HINT SUICIDE IN DEATH OF DR. KENNEDY

DEFENSE ALSO HOLDS LETTERS IN POISON WHISKY TRIAL

GREENWOOD, Miss., Feb. 7 (AP)—Attorneys defending Dr. Sarah Ruth Dean against a charge of murdering Dr. John Preston Kennedy by poison today met a state move to introduce alleged "love letters" from the woman physician to Kennedy with disclosure that the defense held letters from Kennedy to Dr. Dean.

The state yesterday said it would offer the letters as identifying the signatures—"Ruth"—as Dr. Dean's handwriting. Of the letters held by the defense, Attorney Dick Deman said:

"We'll see whether they'll be submitted as evidence or not as the trial goes on."

Dr. Henry Kennedy, state star witness, who has charged in testimony that his brother, John Preston, accused Dr. Dean in a dying declaration of poisoning him, resumed the stand for cross-examination, but said he had not yet gathered all the data on the Kennedy estate asked by the defense.

Indicating they will attempt to prove a case of suicide in the death of John Preston, defense attorneys have requested a full accounting of Kennedy's estate.

Party To Make Trip In Behalf Of North Road

Bonnie W. Rose, chairman of the B. C. D. highways committee, Geo. Briggs, and other Pampans will go to Miami Monday to confer with Roberts county commissioners concerning a road north across the Canadian river.

The trip will be made at the invitation of the commissioners. It is believed a route can be selected that will be satisfactory to Miami, Pampa, Spearman, and Perryton.

Yesterday a trip to the river was made by L. A. White, Briggs, Willis Seales, and C. L. Thomas. Difficulties of bridging the wide, sandy river were noted. Soundings must be made to find the best location for a bridge.

Pampa Pioneer Robbed of $150 In San Antonio

Dave Pope, pioneer Pampa resident who is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Pope and daughter, Miss Claudine, in San Antonio, was hijacked early yesterday afternoon on one of San Antonio's downtown streets. Friends here were notified this morning.

Two men, both armed with pistols, stepped beside Mr. Pope and ordered him to hand over his money. Mr. Pope gave the men the $50 he had just received from cashing a traveler's check. The two men then forced Mr. Pope to go down a side street with them where they forced him to endorse two more checks of $50 each.

Pedestrians were unaware that a hold-up was in progress until after the men had escaped around a corner. Mr. Pope was unable to obtain a good description of the two men.

Floyd Reed of LeFors was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Texas Rangers Nab Suspects

Two suspects were captured and 7,742 in loot recovered by Texas officers in a far-flung hunt for bandits who robbed the Coleman, Texas, bank, carrying with $24,000. Shown here, left to right, are Geo. Johnson, Texas ranger; the two suspects, John Newton, 30, and Marie Newton, 27; Deputy Sam Rogers, Austin, and Capt. E. H. Hammond of the Rangers, holding the sack of loot and a pistol taken from the prisoners.

PAMPA

Twinkles

"Road to Ruin" as a title is a bit too reminiscent of a certain Hooverera, and America's meanings therein.

A smart Texas gubernatorial candidate is going to be one that can remember the names of all his opponents. He cannot hope to keep up with all their platforms and speeches, and neither can you.

They can put knee action in the cars, but "walking home" from auto rides—if such is done still—will find the same old shoe leather dependable, says a certain Pampa girl.

You can swear at Wall Street if you enjoy it, but Gray county will be repaying Wall Street loans for many a remaining year.

You can do your good turn of the month—and be entertained as well, by attending the Lions minstrel Monday and Wednesday nights. Families in need of medical treatment for crippled children will bless you for the help.

MINSTREL TO RAISE FUND TO AID CRIPPLES

Lions Show Vital To Unfortunate Pampans

PAMPA civic clubs constantly are rehabilitating lives and even saving them. Various means are used for raising funds to carry on this work.

The Lions depend much upon the minstrel show and musical review given each year for the benefit of its fund for the benefit of crippled children and the under-privileged. This year's show will be presented in the city auditorium next Monday and Wednesday at 8:15 p. m. Tickets are on sale at Fathere Drug No. 4. A few seats can be reserved at 75 cents, but most of the auditorium is unreserved with admission 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. All members of the club have tickets for sale.

Yesterday the diseased tonsils of a sick boy were removed with the club paying the cost. Another child, fearfully burned, is having frequent skin grafts to rebuild his body. The Lions are paying the bills at a hospital. The club has "adopted" a family stricken by unemployment, measles, and pneumonia. The children, two of whom were dangerously ill when discovered and removed to a hospital, are recovering.

Recent activities of the crippled children's committee of the club, include treatment of double-curvature of the spine, bone tuberculosis, leg fractures, and club feet.

In order that this humanitarian work may continue in 1934, the Lions hope that two big audiences will greet their show next week.

Wheeler Titles Will Be Decided During Week-End

MOBETTIE, Feb. 7.—Championship in basketball in the northern half of Wheeler county is to be decided here Friday and Saturday of this week. The winners of the northern half will meet the champions from the southern half next week.

The winners in the Class B section for senior boys will meet Shamrock for the right to represent this county at the Pampa meet. Wheeler, Mobettie girls division will represent this county against the winners of the Canadian Section on Feb. 17.

The Mobettie boys are entered in Class B this year, and are favored to win in that section in this county. Should they win, they will meet their ancient rivals, the Shamrock Irishmen, for the county championship. Wheeler county forms one of the four divisions in the Pampa district.

Miss Frances Hudson, who became ill with measles while visiting her grandparents at Panhandle, has recovered sufficiently to return to her home, 807 E. Craven.

PROGRAM AT WEBB

An all-male production entitled "A Howling Success" will be presented at the Webb school Friday evening at 8 o'clock, it was learned today. The Webb P.-T. A. is sponsoring the event.

W. T. Welch of Borger spent the day in Pampa.

BILL TO LEGALIZE LIQUOR SALE IN TEXAS INTRODUCED IN HOUSE

AUSTIN, Feb. 7 (AP)—A bill proposing to liberalize Texas' prohibition statutes by permitting distribution of whisky and other liquors in unlimited quantities thru state-licensed drug stores on prescription of registered physicians was filed with the chief clerk of the Texas house today by Representative T. H. McGregor of Austin.

McGregor said the subject could be considered under a message sent to the legislature by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson in which she opened the subject of taxation. His bill would provide for a state tax of six and one-fourth cents per pint with cities and counties empowered to levy half this amount.

The bill carried 25 signatures.

Speaker Coke Stevenson said he had not decided if the bill could be introduced under the governor's message and it was being delayed on first reading until this point has been settled.

The bill would allow physicians to issue a prescription to an individual that could be refilled as often as desired and for any quantity of liquor over a period of a year without renewal. It would be kept on file at the drug store where originally filled and refilled at will on written application of the persons to whom issued.

McGregor estimated the bill would raise approximately $1,000,000 in revenue.

TAX QUESTION IS SUBMITTED BY GOVERNOR

MINOR REVISIONS ARE NEEDED TO DELAY PAYMENT

AUSTIN, Feb. 7 (AP)—The house of representatives refused to concur today in senate amendments to a bill to extend the time for payment of motor vehicle registrations to March 31.

