

C. C. JULIAN COMMITTS SUICIDE

PAMPANS ARE GIVEN OFFICES IN CONFERENCE

MRS. HUNKAPILLAR TO BE VICE-PRESIDENT OF BODY

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar of Pampa was elected vice-president of the Northwest Texas Conference for Education in the closing business session of the organization of laymen and teachers in Canyon Saturday.

T. H. McDonald, local teacher, was made chairman of the classroom teachers' division. Olin E. Hinkle of Pampa was made a member of the executive committee.

To head the organization, the many hundreds of teachers and laymen, including more than one hundred from Gray county, elected Supt. C. H. Dilley of Hereford, H. B. Webb of Olton was made second vice-president, Dr. R. P. Parcell of Amarillo was chosen third vice-president, and Mrs. T. V. Reeves of Canyon was the choice for secretary-treasurer.

Committee Is Large

The executive committee also included, Supt. L. H. Rhodes, Dalhart; Supt. W. B. Irwin, Perryton; Mrs. Sam Isaacs, Canadian; Miss Elva Fronberger, Borger; Supt. J. W. Reid, Dumas; Supt. W. A. McIntosh, Amarillo; Mrs. W. D. Word, Amarillo; Tommy Britt, Wheeler; Mrs. J. M. Crain, Claude; Mrs. A. L. Stricker, Dimmitt; Dr. J. A. Hill, Canyon; Judge B. C. McCasland, Tulla; Mrs. Roy Guthrie, Memphis; Mrs. Clarence Boye, Childress; Mrs. Lon Smith, Floydada; W. H. Locke, Plainview; F. O. Boles, Littlefield; Bryan Dickson, Childress; Judge J. D. Hamlin, Farwell; Sam Braswell, Childress; Rev. R. C. Snodgrass, Amarillo; Mrs. Harry Munday, Miss Oia Boyles, Amarillo.

In the classroom teachers' section, officers in addition to Mr. McDonald were Mrs. W. D. Word, Secretary; and Miss Ruth Lowe, Canyon.

The conference will make application to become a division of the Texas State Teachers' association, but will maintain its identity as an organization for both laymen and teachers.

No Radical Changes

At the close of the two-day session on curriculum making and the relation of education to public affairs, Dr. Hill summarized the findings by saying that it was easy to state desirable ends but difficult to improve the means for attaining it. He said the conference had been very helpful and would encourage gradual but not radical changes in teaching.

He sharply criticized those critics of public education who would reduce the subjects taught drastically and hike tuition costs. He condemned certain big corporations for having, he said, more representation through lawmakers than the people who elected the legislators. Noting some press headlines that inferred a recognition of serious shortcomings in education, he said this did not in any sense mean that the conference regarded teaching as a failure.

HIGH SCHOOL WRITERS MEET

Miss Fannie May, high school newspaper sponsor, and the staff of the Little Harbinger which appears in the Pampa Daily News, participated in an organization session of the Panhandle High School press association. Officers were to have been elected at a banquet last night.

Speakers on the program yesterday included I. B. Carruth, Canyon; W. H. Younger, Tulla; Miss Lillian Atkins, Canyon; Olin E. Hinkle, Pampa; Louise Evans, Amarillo; and Harry Montgomery, Amarillo.

Relief Bureau Burns; 14 Die; 75 Are Injured

LYNCHBURG, Va., March 24. (AP)—Fire swept through the federal transient relief bureau early today and fourteen wanderers perished. Seventy-five others, whites and negroes, were either burned or hurt as they leaped to the street from upper windows.

The flames started from gray boiling over on a stove and spread through the former furniture store, an old three-story brick building. Approximately 100 occupied uninjured and scantily clad into snow-covered streets.

Eight of the dead were whites and five negroes. The face of the other charred victim could not be determined.

Seeks Office

An energetic campaign for the democratic nomination for state representative from this district will be waged by Philip Wolfe, above, Pampa attorney, he has announced. His statement appears on this page.

NEGRO IN THE WHITE HOUSE? ASKS IL DUCE

United States' Birth Rate Alarming, Says Writer

ROME, March 24 (AP)—Premier Mussolini's newspaper today characterized as "alarming" the "diminution of births in the United States," and asked "are we to see within a century a negro in the White House?"

"The diminution of births in the United States is assuming alarming proportions," said Il Popolo D'Italia editorially.

"If it continues at this rate the number of births will surpass the number of deaths."

"Some might say it is the effect of the crisis. This observation mirrors one of the most eloquent aspects of that materialist slave of his own strength and position which, in a land of all comfort and mechanical marvels, willingly sacrifices its power of tomorrow to the comfortable life and illusory well-being of today.

"Blind and foolish are these ignorant destroyers who believed that can efficaciously combat the depression by sterility."

"When we reflect there are in the United States 11,500,000 negroes, people of extraordinary fecundity, it is necessary to conclude with a real cry of alarm."

"The yellow peril is nothing. We will encounter an Africanized America in which the white race, by the inexorable law of numbers, will end by being suffocated by the fertile grandsons of Uncle Tom."

Philip Wolfe Is A Candidate For Representative

Philip Wolfe, local attorney, has released announcement for the Democratic nomination as representative of the 122nd legislative district of Texas. His announcement follows.

"I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of representative for the 122nd legislative district of Texas as composed of Collingsworth, Donley, Wheeler and Gray counties. In so doing, I am fully aware of the importance of the exacting duties of the office. In announcing my candidacy I will say.

"I was born in Van Zandt county of Texas, have lived in Texas all my life, am forty six years old, am married, I received my law degree from the Cumberland university of Lebanon, Tenn. I have had several years experience as practicing attorney. I am a home owner and taxpayer in Gray county, Texas.

"Trusting that I may have the pleasure of meeting each voter personally throughout the district between now and the July Primary, I beg to remain,

"Yours respectfully,

"Philip Wolfe."

Passenger Bus Wreck Is Fatal To Californian

YUMA, Ariz., March 24. (AP)—A rain-swept ribbon of concrete and treacherous sand combined today to create death to one man and probably fatal injury to another as a passenger bus of the Greyhound lines somersaulted and crashed on its back in the Imperial county, Calif., sand dunes, 18 miles west of here.

E. B. Evetts, 50, Bellflower, Calif., died crushed in his seat as the weight of the vehicle settled in the wet sand, collapsing the top.

James Duncan, regular driver, was critically injured and may not live. He had relinquished the driver's seat to a student driver, Willie Dood, 23, of Phoenix, Ariz., shortly before the accident.

Passengers said Dood did "everything possible" to keep the big bus on an even keel. He was slightly hurt.

Story Of Bread Has Interesting Facts

BREAD "like mother used to make" is still with us, but mother doesn't make much of it; the loaves—often still warm—are delivered along with groceries or taken to bungalows or apartments by husbands or sons as they go home from work.

Making of bread in the home has declined greatly in popularity with the rise in favor of groceries, and other pastimes. Bread, too, cheaply sold by the baker, is tempting to the pocketbook and can be obtained as quickly as potatoes or beans. Rapid transportation has made bakers' bread more readily obtainable.

Many Costs Involved

For, indeed, labor and delivery costs in the bread business amount to far more than the raw materials. A bushel of wheat makes an average of around 42.5 pounds of flour. Into that flour goes transportation

District Judge Upholds Refinery Act

JOHNSON CALLS AUTO WAR NONSENSE

FIRST BATTLE WON BY STATE IN A DECISION

SUPERVISION IS HELD CONSTITUTIONAL IN RULING

AUSTIN, March 24. (AP)—The state today won its first legal skirmish with east Texas refiners over validity of a law authorizing supervision of refineries by the Texas railroad commission, enforcers of oil proration laws.

District Judge J. D. Moore sustained a general demurrer to an application of George L. Culver of Gladewater, owner of two refineries in Upshur county, for an injunction, in which constitutionality of the statute was challenged. A temporary restraining order issued Wednesday was dissolved.

Attorneys for Culver, however, planned to pursue the litigation. They obtained leave to amend their petition, which they said might permit trial of the case on its merits at a later date.

WEST TEXAS CHAMBER TO SEEK PAMPA'S MEMBERSHIP QUOTA IN CAMPAIGN OF THIS WEEK

PAMPA, beneficiary of many activities of the West Texas chamber of commerce, will launch tomorrow a membership campaign for 1934 in the regional organization, it was announced yesterday by Gilmore N. Nunn, WTCC director for this city.

To assist in the drive, Mr. Nunn named Jack Cunningham, C. H. Walker, F. D. Klein, and George Briggs, J. M. Williams, regional director, will participate in this and other campaigns in the Panhandle.

Pampa's membership drive will last one week, closing March 31. The local quota is 30 memberships of $10 each. Often however, the larger firms take out more than one membership. Names of members will be printed daily as the local firms or individuals join.

Amarillo, assigned 200 memberships, is near that goal, Mr. Williams said. Local men said Pampa, by comparison, should go well beyond the quota of 30 assigned.

"For the last year especially," said Mr. Williams, the West Texas chamber of commerce has been of extraordinary benefit to Pampa and the Panhandle. Now is the time to show appreciation. The regional organization, which is one of the largest and possibly the largest of its kind in the world, was instrumental in speeding up CWA and PWA projects in the Panhandle, and is now pushing the issue of obtaining federal highway appropriations for this section."

Frank Jordan Announces For Constable Post

Constable Frank Jordan of Precinct 2, Pampa, has asked THE NEWS to announce his candidacy for the office of constable in the Democratic primary of July 28.

A resident of the Panhandle since 1911 and a Pampa since 1927, Constable Jordan became a deputy sheriff under E. S. Graves in 1931. The following year he was appointed constable of this precinct to serve an unexpired term. He ran for office the following year and was elected.

Constable Jordan is placing his name before the voters of this precinct on his record as a peace officer. He is experienced, knows conditions in and around Pampa, and is familiar with the work of his office.

"I desire to thank the people of this precinct who assisted in my election to the office and the people who have been of such assistance in making this precinct a safe place in which to live," Constable Jordan said in making his announcement. "The people of this area don't realize how much they mean to law enforcement. Officers would be greatly handicapped without the assistance of the public."

Blaze Is Out When Fire Boys Arrive

"The fire was out" when the Pampa fire department arrived at 603 South Sumner street Friday afternoon. The thermostat in a brooder house caused the alarm. There was no damage, Chief Clyde Gold reported.

The week of April 2 to 8 has been set aside as spring fire prevention and clean-up week. Chief Gold says Pampans can start cleaning up now and be all ready for the inspectors who will call during the week.

Bradley Taken To San Angelo

Joseph Bradley, sentenced to six years in the penitentiary in connection with the attempted robbery of the LaNora theater, was taken to San Angelo yesterday morning to be tried in connection with the burglary of a San Angelo theater. The loss was $700 in cash.

Bradley left before daylight in company of Deputy Sheriff George Carruth of Tom Green county. Bradley appeared uninterested in the trip and prospects of his trial. His health is poor and he appeared to take little interest in living.

David Akers of Borger was sentenced to six years in the same robbery but his application for a new trial was granted and he is out on bond. His new trial will come up the next term of court.

Mexico Buys Pastries

Those who buy baker's bread belong to no certain class. The farmer took the wild "hops" of the field and made "ever-lasting" yeast. Ever-lasting it was too, evidently, for while the neighbors came in to borrow from the bulging jar of it, there was always plenty left. A small bit of left-over dough was always sufficient to make a new "batch."

Cereals have been since the dawn of history important items of human food, but bread is the most satisfactory of them all. In making it, wheat, rye, corn, and oats are commonly used, and less frequently barley, buckwheat, and rice. The grains are cleaned, crushed, and bolted to obtain a fine powder called flour. The flour is then used in various ways to overhead expenses as lights, power, water, gas, taxes, interest, and benevolences. When the flour is delivered to the baker, the latter's similar costs are inevitable and must be considered in the price of bread. In bread making, cost of raw materials is not the major factor. Just as the first cost of citrus fruit in the Rio Grande valley is not the major item in the final price to the consumer in Pampa.

Bakers say that they have no secret which is not known to bread makers in the homes. But their equipment is better. Power mixers, for instance, and large automatic ovens of even temperature provide a set of factors not available to the average housewife. The bakery knows unnecessary the suffocating kitchens of summertime and the tedious "rising" and watching of the expanding loaves.

Clean-up Week For Prevention Of Fire Is Set

THE week of April 2 to 8, inclusive, has been designated as Spring Fire Prevental Clean-up week.

