Hoffman now committed to coalition politics

NEW YORK (AP) - Abbie Hoffman, once the clown prince of the Yippies, emerged from an open but fugitive existence with one-liners, a commitment to "coalition politics" and a plea for Americans to "stick to your principles."

The former anti-war radical said he was "excited, exhausted and enthusiastically optimistic .... I am not coming back cynical, disillusioned," he said.

Hoffman turned himself in Thursday to the state's special narcotics prosecutor after six years as a fugitive wanted on cocaine charges and bail jumping. Judge Milton Williams freed him without bail

For the past four years, he had lived in upstate New York as Barry Freed, a free-lance writer and St. Lawrence River environmental activist who once took his cause before a U.S. Senate subcommittee Hoffman, a Chicago Seven defendant and founder of the Youth International Party, or Yippies, whose antics made him one of the best-known protesters of the 1960s, dismissed suggestions that his reappearance was a publicity stunt to promote his new book, "Soon to be a Major Motion Picture.

Hoffman, 43, said he was simply tired of running.

"I was scared every day. I was a hunted animal. I never looked a policeman in the eye,' he said.

Other reasons for his surrender, he said, were that his son America, also known as Allen, had visited him this summer and was back in school, that his lawyer was free to take his case and that attitudes had changed toward cocaine since his arrest.

He had jumped bail in 1974 rather than face trial and possible life imprisonment on charges of selling cocaine to undercover officers.

Hoffman spent most of his fugitive years as Freed in Fineview, N.Y., a tiny community in the Thousand Islands area of the St. Lawrence River. He was publicity director of the "Save the River Committee" there, lived in a white frame cottage and grew tomatoes.

Those activities didn't represent a fundamental change in his political beliefs, he said: "Once a Yippie, always a Yippie.

Without renouncing the raucous tactics of the 1960s, which he said were times to turn people against each other, Hoffman said the '80s were times for "coalition politics" to bring people together.

The judicial proceeding Thursday was technically a return of the warrant issued for Hoffman and not an arraignment on any particular charge. His innocent plea to the 1973 cocaine charge stands and a formal bail-jumping complaint was not presented

With Hoffman were his brother, Jack, sister, Phyllis, and Johanna Lawrenson, the woman he has lived with for the past 41/2 years and jokingly called his "running mate.

She is the daughter of Helen Lawrenson, who wrote the Esquire magazine article "Latins Are Lousy Lovers.

Asked to pose with her, Hoffman quipped, "She's taller than me, and it was very convenient because I could hide behind her.

Educators don't like ruling but will comply

HOUSTON (AP) - State educators voiced concern, disappointment and apprehension over a Supreme Court Justice's ruling that Texas must provide free public education to illegal alien children, but all agreed to comply with the order ness when the "jackup" type "Thi really going to put us in a bind as fa as teachers and space are concerned,' Brownsville School Superintendent Raul Besteiro said of Justice Lewis F. Powell Jr.'s Seals' ruling July 21 found a 1975 state law, unique to Texas, violated the equal protection rights of illegal aliens.

The law let them attend public schools if they paid tuition, but the trial court found that the tuitions were too expensive for illegal alien families

Canadian, SPS negotiate sale of power plant

CANADIAN - Officials of Southwestern Public Service (SPS) and members of the Canadian City Council met across the bargaining table during Thursday's council meeting, in an effort to clarify the SPS proposal on the purchase of the city-owned power plant

Canadian voters in an August special election approved the resolution allowing Canadian City Council members to sell the plant, if they saw fit.

Although the plant was operating smoothly, voters and some officials felt it was too small to continue supplying power to the city. The city was already purchasing portions of the power it supplied, and the high cost of continuing future purchases prompted the question of selling the plant.

SPS officials were no longer wooing Canadian officials with vauge proposals and SPS spokesman Cliff Mlinar (pronounced Milnar) came equipped to negotiate.

Mlinar, flanked by SPS Chief Planning Engineer W.T. Seitz, SPS attorney Judd Finney, and SPS Development Manager Gary Gibson, laid out the SPS proposal.

Canadian officials listened intently as Mlinar spoke. SPS could take over the operation of the power plant in one year if the council agreed, Mlinar said.

