

TOM LOVE NOT TO SUPPORT "MA"

"That's gold in these here prairies."

Pampa fact: Local public utilities have an annual payroll of approximately $107,840, including construction work.

Using circumstantial evidence, The Pampa last week accused a prominent business man and his wife of going to Amarillo to trade. Our accusation was vehemently denied, the gentleman in question asserting that the trip was made to meet a friend arriving in Amarillo by train. The citizen said that he favored trading in Pampa as long as possible in every line, and added that when he had to stay in Amarillo for any length of time he took a Pampa-cooked lunch with him!

THAT WE TAKE IT, IS THE ULTIMATE IN HOME TOWN PRIDE.

It is our painful duty to observe, however, that many local residents are importing out-of-town talent. Circumstances alter cases, of course, but this is a well-rounded city of about 12,000 and it should not be necessary to seek expert services elsewhere. Some of those who preach trade-at-home sermons seem to be straying from their texts.

Without attempting to justify one faction's actions over another, the Pampa wishes to say that he deplores the attitude taken toward the proposed paving bond issue in Gray county. This is not saying that the local plan has been perfected. But it is all too apparent that many do not have the foresight necessary to reach any solution of the problem. There are no doubt very few who do not want to do the best thing for the county and themselves. All should realize that if Gray county ever expects to join the march of progress and match the work of counties west and east of us, it should be done at once while we can take advantage of the unquenchably understood, and we will then be ready to talk facts and figures without passion.

No one has a greater appreciation of the oil industry than the writer. If the roads are to be paved the oil interests will pay a great part of the cost. To build the roads now would be to give the oil men the benefit while the field is developing and traffic is heavy. Moreover, the paving would represent what we believe to be a rightful share of the natural resources that is being taken from the county.

Gray county communities have never needed cool-headed leadership more than now.

We revel in perfect neglect. No one has "drafted" us for anything and no senate committee has taken any interest in our political past. He had about $340 in two canvas sacks rolled in a paper and was carrying the package under his arm. The bandits took $45 of his personal money from his pockets. The money in the canvas was the proceeds of bills collected during the afternoon and admission tickets to the dance at the Pla-Mor.

Hail Damage in Panhandle Huge

AMARILLO, June 9. (AP)—The Amarillo Globe-News said today that losses would amount to nearly $250,000 from the wheat crop destroyed by hail Saturday on 25,000 acres in the Panhandle-Plains area.

Storms were reported at Plainview, Haney, St. Francis, Tyrone, Okla., and Bushland, as well as at Amarillo. Hail fell to a depth of eight inches between Amarillo and Bushland and piled up six inches deep at Tyrone, Okla. Fruit trees were battered by the hail stones, but row crops not yet up were not damaged.

Oilton was entirely cut off from communication after the hail storm there, telephone lines being down between Littlefield and Oilton and Plainview and Oilton. No information was obtained as to losses there.

The Fort Worth & Denver City railway here reported that a hail storm over a two-mile strip west of Plainview had reduced the estimated wheat crop from 500 cars to 200 cars.

Pageant Given by Pampa Church

"America's Call to Service," a pageant depicting the nation's vast wealth and contrasting the amount of money spent for light luxuries with the sum given for church work each year, was presented with impressive effect last evening at the Presbyterian church, sponsored by the Women's auxiliary.

A cast of thirty, composed of members of the auxiliary and other members of the church, presented the pageant before a large audience. The forty-five minute performance included musical numbers by Mrs. Harry E. Lyman, lyric soprano, and the choir, with accompaniment by Mrs. Forrest McKimicking. The platform was beautifully decorated with flowers.

Boulder Dam Contracts Are Found Valid

WASHINGTON, June 9. (AP)—Secretary Wilbur announced today that Attorney General Mitchell had rendered an opinion that the Boulder Dam power contracts were valid and binding.

The opinion was returned at the request of President Hoover. It was transmitted to the house committee on appropriations, where Wilbur's request for $10,600,000 to start construction work at the dam is pending.

The committee took it under advisement in executive session today. The attorney general said three contracts with power companies and municipalities in Southern California, the validity of which was attacked by the Colorado river commission for Arizona, fully meet with the requirements of the Boulder Dam act.

Night Watchman Shoots Pistol in Air When Fire Siren Fails—Neighboring Cities Send Firemen

GRANDFIELD, Okla., June 9. (AP)—Fire today destroyed five business structures here with estimated damage of $80,000.

The blaze was extinguished by volunteers and fire departments from Frederick, Okla., and Burkburnett, Texas. No one was hurt.

The buildings destroyed, all brick structures, included the Hayes Bakery, where it was believed the fire originated; the C. C. Leach cleaning shop, C. W. Garner Dry Goods store, the W. F. Ison department store and the Rexall Drug store. They were located in the center of the business block on the south side of the street.

L. L. Kilgore, night watchman, discovered the blaze at 4 a. m. and because the alarm failed to work, he was forced to run from home to home firing in the air to awaken volunteers. Origin of the fire was not immediately determined.

Grandfield is a town of 1400 population in southern Tillman county, near the Texas border.

ENID, Okla., June 9. (AP)—One man was overcome by smoke, a score of others were routed from beds in a rooming house and four business establishments were destroyed or damaged by fire here today.

Charles Boyle of Wichita, Kans., one of the rooming house occupants, was overcome by smoke.

E. Hammer barber shop was badly damaged, while smoke damaged the Thomas J. Wells shoe store. No estimate of damage was available but it was believed to total several thousand dollars.

Creager Asks Wilcox to Keep Him Off Ticket

SAN ANTONIO, June 9. (AP)—R. B. Creager of Brownsville, Republican national committee man for Texas, paused here long enough yesterday to regret the Democratic party's sense of humor and to reply to Senator Smith W. Brookhart, as he was en route to Georgetown.

Today he was due to receive and honor LLB. degree being conferred upon him by Southwestern University at Georgetown.

In a telegram to D. W. Wilcox, chairman of the Democratic state executive committee, Creager asked that his name not be printed on the Democratic primary ballot according to a petition filed with Wilcox.

"I appreciate the compliment," Creager said, "but take it for granted this was intended as a joke. I am a Republican, and it goes without saying it would not be proper for my name to appear on a Democratic ballot."

He took another slap at Senator Brookhart, Republican, Iowa for Brookhart's demand for an investigation of an alleged liquor party in a Dallas hotel when Mrs. E. L. Works of Brownsville, a member of the Creager party there, took a distasteful into her mouth instead of a harmless mouth wash.