There are many reasons why the Spring Clean-up campaign this year should receive the enthusiastic support of every man, woman and child. First, because the Fire Prevention Clean-up campaign this year is of particular importance as it can be combined with general welfare work, and be of particular benefit to the unemployed. Second, because every dollar in property destroyed by fire, which so frequently is the result of "careless" housekeeping in the home and in the average place of business, is a serious drain upon our present economic condition. Third, every citizen should have a wholesome pride in his home city, its streets, playgrounds, parks, and buildings. Homes and surroundings freshly painted, with well kept lawns and gardens, increase property values and intensify community interest. Cleanliness creates cheer, courage and confidence. Fourth, because in the past ten years entirely too many of our citizens have lost their lives due to carelessness in their daily use of fire, and the preservation of human life is an important matter.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, W. A. Bratton, Mayor of the city of Pampa, do hereby designate the week of April 2 to 8, inclusive, as Spring Clean-up week and most especially the week of April 2 to 8, as a week in which all departments of the city, the chamber of commerce, civic clubs, patriotic clubs and our people in general, to take an active part in this Clean-up campaign.

I further designate the fire marshal and fire chief as a committee of two to work with city officials in selecting active committees to carry on this campaign and ask the cooperation of all of our people in this enterprising campaign for a clean city.

DAMNED NONSENSE' IS ADMINISTRATOR'S OPINION

Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—For at least another day, the outcome of the labor dispute in the automobile industry will remain in doubt.

After hours of talks that had whittled the nub of contention down to such a point that Hugh S. Johnson called it "damned nonsense," the conferences were postponed tonight until tomorrow.

"You wouldn't believe it if I told you," he said, when asked what the remaining point of difference was. "I can't tell you but it is damned nonsense."

For tomorrow, Johnson said, "we will go on and negotiate as we have been doing today."

"There's no possibility of any agreement until tomorrow morning."

"I won't give up until I'm licked and I'm not licked yet."

"This is nothing new to me. I have been through these things lots of times when they looked much worse than they do now."

The recovery administrator indicated that the conferences tomorrow would begin in the morning but did not venture a guess as to how long they would be.

For hours Johnson had been trying to mediate the dispute. Since late afternoon, automobile manufacturers had been stationed in an office on one side of Johnson's suite and labor representatives in a room on the other, with the administrator passing from one conference to the other.

Less than an hour before the work for the night ended, Johnson had charged momentarily to say that if any agreement came tonight, it would have to be approved by President Roosevelt.

Johnson said if the negotiations were successful, he would go to a dinner at the National Press club at which Mr. Roosevelt was a guest to submit the agreement to the president.

As the evening dragged on, indications came that the discussions were gradually drawing the disputants closer together.

Simultaneously, there was made public a letter from Henry H. Hariman, president of the United States chamber of commerce, to the membership of the organization which said:

"Efforts to unionize all of American industry at whatever cost, thru the threat of strikes and by means of legislation, have brought a major crisis in the progress towards national recovery."

Man Without Country Dies In Shanghai

CHANGHAI, March 25. (Sunday) (AP)—C. C. Julian, one time millionaire of Pampa, died here today of a disease which he contracted while in Shanghai. He was about 40 years old.

He had lived for the last year in Shanghai in defiance of American authorities and in default of $25,000 bail. He was about 40 years old.

With his companion Julian was finishing an elaborate dinner in the Astor house, fashionable downtown tourist haunt.

Excusing himself soon after midnight, Julian went to a room he had engaged and took a heavy dose of poison, losing consciousness a few moments later.

While Julian hung between life and death Miss Levy remained outside his hospital room. Upon learning he had died she rushed back to the hotel and took some of the same poison that killed Julian.

She was given medical attention and taken to the hospital where Julian died.

C. C. Julian, former Oklahoma, was charged in a federal warrant with fraud in connection with stock and bond promotion. Outside of federal jurisdiction in Shanghai for offenses alleged to have been committed in the United States, he never was apprehended.

It was generally believed, however, that he faced arrest under the new law just passed by congress giving consular officials the right to make arrests abroad.

Julian had lived in Shanghai for nearly a year. He had announced last December that he had been chosen general manager of a newly-formed organization called the Stock and Bond Guaranty company.

Last April he defied American efforts to extradite him and said he would remain in China and engage in oil developments. Several times he reiterated his innocence of the federal charges and declared he left the country because "a fair trial is impossible here."

He arrived in Shanghai March 23, 1933, under the name of T. R. King.

CULLEN THOMAS SELECTED HEAD OF CENTENNIAL

LARGE CITIES BIDDING FOR CELEBRATION IN 1936

AUSTIN, March 24. (AP)—The Texas centennial commission, designated by law to plan a suitable celebration of the 100th anniversary of Texas independence, met here today in an unofficial session. Cullen P. Thomas, leader in the centennial movement since its inception more than a decade ago, was elected temporary chairman.

The commission will operate as an unofficial body until the law by which it was established becomes effective May 29.

The first official meeting will be June 6. W. W. Heath, secretary of state, said. Heath said the commission would pay its expenses until May 29 through voluntary contributions. After that date expenses may be paid from an appropriation of $100,000 made by the legislature.

Leaders of the regional chamber of commerce were petitioned to exert all effort to make Texas the meeting place of as many national conventions in 1936 as possible.

Representatives of Houston reported a movement was underway there to make the city the central centennial city and a joint bid for the centennial is being considered by Dallas and Fort Worth for location of the celebration at Arlington. It was reported.

DROUGHT RELIEF PLAN REVEALED BY TWO TEXANS

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—The federal relief administration was said today by Senator Connally (D-Tex.) to have expressed willingness to pay immediately seventy per cent of the cost of lateral highway construction in so-called emergency areas of Texas provided the state highway commission will authorize expenditure of the remaining thirty per cent. Representative Jones (D-Tex.) said he had similar information.

The public works and relief administration last September authorized an allocation totaling $9,900,000 for the work, which was to be undertaken in the Panhandle and Midland drought areas and in three storm-hit counties of the lower Rio Grande valley, but the exact status of the program has been in controversy.

Connally conferred again today with the relief administration about the matter and later said the administration was prepared to go ahead with the program but was insisting that work be done only on lateral roads and in the vicinity of residences or persons needing relief.

The question as to how much work had actually been done remained officially unsettled. After publication of Amarillo's Mayor Rogers' statement that no expenditures had been made so far as he knew, Representative Jones (D-Tex.) said he had been informed by the bureau of public roads that actual expenditures up to March 15 had exceeded $1,000,000.

Radio Station Here Closed by U. S. Inspector

William J. McDonnell of Dallas, federal radio commission inspector, closed the local radio broadcasting station known as Station WJKA yesterday. He secured a signed affidavit from the operators that it would remain closed. No further action will be taken, Mr. McDonnell said.

The inspector pointed out that the U. S. Supreme Court has held in opinion that any broadcasting station must have a license from the commission to operate, and that whether the programs are heard over state lines makes no difference. He said the maximum penalty for operating a station without a license is a heavy fine and a prison term.

Mr. McDonnell closed a station recently he has closed 20 unlicensed stations in Texas.

The inspector also issued warnings here that electrical installations and devices causing interference in radio reception here must be corrected.

EVERLASTING LIGHT: Thy sun shall no more go down; either shall thy moon withdraw itself; for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.—Isaiah 60:20.

CONSIDER the heart. Linked with the soul by ecclesiastical leaders, this all-important organ is not as fool-proof as many people imagine. Heart disease, according to Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer, is Texas' public enemy No. 1. It kills more than 7,200 Texans annually and the fatalities are mounting year after year.

So-called functional heart disease is usually traced to these sources: namely, nervousness, infections from another part of the body such as teeth or tonsils, to disturbed function of the thyroid gland, to influenza and so on; and to the effects of the excessive use of tobacco, coffee or tea.

In cases where there is a disturbed heart action due to focal infection the source of which is located, the infective cause when possible is removed, as in the case of diseased tonsils and teeth. The heart, possessing remarkable recuperative ability, once the poisoning agent is definitely eliminated, in time becomes normal once again.

Good professional advice and a strict heeding of it are the only things to follow either in function or organic heart disease. It is a well established fact that the great number of those who know they have a heart condition usually die from some other cause.

MAYBE CONDITIONS in Germany are not quite as bad as they seem. New statistics show that in all Germany the homicides in 1933 were just one-tenth the total in New York city.

New York's murders numbered 565 in 1932, the last year available, while Germany's murders were only 46 in 1933. Only 570 automobile thefts were reported in all Germany. Other crimes declined in proportion to that of robberies, which were 760 in 1932 and 552 in 1933.

WE READ MUCH on the glories of the country store; little old Main street; the oldtime country bank; horse-and-buggy, that seem "true and tried" American institutions, but those who think we should go back to the life of that period are failing to take notice of our vast increase in population. We have drifted far from the soil. We have millions of persons dependent for their living upon some manufacturing activity in which they perform a minor part, such as screwing on nut number A-16, which is a long way from being self-sufficient like frontiersmen.

In Oregon, for example, one-half of the industrial pay checks are issued in connection with the manufacture of lumber. If lumber is supplanted by some other building material, the state of Oregon will be hard hit, indeed. Yet it is estimated that this country needs at least 1,500,000 new homes. That much private construction would end the depression, give prosperity to Oregon, and put five billions into the coffers of the industry. But if all this should happen in a year or two we would have another depression for obvious reasons.

THE GREATEST FACTOR in the creation of a depression is the creation of a boom. Cycles are as inevitable as human nature is unpredictable. It is a necessary function of the government to stimulate public construction that it can bridge low points in these cycles. It is human nature to demand that the government spend lavishly during good times, for enthusiasm is contagious, and prosperity is easily mistaken for a new era of lasting buoyancy. These mental and physical cycles in industrial increases in population, and concentration in industrial centers and cities, and creation of a demand for high and constant monetary rewards have, in the opinion of this writer done more to create depressions than the much feared machinery of this mechanical age. Many inventions have created vastly more obs than they have eliminated.

MORE MEN work on trucks than on railroads. The automobile industry is incomparably greater than the wagon industry. The telephone, telegraph, and radio have added millions of jobs while canceling few. Highway construction is another example. Machines make watch parts but cheaper watches making huge sales possible. We have no agreement with those who fear the machine. It has possibilities of continuing to lighten human burdens if you can eliminate the human stupidity which stands in the way of utilizing the benefits of adherence to the mechanical and scientific laws which the creator of the universe established for man to enjoy in proportion to his progress in knowledge and in wisdom.

'Smokescreen' Pleases Crowds

'Smokescreen,' the high school one-act play directed by Ben Guill, has made a hit with Pampa audiences. The applause of the audience after it was presented Thursday and Friday nights at the La Tora theater was evidence. The play is realistic but only as life is realistic. The short play will be entered in the one-act play tournament here April 6-7. Students in the cast are Miss Imogene Hollenbeck, Harold Gray and Vernell Stephens. The talents of the two boys and girl are adapted to 'Smokescreen.' It has developed to an unusual extent their stage abilities.

4-Day Wedding Rites End for Emperor, Wife

HUE, Nannam, March 24. (P)—Her Paris gowns replaced by a rich robe of yellow brocade, N'Guyen Huu Hao, commoner bride of the youthful ruler Bao Dai, received the title of empress today at the conclusion of four days of marriage ceremonies. Two mandarins presented her with the insignia of empire during the ancient Buddhist and Annamite rites and as the ceremonies were finished, the mandarins invested her with royal authority. The final ceremonies began in the morning with the arrival of the mandarins. They came as imperial delegates to the palace, and were accompanied by a procession of musicians and bearers of the royal insignia. Tonight a regatta, theatrical performances and fireworks kept the people of the city in a happy mood as they celebrated the wedding. Bao Dai, who is 21, chose his bride from neighboring Cochinchina. The laws of Annam, which is a part of French Indo-China, stipulate that the emperor cannot wed a woman who has any connection with the royal family. This is designed to keep the royal line from weakening. Glen Bennett of Miami was in the city last night. A. L. Meek of White Deer was a Pampa business visitor Friday.

Faint Hope For Disarmament Is Seen By British Local Men Help In Reorganizing Wellington Club

LONDON, March 24. (P)—British statesmen were represented tonight as believing there is only the faintest hope of breaking the European arms deadlock. They expect France to show no signs of relaxing her demands for security when she replies to oral inquiries from Great Britain for an amplification of the French disarmament note published last night. This anticipation cast gloom over Whitehall and British official quarters said they could see no reason for calling a proposed conference outside Geneva of principal powers in an effort to save the disarmament cause. American participation in such a meeting has been suggested but the British view is that continuations of bilateral negotiations holds the only prospect — though very faint — of solving the knotty problem. Exchanges between ambassadors began last week regarding the French communication but, said official circles, they have so far been "inconclusive." Sanctions against an aggressor, territorial guarantees, and guarantees for the execution of a disarmament pact are expected to be the price France will continue to demand for a limited disarmament of Germany while keeping her own arms at present levels. With the next move in the tangle apparently up to Britain, the government seeks more information on the French stand and plans a meeting of the cabinet's disarmament subcommittee to study the French message more in detail.

