FARMING AS A LIVING

There is much merit in the program that the Nazi declaration that "farming is a way to make a living and not a means of acquiring a fortune." Gambling and speculation has no part in agriculture, although the weather is something of a gamble under any one crop system. But the principle of making farming a means of living comfortably if not elegantly has wide applications. For one thing, such a farm should be exempt from taxes which demand far more cash than the farm surplus could provide when sold. Give stability and security to the man who tills the soil and you have provided a means for humans to escape starvation and deprivation. At the same time, those who adopted such a life would not be "land hungry" enough to start mortgaging land to which they held a clear title in order to buy more land, adding acre to acre and risk, until they created over-production and brought ruin upon themselves and farmers generally.

The cow has long been an important animal in American politics. Striking dairymen have often made the headlines. The hen has been a symbol of farm prosperity or lack of it. And now the sow is to have her turn.

By definition, a "hog farmer" is one which raises three litters or more of pigs per year. A couple of good sows could qualify their owner for this title, but farmer friends assure us they would have to be good. The ideal is to have fewer sows, or at least fewer good sows.

Nudism is an unpopular fad, but Mother Nature seems to be lending her full support to the fashion. And has been, since Eve.

At the risk of speaking too soon, we're going to remind you that we consulted the law of averages and predict that January would be mild and dry.

THREE GUESSES

State Oil Order Is Upheld

GOLLINS RAPS CATTLE HERD CURTAILMENT

OPPOSES GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF BEEF INDUSTRY

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Jan. 11 (AP)—Solution of the cattle surplus problem through stimulation of consumption rather than through any radical production curtailment plan was advocated today by Chas. E. Collins of Kit Carson, Colo., in his annual address as president of the American National Livestock association.

Speaking at the opening of a two-day convention here today, Collins declared that in spite of the fact things have gone from bad to worse in the cattle industry in 1933, the cattlemen have not indicated surrender. Instead, he said, there has been a rallying for the common good.

If the stockmen are to improve their position, differences must be forgotten and a united front must be presented, he declared.

A committee should be sent to Washington, Collins said, to stay on the job as long as necessary with power to act for the association, including the right to limit consumption of beef has decreased materially in recent years, Collins said, per capita consumption of pork has increased. Dumping of surplus hogs on the market under the AAA he estimated has reduced per capita beef consumption about ten pounds.

"Once the hog producer has adjusted his production to the potential demand, and the dairyman has done likewise, so that we can again assume a normal position in trade, the major portion of our problems will have disappeared," he said.

The cattlemen, he said, has not benefited from the new deal and said "that in the numerous efforts made to advance the price of other commodities and to bring about prosperity by artificial means, we have from time to time been severely penalized."

However, Collins foresaw considerable aid to the industry through government purchase of cows to feed unemployed.

Taking up the public domain question he said that determination of the present administration to have the lands turned over to the department clearly indicates there is little prospect at this time for any other solution of the problem.

AGENTS DENIED RIGHT TO GO ON OIL PROPERTIES

Enjoin Federal Men From Enforcing Orders

TYLER, Jan. 11 (AP)—Randolph Bryant, federal judge, today denied federal agents the right to go on property of producers and refiners and states that the state railroad commission's oil proration order of November 28 was "Prima facie valid."

The action against the agents of the department of the interior was taken by means of temporary injunctions restraining certain firms from overproducing and at the same time prohibiting the agents from going on their properties. C. I. Francis, special assistant to United States attorney general, had pleaded agents did not have the right to go on properties to see if orders were being enforced.

F. W. Fischer, counsel for most of the concerns against whom the writs were issued, lost his plea for summary judgment in the case, the agents were permitted access to the properties, the orders stating that they were to "remain in full force and effect" notwithstanding the granting of an exception upon posting of bonds corresponding. Fischer said he would immediately appeal to the circuit court.

The railroad commission was the only interested party winning an unqualified victory, the orders stating that its November 28 order was "Prima facie valid."

The writs also specified that the injunctions were effective against "further valid orders."

The nine orders at the outset set forth that the principles at issue were involved in cases before a 3-judge court at Houston, including the matter of validity of the order of November 28 and section 4, article 2, of the code of fair competition authorized by the national recovery act.

LAWYER ASKS PHYSICIAN BE PUT TO DEATH

2,000 STAGE NOISY BATTLE TO GET SEATS

CRIMINAL COURTS BUILDING, Chicago, Jan. 11 (AP)—The celebrated Wynekoop murder mystery went to trial today, with the prosecution asking the death penalty for 62-year-old Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynekoop for the death of her daughter-in-law, Rheta, 23, on an operating table.

Her features composed but her face a ghastly white, Dr. Wynekoop sat calmly at her counsel's table. Her expression did not change when Assistant State Attorney Charles Dougherty asked the first question whether he had any scruples against inflicting the death penalty if the woman physician were found guilty. He replied in the negative.

"Nor did she show any expression except one of intense interest when Dougherty recounted the charges in the indictment against her. The prosecutor said that the state would prove Rheta, talented young violinist, came to her death at the willful hands of her mother-in-law. Dougherty recounted how Rheta's body was found in the basement surgical room of the Wynekoop mans on last November 21. He said he would prove Rheta died from a bullet wound through her heart, from an overdose of chloroform, or from a combination of both.

A near riot preceded by a few minutes the opening of the trial. The crowd of 1,000 or more which jammed stairways and corridors, became unruly, pushing and shouting as men sought to get to the front row position in line. Finally, James E. Gabriel, chief bailiff, ordered the building cleared, and some who had stood in line since 7 a. m., were forced to descend to lower floors. Gabriel then permitted the line to reform.

Poultry Show Entries Break Past Records

McLean Chickens Total 131 On Wednesday; Birds Arrive too Fast for Briggs.

"Bigger and better" without exaggeration, is the Pampa poultry show which opened this morning, it was declared by C. C. Dadd, superintendent. The show will be open daily and in the evenings through noon of Saturday.

Judging of the hundreds of birds will begin tomorrow morning. R. B. Galloway of Amarillo will be the judge.

McLean's entries, numbering 131 chickens, arrived yesterday afternoon to raise the pre-show registration to 201, a record.

This morning George Briggs, secretary, was hard-put to register the birds as fast as they arrived. The supply of coops, once thought adequate, was exhausted and additional space was hastily being erected.

Supt. Dadd said the quality of the displays was the best in the history of the show. The show site in the Johnson building on West street was crowded with exhibitors this morning, all eager to place their birds before the public. The variety of types was gratifying to sponsors of the show.

Ribbons will be given in every class with usable merchandise as additional awards for first places. Club boys have a substantial proportion of the early entries of the show. Their instructors are Prof. J. L. Lester of Pampa high school, County Agent Ralph Thomas, and Dr. A. A. Temple of the McLean schools.

SQUADRON IS A FEW MILES FROM ISLAND

SHIPS PLUNGE BLINDLY BUT SURELY THRU OCEAN FOGS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11 (AP)—The six navy planes flying to Honolulu from San Francisco were within 385 miles of their goal at 11 a. m. (P. S. T.) today, the twelfth naval district headquarters announced. The planes were roaring along at 92 miles an hour.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11 (AP)—Flying blind throughout the night because of fog, the six Honolulu-bound Navy planes were 1,500 nautical miles from San Francisco at 8:32 a. m. PST today and were within about 600 miles from their goal.

"Everything going fine," Lieut. Com. Kneifer McGinnis messaged to Navy headquarters here.

"Last night was overcast for most of the way, necessitating blind flying conditions," McGinnis added.

The squadron sighted the aircraft tender Wright, stationed about 900 miles off Honolulu, at 8:21 a. m.

Clear weather and favorable winds were expected to assist the fliers in their final dash to their destination.

One plane, the 10-P-5, piloted by Lieut. John Perry, twice became separated from the rest of the squadron because of the obscuring fog, but rejoined its companions.

