MYSTERY SHROUDS CASE

BODY NOT DISTURBED IN PAMPA GRAVE YESTERDAY

The stomach and viscera of Mrs. Clyde Felcher who died 22 days ago of what coroner James Todd, Jr. said was alcoholism, is scheduled to be sent to Austin today for chemical analysis. This was ordered by the coroner after it was learned that the grave and casket had been opened at the cemetery.

"We have every reason to believe that the body was removed from the casket, placed on the ground, then put back into the casket and the dirt replaced," the coroner said at an autopsy which was performed at Stephenson Mortuary last night.

Finds Shovel

Yesterday morning the cemetery sexton observed the loose condition of the soil in the grave. Later he found buried nearby a railroad shovel. He informed Mr. Todd of his findings and the latter ordered the body disinterred and removed to the mortuary.

Mr. Todd and District Attorney Raymond Allred were present when the casket lid was opened in the grave. It was found that the lid had been horribly removed. Stockings which the woman wore when buried were missing. A half-buried match was found in the casket, also lumps of sand and earth. Footprints were found on the side of the casket. The body was in a perfect state of preservation and apparently had not been disturbed.

Advance Theory

Various possible motives for opening the grave were being considered by the coroner. It was mentioned that the woman might have died from the effects of poison, and that the persons who gave her the poison violated the grave in order to ascertain whether an autopsy had been performed on the body.

The woman was found dead in an automobile parked in front of a South Pampa hotel. She had been dead about five hours. It was testified at the hearing. Other testimony introduced was that on the night before her death she, another woman and two men went to LeFors drinking several pints of whiskey.

Mrs. Felcher was survived by a husband and a 15-year old daughter, neither of whom attended the funeral. Her mother, Mrs. E. M. Felcher, was unable to establish communications with them. She was buried at the expense of the county.

Extended Search Without Results

RANGER JAN. 28—(AP)—Extended search of the canyons and heavily wooded country in the vicinity of the place from which Wes Marshall disappeared mysteriously Sunday, today failed to reveal any further evidence of his fate as an augmented posse continued the hunt. No trace that might lead to his whereabouts was returned here at nightfall, and will resume the hunt today.

More minute inspection of the auto in which Marshall drove to his ranch, near here, led searchers to conclude that he either met with foul play, or suffered an ammonia attack and possibly plunged to death in one of the canyons on the place.

Dance Pupils Hold Recital Practice

Pupils of Miss Katharine Vincent and Mrs. T. F. Morton held rehearsal yesterday afternoon, in preparation for the program that is to be presented at the auditorium of the city hall Friday night. A dress rehearsal has been scheduled for today.

Numbers on the program to be presented by pupils of Miss Vincent include tap dances, classic, acrobatic and novelty numbers, with a special number by the "studio steps."

V. F. Krippendorf of Amarillo, representative of the Aanhauer-Busch company of St. Louis, was in Pampa last night.

THE WEATHER

OKLAHOMA AND WEST TEXAS: Fair, little change in temperature Thursday and Friday.

EAST TEXAS: Partly cloudy, except showers in lower Rio Grande Valley Thursday; Friday fair; Light to moderate northerly winds on the coast.

IF YOU ARE GOING TO PAY YOUR POLL TAX YOU MUST DO IT THIS WEEK.

The deadline is near. The voting privilege for the coming year soon will be taken away. The provisions of the law are unchanging and unchangeable. You either pay the poll tax or you don't. It is too late when a big issue comes up and you realize suddenly that you would like to have a voice in public affairs.

It is a dangerous thing to put public affairs in the hands of a minority of qualified voters. If you are going to move forward with Pampa and Gray county and participate in various pending elections — either for or against the issues — PAY THAT POLL TAX AT ONCE.

"As far as I am concerned," says a local business man, "the depression is over. I am doing a good business, my advertising with you is getting good results, my customers are paying off well, and I don't want to hear any more pessimism in my industry. The business is here for the getting."

There is some relief, however, which some legislators consider advisable. Marrying in the border counties is giving Oklahoma and New Mexico justices and ministers a business that approaches the peculiarities of a "crack." The Oklahoma knot-tying fraternity is said to have the business down to a science. Licenses in blank are taken some over Sunday, and Texas couples desiring to marry in haste may easily do so.

It is quite different in Pampa, where wedding parties are scarce. Oklahoma ought to do something about the situation, such as to make her law at least as strict as ours. But Oklahoma hasn't — and probably won't.

Mr. Wickersham's report on prohibition has reached the Pampa desk in full. Anyone interested in reading the report may borrow it.

"Daisies Won't Tell," said an old song. But Daisy De Boe did about Clara, and without result it appears.

West Texas do not look kindly upon the prospect of having Frank Baldwin, Waco publisher, upon the state board of education. Mr. Baldwin, another of these iconoclastic wind-jammers, likes nothing better than to write bitter things about West Texas, especially Texas Tech. He is unfitted for the educational post and should not be confirmed.

It is said that Ross Sterling is popular with the legislators. Well, he does go around splitting infinitives and saying "they was."

Just as Will Rogers was talking about danger of missing his Saturday night bath while traveling in Texas, Lee Satterwhite was coaxing legislators into approving a resolution endorsing prohibition. "So will you can find that water is still popular in Texas — at other times as well as Saturday night."

"Eat More Wheat!" And let us have some coarser to go with our hot biscuits. Newcomers must remember, however, that we sometimes have spring in winter and winter in spring. The Pampa has seen more snow in April than this entire winter has produced.

The editor of the Dallas News told Oklahoma university professors to "come out of the cloisters and learn the trends of modern times." Evidently Mr. Dealey had not been at Norman long enough to meet some of these modern professors.

The engineer of this column is afraid to say much about the charm school which will be sponsored by the News-Post. We would not like to insinuate that Pampa women need charm — no, we would like to see them with a health school also, and a good one.

