

FARM LOAN BILL IS APPROVED

Moody Will Deliver Annual Message To Legislature Today

This is examination week. The teachers will live over it, but quite a few of the pupils will not, figuratively speaking. It is reported to the Pampan that the questions were never harder. Such reports are common at this time of each year.

As one who took final exams and sundry other kinds over a period of fifteen years or more, this writer is "agin" them. At the risk of bringing down the wrath of the esteemed instructors, he is going to say that the present system of final examinations is wrong, wasteful of time and energy, and that accomplishes little that could not be learned by pupil and teacher in other ways.

The Pampan is not altogether opposed to examination—far from it. Life is full of exams, and most of them are "pop quizzes." The idea of having pupils always ready to review passed work is not bad. Association of ideas through discussions and reviews is, in the opinion of the Pampan, the basis of real learning.

On the other hand, cramming hysterically just before the "finals" is not conducive to mastery of a subject. Some pupils visualize crammed work in their minds, while others can memorize by repeating data over and over. A few fortunate minds seem able to recall much of what is studied and to do so without apparent effort. The real test is what is known at examination time, but what is remembered in measurable form months and years later. High pressure knowledge fades rapidly.

Too much of American education is mechanical, just as examinations are mechanical. Our students are ruled by English from repeated drills but they can neither write nor speak it correctly. They have little appreciation for what is good in literature. They relegate the classics to the past when they are graduated. The mechanical rules do not connect them logically and enthusiastically with the present. They are, culturally speaking, misfits. Education should be a life, but unfortunately it is too often a collection of formulas to be mastered through rote learning, then given back to the teacher forevermore in the final examinations.

The ideal in education has been described as a good teacher sitting in a chair, informal counsel with a good pupil. There certainly, under such an arrangement, would be few unpleasantnesses. The pupil should catch the spirit and enthusiasm of the teacher, and the interchange of ideas should be a happy one. How foreign is this ideal in the atmosphere of a nerve-racking final examination! The work is full of anxiety, and cannot be even remotely brought within the scope of formal examinations.

The difference between good and bad education is in the minds of the pupils. They are enthusiastic about learning, they eagerly discuss new knowledge among themselves and their parents outside the school house, if they carry this quest for true education through the years of their lives, if they regard graduation as a very real commencement of their bigger and fuller education, then, and only then, may they be said to be accomplishing what schools and school teachers intend.

It is true that a teacher needs a measure of what the pupil is accomplishing in his mind. And just as definitely, the instructor should have some indication of his own accomplishments. The answer is that the final examinations do not afford such a test in either instance. Therefore, we do not need a substitute for the formal final but rather some system which will indicate the progress of the pupils. Required written work in following up class discussions is of value. The question is not whether Johnny knows on what day Washington crossed the Delaware, but what his campaign meant and signified.

Some teachers use a long list of review questions, submitted far in advance, from which they choose subjects upon which pupils are required to write. This plan has many advantages, an important one of which is to stimulate study without arousing undue apprehension and dislike. Dislike of methods used is the bane of the American system today. The Pampan believes that studies can be made just as thorough, and a great deal more

SECOND DAY'S SESSION FOR HIRING HELP

INVITED GOVERNOR TO ADDRESS BODY TODAY
STILL WORKING ON RULE

RESOLUTION WILL BE PRESENTED ABOUT ROAD BONDS

AUSTIN, Jan. 14. (AP)—The Forty Second Legislature went ahead with organization and the hiring of employees during its second day's session, deciding to wait until tomorrow to hear the message from Governor Dan Moody, who within a week will surrender his office to Ross S. Sterling.

The spirit of retrenchment was evident in both branches. The senate amended a resolution so as to pay its legal counsel, Rice Tilley, former first assistant attorney general, only $15 a day whereas the resolution originally called for $20 a day. Senator Joe M. Moore of Greenville, was active in cutting Tilley's pay.

Oppose Resolution
Numerous members of the house objected to a resolution allowing each member $80 for stamps and $80 for telephone and telegraph expenses. The resolution was withdrawn when opposition developed. Representative Bowd Farrow of Waxahatchie said he would attempt to amend the resolution to provide $50 for stamps. The resolution, as introduced, would have provided $12,000 for stamps and $9,000 for telephone and telegraph tolls.

The house and senate invited Governor Moody to appear in person before a joint session of the house and senate tomorrow morning to deliver his message.

Want Joint Body
Among the resolutions expected to be offered in the house tomorrow is one which would provide for a joint committee of the house and senate to work with the state auditor, county auditors and county judges to determine the amount of outstanding county road bonds the proceeds of which were used on state highways.

The resolution will be offered by Dr. J. J. Bell of Bellevue, Alex. Brice of Sulphur Springs and Geo. Moffett of Chilloothee. Under the resolution the committee would decide if the state could pay the interest on the bonds from the gasoline tax and automobile license revenues. The interest at present is paid through taxation of land and homes in the counties. The resolution ordered a report in 30 days.

