

'Gunga Din' To Open At Crown Next Sunday

Picture First Of New R-K-O Bookings Here

A vivid, romantic, virile story is told in "Gunga Din," first of the RKO Radio pictures to be shown in Pampa at the Crown theater.

"Gunga Din," based on Kipling's great poem, will open here on March 26, a week from today and continue for an indefinite time.

Recently the Crown theater contracted to show RKO pictures in Pampa and the first picture that comes here under that contract is the dynamic adventure story, laid in the picturesque background of Northern India near the Kyber Pass.

The film presents Cary Grant, Victor McLaglen, and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., as three hard-bitten sergeants in Her Majesty's colonial army.

The three stars are seen as reckless sergeants in a British army outpost near the famous Kyber Pass, a scene of unrest and hatred as a band of religious fanatics, known as Thugs, frenziedly pursue a reign of terror and murder according to their secret rites.

Joan Fontaine is cast as the daughter of a tea company official stationed in the heart of the affected area. Her romance with one of the hard-bitten non-com officers, Fairbanks, follows a turbulent course, conflicting as it does with the sworn friendship of the three sergeants, and shadowed by the constant danger to which Fairbanks is subjected.

Sam Jaffe, of "Lost Horizon" fame, plays the native war carrier immortalized in the Kipling poem. Prominent in the supporting cast are Eduardo Ciannelli, as the Master of the murderous Thugs; Montagu Love, as a British colonel; Robert Coote, as a comedy sergeant; Abner Biberman, as a Thug leader; and directed for RKO Radio by George Stevens.

Road Advocates To Go To Clarendon

A delegation of Pampa road advocates, led by Chairman Jim Collins of the Board of City Development Highway committee, will go to Clarendon Monday afternoon to attend a meeting of the 88-18 North-South Highway association.

Plans for contacting the high commission in Austin March 31 will be discussed at the meeting. Pampa road builders desiring to attend the meeting may call the Chamber of Commerce office before noon. The meeting will be called at 3 o'clock.

BANDS FORM LETTERS, 'ST. PATRICK DAY 1939'

Here's an airplane view of the Marchista ceremonies on Denver football field at Shamrock Friday, when nearly 2,000 bandsmen assembled in mass formation to present one of the most colorful spectacles ever staged in the Southwest. As the plane flew low over the stadium the various bands were in formation to spell out "ST. PATRICK'S DAY, 1939."

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, March 18 (AP)—Europe's troubles again inspired selling in the stock market today. Leading issues dropped 1 to 5 points before late support cut most losses substantially.

While nervousness over the war outlook brought heavy offerings at the opening, thought that the market may have been overbid, even if the totalitarian and democratic powers clash, attracted some speculative buying.

Block of 1,000 to 6,000 shares changed hands on the way down at the start. Dealings dwindle on the come-back move, but the total was 1,007,240 shares, the largest for any Saturday since Oct. 22.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off 7 of a point at 49.2. On the week this composite showed a net decline of 4 points, the biggest fall since March a year ago.

Stocks off 1 to nearly 4 in the day's proceedings included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, Du Pont, International Telephone, Montgomery Ward, American Smelting, Philip Morris, Santa Fe and Allied Chemical. U. S. Gypsum, on relatively light dealings, dropped 6 1/2.

Aircraft resisted the trend on the idea the rearmament race would gain momentum whether or not war is avoided. United Aircraft and Glenn Martin were among the few shares to close slightly ahead.

Bonds weakened with stocks. Commodities were mixed.

Referendum On War Urged By Sen. Borah

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—Spurred by American reaction to Chancellor Hitler's march into Czechoslovakia, supporters of a war referendum amendment decided today to seek speedy consideration of their proposal on the floors of Congress.

In this move they won the backing of Senator Borah (R-Idaho) who said he favored bringing into the Senate for debate a resolution introduced by 12 Senators.

"I'm for the principle behind this resolution," Borah declared, adding, however, he believed there must be some revision of it.

The proposed amendment would require an acquiescent vote of the people before Congress could declare war, except in case of invasion or threat of invasion of the western hemisphere by a hostile power.

Senator Clark (D-Idaho), one of a dozen Senators who introduced it, said he was convinced American public opinion was more than ever in favor of the war referendum proposal because of the disturbing events in Europe.

"Letters are pouring in every day in favor of this amendment," Clark said.

The referendum proposal has encountered outspoken opposition from both President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Hull. They have contended it would not be workable and would hamper the government in time of crisis. A similar proposal narrowly was defeated in the House last session.

Senator LaFollette (Prog-Wis), a co-author, said proponents of the measure expected to arrange soon for hearings before a Senate judiciary subcommittee headed by Senator Hatch (D-NM).

The New Mexico Senator expressed belief that when public reaction to the events in Europe crystallized there would be a trend against any legislation that might tie the hands of Congress and the President in a time of crisis.

This renewed activity on behalf of the war referendum proposal coincided with increased congress-sional discussion of proposals to revise the neutrality act, given fresh impetus by President Roosevelt's statement yesterday that changes in the neutrality law should be made.

In this connection, Senator Connally (D-Tex) predicted that administration leaders would work out a generally satisfactory bill from various measures now pending before the Senate foreign relations committee.

Some committee members said there was discussion of a possible compromise based on a bill by Senator Thomas (D-Utah) which would permit the President to embargo shipments to aggressor nations only, subject to the approval of Congress.

They said there appeared to be considerable support for a move to turn this proposal around, permitting Congress to designate the aggressors before the resident could act.

Daniel Speaks At New London Rites

HENDERSON, March 18, (AP)—Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, speaking at memorial services held on the second anniversary of the New London school explosion, told Texans the loss suffered "may rekindle the spark of love and devotion to our own children."

Hundreds of persons from the East Texas oil belt gathered today for the services at Pleasant Hill cemetery, where most of the several hundred victims of the disaster were buried. O'Daniel spoke from Austin by remote control on a program which was broadcast.

"Men—men of Texas, let's do our part," the governor said. "Let's not only make our school houses safe, but before it's too late, let's discard all of these old rattle-trap school buses. Let's protect the lives of our dearest possessions—our little school boys and girls."

The governor described how, news of the explosion, in which students and teachers were killed, became known, "Texas, sympathetic Texas, spent the day and night in front of their radios, hoping that first reports were exaggerated, but learning as hour after hour ground on that the stark facts grew worse."

"The Voder," an electrically driven machine which creates a synthetic "human" voice, will feature the Bell Telephone Laboratories exhibit in the Hall of Electricity and Communication on Treasure Island.

Tax Decision For Pensions To Come Soon

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, March 18 (AP)—Cannon-riding will roar again Monday in the pension-tax battle in the Texas House of Representatives. All indications are that a decision, not necessarily final, will come soon.

While the legislature was in recess over the weekend, a tremendous amount of work was being done in efforts to win recruits for opposing forces.

The situation was this: Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the House fiercely debated a proposed constitutional amendment which would authorize financing liberalized old age pensions by a combination sales-natural resource-utility bills tax.

The chief disputes were whether an income tax should be natural resource levies in the constitutional resolution as it came from a drafting committee should be increased.

First, the House voted by a narrow margin for the income tax substitution, then overnight reversed the action by overwhelming majority. Next it refused to kill the amendment, declared for a higher levy on natural gas and was considering oil and sulphur taxes at adjournment.

No Pension Argument

There was little argument over the pension part of the resolution, which followed recommendations of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel for guaranteeing $30 a month income to all over 65 who did not have such income.

A Senate committee reported a constitutional resolution featuring a two per cent sales tax and taxes on a wide variety of services, but making no changes in the present pension administration system.

The outstanding question was whether the constitutional amendment in the House could muster 100 votes, the required two-thirds majority. Observers generally agreed the issue would be close.

Said Rep. Harold Hankamer of El Paso, among those supporting the amendment:

"I think we will get 100 votes, but it may not be on the first ballot. Time will be in favor of the amendment, because pressure will increase as the session nears an end."

Viewpoint of the anti-sales taxer was expressed by Rep. W. J. Galbreath of Wharton, who said he would "never vote for a sales tax in a million years."

Should the amendment on the first test receive less than 100 votes, but more than a simple majority, proponents could bring it up again and again by merely moving to reconsider. Any time they garnered 100 votes, it would be over. Because they plainly do not have a majority, opponents cannot kill it.

In the debate, here are the principal arguments heard:

1. Putting the pension and tax plan in the constitution would take pensions out of politics and squelch demagogic politicians.

2. The amendment would meet the issue laid down last summer in the campaign of Governor O'Daniel and many members of the legislature.

3. Every citizen should support the social security program, and the sales tax is the best way to make support general.

4. Old folks will not object to participating in this support by the medium of a sales tax; they do not want to be considered paupers.

