Pampan Avoids Keyholes In Washington--Blind Men Furnish Palatable Subject

By GILMORE N. NUNN
Washington Correspondent,
The NEWS
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—On the way to the office the other night, I thought I might dish the dirt a little, but I've just about decided that gossip is like trouble—we get enough of either wherever we are without having someone from afar remind us of more and besides—here's a little human interest "spot" that I bumped into on the way over—it's much more fun to write about than gossip, and besides you don't get cramps in your knees bending down to the keyholes!

Between the National Press club building and the next corner are two blind men. Both have been blind since birth, and as far as I have been able to find out from talking to each of them, their circumstances throughout life have been just about the same. They're both about 26 years old.

One of these men stands in front of the press building every night to "catch" the show-ers, the other stands in front of another shop about half a block up the street. The latter holds a cup in a pitiful fashion, with some papers under his arms, and taps the sidewalk with his cane for attention. The poor chap is unkempt and miserable looking; his face is set in a frown, and the corners of his lips turn down from habit, and in reply to my questions of "How ya comin' buddy?" and "Why'll ya be glad when times get better?" he says:

"How'm I comin'?" Terrible! You'd think I was a fraud instead of a helpless blind man the way the tightwads walk around me. And when times get better I'll just mean I won't have to tap this—sidewalk so hard and long!"

An officers breakfast was scheduled for 8 o'clock, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon a meeting of Elks whether in good standing or delinquent, was scheduled.

Officers of the Pampa lodge who planned to attend the breakfast were Alex Schneider, exalted ruler; Al Lawson, Lee McConnell, A. C. Huff, F. A. Riley, and Sam Dunn. Mr. Schneider urges every Elk in this section to attend the meeting in Amarillo this afternoon.

Nationwide protests growing out of drastic curtailment of CWA payrolls and withdrawal of expenditures for materials and truck and team hire illustrate very well how difficult it will be to retreat from the federal relief program.

Families which have adjusted themselves to live on $10.50 per week cannot live on from $5.25 to $8.40. For hundreds of thousands, there are no other jobs available.

The most pertinent question in Texas today is: What has become of the $6,230,000 of funds earmarked for emergency highway work in the drought stricken counties of Texas.

The utter absurdity of stopping CWA projects and placing guards indefinitely over unfinished work is one that should appeal to congressmen as wasteful and monumentally inefficient.

CLINGMAN TO GRAPPLE HERE MONDAY NIGHT

BOXING MATCH AND 4 CAGE GAMES ON WEEK'S MENU

Pampa's athletic program this week includes a wrestling match, boxing match, and four basketball games, two in Pampa and the other two away from home.

The first event of the week will be staged at the Pia-Mor auditorium tomorrow night, when wrestling is brought back after more than a year's absence. Sailor Otis Clingman, Pampa favorite, will meet Prof. Dick Kanthe of Detroit in a finish match. Kanthe is one of the strongest men in the world and, top of his strength, he knows wrestling.

It took Clingman nearly two hours to get two falls from Kanthe in Amarillo recently. Since then the strong man has been "howling" for a return engagement. He claims he never will come in and out of his class.

Pat Garrison and Rob Roy will be the semi-finalists. They need no introduction to Pampa wrestling fans. They are wild and woolly and will give an exhibition of ear twisting.

Charlie Heard of San Antonio and Lobo Brown of Amarillo will be on the opening bout of the card.

On Thursday night, Promoter B. W. Kelly will present Chief Eugene Paris of Oklahoma City and Pete Regal of Borger in a 10-round boxing match. Young Kid Granite of Dallas will box the semi-final. An effort is being made to match Smoky Brown with him.

Regal, wild man of the ring, has been trying to get a return bout with the Indian for some time. Paris won a decision from Regal in Amarillo last spring and it hurt the Mexican's pride. Good preliminaries, including a bout between Earl Madden of Spearman and Kid Stamer, will be on the big card.

The Harvester basketball team will play at home on Friday and Saturday nights. The Lubbock Westerners will be here Friday night and the following night the Plainview Bulldogs will come to Pampa. The Harvesters and Harvesterettes will go to Borger Tuesday night, and Thursday night will go to McLean for conference games.

Now of Pampa

Looking 50 but being under 30 years of age, Pat Garrison is now a Pampa resident. He moved here from Borger last year. Tomorrow night at the Pia-Mor auditorium he will wrestle Rob Roy, former Pampa, in the semi-final of a card that will put Otis Clingman Dick Kanthe in the main event.

PAMPA GIRLS AND BOYS WIN LEFORS GAMES

HARVESTERS' TROUNCE PIRATES 29-10

Pampa basketball teams opened the conference season last night with two victories over the LeFors Pirates. The Harvesters trounced the Pirates 29-10 in a game that was a real contest.

Captain Miles Marbaugh was high point player with 12 points. The elongated center got the tip on Moore and worked smoothly under the basket. J. R. Green, forward, added nine points to the Harvester total. Dunaway made three points, Heskell and Woodward two each and Owens one. Pinnell did not play. Scott was the other Harvester used.