The Supreme Court, of Missouri has ruled that a newspaper's membership in the Associated Press is a thing of great value, and that it should be considered as statutory invested capital. The day and night leased wire of the News-Post is very valuable and will become even more so as the Panhandle develops.

TAYLOR SLAIN ON ROAD NEAR LEFORS-2 HELD

LITTLE CHUCK WILSON, WIFE ARE DETAINED FOR KILLING

SAYS BANDIT SHOT HIM

MRS. WILSON WITH MAN AT TIME TAYLOR WAS KILLED

Examining trial for Charles "Little Chuck" Wilson and his wife, Mrs. Lefors, charged with murder in connection with the slaying of C. F. "Bert" Taylor, 45, of LeFors, Tuesday night, will be held before James Todd, Jr., justice of the peace, some time today, probably this afternoon, Raymond Allred, district attorney, announced last night.

Wilson has retained a prominent firm of lawyers to represent him, and through them he will demand an arraignment, it is understood. Mr. Allred, who rushed to Pampa from Vernon when he was informed of the murder, declared that he would oppose any attempt to secure the release of the pair. The grand jury, which is due to meet Friday, will investigate the case. It was announced.

Found Dead

Taylor, carpenter foreman for the Phillips Petroleum company, was found dead with a bullet wound in his abdomen beside his automobile, four miles from LeFors, Tuesday night by C. G. Garrett, a passing motorist. Charges of murder were filed against the Wilsons yesterday afternoon after officers had made an exhaustive investigation of the scene. Soon after the Wilsons were arrested, the Wilsons denied that they had anything to do with the death of Taylor.

Mrs. Wilson admitted that she was with him at the time, but contended that the identity of the hijacker who she claims shot her companion, was unknown to her. Wilson, through hours of questions early yesterday morning and in the afternoon, maintained that he was with her until about 11 o'clock Tuesday evening. Mrs. Wilson gave no description of the hold-up bandit other than that he was "a tall man."

A .41 calibre bullet was found lodged in the spine of Taylor, Tuesday night, in a car. A .41 calibre revolver under a mattress in the Wilsons' bedroom.

Trial To Be Soon

Mr. Allred expressed the belief that the case would be called for trial in three weeks. In the next two weeks he will be in court at Wheeler and the following week he will be back in Pampa.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were brought before the district attorney for questioning yesterday afternoon. They remained adamant in their contention that they knew nothing about the murder. Several times during the questioning, Wilson leaned over and patted his wife on the back, saying, "That's fine, stay in there!"

Mrs. Wilson said that she and Taylor left a LeFors dance hall shortly before midnight for Bowers City where she said she had a diamond ring in the pawn shop. She claimed that she became ill four miles west of LeFors and asked Taylor to stop the car. Soon after a tall man appeared with a gun and ordered him to hold up his hands, she said. During the subsequent struggle over the gun, Taylor was shot. Mrs. Wilson walked back to LeFors through pastures and fields, traversing a route 50 yards off the road but parallel with it.

The body of Taylor will be sent from the G. C. Malone funeral home to Newcastle, Pa., for burial. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Alexander of Borer will accompany it.

THREE DAYS LEFT TO PAY POLL TAX

With only three days remaining, only 1939 poll taxes had been paid up to Wednesday night, T. W. Barnes, tax collector said last night. Not quite half of the automobiles in Gray county have 1931 license plates as yet, since only 4,000 automobiles had been registered up to closing time Wednesday afternoon, and this means that there is still 6,000 automobiles to be registered, judged on the basis of registrations for the past year.

During the next three days, the office of the tax collector will positively accept no checks in payment of automobile licenses. T. W. Barnes declared last night.

Potter and Gray counties are the only two counties in this district from which the state receives 50 percent of the auto taxes, after $50,000 has been collected by each county, Mr. Barnes said.

OPERATORS IN PANHANDLE AT MEETING HERE

SECRETARY TO WILD ADDRESSES OIL PRODUCERS

MONOPOLY IS CLAIMED

MARKET FOR CRUDE IS BIG PROBLEM FOR INDEPENDENTS

Texas independent oil operators are facing extinction unless world monopoly and integration of two hundred oil men and citizens was told here last night by Frank Killough of Fort Worth, secretary to Claude Wild, executive vice-president of the Independent Petroleum Association of Texas.

"There is no use producing oil unless you can sell it," Mr. Killough told the oil men. "And under the present system of control by the major companies of production, transportation, refining, retail selling, imports and exports, the market for the independent is narrowed to the major companies only, and this market is being steadily reduced to a negligible quantity."

Texas are being robbed, he pointed out. Texas is not opposed to big business, Mr. Killough explained, that the danger lies in the control in all parts of the world by a few firms of all phases of the oil industry, thereby robbing Texas of their cherished rights as individuals and as pioneers.

"Illegal monopoly and probable revolution would follow if the packing industry owned the land, the cattle, the railroads, the slaughter house, and the retail butcher shops. Yet this situation is exactly parallel to the oil business today," he said.

"Over-confidence of the independent operators that they could sink a well and immediately find a market for any oil obtained, resulted in a lethargy of the independents that allowed the major companies to obtain control unopposed. Realization of impending disaster, however, is banding together the small operators into a determined group that, encouraged by public opinion, is inaugurating a concerted effort to re-adjust the industry conditions so that all may continue to operate profitably."

"The only solution," he said, "is to confine the major companies to production in one phase only of the oil industry. Producers should compete only with producers, refiners, and retail oil men with refiners."

TRAINS HELD BY TANK FIRE

SCHEDULES FOR ROAD INTERRUPTED BY OIL BLAZE

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 28.—(AP)—The train schedules over the Santa Fe line from San Angelo to Brownwood were at a standstill all day after eight tank cars left the track and were destroyed by fire and explosion, seven miles west of here, early this morning. The blaze was not extinguished until this afternoon and the tracks are expected to be cleared early tonight. A wrecking crew from Brownwood extinguished the flames with mud.

The wreck is thought to have been caused by a spreading rail. The exploding oil reached as far as the pavement adjoining the scene of the wreck where 300 yards of track were torn up. No one was hurt.