The lights of the tender Wright were flashed on to aid the aviators. Steadily throughout the night the motors of the huge craft roared as the big planes swept across the Pacific. The mine sweeper Sandpiper, first of the six Navy guard ships along the route to the islands, was passed at 5:52 p. m. yesterday, 300 miles at sea. Then in regular succession the big planes roared over the other sea craft.

Admiral A. W. Johnson, base commander at the at sea, who was aboard the tender Wright, messaged to Commander McGinnis: "We are very glad to see you this morning. Good luck."

Admiral Johnson sent a message to Pearl Harbor, saying: "Sighted patrol squadron ten at dawn. All six planes in company passed over the Wright at 8:30 a. m., making 85 knots."

Meanwhile, officers at Honolulu figured that it would require the full 24 hours for the planes to reach there unless their speed was increased considerably.

The Navy reported the sky was heavily overcast at Honolulu, with a light rain falling.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—The senate today passed unanimously the Johnson bill to prohibit financial transactions—private or public—with any foreign government in default of its obligations to the United States.

LONDON, Jan. 11 (AP)—A Reuters (British) News Agency dispatch from Vienna today said it was rumored that the so-called Austria legion, comprised of Austrian Nazis who have left the country and gone to Germany since the advent to power of the present Austrian regime, had crossed the frontier into Austria near Kufstein.

MURDER TRIAL JUDGE HAS HAD MANY DISPUTES

'Let Boobs Look,' He Told Reformers At Fair

JUDGE JOSEPH B. DAVID, who has been called Chicago's most colorful jurist, is presiding at "operating room murder" trial, opening today in that city.

A pungent, loquacious commentator on men and their motives, the 70-year-old jurist has been the center of many controversies with attorneys, civic associations, other courts and state and county officials. The Chicago Bar association once criticized him rather severely but advised:

"He is fearless, well-versed in the law and his integrity is above reproach."

He was "in print" several times last summer when reformers tried to get him to interfere with some of the sideshows at the Century of Progress Exposition. "Let the boobs look" was his summary of the idea that if people wanted to spend their money in such places, they should be allowed to do so.

Judge David has been on the superior court bench of Cook county for 17 years. He protested vigorously when he was transferred to the criminal branch in 1930 but he has been especially diligent there. At one time when the county jail was crowded, he disposed of 92 cases in one day and his tribunal got the nickname of "The Cafeteria Court." He was particularly active after he was one of three judges named in anonymous death threats.

700 Men Rapidly Building Roads In Gray County

Work on the three CWA highway projects in Gray county is going ahead rapidly, employing more than 700 men who were previously jobless. Two layers of caliche have been placed on seven-tenths of a mile of the Patrol McLean project from the end of the present paving out of Pampa.

One day of work will be required before the road is opened through the underpass. Applying of asphalt will not be done until spring. When the present completed distance is opened, another section will be closed for caliche.

Laying of first course caliche two miles beyond LeFors, and toward that city, was started yesterday. The caliche is being supplied from the Saunders pit.

A mile and one-half of first course caliche has been laid north of McLean, where the work is progressing rapidly. The caliche for that part of the road is being secured from a pit near McLean.

Highway 33 through the city has been opened from Cuyler street east to Barnes street. Two layers of caliche have been laid for that distance. Work on the project is progressing between Barnes street and the city limits east and between Cuyler street and Gray street west. Laying caliche is the work on the east end of the job, while grade for curb and gutter is being done on the west section.

First course of caliche has been laid the full six and one-half miles on Highway 152 east of Pampa towards the Wheeler county line. Placing of the second course will start immediately. Work is being done by contract.

Pampa, headquarters of the council, will be represented by a large delegation which will include President A. G. Post, who will preside, and the Rev. Gaston Foote, who will be toastmaster. The banquet will begin at 6:30 p. m. in the dining room of the First Methodist church.

Among the council towns eligible to send representatives are Keyes, Texhoma, Guyton, Optima, Hooker, Tyrone, and Forgan, Okla., and Higgins, Pollett, Darrowzett, Bookers, Perryton, Spearman, Morse, Canadian, Miami, Skellytown, Panhandle, White Deer, Pampa, LeFors, McLean, Wheeler, Shamrock, Wellington, Memphis, Lela Lake, Clarendon. These towns are located in 15 counties of the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandle.

A nominating committee composed of A. W. Nelson of Borger and J. O. Gillham and Roger McCann of Pampa will make its report after that of President Post. Substantial progress has been made in Scouting this year, it is shown in the records of Executive C. A. Clark.

No Liquor Will Be Sold Solons On Capitol Hill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—Prohibition may come and go, but the house and senate will remain dry, if not forever, at least indefinitely.

Although a bill already passed by the house and now awaiting senate committee action legalizes the sale of liquor in the District of Columbia and permits sale of the drink in hotels, restaurants, and clubs under a licensing system, senators and representatives will not be allowed to slake their thirst on capital hill.

The senate took its bar out so long ago that even Senator Borah, who has been here since 1907, never saw it, and the house chose a similar course many years before prohibition.

'Dead or Alive' Bandit Believed Slain in Kansas

WELLINGTON, Kan., Jan. 11 (AP)—A man tentatively identified as "Red" Carson, alleged leader of a southwest bank robbery gang, was shot and killed here today when he resisted arrest.

Sheriff J. L. Harris, Deputy Sheriff Elmer Holt and Policeman H. C. James sought to arrest the suspect as he emerged from a hotel. The man fought on the officers and they retaliated. The bandit suspect fell dead in his tracks with numerous bullet holes in his body.

Carson was suspected of leading a raid on the Willow, Okla., bank, held up week ago and robbed of approximately $400.

Authorities said the man arrived at the hotel last night in company with a woman. Officers had kept watch over his movements since his arrival.

Information received from Sheriff R. B. Conner at Pawhuska is that a reward of $50 had been posted on Carson "dead or alive."

Postoffice Will Get First Class Rating This Year

Gross receipts at the Pampa post-office showed an increase of $2,114.54 in 1933 over the previous year, while the increase over the same month in 1932 amounted to $18,897.75, while the increase in money orders cashed increased $4,616.84 during the same period.

The amount derived from the source last year was $48,054.93 while the receipts in 1932 were $45,940.15. Gross receipts in December last year were $6,292.12 compared with $5,503.48 for the same month of 1933. More than half the amount of total receipts taken in during the month of January 1933 have been received during the first 10 days of this month.

Money order business, both outgoing and in-coming, showed a marked increase in 1933. In December alone the increase over the same month in 1932 amounted to $18,897.75, while the increase in money orders cashed increased $4,616.84 during the same period.

The money order business has shown a big increase since banks started making service charges and the government assessed a tax on checks. There were 211 money orders totaling $2,522.56, written in eight hours at the local window Monday.

'Debt Tax' Is Struck Out

Senate Reverses Self And Removes Liquor Tax On Defaulting Nations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—In view of opposition by President Roosevelt, the senate today reversed itself and struck out of the house liquor tax bill the amendment placing heavy excise taxes on liquors from nations in default on their war debts.

Reconsidering yesterday's passage of the bill and the amendment of Senator Clark (D., Mo.), aimed at the debt-defaulters, the senate then voted to throw out Clark's proposal.

Democratic leaders had opposed it on the ground it would hamper the president in tariff bargaining, but were overthrown yesterday by a vote of 40 to 39.

The vote against the Clark amendment was 40 to 39.

Without a record vote the bill itself was again passed and senate conferees were reappointed to work with house members over the few differences between the two texts.

Meanwhile, house democrats leaders said the $2-gallon liquor tax bill would be accepted by the house as otherwise amended by the senate, since the senate eliminated the Clark amendment.

The administration triumphed in two congressional tests, the senate reversing itself on the restrictions against liquor imports from nations in default on their war debts, and the house granting unhampered right-of-way to the bill extending the Roosevelt economy powers.

Over republican objection, the house democratic leadership succeeded on a 261 to 212 vote in clamping on a stringent restriction of debate to protect the powers given the president to curtail federal spending, including veterans' payments.

