Musings of the moment: We pay for modern conveniences and appearances. It should be kept in mind that the expense of handling many bits of merchandise is many times greater than the original cost of the articles.

Keeping Germany disarmed would give an interesting picture of what a nation could do with the money that normally goes into soldier pay, aviation, training, and armaments.

With wheat and cotton plans still intact and others about to be launched for corn and hogs, not to mention the government's use of pork, butter, eggs and soap.

John Santa Fe informs us that the "condition of wheat in the Texas Panhandle and territory adjacent varies from very poor to quite good, with the outlook on the average unfavorable because of deficient moisture supply.

Various stages of a moonshine jug, as divulged by Old Man Simmons: 1. Jucose, 2. Verbose, 3. Belliose, 4. Lachrymose, 5. Comatose, 6. Morose.

By the way, what became of the national lachrymatory after the "lame ducks" got through with it?

It sounds contradictory, but Babe Ruth is starting his annual diet in order to round into condition.

With a fan dancer coming, "knee-action" automobile dealers will have ample illustration of the principle. And "air-flow" models will have plenty of spring breezes to show that idea.

As to other cars, our long distances offer full opportunity to show that the models will get you there and get you back.

Lower House Approves $2 Gallon Tax On Distilled Spirits

WILL PRODUCE 300 MILLIONS IN FIRST YEAR

SOONER SOLON WANTS GOOD LIQUOR AT ANY COST

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—The house today approved a tax of $2 a gallon on distilled spirits estimated to produce $300,000,000 in revenue during the first full post-repeal year.

A proposal to levy a $4 a gallon tax on distilled spirits was rejected by the house as the administration formulated plans for decreasing the liquor price and the amount of the adulterated product.

In the first vote of the session by the house, it turned down an amendment proposed by Representative O'Connor (D., N. Y.), to the half billion dollar liquor tax bill which provides a $2 a gallon rate.

O'Connor contended the tax rate did not affect the price to consumers because of profiteering by distillers.

Representative Dirksen (R., Ill.), offered an amendment calling for $1.50. He has seven large distillers in his district.

Rep. McKeown (D., Okla.) said he favored the sale of "good liquor" at cost.

"I hope we don't have liquor that will make a rat spit in a cat's face," McKeown said. "I am going along with the committee on this bill."

"Have you had a drink of this legal stuff they are putting out?" asked O'Connor.

"No," replied McKeown.

Marbaughs Leave To See Max Who Is Much Better

Max Marbaugh's condition was much improved yesterday afternoon, according to a telegram received by his father, Harry Marbaugh, from Baylor hospital at Dallas.

The local boy was injured in an automobile accident Monday night near Dallas. The car in which he was riding crashed with another car, but he was the only one injured.

'Richest Girl' Finally Poses

It isn't often the closely guarded Doris Duke shows herself in public places and it's rare indeed that she consents to pose for a picture.

But when cameramen spotted "the world's richest girl" joining in the New Year's fun at New York's swanky Mayfair Club, they persuaded her to accede to "just one" That dashing bachelor with her is Harry Hurt, Jr.

PAMPA FIRE LOSS DURING LAST YEAR ESTIMATED AT $1,428 BY GOLD; RATE REDUCTION IS DUE

Property Involved In Fire Valued at $213,250

PAMPA's key rate should be lowered and the record credit doubled next year in recognition of the fire record of 1933.

The total loss included property damage insured, uninsured, and insured in mutual companies. The recognized loss for the year totaled only $1,428.50, and it is on that amount that the rate and credit are figured.

"Much of the credit of Pampa's excellent fire record should go to the schools of our city," Chief Gold said. "I was informed in Dallas not two months ago that there was not another city in the state that gave as much publicity to fire prevention as Pampa."

Chief Gold is assisted in his work by three full-time firemen and 18 volunteer firemen. Chief Gold also acts as fire marshal.

A few of the statistics kept by Chief Gold for 1933 follow: Total value of property involved in fires—$213,250.

Estimated insurance loss—$1428.50. Estimated loss including insured, uninsured, and mutual insured—$5,533.50.

Scandal Menaces Cabinet

GLAIM VICTIM FIRED GUN IN CHURCH ROOM

ILLUSTRATED HOW HE COULD 'PICK OFF' PASTOR

Associated Press Staff Writer. PIGGOTT, Ark., Jan. 5 (AP)—One shot discharged from a .38 caliber pistol which was found near J. W. MacMurdo after the aged janitor had been fatally wounded in the Jonesboro Baptist tabernacle, was fired out a window at a dog four nights before the church shooting.

Shook said he and MacMurdo decided to try their gun on the night of October 6 and MacMurdo fired his automatic several times and Shook fired his revolver once and it snapped two or three times, he said.

After the guns were fired and the pistol snapped, Shook quoted MacMurdo as saying he "wouldn't depend on it for anything," and patted his own automatic which was found in his holster unfired after he was shot by Crowley.

Shook and other defense witnesses testified to hearing MacMurdo make threats against the life of Crowley at the height of the strife over the tabernacle pastorate between Crowley and the Rev. Joe Jeffers, evangelist, for whom MacMurdo worked.

Udell Miller and Howard Paul Hinson said MacMurdo showed them holes bored in the wall of the Sunday school room and illustrated with guns how he could "pick off" Crowley, if "he ever came messing around here."

MacMurdo was janitor and guard of the tabernacle for the Jeffers faction which held possession of the tabernacle until the shooting which followed soon after the issuance of a court order recognizing Crowley as legal pastor.

Overthrow of French Premier Predicted When Pawnshop Swindle Aired

PARIS, Jan. 5 (AP)—Parliamentary circles predicted today that Premier Camille Chautemps and his cabinet might be overthrown when parliament airs the $40,000,000 scandal of the Bayonne pawnshop.

The government sent out a second series of messages to ships at sea and to French representatives in north and South America in an effort to arrest Serge "Handsome Alex" Stavisky, founder of the collapsed municipal enterprise which received government financing.

Premier Chautemps called Albert Dalimier, minister of colonies, to his office at noon and demanded a clear statement of his connection with Stavisky affair of which the minister asserts he is entirely innocent despite rumors.

In parliamentary circles, which until a few days ago had conceded the present government several months of life, it was said the cabinet's danger is real.

The police said Dalimier had sent out letters urging insurance companies to invest in pawnshop bonds without, however, specifying the Bayonne organization. Oppositionists to the government immediately commented on the sale of alleged bogus bonds for hundreds of millions of francs and pointed out that Stavisky, who had a police record and already faced other charges, had hobnobbed with members of the government.

These circumstances, oppositionists declared, indicated laxness to say the least.

For France, the failure of the Bayonne pawnshop was regarded as the nation's worst financial scandal since the Oustric case.

Former Scouts Will Organize Monday Evening

Former Boy Scouts of 21 years of age or older will meet at the city hall Monday evening at 7 o'clock to discuss formation of an Old Scouts Association—a new branch of Scouting.

All scoutmasters in this area are asked to meet with them.

One topic of discussion will be participation by troops of the Adobe Walls council in the nationwide mobilization for service under President Franklin D. Roosevelt, who in a radio broadcast from the White House at 11 a. m. February 10 will give the boys a task in connection with relief work.

Sanitation Due To Become CWA Program Soon

LAUNCHING of a sanitation program in Gray county which will mean employment of more than a dozen persons in addition to the regular CWA quota is expected to take place soon.

The plan already is under way in several other counties of the Panhandle.

CANADIAN, Jan. 5 (AP)—Hemphill county is to be benefited by a county wide community sanitation program which is under the direction of the CWA, according to information received this week by Troy Newton, county administrator, from J. H. Gehbauer, civil engineer at Higgins.

This work is to be sponsored by the U. S. Public Health service, and will be directed by the Texas state board of health. It will permit the employment of a number of persons above the present county quota.

For the initial setup, a sanitation assistant will be selected and placed in charge of the work within the county. Others to be employed may also include a public health nurse, one secretary or office assistant, four construction foremen, four survey directors or supervisors, and eight laborers.

Activities will include sanitary surveys inspections, collection of statistics, water and milk samples, public health nursing immunization, control of disease epidemics including typhus fever, construction of septic tanks, and the correction of minor defects in water supplies.

Mr. Newton is taking the outline of the plan to Dr. E. H. Snyder, local health officer, for a consultation on having the project started in Hemphill county.

FORMER WHITE DEER MAN IS HELD IN JAIL

FRANK CRUTCHFIELD IS UNDER INDICTMENT IN PAMPA

AMARILLO, Jan. 5 (AP)—Preston G. Burnam, 62, night captain of the Amarillo police department and veteran West Texas and New Mexico peace officer, was shot to death early today when he and Patrolman George Hayden answered a disturbance call at a local hotel.

