OIL WORKERS MARCH ON CAPITAL

Twinkles Huey Long has just about convinced us that his faction is the cleanest in New Orleans. So you can judge the condition of New Orleans to suit yourself.

Get this straight: This isn't a "column." It's editorial space moved over here to give us room to expand.

Great are the movies, we suppose. The "dopehead" in a high school play never saw one, except on the screen. He's pretty good, at that.

Well, congress didn't do much, so we'll just keep on following Mr. Roosevelt and hope for the best.

The Texas legislature has outlawed endurance contests, but the rob-Peter-to-pay-Paul contest between hard-pressed business firms and their creditors won't be affected.

Brevitorials

Musings of the moment: Weather changes many things. High school pupils paired off, walked very leisurely home on a recent warm afternoon. Next day it was cold and young men's fancies seemed to be concerned with going home quickly, or downtown, on an everyone-for-himself basis. The recent grand jury returned several indictments, none bigger than that against Gray county residents. Merrily, we Americans pass the blame "for conditions" to someone else, to hear cheer when the grand jury said were "indifferent" — lashing back with statements that the law ought to operate without turning private folks into detectives. Other words for "group": Assembled, block, cluster, flock, plexus, shook, sheaf, gens, clan, clique, phylum, gomerule.

PROGRESS is being reversed. In the new deal there is much right-about facing. Uncle Sam is trying to undo much that, in other days, seemed logical enough. In instance, turning back to its natural state hundreds of thousands of acres of land proved unadaptable for agriculture will be a new deal for American bird life. The so-called submarginal lands, were once used as nesting places for millions of birds. Drainage and grazing of marsh lands, mowing of hay, and deliberate firing of cane brakes—all in a ruthless attempt to bring more land under cultivation — has rapidly depleted migratory water fowl resources. In short, Uncle Sam is going to turn a great amount of land back to the ducks and geese that quite accommodately will hatch more offspring to furnish targets for the hunters.

MANY good bankers can also tell you that what many business men and farmers need is a consignment of business methods rather than relief. Congress cannot legislate very effectively against mismanagement. A farmer who buys a tractor when he needs a mule team is going to get into trouble and a farmer who needs a tractor but who sticks to worn-out methods cannot survive. It is a fact noticeable to any shrewd observer that too many farms are overcapitalized. They are too expensive. The earning power of the land cannot possibly support the drains demanded by taxation and interest. In any business, no relief measures can possibly save the inefficient, the wasteful, and the ignorant from failure.

Ocker Takes Stand In Court Martial Trial

FLYING GENIUS OF DEFENDANT IS DESCRIBED

ANOTHER MAJOR SAYS OKKER'S VISION WAS GOOD

SAN ANTONIO, March 8 (AP)—Major William C. Ocker, army pilot and a leader in the development of instrument flying, was a witness today at his court martial on charges of uttering derogatory remarks about his commanding officer.

Major Ocker allegedly accused Lieut. Col. H. B. Clagett, Kelly field commander, and Major Clyde C. Johnston, senior flight surgeon at Kelly field, with "collusion" to keep him from flying because of supposed eye defects and with stating that Clagett would be off flying status if given more than a cursory examination.

The defendant was preceded by Major Eugene Reinhardt of the school of aviation medicine at Randolph field and Major Ocker's military defense counsel.

Major Reinhardt's testimony corroborated that given by other defense witnesses on Major Ocker's flying ability. The defense has sought to prove that Major Ocker was fully qualified to fly despite defective vision, on which he has war department waivers.

Major Reinhardt told of a flight he made two weeks ago with Major Ocker in which Major Ocker selected emergency landing fields and made faultless approaches and landings. Major Ocker flew through gaps in trees, over fences and high tension wires both with and without goggles designed to correct his vision, he said.

At 7,000 feet Major Ocker was able to pick out high tension power lines and discern the direction of furrows in fields, he testified.

Major Reinhardt said he examined Major Ocker thoroughly and did not find an eye ailment mentioned by Major Johnston. He testified Clagett was never examined as thoroughly as Major Ocker.

When he had difficulty, he said Walker threatened to strike him but Thompson said, "Don't do that until the safe is open."

The witness described how he and his wife were loaded into an automobile and driven 12 miles east of the city to a lonely road. Both, he said, were pulled from the car feet first and were tied to a log with wire and their hands were bound.

CLERKS TO MEET Retail clerks union No. 745 will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in the Wynne-Merten building. The union was organized at a meeting last Sunday and tonight's meeting will be the first since organization. Much important business is to be transacted.

I HEARD—

A bunch of ex-Harvesters telling what they are going to do to the 1934 prospects in the springtime tomorrow afternoon at Sam Houston school playground. "Why, we'll see whenever we want to," they boastingly remarked.

It rumored that a baseball park will be erected in Pampa within the next few weeks. Also, that a fair ground may ultimately be built in connection with the park.

HOPKINS DOES FAST WORK IN SCOUT DRIVE

Committees Already Are Well Ahead of Contribution Raised Last Year.

Scout leaders of the Hopkins communities, who are among the most interested and efficient in the Adobe Walls council, are setting a record in the finance campaign now under way.

These communities contributed $72.50 last year. Already, in the present drive, they have raised more than $91. Lawrence T. Jones is doing much of the canvassing. The work is still under way.

Tomorrow night at the community hall special benefit movie for Troop 18, the Hopkins troop, will be shown to raise additional funds. The picture will be "Lost World."

Canvassing of Pampa's business area under a plan devised by Jack Cunningham was launched this morning.

Scoutmasters of the Pampa area met last night to discuss troop and other problems pertaining to scout-mastership. From now on, the scoutmasters of this area will meet every first Tuesday of each month, thus continuing the work that was started on this last meeting.

A committee was appointed to work on the program of this year's camp, composed of the Scoutmasters Bowden, Peacock, and Gary. The date for the next court of honor was set for the March 25. All test cards and applications must be filed by March 10.

BONDSMAN HAS LETTER FROM J. DILLINGER

CUMMINGS CRITICIZES WOMAN SHERIFF IN INDIANA

CHICAGO, March 8 (AP)—The police radio flashed directions to all available squad cars at 12:30 p. m. today to speed to a south side neighborhood where John Dillinger and a woman were reported to have been seen.

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—The action of Sheriff Lillian Holley and Prosecutor Robert C. Eddill, Indiana law officers, in posing for a picture with John Dillinger, alleged murderer and bank robber, was described by Attorney General Cummings today as "one of the most disgraceful episodes I know anything about."

The attorney general showed newsmen the photograph and said "this shows a complete lack of a sense of responsibility or of propriety and common sense."

INDIANAPOLIS, March 8 (AP)—Al Farb, a local bondsman, informed police that he had received a letter which apparently had been written by John Dillinger, notorious bandit and jail breaker.

The communication, which was

TEXAN WANTS BRITISH 'SPY' PUT ON STAND

CONGRESSMEN DECIDE PROFITS WERE NOT EXCESSIVE

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Amid talk about a "British spy," a house naval affairs subcommittee decided today there had been no excessive profits made on or collusion involved in navy airplane and engine contracts.

Written as the result of weeks of investigating naval aviation affairs, in which Hoover administration officials were called the report said that since 1926:

"The profits made by contractors from navy airplane business have been moderate and reasonable."

There is no evidence of collusion between contractors, or between contractors and naval officials."