5. A sales tax will make the people tax conscious, and if this is not done the state will be wrecked.

6. A sales tax is the only way to curb widespread sentiment for government money to satisfy pension and other social desires.

7. An income tax would not raise needed money.

8. An income tax would defeat all pension legislation.

9. The federal government already is milking the country dry on an income tax.

10. The amendment is an attempt to relieve poverty; it is not a levy on poverty.

Against the amendment—

1. A sales tax is a levy on the poor.

2. The sales tax proposed in the amendment would be, in actual effect, greater than the specified two and one half per cent.

3. Governor O'Daniel is against a sales tax.

4. An income tax is fairer than a sales tax because it levies chiefly on the top economic stratum and is based on ability to pay; a sales tax bears heaviest on people who spend all they have on comparatively small, retail purchases.

5. Natural resources could stand the entire burden and not miss the money; other states tax natural resources much more than Texas.

6. Every special interest in Texas is supporting the amendment.

7. Taxes should not be written into the constitution, but the legislature should have the courage and ability to draft a tax program; submission of an amendment is "passing the buck."

8. If the people are to vote on a tax plan, plans other than one in which a sales tax is paramount should be submitted; the present plan gives the people no choice.

9. If the amendment is killed, the Senate will cooperate in raising taxes by statute.

10. The suggested plan is too liberal, especially in that it will give negroes too much.

How to grow old scientifically will be shown in a "March of Life" exhibit in the Hall of Science at the California World's Fair.

25 Per Cent Duty On Nazi Goods Ordered

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—On the heels of the state department's strongly-worded denunciation of Germany's absorption of Czechoslovakia, the treasury ordered an extra 25 per cent tariff today on many products that the Reich sends to this country.

A treasury spokesman who announced the action said it was taken with the state department's knowledge, but refused comment when asked if it was related to Germany's seizure of the Czech republic.

"The action," he said, "springs for itself."

There seemed little doubt, however, that this economic blow to Germany would be interpreted other than as a forceful expression of this country's displeasure at what Sumner Wells, acting secretary of state, called yesterday the "wanton lawlessness" of the occupation of Czechoslovakia.

It recalled, too, that President Roosevelt said in his message to Congress last January there were means "short of war, but stronger and more effective than mere words, of bringing home to aggressor nations the aggregate sentiments of our own people."

The treasury ordered the extra tariff by imposing what are known as "countervailing duties," effective April 23.

"The tariff act of 1930 provides that such duties shall be levied—in addition to regular tariffs—on any foreign products subsidized in manufacture or export, by the government of the country of origin."

The treasury acted after Attorney General Murphy ruled that German goods imported under barter arrangements should be subject to extra duties.

Officials said the treasury could not now say what goods would be affected. It was said, however, "a substantial part" of imports from Germany would feel the extra duty.

In view of Wells' expression yesterday, diplomats here were convinced this country would not recognize the Nazi absorption of Czechoslovakia.

The administration also, authoritative source said, will give complete backing to the fight by Vladimir S. Hruban, the Czech minister, to prevent his dismembered country's legation here from falling into German hands.

The state department, it was said, will lend the German embassy no assistance in obtaining possession of the legation.

Hurban said he would not turn over the legation until the Czechoslovak national embassy approved the merger with Germany.

Since the national embassy no longer exists, it appears the doughty Czech may be able to hold on for some years.

Propaganda Won Slovakia For Germany

By ROY D. PORTER

BERLIN, March 18 (AP)—Adolf Hitler's third bloodless territorial acquisition in a year was built on a carefully planned and executed propaganda campaign by Nazi experts in Czechoslovakia.

Spearhead of this high-powered propaganda drive was Ernst Kundt, Czechoslovak deputy who was trained in the Konrad Henlein school which successfully brought Czechoslovakia's Sudeten regions into Germany last autumn.

Behind him were undercover agents and operatives. They all had one purpose: to bring Czechoslovak political parties into line with national socialism in preparation for complete Nazi domination as Austria had been prepared for union with expanding Germany.

Events of the last few months show the success of the propaganda campaign which opened the way for German troops into Bohemia and Moravia March 15.

Kundt, who cooperated fully with Henlein while heading the German delegation in the Czechoslovak parliament, was left inside Czechoslovakia to lead the Nazi campaign after the Munich accord Sept. 29.

Appointment of Frantisek Chvalkovsky as Prague's foreign minister placed a pro-Nazi at the controls of Czech diplomacy.

As undercover agents met in Czech cities under swastika banners, the steam-roller movement gained momentum.

Distributes Money. Kundt received "a large sum" of money to distribute among needy Germans in Czechoslovakia. Jewish films were banned. Press censorship, already rigid under the Czechs, became Nazi-like in its prohibition of any publications "unfriendly or unfavorable to Germany."

Prague university was "aryanized." Jews became a minority. "Mein Kampf," Hitler's autobiography, translated into Czech appeared in Prague bookshops. Free entry of all German publications was permitted.

Kundt's first movement's were mild, his speech restrained. But as the movement gained adherents, even among the Czechs, he launched out until finally his full program was disclosed.

On Feb. 13 this 42-year-old, Hitler-mustachioed exponent of nazism said:

"The position of Germans in Czechoslovakia is unbearable. Certain Czech circles have learned nothing from the events of 1938. Germanism in Czechoslovakia is the concern of the German Reich."

To many outside Germany this seemed biased, if not provocative. They knew Germans had forced the Czech government to accept many tents of nazism. They had created railway and highway lines across Czechoslovakia over which even German troops could pass.

They were in the process of considering trade and monetary agreements favorable to Germany. Chvalkovsky's foreign policy was in harmony with the Reich's.

Czechoslovak state arose between Prague and Joseph Tiso, premier of autonomous Slovakia. Even while Germany was declaring officially that she was "uninterested," Nazi agents in Bratislava were bringing their activities to a finish. Tiso was displaced by Karl Sidor as premier on accusations of encouraging separatist agitation. But Tiso remained the white hope of the Germans. Ferdinand Durcansky, ousted by Prague from a cabinet post along with Tiso, was given use of a Vienna Nazi radio station to attack the Sidor government. Slovakia declared her independence of Prague. Carpatho-Ukraine, third part of the federal state, tried to follow suit. At this propitious moment, Kundt again stepped forth, borrowing a page from the story of Sudetenland, Germans. The work of Kundt and his agents was brought to a successful climax.

$894 and up delivered at Flint, Mich. *Subject to change without notice. Transportation, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra.

FIRST time we saw the blueprints for this Buick thirty-niner we knew we had something pretty special for folks who like action in their travels.

It had a view, a gorgeous view, from windows and windshields as much as 412 square inches bigger—and it had style that has already altered the pattern on many another carstylist's drawing board.

So we looked it all over—and went a step further. We decided a car so plainly meant for action needed to have a price that would get action for it!

Now it isn't easy to build such a traveler—rich in reliable Buick quality clear down to the metals it's made of—and still give it a price that rubs elbows with the sixes.

But just look around, match up the price tags, and you'll find that this great straight-eight lists for less than some cars with two fewer cylinders!

It comes complete with equipment that's extra in many another instance—yet the figures still read lower than on Buick of a year ago. So when you see this Buick you not only see the car, but the one big value of the year. That's why we're anxious to have you try Buick—it's a car with a winning way about it, and a winning price tag in the bargain!

Is The 'Balance' Of Europe Shifting? Slowly, ponderously, like a great gate beginning to swing, Europe seems to feel a slow shift of balance.

The balance of Europe, which seemed to teeter so definitely toward Germany and Italy last fall, is almost certainly swinging away from the equilibrium of September.

Hore-Belisha revealed that, even excluding India and Burma, Britain has a half million men under arms, almost 100,000 more than a year ago.

While he did not speak of obligations and alliances, the minister made it clear that they are all equipped and ready to defend France in any emergency that means that they would also be defending Britain.

France has already put the foot down quite firmly on surrendering to territorial demands from Mussolini. Even the countries of southeastern Europe seem to have stiffened in their attitude toward German expansion.

The strongest card a diplomat can hold in a 1939-1940 game of international showdown poker seem to be clubs. It is gradually becoming apparent that the British are gradually shaping a club that is not stuffed, and which carries a good stout spike in the end.

Perhaps the next British statesman to sit in on an international poker session will have a better hand than Chamberlain held in September, 1938. He could not yet hold all the trumps and aces, but one by one, some of the cards have begun to fall his way.

Perhaps Europe's best hope for peace would lie in a situation where all players were so sure the other fellow held strong cards that nobody would want to call. Then, perhaps, they would give up poker and turn to ping-pong.

The Lake county jail in Waukegan has 23 new occupants, sit downers who are now sitting it out according to law, serving terms of various duration for contempt of court orders.