City Manager Vernie Farrington said that within the one-year period, payments would have to be made by the city on the bonded indebtedness

Councilman Bob Lewis came to the floor with his question: 'When we started talking to SPS, they agreed to pay off the city's bonded indebtedness, then listed at $650,000. We have since made a payment of $81,000 and will be making another payment in February 1981 of $85,000.

An interest payment of $43,000 will be made in August 1981. Farrington added

"So actually you will be getting the power plant for approximately $500,000 not the $650,000 we originally talked about," Lewis said.

"Yes, that is about what we thought, $500,000." Mlinar said. "And if we fool around for three more years, we will just pay what the bonded indebtedness is at that time.

Another issue that has played a large part in the complicated power plant sale is the future of the current 11 employees.

Again, Lewis presented the bottom-line employment question, "What will happen to those currently employed at the plant?"

Mlinar explained the SPS policy of employment, "If the present employees can pass the physical examination and there is a need for their services, they will be offered a position in our operation. And in the same question, if your (Canadian) retirement plan can mesh with ours, we will try to do so."

Mayor George Arrington said time was needed before any actual decisions could be made and suggested that SPS get started with the audit of the power plant books, the plant equipment and the employee records.

Search teams who fought rough seas and high winds for several hours rescued three crewmen pitched into the water, but a fourth was still missing.

Six other men on the barge escaped by scrambling to a nearby Chevron oil production platform.

"We have three of them," said Doug Bandos, a Coast Guard spokesman. "They were found 10 miles from the original position.

The Coast Guard reported earlier that a body had been found, but officials said that report was inaccurate.

"Apparently it was some flotsam or debris," said Newell Shindler, a spokesman for Chevron oil company

"We're still missing one," Bandos said, adding that the survivors "are in relatively good shape.

Depression may strengthen over Gulf waters

MIAMI (AP) - A tropical depression in the Gulf of Mexico that churned toward the Louisiana coast may strengthen as it moves over the warm waters, forecasters say.

Meanwhile, forecasters were keeping close watch on a tropical depression that formed off the African coast Thursday.

At 6 a.m. EDT, the center of the Gulf depression was located less than 100 miles south of the Louisiana coast and nearly 200 miles southeast of Galveston, Texas.

It was moving to the west about 10 mph and is expected to continue on that path for the next 24 hours, officials of the National Hurricane Center here said. Highest sustained winds were 35 mph. The disturbance could become a tropical storm, forecaster Gil Clark said, if it continues along its current westward path across the warm Gulf waters

The Hurricane Center has warned small craft from Biloxi, Mississippi to Port Arthur, Texas to ramin in port.

A second depression, with maximum winds of 35 mph, was located just west of the Cape Verde Islands and was moving westward at 15 mph.

"It has the potential to develop into a (tropical) storm - it's got the whole Atlantic ahead of it," Lawrence said of the Cape Verdes depression. "But it couldn't be any farther away from the United States than it is

Some of the most vicious storms of the Atlantic hurricane season, which peaks in late August and early September, have formed off the Cape Verdes. A depression becomes a tropical storm when its sustained winds reach 39 mph. A hurricane has winds of 74 mph or more.

Meanwhile, a depression about 200 miles north-northeast of Puerto Rico had weakened by Thursday evening into a disorganized area of cloudiness and showers, forecaster Joe Pelissier said. The Hurricane Center had said earlier this week that depression appeared likely to attain tropical storm status, but its maximum winds reached only about 35 mph.

barge capsized 17 miles southwest of Grand Isle, said Petty Officer Doug Bandos of the Coast Guard's Search and Rescue Center in New Orleans.

The barge on 90-foot legs, was being used to sandblast a Chevron oil drilling platform beside it when the accident occurred, he said.

After capsizing, the work barge drifted a mile and came to rest against a second Chevron platform with 24 workmen aboard, Schindler said

That drilling platform was shut down as a precaution, and 22 of the workmen aboard were evacuated.

"Two men stayed behind voluntarily to help get the barge moved," Schindler said. "They feel they are safe aboard the platform.'

The barge has hydraulic legs which extend to Gulf floor for support.

The Coast Guard was alerted to the accident at 3:46 a.m. CST.

Grand Isle is on the southeast Louisiana coast, about 60 miles south of New Orleans.

