Ray Robbins of Panama City, Fla., James Michael Edminster of Odessa and Monty Brent Lewis of Abilene.

Edminster, a 1967 Pampa High School graduate and graduate of Texas Tech University, is a certified public accountant for Main - LaFrantz in Odessa. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edminster of 2128 Aspen. He is married and the father of one son, Jason.

Cain was graduated from

Pampa High School in 1974 and is now a junior business major at the University of Texas in Austin. He was president of the Texas chapter of Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) during the 1973-74 school year and was elected national DECA president for 1974-75.

Cain has been listed on the Dean's honor roll at UT. He is the son of District Judge and Mrs. Don Cain of 1826 Williston.

Lewis majored in business at Hardin - Simmons University in Abilene following his graduation from Pampa High School in 1967. He worked his way through college and received a bachelor's degree in 1971. He earned a master's degree from Hardin - Simmons in 1976 and has worked for the university since then. He is married to the former Angela Stewart and they have one son.

He is the son of Mrs. Wesley (LaVera) Lewis of 526 N. Dwight and the late Mr. Lewis. Robbins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Deryl Robbins of Rt. 2 Pampa.

Outstanding Young Men of America is co-sponsored by the United States Jaycees and other leading men's civic and service organizations.

The program recognizes the achievements and abilities of men aged 21-36 and the men are selected on the basis of "their voluntary service to the community, professional leadership, academic achievement, business advancement, cultural accomplishments and civic and political participation."

In spite of optimistic statements from Carter and others, the officials say neither Dobrynin nor any other Soviet leader budged, from his opposition.

The sources also downplayed the importance of Tuesday's announcement of the resumption of working-level talks in Geneva on implementing whatever SALT agreement is reached.

Any claim that these talks, which start May 11, represent progress is "simply a charade," the officials said. The delegations have no meaningful work to do until the U.S. and Soviet leaders break their impasse, the officials said.

In recent talks with Dobrynin, including a meeting Monday with Vance, the American side has shifted from promoting its proposals to seeking a new Soviet approach.

Colorado Dirt Band to tour Soviet

DENVER (AP) — The Dirt Band, which has played before audiences throughout the nation, is taking its blend of rock, bluegrass and country music on the Tbilisi, Yerevan and Riga circuit.

The band will arrive in Moscow on Saturday for a 28-day, 24-concert schedule, the first American rock 'n' roll group to tour the Soviet Union.

"We've been told people over there are very subdued, not laid back, but restricted," said John McEuen, the band's bearded banjo player. "Here, we go out and hit a few bars of 'Cosmic Cowboy' and people know what it is. That won't be true (in Russia)."

The Colorado-based band, formerly known as the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, includes among its hits "Buy For Me the Rain," "Mr. Bojangles," and the album, "Will the Circle Be Unbroken?"

Soviet officials have printed programs with lyrics to all the songs to be performed during the two-hour concerts.

McEuen said the lyrics to "The Battle of New Orleans" could be "a little weird" in Russian. Translation of another Dirt Band song, the Cajun classic "Diggy Liggy Li," could be even more difficult, he said.

The tour is sponsored by the State Department's Office of International Arts Affairs.

Other rock groups such as Chicago and The Doobie Brothers were considered for the tour, a State Department spokeswoman said. But The Dirt Band was chosen because it plays "a blend of sounds the Soviets would like to hear. A harder rock group would be very difficult to present in the Soviet Union at this time," she said.

McEuen and three band members left Denver Tuesday for briefings in Washington. With them was singer Jan Garrett of another Colorado group, Liberty, who is making the tour because the Soviets asked for a female vocalist. Another Dirt Band regular, Jackie Clark, will join the group in Washington.

Cowboys set schedule

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys, bidding for their 12th winning season in a row, have a schedule that includes Minnesota in the opener and a rough November slate that includes consecutive games with St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Washington.

The Cowboys, in announcing their schedule today, said they will host St. Louis on Monday, November 14, then go on the road for two successive Sundays against Pittsburgh and Washington.

All three opponents tallied a 10-4 record in 1976 compared to the Cowboys' 11-3.

It is one of the toughest schedules we've had, particularly with that November stretch when we have to play St. Louis on a Monday night, then travel to Pittsburgh and Washington," Coach Tom Landry said. "It will be very difficult for us to go 11-3 again with a hard schedule like that."