The bill was sent to a conference committee. House sponsors said only minor revisions would be necessary and expected to have an agreed bill late today.

AUSTIN, Feb. 7 (AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today sent a special message to the Texas legislature submitting the question of levying taxes to retire state relief bonds.

The message followed the action yesterday of speaker of the house Coke Stevenson in ruling that revenue measures to raise a bond retirement fund could not be considered unless specifically submitted by the governor. Stevenson's ruling was based on a motion to return to committee a bill proposing issuance of $4,500,000 in bonds with instructions to the committee to recommend a tax sufficient to retire the obligations to enhance their market ability.

Governor Ferguson stated she was under the impression that the call for the session and her general message were "sufficiently broad" to provide for taxation to provide for the sinking fund to retire relief bonds.

"I call attention to the fact that my message says to pass such law or laws as may be necessary to issue and sell the retaining bonds proposed and permitted under the constitutional amendment," the message stated.

"But to avoid any unnecessary discussion, I hereby submit the question of raising by taxation revenues with which to pay the interest and sinking fund necessary to retire the bonds."

Bills were filed immediately to levy taxes to retire the bonds. They included a tax on chain stores and a tax on natural gas production.

The chain store tax would start at $1 on one store and reach a maximum of $500 per store on stores in a chain containing more than 50 establishments. Three-fourths of the tax would go to the bond retirement fund and one-fourth to the school fund.

The gas tax would be three-fourths of one cent per 1,000 cubic feet of gas produced for light and fuel. All the tax would be allotted to retirement of the bonds.

The house meanwhile continued deliberation on administrative features of the bond bill.

Parents Asked To Be At Local Scout Program

Attention of parents, especially, is directed to the Boy Scout mobilization in the city auditorium on Saturday morning at 10 a. m.

Honors will be awarded individual Scouts and troops, Scouts reaching 25 will be inducted into citizenship, and President Roosevelt will be heard in a special broadcast to the boys.

Troops from neighboring towns will arrive early Saturday for athletic events and a parade before the main assembly is begun.

The program for the day was being completed today at the office of Executive C. A. Clark.

An educational meeting sponsored by the Canadian Valley Production Loan association will be held at the courthouse tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Officers of the association will explain its method and how loans may be obtained.

All farmers interested are requested to attend, even though they do not expect to ask loans. Similar meetings are being held by associations throughout the Panhandle. Gray county is in the jurisdiction of the Canadian Valley association.

Last Lesson Of M. E. Course Will Be Given Tonight

The concluding discussion of St. Mark's life of Jesus will be given this evening by the Rev. Gaston Foote at the regular "food, faith and fun" night in the basement of the church. The pastor began the course a little over a month ago, and attendance has increased from 50 to an average of over 100. Preceding the lesson, a covered dish luncheon will be served at 6:45 p. m. This will be followed by a 15-minute recreation period. Members of the church are asked to bring what they would "have for supper."

Immediately after the Bible study, the stewards of the church will hold their regular meeting. Rev. Foote urged every steward to be present.

May Indict Higher-Ups

Three Persons High In American Legion Involved In Army Graft Plot, Claim.

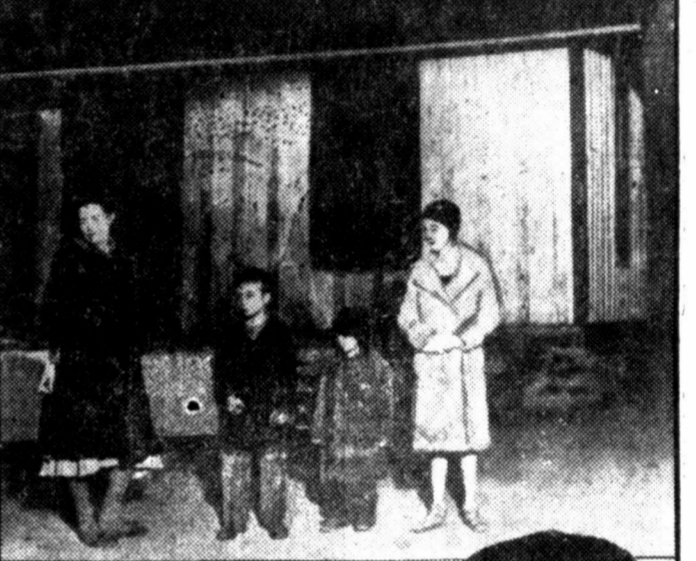

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—The Evening Star says today that indictment of at least three persons—two of them high in the ranks of the American Legion, will be asked of the federal grand jury by the government in connection with the alleged conspiracy to graft on the millions of dollars allotted for motorizing the army.

As President Roosevelt today asked Attorney General Cummings to go to the bottom of the reported irregularities, a procession of army officers and motor company representatives went into the grand jury room some blocks away.

The only name publicly mentioned by the war and justice departments in the inquiry is that of Joseph Silverman, Jr., of New York. The Star reports that evidence presented to the grand jury is said to have incriminated a former high executive of the Legion, now practicing law here, and a legal associate.

An unnamed high officer of the National Guard also is reported by the Star to be involved.

Five Killed in Police Trap

Two officers and three bandits were killed in a bullet battle at the Lee Davis farm home, near Sapulpa, Okla., shown in top photo, and a lynching narrowly averted when three suspects were taken to Sapulpa jail. Police Chief Thomas Brumley of Sapulpa.

Wheeler County To Hard-Surface Highway No. 41

Wheeler county has been allotted $50,000 to spend on catclaw-asphalt to be placed on Oil Field Highway No. 41 eastward from Wheeler, it was reported by George Briggs after a trip to that county.

Yesterday Wheeler county officials were to meet with Oklahoma road men at Sayre to discuss means for speeding the improvement of the road between the two points. Wheeler county hopes to obtain CWA aid to finish improving the road to the Oklahoma line.

Surveys have been made, but there is some right-of-way yet to be obtained.

Pampans Invited To Hoover Event

Pampans who wish an evening of fun Friday and expect to go to the Hoover school's box supper are requested to meet at the city hall in time to leave promptly at 7:30 p. m. Those who do not know the way to the school will be directed by chamber of commerce committees.

Smith Acquitted In Slaying

Partly-Paralyzed Man Says He Shot J. M. Holloway In Self-Defense.

MURPHY SMITH, charged with the slaying of J. M. Holloway January 15, was acquitted by a jury in 11th district court last night.

The jury took the case at 6:40 and returned the verdict at 8:30 after taking time out for dinner. It was reported that five members were for conviction on the first ballot.

After doubt had been expressed that Smith, who is partly paralyzed, had been able to slay Holloway, the defendant took the stand to describe how he rose from his bed, stumbled forward to lean against a chest of drawers, and shot Holloway from that position. It was a self-defense plea.

MOBS TOPPLE GOVERNMENT—MANY KILLED

SCORES INJURED WHEN POLICE FIRE ON RIOTERS

PARIS, Feb. 7 (AP)—The ministry of war today denied reports that martial law had been declared in Paris.