WHEELER GETS EXTENSION OF FIELD IN EAST

SEVERAL LOCATIONS TO RESULT FROM STRIKE

A statewide oil hearing will be held in Austin Wednesday, when conditions in the various fields will be discussed. The 32,890-barrel increase given Texas last week by Secretary Ickes will be allocated among the fields at the same time.

J. M. McDonald, deputy supervisor of the oil and gas division of the Texas railroad commission, with offices here, will leave today for Austin to attend the meeting. Several Panhandle operators also will make the trip. Mr. McDonald will ask that the Panhandle field be given some of the increased state allowable.

Western Wheeler county continued to be the most exciting spot in the Panhandle last week. A new territory was opened, and a good producer was brought in.

Production Extended
The well that has been watched with much interest the last month is the Watchorn No. 1, Johnson in the northwest quarter of section 47, block 24, which is two miles east of production. Yesterday the hole was bottomed at 2,438 feet and 2,200 feet of oil rose in the hole. About a half million feet of gas was encountered before the oil started rising in the hole.

The test will be swabbed this week, and a good producer is expected. Nearest production is the Bell Oil and Gas company's DeSpain, in the northwest quarter of section 52, block 24, which is a good well.

Several locations are expected to be made offsetting, or placed near the Watchorn well. Leases offsetting the Johnson land are owned by the Skelly Oil company, the Shell Petroleum Corporation and the Elbar Oil company.

One of Wheeler county's best wells is the Mid-Continent Oil company's No. 2 Carwiles in section 51, block 24, which flowed 1,815 barrels from Friday morning to yesterday morning, on Railroad commission test. The well is flowing natural.

Fay in the well was located from 2,310 to 2,348 feet in the Granite wash formation after a small pay was located in the Dolomite formation at a higher elevation. The granite wash formation was shot with 120 quarts.

The Mid-Continent company has

B AND B TAKE OVER AGENCY FOR DANCIGER

GASOLINE DISTRIBUTOR IN THIS IMMEDIATE TERRITORY

The hobby of both Roy Bourland and Clarence "Chinch" Barrett of the B. & B. Lubricating company, now district wholesale distributor for the Danciger refinery products, is oil - refined oil.

Mr. Bourland is a recognized authority on oil and its distillation, and so is Mr. Barrett. They can talk interestingly on the effect of oils on motors and make their explanations clear. They have made an intense study of oils, and know the chemical and mechanical processes of producing all kinds of petroleum lubricants.

The B. & B. took over the Danciger agency in mid-March. The company with headquarters at the corner of Francis and Russell now has a complete unit of gasolines, oils, greases. It sells three grades of gasoline.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, March 24. (AP)—Sensational drought reports from spring wheat states, together with prospective settlement of automobile labor troubles, lifted wheat a cent a bushel today.

Speculative interest regarding grain markets, however, did not greatly enlarge, a majority of traders continuing to await more definite developments as to industry and finance.

On today's advance, wheat reached a new high price level for the week, but because of profit-taking, reacted somewhat at the last, closing unchanged 1/2 cent above yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to 1/4 higher, oats 1/4 up, and provisions unchanged to a rise of ten cents.

Corn and oats borrowed firmness from the action of wheat. A much better shipping demand here for corn was in evidence.

Provisions averaged higher, owing more or less to expectation of enlarged call for meats after Lent.

JURY CONVICTS HEIDINGSFELDER AT GEORGETOWN

Houston Attorney Is Given 10-Year Sentence

GEORGETOWN, March 24. (AP)—Charles E. Heidingsfelder Sr., 61-year-old Houston attorney, adept behind the worn gray stone and steel bars of the county jail here tonight. He was convicted by a district court jury today of embezzlement of $34,500 from a client, Mrs. Adele Pipkin of New York, formerly of Beaumont, and assessed the maximum sentence of ten years in prison.

The jury was out twelve hours and much of that time was spent in sleep. The first trial here last month ended in a hung jury. Heidingsfelder claimed he was robbed of the $34,500 by a stranger who lured him to his Houston offices on Christmas day and said that after he had gone down town in response to a telephone call from an unknown person, an armed man entered his offices and forced him to open the safe containing the $45,000 bill. The man disappeared after making him drink from a bottle until he lost consciousness, he told police.

He said he had drawn the money from the bank with the intention of taking it to Mrs. Pipkin in New York.

The gray haired attorney did not tell his story to the jury in the form of testimony, as he did at the former trial. However, he made an impassioned appeal for acquittal as he closed arguments for the defense.

The $34,500 which Heidingsfelder was alleged to have taken was the major part of a divorce settlement last year from Jeann Pipkin, Beaumont rancher and Mrs. Pipkin's former husband, Heidingsfelder, who had been a friend of Mrs. Pipkin for 20 years, represented her in the divorce proceedings.

The defendant's brother, Arthur Heidingsfelder, filed a motion for a new trial. District Judge Harry Dolan said that Heidingsfelder could not be freed on an appeal bond until his motion had been amended and action had been taken on it, a procedure which would require about two weeks.

Eugene Smart of LeFors underwent a major operation at Pampa hospital Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Howard Simmons of Skellytown is a patient at Pampa hospital, receiving medical attention.

Charlie Barker of Skellytown was a visitor in the city last night.

STOCK BILL IS SURE TO PASS AS IT STANDS

FINANCIERS ABANDON HOPE TO CHANGE MEASURE

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—The much praised, much maligned and much revised stock exchange control bill will enter a new phase of congressional consideration next week with strong indications that committees of both houses will approve it without further substantial changes.

In fact, Wall Street representatives, still bitterly opposed to the measure and fighting it with all the strength they can muster, virtually have abandoned hope of obtaining any more worthwhile concessions.

"It's like arguing with the umpire," one of them said today.

Behind this remark lay the declaration of President Roosevelt last night urging a "forceful" bill—one with teeth in it—the treasury's approval of the measure's general objectives, and the federal reserve board's general endorsement.

The house commerce committee today brought a month of open hearings to a close with testimony supporting the bill from representatives of the federal trade commission, which would have much of the responsibility of enforcing the measure.

On Monday or Tuesday, the senate banking committee will receive from Richard Whitney, president of the New York Stock exchange, a detailed list of amendments, which that organization wants incorporated in the measure. With that the senate hearings will be adjourned.

Then both committees will go into executive session to study and vote upon the measure. Both Senator Fletcher and Representative Rayburn, chairman of the committees, have said that while numerous amendments probably would be offered in committee, they had every reason to believe the bill would be approved much as it now stands.

Matt Simmons of Wheeler was a Pampa visitor yesterday afternoon.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, March 24. (AP)—Cattle trade at midwestern markets this week was featured by a general price upturn of 10-25 on heavy fed steers and the better grades of light weights. Lower grades of light weights at most centers were slightly higher and at some markets showed a moderate decline. Choice quality steers and yearlings reached new high price levels for the season, with the top of 7.65 on yearlings and medium weights the highest since 1932.

Heavy steers were 1.00-2.00 higher than the low spot in January and 1200-1400 lb average sold almost on a comparable basis with yearlings of similar quality. Aggregate receipts at eleven midwestern markets around 161,500 as compared with 170,742 last week and 136,000 the corresponding period a year ago.

Prices on hogs at most markets are unevenly 10-35 lower than last Saturday, but Chicago which was relatively low on last week's close showed an upturn of 5-15. The top in Chicago today was 4.55. Total offerings for the week were around 337,000, a decrease of 37,000 from last week and 25,000 less than a year ago.

ABILITY OF ORGANIZING CLASS D LEAGUE DISCUSSED

The Major League Star talks Plan Here With Local Diamond Enthusiasts.

W. "Boss" Orndorff, former League baseball star, was in Pampa Friday night. Orndorff, head of the National Baseball School of Los Angeles, and was with Ed Egan and Jimmie Dean, to conduct a school for young players.

Possibility of Pampa putting a team in a Class D league was discussed when Mr. Orndorff met with Earl Roff and Aaron Ward, of the Danziger Roadrunner team, and Harry E. Moore, sports editor of The News. The veteran player heard that El Paso and Albuquerque were desirous of having a league and he suggested that he stop in Amarillo and Pampa to discuss the possibility of a four-team league.

No definite action has been taken one way or the other. The idea will be discussed among baseball fans and backers. A new park is being erected in the city and this year will be the first that Pampans have had a chance to put over a project. Some local fans believe it would be better to have an independent league of possibly Pampa, Borger, Amarillo and LeFors this year, and if baseball is well received, to take a place in a league next year.

Jess Orndorff broke into the big leagues with the Boston Braves. He was later sold to the Chicago Cubs where he set a record by catching 158 games in one season. The veteran ended his career in organized baseball in 1912 with Milwaukee. He moved to California where he remained interested in baseball. Later he organized the National Baseball School along with B. A. Dillon.

Many boys graduated from Orndorff's school are now in the "big time" and he says he has a bunch of youngsters coming up that will make a name for themselves. It would be his idea to place some of the good players in the proposed Class D league.

Christine Lindemann is seriously ill with pneumonia at Pampa hospital.

HORTON SMITH SHATTERS PAR TO LEAD FIELD

FORMER CHAMPION IS TEN STROKES BEHIND

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Editor

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 24. (AP)—Or the cold soggy battle ground of the Augusta National links today, after a gallant but discouraging pursuit, the great Bob Jones surrendered his last chance of overtaking the flying professional squadron in the $5,000 Masters Invitational tournament. Jones today shot the best golf he has exhibited since he began his comeback two days ago after a lapse of nearly four years since his retirement as world champion. He shifted to a rusty old putter his mother has been using and recovered his touch to the extent of taking only 30 putts for the 18 holes, but the "breaks" were against him and his par golf was not good enough to close the big gap between him and the leaders. The Georgian's 54-hole total of 222, although lifting him ten notches up to the list to a tie for 18th place, also left him exactly ten strokes behind the brilliant young leader, Horton Smith of Chicago. Smith shattered par for the second time in three days with a 70. His three-day aggregate of 212 kept him a stroke in front of the field and made him the marked man in a prospective five-cornered battle in the final round tomorrow for the top money of $1,500.

Billiard Instructor to Appear Here

Pasquale Natalie has spent the greater part of his life as a billiard instructor. He will appear at the Pampa Athletic club at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow night. Natalie, besides being a great player, is a trick-shot artist of ability. He will give an interesting lecture here. Ladies are invited to attend the exhibition.

ROB ROY HAS BITTER GRUDGE AGAINST HILL

WOULD AVENGE RECENT DEFEAT OF OTIS CLINGMAN

The sock and under-mund type of mauling is scheduled for tomorrow night when Rob Roy, Goodnight's gift to the mat, meets Don Hill, Hollywood movie star, in the main event at the Pla-Mor auditorium. The referee and commissioner may have to get new glasses if they expect to see everything that goes on when Roy is on the mat. Goodnight's Scotchman has a grudge against the movie star who recently defeated Sailor Otis Clingman. The canny Scot believes that he can "kill two birds with one stone" if he can defeat Hill. He believes it will be a feather in his cap to win from Clingman's conqueror and also it will revenge Clingman's loss. Roy is spreading dire threats but Hill doesn't seem impressed. He has gone ahead with his training, not deigning to notice the Scotchman's threats. Hill is a business-like mauler. He sets out to win in the least possible time, and every move he makes has a definite meaning. He is big, powerful, fast and knows the wrestling game and all its tricks. Pampa fans figure Roy is in for a bad night but they know how tough he is and how much punishment he can give and take. The semi-final is also scheduled to be a wild and woolly affair. A Pat Garrison, gone back to his old style of wrestling, will meet Joe Bauer, German clown, in a one fall or 30-minute time limit affair. The Irishman tried to wrestle in the manner set forth by the commission, but he lost all his matches and has decided to be natural again. Bauer is a decided favorite with Pampa fans. He is a funny-looking fellow and he can wrestle although a natural clown. He has defeated such good boys as Charlie Heard, Lobo Brown and even three Pat Garrison several weeks ago.

TRAINING WITH THE MAJOR LEAGUES

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 24. (AP)—The New York Yankees, hitting safely in every inning, piled up 21 hits, including two homers each by Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig and one by Red Rolfe, to defeat their Newark farm team 15 to 5 Sunday. The victory was the sixth straight in the Grapefruit league for the Yankees. Gehrig drove in five runs with his pair of fence-coppers and a single while the Babe sent four across the plate with four straight hits during the five innings he played. Rolfe and Salitzberger also got four hits each.