Representative McFarlane (D., Tex.), objected to approving the report prepared by Chairman Delaney (D., N. Y.), until "all the evidence is in."

He asked to insert a statement by C. H. J. MacKenzie-Kennedy holding that America's air forces are below those of other nations.

Delaney, however, objected, saying that MacKenzie-Kennedy "is over here at the instance of the British government to find out what he can, and our government will not be a damn fool enough to tell him."

McFarlane, while not vouching for the accuracy of MacKenzie-Kennedy's statement, urged that the committee hear him, adding that "if he is a British spy, gentlemen, we ought to know it."

The committee declined to accept MacKenzie-Kennedy's statement and took no action as to whether it would hear him.

Texan Charged

Tom Hollamon, above, will be tried on a charge of murder as result of the shooting at Seguin, Tex., of Gerald W. Peck, Chicago banker, head of Texas power firms, and son of the original of "Peck's Bad Boy." Hollamon, rancher and former U. S. marshal, slew Peck, officers say, because of an old land dispute.

GOVERNOR IS IMplored NOT TO SIGN BILL

MAN IN OVERALLS AND KHAKI FLOCK TO HEARING

AUSTIN, March 8. (AP)—Hundreds of men and their dependents would be thrown out of work in the East Texas oil field in event independent refineries there were forced to cease operations on account of unfair state regulations, Governor Miriam A. Ferguson was told today.

A delegation of several hundred, a majority of them refinery workers wearing overalls and khaki, met in the house of representatives to petition the executive to veto a bill, passed by the special session of the legislature, that would empower the railroad commission to inquire into operations of refineries. Sponsors said it would stop the taking of "hot," or unlawfully produced oil from the field.

The contingent arrived in six day coaches, on a train labeled "the poor man's special." They had traveled all night from Kilgore.

Those in charge of "the poor man's special" said 400 who wanted to come to the protest hearing, but did not have the railroad fare, were left at the Kilgore station waving "good luck" when the train pulled out. They said 28 refineries were represented in the delegation. A majority of those in the party wore working clothes.

Speakers said the refinery bill was fathered by the major companies for the purpose of "squeezing out" the independent refineries and oil men.

J. G. Pundt of Dallas, owner of East Texas refineries, said the majors, "those who own, but do not have the railroad fare, were left at the Kilgore station waving 'good luck' when the train pulled out. They said 28 refineries were represented in the delegation. A majority of those in the party wore working clothes."

Pundt said "proration is wrong, anyway."

"A man who produces oil, just like the farmer who produces wheat, has a right to sell his product; manufacture or dispose of it as he sees fit," he said, "because that is the way we were raised in these United States."

Former Governor James E. Ferguson, her husband, said the governor was particularly interested in the "question of unemployment."

"What we want to know will this bill affect the interests of labor if it becomes law," he said. "If it is against the best interests of a majority of the working class, then the governor should not sign it."

"It looks like this legislation has many angles; it looks like it has every one on the spot; looks like it has the independents on the spot; looks like it has the majors on the spot, and, frankly, it looks like it has the governor on the spot," he said.

He charged the main purpose of the bill was a scheme of the majors to reduce the price of oil and increase the price of gasoline.

"This fight started 18 months ago, in their efforts to squeeze out the little man," he said.

Ex-Tax Assessor Commits Suicide

FORT WORTH, March 8. (AP)—George Bryant, 45, former tax assessor of Eastland county, took his own life in a West Seventh street tourist camp last night on this morning, leaving letters in which he blamed a woman for his action.

"Hunger will drive a man to anything," he had written. Justice of the Peace Prichard returned a verdict of suicide.

The body was found in a cabin by Curtis Farrow, negro porter. A woman had telephoned the camp, asking for Farrow by name, and had instructed him to awaken "the man in cabin 8." The woman told would call again within 20 or 30 minutes.

The porter found the cabin door ajar. The body, fully clothed, was lying on a blanket on the floor, with a pillow under the head. There was a bullet wound in the temple. A 32 automatic pistol was on the floor with one bullet missing from the magazine.

HITLER TELLS NAZIS TO BECOME MOTOR-MINDED, LIKE AMERICANS

BERLIN, March 8 (AP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler turned a regular go-getter auto salesman for an hour today, telling the nation to become as motor-minded as the United States "with its 25,000,000 cars."

Opening the international German automobile show, he accused the nation of backwardness in regard to cars and invoked all his spell-binding ability in behalf of the German motor car industry.

"It is the duty of every German to buy a car. The unemployed will get work. But that is not the sole reason—it is high time the German people got acquainted with this modern convenience."

BORGER ENJOYS EIGHTH ANNUAL BIRTHDAY FETE

Parade Has Hundred Floats—Record Number

BORGER, March 8 (AP)—Borger's greatest birthday parade, "A Parade of Progress" depicting the district's industrial and business growth, started the eighth annual celebration today.

There were more than 100 floats in what old residents declared to be by far the greatest display in the city's history.

No More Free Meals Will Be Given Children

Word has been received at the headquarters of the Gray county relief bureau that no more free meals will be furnished children of needy families who are attending Pampa schools. The free meals will be cut off tomorrow noon. Workers at the various city cafeterias will be transferred to other work.

More than 150 children have been receiving free noon meals through the Federal Emergency Relief program. It has been surprising to see how the children have gained since school started. They were furnished with a good hot meal every noon. Plans for continuing feeding the children have not been made.

King of Annam Weds Commoner

SAIGON, Cochinchina, March 8 (AP)—Emperor Bao Dai, youthful Europeanized monarch of Annam, has chosen a commoner for a bride.

His engagement to Miss Yuen Hu Hiao, daughter of a wealthy Cochinchinese family, was announced today.

The wedding will be March 20. Bao Dai succeeded to the throne of Annam, a small French protectorate, eight and one-half years ago.

He returned in 1932 from Paris, where he had studied for ten years, and took up the powers of his kingship position in a week-end of receptions and ceremonies, pomp, dancing and fireworks.

One of his first acts, after the festivities, was to issue a declaration that he intended to modernize the administration of his empire. He is the only son of the late Emperor Khai Dinh, and was born in 1913 at Hue.

MERCURY DROPS TO 20 IN CITY—TEXAS' LOWEST

Weather Friday Due To Be Warmer, Is Forecast

By The Associated Press TEXANS quickly pulled on their topcoats today as a sudden change in weather replaced spring temperatures with a strong north wind which brought rain, sleet, hail and snow.

In many towns and cities, the mercury dropped as much as 30 and 40 degrees overnight and clear skies of yesterday became a mass of low-hanging clouds.

The weatherman at Dallas reported that the highest reading yesterday was 78, but the thermometer slipped to 33 at 7 a. m. today and later dropped another degree. He said rain, sleet, hail and snow fell intermittently.

A light sleet fell at Denton in a 33-degree temperature. The conditions prevailed in a 30-degree temperature at Wichita Falls and at Borger there were snow flurries. The overnight minimum was 20 but the mercury rose to 28 at 9 a. m.

The weatherman's chart showed these low readings during the night and early today: Amarillo 22, Abilene 32, Austin 42, Del Rio 34, El Paso 40, San Antonio 44.

The forecast for East Texas was fair and colder in the south portion with probable frost except in the lower Rio Grande valley tonight and tomorrow fair and warmer.

Spring Style Show Is Ready

LATEST FASHIONS FOR MEN AND WOMEN WILL BE SEEN AT LA NORA THEATER.

