Lubbock citizens are trying to find out why the school board ousted Supt. M. H. Duncan, but the board is maintaining its position—wrongly, we think—that its action taken in executive session is no concern of the press, and the public.

Another reason why we don't like recent weather is that it apparently was designed only for nudists.

Whisky, complains the Carlsbad N. M. Argus, is "getting no better since repeal." Well, neither are the drinkers thereof, which events things up.

MUSINGS of the moment: CWA are more versatile letters than anyone suspects. The workers now who are making a survey for the University of Texas history department... The huge and mounting federal payroll is coaking, persons into new vocations. For some it will constitute an advantageous turning point in their lives; for others it will delay their entering the type of work they desire to do. But starvation must be prevented. We as a nation can drop back into unrestrained individualism—and chaos, we can restrict production to reasonable market needs, or we can produce to our capacity and distribute the benefits according to a communitistic system. We think the FDR middle course is the best for the present time. Have you ever stopped to think that Washington and Jefferson were wide-eyed reformers, wreckers of custom and institutions of long standing, as viewed by Europeans? Words to "lock up": Exercitation, extirpation, collude, exoteric.

WHOOFS, here's one for Ripley! Several months ago a Pampa printer lost a small front plate of false teeth. He did not know at the time where it had vanished. He left Pampa and was gone for a considerable time.

Recently he returned, read that a city crew was cleaning out the down town sewer main and that among the many articles found were several sets of false teeth, so he hid himself down to the city manager's office and rummaged among the findings and there was his plate! It was well preserved and to prove that it was his own plate he had only to open his mouth and point to the absence of a couple of front teeth.

AMONG the situations which are plainly out of proportion is that of CWA quotas applying to Gray and Potter counties. Potter has twice as many residents as

MEASURE HAS SUPPORT NOW OF PRESIDENT

INDICATES WAR DEBTS OVERDUE MUST BE PAID

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—The senate today repassed the Johnson bill, this time with administration support, to deny new credits to this country to all nations behind in their debts to the American government.

The retaliatory measure, putting debt-defaulters on notice anew that the United States expects payment of all war and postwar debts overdue, was approved and sent to the house without a record vote after administration leaders and Senator Johnson (R., Calif.), author of the proposal, agreed to modifying amendments.

The measure first was passed unanimously January 11 with only a handful of senators on the floor but had been held up since by a motion to reconsider by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the majority leader. Robinson worked out the amendments with the state department and Johnson and pronounced the bill satisfactory to the administration.

As repassed, the bill provides penalties up to $10,000 and five years imprisonment for any person or corporation to buy or sell any new securities or loan money to any foreign government or its subdivision which is in default in whole or in part on its obligations to this government.

The amendments approved would exempt refunding issues replacing old ones and exclude countries in default only on private debts, such as certain South American republics.

JURY STANDS 10 TO 2 IN TOUHY TRIAL

Conviction Is Favored But Jury Is Still Deadlocked; Factor Is Depressed.

CRIMINAL COURTS BUILDING, CHICAGO, Feb. 2 (AP)—The jury trying Roger Touhy and two others for the kidnaping of John Factor resumed deliberations this morning, still standing 10 to 2 for conviction, according to rumors in the criminal courthouse.

Factor was one of the first in the courtroom as a crowd gathered to await the verdict. He was depressed by reports that the jury was deadlocked.

"If they don't convict them, I'm the loser," Factor said. A sentence of life imprisonment was what he expected, if the jury convicts Touhy, Albert Kator, and Gustav Shaefer, the three defendants.

"I wouldn't expect a jury to give the death penalty except to people who had taken a life," the kidnaping victim said.

Later today, Factor is scheduled to appear in federal court to be served with a warrant from the British government. This action was delayed yesterday. In England, Factor must face charges of fraud arising out of security deals.

Circus Tragedy To Be Presented Again Tonight

By SUE VINSON
Little Theater members here, attempting classic tragedy for the first time, gave an understandable version of Andrew's "He, Who Cries Slapped" last evening at city hall auditorium. The play will be repeated tonight at 8:15.

Careful study and hard practice were evident in the interpretation by leading characters of roles that carried out relentlessly the author's gloomy view.

In the title role of "He," the clown who had been an important man of the world, Reg Farless was convincing, properly detached in his earlier appearances, and dramatic as he became more involved in the lives of those around him and finally produced the tragic climax.

Miss Louella Wade was the appealing, unworried Consuelo to perfection; Mrs. G. L. Greene in the other important feminine role, offered a contrast as Zinda, the passionate lion tamer. Her prowling walk and expressive eyes featured her characterization.

Panhandle Oil Men Plan Gas Conservation

Fear Large Fuel Reserves In Panhandle May Be Prematurely Exhausted.

FORT WORTH, Feb. 2 (AP)—Panhandle land owners and producers of oil and gas in the district were in Fort Worth today for the purpose of organizing the Panhandle Conservation association. Joe T. Sneed, Amarillo ranchman, presided at the meeting as temporary chairman.

Election of officers and directors was one of the chief items of business. A wastage of approximately 500,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily through operation of nearly 40 natural gas plants in the Panhandle has alarmed Panhandle land owners who fear the largest natural gas reserve in the western plains will be prematurely exhausted. Engineers have estimated that at the present rate of withdrawal, permitted up to 25 per cent of the open flow capacity, the reserve will be exhausted in about 10 years.

Sneed said the Panhandle Conservation association would enlist the support of representatives from all west and northwest Texas cities to join the movement, because their economical and convenient fuel supply is at stake in prolonging disposition of the reserve.

Two Bank Employees Robbed While Entering Bank in Pennsgrove, N. J.

BANDITS BEAT MAN ON HEAD WITH PISTOL

SEVERE HEAD WOUNDS ARE SUFFERED BY CASHIER

COLEMAN, Feb. 2 (AP)—Heavily-armed men waylaid six employees of the First Coleman National bank as they appeared for work today, waited for the time lock to open the vault and fled with between $23,000 and $24,000.

They took along all of the employees but five of them jumped off the running board of the robbers' automobile two blocks away and the sixth, C. W. Woodruff, assistant cashier, who had been forced inside, was released near San Antonio, a miles east of Coleman.

The other officials were C. W. Hemphill Jr., vice-president; Wade Hemphill, and T. L. Turbin, tellers, and Ed Lemay and Wade Lemay, bookkeepers.

Ed Lemay made the estimate of the loss and was the first of the five to spread the alarm. Woodruff was brought back to Coleman for treatment of severe head wounds inflicted when he declined to open the vault before the time lock permitted.

Brown and Williamson county officers went out at once to the mountainous country east of Brownwood when they received reports that the robbers were near the Brown-Williamson county line. The trail vanished there. They had no clues except that the band fled in a black (Ford V-8) sedan.

Annual Banquet Of B. C. D. Set For February 13

The Board of City Development's annual banquet in the basement of the First Baptist church Feb. 13, will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock and will be over by 9:30 o'clock.

Manager George W. Briggs announced this morning, Dr. H. H. Hicks, chairman of the entertainment committee, is preparing a good program for the occasion.

Walter Cline of Wichita Falls, president of the West Texas chamber of commerce, will be the speaker of the evening. Mr. Cline is well known in this section of the Panhandle. He spoke before the Rotary club here last year. He is an eloquent talker and holds an audience with his wit and humor and his knowledge of his subject.

President Jack Cunningham of the B. C. D. will preside. The Junior chamber of commerce will join with the senior organization in selling tickets and making the meeting a success. Two seven-minute talks on the major achievements of 1933 will be the only talks on the program, other than the address by Mr. Cline.

$130,000 Taken In Holdup

As they reached the sidewalk in front of the bank an automobile drove up and three men, all with pistols, got out, while a fourth man stayed at the wheel of the car.

The bags were seized and tossed into the back of the car, which quickly sped away.

Because the money was taken in mail sacks, it appeared likely that federal officials would join in the hunt.

BACKSTAGE IN WASHINGTON

By GILMORE N. NUNN
Washington Correspondent, THE NEWS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 — The senate had a tough break last Saturday. For the entire week that August body had disappointed "the press" with tiresome harangues over the president's gold bill, arguing back and forth with unending perseverance over it, or nobody else, knew anything about. The senators did promise, however, that there would be quite a bit of excitement on the floor the day the bill was finally voted on, and urged press representatives to be on hand. What's more, the senator who introduced the bill, with such amendments as Wheeler's silver bill, the veteran's increase, etc., it is needless to say that every congressman wanted "the press" to hear and see how he stood individually so the "folks back home" would be properly and dramatically informed.

After all the special invitations to the press, and after all the unusual preparation, the gesticulating senators played second fiddle—Will Rogers was chewing his gum and scratching his head with the boys in the lounge of the press gallery! Needless to say, he got all the house, and played to S. R. O. listeners while the legislators pot-nodded desks and flung their arms to a dismal echo which mournfully resounded from the empty press seats overhead!