Two of the cars exploded and the oil from them burned, catching the others. A switch engine from San Angelo backed up to the caboose and hauled it and one tank car which remained on the track to safety.

The wet pavement was soon dried and today was chipping off as it cooled. Flames shot 75 feet into the air at times, but the glare was dimmed by a heavy fog.

While the heat and fear of further explosions kept spectators back from the flames, a large number of persons watched the work of putting the flames out.

Student Council To Be Created In Pampa High School

Hearily endorsement of a plan for government by students through the means of a student council was expressed by Pampa high school students at chapel yesterday morning.

The purpose of the movement is to have the aid of the student body by the school authorities in school legislation. The student council will not be superior or any sense equal to the constituted authorities, but will work with them at the suggestion of the authorities. All plans for the organization of the council and their work must be under the supervision of the high school principal and the superintendent.

It is expected that the plans for the organization will be completed by next Wednesday. Present plans call for a representative from each of the 23 home rooms of the school to form a council, with officers elected by this group. As each home room consists of between 25 and 30 students, it will be truly representative of the student body.

JACK WALTON INDICTED FOR MAIL FRAUD BY FEDERAL JURY

FORMER N. Y. POLICE COMMISSIONER ALSO IS CHARGED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 28.—(AP)—A federal grand jury claxed a sensational session with mail fraud indictments of J. C. (Jack) Walton, ousted Oklahoma governor, Richard E. Enright, former New York City police commissioner; Henry Knight Miller, editor of the magazine "Psychology"; S. E. J. Cox, one-time associate of Dr. Frederick A. Cook and 15 others, late today.

The indictments were returned in connection with alleged promotion operations of the now defunct Universal Oil and Gas company here. Cox and eight others have been free on bond with months on the charge.

Walton, Enright and Miller have not been arrested.

Roy St. Lewis, district attorney, gave the names of those indicted as Walton, Enright, Miller, Cox, Mrs. Nell E. Cox, T. A. White, Walt Edwards, H. A. Kroeger, W. P. Collins, J. Garfield Crawford and James Dunn.

Eight others indicted have not been apprehended and their names were withheld.

Lewis said fraudulent operations of the company involved $750,000. Investigation of the company has been under way for nearly a year under direction of Lewis, Fred A. Wagoner, assistant U. S. Attorney, and E. R. Cochran, special inspector.

The jury returned 135 true bills and one no-bill when it returned to federal judge Edgar S. Vaughn at the end of the three-day session this afternoon.

Flying Boat Will Begin Trip to S. A.

LISBON, Portugal, Jan. 28.—(AP)—The German flying boat Do-X will begin its South Atlantic flight toward Brazil at 7 o'clock Saturday morning instead of tomorrow, as had been scheduled. The postponement was decided tonight at a meeting of delegates of the German Ministry of Transportation.

A final test with a 55-ton load had been accomplished this morning but the twelve American motors were not functioning perfectly.

Miller Recovering From Poison Drink

The condition of Isaac L. Miller, who was forced to drink today after being hijacked of $155 three miles west of Pampa Tuesday morning, was said to be better at the Worthy hospital last night. Tuesday night, he had only a "fairly good night," Russell Brown of Tulsa, Oklahoma, said. Miller was in the north main section of the mine when the blast occurred. Two of the men, critically injured, were brought to the Linton hospital. One of them is expected to die.

Dr. C. C. Hamilton who was dispatched to the scene from the Linton hospital, reported tonight that rescue workers had all of the blast victims and that all were dead.

VETERAN BILL WITHOUT GOOD MELLON SAYS

WOULD DEEPEN WORLD DEPRESSION SAYS SECRETARY

By NATHAN ROBERTSON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(AP)—Secretary Mellon told the senate finance committee today that proposals for cashing the bonus certificates of world war veterans are without economic merit and instead of improving conditions would deepen the world depression.

Mellon was closely questioned as he predicted a treasury deficit of $375,000,000 and warned the cash conversion plan not only would have "serious consequences" on public credit but would greatly disturb world equilibrium.

The veteran treasury secretary barely had concluded his statement of the administration's opposition when Senator Harrison, of Mississippi, Democratic member of the committee, told the senate "a majority of the committee is going to favor some relief."

Harrison announced he favored paying the veterans the present cash value of the certificates.

Mellon's personal appearance was considered by committee members as added evidence of the administration's strong attitude toward the proposed legislation. It increased the belief among some senators that President Hoover would veto a bill to pay the veterans the face value of their certificates.

Mellon's prepared statement which was read to the committee by Under Secretary Mills, confined its attack to the proposal for paying the present value of the certificates, which would cost about $4,000,000,000.

Later, however, Mills said the lesser degree, to the proposal to same objections would apply, to a pay the present value of the certificates, the cost of which has been estimated at from $1,700,000,000 to $2,100,000,000.

Members of the committee did not wait for the reading of Mellon's statement before beginning to question him. The treasury secretary and his assistant sitting on either side of Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, the acting chairman, alternated in answering the questions.

Oil Hearings Will Be Held By Senate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(AP)—The senate commerce committee will open hearings tomorrow on proposals to limit oil importations and impose an oil tariff.

Secretary Wilson appeared before the public lands committee today to urge enactment of legislation authorizing extension of the unit operation of the Kettleman Hills oil field in California, and extension of the system to other public lands.

Senators from the oil producing states will appear before the commerce committee favoring oil embargo, limitation of imports, or imposition of a tariff.

The bills are before the committee by Senator Capper, Republican, Kansas, for limitation of the importations of crude oil to 16,000,000 barrels annually and the embargo on refined oil and the other by Senator Shortridge, Republican, California, to impose a tariff of $1 a barrel on crude oil.

A committee appointed by the recent conference of independent oil operators in Washington, headed by Russell Brown of Tulsa, Oklahoma, will testify.