Brown, Pirate forward, made six points. His teammate on the forward line, Moore, looped three nice field goals. Flynn at center made two field goals. Byrd added five points and Combs made the other counter.

The Harvesters' combined nicely to win over the LeFors girls. The first half was ragged but the closing stanza was fast with both teams passing and shooting with nice precision.

Taking the lead in the first two minutes of play and holding it throughout the rest of the game in a clever passing and shooting attack, the Pampa Harvesters Friday night downed the Amarillo Pirates 25 to 19 in the local gymnasium.

The Sandies had their peepers set on Captain Miles Marbaugh, who nearly defeated them single-handed in Amarillo in the previous week, but they overbid a J. R. Green, stellar forward, who looped baskets from all angles. The Harvester passing showed marked improvement and the shooting was better than in previous games.

However, the Harvesters showed poor judgment in the closing moments of play when they passed wildly and had the ball stolen from themselves often instead of playing safe with their lead. The loss of the ball usually did not prove costly because the Harvesters recovered it often. Both teams played roughly in the last quarter.

Several points made by Green resulted from a pretty combination with Pinnell, who used an overhead pass to Green under the basket. Heskell and Marbaugh also paired in some nice plays. Dunaway's guarding was strong. Green made six field goals and a free throw for 13 points and high scoring honors.

Smith And His Ponies Are On Way to Coast

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 20 (AP)— Cecil Smith, Babe Williams, Tom Maher and J. B. "Gillie" Gilmore of the Austin polo team backed by the veteran George Miller, will load their strings of fine Texas Ponies on a Los Angeles bound freight car next Tuesday morning and that afternoon pack up their mallets and follow them, ready for a series of games on the west coast to last six to eight weeks.

The first game is scheduled for the Midweek Country club on February 4, but immediately upon arrival the newly crowned ten-goal star and his hard-riding mates will engage numerous coast teams in practice contests.

Smith and his mates are elating a workout season here in which they have trained a string of 70 ponies. Army combinations, including the field artillery brigade of Fort Sam Houston that beat out the Austin team in the finals of the fall polo tournament here, furnished tough competition.

additional taxes and have agreed that we should cut government expenses instead of placing additional taxes on the over-taxed people. I know that the government expenses can be cut without impairing the government in any way, and the present system alone would do this.

Crime is costing the state too much. Court procedure should be changed. The present system alone is costing the state over one hundred million dollars a year in maintaining the courts, which are $17 per capita. I favor a change in court procedure in such a way as to lower the costs and to add what can be taken in this saving to the public schools. We in the forty-third legislature cut the appropriations over thirteen million dollars from the figure at which it previously stood. This is a feat which has not been accomplished by the legislature before in the past 40 years.

I would favor submitting to the voters a constitutional amendment to substitute an earnings or production tax for our present ad valorem tax.

I am still opposed to graft in any form, of which there is much in the state government.

It is a well known fact that certain corporations and selfish interests maintain high-powered, paid lobbyists in Austin for the purpose of crippling any legislation against their companies; also to place a joker on any measure to be passed for the common man, who is not able to maintain a lobby at Austin. I favor a strict lobby regulation with teeth in it that can be enforced. The facts are that the lobbyists say about me, "that fool makes up his own mind and we lobbyists have no effect on him." A man while in the legislature should not be permitted to receive

Boy Dishes It Out And Coach Olsen Takes It

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20 (AP)—The latter read: "I believe you are running your team wrong and suggest—"

The writer was Billy Jones, 13, a junior high school basketball player, and the recipient was Harold G. Olsen, director of basketball at Ohio State University.

The rotund and jolly Olsen, always ready to accept advice, called up Billy and said, "Come up to my office and we'll talk this thing over."

Unawed by the presence of a Western conference coach, the young athlete appeared and said: "I don't want to take any more of your time than I have to, but I believe I can put you right on a few things."

Athletic Director L. W. St. John was invited to sit in on the conference as Billy pulled up a chair, but St. John shooed spectators away and stepped out of the office. "That's confidential," he remarked.

PAMPA INSURANCE FORCE PAYS OFF TO BORGER OFFICE STAFF

After six months of procrastinating so claimed their victorious opponents of Borger—the Panhandle Insurance Agency and affiliated interests of Pampa entertained the Borger office force at a banquet in the Schneider hotel last night.

The contest, for which the banquet was arranged in honor of the winners, was a race between the Borger and Pampa offices of the agency for new business written during the months of May and June last year. This Pampa had been almost three to one in the lead until the very last days of race was admitted by S. Wayne O'Keefe, representative of the Borger faction during the speechmaking last night.

Farris C. Oden of Pampa, in defending the Pampa side brought out the fact that several thousand dollars worth of life insurance applications had been written by the Borger office within the closing hours of the contest, pulling Borger into the lead by a few hundred dollars.