It seems that Will has the happy faculty of just "dropping in" on Washington during most of their big celebrations and functions. Quite naturally they're quit inviting him in formal style, because they know that he knows the lath string is always hanging on the outside where he's concerned. In fact it's gotten so that invitation or no invitation, if Will Rogers doesn't show up, the hosts are insulted. And, as a result, most big affairs are honored with Will's presence, and he's glad to have something more to talk about, so everybody's happy!

Thus, according to tradition, Will dropped in up here the morning of the date set aside for the National Press club's annual installation banquet. As usual he got with a

30-DAY STAY WILL PROTECT REAL ESTATE

BILL TO BE EFFECTIVE WHEN GOVERNOR SIGNS IT

AUSTIN, Feb. 2 (AP)—The Texas legislature today sent to the governor a bill to suspend forced sales of foreclosed real estate advertised throughout the state for February 6. A 30-day stay would be ordered. The bill passed both houses and a report of a conference committee, which had been created to adjust minor differences between the houses over the proposal as first drafted, was accepted, by a two-thirds majority vote, thus making it effective immediately when the governor signs it. She had suggested enactment of such a law in her message to the legislature.

The 30-day stay would protect against foreclosures until the legislature acts on bills pending before it which would provide for an extensive moratorium which could be ordered in the discretion of district judges, after a hearing of the facts concerning conditions existing with reference to holdings of the property owner.

Socialist To Be Heard in Talks About Economics

E. M. Lane, national organizer for the Socialist Party of America, will speak on "The New Deal and Industrial Democracy" at the courthouse Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. It was announced today.

He also will speak Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the courthouse. He is said to be a forceful speaker. In his second talk, he will endeavor to tell where the country is drifting.

The public is invited to attend the speeches, and a special invitation was made to milliners.

Passing School Buses Will Be Combated Again

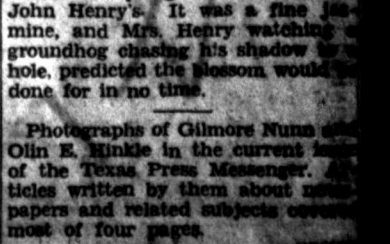

Once more it is necessary to warn motorists that it is dangerous and illegal to pass school buses while they are stopped and are receiving or discharging passengers.

The law provides a heavy penalty for such violations. This morning it was observed by school officials and county officials, motorists were driving by school buses while the children were attempting to cross roads and highways.

This danger is so obvious that officers are determined to discourage it. Complaints will be filed against violators. The law applies to passing stopped buses either from in front or rear.

WE ARE ALL RATHER DUMB

Humans seek to explain occurrences in some way—often an absurd way. When a recent earthquake in India killed 15,000 persons, the natives said British airplanes angered Mount Everest, which shook in rage. We enlightened folk laugh at the idea.

Yet we have our own troubles in straightening out matters of cause and effect, especially where great national disasters are concerned, and in some ways we don't seem to be much better at it than the skin-clad tribesmen of Asia.

We had our own earthquake, a matter of four years ago, in the form of a depression, and it jarred us clear back to our eye teeth. And if there ever was a land in which people did more frantic running around in circles trying to figure out the cause of an earthquake, the history books don't mention it.

Some of us blamed the tariff and some of us blamed the war; some of us blamed the foreign debts and some of us blamed Wall Street; some of us blamed our lack of faith in God and some of us blamed the sun spots; some of us blamed Stalin and some of us blamed Andy Mellon. And we are so far from being agreed on the cause, even now, that we can't agree on how to handle our domestic economy, our foreign trade, our currency, or our international relations, to keep it from happening again.

And there is something rather frightening in all this confusion.

It suggests, somehow, that we are, all of us, enlightened and unenlightened, at the mercy of forces which we can comprehend little better than the Himalayan peasants comprehend an earthquake. Perhaps, indeed, we shall have to accept the Himalayan explanation. We flew over a high mountain and the gods were vexed.

Ogden Mills, Hoover administration treasury secretary and a chief political lieutenant in the 1928 campaign, told a Topeka, Kansas, crowd early in the week of his disagreement with many of President Roosevelt's moves.

Snell, taking the floor yesterday as minority leader of the house, said he was "absolutely sure" Mr. Hoover would have done a better job than has Mr. Roosevelt. He asserted the former president "never receives a particle of cooperation from the democrats except for the RFC."

"They intended from the beginning not to support Mr. Hoover's legislation," Snell said, "for fear he would benefit from it, and they didn't want him elected. Now the best part of your program is taken

'WHITEY' WALKER TO BE TRIED IN PALESTINE FOR ROBBERY

OKLAHOMA TO GET THOMPSON AND ANOTHER

DEATH PENALTY COULD BE IN STORE FOR WALKER

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Feb. 2 (AP)—Texas got a three-cornered break over Oklahoma today in division of five persons arrested in Florida for the southwestern states.

Whitey Walker, Dolores Walker, and Ray A. Johnson, captured here, were turned over to Sheriff J. L. Boyd of Painesville, Texas, who left immediately by automobile to return them to face charges of armed robbery of a bank—an offense the sheriff said is punishable by death in that state.

Irvin (Blackie) Thompson, held in Miami, and Homer Arthur, held here, were turned over to Oklahoma authorities as they waived extradition.

Walker, Johnson, and Thompson were escaped life term convicts from Oklahoma. Arthur was wanted for parole violation. Dolores Walker, who said she was Whitey Walker's wife, was wanted in Texas. Oklahoma had no record against her.

Officers here reported they had "settled agreeably" the question of payment of hospital bills and rewards, and extradition orders which Gov. Shottz signed before leaving for Washington were handed over to the agents.

The prisoners had indicated they would oppose extradition to Texas, but they made no move to do so and Sheriff Boyd left as soon as he obtained the custody of his three.

Oklahoma officers said they would go to Miami to get Thompson.

Johnson and Walker were shot and wounded when they resisted arrest here, and had to be treated at a hospital. Texas paid the hospital bills.

BIRTH CONTROL IS CONDEMNED BY PHYSICIAN

Doctors Assert They Cannot Support Movement

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—A birth control controversy was called inconceivably distressing and disgusting by Dr. Howard Atwood Kelly of Johns Hopkins university, speaking on the Pierce birth control bill.

"Think of an elaborate conference on birth control in the Mayflower hotel!" he exclaimed to the house judiciary committee.

"Such a thing would have been inconceivable 20 years ago; and a great social gathering, too, at which details were talked over. Disgusting!"

A fresh rose adorned his buttonhole. He told the committee he was the father of nine children.

He spoke critically of college campus morals, into which, he said, seniors introduced freshmen.

Dr. Henry J. Croston, speaking for Dr. William Gerry Morgan, former president of the American Medical Association, said there was "not one scintilla of truth" in the claim of birth control crusaders that the medical profession was behind their cause.

Dr. Henry W. Cattell of Philadelphia, 47 years a physician, author of 100 books, challenged Mrs. Margaret Sanger to tell why she did not respond to a request to debate the subject at Galveston in open forum.

He said his belief as a Presbyterian, was that birth control would change the ten commandments to say "thou shalt cover thy neighbor's wife" and "thou canst now commit adultery."

Mrs. Thomas A. McGoldrick of Brooklyn, of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, described what she termed a "raid of traffic" in contraceptives.

Among the means of dissemination, she named peddlers on Brooklyn subway platforms and slot machines along the highway.

Pardons Certain For 4 Americans Jailed in Spain

MADRID, Feb. 2 (AP)—The sixth section of the supreme court today approved a governmental pardon for four Americans serving a jail term in Palma, Mallorca, for assisting a civil guard.

The Americans are Mr. and Mrs. Chittan B. Lockwood, of West Springfield, Mass.; Roger F. Mead of New York and Edmund A. Blodgett, of Stamford, Conn.

They were sent to jail last month after a long legal battle in which, consecutively, a court martial acquitted them, a military audit overruled the acquittal and the supreme court upheld the military auditor. They were sentenced to six months and a day in jail.

The pardon approval was the result of the intercession in their behalf by Ambassador Claude G. Bowers of the United States.

The pardon for the Americans now lacks only the official sanction of the full supreme court to which the sixth section immediately referred it.

REACTIONS TO GOLD PROGRAM NOT PLEASING

ENGLAND AND FRANCE NOT DOING AS EXPECTED

BY WILLIAM L. BEALE.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—A series of private money talks with Great Britain were indicated authoritatively today to be either underway or about to begin, as officials here investigated actions in London and Paris to determine their own course.

In the intricate web of European governmental high finance authorities saw possibilities that might determine the future of President Roosevelt's dollar program. Reactions abroad to the 40.96 per cent devaluation and the new high for gold were not considered highly satisfactory here.

High sources conceded the Roosevelt gold policy could be hampered by a French embargo on gold which would eliminate this heavy source of the world market and simultaneously act against the effect of America's fixed $35 an ounce price. Officials watched particularly for movements that might affect the gold standard position of France, such as continued heavy drains of gold from Paris to London.