Many Coal Miners Killed In Blast

LINTON, Ind., Jan. 28.—(AP)—More than a score of coal miners were killed when 600 pounds of black powder exploded in the Little Betty mine here today.

About 25 men were in the north main section of the mine when the blast occurred. Two of the men, critically injured, were brought to the Linton hospital. One of them is expected to die.

Dr. C. C. Hamilton who was dispatched to the scene from the Linton hospital, reported tonight that rescue workers had all of the blast victims and that all were dead.

DECLAMATION CONTEST IS PLANNED FOR GRAY COUNTY

POETRY AND PROSE ARE TO BE INCLUDED

PUPILS FROM TEN TO TWENTY ARE TO HAVE PART

LEFORS, Jan. 28.—A copy of the new and revised constitution and rules of the University Interscholastic league has been received by Mrs. Josephine Sparks, recently elected director of declamation in Gray county.

"The declamation contest," said Mrs. Sparks, "is conducted in eight different divisions, four divisions for high schools and four for rural schools. The junior division is now open to contestants who were more than 10 and less than 15 years of age on the first day of last September and who are bona fide students in any member-school in this county. The senior division is open to contestants more than 15 and less than 20 on the first day of last September. The junior divisions both boys and girls use standard poetry for declaiming, and the senior divisions, both boys and girls, use standard prose.

"This contest is designed to train boys and girls in a sincere and effective public speaking and at the same time contribute to their mental enrichment by requiring them to memorize prose, and poetry by the great literary masters. It is hoped that there will be a large number of entries in this contest in our county meet."

CHARM CHATS

by Nancy Earle

Noted Authority and Writer on Health, Charm and Beauty.

Sara Bell watched the hands of the clock slowly, oh so slowly, toward five-thirty. How did it happen, wondered Sara Bell, that the small got such a reputation for being slow. The great granddaddy of all snails hobbling along on whatever snails use for crutches, and with small rheumatism and small gout, was a perfect Nurni compared with those clock-hands!

And she was so, so tired, and her feet hurt, and her eyes burned. All she could see when she closed them were the little rows of dancing letters in a wild chaos and confusion that wouldn't even tick off into words.

And tonight was the night! Long anticipated, long planned for, long dreamed of! Adonis and Sir Galahad and Walter Raleigh and Charles Lindbergh all rolled into one was talking her to the dance!

And here she was, worn out before she even got the new chiffon dress bought especially for the occasion off the hanger and pulled into its loveliest folds. Worn out! She could almost feel the hateful little lines coming between her eyes, and around the corners of her mouth, and her face drawing up into the tense strained expression that seemed almost to double her years.

But Sara Bell was a wise little lady. Once she got home. She knew, she did! Those awful clock hands! Would they NEVER!

Finally, as even the most stubborn clock hands will, finally they did. And Sara Bell whisked along home. And laid out the lovely new green chiffon. And looked at the clock again, and made a wish on it that the good old hands wouldn't hurry NOW. And then wise Miss Sara Bell disappeared for thirty minutes. Half the precious time before Prince Charming was to tinkle her doorbell.

But it must have been well spent. Because when Sara Bell reappeared she was a new person. No tired little lines around the mouth, no frown perpendicular between the eyes. The eyes calm and liquid and newly bright. Face fresh and bountant and—rested.

Magic? No. Then what? Why, merely that Sara Bell knows a secret of relaxation and instantaneous rest. When she disappeared into her own sanctum sanctorum she took with her a little bowl of finely crushed ice. She wet a towel, wrung it out damp, and then folded it four-ply with a layer of the shaved ice in the center. Over this she sprinkled lavender water (your own favorite perfume will do, or one of the aromatic oils; pine essence is good).

Then she lay down in a comfortable position, and laid the fragrant pack across her eyes. Then she relaxed. Let go. Perhaps one of these days we can shop around among the different methods of relaxation, and you can choose one to your liking.

Before this, I should have mentioned, Sara Bell cleansed her face with her cleansing cream, and dabbed on the richer soothing tissue cream.

Fifteen minutes' rest, which is quite enough for almost miraculous refreshment, if you know how.

Then up and into the warm bath, and then gradually the less warm and more cold water until it was chill when she emerged.

Then her eye bath of boric acid and warm water.

Then the flick of skin tonic to the face, and fresh make-up.

And then the melt-in-your-mouth new green chiffon, and a dab of her chicest perfume.

And then the tinkle of the bell, and the how-do-you-do's and the purr of the taxi, and then—well, that's all I think you ought to know!

EL PROGRESSO CLUB GATHERS IN HOME OF MRS. C. P. BUCKLER

Mr. H. L. Ledrick directed an interesting program at a meeting of El Progreso club Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. P. Buckler. Mrs. J. H. Kelley opened the program with a sketch of the life of John Wesley, and Mrs. James Todd, Jr., followed with the reading of a paper written by Mrs. Tom Eller on Dwight L. Moody. Other discussions included the life of Charles Spurgeon by Mrs. C. P. Ledrick, the life of De Witt Talmage by Mrs. Dave Pope, and the reading of "Perils of Spiritual Illiteracy" by Mrs. H. L. Ledrick. Those present were Mrs. John V. Andrews, Mrs. George W. Briggs, Mrs. C. P. Buckler, Mrs. C. C. Cook, Mrs. William M. Craven, Mrs. J. H. Kelley, Mrs. H. L. Ledrick, Mrs. C. P. BRIDGE PARTY IS GIVEN FOR CLUB EVENT

VALENTINE MOTIF IS FAVORED IN EVENT OF TUESDAY

Six tables of bridge were in progress when members of the Pampa Business and Professional Women's club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Clara Tarpley on N. Gray street.

Miss Johnnie Ruth Williams, hostess, was assisted in entertaining by Miss Madeline Tarpley.

The Valentine motif was stressed during the evening the club colors, green and gold, also was employed.

Awards in the games went to Miss VeLora Reed for high score, Mrs. Etta Meador, low, and Miss Clara Lee Shewmaker, high cut.

