MURRAY ARMY STOPS SALES IN OKLAHOMA

GUARDSMEN FORESTALL FORECLOSURES IN COTTON COUNTY

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 16 (AP)—National guardsmen, waving the "protected homes" order of Governor William H. Murray, moved without resistance on 11 fronts in Oklahoma today, either stopping sales of tax delinquent property or finding their work already performed.

In seven of the 11 counties where "Alfalfa Bill" had dispatched his much-used militia with orders to see that no sale was held or arrest officials who defied them, the auctions either had been called off or local authorities said they hadn't planned any. Down at Walters, in Cotton County, County Treasurer Monroe H. Young had read the order of sale to a fair sized crowd when Capt. Jessie H. Jones, commanding three guardsmen, stepped up and took charge.

"So we just called it off," said Young. Asked if he was under arrest he replied: "Not that I know of."

There was no disorder. Both the four guardsmen and the county treasurer were surprised when the former walked in at 9 a. m. at Vinita, Craig county.

"We have orders to arrest the taresaver if he attempts to hold a tax resale," said Lieut. S. A. Huffman, in charge.

"The joke is on you," chuckled Treasurer E. M. Landrum. "We are planning no sale. We advertised none. We have had none since 1930."

"This order looks like we ain't going to have any sale," declared John H. Mason, Bryan county treasurer. "I'll advise you that I, and three sergeants surrounded him at Durant. The sale was postponed until tomorrow but District Judge Porter Newman subsequently issued a temporary restraining order to adjourn it until November 5, when it may proceed under the same notice and advertisement, and it was expected the guardsmen would withdraw."

Two Colorado Negroes Beat Longview Girl

FIREMEN AND POLICE GATHER TO REPEL POSSIBLE ATTACK OF MOB ON ACCUSED MAN.

COLORADO SPRING, Colo., April 16 (AP)—The entire police force and fire department of this city stood ready to repel any possible mob action against George Williams, 20, a negro, jailed for questioning in connection with a beating administered by two negroes early Sunday to Miss Georgia Lindley, 22, of Longview, Texas, and her escort, James L. O'Brien, 19, of Colorado Springs, both students at Colorado college.

Bruce said doctors who examined Miss Lindley had reported that she had not been criminally attacked. She was still in a hospital, suffering from the beating.

COLORADO SPRING, Colo., April 16 (AP)—Scrapings from the nails of a Colorado co-ed were held today by police as a clue to the two negroes who beat and robbed the girl and her escort here early yesterday.

The girl, 22-year-old Georgia Charles Lindley of Longview, Tex., and her escort, J. O'Brien, 19, of Colorado Springs, fought with the men until they fell exhausted. The pair fled, police were told, after robbing O'Brien of $4.

Miss Lindley and O'Brien, returning from a dance, were accosted in front of the girl's home by the two men who approached their car and struck them with a pistol butt. They were forced to drive to an isolated spot near Prospect Lake where they vigorously assailed their captors. Although Miss Lindley and O'Brien finally fell exhausted, the men were so frightened they fled, O'Brien reported.

So valiantly did Miss Lindley fight off the robbers, police said, her fingernails were found to have scraped skin from their faces. These scrapings were taken and carefully preserved.

After a search of several negro homes police announced they had arrested George Williams, "Colohei" Nichols and a man named "Boyd." Late last night student crowds were twice dispersed from around the jail where the men were held. Police Chief Hugh D. Harper said they were "curiosity seekers."

JUDGE DENIES OBJECTION OF LIQUOR ENEMY

PROHIBITION VIEWS TO BE AIRED IN TRIAL CHURCHMAN

WASHINGTON, April 16 (AP)—Evidence that Bishop James Cannon Jr. offered to have a contribution "concealed" during his 1928 campaign against the presidential candidacy of Alfred E. Smith was given today in the trial of the Southern Methodist churchman.

Earlier, Justice Peyton Gordon in District of Columbia supreme court overruled a defense objection to mention of Bishop Cannon's prohibition views. The defense insisted that might prejudice the jury.

A letter purporting to have been written by Cannon to William C. Gregg of "Backpack," N. J., said if he wished to have a $500 contribution "concealed it can be utilized in the literary fund of the board of temperance and social service of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South."

The letter pointed out that contributions made directly to anti-Smith organizations had to be reported to the clerk of the house of representatives.

The Southern Methodist churchman is on trial in District of Columbia Supreme Court with Miss Ada L. Burroughs on a charge of violating the federal corrupt practices act by failing to report all of $65,300 received from Edwin C. Parnason in 1928 to oppose the presidential candidacy of Alfred E. Smith.

New Bookkeeper For City Will Be Selected Soon

Mrs. Ruba McConnell, city bookkeeper, resigned Saturday and her place in the official family will be filled later by the city commission.

Mrs. McConnell left Sunday for Long Beach, Calif. to visit her mother.

The city commission will convene tonight at 7 o'clock, but probably will not name her successor until further consideration of applications.

W. M. Craven has been appointed tax assessor-collector to fill the place vacated through the death of J. H. Blythe. Mr. Craven also will be police judge, as Mr. Blythe was, after he is sworn in tonight.

Special Election at Laketon Is May 5

Laketon's special school trustee election has been set for May 5. Ballots will not be printed unless one or more names are filed 10 days before the election. In the last election, Jay Evans and Charles Talley received 29 votes each, necessitating the special vote.

Miss Bernice Addison of Wheeler visited friends here yesterday.

Mrs. A. J. Nichol of Miami shopped in the city Saturday afternoon.

SENATORS TO WRITE STOCK MARKET BILL AS F. D. R. WANTS IT

TROTZKY, FEARING ATTACK, FLEES FROM HIDING PLACE IN FRANCE

BY FRED ABBOTT, Associated Press Foreign Staff.

BARBIZON, France, April 16 (AP)—Leon Trotsky, fearing an attack on his life by White Russians, fled today from his newly uncovered hiding place in Barbizon.

Neighbors said the communist leader, an exile from Soviet Russia, and his wife left the secluded villa here where they had been in hiding for three months shortly after daybreak in a black automobile. Their destination was not revealed.

Leon Trotsky, toiling behind heavy locks and barbed-wire with two guns in easy reach and police dogs menacing passersby was revealed as the sponsor of a "fourth international" whose guiding principle is permanent revolution.

The exiled Russian revolutionist was discovered yesterday when gentlemen, expecting to find spies, counterfeiter, Stavisky gangsters or gun smugglers, raided his villa on the edge of the Forest of Fontainebleau.

Trotsky said he hid himself behind the high wire fence with its two locked gates because of renewed threats on his life. He suspects White Russians. As a result of the threats, Trotsky was granted secret permission by France to come here from Corsica four months ago, unknown to local authorities.

In the secluded villa, Trotsky's spectacular defenses against detection attracted so much comment that the place finally was raided.

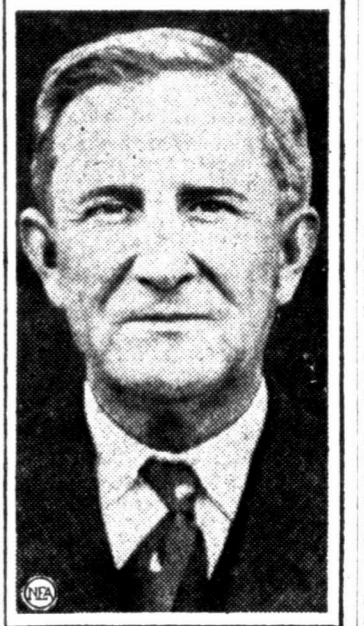

"I am Monsieur Sodroff," the man said.

"No," flashed the magistrate who headed the searching party, recognizing him immediately, "you are Trotsky."

The former head of the Red army of Russia then admitted his identity.

PRESIDENT'S SUGGESTIONS ARE ADOPTED

SPECIALISTS ARE HIT IN LETTER FROM UNTERMYER

WASHINGTON, April 16 (AP)—A senate banking subcommittee tightened up on the marginal provision of the stock market control bill today and indicated it would strengthen the section relating to trading by specialists.

Earlier, house leaders had indicated that President Roosevelt wants definite marginal requirements in the legislation.

Making a final revision of the bill before reporting it back to the full committee, possibly tomorrow, the subcommittee voted to place existing accounts under marginal restrictions June 30, 1936, instead of exempting them until Jan. 31, 1939.

Chairman Fletcher indicated the subcommittee also would revise the section dealing with specialists, saying it was "too liberal" in its present form.

"We will probably prohibit specialists from dealing in stocks in which they are specialists," Fletcher told newspapermen.

The committee chairman explained the exemption to January, 1939, on margin requirements had been placed in the bill to meet protests that sudden restrictions would "force liquidation and deflation."

"But everybody agreed that was too long," he added.

Impetus to tighten up on the specialists was given the committee by Samuel Untermyer, veteran New York critic of the exchange, in a letter to Fletcher.

Untermyer urged that specialists be forbidden to deal in stocks they handle, contending that under present rules they have the advantage of card players with marked cards.

Untermyer urged that specialists be being liberalized too much under the force of "blighting and misleading propaganda."