An hour later, Frank Crutchfield, 27, formerly of White Deer, was arrested at a local tourist camp and lodged in the Potter county jail on a murder charge. Several witnesses identified him as the slayer.

The officers saw Crutchfield run from the lobby of the small hotel as they arrived, and Burnam gave chase. He was hit five times as Crutchfield emptied his gun and fled from the scene of the shooting.

Hotel attendants said Crutchfield had been terrorizing the hotel for some time before a balling escaped to call police. But Hayden said they were not told the man was armed. Burnam had not drawn his gun.

Crutchfield was charged in 1926 with the robbery of a White Deer bank, with which his father, Jay Crutchfield, was associated. On transfer of the case to Potter county, a lunacy hearing resulted in his being declared insane. He later escaped from an institution at Wichita Falls. Sheriff Bill Adams said he also had been charged with felony theft in Dent Smith county and Gray county.

Burnam, who was the first sheriff of Castro county, at Dimmitt, came to the police department in 1926 from Tucuman, N. M., where he was employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad. He lived here with a daughter, Mrs. Jane Bolton. He also is survived by two brothers and a sister.

Crutchfield was asleep, his empty gun beneath him, when police took him in custody.

Frank Crutchfield and Johnnie Gore were jointly indicted in Pampa here last summer for theft of ten barrels of Phillips 66 motor oil from a South Pampa warehouse. Most of the oil was recovered next day on a ranch in Carson county. Special Ranger Carroll Mumford and a Berger deputy sheriff exchanged shots there with two men believed to be Crutchfield and Gore, but the fugitives escaped and were never arrested on the local complaint.

LATE NEWS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—A false alarm for fire at the capitol brought engines and trucks racing there today, all because a zealous new employe had mistaken smoke from a chimney to be a sign that the house of representatives roof was about to blaze up.

PEIPING, Jan. 5 (AP)—The United States legation informed the Chinese government today that the United States looks to the Chinese government for the full protection of the lives and property of Americans in Fokien.

LAWTON, Okla., Jan. 5 (AP)—Official photographs intended to show that fingerprints on a stove in the Hayter house of death here were those of Robert Hayter, refrigerator salesman, were introduced today by prosecutors in Hayter's preliminary hearing on a murder charge in connection with the slayings of his wife and two of their children.

BOSTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—Centerfield bleachers of Fenway park, home of the Boston Red Sox, in the process of reconstruction, were badly damaged by fire today. Damage was estimated at thousands of dollars.

BRYAN, Tex., Jan. 5 (AP)—W. C. Davis, district court judge, today denied the application of 12 Bryan girls to mandamus directors of Texas A. & M. college to permit them to enter the school where only men, with one recent exception, are granted registration privileges.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5 (AP)—The standard ball for the two major leagues in 1934 will follow the specifications used by the American league last season. This was agreed upon today after a conference between President John A. Haydies of the National league and President Will Harridge of the American league with the baseball manufacturers in Philadelphia.

UNCLE SAM'S BUSINESS POLICIES ON TRIAL

When the administration turned its attention recently to the nation's communications systems—its telephones, wireless, telegraph and radio networks—Washington dispatches pointed out that three courses were open to it.

It could leave everything just as it is. It could set up an inclusive monopoly under fairly strict government supervision.

It could take the whole business over under a straight-out government ownership and operation scheme.

Significantly, it was reported that the preponderating sentiment in the administration leaned toward the second of these three courses.

All this is interesting, not only because the fate of a very large industry is involved, but because this particular case is a pretty good sample of the choices open to us in connection with all industry.

No matter what we choose to call the policies which go to make up the New Deal, it is pretty clear that eventually the government's attitude toward industry in general will have to follow one of these three lines.

The choice will depend less on the ideas of the officials at Washington than on the sentiment of the country as a whole. In the last analysis, the administration can do only what the mass of Americans want it to do; and the question now is, What do the American people want?

There are grounds for suspecting that the ordinary citizen has his doubts about the wisdom of going ahead with the old system of every man for himself. On the other hand, there is very little reason to believe that there is any widespread demand for government ownership.

But the remaining choice—monopoly under government control—is something so new, and contains so many chances to make mistakes, that plenty of people have their doubts about it, also.

The truth of the matter probably is that the ordinary citizen hasn't made up his mind yet. Fortunately, he still has plenty of time to decide.

For the program now being followed is in the nature of a proving ground. We are going to see how these things work out in actual practice.

Certain parts of the NRA will let us see how monopoly under federal supervision works; such things as the Muscle Shoals experiment will give us a look at government operation; our own memories will tell us about the let-things-alone plan.

By the time the present administration is due to go before the electorate for a verdict, we ought to be ready to decide which scheme we wish to adopt at a settled long-range policy.

Creamery Driver Hurt in Runaway

Dolly—that's the horse—was still in a condition to tell about an accident here today, but The NEWS had no reporters who could talk her language.

Sam Gibby, the driver, was very much concerned with the accident, but he was in Pampa hospital and in no condition to be interviewed.

Mr. Gibby was driving Dolly, who pulls a Gray County creamery delivery wagon, south of the Fort Worth & Denver station early this afternoon. No one was found who saw the run-away, but when the driver was found by his overturned wagon he seemed badly injured and was taken to the hospital in a Malone ambulance.

X-ray pictures showed several broken vertebrae. The cause of the run-away had not been learned at press time.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5. (AP)—Stocks pointed slowly downward today as speculative forces generally took time out to figure the market aspects of the government's greatest budget. The figuring, involving billions, was somewhat difficult and prices suffered from the strain. The close was heavy. Transfers approximated 950,000 shares.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 5. (AP)—The market continued fairly active all morning with prices maintained near the early highs by firmness in stocks and sterling. Towards noon, however, the market eased in sympathy with some reaction in stocks and selling by recent buyers for cover over the week-end. Prices eased 8 to 10 points from the highs with May at 10.65 and July at 10.79, or 5 points under the previous close.

Near noon the market recovered a point or so and ruled steady.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 5. (AP)—Down-turns in grain values predominated in the late dealings today. Selling which developed was based more or less on Washington reports of congressional moves to attempt to eliminate voluntary features of the agricultural adjustment act, and to compel farm minorities to comply with terms of production control programs. Notice was also taken that no reports of material damage to the domestic winter wheat crop had been received. Wheat closed unsettled, 1/4-1/2 under yesterday's finish, corn 3/4-1 cent down, oats unchanged to 1/2 lower, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 7 cents.

Santa Fe states—Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Nebraska, Illinois, Missouri, Colorado, California, New Mexico, Iowa, and Arizona—have 70 per cent of the wheat acreage of the nation; 28,922,000 acres out of 41,002,000 acres.

Uncle Sam's agricultural press division informs us that approximately 38 per cent of the mortgaged farms operated by owners were indebted for half of their value as of MORTGAGES January 1, 1933. Of 32,000 farms studied, 24.5 per cent of those mortgaged were indebted about 25 per cent of their value. The figures on both debts and owners were given by the owners. At present market prices the same farms would be indebted for from 75 to 100 per cent of their value and thousands of them would not bring under present conditions the amount of the liens. The largest proportion of debt was in the west, north-central states, where 121 per cent of the mortgaged farms had debts in excess of their value. The proportion of farms was higher than in the two preceding years by reason of decline in market value of farms plus added delinquent taxes and interest on loans.

He declared that he was promised by them that a collection would be taken up to pay his fine if he whipped J. O. CLUB COUNCIL CONSIDERS SPONSORING CHILD WELFARE BOARD

MEMBERS OF BOARD EXPLAINED BY MRS. DAVIS

COUNCIL IS TO MEET AFTER ITS UNITS HEAR PLAN

For a county child welfare board here was brought to the attention of the Council of Clubs representatives yesterday morning by W. H. Davis, county welfare officer. Council members will be proposed to their respective clubs at their respective meetings.

The meeting of the council announced for the third Thursday of this month, when it will be brought to the attention of the clubs and a final decision made.

In a county in Texas, Mrs. Davis said, she is entitled to a child welfare committee, working under supervision of the state child welfare board.

It would have seven members by the commissioners' clubs' part, as suggested by Davis, will be to arouse interest in the project and petition commissioners' court to appoint a board.

Responsibility for the welfare of neglected, abandoned and delinquent children is the main object of the board. Its function, briefly, is to care for children who get into trouble and to provide for an opportunity to develop into satisfactory citizens.

The board would assist the courts in juvenile cases in planning for the child; secure care for delinquent and neglected children; provide education and training for children handicapped physically or mentally; investigate for adoption; report cases that come to attention of the board; and aid in any program to benefit children.

