SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Paul Crosses Into Europe. Text: Acts 15:36-16:15. By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D. Editor of Advance The title of this lesson, "Paul Crosses Into Europe," suggests at once the dramatic nature of the facts by which it is dealing. It is quite probable that some of those of the new Christian faith had already made their way into Europe in a day when, despite all the difficulties of travel, the Jews were found in various places as aggressive traders and craftsmen. One of Paul's early letters was the Epistle to the Romans, and there was evidently a strong group of Christians there before Paul ever made his way late in life and as a prisoner to the imperial city. But if Christian disciples had made their way into Europe, they had lacked Paul's fervent spirit of propaganda and his organizing genius, so that Paul's crossing over into Europe in answer to the Macedonian call may be regarded as the real introduction of Christianity into Europe. There it was soon in its development to transcend its growth and spread in Asia.

It is well that we should grasp the dramatic fulfillment of this beginning. Paul comes to Macedonia in response to a vision in a dream. His course in the Grecian cities of culture and progress is not greatly different from the course shaped by perceptions in the cities of Asia Minor.

We find him in the midst of riot and tumult in Ephesus as hostile Jews and pagan Greeks alike resent his proclamation of the Christian faith; we find him thrust into prison at Philippi, in the stocks with his companion Silas, and far in the inner dungeon; we find him disputing with the seekers of religious novelty on Mars Hill in Athens, laughed to scorn when he speaks of the resurrection. Yet, here and there, as he went, in spite of hardships and persecution, he left groups that developed into churches, and churches that developed into a great movement, until the Church—becoming a "more varied organization—attained his place as the chief power in the Empire.

We find the Christian movement spreading westward until it attains a conquest over the Germanic tribes which Roman arms never achieved. Pagal German leaders of today speak with scorn of this religion that conquered their early tribes where Rome failed, and they seek again to destroy this religion and to wreak their vengeance upon the people to whom the Christ belonged and whose Jewish ideals and foundations Christianity came. It is a time for all Christians to seek a share in Paul's vision and faith. It is a time for us to remember whence our religion has come and how much the Christian world owes to the Jewish race; also how essentially Jews and Christians are linked together in the great, ideals or righteousness, brotherhood, and peace.

Punishment To Be Subject Of Sermon "Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 30.

The Golden Text is: "Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?" (Genesis 18:25).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea" (Micah 7:18, 19).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The pardon of divine mercy is the destruction of error" (page 329).

Strong Lubbock Team Plays Here Saturday

Pampa Beats Amarillo 9-4 For 2nd Win

Pampa welcomed professional baseball yesterday afternoon at Road Runner park by seeing their Oiler take a 9 to 4 game from the Amarillo Gold Sox. The same two teams meet this evening at 8 o'clock. Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Lubbock Hubbers will be here for games after which the Oilers take to the road for a week.

It was just like old times out at Road Runner park because Gordon Nell was in an Oiler uniform and the big first baseman potted two home runs over the left center field fence to score four runs. Manager Grover Seitz was also in fine fettle as he banged a timely double and also pulled one for the books when he drew a walk, stole second, stole third and then crossed home plate on a balk.

An interested spectator in the stand was President Milton Price who made an official visit, accompanied by Mrs. Price. Mr. Price saw his first 1939 game yesterday and in his own words, "it was a pip."

Nell Homers Twice. Amarillo opened the scoring in the second and added another in the third but the lead failed to last when Nell popped his first home run over the fence with at least 10 feet to spare, scoring one ahead of him. It wasn't exactly a fly ball, but it was a line drive.

In the fourth and fifth Amarillo scored again to take a lead but Heiskell, first up in the fifth, opened with a single. Pietras duplicated and then Seitz rattled the boards in left field to score both of them to tie up the count.

Thirty hits were recorded—17 for Pampa, six for Amarillo. Manager Ray Flood of the Pals homered and his center fielder, Jake Ingalls, got four safeties.

At Jacksonville, the Jax downed O'Brien, and runner Don Smith executed a perfect squeeze play in the seventh to break a 4-all tie.

Hill Planning Gory Revenge Against Count

"If I have to, I can whip any wrestler in this neck of the woods and take on a referee, a promoter, and a commissioner at the same time," Frankie Hill, solemnly announced yesterday while attending the baseball game here. Hill will meet Count Antonio Moreno in the main event wrestling match at the Pampa Athletic arena on Monday night.