Net Income Of Phone Company Gains Million

NEW YORK, April 16 (AP)—American Telephone and Telegraph company today reported net income of $3,436,106 for the first quarter of 1934, compared with $3,383,187 in the corresponding period of last year.

Walter S. Gifford, president, in a statement to stockholders, said that during the recent quarter the Bell System had a net gain of 108,000 telephones. This compared with a net increase of 32,000 in the preceding quarter and net loss of 340,000 in the first three months of 1933. Each month since last August has shown a gain, he said.

"Treating the system as a whole and including the Western Electric company," said Mr. Gifford's statement, "the earnings on American Telephone & Telegraph company stock were about $1.53 a share for the first quarter or at the annual rate of $6.12 per share, compared with $5.38 for the year 1933."

First Christian Church Revival Starts Sunday

Two visiting ministers preached the opening sermons of a revival at First Christian church yesterday due to the illness of the pastor, John S. Mullen. Rev. James Todd Jr. spoke in the morning and Billy Reeves, Shamrock pastor, in the evening.

Rev. Mullen is to preach this evening and each evening of the two-weeks' meeting. Mr. Reeves will be in charge of music, including a large chorus of boys and girls that was organized yesterday and will be entertained at a candy scramble this afternoon at 4:30.

Attendance of almost 500 at Sunday school opened the revival yesterday. A goal of 500 was set for next Sunday.

For his sermon, Rev. Todd used the subject announced by the minister, Witnessing For Christ in My Church. He censured half-hearted Christianity and urged display of the same Christianity on week-days as on Sunday.

Special music included a quartet by Mrs. W. A. Bratton, Mrs. Coffin, Bob Koener, and Charles Madeira. Orchestral music opened the evening service, followed by an oration, Witnessing for Christ in My Life, by Hazel Bath. A member of the intermediate Christian Endeavor, she gave this oration at the Christian Endeavor district convention and was asked to repeat it.

Mrs. W. B. Martin of Roxana shopped in the city Saturday afternoon.

TURNING POINT OF JUNGLE WAR BELIEVED NEAR

ARMIES OF PARAGUAY ARE ADVANCING ON IMPORTANT FORT

ASUNCION, Paraguay, April 16 (AP)—The Paraguayan ministry of defense announced today:

"On Sunday our forces advanced 10 kilometers (6 miles) toward Fort Ballivian."

Fort Ballivian is the main Bolivian stronghold in the southwest Chaco.

Death estimates mounted today with reports of a major engagement that may prove the turning point in the long Gran Chaco warfare between Bolivia and Paraguay.

Reports of the casualties inflicted. At La Paz, capital of Bolivia, army leaders said Chaco advances indicated Paraguayan losses at 1,500 men. They added that a Paraguayan regiment had been surrounded with enormous losses.

Paraguayan military authorities in Asuncion, however, denied a regiment had been surrounded, as reported, in the Cochita-Pilcomayo sector. They added that figures show four Bolivians have died to each Paraguayan killed in the border war.

Fierce fighting developed several days ago when Paraguayan forces moved from three angles upon Fort Ballivian, on the shore of the Pilcomayo river. This is Bolivia's most southerly outpost.

It has long been maintained by observers that when fighting centered in this area it might become a turning point in a struggle which has flared intermittently for half a century.

The Bolivian army has retreated systematically toward the general area of Fort Ballivian since the crushing of the main Bolivian battle line at Fort Saavedra last December.

Should the fort fall, Paraguay is not expected to press the drive farther and, should Bolivia hold it, no new Bolivian offensive is generally anticipated.

Before today's reports, it had been estimated that 75,000 men have been slain or wounded in the period of both unofficial and official war since August, 1932.

10,000,000 BUSHELS OF WHEAT MAY BE MADE UNFIT FOR PEOPLE

ROME, April 16 (AP)—Tens of millions of bushels of wheat are to be removed from the possibility of human consumption through a process of denaturation, if plans discussed today before the World Advisory Wheat commission are ratified by the governments here represented.

Under the chairman ship of American Minister John MacMurray, the commission discussed agreements for and against denaturation, and technical means of achieving it. Denaturation means a chemical treatment of wheat so as to make it unfit for human consumption but still very palatable to cattle and pigs.

Denaturation, it was said, would materially reduce world stocks of grain and thus permit the reaching of a firmer market, with higher prices for the farmer. It is the tremendous existing stocks of wheat which depress prices so heavily.

It seems to be the intention of the commission to recommend to the governments of the United States, Argentina, Canada, and Australia, the over-seas exporting countries; the Danubian exporting states, and the importing nations such as England, France, Germany, and Italy, to divide wheat into two classes, reserving the high grade for human consumption and consigning the low grade definitely to animal consumption.

Foreign War Vets To Meet Tuesday

The regular meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be held at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night in the basement of the city hall. Commander Howard Neath urges a full attendance, especially of new members taken in during a recent drive.

Much important business is to be transacted at the meeting tonight. The local chapter is taking an active part in discussion of national affairs. Some phase of veteran work is discussed at all meetings.

Bills providing for two hundred million dollars to help the cattle industry were sent from Washington to Miami, Florida by airplane where the president signed them. A plane carried the bills back to Washington. Senator Connally helped to secure approval in the senate. This production adjustment measure provides for a set-up of four governmental departments.

Congressman Marvin Jones has been chairman of the powerful house agriculture committee of 27 members for some years. Much of the assistance rendered the farmers the past year is directly due to his unceasing labors.

CHAMP AIRDALE WILL CONTINUE TO BURY BONES

Chloroform Order Of Dead Mistress Is Ignored

TOPEKA, Kas., April 16 (AP)—With ears cocked and tail wagging, Pal O'Cragsman heard the news today that he wasn't to be chloroformed but he could spend the rest of his natural days burying bones—if burying bones was beneath the dignity of a national champion airdale—or doing whatever a dog prefers to do in his leisure.

The threat of death that has hung over the dog since his mistress, Mrs. R. B. Barker, died, leaving verbal instructions that the dog be chloroformed after her death, was removed when administrators of the estate instructed that Pal O'Cragsman be kept from harm until a good home is found for him.

"Ticked to death" over the administrators' decision was Dr. Charles W. Bower, veterinarian, who had Pal in custody the past week and to whom Mrs. Barker had given her verbal instructions to put the dog to death. She had feared the highly prized pet might not be given a good home.

The administrators of Mrs. Barker's estate, John Purcell of Chicago, and John E. Kirk, Topeka, notified Dr. Bower that no written instructions regarding the dog's fate had been found and that as he was a part of the assets of the estate he should not be chloroformed.

Dr. Bower has expressed a desire to keep the pet for the rest of its life while two of Mrs. Barker's relatives also have wired offering to give Pal a home.

After Mrs. Barker's expressed wishes became known, hundreds of dog lovers protested and many offers of a home for Pal, who is owner of 100 blue ribbons, have been received.

CHICAGO, April 16 (AP)—Smashing downturns of grain prices today quickly followed Speaker Rainey's announcement in Washington that the president was opposed to any silver legislation during the present session of congress. The downturns were at the maximum permitted in a single day's session, five cents for wheat, four for corn and three for oats.

Wayside Scouts Given Charter

Troop 27 of the Pampa Boy Scout group was chartered Saturday evening at the Wayside school north-east of here in ceremonies in which Executive C. A. Clark, Vice-President Gilmore N. Nunn of the Adobe Walls council, and Gaston Foote took prominent parts.

Mr. Nunn made an inspirational talk then presented the charter to J. M. Daugherty, chairman of the troop committee. Mr. Daugherty made a short acceptance speech in which he pointed out the good that the troop would do. Officers of the troop were installed by Executive Clark. E. W. Hogan is scoutmaster, assisted by Paul Caylor. Other committee men are P. R. Sloan, C. L. Thomas, and John Turcott.

The Scout troop officers were given their commissions in an investiture ceremony, then the boys of the troop were officially taken into troop 27. Rev. Foote made a stirring talk on the meaning of Scouting to boyhood.

Mothers of the boys then served a delicious meal to all present.

PROBLEMS OF LAW ENFORCEMENT

Federal problems of crime control really begin when agents come in contact with politics in the biggest cities—and occasional small ones. True, new laws will give federal agents more power to step into local situations. But Pampans well know that signs of federal activity are far between and important. That is the record in the past—maybe the future will hold something more impressive.

Significantly enough, it is stated at the capital that federal agents will be enabled to strike directly at gangsters "now shielded by crooked politicians or city officials."

It will be a fine thing if the federal authorities actually do this; and it will be even finer if by doing so they force us to realize what the real trouble has been.

Nothing could be much odder than the way in which we Americans berate the inefficiency of our police in dealing with organized crime, while we simultaneously put up with the kind of municipal politics which makes such inefficiency inevitable.

How is the ordinary big city police force administered, anyhow? Well, the voters in their wisdom elect as mayor John Doe, who is known to be hand in glove with the most unscrupulous political gang in town.

Mayor Doe appoints Lieutenant Hoozis chief of police; Chief Hoozis immediately promotes all the officers who favored John Doe's election and demotes those who did not.

Hoozis knows he will stay chief of police as long as he keeps on the good side of Mayor Doe, and one of Mayor Doe's chief allies is the high powered lawyer whose clients include the biggest racketeers in town.