Mrs. John Beverley, Mrs. Aubrey Fowler, and Miss Shewmaker, recently elected members of the club, were called upon for stunts, and the cast for the play, "All a Mistake," was announced by Mrs. Helen Turner, director.

Attractive refreshment plates were passed to the following guests: Mrs. Helen Turner, Mrs. Mabel Gee, Mrs. Etta Meador, Mrs. Finis Jordan, Mrs. Aurora Miller, Miss Alta Lutz, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Grace Higgins, Mrs. Aubrey Fowler, Mrs. Lillian McNutt, Mrs. R. J. Kiser, Miss VeLora Reed, Mrs. Harry Hoar, Miss Madeline Tarpley, Mrs. John Beverley, Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, Miss Mildred Overall, Mrs. Clara Lee Shewmaker, Miss Lucille Saunders, Miss Johnnie Ruth Williams, Miss Mabel Davis, and the following visitors, Mrs. Bacon, Miss Shill, and Miss Aline Robinson. The president, Mrs. Mitchell, introduced the visitors, and a member introduced herself, telling where she is employed.

Madonna Members Hold Gathering

A brief social hour followed a business meeting for members of the Madonna Sunday school class, Central Baptist church, Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. L. De Shavo.

The session was opened in prayer by Mrs. Ray R. Hungate, and the group devised a plan for increasing Sunday school attendance. Next Sunday each person is to draw the name of some member of the class and it will be his duty to see that that member attends regularly.

Refreshments were served during the social hour to Mrs. Ray R. Hungate, Mrs. D. H. Coffey, Mrs. Cecil Lunsford, Mrs. R. V. Evans, Mrs. O. L. Beatty, Mrs. J. W. Turner, and the hostess.

FOR GINGER'S SAKE

Because life was so slow in the little town of Red Thrush, Iowa, Ginger Ella Tolliver conceived the idea of a Junior Country club to have the younger set from other towns.

Because life was so slow in the little town of Red Thrush, Iowa, Ginger Ella Tolliver conceived the idea of a Junior Country club to have the younger set from other towns. It was to be exclusive—no parents, allowed, no babies. Accordingly, she arranged for the purchase of the Mill Rush farm, a 10-acre tract with an old house on it.

Ginger was the daughter of a minister and the step-daughter of a very wealthy woman, the former Phil Van Doorn, who was a tolerant person and crazy about Ginger. One day, while the rehabilitation of the club house was going on, an artist called at the kitchen of the Tolliver home and offered to do a portrait in exchange for a meal.

Ginger, who was never at a loss for ideas, thought it would be a good one if Bard remained for a while in Red Thrush, instead of wandering about the country like a hobnobber. He could pick up some money painting portraits. And he could do them all decorations in the new club house, for Ginger was bound it would be a success.

So Ginger gets her stepmother, Phil, to invite him to stay with the Tollivers, but the artist declines. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XI "Yes," Bard Holloway said desperately, "I want to, and I'd love to stay, but Miss Ginger—somehow she's got you to take it for granted. Nobody here knows me."

"But Mrs. Updike—" began Phil. "Oh, she arranged that herself over the phone not 20 minutes ago. She's the greatest little arranger I ever saw in my life. The Updikes don't know a thing about me. They just did it because it was her suggestion."

"Of all the dumb-bells," muttered Ginger exasperatedly. Phil laughed. Mr. Tolliver looked mildly puzzled. "I'm terribly sorry," Holloway said to Ginger. "I'd love to stay—I'm just crazy to stay—but look where it places me. You put everything wrong."

"Don't worry, my dear Mr. Holloway," said Phil consolingly. "You see, we have one great advantage over you. We know Ginger, and you don't."

"Well, I'm beginning to suspect. Let me tell you how it happened—" "Really, it isn't necessary," protested Ginger. "They wouldn't have invited you if they hadn't wanted you."

"But you worked them into inviting me, you know you did. You came around here on purpose, and I was the slickest job I ever saw pulled."

"Let me tell you. I went through the League in New York and took a lot of prize and got a two-year scholarship to study in Paris. Well, I took more prizes in Paris, and I began to think I was terribly good. But I came back, and I couldn't make a go of it. Couldn't sell anything. Couldn't get orders for portraits. I tried, but I just didn't have the hang of it. I can paint all right, but I just can't sell myself."

"I went out to Chicago and had a try at some commercial work, but I couldn't put that over either. So I just took all my worldly possessions and piled them into my eight-or-nine-hand duster and set out to paint, to drive, to learn more about life—hoping, of course, I'd come across something good."

"Once in a while a little job turns up and I loaf over a few days and do it. And then breeze on. I was desperate in New York. I had to do something. So I trapped up this morning and offered to do a pencil sketch of your cook for my

WILL ROGERS SPEAKS BEFORE LARGE CROWD IN ABILENE BENEFIT

ABILENE, Jan. 28. (A)—Will Rogers delivered his wisecracks to some 1,500 persons here this morning, in an extra engagement he made up after rain delayed his arrival for a scheduled performance Tuesday afternoon. He departed shortly before 1 o'clock for Breckenridge, where he was booked for a matinee engagement before going on to Dallas tonight.

His benefit here netted $4,559, the fund to be shared by nine counties in relief programs. Will's humor, touching a range of subjects from the Wickersham commission report to his own operation, ran unabated for nearly two hours. It was received uproariously.

"Hoover is appointing a commission," Will said, "to find out what I have a scheme on this prohibition business. Just have a voting machine for voters to blow into when they cast their ballots. The breath must be the same as the vote."

"Sure, times are bad," he philosophized. "Everybody is blaming the Republicans, but no Republican could think up all the things this country has faced. The Democrats

HOLDING PROS ARE READY IN GOLF TOURNEY

LEADING GOLFERS OF NATION ARRIVE IN SAN ANTONIO

By GAYLE TALBOT Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 28. (AP)—More than a hundred of the country's leading professional golfers, here for the tenth renewal of the $5,500 Texas open tournament starting Friday, were forced to remain idle today while a slow, drizzling rain soaked the fairways and greens of Brackenridge Park municipal course.