LOS ANGELES, March 24. JIM FERGUSON NAMED DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN

ONLY 2 VOTES CAST AGAINST 'OLD MAESTRO'

'MA' CLAPS HER HANDS WITH OTHERS IN CHEERING

BY R. W. BARRY
Associated Press Staff Writer
HOUSTON, March 24. (AP)—James E. Ferguson, Texas' only governor who has ever been impeached, was sitting in the pinnacle "watch tower" of his party tonight.

He had been elected state committeeman to the national party council.

He was recommended by the state democracy, through the executive committee, representing the 31 senatorial districts of Texas, to take the place formerly occupied by J. C. Adams of Dallas, Adams resigned to accept a federal appointment.

Adams had tried to resign previously, but the national chairman, James A. Farley, postmaster general, refused to accept his resignation papers because there was some turmoil about whom should succeed him.

When former Governor Ferguson's name was placed in nomination, there were no other candidates. He was elected almost by acclamation, the vote being viva voce. There were two who answered "no." They were W. T. Hooks of Itasca and Summers Norman of Jacksonville.

There was a big hand for the gray haired veteran or many campaigns as he mounted the rostrum to acknowledge the compliment. He did not make a lengthy speech. His governor-wife was sitting in the audience and clapped her hands with the others in the audience cheering her husband.

He said he hoped he would have "the strength and courage to make myself worthy of this honor."

He said he believed the national government was passing "the most eventful mile in its history." He said there was need of "unity of thought."

There should be no division in our duty to uphold democratic principles and the hands of the greatest democratic president the world ever has known, said "Governor Jim" as his friends like to address him.

The resignation of Mrs. Clara Driscoll Sevier of Corpus Christi, woman member of the national committee, had not been received, Farley telegraphed the committee. She will remain in that place.

The committee rejected, for the time being, resolutions proposed by Hughes that the committee give women equal representation on the committee and that it submit in the July primaries the question whether state constitutional prohibition should be repealed.

The legislature had, by resolution, petitioned the committee to permit the electorate to say what its mandate should be with reference to letting the voters decide whether prohibition should be cast aside. The committee will meet in June, however, to make up the ballot and the question may be renewed then.

The proposal to give women equal representation on the committee was intended to follow the system adopted by the national group. There would, under that plan, be a woman and a man from each senatorial district, each with a half vote.

Railway Unions Reject Plans To Settle Dispute

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—The railroad wage situation appeared tonight to be as deadlocked as ever, with labor sticking stubbornly to its demand for restoration of the full wage scale.

The union chiefs—members of the railway labor executives association—today rejected all proposals laid before them by Joseph B. Eastman, coordinator of transportation, who at the request of President Roosevelt is acting as mediator in the dispute between the railroads and their workers.

Eastman refused to discuss the situation or to say what proposals he had advanced. He said that he could not report "either progress or lack of progress at this time" and that he would meet with the managers tomorrow.

It was learned on good authority, however, that the Brotherhood chiefs had rejected every proposal made by Eastman. It was understood the proposals had been accepted by the managers.

W. P. Thornhill of Miami was in Pampa yesterday morning.

E. W. Outlaw of White Deer transacted business here Friday afternoon.

"NJINSKY," by Romola Nijinsky; (Simon & Schuster, New York). Any story of a life descending slowly into darkness, however told, would be affecting. That of the great dancer Nijinsky has its own special elements of private tragedy.

Romola Nijinsky, the dancer's wife, has tried to tell in her biography of her husband not only the part of the story the public already knows, but the underlying causes. It is a brave effort, for some of them are matters that even today polite society scorns. In England, where favorable reviews grow on every bush, it seems, the book has been compared to Isadore Duncan's self-expose. Perhaps justly.

In any case Nijinsky's is one of the most bitter of modern tragedies. He began life the son of two dancers, the father being a really first rate performer and the mother, although gifted, the artistic inferior of her husband. When the boy Vaslav was still very young, the parents separated, and the mother began a long struggle to keep food in the house for her three children.

The struggle lightened when Vaslav was accepted for the Imperial ballet school in St. Petersburg. That was the beginning of the contradictory career the dancer led. He went from poverty to the assured well-being of the school, which of course was one of the Czar's pet institutions. And he was recognized as a genius almost at first.

The long period of his great success, his ambitious friendship with Diaghileff, the wife's struggle to separate the two, the intimate detail of a dancer's life, and the final descent of madness upon Vaslav make up the remainder of the book. There is in addition a great amount of technical detail that the student of dancing will read with eagerness.—J. S.

Paderewski's Prophecy
At a reception given in his honor in the city of Cracow in July, 1910, Paderewski said: "Brothers, the hour of our freedom is about to strike. Within five years a fratricidal war will soak with blood the whole earth." Exactly four years later this prophecy came true. Paderewski's prophetic vision had its basis not in any occult power but in his knowledge of European politics. For he studied international affairs as thoroughly as he studied music.

Charles Phillips tells this incident in his biography, "Paderewski: The Story of a Modern Immortal," $4.00. Herschel Brickell in the New York Evening Post says: "Mr. Phillips' prose has warmth and color and he has marshaled a large array of facts—even documents—so well that there is no interference at all with the orderly and pleasant flow of his narrative. . . . His book is the first really important biography of the year."

One of the most successful romancers of today is Diana Patrick whose new novel "This Our Heritage," E. P. Dutton and company, published January 16th. Miss Patrick writes of the late-blooming second love of a beautiful woman, who has to sacrifice either her own happiness or that of her family. Miss Patrick's new novel is full of romantic complications and emotional surprises. "One of the new real romancers left," said the New York Sun. "She is always successful."

Indian Story Told
"Spur-of-the-Cock; Hero of the Mayo Indians" is the title of the first article in the latest publication of the Texas Folk-Lore Society, and from this story the pamphlet takes its name. The story was written by Hugh McClellan Taylor, Fairburn's agriculturalist and former railroad man in Mexico, Texas, and France, who translated it from the folk-tale told him by Chato, a Mayan story-teller.

J. Frank Dobbs, associate professor of English at the University of Texas and editor of the Texas Folk-Lore Society publications, calls "Spur-of-the-Cock" "the best hero story in all southwest literature," and gives as his personal opinion that it is superior to Beowulf, great Anglo-Saxon epic of the tenth century.

NEW TRIAL DENIED
CHICAGO, March 24. (AP)—Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynkoop was refused a new trial today and was ordered to prison for the "operating table" murder of her daughter-in-law, Rheta. She will be taken to the new institution at Dwight, Ill., with the next shipment of prisoners, probably Thursday.

TO FORCE VOTE
WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—Democratic house leaders, planning to force a vote on the administration's reciprocal tariff legislation, predicted today it would be approved without difficulty.

MEDIEVAL PRACTICES FOUND IN SOME AMERICAN PRISONS ON FIRST LADY'S SURVEY

BY ELEANOR ROOSEVELT.
Last week I told you a little of what I had seen of county jails, and now we come to the state prisons. We find, of course, as wide a divergence in the prison standards of the different states as we do, for example, in matters of education. Perhaps in some states there is even more indifference to the conduct of prisoners because the great majority of citizens have no contact with them and know them only through the newspapers. They are apt to feel that prison inmates are entirely different from the people they meet in their everyday lives. And yet ninety per cent of the people in prisons today will eventually be casual passersby whom we will see daily, though we may know nothing of their private lives.

One of our states does not have prisons but sends its offenders to ankles in the lower row of holes and the upper (intended for the wrists) are correspondingly small. Certainly a man so unfortunate as to be placed in them could move neither ankles or wrists with any ease. In practice, the ankles are first placed in the holes; then the prisoner leans forward and places his wrists in the holes above. By the time this is done he is no longer sitting on the floor but is hanging by his wrists in a position which before so very long will become nothing short of torture. This form of punishment is legal under a law of that state. I imagine this law was passed by a group of kindly gentlemen who would certainly wince if they saw it enforced. However, they must have had little or no imagination, otherwise they could have pictured to themselves the effect it would have on one's wrist to hang for an hour or so with one's weight supported by them and with the flesh cut by the rough edges of the wooden board. The man who showed these stocks remarked casually: "We put them in, when they misbehave, for anywhere from ten minutes to an hour and sometimes we take them off and put them right back again." You marvel at the endurance of the most hardened and obstinate criminal who could remain recalcitrant in the face of these medieval methods.

In many states where there are actual prisons some kind of regular work is done and an educational program is carried on. In some of our states the percentage of illiteracy amongst prisoners is very high, running sometimes to 40 per cent of the prison population and by illiterate I mean people who can not read or write their names. The prison programs include an attempt to correct this kind of ignorance and those who have not been through the sixth grade in school are required to attend some of these classes. The amount of school attendance required varies from two hours or less a week to the high point of one reformatory for boys where four hours a day are devoted to academic work and four hours to vocational training. In one of our states, where advanced practices obtain, a new system of prison education is designed to correlate the work in practical things that can be done in the shops with the type of lessons that are given in the classroom. This is nothing more than a follow-up of progressive methods of education, but it is unusual in a prison and the results are being watched with a great deal of interest.

It is acknowledged that three things are prime necessities in the direction of prisons, namely: Justice and fair play to every prisoner; good food and work. The last is perhaps the most important.

No special privileges should be given to anyone through favoritism or through the control of the prison authorities by some outside influence, be it political or personal.

In the average state prison it has been found possible to adequately feed the inmates, and carry the necessary overhead expense, for 22 to 26 cents a day per man. The amount actually spent on food runs from 16 to 18 cents. This expenditure can provide not only excellent food but a variety and a balanced diet if the person in charge has enough knowledge and real interest. Many a prison revolt has come about because the food rotated in exactly the same way week after week and was of poor quality.

In my first article I laid down the accepted premise that prisons must rehabilitate as well as punish.

ASK PROBE OF TEXAS DROUTH RELIEF GRANT

TELEGRAM ADDRESSED TO LEGISLATORS FROM TEXAS

ABLENE, March 24 (AP)—A renewed effort was made here today by W. R. Ely, member of the state highway commission, and Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, to determine the cause of delay in putting to work special federal grant of $8,900,000 allotted for emergency road construction in storm and drouth stricken areas of Texas.

While the federal relief administration has fixed blame for delay upon the state highway commission, Ely on several occasions, has heatedly denied this, asserting that the money never has actually been allotted.

"With Gilchrist, he sent telegrams to Texas congressmen asking that full investigation be made to determine of the emergency grant. So that 'we may know the facts covering expenditure of said fund.'"

The message was dispatched following a conference with T. E. Johnson of the Amarillo News-Globe, and W. J. Van Lom, highway division engineer in the plains area. Much of the Amarillo territory has been scheduled to benefit from the road construction when and if it gets underway; and the section has been pressing for action for several months.

The Ely-Gilchrist message, forwarded to Congressman Marvin Jones, Senators Tom Connally and Morris Sheppard and other Texas representatives in Washington said: "Imperative that you secure for us a budgetary copy of executive order authorizing $8,900,000 special drouth and flood fund and subsequent orders pertaining thereto in order that we may know facts governing expenditure of said fund."

Essential that we be advised status of federal relief administration share of appropriation and facts governing how this portion of money to be administered, particularly as applying to material and labor costs where such costs exceed thirty per cent. Also find out from Hopkins (Harry Hopkins, federal relief administrator) if he has approved the agreement signed by Lawrence Westbrook (former Texas relief administrator) on January 2, this year and also whether he knows that the agreement is not and has not been carried out by the relief commission. We also most anxious as in past to cooperate on this project if agreement of January 2 be carried out or on any other workable plan which will enable us to carry out percentages directed."

BREAD

produce the edible product. In some countries unleavened bread is most widely eaten. The flour is mixed with water and salt, and usually, and lard or butter. While the Mexican is noted for his use of rich condiments, his "tortilla" is an exception. Like many of the Asiatics, he mixes flour with water and rolls the heavy dough into thin sheets.

Yeasts Are Vital
Practically all of the bread eaten in this country is leavened with yeast or "baking powder." The wild domestic yeasts are worked into the dough to produce a bacterial action and the formation of carbonic acid gas. The lightness of "light bread" is caused by the myriads of pores blown out by the gas. Baking powders produce the gas by a chemical reaction. Proper cooking is necessary to bake the bread "done" without expelling the gas and allowing the cells to collapse. Bread which "rises" properly and is well cooked produces light, porous bread of good taste and digestibility.

There used to be a popular conception among many people that the baker used some secret process or ingredient, but such is not the case. The fine quality and flavor of their bread is due to the high quality of materials used and the skill with which mixing and cooking are done. Kneading of the huge batches of dough requires considerable skill, but modern machines contribute their part and work with speed, maximum cleanliness, and uniformity.

