CLYDE W. WARWICK in Cannon News—This would be a fine year for all of us to lay aside our prejudices and make an honest attempt to select the ones most highly qualified for every office in the state. The test of the voter is the selection of capable officials.

JODOK in Friona Star—I have just been cogitating that Friona is especially blessed with a number of splendid and saintly elderly persons; three couples of whom have celebrated their "golden wedding" anniversaries within the last 2 months. I think it is a truly wonderful circumstance that our little city can count so many of them within her citizenry.

SAM BRASWELL in Clarendon News—In most of the counties of Texas, convictions for liquor violations can be had if they are being obtained, and if Dallas or any other community hasn't enough citizenship to enforce the laws, let the prosecuting attorneys demand a change of venue.

W. W. SIMMONS in White Deer Review—The American people have always ruled their country through the ballot. How well they have accomplished this task was borne out in our recent national election. Pay your poll tax and protect this priceless heritage.

R. B. HAYNES in Miami Chief—Methodists of Texas are now observing their centennial. The denomination established itself in 1834. The influence of this body of Christian workers in the last 100 years is beyond the human mind to estimate.

WILLIAM RUSSELL CLARK in Memphis Democrat—It has been said truthfully that President Wilson's policy of self-interest will permit matters to worry him. He has schooled himself to take life as it comes, to remain cheerful, and never to become embittered. . . . He really seems to thrive on work, because he not only knows how to relax, but he makes this a part of his daily routine.

T. A. LANDERS in McLean News—A man may be conscientiously mistaken or may sincerely believe a lie, yet we all like to see a man sincere in what he believes; for a man of this type is likely to be right most of the time and is certainly more open to conviction than others.

JIMMIE GILLENLINE in Wellington Leader—Abraham Lincoln, when McClellan's writing campaign finally got the best of him, dispatched General Hooker to relieve McClellan. Hooker wired back: "Headquarters in the saddle." Reading the telegram, Lincoln remarked that "the only trouble with Hooker is that he has his headquarters where his hindquarters ought to be."

J. C. ESTLACK in Donley County Leader—Every man willing to earn what he gets can do so under any branch of the present coin system. It depends upon the individual. . . . Who will pay back all the money being spent? . . . The Good Book says "Sufficient unto the hour is the evil thereof." That explanation is as good as any right now.

UNITED STATES ENVOY TO SPAIN PRESSING CLEMENCY PLEA

MADRID, Jan. 22 (AP)—Four Americans under arrest at Palma, Mallorca, were ordered to remain in jail today while the United States embassy exerted its utmost efforts to settle the case.

Ambassador Claude Bowers conferred with both Spanish government and judicial officials in an effort to effect the release of the prisoners pending negotiations for clemency.

It was considered practically certain in government circles that a pardon would be forthcoming within a day or so.

The Americans are Mr. and Mrs. Clinton B. Lockwood, West Springfield, Mass.; Roger F. Mead, New York, and Edmund A. Blodgett, Stamford, Conn., who were sentenced to six months in jail as the result of an altercation last year with a civil guard at Palma.

Authorities there jailed them yesterday when it was rumored they planned to escape, but today they were released temporarily, then returned to custody.

Governor Juan Mament of Palma said they must stay there until their case has been disposed of.

"We received the official notification of a verdict," said the governor, "and in the absence of any clemency instruction there is nothing else for us to do except imprisonment because the supreme court sentence was six months and a day."

A petition for their pardon has been presented to the supreme court.

Ambassador Bowers talked to cabinet ministers, urging the necessity of settling the matter as soon as possible because, he said, public interest had been aroused.

Spanish business men were considerably worried over the fact that the Americans had been sent to jail because they believed the action might affect present negotiations toward the increase of the Spanish wine quota in the United States and other commercial matters.

Army Officer To Talk on Scouting At Honor Court

What a U. S. army officer of 38 years service thinks of Scouting will be heard tonight at a court of honor in the courthouse.

Col. Edward R. Cappaock, the speaker, has two sons who were Scouts. They are business men in New York. Col. Cappaock's talk will deal entirely with citizenship training. He is the C. C. commander in the Palo Duro canyon.

The court of honor will start at 7:30 with the Rev. A. A. Hyde acting as chairman. Parents are especially invited, and scoutmasters are advised that the contest for Scout attendance is continuing.

Announcements will be made concerning the mobilization of Scouts in the city auditorium at 10 a. m. February 10, when President Roosevelt's challenge to the boys will be received by radio.

DRIVER IS CHARGED

A complaint of driving while intoxicated has been filed in Justice W. S. Baxter's court against Sam Sampson. He is being held in jail in default of $500 bond.

I HEARD—

Dr. W. Purviance, J. S. Wynne, and W. M. Castleberry indulging in a "story" telling contest in the First National bank this morning and, as judge, Mr. Castleberry won. He declared that two years ago he was shingling the roof of his house when a dense fog blew in. He kept on shingling and when the fog dispersed he was 10 feet over the end of the roof and still going strong.

Made Millions

He invested $40 in Pratt & Whitney Aircraft stock in 1926, and in less than four years Charles W. Deeds ran the amount to more than $5,000,000. This was the startling disclosure made before the Senate airmail contract inquiry where Deeds, 31-year-old treasurer of the United Aircraft Transportation company, is shown testifying.

PROCESSING TAX FOR CATTLE IS STILL OPPOSED

Wyoming Man Talks Against 'Basic' at Hearing

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Testimony before the house agriculture committee today revealed that some of the opposition to a processing tax persists among cattlemen which last year kept cattle out of the agriculture adjustment program.

Testifying on the bill by Chairman Jones (D. Tex.) to include cattle as a basic commodity that they may be brought into the relief program along with cotton and other farm products, J. E. Brock of the Wyoming Stock Growers Association was the most outspoken opponent to anything savoring of a processing tax.

