BOYS STILL REMAIN IN JAIL-- CHILD WELFARE BOARD SEEKS LOCAL HOMES FOR TWO TOTS

Twinkles

We're still waiting for the paragraphs to say that the Lone Eagle must wish he had remained alone and silent.

Most Americans are willing to "stand up" for principles, but fortunately they are usually unwilling to hurt hand grenades for them.

Ponzi, the big swindler, is free but he has discovered that he is no longer in the big leagues. His tactics have been vastly improved in the upper brackets of financing.

Will Rogers can make world problems funny, but what the world really needs is somebody to make them ridiculous.

We didn't see the recent eclipse of the sun, unless you mean the recent one with the dust cloud doing the work.

Brevitorials

Musing of the moment: It must be great to be a king. With few responsibilities. Nice uniforms. Lots of attendants. Plenty of money. Premiers to take the rap. Go to the funerals.
"Why go three years to college asks a college professor. Well, now let's see. It might take that long to work up a date with the college belle, or perchance to make a letter on the football team. And that's just about as long as you can stand the financial strain, while to go less would be cheating the younger generation of its traditional "whoopie." Other words for quarrelsome: Disputatious, captious, contradictory, polemical, strident.

TWO types of persons are misusing the so-called law of supply and demand in their arguments. One says that the law is a fake—an excuse of commodity buyers to hold down prices. The other is that kind of fellow who says that we can never go back to normalcy until we let the law have full sway in this nation. It is a fact that Uncle Sam is both using and defying the economic principle in his farm program. The processing tax and the domestic allotment contracts are raising the farmers' income above the natural price level, while at the same time the government is "renting" land and curtailing planting in order to prevent surplus carry-overs.

THIS method does not increase consumption and, indeed, it may be expected, temporarily at least, to lower buying. Every time the price of a farm product is raised, whether by a processing tax or other means, it is placed beyond the buying power—or buying inclination—of a group of consumers. We participants in the new deal of course hope that helping the farmer will help restore good business and enable us to buy more farm products even at the boosted prices.

BUT raising prices does tend to reduce demand and create surpluses for which there are no buyers. You can analyze this in your own buying. Suppose something you eat for breakfast costs you 10 cents per morning and suppose that price is suddenly raised to 15 cents. If you are a normal American you will react according to one or two patterns. If the

CASES CONSIDERED AT SPECIAL SESSION OF COMMITTEE

GRAY county's No. 1 child welfare problem remained unsolved today.

Two boys, one 11 and one 13, remained in the local county jail. No investigators were willing to free the boys to the custody of their father.

The new Gray County Child Welfare board headed by A. G. Post held a long session this morning to clarify the situation. No one wishes to send the boys to the state reformatory. They are not that "bad." Gray county has no child welfare program and no budget appropriation. Mrs. Violet Greenhill, from the Austin office of the Texas Division of Child Welfare, a department working under the state board of control, recommended that the boys be separated and placed, preferably in foster homes in the country. The foster parents, she said, should be some couple willing to try to help the boys grow up to be good men. The county or some agency would have to pay the boys board.

Where are such homes? Chairman Post appointed Mrs. F. E. Leech to go with Mrs. Greenhill in an effort to find at least temporary homes for the boys this morning.

At the meeting this morning were Mrs. Clifford Braly, member; Mrs. W. H. Davis, CWA administrator; Miss Ivan Mayfield, local school nurse; and Mrs. W. I. Gilbert, school nurse at LeFors.

Jail experience is a awful thing in a child's life, in the opinion of those present and many others who have learned of the problem. The cry of "jail bird" is often hurled at such boys by their later classmates. Staying in jail tends to affect the boys' whole attitude toward law and society. For that reason, the Texas law relating to juvenile delinquents says that no child can be held in jail as a punishment. Detention in jail is possible only when the county or district judge thinks this course is necessary to insure the presence of the child at a court hearing.

Officers are eager to free the boys to the custody of someone the county board will designate as satisfactory. The board, struggling with legal interpretations and lack of funds, is the key to the situation and is trying to meet this demand. The board members point out that a practical solution is a major difficulty.

BURGLARS BURN THROUGH VAULT OF FIRST NATIONAL BANK NEAR GEORGETOWN AND TAKE $8,000

Safe Left Half Full Of Water To Put Out Fire

GEORGETOWN, Feb. 21 (AP)—The First National bank of Schererville, 20 miles northeast of Georgetown, was robbed of $8,000 today. The robbers entered through the front door, burned through a three-inch steel door of the vault with an acetylene torch and made a hole in the strong box inside about five inches square.

They fished out $1,970 in cash and about $6,000 in liberty bonds, treasurer's warrants and valuable papers through the opening and fled.

F. L. Tenge, cashier, reported the burglary to officers when he went to work. He told officers that the robbers left their acetylene tank and that the safe was half full of water used in protecting the contents while entry was effected.

The water was still warm when the looting was discovered. Officers were without clues.

TWO SLAIN IN FARM HOME IN ABILENE AREA

WIFE KILLS SELF AND WOUNDS MATE AT CANTON

ABILENE, Feb. 21 (AP)—Henry Brit Turner, 39, and his wife, Mrs. Cinnie Melton Turner, 38, are dead, result of a double shooting late last night in the farm home of Turner's brother, Bill Turner, 10 miles south of Abilene. The bodies were brought to an undertaker's here this morning. Justice Esco Walter and deputy sheriffs went to the farm to hold an investigation.

Bodies of the pair were discovered by Mrs. Bill Turner when, with her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hudson of Midland, she returned home from a theater party in Abilene.

CANTON, Feb. 21 (AP)—Mrs. L. C. Carter, about 35, shot her husband three times and killed herself at their home early today after a domestic quarrel.

J. P. Dodson, deputy sheriff, said Carter told him that Mrs. Carter began shooting while he slept but only wounded him in the legs and arms. He said she then fired once into her chest and died almost instantly.

A. A. Dawson, county attorney, and H. G. Peden, justice of the peace, who were called to the home immediately after the affair, agreed that it was a case of attempted murder and suicide.

Texas, containing the huge East Texas field and several other flush production areas, was given the largest share of the increase, 63,900 barrels, raising the states allowable from 884,000 barrels to 947,900.

HOUSE VOTES BILL AIMED TO PREVENT EVASION OF TAXES

GOVERNOR AGAIN TELLS SOLONS OF 'SERIOUSNESS AND GRAVITY' OF RELIEF SITUATION IN TEXAS

Asserts More Bonds Should Be Issued By Legislature

AUSTIN, Feb. 21 (AP)—Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson today again brought to the attention of the legislature what she termed as "seriousness and gravity" of the situation with reference to unemployment relief in Texas.

She communicated to the legislators a copy of a telegram she sent to Harry L. Hopkins, federal director, a week ago, in which she requested an advance of funds to continue relief in this state until Texas could obtain proceeds from the sale of bonds. Hopkins had indicated help would not be given Texas until the state spent some more of its own money for relief of the destitute.

There were no bidders yesterday when an effort was made to sell a second $2,750,000 block of the securities. Proceeds from the first lot virtually have been spent. The legislature is in special session now, called especially to authorize issuance of additional bonds and consider other relief legislation. The extra session will expire by constitutional limitation next Tuesday. The bond issue bill has not been passed. The senate was considering it today. It has passed the house. The house proposed $4,000,000 issue.