For a semi-final, Promoter Cliff Chambers will present a couple of scientific matlers in Mickey Durano and Ernie Peterson. That is it will be scientific unless one or the other thinks he's been the victim of a stiff foul and then anything can happen.

Pressure On For Several Top Rookies

By EARL HILLIGAN. CHICAGO, April 28 (AP)—Whatever the sport, the pressure usually falls heaviest on the pace-setters and several rookies now face the problem of maintaining the high-speed standards they've set in their first few weeks in big-time baseball.

The list was padded yesterday by the 13-inning duel the Chicago White Sox claimed from the Detroit Tigers and the 11-inning thriller of the St. Louis Cardinals took from Pittsburgh's hapless Pirates.

The White Sox won 2-1 with Hank Steinbacher pinch-hitting Mike Kreevich home. Kreevich singled four times and scored Chicago's other run.

The Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds were headed for a long bout until the Reds burst out with eight runs in their half of the eighth to win, 11-3.

On the other hand the Washington Senators had no trouble subduing the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-3, on the nine-hit knuckleball pitching of Dutch Leonard.

The St. Louis Browns eased past the Cleveland Indians, 4-2, with Johnny Marcum having a shutout until the ninth when Jeff Heath hit a home run with one on for the Tribe.

Bad weather in the East caused postponement of the games scheduled between New York and Brooklyn in the senior circuit and the Yankees and Boston in the American league.

Extra-Inning Games In Major Leagues Frequent

Before it is completed this major league baseball campaign may be remarkable for many things, but right now it is distinguished for the number and length of its extra-inning games.

In 11 days, during which many contests were rained out, there have been nine marathon matches, approximately double the number of extra-inning ventures over any similar period in recent years.

The list was padded yesterday by the 13-inning duel the Chicago White Sox claimed from the Detroit Tigers and the 11-inning thriller of the St. Louis Cardinals took from Pittsburgh's hapless Pirates.

The White Sox won 2-1 with Hank Steinbacher pinch-hitting Mike Kreevich home. Kreevich singled four times and scored Chicago's other run.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ. NEW YORK, April 28 (AP)—The success of the phenomenal Phillies has affected Doc Prothro strangely. He says the Dodgers look like a first division ball club to him.

Dear Diary: Darn it, we forgot the name of the Detroit scribe who said "Detroit now has a hard Rowe to who."

Cliff Melton can't understand why his comeback is flopping. Says his stuff is better than ever. That's just what your customers are saying, Cliff. Gehrig's batting over .167.

What they say: Casey Stengel—"I'm through being smart. Every time I try it, I outsmart myself." Doc Prothro—"Bill Terry told me there was no ball club in Philly. Last week I answered him." Bill Meyer, Kansas City manager—"Ted Williams is the greatest natural hitter since Babe Ruth."

Cincinnati is all broke out with professional courtesy. When Tom Swope, the Post's baseball expert, lost his wrist watch, it was promptly found and returned by the general manager of the rival paper, the Times-Star.

New to the eight-club league are St. Joseph's Angels, who took over the franchise of last season's champions, Ponca City, and Topeka, which replaced Bartlesville. Other teams are Joplin and Salina.

Pitt And North Texas Teachers Defend Records

PHILADELPHIA, April 28 (AP)—Two of the nation's top-notch relay teams—Pitt and North Texas Teachers—defend their world records in the sprint and distance medley relay today as the annual two-day Penn relay opens at Franklin field.

Pitt, again anchored by Long John Woodruff, who led the Panthers to three championships a year ago, and the Teachers, paced by the famous Rideout twins, Wayne and Blaine, were standouts in 1938, but observers have expressed doubt they will repeat against such improved teams as Michigan, Indiana, Manhattan and Forham.

Pitt's winning time in the sprint medley last year was 3:24.5, smashing all existing records. Frank Ohl, A. Ferrara, B. Mason and Woodruff composed the Panthers' quartet. Ohl and Woodruff are back.

North Texas, with Wayne Rideout running the three-quarter mile and Blaine the mile, romped to victory in the distance medley relay a year ago in 9:59.4, breaking the best previous mark of 10:00.3 made by Indiana at Columbus in 1937.

These two events top a program of 28 relays. The remaining 47 events on the two-day meet are listed for Saturday.

Yesterday Betty reaches the Barricade...

CHAPTER XIX

It was not difficult for Betty Mary to win the confidence of a young woman inside Luis Barro's ranch home...