He declared Wyoming cattle interests—among whom last year's opposition centered—were flatly opposed to any law that would impose a processing tax on cattle. He contended tobacco was the only commodity so far showing benefits from such a tax, and that the cattle people of his section felt it was not possible to take the tax money from their industry and spend it for administration purposes and the industry still profit by it.

His statement on the results of other phases of the program were challenged promptly by Jones and other members, who cited improved wheat and cotton prices as evidence of betterment resulting from the processing tax.

W. T. Coble of Amarillo, Texas, representing the Texas-Southwest Cattlemen's association, said that while his organization went on record favoring inclusion of cattle as a basic commodity, some were fearful of the processing tax and would like to know what the program would be before committing themselves.

COURT ALLOWS DEFENDANT TO DECIDE ISSUE

DOCTORS DISAGREE ON CONDITION OF WOMAN

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (AP)—Dr. Alice L. Wynekoop today signed a petition asking Judge Joseph B. David to declare a mistrial because of her precarious health. Attorney Milton Smith announced.

Judge David ruled that Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynekoop should decide for herself whether she could continue on trial for murder in the slaying of her daughter-in-law, Rheta.

He made the ruling after reports of three physicians who examined Dr. Wynekoop Saturday had been read in court. The reports varied as to whether Dr. Alice was physically able to stand trial.

Judge David ordered that Dr. Francis W. McNamara, chief physician of the county jail, should take all the available physicians reports to the jail and inform Dr. Wynekoop of her condition. He said attorneys for the defense, the state's attorney and her daughter, Catherine, would be present.

Of the doctor's reports given the court, one was from Dr. William D. McNally of the Cook County Behavior clinic, suggested by Assistant State's Attorney Dougherty to examine the defendant with two other physicians. His report was to the effect that Dr. Wynekoop was well enough to continue.

Dr. Frank Chauvet, defense physician, had said Dr. Wynekoop was well enough to lie in court in a semi-reclining position. The prosecution announced it would object to that.

Dr. Arthur Byfield, appointed by the court, said he believed continuing the trial would endanger the defendant's life.

Bates, Bailey Are Profane In Forced Feeding

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Jan. 22 (AP)—Appetizing roast meats and succulent vegetables apparently had failed today to tempt Harvey Bates and Alfred Bates, convict desperadoes, to end a hunger strike in protest against solitary confinement in the federal penitentiary.

But the convicted kidnapers were not wasting away. The prison physicians and two guards, with a daily gallon of milk and a rubber hose, said that while two convict witnesses stood by to be able to testify the forcible feeding was not accompanied by abuse.

The men who gurgled profanely as they were forced to take the unaccustomed beverage by the nostril route were sentenced to life for the $200,000 ransom abduction of Charles F. Urschel, oil millionaire. They are believed to know where $100,000 of the ransom money is hidden. Federal officials are more than curious about that.

George (Machine Gun) Kelly, also sentenced to life for the Urschel kidnaping and in a solitary cell here, has become a daily reader of the Bible. Prison officials say he has expressed a desire to become an evangelist within the prison. Kelly is eating.

BARNES WILL CONTEND HE ONLY OWES COUNTY $3,000, QUESTIONS ASKED BY HIS LAWYER INDICATE

Trial Of Gray County Tax Collector Starts

"Do you believe in imprisonment for debt, under any circumstances?" This question placed before prospective jurors today by W. M. Lewright, revealed one of the defense pleas to be made in the trial of Tax Collector T. W. Barnes, which opened in 31st district court this morning.

The jury was to be seated this afternoon.

Collector Barnes is under indictment for "unlawfully converting to his own use" about $3,000 which, on his own statement several months ago to county officials, was due the county in excess fees of officers.

He and his attorney, Mr. Lewright, maintain that this constitutes a debt, while the state maintains that it amounts to misappropriation.

Another question asked the prospective jurors contained the inference that under the statutes Mr. Barnes could do as he pleased with fees of office, providing he paid back to the county a sum equal to the excess as shown in his March report. Mr. Barnes and his bondsmen admit the debt, and he several months ago asked more time in which to pay the amount shown in his report to be due.

District Attorney Lewis M. Goodrich will maintain that the excess belonged to the state at all times and that to appropriate it at any time for private use was wrongful.

LATE NEWS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—President Roosevelt today notified the diplomats of Central and South America that he was ready to recognize the new Cuban government.

AUSTIN, Jan. 22 (AP)—George H. Sheppard, secretary of the Texas bond commission, agency charged with the sale of state relief bonds, said he expected funds from the sale of $1,602,000 in bonds on which bids were received today to be available within the next few days.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Chairman Vinson of the naval committee predicted to the house today that Japan would insist upon a fleet as big as America's when present treaties expire, and asked approval of a $380,000,000 United States naval building program.

FORT WORTH, Jan. 22 (AP)—Definite information that Thomas Benjamin Gallett, 18, was killed for revenge in a blazing barn near Burleson Friday night or early Saturday morning has been obtained by Hill county officers. Sheriff J. W. Freedland of Hillsboro announced he expected to make an arrest tonight Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Hess Woods and daughter, Lois, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Galloway, all of Canadian, visited here Sunday.

In Kidnaping

Edward G. Bremer, 75, top, wealthy St. Paul, Minn., banker and brewer, is held for $200,000 ransom by a kidnaping gang. Mrs. Bremer, center, harassed by the fear that he has been murdered, waits in seclusion while her other relatives frantically try to make contacts with the abductors. Adolph Bremer, left, bottom photos, father of the victim, and Otto Bremer, right, his uncle, are reported ready to pay the ransom.

NEW FUND PUTS CWA EMPLOYEES BACK TO WORK

Gray County's Quota Of Men Fixed At 700.

C. W. A. projects in Gray county were under way again this morning after being shut down since Friday afternoon, when it was learned that teams and trucks could not be supplied by the state relief body. Word was received here this morning, however, that a special fund would be set aside for hire of trucks and teams.