"In view of the fact that the Texas bond commission received no bids for the $2,750,000 block of securities, the fact that the Texas relief commission has been officially directed by the federal emergency relief administrator that on next Friday there should be dropped from the CWA payrolls of Texas, 40,000 employees, I deem it my duty again to call your attention to the seriousness and gravity of the situation which now confronts the people of Texas," stated the governor in her message. "I am transmitting this information to you for your consideration in passing upon the matter of issuing additional bonds for the relief of the unemployed and indigent persons of our state."

AUSTIN, Feb. 21 (AP)—The Texas senate considering a bill to issue $4,500,000 state unemployment relief securities today, became entangled in an argument over the advisability of permitting investment of various public funds in the bonds.

'LITTLE MAN' WILL BENEFIT FROM TAX ACT

BILL GOES TO SENATE; POSTAL AMENDMENT IS DEFEATED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (AP)—The $258,000,000 revenue bill was passed today by the house after a republican move to reduce the 3-cent first class postage rate to 2 cents was defeated 272 to 132.

Now the senate gets this measure for strengthening the tax laws. The main purpose of the measure is to prevent tax avoidance by wealthy persons. By a revision of the income rate structure, persons of small incomes are benefited and those in higher brackets are levied on more heavily than at present.

The "little fellow" leaders said, will benefit by the revision of the income tax rate structure. The bill is aimed at the "big fellow." The surtax ranges up to 59 per cent on incomes over $1,000,000.

Two other provisions are: Lower rates for second class mail. Repeal of the bank check stamp tax, effective Jan. 1, 1935. One of the bill's major points is:

1. Revision of the income rates, which is estimated to yield $28,000,000 annually. A flat normal rate of 4 per cent is imposed, with a surtax starting at 4 per cent on net incomes of $4,000, and ranging to 59 per cent on incomes over $1,000,000. There is a ten per cent credit for earned income on incomes over $9,000. Partially tax-exempt securities are subject to surtax.

Rev. Shockey Is Out on Bond—Has No Definite Plan

Freed under $8,000 bail bond yesterday afternoon, the Rev. Louis H. Shockey left almost immediately for McLean with his wife and his attorney, Claude Williams. Maintaining an attitude almost nonchalant, Rev. Shockey talked for a moment with officers without mentioning his troubles, then left with a plain suit, a hat and "hosts." He has made no immediate plans.

DRIVERS' LICENSE MOVE

The Dallas Accident Prevention association launched the other night a drive to secure a drivers' license law for Texas. It is improbable that the subject will be presented at a special session of the legislature and given an opportunity for passage prior to the threatened repeal of the Dean Law. But there is room for education of both people and the legislature in order to secure adoption at the regular session in 1935. Legislative education ought to begin before election. Although commitment to a satisfactory license law ought not to be made the only qualification for the legislature sound-thinking candidates can certainly be found who will include so vital a matter in their programs.

The necessity of some check on the driver to exclude from the highways the reckless and those with physical or mental impairment is generally conceded. No sane citizen thinks a car should be entrusted to the drunken driver or questions the justice of removing the right to use a car from the man who thus offends. Education should then take the form of providing a sensible and not costly license law which will cover the purpose.

The News agrees with the American Automobile association that thorough examination for qualification is the preferable method of issuing license, but in initiating the system it is impracticable. A good start can be made by license without examination on affidavit as to physical fitness a charge sufficient to cover cost to the state and by providing withdrawal for cause. Until the state assumes authority over the driver, it can not provide a reasonable degree of highway safety against risks that now exist in the absence of license control.—Dallas Morning News.

HUBBELL AND MARTIN CHERISH OLD-TIME HILL BILLY SONGS

'Birmingham Jail' and 'Red River Valley' Are Favorites of Baseball Stars.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 21 (AP)—John "Pepper" Martin, versatile St. Louis Cardinal third baseman and speaker before literary teas, also is a singer.

Riding down to Hugo last week for a sandlot rally, the Red Bird loosened up with: "Oh, write me a letter, Send it by mail, Send it in care of 'The Birmingham Jail.'"

"Whistle awhile, Pepper," implored Lloyd Wazer, one of the Pittsburgh Pirates who knows what to do with a bat or a saxophone. The Red Bird broke out in a flute-like rendition of "Over the Waves."

"How about Red River Valley, Pep?" teased Carl Hubbell, whose "screw-ball" whistles a tune for the New York Giants. Obligingly, the Cardinal warbled "The Red River Valley."

Send it in care of 'The Birmingham Jail.'

As the automobile sped out of Durant, a lanky troubadour in overalls and cowboy hat, with a guitar slung from his shoulder, was halted and given a lift.

"Can 'y pick that thing, buddy?" asked Pepper. "I've been a-wanting a guitar to liven things up. Know 'Birmingham Jail'?"

The wandering minstrel signified he could and did. After a hearty rendering of the song, Pepper looked down at the guitar.

"Wish I could pick like that," At Bennington—and two other towns—Pepper bought mouth organs and at Boswell, a hill-billy songster stopped traffic. Pepper went to look for another mouth organ. "Ever hear of Pepper Martin?" one of the group asked.

ROYAL FAMILY PLANS TO DISOWN PRINCE IF HE MARRIES GERMAN ACTRESS—BOTH HIDE IN LONDON

Count Tries To Stop Marriage—Dashes To England

LONDON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Prince Sigvard of Sweden was hiding in a small, exclusive hotel on Piccadilly Circus today, steadfastly determined that royal displeasure shall not prevent him from marrying a blond German screen actress.

LONDON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Prince Sigvard of Sweden and the pretty German screen actress he plans to marry despite the vigorous objections of the Swedish King Gustav, hid away in London today, while an envoy from Sweden and detectives of Scotland Yard strove desperately to find them.

Disowned by the Swedish royal family in a terse news agency communique issued in Stockholm last night, the 27-year-old prince was reported to be planning a private marriage to the blonde and petite Erika Patzek at the London registry office.

Neither his father, Crown Prince William, nor King Gustav, however, had abandoned hope of halting the marriage of the prince to a commoner. This was evident from the secret airplane dash to London from Stockholm last week-end of Count Folke Bernadotte.

The count, representing the crown prince, was exhausting every effort, aided by detectives from Scotland Yard, to discourage the marriage. He was reluctant to comment, but it was learned that Scotland Yard was called upon for help when he had been unable to find the couple himself.

Two stories were current, neither confirmable due to the elusiveness of the prince and the young actress. He is expected to marry. One said the couple eloped here from Berlin where the prince, known as "Her Holger," is an assistant director in moving pictures, and that they were quartered at different hotels. Another said Miss Patzek is here with her father, Anton Patzek, a Berlin business man.

Word that Prince Sigvard had been disowned by the Swedish royal family came in the brief Stockholm statement last night which said that "Prince Sigvard... arrived at London recently and there made preparations to marry a woman of German nationality. The prince took this step against the expressed will of the king and the crown prince."

The prince, under the present attitude of the royal family, must surrender his title and military rank, and become plain "Mr. Bernadotte" or, if he prefers to adopt the name under which he is known in Germany...

Air Mail Near Normal Today

By The Associated Press.

Although handicapped by adverse flying conditions in some parts of the country the huge air mail project taken over from commercial companies by army fliers was functioning near normal today.