There is many an improvement recorded between the age of the stone mortar and the present marvelous machinery of a modern mill. The primitive method was to soak the grain in water, apply pressure to it, knead into thin cakes, and dry in the sun. The discovery of fire and the use of stones for grinding came, it is thought, about the same time. The American Indian, however, used the mortar method of making flour until very recently. But in Egypt bread-making was an art centuries ago, and the leavening process was commonly used.

Golfer Asks His Ashes Be Spread Over Golf Links

LOS ANGELES, March 24 (AP)—Well known as a public links golfer, Clyde F. Ryan, 52, killed himself last night and left a request that his ashes be spread over golf courses of Griffith park.

"Please cremate me," said the note to his widow, May. "No bar-beric funerals or ceremonies. Just spread my ashes over Griffith park golf courses and ask them to excuse my dust."

He killed himself in his garage with exhaust fumes from his automobile using a vacuum cleaner.

NILA COOK'S SON ADMITTED AS AN ALIEN

Former Disciple of Gandhi Is Going Back to Iowa

NEW YORK, March 24 (AP)—Nila Crain Cook, the Iowa maid who became a disciple of Mahatma Gandhi and was deported from India by the British government, landed in New York today, bound for Davenport where "I want to play on the banks of the Mississippi."

The plump, brown-eyed renouncer of Christianity was detained at Ellis Island for several hours while immigration authorities pondered the problem of her six-year old ruddy-cheeked son, Silvio—the child of her estranged husband, Topolo Proestoco, a Greek.

Silvio—who told newspapermen he thought Gandhi was a "Grump old bear"—was listed under the nationality of his father but was admitted to the United States after the hearing in the custody of his uncle, Earl Cook.

Miss Cook stayed in her cabin as the ship came up New York bay. But at the pier, she threw open the door, rushed on the deck into the midst of the crowd, giggled, threw her arms aloft, tossed her chestnut hair to the breeze and cried out: "I'm yours. Here I am. I'm in love with the world."

"To a young man in the group, she turned, said: "Particularly you."

All questions regarding the Mahatma—who became displeased with Miss Cook when she strayed from his flock, disappeared for a week, and turned up tired of the ways of the Hindus—the luncheon referred to her chubbly son, who was dressed in soiled cotton clothes.

"Show them about Gandhi," the mother said.

Silvio obliged. He grabbed a pencil and paper, drew a caricature and laughed.

"See, he has elephant ears."

Miss Cook—who went with her poet-father, the late George Crain Cook, to capture anew the classic spirit of life by living on the slopes of Mount Parvatus in Greece, and then journeyed to India where she was baptized by Gandhi in the Ganges—had little to say about her religion of today.

"Are you still a follower of Gandhi?" she was asked.

"Who ever said I was?" came the reply. Then she added: "I want to go to church. I'm going to hear choirs and things. I'm going to buy roller skates and eat ice cream cones. I'm going to play again on the banks of the Mississippi."

Union Official Coming Friday

J. L. Coulter, international secretary of the Oil Field Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America, will speak in the union hall Friday night, March 30th, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Coulter will speak in the interest of organized labor. He is familiar with the work of organized labor and with some of the difficulties that labor meets, having spent the greater part of his time in Washington on the labor board in connection with the NRA since it became effective. He will also go into the history of organized labor and will present facts of what it has accomplished in America since its origin. The Pampa local is preparing to take care of the large crowd that will be present on this occasion. Mr. Coulter is nationally known having received much publicity while in Washington serving on the labor board. The public is invited.

JULIAN

the $3,500,000 C. C. Julian oil and Royalties company in 1930.

His fraud suit soon was replaced by immaculate attire. He moved into an elaborately furnished office and purchased an expensive airplane.

Then a federal grand jury convened. Julian and about 50 other persons connected with his company directly or indirectly were charged with conspiring to defraud investors of $3,500,000 in stock sales.

Trial was set for February, 1933, and Julian was placed under $25,000 bond which was made by a number of friends here. A few days before the trial was scheduled he wrote a letter to a newspaper editor here advising the editor he had decided to jump his bond and remain in Canada.

Julian was born in Canada of Irish parents. He made and lost a fortune in Canadian real estate. He later went to California where he organized the Julian Petroleum company. This company became a $40,000,000 producing and marketing organization. Julian stepped out just before the bubble burst and S. C. Lewis was in charge. Several of the promoters were sent to prison.

Louisianan Throws Shot Put 53 Feet

LAFAYETTE, La., March 24 (AP)—Jack Torrance, Louisiana's mountain athlete, threw the 16-pound shot into the horizon today for a new all-time mark of 53 feet six inches.

The towering 260-pound football, basketball and track star from Louisiana State university, performing in the Southwestern Louisiana Institute carnival relay, bested the official world mark of 52 feet 7 1/2 inches by almost a foot. The record was set in 1922 by Zygmunt Helgeas, of Poland.

Only in recent years have busy athletes been toying with the 55-

Jones-Connally Bill Agreed to In Conference

WASHINGTON, March 24 (AP)—The Jones-Connally bill making dairy and beef cattle basic commodities under the agricultural adjustment act was agreed to by congressional conferees today along with senate amendments listing peanuts, rye, flax, barley and grain sorghums for AAA benefits.

The LaFollette amendment authorizing $150,000,000 for eradication of diseased cattle, purchase of dairy and beef products for the needy, and transfer of dairy cows to farms that could use them for family needs also was accepted with a change reducing the figure to $50,000,000 and eliminating the "transfer clause."

The conference report, which comes up first in the house Monday, retained the $200,000,000 authorization for payments to cattle growers for reducing their herds and for balancing the market, pending the levying of a processing tax, the proceeds of which would be used for the same purpose and for reimbursing outlays from the $200,000,000.

No processing tax would be levied on the cattle to be purchased for relief.

Unpaid Taxes in Texas Amount to $120,000,000 Now

The statewide delinquent tax campaign of the Junior chamber of commerce is being furthered thru a series of statements concerning the situation in Texas financing.

The following statement has been issued locally:

We find the following startling facts exist:

Uncollected taxes in Texas today amount to 120 million dollars!

The deficit in the state funds exceeds 10 million dollars!

The state general fund has a deficit of over 3 million dollars!

In 1932, forty-six million dollars in taxes went delinquent.

Tax collectors reports many persons able to pay have purposely permitted their taxes to become delinquent.

County and City tax deficits are amounting in proportion to the state deficit!

Many schools are threatened with having to close their doors prematurely because of shortage of funds!

In one county but one per cent of the tax payers owes 46 per cent of the delinquent taxes!

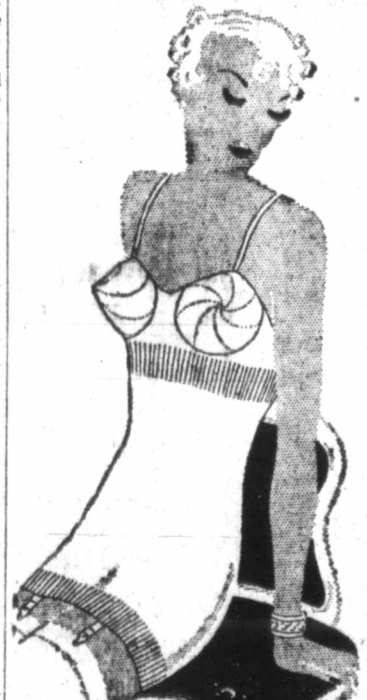

Records show that the big, not the small taxpayer owes the greater portion of unpaid taxes.

If delinquent taxes are not collected, the legislature will levy additional taxes in an effort to overcome the loss.

A VASSARETTE FOUNDATION WILL MAKE YOUR EASTER FROCK MORE ATTRACTIVE!

VASSARETTE Foundation Garments do not force figures . . . they coax figures into firm, natural curves. Bones and hooks aren't necessary, because the restraint is fashioned into the fabric itself. The artful bust sections, high waistband, and slenderizing "skirt" of the All-in-One (illustrated) conspire to make you look like a sophisticated Greek statue. Dillinger's Pal Given Life Term

LIMA, O., March 24 (AP)—The old Dillinger gang was formally dissolved here today when two of its members were sentenced to die in the electric chair and a third was condemned to life imprisonment.

Harry Pierpont, Brazen, defiant, and Charles Makley, rotund, slow moving, will pay with their lives in the Ohio state penitentiary on Friday, July 13, for the murder of Sheriff Jess L. Sarber last October, when John Dillinger was "sprung" from the county jail by his confederates.

Sleep-eyed Russell Clark alone was given quarter by Allen county jurors. For his part in the jail break here he drew a verdict of guilty with mercy, obligating the court to pronounce sentence of life imprisonment.

The gang chief, the slippery John Dillinger himself, twice imprisoned and twice liberated by gunplay within seven months, is still on the loose. He walked out of the Crown Point, Ind., jail flourishing a wooden pistol three weeks ago today.

Texan To Oppose Wealth, F. D. R. In Senate Race

AUSTIN, March 24 (AP)—Guy B. Fisher, retired lumberman and lawyer of Blank Lake, San Augustine county, today announced his candidacy for the United States senate. He said he would run as an anti-Roosevelt man.

"I favor a graduated tax system which will reduce the wealth of every person to not more than $1,000,000," he said. "No man ever earned that much and but very few, if any, ever made that much honestly."

He said he would not feel any "pangs of regret in reducing excessive fortunes, by taxation."

"It is not a question of whether it would be right or wrong," Fisher stated. "The cold facts are that it is the only way a revolution can be prevented. The unequal distribution of wealth has been the cause of all revolutions."

The Australian government will extend automatic telephone service in rural regions, installing about 30 services this year.

MAYOR ORDERS VOTE IN TAXI STRIKE FIGHT

STORMY SESSION HELD IN NEW YORK FRACAS

NEW YORK, March 24 (AP)—Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia "cracked down" on taxi operators and striking drivers at a stormy conference today, ordering a plebiscite on union affiliations as a means of ending the week-old walkout.

"It is my belief that we are on our way to get you a living wage and the operators a fair profit," the mayor told the group of fleet owners and employees' representatives summoned to city hall.

"Under traffic conditions in New York we cannot expect a man to drive a cab 15 or 16 hours a day and from my observations many have to do just this to eke out a living."

FECK 'O TROUBLE

WALLA WALLA, Wash.—Married in 1924 to A. Peck, Eliza Ann Peck has her sixth action for divorce against him under way. As previously, she charges cruelty and abuse.

Four times she has been granted interlocutory decrees, in 1926, 1927, and 1931, but she was unable to withstand his entreaties for "one more chance," she said. Then she had the actions dismissed or failed to press for a final decree.

The first came in 1925 and was dismissed within a year.

CLUB WILL PRESENT EASTER VESPER MUSIC THIS AFTERNOON

Downtown Art Exhibit Opens Tomorrow Morning, Sponsored By Arno Club

MEMBERS HOPE STUDENTS MAY SEE PICTURES

FREE ADMISSION IS DEPENDENT UPON TICKET SALE

PATRONAGE by adults so that all school children of the city may be admitted free is the desire of Arno Art club members as they prepare to open their annual art exhibit tomorrow at 9 a. m.

Faithful reproductions of 150 world-famous paintings will be displayed in the building on Cuyler street recently vacated by the gas company offices.

The plan for admitting school children free depends upon the sale of tickets. Children in all schools are conducting the sales.

Members of the Arno club will act as hostesses, and someone will be present to give interesting facts about the pictures and answer questions.

Mrs. John W. Andrews is general exhibit chairman. Hostesses for the various open days have been announced as follows:

Monday morning, Mrs. E. Hooks and Mrs. T. W. Sweetnam; afternoon, Mrs. V. E. Fathere and Mrs. Andrews.

Tuesday morning, Mrs. T. F. Morton and Mrs. R. B. Fisher; afternoon, Mrs. Roy Tinsley and Mrs. G. C. Malone.

Wednesday morning, Mrs. Frank Foster and Mrs. T. B. Solomon; afternoon, Mrs. A. H. Doucette and Mrs. Fisher.

Thursday morning, Mrs. Ramon Wilson and Mrs. Hooks; afternoon, Mrs. T. W. Jamison and Mrs. Patherre.

Recital Pleases Many Hearers on Friday Evening

An appreciative audience of music lovers heard a recital Friday evening by older pupils of the May F. Carr school of music, presented at the Methodist church.

Outstanding numbers included the Caprice Espagnol by Moskowski, played with the dash and brilliance of a seasoned performer by Helen Marie Jones.

The vocal number by Miss Rowena McNeil, who is a cousin of the famous Marian Valley, showed a voice of natural beauty and possibility.