All was not simple sailing for the democratic leadership, however, faced as it is with dissatisfaction over patronage. On petition of 28 democratic congressmen, Representative Clarence F. Lea of California, had to call a party caucus for late Monday for consideration of patronage matters. He heads the caucus committee.

IT'S BETTER TO SPEND ON WAR THAT PAYS

A nation that is going ten billion dollars into debt in one year certainly is going somewhere at a prodigious rate. Some of the people at Washington think we are heading straight for recovery, and others think that we are plunging down a steep place into the sea.

Before the rest of us give way either to encouragement or to fright, it would pay us to stop and figure just what the implications of this titanic spending may be.

The first thing one thinks of is the World War. We spent at a greater rate than this during the war, and we kept it up longer, and we came out of it without cracking under the strain.

Furthermore, there is not the slightest doubt that if we were at war today, sums of this size would be voted without any misgivings at all.

That being so, why not compare our present situation to a war-time crisis? The comparison is a perfectly proper one.

What is at stake in a war? National existence itself may be at stake—though that was not the case with us in the World War, nor in the war with Spain. Money, national honor, national influence, certain intangible considerations that bulk large or small, depending on how you look at them—these were the things that went into the balance when we got into our last war.

Well—a lot of things; our faith in our form of government and our social structure, our belief in ourselves, our dream of democracy and our vision of destiny, the happiness and comfort of many millions of people; a total far greater than anything we risked by going to war with the German empire.

If it was proper to spend at an unheard-of rate to beat the kaiser, is it not infinitely more proper to spend at an equal rate today to save the things which all Americans hold most dear?

There is still another angle to it. The money we spent in 1917 and 1918 was spent for purposes of destruction. When we got through, we had nothing to show for it.

A shell that has exploded, a ship that has gone to the bottom, a man who has been turned into a corpse—these are not, in any economy, dividend-producing items. They are what our billions bought in the World War.

Today we are spending to build things. We are building highways and bridges and dams and towns and homes, we are spending to strengthen banks and railroads and farms and factories, we are spending to make men and women and children strong and healthy and courageous. We shall have all these things after the spending is over.

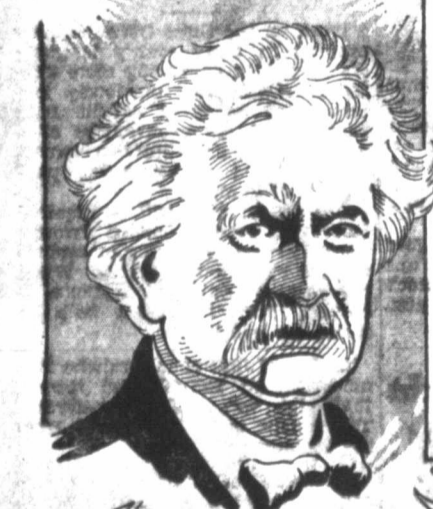

Can any American doubt that these possessions will make simpler the task of paying back what we are borrowing?

Methodists Gain 36,038 Members in Previous Year

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 11. (AP)—The Methodist Episcopal church, South, now has 2,713,933 lay and clerical members on its rolls, an increase of 36,038 over the previous year and the largest number of members in its history, it was shown today in figures released by Curtis B. Haley, official statistician of the church. The number of Epworth Leagues increased by 747 and 21,833 new members and Sunday schools by 147 but a decrease of 16,090 was shown in the total Sunday school enrollment. The Woman's Missionary society increased by 2900 members.

Insull Appeals Ruling He Must Leave Jan. 31

LONDON, Jan. 11. (AP)—Foreign Minister Dimitri Maximos of Greece declared in an exclusive interview granted the Associated Press today that his government's decision that Samuel Insull must leave Greece by the end of January is final and irrevocable. The former American utilities operator, given an extension of his office residence permit to allow him to remain until January 31, is wanted in the United States to face charges growing out of the collapse of his utilities empire. Greek courts twice have held against United States attempts to obtain Insull's extradition. Maximos said the government expects the high court of Greece to summarily dismiss Insull's appeal from the ruling again. Further extension of his stay in Athens on the grounds that it has no authority to interfere. "Minister of the Interior Metaxas made a plain declaration," Maximos said, "that Insull can not stay any more in Greece. The authorities are obliged to execute the decision of the minister of the interior." Maximos explained that the Greek government is acting under law No. 4810 by which it has full control over the length of residence and the activity of foreigners.

New Year's Day, 1883, Reported Coldest of All

AMARILLO, Jan. 11. (AP)—The dawning of a new year in the Panhandle with the temperature up at 55 recalled to oldtimers, by way of contrast, the severe blizzard which swept the plains on January 1, 1883. Many of them describe it as the worst storm in the history of west Texas.

L. Gough, a cowboy on the famous T-Anchor ranch at the time, is among those who went through the blizzard. He and two other cowboys, Taylor Ray and Percy Drake, were riding across the prairie between the Palo Duro canyon and the Dixon-creek pasture, present site of Borger. On new year's eve they camped about 12 miles northwest of the present town of Claude.

The storm struck about an hour before the new year came in. By morning it was so severe the men found it almost impossible to take care of their mounts, and it was a week before they were able to leave their supply tent shelter and continue their journey.

At that time, Gough said, there were only three settlements in the upper Panhandle, Tascosa, old Clarendon, and old Mobeetie, or Fort Elliott. The prairies were dotted with a dugout here and there, but anyone finding shelter from the blizzard was fortunate.

Other oldtimers recall that cattle drifted against fences along the Canadian river and died by thousands, and that it was almost impossible to walk across the Panhandle on the carcasses of animals frozen along the drift fences.

"Winters in the Panhandle simply aren't as severe as they were 40 or 50 years ago," Gough said.

Hunt For Fawcett Is Unsuccessful

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 11. (AP)—Albert de Winton, of Los Angeles, Calif., a movie actor, returned to Rio de Janeiro today after a nine-month search in the Mato Grosso region of interior Brazil for Col. P. H. Fawcett, British explorer.

De Winton, who made several separate trips into the wilds, had only vague Indian reports concerning the Briton but expressed belief he is alive. Col. Fawcett disappeared in 1925.

PANHANDLE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY IN 1933 VALUED AT 40 BILLIONS

AMARILLO, Jan. 11. (AP)—Oil and gas recovered from the Panhandle field, together with manufactured by-products, had an aggregate value of $40,000,000 in 1933, according to a survey conducted by N. D. Bartlett, oil editor of the Amarillo News-Globe.

Refined gasoline led the field with a slight margin over oil. Six refineries operating at 75 per cent of capacity produced 275,000,000 gallons of gasoline valued at $11,000,000. Nine refineries in the field have a total capacity of 58,000 barrels daily, but three of them were not in operation.

The year's recovery of oil was estimated to be worth $10,000,000, the average price being slightly above 60 cents a barrel. The year's production from an average of 1,900 wells daily, was 16,500,000 barrels, bringing the total recovery from the field to 212,174,000 barrels. The average daily allowable was 45,000 barrels. The new output of 157,740 barrels daily.

Passage by the legislature of a bill legalizing the extraction of natural gasoline from gas where no other market is available, resulted in an increase in this product from 155,000,000 gallons in 1932 to 223,000,000 last year. Several new plants were constructed, bringing the total to 55.

Major pipelines carrying natural gas from the Panhandle to cities of the midwest and east marketed 109,500,000 cubic feet of gas, valued at $4,000,000. Fuel oil, a by-product of the refineries, was worth $1,400,000.

Bartlett estimated that carbon black production would be equal to, or greater than, that of 1932, which was valued at $6,500,000. Figures for the year just closed have not been made available.

Exploration was confined largely to the north part of the old Badger pool in Hutchinson county, the extension of the Morse pool in the extreme eastern part of Gray county, and the Continental pool, four miles west of Borger in Hutchinson county.