"The man's vicious mendacity is almost beyond belief," Creager declared. "In his latest diatribe he is guilty of the unforgivable sin of dragging in the name of an innocent woman."

DECLARATION IS MADE TO STATE BODY

Faalty Pledge Will Probably Not Be Asked

Negroes Barred from Primary Under Resolution

DAN NOT TO RUN
AUSTIN, June 9. (AP)—Governor Dan Moody will not be a candidate for a third term at the July primary as the result of a voluntary appearance before the state Democratic executive committee here today in which he requested that his name be not offered. The committee acted favorably on his request.

AUSTIN, June 9. (AP)—Senator Thomas B. Love of Dallas today told the state Democratic executive committee, meeting to certify candidates in the July 26 primary, that he would not support Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson of Austin or John Putnam of Houston, candidates for governor, or R. L. Henry of Houston, candidate for United States senator. In the event they obtained the nominations to the respective offices they sought.

Love made his declaration before the committee after it had considered a resolution which would have required candidates for state offices to pledge themselves to "vote for and support" all of the nominees of the primary elections.

J. C. Marshall, of Quannah, who proposed the test for candidates, withdrew the proposed pledge after D. W. Wilcox, of Georgetown, chairman of the committee, had said he believed it would be "impracticable and impossible" for the proposed fealty declaration to be submitted to the various candidates in time to comply with the law directing certification of names of candidates to county chairman. He said also he "doubted the authority" of the chairman and secretary, under the supreme court holding in the Love case to withhold any candidates name from the ballots where he had complied with the law.

The committee recessed for lunch with the only remaining business formal certification of the candidates. It was apparent they would be certified without any fealty test being applied to them.

The committee passively "passed up" proposals submitted by Henry and Putnam to submit on the July 26 primary ballots a referendum on repeal or modification of the prohibition amendment.

It in effect barred negroes from participating in the primaries when it adopted resolutions by C. C. Renfro of Dallas, holding the proxy of T. O. Davis of Center, inviting all "eligible and legally qualified white electors who declare their allegiance to the Democratic party," who would take the statutory pledge, to participate in the primaries.

The committee refused to act on a suggestion made twice by Clinton G. Brown of San Antonio, that a delegation of negroes from Bexar county, be permitted to appear before it to ask the right to participate as voters in the primaries.

Love's dramatic appearance before the committee came after Lieut.-Governor Barry Miller of Dallas and Jim Young of Kaufman, candidates for governor, declared they stood ready and willing to subscribe to any pledge that might be promulgated.

Hardly had Love come to the speaker's stand from the rear of the

THE OIL WAR IS NOT OVER

No fight in which the major oil interests are concerned may be said to have been won. The big concerns control too much production, too much importation, and too much of the wholesale and retail markets to give up because of legislation intended to prevent squeezing of the little independents.

The expected court battle over the impending pipeline regulation law, which goes into effect next Friday, will be launched soon after July 1. The decision of the Humble Oil and Refining company to force the issue is doubtless behind the order to halt purchases of crude oil in Runnels, Wichita, Wilbarger, Archer, Gray, Carson, and Hutchinson counties on that date.

The oil editor of the Star-Telegram points out that conditions in the refining industry were admittedly much improved when the Humble announcement was made. He points out, however, that new methods of refining have made it less necessary to use "sweet" crudes, and that a slight overproduction of gasoline from high grade oils exists. Gray county operators fought proration on the basis offered a few months ago, and as result of failure to adopt any plan at all this county has been soaring upward, besides making many locations.

It is claimed, however, that this circumstance could be remedied without the drastic Humble order, and that the decision to halt purchases is really a step to test the new pipeline bill. The measure not only is intended to stop discrimination between producers, but between fields as well on the part of the pipeline companies, which have the status of common carriers.

The net result of obedience to the new law, it would seem, would be to extend curtailed purchasing (i. e. proration, in effect) to all fields of the state. This would tend to secure for the industry the curtailment long advocated.

Discrimination between fields, however, as practiced by the Humble company, is unfair, unjust, and confiscatory to the areas affected. The result could be even more devastating to small producers than squeeze-out methods of the past, should it be generally adopted.

It is to be hoped that, if it is a test case merely, it will be speedily tried and determined. The danger is that ill feeling will be accentuated to a point where the battle will continue chiefly in the courts, where delay is inevitable.

With the oil industry already sick, the Humble promises to become a terrible surgeon, and the limbs that are to be amputated from the industrial body are the little ones that cannot live without connection with the whole, although the giant torso would hardly miss the minor parts.

No, the oil war isn't over; the main offensive appears just in preparation.

Chicago Gangster Is Badly Wounded

CHICAGO, June 9. (AP)—Russell, alias Frank Thompson, often called "The Armorer of Gangland," drove into a New Milford filling station last night, weak from a bullet wound near the heart.

He would not talk, although physicians said the wound might cause his death. When Sheriff Harry Baldwin of Winnebago county asked who had shot him, Thompson's only answer was: "I won't talk. You ought to be smart enough to know I won't talk."

The attack upon Thompson, discovery of the body of Eugene (Red) McLaughlin—one of gangland's toughest characters—and the statement of officers that George (Bugs) Moran and several other important names in the gang world are missing [are] presumably slain, were week-end developments in the gang war revival.

Location of eleven new tests last week in the area opened up by Cockerell-McIlroy Oil company's No. 1 Castlebury was the most interesting feature of the feverish development of the new oil field at Pampa's front door. A detailed activity is the light scramble for leases from Pampa to the Carson county line in all directions. There is also much buying and selling of royalties.

This area is beyond doubt the hottest spot in the Panhandle and the indications are that it will continue to get hotter until some of the 20 wells which have started drilling in the last two weeks are brought in. There is more activity in block 3, the center of which is Pampa, than in all the rest of Gray county. The LeFors, Dumas and White Deer areas have passed out of the limelight in the last two weeks as far as drilling and leasing activities are concerned.

The Castlebury well was drilled just at the southwest corner of the city limits and is apparently good for over 200 barrels of the highest gravity oil that has yet been found in the Panhandle area. About 20 locations have been made in the last ten days. Royalty and acreage have been selling fast with boom prices attached. The Cockerell-McIlroy company has been setting the pace and now has the greatest share of leases. This company made six locations last week and four or five the previous week. Several of the wells are due to be completed in two weeks.