The organization of a board is of a type, and each county group takes its own plans. It does not duplicate any existing organization, but works with those which have similar aims. Members learn the citizenship of a better standing of conditions, and the forces of the community are turned into good ones.

Reports from council committees heard at the meeting yesterday were attended by Mrs. Schaefer, Carl Eaton, Ralph H. H. Isbell, Siler Faulk, C. T. Hunkapillar, W. Purcell, Earl O'Keefe, Philip Wolfe.

VACANCIES ARE FILLED IN TWO CLASS OFFICES

Business and Social Meetings Held By Two Groups

Two classes of Central Baptist church conducted business and social meetings yesterday afternoon, the Madonna class at the home of Mrs. O. H. Gilstrap, and the Dorcas class with Mrs. Owen Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson was elected temporary teacher of the Dorcas class, to replace Mrs. W. O. Cooley, wife of the minister who resigned recently and will leave Pampa.

Next Thursday will be visiting day for the class, members decided. After the business session members enjoyed a social period when gingerbread with whipped cream and chocolate were served.

Mrs. E. V. Davis was a guest, and members present were Mrs. Clyde Lockhart, Keith Caldwell, W. O. Cooley, Louis Turpley, R. M. Miller, and B. W. Cooper.

The Madonna class elected Mrs. Jerry Lockard second vice president to succeed Mrs. James, who will leave the city.

Activities reported for the past month included 18 telephone calls, 13 visits to absentees, 15 visits to the sick, 16 trays, and 5 bouquets sent.

Refreshments were served to Messdames Alle Taylor, Lockard, Ben Shebold, E. V. Davis, George Berlin, J. B. Holliman, Walter Kirby, D. H. Coffey, Earl Phillips.

Davis, Arthur Swanson, W. E. Campbell, Ben Ferris, Roberts, Glen Pool, T. F. Morton, G. L. Greene, M. P. Downs, Misses Margaret Buckler and Dorothy Dodd.

Creomulsion is made to give supreme help for coughs or colds. It combines seven helps in one—the best helps known to science. It is for quick relief, for safety.

But careful people, more and more, use it for every cough that starts. No one knows where a cough may lead. No one can tell which factor will be most. That depends on the type of cold.

New Togs For Southern Beach Wear

While some people are shoveling snow, these attractive young women at Miami, Fla., are wearing costumes worth more than passing notice—because they're the latest in beach attire. Bloomers are popular again and Lois Perkins (left) shows why. Slacks are holding their own, and Lois Dupont (center) wears a smart black pair with her horizontally-striped Jersey. Zebra stripes feature the one-piece swimming suit worn by Frances Jones (right). (Associated Press Photos.)

Miami Girl And Panhandle Youth Marry Recently

MIAMI, Jan. 5.—The holidays invariably bring forth weddings. Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sullivan of Woodward, Okla., Miss Goldie Gill of Miami became the bride of Henry Walker of Panhandle.

The bride is the beautiful and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gill of Miami and was graduated from Miami high school in 1930. She also attended West Texas State Teachers college.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Walker of Buffalo, Okla., and was graduated from that high school. He is a young man of high character and with a promising future. They will make their home at Panhandle, where he is employed by the Santa Fe.

The Sleeved Dinner Dress of Velvet

Sleeves are very much a part of the evening picture, this season. They give a dress such versatility, for the sleeved dinner frock such as this can be worn not only for formal occasions, but also when your escort doesn't dress.

Interesting cutting gives this model a suavely fitted line which breaks into a swirl about the ankles. Notice the new shallow neckline, the drop shoulders, the shirings at the sleeve tops, wide-at-the-elbow sleeves and fitted wrists. The blouse closes with tiny buttons in back. On formal evenings these might be left unbuttoned and the frock rolled back in rever fashion. Choose velvet in the ever-popular black, or midnight blue. Size 16 requires 4 1/2 yards 39-inch material. Width about 2 1/2 yards. See the Winter Fashion Book for other dinner and dance frocks, equally easy to make.

Pattern No. 5424 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 bust.

PAMPANS WILL GO TO HEDLEY THIS EVENING

MITCHELL PLANNING TO CHANGE LINEUP FOR GAMES

A nationally famous basketball team will come to Pampa Saturday night as the Athens Hornets invade Pampa for a one night stand against the Harvesters. Coach Bobo Nelson and his team are on a tour of the Panhandle. The game will be called at 7:30 o'clock and fans from many towns in this section are expected to see the game. The Hornets defeated the Amarillo Sables 36 to 29 last night in Amarillo. The champions were content to work the ball under the hoop before shooting, not once attempting a long shot. Tonight the Harvesters and Harvesters will go to Hedley for return games. Both local teams in the opening games of the season here last month. The teams are expected to see "rough times" on the small Hedley floor.

The Hornets, successors of two national champions and four state schoolboy champions, including the title winners of last year, have already defeated Happy, Amarillo, Lubbock, and Plainview on their road trip. They are to play in Borger tonight. The team this year is rated much stronger than the one last season. The Hornets have been under an "every-other-year" rut which they hope to break in 1934. The Hornets won state honors in 1927, 1929, 1931 and 1933.

When Coach Nelson received the cup last year the donor said "Well, Coach Nelson, I will give you in 1935." Coach Nelson then and there declared that he would be back in 1934, and he has set out to build the greatest team that has ever represented the Athens high school on the hardwood floor. Cobb, all-state forward last year, is the king-pin of the Hornet attack. He is a dead shot and a great passer. Johns, guard, is the other outstanding player on the team. Besides being a stellar guard, he works the ball to his forwards and is a good long-shot artist. The Hornets are tall and use their height to advantage, particularly under the basket. The substitutes are strong and will help to weaken the team. Coach Nelson has two full teams with him. His starting lineup will probably be: Cobb and Fizzell, forwards, Ledbetter, center, Johns and Grigs, guards. Cobb is the boy the Harvesters will have to watch. He made 21 points against the Lubbock Westerners and looped 19 counters against the Amarillo Sables. Athens beat Happy 26 to 24.

Woodward To Start
Coach Ouis Mitchell of the Harvesters will change his team for the game. J. R. Green will be moved to center and Everett Woodward, brother of Robert "Midge" Woodward of last season's championship team, will play forward with Roscoe Finney. Cyril Heltzell and Bill Dunaway will be at guard positions. The boys, judging by Athens showing at Happy, have a chance to win.

The boys went through a stiff workout last night and Coach Mitchell believes he will give the champions a good game. To predict that the Harvesters will win would be risky, but as Coach Mitchell says, "It should be a great game." Besides being a stellar guard, he is admitted to see the Hornets on the floor. They are without a doubt the smoothest performing team that has ever appeared in Pampa. The Hornets play basketball as it should be played, a fan who saw them play last season. The Hornets of two years ago played in Pampa but last year's championship quintet did not play in Pampa. Admission will be 15 cents for students and 25 cents for the public. A large crowd is expected to see the game and fans are advised to be early and see the teams practice.

An area off Pigeon Point, Cal., two miles wide and seven miles long, has been set aside to be used as a practice field for submarines. ark and a sleet and rain fall began. The radiophone went suddenly silent, and ground officials expressed alarm, fearing that Burford, a veteran pilot, might have lost his way in the black, fog-choked skies. Communication was restored at 3:45 a. m. at which time Burford said he had sufficient gas to remain aloft seven hours, and that he would remain in the vicinity of the field until an opportunity to attempt a landing presented itself.

AAA Expenses To Be Increased 513 Millions In '35

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—A total increase of $513,896,842 in expenditures of the agricultural department during the fiscal year 1935 was provided for today in the budget submitted by President Roosevelt to congress.

The principal share of the increase and the major part of the total appropriation estimate of $947,668,662 was granted to the agricultural adjustment administration to reduce farm acreage through rental and benefit payments, make crop loans, and buy surplus products on commodity markets. The farm administration's expenditures for 1935 were estimated at $831,022,600, an increase of $551,412,428 over the present fiscal year ending June 30. The spending for 1935 takes into account repayments to the treasury of funds already advanced, such repayments to be from processing taxes levied on cotton, wheat, tobacco, and pork.

Jack Dempseys Expecting Heir

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 5 (AP)—The Jack Dempseys are expecting an heir. The ex-champion of heavyweight fighters just couldn't retain the secret any longer, so he broke the news during a 20-minute stop in his big home town. He said that the Dempsey, the former Hannah Williams of musical comedy, detained from a transcontinental limited here yesterday. "I always wanted one," he confessed. "We hope it'll be twins."