Furthermore, Mayor Doe is busy selling special favors to some of the town's best citizens, so the general atmosphere is hardly conducive to strict honesty.

As a result, Hoozis keeps his trap shut, does as he is told, and makes hay while the sun shines.

A couple of years later some other politician beats Mayor Doe, a new chief is appointed, and the same routine is followed, with a new set of names.

Now this is the sort of thing that is put up with in the great majority of our cities. The wonder is that the racketeers and gangsters haven't walked off bodily with most of our city halls.

If this federal campaign makes us realize that the war on crime ultimately stands or falls by local political conditions, it will be worth all its costs.

HANDICAPPED RANGERS

Recent bandit outrages giving rise to agitation for some form of state police to protect lives and property and run the criminals to earth makes doubly interesting a review of some of the acts of the economy legislature a year ago.

At that session the legislature slashed the appropriations for the state rangers from $156,000 a year to $82,000 a year. Personnel of the rangers was reduced from 46 to 32 men. Pay of captains was cut from $270 a month to $150, while that of privates was reduced from $167 to $115 a month. Appropriation for ammunition was slashed from $500 to $375.

Of course this possibly has no relation to the subsequent bandit outrages, including a trail of bank robberies and murders; but it does serve to show how seriously the ranger force has been handicapped in the last several months.

As it stands today the famous Texas ranger force is only a shadow of its former greatness, with a sadly depleted personnel, reduced expense account, and underpaid operatives. With such men as it has, with greatly reduced traveling allowances, and with the demand upon its time greater than in several years, the ranger force is an overworked crew.

If Texas is to have a state police force, the rangers offer the best nucleus. That organization dates back nearly a hundred years, with a great tradition of service. It would be comparatively inexpensive to expand it to 100 or more men, furnished with fast automobiles and machine guns, and supplied with adequate funds for travel.

Such a force should make short work of the outlaw gangs who have been terrorizing Texas for the past several months.—Abilen Morning News.

COLORADO MAKES BIG PLANS FOR LIONS CONVENTION THERE

COLORADO, April 9.—A full program of activities to feature the annual District 2-T Texas Lions convention to open here on April 23 for two days is being mapped by the committee of the host club. Visiting Lady Lions are to be given prominent consideration during the two days, with a round of teas, receptions and other social functions arranged under direction of Mrs. C. Bridgford.

Model luncheon programs are to be staged by the Plainview and Lubbock clubs. President S. A. Humphries of the Plainview club has written Joe Pond, convention chairman, that every Lion registered on the club roster will be in Colorado for the meeting. This club is to sponsor a model luncheon at the open air stadium at the park. Dining at the Country club and Hotel Colorado will follow that evening.

Social attractions, mingled with the more serious consideration of business sessions, are for Tuesday's program.

Judge E. L. Pitts of the Lubbock club has been announced for district governor and his candidacy will be backed by presence of a large delegation of Lions from that plains city. Lubbock, too, is to sponsor a model luncheon during the convention.

Paul T. Vickers, secretary of the chamber of commerce at Midland, informs that Lions from his city will attend in large number. The Midland club will offer Marion Peters for district governor.

On Monday afternoon all visiting Lions and their Lionesses are to be entertained at a barbecue at Reddick park. Later an entertainment program will be given in an open air stadium at the park.

U. S. Aviators Still Unlocated

SHANGHAI, April 16 (AP)—A child's unshakable confidence in her father added a bitter touch tonight to an airplane mystery which may have claimed the lives of three Americans and one Japanese.

Robert's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Robert, of Louisville, Ky., pilot of the airplane that mysteriously was swallowed up by the fogs of Hangchow bay Tuesday, is sure her daddy will return, although her elders' fears increased.

With Gast, on the flight were Ivan Carlson of Dallas, Texas; James Frink of Miami, Fla., and a Japanese business man. Their plane was on the Shanghai-Gastan air mail route.

Since Tuesday planes and ships have scoured the Hangchow bay area and beyond. This morning fifteen pilots went out, flying over the sea and zig-zagging back and forth. Among them was Captain Frank Hawley in a big bomber. They reported no success.

Robert's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Robert, was apprehensive tonight that the flier would not return.

Clyde Gray of Miami was a Pampa visitor today.

C. V. Talley of Miami was in the city yesterday.

PRESIDENT ASKS BILLION AND HALF FOR RELIEF PURPOSES

HOUSING PLAN INCLUDED IN NEW REQUEST

ROOSEVELT INSISTS ON STOCK BILL WITH TEETH IN IT

WASHINGTON, April 16. (P)—President Roosevelt has let congress know in a series of week-end conferences just what he wants it to do, what not to do, and when to go home.

He told congressional leaders over Sunday, among other things, that he shortly would hand them a new request for one and a half billion dollars for relief purposes.

He told them he wants a stock market regulation measure with teeth, and not the kind of teeth the much modified Fletcher-Rayburn measure now carries.

He indicated his willingness to sidetrack, if necessary, some of the less important items of the administration program in order to obtain adjournment by mid-May, but that there would be no sidetracking of those things he regards as vital to his program.

Listed in the imperative class are: Reciprocal tariff, general revenue, municipal bankruptcy, federal insurance on bank deposits, and relief measures.

The $1,500,000,000 relief bill, which was forecast in the president's budget message in January, will include several provisions, namely a housing program and $800,000,000 for the public works program to aid employment. The relief will be made a part of the usual deficiency measure.

The chief executive was described by house members as strongly opposed to the Connery compulsory thirty-hour work week bill, the Lemke-Frazier farm mortgage refinancing-inflation measure and the McLeod proposition for the federal government to pay off depositors in closed banks.

Mr. Roosevelt indicated, they said, that he would not insist either upon enactment of permanent air mail legislation or the Wagner bill to eliminate company-dominated unions. He was also to have expressed opposition to measures to create a central monetary authority.

Although senate chieftains at a Saturday conference gathered the definite impression that some legislation would be recommended by the administration to aid silver in a limited way, Speaker Rainey said the metal was mentioned "but there was nothing definite."

There was some talk that the Dies bill to give a premium on silver sent here from abroad in exchange for surplus farm commodities might be permitted to pass the senate. It has already passed the house.

PALESTINE, April 16 (P)—Bonner Frizzell, superintendent of the Palestine public schools and well-known Texas educator, announced today for congress from the seventh Texas district. Frizzell recently headed the Texas delegation to the National Education association convention in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Thornton were Canadian visitors yesterday.

Judith Lane

By JEANNE BOWMAN

SYNOPSIS: Judith Dale's effort to complete the Rio Diablo dam according to the plan of Big Tom Bevins, her former employer, is complicated by Marston Lampere's effort to recover for the Bevins heirs the five million dollars left Judith by Big Tom for the dam. Apparently Lampere's agent has led Scoggins, one of Big Tom's loyal supporters, into the belief that the Scoggins farm contains oil, to hamper Judith's work. She is waiting for the report of her geologist before acting.

Chapter 36
SCOUTING TRIP

Judith awaited the return of Geologist Kane, and the town of Big Tom seemed to wait with her; sensitive to the feeling of this mass thought, she knew they were waiting for her to make a move.

"This fellow who's dealing with Scoggins must have told them something," said Slim Sanford, as he sat on the step of Judith's shack.

"If I only knew what it was," said Larson, "we might know how to deal with it. Work has actually slackened off; oh, not the hours of labor, but the efficiency."

"He's probably spread the rumor that we're going to abandon the dam so Scoggins can drill for oil," interposed Judith wearily. "Scoggins made it plain to me that if we wouldn't stop work, they would ask for an injunction."

"But Judith," Slim interrupted, "isn't the dam more important than an oil well?"

"We think so, but the rights of the individual are always important, and it would be up to the courts to decide that. They'd probably have to set a precedent with their decision because I'm sure such a problem never before has come up."

"And meanwhile," said Slim thoughtfully, "the dam work would be lying idle and that wouldn't look so good for you in court, would it, at the time of the trial?"

"She could prove it wasn't her fault couldn't she?" asked Larson.

"Yes," agreed Slim, "but Lampere could use the point against her case. He could say that had Big Tom been in his usual mental health, he wouldn't have overlooked protecting such a salient piece of land from such possible danger."

"And," added Judith, "he could say that of course one could not expect a mere stenographer to foresee and handle such an oversight, therefore proving her to be unworthy of her trust."

"What do you say we hop into my ship and fly up to Scathborne's field? It won't be as trying as sitting here waiting for Kane."

They followed the course of the Rio Diablo up to the point where it forked, one fork working its way into the low lying hills, the other curving almost through a section of brown plain.

Slim, eyes accustomed to reading the far mystery of the earth's topography, sighted Scathborne's field below and started banking through the suspect air, a height where the others could see.

The wooden derrick had been erected, and although the little shed housing the machinery which supplied the dynamo was but half completed, the dynamo was evidently in working order. As they watched lights flashed on and off on the derrick.

Kane was waiting for them when they landed. Judith spied him first and set the rapid pace for the others. Eagerly the trio faced the geologist and waited for his verdict.

"Now of course," he parried, "I'm not psychic enough to tell whether there is oil any place, but I can tell you this much. There is every evidence of Scathborne's having struck a hicky pool."