That Cockerell-McIlroy company intends to put wells back in gas on the gas lift is indicated by the fact that a 9-inch gas line from the Eller well of this company in section 200, block 3, Carson county, is being run to other locations in Gray, including the Archer, Castlebury and Harrah wells. The line is high-tension and seven miles long.

Locations made in the Pampa area in the last week follow:

Cockerell-McIlroy Oil company's No. 1 Allum, 330 feet from the north and east lines of the east half of the northeast quarter of section 127, block 3, moving in rig.

Cockerell-McIlroy Oil company's No. 2 Allum, 330 feet from north and west lines of the east half of the northeast quarter of section 127, block 3, rig on ground. Same company's No. 2 Castlebury, 330 feet from the south and west lines of the southeast quarter of section 126, block 3, cellar.

Deroso Oil company's No. 2 and east lines of the east half of Saunders, 330 feet from the south and west lines of the northwest quarter of section 46, block 3, building rig. Dixon Creek Oil company's No. 3 Harrah, 330 feet from the south and east lines of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 150, block 3, digging cellar.

Cockerell-McIlroy Oil company's No. 3 Archer, 990 feet from the north line and 330 feet from the west line of the northwest quarter of section 139, block 3, building rig. Same company's No. 4 Archer, 330 feet from the south and west lines of the northwest quarter of section 139, block 3, building rig. Same company's No. 1 Chris Baer, northwest quarter of section 126, block 3, location.

Panhandle Oil and Refining company's No. 5 Saunders, 990 feet from the north line and 330 feet from the west line of the east half of the northeast quarter of section 3, block 1, rigging up. Prairie Oil and Gas company's No. 1 Cary, 330 feet from the north and west lines of the west 89 acres of that part of the west half lying north of the railroad track of section 114, block 3, building rig. This location is in the Talley addition.

Texas company's No. 2 Harrah, 330 feet from the north and east lines of the northeast quarter of section 150, block 3. Wynn and others' No. 1 Harrah, 330 feet from the north and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 150, block 3, location. Nabob Oil company's No. 3-A Morse, 990 feet from the south and east lines of the south east quarter of section 68, block 25.

Agents Speak at Council Meeting Here Saturday

A regular meeting of the council of home demonstration clubs was held Saturday at the First Presbyterian church.

County Agent Ralph R. Thomas addressed the members on the subject: "Poultry-Breeds, Feeds, Management, Diseases, Pests, Sanitation." Poultry is a timely subject in Gray county agriculture and his address was appreciated by the members. In speaking of poultry pests, Mr. Thomas discussed the most prevalent one, coccidiosis, and stated that the treatment of this disease as advised in farmer's bulletin No. 1337, "Disease of Poultry," had been used in this county with effective results.

Miss Margie Lyon, home demonstration agent of Carson county, gave a demonstration on pictures in the home, their historical background, and their values. She exhibited several prints of famous paintings. In her talk, Miss Lyon said that in order to appreciate good paintings, one had to appreciate commonplace things. For an example, she cited Millet, whose paintings were never successful until he painted the common, every-day things of the fields. The Gleaners and the Angelus were both field pictures. Among local scenes of beauty, Miss Lyon mentioned the wheat fields, the hills, Palo Duro canyon, the oil fields, the mirages, and the vastness of the plains. She stated that it was the right of every child to appreciate good pictures in the home. Interesting facts about famous paintings, such as Dutch Kitchen, Harp of the Winds, and the Boy and the Rabbit, were given.

The Wayside club was hostess for the afternoon program, which was followed by a social hour in which refreshments of punch and cookies were served. The club appointed her to return. The next precinct Miss Lyon's address and council meeting will be in July, at McLean, with the McLean club as hostess.

Let Mrs. Bostrom tell you she SAVED $831 on last year's harvest

"Our threshing bill averaged $900 a year with extra hired help and feed to pay, compared with $69 this year on the same acreage."

"We combined 265 ACRES IN 7 DAYS. ONE MAN ran the whole outfit and handled it EASIER than he could have a binder. I HAD NO REPAIR EXPENSE, and the total cost per acre for oil and gas for both tractor and Combine was 1 1/4 cents per bushel. We hired NO EXTRA HELP. Our threshing bill has averaged $900 a year, with extra hired help to pay and feed in addition, compared with $69 this year on the same acreage—AN ACTUAL SAVING OF $831. I am very much pleased with my Gleaner Baldwin."—Mrs. Mary Bostrom, Buford, North Dakota.

Mrs. Bostrom's experience should interest every wheat farmer, large and small. Consider these facts again—265 acres in 7 days—one man—no repair expense—no extra help—AN ACTUAL SAVING OF $831.

Gleaner Baldwin owners everywhere appreciate what Mrs. Bostrom says because they realize the full measure of profitable Combine satisfaction that only the Gleaner Baldwin provides.

As a wheat grower, you want a machine that will save your crops and do the job under adverse, as well as normal conditions, with a minimum of expense, time, trouble, delay and labor.

THESE FEATURES MAKE THE GLEANER BALDWIN A BETTER BUY

Before buying a Combine study the Gleaner Baldwin construction, beginning with the rugged, powerful, all-steel frame. Note the harvesting unit, the steel pan, combining harvester platform and feeder housing into one unit; the all-steel spiral conveyor-feeder, which is the only moving part between sickle and cylinder. Note the absence of friction-creating, power-consuming working parts throughout. You will be impressed with the simplicity—the absence of canvas conveyors, feeder raddles, universal joints, rollers, and extra parts.

Study the action of the special rasped bar threshing cylinder. Note its forward location directly behind the harvester unit instead of half way back in the separator. See how it threshes the grain without chopping or pulverizing the straw.