No Use Crying For Moon' Says Simon on Arms

ROME, Jan. 5 (AP)—Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, departed today for London to report to the British government that there was "no use crying for the moon" in matters of international disarmament. His report will be based on the results of a conference here with Premier Mussolini and in Paris with French government leaders. These conferences decided him to favor the shortest road to whatever arms agreement can be reached as against previous and perhaps endless talks in an attempt to gain more Utopian accords. He carries the assurance of Italy's support for a short-road thesis and also, it is understood, the support of the French. Whether such a thesis would mean the scrapping of Premier MacDonald's as well as other plans for disarmament has not, however, been specified. A qualified spokesman stated emphatically that an understanding had been reached here only on a general idea and that no definite plan had been discussed. Mrs. Eddie Baker of Roxana was a shopper here this morning.

'RED' RATIGAN LEADS VOTING WITH 26 BALLOTS; HUSSEY AND WREN GET 24 AND PAMPAN 23

OWENS HAS NO COMPETITION FOR RIGHT WING; 'RED RAIDER' OF CHILDRESS IS FULLBACK, AND BERT MARSHALL QUARTERBACK

Following is the Associated Press' all-Texas inter-scholastic league consensus football team as selected by fifty-one coaches and sports writers.

Player	Position	School	Wt.	Votes
Frank Bordonaro	Left End	Port Arthur	157	13
F. M. Daugherty	L. Tackle	Brackenridge	178	20
Emmett Hussey	L. Guard	Greenville	194	24
Zed Coston	Center	Dallas Tech	193	22
Orman Wren	R. Guard	Temple	158	24
Allison White	R. Tackle	Masonic Home	240	16
Bert Marshall	Q. Back	Pampa	170	23
Vernon Forrest	L. H. Back	Temple	168	16
George Ewing	R. H. Back	Dallas Tech	155	15
Leonard Ratigan	F. Back	Childress	165	28

Associated Press Sports Writer
Fifty-one coaches and sports writers nominated 90 Texas inter-scholastic league class "A" football players for the Associated Press consensus team—but the sad chapter is that only 11 made the grade. There is no second team and no honorable mention. Players either polled enough votes to win a position or else joined the also ran fraternity which had a membership of 79 after the final votes had been tabulated.

The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets, Brackenridge Eagles of San Antonio, Greenville Lions, Dallas Tech Wolves, Temple Wildcats, Masonic Home of Port Worth, Pampa Harvesters, and Childress furnished the all-state material.

The Greenville Lions, state champions, Dallas Tech Wolves, runners-up, and Temple each placed two boys on the mythical aggregation. Hussey Wins Easily Leonard "Red" Ratigan, the powerful "Red Raider" of Childress, led in total votes with 26. He easily won the fullback position although his team did not play in bi-district competition. Emmett Hussey, charging 194-pound Greenville guard, and Orman "Honey" Wren, 158-pound Temple guard, were runners-up to Ratigan in total votes, each polling 24. These two completely shadowed all rivals for the guard positions.

Diminutive Bert Marshall, alert signal barker who piloted Greenville to the championship, coasted through with 16 votes to win the quarterback position. His serious rival was Bill Brandon of Port Worth Central who collected 12 votes. Marshall has the honor of being the smallest boy on the team—he weighs 125 pounds. Vernon Forrest of Temple and George Ewing of Dallas Tech completed the backfield with Marshall and Ratigan. Both proved hard running backs who scored most of their teams touchdowns during the state race. Luckett of Greenville, who scored two touchdowns against Dallas Tech in the state championship game, polled 8 votes, and Baker, a hard charging back at Brackenridge, scored with 9 votes.

Frank Bordonaro and Monroe Owens won the wing positions. Owens had no competition for the right wing but Bordonaro's 13 votes barely got him over against Philbrick of Dallas Tech with 8 votes. Britt of Ranger with 7 votes and Graves of Beaumont with 5 votes. Bordonaro was the only end this season that Coach Henry Franks of the Greenville champions put two defenses against in the state championship and Port Arthur game. F. M. Daugherty of Brackenridge and Allison White of the Port Worth Masonic Home landed as tackles. With Daugherty it merely was a matter of how many votes—he got 30. White received 16 votes which was enough to let him finish in front of such stars as Blanton of Port Arthur, Rogers of Greenville and Clements of Highland Park at Dallas, each polling 9 votes. Zed Coston of Dallas Tech received 22 votes for the center position. He led Jack of Corpus Christi who received 6, and Castello of San Angelo who got 12 votes. Of the 11 players only one repeated from last year—Allison White. His team did not get out of district competition but he played the same smashing tackle that won him all-state honors in 1932. He is the largest man on the team—weighing 200 pounds. There is no use of going into details on what the 11 players can do on a gridiron. Their outstanding performances throughout the 1933 Texas interscholastic campaign not only made them prominent in the headlines but were powerful factors in whatever success their respective teams enjoyed. Fifty coaches and sports writers aided Bill Parker, Associated Press sports writer, in making the consensus team.

McLean Quintets To Play at White Deer This Evening

McLEAN, Jan. 5.—The McLean Tigers and Tigerettes, accompanied by Coach G. Rush and Miss Aline McCarty, sponsor, will motor to White Deer this evening to meet the White Deer girls and boys in a double header on the basketball court. White Deer's quintet and sextet will return the visit Saturday evening when they come to McLean.

Bleachers will be arranged in the McLean gymnasium this week and all who attend are promised good seats. The McLean Tigers and White Deer boys were the two teams who went into the finals at the LeFors tournament. McLean winning by a small margin of seven points. The score was 20 to 27. This promises to be one of the best basketball games of the season.

Total Of 16 To Be Executed For Killing Monarch

KABUL, Afghanistan, Jan. 5.—Fourteen additional persons have been condemned to death by a special court investigating the assassination of King Nadir Shah of Afghanistan. Among the doomed are the father and two other relatives of A. Khalig, who was executed last month when convicted of being actual killer. An accomplice at time was ordered to death, and a total of 16 who have received the death sentence in the case. Others doomed include an officer and a teacher in a school where Khalig and his accomplice studied. King Zahir Shah, son of the assassination victim, has affirmed the sentences. A Kabul newspaper said Khalig was taunted by the woman he led into killing the ruler. The man instigated him to kill the ruler, the paper said, to avenge the execution of her brother-in-law lead a general uprising. When Khalig hesitated, the woman related, she taunted with being a coward.

Mrs. Fred McCann was dismissed from Pampa hospital this morning after treatment. California's division of state estimates the value of the oil of the state pool at Huntington to be in excess of $50,000,000.

WINNERS IN 50 CLASSES OF POULTRY TO BE GIVEN AWARDS

BROTHER OF LOCAL MAN WILL BE HEARD OVER NBC NETWORK THIS EVENING WITH BIG BAND

David Lazarus Rising To Fame Rapidly As Baritone

David Lazarus of Omaha, Neb., brother of Joe Lazarus, local merchant, will be heard on the air tonight at 9 p. m., Pampa time, as he sings over the NBC network (blue) with Frank Simmons' 45-piece brass band symphony.

According to Joe, the youth will sing "Scout Hearted Men" from the musical show, "The New Moon," as part of his program. He will be in the Crosley studios at Cincinnati. His Omaha friends are sponsoring a shower of letters for young Lazarus after tonight's performance. In training to become an architect, the Omaha youth sang at his drawing board and so impressed his instructor that a musical tryout for him was arranged. Since that time he has regularly won scholarships, given concerts, and made his way up to a place as a nationally known radio and concert baritone.

On December 21, he was presented as the baritone soloist in a series of concerts sponsored by the Chamber Orchestra society of Dayton, Ohio. He also has solo roles with the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra.

After his graduation from the Cincinnati conservatory next June, young Lazarus will visit his brother here en route to Hollywood, Calif., where he will spend two months before going to Italy, where another scholarship awaits him.

American Aviatix Dies in Plane Crash

NEVERS, France, Jan. 5 (AP)—Evelyn Frost, American aviatix, was burned to death today in the crash of an airplane.

Miss Frost, who was piloting the plane en route to Egypt, collided with high tension wires in a fog. The plane burst into flames immediately and the flier was trapped in the flaming mass of wreckage.

The British flier, Rutledge, who accompanied her, was slightly injured.

The accident occurred several miles north of Nevers along the Paris-to-Nevers road.

Miss Frost and her companion had left at 6:30 a. m. They smashed into wires at 11 p. m.

The plane had been purchased only recently and was a tourist model.

CUTTER COWS USED IN TEXAS TOTAL 13,822

AMARILLO PLANT HAS TAKEN 777 COWS OFF MARKET

FORT WORTH, Jan. 5 (AP)—Texas 19 beef canning plants, set up by the government to provide food for families on the direct relief rolls, have taken a total of 13,822 cutter cows off the surplus cattle market.