Most of the men were employees of the two companies. At the instigation of their leaders they seized the plants and held them in spite of the orders of the court. For a time they repulsed the efforts of the law officers to enforce the writs and engaged in open conflict with the law.

Sharing the Comforts Of Life --- By R. C. Hoiles

BLAMES UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE Henry S. McKee, author of "Degenerate Democracy" in a very interesting article in the Los Angeles Times, under the heading of "Object Lesson of Political Control," blames our present predicament on universal suffrage.

"Long after the founding of our government we began to enlarge and extend the voting franchise and, step by step, we have come to our present system of universal suffrage. This untried political experiment has finally placed the control of government in the hands of the least competent and least successful of the voters because they are the most numerous. They needed only a leader who would promise, if elected, to reform everything and give them all something.

Mr. McKee sums up his article as follows: "It is idle to blame the administration we have in Washington. It is nothing more than a demonstration of the failure of our experiment in universal suffrage. It was the choice of our voters, and it has given them what they voted for."

WHY DID ROOSEVELT CALL THE LABOR PEACE PARLEY? Those who have analyzed motives are inclined to believe that Roosevelt called the labor peace parley for the purpose of delaying the demand to have the Wagner Act amended or repealed.

The students of history are pretty generally of the opinion that the lesser of the two evils would be to permit labor unions to attempt to be the judge of when a man may be discharged, rather than have the politicians have that authority.

Evidently the peace parley is simply a method of procrastinating the revision of the Wagner Act. Roosevelt seems to want to adjourn Congress because he does not want the Wagner Act revised and be obliged to admit his mistake or he does not want a reduction in appropriations or elimination of the Undistributed Profits Tax.

Tex's Topics By Tex DeWeese WHEN THAT DAY comes on which they pass around credit where credit really is due, you'll have to give the palm to those energetic, enthusiastic folk over at Shamrock where they are resting up today after one of the biggest week-end regional celebrations ever staged in the Southwest.

Movie-goers around the nation nation soon will be seeing in their favorite theaters the highlights of the big day because newswart cameramen from two film companies were on hand to record the action for posterity.

Mingling with the crowds all day long were Mayor Bill Walker, C. of C. Manager, Bedford Harrison, Editor Albert Cooper, Atty. Clayton Heare, State Rep. Gene Worley, and many other leading townsmen who acted as official hosts for the day.

DR. C. H. SCHULKEY was right out there in front of Pampa's large delegation all day long. As chairman of the local C. of C. goodwill committee, Dr. Schulkey really got the job done and had Pampa represented all over the place.

Personally, we'd like to publicly apologize to Shamrock's Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Goodrich whom we never did find in that huge throng after the parade.

Another Baseball Mass Meeting To Be Tuesday

A group of Pampa men have taken upon themselves the task of assuring Pampa a professional baseball team this summer. They would like some help and advice and they will afford Pampans the opportunity of backing them at a mass meeting of fans Tuesday night at 7:30 in the city manager's office in the city hall.

The men have raised $1,500 or more toward a $2,500 sinking fund to back up the franchise owner, Grover Seitz, in case he strikes bad times through adverse weather or poor crowds. The men want suggestions as to how to raise the balance of the money.

They also want to discuss with fans the naming of the team, they want to receive assurance that they, Mr. and Mrs. Fan, will support the team, and they want to discuss players with Mr. and Mrs. Fan.

L. N. Atchison, chairman of the committee that has been working tirelessly, will preside at the meeting. Not only fans in Pampa but in oil camps and nearby towns will be welcomed.

"We want suggestions as well as money," Mr. Atchison said. "We want fans to consider the ball club theirs and they should take an interest in it."

19 Track And Field Marks Shattered At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, March 18 (AP)—Wholesale butchery, on a scale unequalled in the long history of the meet shredded 19 records today as the Southwestern Exposition track and field meet rushed through its greatest renewal.

Boys' Gatewood, catlike Olympic hope of Texas university, snared two first places for the Longhorns, who held their championship with ease. Texas churned up 54 5/6 points, holding off Oklahoma A. & M. with 37; Texas A. & M. with 33 1/2; Texas Christian with eight, and Baylor with 7 2/3. Southern Methodist and Tulsa failed to tally.

Gatewood teamed with the Ride-out twins of North Texas State Teachers to deliver the day's brightest individual performance. Hardened by an arduous winter campaign indoors against the nation's greatest, the Rideouts swept through their specialties with ease.

Blaine's flying feet swept him around the oval in four minutes, 14.2 seconds, six full seconds under the mark he set last year. He was fighting only time. His competition was weak.

Wayne sped the 880-yard run in one minute, 54.5 seconds, chopping three seconds off his figure set last season.

Gatewood did his spectacular chores under difficult circumstances. He first broke an eight-year record by churning over the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.3 seconds. The old mark was held by Harlan of Texas A. & M.

Discus Mark Breken.

Then the timber-skimmer came back to duplicate his performance in the finals.

A ten-minute rest, and back he came to run the touted Walter "Red" Cecil of Freeport into the ground with a 9.9-second sprint over the 100-yard course.

Seven of the 19 marks which were overhauled were meet records. One was an 11-year-old figure—the discus record of 150 feet, 8 1/2 inches set by Baldwin of Texas. Jack Hughes, another Texan, surpassed it with a heave of 153 feet.

Lonnie Hill of Texas, a freshman who formerly starred at Schreiner Institute, won the special 100-meter dash with a time of 10.5 seconds, another meet mark. Gatewood, attempting to record a triple victory, got away in fine order, holding Hill even for half the distance.

He pulled a leg muscle and was forced to drop back, however. Hill breezed in ahead of Harold Cagle of Oklahoma Baptist university, and Red Cecil.

Gilliam Graham, another of Texas' rich crop of athletes, set a new meet record of 214 feet, 7 inches, in a special event, by propelling the spear 214 feet, 7 inches.

Teachers Win.

North Texas Teachers won the college division title with 45 3/4 points; John Tarleton the junior college honors with 46; North Texas' crew of freshmen kept step with their elders by taking the preparatory and academy division championship with 46 points, and Brady and Harold tied for the high school title with 12.

Meet records set included Bill Hunt's high jump of 6 feet 4 1/2 inches

STUDENTS WILL YELL FOR HIM

A flock of Pampa high school Spanish students are scheduled to be in the stands tomorrow night yelling for Mickey Durano, educated Argentine wrestler, when he takes the mat against bruising Alan Plummer, who will be the villain in the piece. Senior Durano made a hit with the Spanish students and their teacher, Lambert Marks, when he addressed their class last week. Durano won his match last week when he fastened his feet around John Nemanic's head and tossed him all over the ring.

for East Texas Teachers in the college division.

Division records chalked up included:

University division—440-yard run: Moser, Texas Aggies, 50 seconds; Mile relay: Oklahoma A. & M., 3 minutes 24.4 seconds.

Prep-Academy division 440-yard dash: Jackson, North Texas, 50.6 seconds; 20-yard dash, Rogers, North Texas, 21.8 second; 220-yard-low hurdles, Munn, Oklahoma Aggies, 25.7 seconds; 880-yard run, Miller, North Texas, 2 minutes, 2.4 seconds; high jump, Boydston, Oklahoma Aggies, and Baggatt, Texas, 6 feet 2 5/8 inches; shot put; Wilson, Baylor, 44 feet, 6 3/4 inches and mile relay, North Texas, 3:26.6.

High school division—120-yard high hurdles: Nichols, Capitol Hill (Oklahoma City), 15.6; mile run, Estry, Tulsa, 4 minutes, 37.7 seconds; 440-yard dash, Calley, Brady, 50.5 seconds.

Chasing the first place team winners were:

College division—East Texas State Teachers, 42 3/4 points; Howard Payne, 20 1/2; Southwest Texas State Teachers, 12 1/2; Oklahoma Baptist, 10; Stephen F. Austin, 4; Abilene Christian, 1.

Junior college—Connors (Okla.) Aggies, 25 points; Cameron Aggies, 23; Schreiner, 16; Kilgore, 13; North Texas Aggies, 8; Westminster, Murray (Okla.) Aggies, and Paris, 3; Decatur Baptist 2.

Preparatory and academy—Texas, 33 1/2; Oklahoma A. & M., 21 1/2; Baylor, 7; Tulsa, 6; East Texas State, 4.

High school—Kaufman and Texarkana, 10 points; Tulsa and Rockdale, 9; Capitol Hill, Oklahoma City, 8; Adamson, Dallas, and Tishomingo, 7; Hugo, Okla., 6; Gaston, 5; Waurika, Okla., Claude, Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), and Richardson, 4.

Meet officials declared the tourney the finest in the 17-year-old history of the show, one of the biggest in the southwest. More than a thousand athletes from Oklahoma and Texas worked under a warm sun, but officials kept events moving swiftly, and the job of running off 13 final events in five divisions within the span of an afternoon was achieved in four hours.

