THE PRICE AND VALUE OF ACCURACY

Amarillo claims the Panhandle oil and gas fields, Dallas gets written up in the American magazine as an oil town, and Wisconsin decides the "valley" section of Texas is a desert.

Misconceptions continually creep into the news. It is only natural, with every city and chamber of commerce claiming more territory than rightly belong to it. It does not matter in competing territories where the facts are known, but it is a more serious thing with respect to more distant points, where corporation directors often discuss what capital shall be spent in this area, which many of them perhaps have never seen.

Amarillo, the "City of Roses", became greatly agitated when Will Irwin in the American failed to include her. Yes, said the Amarillo News: "He probably didn't even hear about Amarillo, San Angelo, Abilene, Lubbock, Pampa, or the other cities of West Texas, which have doubled in population in five years and which could really tell a story of wheat and oil." This concern of Amarillo for the other cities of West Texas would be touching if it were logical, but if Amarillo had been mentioned in that article we would have heard only a great silence from the neighboring city of posies.

Borger gave several horse-laughes too about the Amarillo article. Said The Herald: "During the entire history of the Borger oil field, Amarillo has posed as its center, despite the fact that at the present time there is only one producing well in Potter county. And now Dallas is seeking to steal the laurels from the Helium city. While the people of Borger and Pampa laugh up their sleeves and continue to sell the oil fields workers what they need".

Of course, none of us is perfect when it comes to putting out claims for our home cities. Take Shamrock for instance. Her chamber of commerce sent out an article to the effect that a $3,000,000 power plant of the Panhandle Power & Light company was being erected near there. As a matter of fact, according to the Mobeetie News, the plant is located about 30 miles north of Shamrock and only 3 1/2 miles east of Mobeetie.

This is an age in which there is a continuous battle, through publicity, between towns and cities just as between business firms. Truth in publicity has not reached the stage of advancement that it has in many forms of advertising. The situation is puzzling to far-away persons who are interested in the development of this section. Imagine the discomfiture of a pipeline concern interested in a contract in the "Amarillo field", and which on getting accurate maps finds its activities probably will not be within fifty to seventy-five miles of Amarillo.

In these wide, open spaces that, however, are closing up, it has been customary to use "key cities" in speaking of this section. Today there are many new keys and even the smallest points are jealous of their bigger rivals.

In other words, this is a lively, growing, progressive territory in which rivalry is proof of energy.

MOVING OFF THE FARMS

The chief trouble with agriculture today is that there are too many farmers, according to George Friday, chairman of agricultural committee of the Michigan Real Estate association. The remedy for agricultural distress, then, is fairly simple. Here is what Friday told a recent Michigan farm conference:

"The only solution to the rural problem today is to move a third of the farmers into the cities. The remaining two-thirds will then till all of the land and each farmer will be able to make a living. The gross income of the farmer today is an average of less than $2000 a year. This is far from enough. The average income of the balance of the population is above $4000 a year.

"Gradually we are driving the farmers into the cities. Their farms are being foreclosed and their numbers are decreasing annually. But this is not fast enough. If, by education methods, we can convince many, who are now failing, to sell out while they still have something left, the problem will be solved within a few years."

There is a good deal in this argument. It avoids the pitfalls that beset those who urge all farmers to produce less and less, so that they may get more for what they do raise; but it seems to us that it leads directly to another problem which may prove even tougher than the one it is trying to solve.

Taking a third of the farmers off the land and putting them into the cities might be fine for agriculture, but how about the city folk? Already we are suffering from widespread unemployment. Indeed, even before the current depression came we had more unemployment than it was pleasant to think about. Industry, each year, is finding new ways of displacing workers with machines.

Suppose, then, that we suddenly increase our urban population with several million men, all looking for jobs. What is the answer to that going to be? How are the cities going to assimilate this increase?

We have a very knotty farm problem, to be sure, and drastic measures are called for. But sometimes it seems as if our urban problem—the problem of an increasing population and a declining number of jobs—is just about as bad. It won't help much to solve the farm problem if it only makes the other problem worse.—NEA.

Oklahoma Fire Costs Nine Lives

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 28. (AP)—Search of the ruins of the Oklahoma City coliseum was discontinued this afternoon when George Goff, fire chief said he believed they would yield no more bodies. Five bodies were removed yesterday and last night from the debris of the large auditorium, which was destroyed by fire yesterday morning. All but one of the victims had been identified this afternoon. The unidentified body was that of a negro.