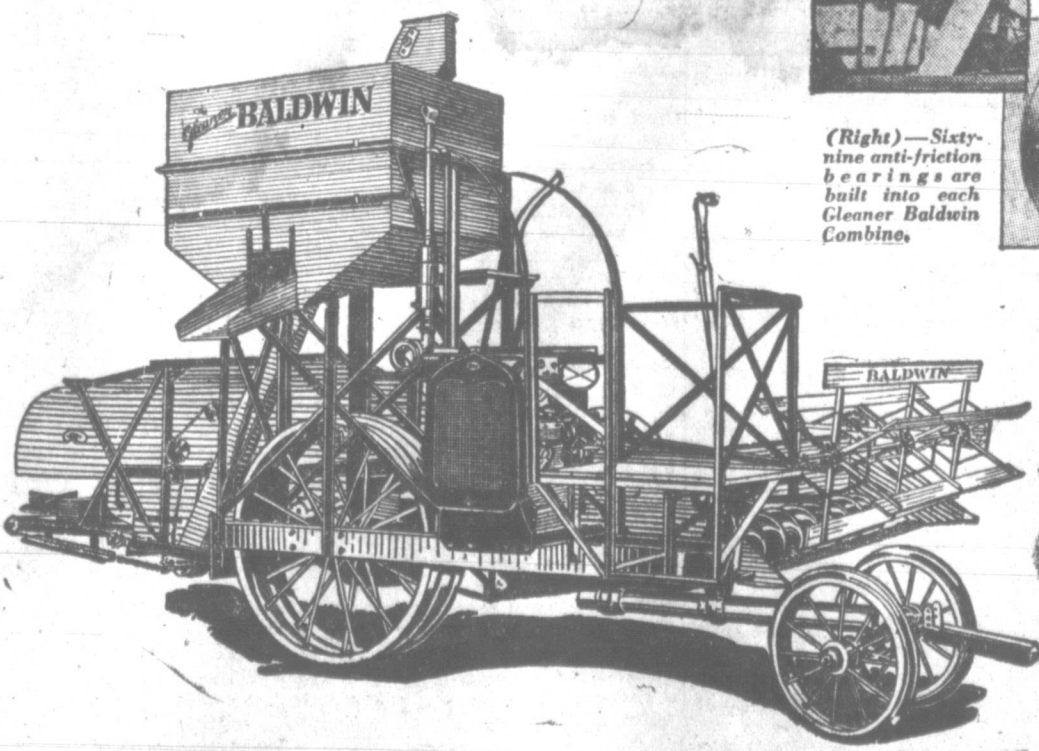

SELF-STARTER ON COMBINE ENGINE

You will want plenty of sturdy, dependable, economical power which is supplied on Gleaner Baldwin Combines by the Model "A" Ford Industrial engine, equipped with self-starter, the first Combine engine ever to be so equipped.

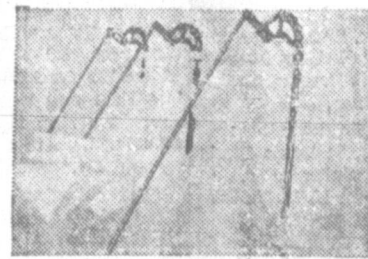

These are but a few of the hundreds of statements received from satisfied Gleaner Baldwin owners. We have a new 1930 Gleaner Baldwin Combine on display. Come in and see it, or if you feel the need of a windrow harvester or a pick-up attachment we can supply both, built by Gleaner to Gleaner standards.

If you are too busy to come and see us, call and we will come and see you. In either event there is no obligation. We merely want to show you why the Gleaner Baldwin is the best Combine ever built. We are also in position to offer attractive terms when desired.

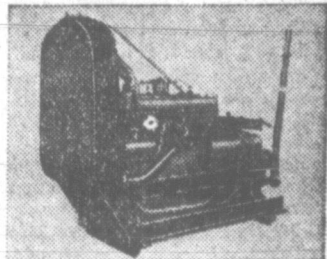

Gleaner BALDWIN COMBINES

The new balancing and lifting devices make the Gleaner Baldwin Combine a one-man machine.

The rasped bar threshing cylinder used in Gleaner Baldwin Combines is the best type of cylinder for Combine work.

Combine design is simplified throughout; lost motion is abolished; weight and friction is reduced; steel replaces canvas and valuable space in the forepart of the Combine is utilized for separation in Gleaner Baldwin Combines, instead of being a part of the conveyor-feeder mechanism, as is the case with canvas equipped machines.

Many New Locations Are Made in

NOT WORRIED BY OUTLOOK

By Edward J. Neil
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, June 9. (P)—The rank and file of fistiana, from the high powered experts down to the two-dollar seat boys who will perch in the bleachers at the Yankee stadium, Thursday night, are hailing Jack Sharkey today as the next heavyweight champion of the world. And Max Schmeling, the German challenger, would not have it otherwise.

Three days before the fifteen-round battle in the big American league ball park, where possibly 70,000 of the faithful will gather to yell for their favorite and pay homage to the new king of the prize ring, the odds are climbing steadily in Sharkey's favor. He was "even money" when the match was made, then a 7 to 5 favorite, 8 to 5, and now he is becoming a 2 to 1 shot to beat back the bid of the hard-hitting young Teuton.

But strangely enough the underdog in a heavyweight title tilt always feels sure of victory. The records of the prize ring, going back into the earliest championship struggles of modern times, show few instances where the favorite came through to victory. John L. Sullivan, Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, Jim Jeffries, Jack Johnson, Jess Willard, Jack Dempsey, all lost the title in bouts in which they were favorites.

Sharkey has gained the betting edge, although waning has been light, because of his trained left hand, sharp right, boxing skill and experience. He punches well to the body where the German's ability to "take it" is unknown. He is the larger, stronger, more polished of the two.

Any question of condition must seem to be answered in the Boston sailor's favor. He has trained slowly and evenly and is steadily approaching the 196 pounds he hopes to weigh Thursday night. He has restricted himself entirely to boxing both as his business and his pastime.

Schmeling has been seriously hampered by fear of going stale, lack of excess weight to work against, and the necessity of keeping a fine edge, reached too early. The German puncher, too, seems to have gone slightly golf crazy and one day, when he should have been resting, shot 36 holes under a feverish sun. At times he acts as though he were training for the national open at Minneapolis. In three weeks he has brought his best scores for 18 holes from 130 strokes to 101.

Yet Sharkey has always had trouble with rushing, punting fighters of Schmeling's type though he also has displayed marked ability to absorb punishment. Johnny Risko and Tom Heeneey charged the Boston savior out of one chance at the championship and the most aggressive warrior of them all, Jack Dempsey, knocked him out.

The fear of the Sharkey wagers rests in his mental instability. Jac has the "class" the boys rate so highly, but he also has the discouraging habit of tossing aside his boxing ability to fight the other fellow's fight in the heat of a close hard match.

Schmeling is cool and calm, of typically even German temperament. He hits hard enough to take full and lasting advantage of one Sharkey mistake. He has everything to win and nothing to lose.