Although some predicted a heavy flow of gold into the United States because of the profit inherent in foreign gold prices considerably below this country's $35, the belief was nevertheless current in authoritative quarters that if France should go off the gold standard it would be because of British rather than American activity.

Coupled with this opinion, however, was the view that it would be to London's benefit to have France on gold, that to keep the pound at around $6 it is necessary for London to draw on Paris for gold.

Another alternative view possible would be for Great Britain to wield her huge equalization fund in the dollar market.

Such action might mean a currency war between Washington and London which Secretary Morgenthau asserts would be "costly to both" countries. Officials nevertheless predicted early use of this nation's $2,000,000,000 fund.

The middle and best ground, as some officials here gauged it, was an understanding of currencies. Discussions with London were viewed as the start of the move.

Three Convicts Still At Large; One Is Captured

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 2 (AP)—Three of four insane convicts, who escaped from the United States department of justice medical center here, were still at large today.

City homes and cabins and farm homes in this Ozark country were barred against possible entrance of three, one a lifer.

George John Standish, one of the quartet which used a hacksaw blade and a volleyball net to gain freedom, was recaptured by a hospital guard soon after last night's break.

Standish was serving 15 years for grand larceny from Washington, D. C. He was 32. Others who fled were:

Norvill Hoard, 41, serving life term for murder, former world war soldier, sentenced Dec. 2, 1918, by an army court martial.

Albert Devlin, 31, serving two years for counterfeiting.

Joseph G. Watts, 25, serving 10 years for escape and robbery from Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

Dr. Lawrence Kolb, superintendent, A. G. Home, executive officer, and Sheriff Scott Curtis took charge of the search. Bloodhounds failed to find a trail. The men were believed to be wearing prison clothing—blue denim—with possibly blue woolen coats and brown corduroy caps.

The four were confined on the second story of No. 2 building. They

'Papoose' Show Is Depicted In Local Newsreel

The far-reaching effects of President Roosevelt's plan to revalue the nation's currency, as outlined in his dramatic message to congress, are to be seen in the current issue of The Pampa Daily News-Universal newsreel. Graham McNamee, noted radio announcer and the screen's talking reporter, describes this and other events in the reel at the La Nora theater.

Immediately after the contents of Mr. Roosevelt's plan, which seeks to raise the level of commodity prices by devaluating the dollar, reaches markets throughout the country, prices of every stock, bond, grain bushel and head on American markets briskly rise with speculative enthusiasm.

Other important events described in the reel includes scenes at Aurora, Ill., where three die in a $300,000 fire; views in Miami, Fla., where the nation's leading fliers, led by U. S. army bombers, perform sensational aerial feats before a huge crowd; Edsel Ford testifying to his father's huge financial deals with Detroit banks before a senate investigating committee in Washington; Ted Allen, world's champion horseshoe pitcher, exhibiting some of his fancy shots at Long Beach, Calif.; a pontoon fishing auto that runs on land or sea being tested at Padre Island, Texas; Seminole Indian babies competing for the title of prize "papoose" on their reservation in Florida; views of President Grau San Martin, forced to resign as president of Cuba as a new crisis sweeps the island republic; an actual full-scale working model of a coal mine—the only one of its kind in America—constructed at the Rosenwald Industrial museum in Chicago and views in San Francisco of navy planes building a defense for the Hawaiian islands by bringing them within 24 hours flying distance of the U. S.

A reptile in the California desert lives under the sand and moves through it with a swimming motion.

Another alternative view sawed through bolts which held one side of the iron grill on a window and slid to the ground on the net.

The escape is the second since the medical center was opened last September 25. Edward J. McNamara and Edward Nichols, tubercular patients, escaped November 16 and have not been found.

Wheat Crop on Plains Still 'Dormant'

ARILLO, Feb. 2 (AP)—A dry, after more than a year of drought in most Panhandle states, brought little change in the of the winter wheat crop. A. Barlow, manager of a seed and elevator company, said the bulk of the crop is "dormant." He said the soil was warm, and that in some places the seed planted last fall either sprouted, nor rotted. "All conditions have changed," he estimated that the Panhandle still could produce 60 per cent of a normal crop, or upwards of 600,000 bushels, from its acreage. More than 90 per cent of the farmer in the larger counties participated in government's acreage control plan. "If heavy rains or heavy snows now mean a substantial crop," he said, "although the yield of late plantings would not be as good because it is too late to properly. Moisture would be the entire aspect." "How said there was some acreage here the yield would be almost all if moisture falls during the next few months, other sections where is needed to sprout the seed, still others where the crop has blown out and destroyed.

Six More Weeks Of Winter, Says Mr. Groundhog

Pampans conscious of weather lore, saw the ground hog come out of his hole this morning. He sniffed the spring-like atmosphere, basked a few minutes in the sun's bright rays, then looked behind him. "It was then that he shivered and his teeth chattered. Smothering a sneeze, he made a bee-line for his hole, trying to escape the blight of his shadow." "That meant, as it has meant since time out of mind, that the weather for the next six weeks will be punctuated with freezes, snows, blizzards. The hole dash was made more ominous because of the exceptionally fine weather that prevailed." "Some scoffed at the legend, but tradition of generations had its effect, and they were prepared for Arctic elements." "Over much of the United States, the Associated Press said, the hog had a thick white carpet to walk on as he went about his annual chore of determining the weather for the next six weeks. New York city mustered an army of 30,000 workers to remove snow that fell to a depth of 10 inches. Snow or rain had fallen in the Great Lakes region, the Ohio valley, the Atlantic states, the Gulf states and along the North Pacific coast. But the high-flying Panhandle of Texas still basked comfortably under an almost tropical sun, and in an atmosphere that had not been washed by rain for months." "Pampans were glad that the ground hog saw his shadow."

Arch Czar of Nazis Expounds Pagan Religion

BERLIN, Feb. 2 (AP)—Appointment of Alfred Rosenberg as virtual sophy dictator for the third time was regarded in church circles today as foreshadowing new net between Nazism and fundamentalism. "Rosenberg is a pagan," said a church official, "and his appointment as a prelude to the recognition of a pagan cult which has been growing rapidly in the last few months. Rosenberg is the author of a 700-page book 'The Myth of the Century,' which abounds in references to the Christian religion. He teaches the youth of Germany that the church circles which use old testament as the basis for faith are apprehensive that the youth will henceforth determine what the 'weil anschauung' teach the youth of Germany. He fears this means turning the youth away from Christianity entirely."

College Course Can't Help Some, Says Californian

BERKELEY, Calif., Feb. 2 (AP)—Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, president of the University of California, today advanced the view that society "must be willing to grant that it is responsible for a young man or woman to refrain from a university career." "Dr. Sproul continued in a statement: "These students not requiring college education should not be driven by social pressure through a mill which can do little to improve them intellectually or materially and which may injure them spiritually. "The upright, clean, aggressive citizens of California and the west never have been drawn together from the ranks of college graduates, never will be, and never should be." "The educator said it was equally "wrong" to force college educations upon those who never want nor need them as it was to give them to "those who cannot profit" by them because of indolence or unfitness. "There are many useful occupations and trades worthy of respect by all men, that do not require as preparation a college education," he added.

Went Enjoyed By Oil Groups

More than 250 persons attended the gathering at the union hall held by the Oil Field, Gas and Refinery Workers union. E. Porter presided as toastmaster. After introductions of all made, a lunch was enjoyed, was furnished by the Lunsford orchestra. Social guests were Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, A. J. Hinton, J. O. Billy Kretzner, V. E. Wright, Jackie Savage, Miss McIntuff, Miss Jewell Lawrence. Ladies' auxiliary of the organization will meet at the union hall Wednesday at 8 p. m. J. T. is president of the men's black chapter.

CHURCHES

UNIQUE SERVICE PLANNED

A complete miniature church will be built in pulpita area of the Methodist church Sunday night. During the building of this church, the pastor will preach a sermon on "Building a Church."

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday school starts promptly at 9:45 a. m. Come on time and get the benefit of the whole Sunday school program.

Morning worship at 10:55 a. m. The pastor will bring the fourth of his series of messages on the Lord's prayer, using as his subject the phrase "Thy Kingdom Come." The choir will sing Gounod's anthem, "Send Out Thy Light," and Mrs. Philip Wolfe will sing "How Beautiful Are Thy Dwellings."

Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Leagues will meet at 6:45 p. m., and young adult's forum will meet at the same time, continuing the study of Russia.

Evening "Happy Hour Service" will start at 7:27 p. m. R. B. Fisher will lead a sing-song service where everybody sings, and there will be special music by the male quartet. The pastor's theme will be "Building a Church."

ST. MATTHEW'S EPISCOPAL

Corner N. Ward and W. Browning. Septuagesima Sunday.

9:45. Church school, under direction of Roy Wallrabenstein, superintendent.