"And our land here, Scoggins' land?" interposed Judith.

"There isn't any reason, geological or otherwise, to allow anyone to believe there is oil there."

"Then why—" began Max Larson.

"I'll answer that," said Judith with sudden conviction. "It's clear now, the whole thing. Lampere has had an unbelievably lucky break. If Scathborne brings in a well, and Scoggins is drilling, Big Tom's dream of building a dam in this valley will be outlawed."

"If there is oil here and the people don't need the dam, don't want it because it will flood the land from which they can win more money than they could in a thousand years by farming it, there will be no more need of my going on with the dam and the logical procedure of any jury will be to return that Bevins money back to Mathile and Mrs. Bevins."

"What are you going to do, Judith?" asked Slim and Larson in unison.

"I'm going up on the rock and I'm going to think," said Judith decisively. "If my eyes tell me true, Scoggins is coming up the hill. Keep him entertained, don't give him your report, Mr. Kane, and I'll be back soon."

She slipped out of the rear door and in the gathering shadows of twilight raced up to the rock. Delphy had asked if this was where she communed with Big Tom. Perhaps it was, perhaps, however that great basin of shadows and the cupped bowl of the sky impressed her with the vastness of the world and kept petty problems from intruding into her analysis of the important ones.

Was there another man, an engineer, do under such circumstances? Which was the more important, oil, or growth? But that wasn't up to her. She had sworn to carry on as Big Tom had wanted without thought of self.

Eyes on the glimmer of the evening star, silver against the spruce twilight, she thought, "What would he do? Suddenly she knew... but without money how could it be done? Big Tom would find a way and so would she."

Judith turned and walked back down the hill ready to face Scoggins.

DOBIE DEPLORES EXTERMINATION OF COYOTE IN 'BRUSH COUNTRY'

AUSTIN, April 16 (P)—Farmers and ranchers of the "brush country" in years to come will rue the extermination of coyotes, in the opinion of J. Frank Dobie, nature expert, writer of southwest lore and University of Texas English professor.

Coyotes are an economic menace in Texas' sheep and goat country, but in the "brush country" they are helpful scavengers and should not be destroyed wantonly, Dobie declared.

The gatherer of southwest legends also deplored the extermination of "the southwest's most legendary animal."

"Legendary tales of the animal are manifold," he said. "Mexicans in the southwest described the coyote as 'astute' and 'sagacious,' and the 'smartest beast on earth.'"

Dobie protested the activity of the United States bureau of biological survey in trapping and shooting coyotes in those sections of Texas where there is no economic reason for their extermination. It is a wasteful expenditure of government funds, he asserted.

Coyotes are nature's balance against an over-abundance of certain obnoxious wild life, Dobie said. Their merits outweigh their faults in most sections other than the sheep and goat country, in his belief. They are, he related, a foe of jack-rabbits, which menace agriculture in some sections of the state. They delight in catching grasshoppers and similarly destructive insects.

"And it is only once in a blue moon that a coyote will bother cattle, for cattle are not afraid of them," Dobie said. His experiences showed. Sheep and goats are easy prey for coyotes because they are defenseless.

Poisoning of the carnivorous animal has given way to shooting and trapping. Use of airplanes is the latest method in coyote hunting.

Malady Strikes Two More Girls

PHILADELPHIA, April 16 (P)—The dread ossification malady, which lays hold of its victims by gradually turning their muscles to stone-like hardness, was said by physicians today to have struck little Katherine and Margaret Maguire, 11-year-old twin sisters.

Already the girls have developed a marked rigidity in their neck and shoulder muscles, and their arms are stiffening.

No cure has been developed for the malady, which is caused by improper deposits of calcium by the blood stream. Medical men explain that if it reaches a vital spot, the victim dies.

Peter Maguire father of the girls, however, insists his daughters are not victims of the disease. Despite diagnosis of physicians, he maintains their trouble is arthritis.

R. J. Mencham of LeFors was a Pampa visitor Saturday night.

5 Arrests Made During Week-End

City police officers made five arrests during the week-end. Four charges of intoxication and one of affray were made. Three pleas of guilty were received and the parties paid off. The other two made appeal bond applications.

A man found bleeding badly from a cut lip and head was taken into custody in South Pampa yesterday. He was taken to a hospital and later placed in jail. He was still under treatment this morning.

CHURCH-GOING CROWDS SET ATTENDANCE RECORDS YESTERDAY

HOUSES FILLED FOR REVIVALS -- OTHER HOURS

SUNDAY SCHOOLS ALL HAVE LARGER CROWDS

ATTENDANCE records were set in a day of church-going yesterday, with special services at the Christian church, where a revival started, and First Baptist church, where a similar meeting ended.

Services will continue each evening for two weeks at the Christian church. The minister, John S. Mullen, will preach and Billy Reaves will have charge of songs. There will be no morning services, but evening meetings will start at 7:30.

Sunday school there was attended by 491; the church was filled at the evening hour, an others were five additions to the church. A district Christian Endeavor conference ended there yesterday afternoon.

Mission Services. First Baptist church closed a revival, but the evangelist, Rev. J. D. Brannon, will remain through Wednesday to preach at Amarda mission daily at 10 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Record crowds were present yesterday, 950 in Sunday school and 235 in training service, and 18 additions to the church. A meeting of the Men's Fellowship society is announced for Friday, beginning with supper at 7:15.

All previous Sunday school attendance reports were eclipsed at the church of Christ with 308 present in the new Sunday school annex. The auditorium was filled for preaching services also.

Presbyterian church reported 139 in Sunday school, including a number of visitors from the Christian Endeavor convention in which the church assisted the Christian church.

Central Baptist church had 163 in Sunday school, and the Methodist church 500.

PROFITS DECLINE. NEW YORK, April 16 (AP)—A sharp decline in net profits for 1933 is reported by the Standard Oil company of California.

Why Liquid Laxatives Do You No Harm

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual need. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose," a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The right liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement, and with no discomfort at the time, or afterward. The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good.

An approved liquid laxative (one which is most widely used for both adults and children) is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a prescription. It is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help, as they may do in the case of cathartics containing mineral drugs. Ask your druggist for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Member N. R. A.

NATIVE FLOWERS AND SHRUBS RECEIVE ATTENTION IN TEXAS CONSERVATION WEEK, APR. 15-21

BY BERTHA MCKEE DOBIE. Conservation Chairman Texas Federation of Garden Clubs.

Written for The Associated Press. AUSTIN, April 16 (AP)—At the instance of the Texas Federation of Garden Clubs, Governor Miriam A. Ferguson has proclaimed April 15-21, fittingly including San Jacinto conservation week. In a way this first formal observance takes on the nature of a jubilee, so much has been accomplished through many agencies.

The highways are now being made beautiful with native growths. A year ago the Texas Federation of Garden Clubs, acting with the generous cooperation of the Texas State Park board, established a wild flower sanctuary of 100 acres in Longhorn Cave state park, near Burnett, and we are to see it aside in other parks.

Through efforts of the D. A. R. and cooperating societies, Texas now has a wild flower protection law. The educational work of the Boy and Girl Scouts and of the inter-club study clubs through the years. Native study clubs thru-out the state have done good work.

And yet we see "the little done the undone vast." Much remains for every individual in Texas to do. In her proclamation Governor Ferguson says: "Each citizen has an individual responsibility and duties upon those who enjoy them." Here follow some of the things we, the aggregation of individuals known as the public can do to keep our wild flowers and our birds.

We can plant on our own grounds such bird food as the wild pepper, dogwood, mulberry, sunflower, and buckeye (for hummingbirds), and provide drinking water. We can urge like action on public grounds.

The women of Texas should be frugal in their patriotic enough to refrain from decorating their club rooms with wild flowers, or even their homes unless the flowers are gathered disseminately from their own property. A year ago a certain club in Texas had a bluebonnet luncheon at which 10,000 bluebonnets served as decoration; this year that same club, awakened to its responsibility, gave a luncheon in honor of the bluebonnet at which not a single bluebonnet was present.

Certain things, such as holly, yucca, Texas bluebell, mountain pink, and blazing star, are in danger of virtual extermination through sale. We can remove this danger simply by refusing to buy from any person who cannot furnish proof that in accordance with law the berries or flowers he sells have come from his own property or from that of another who have given written permission.

As long as it is possible we should avoid running over areas on which wild flowers grow or mowing them before reseeding has been accomplished.

We can encourage interest in native growths by planting them at home and on waste places. Nurserymen offer several native shrubs, duduobeni among them yucca, redbud, wild plum, dogwood, wild azalea, leucophyllum, and agave. Seed of wild

CLOTHES FOR THRIFT ROOM NEEDED NOW

DEMAND IS INCREASING FOR STUDENTS' GARMENTS

DEMANDS on the school thrift room stock are increasing, and more garments are needed now, Mrs. J. H. Hulme, chairman, reports. Those who have usable discarded clothing are urged to give it to the thrift room, through the Parent-Teacher association.

High School Parent-Teacher association will be in charge of the room this week. Mrs. C. O. Seeds and Mrs. W. G. Irving will work there tomorrow, and another committee Friday afternoon. The room is open from 2 to 5 p. m. on Tuesdays and Fridays now.