Gray county led the field for activity with 85 operations. Hutchinson county had 36, Carson 15, Wheeler 13, and Moore 2.

The potential oil production of the field was increased by 45,000 barrels, a figure slightly above the daily allowable.

Goodyear Safety Record Unusual

AKRON, Ohio, Jan. 11.—Following a program of cooperation and education, employees of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company during the past few years completed the best safety record in the history of the concern, officials have announced.

With 15,000 employees, Goodyear's Akron plants sustained 2,848 lost time accidents in 1932, but following a systematic effort to promote safety on every job this figure was cut to 523 in 1930, while in December in 1933 the remarkably low record of 201 lost time accidents has been attained.

The safety department in the company's home offices in Akron heads safety activities of Goodyear factories and mills throughout the world, but has direct supervision over the Akron plants only. Each subsidiary has its own safety organization, following closely the instructions formulated by the parent organization.

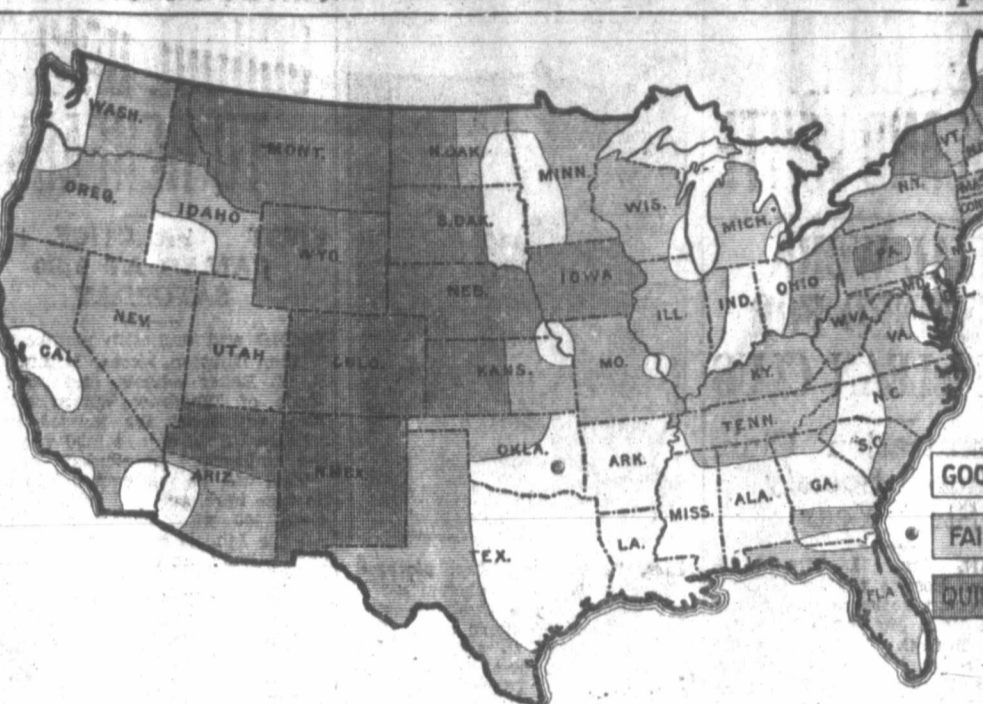

Among interesting safety records made by Goodyear subsidiaries is that of the Goodyear-Zeppelin Corp., which built the giant navy airships, U. S. S. Akron and U. S. S. Macon, without a single fatality or permanent injury. In the rubber plant at Bowmanville, Canada, not a single lost time accident has been reported since February, 1931, while the tire factory at Gadsden, Alabama, completed the year 1932 without a lost time accident. The factory at New Toronto, Canada, has had a clean record since April, 1932.

Goodyear has been intensely interested in a safety program since the company's inception, 35 years ago. Safeguarding of machinery and instruction of employees have been paramount in every manufacturing process. Statistics show that in the United States 15 per cent of all accidents are due to machine or equipment failure, while the remaining 85 per cent are due to carelessness, and for that reason Goodyear places responsibility for accidents directly upon the supervisors of its various departments.

BLOND GODDESS

A New Serial by HERBERT JENSEN

SYNOPSIS: Frank Grahame cuts an appointment with the great Myberg, movie executive for whom he expects to work, because "instinct tells him that the face he sees peering through one of the office windows bodes good to no one. As he leaves the office Janice Kent, movie star, enters her car and is driven away. A second car follows abruptly; Frank orders a taxi to trail them. He overtakes them as they crash, and is in time to knock out the driver of the second car just before he does the same for Miss Kent's chauffeur. Miss Kent thanks Grahame.

Chapter Three
VICTORY FOR JANICE
Light from a street lamp glared into the interior. Their glances met. Some combustible psychic material of humor ignited and flared. Janice lifted her chin and laughed. Grahame's lips twitched. "Oh!" cried the girl. "How perfectly imbecile!" Her voice mimicked her own. "Thank you," she said. Then you growl. "It was nothing, Miss Kent. I say, but it was, sir indeed—Oh, why can't people—"

Grahame chuckled. "Did I growl?"

Janice stifled a giggle. "Hoarsely," she averred.

Grahame felt pleasantly warmed. Some watchful wariness seemed to relax within him. That curious and annoying embarrassment he was conscious of with women subsided a little. He had lived too long away from civilization, he knew, to be much in the company of lovers like himself, ever perhaps to feel comfortable in the presence of the opposite sex.

But here a small miracle had happened. It was with a growing wonder that he realized that he felt at ease, almost, with this gorgeous girl who was one of the world's beauties. Her essential femininity was such that there lived not a man who saw her screened face that did not feel that tug of response to her appeal.

Grahame knew, in a vague way, that this quality of hers was not a personal one. There were other actresses certainly with equally captivating faces, with similarly charming figures, but what Janice Kent had—and it was a quality that women approved of as well as their men—was, as Hogarth, her favorite director, expressed it, "A universal sweetheart appeal."

A pal of Grahame's among the stunt flyers had quoted Myberg—who paid Janice Kent her salary—as saying, "That girl, understand, has something that makes men love their wives better."

Grahame, watching her profile as the street lights threw patterns of shadows across it, realized that he could quite agree with any eulogy of Janice Kent. He felt that although he had known her but a few minutes, he of all men could solve her charms, could he but express it in words.

She made a fellow feel comfortable, that was it; a homely way to say it, but accurate. He was conscious of a flush mounting to his cheeks. He appreciated that he was not the first man who believed that he was uniquely appreciative of a particular woman. He was level-headed enough to realize that he was, perhaps, not the first man to consider himself an authority on Janice Kent's charm.

Like a swimmer wading from the shallow into deeper water, he realized that he must press forward carefully. He drew in a deep breath.

He said, "Miss Kent, did you notice any other man about the tan car? To me it seemed—"

"Yes," she answered quickly. "I did. The accident itself was curious. It was no unnecessary. The tan car attempted to pass us. It pressed us into the curb. Yet, at that place, the street is wide. The man whom you struck was driving,

CONVENTION OF CATTLEMEN TO START TODAY

PANHANDLE'S GROWERS ARE SUPPORTING PROCESS TAX

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Jan. 11 (AP)—Determined to place cattle under the AAA's basic commodity list and thereby bring about the levying of a process tax, Texas cattlemen today prepared for a long and hard fight, if necessary, against conservative stockmen from other western states who oppose the tax.

With the Panhandle Cattle Growers' association taking the lead, tax supporters met before the opening of the convention for a last minute discussion of plans to win the association's endorsement of the processing tax.

At the same time, New Mexico wool men through their state Wool Growers' associations served notice last night they would fight the tax attempt vigorously, thus aligning themselves with tax opponents from Wyoming and Nebraska.

New Mexico cattlemen, while not expressing themselves as understood to oppose the tax. The processing tax fight, forecast as a big issue since the vanguard of cattlemen arrived here Monday for the convention, today became the prime factor of the convention with the public lands and other problems lems falling second in importance.