Although Goff said all missing were accounted for, spectators of the fire circulated reports that two be "talked out" of the World's greatest TIRES

There is a lot of exceedingly good salesmanship in the retail tire business. Sometimes we suspect there are more brands of good salesmanship than there are brands of good tires. But don't be confused or misled when you are sprayed with high-powered language or beset by over-attractive inducements. Stand steady and keep focused on the big idea—which is, the most quality and value you can get for your money. Goodyear Tires are the most popular tires in the world. They outsell any other tires because people have learned by experience that they outperform any other tires. This has been true not for a year, but for more than fifteen years.

It is true with regard to truck tires, bus tires, airplane tires, just the same as with automobile tires. Therefore, when shrewd salesmanship seeks to tempt you away from the tested values of Goodyear Tires, ask yourself these questions:

What has this other tire to offer me in place of the superior traction of the Goodyear All-Weather Tread?

What has this other tire to offer me in place of the special Goodyear method of toughening rubber? What has this other tire to offer me in place of the super-elastic super-enduring Goodyear Supertwist cord? What has this other tire to offer me in place of the values made possible by Goodyear's record-breaking production? What has this other tire to offer me in place of the exclusive features produced by Goodyear's matchless development department? What has this other tire to offer me in place of the standard Goodyear after-sale service that backs up every tire? Finally—if this other tire is as good as I'm told it is, why is it "more people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind"?

Ask yourself these questions, and don't worry—you won't be "talked out" of the tested values of the World's Greatest Tires.

Gray County Creamery Will Have Formal Opening Here on Friday

PLANT IS ONE OF FINEST IN SOUTHWEST

The Gray County Creamery will hold the formal opening of its new plant tomorrow, when Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerhard, owners, will entertain hundreds of visitors with a trip through the plant and souvenirs and ice cream delicacies which will be served.

Visitors will have the opportunity to see what has been characterized as the most beautiful creamery in the entire Southwest. Thousands of dollars have been spent in building the beautiful white structure and adding the latest creamery equipment.

The growth of the Gray County Creamery has more than kept step with the growth of Pampa and this community. From a plant operated by Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard and two employees in March of 1927, it has grown to an institution, requiring the services of twenty-eight employees. The creamery was started with 2,414 square feet of floor space and now requires 7,188 square feet, 55 per cent of which is lighted by daylight. A one-story building was sufficient in 1927 where two stories are in use now.

A brief history of the plant shows a continued growth from its beginning until now. In 1927 ice was used for all freezing and cooling of milk and only a small ice cream hardening room and milk cooling room was used. The size of this room was later increased and a small refrigerator put into use. Recently a 30-ton refrigerating unit has been installed giving a 42-ton capacity and the hardening room increased in size to accommodate 3,500 gallons of ice cream and the milk cooling room will hold 5,000 gallons of milk.

The creamery started with one delivery truck which cared for both the retail and wholesale trade. Now 10 trucks and four retail wagons are required. Recently, when it was necessary to add the four horse-drawn wagons, considerable difficulty was experienced in finding horses. Mrs. Gerhard tells how they had to purchase one lame horse in order to secure two good ones.

One 100-gallon pasteurizer was used in 1927. Now the business requires the use of six 350 gallon machines. During the fall of the first year a new office was built and the next summer saw the addition of the large wholesale truck, which resembles a small box car. That summer bottle washing and bottle capping machines were added. In the spring of 1929 a direct expansion-ice-cream freezer was added, probably the only one of its kind in this territory at the time. An automatic milk can washer was put into use also about this time.

The three years saw the addition of many new machines, some for labor saving purposes and many because the increased business demanded a larger or faster equipment. Included in the additions were a direct expansion cooler, new 400-gallon homogenizer, two new spray-type pasteurizers, each with a 300-gallon capacity for ice cream, a new 1000-pound daily capacity churn and a third bottle capper for milk bottles.

The machine which attracts most attention of the visitor is the new 11-ton bottle washer which turns out 38 bottles per minute, thoroughly cleansed and sterilized. The machine has 846 bottles in the cleansing process at one time. Seventeen minutes are required for a bottle to go through the machine. The plant is operated by two large gas engines, one 65 horse power and one 65 horse power. The plant started with one 3 horse power motor in 1927.

The floors and lower part of the walls are tile covered, allowing them to be cleaned by steam. No square corners are in the working rooms making them easier cleaned. A large balcony contains the pasteurizing machines and the superintendent's private laboratory for his tests.

Private lockers and a shower room have been provided for employees. The private upstairs office is separated from the rest of the plant by a large glass partition. A waiting room has also been provided for visitors.