A lashing gale in New England which caused postponement of the initial flight of the Newark, N. J., to Boston leg of the service yesterday was slackening. Better weather also was expected at Las Vegas, Nev., where an eastbound plane was stormbound.

At the Newark airport planes were leaving on schedule for the west and the south. The first plane flown to Cleveland had made the return trip safely.

Planes were operating between Pacific coast cities apparently without delay and an eastbound plane from Oakland, Calif., winged its way toward Elko, Nev., after a stop at Reno to pick up mail. At Elko a storm had abated and a plane which had been held there was on its way to Oakland.

Plots flying the north and south route reported little difficulty with cross winds but the open cockpit of the army planes offered little protection to northbound fliers.

Two mishaps were reported during the first full day of the service. Use The NEWS classified ads.

Charles Ponzi To Sell Groceries

BOSTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Charles Ponzi, the man who once sold get-rich-quick ideas to thousands, starts on a new selling job today. He will be a wholesale provisions salesman, a job far removed from the financial scheme which led him to prison when thousands of investors lost the savings entrusted to him more than a decade ago. Released from prison a few days ago, Ponzi, a native of Italy, faces deportation proceedings but hopes to prove he is not in the United States illegally.

In the meantime, he will try his luck at selling groceries.

EMERSON WILL PLAY AT BALL THIS EVENING

Plans are completed for the big carnival ball which will be held at the Pafford auditorium tonight when Ralph Emerson and his orchestra provide the music for a gala affair. Concerts, caps, whistles and everything with which to play will be provided those attending.

As a special added feature the first 15 paid admission tickets will be given free admission tickets to the dance next Wednesday night. Emerson has become the popular in Pampa and this evening, and is one of the few leaders whose orchestra continues to please the dance crowds. He has played in some of the larger hotels and dance palaces and provides the same pleasing music which is required in the larger places.

The admission charge will be 75 cents for a full evening of entertainment. Get your crowd together and make this an evening of fun, music and entertainment. (Adv.)

WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR TELEPHONE
The men and women who furnish telephone service here could not do their job so well, if it were not for this unseen army of workers behind them
Manufacturing Research Economical Methods
Skilled workmen at the lathes and furnaces of Western Electric Company, turn raw materials from the far corners of the world into the 100,000 delicate parts and appliances needed for the telephone service... and sell them to the 24 operating companies of the Bell System at a cost below what they would have to pay in the competitive market.
Four thousand workers in Bell Telephone Laboratories, the research organization of the telephone service, search constantly for scientific short-cuts and inventions that will give better service at a low cost. They are the reason you now may talk across continents and seas, that most telephone wires are underground, that a single long distance line may carry four simultaneous conversations.
Staff experts of American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the parent organization of the Bell group, develop economical operating methods for the system, furnish advice on accounting and other matters, and through the financing facilities of the parent company obtain the funds needed for extensions of telephone plant at substantial savings to the operating companies.
THIS specialized group of organizations exists for one purpose only... to give you good telephone service at a fair cost.
Back of this fundamental policy is our belief, based on business judgment, that is an organization planned, like the telephone service, for the long pull, what is best for the telephone user becomes in the end the policy that will bring us the sounder, more certain success.

CLUB PARTIES PROMINENT IN DAY'S EVENTS

BRIDGE HELPS TO FILL SOCIALLY BUSY AFTERNOON

Bridge club parties added to the busy afternoon spent by Pampa women yesterday. A patriotic motif inspired by the approach of Washington's birthday was chosen by most of the hostesses.

Mrs. M. O. Overman entertained the London Bridge club at four tables appointed in red, white, and blue. The same colors appeared again in the refreshment course.

Mrs. A. B. Colston was the only club guest. Mrs. Henry Charles secured high in the games. Mrs.

Clarence Barrett, second, and Miss Virginia Faulkner low.

Other members playing were Mrs. Bert Curry, Bill Fraser, J. M. Lybrand, Byard Low, P. O. Sanders, W. J. Smith, John Studer, Otto Studer, Arthur Swanson, John Sturgeon, Roy Wight, and Miss Margaret Buckler.

Amusu Club

Mrs. Clifford Braly included three guests with members of the Amusu when she was hostess at her home. A tempting plate lunch was served after the games.

Mrs. H. D. Keys, Mrs. Hatfield, and Mrs. E. C. Will were the special guests. Mrs. Keys scored high for the group, and Mrs. Dick Walker made high score for members.

Tuesday Afternoon Club

Washington suggestions were effectively used when the Tuesday Afternoon club was entertained by Mrs. P. C. Ledrick. Mrs. Voss, Mrs. McCollum, and Mrs. Lee Ledrick were special guests.

Members present were Mrs. Roy Bourland, F. M. Culbertson, Roger McConnell, Sherman White, Bill George, Felix Stalls, Steve Roberts, Jim White, S. T. Beauchamp, Mrs. George and Mrs. McCollum made high scores.

TOLEDO VISITOR HERE

Mrs. Chuck Moore of Toledo, O., is the guest this week of Mrs. M. F. Roche and Mrs. A. L. McDaniel. She is a former resident of Borger, and will go to that city next week. Mrs. Moore is to be honored at several parties here and in Borger during her visit.

ARNO CLUB IS SPONSOR FOR OPEN DISPLAY

MRS. JACKSON, GUEST SPEAKER, TALKS OF MODERN ART

MODERN ART? Of course some people think it is crazy, but it's no new move for artists. Michelangelo was modern in his day. So an earnest young modern artist told the Arno Art club and guests yesterday afternoon.

She was Mrs. Amy Mearns Jackson of Amarillo, whose works have been praised by artists and hung in showrooms of Paris. As guest speaker for the Arno club, she described briefly some of the etchings and paintings she exhibited in the city hall club room.

After the tea given in her honor, at which she spoke, the exhibit was opened to the public for an hour and viewed by dozens of visitors.

Views On Art

Art, as Mrs. Jackson views it, is the result of the artist being himself, expressing his time. Merely pictorial art has progressed until it has reached perfection and rivals that camera in fidelity to subject, she said, but artists are now experimenting in creation and are turning to Oriental art for fundamental principles of design.

Cubists, regarded by most people as the more insane of modern artists, are simply experimenting with color, she pointed out, and not aiming at realistic forms. All art, in her opinion, is inspired by the desire to create—that touch of divinity in all lives.

She announced an exhibit for young artists that will be held in Amarillo this year in connection with the annual music festival. Mrs. Jackson spoke of encouraging young painters, saying that when students of art are urged to practice as much as music students instead of being expected to create masterpieces after a few days' study, more artists will develop.

Mrs. Morton Presides

Mrs. T. F. Morton, Arno president, introduced the guest, and others on program. Mrs. A. H. Doucette sang two numbers, "Bird With a Broken Wing" and "Just A Wondering." Mrs. Ramon Wilson, who accompanied all the vocalists, played a piano duet with Miss Madeline Turpley. Mrs. John Andrews sang "Love's Sunlight," Cad-

SCHOOLS WILL HONOR BIRTHDAY OF WASHINGTON

Hopkins Program — Baker Chapel Announced

A Washington birthday program will be presented tomorrow at Hopkins school No. 1 under direction of Miss Mattie Lou Harrison, music teacher. Mrs. Helen Turner, Pampa speech teacher, and several of her pupils will assist.

All high school pupils at Hopkins will appear in the musical playlet. Mrs. Turner will present Sue Dodson, Joyce Turner, and Wayne Coffee in readings.