PARIS, Feb. 7 (AP)—Gaston Doumergue, former president, agreed today to try to form a new government of France.

PARIS, Feb. 7 (AP)—France ousted one government and called for another today, but the howling mobs which forced out Premier Daladier continued their rioting.

Edouard Daladier resigned his premiership even as crowds stoned mounted guards stationed in the Place de la Concorde where yesterday rioters were shot by police and military machine guns.

The government placed the official death toll at six civilians when three guardsmen, reported missing and shown in the Seine, were found in hospitals, injured by the fighting, but unofficial estimates said as many as 50 persons were killed.

Shortly after Daladier and his cabinet resigned, President Lebrun offered the premiership to Senator Louis Barthou, who served France as premier from 1910 to 1913.

Before offering the government leadership to Barthou, Lebrun tendered it to Gaston Doumergue, former president, but Doumergue refused the post.

Skirmishes between the police and demonstrators steadily developed. In one of these a demonstrator was seen trampled under foot.

The riots continued, with mobs parading the boulevards.

Violence broke out in the Place de la Concorde, around the Madeleine church, and down the Rue Royale leading into the Place de la Concorde.

Doumergue was called in to save the situation shortly after Edouard Daladier resigned, taking his whole cabinet with him.

But the attempt to change governments, although political observers thought it would succeed, did not appease the fighting spirit of the mobs.

Sabres flashed as mounted guards—

Allison Teams Will Play Here Friday Evening

The Allison boys' and girls' basketball teams will play in Pampa Friday night. Pampa coaches announced this morning. Both Pampa teams have an off week, waiting for the bi-county championship to be decided between Hedley and Panhandle teams. The Pampa teams will meet the winners.

Allison has two of the outstanding teams in this section. The Allison Lassies took the Hemphill county championship by a one-point margin to Canadian's Crazy Kats here last night. The Kats won the district and went to the national tournament last year.

Allison's boys' team won the Mobeetic tournament and then took the Canadian tournament where some of the best teams in the Panhandle of Texas and Oklahoma were entered. Hedley only defeated the Allison boys by one point.

The first game will be called at 7:15 o'clock. Admission will be 15 cents for students and 25 cents for adults.

Mrs. F. R. Adams of Mobeetic shopped in the city yesterday afternoon.

A. A. Proctor of McKee, Okla., is visiting friends here for a few days.

WORLD AIM: TO CONQUER FEAR

President Roosevelt said months ago that all we need to fear is fear. In Japan, fear is a political weapon, something to keep the taxpayers from revolting because of millions spent on military junkets and feverish preparation. The fear of America is whetted.

Those relations are rather delicate just now; have been, in fact, for several years. Both sides have grown nervous thinking of the war into which they may stumble if they aren't careful. And there is reason to suspect that it is this nervous fear of war which is precisely the greatest danger.

The other day five Japanese were discovered taking photographs in the vicinity of a shipyard in New Jersey. Two cruisers are being built for the U. S. navy in that shipyard, so the Japanese immediately were pinched as spies.

An investigation, however, showed that they merely had been seeing the sights. Two negatives in their cameras contained nothing more damaging than views of the New York skyline.

The Tokio press, quite naturally, got sarcastic about all this. One paper regretted ironically that Japan has no planes that could fly all the way from Tokio to New Jersey to drop bombs. Others commented on America's nervousness, regretting that America was in a frame of mind to get alarmed over an unimportant and harmless incident.

Now the interesting thing about this, of course, is the fact that exactly the same thing has been happening in Tokio. American world flyers have been arrested in Japan because they unwittingly flew over certain Japanese fortified areas.

It is not so very long since innocent employees of an American branch bank in Tokio were arrested—just like the Japanese in New Jersey—for taking pictures in the vicinity of important shipyards.

Any American can understand that the activities of these Americans in Japan were completely innocent. Similarly, any Japanese can see that the Japanese who fell into the law's hands in New Jersey were sightseers pure and simple.

But each nation is so ready to believe that the other is harboring diabolic plots that the most harmless incident can be made to look like a sign of impending war.

And it is just this nervous readiness to expect the worst that creates the kind of tension from which wars are made. If we could get over our fear, the task of finding peaceful adjustments for the difficulties between the two nations would be made immeasurably easier.

JAPS SUSPECT INTENTIONS OF U. S. IN CHINA

United States and China which obliges Americans to assist in China's aviation development.

The foreign minister said the foreign office and the Japanese army also were seeking to determine whether American financial participation in the new airlines southward from Shanghai constitutes a violation of China's old promises to Japan not to alienate any portion of the Fukien seaboard.

The Pan-American Airways, the International United States Airline, recently went into partnership with the Chinese government to establish an air route in China. Mail and passenger planes, piloted by Americans, are now in regular operation over the routes.

Hirota's statement, was in answer to a question by Atsushi Akaike, who asked that the new Chinese airways with American backing has been establishing air bases at Amoy and elsewhere in

Fukien province from which bombing planes could easily attack Formosa.

Hirota replied: "If these assertions are correct, it appears that China is violating her pledge not to employ foreign capital in the establishment of military bases along the Fukien coast but careful investigation is necessary to determine whether the airlines are commercial or military."

The Japanese contend that the exchanges of notes April 36, 1898, and May 15, 1915, constituted Chinese pledges concerning Fukien province in which Japan claims a special interest owing to the proximity of the Japanese island of Formosa.

GOVERNMENT TO SEND STUDENTS TO UNIVERSITY

Will Return 100,000 To College In 10 Days

FAIRFIELD, Iowa, Feb. 7 (AP)—Young men and women whose educational careers were interrupted by the depression are going back to school, and the federal government in cooperation with American universities and colleges will pay their way.

The plan, mapped by Dr. Clarence Wilson Green, president of Parsons college, today had the approval of the U. S. commissioner of education, Dr. George F. Zook, and Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator.

Receipts of a message signed by Hopkins stating that a federal fund has been set aside for the purpose was announced by Dr. Green.

The program is designed to return 100,000 students to the college and university class rooms within ten days, Dr. Green said.

Funds to finance the project were asked in the blanket request which President Roosevelt made to congress last month.

Students benefiting by the plan will work on the campuses, in laboratories, libraries, or other departments, or on nearby public projects, at a minimum wage of 30 cents an hour.

They will be paid from $10 to $20 a month, according to individual needs, and the university or college is to cooperate by waiving tuition and other fees.

The students will be chosen from applications which will be received by the president of each college and university participating in the program. All college entrance requirements must be met, including the general requirement of a four-year high school education.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 7 (AP)—Judgment of $5,900 against Aimee Semple McPherson-Hutton, evangelist, was awarded today to attorney J. Roy Stewart, late motion picture director, because of her failure to carry out a contract he had with her to make a movie based on her life.

Noted Minister Dies At Dallas

DALLAS, Feb. 7 (AP)—The colorful career of Dr. A. C. Parker, 57, one-time cowpuncher, minister and former cyclops of the Dallas Ku Klux Klan, was closed by death here at his home last night.