"I have mixed emotions about this. I don't want to hurt the kids, but I don't want to hurt my educational system components either, Besteiro said

In July, U.S. District Judge Woodrow Seals struck down a Texas law prohibiting the use of state funds to educate illegal alien children.

Last month, the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals stayed Seals' order but Powell's ruling Thursday set aside the stay and left the original order intact.

Los Angeles attorney Peter Schay, who challenged the Texas law, said the decision "was received by our clients with joy and tears."

"Our long battle in federal court to establish that undocumented children are persons under our Constitution and are entitled to some level of protection ... has finally found acceptance," he

Ruben Bonilla, national president of the League of United Latin American Citizens, praised the ruling as "brilliant, the only just result

"It is time for the State of Texas to stop this utter nonsense of denving children an education and we again call on the state legislature to repeal the statue that allows the imposition of outlandish tuition fees on undocumented workers," Bonilla, a Corpus Christi attorney, said

Texas authorities estimate 120,000 illegal alien children live in the state. Seals rejected the figure, saying 20,000 was a more realistic number

"We will be enrolling students Friday unless there are circumstances of which we not aware,' said Billy Reagan, Houston superintendent. "We have to comply with the law.

But many educators feared a lack of classroom space, bilingual teachers and funds might eopardize the education of other students.

FURT WURTH, Texas (AP) — Robert Oswald takes his case against exhuming the body in his brother's grave another step today when a state district judge hears his request for a temporary injunction blocking the action.

Judge James E. Wright already has imposed a temporary injunction against Rose Hill Cemetery and British author Michael Eddowes, who wants to dig up the body to prove it is not that of cused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

Eddowes obtained an exhumation order from Dallas County Judge Garry Weber and permission from Oswald's widow, Marina Oswald Porter, and the cemetery before Robert Oswald filed his lawsuit.

The author contends Soviet agent Alex James Hidell assumed Oswald's identity after Oswald went to the Soviet Union in 1958 and that it was Hidell who assassinated President John F. Kennedy in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963

Eddowes says an examination of the body would show several physical discrepancies.

But the man who agreed to examine the body, Dallas County Medical Examiner Charles Petty, has been warned by county commissioners not to become involved in the exhumation.

Use of county property for such a venture would have "adverse effects," Commissioner Jim Jackson said.

Grand jury to hear cases

Eight to ten criminal cases will be presented to the Gray County Grand Jury at 9 a.m. Sept. 15, according to District Attorney Harold Comer.

The case involving aggravated assault charges against Johnny J. Rosalez, 22, of 216 E. Tuke and John Paul Smith, 23, of 210 Gillespie will be one of those heard by the jury, Comer said Rosalez and Smith were arrested and charged with aggravated assault Aug. 2. The arrests were in connection with the shooting the same day of Marcus Gonzales, 25, of 429 N. Starkweather.

Gonzales was shot in the abdomen with a .22-caliber pistol fired from a passing auto. He was standing in front of his home when the shooting occurred shortly before 7 p.m. Aug. 2.

Rosalez was released on bond the day after the shooting, but Smith remains in Gray County Jail in lieu of bond.

In addition to the aggravated assault charge, Smith was charged with carrying a prohibited weapon and possession of a stolen weapon

A criminal mischief charge against John Calvin Alderson, 23, of Pampa is to be heard by the jury, Comer said.

Alderson was arrested July 19 in connection with the slashing of the tires on three Pampa Police Department patrol cars causing an estimated damage of $350

Comer said he also would present a felony driving while intoxicated charge, a burglary charge and a possession of a controlled substance charge.

Laundry 'buff' sentenced

A Washington man pleaded guilty to the July 17 burglary of the C'Bonte Beauty Salon and was sentenced to the Texas Department Corrections during 223rd District Court proceedings Wednesday. Judge Don Cain sentenced Robert John Shehan, 56, of Seattle, Wash., to eight years in the state penitentiary after hearing the guilty plea and evidence of a previous conviction for robbery, District Attorney Harold Comer said

Shehan was arrested in the shop by city police after the owner of the beauty shop reported a nude man in the building.