A partial lapse in the downpour and clearing skies late today lent promise of fair playing weather for the pro-amateur event tomorrow, preliminary to the tournament proper, but was slight consolation for the money shooters who had hoped to pluck up their game today. Most of the entrants had arrived last night and today from California with approximately 110 places open. First prize for the winning professional in the pro-amateur event was $100; a medal for the winning amateur.

A majority of the big shots who competed on the West coast had entered the local event, granddaddy of all the money tournaments. Among them were John Golden, winner of the Agua Caliente open, and Ralph Guldhaf, youthful Texas professional, who popped into the public print with a victory in the movie industry. Each play meet last week at Los Angeles.

Other well-known threats included Harry Cooper, Willy Cox, Al and Abe Espinosa, Charles Cost, William Hutchinson, Tony Manero, John Rogers, Horton Smith, Denny Smith, Joe and Mike Morsa, Frank Walsh and Craig Wood.

Shute, winner of last year's Texas open, dropped in unexpectedly yesterday after laying out the event in California and Mexico. The slim young star shot four rounds of sub-par golf to win the $1,500 first prize a year ago.

Tournament officials received word today that Ed Dudley, winner of the Los Angeles open, would not be able to compete here. He and Tommy Armour, former National open champion, were forced to hurry through to Florida for an engagement there.

Other familiar faces that will come up missing when the 72 hole grind starts Friday included Bill Meebourn, Walter Hagen, Bobby Crockettbank, Gene Sarazen, and Joe Kirkwood. All except Kirkwood had won the Texas open at one time or another.

George Von Elm, "business man" golfer who tied with John Golden in the Agua Caliente open and then was defeated in the playoffs, was listed among the entrants but had not appeared late today.

Barring a postponement, which did not seem likely, the first 18 hole leg of the money competition is scheduled for Friday, with 18 more Saturday and the final 36 holes Sunday. A possible play-off would be held Monday, and Jack O'Brien, tournament manager, today, reiterated his assertion there would be no prearranged splitting of the purse if he could figure out some way to present it.

FORMER TEXAS CHAMP LEADS FIRST ROUND

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 28. (AP)—Jack Speer of San Antonio, former Texas amateur champion, shot a 73, two strokes over par, to lead a field of almost 200 amateurs in a qualifying round for the Texas open over Willow Springs course today.

John Dawson, Chicago star, placed second with a 74. Considering that the round was played in a drizzling rain that had soaked the course, the scores of the two were considered exceptional. Speer had a 39-34; Dawson 38-36.

Other low scorers were Bill Humes of Del Rio, 76; Les Davis, Fort Worth, 76; Gus McCreland, Dallas, 78; Bud McKinney, Del Rio, 79. A vast majority of the scores ran over 90, and many passed 100.

The best 110 in today's qualifying round will be eligible to compete in the 18-hole pro-amateur event tomorrow at Brackenridge Park.

A Basketball Crowd
Fifteen thousand people gathered in Madison Square Garden, the other night to see six college teams play basketball. The teams were Columbia, Fordham, St. John's, Manhattan, New York U. and City College of New York. That's a big crowd for a basketball game in New York City, but when Indiana holds its state high school championship tournament in March, you will hear of bigger crowds than that.

Some Old Faces
Bob Le Gendre, whose jump of 25 feet 6 inches in the Olympic games at Paris, was one of the great thrills of the sports decade that closed with 1930, died at 34 years of age the other day after a short struggle with pneumonia. Some of his friends say his heart had been strained by the arduous athletics in which he took part, and when the sudden emergency of a battle with pneumonia occurred he didn't have the resistance to shake it off.

But just a few days before Le Gendre's sudden death, another familiar sports figure of another day tumbled back into the picture. You may or may not remember him—Hal Osborn—and now he is Professor Harold M. Osborn, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Va.

Professor Osborn, who is 32 years old now, set world records for the high jump at about the time when Le Gendre was doing great things. The other night over in Brooklyn, just to show that he is still a spry young fellow, Osborn high-jumped 6 feet 6 inches, within a quarter of an inch of the world indoor record.

CONGRESSMAN DENIES RECRUITING TALENT FOR ARMY GRID CREW

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. (AP)—When the first initiated efforts to obtain an appointment for Kenneth Coff, a talented state backfield star to West Point, W. T. Wrighton, New York business man and member of the Army Athletic association, did not know the boy was a football player, nor was he interested in "recruiting" gridiron talent for the Army foot.

This statement by Wrighton, whose name has figured conspicuously in the Providence bulletin's disclosures of alleged recruiting on behalf of the military academy, followed the publication of several additional statements and letters today, all revolving around the case of the Brockton (Mass.) boy who as late as yesterday wrote his friend Cadet Paul Carroll, that "I do hope to get the chance to enter West Point."

Coff will not enter West Point, but an unofficial attempt to obtain an appointment for him, thought Congressman Stobbs, of Worcester, Mass., has developed something of a teapot tempest.

The Providence bulletin today published another letter from Coff, addressed to his ex-classmate at Rhode Island, Carroll indicating Major Ralph Sage, West Point's football coach, had taken an interest in the case to the extent of suggesting what Coff could do to further his chances of appointment.

At West Point, Major Philip B. Fleming, the graduate manager, issued a statement saying the charges of proselyting an Army were "decidedly far fetched," and giving the details of exchanges between Carroll and Coff, showing, Major Fleming said, it was a clear case of "boish enthusiasm, and admiration for his school, together with an effort of a civilian to help a deserving boy get into the military academy."

Meanwhile Wrighton told the Associated Press quite frankly his part of the case, exhibiting the correspondence he had with Coff and others. He denied he was actuated by any motive other than a desire to see an ambitious boy enter West Point.

A new radio-beacon is to be established at Fowey Rocks light-house to guide ships through the straits of Florida.