From preaching the gospel to cowboys huddled around prairie camp fires, Dr. Parker rose to pastorates in many Texas towns and then came to Dallas to organize the Rosemont Christian church, now one of the largest in the city. He later organized the Memorial Christian church of Oak Cliff after a split occurred in his Rosemont congregation.

Dr. Parker was said to have amassed a fortune in West Texas oil fields and was also interested in real estate and insurance businesses here.

FEAR AMERICANS ARE BUILDING PLANE BASES

BY GLENN BABB, TOKYO, Feb. 7 (AP)—Koki Hirota, foreign minister, told the house of peers today that Japan is endeavoring to learn whether a secret treaty exists between the United States and China which obliges Americans to assist in China's aviation development.

The foreign minister said the foreign office and the Japanese army also were seeking to determine whether American financial participation in the new airlines southward from Shanghai constitutes a violation of China's old promises to Japan not to alienate any portion of the Fukien seaboard.

The Pan-American Airways, the International United States Airline, recently went into partnership with the Chinese government to establish an air route in China. Mail and passenger planes, piloted by Americans, are now in regular operation over the routes.

Hirota's statement, was in answer to a question by Atsushi Akaike, who asked that the new Chinese airways with American backing has been establishing air bases at Amoy and elsewhere in Fukien province from which bombing planes could easily attack Formosa.

Hirota replied: "If these assertions are correct, it appears that China is violating her pledge not to employ foreign capital in the establishment of military bases along the Fukien coast but careful investigation is necessary to determine whether the airlines are commercial or military."

The Japanese contend that the exchanges of notes April 36, 1898, and May 15, 1915, constituted Chinese pledges concerning Fukien province in which Japan claims a special interest owing to the proximity of the Japanese island of Formosa.

NRA Hurts Small Business Man, Capper Claims

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Senator Capper (R., Kan.) declared today in an address he felt the small industries and small business men were "the forgotten people of the new deal" and asserted that some NRA codes appeared to be written "in the interest of big business and against the interest of the little business."

"If the abrogation of the anti-trust laws for those who have striven to do the right thing," he said, "means that big business is going to grow still bigger; that ownership and control, instead of being more scattered over the country, is to be centralized—then either congress made a terrible mistake in repealing the anti-trust laws for that purpose, or some one is making a mistake that amounts to an economic crime in administering the codes."

The address was delivered over the Columbia broadcasting system.

Ater Will Play For Roadrunners During Summer

Raymond Ater, one of the best known baseball players in the Southwest, arrived in Pampa yesterday to make his permanent home. Ater started to work at the Danciger Refinery and will play baseball for the Roadrunners this summer.

Ater, a shortstop or third baseman, was with the Fort Worth Cats in the Texas league last year, but due to illness was unable to play steady ball. Two years ago, he was with Shreveport and Longview. He first became known as a baseball player while attending the University of Texas, where he played four years. He accompanied the Lubbock Hubbers to the Amarillo tournament one year and from there went "up."

It was rumored here yesterday that Hardin, pitcher and third baseman of the House of David team, will come to Pampa to join the Roadrunners. The Roadrunners are still in need of a catcher to assist Jake Leggett, youthful star of last season.

Earl Roff, superintendent of the plant, and Aaron Ward, team manager who is a former New York Yankee second baseman, plan to have an active season with double the number of games played last year.

ALLISON NOSED OUT 21 TO 20 BY CANADIAN

KRAZY KATS CAPTURE HEMPHILL COUNTY CAGE TITLE

Coaches and officials argued for 45 minutes before the game last night over legality of unique facing regarding tactics used by the Allison girls, and then Canadian's tall Krazy Kats captured the Hemphill county championship by nosing out Allison, 21 to 20.

Superior height won the game for the Kats, and that was the reason why the Allison guards put their hands over the Canadian forwards' eyes, without personal contact, when they attempted to shoot a field goal. The Canadian girls were tall—at least a head taller than the Allison lassies. The blindfolding defense was the only thing left for them to do, their coach argued. The referee, Coach Garrison Rush of McLean, and the Canadian officials, were inclined to believe that blindfolding, although not forbidden by the rule books, was blocking.

The game started after it was agreed to call the ball out of bounds and give it to Canadian when the Allison girls blindfolded the Kats. It was also agreed that the Lassies could use only one hand in blindfolding.

The Kats had an easy time of it until the last quarter. At that point the battle, Canadian was leading by 10 points and had been leading by a similar margin since the first period. In the third period, Canadian's second best guard, Williams, was put out of the game on personals. In the last quarter, Fletcher, the Kats' best guard, also left on personals. From then on until the final whistle, every time the Lassies got the ball they scored, but the trouble was they couldn't get the ball often enough.

In the first quarter the Allison girls kept the ball most of the time. They missed enough setups to win the game in that period. They missed a dozen or so free shots, and as many crisp shots. Their aim was just as poor in the second period. The Canadian girls couldn't miss the basket in the first half, but they got few opportunities to shoot at it because the Allison girls kept the ball.

The last-minute battle was at center. The tall Kats out-jumped their opponents and kept the ball just long enough in their end of the court to ward off defeat. At one point in the fourth period, the two teams were tied. More fouls were called on Allison in the fourth than in the two preceding quarters.

Punston, Allison forward, was high scorer of the game with 10 points, and Fullingim of Canadian was second with 9 points. The latter did not enter the game until

WOMEN'S WRESTLING CROWN TO BE SETTLED ON FRIDAY

Neil Became Champ Simply By Saying That She Was; Now Ruby Wants Title.

BY WILLIAM WEEKES, Associated Press Sports Writer. CHICAGO, Feb. 7 (AP)—She couldn't get a job teaching physical training and the vaudeville business hasn't been so good lately, so Neil Donald, 27 and comely, is out to get some of the money she has heard there is in wrestling.

After graduating from the Chicago normal school of physical education Neil looked about for a teaching position in some school system, but had no luck. Then, she traveled all over the country doing a comely acrobatic act with two other girls. There has been little or no market for that kind of act, and she found herself out of a job.

Hearing about all the money Jim Londos, Joe Savoldi and all the rest of the wrestling "champions" were making, Neil set out to see if a woman couldn't get some of it. She learned all about the alpine spinning tackle and body slam, and claimed the women's wrestling championship of the world, figuring that some one would come along sooner or later to dispute her claim.

Sure enough, along came another Chicago girl, Ruby Allen, and they planned to wrestle it out. They ran into a snag immediately, for the Illinois State Athletic commission refused to issue licenses to women from obtaining licenses. They were issued this week.

"Wrestling is no more strenuous than basketball, tumbling or field hockey," Neil said, "so I couldn't see any reason why a woman should not be allowed to wrestle. Wrestling is popular, teaching jobs are scarce, so why shouldn't I wrestle?"

So, the soprano voices of Neil and Ruby will be added to the wrestling's grunt and groan chorus at the Cjeto stadium in a 10-minute match Friday night.