A former lightweight champion watched Sharkey lose his temper and swing wildly at a sparring partner in training the other day. He nodded wisely and made this sage remark:

"He'll do that just once with Schmeling, and they'll be telling him in the dressing room what happened."

Negro Ball Nine to Play Jemcos

Fresh from a victory over the Amarillo Cats, the Milwaukee Giants, negro baseball team, will play the Jemcos of Jones-Everett Machine company, June 9 and June 10 at 5 o'clock. The Giants have been playing winter baseball on the Pacific coast, winning the championship of the Winter league and are now en route to Wisconsin for the summer season.

The Giants comprise former players of two negro leagues in the East. Pepper ball and juggling are specialties of the Giants. The negroes have played 24 games and lost four since they left California.

The games Monday and Tuesday will be played on the old polo ground on the Mobeetie highway.

Ruthian Swat Number 17

Right down the alley came a fast ball from Ted Lyons' fingers and right back way out into the bleachers went a faster ball from Babe Ruth's bat for his 17th home run of the season, which gave him the major league lead and put him abreast of his 1927 pace which netted a new record of 60 home runs for the season. And at the right, Ruth's familiar dog trot brings him across the plate.

Shamrock Team's Good Record Is Ruined by Gulf Guns, Who Win 7-2

Gulf Production company's Guns shot Shamrock's perfect record full of holes yesterday afternoon at Shamrock to win a fast game 7 to 2. The Guns had Shamrock shut-out until the first of the ninth inning when a Gulf error enabled the Wheeler county team to make two runs. This was the sole error made by the Guns during the game.

Shamrock committed three errors and hit Lefty Coop, Gun hurler, six times. The Guns, led by Munds, second-baseman, hit Barrow, Shamrock twirler, 12 times.

The line-ups and runs follow: Guns—Munds 2b, 2; Davis 1b, 1; Reynolds rf, 0; Sullivan c, 0; Hickey ss, 0; Morgan lf, 1; Kuhnik 3b, 1; Pope cf, 1; Coop p, 1. Shamrock—Kirby lf, 0; Lake ss, 0; Bryan 1b, 0; Hoffman c, 0; Carter rf, 1; Close cf, 0; Smith 3b, 1; Hill 2b, 0; Barrow p, 0.

The Claude club will be the next opponent of the Guns. Whether the game will be played at Claude or at Pampa will be announced tomorrow. The Guns are holding out to have the game played here. They want alternating games played at Gulf park.

That the defeat last Sunday at the hands of Estelline was no evidence that the Hall county nine has the best team was indicated in the game yesterday. Shamrock had previously defeated the Estelline gang. The tilt between the Guns and Estelline here a week ago was nobody's game, as the score of 19 to 15 indicated, chiefly for the reason that the sun in the eyes of the fielders made the result of the game a gamble. The Guns are now correcting this defect of their diamond.

Phillips Team Beats Pipeliners by Large Score

Disappointed at being unable to match a game with the Gulf Guns, the revengeful Phillips "66" jumped on the Gulf Pipeline company's Ramblers and beat them 16 to 7. From the first inning the 66 batmen lived up to their slogan, "fill-up and fly."

At the beginning of the eighth, the 66 boys had circled the bases 16 times while the Ramblers had barely managed to negotiate the bases once. The Phillips hitters made two or three runs each inning until the eighth and the result of the game was never in doubt. Wight allowed the Ramblers enough hits in the eighth and ninth to count up seven runs. Forester was the other half of the Phillips battery staff.

Five Rambler pitchers were tumbled out of the box by 66 batmen. The game was played at Gun park where the Phillips gang soon hope to encounter the Guns.

YOUNG AND OLD BASK IN BALL GLORY

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.
A perusal of the current major league records seems to indicate that a player must be very young or very old, as baseball art goes, to get a full share of this season's glory. Picking a few names from the records of those who have done something worth while in pitching or hitting, we find such ancients as Harry Selbold, Adolfo Luque, "Sad Sam" Jones, Ted Lyons, Harry Heilmann and Harry Rice, and the youngsters, Mel Harder, Bob Osborn, Earl Collier, Roy Mahaffey, Wally Berger, Joe Stupp, Smead Jolley and Tom Oliver.

Of these, Luque and Heilmann are basking in the brightest rays of the limelight today. The veteran Cuban hurler, who has been in the major leagues for nearly a dozen seasons, is at the top of the National league's pitchers with a record of six straight victories. He gave ample proof yesterday that he has earned this post by turning back the Chicago Cubs with four hits while Brooklyn scored a 6 to 0 victory and increased its margin of leadership to three full games.

Heilmann, for whom the American league clubs could find no use last season when Detroit decided to let him go after 14 successive seasons, is close to the top of the batters in the National league. In two games against the Phillies yesterday he improves his latest official average of .402 by several points, hitting five hits in nine times at bat and giving Cincinnati a 5 to 4 victory in the first contest with a home run. Heilmann could not offset the Philadelphia slugger in the second game, and the Phillies won, 9 to 2.

Selbold also did well after a couple of bad games. He pitched his tenth complete game in a dozen starts to beat Pittsburgh, 10 to 6. Selbold had one bad inning, the seventh, when the Pirates scored all their runs on six or seven hits, but the Braves had tallied eight times in the second. The youthful Berger contributed his 17th home run of the season to this rally.

Waite Hoyt, another veteran, who seemed to be about through with the New York Yankees, made his first start for Detroit and won out 1 to 0, in a six-inning game. Hoyt yielded four hits, while his opponent, Ed Morris, held the Tigers to two, but lost out through an error in the first inning.

Ted Lyons, one of the season's consistent winners, gave the Philadelphia Athletics four extra base hits in one inning. This was just enough to give the world's champions a 6 to 3 victory over Chicago, producing four runs. Young Wes Ferrell of Cleveland finally passed Lyons in the number of games won by holding Washington in check and finally driving in a run in the ninth inning to win his own game, 3 to 2.

Ferrell's victory improved Cleveland's position in the American league standings considerably as the St. Louis Browns subdued the threat of the New York Yankees with a 5 to 4 triumph. The Browns hammered George Pipgras from the mound in the eighth inning to score all their runs.

The New York Giants provided the leading exception to the youth and age rule as they defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 4 to 1, for their eighth successive victory and the 12th Cardinal defeat in 13 games. Bill Walker and Bill Terry, a pair of the "middle aged" players, had the leading runs. Walker held the Cards, to two hits and one unearned run while Terry drove in two counters with a home run.

