50 Bands In Contests At Plainview

Special To The NEWS
PLAINVIEW, April 3.—When young bandmen of Region 1, Texas Music Educators Association, assemble in Plainview April 6, 7 and 8 for their annual band contest, it will be the largest assembly of school children to be held this year in the state, and possibly in the entire Southwest, say conference officials.

Fifty bands and orchestras and nine choruses, with five hundred and twenty-seven soloists and ensembles, are scheduled to appear on the three-day program. More than three thousand bandmen are registered.

Three class A bands have entered; seventeen class B; ten class C; five class D; four class E; seven class F. Four orchestras have registered and nine choruses.

The schedule has had to be changed in several details because of the large number of registrations. Particular attention is called to the fact that Class EE bands will play Thursday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock, at the city auditorium. Orchestras will be heard Thursday night, beginning at 8 o'clock, at the city auditorium. Because there are so many solos and ensembles, extended, it will be necessary for this work to go on throughout Thursday and Friday, instead of just Thursday as originally planned.

Class A bands will play Saturday.

Belgian Fascist Party Defeated

BRUSSELS, April 3. (AP)—Belgium's Fascist party was shown by complete returns today to have suffered a crushing defeat in yesterday's general election.

The party lost 17 of its 21 seats in the 202-member Chamber of Deputies and seven of its 12 seats in the 107-member senate.

The pro-Nazi Heimatareu (faithful to the homeland) front which ran full tickets in the cantons of Eupen and Malmédy—districts ceded to Belgium by Germany at the end of the World War—failed to win a seat in either house of Parliament.

Leon Degrelle, who founded the Fascist party five years ago and made a strong showing in 1936, apparently felt in advance his followers might be headed for defeat. In a speech March 11 he said:

"It is irrelevant how many of us are to enter the den of the politicians. It will be necessary to proceed to other solutions."

Other nations had watched the Belgian election for some sign as to how close Belgium would cling to the democracies or how far she might swing toward totalitarianism.

Investigators Clear TVA In Graft Probe

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—The Tennessee Valley Authority won a clean bill of health today from a majority of the special congressional committee which conducted a year's inquiry into the $500,000,000 New Deal agency.

Panhandle Residents Win Highway Survey

Members of the Texas Highway Commission authorized Julian Montgomery, state engineer, to check the possibilities of a road between Pampa and Perryton and a branch road from Miami to a point where a bridge can be built across the Canadian river, northeast of Pampa, after being visited by a delegation of Panhandle road boosters Saturday.

The Pampa group returned last night from Austin, making the trip were Jim Collins, chairman of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce Highway committee, and Mrs. Collins; County Judge Sherman White, Fene Stinson, Lynn Boyd, John Osborne and Garnet Reeves, manager of the C. of C.

Others in the Panhandle group were Oscar Flowers of Perryton, Judge K. A. Mead, J. F. Rasor, Woods King and L. M. Maddox, all of Roberts county, and five from Clarendon, four from Turkey, two from Sweetwater and one each from Memphis, Spur and San Angelo.

The Panhandle group asked the commission to designate the portion of Highway 18 between Pampa and Perryton, the road leaving Pampa to the north and following the old Miami, and construction of the road extending north across the river to Perryton, and also a cut-off from Miami, and construction of the road between Turkey and Clarendon and Clarendon and Pampa.

The board took the request under advisement but ordered the preliminary survey of the north road.

Prison System Probe Killed

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's proposal for a prison system investigation was killed by the House today, 68 to 56.

The rejected resolution would have permitted the chief executive to name three business men on a prison investigating committee. The other six committeemen would have been representatives and senators.

The legislature earlier had proposed that the investigating committee be composed entirely of lawmakers but O'Daniel vetoed that plan and the House was unable to adopt it over his veto. Today's action apparently meant that there would be neither a joint legislative nor an executive-legislative inquiry.

Rep. Lonnie Alsop of Carthage made the motion to kill the resolution, which was sponsored by Rep. J. E. Winfree of Houston. "In the final analysis," Alsop said, the legislature must pass on any report of the investigating committee and the investigators therefore should be legislators.

"Let's pass the buck. It seems as though ever since we've been here there have been moves to pass the buck."

Winfree, speaking briefly for the resolution, said he had been trying to get a prison system investigation ever since the start of the legislative session in January.

Mexico To Begin Payments In May

MEXICO CITY, April 3. (AP)—It was reported today by authoritative circles that Mexico would pay $1,000,000 pesos ($200,000) to the United States in May as an installment on indemnification for lands expropriated from American citizens. The total to be paid is still being studied by a United States-Mexican claims commission.

Investigators Clear TVA In Graft Probe

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—The Tennessee Valley Authority won a clean bill of health today from a majority of the special congressional committee which conducted a year's inquiry into the $500,000,000 New Deal agency.

The bulk of the report, filed this noon, declared charges of dishonesty brought by former TVA Chairman Arthur E. Morgan against the other two directors "are without foundation, not supported by the evidence and made without due consideration of the available facts."

It was Morgan's removal by President Roosevelt that precipitated the congressional investigation. Dr. Morgan, the report said, "was largely responsible for the excellent engineering work done by the authority, for its enlightened labor policy, and for certain other progressive aspects of its work."

Britain Would Assist Other Nazi Victims

Extends Pledge To Poland To Other Countries

LONDON, April 3. (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain told the house of commons today that the Anglo-French pledge of aid for Poland would be followed by similar commitments to other countries which stand in the way of any attempt by Germany to dominate Europe.

"I am no more a man of war today than I was in September," Chamberlain declared. "I have no intention and no desire to treat the German people otherwise than I would have our own people treated here."