The public is invited to this program, which will begin at 8 o'clock. There will be no admission fee.

B. M. Baker Program

Washington's birthday will be honored in a chapel program to be presented at B. M. Baker school tomorrow. Visitors from the first grade at Sam Houston, who will dramatize "The Three Little Pigs," and from the high school, who will sing a quartet number, will appear with Baker pupils.

The opening song will be "America." The school orchestra will play, and Walter Hurst's room will present a military tribute to Washington. Pupils of Mrs. Arrington's and Miss Snodgrass' room will sing "The Old Spinning Wheel." Ernest Holmes will play a piano solo.

School Heads Are Guests at Chapel

A surprise chapel program was given at Sam Houston school recently, with the superintendent of schools and all Pampa principals as guests.

After observing the antics of the three little pigs and the big bad wolf as portrayed by first grade pupils, the principals were presented with large red Valentines, each with a page of greeting from Principal A. L. Patrick of Sam Houston, and a page from each room with all pupils' names.

The first grade rhythm band in new uniforms of gold and blue caps and capes closed the program with a patriotic number.

Claude Williams, McLean attorney, was here yesterday.

man, and "Oh, Heart of Mine." Mrs. H. Gerhard's vocal solos were "Chinese Lullaby," and "The Star," Rogers.

Club officers received the guests and Mrs. V. E. Fathere presided at the registry. After the program Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Doucette poured tea and were assisted by other club members in serving sandwiches, cakes, and mints in cherry shape.

White embroidered linen covered the table. The centerpiece was of red, white, and blue flowers and red candles burned in blue holders.

Guests who registered were Mrs. Jackson, and R. E. Collier of Amarillo; Mrs. W. R. Campbell, H. P. Lash, F. C. Wilson, Charles Hoover, Harry E. Lyman, W. M. Craven, T. D. Hobart, C. T. Hunkapillar, E. O. Snead, Reba Baird, C. S. Boston, Weldon Wilson, G. L. Greene, Ramon Wilson, Raymond Harrah, F. E. Leach, Frank McAfee, John R. Roby, F. M. Foster, V. E. Fathere, Fred Cullum, H. Gerhard, T. W. Jamison, T. B. Solomon, C. E. Lancaster, T. F. Morton, J. C. Carroll, C. J. Maisel, Joe H. Lewis, M. Davenport, Harry A. Nelson, W. Purviance, Roy Tinsley, Julian Barrett, T. W. Kindergarten Is Program Subject Of Child League

Mother Goose rhymes answered roll call for the Edwin Markham circle, Child Conservation League, when members studied child education through kindergarten yesterday afternoon. Mrs. J. R. Vandever was hostess.

Mrs. Farris Oden presided at a brief business meeting in the absence of the president. Mrs. O. L. Basham introduced the program with a sketch of the life and work of Froebel, founder of the kindergarten.

Literature for kindergarten and primary grades was discussed by Mrs. Ros Cornelius. Mrs. G. A. Cotton led a general discussion on relation of the kindergarten to primary grades.

Other members present were Mrs. G. C. Durhan, Otto Geppelt, Geo. Nix, and John Weeks. Mrs. Geppelt is to be the next hostess.

Pampa Students Are Mentioned in Late College Activities

CANYON, Feb. 21.—Malcolm Carr of Pampa has distinguished himself in the student body of West Texas State Teachers college. Besides being a talented worker in the Dramatic club, and a reporter and feature writer on the college paper, he is an honor student in scholastic standing, and has recently been elected to membership in the Scribblers club, an organization of freshmen aspirants to writing fame.

Miss Dorothy Clark of Pampa took part in a program sponsored by the West Texas State Teachers college which was given at the C. C. camp in the Palo Duro canyon.

Miss Clark rendered several piano numbers, some for accompaniment to congregational singing and some request numbers.

FEDERATION IS CIVIC CULTURE CLUB SUBJECT

Round Table Study Is Directed By Mrs. Cole

Club federation and parliamentary law were topics of the Civic Culture club program yesterday afternoon. Mrs. M. J. Noel was hostess at her home and Mrs. Irvin Cole was program leader.

Roll call remarks on federation started a round table discussion on that subject, and members also studied practical parliamentary rulings.

An entertainment number was a vocal solo, "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling," by Mrs. Paul Hughey.

Cherry pie with whipped cream and coffee stressed the Washington birthday motif in refreshments. Mrs. Nettie Ivey of Sudan was a club guest. Members present were Mrs. M. J. Noel, Mrs. A. L. Patrick, W. O. Workman, J. A. Pearson, Cyril Hamilton, V. L. Dickinson, Hugh Isbell, Cole, and Hughey.

OPERATION FATAL

EAST LANSING, Mich.—Death has removed the male bird in what Michigan State college authorities said was the only pair of Trumpeter Swans in North America. The five-year-old bird was operated upon here after an x-ray revealed a gizzard obstruction. The two birds were brought here from Holland four years ago, and were valued at $2,000.

Judge E. J. Pickens of Canadian was in Pampa yesterday.

R. C. Wilson went to Amarillo this morning.

As Homemakers Here Gathered In Convention

To the accompaniment of radio music, high heels clicked up the stairs of the city auditorium yesterday for the first homemakers convention. Tunes ranged from "Brother, Can You Spare a Dime," as the first early-birds appeared, to Schubert's "Serenade," with full orchestration, before the radio was shut off on the last stragglers.

As at any convention, some of the "delegates" were as interesting as the program they heralded. For instance, Mrs. S. F. Thornton, she may need to go to a cooking class, but we of the News staff doubt if since she generously sent us a bag of home make cookies not long ago.

And Mrs. Paul Kashshke may need some information on cooking, but a good look at her reveals no need for style hints.

Mrs. W. B. Waugh, whom I remember from the last cooking school, passed up a thimble "because I have so many," but some man solemnly told me he was a bachelor and needed one.

Mrs. C. C. Wilson and Mrs. Harold Baer are brides of the past year whom I recognized. And the registry indicated that two mothers brought their daughters to the convention—Mrs. H. H. Keahy and Lillian, Mrs. F. N. Reynolds and Celia. Maybe the mothers are getting ready to retire from active housekeeping.

Out-of-town women registering early were Mrs. W. A. Howard and Ed Dittberner of White Deer, H. P. Dickens of Groom, George Nunly of LeFors, and R. L. Vaughn of Electra.

L. M. Fischer, Amarillo attorney, was here on business yesterday.

STAGE IS SET WITH 3 ROOMS FOR LECTURES

MANY PHASES OF THE HOME DISCUSSED BY MRS. IHRIG

SOMETHING new in the plan of household study courses is the time schedule for the homemakers convention now in progress at the city hall auditorium. Tomorrow's program will be in the evening, beginning at 7:30.

A morning session today was attended by a large group of interested women, as was the initial program yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, known to housewives here through her appearances in cooking schools, covered a wider range of topics in her first demonstration.

In addition to a model kitchen, the stage is also set with a living room and dining room, furnished in every detail. Mrs. Ihrig discusses home furnishing and decorating, choice of clothing, beauty, and health in practical terms for the busy homemaker.

Programs Fit Needs.

She speaks the housewife's language, on topics of everyday concern. Her prepared programs are elastic, and include answers to informal questions or to problems presented by her hearers.

Out-of-town women have registered with Pampa homemakers at preceding sessions and are also expected for the concluding hour.

