BHS UIL Academic Students Ready for Regional Contest

Fifteen students and three academic coaches from Borden County High School will vie for state berths this weekend in Abilene as they compete in the Region II-A UIL Academic Meet.

Many of these students will also be a part of the cast and crew of the regional-qualifying BHS One-Act Play, so a busy weekend is in store for these participants.

The BHS students earned the right to participate in the Regional Meet by placing first, second, or third individually in their respective contests or as a member of first place teams at the District 9-A Academic Meet held at the end of March.

Leading off the Borden County contingent in Abilene will be multiple event qualifiers Becky Dobyns, Rowdy Clary, and Rachel Wilson.

Dobyns, a junior, is seeking a return trip to Austin in her four events: Editorial Writing, Headline Writing, Ready Writing, and Spelling & Vocabulary. She qualified for state last year in both Headlines and Spelling.

Clary and Wilson each qualified for the Regional Meet in three events. They will team up as members of the Current Issues & Events team and will then split up for their own events.

Clary, a junior, will compete as the District 9-A Champion in both Social Studies and Extemporaneous Persuasive Speaking.

Wilson, a sophomore, will also compete in both Editorial Writing and Spelling & Vocabulary.

Competing in two events at the Regional Meet will be senior Andrew Lamming, juniors Jake Payne and Taylor Peterson, sophomore Kate Wallace, and freshman Carlos Hernandez.

Lamming makes his final trip to regional in both Lincoln-Douglas Debate and Extemporaneous Informative Speaking.

Payne will compete individually in Literary Criticism and as a member of the Social Studies team.

Peterson and Hernandez are both members of the Current Issues & Events and Social Studies teams.

Wallace once again qualified for regional competition in Lincoln-Douglas Debate and Extemporaneous Persuasive Speaking.

Finishing out the Borden County competitors are seniors Whitney Anderson (News Writing), Trey Soto (Headline Writing), and Austin Tarleton (Spelling & Vocabulary). Anderson qualified for state last year in Feature Writing, but her hopes are with News Writing this year.

Additional juniors participating will be Clint Chapman (Extemporaneous Persuasive Speaking) and Christina Soto (News Writing).

Sophomore Sharelle Gass will make her first trip to regional in Poetry Interpretation, while freshman Katherine Froman will compete as a member of the

Deadline Extended to April 28th for CRP General Sign-up and Re-Enrollment/Extension Acceptance

Agriculture Secretary Mike Johanns announced an extension of the sign-up deadlines for both the Conservation Reserve Program (CPR) and the special CRO re-enrollment and extension opportunities until April 28, 2006. The deadline for both opportunities was originally April 14, 2006.

"I encourage all eligible farmers and ranchers to take advantage of the Conservation Reserve Program enrollment options available now through April 28," said Johanns. "Farmers can improve out soil, water, air and wildlife habitat resources by re-enrolling and extending their CRP contracts."

After the CRP general sign-up ends on April 28, USDA's Farm Service agency (FSA) will evaluate offers based on cost and the Environmental Benefits Index (EBI) factors of wildlife, water, soil, air and enduring benefits. Accepted offers will become effective October 1, 2006.

In addition, subject to a compliance review, CRP participants with contracts expiring on Sept. 30, 2007, now have until April 28 to apply for special re-enrollment or extension opportunities offered by FSA. Participants ranking in the EBI's top one-fifth can re-enroll their land in a new 10-year contract. For lands

Coyote Runners-up Finish in the Area Track Meet

Four Schools Records Fall

By Coach Richey

The Borden County track season continued Thursday as they traveled to Roby to compete in the area Track Meet. In order for the track season to continue past this point, the athletes and or relay teams had to finish in the top four in their respective events. On this day, the Coyotes had their fair share of ups and downs, as they managed to set 4 more school records, but also found themselves just out of advancing in several events. Senior J Ryan Gicklhorn hoped to make a return trip to the Regional Track meet, but a 5th place finish in the shot put would not give him that opportunity. J Ryan put the shot 44'7" which was just a couple of inches out of not only 4th but 3rd as well.

Seniors Austin Tarleton and Aaron Pigford also just missed out as they tied for 6th place in the high jump with a leap of 5'8".

In the pole vault, sophomore Michael Bullinger just missed on advancing as he just barely knocked the bar off on his final attempt at 12'6" which placed him 5th in the competition. This was disappointing, as Michael still has one of the top 4 jumps in the region this year at 13'0".

Jake Cooley followed a 7th place finish in the 800 in a time of 2:10 with a strong 5th place finish in the 400 hundred in a seasons best 54.23, not bad for a freshman.