He said Britain was concerned "to preserve not only the independence of this country but all states which might be threatened by aggression."

Chamberlain's statement came after three foreign developments:

1. R. A. Butler, under-secretary for foreign affairs, indicated Britain was prepared to make a rearmament loan to Rumania.

2. Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax told the house of lords that nothing could be further from the truth than German charges that Britain and France were trying to encircle the reich.

3. Col. Joseph Beck, Polish foreign minister, said this morning that $1,500,000 had been sold today alone. Others who are selling the bills are Charlie Mates, Ed Tracy, Howard Buckingham, I. J. Hval, Ed Vickers, Walt Liebman and Joe Roche.

Those in charge of the celebration have made arrangements to secure a bingo table, of sufficient size to accommodate 21 players at a time, dice, chuckluck, Klondike, horse racing, and tables for two blackjack games. Dice tables and a roulette wheel are to be obtained from Tucumcari, N. M., and the other games locally. The hall of a building in the 100 block on West King-street will be the location of the affair.

Dutch lunch, sandwiches, coffee and soft drinks will be available at "prices" keyed to the tempo of the days celebration will portray.

Complete plans for the Days of '49 are to be outlined when the Kerley-Crossman post holds its regular meeting Thursday night at the American Legion hut.

Robertson Will Replace Redwine

Byron L. Sinclair began his duties today as the second member of the Texas Highway patrol sub-station here. Sinclair replaces Norvell Redwine who left Friday for Lubbock, where he has been transferred. Ralph Robertson is the other patrol officer at the sub-station here, with Sinclair.

Sinclair had been stationed in Amarillo since February 1. He came there after a period of service in El Paso and Pecos.

Harvester Band All Set To Win Marching Honors At Plainview

Pampa High school's band, always first in marching, is expected to win again in the contests to be held at 7:30 p. m. Friday on the Plainview High school field. The contest is a part of the annual band conference, Region 1, Texas Music Educators association, to be held in Plainview on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

In the marching contest, bands will march in order of their appearance in the regular contest. Pampa's band, along with the two other class A bands, those of Amarillo and Lubbock, will compete Saturday night in the Plainview city auditorium.

On Thursday afternoon, four Pampa school bands will be among the seven entered in the EE band playing program, to be held at the city auditorium. Bands for Pampa will be those of Horace Mann, Woodrow Wilson, B. M. Baker, and Sam Houston, Kellerville, Hereford, and the Highland-Lamar school band of Plainview are the other entries.

In the E band playing program, to be held Friday afternoon in the city auditorium, Pampa Junior High school's band will compete against the junior high bands of Plainview, Lubbock, and the Sam Houston Junior high school of Amarillo.

For A. E. and EE class bands, warm up will be held in the Plainview Junior High school, with sight-reading for A and E bands.

12 Persons Die Violent Deaths

At least 12 persons died violent deaths in Texas last week end. Six were killed in automobile accidents, two were shot, one man was stabbed, one died of burns, a child was dragged to death by a horse, and a verdict of suicide was returned in another death.

Amos Green, 18, of Marble Falls, Catalina Hipolito, and Ben Gonzales of Austin; Rev. P. B. Chenault of Waterloo, Iowa, who was killed near McKinney; Warren Daniel Watson of Marshall, and L. C. Corrodi, 39, of Houston, were injured fatally in traffic mishaps.

At Odessa Buford Armstrong, 28, Odessa semi-pro baseball pitcher, was found shot to death, and at Port Arthur Lester Hunter, 15, was shot accidentally.

Stab wounds proved fatal to Oscar Stevens, 46, of Dallas, and Dr. Donald M. Grube, 26, Dallas dentist, died of burns received in an explosion in his laboratory.

Near Fort Worth Bruce Lee Freeman, 8, was dragged to death by a horse. A verdict of suicide was returned in the death of Chama Lacy, 40, found dead in a parked automobile near Bronte.

Czechs To Give Hitler Bellyache, Says Masaryk

NEW YORK, April 3. (AP)—Jan Masaryk predicted today the 6,000,000 Czechs whom Hitler took under the German flag "will give him a damn good bellyache."

"They are the most indigestible people in the world," said the former Czechoslovak minister to Great Britain.

He sailed aboard the Normandie, cutting short a lecture tour, he said in order to be in Europe in case war should start.

Germany Accused Of Designs On Patagonia

BUENOS AIRES, April 3. (AP)—Formal charges were awaited today, as a result of sweeping investigations into allegations Germans had conspired for colonization or annexation of Patagonia, the break but potentially a rich plateau of 257,058 square miles in Southern Argentina.

Federal Judge Miguel Jantus took charge of the investigations under a law requiring him to intervene in any case in which Argentine sovereignty might be involved. It was believed, as a result, that the government felt enough confidence had been uncovered to warrant formal charges.

Detectives accompanied Ernst Juerges, former Nazi, to his home to get documents and Juerges' typewriter, presumably to check Juerges' claim to authorship of a note sent to President Roberto M. Ortiz March 20 as "proof of Nazi penetration."

The alleged conspiracy was disclosed last week when the newspaper Noticias Graficas published a purported facsimile of a report to the government from a German Embassy adviser describing Patagonia as a "no man's land."

The German Embassy yesterday denied Germany had intentions of annexing Argentine territory or had "aggressive intentions" against Argentina.

Juerges and Alfred Mueller, a factory hand, were held incommunicado. Neither was charged formally with any crime. Police said that some German businessmen indicated that they had been forced to acknowledge Mueller as the German Nazi chief of Argentina.