NEW CAMP FIRE GIRL GROUPS ORGANIZE, START PROGRAM AND SET DAYS FOR MEETING

LAUNCHING of two new Camp Fire Girls groups and a program of new activities has occupied members of the past week, following observance of national Camp Fire week with a program that attracted city-wide attention to the organization.

Officers were elected Thursday afternoon by the Tatapochon group, and hikes were taken Friday morning by that group and the Ithaha girls also.

Meeting dates for the three divisions have been set definitely. The younger girls, who have yet to choose the name of their group, will meet on Tuesdays; the Ithaha group, composed of high school girls, on Wednesdays; and the Tatapochon group on Thursdays.

Election Held.

New officers of Tatapochon division are Kathleen O'Hara, Nahon, president; Anna Mae Jones, Elewa, vice president; Katherine Ward, Tahoo, secretary; Jessie Marie Gilbert, Okayoka, corresponding secretary; Mary Seeds, Wocstick, treasurer.

Others present were Edith and Herma Beckham, Roberta O'Hara, Peggy Brown, Betty Horner, Betty J. Anderson, Margaret Vaughn, and Mrs. Nolan Harris, guardian.

Plans were made for the hike Friday morning, on which the girls went to a spot north of Sam Houston school, built a fire, and cooked bacon and eggs, potatoes, and cocoa.

Hike and Breakfast.

The new Ithaha group hiked west of Pampa, learned to build a fire and cook bacon, eggs, sausage, potatoes, cocoa, and toast. They planned a cake and pie sale for next Saturday at the Purr food store, to earn funds for dues.

Members present were Mildred Miller, Hazel Jo Elder, Elva Smith, Rosalie Dudley, Hazel Nicholson, Melba Williams, and Mrs. Bo Barrett, guardian. Mildred Pierce and Catherine Covington of the younger group were guests.

Mrs. J. B. Austin, who has formerly been active in Camp Fire work, will meet with the younger girls for their program Tuesday.

Mrs. Patton Has Party For Club

Mrs. Otto Patton entertained the Merry Mixers club Friday at the home of Mrs. B. C. Fahy. Spring colors of yellow, green, and orchid appeared in refreshments and package wrappings.

Mrs. J. T. Morrow scored high for club members, Mrs. O. L. Bascham low, Mrs. Cotton high for guests, and Mrs. Hauk low.

MUSICIANS OF OTHER CHOIRS WILL ASSIST

PROGRAM IS OPEN; TREBLE CLEF IS HOSTESS

EASTER music will be presented in a second Sunday vesper program this afternoon when the Treble Clef club, assisted by members of several church choirs, will appear in an open program at the Methodist church.

Last Sunday afternoon the Philharmonic choir sang the sacred cantata, "Olivet to Calvary," to begin the Easter music season. This afternoon's event will start at 4 o'clock.

All who appreciate good music are invited to be present. It will be one of a series of musical vesper services presented by the Treble Clef club this year, and will be followed by a similar program during music week.

Three Accompanists

Mrs. Walter Stein will be the piano accompanist for club numbers. Mrs. Nina McKimming, the organist, and Miss Willie Reece Taylor will play violin obligatos.

Mmes. Sam Irwin, J. W. Garman, H. C. Price, and Carl Sturgeon will be hostesses for the afternoon. The first three form the program committee, while Mrs. Sturgeon is in charge of decorations. The floral setting will be arranged by Emily's flower shop.

Program Outline

Program numbers by club members and guests are announced as follows: Angels Chorus, Schubert, by the Treble Clef club chorus under direction of Mrs. Bratton.

Scripture reading and prayer, Rev. Gaston Foote.

Trio, The Response, Lorenza, Misses Doris Price and Dorothy Dodd and Mrs. Clifford Jones, accompanied by Mrs. McKimming.

Sweet Lady Mary, Treble Clef chorus accompanied by Mrs. Stein. Quartet, selected, by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Price, Miss Doris Price, R. E. Gadlin, members of First Baptist choir.

Rock of Ages, Dudley Buck, by the Methodist choir directed by R. B. Fisher, Mrs. May Foreman Carr, accompanist.

Solo, The Angel Rolled The Rock Away, Scott, by Mrs. Harry Lyman, accompanied by Mrs. McKimming.

H. D. SCHOOL TO INSTRUCT FOOD DEMONSTRATORS

County Council to Meet Monday Afternoon

All 4-H pantry demonstrators of county clubs will meet in the monthly school of instruction with the county home demonstration agent Monday morning at 10. The meeting will be at the home of Miss Ruby M. Adams.

A demonstration of canning methods will be given, which the women attending will later repeat in their separate clubs.

Monday afternoon will be county council meeting time. County committees will meet at 1:30, and the council session is to start at 2 in the county agent's office at the court house.

Visits to the homes of special demonstrators in county clubs will be made next week by Miss Adams as her major work. She will meet with 4-H club girls of Hopkins Tuesday morning, her only scheduled program. The visits with demonstrators will be made to check their progress in special activities, and to give needed assistance.

Tenth Birthday of Thelma Jo Thompson Honored With Party

Mrs. T. O. Thompson honored her daughter, Thelma Jo, on her tenth birthday with a party Monday afternoon. After several game angel food birthday cake and jello were served.

Each guest received an Easter plate favor. The honoree was presented with many pretty gifts.

Auxiliary Names April as Child Welfare Month

Activities to promote the welfare of fatherless children of world war veterans and to induce others to give underprivileged children will have all-day emphasis in the American Legion Auxiliary next month. April has been designated as "child welfare month" by the Auxiliary, during which all Auxiliary units will be called upon to give special attention to the Auxiliary's continuous program for the benefit of American children.

"Ours is the responsibility of assuring care, training and protection to the children of veterans of the world war who find themselves in need of assistance due to the death, disability or unemployment of father or mother," said Mrs. A. C. Carlson, Willmar, Minn., national child welfare chairman. "Our main objectives are:

"To organize the Legion and Auxiliary strength in each state.

"To enlist public attention and awaken public conscience.

"To educate unenlightened members.

"To take care of children in cases where local facilities are not available or adequate, or to give temporary while permanent aid is being sought.

"To increase and improve local child welfare conditions in the states, through legislation, to the end that every state will be able to assume its responsibility to its dependent children.

"It is our duty to see that the birthright of children be not denied our veterans' children, and that a normal, healthy atmosphere in which to develop and grow into manhood and womanhood be given them. We must give them an equal opportunity with other children."

Beauty Consultant To Show Cosmetics

Mrs. Lula Peek, beauty consultant and member of the research staff of the Jonecrae toilet company, will be at Murfee's all this week where she will give demonstrations in the toilet goods department. The latest findings of the Jonecrae laboratories and the newest developments of beauty methods will be presented to the ladies who call at the store. Complimentary facials will be given by appointment.

Sponsor Second In Vesper Series

The Treble Clef club chorus which will sing three numbers on the vesper program of Easter music this afternoon at the Methodist church, is pictured above. Mrs. W. A. Bratton is club choral director, and Mrs. Walter Stein is pianist. These club members are sponsoring the program, one of a series of vesper musicals of this season and one of the outstanding musical events of the Easter festival.

Mrs. W. A. Bratton, above, is director of the Treble Clef club's part on the vesper program of Easter music that will be presented at the Methodist church this afternoon. The club chorus will sing three numbers; a sextet, duo, and soloist from the membership will also contribute to the hour of music.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Lola Yates of Berger and Harry Garretson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Garretson of Panhandle, which occurred on Dec. 25. They will live in Topeka, Kan.

ROOSEVELT SIGNS BILL GIVING PHILIPPINES INDEPENDENCE

ISLANDS WILL ACCEPT PLAN LEADERS SAY

COMPLETE FREEDOM IS TO BE EXTENDED ABOUT 1945

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—With a flourish of his pen, President Roosevelt today wrote upon the statute books a plan for the complete freedom of the Philippine Islands in 1945 or soon thereafter.

To the chief of cameras and in the picture above the measure and members of the Philippine independence mission here, the president signed the McCaffie-Tydings independence law passed this week.

Senator Tydings (D., Md.), a co-sponsor of the measure, said May 1 had been designated as acceptance date for the bill to honor the memory of Admiral Dewey who steamed in, destroyed the Spanish Armada, and took Manila Bay on that date in 1898.

The law provides for United States withdrawal of all military bases in the islands after independence. Derr said this would mean native soldiers of the Philippine Scouts, now used as the island's constabulary, would be mustered out of American service at that time.

The approximately 5,000 white troops stationed there would be transferred elsewhere.

P.-T. A. HEALTH CHAIRMEN OPEN ROUNDUP PLANS

Child Health Record Of Past Year Is Excellent

BY MRS. JOHN M. FOX, Wichita Falls, Publicity Director Texas Congress of Parents and Teacher.

"The Eyes of Texas" are upon the health of its school children.

At this season of the year with the closing of the schools for the summer vacation just around the corner, the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers has reason to congratulate itself upon the splendid cooperation received from the state board of health in the immunization and examination of many thousands of school children during the year just passed.

Mrs. A. F. Wood, state president, states emphatically in her March message to parent-teacher members that much gratitude is due to the federal government without whose assistance Texas could not have aided so many child victims with nourishing food during this season of economic stringency. The CWA funds provided clothing and hot lunches and school supplies to children where it was found necessary in order to keep students in school with a maximum of health.

Appreciation is also due to the Texas society of crippled children, for holding clinics in many places and for taking children to hospitals for treatment in cases where that was necessary. Mrs. Wood reports that almost every parent-teacher unit has cooperated in this work, as have CWA nurses in caring for and preserving the health of the Texas school child through the crisis they have passed through this past year.

In this connection local parent-teacher associations wishing to take advantage of the summer round-up campaign conducted each spring for the purpose of checking up on defective children before they enter school in the fall are asked to register with Mrs. L. E. Ledbetter, state chairman of summer round-up, care department of health, Austin. Blanks will be sent upon application; also full details for carrying on the campaign. Those wishing to compete for national awards must send in their registrations before May 15.

Public health nurses should be contacted and asked to assist. CWA nurses may also be used and all nurses will be given full instructions as to how best to cooperate in this work.

OFFICERS, TEACHERS IN MERTEN P.-T. A. LEAD SUCCESSFUL YEAR

In the above picture are shown leaders of Merten Parent-Teacher work this year, which is closing with a successful record:

Front row, left to right, Mrs. W. A. Neel, secretary; Mrs. E. M. Hope, president; Misses Evelyn Shunkin and Louise McLean, teachers; Mrs. T. L. Thurman, council delegate; Mrs. Jack Higginbotham, treasurer; Mrs. J. C. Treadwell, hospitality chairman; Mrs. D. O. Caldwell, a room mother; Mrs. B. T. Bettis, study club leader; and Mrs. H. E. Knapp, room mother and council delegate.

Back row, left to right, Mrs. W. R. Taylor, finance chairman and cafeteria manager; Principal J. B. Trenary of the publicity committee; Mrs. John Brandon, chairman of publications; Mrs. C. E. Haney, vice president; and Mr. Trenary.

Outstanding in the achievements of this year is operation of the cafeteria. Financial activities have resulted in proceeds of $100. The association has spent $30 for school library books, has installed a drinking fountain in the primary room, purchased 24 auditorium chairs, sponsored a founders' day program, and contributed to a life membership, in addition to study activities.

Merten Party Is Attended By 10

About 100 persons attended an entertainment for the training classes at Amarillo Baptist mission in Merten Tuesday evening. E. M. Hope was in charge of the program.

After the devotional conducted by E. G. Barrett, superintendent of the Sunday school, and an opening prayer by Charles Hunter, a musical program was presented. Lee-man Smith sang three numbers, Silver Haird Diddy, Down the Old Road, and Valley of the Moon, playing his own guitar accompaniment.

Harmonica selections were played by Mrs. Millie Mercer, Jack Mullins, and A. C. Enloe. Mrs. Mercer and Charles Hunter sang a duet, and a piano solo, Old Black Joe, by John Wayne Brown closed the program.

Cake and coffee were served to the guests.

Scout Troop Has One New Member

A new member, Jacqueline Davison, and two guests, Marjorie Cotton and Grace Coffey, met with troop six of Pampa Girl Scouts yesterday morning.

An Easter party was planned for next Friday at 2 p. m. at the Dickinson home, 853 Kingsmill. Each girl is to bring six Easter eggs. The next regular meeting will be at 9 a. m. next Saturday.

Games were played, and the troop attended the movie at the Methodist church. Members present were Vera Evelyn Sackett, Mary Jo Guthrie, Wanda Cotton, Marlene McClellens, Norma Dickinson, Billie Harrison, and Eleanor Gilham.