THE SPRING style question that has been pondered by Pampa women in recent weeks will be solved for many this evening when Pampa merchants, under auspices of the Business and Professional Women's club, will present new merchandise in a showing at La Nora theater. The show will be repeated Friday evening.

Dresses and accessories just received from Eastern markets will be displayed for the first time by models from this and nearby cities. Latest fashions for men will also be a part of the revue.

It will be staged in a garden setting by models enacting guests at a house party. A morning scene will show sports clothes; afternoon dress will be shown at a tea scene, and fair, softly rising temperature in east and north portions.

In addition to the style revue and feature film, entertainment will include music and several dance numbers directed by Kathryn Vincent. Miss Joyce Smith and Wayne Kinison will present an Argentine slave dance; Bill Patton will appear in tap routines, and tiny Veda Lee Alden will do tap and acrobatic numbers.

Mrs. H. H. Hicks and Mrs. C. L. Wooley are in general charge of arrangements for the show, an annual club event.

She recalled, and correctly too, that one time the citizens of Canton, the present county seat, marched on another town that was the county capital, with guns and cannon. In a miniature civil war, and moved the courthouse to its present site.

PARTY NAMES OF REAL MEANING

Recently The NEWS commented on President Roosevelt's activities which have ignored old party lines and pointed to a realignment of parties. Opposition to the "new deal" might very well constitute a party of conservatives.

Such a party might be called "The Constitution Democratic Party," and would replace the existing G. O. P. The present democratic party could be renamed "The Socialist Democratic Party."

The reshuffling advocated thus would give us two brand-new national parties to take the place of the ones we have.

It has been one of the axioms of American politics for a good many years that there is little real difference between the two major parties. It has been equally clear that neither party has been homogenous, and that each one contains sizeable groups sadly out of harmony with the majority opinion of their fellows.

To put through a general shifting of personnel and principles that would give us two big parties, each one more or less united from top to bottom, based on widely different conceptions of the function of government in the modern world, might be an exceedingly healthy development.

It is hard to escape the feeling that the actual trend of things today is in that direction.

We have the "western progressives" in the republican party, who are far closer to the administration than they are to such leaders in their own party as Mr. Hoover or Mr. Mills.

On the other hand, it is pretty obvious that men like Senator Glass and ex-Governor Smith are not exactly the same kind of democrats as President Roosevelt.

Continuance of this trend can do one of two things. It can give us two new major parties to replace the old ones, or it can split both our parties and give us a group of half a dozen or more blocs, creating a condition in which no administration ever could have a majority in congress, and in which compromise and a multiplicity of "deals" would be the order of the day.

The recent experience of France is enough argument against the latter possibility. A republican government works best on a straight two-party system, with the two parties diametrically opposed, as a matter of principle, on most major issues.

TALENTED STUDENTS PRESENT PROGRAM FOR ROTARY CLUBMEN

The varied talents of high school students were shown before an appreciative group yesterday when Chas. Mitchell presented thirteen students in a varied program before the Rotary club.

A trio composed of Rex Fanning, Lavern Corson, and Fred Mason entertained with vocal numbers with guitar accompaniment.

"Objectives of Education" was the subject of a talk given by Josephine Lane when she pointed out the training for life which is given in the schools. The program was closed by a reading by Sue Dodson.

SOME AIR COMPANIES WILL BE BARRED FROM CARRYING MAIL

BILL TO LET CONTRACTS BEING DRAFTED

PRESIDENT TELLS WHO CANNOT BE GIVEN MAIL ROUTES

WASHINGTON, March 8. (AP)—A warm debate over President Roosevelt's call for a private air mail system on a radically revised basis was in prospect today.

There were indications that Republicans will have much to say when the legislation reaches the floor. Many in G. O. P. ranks have openly accepted the air mail situation as an issue.

Senate and house committees hastened to whip into bill form the president's suggestion for the return of the mails to private carriers on the basis of "honest payment for honest service."

The president, in a letter dispatched suddenly to the capitol last night, suggested speed in letting new contracts. And to "avoid evils of the past," he proposed these ideas for legislation:

Competitive bidding for contracts not to exceed three years, with fixed maximum compensation; cancellation as a penalty for non-competitive agreements, and a six months qualifying period after contracts are awarded.

Buying of Tires Is Much Earlier

Many motorists are buying tires earlier than usual this year, according to Jack Baker, local Goodyear dealer.

"There are many factors that enter into the general improvement in the tire business for this time of year. The main reason perhaps is that prices of all commodities are on the upswing, and there is no doubt but that retail tire prices will climb by spring.

"Crude rubber and raw cotton are higher and wages are being increased in the factories. There is every indication that prices will continue to advance and motorists appreciate that they can effect real savings by making their tire purchases now.

"The tire factories are working heavier schedules than usual for this time of the year in order to meet the demand.

"Another reason that more tires are being bought is that the public is beginning to realize the importance of using new tires during the winter months. A new tire gives maximum anti-skid protection on wet or icy streets and at the same time gives longer wear when broken in at the lower temperatures of the winter season.

Violent Labor Disorders Take Place in Cuba

HAVANA, March 8. (AP)—Reports of violent labor disorders in the interior—including shootings at Santa Clara and Camaguey—reached Havana today.

Dispatches telling of the outbreaks were received after President Carlos Mendieta and his cabinet had continued in session until the early hours, trying to solve the strike situation here and elsewhere in the island.

Several persons were wounded—two of them gravely—and four were arrested after a disturbance before the provincial palace at Santa Clara.

From Camaguey, where soldiers are operating trains and street cars, came reports of one shooting. A few shots were heard in Havana after midnight.

Trouble broke out at Santa Clara when a large throng of civilians attempted to release four men arrested as leaders in a demonstration.

Havana's striking dock-workers were reported to have told President Mendieta they were ready to call a truce in the strike if the government would agree to withdraw soldiers from the docks and if employers would adhere to previous agreements with the workers.

THREE'S A CROWD

CLEVELAND—Alexander Mellinger and Mrs. Zona Mellinger were divorced after 14 years of married life, and later his second wife, Mrs. Cora Mellinger, started suit for divorce.

His second wife didn't want to return to her mother's home, so the first wife took her in. Mellinger began paying visits to both of them. Now both have sworn out a warrant charging him with assault and battery, relating that he struck his first wife when she went to the second wife's assistance. Mellinger could not be found for his side of the story.

I want to correct a misunderstanding concerning one of the leading negro men of our race, because of what was printed Tuesday, about his leaving.

The education and ability which he has does not allow him to take part in such low matters as have arisen. He is just so far in knowledge beyond those critics that when he speaks to them it is foolishness unto some and a stumbling block to the rest.

Texas Club Head Tells of Visits To White House

By R. W. BARVYO

AUSTIN, March 8 (P)—Mrs. Volney Taylor of Brownsville, president of the state federation of women's clubs, today told details of her recent visit to Washington. Mrs. Taylor was in the White House three times during her two weeks' stay at the national capital, saw the president there on one occasion and had a close view of Mrs. Mrs. Roosevelt. She was invited to a luncheon, and at Waco she described to a club meeting the courses served. There were soup, calves liver and bacon, broccoli and scalloped potatoes, and a strawberry, marshmallow and whipped cream desert with wafers.

Praises First Lady
That selection of the first lady may make those courses popular in Texas, now that Mrs. Taylor has disseminated the information.