A brief resume of the business accomplishments of the past year and the prospects of better business to come was given by R. Earl O'Keefe of Pampa, in which he commended the loyalty of the company representatives.

At the conclusion of the program, Pampa again challenged the Borger office for new business written to begin with February of this year, and the challenge was accepted by Borger.

Guests present were, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Culbertson, Miss Ethel Harmanson of Pampa, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clifford of Lubbock.

Representing the Pampa office were Mr. and Mrs. Farris C. Oden, Mr. and Mrs. R. Earl O'Keefe, Clarence N. Stokes, Mrs. Frank Carter, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Meyers, James B. Bourland, and Misses Irene Irvine and Ruth Palminter.

Pewee Cagers Defeat LeFors Midgets 13-9

The Harvester basketball team had some of its thunder stolen Friday night when two teams of midgets indulged in a basketball game preceding the Harvester-Amarillo Sandie tussle. The Pampa midgets defeated a team of LeFors midgets, 13 to 9. No boy on the floor weighed more than 100 pounds.

Passing the ball much better than any other team seen here this season, outside of the Athens Hornets, and looping baskets from all angles, the youngsters had the gymnasium full of fans yelling themselves hoarse.

On Friday afternoon a team of junior high boys defeated the LeFors junior high team, 23 to 7. Coach Herrod's boys passed their way to victory working the ball to C. Oliver, who accounted for 12 points.

There was not a star on the Pampa midget quintet. Every boy played an unselfish game, passing the ball to the player open to make the best attempt. R. Hamilton, midget brother of Lloyd Hamilton, led the scoring with five points. Claude Heskell, brother of Orville Heskell, followed with two long field goals. Little Bill Morrow, star of the game, added the other four points. Junior McKay, Howard Buckingham, and Whitley were the other local midgets who starred.

Little LeFors center, scored four points for his team, mostly on who jumps down the floor. Wolfe scored two points and Blake made three counters. Johnson, Pinkerton, Cheek, Thompson, Gordon, and Robertson also saw service.

The guarding of both teams was outstanding. The little fellows held the ball and covered it. Few dead shots were allowed.

Members of the Junior high team were D. Miller, C. Oliver, M. Miller, W. M. Mumford, A. Dunaway, G. Dull.

Max Leder returned Friday from a visit with friends in Houston.

Only the Ford gives you a V-8 ENGINE

unless you pay more than $2000

The finest motor cars made in this country use V-type engines. You cannot buy any of these—except the Ford V-8—for less than $2000 plus.

The New Ford V-8 occupies both the fine car class and the low-price field. It brings to the average driver the advantages formerly found only in the most expensive cars.

Quicker starting in cold weather, faster acceleration, greater speed and power and more miles per gallon at all speeds are features of the Ford V-8 for 1934.

The engine is the most important part of any automobile. Other features may contribute to your comfort and convenience, but it is the engine that runs the car. Performance, economy, reliability and long life—all these depend on what's under the hood.

Yet it is not only superior performance that the V-8 gives, but economical service on the road because Service and Economy have been built into it at the factory.

EDUCATION FOR PARENTS URGED IN P-T. A. TALK

Contest Award For Class Given by Chairman

"Most parents of present-day students received their patterns of family living in the horse-and-buggy age, and find it difficult to adjust themselves to a new era," Mrs. Rufe B. Thompson said in speaking on Parental Education to Junior High Parent-Teacher association Thursday.

Realizing the need of education, parents are on the alert to find means of developing the child for a well-rounded life. So we educate ourselves to meet the ever-changing needs of the child," she emphasized.

Mrs. Frank Foster was the other speaker, and discussed Temperance Education. Positive education concerning the harm done by alcoholic beverages is the key to the success of dry legislation, she concluded after quoting statistics on the growth of high school enrollment since national temperance campaigns began.

SUCCESSFUL STAGE AND FILM VERSIONS MADE NEXT LITTLE THEATER PLAY WIDELY KNOWN

Drama Was Written By a Famous Russian

BY SUE VINSON, Woman's Page Editor. Familiarly with a play gives it added interest to most audiences who greet it warmly when they remember reading the book from which it was adapted or seeing the original production on the stage.

The Little Theater's production of "He Who Gets Slapped" on February 1 and 2 will have this attraction: Its successful run on Broadway several years ago was followed by its adaptation to the screen as a vehicle for the late Lon Chaney. It was filmed under the title "Laugh Clown Laugh."

It is a production of the Russian dramatist, Leonid Andreyev, whose works are accepted among the classics of literature.

Play Is New Type. Its choice by the Little Theater here is a departure from the usual policies of that organization, in that the play is a classic instead of a merely popular drama, and also a tragedy calling for strong characterization by each player.

Mrs. Earl Powell is directing. The cast has learned lines and stage business, and will spend the next two weeks polishing the production for its public showing.

Included among the players are some well known to Pampa audiences. Neal Bean, John Ketter, Miss Irene Irvine, H. P. Beatty, Arthur Fullinym, Bert Hobson, Wayne Hutchens, and Charles Barrett have appeared in other Little Theater plays, and Miss Louella Wade in school plays.