This was determined today in a survey of the 19 plants which are to close January 15 unless funds are provided for their continued operation. The survey shows that some of the plants have almost used up their quota of cutter cows, purchased from farmers in each district.

The plant at Houston is leading in the number of beefs slaughtered, the survey showing that 1,532 animals have been purchased for the Houston process plant. The plant at Fort Worth has used 1,635 cows of its quota of 1,600. The plant at Houston has put up about 8,000 pounds of beef a day. The Amarillo plant has 777 cows with a quota of 77 daily.

The San Antonio plant has produced about 200,800 cans of beef. The plant at Houston has put up 469,592 pounds, or 233,025 cans of beef, and it has a daily quota of about 16,000 pounds.

At Waco the government canning plant has put up 148,600 pounds of beef in 60,891 cans. The plant is operating on a daily quota of about 15,000 cans.

Death of Theodore Roosevelt Will Be Observed Saturday

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Jan. 5 (AP)—Old friends of Theodore Roosevelt will gather tomorrow in the little cemetery at Cove Neck, Long Island, where each year on January 6 they observe the anniversary of the death of the late president.

As in 14 years past, the president's widow will throw open the doors of the Sagamore Hill estate to receive them after a brief ceremony of remembrance.

The trophy room of the manor house will be the scene of the informal gathering, which will include Walter F. Brown, postmaster general under President Hoover; James A. Garfield, son of the former president; Richard Washburn Child, Roger Straus, Arthur Gutterman, William Loeb, secretary to the dead president, and others.

The grave in the old cemetery, which was established back in 1647, has attracted a never-ending stream of visitors, come to see the resting place of the first Roosevelt to go to the White House.

GRAY COUNTY TAX RATE DROPS TO 95 CENTS ON DOLLAR IN 1933

OVER MILLION IN DEBTS CUT IN TWO YEARS

OUTSTANDING BONDED DEBT IS NOW AT $1,075,000

Gray county tax rates, starting at 25 cents on the $100 valuation in 1902 when the county was organized, reached a peak of $1.20 in 1931, dropped to $1.10 in 1932, then went to the 1922 level of 95 cents for 1933, it is pointed out in the report of County Auditor R. C. Wilson, now nearing completion. Mr. Wilson will show that in the last 2 years Gray county's prospective indebtedness has been reduced about $1,000,000. Of this sum, about $750,000 was written off when the state took over construction of all designated highways, excepting cost of obtaining or widening of right-of-way. About $300,000 has been wiped out by cancellation or purchase of outstanding bonds in the last 2 years. This leaves an outstanding bonded debt of about $1,075,000 for the whole county. The tax valuations and rates for the county during its history are listed as follows:

1902—$2,809,896 valuation, 34 2-3 state rate, 25 county rate.
1903—$1,244,790, 34 2-3 state rate, 25 county rate.
1904—$1,281,542 valuation, 34 2-3 state rate, 25 county rate.
1905—$2,470,845 valuation, 38 state rate, 25 county rate.
1906—$1,451,110 valuation, 38 state rate, 25 county rate.
1907—$2,280,604 valuation, 32 1/2 state rate, 25 county rate.
1908—$2,470,845 valuation, 38 state rate, 25 county rate.
1909—$3,605,021 valuation, 21 2-3 state rate, 20 county rate.
1910—$3,086,754 valuation, 21 state rate, 40 county rate.
1911—$3,450,755 valuation, 29 state rate, 45 county rate.
1912—$3,287,860 valuation, 27 state rate, 45 county rate.
1913—$3,564,083 valuation, 45 state rate, 45 county rate.
1914—$3,452,241 valuation, 38 state rate, 40 county rate.
1915—$3,342,703 valuation, 55 state rate, 40 county rate.
1916—$3,808,654 valuation, 45 state rate, 35 county rate.
1917—$4,142,625 valuation, 60 state rate, 35 county rate.
1918—$4,244,139 valuation, 75 state rate, 55 county rate.
1919—$4,222,723 valuation, 60 state rate, 60 county rate.
1920—$4,038,903 valuation, 62 state rate, 60 county rate.
1921—$4,407,173 valuation, 62 state rate, 60 county rate.
1922—$3,882,965 valuation, 75 state rate, 95 county rate.
1923—$3,829,733 valuation, 75 state rate, 92 1/2 county rate.
1924—$3,643,710 valuation, 75 state rate, 95 county rate.
1925—$3,704,175 valuation, 75 state rate, 95 county rate.
1926—$3,785,404 valuation, 65 state rate, 95 county rate.
1927—$11,394,877 valuation, 67 state rate, 95 county rate.
1928—$13,182,449 valuation, 64 state rate, 95 county rate, plus .70 rates in precincts 2 and 4 for road bonds.
1929—$21,249,179 valuation, 68 state rate, 90 county rate, plus .30 rate in precincts 2 and 40 in precinct 4 for road bonds.
1930—$27,775,856 valuation, 69 state rate, 95 county rate, plus .20 rate in precinct 2 and 1.30 in precinct 4 for road bonds.
1931—$27,685,387 valuation, 74 state rate, 1.30 county rate.
1932—$23,931,100 valuation, 69 state rate, 1.10 county rate.
1933—$23,494,206 valuation, 77 state rate, 95 county rate.

With the exception of warrant issues for bridges and culverts, with charges only against the constitutional levies, the county was on a cash basis until precincts 2 and 4 voted their road bonds and levies were hiked in 1928. These were merged on a county wide basis in 1931, much to the relief of precinct 4. It will be noted that in recent years rates have come down despite dropping valuations. Those familiar with Gray county finances believe that the county has been "very lucky" in escaping higher bonded indebtedness, which was voted but never shouldered. Delays in road construction have, in a number of instances, proved fortuitous—the state took over the expense. The state also has assumed a portion of the county's debt on designated

Church Crowded At Funeral Of Mrs. Marbaugh

Friends and acquaintances of the Marbaugh family filled the First Christian church to capacity yesterday afternoon when funeral services were held for Mrs. Harry Marbaugh, prominent church and school worker, who died Monday. The Harvester pep squad in uniform, members of the Harvester football and basketball teams, coaches, and the high school faculty attended in a body. The casket and altar were covered with flowers. Eulogies were delivered by the Rev. John Mullen and the Rev. James Todd. The Marbaugh family moved to Pampa in 1926 from Smackover, Ark. Mrs. Marbaugh was described as an untiring and sincere church worker. She taught a Sunday school class and was a leader in other organizations of the church. She was a past president of the high school Parent-Teacher association. Immediate survivors are her husband, Harry and sons Max and Miles, the latter captain of the 1934 basketball team, and fullback on the 1933 football team. Interment was made in the local cemetery. The funeral was under the direction of Malone funeral home.

Eighty Present At Last Lesson Of Aid Course

Eighty men last night took their last lesson in the Red Cross-Boy Scout first aid course. A schedule of examination sessions by patrols at the fire station will be announced soon by Dr. R. M. CHICAGO, Jan. 5. (AP)—There'd be a school for wives in this country that would teach them how to be "reasonably selfish" if Mary Pickford had her way. "Women" she said, "ought to learn that kindness is sometimes the most devastating and weakening influence. Wives especially make this mistake. There ought to be a school where women are taught how to be reasonably selfish. It is the unselfish ones who ruin themselves and everyone depending upon them." Threat of Mob Action Delays Negro's Arrest

CRISFIELD, Md., Jan. 5 (AP)—The threat of "possible mob action" today caused authorities, investigating the murder of an aged Marian Station woman on New Year's eve, to delay the apprehension of any suspect in the case.

A formal statement, issued by two Baltimore detectives cooperating with Somerset county officials in the probe, indicated a negro was wanted in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Margaret Brumby, whose body was found on her bed early Monday.

"Due to information received thru authorities of possible mob action," the statement of the detectives said, "we thought it advisable to postpone our activities until we received advice from higher authorities."

The detectives, Sgt. Walter Martin and Sgt. Stewart Deal, declined to elaborate on the statement. While Sergeant Martin refused to say who were meant by "higher authorities," they were understood to include the sheriff, state's attorney, and circuit court judge.

Mrs. Brumby, an 85-year-old farm woman, was found lying partly clothed, on the bed with her head battered by a blunt instrument and stabbed twice.

Browns Placed On Sale; Price Tag Is $400,000

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 5 (AP)—A price tag of $400,000 is understood to have been placed on the franchise and players of the St. Louis Browns, with several groups interested in purchasing the club.

The Post Dispatch says today that negotiations have reached the point where not more than $100,000 stands between one group and the price set by the trustees of the estate of Philip de Catesby Ball.