Entering the business, police found Shehan - scantily clad - in the process of washing his street clothes in the business' washing machine

According to police reports, the man had gained entry to the building by breaking a rear window and pushing over the soft drink

taken by the government of Israel," the president said Thursday night in an address to B'nai B'rith. "But whatever differences arise, they will never affect our commitment to a secure Israel.' ger Carter was received warmly but without jubilation by the Jewish service organization, as he defended policies which Ronald Reagan and John B. Anderson had attacked before the same audience.

By LEE BYRD

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Carter has told America's Jews that the seeds of trust sown by his administration upon the deserts of the Mideast already have flowered into the only peace ever known by Israel, and "We will stay the course, no matter how

"I cannot assure you we will always agree with every position difficult.

Carter tells Jews his efforts have afforded peace for Israel

Reagan, the Republican candidate, had said a night earlier that Carter put Israel in danger with weak and confusing policies. Anderson, who appeared just hours before the president, said Carter was using the Mideast for political purposes.

Reagan, campaigning in the South on Thursday, also accused the Carter administration of playing fast and loose with national security for political gain.

In Jacksonville, Fla., Reagan said the president's political operatives had engineered leaks about the "Stealth" project to thwart enemy radar, thereby breaching one of the biggest military secrets "since the Manhattan Project."

Anderson, meanwhile, received financial news which could boost his bid to become a major contender this fall. The Federal Election Commission ruled 5 to 1 that the independent challenger is entitled, retroactively, to a share of public funds if he gets at least 5 percent of the vote Nov. 4. Presumably, that at least will help him borrow between now and then.

The president told the B'nai B'rith convention Jerusalem should remain undivided with free access to the holy places for all.

"I was there searching for peace in the city of peace. My pravers were answered in the Egyptian-Israeli peace treaty." he said. "We will make certain that the future of Jerusalem can only be determined through agreement - with the full concurrence of Israel.

Israel's insistence that Jerusalem is its permanent capital caused the Israeli-Egyptian peace talks to founder. The agreement to resume them was reached only Wednesday

"Once again we have found a way to move towards peace," Carter said. "The talks will resume. And I will personally join in the search for peace - if necessary in a summit meeting, which Prime Minister (Menachem) Begin and I discussed this morning. In his speech to B'nai B'rith a day earlier, Reagan had said Carter refuses to brand the Palestine Liberation Organization a terrorist group. Without alluding to the charge, the president said : "We oppose an independent Palestinian state - and unless and

Idaho millionaires have 'a pretty poor income

BOISE, Idaho (AP) - Idaho may have the highest concentration of millionaires in the country, but an economist here says many of them have a "pretty poor income.

A survey released Thursday by U.S. Trust Co. of New York City estimated the nation's millionaires - defined as those with more than $1 million in assets - grew 10.3 percent in 1980 to 574,342.

And it wasn't oil-rich Texas, steel-rich Pennsylvania, or movie star-rich California that had the greatest concentration of millionaires. It was Idaho, the land of potatoes and ski resorts.

Don Holley, an economist for Boise State University, said the figures could be deceiving because many "paper millionaires" in Idaho may have vast land holdings, "but they don't have the cash flow of a millionaire."

"There are a lot of farmers sitting on property which has appreciated in value in recent years. They have a farm which has

until the PLO recognizes Israel's right to exist and accepts (United Nations) Resolution 242, we will neither recognize nor negotiate: with the Palestine Liberation Organization. As I have repeatedly stated, it is long past time for an end to terrorism.

U.N. Resolution 242 guarantees Israeli security, but at the same time calls for Israel's withdrawal from occupied territory.

At one point, Carter departed from his text to declare that "We have never threatened to slow down or cut off aid to Israel and I can assure you that we never will.'

Already, he said, "our course in the Middle East has brought the first real peace that region has known in the 32 years of Israel's, existence

"This is the policy I shall continue to follow," he said. "There will not be one policy for an election year and another after the election. The same policy that led to Camp David and an uninterrupted supply of American economic and military aid to Israel will continue as long as I am president."

The FEC's decision was crucial to Anderson's ability to compete with Carter and Reagan, who are receiving $29.4 million each for their campaigns as major party candidates. The commission held, in effect, that Anderson's campaign organization is the functional equivalent of a political party and thus he is entitled to the money as the "party nominee.

If Anderson reaches the 5 percent minimum, he will receive about $3 million from the federal government. He would get $10.5 million if he receives 15 percent of the vote, his current level in public opinion polls.