Episcopal Women Announce Service

Women of the Episcopal Auxiliary will observe a united thank offering service at the church this evening. All are asked to be present and to bring their offering boxes.

The service climaxes a series of Lenten programs that have been conducted weekly at the parish house. Mrs. E. P. Thornton was hostess Wednesday to 12 members including a new member, Mrs. Richard Numm.

Mrs. Earl Powell read a paper on Hinduism that was prepared by Mrs. Kindin.

No-Trump Group Has Easter Party

No-Trump bridge club was entertained with an Easter party Thursday evening at the Crystal Palace, with Miss Althea Chandler as hostess. The room was colorful with floral decorations in Easter note.

Baskets of candy eggs were on each table, whose appointments were of yellow with white lilies. Mrs. C. H. Dunaway, who scored high; Miss Bonnie Patton, who received consolation; and Miss Ouida Brandon, who held the traveling prize, received packages wrapped in pastel colors.

Cake topped with whipped cream, peaches, cherries, and coffee with tiny chicks as plate favors were served to the prize holders and Misses Mildred Plumlee, Helen Sullivan, Mary Patton, Claudia Bran-

EDDIE CANTOR IS ON L'NORA SCREEN TODAY

ROMAN SCANDALS IS SAID TO BE ACE OF COMEDIES

The very idea of Eddie Cantor scurrying madly about amid the decadent magnificence of ancient Rome is so funny in itself that we found ourselves smiling in anticipation before we hit the La Nora theater where "Roman Scandals," the wild-eyed comedian's latest Samuel Goldwyn screen musical for United Artists release begins a 3-day run today.

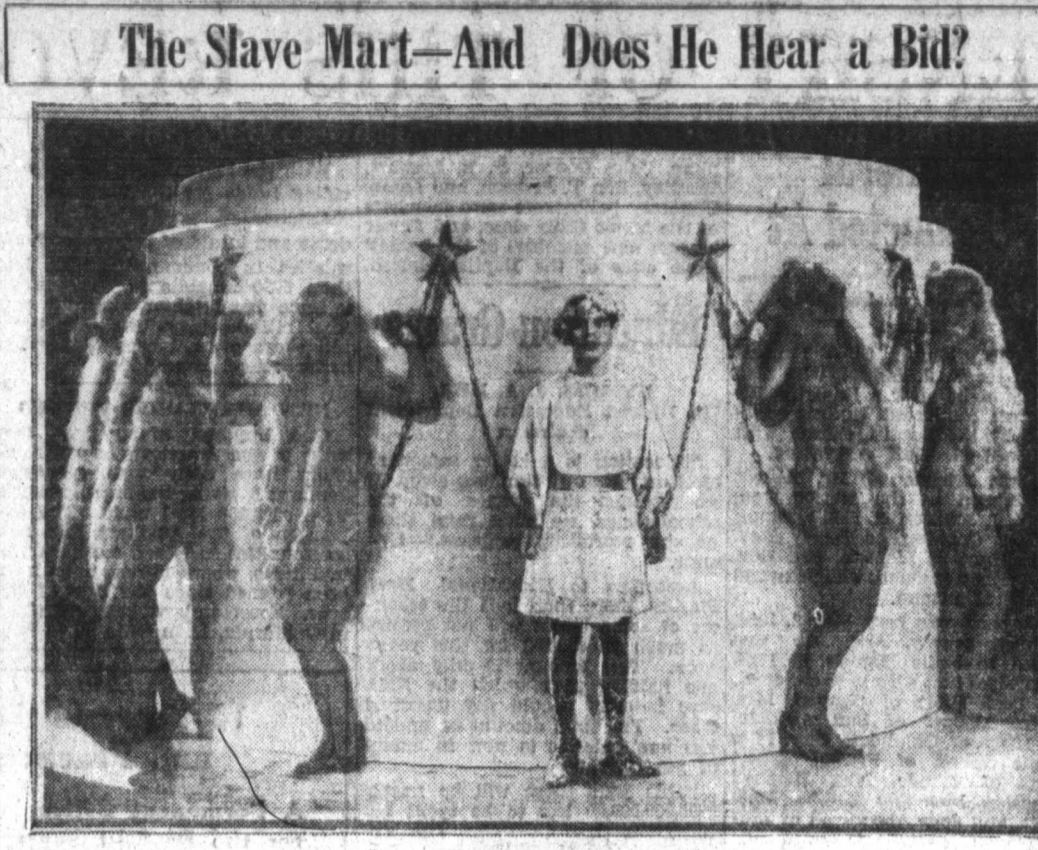

When we got there we went and roared—and so will you—straight through the length of the funniest picture Cantor has ever made.

George S. Kaufman and Robert Sherwood, two of Broadway's top comedy writers, turned out a story that is built around Cantor's bright particular brand of nit-wittedness and gives the diminutive star a million golden opportunities to do his stuff and do it up brown—not to mention black—for, of course, Eddie gets his inevitable chance to apply the burnt cork for a sequence.

Al Dubin, Harry Warren and L. Wolfe Gilbert wrote some swell song numbers for the picture and Eddie's "Keep Young and Beautiful," "Build a Little Home," and "Tax on Love," and the plaintive lament "No More Love" Ruth Etting sings in the sumptuous Slave Market scene, which has been magnificently staged, will stick in your head for weeks after you've seen the picture. These are bound to be hits.

It wouldn't be fair to divulge the plot, because its many unexpected twists and bright surprises make it the delectable film concoction it is. But you should know that Eddie is cast as a wisful lad in the tiny town of West Rome, Oklahoma, who divides his time between driving a grocery wagon and dreaming of the grandeur that was Rome. The force of his imagination finally projects him back into the era of his dreams and there he manages to get himself involved in a variety of fantastic situations while attempting to aid beauty in distress in the persons of Ruth Etting and Gloria Stuart, smooth the course of young love for Gloria and David Manners, expose the wickedness of the Emperor Valerius, played by Edward Arnold—and at the same time, if at all possible, save his own neck.

If you can picture Eddie, arrayed in a brief Roman tunic, set up on the auction block amid hundreds of beautiful slave girls—weak in the knees, but not too weak to toss off a couple of nifties when the bidding gets too insidiously low, you have an idea of the spirit of the story. Eddie's swell in this scene, but then he's swell too, in the banquet scene

LOCAL THEATER PROGRAMS

LA NORA—Today, Monday, and Tuesday, "Roman Scandals," with Eddie Cantor, Ruth Etting, and an all-star cast; also "Snapshots," "Beastalk Jack," and Fox news-reel, Wednesday and Thursday, "Let's Be Ritz," with Lew Ayres and Patricia Ellis; also "Paisie Walsie," Friday and Saturday, "I've Got Your Number," with Joan Blondell, Glenda Farrell, and Pat O'Brien; also "Pet Store," with Mickey Mouse; "Gone Detective" and Pampa Daily News-reel.

REX—Today, Monday, and Tuesday, "The Son of Kong," with Archie Armstrong and Helen Mack; also "Strange As It Seems," and Thelma Todd and Patsy Kelly in "Beauty and Bus," Wednesday and Thursday, "Coming Out Party," with Frances Dee and Gene Raymond; also "How Comedies Are Born," Friday and Saturday, "Outlaw Justice," with Jack Hoxie; also "In the Zoo," last chapter of Phantom of the Aid serial, and in which he figures as royal foot-fester just when there's a plot afoot to poison the Emperor, and in the torture chamber scene, where Eddie's cutting-up puts the Emperor in stitches. The thundering chariot race which forms the film's grand finale is one of the funniest scenes ever conceived.

White Deer Play Beats Panhandle

WHITE DEER, March 24—A cast of two boys presenting "Raw Men" won the county one-act play contest over a four-boy cast from Panhandle here Thursday. The Panhandle boys presented "The Hum-dredth Trick." The winning play deals with two men, one dying of illness, isolated in an Alaskan cabin. The dramatic conflict takes place as one of the men battles with himself as to whether he should leave his sick partner or flee from an approaching snow storm. Prof. Batchelder of Canyon and two of his senior pupils reported an unanimous decision for White Deer.

"Raw Men" will represent Carson county in the one-act play tournament in Pampa April 6-7. The White Deer coach formerly directed a district championship play at Miami where she taught before going to White Deer.

SON OF KONG PRESENTS APE IN NEW ROLE

THEME OF PREVIOUS PICTURE CARRIED FURTHER

"Son of Kong," RKO-Radio's sequel to "King Kong," has struck a stronger note of public appeal than its sensational predecessor. The new adventure spectacle includes a powerful romance between two of its human characters, and a menace monster that reveals a heart of gold.

Many will remember the terrific punch of the original production. Its terrific sequences—and its gigantic ape fascinated with a mortal girl.

According to Ernest B. Schoedsack, who directed "King Kong" and who holds the same post for "Son of Kong," the sequel, the terror dominating the first fantasy has been given a different application in the sequel, the plot of which gets down to a more romantic basis.

"Son of Kong," it is said, has more thrills but they are treated in a more sympathetic theme than in "King Kong." The film's real hero, Carl Denham, the explorer, hanging in mid-air, so to speak, his dreams of fortune shattered by Kong's reign of terror in New York. "Son of Kong" carries on from there.

"King Kong" was a conflict between beast and man, pre-historic monsters and moderns; "Son of Kong" is the story of a union. The Son of Kong, a gigantic white ape, is saved from death by Denham, and Denham's sweetheart. In gratitude Son of Kong becomes their friend and bodyguard. The three of them, the man, the maid, and the ape, then go, side by side, in search of the buried treasure of a lost civilization, and together battle all the modern and prehistoric foe they encounter.

Robert Armstrong, who played the original Carl Denham, is again seen in that role, with Helen Mack playing the part of the girl, who becomes a stowaway on Denham's boat. Some 30 prominent players, including Frank Reicher, John Marston, Victor Wong, Lee Kohmar and Ed Brady are in the cast, with direction by Ernest B. Schoedsack.

DRAMA GROUP GIVES COMEDY FOR KIWANIS

CAST PERFORMS WELL, AND WITH PROFIT, FOR CHILDREN

A crowd even larger than the Thursday night audience saw the Little Theater present "The Cat and the Canary," and the high school give "Smokescreen" for the Kiwanis club at the La Nora theater Friday night.

The proceeds, a satisfactory sum, will be used for the benefit of the underprivileged children of Pampa. On Friday night over 700 almost filled the lower floor. About two-thirds of the balcony seats were taken. The play was declared a financial success.

Director Ed Damon of the Little Theater and his cast of 10 persons received many congratulations for their performances. The mystery-comedy was packed with puzzling and "creepy" situations. Paul LeBeuf as Roger Crosby, and Mrs. Cresidus Gill as Mummy Pleasant, West Indies negro, ardent believer in voodooism, established the secretive and mysterious atmosphere in the opening scene. Mrs. Gill's use of her hands and voice was one of the bits of technique that made the play outstanding.

An out-of-town spectator and a capable dramatic critic said that Mrs. Gill's work closely approached the "mummy" in a professional cast she saw in Chicago. Director Damon saw to it that the various secret doors and panels were opened slowly, adding to the tense situations. Mr. LeBeuf has gained quite a reputation for acting as a lawyer. He was an attorney in "The Trial of Mary Dugan." He was "killed" in the first act of "The Cat and the Canary" after being jerked through a panel in a bookcase, and his fall out of a closet in the second act was sufficiently thrilling to make some members of the audience scream.

Er Fonzville as Harry Blythe, the actor who is bored with everything except loving a girl, in a convincing manner. His jealousy and hatred for Charles Wilder, Reginald Farrell, was real. Mr. Farrell was of course the villain, smooth, hypocritical, hiding his real feelings. In the end he turned out to be insane part of the time. It was he who did the murder, made the enigmatic noises, manipulated the secret panels, and tried to make the heinous gibberish because of fright and thereby take over her property.

Mrs. H. H. Hicks as Susan Silsbly, an old maid, and Dick Hughes as Paul Jones drew the most applause and laughs. Mrs. Hicks could double for Alice Brady any day, and Dick Hughes further demonstrated that he can play any role—old man, villain, hero. Mrs. Lola Beatty as Annabelle West was a beautiful and capable heroine. She had the sympathy of the audience throughout the play. She was the most wholesome character in the play, and her performance completed the characterizations. Wayne Hutchins was impressive as an insane asylum guard—he was so convincing that the audience thought he really was an asylum guard until he was revealed as a hoodlum at the end of the play. Guy McTaggart as the doctor completely assured solution of the mystery as he was supposed to do. He had a small part but did it well. Miss Irene Irvine as Cleely Young was a gassy, heart-throbbly sweet young thing, and performed well.