11—Holy communion and sermon. Sermon topic: Do We Understand Christ?

We cordially invite all to worship with us. Newton C. Smith, rector.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The congregation of the Presbyterian church cordially invites you to its services on the Lord's day.

Sunday school at 10 a. m.

"Understanding the Fear of the Lord," 11 a. m.

Prelude, "Sonata," Mendelssohn and offertory, "Ave Maria," Schubert. Mrs. Forest McSkimming at the piano. Ocelot, "Prayer Perfect," Stenson. Dorothy Lee Wood, Frances Coffee, Ethel Wilder, Leona Hurst, Martha Price, Mary Elizabeth Seeds, Edith Peacock, Coleman McManan, accompanied by Miss Helen Martin.

Evening service at 7:30. "What a Thought Can Do."

A. A. Hyde, minister.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Corner Kingsmill and West Streets.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit at 11 and 7:30 Sunday. Sunday morning the subject will be "They Were Called Christians," and in the evening "An Outstanding Example of Home Influence." The evening services for weeks have been about the home. We see it shaken to pieces and many are not alarmed. Bible school meeting by department at 9:45 and training service at 6:15.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Meeting at City Hall 9:45 a. m.

"Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry" will be the subject of our lesson. His second miracle was performed also His first message in a synagogue was preached. He quoted what prophets had said. A welcome and fellowship awaits.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP CLASS

First Baptist Church.

On Sunday we study "Putting God's Kingdom First," as suggested in Matthew 6. We learn that the motive back of the Christian is the true basis for judging. We invite men, who are not attending another class, to meet and study with us Sunday morning at 9:45, when we will render the following program:

Song, "Amazing Grace," prayer, W. J. Brown; foreword, Dr. Owens; president; God's Kingdom First, J. J. Spangler; song, "The King's Business," Dependence Upon Christ, Ebb Phillips; A Very Present Help, R. A. Kennedy; violin solo, Russell Roof; Works and Word of God, I. R. Bynum; solo and chorus, "In the Garden," Price and class; lesson truths, E. E. Link.

J. Powell Wehrung, secretary.

MORE MORE MORE MORE MOR

CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN

637 N. Nelson.

Subject, The Christian in the Day of Adversity. This will be discussed on the next two Sundays. Three questions are uppermost in the minds of all now: Will the NRA succeed? When will the depression end? What is the duty of a Christian in a day like this?

No one can answer the first questions differ on the second; God has the answer to the third, to be found in Eccl. 7:14. This will be discussed in two divisions: Light from the history of Israel and of America, and things to consider that grow out of the facts.

The public is invited.

J. R. Jackson, pastor.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

John S. Mullins, minister.

Corner Kingsmill and Starkweather.

Sunday night four young men will speak on different phases of the motto of the Christian Endeavor society, "For Christ and the Church." They are Morris Belew, John Martin, Wayne Hutchins, and Harry Clay. Fred Land will lead the discussion. There will be special music by the young people's choir. Sunday's Christian Endeavor day all over the world and the young people of this church are joining in the international celebration of the day. The service will start at 7:30 with the orchestra under the leadership of Roy Wallrabenstein playing three numbers.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the minister will preach on "Would Christ Be Welcome In This Church?"

Sunday school meets at 9:45. Christian Endeavor at 6:30.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

901 North Frost.

"Love" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientists, on Sunday, February 4.

The golden text is: "Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life" (1 John 1:2).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (1 John 4:16).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We materially but spiritually we know Him as divine Mind, as Life, Truth and Love. . . . The Christian Science God is universal, eternal, divine Love, which changeth not and causeth no evil, disease, nor death" (page 140).

A. B. C. Club Has Surprise Shower Honoring Bride

Mrs. Joe Mullins, a member who was married recently, was surprised with a shower at the meeting of the A. B. C. club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Misses Waldeen and Christine Dickinson. The bride was formerly Miss Ava Belew. Hearts decorated the Dickinson home, and gifts were hidden about the room. Each package contained a verse directing the honoree to the next. After the gifts had been inspected refreshments of ice cream, tea, and heart-shaped cookies were served. Plate favors were tiny red umbrellas.

A lovely corsage was presented the honoree, and smaller corsages of sweet peas to each guest, by Miss Ann Clayton.

Present were the honoree and Misses Minnie Olive and Roberta Montgomery, Norma Lee Dickinson, Esthel Hamilton, Clayton, Anna Mae Gotcher, Willie Isbell, Ruth Tunwell, Alice Bitts, Rowena Wasson, Helen Jo Daugherty, Velma Ayres, Mary McKamey, Theresa Troy, Mrs. Cyrril Hamilton and Mrs. Dickinson.

HARVESTERETTES WIN COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP FROM LEFORS IN 24-22 GAME

Yost Says Grid Rules Will Not Suffer Changes

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Feb. 2 (AP)—College football in 1934 under substantially the same rules that obtained last season was predicted today by Fielding H. Yost, University of Michigan athletic director as he left to attend a meeting of the national football rules committee at Atlanta, Ga., next week.

Yost said changes most frequently suggested to him involved alteration of the ruling which decrees a touchback following an incomplete pass over the goal line, and a change to bring the ball in 15 yards instead of 10 after a play out of bounds. He said some consideration probably will be given a rule providing the same protection for forward passers as now is provided for kickers.

"My kids were always sniffing"

"Then I decided to build them up with vitamins and minerals the way I'd heard," says a mother. "Now they're hungry as bears, don't catch cold half as much, Dad and I are taking our vitamins every day, too."

A splendid idea, as health authorities will tell you! Build resistance with the new vitamin concentrate tablets. 3 MCKESSON'S VITAMIN CONCENTRATE TABLETS OF CODE-LIVER OIL contain as much health-building vitamins A and D as 2 whole teaspoons high grade cod liver oil (also, important minerals calcium and phosphorus). Chocolate coated—no fishy taste!

Take these tablets regularly after meals. They'll make you resist colds better, get you eating and sleeping like a regular human being again. Ask the druggist for MCKESSON'S. These are the ONLY vitamin concentrate tablets that bring you minerals as well as vitamins.

Cox Leading In Caliente Open

AGUA CALIENTE, Mex. Feb. 2 (AP)—Wiffy Cox, Brooklyn public links professional, with 139, was leading the Agua Caliente open golf tournament today as the field passed the half-way mark. He added a 70 yesterday to a first round 69.

Dogging the footsteps of Cox were Willie Hunter, third high money winner of 1933, from Culver City, Calif., and Paul Runyan, the slight-of-stature pro defending the title. The slender White Plains, N. Y., youth shot a 72 on the second 18 for a 141 score, while Hunter shaved a stroke off par for a 70 to match with his 71 on the opening day.

RICKEY EXPLAINS OPERATION OF CARDINALS' FARM SYSTEM

Only Two Released Players In Last Few Years Have Ever Made Good.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 2 (AP)—The approaching 1934 baseball season finds the St. Louis Cardinal management watching its farm hands, looking to you—the same careful attention that through the years spells winning teams and financial gain.

Branch Rickey, vice-president of the St. Louis National League club, today explained the little-known workings of the famous farm system.

"Seven or eight, several scouts and club presidents form a board which carefully sifts the material," Rickey said.

"We have an elaborate card index system and each player is on a list and each of our managers, scouts and club officials at the camp has a list."

"We inspect the players and after a session on the field we hold a meeting, each man with his list in his hand. We go over each player and do not release the players until our scouts, managers and officials agree that he won't make good."

"And there must be good reasons for releasing him. We consider whether a man can throw, whether he can run, hit, whether he likes to play, whether his spirit is right, and also consider his make-up. If there is one thing that he excels he is retained, regardless of faults, unless the faults preclude the possibility of his making good."

"If one scout, manager or official was against a release, the player is kept for further inspection. And the best proof of the efficiency of our method of selecting is the fact that while we have examined thousands of young players in the last few years, we know of only two who have made good, even in a small minor league, after having small inspection in one of our camps and having been released by us."

BOYS DEFEAT PIRATE TEAM IN DULL GAME

LASSIES LEAD DURING GREATER PART BATTLE

After trailing until the last three minutes of play, when they gained a two-point margin, Coach J. H. McDonald's Harvesterettes last night held this slim lead to defeat LeFors, 24 to 22, and win the county title. The Harvesterettes had no trouble winning from the Pirates 33 to 17.

Penalties proved to be the deciding factor in the Harvesterettes winning of their game. The Pirate Lassies took charge of the game in the last two minutes after the LeFors girls had missed six setups. The LeFors girls passed well but the local defense took chances on penalties rather than allowing the brilliant Baker to shoot field goals. She missed three free throws and Strong missed one in the closing minutes.

The Harvesterettes started second best on the floor. They passed wildly, mostly into the arms of a LeFors girl, and couldn't hit the hoop standing under and unmolested. The Lassies took command of the game in the opening minutes and were leading 17 to 12 at the half. The locals put on a scoring spree that nearly evened the count after the half, but faded soon after.