Jesus, Preacher Of A New Order, Drives Out The Money-Changers

Probably the most dramatic story in all literature is the account of the events leading up to the first Easter. In churches throughout the world this Holy Week, it is being reviewed by millions of Christians. It is here retold from the Gospels by Frederick C. Grant, D. D., Professor of Biblical Theology at Union Theological Seminary, New York. References after each of the six installments—this is the first in a Gospel account.

While one of their number leans over the side of the boat to recover a body, rescue workers fasten a line to an automobile which plunged into Clear creek bavou near Jackson, Miss., when flood waters swept away a bridge. The crowd that gathered at the site is shown at the brink of the gap background.

At least six automobiles and a truck dropped into the muddy waters. Eight persons were believed drowned.

50 Texas Students Attend Convention

BALTIMORE, April 3. (AP)—On donated gasoline, but in their own cars, except a few borrowed ones, 50 University of Texas students were here today as delegates to the American Chemical society.

Two other Texas U. students flew to Baltimore. This record-breaking "youth movement" was staged by the boys themselves as a demonstration of the future value of chemistry and chemical discovery to the United States.

All but one of them had paid his dues in full to the American chemical society, as student members of the society. The one had paid and his credit was held good.

Among these students was the youngest member in the history of the American Chemical society, Martin Etlinger, age 13. He is a university student, said to be the youngest ever to enter the university. His record for his first year there is all "A's." He is the son of a professor of mathematics.

The university has 127 students of the society, the largest number of any university. This club was started four years ago under leadership of Dr. J. R. Bailey, professor of chemistry. The total dues now run above $1,000 a year, and many of the members have little money. Dr. Bailey has financed them all, and in four years has received back all but six dollars of the dues money.

"That will come, too," he said today. The gas for the trip today was donated by Austin business men.

Stamp On Letter Offends Receiver

LINCOLN, Neb., April 3. (AP)—Chief State Conservation Officer Frank B. O'Connell tells the story: A physician instructed his secretary to use wildlife conservation stamps on all mail, including statements.

A former patient wrote the doctor he had overlooked recent letters about his accounts, but the last was more than he could ignore.

The wildlife stamp on the letter portrayed a skunk.

Mays Assails Radio Speech Of Governor

'Would Make Hitler Blush With Shame,' Says House Solon

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—The senate threw overboard at least temporarily, its taxation-pension program by a one-vote majority today. By a vote of 14 ayes and 15 naves, the upper chamber voted down a concurrent resolution submitting a constitutional amendment levying a two per cent sales and service tax and boosting natural resources imposts 25 per cent for financing the state's social security program.

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—Rep. Abe Mays of Atlanta charged on the House floor today that Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's radio talk yesterday "would make Hitler blush with shame."

Mays, who a few weeks ago was considered generally friendly to O'Daniel, said it was "time some one should challenge the duplicity with which the governor is treating the people of Texas."

The Atlanta representative called O'Daniel "the most shrewd politician who ever sat in the governor's chair" and said his tax program would aid the special interests.

O'Daniel and Mays have had business relations for years and Mays at one time was mentioned as the governor's probable choice for secretary of state.

"I am glad to note," Mays said, "that as time goes on he (O'Daniel) gets more and more brazen in the purpose of these weekly radio talks, as on yesterday he threw away all subtlety as to the real purpose and even forgetting to let Leon sing 'Home Sweet Home' immediately launching out into a political speech which if Hitler could have heard it would have caused him to blush with shame."

Mays was followed by Rep. W. J. Galbreath, who likewise vigorously assailed O'Daniel as he has done on several past occasions.

Earlier Rep. C. M. McFarland of Wichita Falls defended House joint resolution 16, the ill-fated tax proposal which O'Daniel had endorsed.

"Disgusting Sight" Mays charged the real purpose behind the O'Daniel tax program was to "help out his special interest."

Senate Votes To Let Convicts Do State Printing

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—By a five vote majority the Senate today kept alive a bill authorizing the prison system to do state printing, despite the objection of one member passage of the measure would set a dangerous precedent by putting the state in competition with free labor.

The upper chamber voted, 17 to 12, for Senator Gordon Burn's motion to permit the prison system to bid on state printing.

Burns, of Huntsville, said he would amend the bill to set a maximum of $150,000 on the value of printing work done in the penitentiary but Senator L. J. Beahm of Lawrence, himself a printer, objected hotly, claiming any amount of work done in the system would set a dangerous precedent.

He charged proponents were seeking a wedge for putting the state in competition with free labor and industry.

"If the Senate considers this bill I will send up an amendment to establish law and secretarial schools at the penitentiary," he said.

Advice: Dine the Doctor

"Invite your family doctor to dinner occasionally. When he knows your home, your morals, fads and follies, he is better able to keep you all in good health," advises the director of Clinton Hospital, New York. Sure. The more he sees of you, the less you will need him. And the less you want to see of him, too. And when everybody is well, how'll the doctor pay the doctor? He can't eat out every day. And he can't advertise for patients. It isn't his done. Not even in The News classified want-ads. . . . However, if your business is sick and run down, do the smart thing: Advertise in the Pampa News Want Ads and it will soon recuperate.

Nuptials Read By Miss Leverett And Milo Carlson

In an impressive ring ceremony at the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon, Miss Pauline Leverett, daughter of Mrs. John Leverett, became the bride of Milo Carlson.

The Rev. C. Gordon Bayless officiated at the service which was read before a large group of friends and relatives at an altar decorated with woodwardii fern and candelabra alternated with arrangements of white stock, snapdragons, and calla lilies.

Mrs. Lillie Hartfield played the wedding music. The bride, who was dressed in a chartruse ensemble with black accessories, carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Miss Evelyn Stephens, maid of honor, wore a frock of blue with black accessories. Her corsage was of sweet peas and roses.