Work On Rules
Rules for operation under the new 120-day system still were a principal topic of speculation. Both houses and committees working on rules.

Eight more bills were led into the senate hopper today, bringing the total to 20.

The appropriation bill for the judicial department of government, carrying an appropriation of $5,224,479 for the next biennium, was introduced today by Dr. J. W. E. H. Beck of DeKalb, chairman of the senate finance committee.

Senator George C. Purl of Dallas offered a measure which would exempt the property of churches and such organizations as the Y. M. C. A. and Knights of Columbus from taxation. Purl said the bill was the enactment statute for a constitutional amendment which had been approved.

The senate state affairs committee returned a favorable report on the bill by Frank Rawlings of Fort Worth of repeal the Tarrant county civil service law.

PAMPA FEELS EFFECT FROM CHILLY WIND

MERCURY DROPS HERE TO 28 DEGREES LAST NIGHT

SNOW IN MEXICO CITY MOROCCO IS STRUCK BY SEVERE COLD DESERT STORM

Following the pleasant weather which Pampa has enjoyed for the past few days, temperature dropped here Wednesday and at 10 o'clock last night was standing at 28 degrees. A chilly south wind blew most of the day.

(Associated Press)
The world was a bit giddy with its Wednesday weather. In Mexico City, where it shouldn't, it snowed.

A postage stamp blizzard laid a deep snow along a narrow section of territory, near Buffalo, N. Y., and blew itself out without being felt elsewhere in the vicinity.

In Morocco, where the sands of the desert seldom grow cold, palm trees snapped before one of the most severe and chilling storms of years.

Warm blooded Spaniards, unused to severe cold, saw mercury fall below zero and in southern Spain also had snowfalls and red underwear are unheard of, there was considerable suffering.

Dixie shivered under snow. It was freezing at Chattanooga, Tenn., and in Johnson City there were seven inches of snow. The Piedmont and mountain sections of the Carolinas also had snowfalls and temperatures below 32. It was cold in Virginia and Alabama last night with readings low in the twenties predicted before dawn.

Arkansas went to bed with the warning of a freeze and the promise of warmer weather today. Atlanta had a season's low of 14 during the night, and even Florida, her feet splashing in the warm gulf, saw the thin red line of her thermometer dip into the thirties.

Snow in Mexico City was a revelation to thousands of natives who never had seen it save at the distant Popocatepetl and Xacahuatl. Many who habitually sleep outdoors had to avail themselves on charity shelter.

The West coast had seasonable temperatures which went into the sixties, tapering down to lower figures in the North.

HUNTING? JUST A BIG GAME!

Clara Bow, flouting the scenes in the life of Clara Bow, flouting the "it" girl of the films, were thrown on the superior court screen today through the asserted confession of Daisy De Boe ex-secretary to the film actress, who is on trial for grand theft.

Intimate bits of Clara's doings were cut with camera clearness in the following sharp phrases and Daisy's confession.

"One more slam in the papers and Clara is through—she was told to keep her name out of the papers."

"I would at least. My Boy came around to my way of thinking there might be trouble."

"Yes, I asked $125,000 for things that I know. I think it would be to her advantage to keep my mouth shut."

"Miss Bow was drunk. If I had gotten into an argument with her she would have tried to kill me. She had tried before."

"She was getting dressed to go to the Beach House, and she was drunk, very, very drunk."

"Clara said she—I got to give them the insurance company back that money. You go stick that watch in the safe deposit box and keep your mouth shut."

"I burned love letters (Clara's from Harry Ichman, Dr. Earl Pierson, and Gary Cooper) because I wouldn't have them lying around the house. That is how Clara gets into trouble, so I took the liberty of burning them."

"Miss Bow was not in court during the reading of the confession, which was made to Blaney Matthews, District attorney's secretary, last November. His stenographer, Miss Dorothy Adams, read the thirty page document from the witness stand."

Nathan Freedman, attorney for Miss DeBoe, failed in an attempt to bar the confession on the ground it was obtained through duress and intimidation. Matthews, presiding in his stenographer on the stand, emphatically declared the confession had been made voluntarily and without promise of immunity.

Miss De Boe, also on the stand, testified she returned and intended to prosecute her on "40 to 50 counts" if she did not come through with all she knew. Matthews denies this also.

The reference to paying $750 to the insurance company involved a "bribe" which she returned and found two months later.

"One Friday night," Miss De Boe's confession read, "she was getting dressed, and she was drunk, very, very drunk. She wanted to go to the beach house, and wanted me to go with her. She had a strange bunch of people I don't know, and I said 'You go, I don't care for these people and I'll NOT go.'"

Miss De Boe then told of the watch being lost at the beach, and of the beach which included sifting of the beach sand. The insurance company was notified, she said, and sent a $750 check.