Kentling was the scoring threat of the Pampa team and it was her deadly shooting in the last quarter that decided the game. She went into the encounter in the final minutes and brought her total to 11 points. Neal added eight Harvesterette points but her offensive power was marred by bad passing. The Harvesterette guards worked hard but were too slow for the fast Pirate Lassies.

Baker, little LeFors gard, was the outstanding player on the floor. She looped counters from all angles and passed beautifully. Baker looped 14 points. Her best attempt was a one-handed toss from the black line that went through the net without touching the hoop. Pierce and Carruth were strong guards for LeFors.

The LeFors team was the third lineup developed this year, but it looked like a championship combination for three periods last night. The first team was demoralized by the loss of Greer, star forward. The second team was ruined by the semester rule.

Inability to work the ball under the basket nearly cost the Harvesterettes the county championship. The Harvesterettes will meet the winner of the Armstrong county division. The team has not been decided by competition.

The Harvesterettes were anything but impressive in their win over the Pirates. Woodward had tough luck under the basket. Five crisp shots rolled around the hoop and fell out. McLaugh failed to get his eye on the basket but his passing was good and his guarding better. Woodward scored 6 points and Dunaway four.

Green again took the lead in scoring with 12 points. Most of his counters were on rebound shots. McLaugh got the right side of the hoop. Coach Odus Mitchell used his entire squad, with the substitutes accounting for five points. The Harvesterettes had already won the county title and did not exert themselves.

Brown was the star of the LeFors team and had seven points to his credit when forced out of the game on personal fouls at the close of the third period. He made all his points in the third quarter. Berg did a good job of guarding and passing, but his forwards couldn't hold the ball.

The Harvesterettes led at the half 21 to 5. Flynn made three free throws in the first half and Mathis looped a field goal. The Pirates showed a nice combination in the third quarter that had the Harvesterettes bottled for several minutes.

Sankey En Route To South Dakota

CHICAGO, Feb. 2 (AP)—Vern Sankey, described as "America's public enemy No. 1," has escaped temporarily at least a charge of participation in the kidnaping of the infant son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, but must face a federal court trial for the abduction of the wealthy Denver broker, Charles Boettcher, II.

Hours of questioning by federal agents of the stocky little former South Dakota ranchman, apparently failed to link him with the fatal Lindbergh abduction, and he was hurriedly started by train last night for Pierre, S. D., where he is under indictment for the Boettcher "snatch."

Sankey, who the authorities said deserted the drug life of a ranchman to take the more lucrative racket of a "big time" kidnaper, apparently had no objection to going to South Dakota, for he waived extradition, and was quickly on his way, carefully guarded by five department of justice agents, led by Melvin Purvis, chief of the department's office.

Double Suicide Note's Contents Not Revealed

AUSTIN, Feb. 2 (AP)—A carefully guarded note discovered in the hotel room where Dr. Claude Mattingly and Mrs. F. A. C. Perrin carried out a suicide pact, was regarded today as a possible clue to the un-revealed motive behind their tragic act.

Secrecy veiled the reason why the prominent specialist in diseases of children and the wife of a doctor of psychology on the faculty of the University of Texas entered into what appeared to have been a deliberate agreement to end their lives by taking overdoses of a narcotic drug. Dr. Mattingly was 39 years old; Mrs. Perrin about 35.

After examining the room where their bodies were found yesterday, side by side on a bed, Justice of the Peace Tom E. Johnson returned a coroner's verdict of double suicide. Authorities estimated they had been dead about 12 hours.

The mysterious note, or will, found in the room, first passed into the hands of police and then into the custody of another person. It was understood that a lawyer gained possession of it. Police disclaimed any knowledge of what the document said. It had been left in the room by Mrs. Perrin.

HISTORY OF P-T COUNCIL READ AS FOUNDERS ARE HONORED

MEMBERS VOTE COOPERATION IN COUNTY CHILD WELFARE PROGRAM THAT OPENS SOON

A HISTORY of city Parent-Teacher council since its founding four years ago was read as a part of the founders day program yesterday afternoon. National founders and local leaders were honored in a candle lighting ceremony.

Cooperation in the child welfare movement in the county was voted in a business session. Each unit will appoint representatives to attend a meeting when a representative from the state child welfare department comes to Pampa soon.

Mrs. Nellie Ford, in charge of the school thrift room sponsored by the council, reported that more than 300 garments were distributed to students the last month. Girls' clothing and shoes are needed now, she said, and any donations of wearable clothing will be appreciated.

Junior High Parent-Teacher association presented the council program. Mrs. Cyril Hamilton was in charge in the absence of Mrs. C. E. Hutchins, president. Principal E. A. Seby made an address.

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, district endorsement chairman, spoke on the endorsement fund. Mrs. H. G. Myers and Mrs. Claude Lard conducted the candle lighting ceremony.

Green and gold candles were lighted honoring the 37th birthday of national congress of parents and teachers; the founders, Mrs. Alice M. Burney and Mrs. Phoebe A. Hurst, past local presidents, Mrs. W. R. Fatheree and Mrs. J. B. Townsend, the superintendent of Pampa schools, R. B. Fisher, and school children of Pampa.

The cake was cut and served by Mrs. W. B. Murphy, hospitality chairman of the council, who was also in charge of registration. An attendance contest is under way, and both the "reds" and "blues" have an almost perfect record for the past two months.

Historian Reads Account

The history, read by Mrs. J. D. Lawson, historian, follows:

On April 12, 1930, representatives from each association in Pampa met at the high school and organized the City Council of Parents and Teachers. Supt. R. B. Fisher acted as temporary chairman and Miss Josephine Thomas, secretary.

Mrs. Fatheree was elected president. Miss Thomas vice president. Mrs. Claude Lard secretary, and Mrs. John I. Bradley treasurer.

Mrs. Fatheree outlined the seven

MRS. DUNAWAY, RECENTLY WED, IS HONOREE AT TWO SHOWERS GIVEN BY FRIENDS THIS WEEK

A Surprise Valentine Shower Is Given By Class

Two showers complimented Mrs. C. H. Dunaway, who was Miss Georgia Sanders before her recent marriage, in recent days.

She was surprised with gifts from other members of the First Baptist Fidelity class at a Valentine party last evening. Misses Leora Kinard, Louise McLean, and Anna Louise Jones were hostesses at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wynne.

Hearts hung from ribbons in the doorway, and a box on the table received Valentines which revealed the class "peanut pals" of the past three months. Each guest received a red apron in a contest that ended with Miss Opal Cox holding the most aprons. She was required to present a stunt.

Gifts Presented

In a Valentine word contest, Mrs. Dunaway was announced the winner. A box of gifts, decorated with hearts, was presented to her. After they were inspected, heart shaped cookies, ice cream, and coffee were served.

Class guests were Mrs. DeLea Vickers, Mrs. Mattie Ratliff, Miss Roy Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Wynne. Associate members present were Misses Elizabeth Barrett, Jessie Reeves, and Mannie Abbott.

Members attending were Mrs. C. E. Lancaster, teacher, and Misses Violet Durre, Wilma Chapman, Margaret Jones, Zella Hughey, Lillian Smart, Cox, Evelyn McDonald, Edna Ballard, Bernice Larsh, Mildred Overall, Viola Dodd, Flo Perry, Josephine Cariker, Louise Riddle, and Zenobia McParlin.

Two Hostesses Entertained

Mrs. Dunaway was honored Wednesday when Mrs. Skeet Roberts and Mrs. Ted White entertained at the home of Mrs. Jim White with a miscellaneous shower.

The dining table, covered with a lace cloth over pink, was decorated with white and pink crepe paper and loaded with lovely gifts when the bride arrived.

After the packages were opened, and arranging their own program yesterday.

About 40 were present in the church dining room for the occasion. A hilarious program was given under direction of Miss Hester Lester. Entirely informal, largely impromptu, it included only one address, a two-minute talk by John S. Mullen, pastor and teacher of the young people's class.

Miss Vondell Kees was in charge of banquet preparations. The group served the dinner themselves, and followed it with dish-washing in which all took part.

Youth week will end Sunday evening with a special program by young people at the church hour. Four young men will speak, and special music will be contributed by the orchestra and choir. The service will start at 7:30.

Valentine Day Will Be Meeting Time Of La Nueva

SKELLYTOWN, Feb. 2.—Mrs. Frank McGuigan entertained La Nueva bridge club Wednesday afternoon with two tables of bridge. After five games were played, Mrs. John Kuehn was presented high prize.

Pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee were served to Mmes. Charles Wayne, John Dalton, S. C. Tietze, Harry Sherrill, Kuehn, J. C. Jarvis, and the hostess.

The next party will be on Valentine day with Mrs. Jarvis.

Sewing Club Party

Members of the Skellytown Sewing club dressed like little girls when they met with Mrs. Campbell last week. An informal afternoon was spent pleasantly.