The county did not have the funds available for that purpose and it was feared that work on the Pampa-McLean road would have to be stopped. Work hours will probably be cut under new regulations, but the schedule has not been received.

It will be difficult to accept new relief cases because the Gray county quota of men has been set at 700, instead of the 900 asked. New cases will be handled as replacements until some other plan can be made.

Suit Discontinued By Vallee's Wife

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Mrs. Fay Webb Vallee, in a surprise move today, discontinued her suit in supreme court to set aside a separation agreement made with her husband, Rudy Vallee, orchestra leader, and to restrain him from suing for divorce anywhere except in New York state.

Benjamin Harsteln, counsel for Mrs. Vallee, announced discontinuance of the suit when he and Samuel Gottlieb, counsel for Vallee, appeared before Justice John E. McGehean to argue a motion by Vallee to restrain Mrs. Vallee from proceeding with a suit for separate maintenance in California.

Walter McClee, wealthy contractor and friend of the Bremers, could not be found and inquiries as to the whereabouts of the man who received the first and only note from the kidnapers shortly after Bremer was seized about 5:30 a. m. last Wednesday elicited replies of "don't know" at his home and office.

Birthday Ball Tickets Ready

President Roosevelt Is Eager That Paralysis Sufferers May Have Treatments.

TICKETS for the birthday ball for President Franklin D. Roosevelt and the Warm Springs Foundation are on sale at the Southwestern Public Service company. They may also be obtained from civic club committees.

Tickets are $1.75 a couple. The ball will be the P. M. at the auditorium from 10 to 2 on January 30, at the same hour as 5,000 other balls in various parts of the nation. All proceeds will be added to the fund to fight infantile paralysis.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—Warm Springs played so large a part in the recovery of Franklin D. Roosevelt from infantile paralysis in 1925 that he began his experimental work there in 1926, according to Keith Morgan, a director of the Warm Springs Foundation, and his interest in the institution has been a vitalizing influence ever since. Because of his recovery and his work in helping to develop the institution, he personalities that great health center for the nation although he is only one of hundreds of thousands who have suffered from the dread disease.

"In the fall of 1924," said Mr. Morgan, "Mr. Roosevelt, who had been severely disabled in 1921 by infantile paralysis, learned of a young man, also a victim of Polio, who had spent three successive summers bathing in the warm water pools of Warm Springs.

"This young man, practically helpless, had been helped each day into the pool. He quickly found that the water and by persistent effort and exercise so increased their strength that at the end of the third summer he was able to walk once more with the aid of a cane.

"Mr. Roosevelt went to Warm Springs in the Spring of 1925 and spent several weeks, exercising and swimming in the pools. He was so impressed with the improvement of other patients, as well as his own, that he decided in 1926 to conduct some experimental work.

RECOGNITION WAS BIG MANEUVER

American recognition of Russia had a much broader significance than Pampans and the world generally recognized. The political and economic effects were perhaps the least consideration in the minds of the staff of the American state department.

It has gradually become apparent that a profoundly important maneuver in world politics has been taking place. To send an ambassador to Moscow because your relations with Tokio are somewhat delicate may look like a roundabout way of doing business. But it is perfectly obvious that the Japanese situation was a sizeable factor in our recognition of Russia, and bit by bit we are beginning to get a glimpse of the real background of the move.

One angle of it is touched on by an editorial in the current issue of Woman's World; and whether or not this magazine has the facts absolutely straight, it at least gives a sample of the kind of things that were taken into account in Washington when recognition first was discussed. During and after the war, says the Woman's World editorial, Japan and France reached a secret understanding. Clemenceau feared that the end of the war would find the United States overwhelmingly more powerful than any other nation on earth, and he believed Japan could be useful as a check. So, says the editorial, he devised an agreement whereby Japan would be permitted unlimited expansion in Asia. Japan would be allowed to seize Manchuria and control China; it also would be allowed to control the Pacific all the way to the California coast.

It was for this reason, continues the editorial, that Clemenceau insisted on giving Japan mandates over so many islands in the Pacific at the Versailles conference. Now all this is somewhat shocking, to one brought up on the theory that America and France always have been good friends. Just how far the facts are straight may be open to question. The story may be entirely true, partly true, or entirely false. The point that it does illustrate is that Japan has been emerging in the Far East as a potential enemy of both America and Russia, and that certain European powers have been very happy to see that happen. By resuming relations with Russia, this country has taken an effective step to meet the situation. Recognition was a move for national security. By sending an ambassador to Russia, the administration sought to lessen a growing tension on the other side of the world.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (AP)—A tendency to await monetary developments at Washington did much to curtail buying interest in the wheat market today, and to make prices sag. The downward disposition of wheat values was increased as a result of liberal receipts, especially at Kansas City. Messages from Kansas City, however, said the arrivals there today were mainly from interior terminals and not from rural sources. Wheat closed unsteady, 1/2 to 1 cent under Saturday's finish, corn 1/2-% off, oats 1/2-% down, and provisions unchanged to a decline of 2 cents.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Stocks were inclined to react today after their spurt of the past week, and the majority of the leaders faced considerable profit-taking. Most of the declines were moderate, however, and there were a number of small gains recorded by the oils and specialties. The close was irregular. Transfers approximated 2,500,000 shares.

Mrs. O. E. Loder of McLean was nominated for president, Mrs. O. E. Palmer of Pampa for vice-president, Mrs. Mary Sillgar of McLean for secretary, and Mrs. Chas. Carpenter of Beck for treasurer.

This trait is the cornerstone of all virtue, he said, and a person needs to think well of himself in order that others may be justified in holding the same opinion.

A sing-song opened the program, followed by a prayer by Mrs. Ernest Dowell. Primary pupils at Webb, directed by Miss Corrie Lee Newman, presented two rhythm band numbers. Reports were made by representatives of various units.