Darrell Bohlander attended Mr. Carlson as best man. Following the service a three-course wedding dinner was served in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carlson, 1116 Christine street.

Potted plants of Easter lilies and jonquils decorated the room. An arrangement of Easter lilies and white tapers centered the table. The colors of white, yellow, and green were carried out in the dinner appointments.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Carlson, Darrell Bohlander, Miss Evelyn Stephens, G. A. Bukey, Mrs. John Leverett, Lois Mae Libby, and June Roberts. After the dinner the couple left for San Antonio and Corpus Christi where they will visit for 10 days before returning to make their home in Pampa.

The bride, who attended Pampa High school, was an active member of the Order of Rainbow for Girls. Mr. Carlson, a graduate of the local high school in 1936, is bookkeeper for his father who is a pipe line constructor.

The Easter theme and official Delta Kappa Gamma place cards were used in decorating the luncheon table. The decoration committee included Misses Vida Cox, Louise Willis, and Bernice Larsh.

After Miss Georgia Wilson led the sing song, a birthday ceremony was conducted by Miss Cox who was assisted by Misses Ozella Hunt and Ila Mae Hastings. How Women in Their 40's Can Attract Men

Here's good advice for a woman during her change (usually from 35 to 45), who fears she'll lose her appeal to men, who worries about hot flashes, loss of pep, dizzy spells, upset nerves and moody spells. Just get more fresh air, 5 hrs. sleep and if you need a reliable "WOMAN'S" tonic take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made especially for women. It helps Nature build up physical resistance, thus helps give more vivacity to enjoy life and assist eliminating jittery nerves and those disturbing symptoms that often accompany change of life. Pinkham's is WELL WORTH trying.

Arms And The Men. Two bills now being considered by House and Senate committees ought to get the closest possible consideration.

They propose to put a complete ban on private armies. They would provide penalties on organizations of more than five persons whose purpose is to drill or parade with firearms, or to provide military training.

The purpose of such a law is obvious. In Europe, the short-lived Russian and German republics were torn down and destroyed by organizations which they foolishly allowed to bear arms and train in a military way.

There is room in the United States for only one army, and only one trained and armed military force. They are the army of the United States and the organized militia.

Yet there are such bodies. They are small now, but they might grow. They should be stamped out immediately and while yet small the law ought to be clear.

Article 2 of the Bill of Rights says "A well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

The meaning, at the time the Constitution was written, is clear. In those days military equipment was simple. Every man had his flintlock hanging over the fireplace.

That isn't true any more. The possession of arms at home is today limited to shot-guns and sporting rifles. Possession of even revolvers, not to speak of machine-guns and automatic rifles, is subject to public regulation today.

Sharing The Comforts Of Life --- By R. C. Hoiles

CHECKING DECLINING PRICES. A State Senator writes me and says, "We all know that the question of production, either of crops or merchandise, is no longer a vital question as this country is now able to grow or manufacture more than it can consume."

When the Senator says, "We all know we can produce more than we can consume," he either shows his ignorance or he is simply saying what appeals to the voter in order to be popular and get votes.

Those people who assign difficult tasks of themselves and not for others, do not know we can produce more than we can consume. They know we can probably produce more of any one thing or many things than we can consume but not more of all things than we can consume.

The Senator and President Roosevelt do not seem to realize that only one way ever has been discovered to keep certain prices from declining without doing injury to others and that is by producing more of the things that are high in price, compared with the low priced articles.

It is here the Senator, and most other wishful thinkers err in their attempt to assist those people who are suffering from a decline in prices. They cannot be helped by these artificial means.

We have been trying this plan now for nearly 10 years and it has not worked. Instead of helping them, they only aggravate them. It is the interference that prevents the increased production of those things in which the price is high that is causing the abnormal decline in those articles in which there is no interference by laws or labor union in production.

There was so much local encouragement that the Stillwagons finally decided to sell their home and come to Hollywood. They knew no one here, but had read that Jack Sherrill was the agent who had discovered Deanna Durbin.

But so long as we elect men as senators who actually claim that we can produce more than we can consume, we are not very likely to enact laws that will cure the causes of our unemployment.

Instead of the Senator trying to eliminate the cause of unemployment, which should be our aim, he is trying to appease the effect of unemployment. Instead of curing it, they only aggravate it and make it more deep-seated.

No, we cannot produce more than we can consume. We are not animals. Our wants increase infinitely more rapidly than our ability to supply these wants. But it is the interference with free exchanges and the attempt to keep some labor prices and commodity prices arbitrary that is the cause of unemployment.

Out at Universal there's a lot of talk about a new glamor girl named Dorothy Arnold. She looks fine, with her green eyes and blond hair and this and that. The trouble is that she doesn't give a hoot about glamor.

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON, NEA Service Staff Correspondent. HOLLYWOOD, April 3.—New faces: Exactly a year from her arrival here, Linda Ware goes into her first picture, "The Star Maker."

There was no much local encouragement that the Stillwagons finally decided to sell their home and come to Hollywood. They knew no one here, but had read that Jack Sherrill was the agent who had discovered Deanna Durbin.

But one night Beverly Stillwagon, which was her name then, did sing at a party in Los Angeles. Among the guests was a musician who said he'd like her to sing for a friend in Hollywood.

"I sang two songs at Mr. Rogers' house," said Linda. "One was to demonstrate my coloratura soprano and the other to give him an idea of my low register for popular music."

"So I went into vaudeville with a song and dance specialty, and one day my specialty was cut right out of the show. If somebody from the audience—I'll never know who—hadn't sent me some orchids I'd have quit show business right then, and for good."

ed. It was drafted by the munitions investigators three years ago, and they took six months, with Treasury Department assistance, to do the job.