Error by Coltexo Costs Game When Gasoliners Score

An error made by White, Coltexo carbon black pitcher, in the sixth inning when he threw the ball over third, resulted in two runs and enabled the Coltexo gasoliners to win a baseball game at LeFors yesterday 6 to 4.

The gasoline-makers made nine hits and five errors, the carbon blacks, seven hits and four errors, also one home run.

The battery staff comprised Ross and Coffee for the Coltexos, and White and Ammons for the carbon blacks. Ross struck out three and White, two.

Nurmi Smashes 6-Mile Record

LONDON, June 9. (P)—Paavo Nurmi, the famous flying Finn who holds more track records than any other man, smashed the world's mark for the six-mile run in a race at Stamford Bridge today.

The great Finn covered the distance in 29 minutes, 36 3-5 seconds, as compared to the record of 29:59 2-5, set by Alfred Schubb of England, which had stood since 1904.

Southern Universities This Year Were Prolific In Diamond 'Ivory'

Members of Dixie's contingent of college stars starting careers on the professional side of the game. Witt Guise, portside pitcher, who belongs to the New York Yankees, matriculated at the University of Florida.

$149,000 Prize Brings Family Row

It was a house divided against itself when $149,000 dropped down out of a clear sky to the Dougherty family, pictured above, in Brooklyn, New York. The winning ticket in the English Derby sweepstakes of the Army and Navy Veterans of Canada was made out in the name of Edward P. Dougherty, 19, lower right, a $20-a-week stock clerk in a brokerage firm. But his father, Daniel Dougherty, left, an apartment house doorman, claimed the prize money, saying he gave Edward the dollar to buy the ticket. Dan, Jr., upper right, another son, claimed a 50 cent half interest in the ticket. It finally was agreed to split the $149,000 three ways.

Magnolias Run Wild to Defeat Jemco Team

Until the seventh inning yesterday afternoon, the Jemcos of Jones-Everett Machine company held the Magnolias 5 to 5, but at that stage of the tilt, Bullock left the Jemco mound and the Magnolias proceeded to circle the bases 12 times in that inning. When the game ended the score was 23 to 5. A flock of pitchers who followed Bullock were knocked out of the box by the rejuvenated Magnolia batmen.

Lister hit a homer and a double for the Magnolias in the seventh inning. Burke, a little man with a magical arm, was merciless in striking out the Jemcos and in giving them a meager number of hits. Lyman and Bozeman bagged Burke's ball behind bat.

The tie at the beginning of the seventh does not indicate that the Magnolias hit freely but they did. However, had Bullock remained on the Jemco mound the defeat would have been lessened. Blankenship on first and Mitchell on second played without errors for the Magnolias.

Next Sunday, the Magnolia nine goes to Magic City but they will play a game here either Wednesday or Friday, exact date of which will be announced tomorrow.

Joe Vincent, of Fathere Drug No. 2, was a week-end visitor in Wheeler.

Tennis Stars in Texas Tourney

DALLAS, June 9. (P)—Eighty of the Southwest's outstanding racket wielders were here today to engage in initial rounds of the second annual Texas district championship tournament, on the courts of the Dallas lawn tennis club.

Competition was in prospect during the week in senior men's singles, junior singles and women's boys' singles and doubles, women's singles and doubles and in the mixed doubles.

Bruce Barnes, of Austin, ace of the University of Texas squad and twice Southwest conference champion, was speeded Number One and was established as a slight favorite over the field in the senior men's singles.

Jimmie Quick, Dallas flash, ranked Number Two and was regarded as Barnes' most serious rival, with the probability they would meet in the championship match.

SPLIT SEASON IS IMMINENT IN BALL LOOP

By Gattie Talbot, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Day by day, and in what might be termed a big way, the Wichita Falls Spudders sweep closer to a pinch in the first half of the Texas league flag race. Opening the current week, Carl Williams' torrid nine was six full games ahead of the pack, and the splitting date only 16 days distant.

There appears little reason to doubt the chase will be split, incidentally. The magnets even have dispensed with the merry little game of hide-and-seek they usually play with their public. Not one of the eight owners has voiced opposition so far, and there might not be an opposing vote when they gather June 19 to settle the question.

Apparently not satisfied with just romping away from the competition, the Spudders have taken to rubbing it in. They went the limit yesterday in crushing the Waco Cubs 18 to 1 and 11 to 2 in a double bill, making it unanimous for the series. Larry Ettencoot, the former all-American footballer, had the largest day of his career, busting two homers in each game and driving in a grand total of 11 runs during the afternoon.

In the face of the Spudders' phenomenal streak, the second place Houston Buffs continued to do the best they knew how by taking their final from Shreveport, 4 to 3, but it proved inadequate. They found themselves a half game further behind the leaders. George Payne made the vict'ry possible when he relieved Young Allyn Stout in the ninth and stopped the Sports with the tying run on base.

Beaumont tightened its hold on fourth place by whipping the crippled Fort Worth Cats, 13 to 7, in their final. The Exporters scored all their runs in a rousing bombardment off Walkup and Egan in the first three innings, featured by Chick Shiver's homer, with the bases loaded.

More than 2,000 fans saw the eighth place Dallas Steers sweep their last game with the seventh place San Antonio Indians, 10 to 1. Big George Murray was in great form, holding the Tribe to seven hits and blanking them after the initial frame.

The Indians found themselves "the spot" today, opening a three-gamer with the Spudders at Wichita Falls. Houston was at Fort Worth, Waco at Dallas and Beaumont at Shreveport.

Prairie Oilers Defeat Groom by 13-7 Score

The good hitting of Dillman and L. Scott enabled the Prairie Oilers to pile up a 13 to 7 score at Ogonis yesterday. Each made two runs and a homer. There was one on the base when Dillman lost the ball. In addition he hit a single and a triple. L. Scott brought in two on bases when he travelled the circuit. The other two hits were a single and a double. He also made a sacrifice hit.

The Oiler moundmen, McKinley, hung up 16 strike-outs, while the Groom pitcher, Williams, knocked 14 off the plate. Wadley caught for Groom. The Oilers got 16 hits and made four errors, while Groom was allowed only eight hits. The Carson county boys made only two hits. Groom's pitcher did an able job but his fielders were not equal to the task of putting Dillman's and Scott's hits. The good hitting of the Oilers undoubtedly won the game.