Since the close of the CWA program in this county, calls for garments for the local Penney store have been increasing. Mrs. Hulme says. Parent-Teacher members will receive donations of needed garments for the room, where school children are clothed.

Penney's Stocks Much Goods For Birthday Sales

H. D. Keys, manager of the J. C. Penney department store here, announced today that the local store had just completed receiving shipments of the huge quantities of new spring merchandise purchased months ago for special selling during the 32nd anniversary celebration of the founding of the company. The anniversary, which is celebrated nationally in all Penney stores, will continue throughout the remainder of the month.

In commenting on his unusually large shipment of goods, Mr. Keys pointed out that the local Penney store was enjoying the busiest season in its history. "March went over big with us here," he said, "and the company as a whole had a large sales increase. The outlook is very encouraging and we are all set to shatter records in April."

Mr. Keys called attention to the fact that the Penney company, in planning for this year's anniversary celebration had bought in enormous quantities, to supply all of their nearly 1,500 stores, and hence had been able to buy very advantageously, so that prices could be kept at a low level.

Tucks Make This Easy to Lengthen

If sister is growing out of her clothes before they're worn out, you'll like this little idea of two tucks near the hem. Let them out as the extra length is needed, without disturbing the lines of the frock. You can provide for a generous hem, as well.

A little floral-sprigged dainty would be charming with sheer handkerchief linen for the tiny scalloped collar. Rows of shirring at the neck form the yoke, and two more rows gather in the fullness of the short sleeves. Size 6 requires 2 1/2 yards 39-inch print, 1/2 yard 39-inch plain for collar.

Pattern No. 5499 is designed for sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8 years.

MISS ADAMS IS BRIDE OF D. FOLLOWELL

Recent Marriage Of Groom's Brother Announced

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Jane Adams and Dale Followell was solemnized yesterday, and the marriage of his brother, Clem Followell, and Miss Marjorie Neil of Denver was announced this week-end.

Yesterday's ceremony was read by the Rev. Gaston Foster, Methodist minister, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Adams, 912 E. Browning. Relatives and a group of intimate friends of the couple were present. Miss Adams wore navy taffeta with white accessories.

The bride has grown up in Pampa, attended high school here, and been popular in younger circles. Mr. Followell of Denver, was educated in Denver schools and came here last fall in the employ of the Atlas Carbon company.

His parents came down from Denver for the wedding. Miss Adams was accompanied by the bride of Clem Followell, whose marriage on March 25 in Denver was announced. The groom has resided here since last summer, and is employed at the Thompson hardware store. Both couples are at home here.

SAN ANTONIO'S ANNUAL FIESTA BEGINS TODAY

Flower Battle Will Attract Hundreds Of Visitors

SAN ANTONIO, April 16 (AP)—It will be five days that San Antonio again this week as Texans converge on this historic city to celebrate the 98th anniversary of the battle of San Jacinto, which won Texas' independence from Mexico.

A full week of festivities, climaxed by the coronation of the queen of the Fiesta de San Jacinto and the ball in her honor Thursday night, April 19, and the spectacular battle of flowers the next day, will attract thousands to the city of the Alamo, whose martyred defenders were avenged by General Sam Houston's "boy army" at San Jacinto.

Oddly enough, the longest and most colorful annual observance of the victory at San Jacinto near Houston, April 21, 1936, is held where a Texas force was annihilated. Forty-six days before the decisive battle the Alamo fell, its defenders fighting to the last man.

Interest in the celebration is greater this year because widespread discussion of plans for an imposing Texas centennial observance two years hence has quickened the appreciation of residents of the Lone Star state for the sacrifices of the heroes of the Alamo and the bravery of the victors at San Jacinto.

Friday the old Alamo mission, in the center of downtown San Antonio, will be bombarded with Texas roses and bluebonnets instead of the grape and cannon balls of a century ago. Beautiful girls riding on flower-covered floats will spray the parade but the weapons will be spring blossoms from the restful hills surrounding this city.

When the observance was started in 1881, the parade was a line of high-stepping horses and carriages. A one-day celebration until 1909, it was transformed that year into a one-week carnival.

The brilliant ball in honor of the queen of the fiesta, her court is one of the outstanding social events of the year in Texas. In addition to the San Antonio debutante group, beautifully gowned duchesses from many other cities and from the state university at Austin add splendor to the royal court.

The Alamo fell March 6. Three weeks later nearly all of an army of Texans who had been captured after a battle were marched out of Golconda and executed at the order of General Santa Anna, commander of the Mexican forces.

These tragic occurrences did not have the effect on the liberty-loving Texans that Santa Anna expected. Instead of making them afraid, the slaughterers filled them with determination to make certain that the sacrifices of their comrades were not in vain.

As the youthful Texas soldiers awaited their surprise attack at San Jacinto on April 21, their shouts of "remember the Alamo—remember Goliad," were heard above the din of battle. In 15 minutes they had routed an army twice their size and had captured Santa Anna himself.

BIBLE CATCHES FIREBUGS

CLARKSBURG, W. Va. — State Fire Marshal F. B. Watkins, told a gathering of fire-fighters that the family Bible often serves as a clue in detecting arson cases. Fire-fighters, he said, usually remove the Bible although allowing other possessions to burn.

MCLEAN CLUB HAS ITS TEXAS DAY PROGRAM

TOWN SENDS MANY TO DISTRICT SCHOOL MEET

MCLEAN, April 16.—The 1934 Culture club was graciously entertained at the home of Mrs. B. F. Gray Thursday afternoon. The subject was "Texas Day." The program was conducted by Mrs. Dwight Upham.

Mrs. Turman Atkins read an interesting original paper on "Sources of Texas Literature." Some important sources noted were lumber, wheat, cotton, fish, oysters, and old history peculiar to the Lone Star state ranch life, cowboy stories, early desperadoes which have influenced the trend of literature of our state.

Mrs. Robert C. Davidson spoke on "Texas Artists" and enumerated Mary Bonher, singer; Wauldine Tanch, sculptor; S. P. Zeigler of the department of arts in T. C. U.; Edwin Smith of Dallas, Julian Ondrick, landscape artist, and Harry McCardle, painter of Texas historical scenes. Mrs. Davidson related several interesting stories from the life of Elizabeth Ney, Texas sculptor of world renown.

Notes by all members brought out many interesting facts of Texas history, state parks, songs, and heroes. Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin, club sponsor, gave an inspiring talk on "Club Loyalty" which received favorable comment from the club critic, Mrs. Stubbfield.

Favors on the delicious refreshment plate were miniature Texas flags. Members present were Mmes. L. V. Lonsdale, Earl Stubbfield, Turman Atkins, A. E. McHaney, Raymond Glass, Bob Thomas, W. W. Boyd, J. S. McLaughlin, O. E. Lochridge, W. D. Biggers, J. B. Hembree, W. H. Wharton, Dwight Upham, Harris King, Robert C. Davidson, and Miss Margaret Glass and the hostess.

Special guests for the afternoon were Miss Ethel Lane, Mmes. Ralph Caldwell, Raymond Hall, and Jack Gray of LeFors.

McLean Attend District Meet. McLean teachers, students, and parents who attended the district interschool meet at Pampa over the week-end, all report a great time, and pronounce Pampa the perfect hostess.

Students entering events from here were: Juanita Brooks who won a silver medal for second place in essay writing. Alton Howard, who represented Gray county in boys' extemporaneous speech; Sun Rhodes, Averill Christian, and Marie Landers who were McLean high school's representatives in the declamation and who all reached the semi-finals; Clela and Mary Emma Back who are wearing lovely gold medals as a reward for winning first place in girls' doubles in tennis; Sybil Young, Juanita Brooks, Clara Faye Carpenter, Emogene and Winifred Aver, Hazel Dyer, Eva Swafford, Juanita Carpenter, who composed the volley ball team.

Ward school representatives were Anadel Sligar and Billie Jean Biggers, who won second place in music memory; L. R. Blevins and Georgia Colebank, who spoke in the ward school declamation contest.

Of the above group, Clela and Mary Emma Back will go week-end to the regional meet at Canyon to vie with winners from the meets at Childress, Lubbock, and Amarillo to see who will represent this region at Austin in the state contest.

Teachers who were in Pampa for the meet were Supp. C. A. Geyer, Miss Lillian Alford, Miss Jewel Cousins, Miss Alene McCarty, John Harding, Mrs. Mary Sligar, and Mrs. Jim Back.

Favorites of the school attending were Mr. and Mrs. George Colebank, Mrs. Willie Blevins, Mrs. Randolph Bush, Mrs. T. A. Landers, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Boyd, Mrs. Chas. Cooke, McMehean, and Chas. Back.

Prof. A. A. Tumpke and Coach Garrison Rush are in A. & M. this week-end with the McLean agriculture boys who are competing in various agriculture contests.

Young Class Has Election Sunday

Officers were elected yesterday for the J. Y. P. class of the Christian church. Harry Clay was elected president, Johnnie Lester vice president, and Madeline Gantz treasurer.

Mrs. Todd is teacher of this group, one of the youngest and fastest growing classes in the church. All young people are invited to join the class, or to visit it at any time. The class has adopted as its slogan, "Just watch us grow."