Dinner Served to Guests. A delicious dinner was served at noon by women of Webb. Members registering were: Mrs. S. W. Rice, J. E. Lynch, H. W. Eshley, John Butler, and Loder of LeFors; Mrs. Kennedy, and Mrs. Cryer of Beck; Mrs. L. L. Mays, John Loutz, Dowell, J. O. Wilcox, C. W. Carpenter, and Mrs. Hinkle of Beck; Mrs. Crabtree, and Miss Miriam Wilson of LeFors.

The bulk of this organization's work concerned the compiling of complete records, and making a study of many of the great historical buildings throughout the east and south, showing by means of drawings, plans, photographs, and models a complete restoration of the buildings (exterior and interior), and their surrounding grounds.
Some of the old show-places were in such unsympathetic private hands, and had actually fallen into a state of such absolute ruin that unless this restoration work had been done, permanent records of many of these surviving places would have been lost to posterity. OLD MISSIONS AND BUILDINGS OF FAMOUS RANCHES ARE TO BE RESTORED AS FEDERAL PROJECT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The restoration study of the pre-colonial civilization of New Mexico, and many famous old ranch headquarters and missions throughout the states of Texas, Arizona, and California will soon become a reality now that the federal government has decided to support and carry on this movement which was started three years ago by this country's outstanding architects.
The background story of the government's decision to work with and actually take over this movement is one great human interest and no little romance. The initial steps along these lines were taken back in 1930 when the prominent architects over the nation formed what is known today as the architects' emergency committee, organized primarily to create something outside of the regular channels of building design and construction that would assist the numerous architects, draughtsmen, designers,

As it is now, this work has given America a lasting picture of the life and cultural background of our country from Maine to Georgia.
The architects were the first to organize relief committees, and to seek forms of emergency employment, consequently these projects will be made possible by the generosity of the public in contributing to the architects emergency fund. Now that these completed projects show the comprehensive and efficient manner in which this organization worked, the federal government has recognized their accomplishments and is furthering the work in every way possible.

A board of architects to follow up this restoration study with Public Works Administration funds has been created, and the Civil Works Administration has created the public works of art projects which will work with this movement in preserving a picture record of the present day condition of these places.
Recognition of this sort of work in the west is a definite recognition of the western culture which has been steadily coming into its own. Texas will have about 40 projects largely concerned with ranch headquarters, New Mexico will have 2 or 3 ranch projects and 2 or 3 Indian pueblo projects. The Texas division headquarters for this work is at San Antonio.

Is This Too Good for Your Cough?

Cremolium may be a better help than you need. It combines seven major helps in one—the best helps known to science. It is made for quick relief, for safety. Mild coughs often yield to lesser helps. No one can tell. No one knows which factor will do most for any certain cough. So careful people, more and more, are using Cremolium for any cough that starts.
The cost is a little more than a single help. But your druggist guarantees it, so it costs nothing if it fails to bring you quick relief. Coughs are danger signals. Safety's sake, deal with them in the best way known. (Adv.—E)

NAVY IS NEAR FACT LIMITS, SOLONS AVER

ADMIRAL'S STATEMENT ABOUT INFERIOR NAVY DENIED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—A United States navy near London treaty limits upon completion of its present program was pictured today by the house appropriations committee in reporting a $284,747,000 naval supply bill.

Taking issue with statements by Admiral William H. Standley, chief of naval operations, that the condition of the fleet was not satisfactory, the committee reported construction under way which "upon completion, will bring us current with treaty limitations in all combat categories, completely discounting over-age tonnage."

The committee provided for an increase of 2,800 enlisted naval, and 1,000 marine personnel.

The measure is $23,822,000 less than the current appropriations and $1,585,000 below budget estimates. Transfers of unused funds totaling $9,065,000, however, will bring the actual cash withdrawals from the treasury for the navy to $293,833,000.

Admiral Standley urged the committee to increase navy enlisted personnel to 85,000, although saying he realized President Roosevelt had asked for only 82,500 men.

WAR LEADER OF JAPAN RESIGNS HIS PORTFOLIO

Act May Be A Sign That Militarism Is On Wane

TOKYO, Jan. 22 (AP)—General Sadao Aarki, who in the eyes of the world personified the militant spirit with which the Japanese nation has been imbued in the last two years, relinquished the portfolio of minister of war today and at least temporarily retired from the political stage.

Premier Saito, after futilely urging the bed-ridden war-lord to reconsider, accepted his resignation. Afterward, the premier acquiesced to the recommendation of members of an informal conference of high ranking military leaders that general Senjuro Hayashi succeed Aarki. General Jinzaburo Masaki, member of the supreme war council, was chosen to succeed Hayashi as inspector-general of military education.