The runs were made as follows: Prairie—Michael 2b, 3; Dillman ss, 3; J. Scott, 3b, 2; L. Scott lf, 3; McKinley p, 1; Brandon cf, 1; Stewart 1b, 0; Wilson cf, 1; McLean rf, 0.

Groom—Krizah J. Davis, c; Gooden 2, Konrad 1, Helm 3, Gooden 1, Williams 1, Whalley 1, J. Helm 0.

The Oilers next game will be Sunday with the Gulf Ramblers on the Prairie diamond. The Groom team will play no more games until after the harvest.

OKLAHOMA OIL NOTES

Bailing started today at the Ryan Consolidated Oil No. 1 Fred Lawton, ne ne nw 3-11-2 w. 3 1-2 miles northeast of the Oklahoma City field, and it was expected that the fluid would be lowered enough by mid-afternoon to tell what it is showing.

The hole is bottomed at 6568 feet in a Detrital series, just above the Hunton lime. When the Detrital was drilled there was a showing of oil and gas in the cuttings.

Sinclair Oil and Gas completed its Number 2 Vencil, ne nw se 31-11-2 w. in the south end of the field Sunday, after deepening from 6,526 to 6,661 feet. The well flowed 1,235 barrels in the first four hours.

Another water hole was being added in Noble county, north of Perry. With the Gypsy Oil No. 1 Bergstrom, se se nw 28-21 w. getting 4,000 feet of salt water when it topped the Wilcox sand at 5,100 feet. Operators will drill through the sand to test its depth.

Cloudburst Halts Traffic LAREDO, June 9. (AP)—A freak cloudburst nine miles north of here yesterday, estimated by ranchmen at seven inches, sent an unnamed creek raging two feet deep across the Laredo-San Antonio highway for a quarter-mile, delaying traffic for more than an hour. In Laredo itself, the shower was too light to settle the dust.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

NATALIE CONVERSE tries to conquer her jealousy over her husband, ALAN. But they quarrel over BERNARDINE LAMONT, a night club hostess, when she asks him to look after her son, BOBBY, whose father had saved Alan's life during the war.

Amused at Natalie's attitude, Alan seeks sympathy from his secretary, PHILLIPA WEST, who is waiting for the opportunity to widen the breach between husband and wife.

Phillipa successfully schemes to arouse Natalie's suspicions, and one day Alan finds her gone. Wounded pride prevents him from seeking reconciliation, and Alan seeks consolation with Phillipa, who plays her part cleverly.

Meanwhile, Natalie regrets her hasty action. She hasn't told her family of the break and promises to take her young sister back to New York with her. Still she does not write to Alan, hoping that he will beg her to return. Her silence merely arouses his resentment and spurs him on with Phillipa, who makes him feel neglected and abused.

They are seen together constantly, and Phillipa, fearing that she does not intend to propose marriage, tells him her parents object to her going with a married man, and brings Alan to the point of confessing more than friendship for her.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XIV Alan did not give Phillipa a ring for some time. She was bitter over his neglect in the matter. He had showered gifts and checks upon Natalie; she knew that.

"He's the kind who wants to give applied to her since she had promised to marry him.

"The same old trouble, if you must know," Phillipa answered with a ready show of impatience.

"Yes?" he encouraged her.

"You know I had to tell the folks at home that we're going to be married—some day," she explained, not without a touch of acrimony in her voice.

"They wouldn't have allowed me to continue going about with you if I hadn't told them," she went on, talking fast.

Alan said: "I know; you told me about it."

"Well," Phillipa burst out; "they're beginning to act as though they think I lied to them, that we're not engaged at all!"

"Of course, it's nonsense, but it's terribly disturbing just the same. If only they'd come right out and say what they think, I could convince them that I told the truth."

Alan did not seem greatly impressed with her difficulty. "Can't you talk about it if your own accord?" he asked.

Phillipa shook her head. "You don't understand, Alan," she said, and now her voice was sweeter, and quite sad.

"There isn't anything that I can say, except that we're engaged, and I can't say that over and over, when there's nothing they can see to back me up."

"You won't let me see you at home," Alan reminded her.

"No, I won't," she said stubbornly. "My home isn't a pleasant place even for me. I'm not going to flaunt it upon you."

"But I think I ought to talk with you parents, Phillipa. After all, it's asking a great deal of them, even in this day and age, to entrust their daughter's happiness to a man who is still married to another woman."

Phillipa grabbed at the chance he gave her. "That's just it," she exclaimed. "Everything is so unsettled, so uncertain, I can't talk about it with them. If I could tell them when we're going to be married, where we're going to live, or what we're going to do, it wouldn't be so bad."

Her voice had grown louder, excited. She appeared to be carried away with her thoughts, so that when she said: "If only I had an engagement ring to show them, it would help a lot," it seemed a naturally expressed and innocent remark. Alan never guessed how skillfully he had been reminded of an oversight.

"That's one thing we can settle without delay," he said, glad to be able to take some direct action.

"And did she have cause for it?" Mr. West broke in, pointing an accusing finger at Phillipa.

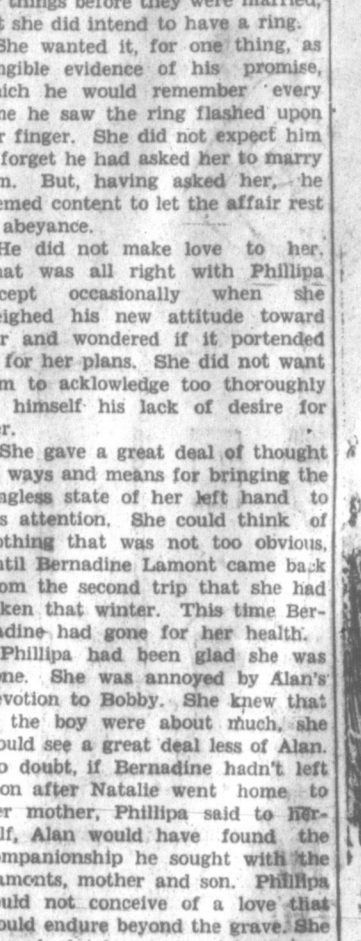

"If you're going to start treating me like a home wrecker, I'll leave," she threatened in answer.

"You'll leave if you don't take that ring off your finger, and be damned quick about it," her father shouted.