REHEARSAL ANNOUNCED

A rehearsal is called for 4 p. m. tomorrow for all children who will appear in the spring follies of the Vincent studio of dancing on May 3.

Thomas Presents Senior Dramatic Recital at End

EMID, Okla., April 16. (Special to The News)—Before a large and enthusiastic audience in Phillips university auditorium, Emid, Okla., Friday night, Charles L. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Thomas, Pampa, presented a dramatic recital of Charles Kline's famous comedy "The Music Master." The 14 characters of the play which Mr. Thomas impersonated without the aid of wigs or make-up, were clearly and cleverly depicted and brought alternate waves of merriment and tears to the audience as the play progressed.

Mr. Thomas was presented by Prof. Earl W. Oler director of the school of the drama, and at the conclusion of the recital was the recipient of many beautiful tokens of remembrance. The evening was completed by a reception at the Hotel York.

Mr. Thomas has been four years at the university and is this year a candidate for the degree of bachelor of oratory. The presentation of a full evening play is one of the requirements for a senior in the school of drama. During his four years at Phillips, Charles has appeared in many plays and entertainments, notably "Dracula," "Sun-up," "Monseur Beaucaire," "The Enemy," "Miss Lulu Bett," and others. Next year he is planning to continue his studies in New York.

Mesquite Trees In Full Bloom— Winter Is Over

SAN ANGELO, April 16 (AP)—"You can't fool a mesquite" is an familiar adage among old-time West Texans who say that danger of cold weather returning in the spring never has definitely passed until the mesquite trees start leafing.

Mesquites now are coming out all over this section. Fruit and pecan trees have begun blooming and a few alfalfa are leafing.

Only a few wild flowers are out but recent heavy rains have assured a multi-colored blanket for the prairies during the early months of summer.

County officers have reminded that there is a state law providing a fine of $1 to $10 for picking bluebonnets and many other flowers without the consent of the owners upon whose land the flowers grow. The law does not apply to persons under 17 years of age.

PLAINVIEW'S DAIRY SHOW STARTS AS INCH OF RAIN FALLS

PAUL RUYAN SETS RECORD

Winter Golfing Marks Have Never Been Equalled; Was Biggest Money Winner.

By HERBERT W. PARKER Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 16 (AP)—Paul Ruyhan, little shot-maker from White Plains, N. Y., hung up a scoring record during the winter golfing wars that perhaps never has been equalled.

Biggest money winner of the season, Ruyhan smacked par around so fastly that his average per 18-hole round was only a fraction over 71 strokes, an astounding feat in view of the fact that the White Plains star was one of the busiest of all the pros during the season that took the "hustler" wilders thru California, Texas, Florida, Georgia, the Carolinas, and Virginia as well as to Agua Caliente in Mexico.

All told, Ruyhan used up 4,356 shots in 61 rounds, a tabulation of the winter's scoring records made public through the Professional Golfers' association showed today. That figures an average of 71.25-61 per 18 holes. Taking it another way, he was 36 under four for 1988 holes of medal play.

Glen Dura, the gay caballero from Los Angeles, and Willie Hunter, another Los Angeles luminary, also compiled average scores that belated 32 per round but they played only 18 to 17 rounds respectively.

The real runner-up was the sensational newcomer from Denver, Icy Lafloo, who averages 72.20-54 strokes in 54 rounds. "Lighthouse Harry" Cooper of Chicago was third among those who played 40 rounds of more with average of 72.11-13. Trailing him were Denny Shute of Philadelphia, Johnny Revolta of Milwaukee, and Horton Smith of Chicago.

Smith, second only to Ruyhan in money winnings, was the only player who played more rounds than the White Plains ace. The one-time "Joplin Ghost," staging real comeback after several lean years, played 62 rounds and averaged 73 strokes.

Although Ruyhan set up scoring records in the Belair West Coast tourney with 276 and in the tournament of Gardens at Charleston, S. C., with a fourth-round 65 and a 78-hole total of 273, he saved his chief fire for Cavalier open where he put together almost unbelievable rounds of 69-68-67 for a total of 270, undoubtedly the lowest score ever shot in a recognized tourney.

In addition to these victories Ruyhan also won the National Capital Open, Pasadena and St. Petersburg tournaments, tied for the Mid-South title, finished second teamed with Smith, in the International Four-Ball, and tied for third in the Golf Masters' classic at Augusta.

ENTRY LIST IS LARGEST SINCE EVENT OF '30

HORSE SHOW WILL BE NEW FEATURE OF EXPOSITION

By HARRY MONTGOMERY Associated Press Staff Writer

PLAINVIEW, April 16 (AP)—Select breedings of the vast dairyland of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico went on exhibit here today at the eleventh annual Panhandle-Pecos Dairy show.

Three leading breeds—Jerseys, Holsteins and Guernseys—were represented. Breeders of 67 counties lying east of the Rocky mountains were on exhibit here today at the eleventh annual Panhandle-Pecos Dairy show.

Entertainment and special educational features play a big part in the show. Each day breeders will take time out from the routine of comparing fine points of their respective animals, to hear prominent speakers lecture on various phases of successful dairying.

Show visitors also will have the privilege of seeing fine horses on exhibition, alongside good cows. The horses will not be seen in the arena until Wednesday and Thursday, but the stables of Lindsey Nunn, Amarillo; and Dr. George P. Groat, Panhandle, already are represented.

Unsettled weather alone threatened the success of the show. Grady Shipps, secretary-manager, said the advance entry list was the largest since 1930, when entries reached a peak, but some en route to the show met with difficulties. A strong rain fell after midnight last night, but heavy clouds threatened to bring additional rain. Further rains would cut attendance at the show but to most of the persons living in the territory, would probably be looked upon as more beneficial than the exposition itself.

Stock judging will not begin until tomorrow. Meanwhile, 4-H club vocational stock judging teams from the county, will be seen in the ring and various classes of the three breeds represented for competitive judging.

Twenty-six cows were entered in the butterfat production contest, the only event in the show open to grade cows. The final milkings will be late today.

SHREVEPORT, La., April 16 (AP)—Police sought a "pleasing" man of about fifty years of age today for the slaying of Mac Griffin, 15.

The girl's body was found in a woods near an exclusive section of West Shreveport, her throat slashed and her flowered yellow dress partly torn away. Dr. Willis Bivler, coroner, said the victim was evidently that the girl had been attacked criminally. He said she had been dead two or three days.

Mrs. Maggie Peters, widowed mother of the girl, told officers that after much persuasion she had consented to let her daughter to accompany a "Mr. Jackson" to the latter's home where it was understood the girl would serve as a companion to his ill wife.

The noted criminologist Dr. Edward Oscar Heinrich of Berkeley, said Inspector E. W. Beekman of the Rotterdam police informed him the suspect goes under the pseudonym of "Bernard Putnam."

His real name is Pieter Jaarman, the inspector said, and he was born in Holland in 1900. Beekman said the man also has posed as a Chicago engineer.

The noted criminologist Dr. Edward Oscar Heinrich of Berkeley, said Inspector E. W. Beekman of the Rotterdam police informed him the suspect goes under the pseudonym of "Bernard Putnam."

Other notables whose friendship apparently had been won by the man, Heinrich said, were Charlie Chapman, Jeanette MacDonnell, Claudette Colbert, Clive Brook and Marlene Dietrich.

Coltexo Beats Indians 8 to 4

Win turned a good ball game into a stunt yesterday afternoon as the Coltexo Carbon team defeated the Pampa Indians 8 to 4 at Coltexo City east of LeFors.

Coltexo has the makings of a strong team. A number of good hitters provided scoring power while some promising pitchers and an up and coming fielding team gives an idea of defensive strength.

The teams gave a good exhibition despite the unfavorable conditions and will meet again soon for another battle. The Indians were shot most by the strong wind. Acklam caught for the Indians with White on receiving duty for Coltexo.

Excellent spring training weather aided in getting Texas leaguers into splendid physical condition for the start of the long championship grind.

President J. Alvin Gardner is confident the league will enjoy a successful season.

"Last year was a trying one and we got through," he said. "I am definitely sure this year's race will be as difficult as the first, but the final end of the game, Dallas and Santone owners will get competition from the races the first two weeks of the season, but baseball still will be here when the race track is closed. I expect to see a close pennant race, and am sure doubtful critics will be surprised by the improvement in attendance at all parks this season."

TO THE RESCUE NORTH SYDNEY, N. S.—The father of the town lock-up, George Forsyth, 70 years old and crippled, awoke to find his room filled with smoke. The jail was on fire. Hurrying through the corridor he unlocked the cells and escorted three prisoners to safety. They had been asleep and might have been overcome.

Regional Tournament Will Be Held Next Saturday; Lamesa Is Favored.

The cream of Panhandle high school athletes will gather in Canyon Saturday to compete in the regional track and field meet to decide who will go to Austin to the state meet. The first four place winners in district competition Saturday will be eligible to compete in Canyon.

Dumas won the District 1 title with Pampa taking District 2. Lamesa and Childress were the other winners. Sixteen athletes will be eligible to enter each event.