In his address to B'nai B'rith, Anderson declared that "The Carter administration has allowed an oily sword of Damocles to continue over our heads." He said that "the fear of oil embargo and economic dislocation ... is responsible for the contradictory, self-defeating Carter approach to the Arab-Israeli dispute.

Reagan, in Jacksonville, said "political operatives of the Carter campaign" engineered a recent Pentagon leak about the "Stealth" project to develop war planes that enemy radar can't detect. The result, Reagan told a luncheon of businessmen, was a breach of security on "some of the most tightly classified, most highly secret weapons information since the Manhattan Project," which developed the atomic bomb

But Defense Secretary Harold Brown, testifying before a House 🍽 foreign affairs subcommittee, said he confirmed existence of the project at a news conference last week only because of a recent spate of news articles about work on an "invisible bomber.

He said denying all those reports would have convinced no one and "would have resulted in a rash of competitive reporting and a cascade of new leaks, some of them containing much more damaging information about the technical details of the program.

been in the family for years and is paid off, but they don't have much annual income." he said. U.S. Trust figures showed New York continues to have the greatest number of millionaires - 56.096 - but it ranks 13th on a per capita basis with 3.17 millionaires for every thousand residents: Idaho has 24,738 millionaires and the highest per capita average.

of such individuals in the country. U.S. Trust said the state has 26.46 millionaires for every thousand residents, more than 10 times the national average of 2.58. North Dakota is a distant second with 8.88 millionaires per 1,000 residents.

Dale Blickenstaff, executive vice president of Idaho First National Bank, said a large number of "relatively well-to-do people" have moved to Idaho in the past several years - primarily in the Sun Valley and Hayden Lake areas. That, coupled with the state's small population, exaggerate the per capita rate, he said.

"I don't know of anything in Idaho's tax laws which would make the state a haven for millionaires," Holley said. Much of the rich irrigated farmland in southern Idaho sells for $10,000 or more an acre. "It doesn't take much of a farm to pile up million in property at that rate," Holley said. U.S. Trust said the 1980 growth rate in millionaires was far below the 15.4 percent rate for 1979. This was true, despite inflation which pushed many Americans across the threshold which once signaled huge wealth, the bank's report said.

Wheeler man serious after cycle accident

OKLAHOMA CITY - A Wheeler man remains in serious condition in Baptist Medical Hospital here after suffering a broken neck and damaged spine in a motorcycle accident near Carnegie, Okla. Saturday night. The man's son was also reported to have been injured in the mishap.

Bobby Patterson, 48, 1501 S. Alan Bean, Wheeler, is in the intensive care unit of the Oklahoma hospital awaiting surgery early next week to relieve pressure on his spinal column.

A member of the family said Patterson is paralyzed except for some movement in his left arm, but the family has been told by doctors that there is some hope of restoring use in both arms and hands after surgery

Details of the accident are sketchy. However, according to family members, Patterson and his son, David, 24, Carnegie, Okla were riding motorcycles on a farm to market road from Ft. Cobb to Carnegie at approximately 10 p.m. Saturday.

Patterson was apparently blinded by an oncoming car causing him to lose control of the motorcycle and run off the road.

Seeing his father's head light go out, David Patterson turned around to see what had happened and lost control of the motorcycle he was riding, went down a 25 foot cliff and struck an embankment

The son suffered a concussion, a broken toe and other abrasions and contusions. He has been released from the hospital.

tax funds for schools

Checks totaling more than $17 million have been mailed from the state comptroller's office to 17 Texas colleges and universities in what state officials say will probably be the last distribution of the 10 cent ad valorem tax.

The money comes from taxes collected by State Comptroller Bob Bullock's office under the state's 10 cent per $100 levy on property taxes since Sept. 1, 1979. The money are intended for use in the schools' building funds.

Under the new property tax code, ad valorem taxes are now assessed at .0001 percent of the appraised value.

The $17.7 million distribution is part of more than $47.3 million in advalore taxes collected and distributed to Texas schools this year, Bullock said.

Income from the taxes billed to taxpayers this fall will be at the new rate and income is expected to be significantly less, he said. West Texas State University of Canyon received $217,647. of the

Fire count from area shows August decline

Pampa Fire Department officials described the month of August as "less hectic" than the record-breaking month firefighters experienced in July.