Little trouble was anticipated on the public lands question inasmuch as the majority of the cattlemen are understood to feel endorsement of the Administration-Taylor grazing bill is the only way out in view of expected opposition to their favored measure seeking return of the public domain to the states.

made the decisions. He acknowledged that he was a little at a loss and smiled wryly to himself. He recalled what Bill Langton had said to him four years ago, before Bill had made his epoch making non-stop Atlantic flight, before Bill had become the national hero.

He had told Grahame that their advance in the knowledge of women had stopped when they'd been eighteen upon that gray morning in France when their motors had hurried them into their first foggy dog fight over Flanders. "From that point on, fella," Bill had said, "we got serious."

Seated beside Janice Kent, Grahame smiled a trace wistfully. Bill was a thousand fathoms deep in the Caribbean, or dead in some forgotten jungle, despite persistent newspaper rumors to the contrary. It needed a slight effort to bring himself back to the present. He said to the girl mildly, "I'll say nothing about your Mr. Ortega."

Tomorrow, Frank recalls Langton's story.

Cattle marketing and price control schemes are expected to make their appearance also during today and Friday.

Reappointment of the association's committee of five to represent the organization in Washington at congressional hearings next week was forecast following the close of the committee's meeting late yesterday. Dolph A. Briscoe of Uvalde, Texas, is chairman of the committee.

The committee's report, to be given this afternoon, is expected to be one of the big features of the convention expressing the association's attitude on the president's recovery program after a year of careful study.

MAN ACQUITTED
FORT STOCKTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—A district court jury here yesterday acquitted J. H. Lock who had been on trial since Monday on an indictment charging theft of cattle.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

By ELLEN WORTH
A Smart Frock That Will Do Double-Duty

This is a grand frock to have in your wardrobe. It's one of those that changes its purpose with its accessories. With flat-heeled shoes, it is ready to go into action on a tennis court or a golf course—and the fashionable cardigan sweaters look extra-smart with this frock as a basis. On the other hand, you can wear more formal shoes, a little hat, a bright scarf, and gloves, and you're all set for sitting on the sidelines while the others do the work. A little box-jacket, of the sort Paris is showing now, would look very well with this frock in its more formal phase.

BRIDE-ELECT COMPLIMENTED AT LOVELY PARTY GIVEN IN SETTING OF PINK AND WHITE

MISS VIRGINIA ROSE IS RECIPIENT OF GIFTS

ROSES, pink and white, formed an appropriate background when Mrs. Bonnie Rose and Mrs. R. A. Rose entertained at the home of the former yesterday afternoon, honoring Miss Virginia Rose, whose marriage to Eusie Turner is to be solemnized this month.

White wedding bells hung over the dining table, and pink streamers dangled at the corners of the table. Pink and white sweet peas covered the base of each candle and hung in a shower from the bells.

The centerpiece was a miniature church, white with pink roof, from which a doll wedding party marched down the path between the flowers to a waiting car with a "Just Married" placard.

Mrs. A. H. Doucette, accompanied by Mrs. Ray Wilson, sang "When You Look in the Heart of a Rose." As the song ended little Misses Bonnie Lee Rose and Frankie Lou Keehn appeared with a huge basket, covered with ruffled pink paper to resemble a rose.

They presented it to Miss Rose, who found that the petals concealed numerous lovely gifts from the friends present. Frankie Lou was dressed in a white bridal costume, and Bonnie Lee in pink.

Pink ice cream molded in slipper shape was served with pink and white cake and punch on pink and white plates. Favors were gumdrop bouquets in lacepaper frills.

Recipes Written. Among the gifts was a recipe book in which each one present wrote a favorite recipe or bit of advice for the bride.

Guests who registered were Misses: W. A. Bratton, W. Purviance, A. Cole, V. E. Fatheree, Clyde Fatheree, Harry Hoare, G. C. Walstad, C. H. Schulkey, Clyde Gold, A. B. Goldstein, Julian Barrett, E. L. McCarty, Girtha McConnell, L. L. Sone, Odus Mitchell, R. B. Fisher.

Club Urges All Members to Pay Poll Taxes Soon

Payment of poll taxes was the subject discussed at Tuesday evening's meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club. The result was a vote for 100 per cent payment of the taxes by members.

The campaign will be in charge of Alta Lagow and Ola Nellis of the legislation committee. Mrs. L. O. Wirsching was elected publicity chairman to assume the duties resigned by Faye Wooley. Mrs. Wooley will act as vice chairman.

Approves Child Aid. Assistance in every way possible to the movement for a child welfare program in this county was voted by the club after a report from a recent council of clubs meeting was made by Grace Pool. The council is considering sponsoring a movement for a child welfare board.

Plans for the club's spring style show are going forward with Emily Hicks, finance chairman, making arrangements with assistance of the publicity chairman. Anna Mae West, member of the Shamrock club who is now employed by the L. T. Hill company here, was a visitor. Members present were Lottie Schneider, Grace Pool, Mildred Overall, Mabel Gee, Ola Nellis, Vona Voss, Alta Lagow, Clara Lee Shewmaker, Gladys Robinson, Lillian Jordan, and Mrs. Wirsching.

Mrs. Jordan, vice president, was in charge of the business session.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go. If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin breaks out in pimples. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes three good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing what comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't take for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware a substitute. 25c a box. Made in U.S.A. 1931 C. M. Co.

500 AUSTRIAN NAZIS JAILED IN ANTI-GOVERNMENT VIOLENCE

Mill Village Children Flee

To protect the lives and health of these and others of the 200 children in Sackville, Pa., that the 80 families of the little mill village have been ordered to evacuate their homes. The order was issued to prevent a threatened epidemic of anthrax, a dreaded malady which human beings may contract from the hides of animals, and which already has claimed several victims in Sackville.

TWO YOUTHFUL NAZIS KILLED BY GUARDSMEN

SIGNS OF REVOLT SEEN IN STATEMENT OF HOME GUARD

VIENNA, Jan. 11. (AP)—More than 500 Nazi candidates for court martial are in Austrian jails today as a result of tumultuous nationwide anti-government demonstrations.

Two young Nazi demonstrators paid with their lives for their determination to show Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss that his latest campaign to exterminate Hitlerism here is doomed to failure.

At the same time, the 20,000 members of the Fascist Heimwehr (Home Guard)—upon which the government is depending for vigorous help against the Nazis—let it be known that they do not intend to be "misused for the perpetuation of an outworn system."

In an appeal to all members of the Heimwehr, Prince von Starhemberg, their leader, said he was well aware that some of them had been wondering lately what they were fighting for.

"I promise you," he said, "the Heimwehr will be used only for the achievement of our goal."

That goal, he explained, is an uncompromisingly Fascist Austria with political parties thrown overboard.

In the renewed outburst of violence, characterized by numerous bombings and public demonstrations, Nazis have been joined in their manifestations by persons opposed to the Heimwehr's program to oust socialists as well as followers of Chancellor Adolf Hitler's political organization.

This new development was considered partially responsible for the alarming disturbances in Vienna last night—disturbances marked by the explosion of one bomb which damaged the city railway station and tied up traffic for 30 minutes.

The two young Nazis were slain when home guardsmen fired into a crowd raiding a Klagenfurt newspaper office.

GOTTLIEB AND SCHENKEN WIN BRIDGE TITLE

CULBERTSON IS SWEEP INTO LIST OF ALSO-RANS

NEW YORK, Jan. 11. (AP)—The first annual pair championship of the United States Bridge association passed into history early today with one last wild run of cards that swept aside the hopes of favorites and neophytes alike.

Michael Gottlieb and Howard Schenken, two of the most formidable consistent players in the game, walked off with the cup with a total of 666 1/2 match points—40 points better than their nearest opponent.

A. M. Barnes and Edward Hymes, Jr., also of New York, were second with 626, and next were Mrs. Ely Culbertson and Albert H. Morchhead, also consistent leaders throughout, who had 607 1/2.