Polo Players To Meet Here Today

A meeting of polo players and persons interested in polo will be held at Recreation park at 2 o'clock this afternoon when several players will work out their mounts.

Plans for organizing a polo team will be discussed. Rub Burrow has been named chairman of the meeting.

Pampa was a well known polo center a few years ago and several of the same players still live here. Teams have already been organized at Perryton, Amarillo, Borger, McLean, and Panhandle in discussing sponsoring a team.

"We may be able to organize a Panhandle league," Mr. Burrow remarked yesterday.

Shamrock Boxers Beat Canadian's

SHAMROCK, March 18.—Shamrock high school boxers celebrated St. Patrick's day by taking four out of seven bouts for Canadian batters Thursday evening.

Coach Toby Waggoner of Canadian sent a fast bunch of boys into the ring and they gave Grady Box's Irish boys a tough battle all the way.

Results (with Shamrock lads listed first): Moore won with technical knockout over Morris; Pepper lost to Worley; Prince dethroned Gamble; Coleman lost to Thrasher, Wilson lost to Spurlin; Burton dethroned Rivers, and Sutterfield dethroned Simpson.

In preliminary fights between local boys O'Gorman dethroned Mayfield, Roden dethroned Butts, Martin dethroned Schnell, and Callan dethroned Glover.

Greens Beat Whites 26-0 In Grid Game

Sickness and injuries riddled the ranks of the Pampa Harvester football squad for its Friday afternoon intra-squad tussle at Harvester field but the game went on with the Green eleven, captained by Grover Heiskell, defeating the White team, captained by Aubrey Green in the absence of Glen Nichols, 26 to 0.

With several boys ill or on the sidelines with injuries, coaches were forced to do a lot of shifting. Three backfield men played in the line and one lineman was in the backfield.

The difference between a tie game and victory was Grover Heiskell who gave a dazzling exhibition of ball toting as he scored four touchdowns. Only three of them counted, however, when a clipping penalty nullified one score. Pete Dunaway, who also played a top game, added the other counter for the Greens.

LeRoy Giles and Bert Isbell tried valiantly for the Whites and appeared to have an advantage in the first quarter but they were never able to break across the goal line. Both are up from the Guerrillas.

New Boys Promising

Ray Boyles, a newcomer to high school football, showed great promise until suffering a knee injury while James Carlisle continued to give promise of becoming a candidate for a starting berth. They were members of the Green squad, Ford and W. Phillips rounded out the White backfield and with more experienced linemen might show a clean pair of heels to some of the other boys.

Neither line was at full strength as Coach Odus Mitchell of the Greens had to send Molesworth and Odell to end positions and switch Morris and Stokes from the backfield to guard positions. Candler and Montgomery, lettermen, were at tackles with Maynard at center.

Coach J. C. Prejean of the Whites used Mullins and Green, at ends, Giddens and R. Phillips, at tackles, Mathews, a back, and Bailey, at guards and Terrell at center.

Considering the mixed-up lines the forward walls played good ball in spots with few standouts. Candler, Montgomery, Giddens and Green showed experience from their season with the Harvesters. Several boys up from the Guerrillas, Sophomores and even the Reapers will prove troublesome to the lettermen coaches remarked.

Play Again Friday

Fade, a promising newcomer from Odessa, was on the sidelines with a broken finger. Co-Captain Glen Nichols hurt a knee in workout Thursday and had to look on. Several others named to start the game were absent because of illness.

On next Friday afternoon another game will be played. By that time coaches expect to have a line on the best looking boys and they will divide the squad for the game.

Boys on the football squad desiring to enter track and field competition are allowed to work out each afternoon and before the district meet here they will be excused from football. Coach Mitchell said. Seniors are working out daily at track and field.

Heiskell raced 20 yards for his first touchdown in the second quarter. His 40-yard jaunt was good for another in the same period. A 90-yard gallop was called off 30 yards in a third-quarter spurt. Dunaway galloped 30 yards for the final six points. Nice blocking cleared the way for the four touchdowns.

M'Ewin Would Have Three 'Laws' In His Corner For Protection

Chief actors in Tomorrow Night's Wrestling Brawl: Referee Billy McEwin, who hates everybody, particularly Frankie Hill, Ernie Peterson, Dutch Mantell, Pampa fans. Also he has no love for Sheriff Cal Rose.

Frankie Hill, Peterson's foe in the main event. He hates McEwin, Peterson, and likes Sheriff Rose who he wants to sit near his corner at the ringside.

Peterson—He refused to wrestle if Nemanic officiated. Mickey Durano who plans to use his amazing techold on Alan Plummer's head.

Plummer—He plans to bloody Durano's nose as Nemanic did. Nemanic—He is plotting to kayo young Willard Walker before that young Houston gent gets wise to his rough stuff.

Walker—He'll probably get wise quick enough.

HILL CALLS FOR SHERIFF ROSE

Frankie Hill, a wrestler of the socking, half-pulling type, has demanded that Sheriff Cal Rose, above, sit at the ring-side tomorrow night as protection against Tiger Bill McEwin, Hill's bitter enemy, who will referee the main event in which Ernie Peterson will be Hill's opponent. McEwin countered with a demand that he be allowed to bring along a Texas Ranger to protect him. Sheriff Rose has not indicated whether he will be present but he usually "drops in" and on one occasion warned McEwin, who is equally as rough as Hill, below, that he'd better "cut on the rough stuff."

Here's the Situation

The local wrestling situation assumed menacing proportions Monday when Ernie Peterson, Adonis-featured blond apollo of the squared ring, stood on both feet and yelled at Promoter Cliff Chambers that he'd never wrestle Frankie Hill here if John Nemanic officiated.

The next day, McEwin wrote from Amarillo that all the Panhandle referees were as crooked as a dog's hind leg, and so Cliff gladly gave McEwin a chance to make good as a referee.

The next day, Hill whose attitude toward McEwin reminds you of John L. Lewis and Bill Green, wired that he'd not wrestle in Pampa with McEwin unless Cal Rose were at the ringside to protect him against the double villainy of both Peterson and McEwin.

Now that covers the events leading up to the tragedy, and here an unknown steps in to gum up the works. It's Mickey Durano the Argentine who proved to a lot of fans' satisfaction that he's the best wrestler who's come to Pampa since Buck Lipscomb insulted everybody—except that Durano's wrestling glens like a blood hound's tooth so clean it.

Durano May Steal Show

You see, Durano is likely to steal the show again, and put Hill, McEwin, Peterson, Rose, Texas Rangers, et al in the background, but of course McEwin isn't figuring on that. Eddy thinks (how he burns when he hears that word!) he has something up his sleeve that he thinks he can get by with and get revenge on Hill, Peterson, Rose and the others at the same time.

If Durano the gentlemanly, handsome, educated Argentine cops the public eye again it will be because of the way he rubs out Alan Plummer who thinks he's tough. But Durano may make Plummer look like Nemanic did the other night, in other words he's more likely to make Plummer look silly.

John Nemanic will try to prove that the way Durano humiliated him last week was not really as bad as it looked, and he will try to do to Willard Walker, a handsome youngster, what he could not do to the amazingly skillful Argentine.

Women will be admitted for 10 cents. The preliminary bout will start at 8:15 o'clock.

Denver Quint Wins Over Phillips 25-22

DENVER, March 18 (AP)—Smashing defensive play and brilliant shots in the pinches carried the Denver Nuggets to the National AAU basketball championship tonight. They subdued their bitter rivals, the Bartlesville Phillips of Oklahoma, 25 to 22, before a crowd of 7,000.

HITLER (Continued from Page One) task of imposing the nazi will on Bohemia-Moravia and ironing out relations with Slovakia, Germany's new protectorates. The fuhrer was expected to make a triumphal entry into Berlin at 7:30 p. m. (12:30 p. m. CST) Sunday. He named Baron Konstantin von Neurath, former German foreign minister and president of the secret cabinet council, as reichs-protektor of Bohemia-Moravia. Von Neurath, responsible only to the fuhrer, will have supreme power over 7,000,000 Czechs who have become German subjects. Danzig Next? Meanwhile, Rumania feared for her fertile fields and oil wells, alarm was reported in Lithuania, concern was shown in Poland, suspicion grew of a coup d'etat in Danzig and the possibility was mentioned of German aggression against Hungary. Helmut Wohltat, adviser to Field Marshal Herman Wilhelm Goering, nazi economic dictator, was in Bucharest, apparently attempting to tighten Germany's economic sway in southeastern Europe. A government spokesman, however, described as "nonsense" reports that Rumania and Hungary were slated to follow Czechoslovakia in Hitler's book of conquests. (A spokesman for the Rumanian embassy in London said his government had received and rejected a German proposal that Rumania accept virtual dictation over her economics in return for nazi guarantees of Rumanian territorial integrity.) A German spokesman denied there had been an ultimatum to Rumania. Of British and French charges that the Munich accord of last Sept. 29 had been disregarded in German occupation of Bohemia-Moravia, a foreign office spokesman declared, "we can only say that it was done legally."