PANHANDLE IS DEFEATED BY HEDLEY 33-28

PANTHERS LEADING 15 TO 3 AT HALF BUT OWLS RECOVER

Loating the first half but coming back to show a wonderful brand of basketball during the last half of the game, the Hedley Owls last night defeated the Panhandle Panthers 33 to 28 in the first play-off game to decide which team will meet the Pampa Harvesters for bi-sectional honors.

The Panhandle boys had the Owls down 15 to 3 at the half but a fast-breaking combination started scoring soon after the second half got under way to allow the Owls to come within easy reach of the Panthers. Chiloat, Evans and Armstrong combined into a scoring machine that accepted perfect passes from their guards and looped baskets almost at will.

The Felts to Felts passing and shooting attack worked nicely for the Panthers in the first half but the Owls smothered the brother act the rest of the game, excepting for a few long shots and some nice close passing and scoring.

The Panhandle girls swamped the Hedley girls 45 to 19 in a class exhibition of basketball. Hedley is favored to win the boys' section and Panhandle the girls' section, and the right to meet the Pampa teams.

Sand bars are being formed which, it is believed, will connect the Aleutian islands with the Alaskan mainland.

He started to play the game seriously, he put together a high cluster of 20 in tournament competition.

If Hoppe is successful in winning the tournament, which closes February 22, he will be holder of three titles, including 18.1 balk line, and cushion crooms, competition in which was renewed last year.

Keeping pace with Hoppe in yesterday's play were Layton, Allen Hall, Chicago, and Tiff Denton, title holder from Kansas City.

Today's matches:

Afternoon—Hall vs. Len Kenney, Chicago; Alfredo de Oro, New York, vs. Augie Klockhefer, Chicago.

Night—J. N. Bozeman Jr., Vallejo, Calif., vs. Otto Reiset, Philadelphia; Welker Cochran, San Francisco, vs. Denton.

HOPPE BEATS THURNBLAD IN CUE TOURNEY

CHAMPION BELIEVES HE IS PLAYING BEST BILLIARDS

BY ORLO ROBERTSON, Associated Press Sports Writer. NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP)—William Frederick Hoppe, called Willie since the days he climbed aboard a soap box at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson to learn the rudiments of billiards in the early days of the century, is making his third bid for the world's three-cushion title more from necessity than desire.

Take it from Hoppe himself, who at the age of 18 started the world by defeating the great French cue line ace, Maurice Vignaux, he would much rather play balk line billiards, the game in which he earned his reputation, than match strokes with the best three-cushion stars.

"Balk line is the game I know best and love," Hoppe said. "If there were only more competition at either 18.1 or 18.2 I would gladly desert three cushions and play again for our balk line championship."

Hoppe, who left balk line six years ago to play in his first three-cushion tournament, opened his bid for Welker Cochran's crown last night by defeating Arthur Thurnblad, 50 former champion from Chicago, 20 to 23-1-44 about the center.

Twice since he entered the three-cushion game, the former boy wonder, now 46 years of age, his hair rapidly thinning but still the old master of the green cloth table, was turned back by the former Seattle Mo. carpenter, Johnny Layton, himself ten times holder of the championship.

"I am playing the best billiards of my career, I believe," Hoppe declared after his victory. "Sure it must be in the books for me to win this time."

As for retiring, that thought has not even entered Hoppe's mind. He figures he still has several years of competition left.

"I look here and still able to beat such players as the champion, Welker Cochran," he said, pointing to Alfredo de Oro, veteran Cuban.

Although the three-cushion title has twice evaded his grasp, Hoppe holds the world's high run record. In an exhibition match against Charles C. Peteren at San Diego, Calif., in 1918, while he was still starring balk line, Willie clipped off 25 billiards. Then years later when Invitations will be sent this week to presidents of women's clubs here, and also to state and district chairmen of art in federated women's clubs, to attend the tea.

Following the program, the display will be thrown open to the public from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock. Yesterday's program continued a study of French art with works of Manet as the subject. Mrs. John V. Andrews was leader, and Misses R. B. Fisher, O. H. Booth, T. W. Jamison, and T. W. Sweetman assisted with discussions.

In the last two weeks of December, Monterey, Cal., sardine fishermen brought in 12,290 tons of sardines.

BLOND GODDESS

A New Serial by HERBERT JENSEN

SYNOPSIS: With horror Frank Grahame just has seen Janice Kent, movie star, being led up the steps of a Mayan pyramid surrounded by riflemen. He, with Juan, a Mexican boy, has been searching the Mexican jungle for Bill Langton, missing flier. In a flash he realizes that from now on all his effort will be expended toward rescuing Janice from a highly dangerous predicament.

Chapter 26

AMBUSH "I think," said Juan finally, "that they will stay here today. At this season, it rains in the late afternoon, and sometimes at night. It is more pleasant to be about between the showers. I think these people are all sleeping now."

Still Grahame hesitated to leave his look-out. "If you will climb down to our packs, I will watch for you. There is nothing we could do now, except learn if they take those prisoners elsewhere. Even then we could do nothing, and we might be seen here sooner or later. Also, I am hungry."

Juan smiled as he mentioned his appetite. "Maybe you're right, son. Let's both slide down a spot and see if we can't find some safe place not far from here, and hold a council of war."

"Not that any place near here would be particularly safe. But it ought to be possible to find a spot where we could keep out of sight, and yet be able to get into the city during the night, or into the jungle for food."

They made a cautious descent, and slipped toward the trail they had left so precipitously that morning, beside which they had cached their packs.

Juan was in the lead, a trail-position that Grahame usually accorded him, since he had found that the boy had a canny instinct in sensing trail-danger, before Grahame could ever possibly be aware of it.

They reached the tangle of fallen scrub palmetto where they had left their packs. Grahame heard Juan's low murmur of astonishment, and hurried forward. Unconscious of the action, the American's fingers closed over the butt of his automatic.

Juan stood staring thoughtfully at the place where they had left the packs. There was no doubt that this had been the spot; the grass and palm leaves still showed indentations where the weighty sacks had been, but the packs, with their hammocks, their extra clothing and ammunition, with their first-aid kits and emergency rations, were gone!

At the instant of discovery Juan did a thing which proved that jungle-wisdom is insensitive. He leaped backward toward Grahame. The American, muscles reacting to the suddenness of the boy's movement, crouched.

From a screen of bush behind the spot where their packs had been, the naked torso of a man appeared, golden in the sunlight. He held in his hands, a rifle. In a camera-shutter glimpse, Grahame saw that the butt of the gun was almost to his shoulder.

The American crouched under his arm, the muzzle of his pistol barely free of the holster. With the report of the shot, the man slipped through the bush onto his knees.

He hoped those following him would be careless, and conclude that he was bearing south. Halfway through the rocky field, he worked to the right, finally making almost a complete turn, so that he headed northwest, toward the habitation of his enemies.

In the late afternoon the sun clouded over, and Grahame watched the big iguana lizards slide from the rocks and disappear into their dens. He took a lesson from these reptiles and kept an eye out for shelter.

A few minutes later he found it

face. The rifle, falling from his limp hands, clattered against a stone. Ambush! Grahame saw Juan's arm crook backward, and then snap forward like a spring released from compression. A silver streak sped from his hand and into the bush to the left. There was a thud, the unmistakable sound of a knife slapping into flesh and a short, throaty "Ah-h."