Less familiar actors are Mrs. G. L. Greene, Reg Farless, Ralph Morrison, Clem Followell, and Miss Dorothy Jane Adams, who complete the cast.

CRIME DOESN'T PAY—ITS COST ANNUALLY IS THE LARGEST OF OUR NATIONAL BUDGET ITEMS

BY ELEANOR ROOSEVELT.

TODAY, the attention of every intelligent American is focused on the cost of government. Most of us are thinking with a good deal of concern about the tremendous sums of money being appropriated for all the activities which have had to be set up in order to start us on the road to recovery. We are faced by a debt of billions of dollars which must be paid off by this generation or the next, and it behooves us to plan ways and means by which we can save in order to pay off this colossal sum and remove the great burden of taxation from the people.

There is one tremendous bill paid annually by our people which we rarely think about. Crime is the largest item in our budget. Statistics on this subject have been extremely poor in the past, but National Crime Commission, a few years ago, started various state experiments on the road to keeping better records and it is a little easier now to find out with some degree of accuracy what our nation is paying yearly for crime. I am going to give you some figures which one of the patriotic associations has sent far and wide throughout the country. These figures have also been checked with the reports of the Department of Justice and one of the large insurance companies, so that they should be fairly accurate.

First, to get the picture clearly in our minds, I will summarize for you the crimes that are committed annually in our country: About 12,000 murders, 3,000 kidnappings, 50,000 robberies, 5,000 assaults, 100,000 assaults and 40,000 burglaries. The cost runs approximately this way: Prevention and punishment of crime, maintenance of jails and penal institutions, loss of property by fraud or destruction by arson, about 13 billion dollars, or more than three times the annual cost of the federal government. Racketeering costs about 15 billion dollars annually, or more than five times the cost of our entire public school system. Illicit traffic in narcotics, about two billion dollars a year, or five times what it cost us to build the Panama canal. The figures given in connection with violation of our laws are matters of public record; those in connection with the cost of crime have been compiled by the association mentioned. Figure it out for yourself. If we could cut our crime bill we could pay off quite a little of the debt incurred for the recovery program each year.

People are apt to say, without thinking, that our police are inefficient than those of other countries. This, however, is not a sufficient explanation. Neither is it sufficient to say that our courts and judges are not as good as those of other countries. Perhaps our police force has been improved, but I am not sure they can unless we, the people in whose hands the real remedy lies, change our attitude toward them. How many citizens, in order to accomplish something which is not strictly legal, are willing to corrupt a policeman by putting temptation in his way? After all, policemen are human beings!

Because we are a democracy, we get, in this country, just about the kind of government we deserve, just about the kind of government we really want. If we want better police forces, we can have them. If we want our courts to function properly, free from graft and economically managed, we can make them so. (This, of course, refers to state and local courts.) No one can do it for us. We, as individual citizens, must do it ourselves. How? Well, how often have you tried to get out of jury service? How often do people employ clever lawyers to tell them how to do things within the law, things which they know they should not do? It is one thing to employ a lawyer to tell you what the law is and then willingly observe that law. It is quite another thing to employ a lawyer, when what you wish to do is illegal, in order that he may work out some method by which you may do that thing legally. When the people want efficient courts and efficient police forces we will have them and our crime bill will be lower.

However, there are other things which will take longer to do, but which, under the recovery program, we must not lose sight of. There is a part of the reconstruction we are now attempting which will cut

Cossack and Box Coats Are Shown As New Fashions

BY MARY E. PLUMMER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20. (AP)—A new national influence on American spring styles came to light today in the form of a Cossack coat.

This full-skirted coat, leather-belted, is sponsored by Sussman-Foote for very young girls. It is an effective costume coat, and an impressive new silhouette.

Navy-blue will be the leading color for untrimmed spring coats, this house believes, and black for dress coats with fur.

Several dress coats were seen today in soft black wool, fitted at the waist and belted, but tied in a bow at the front. They had luxurious collars of silver or blue fox.

This house shows as the successor of last season wagger coat the tuxedo box coat, which hangs from the shoulders but hasn't so much flare. They show it in plaids, checks, and monotone tweed.

Coat Makes Suit

A straight-hung box coat of this type may be worn with skirt and blouse as a suit.

Coat lengths have not changed but the waists are more fitted than last season. All the designers agree that suits will be more important this spring than for several years.

The tailored suits seen today had slightly squared shoulders—not the exaggerated kinds of last spring, but merely light padding to give a square effect.

The costume suit—a three-quarter box coat with a dress under it—is featured this spring as a popular post-repeal costume. The dress has a short-sleeved top of satin or printed silk.

With the coat, it may be worn on the street or to the office. Minus the coat, one is dressed for cocktails or restaurant dining.

One shown today was in gray wool, the dress top of plain gray satin. The box coat had elbow sleeves with wide bands of gray fur.