On the committee then were Senators Bone, Clark of Missouri, George, Nye, Pope, Vandenberg and Barbour. All except Pope are still in the Senate, and all are in favor of the bill.

Objections to the bill so far are chiefly two. First, the individual income tax rate it provides for application in time of war are so steep that, in states which levy incomes taxes of their own, a rich man would be taxed more than the total of his income.

"It is for each to utter that which he sincerely believes to be true, and add his unit of influence to all other units of influence, and let the result work themselves out."—Spencer. Contributors are urged to confine their articles to 300 words.

Editor's Note: The following is the SECOND prize winning article in the senior group in the contest: "What is a Fair Wage?"

WHAT IS A WISE METHOD OF ARRIVING AT A WISE OR FAIR WAGE? Many changes have taken place in our economic enterprise that are not in harmony with our economic philosophy.

Our individual enterprise has been supplanted by corporation enterprise. Our free markets have been supplanted by managed markets.

Our philosophy of more goods at lower prices has been supplanted by the philosophy of fewer goods at higher prices.

What a small fraction of our population by combination keep their wages above the market rate and hedge themselves in against competition and protecting their own wages by shutting others out from access to their employment.

The overwhelming majority of our people are dependant largely upon wages for their income and obviously the economic welfare of our people is determined by the wages of the working people and the number of people working.

Wages are composed of two factors, the amount paid and the hours worked. In any country wages and maximum hours have a decided effect upon relations with the rest of the world.

In the face of world economic conditions and our own it is of utmost importance that the two economic forces—labor and industry, cooperate on a competitive basis with a view to reducing wages and prices and produce more goods and services.

Local Boys Invited To Work Out On Diamond

Today's weather was anything but favorable for opening baseball practice for the Pampa entry in the Texas-New Mexico baseball league but Manager Groves Selts said this morning that unless the weather became worse he would be at Road Runner park at 2 o'clock.

"We'll carry on tomorrow and every afternoon through Wednesday and after that may stage both morning and afternoon workouts," Manager Selts said today. "Officially, however, practice will not begin until April 10."

Local boys and anyone desiring to work out with the team at their own expense will be welcomed at camp from now until the official opening of practice. Best prospects will be offered contracts between April 10 and 12 and will be in line for a nominal consideration to cover room and meals for the duration of the training season, also to cover transportation to camp.

Manager Selts has several Class D players and a number of rookies scheduled to report on April 10. He has several others who plan to be here between now and Wednesday.

Remodeling of the park was also scheduled to get under way today.

Oiling Of Polo Field To Begin

Oiling of the polo field at Recreation park east of the city is scheduled to begin tomorrow and if work is completed by next Sunday a game between the Pampa team, now being organized, and Perryton may be scheduled, Hub Burrow announced today.

Yesterday afternoon eight Pampa polo enthusiasts and three from McLean staged a long and stiff workout as hundreds of fans looked on. It was the third workout of the season for the Pampans who showed marked improvement in following the bill and in hitting clean shots.

The field will be oiled by city street employees, the program being approved at a recent meeting of the city commission. Many of the best polo fields in the country are being oiled for faster play.

Arthur Dwyer of McLean joined the local team yesterday. Pampans out for practice were Hub Burrow, Bud Moezy, Jack Patton, Leon Mohnis, Arthur Dwyer, Travis Lively Jr., But Burrow, and Keever Warren.

Escobar Defends His Title Again

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, April 3 (AP)—Any way you look at it, the old home town is a good place for Sixto Escobar to fight.

The little Puerto Rican made another successful defense of his world bantamweight championship here last night when he decisively defeated K. O. Morgan, his conqueror in a previous non-title bout, in a 15-round championship fight.

It was the fourth time Escobar had fought before the home folks since he first captured the title and it was his fourth victory here.

The result was highly satisfactory to a sellout crowd of about 12,000 which paid $22,000 to see the fight. The fans behind Morgan's blows landed just below the belt, but Referee Pablo Albanese also had to warn Escobar for low blows.

Escobar weighed 118 pounds, Morgan 117½.

Greer Of Michigan Sprints 100 Yards In 9.5 Seconds

AUSTIN, April 3 (AP)—Baldish Wilbur Greer of Michigan State tore into a brisk cross wind on a 100-yard sprint Saturday that left him flirring with a world record in the feature of the Texas relay, kickoff of the National outdoor track season.

The snout sprinter, pushed by Freddie Wolcott of Rice Institute, scrambled to the tape in 9.5 seconds, one tenth of a second off the world record and the Texas relay's most prized mark.

Wind blew directly across the track. Greer got away ahead of Wolcott, who seemed to falter at the start, and stayed there. His fine dash fell one tenth of a second short of the accepted relay mark of 9.4 set in a memorable dead heat finish in 1935 between Ray Neugauss of Tulane and Harvey Wallender of Texas.

Wolcott faltered in his effort at attacking his own 120-yard high hurdle mark of 13.9 seconds, set last year in a kind of wind set back, sliding over the timbers today in a respectable 14.1 seconds to win by two full strides. The same cross wind prevailed on his hurdle excursion.

Six Marks Tumble

Records tumbled all over the place, six university and junior college marks going by the boards while the schoolboys topped one and equaled another.

Climax event of the day, the mile relay, brought 8,000 fans up screaming as Louisiana State, anchor man Frank Churner kicking in an amazing burst, edged out Oklahoma A. & M. and Rice Institute. The 3:18.8 time was only four tenths of a second higher than a relay mark established in 1929 by the University of Chicago.