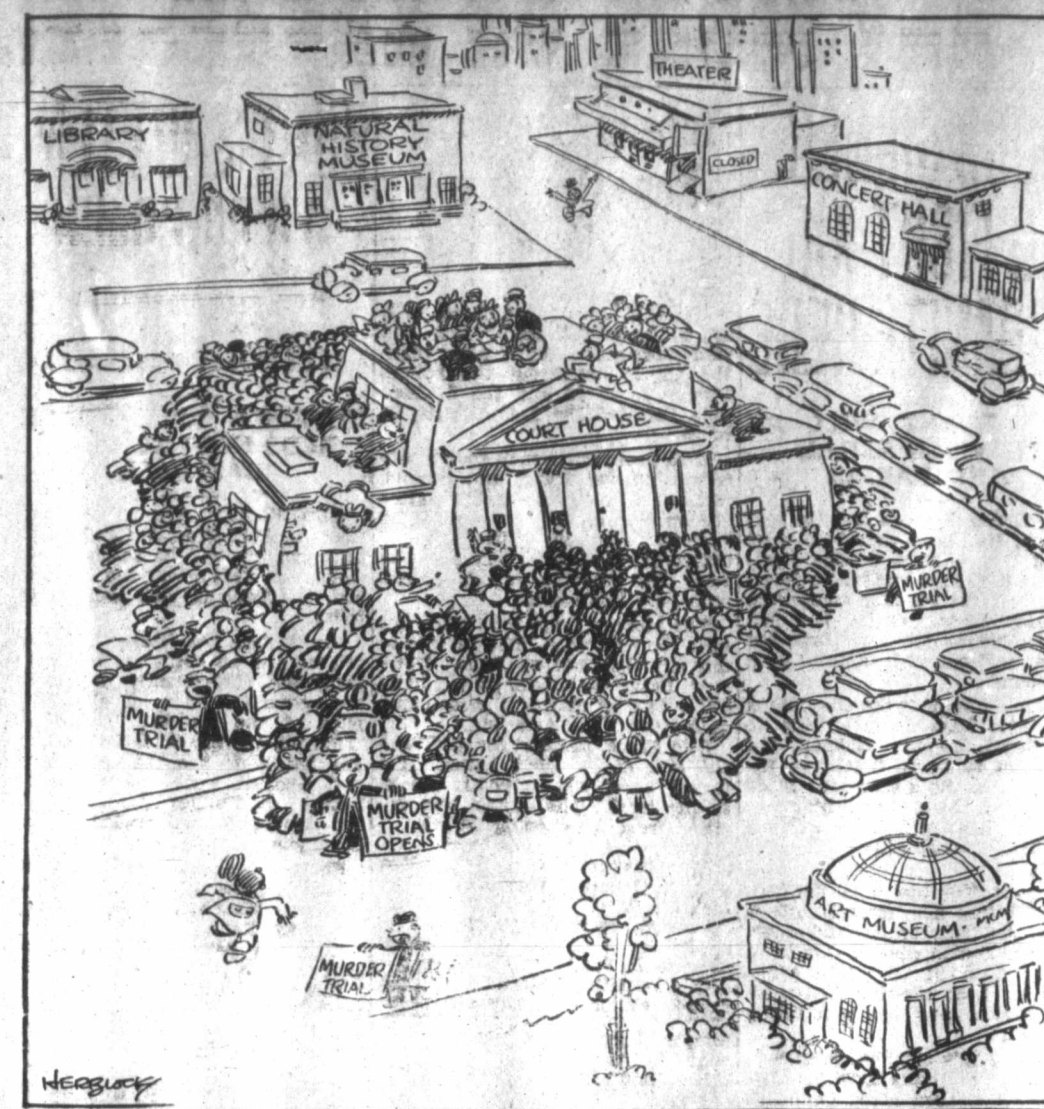

Hayashi's formal installation was scheduled for today. He will be inducted into office in time to take his seat on the government bench when parliament is reconvened.

It was considered too early confidently to gauge the significance of the cabinet change, but among Japanese political writers and non-Japanese military experts strong opinion prevailed that Aarki's retirement may be the signal for the long suppressed liberal anti-militarist movement again to lift its head.

Further, they believed, it may mark the conclusion of a turbulent period likely to be known in Japanese history as the Aarki era, coinciding with Japan's conquest of Manchuria, withdrawal from the League of Nations, two of the largest peace time budgets in the empire's history, recurrent periods of Japanese-American tension and ever-darkening Russo-Japanese war clouds.

Some writers, while not doubting the genuineness of Aarki's illness from pneumonia, reported to have been the cause of his resigning, believed that the war minister—foreseeing a decline in the army clique's fortunes—seized this plausible opportunity to retire with his prestige unimpaired.

WHY EDUCATORS GET DISCOURAGED

PAMPA'S FIRE RECORD IN LAST TWO YEARS GETS HIGH PRAISE

Mayor W. A. Bratton has received a letter from Raymond S. Maik, Texas fire insurance commissioner, paying high tribute to Pampa for having an excellent fire loss record in the last two years.

Maik's official records of this department show that your city suffered an insured fire loss during the year of 1932 of $7,980 and according to the monthly reports made to us by your local fire marshal during 1933, your city suffered a loss of approximately $5,250. We are very much delighted with this fine showing, and feel that this reduction in your fire losses during 1933 was brought about by cooperation between your city officials, county and district attorney, fire marshal, fire chief and his department, and your citizens.

"Inasmuch as your people pay the cost of all fires that occur in your city, we feel that this matter is of great concern to them."

"The record of your city as well as many other Texas cities indicates that there has been much diligence shown in the matter of investigating suspicious fires, and we wish to remind you that the reduction in losses during 1933 was due to the fact that the prosecuting authorities decided they would no longer tolerate arson and vigorously prosecuted those accused of the crime. We are asking for a continuation of this practice during 1934. This is one form of crime that the people of Texas should not tolerate and are within their rights in demanding a strict enforcement of our arson laws."

"We want to urge your business men and citizens to cooperate with your local fire marshal and fire department in seeing that frequent inspections are made of your city during this year, and to remind them that a clean place seldom burns, and it is by close inspection that places are kept clean."

"We are ready and willing to lead your city every assistance possible this year in behalf of fire prevention, and trust that you feel free to call upon us."

Safety Program Under CWA To Be Developed

Organization of a safety department in connection with the Federal Civil Work administration in Gray county will take place at a meeting of officials, superintendents of road projects, timekeepers, foremen, injury clerk and safety inspectors, in the city hall at 8 o'clock tonight.

An extensive safety program has been set out by the administration. The safety inspectors, one for each job employing more than 10 men, have many duties including inspection of tools, working conditions and possible hazards, maintaining a first aid kit on the jobs, posting of safety bulletins, daily inspection and reporting of all unsafe practices to foremen, examination of automobile equipment and unsafe driving practices, conduct of periodic safety meetings, and authority to order work stopped at any time he believes working conditions and methods are causing a serious hazard.

Superintendents and foremen will also be given more responsibility under the program. They will be urged to make a thorough examination of the job and working conditions before starting the project. After work is started, the foremen will have to instruct his men in the use of tools being used and show cause of possible accidents, emphasize the danger of using improper tools, order treatment of minor injuries, urge reporting of unsafe practices, instruct the older men on the job from point of service, help the new men, explain what serious injury means to the men and their families, and generally keep closer on the jobs.