Two months later the watch was found under a cover of Miss Bow's bathroom perfume table. Miss De Boe said she told the actress the $750 must be returned to the insurance company, and Clara said: "The—I got to give them back."

MEASURE GETS APPROVAL FOR DROUGHT AID

DEMOCRATS IN SENATE PROPOSE DIRECT APPROPRIATION

PRESENTED TO HOOVER ASSAIL PRESIDENT FOR OPPOSITION TO MEASURE

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—The emergency appropriation of $45,000,000 for seed loans to drought-stricken farmers was finally approved today by Congress but in its wake arose a new dispute over relief legislation.

Senate Democrats proposed a direct appropriation from the treasury of $25,000,000 for the Red Cross to administer relief and threatened an extra session of Congress in the Spring, if necessary, to get it.

Offer Proposal
Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, offered the $25,000,000 relief proposal as the minority party yielded to the insistence of the administration controlled house for elimination from the drought relief measure of the $15,000,000 seed loan provision sponsored by Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas.

Senator Black, Democrat, Alabama, joined Robinson in offering the new proposition as an amendment to the pending agriculture appropriation bill. A two-thirds vote will be necessary to add the unauthorized fund to the supply measure, but Robinson is confident of the votes.

Sent To Hoover
The $45,000,000 measure sent to President Hoover tonight after the senate receded from amendments in dispute with the house for loans for the farmers to push the wheat crops. It becomes available immediately.

During a long day of debate, Democrats and Republicans independently in the senate bitterly assailed the administration's proposal for its opposition to the food loan program and for its contention that the Red Cross, which is now raising $10,000,000 for drought relief work, can administer adequately to the needs.

Gives Notice
Robinson gave notice that if the senate adds the $25,000,000 fund to the agriculture bill he would insist upon its approval by the house even at the cost of defeating the entire measure. This would threaten an extra session for the bill carries funds for next year's operation of the agricultural department.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, just before the conference report was agreed to, look the administration to task.

"The issue, after all," he said, "is who is going to pay the bill of relief. The administration has closed the treasury doors and said we are NOT going to pay it. The administration is for exempting the large income tax payers and the corporations from paying a dollar, and on the backs of the small property owners will be placed increased taxes for relief."

Wants Aid To Start
Chairman Pones of the appropriations committee in moving recession on the food loan provision, said: "The more quickly we get the $45,000,000 appropriation the more quickly relief will start."

The senate also receded from the amendment of Senator Black, Democrat, Alabama, to the emergency appropriation measure providing that no geographical restrictions of agriculture relief shall be observed in the drought regions in administering the loans.

Senator Jones said he understood the department of agriculture did NOT intend to observe any geographical limitations. However, Senator Hefflin, Democrat, Alabama, introduced a resolution to have the senate declare itself against such limitations.

The $25,000,000 proposal of Robinson and Black would place NO limitations upon the use of the money by the Red Cross.

It reads:
"There is hereby appropriated the sum of $25,000,000 to be expended by the Red Cross for the purpose of supplying food to persons otherwise unable to procure same."

FARMERS WILL CUT ACREAGE

PANHANDLE FARMERS PROMISE TO SLASH WHEAT YIELD

AMARILLO, Tex., Jan. 14. (AP)—A campaign sponsored by wheat farmers of the Panhandle "to save themselves from further financial losses," by a voluntary cut of 40 per cent in wheat acreage, was set in motion at a meeting here today.

The conference was called by Lester Stone, Amarillo grain producer and originator of the plan. Executive committees of both the Panhandle Bankers association and the Panhandle grain dealers association, and others who attended the meeting pledged support to the movement.

Efforts to carry the plan in to the southwestern wheat states will be made at a meeting to be held in Amarillo January 20. Bankers, state officials, and grain dealers of Kansas and Oklahoma, and all wheat growers of the Panhandle will be invited to attend the next meeting.

Those attending the conference today expressed the opinion that the voluntary plan was the only way to send wheat back up to the cost of production.

Since the plan is voluntary no organization will be required, and there will be no expense to farmers, Mr. Stone said. He has been recommending it to farmers several weeks, and reported that the plan met with almost 100 per cent approval.

"In one community west of Amarillo," Mr. Stone said, "farmers with 36,000 acres of wheat signed the pledges within an hour, and not a single one turned me down." He predicted that 90 per cent of the Panhandle farmers would sign the pledges, and that the plan would be universally supported in all wheat-growing states.

Pledges to reduce acreage will be signed in the presence of bankers and grain dealers in each community, and will be forwarded to a central committee in Amarillo, where acreage reductions will be tabulated and announced.

Supporters of the movement include W. H. Fuqua, Amarillo banker; Mayor Ernest O. Thompson, J. N. Beasley, widely-known grain dealer, and Gene Howe, editor of the News-Globe.