While there is said to be a difference of opinion among heirs, executors and trustees over the wisdom of selling the club at this time, the general belief in baseball circles is that the franchise and players will be sold, probably before the start of the 1934 season, with the Ball estate retaining Sportsman's park.

If the transaction is consummated, the purchasing group will be given a long-time lease on Sportsman's park, and the Browns will remain in St. Louis. The estate has let it be known it will not consider the sale of the club without making certain the purchasers will remain as tenants, thus assuring an income to the estate through rental of the park. The Cardinals, under terms of their lease, are paying about $35,000 a year.

After the death of Ball, Will Haridge, president of the American league, advised executors of the estate he considered it wise for an estate to try to operate a baseball club and disclosed he had advised the heirs to sell if they could get satisfactory terms.

ST. MATTHEW'S EPISCOPAL Corner N. Ward and W. Browning. First Sunday after Epiphany. Church school at 9:45, under direction of Roy Wallrabenstein, superintendent. Holy communion and sermon at 11 a. m.

Begin the new year right by attending church today. All are welcome at our services, and all share in them. Newton C. Smith, rector.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH Church school at 9:45 a. m. Classes for everyone. At the regular morning service, 10:55 a. m., the pastor will preach on the subject, "In Remembrance." All Leagues will meet at 6:30 p. m. Young Adult League will be organized this evening, and will meet in the church parlor.

The feature of the evening, or "Happy Hour Service" from 7:17 to 8:17 p. m., will be an illustrated song service, led by Mr. Fisher. This will precede the pastor's message, "Roosevelt's NRA." Come early and bring a friend.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH Corner Kingsmill and West Streets. The church in all departments went far in recovery to a normal attendance Sunday, the last day of the old year. Our services this first Sunday of 1934 come with an encouraging outlook. Following the Bible school that meets at 9:45, will be morning worship at 11. The pastor will speak on "The Wreckers" and in the evening at 7:30, "Jesus Attends a Marriage." Whatever institution Jesus touched in His earthly ministry has a timely meaning today. Marriage was appointed of God and has always had the blessings of the church. A marriage without it is cheapened to that extent. We do not propose to be a teacher of the young people contemplating marriage, nor of those already married, other than to declare the truths and counsel of Holy Writ. These are blessings in the marriage relationship, but, alas, we see the tragedies of it that make the institution of marriage a joke to many.

Training service will meet at 6:15. One of the new unions is the young married people. It affords an hour of training as well as rich fellowship with that group of like age who have like problems.

This church has a welcome that is always extended.

BUSINESS MEN'S BIBLE CLASS Meeting at City Hall, 9:45 a. m. The president, J. E. Hamilton, is forceful and insistent on a new loyalty on the part of the members and aggressive in enrollment. He is giving us splendid opening programs. The lesson is in the second chapter of John's gospel on the subject "Jesus Attends His First Passover During His Ministry." It was a magnificent temple that he entered. It required 46 years to build it. In many ways it was greater than Solomon's temple. What he saw there and what he did makes a fascinating study.

J. E. Hamilton, president. Virgil Hill, secretary. C. E. Lancaster, teacher.

FULL GOSPEL TEMPLE 500 S. Cuyler. H. E. Comstock, pastor. Sunday school, 9:45. There are classes for all, with competent teachers. Come! Bring your children this Sunday.

Preaching, 11 a. m. Subject, "Characteristics of a Christian." Let us learn at this service what every person that names the name of Christ and is called a Christian should possess.

Christian Ambassadors, 6:15. Sunday night evangelistic services with lively song and praise service, 7:30.

Thursday night, midweek service at 7:30.

We covet your presence at all services.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP CLASS First Baptist Church.

Sunday we study the birth and infancy of Jesus as told by Matthew 1 and 2. We begin a 6-month study of the gospel according to Matthew and hope to make it profitable to all who attend.

In the two chapters we study Sunday we discover that five prophecies were fulfilled. We invite men to meet and worship with us. We were happy to welcome visitors and members last Sunday.

During the class hour we will render the following program: Preliminary music, played softly.

"Silent Night." Song, "I Gave My Life for Thee." Prayer, T. L. Jamison. Scripture, Isaiah 9:7. Song, "Blessed be the Name."

The New Year, Dr. Owens. John 1:1-4, W. B. Henry. Song, "Take the Name of Jesus." Lesson truths, E. C. Link. J. Powell Wehrung, Secretary.

With Settle Inside His Stratosphere Gondola

Here is Commander Settle, U. S. N., a native Texan who descended into the stratosphere last year, flitting important gadgets in the balloon in which he and Major Fordney made the flight. Russia claims Soviet fliers went higher into the stratosphere than did Settle and Fordney and that rankles in the Americans' pride. They are planning another hop and next time they hope to make it 15 miles.

Lucky Horseman?—Well, Yes!

Last month Tod Sloan, one-time nationally known jockey, was down on his luck. Suffering from cirrhosis of the liver, and being virtually penniless, he entered a general hospital at Los Angeles. An unknown benefactor, however, hearing of Sloan's plights, arranged for him to enter the comfortable Sylvan Lodge. Above Sloan is shown with his ever-present cigar and lucky horseshoe.

Chapter 46 THE PLAN

Tenn-Og stepped away and coolly walked across the logs. That was more than Curt cared to try. He got down and crept along the bridge on hands and knees, with Paul behind him. Midway he stopped, scooped a piece of bark and listened for the sound. Several seconds later he heard the bark hit against a rock and splash into the stream.

The chasm, about seventy feet deep, was not so abysmal as he had thought, but for the man who fell into it these seventy feet would be plenty, with rocks to crash and bang, underground creek to sweep one away.

Joining Tenn-Og on the other side, he lit another match and looked around. He found himself in a large irregularly shaped cave, warm and dry and fully fifty feet across. Shots like the entrance led off in a dozen directions, some straight back into the mountain rock, others paralleling the face of the cliff. By the match flare he also noticed the stews of human occupancy.

In the flickering light he glanced at Tenn-Og, who was staring at the shadows and muttering; and on the Indian's face he usually so mask-like he saw a gleam of emotion.

"Where is he?" he asked. The Sikanid girl had spotted their idyllic summer. Paul picked up a balsam branch, touched it to Curt's match, and looked around the cave with wailing eyes. "Here you and I could hold off a hundred men!"

"Maybe so, but if they'd ever happen to bottle us up in here, we would stay for a hundred years. I want something more substantial than that spider-cotting between me and the outside."

Tenn-Og shook his head. "We got out quick." He pointed to one of the black shafts at their right and indicated that it opened out on a ledge near the fissure.

that an attack from that direction was protected by a thicklet of devil's club, spiked with wicked three-inch thorns. The range was as good as he could ask for, and down at the lake shore the whole camp lay wide open to their guns.

The stars had already paled and were fading one by one. Down at the cabin a man, a white man, stepped out into the gray dawn, looked around and then started down to the canoe landing. Curt's fingers tightened on his rifle as he watched the Russian.

At the lake headland to the east a canoe loomed out of the gray mist. Others followed it till presently ten were strung along the shore. One canoe nosed ahead of the others. In the prow of it Curt's aching eyes picked out a small slim figure sitting proudly erect, and his heart leaped. She'd come through safely!

With rifle out at ready he then watched the meeting between her and Karakhan, and saw them start up the path, and while he waited, fingering his rifle impatiently, he was suddenly startled by a throaty yelp from the direction of the cave.

"Don't!" Curt whispered, as Paul lined his rifle at the sub-chief. "He's too far, and we've got to get that LeNoir. We're sure to be discovered now, but before it happens we may put those two out."

Woman Kisses Husband, Takes Cure For Rabies

MEMPHIS, Jan. 5 (AP)—A woman who took a chance on death to kiss her dying husband one last time fought contagion today.

She is Mrs. Betty June Ross, whose husband, C. E. Ross, died Monday from rabies. Knowing her danger, she bent over him and kissed him shortly before he died. Yesterday she started the Pasteur treatment, to prevent possible infection.

Three other persons, a little girl and two negroes, were bit by the dog that bit Ross, Chief Steward on a U. S. engineers river fleet. A physician has been sent to Helena, Ark., to find them and administer the anti-rabies serum. It was given to Ross but failed to save his life.

Il Duce Views Arms Discussion As Unavailing

ROME, Jan. 5 (AP)—Italy, in the person of Premier Mussolini, was represented today as viewing as useless the world disarmament conference at Geneva in the light of the present Franco-German impasse.

That view, it was said, does not mean that Italy will refuse to attend the coming steering committee meeting in Switzerland but, if she does attend, she would do so "to associate herself with others in recognizing the lack of wisdom in con- voking the conference itself under the existing situation."