A thorough discussion of the various phases of the work will be made at the meeting. Other meetings will be held from time to time.

BYRD'S PARTY BARELY AVOIDS A NEW MISHAP

TRACTORS CATCH FIRE AND ALMOST SINK IN OCEAN

Admiral Byrd even found a fruit jar half-full of kerosene which had been his reading lamp. Lighted, it revealed the empty bunks against the walls—all just as when the camp was abandoned February 19, 1933.

It was Meteorologist Haines who dug into the administration building located in the roof of the weather station and then dropped through a hole to be followed by the Admiral and the others working to reclaim the buried winter city.

The task is highly hazardous, owing to the dangers accompanying the transporting by tractor of supplies from the flagship to Little America—two and one-half miles distant.

Two tractors caught fire and were damaged before the flames could be extinguished. The second of the five tractors had just been dropped over onto the ice, its engine having been started in the hold when a serious accident was narrowly averted.

Pete Damas, chief of the tractor division, warned that the ice was starting to crumble beneath its treads, drove it to safety just as the whole piece collapsed and plunged into the water.

Religious Zealot Chokes His Two Sons To Death

SEATTLE, Jan. 22 (AP)—A 37-year-old fisherman, Oskar Hestness, a self-styled "messenger of God" today was charged with first degree murder for strangling his two little sons. Chief of Detectives Luke S. May said Hestness gave as his motive a "vision from God" ordering him to "choke the devil out of" the boys.

Authorities were to study the man's mental condition.

In words including many religious references, the fisherman described the killings. The victims were his only children, John, 10, and Henry, 4.

"I killed John first. Last Tuesday he came from the Pentecostal Temple, and I asked him who sent him. He wouldn't answer. Then I asked him 'who is in you?'"

"He said 'the devil is in me.' Then God appeared to me and he told me to choke the devil out of his boys."

He added that he killed Henry Wednesday.

The bodies were found in the Hestness' small four-room home Sunday, after the parents had been placed under arrest; the previous night, a minister, the Rev. O. L. Haavik, of the Ballard First Lutheran church, had found them in his garage, in possession of his car.

Floyd Studer Is Praised for Work in Plains Ruins

CANYON, Jan. 22 — Floyd V. Studer of Amarillo, Panhandle archaeologist, has received warm commendation in a recently published book "Archaeology of the Arkansas River" by Dr. Warren King Moorehead, eminent archaeologist, and director of the department of archaeology at Phillips Academy of Andover, Mass.

Dr. Moorehead's book contains the following acknowledgement: "Mr. Floyd V. Studer, residing in Canadian at the time of our visit, rendered us assistance. After we had returned east, Mr. Studer devoted a great deal of time to the inspection and mapping of numerous ruins within a radius of 100 miles of Amarillo, his present home. Much of the new material presented in this volume is due to the kind assistance afforded us by him. He obtained many photographs and sent us pottery fragments and chipped objects for examination from 12 or 15 sites. Mr. Studer has written several pages for us and in these he presents his observations, for all of which we sincerely thank him."

Observing their anniversary with an annual ladies' night banquet, Junior chamber of commerce members this evening will install officers, hear a radio address by the national president from New York and a local program, and award a distinguished service key to a young Pampa man.

The banquet will be at Schneider hotel. It is open to non-members as well as to Junior chamber members and their wives. A large attendance is expected.

John Osborne is to be toastmaster, and short talks will be made by J. E. Cunningham, John Sturgeon, and Mayor W. A. Bratton. Music and other entertainment is also being arranged by W. T. Fraser, who is in charge of the program.

The service award is to be made to a Pampa man between the ages of 18 and 35, who has a commendable record of non-members has selected as the foremost contributor to the city's development last year.

Club Reporters Study Mechanics Of News Writing

How to make news stories interesting by "blurring out the most important fact" in the open paragraphs, and how to find and write articles the public likes to read were topics studied here today by home demonstration club reporters.

Each reporter also wrote one story to illustrate the points studied. The extension service publicity pamphlet was used as a textbook. Accuracy, terseness, and completeness of stories were stressed.

Club reporters present were the following: Mrs. W. D. Chapman, Busy Best; Mrs. J. M. Daugherty, Priscilla; Mrs. J. C. Browning, Merten; Mrs. Clyde King, Bell; Miss Pae Davis, Hopkins; Mrs. John Pencock, Kingsmill; Mrs. Faucette S. Rudolph, Laketon.

3-Day Western Dance Will Be Held at Clayton

CLAYTON, N. M., Jan. 22 (AP)—Whiskers like grandfather grew full flowing beards, Van Dykes, goatees, mustaches and burnisides—have had their annual revival in Clayton. "Soup strainers" of the tall arbutus variety decorate many a manly lip.

It's all part of the preparations Clayton's yearly costume party, the old western dance, a rip-snorting entertainment which lasts for three days and nights without intermission.

The women also have a part in adding color to the celebration. They wear frills, hutes and "rats" in the style of bygone days.

The setting for the affair is as authentic as the whiskers, which custom decrees must be genuine. The famous buckhorn bar occupies a prominent place in the pavilion. Roulette wheels, poker tables, dice games, all play their part. Winnings are paid in chips, redeemable only inside the hall.

Cowboys ride in from prairie, mesa and canyon, wearing chaps, spurs, 10-gallon hats, neckerchiefs and six-guns.

Trail drivers, horse wranglers and ranchers who pioneered in the settlement of this section spin yarns.

But the feature of the celebration is the western dance. A few do the Virginia reel, the "hesitation" waltz and oldtime fox trot, but the square dance leads in popularity.