Betty Mary also deduced easily that the surprising number of people present were mostly aliens waiting to be shipped over the line at night...

"Indeed it is!" answered Betty Mary. "Luis has given it detailed thought..."

"THE New Channel Crossing! She repeated that to herself, to make it indelible in her memory..."

"Well, I haven't had a chance to talk with him in private yet, you see..."

"Seguro si, senorita. You are perhaps the one who arrange the cars to take them away after they cross, eh? It is important, too..."

"I am starting to El Paso within an hour," said the Mexican girl. "I am a citizen of the United States, too. I can cross freely..."

"Goody," Betty Mary smiled. She wished she knew what kind of guards. Where would they be? How many? She would have to warn about that too when she could get back to inform Hope and Sherry...

"She realized that her position in the Barricade household was a precarious one but she also knew that Barro himself was attracted to her, very definitely. She felt that he would make violent love to her when the time came, and it might be soon now that she was visiting him..."

Luis Barro did not come to visit with her, as promised, for more than two hours. She had removed her hat and wrap and sat there with her bag in the sun room, taken her sketching pad and snuggled out to a porch, a shaded alcove giving a gorgeous view...

"The senorita has been kept waiting," he lamented. "But then—shrugging characteristically—'is no hurry now, since it is to remain long time with us, eh?'"

"Travel," Betty Mary looked carefully at him, trying to retain her pose and her poise. "You mean—?"

"I mean, senorita, that is long way to Durango, or maybe Zacatecas. And, of course, Barro the grand smuggler could not use the ordinary trains. He might even have to walk, quien sabe?"

"But I—you—" she was incoherent, watching him. "In your purse, my pretty one, was the rifle shell; the shell which have been used by my friends. I find him myself, while you wait here for me. Now what you think, eh?"

He half rose from his chair at that and Betty Mary jumped to her feet, hand to her mouth in a quick frenzy of fear.

"Sit down, sit down and rest, senorita! Maybe so Sunday night late we travel much, eh? Maybe we even go to ocean and take the long boat trip. The vacation. You like Luis Barro. You dance with him; make the pretty talk; make the pretty picture—YAH!"

He ended with a veritable growl and got up from the table scowling like the criminal he was. He beckoned to two men. They came from within—Betty Mary had not even seen them waiting in the shadows—and in her frantic state now they appeared almost fiendish.

"Fate her to—the kitchen, the laundry, anywhere so she can work. Work, senorita! You have make fool of me, now you work for me!"

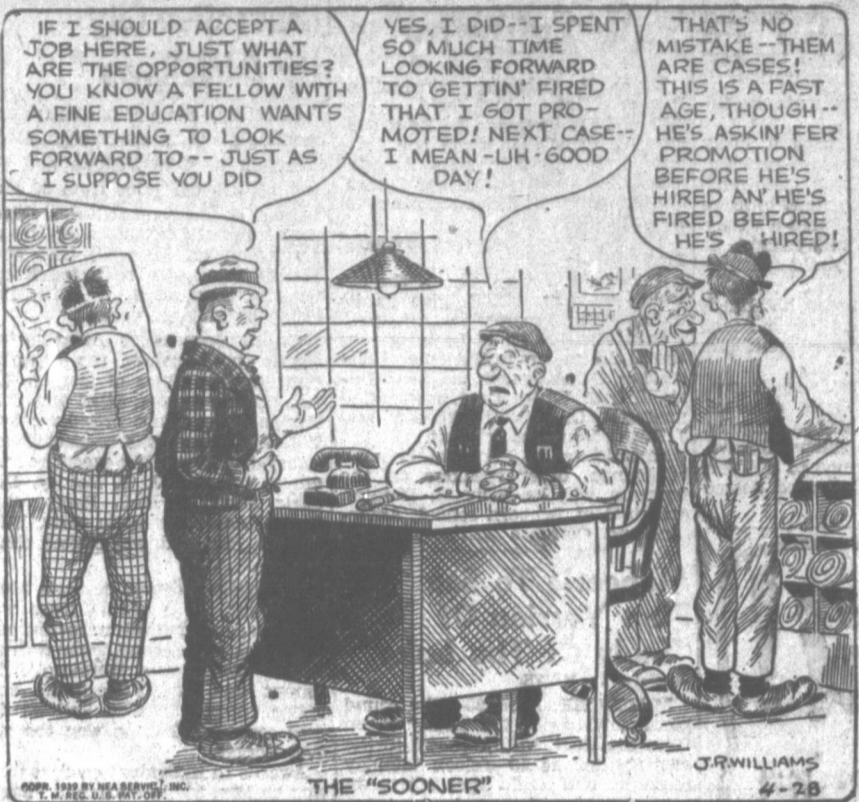

"NO! Let me go! There's a mistake, I tell you! Let me—" It was her first word of protest, so alarmed had she been.