A private telephone exchange is maintained connecting with all departments, from a centralized switchboard.

The new plant will be open all day Thursday and an invitation has been extended to the public to visit it. Free souvenirs will be given the ladies and ice cream cones to the children, when accompanied by their parents.

Cooks Tent Damaged

Fire destroyed the top and one side of a canvas cook tent of the carnival in South Pampa this morning about 7:30 o'clock. The blaze was extinguished by carnival hands before the arrival of a fire department truck. The roof of the tent caught fire from a cook stove. The damage was slight. None of the adjoining tents were menaced by the flames.

Konjola Ended Neuritis and Kidney Trouble

Well Known Waco Photographer Enthusiastic About New Medicine, "Proven Wonderful Remedy", He Says.

MR. H. O. BRUBAKER

"I suffered for six years with neuritis, kidney trouble and constipation," said Mr. H. O. Brubaker, well known photographer, residing at 623 1/2 Austin avenue, Waco. "My ankles and my limbs ached, the knees were badly swollen and gave me considerable trouble. It became an effort for me to walk. My kidneys were out of order making night risings necessary and causing me to lose restful sleep. My eye-sight seemed to be failing on account of these conditions."

Much to my surprise, I began to get immediate results after taking this medicine. The swelling left my ankles and limbs and I became stronger. I can now go about my work without stopping to rest. I have been relieved of constipation and my eyesight has improved since taking this medicine. I have and will continue to recommend Konjola to all who suffer from such ailments as I had. Konjola has proven to me it is a different and wonderful medicine. It certainly proved its merit in my case."

Konjola was not designed to afford mere temporary relief. Taken systematically, over a period of from six to eight weeks, this medicine will amaze sufferers by the results obtained.

Konjola is sold in Pampa at the City Drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

Convention of W. T. C. C. to Open This Evening

ABILENE, May 27. (Special) Announcement that the official program for the twelfth annual convention in Abilene, May 28, 29, 30 and 31 of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has been completed, comes from the convention arrangements office of J. E. T. Peters.

On Wednesday, May 28, the convention spotlight will be on a program at McMurry college, a concert by visiting bands, preliminary in the "My Town" speaking contest and an informal dance.

The opening business session at the new Paramount theatre will come on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. Only two formal addresses are scheduled. Governor Dan Moody will speak at 9:45 o'clock on the Thursday morning program and Carl Williams of Washington, D. C., cotton member of the Federal Farm Board, will appear on Friday morning to open the statewide campaign in behalf of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association.

Many hours are being allowed during the Abilene convention for matters of regional organization business. Important matters of state legislative prominence are to come before the body on the convention floor. Issues that will come to the front during the meeting have already been put before groups from member cities of the WTCC and the number of votes that are to be polled from the various divisions are being compiled.

Herbert L. Clarke of Long Beach, Calif., director of the United States' largest municipal band, will supervise convention musical offerings—an attractive item on the program. Word was received by convention headquarters of the death of Mrs. Clarke, resulting from injuries received in an automobile accident recently, but the band conductor announced he would not alter his plans to appear on the Abilene program.

P. A. Norris, car checker, is now employed in the freight office of the Santa Fe railway, having been transferred to Pampa from Woodward, Okla.

Brall's export trade slumped in 1929.

DIX PLAYS ROLE HE CREATED ON STAGE IN FILM

Richard Dix, for the first time in his career plays a film role he created on the stage in "Lovin' the Ladies," all-talking comedy romance today at the Rex theatre. The role is that of Peter Darby, the electrician in the William Le Baron stage play, "I Love You," produced on Broadway with Dix in the lead.

In 1918 a playwright and his wife dropped into a Times Square theatre where Richard Dix was playing. They were Mr. and Mrs. William Le Baron, and they were looking for setting material for Le Baron's new play, "I Love You."

Dix was offered a part in "I Love You." He couldn't accept, for he had a more pressing engagement with Uncle Sam's forces overseas and was scheduled to sail within a week.

Dix was not forgotten. Shortly after the war the play was produced and Richard Dix was given the leading role. In the cast with him were a number of war entertainers: Ruth Terry, John Wesley, Gipsy O'Brien and Dianthe Patterson. The sequel to all this came eleven years later, when William Le Baron had become vice president in charge of production of Radio Pictures and Richard Dix was the leading male star of the same firm.