PINNELL INELIGIBLE TO PLAY ANY MORE ON HARVESTER ATHLETIC TEAMS

LOSS OF STAR CAGER KEENLY FELT BY TEAM

EIGHT-SEMESTER RULE REMOVES FORWARD FROM LINE-UP

Roscoe Pinnell, star forward on the Harvester basketball team, will play no more for Pampa high school. It was learned yesterday that he would be ineligible to compete in athletics after this morning. The eight semester rule "got" him today, the opening of the second term.

Coach Odus Mitchell wrote R. B. Henderson about Pinnell, but did not get a ruling until yesterday. Pinnell attended Hopkins school before coming to Pampa. During that time he took a few high school subjects along with his other work and it has been ruled that his high school work constituted high school attendance.

It will be necessary to re-arrange the team this week. Coach Mitchell called a lengthy practice session for this afternoon, when experiments were to be started. Four basketball games are on the Harvester schedule for this week. The girls' team will play two games. On Tuesday night, both local teams will go to Borger for return games and Thursday night they will journey to McLean for their second conference games of the season.

Two important games will be played here to close the week. The Lubbock Westerners will be here Friday night, and the Plainview Bulldogs will come Saturday night.

Old Favorite Is Back Again

SAILOR OTIS CLINGMAN

It is fitting that a former Pampa boy should bring wrestling back to Pampa after more than a year of inactivity. Promoter A. C.

"Lefty" Huff has signed Otis Clingman for the job. The sailor will meet Dick Kanthe of Detroit in the main event at the Pia-Mor auditorium tonight. A good supporting card has been arranged.

CLINGMAN AND KANTHE GO TO MAT TONIGHT

ROB ROY AND GARRISON WILL MEET IN SEMI-FINAL

Wrestling comes back tonight at the Pia-Mor auditorium with an A-1 card for Panhandle mat fans. Sailor Otis Clingman, logical contender for the middleweight wrestling crown, will meet Prof. Dick Kanthe, Detroit strong man, in the finish match.

A strong supporting card has been arranged. Rob Roy, former Pampa boy, will meet Pat Garrison, now of Pampa but formerly of Borger, in the semi-final. The card will open at 8:15 o'clock with Charlie Heard, San Antonio welterweight, wrestling Lobo Brown of Amarillo in a time limit affair.

Kanthe, besides being a strong man, is an instructor in the ear-pulling game in Henry Ford's city. He does not appear to be a big man, but his marvelous strength pulls him out of trouble when it seems impossible for him to come out of a hold. He can take the biggest men in the game and throw them around. It is only the speed of opponents that has defeated Kanthe.

Clingman has not appeared in Pampa for more than a year. It will be his homecoming tonight, and a packed auditorium is expected to greet the ex-gob. He needs no introduction to Panhandle wrestling fans.

Roy and Garrison are also well known here. Fans know all about their ability. They are the rough, tough type of maulers that try to get away with murder. Commissioner Frank Hunt of Pampa says the boys are going to wrestle according to state regulations or it will be "out on their ears" for them.

Heard is looking for a bout with Jack Reynolds, world titlist. The San Antonio boy is that good and is appearing on the preliminary tonight just because it is an opening card. He is a main eventer of the best kind. The tough Brown will have his hands full, it is predicted.

Admission will be 40 cents general admission and 75 cents for reserve seats. Ladies will be admitted for 10 cents.

The Pampa and LeFors Midget teams will play a game Friday night and the Pampa and LeFors junior high teams will battle Saturday night. The preliminary games will start at 7 o'clock and will last only a half hour. The "kid" teams stole the show last Friday night.

The loss of Pinnell has put Coach Mitchell in a "bad spot." It will probably be necessary to shift Orville Heskell to forward and then develop a new guard. Coach Mitchell said this morning that Monroe Owens might be the man for the vacant guard position, at least until Eimer Irving is able to play again. The elongated substitute center or guard has been ill with pneumonia and has not practiced for a month.

Little Everett Woodward, Lloyd Hamilton, and Tom Rose Jr., are promising substitute forwards, but they lack experience. However, they are sure to see considerable service. Everett Scott, with more experience, should be a valuable guard. Robert McAuley showed marked improvement in the last week.

Both Plainview and Lubbock have fallen before the Amarillo Sandies this season, although both schools have good teams. They are scheduled to give the Harvesters stiff competition.

Coach T. H. McDonald's Harvesters have improved remarkably the last few weeks. The girls demonstrated their ability Saturday night when they defeated LeFors. McLean is going to prove much harder.

GRUBB SIGNED TO FIGHT KID GRANITE HERE

MAIN EVENT WILL BE BETWEEN REGAL AND PARRIS

Pug Grubb, Borgers favorite boxing son, has been signed to meet Young Kid Granite in the semi-final to the Chief Paris-Pete Regal fight at the Pia-Mor auditorium Thursday night. Grubb has lost considerable weight, he reports, but at that will outweigh Granite by a few pounds.

The main event is the one Pampa fight fans have been waiting to see. Regal, Borgers wild man, lost a decision to Paris, Oklahoma Indian, in Amarillo a year ago. Since that time the Mexican has been trying to get a chance to redeem himself. The distance will be 10 rounds or less.

Paris is the boy who defeated Allen Whitlow here recently. He is a two-fisted puncher, fast and tough. He is one Indian who appears to be making good in the fight game. Paris has been meeting all-comers in Oklahoma and has won nearly every bout.

Gracie of this city, has been seen here before and fans know his ability. He has been going strong in St. Louis and points in Indiana and when he stops here Thursday night. Little Granite, brother of Old Kid will be on his way back to Dallas Grubb has not been fighting much recently but is in good condition.

It is rumored that Earl Madden, Spearman wildcat, will meet Kid Stamper in one of the opening bouts.