She praised Mrs. Roosevelt's "rare combination of democratic spirit and dignity."

President Roosevelt made his appearance at a conference on "cause and cure of war."

"We had been given no indication that he would be there, but he made his appearance during one program," Mrs. Taylor said. "In a brief talk he said this country's policy is to use no armed force in countries to the south—which I can appreciate, living on the Mexican border. He also said that the American flag no longer follows the American dollar into foreign countries to keep the dollar safe when it is invested for private gain."

On her visits to the White House, Mrs. Taylor was accompanied by Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Austin and Mrs. J. W. Fincher of Houston.

Other players were Mrs. W. A. Rankin, J. W. Logan, C. D. Windom, L. L. McGee, and S. B. Senter.

She suggested that the jar be filled a half inch of the top with products, and to within a fourth to an eighth with liquid. Miss Adams scored canned vegetables, stressing points that improve the standard of products.

ROYAL SCION, ACTRESS WED IN COUNCIL CHAMBER

By FRANK H. KING
Associated Press Foreign Staff
LONDON, Mar. 8 (AP)—A romance like a fairy tale of fiction came true today with the wedding at noon of Sigvard, prince of Sweden, Duke of Uppland and grandson of the Swedish king, to the beautiful Fraulein Erika Patzek, 22-year-old daughter of a Berlin industrialist.

In taking his commoner bride at a registry office in the heart of busy London, the 26-year-old prince—like Lennart, his cousin—abandoned his princely rights for a romance union with the girl of his dreams.

Instead of a cañion of bells pealing for their wedding in the ancient capital of the prince's royal forefathers, Sigvard and his bride had chattering song birds in a little park outside and a sea of smiling faces in a sympathetic throng to welcome them on their wedding day.

Obviously happy, the two were wed by the "marrying" superintendant of the registry office, aided by the assistant registrar. The ceremony was of only a few minutes' duration. Each had only two sentences to say.

Both smiled nervously as they drove up to the registry office in a big limousine for the ceremony. Erika was wearing a smart navy blue tailored costume, with a hat to match, and a spray of lovely white orchids on one of the lapels of her coat. The prince wore a long navy blue overcoat. He was bareheaded.

There were a number of unexpected developments at the ceremony. In the first place, they were married in the large council chamber of Caxton Hall instead of in the small registry office, despite the fact a municipal election was being held in the building. Erika's brother, George Patzek, a German lawyer, and George Gordon, Prince Sigvard's attorney, were to have been the only witnesses, but two unexpected guests arrived—the inspector-general of registration from Somerset house, Scott Cowan, with his wife, Mrs. Cowan is Swedish and consequently they were invited to attend the ceremony.

There was a slight break in the calm just before the wedding when two Britons insisted on their rights as British subjects to witness the ceremony. Only six persons can avail themselves of this right, however, and they were finally persuaded to wait at the entrance to the hall. The scene outside Caxton hall was most lively. The street was impassable because of the milling crowd there but its several hundred members were kept orderly by mounted and foot police. After a smooth getaway out of the main door of the building, the prince laughed and waved his hand as he helped the bride into a limousine, closing the door against a small shower of rice with which two or three persons had come prepared.

Tomorrow the newlyweds will leave for a trip through the Italian Riviera.

The Sheer Frock Is The Smart Frock

What with the vogue for sheers, and sheer cottons in particular, it's no wonder that plaid organdie makes a hit in frocks of this simple, informal type. The frock sketched is a fashion favorite—practical too, because you can make it sleeveless, and with rippling cape collar, or collarless, with the new drop-shoulder line and very, very smart sleeves, as in the small view. And it's so easy to make! Size 18 requires 3½ yards of such plaid material. Width of frock about 3½ yards. Pattern No. 5483 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 bust.

GOVERNMENT LAND EXPERTS ARE CENTERING ATTENTION ON THREE AREAS WHERE LAND IS WORN-OUT

(Editor's note: This is the third of a series on the plans of the federal government to use land which is to be bought and retired from agricultural production.)

BY STEPHEN McDONOUGH, Associated Press Staff Writer.
WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Government land experts trying to solve the riddle of putting sub-marginal farm land to practical use center their attention on three areas. They are the Appalachian and Piedmont plateau from Maryland south and west into Mississippi, the cutover timber area bordering the Great Lakes, and the western edge of the great plains. The planners propose to buy the entire 228,480 sub-marginal acres; persuade the farm families on it to move to four subsistence homesteads on the tract itself or to a small community where convenient churches and schools could be built; abandon the present farms, roads, churches, and schools; put the former farmers at work restoring the area; establish a few small industries and guarantee the families higher returns than they have been making from farming. Sufficient work could be provided in restoring the areas to keep many of the adult men working for many years, they maintain.

JOHNSON SAYS SUPREME COURT RULINGS HAVE DRIVEN HIM TO START ENFORCING BLUE EAGLE

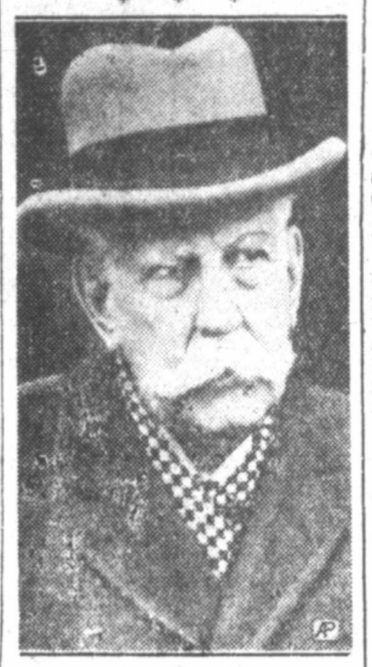

BY JAMES COPE.
WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Gen. Hugh S. Johnson took a new step today in his drive for re-employment. The NRA chief summoned two select industrial committees to help him work out a program for making more jobs. This he did after closing the first code authority assembly with a sharp announcement that enforcement of blue eagle rules will be tightened up. "I have been too gentle... You ain't seen nothing yet," he asserted last night. To draft his new plan, Johnson asked the code authorities of the heavy goods industries and of the consumer goods groups to select 12 men each. He aimed for something concrete to announce to the public by the week-end if possible. But he promised weeks of continuing effort to round out a complete scheme. The blue eagle chief then closed the industrial gathering last night with a speech which coupled an energetic appeal to "play the game" with a declaration that in many industries "there is no excuse" for ducking his ten per cent hour shortening plan. Then he paired a disclaimer of dictatorial intentions toward industry with three earnest warnings: "Under specific orders from the president, we are recognizing to enforce the penal sections of the act," he said, first. The other warnings were in substance as follows: "That the country faces this spring 'the worst epidemic of strikes in our history'; that company unions in 99 out of 100 cases involve illegal 'interposition' by employers. That with the recent supreme court decision upholding the New York state emergency milk law, the administration has dropped all hesitation, and is ready to use the powers of the industrial law to the limit, if opposition forces it. Johnson let Donald Richberg, general counsel of NRA, present the last point in a preliminary speech, which, in non-legal language, presented sweeping implications of the decision.

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—One of America's grandest old men

—Oliver Wendell Holmes—today celebrated his 93rd birthday.