Two rifles cracked. Grahame felt a tug at his collar where his shirt flared away from his neck; then the sound of a bullet crackling through underbrush. He fired quickly, right and left, at the faint wreaths of smoke curling upward. He heard a cry.

From the corner of his eye he saw Juan weaving backward, half crouched. He followed. Two eccentric leaps brought them to cover. Once again a rifle cracked. The bullet whined harmlessly overhead.

The action had taken only a few seconds. Stealthily they slipped into the jungle. Behind them they heard a shot or two, and the sound of many voices raised in a shouted question and answer. They ran now more openly, careless of the noise they made. Frank knew that distance between them and their pursuers counted vitally.

A half-mile from their scene of the ambush, they paused. "Where now?" asked Grahame, breathing deeply. Juan shrugged his shoulders. "If our legs are better than theirs—which I doubt—we might make the coast ahead of them."

"There's a chance," mused Grahame. "They would travel more slowly, fearing ambush. You could never hope to hide your trail. It is worth the chance. We part here, Juan. You've been a good boy. Head for the coast the best way you can, and give luck with you."

"And you, Senor?" "While you go east, I will head south, for a while. Later I will confuse my trail, if I can, and return here. They will follow me, which will give you the better chance."

"No," said Juan. "Yes," corrected Grahame. "This is an order. I have a plan. There is a white woman held captive in the big pyramid. I must see that she escapes, or—"

"I know," interrupted Juan soberly. "The senor is not Catholic!" Puzzled, Grahame shook his head, whereupon Juan said, "Well, that is doubtless a very good thing. It will not matter so much if you die unshriven."

Despite his concern the American chuckled. "Beat it now, son. We've talked quite long enough. Goodbye, and again, good luck!"

"Adios," answered Juan with a secretive smile. He turned, pressed the American's hand, and then passed into the jungle to the eastward.

To Grahame, slipping southward, a half hour later, came the thought that as Juan had left him, the boy had seemed to be most careless about the trail he left.

So Juan was giving him Grahame, a break, just as he had intended giving one to Juan. The American shook his head. A good lad, Juan. What a pity if he could not make the coast, and safety.

He noticed, to the right of him, a barren rocky expanse, dotted only with spiny sals and scrub cactus. He entered it and carefully picked his way between the vegetation, being sure that his boots touched only stone.

He hoped those following him would be careless, and conclude that he was bearing south. Halfway through the rocky field, he worked to the right, finally making almost a complete turn, so that he headed northwest, toward the habitation of his enemies.

In the late afternoon the sun clouded over, and Grahame watched the big iguana lizards slide from the rocks and disappear into their dens. He took a lesson from these reptiles and kept an eye out for shelter.

A few minutes later he found it

Fisher, Roy Bourland, J. O. Gillham, John Hessey.

GOLDBRUSH PLANE
LONDON (AP)—A big Dutch airliner arrived at Croydon Airdrome from Rotterdam today instigating the gold rush from the continent to London by air.

In a heap of jungle-grown slabs, another ruin. He entered an opening, and composed himself to wait until the afternoon downpour was over. Already he saw large drops splashing over his back-trail.

The sheets of falling water obscured his view past the entrance. Then, as suddenly as it began, the downpour lessened, and again his sight of the outside jungle was clear.

The rain diminished to a mist and stopped entirely. Grahame arose to his feet, and drawing his pistol from his holster under his arm, was about to dismount it for cleaning, while there remained light enough to do so, when he froze into immobility. A shadow drifted past, coming from the south. Another went by.

Slowly Grahame bent into the gloom cast by the wall beside the opening. His trail! He counted them as they faded across the opening.

Eleven. Enough, thought the American, to settle his account. He wondered at the skill that kept them on his trail. The rain had been his salvation. He heard a guttural voice speak in an unknown language, and the reply flung back from ahead.

This puzzled the American, as he felt that they would not be so careless of sound if they believed that their quarry was ahead. Or perhaps they had given up the chase and were returning. That was it. They had lost his trail within the stone patch, and were returning from the southward to the city.

Perhaps it was only a section of a larger party that had spread in different directions. (Copyright, 1934, by Herbert Jensen)

Grahame, tomorrow, undertakes a dangerous journey.

FILM SHOWN IN CIVIC CULTURE CLUB PROGRAM

Travel Study Is Of More Than Usual Interest

Film views of Puerto Rico perfect the vivid picture of exotic islands which members of the Civic Culture club received in their program yesterday. The meeting was with Mrs. H. H. Isbell, and John Hessey showed the travel movie.

Mrs. E. C. Fahy was leader of this program, one of a series on possessions of the United States. After her introduction to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, Mrs. A. L. Patrick told why the island group is valuable, and Mrs. Cyril Hamilton discussed their industries, governments, and cities.

Other members present for the unusually interesting study were Misses Ralph, Thomas, E. A. Shackleton, Berry, M. J. Noel, Irvin Cole, Paul Hughes, Katie Vincent, Tom Alford, and J. A. Pearson.

Mrs. Noel will be the next hostess, on Feb. 20.

Mrs. George Has Party For Club

Mrs. Bill George was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon club yesterday at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. T. Beauchamp. Two special guests were included in the three tables, Mrs. J. M. G. and Mrs. J. M. G.

ADMISSION TO DANCE TONIGHT IS 75 CENTS

Prices for the big dance and special entertainment at the auditorium tonight will be 75 cents to dance by evening with ladies free instead of the prices quoted in the advertisement in the NEWS yesterday.

Plans have been completed to entertain a large crowd which is expected to turn out to dance to the music of the popular Ralph Emerson and his orchestra and to hear little Billie Valle, juvenile motion picture actor, in songs, recitations, etc.

Ralph Emerson has one of the few bands which have continued to be popular and crowd pleasers after several appearances. His musicians are artists who are able to entertain in various ways in addition to furnishing pleasing music for all dances.

Little Billie Valle has appeared with Al Johnson in "Sonny Boy" and with James Caynor in "Sunnie Side Up," and several other well known motion picture stars.

As a special attraction the first fifteen paid admissions tonight will be given free tickets to the regular Saturday night dance.

Remember the night tonight! Remember the price of admission is 75c for the privilege of dancing all evening and that ladies will be admitted free. Get your group together and enjoy an evening of good dancing, pleasing music and entertainment of one of motion picture's juveniles, Billie Valle. (Adv.)

NEW OLDSMOBILE MODELS ARE DISPLAYED AT ROSE MOTOR CO.

The first showing in Pampa of 1934 Oldsmobiles with the much-talked-of "knee-action" front wheels, is announced by Tom Rose, who is displaying models of the new cars in his showroom today.

The new straight Eight Oldsmobiles on display represent the first shipment of 1934 Oldsmobiles to be received here.

The 1934 Oldsmobile Six, a new entry in the low price field, will be on display in the near future. The new six is described as an all-terrain, roomy, high-economy car that will sell at a new low price.