New records were made in the slinky 440-yard relay, junior college 440-yard relay, university sprint medley and the broad jump. The high schoolers kicked over their old shotput mark and equaled the 100-yard dash.

Bessy Elmer Hackney of Kansas State, national intercollegiate champion, made the best heave of his competitive career, 52 feet, 3 one-fourth inches, to smash the old mark held by Sam Francis, former Nebraska fullback, at 51 feet 11 three-fourths inches.

Two fine junior college performances in the relay events stood out. The University of Texas freshmen, anchored by Lonnie Hill, who warmed up with an outstanding 9.8 sprint in the 100 yards, cracked the national junior college record for the quarter mile relay with its mark of 42.1 seconds. Pasadena Junior College holds the accepted national mark at 42.4 seconds.

Horned Frogs And Aggies To Battle Today

By WILLIAM T. RIVES, Associated Press Staff Writer.

First-place Texas university, chuckling while the rest of the Southwest conference teams whirl madly about in a mangle of unsets, found itself a cozy spot Monday to watch five enemy teams seek to unscramble positions of the challengers this week.

When Texas renews its conference competition against Southern Methodist university in Dallas April 12, it will have been almost three weeks since the Longhorns met a league opponent.

They have not been forgotten, however, and conditioning against major league and strong university teams has kept the Steers on edge. One of the most interesting games on the week's schedule is the Texas Christian-Texas A. & M. brawl in Fort Worth Monday.

The Horned Frogs bobbed up suddenly as a pennant contender by chopping A. & M. last Saturday, 5-1, and if they can do it again there will be little logic in denying them a chance for the championship.

A. & M. placed next to Texas in public favor when the season opened, now finds itself almost out of the race. Southern Methodist flat-footed it 4-3 with a ninth-inning rally, and Texas Christian repeated before the week was out.

S. M. U. used its star hurlers, Billy Dewell and Guy Dougherty, to snare a couple of games from Rice, 7-0, and the Farmers, trying to play three games in two days was too much, however, and Rice climbed aboard. Pitcher Doc O'Neil for a 7-1 victory.

The Methodists and the Aggies meet Wednesday and Thursday at College Station. S. M. U. plays Rice at Houston Friday. Baylor winds up the week's schedule with a double-header Saturday at Waco.

Texas plays the Philadelphia Phillies at Austin Monday and will meet Oklahoma here Wednesday and Thursday. Baylor plays Oklahoma Monday and Tuesday in Waco.

Three Pampa Champs Enter AAU Tourney

Three Pampa Golden Gloves champions have entered the Amarillo Blue Jacket A. A. U. boxing tournament which will be staged tonight and tomorrow night in the Amarillo Armory, at 8 o'clock.

Several boys who participated in the 1939 Pampa Golden Gloves tournament have signed to enter the Amarillo event.

Pampa was named an A. A. U. tournament city this year but the announcement came too late to stage a tourney here. Plans are being made to hold a Texas Amateur Athletic Federation tournament here this fall, the Pampa Amateur Athletic association being a member of the TAAAF this year.

The state TAAAF tournament will be held in Wichita Falls this fall. Entered in Amarillo Blue Jacket tournament are:

M' Ewin Promises He'll Get Argentinian Tonight

The sun failed to break through clouds this morning but the clouds were man-made. They were breathed by Wildcat Billy McEwin, Montana's toughest wrestling son, who will meet Mickey Durano of the Argentine in a main event battle tonight at the Pampa Athletic arena. Hostilities will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

Breathing threats that soon became a fog, McEwin started for Pampa. Long before he arrived fans could hear his rumbling approach. "First they give a lousy foreigner for a referee and now they give me one to wrestle," he howled McEwin. "I don't like foreigners and that Chambers guy knows it, yet he matches me with one for a main event. I can stand 'em for a few minutes but for a couple of falls, phooey!"

When reminded that the main event was two falls out of three, McEwin remarked that he meant a couple of falls. "I'll get that bird in straight falls or I'll go back to the 'preliminary,'" declared McEwin.

Durano, who speaks no English, was calm on the morning of the big battle. Through an interpreter Durano said he guessed he'd have to meet McEwin at his own game of dog eat dog if he wanted to win. "You can't wrestle a bird like that," Durano said. "You just have to meet him at his own game only going him one better."

Leon Streckin and his con, Oscar, will appear in the semi-final with Alan Plummer of Beaumont and Lubbock providing the opposition. Plummer is a pretty salty mauler when it comes to roughing things up and his loves whippers. Streckin, by the way, is a Kentucky hillbilly and he sports a beautiful long set of whiskers, about as long as the fur on his beady-eyed con which sits in his corner.

Ernie Peterson, dropped to the preliminaries after two consecutive main event losses will introduce to the Panhandle for the first time Buck Davidson of Sun, Valley, Idaho. Peterson is from a California winter resort and Davidson from an Idaho winter resort which should make things interesting.

Improvement Uncertain In Tulsa's Club

Editor's Note: This is the third of a series of stories on prospects for Texas league teams, written by sports writers.

By E. A. BRIDGEWATER, Sports Editor, Tulsa World. (Written for The Associated Press.) TULSA, April 3.—Stronger in spots than last year, when they finished fourth, but with several big question marks in key positions, the Tulsa Oilers won't know until the Texas league season is well along whether they're an improved ball club.

Catcher and shortstop are the two spots where the Oilers of 1938 suffered most and where they seem well fortified this spring. J. Norman McCaskill, the young backstop who looked like a star in 1937 and then went into voluntary retirement for a year to be a business man, is making a comeback, and reports from spring training camp at McAllen, Texas, say he looks like the vacation did him no harm. Don Johnson, a brilliant fielder purchased from Hollywood, is plugging the shortstop gap to the delight of Manager Bruce Connater.