This week they will meet with Mrs. Henry Paulsen, at the corner of Roosevelt and Third streets.

Personal Mention

Jesse Dee and Betty June Cline of Colorado have been here the past week, visiting the illness and at the death of their father, C. Cline. The sympathy of the community is extended to the entire family.

Mrs. Roy Andrew returned the first of the week after a visit of several days in New Mexico with Mrs. A. Reamsnyder.

Mrs. Howard Simmons is reported doing well now after a lengthy illness.

Sarah Florence Parker, daughter of L. B. Parker, has been quite ill the past week and is still confined to bed.

Little Patricia McGuigan has been absent from school three weeks because of illness and still is unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cannon of Pampa visited Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Horner.

Mrs. Charles Nevin was a shopper in Pampa Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Sylvia McCracken visited her daughter, Mrs. T. D. Harvey last week-end.

Henry Haldok of White Deer was a Pampa visitor earlier in the week.

Tourney Plans To Be Completed

Altar Society of Holy Souls church will have its regular meeting next week on Monday instead of Wednesday afternoon, and complete plans for a benefit game tournament that will be held Wednesday.

Mrs. E. W. B. Smith and Mrs. Ralph Kiser will be hostesses at the home of the former, on the Berger highway.

Tournament committees are at work now on arrangements for the event, to be given in the city club rooms, with profit-taking sales of tickets, and receiving reservations which may be telephoned to her, or other members of the society.

Mrs. Blissett and Mrs. R. E. McKernan are planning refreshments, and prizes are being secured from various members.

Games of auction and contract will be played, and tables will also be provided for those who prefer forty-two.

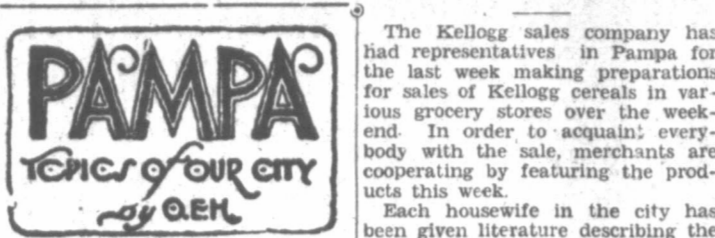

Reports Are Made At Calvary W. M. S.

Calvary Baptist Missionary society met in the home of Mrs. Roy Griffin yesterday for its regular program and business session.

Mrs. J. L. Ratcliff opened the meeting with a prayer and a devotional from Rev. 21. The six members present reported 23 visits to the sick, and 30 Bible chapters read last week.

Gray but four times as many allowed workers. We do not believe there is that much difference in the unemployment situation.

Gray county needs a quota of 900 men and women. On any basis of comparison with Potter county this quota is justified. If Gray is not entitled to an increase, Potter certainly has a decrease coming.

"That road north" is looking like locking more like a possibility every day. Good news! A survey for a logical bridge site will be made. That's the action! The site must be based on four control points: Pampa, Spearman, Perryton, Miami. That's fair! The road should branch out into a "Y" on both sides of the river, with the top angle of the letters taking in four cities.

Such a plan would serve the communities directly affected and would permit any other desirable roads to connect. Having lived on the treacherous Canadian river in flood time and in dry seasons, we know something of the problem of bridging and practical impossibility of fording it at all seasons. The Canadian is especially dangerous to cars and trucks, swallowing any that happen to become stalled in the quicksand.

Damage Suit Is Lengthy Action

The jury in the damage suit of Mrs. Rose Teter against the National Biscuit Company is expected to begin its deliberations tomorrow afternoon.

The plaintiff claims that as a result of negligence on the part of a driver for the biscuit firm, the car in which she was riding on Cuyler street December 15, 1932 was struck resulting in permanent injuries. She is asking $50,000 damages. Her attorneys are W. M. LeWright and B. L. Parker.

Defense attorneys are H. C. Pipkin and Maurice Adkins of Amarillo, of the law firm of Madden, Adkins, Pipkin, and Keffer.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 2. (AP)—The market ruled rather nervously most of the morning, due mainly to weakness in sterling. May eased off to 11.52, July to 11.67, and October to 11.88, or 3 to 5 points under the early highs and one point up to one cent down compared with yesterday's close. Later in the morning, prices rallied with stocks, coupled with trade buying, and May advanced to 11.62, July to 11.78 and October to 11.95, or 8 to 10 points above yesterday's close.

March 11.80, the market reacted 4 to 5 points on profit-taking.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 2. (AP)—Wheat underwent tumble of more than a cent, a bushel today, largely as a result of profit-taking sales by holders and because of selling here against purchases at Winnipeg.

Dollar devaluation appeared to have lost influence temporarily as buying stimulus among wheat traders. The monetary situation was generally regarded as having continued the grain trade to such an extent that a majority of operators were acting with considerable caution, not knowing what to expect.

Wheat closed yesterday, 3/4-5¢ below yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to 1/4¢ down, oats unchanged to 1/4¢ off, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents decline.

LIONS TO LAUNCH SALE OF TICKETS FOR SHOW—EXAMPLE OF WORK FOR NEEDY IS GIVEN

Pampa Lions will launch an immediate ticket sale for their 1934 minstrel show and musical revue, the dates of which have not been definitely fixed.

Chas. Duenkel is chairman of the sales committee, assisted by Charlie Thut and L. L. Sone. An advertising committee is composed of J. B. Bourland, J. L. Lester, Ed King, and P. M. Culherson. The big cast of the show, including 16 attractive local girls, has made good progress in rehearsals directed by John Sturgeon.

Yesterday the clubmen were entertained by pupils of the Horace Mann school, Miss Loma Green, music instructor, presented a mixed act; and colonial dances.

John Mullen made a talk on "Man's Inhumanity to Man." It was announced that the club was undertaking rehabilitation of a family stricken by illness and want. Two children were placed in a hospital for treatment. Proceeds of the club show finance such projects.

Insane Fugitive Was Captured In Amarillo in '26

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 2. (AP)—Norvin Roark, life term and most notorious of the three insane convicts still at large following their escape from the department of justice medical center here last night, has escaped prison before.

A member of the A. E. F., he killed a man during the war and was given a life sentence December 2, 1918, by an army court martial. Records show that he escaped from a prison in France in 1919 and was not returned to the federal military prison until April, 1926, when he was recaptured in Amarillo, Tex.

Third Member of Family Shot To Death in Row

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 2. (AP)—The third member of his family to die in a gun battle, A. C. "Bill" Street, 26, was shot to death early today in the Embassy bar following an argument with a friend.

Sixteen bullet wounds brought almost instant death to the son of the late Sam Street, chief of detectives, who was shot to death by John M. "Petey" McKenzie in September, 1917.

Police took statements from witnesses and held Otto "Skeeter" Klaus, 43, after the latter had surrendered an automatic from which all but one bullet had been fired.

Witnesses told police young Street was shot by Klaus after an argument. Alvin R. Moore, radio operator who witnessed the killing, said Street, Klaus and his wife, and another woman were standing at the bar, drinking. S. "Red" Sullivan, a cripple, walked by the quartet, and Klaus kicked the cripple to the floor.

Young Democrats Of West Texas To Open Convention

LUBBOCK, Feb. 2. (AP)—Young democrats from over West Texas had begun to gather in Lubbock this morning for their first annual convention opening here tomorrow.

Delegations from 131 counties of the western part of the state are scheduled to attend the convocation. The convention opens at 8:30 Saturday morning. Mayor Walter Nelson, Jr., of Wichita Falls is to make the keynote speech. Maury Hughes of Dallas, state democratic chairman, is scheduled to make the principal address of the convention at a banquet Saturday night.

Approximately a dozen candidates for major state offices including at least six gubernatorial candidates are to attend the convention, local officials say.

McDonald Leach of Corpus Christi, state organizer, is to preside as temporary chairman of the convention for election of permanent officers to open activities of the session.

Mrs. C. R. Griffith of Denworth was a Pampa shopper yesterday.

I. M. Fleming of Kingsmill was in the city last night.

Kiwanians Hear Detailed Story Of Safety Work

The history of "safety" from the time the safety pin was invented up to the present was given by Dr. R. M. Bellamy at the Kiwanis club today. He pointed out the steps that the major companies of the world are taking to prevent accidents and told of the growth of the safety movement into the homes of America.

Pete Post announced that the safety school for the Junior Police would start next Monday and continue for five days. Mr. Post and a delegate from Oklahoma City recommended at the national convention in Detroit two years ago that Kiwanis sponsor the Junior Police as a major activity. The Pampa club has received nationwide recognition for its work with the boys in preventing accidents about the school grounds.

Emmitt Smith and Robert Smel-lage entertained with several vocal selections.

Chas. Wooley was welcomed as new member by Judge Newton P. Willis.

Visitors today included W. R. Frazer, J. M. Cook, B. D. Sommer-lall, Robert Smellage, Emmitt Smith and G. O. Ricks.