The department responded to a total of 51 alarms last month in comparison with the more than 120 calls answered in July - 90 of which were grass fires.

Firefighters battled 27 grass and trash fires in August and extinguished six fires involving automobiles.

Electrical shorts were blamed as the cause of two of the fires by fire officials. Other causes were determined as heating, smoking and arson.

Firefighters were called to locate the source of smoke one time last month and made one rescue call.

Because of a malfunction of the automatic alarm system, firefighters responded to five false alarms. Five runs were not of a fire nature, officials said.

Rest stop constuction goes to Lubbock bidder

AMARILLO -- A Lubbock firm has been awarded the contract to construct rest areas adjacent to the west and eastbound lanes of Interstate Highway 40 west of Alanreed, according to State Highway Department officials.

R. L. Frazier Company was recently awarded the bid by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission. Frazier's bid of $389,457. was the lowest of five bids received by the commission.

The rest areas are to be built beside the westbound lanes at a site 4.5 miles west of Alanreed and along the eastbound lanes at a point 6.5 miles west of Alanreed, said A. L. McKee, Amarillo district engineer

The contract includes construction of the rest areas, site grading, sidewalks, arbor units and area illumination.

George J. Cannon of Amarillo will be the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation engineer in charge of the rest areas project.

WALLER (AP) — Mayor Danny Marburger says the Waller City Council has suspended Police Chief Jimmie Reynolds for three weeks because his lifestyle "is not right for a chief of police.

Reynolds, 38, said the council is giving him an ultimatum because they do not approve of his living with a woman until they marry. He said he and the woman plan to marry after his divorce from his wife is final in about five weeks

"They caught me by surprise," Reynolds said. "I don't think it is anybody's concern but my own. I just wish they'd let it be a private affair."

Reynolds has been police chief six years. Marburger said the council, if no agreement can be reached in three weeks, will have to decide on a permanent replacement as the $1,000-a-month chief.

Meanwhile, Marburger appointed John Loofs, another member of the three-man police force for this community of 1,100 some 40 miles northwest of Houston, as temporary chief.

Tive structural fires were called in to the department – four Rig mishap victims

DUMAS - Three employees of a Borger drilling company were injured in an explosion at a natural gas rig located 14 miles south of Dumas Saturday morning.

The three injured men were identified as Wallace Sewell, 31; Borger; James Howerton, 28, Stinnett; and Allen Piper, 27, of Skellytown

The three men are employed by Service Drilling Company of Borger

Reports of the incident say six men were "fishing" in a natural gas well hole from which gas was escaping. A diesel engine backfired while being started and ignited the gas.

In the resulting explosion Sewell suffered first and second degree burns, Howerton suffered a leg injury and Piper sustained minor burns and other minor injuries.

After initial treatment at Dumas Memorial Hospital, the trio was sent to North Plains Hospital. Sewell and Howerton were admitted to the facility but, hospital officials say the two have since been released Dumas firefighters controlled the blaze at the Colorado Interstate Gas Company well location late Saturday morning.

The three other men working at the well site were able to escape injury in the explosion.

Unconfirmed reports say the driller, Clyde Page, ran two miles for help after the explosion.

Nurses question name choice

DALLAS (AP) - Joe Lopez Villareal Jr. is less than a week old, but he already has encountered his first fight with bureaucratic red tape. His father, Joe Torres Villareal, chose his first son's name in the Mexican tradition, with the maiden name of his wife Mary as the child's middle name.

They told Villareal "I couldn't name my new baby what I wanted to," the 38-year-old former truck driver and disabled war veteran said. "They said if I wanted to name him like that, I should go back to Mexico. I am an American. I should get to name my baby what I want."

Janice Baldwin, administrator of Hoblitzelle Hospital at Baylor, said the nurses didn't know whether the name "would fit state guidelines" since it was not identical to the father's name. Don Carroll, state registrar for the Bureau of Vital Statistics in Austin, disagreed. "I'm no lawyer, but as far as we are concerned you can name a kid anything you want. Our guidelines don't address that," he said

"The main problem comes when children have different surnames than the parents, but even those we don't question because it was happening so often. I'm shocked that anybody would question what a parent wants to name a child."