Louisiana State Banks Are Closed

BATON ROUGE, La., Jan. 5 (AP)—The closing of all state banks operating in Louisiana, 9 in number, by the state banking department with view to reorganization or liquidation was announced today by State Banking Commissioner J. S. Brock.

The banking commissioner said the 9 restricted banks were: Interstate Trust & Banking com- pany, New Orleans. Commercial Bank of LaFayette and Trust company, LaFayette. Bank of Delhi. Commercial bank of Arcadia. Bank of Moresauville. Covington Bank and Trust com- pany. Metairie bank. Castor State bank. Tangipahoa Bank and Trust com- pany, Hammond.

Boy To Survive Faded Summer Love' And Wound

NORMAN, Okla., Jan. 5 (AP)—Two Dallas, Texas, youngsters whose high school romance was broken by the self-wounding of Robert C. Hiltbrand, 18-year-old University of Oklahoma freshman, talked it over at the boy's hospital bedside today.

"We're really too young to be serious," said Camille Savonne, 17-year-old Dallas girl, who rushed here yesterday upon hearing that young Hiltbrand had shot himself over the heart after reading her special delivery letter returning his ring.

Tariff Increase On S. American Cattle Wanted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—Increasing imports of canned beef from Uruguay and Argentina, where producing costs are contended to be low, have resulted in a request from the American National Livestock association of Denver for an investigation by the tariff commission looking to an increase in the tariff on that product.

The present tariff on canned beef is 6 cents a pound and not less than 20 per cent ad valorem. Under the flexible provisions of the law that rate could be increased 50 per cent.

Imports of canned beef during 1932 totaled 24,638,000 pounds valued at $2,127,000, while in the eleven months ended with November last year, imports totaled 38,674,000 pounds, valued at $2,472,000.

Reverting to the custom of pioneer days, numerous North Carolina farmers are curing cow hides and making their own shoes at home.

Sankey is 'Not In Lindbergh Picture'

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 5 (AP)—Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent of the New Jersey state police, said today Verne Sankey, fugitive outlaw, has not been sought by his department for questioning in the Lindbergh kidnaping.

The police head said he had not been informed by St. Paul authorities of any possible connection of Sankey with the case. County Attorney M. F. Kinnead said yesterday a complete account of the Lindbergh kidnaping case had been found in the basement of Sankey's house and he expressed belief the outlaw was not "out of the Lindbergh picture."

Lindys' Landing In Florida At L'Nora Theater

Views in Miami, Fla., as Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his wife land on American soil after a 30,000 mile flight, during which they crossed the Atlantic ocean twice and visited twenty-one countries, are to be seen in the current issue of the Pampa Daily NEWS-Universal newsreel. Graham McNamee, noted radio announcer and the screen's talking reporter, describes this and the other late news events in the reel at La Nora theater.

Rushing to their home in Englewood, N. J., to spend the Christmas holidays with their young son, the famous flying couple set their ship down in Biscayne bay after an eight hundred mile flight from San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic.

Other important news events described by McNamee include scenes in Paris, France, as great crowds of unemployed converge upon the city, demanding food and work; views at Soda Springs, Calif., as glows work at top speed to clear the highways after a blizzard buries towns under 56 inches of snow; views of an odd railroad trestle in Richmond, Va., which permits three speeding trains to pass the same spot at the same time; scenes in Chicago, where a series of terrific underground explosions injured two persons, and caused damage estimated at $1,000,000; views in Moscow, U. S. S. R., as great crowds celebrate the sixteenth anniversary of the founding of the Soviet Union; scenes in New York City as Al Smith receives the Catholic Action medal from Patrick Cardinal Hayes; views in Havana, Cuba, where great crowds hail President Grau San Martin as new unrest threatens the island republic and scenes in Chicago as choristers of the Holy Name Cathedral observe the approach of the yuletide with sacred music.

CARS BUILT TO RESEMBLE TEAR DROP, ICEBERGS

New 'Lingo' Coined To Depict Stream-Line Efforts

BY RAYMOND CROWLEY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5 (AP)—Fishtail cars... tear drop cars... snow shoe cars... cars that bend their knees... cars that shoot ahead as smoothly as a glimpe being squeezed out of its skin.

All these and more are being air-raved in all their glory today for the thirty-fourth annual National Automobile Show, which opens tomorrow in Grand Central Palace.

Designers have studied icebergs, snow shoes, and tears. The salesmen, exhausting the dictionary, have coined new language to describe the creations. Aero-stream, for instance.

The accent this year is on streamlining. Engineers found that icebergs, moving through water, are rounded in front, pointed behind... like a snowshoe or a fish.

Some cars are built with these lines in mind. Another school of body design favors more familiar lines, but with smart new styling. Everything looks faster, smoother.

Lamps, hinges, door handles are streamlined. Spare tires are tucked away where the breezes won't hit them.

Cushions are deeper, softer, engines more powerful. Some pleasure cars have superchargers, hitherto characteristic only of racing machines. The long-legged person has more room for his knees. Prices range from $500 to more than $7,000.

Along with the 250 cars and chassis on view will be a million dollars' worth of parts, equipment, accessories.

A coin in the collection of D. E. Decker, of Salem, Ore., is dated 504 B. C.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

International Sunday School Lesson for January 7.

General Topic: Birth and Infancy of Jesus.

Scripture Lesson: Matt. 2:1-12

1. Now Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, Wise-men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying,

2. Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3. And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4. And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born.

5. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem; for thus it is written through the prophet,

6. And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah, art in no wise least among the princes of Judah; for out of thee shall come forth a governor, and shall be shepherd of my people Israel.

7. Then Herod privily called the Wise-men, and learned of them exactly what time the star appeared.

8. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out exactly concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him.

9. And they, having heard of the king, went their way; and lo, the star which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10. And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11. And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh.

12. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

Golden Text: Thou shalt call his name JESUS: for it is he that shall save his people from their sins.—Matt. 1:1.

Time: Birth of Jesus, December, B. C. Childhood and youth at Nazareth, N. C. 2-28. Visit to Jerusalem at the age of twelve, April A. D. 8.

Place: Bethlehem, Egypt. Nazareth.

Held in Death

When Douglas Sheridan, 68-year-old New York broker, was found dead in the bathtub of his Riverside drive apartment, his skull crushed with a hammer, his housekeeper for 28 years, Mrs. Catherine Phelan, was accused of the murder. She is shown leaving the police station after questioning.

begotten by him. Luke's genealogy begins with Joseph (but notes that Christ was only his supposed son), and runs backward far beyond Abraham, even to Adam and to God. There are no real contradictions in these two genealogies.

"Wise Men From the East."

The Wise Men are thought to have belonged to the priestly caste and so were teachers of religion and science. They were not kings and perhaps not princes but were more than astronomers or astrologers. They were devout as well as learned. They were not Jews but Gentiles though it is possible that they were Jewish proselytes. At any rate, the Jews of the Dispersion must have held so strongly the Messianic hope that the literati of the world became acquainted and to some extent shared a world expectation of great deliverer who was to arise in Judea.

Star of Bethlehem.

"For we saw his star in the east." Balaam's wonderful prophecy (Num. 24:17), "There shall come forth a star out of Jacob," associated the Messiah with a special star. Just what "his star" was we have no means of knowing. Various astronomers have held that it was a comet of great brilliancy, or a new star such as sometimes flashes out in the sky with a glorious light only to fade away, or that it was the conjunction of two bright planets such as that of Jupiter and Saturn which actually took place at that time. More likely it was a special miracle signaling the supernatural birth. And are come to worship him." The magi were more than astrologers, they were worshippers, to worship the God, and myrrh (used in embalming, John 19:39) for Christ as a mortal, subject to death. Following the tradition that the wise-men came from three different lands, "the gold was from India, the frankincense from Persia, and the myrrh from Arabia. They bought what they had, so, for us all the gift that Christ will value most will never be that which grows in some body else's country. It will not be some better or nobler thing than what you have, but just that."—Rev. John Kelman, D. D. The best gift you can bring to Jesus is yourself, consecrated to his services.

The Christ-Child in Egypt.

The remainder of the chapter tells us how Joseph, warned by an angel in a dream, saved the divine Child by taking him and his mother to Egypt. Matthew sees in this providential act the fulfillment of the prophecy in Hos 11:1, "Out of Egypt did I call my son." The new King should not escape him. The wise-men had evaded him. Herod perpetrated the cruel massacre of the innocents, slaying all the male children in Bethlehem and its environs two years old and under. "Such a deed was wholly in accord with the character of Herod, who had recently murdered his own sons, Alexander and Aristobulus, for fear that they might usurp his throne. Thus jealousy often appears as the most cruel of passions."—Prof. Charles K. Erdman. These Matthew sees another fulfillment of prophecy quoting (verse 18) Jer. 31:15. "Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.—Matt. 2:17, 18.