Beginning at 7:30 and closing at

PRODUCTION CREDIT BODIES TO FURNISH BETTER FINANCING IN AGRICULTURE—PLAN OUTLINED

The 1934 crop season will mean the beginning of a better system of credit for many farmers who are preparing to finance the year's farming by means of short-term loans through the production credit associations which are being organized under the Farm Credit Administration throughout this state, officers declare.

Under the Farm Credit Administration the Federal Land bank of Houston will continue to make long-term real estate mortgage loans; but the administration is also providing a long-needed system of short-term production credit for farmers and stockmen—loans to be used for producing crops and for the breeding, raising and fattening of livestock. This is a comprehensive credit system and it is designed to be permanent.

Farmers and stockmen in this locality will be served by the Canadian Production Credit association, which was chartered on January 3, 1934, to serve producers in Gray, Hemphill, Lipscomb, Ochiltree, Roberts, and Wheeler counties. About four or five counties is the average size of an association. There is no fixed number of counties standard for all associations, but each must include enough territory to give a volume of business sufficient to secure efficient organization and low cost of operation.

The Canadian Production Credit association was organized through the cooperation of representative farmers of the counties included, with the assistance of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston. There is one of these corporations in each of the 12 land bank districts in the country. The local association will obtain loanable funds from the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, which will discount well-secured notes of farmers and stockmen. All of these institutions are a part of the Farm Credit Administration.

A production credit association does not lend government money.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT
 I. O. F. LODGE NO. 934
 TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF PAMPA LODGE I. O. O. F. NO. 934:

We, your committee on resolutions, beg to submit the following:

WHEREAS, on January 17, 1934, the hand of God removed from our midst and from the scenes of his earthly labors, our beloved brother, J. V. Davis;

WHEREAS, we acknowledge the wisdom, love and mercy of Almighty God, by whose kind providence he lived to love and care for a devoted family, blessed our community and promoted Christianity, and was faithful to his order;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED: The will of Almighty God be done and that we invoke the blessing of his comforting spirit upon the bereaved family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that through his death the community has lost a dear and loving citizen, the family a loving companion and father, and Pampa Lodge No. 934 a loyal and faithful member.

We grieve, yet a greater one than he said: "Come up higher," so let us bow our heads in humble submission and say: "All is well," for in our Father's home are many mansions, and tomorrow we too will join that innumerable throng that moves steadily on to the Great Beyond.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our lodge, a copy tendered to the family of our deceased brother, and a copy furnished our local papers.

MUCH NITRATE PASSING THRU PANAMA CANAL

ENGLAND, RUSSIA AND FRANCE BUYING ESSENTIALS

CRISTOBAL, Canal Zone, Feb. 21. (AP)—Marine men remarked today upon the passage through the Panama Canal at present of unusually large shipments of nitrate—an essential of war.

They noted that ships loaded with nitrate, used in the manufacture of high explosives, are going to the Azores, for trans-shipment to the Azores, France and Russia; and westward to Japan.

Nitrate totaling 93,604 tons has passed through the canal this month alone. The twelfth shipment since February 1 was given transit Monday.

Officials said half the shipments were consigned to the Azores, to be routed from there to England and Russia. France also was said to be buying large quantities of nitrate. A French vessel, the Floride, is undergoing repairs at Balboa preliminary to continuing to Chile for a cargo.

Chile is the point of origin for nitrate shipments.

The steamer Derpool from Wales passed through the canal today en route to Chile for a cargo. Two more British nitrate carriers are due from Liverpool soon, bound for Chile.

Shipments of scrap iron, steel, lead and cotton en route from the United States to Japan also pass almost daily. These commodities also are used in the manufacture of war articles.

Such cargoes have been frequent since last year. Scrap material is being shipped from New York, Savannah, New York, Texas, Alabama, Philadelphia, Boston and Norfolk.

Persons close to the Chilean nitrate industry recently denied in New York that there were any unusual shipments of nitrates from Chile abroad. Shipments to Japan have been purely seasonal, they maintained, while Russia has been developing her own synthetic nitrates and therefore has not been buying from Chile.

BLOND GODDESS

A New Serial by HERBERT JENSEN

SYNOPSIS: Just before they are to be sacrificed to a heathen god in the Yucatan jungle by the ahkin of a jungle band, Frank Grahame and Janice Kent escape in a plane. They crash, however, because Frank's wounds make him lose consciousness. While following an age old Mayan road through the wilds they reach its end, and fall into a valley. They are exploring it, next morning, when Janice discovers something startling.

Chapter 18 THE AHKIN

To Frank on the opposite side of the stream it seemed that it took almost a physical effort for Janice to turn her eyes toward him. She put her foot upon the log and ran lightly across.

"You might have slipped," remonstrated Frank as she stood beside him. Her glance met his. "What is it?" he said with quick concern. Her face held a curious expression.

"That stump, Frank. That tree was chopped down or gnawed."

"Are you sure?"

At her nod he stepped past the withered leaves of the palm top and made the passage back to the other side.

He examined the ends of the stump and log. Janice was right. They looked as if they had been cut by man with an incredibly dull axe.

Frank rejoined the girl. His expression was thoughtful.

He said, "Let's go on." He did not tell her that he had noticed another and more disturbing thing. A faint trail led away from the tree trunk through the soft ground. Jungle grass grows fast. The path was faint, but discernible. That meant that the trail was being used at present!

They skirted the base of the small hill keeping within a few yards of the stream's edge. Suddenly Frank, ahead of the girl stopped. He sniffed the air.

"I smell smoke," said Janice. "There must be people nearby. Oh, Frank, perhaps—"

She brushed past him. "It's coming from over there. I see it now!"

She began running. It was then that Frank realized that they were on a trail, doubtless the continuation of the one he'd seen on the other side of the palm-trunk bridge.

He called out, "Stop, Janice! Wait! They may go."

He saw the running girl halt suddenly. She gave a short scream and recoiled. Frank snapped out his machete and leaped forward.

The path had given way to a small clearing. A grass thatched roof hut stood on the farther side. There was a small pipe of rocks in the middle of which a fire burned. But lying beside the fire, his jet eyes gleaming coldly on either side, was a man. The figure of the ahkin, high-priest of the bloody cut of the Bat!

Janice whirled and ran down the back trail. For a moment Frank stood hesitating, swinging his machete, and staring at the eyes of living steel that burned in the dark face of the priest.

The man's head-dress was gone. His feathered ornamentation hung to him in damp bedraggled tatters. The grizzly hide of skin lay half over his extended legs. Despite his wrecked costume, the man's murderous fanaticism clad him like a garment.

Frank heard Janice call from a distance. Warily he backed away. The ahkin made no move to follow. He lay, hating Frank with his eyes.

He joined his companion at the stream's edge. She admitted, with nervous apology, that she'd lost her head.

"His eyes!" she exclaimed with a shudder. "They were like poison!" She put her hand to her heart. "I seemed to feel his glance here! Let's go back to our camp."

They hurried, stumbling though the vague trail they'd hacked that morning. Frank was busy with his thoughts. How had the ahkin survived that terrible fall? How had he come to this isolated spot?

A dim figure seemed to drift into the brush beyond the fire. Almost it seemed that it was shaped from the fire's smoke. Frank leaped forward. It was no figure of smoke.

He heard the crash of shurubbery—the sound of a heavy body breasting the tangle.