Culbertson himself was swept into the also-rans as a result of the day's play, though he started the session at the top. Hand by hand, he saw his margin swept away, and he and Theodore A. Lightner could do no better than eighth place and 663 1/2 points.

The regional champions who came to the contest from a half score cities, placed only one entrant in the first ten—A. P. Stockvis and Leroy Thurtell, of Washington, who were seventh with 591.

Others from out-of-town were: W. E. Brownback and C. C. Locke, St. Louis, eleventh with 571; Capt. F. G. French and Mrs. Olive Peterson, Philadelphia, sixteenth with 535; Ralph Kempner and M. H. Besser, Chicago, and R. H. Coffman and Alvin Novack, St. Louis, ties for seventeenth with 524 1/2; S. M. Ruggerberg and C. L. Waldenberg of Madison, Wis., nineteenth with 524 1/2.

With the pair event out of the way, tourney kibitzers began speculating on the probable winner of the major team of four event, beginning today.

Prowler at Keys Home Flees When Maid Enters Room

A white man wearing a light suit and gray hat, was surprised while trying to break into the H. D. Keys residence last night, but he escaped. The maid heard a noise at one of the bedroom windows and entered the room in time to see the man run from the window.

He had cut a hole in the screen, unlocked it, and was trying to open the window when surprised. The police were called to make a search but they found no suspicious characters. The man apparently had a car parked nearby. Mr. and Mrs. Keys were not at home.

The garage at the Ivy E. Duncan home was entered sometime last night and the rear view mirror of Mr. Duncan's car was stolen. The mirror was a full-view type with a watch in one corner.

Tables Turned On Holdup Pair By Taxi Driver

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 11. (AP)—Fred Neely, taxi driver, turned the tables today and captured two men who tried to hold him up.

One of the pair escaped but was recaptured at an apartment house. The captor of the robbers picked the two men up as fares on a downtown street corner. They ordered him to drive out the Fredericksburg road.

When they reached the destination one of the bandits drew a knife and thrust it against Neely's side. "Get out," the bandit ordered.

Neely complied, drawing a pistol as soon as he stepped into the street. Before the pair could drive away Neely covered them with the pistol.

"It's my turn now," said the taxi driver. Neely got into the back seat of the car and holding the pistol on the robber at the wheel, forced him to drive to his taxi stand. At the stand one of Neely's prisoners broke and ran, but was arrested later by radio patrolmen. Both were placed in jail.

One of Greatest Indian Fighters Is Still Living

BRACKETVILLE, Jan. 11. (AP)—Old Jim Phillip, seated in the doorway of his unpainted two-room house reading his Bible aloud, greeted his visitors in peppy Spanish.

This was the man who had killed more than a score of Indians in his time, one of Texas' greatest living Indian fighters. He is the scout who battled redskins all over west Texas.

Old Jim began his warring as a boy of 13. Then he was trailing the last of the Indians into Mexico, sometimes as far as 125 miles across the Rio Grande. Jim is an Indian himself. He knew the habits of the people of his tribe and that is the reason General Bullis brought him and 25 of his tribesmen from Mexico to this country to work in advance of the army.

Jim is 77 years old, but his eyes are bright and his smile quick. He gets a pension of $15 a month from the United States government for the ten years of scouting he saw with the army in Texas. He was born at Musquiz, in Coahuila, Mexico. Good eyesight and the ability to track a man on foot or horseback after he had passed over a trail several days back made Jim and his kind valuable during the days of Indian warfare.

He said he had participated in 20 to 50 fights. He wore the United States uniform part of the time but usually did not. He put up his rifle many years ago, but continues to live near Fort Clark here.

Premier Admits 'Negligence' In Stavisky Affair

PARIS, Jan. 11 (AP)—The Stavisky scandal storm broke full force on the government of Premier Camille Chautemps in the chamber of deputies today.

The cabinet went before the chamber and sought to avert its overthrow by a frank admission of "faults and negligence" and promises of drastic reforms and punishments in police and judicial procedure.

Deputies opposing the government charged that corruption in the government, in the parliament and in the press enabled serve "Handsomeness" Stavisky, who killed himself Monday when police caught him, to fleece the public of more than $40,000,000.

Stavisky had founded the municipal pawnshop of Bayonne, and disappeared three weeks ago leaving it without assets.

Police, mounted and afoot, patrolled a mile-square area surrounding the chamber of deputies as the interpellations began. The authorities intended there should be no repetition of the events of Tuesday when royalists rioted around the building in a denunciation against the government.

The spectators' galleries were jammed as the premier himself faced the chamber and demanded "the complete truth" of the Bayonne affair which, he said, "was paralyzing the country and threatening the republican regime."

McLean Cagers Drop 2 Games At Panhandle

McLEAN, Jan. 11.—McLean high school basketball teams met too strong competition in Panhandle Tuesday night and lost both games. The Panhandle Panthers downed the Tigers 17 to 11 and the Panthers swamped the McLean girls, 33 to 11. The game was a non-conference tilt.

The boys' teams fought on even grounds until the last few minutes of play, when the Panthers forged to the front with some nicely-executed plays that resulted in field goals. Both teams played steady, fast basketball from the first whistle. The Panthers outplayed the McLean girls all the way.

Boys making the trip were Buell Ellison, George McCarty, Hershel McCarty, L. A. Tolliver, Paul Powell, Charles Stratton, Horace Johnson, Billie Robinson, Cristal Christian and Coach Garrison. Rush Supt. C. A. Cryer, Mr. and Mrs. Vester Smith and son, Vesterlee, also made the trip.

Girls going to the games were Mildred Finley, Mozelle Glenn, Oleta Beck, Charlie Marie Beck, Mary Emma Beck, Sybil Young, Verlyn McPherson, Gertrude Rouse, Nerine Smith, Eve Swafford, Winifred Ayer, and Mrs. Aline McCarty, sponsor.

FISH DEALER TO HEAD CUBS THIS SEASON

CHICAGO CLUB'S NEW PRESIDENT IS WALKER

CHICAGO, Jan. 11. (AP)—William Murphy Walker today forgot his fish and oyster business and centered his attention on his new assignment of bringing a world's baseball championship to Chicago. Walker, one of the leaders in the Federal league baseball war 20 years ago, was elected president of the Chicago Cubs yesterday, succeeding the late William L. Veck.

"We've been in two world series since 1929 and were more or less duds," the genial, heavy-set leader of the Cubs said. "We want another chance and are going after it the closest years, but I think the Cubs are going to win."

The new Cub president, who left Jersey City back in 1878 to make his fortune in Chicago, is 62 years old and one of the game's greatest enthusiasts. He broke into baseball in 1914 when he and two other Chicagoans organized the Chicago Cubs in the war waged by the Federal league. He and his associates erected a park on the North Side, which later was enlarged to the present capacity of Wrigley Field, home of the Cubs, when the late William Wrigley, Jr., bought a controlling interest in the team. Walker stayed in the Cub organization, retaining his stock and becoming vice president. Since the death of Veck last October, he has assumed the presidency.

Partial solution of the vexing radio problem as affecting baseball was seen by many today through the demand of the Cubs that all radio stations, broadcasting Cub games, read a 25 word statement at least five times between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2:30 p. m., advertising the game to be played that day at Wrigley Field. The White Sox and other major league clubs, which permit broadcasts, were expected to follow suit with similar demands for extra advertising over the radio before game time.

Three Firemen Killed By Wall

AURORA, Ill., Jan. 11. (AP)—Firemen searched among the smoldering ruins of a three-story business building today for the body of one of their captives after digging out two others crushed to death by the sudden collapse of the front wall during the height of the midnight blaze.

The missing man was Capt. Charles Hoffman who, other firemen said, had donned a gas mask and entered the basement of the flaming Woolworth five and ten cent store with Captain John Peterson a few minutes before the wall toppled over on them.

Peterson's body and that of Capt. Edward Rees were recovered several hours later. Four others were injured and taken to hospitals.