The economic blow to the Reich was regarded as forceful expression of the United States' displeasure at Germany's tactics.

Authoritative British sources said Rumania had received and then rejected a virtual German ultimatum demanding sole access to the nation's oil and grain resources in exchange for German "protection" of Rumanian territory. King Carol was understood to have asked Paris and London for a reply within 48 hours on what support they could give him against the Nazi demands and Britain and France in turn to have asked Moscow if the Soviet Union would join them in buying from Rumania to block Hitler.

A riot of color and pageantry, the parade, so large it had to be formed in 20 sections, emphasized the Irish theme.

Dusty-eight bands gave a martial atmosphere to the parade; nearly a hundred floats lent beauty and splendor and special entries furnished humor and fun.

Most beautiful of all the floats, the judges ruled, was the "Birth Day Float" entered by the Shamrock Federated Clubs.

The "Shanty Irish" scene of the float of the Shamrock Steam Laundry was declared to be the most typical of Old Erin and the ruge log float of the Fox Rig and Lumber company named the most representative of business firms.

A huge basketball, mounted on a float and honoring the champion girls' basketball team of Allison won first place for the best entry of neighboring towns and communities.

Attracting much attention and applause were the Pioneer Float of Dozier, the white ship of the Killarney Drum, the float entered by the "Brunet Irishmen," the negroes of the city, and the gold, blue and white float of Hunter's Store.

Riding in the parade on special floats were the following "colleens" who vied for the honor of reigning over the fiesta: Frances Stowell of Wellington, Jimmie L. Clark of Dozier, Anna Heffley of Bethel, Margie Price of Kellerville, Elsie Rogers of Michletie, Emma Joyce Jones of Magic City, Jerry Lewis of Wheeler, Billie Lisle of Shamrock, Portie Helton of Allison, Lois Meek of Briscoe, Marjorie Samnorwood, Jessie Nell Lynch of Erick, Okla., Opal Hilderbrand of Twity, Kathryn Whiteley of Kelton and Lee Fender of Pampa.

Taking part in the many musical activities of the day were the Altus, Okla., drum and bugle corps; the Colleen drum and bugle corps; the Canadian band; the Elk City band; the Light Crust Doughboys; two Amarillo bands; Erick high school band; Shamrock, Okla., band; the Uncle Sam band of Happy; the Quench band; the Groom band; the Wellington band; the Mangum drum and bugle corps; the Lella school rhythm band; the girls' kiltie band of Oklahoma City; the Perryton band; the Bethel band; the McLean band; the Wah Wah-tayee Drum and Bugle corps of McMurray College, Abilene; the West Texas State College band; Keller-ville band; the Spearman band; the Pampa band; the Wheeler band; the Berger band; the Sayre, Okla., band and the Shamrock Irish band.

Presence of the Dutch mission aboard the plane was not explained by Boeing officials, although reports said the men were considering purchase of the "stratoliner" or a sister ship.

The $500,000 liner was the first of a contemplated fleet of four such planes under construction by the Boeing company in Seattle. It had been undergoing tests at low altitudes.

Air-speed indicators were jammed at 200 miles an hour when citizens of this little mountain town reached the wreckage. There was no fire. Bits of wreckage from the tail were scattered over a quarter-mile area.

The outer left motor fell on a hilltop, 1,000 yards from where the plane landed. The left wing broke off about 10 feet from the fuselage and between the two left wing motors. Bits of wreckage from the tail were scattered over a quarter-mile area.

Congressmen Will Oppose Land Claim

AUSTIN, March 18 (AP)—Some state officials planned to leave this weekend for Washington to oppose at congressional committee hearings a resolution seeking to assert claim of the federal government to submerged coastal lands off the United States. Texas has a vital interest because much of the submerged area along its coast is known to be rich in oil. The state considers this the property of its public school endowment fund.

Gray-Wheeler Union Of Youth Meets in Pampa

Seventy-five young people, representing six churches, attended the union meeting for Gray and Wheeler counties held at Harrah chapel Thursday evening. Wheeler, Mobeetie, LeFors, Pampa-First Church, McCullough Memorial and Harrah chapel had members present with Mobeetie's 13 delegates constituting the largest out-of-town delegation.

Miss Clea Mae Harrison, president of the young people's department at Harrah chapel, opened the devotional program with an address of welcome. Miss Lawanda Johnson talked on "Youth Unites" and Irvin Moleworth discussed the topic "Co-operation." Special music was played by a quartet composed of Byrl Foster and Juanita, Velma Faye and Thelma Mae Osborne. The worship period closed with the singing of "Are Ye Able" by the entire group.

Miss Jessie Marie Gilbert, district director of the young people's division, presided over the business session, stressing the features of the Youth Crusade of special interest during the pre-Easter and Easter periods, and calling attention to the radio messages being brought to this section at 8:00 each Sunday morning over K. P. D. N. in charge of Dr. W. M. Pearce.

Miss Gilbert also announced that the district meeting would be held at First church, Pampa, April 15-16. Acting upon a special invitation, it was voted to have the next union meeting there May 11.

The recreational period was opened with an interesting get-acquainted game directed by Mrs. V. M. Osborne. This was followed by a series of clever contests between the young men and young women under the direction of Mrs. Ed Stokes. Announced as "A Universal Championship Fight," "Battle of the Sexes" and "Fight to the Finish," it provided plenty of laughs and entertainment during the seven rounds of humorous activities. Cleo Harrison acted as referee of the spirited encounters with Mrs. C. J. Meek of Wheeler and Rev. M. R. Pike of LeFors acting as judges.

Shamrock favors, and a three-page program in the form of a shaprock was presented to each attendant and refreshments of fruit punch and coconut cake were served.

Scout Official Will Meet With Leaders Monday

Two, and possibly three, more meetings for Girl Scout leaders will be conducted here by Katherine Shankland, of New York, member of the national field staff, before she leaves for Dallas and Houston. A regional conference is to be held at Houston on April 11-12, and camp for training leaders at Dallas on 16-23.

The national field staff member arrived in Pampa Wednesday night. She met with local Girl Scout leaders on Thursday evening. Friday and Saturday mornings. Meetings are scheduled for 9:30 o'clock tomorrow at the Girl Scouts little house and at the same hour Tuesday morning at the same place. The national officer said she hoped to arrange another meeting for Wednesday.

Monday's Program. The study for Monday's conference will be "Girl Behavior," while Tuesday's session will be devoted to troop organization, program evaluation, and methods for leaders.

"The Girl Scout program is built upon a democratic process from beginning to end," Miss Shankland said, "democratically participated in by children and leaders. Leaders play an important part as leaders, and not as those who impose their ideas on children."

Objectives of the movement are to provide for each girl Scout wholesome recreation and a chance to develop hobbies of life-long interest to her; to help the Girl Scout develop as an adjusted individual in a changing society; to help her form satisfactory ideals and standards of behavior; to develop a desire for service to others and to learn how to get along with people."

There are three age levels in the Girl Scout movement. Members of ages seven to ten are "Brownies," those of 10 to 14, Girl Scouts, and those 14 to 18, Seniors Girl Scouts.

There are 10 fields of interest in the Girl Scout program: out-of-doors, nature, homemaking, arts and crafts, music and dancing, dramatics and literature, sports and games, community life, international friendship, and health and safety. Of these homemaking, health, and out-of-doors were the most popular fields last year among the 500,000 members in the United States.

In Pampa, the movement is headed by Mrs. Frank Culbertson, Girl Scout commissioner, and Mrs. Roy McKernan, deputy commissioner. There are 131 Girl Scouts in Pampa, which is a part of region 9. The region is composed of the states of Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

By ALICIA HART, NEA Service Staff Writer.

It is a fairly simple matter for the woman who has a triangular shaped face to arrange her hair and apply cosmetics in such a way as to make the lower part of the face seem less broad, her forehead less tapering.

If your face is triangular—broader across the jaw than across the forehead—always brush hair back and up from the temples to create the illusion of width in the forehead and length in the face.

According to Perc Westmore, famous Hollywood makeup expert, it would be a mistake for you to part your hair low at the side, to have bangs or wear it absolutely flat across the top. Mr. Westmore would have you avoid any coiffure in which the hair is dressed very low on the neck. Keep forehead fully exposed, he says, using the natural hairline with softness behind ears but not full at jawline. No dips and no square cut bobs.

Rouge ought to be blended on the outside of cheeks, carried faintly upward toward temples and downward to create a slight shadow at jawline. Don't apply it in a circle in center of cheeks or get it too close to your nose.