AGED PLAINS COWBOY DIES

REESE BARTON OVER 100 YEARS OLD SUCCUMBS

CHILDRESS, TEX., Jan. 14. (AP)—Another of the colorful characters associated in fact and fiction with the winning of the Old West is dead.

Reese Barton, described in newspapers and magazines for a number of years as the world's oldest cowboy, died at the Smith ranch, 20 miles North of Childress, last night. He was more than 100 years old.

Born near Charleston, South Carolina, March 8, 1830, Barton came to Texas at the age of eight years. He rode railroads had crossed the state, when the buffalo were so plentiful, as he described them, they nearly crowded the cattle from the prairie, and when frequent brushes with Indians were the rule, rather than the exception.

As a youth, for a time, he was a cowboy near Alice, but ultimately he moved on into the Panhandle country. He drove cattle for Shanghai Pierce, Desesse, Blocker, Pant and others, but for the last 40 years of his life worked for Smith. In 1867, he was driving cattle from the Southwest to Abilene, Kansas, the railroad head, and in the early '70s he helped move United States cavalry horses from Fort Griffin to old Fort Elliott, where Mokietie, in Wheeler county, stands. It was said he did not know of the Civil

HUMBLE CUTS CRUDE PRICE

DRASTIC REDUCTIONS MADE ON TEXAS PETROLEUM

HOUSTON, TEX., Jan. 14. (AP)—Reduction in posted prices for crude oil in virtually all Texas fields were announced today by the Humble Oil and Refining company effective at 7 o'clock this morning. The reductions range from 2 to 28 cents a barrel.

"In consideration of the lower prices at which our competitors for some time have been and are purchasing and producers are selling crude oil in certain areas, the Humble Oil and Refining company has been obliged to change its posted prices," W. S. Parish, president of the Humble Oil and Refining company, declared in announcing the reduction.

All fields, with exception of Ranger area, Mexia, Powell, Boggy Creek, Richland, Wortham, Lytton Springs, Currie, Moran, Nocona, Winkler, and Precos county, Salt Flat and Darst Creek, were reduced.

Coastal crude "A" grade, was cut 2 cents per barrel, making the new price 80 cents a barrel. Coastal grade "B" grade, below 25 degree gravity was cut 6 cents to 69 cents, with a 2 cent differential from below 25 degree gravity through 40 degree and above gravity, making posted price for this grade of oil $1.01, a reduction of 21 cents from the former price.

CLUB TO HELP DRESS UP CITY

HOO-HOO ORDER PLANS TO BUY TREES FOR CITY YARDS

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Pampa Hoo-Hoo club has been doing a great amount of good in this city and they deserve commendation. The following story is another one of this order's good movements.

The Hoo-Hoo club of Pampa, meeting at the Schneider hotel last night appointed a committee to determine the best kind of shade tree that would be best suited to soil here.

Committee members intend to have a tree specialist examine the soil here and offer suggestions on types of trees. When the type is determined, the club intends to buy a large shipment and sell them through affiliated members of the club to the public at cost.

This program is planned to help beautify the city and to furnish work for unemployed men here in setting out the trees.

A resolution was passed commending Alex Schneider for his confidence in the future Pampa by announcing an addition to his present hotel.

Henry R. Esherwood, national secretary-treasurer of the National Hoo-Hoo club, has sent out a circular letter to all chapters of the order in the nation commending the Pampa club on its fine civic work and on its weekly advertisements it has run in the Sunday News-Post. Copies of the advertisements have been sent to the other chapters with recommendations.

ROGERS WILL NOT GIVE PROGRAM IN AMARILLO—"FER UM"

AMARILLO, Tex., Jan. 14. (AP)—Will Rogers will not come to Amarillo to give a benefit program.

The cowboy humorist was advised today by Mayor Ernest O. Thompson that Amarillo was not in the drought-stricken area.

"We appreciate greatly your most generous offer," the mayor wired, "but honestly, Will, we have not suffered here at all compared with some other places, and we do not feel that it is at all right to avail ourselves of the kind offer from your big heart when your time should be used at some more needy point. We, however, do want you to come here March 2 or 3 for the Cattleman's Convention at your regular fee, so that we may show you how much we appreciate you here in your home country."

"I'm for you fellers in Amarillo," Thompson quoted Rogers as saying. "Anyhow I'll get credit for offering my services to a good cause without having to deliver the goods."

L. N. Brashears, employe of the Panhandle Herald was in Pampa last night on business.

DEATH SENTENCE OF TWITTY IS AFFIRMED

AUSTIN, Jan. 14. (AP)—The conviction and death sentence of Marcus Twitty, charged with criminal assault on the three year old daughter of a carnival employe, was affirmed today by the court of criminal appeals.

Twitty appealed from Gray county. He was alleged to have attacked the little girl last April 30, while she was sleeping in a tent with her brother.