The former justice of the United States supreme court, who feels that such anniversaries come so frequently he should no longer regard them as significant, nevertheless had scores of congratulatory messages as a reminder. Annually his stately residence becomes a mecca for his friends on March 8. Holmes, who retired from the high court two years ago, is enjoying remarkably good health and vigor. He is as keenly interested as ever in all worth-while affairs of

Mrs. Roosevelt Continues Tour Of West Indies

ST. THOMAS, Virgin Islands, March 8 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, hailed by cheering throngs, continued enthusiastically today her inspection tour of the West Indies.

The first lady and her friends arrived here in their airplane from Port-au-prince Haiti, yesterday, after stops at San Pedro de Macoris, Santo Domingo, and San Juan. Puerto Rico—bringing to a total of 1,258 miles the distance flown since they left Florida.

Today a program quite as strenuous was outlined, with an early hop from St. Thomas to St. Croix, Virgin Islands, and return in mid-afternoon; and then, later, a one-hour flight to San Juan for dinner with Governor Blanton Winship.

A hospital building was named for Mrs. Roosevelt when, after making an address to a large crowd gathered to greet her, Mrs. Roosevelt said, "I am happy to greet you all and bring you the greetings of my husband—the president."

She said Mrs. Roosevelt planned to visit "your very beautiful islands" next summer.

M'LEAN CALF AND SOW ENTRIES ACCLAIMED FOR HIGH QUALITY

M'LEAN, March 8 — Wilburn Lynch's Angus junior calf was judged best of the Gray county entries and sixth best in the Amarillo show this week.

Wilburn is an active member of the McLean F. F. A. He obtained the calf from J. S. Morse, breeder of Angus cattle. A. A. Temple, vocational agriculture instructor, advised the youth on the feeding of the calf.

County Agent Paul McMeans of Roberts county, judge of the third annual beef and hog show held here Saturday, said it was the "best finished and most uniform group" of fat calves he had seen at a county show. About $90 in cash and merchandise prizes went to the winners from McLean business men.

The champion junior and sweepstakes calf was entered by C. C. Whitley, and the senior calf was entered by Dardenella Whitley. P. Ledbetter had the champion and sweepstakes sow and Tom Wade the champion gilt. Beautiful rosette ribbons also were awarded the champions. A prize for the best showman went to Billie Wilson, who also won a gold medal offered by County Agent Ralph Thomas for the best club work done last year.

Aaron Goodwin of Berger was a visitor in the city yesterday.

HARVESTER PROSPECTS TO FACE GRID STARS OF PAST FRIDAY AFTERNOON

SCRIMMAGE TO SHOW METTLE OF '34 TEAM

SAULSBURY, LARD AND PAFFORD TO PLAY WITH EXES

Harvester prospects are scheduled to get their baptism under fire tomorrow afternoon when they scrimmage with the "Exes" at Sam Houston school playground. The scrimmage will start about 4 o'clock.

Coaches Mitchell and Fox believe their charges will get more of old grunts than from regular practice sessions. The workout Friday afternoon will be the first of a series.

C. O. Busby's former Harvesters have an imposing array of material to throw at the Harvester prospects. He has two backfields, one of old grads and the other of stars of the last two years. The veteran backfield will be composed of Saulsbury, Lard, Chastain, and Walstad. The other backfield will see Marbaugh, Sullins, Stevens, and Heskell ready for duty.

The veteran line material is numerous and imposing. With such names as Pafford, Howard, Powell, Schmidt, Mullen, Seltz, Benton, Patton, Kelley, Barnard, Edinger, Duncan, and a lot more, Coach Busby will have both power and speed to show the Harvester prospects tricks out of the game.

The Harvester lineup has not been announced but fans can make a pretty good guess on the starters.

BORGER QUINT TO PLAY HERE TUESDAY NIGHT

SECOND CAGE GAME OF TEACHERS IS SCHEDULED

The basket ball games between the Pampa and Borger faculties will be played at the local high school gymnasium Tuesday night. The game was scheduled for Friday night but Borger can't be here on that night.

Two games will be played here. The first game will be between the 1934-35 Harvester prospects and the Cabot Shops team. It will get under way about 7:15 o'clock and will be followed by the Faculty tilt. Admission will be 20 cents for students and 35 cents for adults.

The Pampa Faculty team won a thrilling 34 to 32 game in Borger Tuesday night. A packed gymnasium saw the Borger teachers come from behind three times to even the score but never get in the lead. Ocus Mitchell, Harvester basket ball and football coach, was the scoring star of the night with 17 points. Monroe Selby, Kelly, and Deannard were the other Pampa starters. Gull, Savage and McDonald were substitutes.

Goode, Knowlites, Acker, McDonnell, and Schulkey make up the Borger faculty team. They were stars in their college days and are well known in the Pampa circles. Goode are not long out of college. Money from the games will be used to purchase sweaters for the student basket ball teams of the schools.

TRAINING CAMP LOSE REDUCES HOLDOUT LIST

DOBEN PLAYERS SIGN CONTRACTS SINCE MONDAY

By The Associated Press. PASADENA, Calif., March 8 (AP)—Joe Chamberlain and Bernie Uhall, recruits, appear certain of utility jobs with the Chicago White Sox this season.

Chamberlain, who was a year late in joining the club, having disappeared twice last year before the season started, has shown enough to make Manager Lew Fonseca think he will do for an extra infielder, and Uhall accomplished as much as an outfielder.

ENGLISH DIVER GETS DRUNK AT BOTTOM OF SEA

Whiskey Cases And Air Pocket Found at The Same Time

LONDON, March 8 (AP)—Elbow-landers may well doff hats to Tom, the man who was rescued from the ocean and drank whisky, with water under his chin and 60 feet of it on top of him—drinking when a slip would have drowned him like a rat in a trap.

The story of Tom was told to the Royal Society of Arts by Sir Robert Davis, noted authority on deep-sea diving, and here it is:

"Tom, a diver working on a wreck, had sent up no cargo for the last couple of hours and everybody became anxious about him. At last he showed to the surface and was dragged to the ladder. Then it was seen that he was drunk. Yet he went down as sober as a horse at a funeral, and the chief salvage officer set about clearing up the mystery.

"This is how Tom did it. As the ship sank she had heeled over slightly to one side. Some air in the hold, instead of escaping out of the hatch when the water poured in, had been trapped in the angle formed by the side of the ship and the 'tween deck.

"When the cargo was worked out of this side more air was released. Some of this, instead of making its way up the hatch in bubbles, was also trapped under the 'tween deck. This was supplemented by the air from the escape valve of the diver's helmet, until a pocket of air, perhaps 18 inches deep, was formed in the angle.

"The diver, working under the 'tween deck, suddenly discovered that his hands were out of water. Not long afterward he discovered cases of whisky. Having carried up a case and broached it, he sat on top of the cargo and with water within an inch of the bottom of his mouthpiece and 60 feet of water over his head, unscrewed the mouthpiece and knocked the neck off the bottle.

"To avoid interruption from the surface and to defeat any attempt made from the diving-boat to pull him up unexpectedly, he took a turn with his life-line round a convenient stanchion. He was then free to enjoy himself—with the knowledge that if he slipped, if there was any sudden movement in the water, if for any reason the air should escape from under the 'tween deck, or if he had miscalculated his own capacity and failed to screw his mouthpiece on again, he would be drowned like a rat in a trap."

Sir Robert surveyed his audience and added: "But divers cannot afford to suffer from nerves."