HORNED FROGS ARE LEADING IN CAGE RACE

RICE CAN GAIN TIE BY BEATING BAYLOR TONIGHT

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Texas Christian University Frogs are leading the southwest conference basketball championship race. Jack Gray, sensational point-shooting artist of the University of Texas, is leading the conference scoring marathon with 87 points. The Frogs swept to the league pinnacle Saturday night with a hard-fought 29 to 26 victory over Southern Methodist. Jack Gray jumped into the scoring lead when he decided the net with 10 field goals and 4 free shots for 24 points—a scoring spree that gave Texas a 40 to 38 decision over the Rice Institute. Owls—their first defeat in three starts.

The Christians may not enjoy their undisputed leadership long. Monday night at Waco, the Rice Owls battle Baylor. If the Owls triumph they will slip into a tie for first place. Saturday night at Waco, the Texas Aggies will play Baylor. A favorable score for the Aggies will push them into a first place tie since the Christians will remain idle until next week.

The Aggies look like the up and coming aggregation. They stepped out last week to stop Southern Methodist 40 to 34, and the turned on the heat to another Texas 34 to 29. Rice, after trimming Southern Methodist and the Aggies, made a gruelling battle against Texas Saturday night at Austin but could not halt the mad scoring stampede. Gray turned in. They managed to tie the score at 31-all at one time during the game but failed to gain a lead.

Texas Christian, after shooting a field goal for a 3 point lead and with only two and a half minutes to play, passed the ball into the Mustangs' end of the court and managed to retain it there until the game terminated. It was the Mustangs' fourth consecutive defeat. They ranked as one of the pre-season championship favorites. Baylor, with two defeats and no wins, has a chance to pull out of the cellar this week providing the Bears can knock off Rice and Texas as A. and M.

McLean Cagers Nose Out Two LeFors Teams

McLEAN, Jan. 22.—McLean high school basketball teams won two conference games Friday night when the Tigers nosed out the LeFors Pirates 18 to 16 and the McLean girls defeated the LeFors girls, 30 to 23.

With never more than four points separating the Tigers and Pirates, McLean held a lead gained after the opening of the last quarter by keeping possession of the ball and outscoring the Pirates four points to two. The guarding was the closest seen here this season.

The McLean team received a jolt near the half when "Hookie" Stratton left the floor on fouls. However, Braley, substitute, proved himself a hero by playing a great game in helping the Tigers win.

Oita Black, McLean forward, was the star of the girls' game. She looped 24 of the 30 points scored by her team. The contest was exciting from the opening whistle.

Miss Evaline Hardin of Canadian was a Pampa visitor Saturday night.

Mrs. L. J. Atkinson of LeFors shopped in Pampa this morning. O. L. Smith of Roxana was a Pampa visitor yesterday afternoon.

BURT SHOTTEN TO BE COACH AT CINCINNATI

VETERAN WILL TEACH REDS HOW TO PLAY BASEBALL

CINCINNATI, Jan. 22 (AP)—Burt Shotten, Philadelphia's former dean of managers, will be coach of the Cincinnati Reds during the 1934 season, the Redland club announced today.

For a time, the former St. Louis pitcher and an outfielder had been mentioned prominently as likely manager of the Reds, though he was pilot of the Phillies. Then Bob O'Farrell, another St. Louis product, was named to run the team here, and Shotten was deposited at the helm of the Phillies by Jimmy Wilson, whom he had traded to the Cardinals years before.

Shotten's choice was that of O'Farrell himself. It was disclosed by Larry MacPhail, general manager of the Reds.

"My only part in the deal," he said "was to inform O'Farrell that I thought Shotten was available. I made it clear to Bob that the selection of a coaching staff was entirely up to him, that I cared to have no part in it. O'Farrell answered that he had the greatest respect for Shotten's ability to develop players, that he believed his judg-

Gray Is At Top In Cage Scoring

DALLAS, Jan. 22 (AP)—Jack Gray, University of Texas forward, swept to the front Saturday night in the Southwest conference scoring race with a total of 87 points. Against Rice Institute, Gray looped 10 field goals and 4 gratis shots for 24 points. He led the Southwest conference scoring marathon last year.

Leading scorers follow:

Player	G	Fg	Ft	Pts
Gray, J., Texas	5	27	13	67
Francis, C., Texas	5	21	13	55
Allison, L. T. C. U.	4	19	13	51

Baccus, E. S. M. U.	5	14	8	36

Baker school carnival, January 25. ment would be of inestimable value. He asked me to do everything I could to get Shotten. And here he is."

Until let go by the Phillies, Shotten had been manager there for 3 years, something of a National league record in itself. The Reds, for instance, have had three managers within four years. In his term, he generally is given credit for development of such players as Chuck Klein, last year's league batting champion; Virgil Davis, Don Hurst, Ed Schulerich, and Lefty O'Doul. At the same time, it was announced that negotiations have been completed with the Bartlesville club of the Western Association to serve as a "farm" for the Reds, and that dickering is going on for similar arrangements with one of the mid-Atlantic circuit clubs.

Carnera Sets Up Training Camp at Miami Beach Club

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 22 (AP)—Primo Carnera, world's heavyweight champion, today set up headquarters at an ocean front club on the beach here and announced he would begin immediate training for his title bout February 22 with Tommy Loughran.

The giant Italian, who knocked out Jack Sharkey last year, arrived here last night and said he would start at once to trim his avoirdupois down to 238 pounds, which was the approximate figure at which he weighed in for his bout with Sharkey. He now weighs 267 pounds. Announcement has been made that Loughran has selected Palm Beach as the site for his training camp.

DOMESTIC RELATIONS COURT CHICAGO—Even before it has been opened to the public it was found that Chicago's new zoological park at suburban Riverdale needs a court of domestic relations.

That was brought about when a shriveled-faced two weeks old Rhesus Macaque monkey whose father is an albino and whose mother is of darker hue, was found to be incompatible with its parents. They showed their displeasure by beating their offspring. Robert Bear, assistant director, found another monkey and the couple seemed glad to adopt the abandoned animal.

A. V. Ellis of Whittier spent the week-end with friends in the city.