A measure of the frantic eastern competition may be that seven of the Cowboys' 14 games will be televised nationally, and only Washington and St. Louis will be on national TV that often.

After the road opener against the defending National Conference champion Vikings at Minnesota, Dallas' home opener will be Sunday, September 25, against the New York Giants.

The Cowboys will also be hosting:

- Tampa Bay on Sunday, October 2
- Washington on Sunday, October 16
- Detroit on Sunday, October 30
- St. Louis on Monday night, November 14
- Philadelphia on Sunday, December 4
- Denver on Sunday, December 18

The Cowboys have road games with their divisional rivals, plus Pittsburgh, NFC West runnerup San Francisco and Minnesota.

Braves grip about pitchers

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds are driving Dave Bristol batty. "Our pitchers are not putting enough into the ball," says the Atlanta Braves' manager. "We've got to start getting people out. We can't go on like this."

Bristol was all torn up after his pitching continued to be torn apart by the Reds, who blasted 14 hits en route to a 9-1 victory Tuesday night.

The Reds' latest assault followed Monday night's outburst at Atlanta Stadium, where the defending World Champions scored 23 runs on 18 hits.

That made a total of 48 runs and 48 hits against Braves pitching in the last three games. The Los Angeles Dodgers scored 16 runs against Atlanta Sunday.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Philadelphia Phillies 5-0, the Chicago Cubs defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 4-1, the Los Angeles Dodgers downed the San Diego Padres 4-1 and the Houston Astros trimmed the San Francisco Giants 4-3 in 13 innings. The game between Montreal and New York was postponed by rain.

Dan Driessen drove in six runs with a pair of homers and left-hander Fred Norman gave up only three hits in six innings for Cincinnati. The two homers by Driessen and one by Johnny Bench gave the Reds seven against Atlanta pitching in two games and provided more than enough power to hand the Braves their fourth straight loss.

Pirates 5, Phillies 0

Bill Robinson's three-run double backed the combined three-hit pitching of John Candalaria and Rich Gossage, leading Pittsburgh over Philadelphia.

The Pirates took the lead in the second inning when Frank Taveras drove in his first two runs of the season with a triple off losing pitcher Larry Christenson.

Cubs 4, Cardinals 1

Manny Trillo and George Mitterwald drove in two runs apiece and Rick Reuschel pitched a six-hitter as Chicago beat St. Louis.

The Cardinals nicked Reuschel for a fourth-inning run on a sacrifice fly by Ted Simmons. But the Cubs, held hitless for three innings by Eric Rasmussen, broke through for three runs in a game-breaking fourth-inning rally capped by Mitterwald's two-run single.

Dodgers 4, Padres 1

Steve Yeager drove in two runs with a homer and a double and Charlie Hough bailed Don Sutton out of a tough ninth-inning situation, leading Los Angeles over San Diego.

Sutton overcame early wildness in improving his record to 3-0, allowing three hits, striking out eight and walking five before giving way to Hough with two on and none out in the ninth. Hough retired the next three batters, preserving the victory.

Astros 4, Giants 3

Joe Ferguson's two-out homer in the 13th inning lifted Houston over San Francisco. Ferguson's homer, his third of the season, came off reliever Charlie Williams, the fifth Giants' pitcher.

Catcher slides into base

Knutson pitches duel winners for Harvesters

The Harvesters took both games Tuesday in a doubleheader in Dumas to bring their total game record at this point in the season to 10-10.

The Demons got off to a bad start when the first four Pampa High batters were walked, followed by a couple of base hits and the Harvesters took the field with a six point lead.

Another half dozen Harvesters crossed the plate in the third, one in the fourth and five in the fifth — 18 points all together.

Dumas scratched in their part of the first with one run, got another in the second and their final score in the fourth — total of three.

Mike Knutson pitched the winner, bringing his season record to 3-5.

Pampa's momentum continued into the second game with four runs in the first, a pair each in the second and third, and one in the seventh for a total of nine.

Dumas brought one runner home in both the first and second, then concluded the day's play with a burst of four in the seventh, losing the game by three points.

Joe Davis did the tossing for the Harvesters bringing his season record to 5-1.