Time made in eight events of the District 2 meet here last Saturday were better than the times in District 1 competition. The greatest difference in time was found in the mile event in which the District 1

JAKE ATZ TO PILOT TULSA OILERS CLUB

TEXAS LEAGUE SEASON WILL OPEN ON TUESDAY

By BILL PARKER Associated Press Sports Writer

When the Texas league barrier drops Tuesday on the thirty-third annual championship chase it will be a happy occasion for veteran club owners and players of President J. Alvin Gardner's circuit. It was made possible Sunday night when Art Griggs, president of the Tulsa Oilers, announced the signing of Jake Atz, former Port Worth skipper, to pilot Tulsa.

If there is a man in baseball-Texas league moguls like to see do well it is Jake Atz.

The appointment of Atz removes the managerial burden from Griggs who served last season as president and manager. At Port Worth, Atz won six consecutive pennants beginning with the 1920 season. He won five Dixie series crowns. He has piloted clubs through 14 full seasons and has been at the helm during parts of three other campaigns. With a stronger Tulsa club in the race this season, Atz promises not to only keep the Oilers leading for the pennant but to be a managerial idol at Tulsa.

Atz, "Dutch" Lorbeer and Del Pratt are either new managers this year or in Atz's case, connected with a different club. Other places Bob Coleman at Beaumont, and Pratt succeeds Atz at Port Worth. With the managerial lineup in the clear, the next best piece of news will be the opening games for the flag and the right to represent the Texas league in the annual Dixie series against the South-eastern association champion. The team winning the straight through pennant will receive a where it may finish in the play-off.

Day-time baseball is the order. Club owners frankly admit they will not turn on the flood lights unless it is absolutely necessary in order to stimulate interest and draw patrons to the games.

Today's Big News In Washington

The tariff, foreign entanglements, the budget and Senator Huey Long are all forgotten in Washington today. The reason is that they're pulling off the biggest show of the year at the capital

—the opening of the baseball season. The chief actors are shown above. President Roosevelt will lead off the first ball as Joe Cronin, upper right, manager of the Washington Senators, leads

Crosby Deplores Stars' Silence on Snatch Threats

HOLLYWOOD, April 16 (AP)—Bing Crosby, who with his wife and baby son, is under constant guard because of purported kidnap threats, believes the police and public should be told by all other Hollywood stars who receive similar threats.

"A large percentage of Hollywood folk who have received kidnaping and extortion threats have adopted the attitude of silence," the singer and actor said.

"Ann Harding, Mae West, Marlene Dietrich, and a number of other film stars have made known threats against their homes and lives, and I think they have been wise."

Crosby said he believed there would be fewer threats—"If the unvarnished truth were told about Hollywood incomes—if the correct figures, not the phoney and highly colored ones, were actually stated, after deducting income taxes, commissions and living expenses necessary for the peculiar positions in which our work places us."

"In my own case," he said, "I feel lucky if I can save between 15 and 20 per cent of my yearly salary, over and above all normal deductions. From a financial standpoint I wouldn't be a great shakedown for kidnapers."

IRISHMAN AND DON HILL WILL GRAPPLE AT PLA-MOR TONIGHT

McShain Doesn't Like College Athletes And He is Also Rough and Tough.

The Irish have sent a delegate to the wrestling wars in the Panhandle and he will make his first appearance at the Pla-Mor auditorium tonight in the main event. Danny McShain, who calls Seattle, Wash., his home now that he is in America, will meet Don Hill, Hollywood's gift to the wrestling game.

McShain is not an unknown by any means. He is a veteran who knows all the tricks of the game. He comes to the Panhandle with a record as long as his arm, having won in the north and east, where he has been going strong for the last year or two. McShain is rough and tough and admits it. He doesn't like college athletes, and makes no bones about it.

It is the wonder that threw Old Klingman out full in an hour and 45 minutes last week. He is fast, clever, and either clean or rough as the opposition desires. Advance dope has it that the going will be rough tonight. McShain said this morning that his bout with Hill would be a warm-up for his battle with Rot Fenton and Jess Willard Thursday night.

"Before, an' they all look alike to me," declared the Irishman. "I looks them rough and tough and Mister Hill will be sorry after I get through with him." Hill said nothing in reply but Pampa fans know the Californian. He doesn't talk much.

Pat Garrison and Joe Bauer will be given an opportunity to settle an argument in the semi-final. They are matched to go one fall, no time limit. Both made no bones this morning about the style of mauling in store for fans. It is going to be rough and those who don't like it had better keep clear of the ringside.

The big card will open at 8:15 o'clock with Andy Gump getting a one fall, no time limit, with Lobo Brown of Amarillo.

CARTOONIST DIES MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 16 (AP)—James P. Alley, cartoonist for the Commercial Appeal since 1916, died in a hospital today after an illness of about a year and a half. Former Minister To Brazil Dies

DIO DE JANEIRO, April 16 (AP)—Edwin Vernon Morgan, 69, former United States ambassador to Brazil, died suddenly today, at his residence in Petropolis, the Brazilian summer capital.

Morgan had served as ambassador to Brazil for 20 years but resigned with the Roosevelt administration. He loved Brazil and returned here to go into retirement.

Mr. Morgan had served his country throughout the world. He had been American consul at Dally, and minister to Korea, Cuba, Paraguay, and Portugal.

His home town was Aurora, N. Y. His 20 years as ambassador to Brazil set a record for American diplomats.

Head of Denton State Teachers College Is Dead

DENTON, April 16 (AP)—The distinguished career of Dr. R. L. Marquis as an educator was ended today by death at the age of 54. Since 1923, he had been president of North Texas State Teachers college here.

A violent heart attack suffered last Friday resulted in his death last night.

He was graduated in 1901 from Texas Christian university, Fort Worth, with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He received a Bachelor of Science degree at the University of Texas in 1902; a Master of Science degree at the University of Chicago in 1903 and a Doctor's degree at Austin college, Sherman, in 1925. He took post graduate work at the University of Texas in 1909.

He taught science at Christian college, Thorpe Springs, Texas, 1903-04; science at John Tarleton college, Stephenville, 1904-08; biology at Sam Houston State Teachers college, Huntsville, 1908-09; West Texas State Teachers college, Canyon, 1910-18; and at North Texas State Teachers college, 1918-20.

In 1920 he became president of Sul Ross Teachers college, Alpine, holding this post until 1923, when he accepted the presidency of North Texas State Teachers college.

Rancher Shoots 'Wrong Man' Says Boy As He Dies

ALPINE, April 16 (AP)—Jack West, well-known Brewster county rancher, faced examining trial today for the fatal shooting of Johnnie Tyler, 25, in an Alpine cafe yesterday. "I thought I told you never to come back here again," witnesses quoted West, 45, as saying to Tyler as he walked up to the Sanderson man. Tyler made no move or reply when spoken to.

West, according to witnesses, drew a pistol and started shooting at close range. Tyler tumbled to the floor with four bullets in his body.

"He got the wrong man," was the only statement Tyler made before his death. No motive for the shoot was revealed.

West surrendered to the sheriff. He has lived here for more than 20 years and operates a ranch about six miles west of Alpine.

Tyler's family is prominent at Sanderson.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, April 16 (AP)—Stocks pointed definitely downward today coincident with weakness of grains. Heavy selling came into both equities and cereals following word from Washington that silver legislation was not on the presidential program for this session of congress. Losses of 1 to 3 or more points were shaded in the last few minutes, but the close was heavy. Transfers approximated 1,400,000.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, April 16 (AP)—Severe downturns of all grain prices today formed a vivid contrast with conditions a year ago, when quotations started upward on account of inflation.

Just before trading ended, all grains broke the full limit allowed in any single day, or came within a fraction of the limit.

Wheat collapsed 5 cents, corn 4 cents and oats 3 cents a bushel. This was the first time in many weeks that the limit on one day's fluctuations in the grain markets has been effective.

Wheat closed excited, 4 1/2-4 3/4 cents a bushel under Saturday's finish. May 80-80 1/2, corn 4-4 1/4 down, oats 3 1/2-3 3/4 off, and provisions showing a setback of 5 to 15 cents.

Fremming Talks Strike When U. S. Board Displeases

WASHINGTON, April 16 (AP)—Wage differentials proposed for the oil industry by the code authority were disapproved Saturday by the Petroleum Labor Policy Board, but a union leader said the victory was only negative and that a nation-wide strike would proceed.

The differentials, put forward by the planning and co-ordination committee for the industry, were denounced by William Leterson, chairman of the Labor Policy Board, as an effort by employers to set wage minimums without consulting employees, and through the force of the government.

He added the differentials—which Harvey Fremming, head of the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well, and Refinery Workers has opposed, would be disapproved by the board in its report to Secretary Weeks, the oil administrator.

Fremming, who had threatened a strike in the event the differentials were adopted, said he was disgusted nevertheless, that three days had been uselessly consumed in the hearing and criticized Leterson for not having made known the board's views earlier.

"It is true we opposed those particular differentials by the board," Fremming explained.

"Nevertheless, that is only a negative victory. We beat off atrocious wage scales proposed, but we haven't yet got anywhere toward assuring better wages. We are disgusted with government agencies and aren't going to try them any more. A strike vote is proceeding. The only way to test this thing is to use our economic strength."

"Does that mean a strike?" he was asked.