"I Love You" was adapted to the talking screen under the title "Lovin' the Ladies." Dix became its star. And William Le Baron

Ford Wants to Keep Up Spirit of the People

DETROIT, May 28. (AP)—The shortest cut to relief from the present business depression, in the opinion of Henry Ford, is an intensive development of agriculture and manufacture, looking to quantity production from the soil. "This is not just a fanciful idea," Mr. Ford told the Associated Press today. "It is the way out of stagnation."

Coupling with this statement that "it will take just as long to get rid of the depression as it took to accumulate it," Mr. Ford added: "We need to keep up the people's spirit and you cannot do that with talk; you must do it by action. One expenditure made in faith in the future is worth all the words any one can say. Issuing optimistic statements on one hand and lowering wages on the other is a sure way to prevent betterment. This is no time to lower wages."

"Can any one man, President Hoover for example, do anything to hasten the return of business prosperity?" Mr. Ford was asked.

"President Hoover has done everything anyone could do to bring about improvement in business and industry," he replied. "Everything President Hoover has advised or tried to put into effect has been sound. He asked industry and business to keep wages up. He's right and he knows what he's talking about. Wages are too low everywhere. There is where we must begin."

Reverting to his belief that quantity production from the soil is essential, Mr. Ford said: "Of course the steady desertion of the farm cannot continue forever. Too many people have believed that Santa Claus lives in the city. They were raising a million dollars to advertise Detroit and bring more people here. I told them the money would be better spent to educate people how to get away from the city."

Mrs. W. J. Jeffus of Mobeetie, who spent a few days here in the home of her son, J. A. Jeffus, has gone to Roswell, N. M., to attend commencement exercises at New Mexico Military institute, where her grandson, Charles Jeffus of Lovberg was graduated. Upon her return, she will make another visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jeffus of this city.

Blaeholder Signs

George Blaeholder

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—Despite the fact that he lost more games last year than he won, George Blaeholder, big righthander on the Browns' pitching staff, held out a long time for an increase in pay.

But he capitulated and signed up recently at a salary not made public.
 Blaeholder has had a spotty career with the Browns, but a belief that he has great potentialities as demonstrated by the desire shown by other major league clubs for his contract while he was still a hold-out.

Blaeholder, who was born in Orange, Calif., in 1904, was picked up on California sandlots in 1923 by the Browns. He was sent to the Three-I league for seasoning, and in 1924 the Browns farmed him to Tulsa in the Western league.
 The pitcher spent most of the next four years with the Tulsa Oilers, returning to the Browns in 1928. He won 10 games and lost 15 that year, and last season won 14 while losing 15.

Pension Bill for Spanish War Vets Vetoed by Hoover

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—President Hoover today vetoed the senate bill establishing a new basis of pension for Spanish War veterans.

Asserting his belief in proper discharge of the national obligations to men who have served in war and become disabled and are in need, the chief executive said in returning the bill to the senate that certain principles were included which he considered opposed to the interest of the war veterans and of the public.

In the whole of our pension legislation over past years, the president said, we have excluded from such national award persons whose disabilities arise from "uxus habits." He said the bill breaks down that exclusion.

FOLKS-You have heard and read about pasteurized Milk that we believe you are convinced it is not only the safest but the only milk to drink and that all our dairy products are produced under such strict sanitary conditions that we offer you an extra safeguard to your health.

Our milk is brough from inspected dairy herds where it is cooled and strained immediately upon milking. Then placed in sterilized cans, rushed in the early morning to the creamery in iced trucks, immediately unloaded, poured into sterilized weigh vat, pumped through a filter through sanitary pipe into the perheater, from here it flows into the spray pasteurizer and held for thirty minutes at an even temperature.

These pasteurizers have automatic controls and the temperature is kept uniform throughout. This insures perfect pasteurization, retains all the natural flavor of the milk and does not, as some people say, destroy any of the vital elements of the milk.

It then flows over the cooler which also has temperature control. It cools the milk between 30 and 40 degrees.

It flows from there directly to the bottler which bottles it at the rate of 38 quarts per minute. This machine automatically caps the bottles which are placed in cases and delivered to the large cool milk storage room.

The bottles are washed in a huge unit type washer which thoroughly sterilizes them. They are rinsed in cold water before leaving the machine and then carried directly from the washer to the bottling machine by an automatic conveyor and immediately filled. This eliminates a possibility of any contamination of the bottles after being washed.

As you can see the milk is never touched by hand after it is poured in the weigh vat. Neither are the bottles handled from the time they are placed in the washer until they are filled ready for delivery.

Our cans are all washed in an automatic washer and no brushes are used as they are unsanitary, carrying many germs.