But Connater has his worries too. Will John Zontini make the grade in center field? He is adequate defensively but last spring couldn't hit curve balls and had to be farmed to Evansville in the Three-Eye league. Will Charlie Treadaway's arm come back? It kept him out practically all last season at Toledo, and unless it is O. K. the Oilers have no satisfactory third baseman. Will Joe Dooley be able to fill the place of Cowboy Morris Jones in left field? It is doubtful, although Jones has hit well in spring games.

The Oilers will be able to throw good pitching at their opponents. Their box staff is headed by Max Thomas, the 23-game winner of 1938, and young Vern Olsen, who grabbed 19 decisions, Behn, Thomas and Olsen is Irv Stein, skilled curve ball right-hander.

It's too early yet to count with confidence on any rookie, but Bob Harris, a big righthander purchased from Savannah, has been extremely effective in spring games and looks like the No. 4 man on the staff, with the veteran southpaw, George Miltstead, and young Don Jones, another lefty, completing the first flight of hurlers.

The Oilers realize they need at least two first class right-handed chumpers to round out their staff, and President Don Stewart has the promise of at least one from Los Angeles. He also is looking to the Angels for an outfielder.

Tulsa's offense will be built around Ivan (Goobar) Crawford, a sharp hitter and perhaps the best baserunner in the league, who will be back at second base; McCaskill, who is counted upon to do the bulk of the catching, and big Stanley Schino who led the league in runs batted in and home runs last year. Manager Connater, who will be at first base again, always has been a skilled and dangerous hitter. He slumped last summer but has been connecting solidly this spring. Zontini also has been hitting sharply at McAllen and Dooley has had his share of safe blows.

Ralph Guldahl Captures Augusta Golf Tournament

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 3 (AP)—Every time he steps up to the tee these days Ralph Guldahl leaves a little less doubt that he is the super-golfer of today and possibly the best there ever has been, taking him tournament after tournament and considering the class of the field he dominates so completely.

The double-open champion now has added the Augusta national title to his collection, after finishing second the two previous years, and the 27th he shot at the boys this time left them gasping like boated fish.

Although he sat around in Florida most of the winter getting fat while his fellow professionals were battling around the country week after week, Guldahl already has won $4,147 counting yesterday's $1,500. He has won three of his last four tournaments.

What's even more remarkable about the great, strapping fellow is that he calls his shots. He announced before the "masters" tournament began Friday that he would win it, so nobody was much surprised when he shot his clinching 69 late yesterday afternoon to nose out Sammy Snead, who had posted a 290 a couple of hours before. His total beat by three strokes, the tournament record, set in 1935.

A gallery of close to 10,000 followed Guldahl and Lewson Little on the final round. Little, who was exactly level with Guldahl in total strokes at the turn, delivered a fine 70 to wind up in a tie with Billie Burke for third money, each won $4,147.

Farmers Asked To File Loan Applications

Farmers in Gray county who expect to borrow funds through the Farm Security Administration to finance their operations this year are urged to file their applications immediately. George C. Jones, county FSA supervisor, announced today.

With farmers already engaged in their current year's operations in many sections of Region XII, the county offices are in the midst of their usual spring rush of writing farm plans and making loans. As planting season nears, it is essential that applications for loans be filed immediately.

Mr. Jones said sufficient funds are available in the county to meet all current needs of farmers who can qualify for rehabilitation or cooperative loans under FSA program, and who are unable to secure sufficient credit from other sources.

Loans, he said, may be made for livestock, farm equipment, seed, feed and similar operating goods, usually for a period of five years with interest at five per cent.

Eligibility for a loan requires that the farmer be located on a unit that will provide a livelihood for his family and that he agree to cooperate with the supervisor in working out farm and home plans that will insure a balanced crop and livestock program. The family must also agree to produce as much of the home food supply as possible on the farm. All borrowers must keep records of their farm and home operations.

The county FSA office in McLean, Texas, is open on Thursday from 9:00 a. m. to 5 p. m. to receive applications; and the office in Pampa, Texas, is open from 1:00 p. m. to 5 p. m. on Tuesday to receive applications.

SENATE

friends by putting a constitutional ceiling on natural resources taxes.

The East Texas lawmaker said the reason he did not offer O'Daniel's transaction tax plan on the House floor as substitute for the sales tax contained in joint resolution 16 was that "he did not want to do so."

Galbreath asserted it was "disgusting, nauseating and nerve-racking" to see the governor proselytizing that great office and dragging it down to the level of a minstrel show.

"He (the governor) says he has been putting up a fight for the people," Galbreath said. "If he calls special interests people he had been exactly putting up a fight. He has been repeating parrot-like words put into his mouth by his masters. Every promise he has made to the people he has repudiated."

"That radio stuff he talked about—someone wanting to cut him off the air. He is merely paying the way to reveal a gigantic deal between special interests and as Roosevelt says at the same time pose as a martyr."

Galbreath called O'Daniel's transactions tax recommendation "a message to rob, steal, pilfer and swindle the aged and poor of this state."

"You and I know the plan he (O'Daniel) gave us was impracticable and absurd. You know he was very mysterious about it, that no one knew anything about it nor would he explain it to anyone. You know that we invited him to explain it to the committee on revenue and taxation and constitutional amendments which he refused to do. You know he didn't discuss it privately with members."

"You know full well he never made an attempt to get it passed but still he told the people of Texas whom he won't have a chance to appreciate of the true facts that he had worked himself almost to death trying to get us to do something and we wouldn't do anything, but as for him he was going to keep fighting for the old folks, the blind and the teachers. He didn't leave out the teachers because he wants their support in the next campaign and his heart is beginning to bleed for them as well as for the old folks."