Use lipstick to make mouth look wide and full. Stick to natural lines. No cupid's bows or around-the-mouth effects. Leaving the mouth wide will tend to reduce the apparent width of the jawline.

However, if your face happens to fall in the inverted triangle category—wide brow and narrow chinline—dress hair softly on top, letting fullness begin at a point above ears and continue downward behind them. A long bob with hair slicked down on the head and quantities of fluffy ends low on the neckline would be all wrong. Place rouge on highest point of cheek bones, carrying it well upward to temples and downward to a point directly below center fullness of cheeks.

CHECK AND DOUBLE CHECK

This will be a checkered season—from the tiniest of pin checks to big bold patterns—to carry you right through from breakfast to bedtime in the smartest manner. Small checks are easiest to wear and will do most for the figure. You will see some very lovely little frocks in pastel checks, but blue, black, dark brown and wine with white right now are favorites. The classic checked reefer or box coat is perfect over a plain colored dress. The new longer jacket tulleur of shepherd check wool with dark velvet collar is one of the spring's smartest suits. Or, you may prefer a jacket dress of checked rayon with short reefer of sheer wool. Afternoon checks and evening shirtheaters are softly tailored and definitely fashion-right.

New Lindbergh Book Based On Flight Of 1933

Listen! The Wind! By Anne Morrow Lindbergh

Published by Harcourt, Brace & Co. Colonel Lindbergh, in his foreword, says: "Listen! The Wind" is about a period in aviation which is now gone, but which was probably more interesting than any future will bring. As time passes, the perfection of machinery tends to insulate man from contacts with the elements in which he lives. The "stratosphere" planes of the future will cross the ocean without any sense of the water below. . . Like a train tunneling through a mountain, they will be aloof from both the problems and the beauty of the earth's surface. . . Wind and heat records the many take-offs will be of no concern to the transatlantic passenger. His only contact with these elements will lie in accounts such as this book contains."

From the adventures of this period Mrs. Lindbergh has selected the excitement, problems and dangers of pioneering in the air. It is the story of the flight made by Lindbergh across the Atlantic Ocean from Africa to Brazil, in December, 1933, at the end of their survey of the North Atlantic air routes.

Mrs. Lindbergh contrasts the dirt and poverty of the Santiago station at Cape Verde Islands with the cleanliness and lavish hospitality of Government House in Bathurst; she lists in detail the various gadgets of her home cockpit. She records the many take-offs to and from Porto Praia, Dakar, Bathurst and Natal; she describes the beauties of the land and sea and sky. She makes the wind the main theme of her book. There is too much wind when they land at Santiago; there is too little when they attempt a take-off at Bathurst. "Listen! The Wind" is beautifully written. One scarcely realizes that Mrs. Lindbergh has skillfully included in her narrative every detail of importance concerning the plans for the flight, the final preparation of the plane, the manipulation of the radio, and the actual piloting. You will enjoy every page of this delightful book.

5 New Locations Staked In Gray County

M'Lean Test Watched; Gas Hit At 2,580

Five of the six new locations staked in the Panhandle oilfield last week were in Gray county and the sixth in Hutchinson county.

Five new oil wells were completed and tested by employees of the local office of the Texas Railroad commission. New oil totaled 963 barrels. Three Hutchinson county wells were tested at 728 barrels. Gray and Carson counties registered one each.

Three new Moore county gassers, all drilled by the Texoma Natural Gas company, were gauged at 79,827,000 cubic feet. Best well was the company's No. 6th Thompson in section 62, block 44, H&TC survey, which tested 51,009,000 cubic feet.

All of the locations but one will be drilled for oil. The gas test will be the Hagy, Harrington & Marsh No. 1 Williston Benedict in section 134, block 3, I&GN survey, four miles south and two west of Pampa in Gray county. The test will be in proven gas area but several locations from nearest production, Magnolia Petroleum company each staked two new locations, all in Gray county.

A test being watched with considerable interest is the Lone Star Gas company's No. 1 Foster in section 117, block 23, H&GN survey, Gray county, located four miles north of McLean. Total depth is 2,586 feet. Two million feet of gas was found at 2,580 feet and oil showed when the hole had reached total depth. Deepened a few feet, 2,200 feet of oil rose in the hole. A test was attempted but gas pockets interfered, but not until 45 barrels had been pumped.

Formations, as found in two other nearby tests, are rather uncertain in that section but in any other area a big producer would be assured. Oil pay was discovered in the company's Fowler test in section 118 of the same block. It was later completed as a gasser as was the No. 2 test.

Completions by counties:

In Carson County
Magnolia Petroleum co., No. 51, Fee Land 244, section 89, block 4, I&GN survey, gauged 178 barrels with lime formation between 2,948 and 2,994 feet.

In Gray County
Danciger Oil & Refineries Inc., No. 12 Powell "B" section 26, block E-2, H&GN survey, gauged 57 barrels. Pay was between 2,895 to 2,947 feet.

In Hutchinson County
Gulf Production co., No. 90 Dial et al, section 36, block M-23, TCRRE survey, gauged 194 barrels with lime pay between 2,914 and 2,984 feet.

Phillips Petroleum co., No. 8 Gary, section 26, block M-23, TCRRE survey, was given a potential of 234 barrels with pay from 3,222 to 3,268 feet.

Phillips Petroleum co., No. 38 Cockrell, section 2, block M-21, TCRRE survey, gauged 300 barrels. Pay was between 3,012 and 3,163 feet in lime.

In Moore County
Texoma Natural Gas co., No. 16sn Sneed, section 31, block 6-T, T&NO survey, gauged 15,590,000 feet. The company's No. 17sn Sneed in the same section gauged 13,187,000 cubic feet.

The same company's No. 6th Thompson in section 62, block 44, H&TC survey, tested 51,009,000 cubic feet.

Intentions to drill:
Hagy, Harrington & Marsh, Williston Benedict No. 1, 1980' from the north and 2310' from the east of section 134, block 3, I&GN, Gray county.

Magnolia Petroleum co., J. S. Morse "B" No. 2, 33' from the south and east lines of S-2 of NW-4 of section 68, block 25, H&GN, Gray county.

Phillips Petroleum co., W. W. Merten No. 4, 990' from the north and 330' from the east of W-2NE-4, section 82, block 3, I&GN, Gray county.

No. 5 located 1650' from the north and 330' from the east of above location.

Travelers Oil co., W. B. Halle I. T. "B" No. 7, 330' from the north and 934' from the west of section 16, block L, EL&RR, Hutchinson county.

Where Slovakia Proclaimed Freedom

open to a marvelous view of snow-capped mountains roundabout, of green meadows far below, and of Hitler's "Berghof" nestling like a toy house far, far down.

A simple tea house, built against a huge rock, is constructed in the same Bavarian peasant style as the buildings generally in this part of Germany.

A glass-encased veranda on three sides—to the east, south and west—allows practically continuous sunshine until sundown. This fact gave rise to the legend that Hitler's serene was perched on a turntable and could be turned toward the sun wherever he might be.

The house consists of three parts—a small kitchenette, a lavatory, and a large living room.

In this retreat Der Fuehrer at last has the perfect solitude that he craves for thinking about problems of state.

Few Know About It

Only on the rarest occasions is any foreigner invited up to this perch. The first thus honored was the departing French ambassador, Andre Francois-Poncet. He clicked well with Hitler. Hence, as a mark of special honor, the Fuehrer took him personally to his retreat on October 18, 1938, for a last conference on German-French relations.

The second foreigner was Crown Prince Michael, while his father, King Carol, was conferring at the "Berghof" with Adolf Hitler on November 24, 1938, the young man was taken up to the top of the Kehlstein for tea.

So small is the number of those who have been on the top that even Capt. Fritz Wiedemann (Hitler's close associate, who recently was named consul general at San Francisco) confessed he had never been on the Kehlstein.

The general public knows nothing about the retreat. No publicity has been given it. The few pictures that have been taken are locked up in the secret archives of Hitler's personal photographer and official cameraman for the Nazi movement, Prof. Heinrich Hofmann of Munich.

Everything From Address Of "Inez" Asked Of Tech Bureau

Special To The NEWS
LUBBOCK, March 18.—Information girl at Texas Tech sometimes wonders if the public has mistaken her for a clairvoyant. Here are a few of the questions she was asked in a single week:

"Where at the college can I get some hogs killed?" Information allowed the head of the animal husbandry department to tell the man to call a slaughter house.

"Is Joe Jinks registered there?" With a Henry Ford and a Jimmy Walker on the roster, she has learned to look first, then laugh.

"Can you tell me where Inez from White Flat stays?" Inez who? The lady did not know, but: "She used to stay with my baby." This required a patient explanation that it would take half a day to locate "Inez from White Flat" among 3,333 registrants.