Junior Jake Payne also had disappointment, as he finished 5th in the 300 hurdles with a time of 43.13. This was his second best time of the season, but a missed step late in the race cost him a chance to advance.

Jake Payne joined teammates Aaron, Michael and Brad Tatum to run in the 800 relay. Aaron Pigford elected to run in this race in hopes of helping the other three advance to the regional meet even though he had one of the top 8 times in the 200. This group ran a school record 1:34.03, which shattered the previous record of 1:38.18. Michael started it off with a 23.49, followed by a 24.37 by Jake, Brad Tatum ran a 23.89 after a slight bobble on his exchange with Jake. Aaron took the baton and did his best to catch up as he ran a 22.19 split, but in a photo finish, the Coyotes finished in 5th place, but a school record that may last for a long time none the less.

Austin Tarleton also triple jumped on this day, but his 39'10" was only good enough for 7th place. Austin also teamed up with Michael, Jake Payne and Jake Cooley to run the 1600 meter relay, but their 3:53 was also only good enough for 7th place.

J Ryan also competed in the Discus, but his 122' throw could only muster up a 7th place finish as well.

The Highs on this day came in the way of Brad Tatum as he bettered his school record of 13'6" by clearing a school record and regions best 14'0" to win the pole vault. Brad then teamed up with Aaron, Michael and Garrett Thomas in the 400 relay. This was the first time this foursome was together, but it proved to be a good match, as they shocked the stadium as they ran a school record and top region time of 43.89 to win the 400 relay. Michael started it off with a solid lead leg, but Aaron swallowed the field to regain the lead. Brad did a super job of keeping the Coyotes close and then Garrett used a late surge to come from 3rd to overtake the Forsan and Roscoe runners just meters before the end. This time has them sitting in the top 3 currently in the region.

Garrett followed this by winning the 110 high hurdles in time that was his second best on the season at 14.09.

Aaron Pigford competed in the 100 meter dash, and on a day that started out poorly for the senior in failing to qualify in the high jump turned into his best day on the track as a close 3rd place finish with a time of 10.93 allowed him to advance in this event, but to break one of the oldest records on the board that was held by Chris Cooley at 11.09.

Garrett then returned to the track to take part in the 300 hurdles, which he won easily in a time of 38.91. Both of his hurdle times are not only the top in the region, but they are the top times in the state in class A.

So to recap, the Coyotes finished runner up in the meet while advancing Brad in the pole vault, the 400 relay team of Michael, Aaron, Brad and Garrett, Aaron in the 100 and Garrett Thomas in the 110 high hurdles and 300 intermediate hurdles. The Coyotes have high hopes of performing well at region and possibly taking a relay and several individual events to Austin if these young men continue to improve.

Good luck guys and congratulations on a super meet. You guys that closed out your season, congratulations on a super season and good luck to you next year.

Six-Man Region II Coyote sluggers prevail in All-Region Thriller

Senior Austin Tarleton continued his very successful basketball season as he followed up his MVP All-District results and his All-South Plains team recognition by being recognized by the Region II Six-man coaches by being selected to the All-Region First Team. Team mate junior Jacob Froman followed up his new-comer of the year with a 2nd team All-Region honor.

Senior Aaron Pigford after being selected all-district received honorable mention six-man all-region. The official list of Six-man All-State players has not been released, but we can confirm that Austin Tarleton did receive 2nd Six-Man All-State Honors. Austin has also been selected to play in this years six-man all-star game that will take place in Lubbock this summer during the 2nd week in July.

Congratulations guys on a very successful basketball season.

Lamesa Press-Reporter

The Borden County Coyotes celebrated a thrilling 12-11 win over the Loraine Bulldogs on Tuesday evening at Western Texas College in Snyder.

"It ended up with a play at the plate and we got the call," Borden County Coach Trey Richey said.

Tuesday's nail-biting win improved the Coyotes' season record to 4-3.

"Our guys really showed lots of heart and character in this game," Richey said. "Our guys just kept on plugging."

"These guys really did play amazingly well again, especially for not playing much ball until this season."

The Coyotes scored two runs in the first inning, one more in the third and fourth, three in the fifth and one in the sixth, before scoring four big runs in a seventh inning rally.

The Bulldogs scored six runs in the second inning, one more in the fourth and their final four in the sixth.

By pitching the first two and then also the seventh inning, Quentin Shafer was Tuesday's winning pitcher. He had four strikeouts, including two in the seventh.

Michael Bullinger pitched four strong innings in that game. Bullinger had four strike-outs and gave up only three earned runs.

J. Ryan Gicklhorn and Trey Soto both went three-for-five at the plate with three RBIs each. Austin Tarleton went two-for-four with two RBIs and also scored two runs.