"It does, if a strike is necessary." Officials of the Oil Workers local 235 said they had not been asked to take a vote on the proposed strike.

Major Ocker To Be Transferred

SAN ANTONIO, April 16 (AP)—Major William C. Ocker, blind-flying expert, acquitted recently by a court martial of having made derogatory remarks about Lieut. Col. H. B. Claggett, his superior officer, has been ordered transferred from Kelly to Brooks field.

Col. Claggett is stationed at Kelly field. Major Ocker was exonerated by the court after a 9-day trial, the verdict bringing applause from a crowded court room. Major Ocker declined to comment on the transfer order today.

W. M. Gortzelik of White Deer transacted business here Saturday.

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY BY O.E.H.

(Continued From Page 1) he notified and make their plans for a great home coming of old neighbors and friends in Roberts county and elsewhere. A good program of entertainments, like we had in the good old days, can be arranged for a tie or two days picnic.

HOMER STEEN in Floydada, Hesperian—Maturing years have had a mellowing influence on the militant James E. who formerly sang a song of hate for his enemies at every opportunity. Now Mr. Ferguson makes it a point to mention somewhere in every talk that he hates nobody, generally using the homely Texas double negative "I don't hate nobody."

JIMMIE GILLENTE in Wellington Leader—I sure am a believer in the signs. Did you ever see a fish jump up out of the water? When you see a fish jump like that you can just figure that he is looking at the sun or moon to see if they are right or not—and if they are not, he just goes back down and waits until they get right.

TOM WAGGONER in Claude News—The latest information we have is that air planes will soon be speeded up so that a lady buying a dress in Paris will be able to land and wear it in the United States before the fashion changes.

W. W. SIMMONS in White Deer Review—Children who use the streets as playgrounds are running the risk of death and injury. Last year 1,680 were killed and 48,100 injured while playing in the streets.

SAM M. BRASWELL in Clarendon News—Some things worth remembering: The value of time, the pleasure of working, the worth of character, the influence of example, the dignity of simplicity, the power of kindness, the success that comes from perseverance, the obligation of duty, the virtue of patience, the wisdom of economy, the joy of originating, and the profit of experience.

T. A. LANDERS in McLean News—"We are in for a summer pestilence of flies this year, if the number of town cows and other animals can be taken as an indication, for there are more of them in the city limits than ever before. Not only is town stock a nuisance from a sanitary and health standpoint, but some of them are loose every night and they are being staked to park trees and along the streets, to the inconvenience and destruction of the property of others."

Modern Treatment Of Hip Fractures Cuts Fatalities

DALLAS, April 16 (AP)—Modern treatment of hip fractures in elderly persons has reduced fatalities from 40 to 50 per cent to about 12 to 15 per cent. Dr. W. B. Carrell of Dallas said today at the opening session of the semi-annual meeting of the Texas Surgical Society.

Nine persons were taken before Justice James Todd Jr., during the week-end. Eight were charged with drunkenness and one with affray. All pleaded guilty, but not all had paid their fines this morning.

No Divorce, Says Nila's Husband

CHICAGO, April 16 (AP)—Nila Cran Cook's former cabin boy husband described their romance as the "oldest, strangest in history."

Arriving here early today from New York, Albert N. Hutchins expressed surprise that his wife sought an annulment of their marriage.

"But an annulment can't be granted after two people have lived together as we did," he said. "To get a divorce, Nila would need grounds, which I do not intend to give, and anyway that would take six months at least."

"No, I'm afraid Nila will have to stay married to me whether she likes it or not."

Mrs. Hutchins said in New York, in announcing her plans for an annulment in California, that her husband was "lost" out of his romantic element and setting at sea.

Lee Woodward of San Antonio, former Pampian, is visiting in Pampa for a few days.

Wife of Richard Bennett Asserts Spouse Beat Her

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., April 16 (AP)—Mrs. Richard Bennett, wife of the veteran actor, brought reports of domestic trouble in the Bennett family to a head today with charges her husband had beaten her.

She asked Bennett's arrest in a warrant charging battery. Her attorney, Milton Cohen, said she was "very badly hurt."

Persons present when Mrs. Bennett appeared Saturday before a police court judge to swear out the complaint said she bore a cut over one eye, and appeared to have been struck on the nose.

The warrant was not served on the stage and screen star, however. For police found that the Bennett residence is outside the Beverly Hills city limits. Bennett was reported to have left for New York where he said he would appear in a play.

In making the announcement of his New York engagement last week, Bennett said that during his absence his wife was going to live with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Galt at Los Gatos. He denied they were separating permanently.

Bennett is the father of the three coveted sisters, Joan, Constance, and Barbara. They are daughters of his first wife, Adrienne Morrison, actress. He married his present wife shortly after she and Miss Morrison were divorced.

Mobeettie Woman Succumbs in City

Mrs. Jess Godwin, 37, of Mobeettie, died in a local hospital this morning following an illness of two weeks. Mrs. Godwin had been a resident of Mobeettie for 27 years. She was well known in Pampa and surrounding territory.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed. The body is at rest at the Stephenson Mortuary.

Mrs. Godwin is survived by her husband and three daughters, Irene, Ruth, and Juanita, all at home. Other survivors are her father, H. H. Luttrell of Mobeettie, and a brother, Elmer Luttrell of Pampa.

CHASTAIN BETTER

Ray Chastain is recovering at Wesley hospital from an appendectomy. He was critically ill for a few days following the operation Wednesday, but is reported much improved this week. Chastain is a former Harvester football star.

Ways to Prevent Blowing of Soil Are Recommended

AMARILLO, April 16 (AP)—Immediate unified, community control in the reclamation of the agricultural experts of five states for the control of soil blowing in the drought area.

Fifteen men, known as the dry farming experts of Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas, and Texas, and headed by O. S. Fisher, Washington, D. C., of the department of agriculture, at noon today completed a conference here to draw up recommendations to the federal authorities. They termed the condition of the wheatlands "serious" in the states which produce approximately 60 per cent of the wheat of the United States.

The recommendations to the federal authorities are secret, but the conference leaders announced that contour listing, strip farming, the use of narrow plantings of two or more drills of sorghum at intervals across the path of the prevailing winds as field borders to prevent blowing hazards from the roads were some emergency measures suggested.

"I'LL BE SINGING YOU" LOS ANGELES, April 16 (AP)—Charging that David O. Zellnick, motion picture producer, owes her $1,500 rent on her residence in Bel Air, Colleen Moore, actress, today filed suit to recover that sum. The complaint stated Zellnick occupied the residence from November 6, 1933, to December 6, and did not pay the rent upon demand.

Dr. W. B. Wild was able to be out this morning following an illness which confined him to the hospital.

The Nicest LAXATIVE for Busy People

Just as autos have replaced horses, science has developed and proven a new, more thorough and prompt-acting laxative called Feen-a-mint. Feen-a-mint is the delicious chewing gum laxative. It contains a laxative ingredient regularly prescribed by physicians. Feen-a-mint is better than old-fashioned laxatives, because chewing distributes the laxative uniformly into the system, thus insuring a "full" action without shock or irritation to even the delicate digestive organs of children. The pleasant, gentle but complete action of Feen-a-mint does not interfere with usual duties. Rid your system of constipation's headaches and sluggishness. "Delay" is dangerous—chew Feen-a-mint for constipation. 15c and 25c at druggists everywhere.

"I SELL THEM GASOLINE BUT THEY SOLD ME Plymouth!" A CERTIFIED INTERVIEW WITH VERNON F. KRAUSE OF CHICAGO, ILL. "Talking with Drivers of 'All Three' Convinced me that Plymouth gives the Most for your Money" WHEN VERNON KRAUSE decided to buy a new car, he didn't have to take any time off to "look at All Three." He stayed right where he was in his service station . . . and the cars came to him. "I just stayed right here," Krause says, "keeping my eyes on a and listening to owners compare notes." Plymouth won their vote in the low-price field . . . hands down. But there wasn't just one reason. There were all kinds of reasons. Some of his customers said how pleased they were with Hydraulic Brakes. Others boasted of having Safety-Steel Bodies. Many of them mentioned the extra comfort they got from Floating Power engine mountings and Individual Wheel Springing. "It all added up to the fact that Plymouth gave the most for the money," says Krause. "The most for your money in a new car? Then Plymouth is the car for you. It's the only low-priced car with all four of the vital features you need. Any Dodge, DeSoto or Chrysler dealer demonstrates Plymouth." 1. "I wanted a new low-priced car, but I wanted to be sure I got the best. So I decided to let my customers tell me how they liked 'All Three.'" 2. "I found that Plymouth owners got more out of the gasoline I sold them. Plymouth drivers all agreed their cars were easy on their pocketbooks." 3. "I liked Plymouth's looks. But my customers showed me there was a lot more to Plymouth than that. They pointed out other features—like Individual Wheel Springing and Hydraulic Brakes." 4. Mr. Krause with his De Luxe Plymouth Sedan. Prices from $530 at the factory, subject to change without notice. Duplicate Safety Plate Glass and all extra cost. Time payments on the Chrysler Motors C. C. Co. Plan. IT'S THE BEST ENGINEERED LOW-PRICED CAR AND UP AT THE FACTORY DETROIT