Examinations in science and commercial work are being given at the high school today. Final grades will be in the office of the principal by Wednesday, and names of Harvesters eligible for letters will be announced soon.

New Students are asked to enroll on Monday. Principal L. L. Bone said yesterday.

Bill Dollar—Who Has Him? He Is Paying Many Bills

Who has Bill Dollar? The dollar bill started out Saturday night by the News-Post, is still traveling at a great rate, is paying or helping to pay a lot of bills as he travels.

Malone Furniture store started him, and he was successfully reported in possession of Dr. H. H. Hicks, Rose Building News stand, Texas Coffee shop, Oden Music Shoppe, and LaNora theatre.

It is known that he has been through many other hands. Those receiving him are asked to telephone The News or The Post so that his progress may be reported.

MODERATE ACTIVITY

BETWEEN WAVELNGTHS

Continued liberal supplies of hogs resulted in an uneven price decline of 10-50 with strong weight butchers taking the big end of the break. The top of 8.25 was paid both at Chicago and St. Louis. Offerings were around 141,000.

The sheep supply approximated 49,000. Fat lambs were unevenly steady to 25 lower while matured killing classes held about steady. Lower prices for dressed lambs was the chief depressing factor. City butchers in Chicago paid up to 8.60 for choice lambs and at Omaha fed woolled lambs brought 8.00 on shipment accounts.

WHEAT PRICE UP

By JOHN P. BOUGHAN
Associated Press Market Editor

CHICAGO, Jan. 14. (AP)—Briek ups in wheat resulted today from crop dangers due to wintry temperatures and widespread lack of snow. July wheat, representing the 1931 crop, jumped almost 3 cents a bushel. Hoisting of bids by government lacked agencies ready to take immediate delivery of wheat tended further to strengthen prices.

Wheat closed firm 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents advanced, corn 1/4 to 3/8 cent unchanged to 1/8 cent, and provisions unchanged to 17 cents decline.

Greater general buying than witnessed before in weeks accompanied the wheat advance. Likelihood of a cold wave catching domestic winter wheat minus any snow blanket stirred the imagination of traders, and quickly developed a scarcity of offerings.

Upturns which were in the face of sharp setbacks at Liverpool ascribed to weakness of Argentine exchange and to predictions of consequent increased pressure of Argentine wheat abroad.

Corn and oats sympathized with wheat strength but met with selling opposition. Minneapolis was reported offering corn for shipment to Chicago. Provisions declined, responsive to setbacks in hog values.

AMERICAN IN PARIS TELLS OF COOKING

UNITED STATES WOMEN ARE LEARNING ABOUT CULINARY ART

By ADELAIDE KERR

PARIS, Jan. 14. (AP)—In a little gas office on the Rue Lafayette, under the shadow of the historic Basilique du Sacre Coeur, American women who never made a pie in their lives are learning how to cook.

Under the guidance of Francois Ranayolo, one of the leading chefs in France, they are delving into truffles, hollandaise and a dozen other mysteries of the French cuisine.

They are smearing butter and fruit juice over enameled finger nails and are working hard.

Francois, wearing a tall white cap and long white apron, presides before a little stove not two feet square, which offers a marked contrast to the ranges of American grandmothers which consumed sticks of wood every quarter of an hour.

WHAT DISHES, TOO

And the things which come out of that stove! Poires bourdalouises (pears dripping with golden sauce), selle d'agneau fleuriste (roast lamb with such complicated fixings as even the chef finds difficult to remember), coquille Saint Jacques (scallops baked with cream sauce in the shell).

Francois' hands are in everything—kneading dough, mixing sauces, testing meats. American women, who were taught that a good cook is one who mixes pie-crust with a fork, are learning a new technique.

Everybody who isn't learning how to cook is learning how to play midge golf. The craze is sweeping Paris as it swept the United States this summer, and wherever one goes he sees the boys who carry canes striking right and left at any object in their paths.

STREET CRIERS PASS ON

Paris street-criers and beggars are giving way to the trend of the times. The rat killer with his pyramidal hat, his long coat, his poison powders and his string of dead rodents is no more. The wine crier is not to be found.

The noise they used to make in vending their wares is giving way to the din of auto horns.

And even the beggars have silenced their plea for alms. Once they were known, not only for their tatters and filth, but for their strong lungs as well. Today they sit silently on the bridges that span the Seine.

An empty cap held before them is their only plea.

JACKETS AND JEWELRY TO MATCH WORN

EMERALD GREEN GOOD WHEN COMBINED WITH WHITE

By DIANA MERWIN
Associated Press Fashion Editor

PARIS, Jan. 14. (AP)—Short velvet jackets the color of their jewels are a little mid-winter idea of ultra-smart Parisiennes who are having a big white season.

If emeralds are the piece de resistance in the jewel box the little jackets worn with the white dresses are emerald green.