Club Chairmen Offering Prizes

LUEBOCK, Jan. 20. — Several chairmen in the seventh district of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs are offering prizes to be awarded at the spring convention.

Mrs. O. H. Booth of Pampa, chairman of industrial and school art, is offering a prize of $5 to the grade school sending in the best collection of art work. The best collection will be exhibited at the spring district convention.

Mrs. P. C. Chenault of Snyder, chairman of the Bible as literature, is to give a prize of $2.50 for the best program on the Bible as literature. Mrs. Chenault requests that complete programs be sent to her.

Mrs. C. E. Palmer of Dallas and formerly of Amarillo is offering one of her own paintings to the club doing the most outstanding work in the art division. Full reports of all art activities are to be sent to Mrs. W. H. Lynn, art chairman of the district, at Wellington. These reports are to be in before the district meeting in April.

Mrs. Q. A. Griffin of Tulsa, year book chairman, will give a prize of $5 for the best 1933-34 year book. It is not necessary that the year book conform entirely to state requirements. Mrs. Griffin would like to have a year book from each club in the district.

Class Term Open At Dance School

New classes are starting organization at the Vincent school of dancing next week. All persons interested are asked to enroll as soon as possible in order not to behind other students in the new classes.

Due to so much sickness in the schools, Miss Vincent has made arrangements to enroll students and place them in classes without their being present. New classes will start for children of under-school age, children of grade school age and children of junior high and high school age.

Many new adults classes have already started. Next week anyone wishing to visit the class or ask about lessons is welcome to come and find out the information desired, Miss Vincent said.

Of particular interest to all mothers will be the new course in social training included with the dancing course. Miss Vincent teaches the children how to make introductions; how to carry on a pleasant conversation, and later each class will entertain their mothers with a reception at which the children will act as host and hostess, form the receiving line, and entertain the guests.

Many programs have been planned for January and February. Among them will be a special number presented at the Little Theater play, "He Who Gets Slapped." Wayne Kinnison and Miss Vincent will dance a tango that was used at the Dancing Masters of America annual convention of 1933.

The squirrel has the right idea

WHEN IT COMES TO STORING FOOD, THE SQUIRREL FOLLOWS THREE RULES:

- FIRST— he stores just what he needs for the coming winter.
- SECOND— he stores only the kind of food that will keep.
- THIRD— he stores food when it is plentiful and easy to get.

IN VIEW of the times, one of the wisest moves a housewife can make is to stock up now with non-perishable foods.

It is obvious that all varieties of groceries will increase in price as winter comes on. As a matter of fact, there has been a rise in food-stuffs all over the country. For example—since February canned goods have increased in price 20%; cereals, 14%; sugar, 14%; flour, 65%.

Consider, then, how much you'll be ahead if your pantry, cabinets, cellar, or attic is stocked with canned vegetables, meats, fish, milk, and fruit; relishes and condiments; sugar, flour, rice, and other cereals; breakfast foods; tea, coffee, chocolate, and cocoa; shortenings and salad oils; flavoring extracts; dried fruits and packaged desserts. And if you have the required cool, dark, dry place, smoked ham, bacon, and tongue, a substantial supply of potatoes, onions, and turnips, also squash, pumpkins, and apples will keep in good condition until used up.

Now, you simply can't lose if you stock up now with food. What's more, in addition to being ahead financially and saving time in future daily marketing, you will have within reach a delightful variety of foods that will make your menus more pleasing and healthful.

A DECENT LIVING FOR EVERYONE

Four years of falling prices had created a situation where nothing had any true value. Labor, products, and property had sunk to such a low level that a man or woman couldn't make a decent living.

That's why falling prices had to be stopped. And the government by setting up the machinery of the NRA codes is paving the way to make everything worth something again.

Although wages are being raised and commodities are bringing better prices every day, the upward movement is not over. Before fair values and good living standards can be reached, prices will have to go still higher.

Before these prices go higher, take advantage of the grocery bargains now to be had. There are still many good ones... but they won't last long.

But aside from the personal gain that comes from buying an ample supply of non-perishable foods now, everyone who acts thus will participate in one of the greatest services that could be rendered this country.

Food-buying on a Nationwide scale now will pour millions of dollars into circulation. Food manufacturers will take on extra help. Farmers, fruit growers, dairymen, stock and poultry raisers, will have a profitable market for their products. Industries — and there are so many — which supply materials to these producers will likewise become active. Did you know that in the modern methods used in producing a smoked ham 14 men are involved?

Now, you may say with more or less accuracy — "I'd like to stock up with food but I haven't the room."

Well, you'd be surprised what space you could get if you'd do a little cleaning and re-organization in your kitchen, pantry, or cellar.

Take that cupboard, for example. How about those top shelves you rarely use, let alone reach. A lot of canned goods could be put there. And what about those empty canisters, or defunct glassware and crockery, or incapacitated electrical appliances that are taking up valuable space on shelves here and there? These are tenants that should be evicted for nonpayment of rent.