LABOR ACT APPROVED

AUSTIN, Feb. 2. (AP)—A joint resolution to ratify the child labor amendment to the federal constitution was engrossed in the Texas house of representatives today 74 to 50. It probably will be brought up Monday for final action. The house approved the amendment at the last special session of the legislature but it failed in the senate.

R. L. Hendrick of Skellytown visited in the city last night.

Doctors Give Creosote for Chest Colds

For many years our best doctors have prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, colds and bronchitis, knowing the dangerous it is to let them hang on.

Creosoulon is powerful in the treatment of colds and coughs, yet it is absolutely harmless and is pleasant and easy to take.

Your own druggist guarantees Creosoulon by refunding your money if you are not relieved after taking Creosoulon as directed. Beware the cough or cold that hangs on. Always keep Creosoulon on hand for instant use. (Adv.-A)

Burns Fatal To 2 Widows of Pastors

FORT WORTH, Feb. 2. (AP)—Barns incurred in a violent explosion brought death today to Mrs. C. H. Booth, 50, and to Mrs. E. P. Williams, 66.

The blast, which occurred Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Booth, was believed to have resulted from a gas leak. Mrs. Williams had been spending the night with Mrs. Booth.

The victims, who were widows of serving elders of the Methodist church, died last night. Funeral services were arranged for this afternoon.

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Putting God's kingdom first.

Scripture Lesson: Matt. 6:19-33.

19. Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal;

20. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal;

21. For where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also.

22. The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in darkness, how great is the darkness!

24. No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25. Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment?

26. Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye yet of much more value than they?

27. And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life?

28. And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin;

29. Yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30. But if God do so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31. Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32. For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33. But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Golden Text: Seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.—Matt. 6:33.

Time: Midsummer of A. D. 28, the second year of Christ's ministry.

Place: The Horns of Hattin, a hill west of the Sea of Galilee.

Parallel Passages: The "Sermon on the Plain," Luke 6:20-49.

The Plan of the Lesson

SUBJECT: Putting First Things First.

I. Christian Humility and Sincerity, vs. 1-17.

Secret charity.

Secret prayer.

Secret fasting.

II. Treasures in Heaven, vs. 19-24.

The inner light.

God or mammon.

III. Trusting God, vs. 25-34.

Be not anxious.

Birds and lilies.

Seek first the kingdom.

Secret Charity, vs. 1-4.

Our Lord came to earth to establish the kingdom of heaven, the divine way of living. One illustration was the vital matter of charity. The Pharisees, the holier-than-thou sect of the Jews, ostentatiously placed their alms in the trumpet-shaped boxes in the temple, and the louder clatter they made as they fell, the more pleased were the Pharisees. They were, in all their religious deeds, "hypocrites," a word which originally means "play-actors." They sought to make a goodly show before men, whereas the Christian was taught to refer his life constantly to God alone. If we perform our loving deeds in the eyes of God alone, he will reward us—how and when we are not told.

Secret Prayer, vs. 5-15.

In these verses "our Lord warns his followers against three very common errors into which in their prayers men are apt to fall. We have a warning against ostentatious, against formal, and against mis-trustful prayer. "Prayer in its essence is the drawing near of the human heart to God, the intercourse of our spirits with His Spirit, the talking with God as a man talks with his friend. The man in the boat with his hook takes hold of the shore, does not thereby pull the shore to the boat, but the boat to the shore. And so in prayer we do not draw the mercy to ourselves, but ourselves to the mercy."

—Rev. George Milligan.

"Treasures in Heaven," vs. 19-21.

"But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven. If you wish to express some of your money from earth to heaven, give it to those who need. Those who give their money get most pleasure out of it."

—Rev. A. C. Dixon, D. D. And if you have no money to give, you can give friendship and loving sympathy and wise praise and tender admonition and inspiring counsels and sweet comfort. These are the best of heavenly investments.

"Where neither moth nor rust doth consume and where thieves do not break through nor steal." "We should exchange earthly for heavenly currency. The Bank of Exchange is the Church of God. We deposit material wealth—prosperity, service, thought, love; we draw eternal riches—life, joy, association. The stock is high; it begets the riches of time; the dividends are endless; they yield the fulness of eternity."—Rev. Isaac C. Jenkins, D. D.

God of Mammon, v. 24.

"No man can serve two masters."

"In Judas we have an example of a divided heart that remained divided to the end. And what was his end? We see him at last hanging between his two masters, suspended by his own hands, between heaven and earth."—Rev. Sabine Baring-Gould. "For either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other." And all the while, he will very likely be fooling himself into the belief that he loves both and that he is serving both impartially. "Ye cannot serve God and mammon." "Mammon" may be derived from a Phoenician word for "gain." Our English equivalent would be "worldliness," reliance on the temporal rather than the eternal, on the earth rather than the Creator of the earth.

"Be Not Anxious," v. 31.

"Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?" All the worry that ever got itself accomplished in this weary, worrying world; all the sleepless nights, all the burdened days, all the joyless, mirthless, peace-destroying, happiness-destroying, love-destroying hours that men and women have ever in all earth's centuries given to worry, never wrought one good thing. It was all evil and only evil."—Rev. C. I. Scofield, D. D.

"But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness." "Put first things first, and life is like a melody. Put secondary things in the first place, and life goes down into the gen of weeping."—Rev. George E. Morrison, D. D. "We usually invert the order of the text: the world first, and then for God what we can spare from the world."—verse is in a sense the summing up of the whole lesson of the Sermon on the Mount up to this point."—Prof. Benjamin B. Warfield. "In one word, first things first—then, and then only, may we expect the 'Well done' of the Master."—Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D. D.

Accuser

After Margaret Shore, above, a night club entertainer of Jersey City, N. J., told her story to a New York court, William H. Walker Jr., a nephew of James J. Walker, was held for the grand jury on a charge of felonious assault.

Nervous?

Here is a medicine which quiets quivering nerves. . . . You eat better . . . sleep better. 98 out of 100 women say—"It helps me."

"For five years I suffered terribly with headache and backache and was so nervous I would have to go to bed. I took different medicines but with no results until a friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking four bottles I am a different woman. I only wish I had started on it when I first had my troubles."—Mrs. John W. Applegate, Lehigh, 202 N. 34th St., Louisville, Kentucky.

"Mother gave me the Compound when I was 13. I took it at childbirth and at the Change. It has been wonderful."—Mrs. John W. Applegate, Lehigh, 202 N. 34th St., Louisville, Kentucky.

SIX-DAY BATTLE
NEW DELHI, India—A six-day battle for the new city of Kashgar, capital of eastern or Chinese Turkestan, with the attacking tribesmen ultimately repulsed after heavy losses was described today in delayed advices.

JAPS ENTER HULIN
TOKYO, Feb. 1 (AP)—Japanese and Manchukuan military forces, warring on bandits, entered Hulin near the Siberian frontier today, said Rengo (Japanese) news agency dispatches from Harbin. The occupation of Hulin was made after a rapid march through heavy snow in sub-zero temperatures.

FASCISTS PARADE
ROME—Thousands of blackshirt troops paraded before Premier Mussolini today in the eleventh anniversary of the foundation of the Fascist militia. The duce reviewed his favorite legions from a wooden platform on broad new Empire street, which leads from his offices past the ruins of Caesar's forum to the coliseum. He wore the uniform of commander-in-chief.

ACCIDENTS KILL 89,500
CHICAGO—The nation's accident bill for 1933 totaled $2,000,000,000 in wage loss and medical expenses, and claimed 89,500 lives and caused 8,500,000 disabling injuries, the National Safety Council announced today. The deaths were classified: motor vehicle, 30,500; other public, 17,500; home, 29,500; and occupational, 14,500.

Mrs. J. E. Sides, who underwent a major operation at Worley hospital last week, is reported recovering nicely, and will be able to return home in a few days.

BRANCH OF LOCAL CREAMERY IS OPENED AT SHAMROCK—AN OPEN HOUSE TO BE SATURDAY

The Gerhard creamery, a branch of the Gray County creamery owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerhard, was opened in Shamrock yesterday. A formal opening will be held Saturday, when residents of Shamrock and surrounding country will be guests of the company on an inspection of the plant.

The modern plant was erected nearly four years ago and operated for a time as the Shamrock creamery. It was closed nearly two years ago. The plant is equipped with a late model pasteurizer, ice cream machine, butter machinery, etc. A milk route may be started.

Jimmie Harris, for three years with the local creamery, has been made manager of the new plant. Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard will attend the formal opening.

"ALL-BRAN WILL ALWAYS BE A PART OF MY DIET"

Delicious Cereal Corrected His Constipation

If you suffer from constipation, read this fine letter.

"I have been troubled for years with constipation. During this time, I have tried almost every known remedy. Then, some one recommended eating Kellogg's All-Bran, and the proper results followed immediately.