Some women carry the idea even further and conform their slippers to their color note. Almost everything but white slippers is seen with white evening dresses.

The wraps are almost without exception made of velvet. It may be cotton velvet, easy to work into crisp original lines; or silk velvet draped in graceful folds.

The little wraps are meant to be worn under the evening coat.

Aside from supplying the color note they cover up shoulders and backs in a season of exaggerated décollete.

For that reason they are short and seldom encumber the hips.

Most of them stop at the waistline where they fasten with a jeweled buckle or soft loops which are not bulky under the outer wrap.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. (AP)—Katherine Cornell, of the sad eyes and throaty voice, has made herself independent in the theater—has become her own manager and producer.

The club is now studying the book, "Small Things", and each member reports on portion of it during the meeting. During a short business session, it was decided to call the circle "Bethany", instead of Circle 2.

Those present were: Mrs. R. R. Hungate, Mrs. R. N. Mitchell, Mrs. Walter Kirbie, Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. D. H. Truhitt, Mrs. J. W. Turner, Mrs. Ted Millard, Mrs. R. R. Ruthford, and Mrs. Dock Coffey, the hostess.

Dorcas Class Has Officers Meeting

Officers of the Dorcas Sunday school class, Central Baptist church met for a business session Monday afternoon at the church. Mrs. R. E. Stonsifer opened the meeting in prayer.

Mrs. E. L. Yeargain was elected class reporter and flower chairman and Mrs. H. New was elected secretary. Mrs. W. Darnell was chosen assistant teacher.

The group planned to entertain with a dinner some time next month and it was decided to hold meetings each Monday at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Briggs Is Program Leader

Favorites among old books were given an answer to roll call when members of El Progresso club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. William M. Craven.

The romantic history, "Cimarron," by Edna Ferber formed the basis of a program given under the direction of Mrs. George W. Briggs. Mrs. T. D. Hobart reviewed the book in detail, and Mrs. Briggs compared modern and old-time literature. Mrs. C. C. Cook gave interesting criticisms of the book chosen for discussion.

OFFICERS ARE NAMED BY 20TH CENTURY AT MEETING ON TUESDAY

Election of officers featured a meeting of the Twentieth Century club Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. D. Lewis on North Somerville.

Mrs. Paul Kasishke was named president; Mrs. Tom Rose, vice-president; Mrs. Edwin Vicars, secretary; Mrs. W. R. Campbell, treasurer; Mrs. Clifford Braly, parliamentarian.

The resignation of Mrs. H. D. Lewis was accepted with regrets. Mrs. Lewis is leaving on Jan. 20 for Denton, where she is to take a course in nursing.

Character Study

Mrs. F. M. Culbertson led a program on estimating character by letters of application, personal interview, photographs, and the study of personal appearance. She stated that letters of application were not always reliable in judging character, and that photographs revealed personality only in an outstanding person. For the normal individual, photographs cannot be relied upon, she said.

Mrs. William T. Fraser described the experiment of Allport in reading facial expressions of emotion. She stated that the ability in reading facial expression depended both on the personality of the individual expressing the emotion, and upon

BARD HOLLOWAY GINGER TOLLIVER PATTY SEARS

For Ginger's Sake

Ginger Tolliver, vivacious daughter of a small town minister, who seeks to keep life from growing too dull by organizing a night club from which parents, babies and ministers are barred. . . . Bard Holloway, a young artist, who is hobnobbing through the country in a decrepit auto. . . . Patty Sears, friend of Ginger and a fellow conspirator in the campaign to alleviate gloom.

These are three of the fascinating characters about whom is woven the plot of a stirring new serial novel, "For Ginger's Sake," written by Ethel Hueston, herself the daughter of a minister. Romance, a kidnaping plot, gay parties and thrills galore combine to make this an outstanding story. Don't miss it, beginning

BASKETBALL GAME; WRESTLING MATCH ON HERE TONIGHT

BULL MONTANA BATTLES OTIS IN MAIN BOUT

DOUBLE-HEADER GAME WITH PERRYTON AT GYMNASIUM

A double-header basketball game at the high school gymnasium, the first one to begin at 6:15 o'clock tonight, and the second one hour later, and a wrestling match at the Pampa-Mor auditorium, will provide plenty of sport for Pampa fans tonight.

The girls basketball team of Perryton high school will play the Pampa girls team at 6:15 o'clock tonight, and the boys teams of both schools will have their game one hour later.

Coach Mitchell said last night that he would not state what his starting lineup would be. One of the Harvesters is working at night, and might not be able to be in the lineup. Coach Mitchell stated. He said that he knew pretty well what the lineup would be, but he did not like to announce it beforehand.

Fitzgerald of Colorado will referee both the boys and the girls games. Tonight will be the first time that Pampa and Perryton have met on a basketball court in two years.

Coach Mitchell said in 1928 Pampa beat Perryton by one point in a basketball game. Perryton was one of the teams in the semi-finals last year, he said.