It was Soto who delivered Tuesday's game-winning RBI hit.

Asa Rutherford also had two hits, one RBI and scored one run.

Shafer also had one hit, one RBI and also scored four runs.

Bullinger had a huge bunt that kicked off the Coyotes' big seventh inning rally.

Tax Day Recap

With tax season coming to a close, I thought it would be a good opportunity to take a look back at recent tax relief measures and the effect they are having on the U.S. economy. What I found from studies done by the U.S. Department of the Treasury paints an interesting picture.

In May of 2003, President Bush signed the Jobs and Growth Act into law, which reduced the tax burden on American taxpayers. Lower taxes have meant real savings for millions of workers. This year alone, 5 million individuals and families will see their income tax liability completely eliminated; 44 million families with children will receive an average tax cut of $2,495; 14 million elderly individuals will save an average of $2,043. Small businesses will benefit as well: 25 million small business owners will see their tax burden decline by an average of $3,641.

These tax savings are translating into positive news for the job market. In the three years since the tax relief went into effect, business investment has increased, the number of jobs have grown, and the unemployment rate has dropped. The U.S. economy is experiencing 31 consecutive months of job growth, which has resulted in the creation of more than 5.1 million new jobs (including 2.1 million in the past 12 months alone). Reports show that this growth is occurring in multiple sectors of the economy, including health, educational, business, and financial services. At the same time, the country's unemployment rate is historically-low at 4.7 percent.

Federal tax revenues have also gone up. Despite the misleading rhetoric that tax relief is adding to the deficit, quite the opposite is true. Since 2003, when the latest round of tax relief was passed, tax revenues have increased each year. This includes revenues increasing by 14% in 2005. More needs to be done to reduce the deficit - such as reining in spending - but raising taxes isn't the answer. To keep the economy humming along, we need to continue smart tax policies that allow small businesses and working families to keep more of their hard-earned money.

Shuttle Anniversary Continues Era of Exploration

By Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison

This month, the U.S. space program reached a landmark in its history, and it looks forward to a promising new era. On April 12th, we celebrated the 25th anniversary of the first space shuttle launch. The last quarter century of human space flight was dominated by this amazing spacecraft. The passing of the baton from the shuttle to a new generation of vehicles is on the horizon. With these vehicles we will reach new destinations and view new vistas.

Late last year, Congress enacted my NASA authorization bill, the first in five years. The bill does more than simply authorize funds for the space program. It begins the transition to the new era of exploration.

That era will continue this July with the launch of the Space Shuttle Discovery on the second Return to Flight test mission. During their mission to the International Space Station, Discovery's crew will test new equipment and procedures that increase the safety of space shuttles.

The successor to the shuttle program will embark on bold, new missions, including a return to the moon after a hiatus of more than 30 years. This time, it will be more than a brief visit; the moon will become a stepping stone for exploring the further reaches of space.

Our ultimate goal of this new era will be to set foot on the Red Planet. Incredible pictures from the Spirit and Opportunity rovers on Mars have given us a deeper sense of what it will be like to stand on the surface of Mars, climb its rolling hills and explore its craters and valleys.

This new journey must begin from where we now are. It must build on the solid base of knowledge and experience that we have spent many years and invested extensive resources to develop. That base will not be completed until we return the space shuttle to full flight status; and we must finish the Space Station to provide an essential laboratory for important research.

Current plans call for the end of space shuttle flights in 2010, but we need to be sure we do not have a gap during which our nation is unable to perform manned missions. We do not yet know when the new Crew Exploration Vehicle (CEV) will become fully operational. Therefore, my bill requires NASA to notify the Congress if a gap appears likely and detail the steps they believe we should take to bridge that gap.

We must be able to sustain operations aboard the space station. It will be necessary to ensure that we have the capability to deliver cargo, re-supply the station, and return payloads to Earth. It is not enough for us to simply attach the remaining modules to the space station and leave it behind. That would not meet our commitments to our international partners, our taxpayers, or to the scientists who have spent two decades planning and preparing to use the space station.

My bill maximizes our investment in the International Space Station by designating it a National Laboratory. It is an important national asset with enormous potential for scientific research and exploration, for example, increasing our understanding of cosmic rays and working to develop new sources of energy. This designation will open up new avenues for outside funding and support, and it will extend the benefits provided by the many unique possibilities for research on the space station.

Our efforts in space are essential to keeping our nation competitive. We have an exciting and bright future in space exploration. We are on a course that will bring important new knowledge and inspire the next generation of American scientists to do what, only yesterday, seemed like science fiction.