S. A. L. Morgan, Amarillo attorney, is here on business.

JACK DEMPSEY SAYS HE MAY VISIT HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Ex-Champion Rates Baer as Greatest Heavyweight — Then Hanas, Carnera.

Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world, rates Max Baer as the greatest heavyweight of today. Steve Hanas comes second and Primo Carnera third in his opinion. The former champion gave his opinion to Carl Sturgeon, auditor of the Pampa Daily News, who stayed at the same hotel as Dempsey while in Childress Tuesday night.

Present when Dempsey made his statements were Bob Brashers, former Pampaan, Ted White, Cal Farley, Dutch Mantley, and Rob Roy. Dempsey referred a wrestling match between Mantley and Pat Garrison, local boy. The outcome of the match has not been learned.

Dempsey predicted that Baer would drop Carnera in four or five rounds; that is, if Baer can ever get a chance at the champion. The "champ" declared that Carnera has a glass jaw and that he has his own opinion about the Carnera-Sharkey bout in which Carnera won the title.

Dempsey was interested in talking about Pampa and the oil field in this section. He stated that he might run over here Thursday afternoon. Dempsey is to referee the boxing matches at Borger tonight.

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

THERE are many things the government does which show that stupidity and waste go hand in hand with politics. One department of the government spends millions to promote production while a newer branch tries to cut it down. Competition with private industry from which taxes must come grows astonishingly. For example, private generating and transmission facilities for electricity are 30 to 40 per cent greater than the present peak demand for the product. Utilities have certainly not been backward in expanding their facilities. Yet we see the government in the Tennessee valley, at Boulder Dam on the Columbia river and on the Lawrence building, or planning to build great power plants much after the fashion of Soviet Russia to add dangerously to the already horsem problem of over-production.

RECOVERY, in the long run, must come from private initiative. Ruinous taxation to support a government relief structure of long duration would bankrupt private industry and place it in the hands of a government which has had no experience along this line. The much coveted 1926 level of business activity is not likely to be legitimated into being. For one thing, the business that year was accompanied by confidence, enthusiasm, more reasonable taxes, and far less under-employment. Certainly under-employment must be removed by private building rather than recklessly expanded public construction. ... There is more money now than there was in 1929 despite all of the shouting for inflation. But prosperity is measurable by the amount of money in daily use, rather than by bank deposits.

Judge E. F. Ritchey of Miami is here today.

Prince Deprived Of Royal Rights

STOCKHOLM, March 8 (AP)—Prince Sigvard, son of the crown prince, having married a German commoner in London against the will of King Gustaf, was deprived today of his royal rights and the title of Prince of Sweden.

Notice of this action was served formally by the cabinet and the marshal of the royal house in solemn proceedings consummated when similar notices were delivered to the parliament and to the crown prince.

Princess Deprived Of Royal Rights

CANNES, March 8 (AP)—King Gustaf of Sweden, here enjoying the sun of the Riviera, is ready to assure his grandson, Prince Sigvard, an ample income despite the loss of his royal right by his marriage to a German commoner today.

A court personage said that the king may restore him to nobility despite the marriage. Sigvard automatically lost his princely rank and right to the succession to the throne under the Swedish constitution the moment he exchanged the marriage vow with the commoner.

The indulgent grandfather, however, is expected to give him the title of Count of Soliheden, although until that happens the prince is just plain Mr. Bernadotte.

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Worrell and children returned yesterday from a visit to South Texas points.

Gene Green made a business trip to Amarillo today.

BOBBY JONES STILL BRINGS FEAR TO PROS

RUNYAN SEEMS TO BE COLFER TO BEAT OLD MASTER

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Staff Editor

MIAMI, March 8 (AP)—Four years after they took their last licking from the one and only Bobby Jones, the American professional golf club today looks forward with mixed emotions to the eminent Georgian's return to open competition the end of this month at Augusta. It is still somewhat apprehensive, but nevertheless optimistic, that the faster pace and newer stars of the last few years will combine to strike a telling blow for the pro standards.

If the truth must be told now, however, it is that the professionals entertain more hope than convictions that they can take Jones' measure on what they consider "his own backyard," the Augusta national course designed according to the former world champion's own ideas for which he already holds the low scoring record, 65. With a few exceptions, the pro think Jones can still play championship golf.

Their principal faith, based on a consensus gathered by the Associated Press, is pinned on diminutive Paul Runyan, the 25-year-old shot-maker from Arkansas and White Plains, N. Y., who has developed the high efficiency of his game since Jones retired and has been the scoring sensation of the current winter season. There are at least a half dozen others who might bob up to give Jones the main battle, including Denny Shute, the British open champion who combined with Al Espinosa yesterday to take the measure of Runyan and Hinton Smith in the four ball championship final, but Paul is just now the fair haired boy of the clan.

The only notable absentee in the 72-hole battle for $5,000 in prize money at Augusta, is Gene Sarazen, the present national PGA champion and the only player aside from Jones who was captured both by the British and American open tournaments in the same year. Gene has been one of Bob's biggest rivals in open competition, but unless he changes his mind he will be on a Latin-American golfing tour by airplane at the time of the Augusta event.

"Naturally we are all wondering what Jones will do," says Walter Hagen, whose all-time tournament record rivals that of the Georgian. "His recent 65 at Augusta would indicate he is playing as well as ever but the question is whether he can return to real competition, after a four-year lay-off, and go the full 72-hole route the way he used to do." There is no question in my mind that the pace is faster, from a scoring standpoint, since Jones retired. We are playing a different ball and there's a crop of youngsters, headed by Runyan, playing great golf. Right now Runyan is our Jones and from the professional standpoint he is playing as fine golf as Jones ever did. Ky Laffoon, Johnny Revolta and others have come along fast in recent years, too."

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, March 8 (AP)—Slightly higher average quotations for grains developed late today following downturns that carried may wheat and oats to new low levels for the current movement.

The late rallies of prices were generally looked upon as due to the fact that there has been a four-day decline, and that at least some transient recovery was looked for.

Wheat closed nervous at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/4 higher, corn 1/4 up, oats at 1/4 decline to 1/4 advance, and provisions unchanged to a decline of 2 cents.

Workers Voting On Many Strikes

Despite government intervention, officials of a union representing 4,500 workers in the Fisher body company's plant at Cleveland decided to proceed with a strike vote.

YOUTH IS PAROLED

One of the two youths arrested by city officers yesterday in connection with the theft of some chairs was released on probation to his parents yesterday afternoon. Col. Johnston Fatally Hurt In Polo Game

SAN ANTONIO, March 8 (AP)—Col. Gordon Johnston, chief of staff of the second division, died this morning as a result of injuries received when his horse fell in a polo game at Brackenridge park.

The accident occurred yesterday in a game between the Free Booters of the air corps teams playing for the San Antonio consolation cup in the mid-winter polo carnival.

Riding for the Free Booters, Col. Johnston was borne to the ground when the front feet of his mount slipped. Before Lieut. Douglas McNair, a team mate, could reach him the horse had rolled over on the fallen rider's neck and head.

Col. Johnston, 50, whose home was in Baltimore and who was a native of North Carolina, entered the army as a sergeant during the Spanish-American war. Prior to volunteering in the army, he was graduated from Princeton university in 1896 with an A.B. degree.

He was the only regular army officer holding the five highest military awards—the congressional medal of honor, distinguished service cross, order of the purple heart, and the silver star medal.