Wrestling fans who hesitate to come to the basketball games tonight on account of fearing it will interfere with their seeing the match between Babyface Clinegan and Bull Montana at the Pampa-Mor are reassured by Coach Mitchell that they will have plenty of time to attend both events. The games were purposely set on Friday night in order to accommodate those who want to attend both the basketball games and the wrestling match.

Tentative games have been scheduled by the Nubbins and Gorillas with Miami, or with a team from Hopkins, in the event that the Miami team cannot play here Saturday night.

Coach Kelley of the Nubbins announced yesterday that he would choose his guards for the starting lineup from Miles Marbaugh, Hetsell, or Patton; forwards, Rogers or McDuffie; forwards, with Brown, the star of the game with Miami last week, playing center.

Coach Workman of the Gorillas said he would pick his forwards from Woodward, Heard, or Adair; center, Max Marbaugh or Blanton; guards, Woodman, Howard, or Kitchen.

A game with the LeFors high school team may be scheduled for next Tuesday night by the Gorillas.

Explaining the organization of basketball in Miami high school, Coach Kelley said that Miami had 25 out for basketball, five complete teams, but that the 25 were classified in three divisions of eight players each, and there was not much difference between the players of the different groups, one group being about as good as the others.

During the past week Max Marbaugh and Heard have been showing up well on the Gorilla team, Coach Workman said. Heard, who has been used as a substitute guard, will be shifted to forward, replacing Cullum, who is leaving school for Florida. Cullum has been one of the best forwards the Gorillas ever had.

Stribling's First LONG, HARD, CLIMB Fight Is Recalled

By DILLON GRAHAM (Associated Press Sports Writer) ATLANTA, Jan. 14. (AP) — Turn back the years to January 17, 1921.

The scene is a small, poorly-lighted fight club on a side street here. It's early in the program and the prelims are just starting.

A pair of ambitious young hantawights are dancing about in their corners. One is Kid Domb, "Champeen" of Atlanta's newsies. The other is a slim, 16-year-old, 116 young blonde youngster making his first professional appearance.

In his corner is a rotund little man, continually chattering. He's a former circus acrobat. The youngster is a nabob, too. They're a family act, and the kid has been fighting his younger brother and also "taking all comers of weight" at the big tent parked in town after town.

But this is the first money-fight and both are a little nervous. The song sounded. The youthful acrobat circles, jabbing and slashing away. Domb, using the tactics acquired in his street brawls with the city's newsboys, swings them big and wide.

The final bell. And Young Stribling and won a four-round decision in his first professional fight. Pa Stribling hurried the boy into their car and started for Macon, where the father was then driving a taxi-cab between the city and Camp Wheeler.

Ten years have passed since that cold, January evening. Years that have seen this young battler pack on weight and advance from one division to another until he grew into a heavyweight. Years that saw him receive the name "King of the Canebreakers" as he toured the country with his family, jumping from town to town and fighting as often as three times a week.

The long story of the champion, Max Schmeling of Germany, for the world's heavyweight title. The hill has been steep, but the top is near. At least, that's the way the Striblings—father and son, and "Ma" feel about it.

JOHN GOLDEN LEADS AGUA COLIENTE GOLF PROS IN FIRST ROUND

By BRIAN BELL AGUA COLIENTE, Mexico, Jan. 14. (AP) — Roly Poly John Golden, professional at the Wee Burn club, Noroton, Conn., came through a Scotch mist which almost amounted to a hard rain today, to lead the field in the $25,000 Agua Coliente open golf tournament with a first round score of 70, two strokes under par.

The solid Golden, who never grows excited no matter what the golf provocation, owed his one stroke lead to a magnificent greenside shot at the home hole, Golden, after a long drive at the 18th, fired his wood second fully 230 yards, the ball coming to rest within two feet of the cup. To hole the little putt was simple.

GRID SPORTS WILL NOT BE CUT BY LOOP

KING PIN OF VARSITY SPORTS TO BE GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE

NOTE: This is another of a series of stories on athletic conditions based on a nationwide survey by the Associated Press.

By CHARLES GRUMICH (Associated Press Sports Writer) KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14. (AP) — Football, the bread winner for college athletic departments, has taken a body blow from the business depression at several middle western schools, and the lesser members of the athletic family will go on short rations—but not the chief wage earner.

The king pin of varsity sports will be given another chance—probably more—on the customary elaborate scale to show it can provide a healthy living for the dependent or non-profit branches of intercollegiate, intramural and recreational athletics.

No curtailment is apparent in the 1931 gridiron schedules, although coaches have been advised to "cut corners" in making up budgets for all sports, because of the generally diminished football gate receipts in 1930.

To allow schools to schedule gridiron contests with Kansas after its reinstatement in the conference, Director Big Six has gained faculty permission to program nine games for each school next fall.