Being robbed by bandits seems about to become a habit with Miss Anne McKinney, theater ticket seller in Greensboro, N. C. She was held up recently for the third time in a few months.

Down After 10 Days In Air

Wearily, but elated over their achievement, Helen Richey, right, and Frances Harrell are here pictured as they landed their record breaking plane, Outdoor Girl, at Miami, Fla., after setting a new women's refueling endurance flight record of 9 days, 21 hours and 42 minutes. Their sustained flight was 41 hours and 39 minutes longer than the record set last year over New York by Miss Harrell and Louise Thaden.

but he saw enough to know that most of the Klosohees had swept on inside. Only three or four men remained at the entrance. They scrambled into the fissure and down to the game trail, and headed back to the cave mouth. With automatic drawn Curt rounded a jut and ran headlong into LeNoir, Siam-Kiale and a third man. The breed saw him first, and grabbed with his felt hand for his belt-gun; but Curt's automatic cut him down and he toppled over, shot cleanly through the heart. With a hoarse cry Tenn-Og sprang past Curt and flung himself bodily at the other two. The third man stabbed at him with a spear and tore the flesh in his arm. Tenn-Og grabbed the weapon, then wrenched it away, and whirled on Siam-Kiale. Tenn-Og's arm went back, his body tautened like a steel spring, he lunged forward and drove the spear home with all the force of his long-cherished hate. The point struck Siam-Kiale square in his breast. He tried to grapple with Tenn-Og, but his arms went limp, he staggered and fell backwards, and went rolling down the slope till he fetched up against a tree. The third man dived like a scared marmot into the cave. Curt smashed him with the butt of his automatic, and reached the log. Bracing his foot to keep himself from toppling, he lifted the logs, swung, and let go. When he got back outside, he saw Tenn-Og standing down the slope, staring at Siam-Kiale's body as though the end of his vengeance had left him dazed. Paul was stumbling along the game trail toward them, his face so covered with blood that he was hardly recognizable. "You—you knocked the logs out!" "Listen!" From the cave came yells of fear and terror as the Klosohees groped for the bridge and found it gone. "Does that sound as though I did?"

through the cave entrance. Paul and Curt hastily jumped aside. Down on the lake a motor started up with a spluttering roar. Curt's wounds, the quick desperate work of the last minute, and the smashing success of his trap, had made him forget about Karakhan, but the roar brought him alive. He turned, threw down his gun. "Stay here, Paul, you and Tenn-Og! I'll stop him!" "But how—you can't stop him!" "I've got to! I will!"

He plunged down the slope, passed the cabin without checking himself or even looking at it, swerved west along the lake shore, and headed for the cove at a dead run. The wound in his thigh pained till it sickened him; he breathed in big gulps; and every stride jolted a gasp from his lips; but he shut his eyes against the pain and ran on. Curt, desperately, takes to the air, tomorrow.

Canadian Vets To Build Lodge In Town Park

CANADIAN, Jan. 5.—In order to raise funds toward building an American Legion lodge in the new city park, the American Legion will hold a benefit dance at the city auditorium on February 14, and also a benefit 42 tournament on February 22. A committee composed of Fred Cook, Preston Hutton, Charles Naylor, Floyd Zollars, and Albert Berrison, to handle the detail for the dance, was named by Commander E. J. Cussen Tuesday night, at a joint meeting of the local post with the Legion Auxiliary. The local post voted to sponsor the Boy Scout organization in Canadian and Fred Cook, Dr. German, Preston Hutton, and Albert Berrison were named on that committee. Mr. Cussen made a brief talk to the membership on the preamble to the Constitution of the United States. It was decided to hold a joint social meeting on the third Wednesday night of each month with the Auxiliary. The Legion committee named to work with the Auxiliary members for these meetings is E. C. Fisher, Dr. German, and Frank Cole.

--STORY

A long yell arose. It was taken up and echoed by those below. The Klosohees at the lean-to's seize their weapons and sprang to cover in a rocky ravine three rods to the left.

LeNoir started to follow them. Paul's bullet caught him and sent him rolling. He staggered to his feet again. As Paul drew another head on him, two of the Klosohees leaped out and grabbed his arm and helped him toward the gully. It was so courageous an act that Paul refused to shoot again for fear of killing those two.

Down the shore Siam-Kiale had swerved his canoe in toward the bank when the yell went up. Paul swung on him and emptied his rifle, but the range was far too long even for Paul. Splashing through the shallows, Siam-Kiale dived out of sight into a juniper.

At the cabin Karakhan appeared in the doorway to see what the commotion was about. Curt whipped up his rifle and shot. His bullet splintered the door frame, and sent the Cossack jumping back inside.

After that first pandemonium a silence fell. Curt saw nothing, heard nothing. The advantage of surprise was gone, they were then thrown on the defensive; and now they were up against overwhelming odds in a timer flight where the Klosohees were deadly.

Tenn-Og pointed down at the ravine. Siam-Kiale and the breed had got their men in hand and were bringing them up in the deep brushy gully.

"We'd better get back to the outer cave," Paul warned. Curt shook his head. If they did, the Klosohees would keep them penned up in there for hours. Karakhan would escape, Sonya would be taken away. He hung on grimly waiting for a break.

Without warning, an arrow burned into the tangle and pinned his jacket sleeve to the log he was lying against. It came not from level range but from above. He turned, looked up at the cliff. In a clump of buckbrush on top of the rock a bush swayed, a man's head and shoulders appeared for an instant.

It dawned upon him that the Klosohees had out-manuevered and cornered them. While part of the band was coming slowly up the ravine, the others had circled the slope and up on top of the cliff.

He jerked his rifle and shot at the buckbrush clump. A man leaped up, staggering blindly, took a step or two, plunged over the lip of the rock, struck once against the face of the cliff as he fell, and hit with a heavy thud on the boulders beneath.

Almost at that instant a third arrow came hurtling down at Curt and hit the bolt of his rifle. Dejected downward it struck his right hand that gripped the trigger and sheared off his finger like a razor-edged chisel. He lifted his hand and stared blankly at the wound, unable to realize that his finger had been cut off, till the blood began to spurt and darts of pain shot up his arm.

Some swift flashing object, whizzing down from the cliff-top like a tiny cartwheel, caromed off a boulder, glanced sideways, and then smashed Paul across the forehead. His rifle dropped from his hands, he went limp and sank over against a log.

As Curt whirled to see how badly Paul had been hurt by the whizzing bolt-ax, he caught a glimpse of Karakhan making a dash from his cabin to the hangar. Flipping the blood from his stinging hand, he rose up, pointed his rifle and took a careful aim at the scurrying figure.

Before his finger squeezed the trigger, a sudden agonizing pain struck him in the right hip and nearly bowled him over. Giddy and faint from the shock, he looked and saw an arrow buried head-deep in his thigh.

He seized hold of the shaft shut his eyes, gave a hard jerk, and the arrow came. Curt grabbed Paul's shoulder and shook him. "Paul! We've got to make a break. They've got us, here. Pull yourself together, if we can get to the cave we might save ourselves."

He helped Paul to his feet, steadied him; and they started for the game trail. Tenn-Og led the way, tearing a path through the tangled brush. Behind them the Klosohees in the ravine poured out of their cover and came yelling up the slope, to overhaul and spear them. But they reached the foot of the cliff, hit into the trail and dashed out along to the cave mouth.

"Get on back!" Curt cried to the Indian, who had halted in the entrance. "We can't hold em off. All hell can't stop 'em!"

They hurried Paul back to the bridge, and between them they got him across the logs to the cave. Curt whirled to pull the logs down and stop the Klosohees, in half a minute they would be pouring inside to finish off their wounded enemies. Neither he nor Paul could put up any fight.

But as he stooped down and then grasped the log ends, he thought of the consequences—the three of them cooped up in there for hours. Karakhan escaping, Sonya being snatched away and hidden. It was this last thought that stopped him. He could not sacrifice her in order to save himself.

He straightened up. "Tenn-Og! Take the lead. Get us out to that ledge opening."

The Indian seized his hand and started away into the inky blackness. The next few minutes were a blind and aimless groping. Then on hands and knees they squeezed their way through a slit in the rock and came out on the ledge near the fissure.

Curt grasped a bush, leaned out and glanced back along the face of the cliff to the cave mouth. The ferns and dwarf birches hanging against the rock obscured his view,