"I think it's up to the judgment of the membership of this House whether we pass a constitutional amendment or a tax bill and personally I favor a tax bill. Why don't O'Daniel tell the people of Texas that his real purpose is not to help the old folks but to write into the constitution a ceiling on natural resources taxes."

Collins Accused

"Why don't he tell them some Sunday morning that the cute little flour barrels which he had the Hillbillies Band pass around didn't make a dent in his campaign expenses but that Carr Collins took up thousands of dollars from the special interests to pay for them and also tell them about the cute little trick of sending about $800 which he had left to the Red Cross so he could show how honest he was and how his heart beat for the afflicted of Texas?"

"The governor has maneuvered around so as to discredit the legislature unless we come along and let him take care of his special interest friends by giving him an amendment to the constitution where they can't be taxed any more. He is trying to force us to do this against our better judgment under guise of paying the old folks and I, for one, resent it."

Special Interests Flayed

"Let's be sensible and pass out about a $15,000,000 tax bill, which will be adequate to take care of those in need at present."

"When we go to do this, watch the change of some of those supporting a constitutional amendment with such fervor."

"Getting back for the minute: the governor yesterday wanted to know 'what did I have to do with creating this obligation?' I ask him this question in answer to that one: 'What did members of the House have to do with all the promises you have to do with the people in order to get elected?'"

"Is it our obligation to protect friends, the special interests, for him? Has he ever done any work trying to pass anything?"

"Let's be sensible and bugger-bo politicians who are causing him so much trouble? Where are the departments of state who have alarmed their doors in his face? Where is all the rottenness around Austin that he raves about?"

sign minister, arrived in London for vital consultations.

Chamberlain rejected a request for compulsory registration of British manpower—a step toward conscription which he said would interfere with the drive for recruits for an enlarged territorial army.

No Threat Made

Chamberlain declared that "public opinion throughout the world has been profoundly shocked and alarmed. . . This country is united from end to end in the conviction that we must make our position clear and unmistakable whatever the result."

"There is not any threat to Germany so long as Germany will be a good neighbor."

Chamberlain said: "We welcome the cooperation of any country whatever its internal system of government, not in aggression but in resistance to aggression."

This was taken as a direct invitation to Soviet Russia to join in a Europe-wide blockade against expanding Nazi Germany.

The prime minister added to a house which constantly cheered him: "We are now entering into a specific engagement. If this German policy were pursued, Poland would not be the only country in danger."

This statement, it was felt, foreshadowed an early guarantee of Rumania's independence such as that already made to Poland with French collaboration.

Senale To Fight Out Tax Issue

AUSTIN, April 3 (AP)—The senate today determined to stick with the subject of pension and other social security financing until it had disposed of a proposed constitutional amendment for paying the security bill.

By unanimous consent it agreed to postpone action on a truck load limit bill which had been set for special order and plug away at the security problem.

Senator Olan Van Zandt of Tloga pulled a surprise by withdrawing a long pending motion to kill a proposed constitutional amendment levying a two per cent sales and service tax to allow Senator John Redditt of Lufkin to send up a substitute proposal stipulating the sales and services levies with the addition of a 25 per cent boost in natural resources imposts.

Redditt, pleading for a compromise, said the time had come when the legislature "ought to get down and accomplish this job."

He conceded that probably no one measure would satisfy all members, adding a little "give and take" would be justified in order to accomplish something.

His proposal would yield $5,000,000 additional from natural resources and produce approximately $25,000,000 from sales and service levies, he estimated.

The proposal which he sought to substitute was one by Senator E. A. Weinert of Seguin which had been amended to authorize a maximum expenditure of $30,000,000 annually for old age assistance.

Trojans Object To Girl On Polo Team

LOS ANGELES, April 3 (AP)—Equal rights for women may be acceptable in theory, but it's not all right in practice as far as the University of Southern California polo team is concerned.

Because the Trojans objected to meeting a University of California at Los Angeles polo team that includes an 18-year-old co-ed as No. 1 "man," the Bruins today were seeking a replacement for Miss Barbara Rand, coached by Snowy Baker, former Australian poloist, has a national women's rating of three goals. Baker said "she knows all there is to know about the game."

Greenville Resident Given Met Contract

Harrell has appeared with the Boston Symphony and the New York Philharmonic-Symphony society, and has given concerts in Europe.

far-flung activities, predicted power income eventually would repay most costs.

The report was signed by Senator Donahay (D-Ohio), committee chairman; Senators Mead (D-N.Y.), Schwartz (D-Wyo.) and Frazier (R-ND), and Representatives Thomson (D-Tex.) and Barden (D-NC).

A different opinion was expected from three Republican members of the group, Senators Davis (R-Pa.) and Representative Jenkins (R-Ohio) and Wolverton (R-N.J.) They frequently charged during public hearings the investigation was "a white-wash."

The majority report, however, found that "the main purposes of the TVA act have been honestly and efficiently performed by the authority. It urged Congress to provide funds necessary to complete the programs of dams along the long stretch of the Tennessee River."

The report said TVA budgeting and accounting methods were "extremely unsatisfactory" prior to 1938.

"ZOUNDS, IT'S NOT ME PARAPH!"

The robust ruddy merchants of early England made a flourish of the pen at the end of their signatures—a paraph they called it—as a safeguard against forgery and imitation.

Modern descendants of the paraph are the familiar trade-marks you see advertised in this newspaper every day. These protect you against imitations and shoddy goods. They stand for products which have been tried by millions of people with satisfaction.