Ms. Baldwin said maternity ward nurses initially gave Villareal an unofficial, souvenir birth certificate filled out the way he wanted. But after an inquiry Thursday, she said the official birth certificate would be filled out as he requested

Police start extensive recruiting

HOUSTON (AP) - Houston police officials, seeking to beef up a critically undermanned force, say they have launched an extensive 21-state recruiting drive.

Recruiting Division Capt. Bill White said Thursday the Houston Police Department has begun a media drive in another 14 states, waived a long-standing residency requirement and tripled the travel budget for recruiters, to try to shore up the force of 3,000 officers.

The new drive has produced about 720 inquiries a day, White said. However, most of the responses are from people acting out of curiosity rather than a sincere interest, he said. The city previously restricted its recruiting to Texas, Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and Oklahoma, and travel was limited for investigators checking applicants' backgrounds.

But the department was not able to attract enough candidates from that eight-state area. officials said.

The police force recently came under criticism because of a report that it takes officers an average of 20 minutes to answer a trouble call.

summoned in Billy case Attorney general

By JIM ADAMS Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - A special Senate subcommittee summoned Attorney General Benjamin R. Civiletti today to explain his discussion of the Billy -Carter-Libyan affair with the president just six days after aides say Civiletti told them to delay action in the Civiletti is the highest administration official to testify so far

"The critical question which these facts present is whether the attorney general had committed the Justice Department not to prosecute in the event that Billy Carter registered" as a Libyan agent, said Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., the subcommittee's chairman.

Two Justice Department officials testified Thursday that Civiletti told them June 11, after a breakthrough in their investigation, "Let's wait 10 days or so and see what happens" before deciding whether to take criminal or civil action against Billy Carter for failing #### to register as a Libyan agent

On June 17, Civiletti told President Carter "there would be no punishment" for his brother if he registered voluntarily. While Civiletti has acknowledged telling Carter his younger brother was "foolish" for failing to register, he says he did not discuss the department's investigation of Billy Carter with the president.

All the Justice Department officials swore under oath that neither Civiletti nor the president influenced their decision to take civil rather than criminal action to force Billy Carter to register. No criminal charges have been brought for violation of the Foreign Agents Registration Act since 1963.

Joel Lisker, chief of the Justice Department's foreign agent registration unit, said the order to wait came after he met with Civiletti to report that Billy Carter had acknowledged receiving $220,000 from

Libya "The way I interpreted it was that we should give Billy Carter a chance to register before taking action," Lisker testified. "I did not interpret it as an order to abate the investigation or in any way slow it down."

who also was at the meeting, agreed with Lisker's interpretation

Assistant Attorney General Philip R. Heymann said Civiletti's disclosure that he had discussed the matter at all with the president was surprising because the attorney general had told him sometime in June: "I shouldn't tell the president anything about the Billy Carter case.

But Heymann said "it is hard to figure out how what the attorney general said to the president could have messed up our investigation.'

He noted it was public knowledge that the Justice Department was trying to get the younger Carter to register as an agent, and Civiletti did not disclose any secret strategy that the president could have reported to his brother

Wrong kind of sympathy for alcohol addiction

The United States is, as it has been for some time, facing a major drug problem. The most abused drug is, of course, alcohol. Fighting the misuse of this drug costs taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars. For the most part it is a losing battle and a waste of money.

The government's first approach to the problem was outlawing human consumption of alcohol altogether. If people abuse the stuff, why not make it illegal? It seemed to make sense at the time, but the well-intentioned government program turned out to be a costly experiment and a colossal failure. From 1919 through 1933 the taxpayers paid for government agents - federal, state and local - to do everything in their power to wipe out demon rum. Bootleggers and gangsters outmaneuvered them at every turn. If there was a decrease in alcoholism it was not significant enough for the public to retain Prohibition. In 1933 the 18th Amendment was repealed and the booze flowed legally again.

But the public still believed that government was the proper institution to deal with the problem of alcoholism. Over the decades scores of tax-supported programs were created to do everything, from drying out alcoholics to treating them in specialized psychological workshops. While small clinics and psychologists have enriched themselves from these programs the record suggests that very few alcoholics have changed their ways.