"Sure, the mistake, and you make him, senorita! Men have die for make the mistake with Luis Barro. But a so beautiful senorita—"

Rayburn And Garner Lead Peacemakers

WASHINGTON, April 28. (AP)—A revival of efforts to bring peace and harmony into democratic ranks has been undertaken by James A. Farley, the party generalissimo who specializes in fighting republicans.

He has the active help of Rep. Rayburn of Texas, the house floor leader, and at least the strong acquiescence of Vice President Garner. Both of them are highly potent factors on Capitol Hill.

"As symptoms of this changing sentiment, they point to the strong democratic support being accorded President Roosevelt's government reorganization program and the almost solid muster of house democrats last week behind the bill to renew the President's monetary powers."

"In the House, democrats say there is a better feeling and a stronger disposition to cooperate than has existed in many months."

A luncheon last week on the senate side brought several democrats with conflicting views to the same table with Garner and Farley. Those two men went to a baseball game together later and are remaining there talks this week.

Certainly their conversations, and those that Farley is having with other democrats, cover a wide range than simply the single objective of party peace. But a great many democrats agree that it would do little good to figure out a ticket for 1940 if the convention turns into a democratic free-for-all instead of a rally.

Both Farley and Rayburn are in a good position to mediate. Farley took little part in the primary election battles of last summer and has maintained friendly relations with most elements of the party. Rayburn, long a close friend of Garner, has a strong personal liking for President Roosevelt and has been a staunch supporter of his general program.

Friends of the vice president insist that although Garner has never hesitated to tell Mr. Roosevelt when he disagreed with a presidential proposal, these exchanges have always been on a friendly basis.

In spite of these differences of opinion, Garner's friends declare he has played a powerful part in the negotiations which have opened the way for enactment of various presidential measures, including the reorganization bill. Nor is there much doubt that he helped quiet opposition to some of the supreme court and cabinet appointments of this session.

On the other side, however, he has given fairly open support to the efforts of some senate democrats to cut down federal spending, an issue on which he has differed most seriously with Mr. Roosevelt.

Dr. Frank P. Graham, President of the University of North Carolina, is a vigorous advocate of federal aid for states to equalize educational opportunities.

Noted Columnist Asks Repeal Of Neutrality Act

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—Dorothy Thompson, the newspaper columnist, suggested today that Congress repeal the neutrality act so the United States could have "the greatest possible freedom of action" in troublous times.

"I don't think the present neutrality legislation would have kept us out of the World War," Miss Thompson told the Senate foreign relations committee in a hearing on neutrality proposals.

She noted a large part of the world already is at war again. Previously, Paul Scharenberg, representing the American Federation of Labor, testified in opposition to any change in the present act. He read a statement approved by President William Green of the AFL. "We do believe this is the time to make any changes in this law for any change might be interpreted as a change in our foreign policy," the witness said.

'Great Lover' And Elaine To Separate

ST. LOUIS, April 28 (AP)—John Barrymore and Elaine Barrie, whose romance and 30 months of married life consisted of one rip-roaring episode after another, are going to be divorced for the second time.

"The Great Lover" disclosed last night he and his youthful fourth wife "could not hit it off together" and has agreed on a separation.

The parting arrangements, he insisted, were amicable.

Miss Barrie, who takes a lively spanking from her famous husband in the play, "My Dear Children," in which they co-star, plans to leave the show when it concludes a week's engagement here Saturday night.

Barrymore said he would continue with the show.

As for his wife's career, he added, "I hope she gets along like a house afire. She is a very intelligent girl and a fine actress."

The couple, married at Yuma, Ariz., Nov. 9, 1936, were divorced the following April at Los Angeles. She charged he was sullen, abusive, and had once threatened to kill her. Later they had the divorce decree set aside.

In addition to Principal Osborne of Pampa, other speakers on the program will be Felix R. Phillips, principal of Sanborn school, Amarillo, and Clarence Ashby, Dalhart.