And don't forget there is invariably a place to put a few inexpensive shelves. It's amazing how many packages and cans a shelf 4 feet long and 1 foot wide will hold.

However, if you simply can't buy in case or half-case lots, you still can help yourself and aid recovery by buying two packages, two cans, two bags of a grocery product instead of one. If everybody did that — there'd be a 100% gain — an 100% gain in sales will quickly snap any country out of a depression.

So take an inventory of your space and needs. Then invest to the limit in groceries. You certainly will help yourself and everybody who needs help if you buy now.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S VOICE WILL BE HEARD AT BIRTHDAY BALL FOR FOUNDATION WORK

Infantile Paralysis Project Draws Keen Interest All Over American Nation.

The voice of President Franklin D. Roosevelt will be heard at the Pampa auditorium on the evening of January 30, when Pampa's Birthday ball for the Warm Springs Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will be held.

The broadcast also will include entertainment by nationally known stage, screen, and radio stars. It will begin about 10:15 p. m., shortly after the ball starts.

Julian Barrett, local chairman, has stated that every penny taken in under the $175 admission per couple will be given to the Foundation. Tickets are on sale at the office of the Southwestern Public Service company.

More than 800 labor groups wired Matthew Wolf, of the labor division of the national committee, promising their co-operation and indicating they were planning some sort of presidential birthday party.

Every central labor body in the country has been asked to take part.

All are to be timed so that a radio program including a speech by the president may be heard by those taking part.

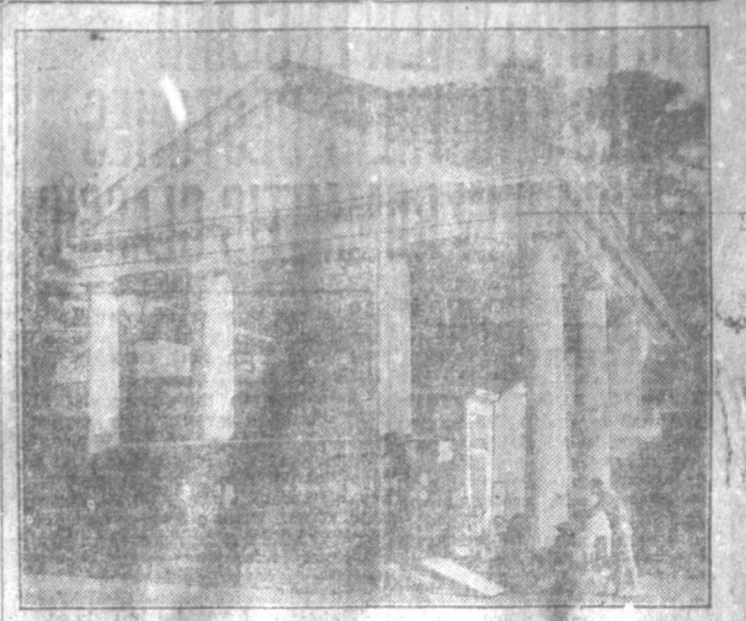

The New York party will, of course, be a formal ball at the Waldorf, while Washington plans a brilliant affair at the Shoreham. Practically all the cabinet, supreme court and diplomatic set are patrons. Mrs. John Allan Dougherty, one of the capital's social leaders, is in charge of Washington arrangements, which are on a scale comparable to the famous inaugural ball.

"I believe it is a glorious thing to be able to honor the president and at the same time strike a blow at the dreadful scourge of infantile paralysis, which is the enemy responsible for half the crippled people in the country today," said Mrs. Dougherty.

But the brilliant diplomatic and official spectacle at Washington will be no nearer the spirit of the occasion than the party at Pemberville, O., a village of 1000 people.

Pemberville notified the national committee that it was holding "an old-fashioned box social," and announced that there would be no expenses at all in connection with its party—that the entire proceeds would go to the president and Warm Springs.

The presiding genius behind the whole unusual scheme is Chairman Henry Latham Doherty, head of the Cities Service utility plant, director of 114 companies, owner of the Miami-Biltmore hotel, Doherty, who has known the president, for many years in New York, apparently was impressed by the president's natural devotion of Warm Springs, the Georgia spa where he regained health and greatly improved his condition after being stricken Offsets Are Drilling. The Mid-Kansas and Continental Oil companies have offsets drilling to the new Despain well and others will probably be made soon. There are 10 drilling wells in the vicinity.

During the last six months, 22 wells have been completed in western Wheeler county. East of that area, on the Koons lease, several good producers were completed and other wells are drilling.

A wildcat test, two miles east of the Despain leases, is being drilled by the Watchorn interests. It was down 700 feet Friday and drilling ahead. It is being watched with much interest.

The Bell company expects to complete its casinghead gasline plant on the Evans lease next week. It is a well-pressure plant and will have a capacity of 7,000,000 cubic feet a day. Gas will be supplied from Bell and Mid-Kansas wells.

by infantile paralysis almost ten years ago.