"Since eating Kellogg's All-Bran each morning, there has been a general improvement in my health without the ill effects that formerly experienced when taking laxatives. Hereafter, Kellogg's All-Bran will always be a part of my diet." Mr. E. J. Hines, 1201 E. 7th St., Los Angeles, Calif.

Research shows Kellogg's All-Bran provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to aid elimination. All-Bran also supplies iron for the blood.

"The 'bulk' in All-Bran is much like that in leafy vegetables. Isn't this 'cereal way' safer than risking patent medicines?"

Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient to relieve ordinary constipation. With each meal, in serious cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Be sure to ask for Kellogg's All-Bran. It contains much more needed "bulk" than part-bran products. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle-Creek.

Fights Nazis

Keeping in close touch with Pacific coast efforts to curb Nazi activities, Samuel Untermyer, famed New York attorney, is shown here in a recessed hour at his elaborate winter home in Palm Springs, California. Untermyer is head of the World Jewish Economic Federation, combating practices of the Nazi regime.

Backs Husband

Rudy Vallee's accusations carry no weight with Mrs. Garfield Leon, above, who scoffs at the charge that her husband was guilty of an affair with Fay Webb Vallee. Voicing her firm belief in Leon's innocence, the chorus girl, formerly Marion Mitchell, who married him in Detroit last month, also expressed great admiration for Mrs. Vallee.

Negro Dies In Electric Chair At Huntsville

HUNTSVILLE, Feb. 2 (P)—Apparently reconciled to his fate, Frank Flour, negro who confessed killing a white woman in a robbery at Waco, went to his death in the electric chair at the state penitentiary here early today.

At the time he ordered a chicken dinner for his last meal, he told Warden W. W. Ward he was "ready to go." From then until his electrocution immediately after midnight, he had nothing to say.

The 34-year-old negro was sentenced to death for the shooting of Mrs. Reba Carney of Kennedale, a town near Fort Worth, last November 25.

Mrs. Carney, her two young sons and a friend drove to the outskirts of Waco the night she lost her life. They had information that a sum of money had been buried near railroad tracks here.

While Mrs. Carney and one of her sons went in search for the money. It was while they were digging that a negro came up to the car. Mrs. Carney flashed a light on him and he fired at her, then robbed her of $155 and fled.

It was brought out at his trial that Flour had robbed the woman to get a "stake" for a poker game.

IT'S THE MAN WHO PAYS (?)

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Mrs. Anthony Marco told the court her husband, who it $650 behind on a $7-a-week support order, refuses to work because his parents support him. Marco listed the places where he said he had sought employment.

"Would you take a job at $10 a day?" inquired Judge Rosen. "You bet," said Marco. "Thirty days in the county jail with a remission of $300 of the arrears. In that way you will be earning $10 a day."

Marco chose it to a $25 cash settlement.

THEY'LL BE NO HELP

NEW YORK (P)—If groundhogs at the Bronx zoo see their shadows today it will not mean a thing says Dr. Raymond L. Dilmars, groundhog-ausharity. Steam heat and three meals a day have made hopeless decadents of the zoo rodents; he opines, and because of their lack of outside interest they are no good as weather prognosticators. Many believe that a shadow cast by a groundhog on candlemas day means six weeks more of winter weather.

Temperature of the center of the sun is estimated at not more than 180,000,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

J. C. Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Willis, underwent a major operation at Pampa hospital Wednesday.

Junior Duenkel's condition was much improved this morning. He has been seriously ill the last few days of appendicitis.

BLOND GODDESS

A New Serial by HERBERT JENSEN

SYNOPSIS: Frank Grahame, explorer, bound into the wilds of Yucatan to look for traces of his missing aviator friend, Bill Langton, narrowly escapes death at the hands of a man named Ortega. Frank suspects he is the man who tried to abduct the movie star, Janice Kent, in Hollywood shortly before Janice had refused Frank's proposal of marriage. Janice and a company from Hollywood are in Yucatan, unknown to Frank, to make a picture. Greene, Janice's publicity man, has been shot on the way to Merida.

Chapter 21

AT MERIDA

Greene rubbed at a lump over his temple. Thoughtfully he adjusted his coat upon his shoulders and studied a ragged rent in its side through which some papers in the pocket had been blown by the bullet. "H-m-m-in," he grunted. "So this is Mexico. What happened? A safe and sane Fourth?" They explained as much as they knew. While they talked the train began to move, halting at first then with gathering speed. Lights

While she had told them all in Myberg's office that she did not believe that Ortega was implicated; nevertheless to herself she admitted that she was unsure. Janice looking at him now, was conscious of a sense of uneasiness as his glance met hers—a tiny ringing of some subconscious bell of unrest at those flat-toned eyes were turned down to her.

He bowed deeply. "Miss Kent," he began. "How are you Mr. Greene, and Mr. Hogarth? It is a pleasure to see you all again. I am delighted." His somber stare made his statement sound contradictory. "I have a message for you from Mr. McGrath, your advance man."

Greene stirred irritably. "Where is he?" "The big man's glance flickered over Mr. Greene and paused at the torn and stained shirt front. He allowed the question to remain unanswered and addressed himself to Janice. "So Mr. Myberg decided to go on with the picture? It is good. I shall be delighted to help you. It has been a great regret of mine that I was forced to leave Hollywood so suddenly. I was planning to return when I met Mr. McGrath. I decided, then, to await your arrival."

Hollywood? He seemed the same with a subtle difference. Once, two years before she had met an industrial executive and had taken through one of his factories. She had admired him for his power, decisiveness, and shrewd command of his organization; later she met him at a masquerade costume and he had been clumsy and ridiculous.

She thought of him now, looking at Ortega. In a sort of reverse way this had happened to him. The polished latin aristocrat in Hollywood had become somewhat gross—he was more effective this way Janice admitted—but there was a shade of incongruity in it—like a fox turned rowdy.

"So you waited," said Mr. Greene. "Yeah. That's fine. But where in hell's McGrath? He should have met us at Progresso. He didn't show up. Instead we come here and get shot at. What is it? A revolution? What's the matter with you guys down here? Don't you know this is lousy publicity? Now if I was running this country—" "Please!" interrupted Janice. "You were about to say..."

His glance roved about the damaged car. "I am sorry you were attacked on the way in from the coast, but the revolutionists were marching on Merida and the troops on your train were federal soldiers. The revolutionary party have captured Merida. The federals have retreated and are encamped, we think, a few kilometers from the city. They await reinforcements from Campeche."

"What effect will that have on us?" asked Janice. "Mr. Myberg planned for us to take the location shots at Chichen Itza, instead of at the place you spoke of."

"Impossible," Ortega shrugged his shoulders. "That is why I am here. A week ago McGrath was going to Chichen Itza to make arrangements for a camp there where you could stay while you took your pictures. However, he was unable to get permission from the authorities. They had word that the revolution was about to begin and the ruins at Chichen would probably be within the zone of war."

Greene has gone ahead. I will guide you there." "Thank you, no," snapped Mr. Greene. Something in the tropic air had made the little man as aggressive as a fighting cock. "Not any at all, thank you. Yours very truly, accompanied by Miss Kent and these three sons, will take the next train back to the coast, and thence to these or those—take your choice—United States."

Ortega shook his head and smiled. He appealed to Janice with a gesture of his unhurt arm. "I am afraid he does not understand. There will be no steamers away from Progresso. None will come to go away. The revolutionists control Progresso. When steamers come their supplies will be seized, so none will come. It is always so."

"Well, I don't like this ruin business of yours," persisted Mr. Greene. "What's more, I don't like you, Ortega. I think you're up to some monkey business. You're bad copy, if you want the truth—" "Mr. Greene!" exclaimed Janice with some sharpness. For Greene to call a person bad copy was, for him, highly insulting—almost a curse.

"I know of in this country." "He means," chuckled Hogarth who had been listening intently, "that he's plagiarized a lot of copy out of the Encyclopaedia on Chichen Itza. Any other ruins would cramp his style."

"Who says so, you... Svengalli?" Hogarth flushed; Greene knew the director's weakness. Ortega looked at Greene speculatively. "Merida," he said "will be under fire continually. It will be safer where I will take you."

"Again," continued Ortega, "Mr. McGrath told me to say that he was in complete charge of arrangements, and that if Mr. Greene wanted to stay and be killed, by all means I was not to discourage him." Greene bristled. Hogarth chuckled. Wallace, the older of the camera men said, "Go ahead and stay, Greene."

The big man dropped his cigarette and ground it under his heel. "The territory of Quintana Roo lies to the eastward. It is there I intend to take you." (Copyright, 1934, by Herbert Jensen)

How Black-Draught Stops Bad Feeling
I have taken Theodor's Black-Draught for about twelve years, when needed, for dizziness, and it is a wonderful medicine. writes Mrs. E. E. Everett, of Carrier Mills, Ill. "It can usually tell when a headache is coming on by the bad taste in my mouth and a dull feeling. If I begin taking Black-Draught then, I can keep off the headache."
Children like the new, pleasant tasting SYRUP of Black-Draught.