The Pampa man purchased Bruce Domino 19th from J. L. Bivins. His bid was $400. Bruce Domino 19th was the grand champion of the show.

Judith Lane

By JEANNE BOWMAN

SYNOPSIS: Judith Lane's friend, the newspaper girl, has called to say she must, in interview Judith as the "perfect stenographer." Waiting to join Claudia, Judith recalls the kindness of her employer, "Big Tom" Bevins, who has watched over her since the death of her engineer father. She just has taken a letter from Big Tom to his attorney, Morton Lampere, which said that Big Tom planned to begin construction on an abandoned dam project in western Texas, through the failure of which many small farmers had been ruined.

Chapter Two NORMAN DALE

Judith's stenographic training, her practical and technical knowledge.

Family Joyful—Dad's RHEUMATISM Has Left Him

When a man so crippled with rheumatism cannot go to his daily work and suddenly finds a swift, powerful yet safe prescription that drives out pain and agony in 48 hours can you imagine the jubilant happiness of the whole family as Dad brings home his pay envelope regularly again.

City Drug-Nyal Store and leading druggists everywhere call this grand prescription ALLENRU and think so much of its mighty power to drive excess uric acid from the system that they guarantee one 85 cent bottle to overcome rheumatic pain and conquer headache, sciatica, neuritis and lumbago just as this notice states or money back—a square deal to all sufferers.

wherever you're going?" The elevator had made swift descent to the lobby before Judith had recovered her breath sufficiently to respond to Norman's invitation.

For two years she had been watching him across the width of the board room table; a barrier as definite as the social wall which seemed to rear itself between aspiring young stenographers and promising young lawyers.

Dale, Lampere and Morrison had been retained by the Bevins Construction company to handle its legal affairs since the inception of the company, and Norman Dale, assuming his father's place with the law firm, at the elder Dale's death, had gradually assumed his duties.

Now that the board table and its symbolical barrier had been removed, Judith found herself responding to Norman's invitation with a still breathless—"I'd so appreciate it."

The car was at the curb. The Rice was four blocks beyond, but somehow, due to traffic lights, one-way thoroughfares, or perhaps the inclination of the man at the wheel, Judith found them speeding across the arch of the layou bridge with the queer town of little homes lying beyond in the dusk.

On the crest of the arch, traffic caught and held them a fleeting moment. Judith looked down on the roofs of the little town—"always reminds me of a library," she confided, "the roofs are like colored bindings of books turned upside down. . . think I'd like to live in one."

"No," countered her companion, meshing gears. "You should live in a house with slim white pillars and a green roof, green shutters and window boxes with pink geraniums." And then in the sheltered intimacy of a storm-assuaged coupe they talked of homes and houses.

"I've never lived in a house," Judith confided, "it's always been construction camp shacks, tents, hotels, apartments and once, while Dad was building a bridge, I lived in a monastery, deserted of course."

"It would have been deserted once the occupants had seen you," came the chivalrous response and Judith caught a glimpse of the clock on the dash board—"please I must go back, I'm meeting Claudia Signford, and while she's always at least fifteen minutes late, it's now twenty minutes after the time I was due to meet her."

Traffic was disappointingly light as they returned swiftly to the city, and Norman Dale, assisting Judith to alight, asked if they couldn't resume the discussion soon.

"I really don't know," Judith answered, "We're leaving for the Rio Diablo basin, June first, and Big Tom is quite liable to keep me working evenings to catch up with his other affairs before we go. Suppose you telephone me?"

"I will, or else I'll see you at board meeting, or drop down for a chat while Tom's off on one of his wife's pink teas."

Judith hurried into the hotel lobby, discovered Claudia hurrying in behind her, and turned to accept the red haired girl's apologies.

"As if you weren't in, too," protested Claudia, preceding her into the dining room, "and didn't I see you crawling out of Norman Dale's car?"

"Umhmm," admitted Judith as they were seated at a window table, "any objections?"

"Plenty," retorted Claudia with the frankness of an old school friend, "don't want you suffering from angina pectoris or some other heart ailment."

"What do you mean? Is there anything wrong with Mr. Dale?"

"No. That's the trouble. He's so completely all right every woman who sees him wants to take him home for keeps."

"Money?" inquired Judith guilelessly.

"That's not much. Doesn't need it. Not that he's so heart breakingly handsome, but he has got a nice sort of a he-man look about him. There's a lot of millionaire mamas of marriageable daughters willing to make up the deficit if he'll only promise to love, honor and cherish their offspring. How he's managed to reach the ripe old age of twenty-eight without exchanging his freedom for a franchise is beyond my powers."

Tomorrow, Claudia and Judith took up a story.

GERMANY MAY TAKE PART IN ROME PARLEY

LIKELY TO BE TURNING POINT IN FASCIST RELATIONS

BY WADE WERNER Associated Press Foreign Staff.

VIENNA, March 8 (AP)—Keen interest was aroused today by a dispatch from Rome that Germany may have a finger in the conference there next week between Italy, Austria and Hungary.

The dispatch said the German vice chancellor, Franz von Papen, was arriving in Rome March 14, the same day that Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss and Julius Goembs, premier of Hungary, are to confer with Mussolini.

The estimable reason for von Papen's visit is the holy year pilgrimage of the Knights of Malta. But Vienna has not forgotten that von Papen is not only a Catholic but a Catholic leader who has been repeatedly mentioned whenever rumors of Austro-German peace negotiations have been heard.

In some quarters there is confidence that the meeting will be the turning point in the Austro-German relations.

For the first time since the crushing of the fascist democracy, fascist Austria's chancellor will have opportunity to confer with spokesmen of fascist Italy, fascist Hungary, and fascist Germany. Whether the outcome will mean the cementing of a fascist bloc in central Europe remains to be seen.

There was renewed speculation as to what Vice Chancellor Emil Fey of Austria will do while Dollfuss is out of the country attending the conference.

During Dollfuss' recent absence in Budapest, where he talked with Goembs, Fey, who is a leader of the fascist Heimwehr, started the drive against socialists that culminated in bloody civil warfare.

Unconfirmed rumors said Fey was contemplating something in the nature of an amalgamation of all armed organizations in the country. There has been increasing friction between the Heimwehr and the Catholic storm troops especially.

Man Imprisoned For Crime Done By Another Man

WICHITA FALLS, March 8 (AP)—Convicted that Robert Russell was sent to prison for a crime committed by another man, Wichita county authorities today moved for his immediate pardon.

About a year ago Russell was given a five-year sentence for the robbery of a Wichita Falls filling station.

The miscarriage of justice was revealed last week when Jodie T. Lloyd, given a life term here for robbery, admitted to officers that he staged the robbery for which Russell was convicted.

After a thorough investigation, the Wichita grand jury found evidence to support Lloyd's admission and indicted him for the filling station robbery.

In hastening action on the case, the grand jury and District Attorney Sam B. Spence have petitioned Governor Miriam A. Ferguson to grant immediately a full pardon to Russell. At present, Russell is at liberty on a 90-day furlough granted in January. Russell is a resident of Wichita Falls.

NO SALE
QUEBEC—Charles Roth of Winnemucca, Nev., wanted cattle at 15 cents a head and wanted them in a hurry. He wrote the sheriff of the Quebec district a request to ship by air mail 100 head of the best steers he had ready for market. Roth's letter dated from Winnemucca, was as follows:

"No, so very long ago I read an article in the paper where Canadians sold cattle for 10 or 15 cents apiece; if that is so ship by air mail 100 head of the best steers you have ready for market and send the bill to H. A. Streeter, in care of the Old National bank, Winnemucca, Nev. If not, answer by air mail to Charles Roth or Mrs. Frank Roth."