Borger Selected Convention City By Oddfellows

Selecting Borger as their next meeting place for the Panhandle Association of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, 300 delegates from 30 Panhandle counties ended the thirty-sixth annual convention of the organization at Hereford this week. Wallington closely contested Borger for the convention in April, 1940, losing by only six votes.

C. M. Spencer of Amarillo was elected president of the organization; George Sikes of Borger, first vice president; Mrs. Ethel Mae Clay, Pampa, second vice president; Ivan Wilson, Borger, was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The executive committee includes J. E. Rainey, Dalhart; John A. Hall, Pampa, and Earl Windsor, Amarillo. Mrs. Ethel Friedley, Hereford, was elected chaplain.

In Rebekah degree contests Monday night the Amarillo team won first place and a silver loving cup. Shamrock was second, Pampa third, Borger fourth, and Hereford fifth. Pampa and Borger were the only teams entered in Odd Fellows degree contests. Pampa won the cup over Borger.

Awards in individual charges were won by Mrs. Lizzie Walker of Pampa in unwritten work; Mrs. Jess Clay of Pampa, vice grand; Mrs. O. F. Glascox of Shamrock, chaplain and Mrs. Maxine Meers of Canyon, past grand charge.

Briton Speaks At Methodist Meeting

KANSAS CITY, April 28 (AP)—A British "local preacher" who a few weeks ago say babies being fitted with gas-masks called today for a "return to the New Testament" as the hope of a war-scarred world.

"The church has a message and there is no better time to utter it," said the Rt. Hon. Isaac Foot of Plymouth, England, in an address to the Methodist uniting conference here.

Foot, a former member of Parliament, is a layman and president of the Methodist Sunday School Association of Great Britain.

"The conference was called to perfect a discipline for a new American Methodist church made up of the present Methodist Episcopal, M. E. South and Methodist Protestant branches.

"In a world dominated by the code of the wolf pack," Foot said, "a world in which gas masks have become a standard item of domestic equipment, the Christian church offers the hope and promise of fellowship."

Foot spoke a few hours after reading a letter from President Roosevelt hailing the uniting conference as "a harbinger of better things" in "a world distracted by malice, envy and ill will."

Tonight Methodist Protestant delegates will elect two bishops to the new church from their ranks. The protestant branch, which split from the Methodist Episcopal church in 1928 in a revolt from the power of the bishops, has had no such rank.

Amarillo Jaycees Seek 1940 Meeting

FORT WORTH, April 28 (AP)—Young business and professional men representing 63 towns and cities in Texas, converged on Fort Worth today as the eleventh annual three-day convention of the Texas Chamber of Commerce opened with executives' meeting and various political maneuvers.

Most of the delegations had a definite goal—electing a candidate for state office, gaining selection as the 1940 convention city, or winning a state activity award—and each had its own publicity method.

Twelve young men from Amarillo—last-minute dark horse entry in the convention city race—gained access to the Hotel Texas roof and proceeded to inflate with helium a large blimp, painted silver and with the word "Amarillo" painted on each side in six foot blue letters.

Galveston's delegation arrived early today on a special coach. I. J. Vacek and B. Stuart Cox, president, announced that Galveston, also seeking next year's convention—will present a bathing beauty revue.

In a hotel lobby a paper and wire resembling Ferdinand the bull, belted his loudest, through a loud-speaker, that El Paso is the ideal city for the 1940 convocation. He was shipped here by the 13-member El Paso delegation.

John Paul Pleads Guilty At Houston

HOUSTON, April 28 (AP)—John C. Paul Jr., 30-year-old former Amarillo bank teller, today entered a plea of guilty to an embezzlement charge but stoutly insisted he was not a fugitive when arrested by FBI agents.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents said they believed Paul's story and there was "nothing aggravated about the case."

One of the agents pointed out the alleged shortage of $3,400 in the American National bank of Amarillo, which is headed by Paul's father, J. H. Paul, occurred Dec. 8, 1938, and the embezzlement charge was not filed until Tuesday at Dallas.

When Paul was arrested he expressed surprise that charges had been brought against him, the agents said.

The defendant's father in Amarillo said the shortage in the bank funds was discovered last December and had been "promptly covered."

Paul today was held in jail at Comroe pending his removal to Amarillo.

Gen. Craig is slated for retirement August 31.

To be surgeon general with the rank of major general, President Roosevelt nominated Colonel James Carre Magee to replace Surgeon General Reynolds whose term expires May 31.