The new Oldsmobiles are beautiful in appearance, the body lines developing advanced ideas in aerodynamic designing. Engineering improvements that are entirely new to the industry are included in the chassis. In addition to the radically different front wheel mounting these include the center-control steering and ride stabilizer. Brakes are of exclusive Oldsmobile design, of super-hydraulic self-energizing construction.

The knee-action wheels, says Mr. Rose, give an entirely new and improved riding quality to the car. No matter how rough the road, there is no pitching and the passengers, especially those in the rear seat, enjoy riding comfort and absence of fatigue that has never before been equaled.

"The center-control steering is one of the train of improvements of which the new front end springing is a part. Wheel shimmy and wheel fight are entirely absent. Parking the car and maneuvering it in restricted space is almost effortless.

"Other features of the new construction are the scientific distribution of weight, reduction of unsprung weight through the elimination of the cumbersome front axle and the introduction of more resilient front coil springs of the same flexibility as the rear. The ride stabilizer helps control the rear end, reducing body control, especially in routing curves.

"Maximum safety and efficiency have been achieved in the new brakes. They are identical with the brakes used by Oldsmobile for the past three years, except that they are operated by a piston within a hydraulic cylinder, rather than by a mechanically operated cam. The self-energizing action, new in hydraulic brakes, employs the forward motion of the car to multiply braking power. Braking is progressive and in direct relation to pedal depression.

Tests by tractor manufacturers under guidance of the department of agriculture have shown that the use of alcohol as a motor fuel blend is practical mechanically but not economically as yet.

Wedding of Last Week Announced

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Vada Fogg and Harry Mentzel, solemnized Saturday in Amarillo. Both have been residents of Pampa for some time. Mr. Mentzel is an employee of the Car-Gray company.

After a wedding trip of about two weeks, they will be at home here.

Pageant Is To Honor Founders

A founders day pageant, when candles will be lighted honoring past and present Parent-Teacher leaders, will feature the program of Horace Mann association tomorrow afternoon at 8.

Mrs. Jack McClements will be program leader. The Rev. W. O. Cooley will give the invocation. Warren Sanders will present a comic drawing, Miss Louise Groom will sing a solo, and Mrs. N. F. Maddox will discuss the endowment fund.

"The pageant will appear Mrs. J. M. Turner, association president; Mrs. H. V. Patterson, leader; and the following candle lighters: James E. Baker, Clyde Vincent, H. S. Crocker, A. L. Blair, Ernest Nix and K. T. May.

AAA WILL PAY FARMERS ONE BILLION IN BENEFITS IN 1934

CATTLEMEN TO RECEIVE 200 MILLION FUND

TOTAL AMOUNT TO BE FIVE TIMES AMOUNT SPENT IN 1933

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7. (AP)—The handling of about a billion dollars to American farmers during 1934 as benefit payments for production control and corn loans is planned by the farm administration.

Official estimates covering the wheat, corn and hogs, cotton, tobacco, and corn loans programs were disclosed today to call for an estimated expenditure of $766,512,695 or more than five times the $152,521,177 spent in 1933.

In addition, an emergency fund of $200,000,000 would be provided for benefit payments to beef and dairy cattle farmers in a bill passed by the house and favorably reported by a senate committee.

More payments to wheat farmers under a new-contemplated second acreage reduction would bring the total well above $1,000,000,000.

Officials revealed that only $200,000,000 of this would be paid out of the treasury, if their plans carry through, the balance being due to come from processing tax receipts.

Secretary Wallace even plans on repaying this sum out of the proposed processing tax on butterfat.

About $386,310,440 of the total going to farmers will be paid out during January, February, March and April, under present plans—of which $309,706,250 will go to corn-hog farmers of the midwest.

In May, June, and July officials count on $30,670,185 being spent; $14,190,880 more during August, September, and October; and $108,308,780 more during November and December. A sum of $47,032,619 also would be distributed throughout the year, but has not been allocated by period.

According to the various programs now under way the total will be expended as follows: Corn and hogs, $367,035,630; wheat $81,024,724; Cotton $173,230,620; tobacco, $35,415,000; corn loans $109,796,721.

Of the corn loans all but $968,777 will be made to midwestern farmers, since practically all of the surplus corn available for storage under seal is in those states.

ALFRED FILES SUIT
AUSTIN, Feb. 7. (AP)—Attorney General James V. Alfred today filed suit against the Pure Oil company for $24,813.85 as past due bonuses and rentals due to the permanent school fund on 19 oil and gas leases on public free school lands. The suit was filed in 53rd district court here and brought to approximately $400,000 the amount sought in various suits now pending in district courts involving the same question.

EVERY MAN AND WOMAN OVER 16 YEARS OLD TO REGISTER FOR THE LANORA BANK NIGHT ACCOUNT REGISTER AT LANORA OR REX THEATRE

riche, hircocervus, hippogriff.
LAST year was a good health period for Pampa as well as the nation as a whole. The nation showed during the last 20 years a decrease in mortality of 65 per cent for tuberculosis and 25 per cent for infant mortality. And yet figures on the same period show no improvement in the death rate of women in child birth. Despite all that science has done to combat disease it has been able to accomplish absolutely nothing in the saving of mothers, than which there is certainly no more desirable goal. The experts seem to agree that these deaths, or at least 65 per cent of them, could have been prevented by proper care. The death toll from maternal causes reached 13,000 in 1933. A committee which has been studying the problem has stressed the need for better education and training of physicians and midwives, the need for prenatal care for prospective mothers, the relative safety of delivery at home, and the need for adoption in hospitals of more rigid measures for the maintenance of asepsis in obstetrical cases.

WHILE we are on the subject of health it is pertinent to mention that pneumonia is one of the main causes of death in Texas.

More than 6,000 persons die of this disease in this state every year. Persons in a run down condition are noticeably susceptible to this disease although the persons themselves may not be aware of the condition.

THE germs that cause pneumonia are spread by careless coughs, sneezers, spitters, and the things that they thus infect. The first symptoms are usually a severe chill and fever, a very sick feeling, loss of appetite, rapid breathing, and a heavy sensation in the chest. Sometimes coughing brings up blood from the inflamed lungs. Any of these signs should be the signal for going to bed at once and sending for your doctor.

The familiar rules of the prevention of other respiratory diseases apply to pneumonia. These rules should become personal habits and not be put on or off at times of prevalence or absence of disease. Persons should avoid careless coughs and sneezers, even if you have to be rude. Wash your hands thoroughly before each meal. Keep your hands, pencils, money and other such things away from your mouth and nose. Get plenty of fresh air day and night. Exercise and eat in moderation and wear clothing suitable for the weather.

FORMS for filing returns of income for 1933 have been sent to persons who filed returns last year. Failure to receive a form, however, does not relieve a taxpayer of his obligation to file his return and pay the tax on time, on or before March 15 if the return is made on the calendar year basis as is the case with most individuals.