The presidency of the Warm Springs foundation was the only outside interest which the president retained when he took office.

So Doherty conceived the plan of honoring the president's courageous fight and furthering one of his dearest ambitions at the same time. The Birthday Ball project was the result.

A leading rack is being built on the Fort Worth and Denver railroad. Smith Brothers of McLean are constructing a well-pressure plant with a daily capacity of 100,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day. It is located four miles southeast of the Bell plant. It will be completed and ready to operate in a few weeks. Gray county had two recent completions. The Skelly Oil company's No. 8 Vicars in section 117, block 3, west of Pampa, was completed for a temporary production of 250 barrels.

stairs—plays an accordion, and does it beautifully. He is neat and clean and tidy, and his face is wreathed in smiles all the time. The camera he uses is kept inside his coat when he's not walking, and the tin cup is strapped around his neck—he needs his hands to earn his living. And he thinks it's fun! He's learned nearly every instrument you can think of in an attempt to please his public.

"This is the only business I have" he says, "and I advertise with my music—and my smile. People never tire of my smile, but always playing the same instrument is just like having the same ad in a paper for a year; it becomes monotonous!"

And in reply to the same two questions I asked the other fellow he replied, in all cheerfulness and sincerity:

"Oh I'm getting along fine considering how tough the world has been on everybody else the last three years. The poor people barely have enough to get their own coffee, much less pay for mine. Things are getting lots better tho," and he smiled enthusiastically, and began to tap his foot to the snappy rhythm of the latest song hit which he started to play. "And when The Old Man does turn the corner full view I'm goin' to let him have this old music box and get me one with 114 bass keys. Boy! With the music I'll make them they'll have to drop money in the old tin cup!"

You not preaching—in fact I've been sitting here doing a lot of thinking myself since I came up stairs—but who says there's no moral to that story!

I see where Wilfred J. Funk, dictionary publisher, has picked on All-American slang team, and says they're responsible for fashioning current American "slanguage." A pretty clever word, but not so hard to coin! Mr. Funk should have been in the senate the other day to name the language used by the "dripping wet" when Sen. Sheppard of Texas got up on the floor and spent an hour talking on "The Almost 14th Birthday of Prohibition!"

The particular day he spoke words he has been the anniversary of that noble effort had it not died. Because every hour spent on the floor of the senate costs the taxpayers over $4,700, and because the publication of Sheppard's speech in the Record added another $150 to the price, the wets charged the Texas senator with "too expensive a eulogy for a thing so thoroughly dead."

"It's just to remind you that he died with his boots on, and to warn you that he went with us again" Sheppard returned.

The government has just completed the largest heating plant in the entire world—it covers an entire city block, cost $4,000,000, sends heat through 7 miles of pipes to 65 federal buildings, and operates automatically. Harlem ain't such a "hot spot" after all.

The greatest tug-of-war—or shall we call it an affair of honor—ever waged between members of the same political party is now going on in the house of representatives. Every committee chairman in the house is battling to introduce the president's gold devaluation bill; it now appears to be between Somers, of New York (Coinage, Weights and Measures committee), and Steagall, of Alabama, with the score now standing 3 to 3. The country will just have to wait while the boys have their fun!

Father Coughlin appeared before Somers committee the other day, and "bearded the lions in their own den." By that I mean, he told 'em what was what, and where they'd stand if they fell out with F. D. R. and while doing it spellbound the spellbinders until they looked like they were hypnotized. They were so enthralled that when the Father said he knew what he was talking about because he had the pulse of the American people with 150,000 letters a week, which he read, the audience of "worthy colleagues from the house" failed to figure that even if the Detroit priest read sixty letters an hour for ten hours a day, he could only handle 4200 in seven-day week.

With all due respect to the representatives, though, it must be admitted that you can calculate so well with a voice like Coughlin's in your ears!

FILM VERSION OF "LITTLE WOMEN" OPENING 4-DAY RUN HERE

FOUR LOVELY NEW ENGLAND GIRLS AND THEIR DESTINIES SHOWN IN ROMANTIC CLASSIC

EPIC OF GIRLHOOD IS BASED ON FAMOUS STORY

LOUISA M. ALCOTT'S "Little Women" comes to the motion picture screen in an elaborate production designed to animate this classic of wholesome romance with all its native thrill, sweetness and power.

The film version to be shown through Wednesday at the La Nora is said to adequately encompass all the adventures of "Little Women" that brought the book recognition as a classic and that even now, 67 years after its publication cause it to demand a brisk sale.

The film story, as produced by RKO-Radio opens when the four girl heroines are entering young womanhood and have just begun to take themselves seriously. It tells the strange story of Beth, her beautiful life and more beautiful death. It carries the complete molding of Jo from the advanced miss of her time who hated marriage through her romance with Laurie and later with Prof. Bhaer, whom she marries in the end.

When the book was first published, its sweetness, beauty and sheer simplicity poured itself boldly into a sea of salacious novels and periodicals many of which could not have been sent through the mails today.