He saw the bushes waving ahead of him. Flung through in pursuit, Frank raised the heavy blade of his machete. If this were the ahkin, come by some secret trail to molest them, he was going to have a settlement now. To wait until dark would be suicidal with that maniac loose.

He leaped a fallen log. Brush crackled ahead. Shurubbery tops waved; he caught a brief glimpse of a human hand raised to pull aside a bough.

Frank lunged. He heard a startled cry. The hand appeared again, clenched about the handle of a club tipped with stone.

His machete flashed up.

He chopped it forward. It clanged upon stone; his arm was numbed with the shock. A bench switching backward caught him across the eyes. The pain blinded him.

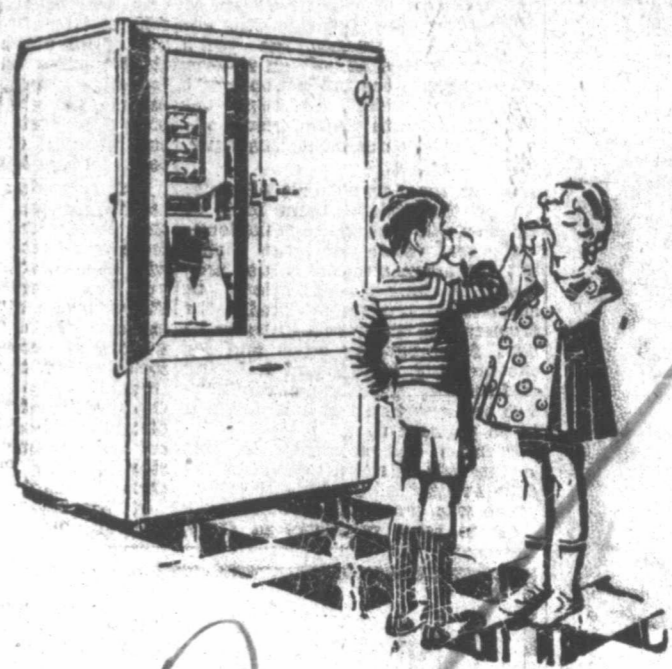

Human hands clawed at his throat. He reached forward and his arms encircled a body. He felt garments tear as he sought to tighten his hold. The creature—he could not see it—writhe and flopped in his grip.

"A fist beat at his face and he lightened his arms. He felt a beard of face crushed against his own. He put up his hand and clasped it under the hairy chin.

"Damn you! You murdering—"

His antagonist relaxed. Almost he fell forward upon him so sudden was the tactic. He opened his smarting eyes. A blond-bearded wild face opposed his own. Vivid blue eyes, wide with a fantastic

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION

A NECESSITY IN THE MODERN HOME

Sufficient power to maintain box temperature under 50 degrees and freeze almost unlimited quantities of large ice cubes between meals—the ability to do this task even at temperatures above 100 degrees when refrigeration is most necessary and most enjoyed—this enormous capacity distinguishes electric refrigeration from all other types.

Attend the Homemakers' Convention and hear Miss Ihrig explain the advantages of electric refrigeration.

OWLS AND ALLISON TO PLAY IN FIRST GAME OF TOURNEY THURSDAY NIGHT

Qualifying In Houston Meet Will End Today

HOUSTON, Feb. 21 (AP)—David "Spec" Goldman, the iron worker from Dallas, and Edwin McClure, former Louisiana champion from Shreveport, started today as pace setters on the final 18-hole trek of the annual Houston Country club invitation qualifying round.

Goldman and McClure were conquered by General Par yesterday but managed to shoot 73's that left them low through the first 18 holes. Par 86-35-71 gave the 94 players trying for the championship flight a white of a licking. Only sixteen managed to shoot in the seventies and two were barely in with 79's.

Taking only 26 putts, Goldman posted a 96-37-73 to be in a fine spot for the medalist prize. He was more consistent than McClure, who shot 33-40-73. The former Louisiana champion had to get a birdie three at the eighteenth for a bad 40 after shooting three under on the front nine.

Missed putts was the phase of the game that almost brought tears to many eyes as players constantly missed them. Gus Moreland of Dallas, seeking his fourth consecutive invitation championship and who ranks as one of the best putters in the country, shot 38-40-78 on the initial round because he missed numerous short putts, and three putted two greens.

H. H. Hunt of Jericho was a Pampa visitor yesterday afternoon.

SHAMROCK AND BORGER MEET IN 2ND GAME

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

Strange feet will thud on the high school gymnasium floor and strong arms will loop baskets this week-end. The Harvesters will appear only as an exhibition team and not as a contender for district honors.

Three of the four teams that will compete for the district 2 championship have appeared here before, one in the role of conqueror of the Harvesters. The other team will be new to Pampa fans. Teams from Hedley, Borger, Allison, and Shamrock will compete. The Harvesters will play exhibition games with the losing teams.

The tournament will open tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock with the Hedley Owls, conquerors of the Harvesters, meeting the fast Allison quintet. The second game will be between Borger and Shamrock. The two losing teams from Thursday night's games will meet at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. That game will be followed by the winners playing.

The Friday night schedule will see the Harvesters playing the team that was eliminated in the afternoon schedule. It will be followed by the team that won two games meeting the team that won and lost. Two games will be played Saturday night. The Harvesters will play the team that went out of the race Friday night. That encounter will be followed by the championship tilt.

Admission to the preliminary games will be 15 cents for students and 25 cents for adults. Admission to the Saturday night final will be 30 cents for students and 35 cents for adults. Davis Hill of Amarillo will officiate.

Gate receipts will be divided four ways after actual expenses have been deducted. The coaches voted at a meeting here yesterday morning. All teams will come nearly the same distance.

Forty Prospects For Next Year's Team Cut Capers In Spring Practice.

The coaching firm of Mitchell and Fox looked over more than 40 football prospects yesterday afternoon during a two-hour practice session of hopeful Harvesters across the street from the Sam Houston school. Tackling equipment has been ordered and it will be installed at Harvesters field for future practice sessions.

Rail birds and sideline coaches were on hand and nodded their heads when they looked the situation over. A distinguished onlooker would have thought the wide boys knew in advance that Robert McAuley, a mighty nice looking guard last season, would be passing the ball from a center position for passing practice the first afternoon out. They also nodded approval when they saw Bill Heiser, another good guard, and Freddy Mumford, half-back, snaring passes with the ends.

The smart boys weren't even surprised when Hazel Mackie, one of the best prospects on the squad, started cavorting around with the backfield material. Mackie played tackle last year and became a famous figure over the state when he was protested unsuccessfully. Mackie is a "Hopkins university" boy.

Getting the feel of the ball followed brief setting-up exercises conducted by Line Coach Angus Fox. Coach Odus Mitchell walked from one group to the other with a squint started protruding from his pocket. The coach has a habit of carrying a stick around with him during the first few sessions.

Several "ineligibles" looked sadly from the sidelines. Miles Marshall, Orville Heiskell, Jess Patton, Roscoe Pinnell, and a few other were on hand. They didn't have a thing to say, and it wasn't necessary, because their looks told the story. Even Jim Groom and John Patford were "out."

There are more than 50 boys still to be suited. They will "come out" a little later in the season.