There were notable exceptions to the depression. Oklahoma A. and M., Oklahoma City university and Tulsa university experienced a banner football year and collected their largest gate receipts.

The "gate" at the University of Oklahoma was slightly less than it was in 1928. Although Sooner officials say they are in a position to continue normally they will curtail athletic programs in line with the Big Six and Missouri Valley conference plans.

For the announced purpose of building up bigger Sooner basketball crowds, the admission price has been cut in half for the 1931 season.

The University of Kansas also was an exception. Athletic Director F. C. Allen estimated the Big Six champion Jayhawk gridlers played to the largest aggregate crowd in the history of the school—146,684, or 29,000 more than the highest previous year.

Retrenchment is the order at Iowa State Agricultural college, Missouri, Nebraska, the Kansas State Agricultural college and several other institutions.

The Big six conference faculty council in December abolished the conference tennis and wrestling tournaments, on the ground they duplicated the round robin dual meets, and discontinued Keshman extra-mural competition, which had included two "frosh" games annually for each school.

BASEBALL NOTES Big league rosters are beginning to pour in. They offer countless tips for stories.

What will Cincinnati do? Bigger and better things are on the way. Dan Howley is not rebuilding. He's finally building, starting almost from scratch. Eight new faces are going south with the Reds.

INDIANS ARE HOT! Those Indians look strong on paper. Strong replacements have been made in the pitching staff of which Ferrell won 13 in a row last season, and people began to ask if he ever was going to stop. Then there is Clint Brown, who won four in a row as a rookie last season.

NOT A ROSEATE VISTA Staying down near the bottom for a while, how about the Red Sox? Shono Collins' job is not to be envied.

WANT LARGE NUMBER TO PLAY IN GAMES

A policy of having the largest possible number of students participate in basketball is responsible for the many games that are played at the high school gymnasium, L. L. Stone high school principal, explained yesterday.

There are 75 boys out for basketball, the equivalent of 15 complete teams. To give each of the boys a chance to play naturally requires a lot of games, Mr. Stone said.

AGGIES READY FOR ARKANSAS CAGE CONTEST

PAIR OF VICTORIES ON CENTENARY HIKES CONFIDENCE

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 14. (Special) — Its rating in the South-west conference cage race somewhat bolstered over the Centenary Gentlemen at College Station last week, Coach John Reid's Texas Aggie basketball quintet, Thursday will leave for Fayetteville, Ark., to make its conference debut against the Arkansas Razorbacks, five times champions of the Southwest, in a two-game series Friday and Saturday.

In the ten games of its pre-conference schedule the Aggie quintet scored nine victories, the South-western Pirates winning one of the contests in a two-game series at Georgetown. To pile up their nine victories the Aggies defeated the Sam Houston Teachers, San Marcos Bobcats and Centenary two games each and the Houston Triangles, San Antonio Y. M. C. A. and Southwestern one game each.

The pair of defeats handed the Centenary cagers, if comparison of scores can be taken as evidence, gives A. and M. an even chance at the series this week with the Porkers. The Gentlemen had previously taken the Texas Longhorns into camp with ease and the Longhorns split a dual bill with the Razorbacks at Austin last week.

Two lettermen and a squadman from last year have furnished the feature playing of the Aggie quintet in its non-conference tilt, with Capt. Cecil Hoke, former all-state player from John Reagan high school at Houston, taking the outstanding role. Hoke, whom Aggie supporters believe is an outstanding contender for all-Southwest honors this year, was high point man of both the Centenary contests and his floor-play was second to none in the games.

Lester Veltman, San Antonio boy whose clever dribbling and deceptive passing have helped the Aggies out of several tight places in early games, and Beau Bell, a guard last year but this year playing steady ball at forward, are the other two men whose work has been outstanding. Three other men, Charlie Beard, forward from Fort Worth; C. E. Marcum, Estelle, a guard; and J. C. Moody, Corpus Christi, forward, have shouldered most of the work at the two remaining positions this season.

Probably the outstanding feature of the Aggies' play to date has been their cautious defensive work, for in only four of their games have their opponents scored more than 25 points, and in two of these the Aggies' margin of victory was large enough to make over-cautious play unnecessary.

The Athletics? Well, they will win the American league pennant again, which seems a good statement on which to conclude the discussion.

BOXING COMMISSION PLAYS WAITING GAME AFTER SIGNING BOUT

NEW YORK, Jan. 14. (AP) — The New York state boxing commission entrenched grimly today to play a waiting game against the insubordination that has come out of the signing of the Young Stribling-Max Schmeling heavyweight title match.

Indications were that the commission will make no efforts to hamper the Garden and its associate, the New York Hearst milk fund, in the staging of the match. The commission has varied disciplinary powers, however, to use in dealing with the garden is not officially before us," Chairman James A. Farley said. "We will deal with them in our own way at our own time."