Coach Bill Balcom said that Knutson probably will pitch

Friday when district play resumes with Palo Duro playing here. He said Rick Daugherty probably will catch.

Catcher Keith Fisher, the senior who has been starting was to have his right index finger checked today for a possible fracture. He got the injury in the Monday game against Amarillo High and was unable to catch in the Dumas games.

District play will conclude Monday for the Harvesters when they go to Amarillo for another go at the Sandies.

Angelo State keeps track title

By MILLER BONNER
Associated Press Writer

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — With a helping hand from Abilene Christian, Angelo State successfully defended its Lone Star Conference track title, highlighting the league's annual spring competitions.

A young Frenchman, Dominique Dumillon, led Southwest Texas to the conference tennis championship and steady Sam Houston held off Angelo State to capture the golf title.

Angelo led ACU by one point, 100-99, with only the mile relay remaining. ACU's Bill Cork—the league's quartermile champ—was poised to anchor the Wildcat mile relay unit but never got past the first 100 yards.

The baton slipped from Cork's grasp, handing the Rams the league title.

"Someone knocked the baton out of my hand... I don't know who it was or where he was from," said Cork.

An obviously disgruntled Don Hood, the ACU track coach, said: "There's no excuse for dropping a baton. All those great efforts prior to that just went down the drain."

Angelo State finished fourth in the mile relay, earning two points and finishing with a total of 102 compared to Abilene's 99. Texas A&M was a distant third with 74 points.

Gross clears way for Blazers

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

Bob Gross and Mike Newlin, two hard-nosed ballplayers who continually give 100 per cent, have put their teams in good position in the National Basketball Association playoff quarter-finals.

Gross, a 6-foot-6, second-year forward from Long Beach State, scored 12 of his 25 points in the fourth quarter Tuesday night, leading the Portland Trail Blazers to a 115-106 victory over the Denver Nuggets and a 3-1 lead in their best-of-seven series.

"Bobby played the best game I've ever seen him play, and one of the finest games a small forward has played in the league all season," praised Portland Coach Jack Ramsay. "His defense was excellent, he moved well and he shot well."

The Blazers can clinch the series Sunday at Denver, and Nuggets Coach Larry Brown knows his club is in trouble.

"We have to regroup," Brown said. "We have to win three in a row and that's a tough task because Portland is playing well."

Newlin, a rugged 6-4 guard who is constantly diving to the floor chasing loose balls, scored two hard-nosed ballplayers who continually give 100 per cent, helping the Houston Rockets beat the Washington Bullets 107-103. That road victory tied the series 2-2 and regained the home-court advantage for the Rockets.

In Tuesday night's other game, Golden State evened its series with Los Angeles at 2-2 with a 114-103 victory over the Lakers. Forward Rick Barry and Jamaal Wilkes combined for 53 points for the Warriors, offsetting 41 points and 18 rebounds by Lakers center Kareem Abdul-Jabbar.

The other series resumes tonight at Philadelphia, with the Boston Celtics and Philadelphia 76ers tied 2-2.

With the settlement of the referees' strike, four of the officials who walked out April 10 returned to action Tuesday night. Paul Mihalak worked with non-striker Richie Powers at Oakland, Manny Sokol teamed with non-striker Earl Strom at Portland and Joe Gushue and Ed Rush officiated at Landover, Md.

Pitching not funny 'ha-ha'

By HERSCHEL NISSENON
AP Sports Writer

"Pitching," says Doug Bird, "is a funny thing."

That's funny as in strange, not funny as in ha-ha.

But until Tuesday night, Bird's pitching had been funny as in ha-ha while Rick Wise's mound efforts were downright hilarious.

All that changed abruptly. Bird, who had an earned run average of 4.15, fired six shut-out relief innings and was the winner as the Kansas City Royals led the Texas Rangers 6-3.

If Bird's ERA was rather high, Wise's was absolutely out of sight. It stood at 53.89, based on 1 2-3 innings pitched and 10 earned runs. It is a more respectable 9.60 now after Wise allowed only one run in 8 2-3 innings as the Boston Red Sox defeated the Milwaukee Brewers 3-1.

In other American League games, the Baltimore Orioles cooled off the New York Yankees 6-2, the Minnesota Twins downed the Seattle Mariners 5-3, the Chicago White Sox outlasted the Detroit Tigers 10-7 in 14 innings and the Oakland A's beat the California Angels 7-3. Toronto and Cleveland were rained out.