We do not say other milk is not good. Any milk that is clean is good, but no matter how sanitary it is handled, there is always a danger of the dread diseases, such as tuberculosis, undulant fever, typhoid, diptheria, etc. "PASTEURIZATION" is your ONLY protection.

One sample of the above products will convince you they are the purest and best.

Special attention given to party orders, each receiving our individual attention. Orders either through your favorite fountain or directly from the creamery.

and sold only as the highways are built. The LeFors road should be built first of all, Mr. Kirby believes. "If the bonds are voted this summer, construction of the road should be started and completed by next winter," he said. "I'd bet my hat that the Santa Fe would never build that spur from Heaton if Gray county goes ahead and paves the road to LeFors before the railroad company has time to get started."

No time should be lost in ordering a bond election, Mr. Kirby believes. "There are many in my precinct who would vote for the bonds now and would not vote for it next year, because they don't know how long Gray county is going to have this big oil valuation. I am inclined to the belief that these three precincts have about reached the peak of the oil valuation, and while we have it, we certainly should allow it to pay for the roads," he declared.

"Some objections are made that our children will be paying for these roads—not if the bonds are voted this year. Only a few years will pass before the roads will be paid for."

Rev. Lancaster Ends Successful Revival Here

Sunday marked the close of the revival at the First Baptist church, conducted by Rev. C. E. Lancaster of Coleman. There were five additions to the church in Sunday's services.

Rev. Lancaster, who accepted the call of the First Baptist church, and Mrs. Lancaster left for Coleman soon after the evening service. The new pastor announced his intention of being present with the church here as much as possible until he comes on the field permanently about August 1. His plans, he announced, would possibly not hinder him from visiting the church except at intervals between now and August 1.

Sunday afternoon the men of the church met to discuss plans of the finance committee for handling the church debt, and to outline policies of action for the men to follow in discharging the work of the church. The pastor announced his intention of harmonizing his plans with those of the church for the best interests of all concerned.

At the night service there was the largest crowd of the meeting present. The revival began Sunday, May 16, lasting one week.

Mexican Police Warned of Jake Fleagle's Escape

MEXICO CITY, May 28. (AP)—A nationwide warning has been sent out by radio in Mexico for police officials to be on the lookout for Jake H. Fleagle reported to have headed into Mexico after committing a holdup in Del Rio, Tex.

Fleagle's description was broadcast and was printed throughout the country at the instance of the Mexico City police.

Sheriffs of Otero and Prowers counties in Colorado came here recently seeking Fleagle, wanted for the holdup of the First National bank of Lamar.

Advices from Villa Acuna, Coahuila, said that five men who were in a Mexican gambling hall when it was held up there last Sunday night had identified a picture of Jake Fleagle as that of an American who robbed the gambling game of $1,000. An automobile was set on fire in front of the hall before the holdup to divert attention. The robber waded across the Rio Grande and escaped into Texas in the vicinity of Del Rio.

Fleagle is alleged to have been the leader of the bandit gang that held up the Lamar bank and killed four men. Other members of the gang have been rounded up, but Fleagle has succeeded in eluding his pursuers for months.

"TAKE THAT AND THAT, YOU DOG!" denounced CRUSHER KAZOULIAN

"Even a cauliflower ear can stand just so much—the dreary din of your fog-horn voice gods me to violence."

"Blow the holoney, bozo," rasped Wire-nail Welch, his opponent. "Do I get a return match?"

"What good is any kind of a match to you, you blighter? Unless you let the honey-smooth heart-leaf tobacco one-two that yowl and K. O. that cracked yelp, by the pearl buttons on the left spat of Bill Bendigo, your ring career is over. The next match you get, Palooka, use it to light up an OLD GOLD. POPPY DAY

168

"Come, blessed Darkness, come and bring thy balm
For eyes grown weary of the garish day!
Come with thy soft, slow steps, thy garments gray,
Thy veiling shadows, bearing in thy palm
The poppy seeds of slumber, deep and calm",
JULIA CAROLINE DORR

TO THOSE who have made the ultimate sacrifice we can only enshrine their memory in a lasting tribute in which we consecrate POPPY DAY. Let the day, and the practice, be perpetuated as a precept of loyalty and patriotism to the coming generations. To those who have survivedthe stoics of halted limbs, maimed bodies and shell-shocked nerves in our hospital and veteran homes to them, too, let your wearing of a Poppy express your imperishable gratitude a meagre balm but a mighty benison of a nation's deference to their undying heroism and magnificent martyrdom.