WRESTLING IS NEW SPORT IN LOCAL SCHOOL

WRESTLING IS THE latest sport at Pampa high school. Under the direction of E. G. Gordon, a score of boys will be given instruction in wrestling, with some matches among the boys in the class to keep up interest.

L. L. Sone, high school principal, and Mr. Gordon, instructor, are emphatic in their statements that wrestling will be conducted as a part of the physical education department, for such students as care for the sport, and not as a regular part of the athletic program of the school. There were some boys in the school who did not care for other branches of athletics, and who are interested in wrestling. As a part of the physical education department this class is being formed.

While present plans are tentative, it is expected that the class will meet three times a week. Owing to the many students using the gymnasium, it is uncertain yet as to what hours the class will meet.

There are two boys in the class who have had experience and will prove a valuable nucleus for any wrestling teams chosen to represent the school, if adoption of the sport as a regular part of the athletic program should be made later. They are John Fisher of Tulsa, and Don Somo, also of Tulsa. Sone was known for his wrestling ability as well as his gridiron prowess in the same city.

Exercises in gripping, and exercises to develop arm and neck muscles, will be the first part of the class work.

By Laufer TEX-KALLIO TO MEET TONIGHT

WRESTLING BOUT WILL BE TONIGHT IN PIA-MOR

Tex Watkins, as famous for his smile as for his championship title, and Tex Kallio, happy-go-lucky ex-glb, will meet at 8:30 o'clock tonight at the Pia-Mor auditorium in a wrestling match that is expected to be the most popular with the fans than the one between Bull Montana and Otis Clingman.

Tex Watkins is well known in Europe circles, and is popular with local fans. Watkins has the record of being champion of the United States for four years. The match tonight will give Watkins a chance to try his ability against that of a world's champion.

Tickets to the match are on sale at the Diamond shop.

FORD SMOOTHNESS

The new Ford has more than twenty ball and roller bearings.

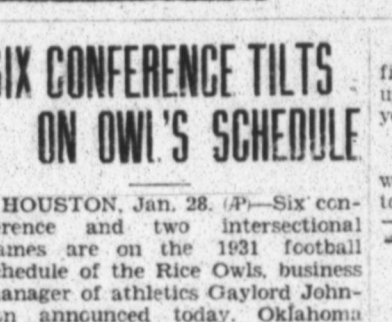

EVIDENCE of the high quality built into the new Ford is the extensive use of ball and roller bearings. There are more than twenty in all—an unusually large number. Each bearing is adequate in size and carefully selected for the work it has to do.

At some points in the Ford chassis you will find ball bearings. At others, roller bearings are used regardless of their higher cost. The deciding factor is the performance of the car.

The extensive use of ball and roller bearings in the new Ford insures smoother operation, saves gasoline, increases speed and power, gives quicker pick-up, decreases noise, and gives greater reliability and longer life to vital moving parts.

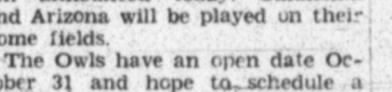

Other outstanding features that make the new Ford a value far above the price are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, three-quarter floating rear axle, Rustless Steel, the extensive use of fine steel forgings, and unusual accuracy in manufacturing.

JACK HOLT IS STAR OF PICTURE AT REX
 Jack Holt, the popular hero of a thousand desperate screen situations, is to be seen and heard here today in "The Squealer," the latest Columbia all-talking photo-drama, comes to the screen of the Rex theater. It is promised as a gripping tale of the underworld, with all the thrill of gangster and smart speakies, topped by the vivid action and excitement of a bootlegger feud.
 Holt is presented in a new role for him. Hitherto best known as a strong man of the wide open spaces,
 he blossoms forth in "The Squeal-er," as a master-mind of the running fraternity, suave, immaculate and very much at home both in society and behind the scenes of hi-jackery.
 Ostensibly a successful real-estate man with a nice office, a beautiful home and a charming wife and young son, he actually is a death gripe with rival bootleg leaders. He deals swift justice to a squealer. He walks into his rival's lair alone to forestall the death of his favorite henchman, and he walks out alone, leaving behind him a dead gang leader.
 His subsequent flight to avoid arrest tests his love for his wife and child. It also tests his wife's loyalty.
 The decision she makes to save his life from his enemies, brings the eventual imprisonment of the former leader. He is bitter toward his dealer, but justice is a "squealer."
 Finally he gets out of prison by staging a thrilling jail-break and heads for home bent on revenge.
 What happens then makes one of the strongest climaxes ever seen on the screen.
 Beautiful Dorothy Revier, as the wife, is co-starred with Holt. The cast also includes little Davey Lee, Matt Moore, Zasu Pitts, Robert Ellis, Matthew Betz and many others.
 Harry Joe Brown directed the picture. Iron a story by Mark Linder.
 This picture has been rated by experts as the best gang-world drama ever filmed, with a maximum of tenseness, suspense and clever character portrayals.

Markets
CORN PLUNGES
 Associated Press Market Editor
 By JOHN P. BOUGHAN
 CHICAGO, Jan. 28. (AP)—Under sudden fire from offerings to Chicago by other principal market centers, corn plunged down today to the lowest prices reached here since 1922. Urgent orders to stop losses of holders of corn future delivery contracts brought about a maximum fall of 2 1/2 cents a bushel, with the final dealings at the days bottom figures. Rye outdid low records unequalled as far back as 1894.
 Corn closed unsteady, 2 cents to 2 1/2 down, rye 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 off, wheat unchanged to 1/4 lower, oats at 1/2 to 3/4 decline, and provisions showing 2 to 2 1/2 cents setback.
 Acute weakness of corn and rye became manifest chiefly near the day's end. Persistent springlike feeders reducing demand from temperatures of livestock acted as a pronounced disturbing factor, and the effect especially on corn was aggravated by evidence that industries here were obtaining the bulk of their supplies from other terminal markets. Some hedging pressure attributed to Minneapolis sources
 tended further to send Chicago values down.
 Wheat was influenced bearishly by forecasts that the aggregate on ocean passage would shortly assume much larger proportions, Argentina, Australia and Canada being likely to ship on an increased scale. Absence of moisture in domestic wheat territory failed to act as an offset.
 Oats declined with other cereals.
 Provisions reflected downturns in hog values.
 Closing indomities: wheat—May