Fears that others, including spectators, might have been killed were dispelled by firemen.

Strikers Seize Milk, Dump It Into Road

Gallons of milk gushed into a Chicago street and milk cans by the score littered the pavement after strikers captured a truck and dumped its contents, as shown here, in their violent fight to cut off the city's milk supply. Trains were halted and highways blocked by pickets and the city started rationing its meager supply, taking care of only babies and invalids, as the cordon tightened.

TILDEN IS GREATEST LIVING TENNIS PLAYER, SAYS VINES

Old Master Unveils Former National Champ by Score of 8-6, 6-3, 6-2.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (AP)—Take the word of H. Ellsworth Vines Jr., who sampled the old master's fire for three sets last night, the greatest tennis player in the world at the moment is Bill Tilden, 41 years and spry.

"There isn't a man in the game, amateur or professional, who would stand a chance against him in match play," declared "Elly" after Tilden had taken him over the humps by scores of 8-6, 6-3, 6-2 in Vines' debut as a professional at Madison Square Garden.

"Fred Perry of England and Jack Crawford of Australia? He'd beat either of them easy. I know what he did to me, and I know what he did to me," declared "Elly" after Tilden had taken him over the humps by scores of 8-6, 6-3, 6-2 in Vines' debut as a professional at Madison Square Garden.

"I thought I'd faced some services, but that first ball of Bill's has the others backed off the boards," said the 22-year-old Californian, almost reverently. "It was at me before I knew it, and how it twisted!"

He didn't exaggerate. A few minutes before the crowd of nearly 17,000 that packed the garden had sat amazed as Vines, a great national champ on only two years ago, had tried desperately to stem Bill's thunderous service by bracing both hands on his racket. Even then he couldn't keep it in the court.

It was wital, a marvelous show that Big Bill, the showman, had saved up for the unveiling of Vines. He held the sort of audience he liked, with plenty of stiff shirts in the side boxes, and he gave them the works. Vines played some noble tennis, himself, particularly in the opening set, but it takes more than that to hold off Tilden.

Pleased as he was with himself after the match, however, Tilden was generous in his praise of his newest sparring partner.

"Vines played wonderful tennis," considering the fact he was unfamiliar with the indoor surface," he said. "He'll get used to it as he goes along and he'll have the old man humping. He was at a terrible disadvantage tonight."

Vincent Richards and Bruce Barnes battled to a draw in a preliminary singles match that was called after each had won eleven games of the opening set in order to let the big duel start on time. After the main go, Vines and Richards came back to trim Tilden and Frank Hunter in a doubles match, 6-1, 6-0.

POLO RANKING LIST WILL BE MADE FRIDAY

SENSATIONAL MATCHES DEVELOPED GREATLY

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (AP)—After a year marked by an undoubted milestone for polo in the sensational East-West matches at Chicago, the game looks forward to further developments of national and, perhaps, international importance this year.

The annual meeting of the association, tomorrow, will have before it a number of vital and interesting issues. Not the least of these will be the echoes of last year's play and the new ranking list in which the relative positions of such outstanding men as Tommy Hitchcock, Cecil Smith, and Elmer Boeske Jr., will be determined.

Coming about rather suddenly last midsummer, although one might say not entirely without premeditation, the great west met the mighty east for the first time in the national polo history. The west dominated the contest, established two important points: First, the strength of the game in the west and the consequent possibility of great inter-sectional contests within our own borders as a result of the heights to which polo in the west has risen; second, the rediscovery of the American pony.

The cycle leading up to the restoration of the American pony is too complex for recital here, but suffice it to say that this reinstatement to important standing of an American product tunes in beautifully with the present tendency to erect tariff barrier walls throughout the world which conceivably might have had a very serious effect on the game, if our breeding and training of mounts were not manifesting such fine progress.

CONGRESS HEADED TOWARD HALF DOZEN CONTROVERSY ROCKS

MARVIN JONES FILES BILL IN LOWER HOUSE

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY WILL LIKELY PASS PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. (AP)—An imminent disruption of the smooth sailing that has marked the present session appeared inevitable today as congress headed directly toward the rocks of half a dozen controversies.

Most indications, however, were that the Roosevelt program would ride through safely on the surge of the heavy democratic majorities.

The president's control of the house faced a direct test in a situation that meant success or failure for his plan to continue the economy law for another fiscal year.

Democratic leaders planned to have the vote under what the republican minority termed a drastic "gas rule."

In the senate debate was in order on Mr. Roosevelt's proposal for immediate ratification of the St. Lawrence Waterway pact. Here an even closer test of his strength impended.

Made ready for conference between the two chambers were liquor tax bill differences. Into its measure the senate threw an explosive war debt question, proposing an added liquor excise tax on shipments from refunding nations. The house defeated a similar proposal.

Meanwhile, an airing of the Russian recognition situation was indicated in the senate. Two republicans voted in committee against the confirmation of William G. Bullitt, an ambassador.

Mutterings of opposition were heard also to the president's proposal for a federal guarantee of $2,000,000,000 in farm bonds. Even opponents, however, conceded quick passage was assured.

In the background all the time were rumblings against the proposed treatment of veterans, plans for commission to supervise all communications, patronage and the administration's sizeable budget.

Perhaps in some acknowledgment, indications came from administration sources that Mr. Roosevelt would send no more special messages to congress this week or possibly next. His dealings with tariffs and war debts are expected to be deferred at least until Secretary Hull returns from his South American tour.

The house agriculture committee was centered by Chairman Jones (Tex.) upon his own bill introduced yesterday immediately after the president's message was read. It provides for organization of a $200,000,000 corporation headed by William I. Meyers, governor of the farm credit administration, with authority to issue two billion dollars in bonds.

The $200,000,000 capital of the proposed corporation would be supplied by the funds voted the land bank commissioner at the last session of congress.

One of the first moves of the organization, if the measure is passed, would be the refinancing of $150,000,000 held by the reconstruction corporation in return for cash advanced for lending during the past seven months.

Under the new plan, bonds of the corporation will be given borrowers in lieu of cash and will be considered obligations of the government and lawful investments as security for all federal and public funds.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Jan. 11. (AP)—A strong undertone displayed by the utilities held to smooth over some rough spots in other sections of today's stock market. Some of the alcohols also moved up substantially and most of the rails gave a good account of themselves. The close was steady to firm. Transfers approximated 1,900,000 shares:

THREE DIE AS SHIP CRASHES

Plane Plunges into Water Of Lake When Wing Tips Surface of Water.

DALLAS, Jan. 11. (AP)—Three men were dead today after the monoplane in which they were flying low over White Rock lake here plunged into the water when a wing tipped the surface in making a sharp turn.

Those killed were Walter A. (Tige) Flowers, 30, owner of the private plane, who was piloting it; Jack Binion, 30, former manager of the King George hotel, a student flier; and Oscar V. Poynter, 40, machinist and joint operator of a hangar at Love field.

The crash occurred late yesterday in sight of a dozen persons. The plane was reported to have flown low over the lake area for some time before the accident.

It was barely skimming the water when it swung into the turn. Witnesses said it hurtled over on its back into 15 feet of water. The nose of the ship hit the mud at the bottom of the lake, leaving a broken wing and the tail stick dug out of the water. The engine fell from the ship.

Only two bodies were found at first—those of Binion and Flowers. Later the body of Poynter was found about 50 feet from the lake shore and near a wing that had been torn off.

Flowers had been a familiar figure at Love field off and on for several years. He came here from Fort Stockton, Texas. He held a transport pilot's license and had completed more than 1,100 hours of actual flying.

New Corporate Law In Rome To End Democracy

ROME, Jan. 11. (AP)—Italy's definite repudiation of "every liberal and democratic principle" was announced by Count Cesare Maria de Vecchi in reporting to the senate today a head of a special committee appointed to study the nation's new corporate law.