Phillipa smiled crookedly. "I expected as much," she said sneeringly. "Just because I have a chance to better myself, to get somewhere in the world, you want to hold me down with a lot of out-worn ideas about propriety. Furthermore, it seems you're pretty rude and willing to think anything of me. Why? Because I'm your own flesh and blood?"

"Phillipa!" her mother cried in frightened protest. "An instant later, her fright had fully communicated itself to her daughter. (To Be Continued.)

How To Get The Honey—?

He did not make love to her. That was all right with Phillipa except occasionally when she weighed his new attitude toward her and wondered if it portended for her plans. She did not want him to acknowledge too thoroughly to himself his lack of desire for her.

She gave a great deal of thought to ways and means for bringing the ringless state of her left hand to his attention. She could think of nothing that was not too obvious, until Bernardine Lamont came back from the second trip that she had taken that winter. This time Bernardine had gone for her health.

Phillipa had been glad she was gone. She was annoyed by Alan's devotion to Bobby. She knew that if the boy were about much, she would see great deal less of Alan. No doubt, if Bernardine hadn't left soon after Natalie went home to her mother, Phillipa said to herself, Alan would have found the companionship he sought with the Lamonts, mother and son. Phillipa could not conceive of a love that would endure beyond the grave. She was absolutely convinced that Bernardine would have taken Alan if she had known that he was separated from Natalie.

It happened to reveal to her that he hadn't told Bernardine anything about it. She suggested several reasons why she thought, he ought not to do it. Alan agreed with her, without giving the matter much thought.

But when Bernardine returned, and Alan went up to see her, and Bobby, Phillipa had to make the most of it. She decided it was high time to get her ring and bring Alan to a definite consideration of their future.

Choosing a time when Alan was less absent-minded than usual, and consequently more devoted to her, she appeared to be nervous and downcast.

Finally, as she knew he would, Alan asked what was troubling her. "Oh, just a condition at home," she answered in an offhand manner.

Alan frowned. He didn't feel like delving into trouble, but he considered it his duty to do as much for Phillipa as she had done for him. And she never had failed to be interested in his affairs, even when they were dreariest.

Of course, lately, while he had been living in a sort of shell of resignation, he hadn't needed much comforting.

"What is it, dear?" he pressed, using the only endearing term he had.

"No, I won't," she said stubbornly. "My home isn't a pleasant place even for me. I'm not going to flaunt it upon you."

"But I think I ought to talk with you parents, Phillipa. After all, it's asking a great deal of them, even in this day and age, to entrust their daughter's happiness to a man who is still married to another woman."

Phillipa grabbed at the chance he gave her. "That's just it," she exclaimed. "Everything is so unsettled, so uncertain, I can't talk about it with them. If I could tell them when we're going to be married, where we're going to live, or what we're going to do, it wouldn't be so bad."

under his right arm. The six men walked about 30 feet, then one of the bandits went back and retrieved the parcel.

When Mr. Byrne asked the men not to treat Mr. Skipp so roughly, one of them warned, "close up your trap, or I'll beat your head into jelly with this gun."

Further efforts of Mr. Byrne to carry on conversation with the robbers proved futile, he said this morning, and stated that he doubted if he could recognize the voices of the men if he should hear them again.

Between the Skipp apartments and the railroad tracks is a strip of pasture. When the party reached the tracks, the men emptied the money sacks into some sort of unrecognizable receptacles they had and ordered Skipp and Byrne to walk down the tracks "to those lights yonder."

The lights proved to be at the Hinderliter Tool and Supply company. There Mr. Byrne after 20 minutes of telephoning located with city police and informed them of the robbery. It was 2:30 a. m. before Mr. Skipp was able to communicate with the sheriff's department.

It is Mr. Skipp's opinion that the robbers did not have a car near the place where they searched the men and emptied the money sacks. The night was still and they did not hear any automobile start while they were slowly walked to the supply house. Both men are of the opinion that they went directly to some house or lodging place in Pampa. When they left their victims they went south of the tracks.

All four of the men wore handkerchiefs over the lower part of their faces. They also wore caps pulled down low over their foreheads. They were of about the same height, probably five feet and 10 inches, Mr. Skipp said. A restaurant owner in South Pampa told police yesterday that on Friday night four men of similar build came into his cafe and displayed guns as they transferred them from one pocket to another. However, he said he was not certain he would recognize them.

Mr. Byrne is one of Mr. Skipp's tenants, living in one of the apartments. He arrived at the apartments simultaneously with Mr. Skipp. He had just driven around to the south of the apartments, parked his car and was scraping his feet on the board walk when Mr. Skipp arrived. He does not live in the same cottage with Mr. Skipp. He is a driller by profession and has been living there three years. Mr. Skipp was talking to him and Miss Hortense Allison and Mr. Ray Miller were married at 8 o'clock Sunday morning at the First Methodist church, where the Rev. T. W. Brabham officiated. The ceremony was read before an assemblage of intimate friends and relatives of the couple.

A profusion of cut flowers and palms was attractively arranged for the occasion. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Teed and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Baird.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. E. H. Baird of Pampa, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Miller of Pratt, Kans. She was a popular member of the Pampa high school faculty during the last year, in Junior high school. She is a former student of State Teachers college of Murfreesboro, Tenn. Mr. Miller is employed in the office of the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber company here.

The bride wore a white chiffon frock, trimmed with double flouncings on the skirt, large cape collar and white corsage. Her silk braided and pleated lace picture hat, and other accessories were in harmony. Her traveling ensemble was of Goshwin blue tweed with pearl gray and blue flat crepe waist. A blue hat and handbag completed this attire.

The couple departed immediately after the ceremony on a wedding tour east. They will spend a few days in the bride's former home with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Paris, near Carthage, Tenn., and with other relatives and friends near Nashville. After their return they will make their home in Pampa.

Unlocking the door at the same time when they were surprised by the bandits. Mr. Skipp had walked alone from the Pla-Mor to his residence. He is of slight build and is 60 years of age. He has lived here three years, coming from Denver. Three months ago he leased the Pla-Mor and with Jack C. Rogers has been operating it since.

Fall to Open Safe
Wounds apparently inflicted accidentally by their own hands, probably induced burglars to abandon robbing of the Gulf service station on West Foster last night.

When employees arrived at the place this morning, the safe and floor of the office were spattered with blood, and two bolts had been removed from the safe door. Police said that the burglars apparently gave up hope of robbing the safe when the wound was inflicted. The safe is small and round and encased in cement.

Entrance to the filling station was gained by breaking a window pane.