"How can I get my plumbing fixtures clean?" A pleasant voice asked, then explained that the hard water had corroded the pipes and she could find nothing to clean them. No need to bother chemistry professors. She told the woman herself to call a plumber.

Despite expanding tobacco production in Empire colonies, British importations of the American leaf reached a new high in 1938.

Natural down used in pillows is the soft undercoating of adult water-fowl which is found next to the skin beneath the ordinary feathers.

Scout News

TROOP NO. 13

Troop 13 was called to order by Assistant Scoutmaster, Clarence Coffin, last Tuesday night at 7:15 o'clock in the basement of the First Methodist Church of Pampa.

The meeting was opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. After a health inspection the following contests were entered into: a knot tying contest which was won by Hal Boynton and a rooster fight won by the Coyote Patrol.

The Troop voted to make the colors for their neckerchiefs red and blue and that each Scout should make his own neckerchief. Assistant Scoutmaster Sam Johnson asked all the Scouts to design a neckerchief on paper and give it to him at the next meeting.

Scouts present were: Leo Southern, Hal Boynton, Charles Boyles, Mac Smith, A. L. Patrick, Melvin Clark, Hugh Eblevins, Ray Thompson, Bobby Joe Dunham, Bobby Curtis, Assistant Scoutmaster Clarence Coffin and Sam Johnson, and visitors Mr. Boyles and Mr. Curtis.

The meeting was dismissed at 9:00 o'clock with the Scout Oath.

Secret Elevator Inside Mountain Carries Hitler To New Retreat

Adolf Hitler, who always has liked to get away from it all, has a new retreat. It is kept a secret from the great majority of Germans. Even some of Der Fuehrer's best friends haven't seen it. The few photographs that have been taken of it are locked in the Nazi vault. In this story the chief of the AP's Berlin bureau describes the retreat and tells why it was built.

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
BERCHTESGADEN, Germany (AP)—Adolf Hitler can rise above the clouds whenever he wants to.

He has had constructed for himself an aerie the like of which no other human being can boast of.

A tea house, perched upon a mountain top and accessible—except for chamois—only by an elevator on the inside of the Kehlstein Mountain, affords the Fuehrer of Germany an opportunity to enjoy absolute solitude in a cloudless sky.

Here's the story of one of the most unique hideaways ever constructed:

Before Adolf Hitler came into power in January, 1933, his summer home in the Bavarian Alps, about five miles above Berchtesgaden, on a slope of the Obersalzberg, gave him the seclusion and quiet he craves as an offset to noisy "hells" tramping feet, and trumpets' blare.

Even then, any trained observer could foresee the end of seclusion in that spot. The writer recalls traveling to the Obersalzberg in August, 1932, and finding to his surprise that a simple Bavarian mountain restaurant about 200 yards up the road was peopled with ardent Nazis who trained their spy glasses on the house below in the hope of catching a glimpse of Der Fuehrer.

No sooner had Hitler become chancellor, than the Berghof, as the Obersalzberg chalet is called, became the Mecca for disciples of national socialism. Hitler simply had to come out on the veranda from time to time to salute the masses fringing the roadside.

Moreover, the "Berghof" had to be enlarged for visits of statesmen and party leaders summoned by the chief of state. The solitude of the Berchtesgaden retreat was gone.

Hitler next discovered a little tea house some distance away from his home. Here he would often go in the afternoon to relax. But this retreat, too, was soon discovered.

Then one of his closest collaborators suggested that the top of the Kehlstein would provide exactly what the Fuehrer wanted—a retreat inaccessible to the crowd and bathed in sunshine at times when the "Berghof" was wrapped in gray clouds.

The Kehlstein, steep and abrupt, defied road building. Only chamois could climb up its giddy slopes. But an engineer with imagination found a way to approach the top—by elevator.

This necessitated construction of a tunnel 500 feet long into the Kehlstein. Shortly after leaving the "Berghof," Hitler and his few trusted lieutenants enter this close-guarded tunnel. The entrance is protected by two huge bronze doors which swing to admit Hitler's car.

Seven Minutes Up

The elevator rises slowly up a shaft 300 feet high. A man who accompanied Crown Prince Michael of Rumania on his elevator ride to the top found that the ascent took exactly seven minutes.

At the summit, the elevator doors

Germans Thought They Marched To Quell Revolution

PRAGUE, March 18 (AP)—Some German troops expressed amazement today at the icy greeting the Czechs gave them as they occupied Bohemia and Moravia. They said they thought they were coming here to quell a revolution and were surprised that they were not given a great welcome.

The German soldiers—most of them from 18 to 20 years old—have shown good discipline.

Elliott Roosevelt Resigns A & M Post

AUSTIN, March 18 (AP)—Governor W. Lee O'Daniel today accepted the resignation of Elliott Roosevelt, son of the President, as a director of Texas A. & M. college, and appointed H. L. Kokernot, Jr., of Jeff Davis county to the position.

Many persons, they added, prepare the eggs weeks in advance. Some do it early so as to get the job done, it was explained. Others require plenty of time because they attempt to make the decorations works of art.

SERIAL STORY

'MRS. DOC' BY TOM HORNER

COPYRIGHT, 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

The characters and situations in this story are wholly fictional.

Yesterday, at a party at Alan's, Eric reveals his worry about his dam. Later, to himself, he confesses his worry about his wife, Emily, and another man's wife. He is in love with Emily!

CHAPTER IX

WORK brought little peace to Eric Kane. Even at the dam, where a hundred men toiled like galley slaves to carry out his orders, he could not forget Emily. "Looks like we'll make it, Chief," Baker was at his elbow. They stood beside the engineers' office, high above the diversion dam, looking down on the gravel trucks, edging out along the high trestle, dumping their load of stone, then rumbling back to the gravel dumps, piled high along the railroad track. Unmindful of danger, men worked at the edge of the trestle, guiding the gravel into chutes, to spill it over the dam. "Pay those men out there double," Eric ordered curtly. "And keep them there. Any reports on the weather?"

"Temperature rising steadily," Baker answered. "But we can stand that, if we don't get rain. If the rain holds off for another week—and it may—all that snow will be melted and past the dam. If it rains, and rains hard, it's going to be just too bad."

"Eric—telephone!" an assistant shouted from the office door. Emily's voice came to him over the wire, giving him a pleasant thrill. "You're coming down for the Country Club dinner-dance tonight, Eric. Alan and I won't take 'No' for an answer. You've been up at that old dam all week. I'm having a few in for cocktails, then we'll all go together. Please do, Eric."

"I can't leave the job, Emily," Eric fought the desire to shout that he would be there, with her, whatever the cost. "I really can't get away tonight." He had no right to the happiness being with her, dancing with her would be counted. "I'm begging, Eric. I've cringed on you so," she sounded like a small child. "All right, I'll try to make it. But don't be disappointed if I don't get there." He could hear Emily laughing, delightedly. "We'll wait for you," she knew he would be there. And Eric knew it too.

CONFLICTING thoughts raced through Eric's mind as he drove toward town. He tried to think of the dam—remember to tell Baker about that low creek bank up stream—when he was cut off by the motor of his car. "Emily, Emily" and her face danced out beyond the headlights. And Alan. He was so big, so fine. The man who had saved Eric's life. Why did it have to be Alan's wife? Why did Emily have to marry a fellow like that? But Eric had loved Emily first. Ever since that first night, in St. Louis, he had known that all his life he would love the Fairy Princess. And that knowledge had kept him from marrying anyone else. For years he had secretly hoped to find her again and then, when Emil trace of her was lost, he had felt that he would have cheated any other girl he might have married.

Cheated a girl? What was he doing to Alan, now? Posing as a friend, loving his wife. "This is the last time I'll ever see her," Eric told himself. "I'll have tonight, and then I'll never come back. That's the only fair thing to do." And he meant it.

SOFT lights, Music. Holding Emily in his arms again, hearing her gay conversation, listening to her tinkling laugh. She was beautiful. Men surrounded her constantly, begging for dances. Whenever Eric danced with her someone was bound to cut in. And he let them, gladly.

It was dangerous for him to be too near Emily, tonight. He was afraid that he might say just a part of the thoughts that were keeping him in a turmoil. Alan's drinks had been too strong. Why must a man insist on your having another drink, when he should have known you were in love with his wife?

He was standing in a doorway, staring at the dancers, searching for Emily. Suddenly he felt a hand on his arm, heard someone saying: "Dance with me quickly. There's a fellow following me. He's drunk."

It was Emily. Laughing, eyes sparkling. She clung to him as they glided across the floor. "You see," she said. "I've come back, Sir Knight. Just so you could rescue me from another drunk." Eric loved her for that. This was the way it should end. In the same gay mood. She would disappear in the crowd again, go out of his life forever. She would go back to Alan.