Referring to corporatism as "one of the biggest revolutions in the history of mankind," he said by its adoption in Italy "affirms the absolute supremacy of spirit over material things."

Count de Vecchi, one of Premier Mussolini's four chief lieutenants in the march on Rome, now is ambassador to the Holy See.

Corporate law, he said, signals the rebirth of Rome and "ehampnicis corporate opposition to Marxism."

"It denies socialism as well, and attacks the roots of what has been called a crisis, but has been in reality the 'dissolution of the whole world,' the count asserted.

Citing Fascism's fundamental tenet that "nothing can live in opposition to the state or even out of the state," he said:

"Every government that seeks from human society a kingdom of God on earth must make the unity of all interests its prime objective."

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 11. (AP)—The market continued fairly active all morning, but prices fluctuated rather narrowly after the early lull. Due to profit-taking, the market eased 5 to 6 points from the top with March at 10.87. May at 11.05, and July at 11.19, at these levels still showing net gains of 6 to 7 points. Near noon the market ruled steady at the reaction. Buying support appeared to be prompted by indications of 1934 acreage cuts.

'HUMAN MOLE' THIEF CAUGHT IN LABYRINTH

GROUND UNDER STORES HONEYCOMBED WITH TUNNEL SYSTEM

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Jan. 11 (AP)—In a labyrinth of underground tunnels, dug beneath stores in the heart of Hollywood, two detectives captured a human mole and accused him of burglary.

Herbert Wright, 33, was run down in his asserted lair after he had been shot in the hip. Detectives expressed belief his arrest solved the recent mysterious $1,700 burglary of a drug store.

They believe Wright spent one or two years honeycombing the ground beneath seven stores.

After the drug store robbery, the officers found a tunnel in the basement. Special officer William Smith sat in the tunnel opening for 11 days, often hearing someone moving about but unable to trace him.

Joined by Detective Lieut. Jack Gaines last night, Smith sat again in the tunnel when the rays of a flashlight suddenly cut the darkness. A call to halt was met with a sound of running feet. Gaines took a pot shot and winged the fugitive in the hip but his flight was not stopped.

Officers said the tunnels were filled with pitfalls to trap pursuers. They also found that peep holes had been drilled, giving a view of the drug store safe, the dial of which had been coated with a luminous paint. They assumed that in this manner the burglar had sought to copy the combination as employees turned the dial. In Wright's pockets, the officers said they found several notions, apparently safe combinations.

Mrs. Willie Clark of Miami was admitted to Pampa hospital this morning.

F. B. Morris of Clarendon received emergency treatment at Pampa hospital last night. He received cuts about the head and wrists when his car ran into a ditch near Groom. He was suffering from exposure when found and brought to the hospital. He operates the Clarendon Mattress factory.

Charles Crutchfield of Stinnett transacted business here yesterday.

Jack Satterfield of Berger was a visitor in Pampa today.

J. J. Kuehn of Roxana spent yesterday afternoon in the city.

L. F. Karley of Skellytown showed here last night.

SERVANTS WILL APE SOCIALITES AT HOTEL BALL

Butlers Entitled To Be Snootier Than Others

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (AP)—James and Josie are going to have a party Friday night.

This is the butlers' ball. It is the occasion when the servants strut, leaving the social register sinks full of social register dirty dishes.

All the very best help from the very best families will be there: butlers, second men, parlor maids, second maids, waitresses and probably a few gardeners.

A most unique financial arrangement provides that tickets to the ball, which will be at the Hotel Commodore, must be purchased by the society folk themselves, and turned over to the hired hands. The hired hands will carry on from that point under their own power.

Those butlers and maids who wish to sit in boxes, who wish, in fact, to be a wee bit snootier than the others, may do so by paying an additional five dollars.

Among the boxholders will be none other than Forbes, who butlers for Mrs. Otto H. Kahn; Hart, the Marshall Field valet; Goodchild, who carries the card tray at Mrs. Robert Livingston Terry's house; and Putz, who throws out a mean chest to persons who push Mrs.

William Woodward's doorbell. White, who serves the tea for Mrs. Charles Morgan, and the entire below-stairs staff from Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt's place, will be among the box holders.

Swiss Pair In Hunger Strike In China Jail

NANKING, Jan. 11 (AP)—The eyes of all China were directed today toward a Chinese prison here where two life prisoners, a man and his wife, are fasting themselves to death.

The man, Paul Noulens, a Swiss, sentenced in 1932 as an arch-communist, entered the twenty-third day of his hunger strike; his wife, Gertrude Noulens, has gone fifteen days without eating.

Their decision to kill themselves by hunger was made in protest against refusal of their repeated requests for new trials.

Noulens' condition is critical and doctors fear he may not live three days more. Mrs. Noulens looks like a ghost; she is dead-white and very thin. Ties and oxfords, high and low heels, Ladies take advantage of this unusual opportunity to save on footwear.

KING GEORGE'S 'NEPHEW' WINS COURT RULING

SAYS WITNESSES WILL TESTIFY MOTHER WED DUKE

LONDON, Jan. 11 (AP)—Clarence Guy Gordon Haddon, 43-year-old unemployed consulting engineer, won the right to call defense witnesses when he went on trial today charged with threatening and attempting to blackmail King George.

Agreeing to subpoena witnesses, but reserving decision on whether he will hear them, Justice Charles of Old Bailey—London's famous criminal court—adjourned the hearing until either January 19 or 23.

Haddon, who claims to be the legitimate son of the late Duke of Clarence, elder brother of King George, told the court:

"I have witnesses to say that my mother was secretly married to the Duke of Clarence."

"We won't say anything about that," the justice replied. "I will allow the subpoenas. I only want to indicate that if I find that they have no relevance to the charge itself, although they may be relevant to other matters, you will, I know, expect me in pursuance of my duty not to hear them."

Haddon asserted they had "variance, adding 'I am trying to prove I had grounds for making these appeals to his majesty the king.'"

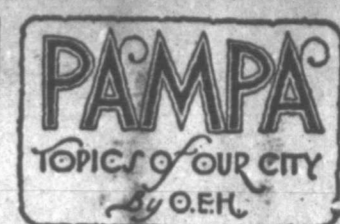

In this, he referred to letters he is alleged to have written to the king asking a $3,000 a year private income, "with enough ready money to 'set up a modern boarding house.'"

"Rightly or wrongly, I am trying to show that I have been hounded and pestered all my life through the belief and these people could verify my statement," he asserted.

Asked if he had counsel, Haddon said he was defending himself because of lack of funds.

His bail of 100 pounds (normally $500), was renewed on Haddon's promise not to issue letters, posters or correspondence of any sort until the trial is resumed.

The Duke of Clarence, Prince Albert Victor, to whom Haddon claims relationship, died in January, 1892, at 28.

When we went a thing, we want it. The other night we purchased a thermometer.

WHEREIN, we checked the temperature before daylight.

—when we got before daylight, in nailing the thing on the back porch wall, we jarr'd it once too many times. The top of the glass tube flew off. Undaunted, we bought a different sort of thermometer. En route home, we jarr'd the thing and part of the column of mercury separated and went to the top. In trying to join the mor-

cury, we used every jar and jugle known, but in vain. Then we heated the bulb very gradually until the two parts were nearly together. Then we bounced, jarr'd, rotated, and juggled. And without result. Next we heated the thing some more, very carefully, thinking slight pressure might unite the mercury. It did, but the bulb at the bottom exploded at the same time! Then we started out buying for thermometers. Frank Hill let us have his 1933 First National Bank thermometer. And the Atkinson & Gunn advertisement boys, hearing of our difficulties, brought us a 1934 glass thermometer. We're still in a jive mood. We read one of the Napoléon tried unsuccessfully to make clocks tick together. We drew the moral that it was a duty to make humans think alike. EXPENDITURES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—Federal expenditures for the fiscal year ended September 30, 1933, totaled $3,000,000,000, according to the budget estimates, released here today to fulfill President Roosevelt's budget estimates.