Mrs. W. E. Boyd and Mrs. Bill Boyd, Panhandle, were shopping in Pampa Friday.

First National Bank Call For Year Is Issued

WASHINGTON, March 24 (AP)—A call issued Friday for the condition of national banks on March 5 will afford a sharp contrast with that of a year ago when President Roosevelt ordered every bank in the United States closed. It was late Sunday night, the day after his inauguration, that Mr. Roosevelt made nationwide the bank holiday already prevalent in many states.

Now more than 5,100 national banks are licensed and operating. These banks on the date of the last bank call, December 30, reported total assets of $21,747,483,000. The call is the first of 1934. The comptroller of the currency is required by law to obtain reports on the condition of national banks at least three times annually. Last year because of the bank holiday the first call was delayed until June 30 and the second came October 25.

Albuquerque Band To Play For Dance

One of the outstanding orchestras in the country will play in Pampa Wednesday night when Jimmie Redmond and his Isle O Blues orchestra plays at the Pampa auditorium. The orchestra comes to Pampa from the Heights ball room in Albuquerque, N. M., where it played for 19 weeks.

With Jimmie Redmond will be Miss June Hall, popular blues singer, George Gore, Columbia Broadcasting system artist, and Bing Miller, nut man entertainer. There will also be presented a tap dancing quartet and mixed trio and glee club singing. Pampans are familiar with Jimmie Redmond's music from Brunswick phonograph records. He will present 11 artists here.

PRE-EASTER REVIVAL TO BEGIN TODAY

Methodist Church To Hold Service Every Day From Now Until Next Sunday.

The pre-Easter revival meeting will begin today at the First Methodist church and continue for a week.

The March campaign to raise the church mortgage will end next Sunday. On the first Sunday of the month, home-coming day of the church, over $6,000 was contributed by members. The amount has increased since then. Renewed interest in paying the debt is reported.

Services will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at 2:30 p. m. this week and will last 20 minutes each. Tomorrow, the day service will be held in connection with the W. M. S. luncheon at 1 p. m.

On Friday a special Three-Hour service from 12 o'clock until 3 o'clock will be held, commemorating the agony of the cross. Other ministers of the city will assist in this service, speaking on the seven last words of Christ. Everyone is invited to come at any time during the service and leave at any time. Evening services during the week will begin at 7:45 o'clock. The Rev. Clayton Foote, pastor, will speak on the following subjects during the week:

Sunday morning, Minding Your Own Business; Sunday evening, Our American Gods.

Monday evening, The Man Who Held the Devil's Coat.

Tuesday evening, Boomerangs.

Wednesday evening, Pampa's Greatest Sin.

Friday evening, Who Crucified Christ? (Anniversary of Crucifixion.)

On Thursday evening, a candlelight communion service, anniversary of last supper will be held.

Roland Leath of Fort Worth will assist in the revival, as worker with young people, organizer and pianist. He will announce special young people's services Sunday.

Elmer Morris, White Deer, visited in Pampa Saturday.

Neal Edwards, White Deer, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

CLAIM PRESIDENT CALLED 'KERENSKY OF THIS REVOLUTION'

Judith Lane

by JEANNE BOWMAN

SYNOPSIS: Judith Dale hears Big Tom Bevins' will read, and learns that she has been left 5 million dollars by her former employer and instructed to finish Bevins' big dam project in Western Texas. She has a clash with Morten Lampere, formerly Big Tom's attorney, who represents the Bevins heirs, and to her chagrin her husband, Norman, Lampere's law partner, sides with him. She leaves the room, but Norman stays behind with Mathie Bevins.

Chapter 16 RECONCILIATION

The door closed behind her, and Judith ran to the nearest elevator, just going down. A cab, then home, she thought. With Delphy spending the day in Galveston and Lige away, too, she would have the house alone. She could cry then, even cry those queer animal cries which seemed to relieve the Delphys and the cook's wits.

In the cab she tried to keep her mind from the scene she had left. She mustn't break down until she had reached the sanctuary of her room. Must think of something. February, lovely month in the tropical belt of Texas, jonquils and violets in sheltered corners, a coral pink mass of japonica in the Main Street parkway.

Janquils and japonica, thought Judith. She'd use them oriental fashion in her brass optimum bowl for . . . she hesitated . . . would she be giving that bridge luncheon for her mother-in-law now?

She paid the driver at the highway entrance, then began the climb to the cottage. Lige should all the way up the hill. You have no modesty at all, Judith Dale . . . and look at the pool lily you plucked, crushed . . .

Judith sat up, looked at the lily, then her husband. "My nose shines and it's all red, isn't it?"

"Isn't it shine, or doesn't it red?" he teased. "Yes to both."

"How did you get here so quickly?"

"I followed you right out but the elevator man slammed the door within an inch of my nose, so I took the stairs, didn't even wait for another car. You were just pulling away from the curb in a taxi, but the doorman had heard my give this address so I hopped in my car and beat you here."

"Oh," she shivered slightly, with reaction to her nervousness.

"Delphy's out, isn't she? Suppose I ped in and make a pot of tea, and we'd better have a fire here on the hearth. There must be something wrong with the furnace burners."

In her room, Judith looked into the mirror and laughed. Her face looked like a topographical relief map, all mounds and hollows.

"He didn't obey Mathie," she sang softly as she worked with hot towels, cold towels, an astringent, cream, a little blue eye shadow.

"Hasn't said a word about the other . . . maybe, oh maybe Big Tom was wrong . . . maybe he will see through Lampere before it's too late."

She donned a pair of boyish blue jouncing pyjamas and darted down the rear stairs to find Norman, one of Delphy's mammoth aprons tied about his middle, bending over the stove.

"Have some scrambled eggs with me," he inquired cheerily. "Didn't have time for lunch . . . like your bacon crisp to, don't you . . . and will you make some toast?"

Judith made the toast, disappeared into the basement and returned with a glass of jelly— "Grape, made it myself," she announced proudly, turning the quivering purple mass into a dish. And then the telephone rang.

"Mrs. Dale," came a voice over the wire, "this is a reporter for the Union speaking. Mrs. Dale, we understand your first purchase made with Bevins' money is to be a diamond necklace."

Judith gasped, then held her temper on a tight leash. Oha had told her that "Treat a newspaperman right and he'll risk his job to give you the right break on a story. Get high hat and the fury the woman scorned brags about is a mere tempest in a teapot." Judith laughed.

"I'll admit I'm going to buy rocks," she said, "but not that kind. If you'll come down to Judge Morgan's office with me some time tomorrow I'll give you an accurate account of how the money will be spent . . . no, not on me, nor mine, but on the Bevins dam. Please, sir, won't you help me? I'm still acting in the capacity of a secretary, and every penny goes to the construction of the dam."

"What do I get out of it?" She paused a moment. She wanted to say, headache, misrepresentation, but realized the futility. "Not a thing unless I am hired as stenographer, then I receive a minimum salary, and living expenses if I go on location."

Later, her face brightened. "Thank you," she said sincerely, and, stacking a colorful array of dishes on the tea wagon, told Norman of the conversation.

"He said, he may get fired, but he'll try to write the kind of a yarn he's come to the conclusion I deserve."

"Fine," said Norman, heartily, as they formed a procession and marched to his den.

'BETRAYING' OF REPUBLIC IS DISCUSSED

'BRAIN TRUSTER' MADE CHARGE, CLAIMS EDUCATOR

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—A republican house member said on the floor today it was the duty of the house commerce committee to call Dr. William A. Wirt, Gary, Ind., educator, to reveal the name of the "brain truster" who Wirt said called the president "only the Kerensky of this revolution."

Representative McGugin of Kansas said there were circumstances "which indicate that there is a band within this department of government which is betraying the republic and is working to undermine the confidence of the president."

The Kansas said if Wirt's statement, that member of the professional advisory group were planning to overthrow the government, was not true "the people, the president and the congress have the right to know that Dr. Wirt slanders the government and some one connected with the government."

At the same time, a democratic member, Representative Bulwinkle (D-N. C.) said he was drafting a resolution calling for Dr. Wirt's appearance before a house committee to "name names" and that he would introduce the resolution some time next week.

McGugin said Wirt's letter, read to the house commerce committee yesterday by James J. Hand Jr., chairman of the committee for the nation, "is a strong statement which charges nothing less than treason to the country on the part of some one of influential position in this government."

Cullen Williams Is Light Weight Champ in Texas

DALLAS, March 24 (AP)—Hard-hitting Cullen Williams, 131, of Denison today holds the Texas light-weight championship by virtue of a 15-round decision recently over Roy Calamari, 134, of New Orleans. Their bout, one of the best since the legalization of boxing in Texas, was recognized as being for the title and drew an estimated crowd of 3,000 persons. It was promoted by Bill Caples.

Williams, hooking across a smashing right cross, knocked Calamari down in the third, fifth, ninth, and fifteenth rounds. Calamari took a nine count in the final round but at the going was on his feet and giving punch for punch with the new champion. Calamari simply refused to be knocked out.

Abbot Funeral Is Conducted At McLean Thursday

McLEAN, March 24. — Funeral services for T. J. Abbot, who died Tuesday night after a lingering illness, were conducted Thursday afternoon by the Baptist church with Rev. Cecil G. Goff officiating.

Oldtime friends of Mr. Abbot, who assisted in the service were Rev. W. J. Johnson of Hollis, Okla.; Rev. L. J. Crawford of Hedley, Rev. Claude Hunt of McLean, and Rev. E. M. Grigsby of Quail, who preached the funeral sermon.

Mr. Abbot was born May 2, 1864, in Union county, Ark. He was married to Judie Daniels in 1887. She survives him with nine children: Mrs. Cecil Bible of Canyon, Mrs. Mildred Cooper of San Antonio, Mrs. Hicks of Oklahoma City, Miss Mamie Abbott of Pampa, Ernest Abbott of Claude, Mrs. Hershell Billingslea, Mrs. Leo Bodine, Matt Abbott, and Jobe Abbott, all of McLean.

A brother, D. L. Abbott of McLean, also survives. He leave 26 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, most of whom were present for the funeral. All his children, a host of other relatives and many out-of-town friends attended the service.

Education-Grants

BY MRS. J. A. HILL, 7th District Education Department chairman

"Education is a better safeguard of liberty than a standing army. If we stretch the wages of the schoolmaster, we must raise those of the recruiting sergeant."—Evelrett.

According to Educational News Flashes, more than half the teachers of some states will not receive as much as $400.00 for this year's work. This amount is only about one half of that which the NEA says industry should pay unskilled labor. The total amount of unpaid teachers' salaries is now in excess of $40,000,000.00.

"This year there will be nearly $600,000,000 less to be spent for education than in 1930. The average salaries of teachers have gone down 26 per cent since then."—Texas Outlook.

"The current educational situation in the U. S. may be summarized in these eight words: responsibilities increased; resources decreased; services reduced; inequalities continued."—Texas Outlook.

RECORD BOOK FINISHED

The publicity record book of the Pampa Parent-Teacher council, telling a story in newspaper clippings of the year's activities, was completed recently when Mrs. Roy Kilgore, Mrs. O. E. Palmer, and Mrs. Claude Lard, council president, spent an afternoon of work. Mrs. Palmer was in charge of making the book, which goes next month for display at the annual district convention in Shamrock.

If Solomon were alive today . . . this is what you'd hear him say!

"So you want to know what motor car to buy? Well, this is my best advice: Pontiac—the Pontiac Straight Eight!"

"First, be sure it is a General Motors car. General Motors, remember, is the foremost automotive organization in the world—with the greatest experience and the finest facilities for building superior automobiles."

"Second, be sure it is an eight-cylinder car. The trend today is unquestionably toward the Eight because of its greater smoothness and finer performance."

"Third, be sure it is a Straight Eight. The Straight Eight engine, you know, has been developed to a state of highest perfection for use in cars of the more popular type."

"Fourth, be sure it is not too expensive. Nowadays you can get good cars for comparatively little money."

"Fifth, be sure it has a Fisher body, for in no other can you get the quality for which bodies by Fisher have long been famous."

"Sixth, and most important of all, be sure it is a car you can be proud of. No car is a bargain unless you can be happy with it."

"Now, if you have studied cars, you will know that there is only one car on the market that meets my description . . . Pontiac—the Pontiac Straight Eight!"

"Pontiac is practically no more expensive to buy and no more expensive to operate than cars in the very lowest-price field. And how much more you get for your money!"

"Pontiac lifts you out of the mass group and into the class group at almost no additional cost. For the big, roomy Pontiac has the luxury look that everybody admires."

"Yes, Pontiac is the car I think the average American family should buy!"

Why not come in and see the new Pontiac Straight Eight—get behind the wheel and put it through its paces!