"There's no drunk this time, either, Eric," Emily was saying. "Just a husband who leaves his wife stranded at a dance. Grandma Frank fell and broke her hip and Alan had to dash off to the hospital. He said to tell you to take me home. You will, won't you?" "Probably. But I don't want to." "Then I'll get someone else. There are at least five eligible bachelors who'll take me home," Emily was teasing him. "They will not," he answered.

half angrily. "Alan said for you to go home with me, and you'll do just that, and like it." "I'm sure I shall, Eric," she said.

IN the car, she snuggled close to him. The perfume of her hair left him tingling. "Brr! It's cold." She chattered her teeth in a mock chill. "Just the kind of weather you've been asking for. I hope you get your fill of it, Mr. Eric Kane, while the rest of us have to freeze."

"Heater button right there on the dash in front of you," Eric said shortly. A good offense is the best defense, he thought.

"All right, humph. Would your disposition improve any if I should sing? Really you don't have to be mean, just because I ask you to take me home."

"I'm not being mean. Just smart."

Emily made no answer. Instead she leaned against him, her head on his shoulder, and closed her eyes, a picture of perfect contentment.

Eric glanced from the road ahead of him to the tilt of her nose, the long eyelashes, the small curls around her forehead. She hummed softly to herself, but said nothing more until they turned into the driveway of her home.

"Won't you come in?" she asked. "Alan should be here soon." She turned to leave the car. "Don't go, Emily. Stay just a minute. I've something to tell you." Just as well get it over now, Kane, Eric told himself. Then she'll not be calling you to come down again. Make the break. It can't hurt her. She loves Alan. Tell her now; get it over.

"I'm going back up to the dam, Emily," Eric said seriously. "I won't be back. You and Alan have been wonderful to me, and I'll not forget. But this is goodbye." She faced him, questioning. Why must she look like that? Why must she be so beautiful? He wanted to look away, but he couldn't. "It just can't be like this. It isn't fair to Alan. He's the finest man I've ever known, Emily. And he's so great and honest and honorable that he thinks everyone else is that way too. I'm not. Alan saved my life. He'd do it again—even if he knew."

"Even if he knew—what, Eric?" Her voice thrilled him. "That I love you, Emily." Somehow she was in his arms, her face was close. Slowly, deliberately, Eric bent, kissed her lips. Then, almost roughly, he pushed her away; reached past her to open the door.

Alanreed School To Present Play Friday

(Special to the Pampa News) ALANREED, March 18—Spooky Tavern is the place where everyone will have the rare opportunity of spending a very enjoyable evening when the music department of the Alanreed Public School presents "Spooky Tavern" in the Alanreed gymnasium at 8:00 o'clock Tuesday night.

"Spooky Tavern" is a fast moving play which combines the superstitious ideas of our grandmothers with the sophistication of the modern university science, and the presence of the cultured but ghost-conscious negro only complicates the proceedings as the college students try to solve the mystery of a haunted wayside inn.

The players have been chosen from faculty and patrons of the school. The leading roles are played by Morris S. Ledger, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Earhart, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Gibson, Gladys Salmon, Mary Lee Gardian, Bonnie Bell, James A. Prock, Hardy Cole, and Henry Wetzel. The production is being directed by Fannie Johnston and Iris Unsell, members of the music faculty.

Hold Everything

Col. Ernest Thompson, member of the State Railroad Commission, will be host to the newspapermen at a banquet to be held at 7 p. m. Friday in the Herring. Tex DeWeese, of The Pampa News, will be toastmaster, and speakers will include Colonel Thompson, Deskins Wells, president of the Texas Press-amen; Douglas Mcador, president of the West Texas-amen, and Dr. J. J. Taylor, State Press columnist of The Dallas News.

Thompson to Speak

The banquet will be followed by dancing in the Crystal ballroom of the Herring. The following are scheduled to speak and lead discussions at the morning session on Saturday, April 15: W. R. Rutherford, Dumas; Homer Steen, Floydada; Charles Guy Lubbock; Gene Howe, Amarillo, and J. Claude Wells, Memphis.

Flynn Views 'Frozen' Investment Funds As Vital Key To Recovery

With 1940 looming ahead, the administration needs national recovery not only for its social benefits, but as a political necessity. At this newest crossroad of the New Deal, current signs indicate a turn to the right, with "appeasement" of business as the goal. In this, first of two keenly analytical articles on the situation, John T. Flynn, noted economist-author, reviews the condition which, in his opinion, has up to now caused recovery to bog down.

By JOHN T. FLYNN
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 18—No one with half an eye in his head can move about Washington these days with perceiving that a change has come over the spirit of the administration on the whole subject of business. Some observers there call it the "drift to the right." Secretary Harry Hopkins objects to that. He says it is bad manners to greet a gesture of compromise with that sort of characterization. Perhaps it is. The important thing, however, is to understand the phenomenon here for what it actually is.

We have heard the President's promise of "no more taxes"—the Hopkins "appeasement" speech—the lifting of the "plague on both your houses" in the effort to have the C. I. O. and the A. F. of L. smoke the peace pipe, and a current Capital rumor that the present monopoly investigation will be quietly demobilized.

The reasons for this new and even sudden shift of the administration to a policy of aiding business are fairly obvious.

Man Will Face Slaying Charge In N. Hampshire

CORPUS CHRISTI, March 18 (AP)—A waiver of removal to New Hampshire to face a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution was signed by John Howard Howland, 25, charged with murder in the slaying of Miss Maude Horne, 62, at Milton, N. H., last Feb. 3.

A federal warrant for Aida Butler, Howland's girl companion when he was arrested here yesterday, was issued in Concord, N. H., by U. S. Attorney Alexander Murchie, charging her with unlawful flight to avoid testifying in a felony case. The 15-year-old girl yesterday gave officers the name of Mary Butler, but she faced arraignment as Aida Elizabeth Butler.

Howland waived examining trial before U. S. Commissioner J. A. Mount, and his temporary bond was set at $10,000. Officers of the Federal Bureau of Investigation had sought him throughout the United States after the body of the spinner, a former shoe factory worker, was found in her ransacked cottage.

Federal officers traced him to Tennessee, Arkansas, and then Texas, where he was fingerprinted Feb. 17 at McAllen, but released before his identity was established. Howland and the girl, who Milton police said was a cousin, were arrested here after the couple and two men were involved in an altercation in a box car.

One of the men beaten in the box car fight was in a serious condition.

Speaking of Accidents
BALDWIN PARK, Calif., March 18 (AP)—"An accident may happen any minute," argued Insurance Salesmen Ray Williams and Gus Johnson to their client, David C. Phillips, as they stood in his front yard. Phillips fell at their feet, wounded by a bullet which ricocheted after a neighbor shot at a gopher.

During 1938, only 35 persons were killed in accidents involving scheduled domestic air carrier operations as compared to 52 deaths during 1937. Of the 35 people killed, 25 were passengers.

1. That recovery is utterly impossible unless private investment revives and,
2. That private investment has almost wholly collapsed.
The Administration, its critics say, has done some good things. But they declare the good things have not been on the side of recovery. For instance, social security is a good thing. But social security laws, while aiding the worker for a while, do not prevent hard times. They help a man for a limited time when he loses his job, but they do not create a new job for him. Therefore, while approving what has been done in the way of social justice, the critics say that these measures of social justice have not been supplemented with measures of practical economic recovery.

The facts about private investment have suddenly burst upon the consciousness of the people with a good deal of shock. For instance, money has piled up in the banks during the past six years of depression so rapidly that now there is as much money in the banks as there was in 1929 at the peak of the great boom.

But while money has piled up in the banks it has not gone into investment. The evidence of this is found in the figures about bank loans. While bank deposits now are as great as they were in 1929, bank loans are 20 billion dollars less. While bank deposits have increased by 15 billion dollars since 1933, bank loans have actually decreased by a billion.

The banks have not loaned the money. For a long time the administration blamed the banks. They said the banks were trying to sabotage the administration—banks on a capital strike. But that argument is no longer tenable. Because all bankers are not anti-New Dealers. Mr. Jesse Jones' bank in Houston, for instance, has not made any more loans than any other bank—in fact, not as many. This is not the bank's fault. The loans are not available.

Mr. Hopkins in his speech laid stress upon the fact that three avenues of investment beckon to us—the utilities, the railroads and construction. He admitted that the key to recovery lay in finding out why people would not invest in these things and how they can be induced to do so.

Moreover, 1940 looms ahead. By the time the political conventions meet next year the United States will have completely exhausted its legal debt limit of 45 billions. If private investment does not revive by then, the President will face the necessity of another tremendous debt deficit.

But Congress is ready to refuse to increase the debt limit. The party cannot afford to go before the country next year with another deficit and the promise of still another for the following year. It needs recovery as a political necessity now and needs it desperately. Therefore the administration has turned to business as its one great hope.