MUELLER WILL MEET DETTON MONDAY NIGHT

KODERICK, GARRISON TO WRESTLE IN SEMI-FINAL

"Doc" Muller, the man who invented the chiropractic headlock in the wrestling game, will be here next Monday night to try his tricks on Dorry Detton, popular Utah youngster. In the main event, Detton has had four good, hard matches since he was seen here last and he learned much about the game he didn't know before.

Pampa fans are going to get a wish expressed last Monday night. They are going to see Lou Koderick on the mat. Koderick is the boy who was third man in the ring for the main event when Dutch Mantel and Dick Kanthe met. He is one of the best looking men to appear here in a long time. Fans who saw him work out in Amarillo yesterday, say he is one of the best grapplers they have seen.

Koderick will meet Pat Garrison, local bad boy who has reformed. The Irish laddy announced to The News yesterday afternoon that he is a changed individual. "It doesn't pay to get rough and tough in the ring and now on I am going to hold my temper and stick to wrestling," Pat declared.

Koderick is an Englishman but has been in this country for the last 12 years. He has met all comers, bigger and smaller than himself, and has a wonderful record. He has been living in the north and east and this is his first trip to the west. He is fast becoming accustomed to the altitude and climate and will be ready for 30 minutes of mauling Monday night.

Harry Dowler (Andy Gump) will have a chance to get revenge on Lobo Brown of Amarillo in the opening bout. The two have been matched in a time limit affair. Brown got rough with the local boy three weeks ago and pinned him after some furious wrestling. Andy says Brown is "going to get some of his own medicine" this time.

Four Games To Decide Fate of 5 Cue Artists

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 (AP)—With only four games remaining, five players had designs today on the world's three cushion billiard championship now held by Welker Cochran of San Francisco.

One of the quintet, and a favorite was Cochran himself. The others were J. N. Bozeman Jr., 27-year-old Vallejo, Calif., star, Johnny Layton, the florid veteran of Sedalia, Mo., who has held the crown ten times, Allen Hall of Chicago and Willie Hoppe, the former balk line king bidding for the only title he has never held.

At the top of the heap was Cochran, Bozeman, and Layton, each of whom has won seven games in nine matches. Close behind, hopeful of knocking off the leaders was Hoppe, winner of six of his nine starts. For Hall it was just a matter of watchful waiting as he has completed his schedule with a record of 8 triumphs and 3 losses.

Cochran propelled himself back

Republican Says Air Mail Action Was Smokescreen

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (AP)—Rushing quietly ahead without the fanfare that has marked the air-mail contract hearings, a grand jury is inquiring exhaustively into lobbying—if such there were—in connection with huge army contracts.

One report circulated was that at least 5 persons may be indicted before the grand jury ends its investigation.

Representative Hamilton Fish (R., N. Y.), bitter critic of air-mail contract cancellation, asked publicly last night if the air-mail action was not "a smoke screen to cover up irregularities in the war department now under investigation by a grand jury."

into running last night by overwhelming the youthful Bozeman 50 to 23 in 46 innings with a brilliant exhibition of shut making. And just to make the race more complicated, Hall, already conqueror of Bozeman and Cochran, knocked off Layton in an upset, 50 to 30.

Max Carey Out; Stengel Named

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 (AP)—Max Carey today was relieved as manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers. No successor has been appointed but Casey Stengel, Dodger coach, has been called to New York from California to be offered the job.

The announcement that Carey was being paid off on his one year contract came from Bob Quinn, general manager of the baseball club who is ill in a midtown hospital.

Quinn, propped up in bed and with a nurse in attendance, said Stephen W. McKeever, Dodgers president, had wired Carey that his services were no longer needed and that the club would pay him the full amount of his contract, believed to be for $12,000.

Claim Sandstorm Damaged Wheat Crop a Million

AMARILLO, Feb. 21 (AP)—The sandstorm which swept the Panhandle last Saturday and early Sunday cost wheat growers $1,000,000 at present market prices.

That figure is based on an estimate of the loss made by Walter A. Barlow, manager of the Great West Mill and Elevator company, as after a survey of the wheat area. He said the damage was at least 10 per cent of the prospective crop, or 1,500,000 bushels.

Barlow said the wheat that already is up and growing suffered the greatest damage from the rolling sand. Dormant wheat, he said, was damaged very little, while that part of the acreage which has had moisture was not damaged at all.

Chinese match makers in the Orient purchased more than 1,100,000 feet of cottonwood logs in three weeks from Shonohish county, Washington, lumber dealers.

AUSTIN, Feb. 21 (AP)—Current oil production schedules for all fields in Texas were continued in effect indefinitely today by the state railroad commission after a state-wide hearing of oil operators.

On existing schedules, state production February 18 was 930,881 barrels, of which the East Texas field had 420,626 barrels.

The commission rejected pleas of operators from several fields for material increases in the allowable production during March. Operators had argued there would be a greater market demand for Texas crude during that period.

Results of the commission's call for nominations of crude purchasers for the next 60 days were not announced. Many operators expressed belief the nominations would have revealed a greater demand. An association of operators in the Conroe field, in Montgomery county, estimated the demand for that field next month at 79,000 barrels, 30,000 barrels more than the current allocation.

food is your favorite, you may continue to buy it and reduce your buying of something less desired. Or you may grow hot under the collar and eat the food only every other day. In either instance, you have reacted so as to affect the law of supply and demand by adjusting your demands in such a way as to affect the supply of either the food or some other commodity which you purchased or wish to have purchased. When you force an over-supply of a product upon a market, that market, must either decline to buy a part of what is offered or it must reduce the price to the consumer so that he will increase his purchases. It should be obvious that the public will consume a great many more eggs at 15 cents per dozen than it will at 25 cents per dozen.

BUT we are by no means ignorant of the truth that there are so many artificial barriers to the dependable operation of the law of supply and demand that we can no longer depend upon it. The "spread" between the price of a raw product and the finished article is all too often the result of manipulations in which the original producer does not have a chance to share the result. You can depend upon the law of supply and demand to slap you down if you defy it, but you cannot hope to richly profit every time you enter it. We live in artificial conditions of our own making.

INCOME taxpayers should note that under the Revenue Act of 1932 the credit for dependents as well as the personal exemption is reduced where a change of status occurs during the taxable year. A fractional part of a month is to be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it is considered a month.

For example, a single man and a single woman who were married on July 29, 1933, and were living together on the last day of the taxable year, may file a joint return and would be entitled to a personal exemption of $2,208.34, which is seven twelfths of $1,000 plus seven twelfths of $1,000 for the wife while single, plus five twelfths of $2,500 for the period during which they were married. If separate returns are filed, each is entitled to a personal exemption of $1,004.17, which is seven twelfths of $1,000, plus one half of five twelfths of $1,500. If during the year 1933 the husband or the wife had the status of the head of a family prior to their marriage, he or she would be entitled to his or her pro rata share of the personal exemption of $2,500 allowed the head of a family for the period prior to their marriage instead of merely that allowed a single person. However, for the period of their marriage any exemption to which either might be entitled as the head of a family would be merged in the joint personal exemption on for that period. The joint personal exemption allowable in the case of a couple who were married during the entire year may not exceed $2,500.