Forms may be obtained upon request, written or personal, from the office of collectors of internal revenue and deputy collectors. Persons whose net income for 1933 was derived chiefly from salary or wages and was not in excess of $5,000 should make their returns on form 1040A, a single sheet. Persons whose net income was in excess of $5,000, or, regardless of amount, was derived from a business, profession, rents or sale of property, are required to use a larger form, 1040. Failure to use the proper form presents difficulties to both the taxpayer and the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Therefore, it is emphasized that a taxpayer engaged in a business or profession from which he derived a net income of less than $5,000 is required to use the larger form. The return must be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer has his legal residence or principal place of business on or before midnight of March 15, 1934. The tax may be paid in full at the time of filing the return or in four equal installments, due on or before March 15, June 15, September 15, and December 15.

MOBS
men charged against the angered crowds in the Place de la Concorde. In other open spaces of the city mobile guardsmen and police wrestled in hand to hand combat with the shouting civilians.

The list of injured, seriously and slightly, gained steadily throughout the day, and as night drew in private cars were impressed into duty as ambulances to rush the wounded to hospitals.

Courtyard of the marine ministry, which the mob set afire last night, was turned into a barracks. Mounted troops and mobile guards were held there in reserve instead of on the Place de la Concorde in the hope that a diminution of the visible police force might serve to pacify the crowd.

The commanding officer of one detachment of helmeted mobile guards ordered his men to sheathe their sabres for the same reason. With their sabres in the scabbards, the guard detachment passed down the Rue de Lafayette.

Darkness fell, and the Place de la Concorde suddenly became such a scene as when one army assaults another in its camp. Huge bonfires like those of a bivouacked army burst into being among the trees of the great square.

The startling mob actually pushed up close to the deadly barricade across the bridgehead which some of the rioters crossed yesterday only to meet a burst of bullets from machine guns placed on the steps of the chamber of deputies building directly across the river Seine.

The steel-helmeted mobile guards carried rifles but up till 6 p. m. they had done no shooting. They did not fire although they were showered relentlessly with bottles, stones, and slugs of iron.

The organized forces of the law, however, finally won out in the battle of the Place de la Concorde. Organized in close-packed ranks, smashing with their clubs, their sabres and with their horses, they cleared the square.
Close behind the police followed detachments of riot-duty firemen, working with military precision and with the military training which is their lot. The firemen went after the bonfires and, in a few moments, the flames were extinguished.
But the mob, itself, although routed, was not broken. It surged backward, fighting every step of the way, toward the Madeleine church where another group of rioters was holding out, untamed by repeated police charges.

Coldest Day Of '33 Was Feb. 7—Ten Below Zero
Remember a year ago today? No! Well according to T. A. Cox, of the Santa Fe, and The NEWS weather bureau, Pampa had its coldest day of the year "just a year ago today." The temperature dropped to 19 degrees below zero about daylight and remained around that figure most of the morning. The high for the day was zero, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. A cold northwest wind brought hurries of snow during the day.
F. Finnegan of LeFors was in the city last night.

Judge to Clamp Down on Traffic Violators Here

The following conversation will be heard in city police court starting tomorrow morning:
Judge J. H. Blythe—"Mr. So and So, you are charged with running a stop sign—guilty or not guilty?"
Mr. So and So—"Oh, I'm guilty, here is the dollar."

"Judge Blythe—"The fine will be $5, Mr. So and So."
And then the fun will begin. Mr. So and So will remonstrate with the judge and raise a big rumpus, but Judge Blythe will remain firm because he has received orders from the city manager to be more firm with traffic violators.

The city manager and chief of police toured the city yesterday afternoon watching the traffic situation, and they believe that about one person out of every five obeys the traffic laws of the city. Traffic laws are going to be enforced.

"Motorists are taking advantage of the fact that we have been lenient with them," City Manager C. L. Stine said this morning. "Cars are being driven in front of a parking space instead of into it, with the driver getting out and going into a store. Several persons have been seen running in the middle of a block. We have eliminated as many stop signs as possible for the convenience of the motorists."

Pampa Jaycees Tell Borger Men How to Organize

Pampa Jaycees went to Borger last night to tell young Borger men how to organize a Junior chamber of commerce.

Pampans who made the trip were Clarence Kennedy, president of the local chamber; W. T. Fraser, Don Conley, Bob Knox, Sherman White, A. J. Johnson, and J. M. Collins. Talks were made by Collins, White, and Fraser. President Kennedy presided after the meeting was opened by J. C. Phillips, publisher of the Borger Herald.

Organization committees were appointed and another meeting is to be held Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Twenty Phillips Petroleum company Jaycees of Bartlesville will attend the meeting to assist in forming the Borger unit.

Miss Nan Crouch, teacher in the Hopkins schools, underwent a major operation at Pampa hospital this morning.
Mel B. Davis returned yesterday from a business trip to Austin.

Mrs. J. H. Wallace of Ranger will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ulysses Thorne, and Mrs. E. S. Cooper, for several weeks.
Kittie Lou, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Goodman, underwent a tonsillectomy Monday and is still quite ill.

Rotarians Hear Lancaster Talk On Abe Lincoln

The meeting with the Rotary club today had the appearance of an in-city meeting when seven visiting Rotarians were guests of the club. Visitors included Ben Anderson and W. H. Flynn of Amarillo, Fred Wortham of Canyon, and G. L. Addison, H. S. Wilbur, Carl Studer, and W. D. Fisher of Canadian. Local guests were R. B. Fisher and Raymond Harrah.

The program today was a talk by the Rev. C. E. Lancaster on the life of Lincoln. The story of his humanity, his trials, and his philosophy of life made one of the most interesting talks ever delivered before the club.

MARKET BRIEFS

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Feb. 7. (AP)—Tumbled down by stop loss selling wheat today fell about 2 1/2 cents a bushel, with other grains also suffering sharp setbacks.

Most of the selling came from houses with connections east, and was associated largely with weakness of the stock market, likelihood of rains southwest, and with prospective imports of rye. The proposed new grain exchange code was also a disturbing factor.

Wheat closed unsettled, 2-3/4 under yesterday's finish, corn 1/4-1/2 down, oats 3/4-1/2 off, and provisions showing 7 to 10 cents decline.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7. (AP)—With few exceptions, stocks pointed sharply downward today under a heavy volume of realizing. It was the first pronounced reaction in about two months and was generally attributed to an overbought condition. Losses of 1 to around 4 points predominated. The close was weak. Transfers approximated 4,550,000 shares.

"COWBOYS NEED HEALTHY NERVES— AND, BELIEVE ME, SO DO HOUSEWIVES"

Mrs. Phyllis L. Potter, Home Maker, Montclair, N. J., says:
"I don't doubt but what it takes healthy nerves to ride an outlaw horse! But any woman who is a home maker will agree with me that shopping, cleaning, and answering the doorbell a dozen times a day are enough to jangle anybody's nerves. I know that I have to be careful in choosing my cigarettes. I am a confirmed Camel smoker because I can smoke Camels freely without a hint of jumpy nerves!"

Eddie Woods, All-Around Champion Cowboy, says:
"To have nerves that can take it, I smoke only Camels. I've tried them all but Camels are my smoke! They have a natural mildness, and I like their taste better. Camels do not jangle my nerves, even when I smoke one after another."