Perhaps Mr. Roth was having a little fun. At any rate there was no sale.

SINUS TROUBLE—I

Technically, a sinus is any kind of a body tract or pathway. Ordinarily, however, when one complains of sinus trouble, the reference is to the head cavities.

The head sinuses are cavities in the bones of the skull. All of them have openings into the nose and are lined with the same kind of mucous membrane as lines the rest of the respiratory tract.

There are four sets of these head cavities.

One set of sinuses is located on each side of the nose in the cheek. These cavities, called maxillary or antrum, extend from the roof of the mouth to the floor of the eye. They are the largest sinuses.

Next in size are the frontal sinuses, above the bridge of the nose and over the upper arch of the eye.

The ethmoid sinuses, honeycomb in structure and sometimes called cells, are situated in the top half of the nose between the eyes.

The fourth set of sinuses, the sphenoids, is located deep in the head.

Of what use are the sinuses? We can only guess. It is known that they help moisten the air breathed. The normal nose is required to produce nearly a quart of moisture every 24 hours.

The sinuses aid the mechanisms of the sense of smell, impart resonance to the voice, and provide symmetry to the bones in the skull. The sinuses lie close to the eye and closer to the large blood vessels passing forward to the eyes. They are in intimate contact with the floor of the skull and its next door neighbor, the brain. They are closely associated with the teeth, particularly the back teeth of the upper jaw.

Because of their structure, their opening into the nose and their proximity to important structures, the sinuses are subject to disease, and in turn are the source of serious complications, leading sometimes to chronic invalidism.

A Harris county, Texas, resident was so eager to qualify for voting in 1934 elections that he tried to pawn his overcoat for the $1.50 to pay his poll tax.

If you want safe relief from Constipation Science says Today use a LIQUID Laxative

1. Regulate intestinal action gently—no "purging"
2. Measure dose to suit your individual needs
3. Avoid Bowel Fatigue and the laxative habit

Here's Why:

Harsh laxatives often drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and in some cases even affect the liver and kidneys.

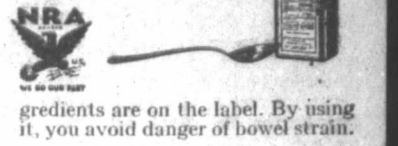

A doctor will tell you that the unwise use of harsh laxatives often does more harm than good.

Fortunately, the public is fast returning to the use of laxatives in liquid form.

A properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement. There is no discomfort at the time and no weakness after. You don't have to take "a double dose" a day or two later.

In buying any laxative, always read the label. Not the claims, but the contents. If it contains doubtful drugs, don't take it.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription preparation in which there are no mineral drugs. Its ingredients are on the label. By using it, you avoid danger of bowel strain.

The liquid test:

This test has proved to many men and women that their trouble was not "weak bowels," but strong cathartics.

First. Select a good liquid laxative. 2. Take the dose you find is suited to your system. 3. Gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving regularly without any need of stimulation.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the highest standing among liquid laxatives, and is the one generally used. It contains senna, a natural laxative which is perfectly safe for the youngest child. Your druggist has Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

'City Slicker' In Abilene Case Behind Bars

ABILENE, March 8 (AP)—Tom Carwell, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, still is minus his $30 but he has the satisfaction of knowing that the man who gyped him out of it through a forgery is behind prison bars in Alabama.

Last November a polished stranger introduced himself to Carwell as Joseph Gordon, lecturer on penology and prison life. He showed clippings from Houston and Dallas newspapers to prove his claim.

He had lectured in Mineral Wells the night before he said—and would Mr. Carwell be so good as to endorse the check.

Mr. Carwell would, and did, seeing it had been signed by George Baker, secretary of the Mineral Wells chamber of commerce, and an old friend of his. The check bounced back marked "forgery."

Gordon tried the same stunt in Big Spring the next day but fled when G. T. Watson, secretary of the chamber there, began an investigation.

The man soon is to be released from Kibby prison in Alabama, where he is serving a forgery sentence, and probably will be returned here for trial.

be in the council office not later than the March 24. Test cards are to be properly signed by the examiners and countersigned by the gounsmasters. Any cards that are not complete in this respect and cards entered after the 21th will be held over for the next court of honor.

Other points discussed last night were uniforms for Scouts, boards of review for the individual troops, and the patrol system and its success in different troops of this council. The selection of patrol leaders often is a problem in troops, so some time was given to the discussion of this.

Scoutmaster Bowden was selected to prepare a talk for the next meeting of the scoutmasters, concerning the proper use of the troop program book. Scoutmaster Hyde of Troop 15 will make the first selection in his troop for the month's best Scout, the "Citizen of Tomorrow." The other troops will follow in numerical order. Present scoutmasters expressed their satisfaction concerning this meeting and urge those that were absent to be there at the next meeting, which will be held on Tuesday April 3, 1934 at 7 p. m. at the council office.

Scoutmasters present were T. E. Shannon, chairman, Rev. A. A. Hyde, Bill Peacock, R. R. Watson, T. Cary, R. L. Bowden, G. W. Hogan, W. F. G. Stein.

Park Street Grade Will Be Lowered

Lowering of a street grade west of the proposed Kids' park in north Pampa may mean considerable more improvement for the playground. It is proposed to use CWA labor on the project.

Eventually the city hopes to remove the nearby bridge west at least 100 feet to remove a traffic hazard caused by conjunction of three traffic lanes.

San Antonio Has Wildcat Gusher

SAN ANTONIO, March 8 (AP)—A well which blew in wild eight miles south of San Antonio yesterday produced huge quantities of gas was under control today after tons of mud were dumped in the casing.

Operators said the gas was heavily impregnated with oil.

It was estimated the well was making approximately 75,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily when shut in. It is known as the Dingman. Russell, Coffey number 1 and came in unexpectedly.

I. L. Dingman, driller, had feared the derrick would be lost and the well would start cratering.

It had been drilled to a depth of about 1,000 feet when it came in. The tools were in the hole.

WEATHER

The forecast for West Texas was fair and colder in south portion with rising temperatures tomorrow. San Angelo had the highest temperature of the year—92—yesterday but the low last night was 35. Cold and windy weather continued today. The temperature rose rapidly at Amarillo where a light snow fell. Although the mercury sagged to 20 degrees at Pampa, there was no rain or snow. The change at Brownwood sent the reading from 78 to 29 and was accompanied by high wind and a heavy sleet.

Phillips Company Buys Champ Calf

AMARILLO, March 8 (AP)—The grand champion calf of the Amarillo fat stock show sold to the Phillips Petroleum company today for 88 cents a pound.

Jimmie, after winning highest honors in the show, brought his 16-year-old mistress, Dorothy Smith of Pinedale, Texas, $506.32, on the auction block.

The reserve champion, shown by Bert Littrell, Elk City, Okla., was bought by W. C. Harris Grain company of Sterling, Colo., at 25 cents a pound. He weighed 893 pounds.

None of the 125 entries in the baby beef division had sold for less than double the local market price at noon, and bidding was still brisk.

Ray Carter of LeFors was in Pampa this morning.