OPERATORS—
 And pipe lines should be a railway, a public carrier, and not a part of the operations controlled by the integrated companies.
 The importation of 101 million barrels of oil annually into the United States presents but one problem of the industry in this country.
 The "three influences" who import this oil, are, at the same time, demanding the conservation of oil in this country.
 Mr. Killough pointed out that the production of crude oil in neighboring countries is as cheap as 75 cents per barrel, while in this country, counting all costs, it is nearly a dollar more than that on the average.
 Public sentiment is the hope of the independents, the speaker declared in showing how the fight for an oil tariff had grown to proportions which justified expectation of early relief.
 Mr. Davis in a short talk said the fight involved every working man, since the standard of living was involved. He asserted that the United States last year did not produce as much oil as it used. If the cattle and wheat raisers had importations to compete with, those industries would well understand the plight of the oil independents, he declared.
 He told how monopolies outside this country mean higher prices for gasoline, ranging from 38 cents per gallon in England to 60 cents per gallon in Australia.

Tax Measure Will Be Given Sterling
 AUSTIN, Jan. 28. (AP)—Three days before the final date for paying taxes under the present law, the legislature today passed a bill which would keep taxes from becoming delinquent until October 15.
 The only thing which stood between the proposal and its enactment into law was the signature of governor Ross S. Sterling, and proponents of the bill expressed confidence he would approve it, probably tomorrow.
 In order to encourage tax payments as soon as possible the legislature included in its bill a provision that the taxes would start drawing ten per cent interest February 1.
 Another provision, for persons who can pay half but not all of their taxes at this time, sets out that the taxes may be paid in two installments.
 A new Hungarian petroleum refinery in Budapest is said to be ern in Europe.

NUBBINS DEFEATED
 BY LEFORS CAGERS
 Pampa's Nubbins were defeated by Lefors 30 to 3 in a game here at 10 o'clock Tuesday night. Starting lineup of the Nubbins was: Mc-Duffie and Rodgers, forwards;
 Heiskell, center; Woodward and N.
 Stevens, guards.
 No other games have been scheduled by the Nubbins. They are planning to enter the tournament of freshman teams to be held at Groom this week end, but plans are not yet final.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wehrung returned Wednesday morning from Waco, where they were called by the death of Mr. Wehrung's mother.

THE GROWTH OF PAMPA
 During the past year or so this city has expanded so that additional water wells and a greater sewer system is needed. City commissioners yesterday authorized the city manager to advertise for bids on an additional well and for an additional unit to the sewer system.
 Another improvement that is needed badly is storm sewers. This city has been developed so rapidly that it would have been impossible to have taken care of this matter earlier but they are needed and should be taken care of as soon as the city can afford the expense.
 Owing to the flatness of this country, it will probably be necessary to go to a greater expense in building a storm sewer system than otherwise. After a rain of any size the streets hold water for several days because of no drainage facilities.
 Of course we cannot build a modern city all in one year or two but there are things that should be done as soon as possible with the city finances.
 This city should be built with the future in mind as well as the present.
 We will know prosperity arrives again when the stock brokers start leaving their wives.
 And isn't this a lovely summer we are having now.
 Maybe those boys who threw eggs at Rudy Valle in a Boston theatre regarded him as a ham.
 These are the days when it behoovers a man with an iron constitution to prove his mettle.
 The only apparent difference between the 11 men on the Wickersham committee and the 11 men on a football team is that one group knows how to handle the highballs.
 Snake skin will predominate women's shoe styles
 this year, says a fashion note. Will it take lots of charm to wear them?
 "Easy comb, easy go," as the fellow with the fast disappearing hair might say.

LEFORS RAMBLERS ARE WINNERS OVER LOCALS
 The Lefors Ramblers nosed out the Grainwags in a game at the local high school gymnasium at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, 33 to 32.
 It was a hard, fast game, with Connor of the Ramblers and Selby of the Grainwags being the stars of the respective teams.
 Lineup of the Grainwags: Sone and Selby, forwards; Mitchell, center; Kelley and Weathered, guards.

 coming more metropolitan every day. Yesterday, carpenters were at work putting up the railing that will surround the desk of the day and night sergeants in the entrance room to the police department at the city hall. The room formerly used by the desk sergeants will now be used by the entire force as a sort of locker room. Chief Downs said yesterday.

About
 New York
 By RICHARD MASSOCK
NEW YORK—Town personalities;
 William Travers Jerome—
 The prosecuting attorney who drove organized gambling out of New York, is retired to the restful seclusion earned by 72 busy years of life.
 So deeply is he hidden in the obscurity of private life that he will not willingly contribute so much as 10 words more to the columns of publicity earned by the zeal of a long and crusading career.
 He closed, by a forceful raid, the palace of chance run by the fabulous Dick Canfield and endeared himself to New York's masses by living in the squalid east side through most of his term as district attorney. He prosecuted Harry K.
 Thaw for the killing of Stanford White. He was ever a militant lawyer.
 Yet he made his fortune in a way few persons know about, through investment in a color process for motion pictures.
 Always he has lived simply, doing his own cooking when he felt like it, becoming famed among his friends for his Bombay duck dinners. His hobbies were hunting and fishing and making mechanical contraptions in the workshop of his country home, tinkering with bar-ometers, alarm clocks and gadgets which he presented to his friends.
 His mechanical diversions probably got him interested in the color photography device. Now he is chairman of the board of Technicolor, Inc.
 Since his retirement he has visited the criminal courts building occasionally to chat with old reporters who used to write about whatever he did or said.
 "Why don't you boys do like I did?" he said to them. "Buy some stock in a good thing."
 That was before the walls of Wall street, though.
 Now, he lives quietly in an unre-