Bird entered his game in the fourth inning after Ken Henderson slammed a shot off the knee of Kansas City starter Andy Hassler loading the bases. A run scored on Juan Beniquez' grounder but Bird then stopped the Rangers.

Meanwhile, the Royals scored twice in the bottom of the fourth on Darrell Porter's two-run triple. John Mayberry hit a two-run homer in the sixth and Al Cowens tripled home two runs in the eighth.

Top talent rewarded in Breakers contest

Nine entrants in the Breakers Amateur Talent Seekers Show were selected as winners by a panel of judges during the finals competition Saturday in the Pampa Junior High School Auditorium.

Contestants were divided into classes according to age and groups competing were aged five to junior high, junior high school through high school and adults.

Winning the junior high and high school class was Vicki Ogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Le Roi Ogden. She went on to win the show's grand prize.

Sharing second place in that class were Anne Kadingo and Vance Bruce. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N.G. Kadingo and Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry D. Bruce.

Third place went to the Jasper rock group. Members are Mark Hungerford, son of Erving Hungerford; Jeffrey Leigh, son of Mrs. Myrt Leigh, and Chris Ferris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Winsett.

Taking a first place in the youngest age class was Karen Motley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Motley; Robert Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Waite, and Tyrone Evans, son of Ms. Patricia Evans.

The trophy won by the three youngsters will go on display at Lamar Elementary School.

Christine Urbanczyk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Urbanczyk of White Deer, finished in second place while six-year-old Bart Thomas was third. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Thomas.

Winning in the adult division was Dale Harris of White Deer. Fred Thompson was second and Herman Armstrong placed third.

The show was sponsored by the Breakers CB Club to raise funds for the Gray County Multiple Sclerosis Fund. Forty per cent of the show's proceeds will be turned over to the fund.

Judges were Bedford Forrest, Ron Slover and Linda Broadfoot, all of Amarillo. Included at the talent show was a demonstration of electric wheel chairs by Kel Schultz of Dallas.

Georgia Mack and Vickie Moose also assisted.

ABC cans 'Streets'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — ABC's "Streets of San Francisco" and "Bionic Woman" won't be back on television next fall, nor will "Most Wanted," "Dog and Cat," "Blansky's Beauties" and "The Tony Randall Show."

All were canceled on Monday as ABC became the first of the three television networks to make public its lineup of evening shows scheduled for the new season in September.

ABC also said its "Captain and Tennille" and "Brady Bunch" variety shows are being taken off as weekly series, but will continue next fall as occasional specials aired at various times.

The network announced six new series for next season, five of them comedies. The sixth is a Thursday variety show starring comedian Redd Foxx, who is leaving NBC's hit "Sanford and Son" after this season.

Two of the new comedies are hour-long shows, "San Pedro Bums," about five high-spirited young men, and "Love Boat," a luxury liner series starring Gavin McLeod, who for seven seasons played a newswriter on CBS' "Mary Tyler Moore Show."

The other shows, all half-hour programs, are: —"Soap," about two families whose relationships, ABC says, "are as complex as those in a Russian novel."

—"Operation Petticoat," based on the 1959 Gary Grant movie about a submarine skipper and a boatload of Army nurses in World War II. The series stars John Astin as the skipper.

—"Carter Country," starring Victor French as a white police chief in the South and Kene Holiday as his black deputy from New York.

ABC also said it plans to air "Washington, D.C.," a 12-hour series loosely based on "The Company," the novel by former Nixon White House aide John D. Ehrlichman, convicted in 1975 on Watergate cover-up charges.

The network said no date has been set yet for the telecast of that show or for a 10-part showing of another miniseries, "How the West Was Won," starring James Arness.

In announcing its fall schedule, ABC also said it was moving five of its returning shows to new time periods. However, other changes may be made when NBC and CBS make public their new program schedules.

NBC said its fall schedule will be announced the first week in May, while CBS said it will announce its new schedule on May 6.

Courtney to lead Travis parent group

Mrs. Darlene Courtney is heading a slate of new officers of the Travis Elementary School PTA for the 1977-78 school year following a recent election.