According to the research of RKO-Radio covering the Sixties the publication of "Little Women" immediately put Louisa Alcott on a pedestal of fame and the book swept through the United States and Great Britain like a wave of healing lotion, redeeming the ideas of young humanity from the callous and reckless morals brought about by the depression of the Civil War.

The story of four lovely girls and their progress into an expression of womanhood in its full beauty gripped the entire English speaking world. It is said to have marked the beginning of the end of loosely written literature which disappeared more or less, to make its reappearance during the World War.

Today the story is rated a classic. The book is read and studied in schools throughout the nation. It is a sort of girls' lesson in life, because in its mysterious fashion and its genius, it makes being good and being good the happiest of accomplishments.

"As I look back over the career of this celebrated story, I cannot help but feel that the screen version of it will have the same effect upon theater-goers as a whole, as the book had upon the reading public," says Director George Cukor. "This film, which to me, is the sweetest yet most powerful story ever told in celluloid, makes its way but under somewhat the same conditions which greeted the book.

"Sex and sophistication have been the keystones of a large per cent of modern talkies. Hundreds of censorship boards, throughout the world, battle against these productions, just as years ago, the mothers of the nation, fearful of the influence upon their children of the sensational and fiery novels of that day, battled to squash them. It was rather a futile struggle, however, for in those days women were not organized. In 1863, I believe, there was but one women's club in all America and but one women's college, Vassar."

Katherine Hepburn, the shooting star of the screen, for she flashes from almost nowhere to the highest realm in the firmament, plays Jo, the romping, restless, genius sister. Amy is enacted by Joan Bennett, Paul Lukas brings the quiet dignity of the old country to the role of Fritz Bhaer, the professor fiancé. Meg is played by Frances Dee. Edna May Oliver is Aunt March, from whom many a storm is loosed. Douglas Montgomery is the young, aristocratic grandson of Mr. Laurence, the rich and irascible neighbor, played by Henry Stephenson. Siring Byington is Marmee, Samuel Hinds is the father and Cyril Warshawsky is the mother.

FAMOUS STARS ASSEMBLE IN FILM DRAMA

THEATER FAMILY USED AS BACKGROUND OF STORY

"Broadway to Hollywood," blending the heartbeats of human drama with the dazzling pageant of half a century in the theater, with famous stars of Broadway and Hollywood in an amazing cavalcade of showing is the attraction now at the Rex theater. Its extraordinary lineup of stars includes Alice Brady, Jackie Cooper, Jimmy Durante, Frank Morgan, Madge Evans, Eddie Quillan, Fay Templeton, May Robson and Russell Hardie. This picture strikes a new note in the field of entertainment. Telling a dramatic tale of three generations of a theatrical family, it depicts their loves, joys, sorrows, triumphs and disappointments. Through the intimate drama played behind the scenes in the theater, run the brilliant spectacles enacted on the stage. Fay Templeton sings "Rosie Posie" as of yore. Barney Fagan dances again. "Schnozzle." Durante offers another of his inimitable comedy acts, and famous vaudeville headliners bring out their old bag of tricks. Motion pictures come in and crowd out vaudeville. The great climax takes place in a Hollywood studio with five hundred dancers seen in the greatest ballet ever filmed, in action as the final scene of the domestic drama of three generations of troupers is played. The action of the story runs from the days of Tony Pastor to modern Hollywood. Alice Brady and Frank Morgan appear first as young dancers and through varying ages, are finally seen as old veterans whose grandson becomes a great film star. Throughout the action the glorious old theatrical family proudly marches down the years to the amazing climax in which the grandfather, having taught his film-star grandson that troupers are still troupers, and that the show must go on, concludes his work as the largest set ever built in kaleidoscopic wave of splendor.

MINSTREL TO BE PRACTICED AGAIN TODAY

Secret Specialties Will Be Part of Show—Time to Be Shortened. An expensively costumed choral group of 48 men and 16 girls will be seen when the curtain rises in about two weeks on the 1934 minstrel show and musical revue to be staged two evenings at the city hall by the Lions club. There will be thirteen rollicking musical numbers in the opening overture and about the same number of gags by the black-faced end men. The end men this year will include John Sturgeon, Clarence Barrett, Roy Wright, Roy Bourland, Dr. H. L. Wilder, John B. Hesse, Joe Burrow, and W. H. Curry. Soloists will include Miss Dorothy Doucette, Miss Dorothy Dodd, R. B. Fisher, Jack Dunn, and Harry Kelley. W. A. Bratton will be interlocutor. A second act specialty is being developed in secret by Dr. H. H. Hicks and H. Otto Studer. Another specialty will be a clog-dance team. Merging into an unusually tuneful finale will be a check-room scene in which Director Sturgeon will be head porter. Mr. Sturgeon and Miss Doucette will have a brief musical number as the curtain closes. The show will be shorter this year than in the other two annual presentations. Proceeds will finance the club's program for the underprivileged. The show will be rehearsed at the city auditorium today at 1:30 p. m.