If a child under 18 years of age and dependent on the parent for support reaches the age of 18 years during the taxable year, the credit for a dependent is required to be prorated in the same manner as the personal exemption. For example, should the child's eighteenth birthday fall on June 30, the parent would be entitled to claim $200 credit for the dependent child—that is, one half of $400. The same rule applies to

Two-Way Radio Hookup Brings Serum in Time

ABILENE, Feb. 21 (AP)—Yesterday American Airways' two-way radio communication system was turned into a three-way hookup, with aid of a Southwestern Bell Telephone circuit and a loud speaker at the Abilene airport. As Shime Phillips, druggist of Big Spring, told Frank Myers, Abilene druggist, of an urgent need for spinal meningitis serum for a patient in a Big Spring hospital, the conversation was thrown out to an American Airways Lockheed express plane flying westward at 200 miles per hour. The plane was 5 miles east of Abilene.

Myers rushed the serum to the Abilene port, arriving at Mangham landed to pick it up. Forty minutes later Phillips, waiting for it at the Big Spring pilot, delivered it to waiting doctors at the hospital, and it was immediately injected into the spinal canal of the patient, a son of R. F. Bassinger of Colorado. He was reported "doing fine" today.

Johnson Wants People To Speak Up Now on NRA

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (AP)—The NRA awaited bales of mail today as a response to General Hugh S. Johnson's call for all citizens to speak up about the recovery program.

The NRA also asked preparations for a public hearing February 27 at which citizens will be encouraged to offer criticism. Then will follow another conference March 5 at which representatives of 500 industries will gather to voice their ideas about NRA.

The whole idea, Johnson told a nation-wide audience last night, is to "root out abuses wherever they appear."

"Any fair-minded critic presenting facts rather than conjecture—any earnest complaint—any man with a constructive suggestion—should speak at this critical hour," Johnson said.

But he laughed at "professional criticism" which he said has often degenerated into scurrilous and personal appraisal of officials.

As one step in the new campaign, the NRA has enlisted again thousands of communists who waged the blue eagle campaign in every city last August. Their new task is to focus local criticism or suggestions on the administration.

The meetings here are designed to chart the final course for the NRA.

ROYALTY, ARRIVING FOR FUNERAL OF KING, IS CAREFULLY GUARDED

BY ALBERT W. WILSON, Associated Press Foreign Staff.

BRUSSELS, Feb. 21 (AP)—A great assemblage of titled and elected leaders of nations, close guards against possible attempts at violence, was gathering here today for the funeral of a king.

Prince Humbert of Italy, said some, already had arrived secretly among the first here for tomorrow's ceremonies over the body of King Albert of the Belgians.

The kings of Denmark, Bulgaria, and far-distant Siam were expected momentarily; so, too, was President Lebrun of neighboring France.

The Prince of Wales, representing George V of Great Britain, is to fly here from England, according to present information, with a squadron of bombing planes as his escort. The exact time and place of arrival of the titled mourners and other dignitaries were not divulged. Extra precautionary measures taken by the police are ascribed to general unrest throughout Europe. Rumor is that a demonstration by radicals who favored the restoration of a republic may be attempted Friday at the time Prince Leopold is made King Leopold III. Such a demonstration was whistled as planned for last Monday, but it did not materialize.

The radicals form a small minority in Belgium, and police anticipate no trouble in handling any demonstration they may attempt.

The somber pilgrimage to pay homage to the dead king continued through this morning when additional thousands filed slowly and reverently past the coffin in the royal palace. Scores of thousands visited the room Tuesday and Tuesday night.

Shortly after noon, the death chamber was closed to the public. Workmen began draping the interior of the lofty old cathedral of St. Gudule with black and silver hangings and fixing a huge black velvet canopy above the steps to the choir. It is there that the coffin will rest during the funeral service.

The bells in churches throughout Belgium sounded a fifteen-minute funeral toll today. School teachers were ordered to give lectures on the virtues of the monarch who died Saturday in a fall while mountain climbing.

Roosevelt Wants All Bootleggers Erased Quickly

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (AP)—President Roosevelt and his aides are concerned over continued activity of bootleggers and are investigating the prices of legal liquor.

This was made known today as newsmen gathered at the president's semi-weekly press conference.

Joseph Choate, administrator of the federal alcohol control board, has reported that imports are far below expectations.

The administration is seeking to determine if there is a shortage of supplies necessitating the high price of liquors, against which considerable complaints are being made.

A suggestion has been made for lowering the tariff on liquor imports as one method of approaching the problem.

Whatever happens, it was emphasized that Mr. Roosevelt wants to put the bootleggers out of business. To that end a serious study is in progress.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 21 (AP)—Wheat prices averaged lower today, with May delivery dropping under 88 cents and May corn under 50 cents the first time since Dec. 29. Evening up for a holiday tomorrow, however, advanced prices a little at the last.

Some selling of wheat in Chicago appeared to be against purchases at Kansas City. Washington developments regarding proposed new restrictions on grain exchange dealings continued to be sharply watched.

Wheat closed firm, at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/4 higher, corn unchanged to 1/4 advance, and provisions varying from 5 cents decline to a rise of 7 cents.

GIANTS TO BE CHAMPS AGAIN, OWNER THINKS

TRAVIS JACKSON IS IN A-1 CONDITION, SAYS STONEHAM

BY ROBERT J. CAVAGNARO, Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 (AP)—Forty years in the baseball industry hasn't dampened Charles E. Stoneham's enthusiasm for the game and the president of the world champion New York Giants eagerly expects the title-holders to repeat in the 1934 season.

The ruddy-faced, corpulent business partner of the ailing John Joseph McGraw, who before his retirement two years ago from active duty piloted the Giants to three world titles, looks from his employes "to carry on where they left off last fall, and at the same pace."

"They're a great bunch of young, willing players," Stoneham said while waiting to be ushered into McGraw's "penthouse" quarters in the New Rochelle hospital. "In addition to that, they're a lot more experienced and baseball wise than they were last year this time."

Was that the only reason he expects the Giants to repeat?

"No, there are two other reasons," Stoneham said. "First, the matter of contracts. We're all signed up. That's a big help and indicates the players are satisfied. The deserving in last year's campaign were properly rewarded."

Briton Claims Champion Is 'Fixin' For To Win By Hunfair Tactics'

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 21 (AP)—All sorts of sinister plots are coming to light in the matter of this heavyweight championship prize fight between Primo Carnera and Tommy Loughnan February 28, which technically is no heavyweight championship fight at all as far as Florida is concerned.

There's been a law here against championship prize fights ever since Jim Corbett knocked out Charley Mitchell, the English man, in three rounds at Jacksonville forty years ago, but that's not bothering anybody at the moment.

The things that are bothering the fight people, in order, are rain, referees, and rumpusses, in an out of the fight camps, with one thing more or less definitely linked with another.

Rain that flooded the city yesterday forced Tommy Loughnan, who had come all the way over from West Palm Beach, to abandon his plan of training for a day in the Madison Square Garden stadium where the fight will be staged. But while he was here, he started things humming.

Tommy couldn't go himself to see Carnera work out at his new quarters on an amusement pier to which he moved from the ultra fashionable Delville club, so he sent along the manager of Jack Pettifer, an enormous British heavyweight who is helping Loughnan in his training chores.

George McDonald, the manager, who is also very British, reported back to Loughnan in something of a dither.

"Strike me pink," he stammered. "The big blighter is fixin' for to win by hunfair tactics. Es' 'tiding four back-and-forth, tossing sparring mates around, leaning on them. Lord love a duck, it's not fair."

The Carnera camp ostensibly is in a fury about this accusation, particularly on top of reports that discussion among the giant champion's managers is causing more trouble in the Italian camp.