Flower planting grows, too

(Fourth in a Series) By Allan and Sheila Swenson NEA Garden Columnists

You can make your home and outdoor living areas come alive with color this year. Flower gardening is blooming fun. Fact is, flower gardens are sprouting across America as never before.

For several years, millions more families have become food growers in their backyard vegetable gardens. Today, seed firms report surprising increases in flower seed sales. Seems that flower power is a growing phenomenon as more people seek to beautify their surroundings.

You can grow annuals from seed or prestarted plants available at garden centers. Perennials are popular because once planted, they reward you every year. You can start many perennials from seed, too.

Some flowers love sun, others perform best in semi-sun or shadier areas where you may want colorful beds, borders or special pots, hanging basket or window accents. Seed packets provide excellent growing directions. You can start seeds indoors or plant them directly outdoors when danger of frost is over. To help you pick the best plants for your home, here are the best flowers suitable for various locations and purposes.

For bedding, try aster, impatiens, marigold, pansy, petunia, portulaca, snapdragon, verbena and zinnia. Good dwarf plants for edging include ageratum, alyssum, dwarf aster, or celosia, English daisy, dwarf marigold, viola and dwarf zinnia.

In window boxes, alyssum, begonia, coleus, geranium, lobelia, petunia, especially the cascading types, and vinca work well.

Some flowers are noted for their fragrance. Try alyssum, carnation, heliotrope, lily of the valley, nicotiana, phlox, stock, sweet peas, tuberose and wallflowers.

If you wish flowers for cutting plant carnation, chrysanthemum, cornflower, cosmos, foxglove, larkspur, marigold, petunia, poppy, Shasta daisy, snapdragon, stock, sweet pea, sweet

William, zinnia and the "everlasting" flowers.

Tall flowers as backgrounds for lower types provide profusions of bloom for a total plantscape look in your garden. Try tall celosia, cleome, cosmos, delphinium, hollyhock, tall marigold, snapdragon and zinnia.

Shady spots can be made to sparkle, too. These flowers enjoy partial shade: ageratum, begonia, caladium, coleus, forget-me-not, impatiens, nicotiana, pansy, polyanthus, sweet violet, vinc and viola.

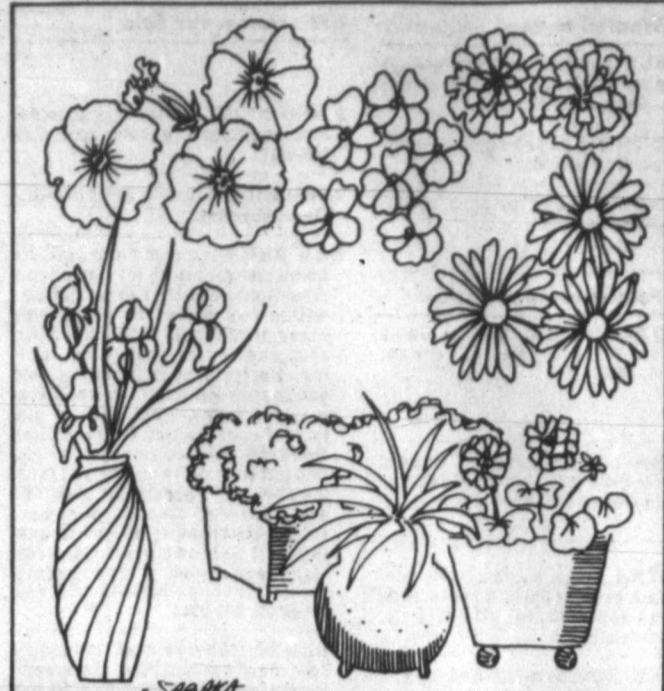

You may not have fine fertile soil in some areas. These flowers tolerate drier or poorer soils; alyssum, cactus, candytuft, celosia, cleome, cosmos, dianthus, four o'clock, gloriosa daisy, marigold, nasturtium, petunia, phlox, portulaca and verbena.

If you enjoy growing hangups, begonia, lobelia, nasturtium, cascading petunia and thunbergia as well as various ivy thrive in hanging pots.

For rock gardens: ageratum, arabis, candytuft, dianthus, lobelia, dwarf marigold, ground phlox, verbena and dwarf zinnia shine brightly.