One of the biggest mistakes the government makes is assuming responsibility for the alcoholic. The prospect of facing the consequences of their choice to drink is enough to discourage some alcoholics from going on a carefree binge. Consistent with government's responsibility – destroying policies, the Social Security Administration is beginning to label alcoholics disabled and is providing them with Supplemental Security income. It is the worst of scratch a precision chuck involving many all alternatives. Taking money from one and giving it to another is itself wrong: taking it from a productive citizen and giving it to a drunk is a crime. In this situation both the giver and the receiver are victims. A case in Charlotte, North Carolina, indicates the wisdom of the policy. A local lifelong boozer nicknamed "Pineapple" was a permanent fixture around Charlotte, working at odd jobs and barely getting by. He survived that way for many years until a well-intentioned Social Security official labeled him "disabled" because of alcoholism and granted him $1,486 in cash and a promise of $209 a month in SSI payments. Having to work to pay for his booze had kept him sober at least part of the time. With a huge wad of money in his pocket and the promise of monthly support, Pineapple, in short order, drank himself to death.

By Robert J. Wagman

WASHINGTON (NEA) - Neither Jimmy Carter nor Ronald Reagan publicly will concede a single state to the other (candidates rarely do) in the 1980 campaign. Privately, however, the professionals working for the two men already have. And, remarkably, the estimates on both sides are quite similar.

The pros do not pay much attention to polls this early in an election. Most, including Carter's men, agree that, if the election were held today, Reagan would win in a landslide, perhaps carrying every state. But the election is not today and both sides believe the results on November 4 will be close

They also agree that, in the end, it will come down to which candidate carries a half - dozen or so key states.

Each side concedes 125 to 150 electoral votes to the other (with 270 needed to win). The Carter people quietly say Reagan will take the West; the Reagan people, despite predictable campaign oratory, say Carter can count on a firm base of support in the so - called "Old South."

To Reagan's Western base can be added some traditionally GOP - leaning states in the Midwest and New England; in the Carter column go a number of traditionally Democratic - leaning states. Here is how these states line up:

For Carter, 142 electoral votes: Arkansas, 6; Alabama, 9; Delaware 3; District of Columbia, 3; Georgia, 12; Hawaii, 4; Louisiana, 10; Maryland, 10; Minnesota, 10; Mississippi, 7; North Carolina, 13; Pennsylvania, 17; Rhode Island, 4; South Carolina, 8; Tennessee, 10; West Virginia, 6.

For Reagan, 130 electoral votes: Alaska, 3; Arizona, 6; Colorado, 7; Idaho, 4; Nebraska, 5; New Hampshire, 4; New Mexico, 4; Nevada, 3; North Dakota, 3; Oklahoma, 8; Oregon, 6; South Dakota, 4; Utah, 4; Virginia, 12; Wyoming, 3; Washington, 9.

This does not mean that either side believes absolutely that the states listed above will go as predicted. Reagan people insist they will make breakthroughs in the South and Carter people say they will do very well in some Reagan - leaning farm states and in the Pacific Northwest. But the pros for both do believe that the results will fall close to the predictions and that, even if one or two states come up differently, the #### swing will be insignificant.

As far as both sides are concerned, therefore, the election will be decided by a handful of states: California, with 45 electoral votes; Florida, with 17; Illinois, with 26; Massachusetts, with 14; Michigan, with 21; Missouri, with 12; New Jersey, with 17; New York, with 41; Ohio, with 25; Texas, with 26; and Wisconsin, with 11.

Enter into the equations the independent candidacy of John Anderson. Almost all the pros say something along the lines of, "If Anderson is in fact perceived as a real candidate," he conceivably could carry Massachusetts, New York and Wisconsin (plus Vermont and Connecticut), for a total of 77 electoral votes. If Anderson is not seen as a viable third choice, both sides' pros say all of these states likely will go to

Carter, giving him 219 electoral votes. To the pros, therefore, the election will be decided by those remaining states - and these are considered the key ones: California, Florida, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, Ohio and Texas. With a total of 189 electoral votes among them, these eight states can go either way Most likely, the final result in each of the eight will be close. If Carter just wins a little over 25 percent of these electoral votes (assuming he gets Anderson's 77, votes), that will give him the 270 votes needed to win.

Both sides agree that, for Reagan, California and Illinois are critical. He must win in both. The pros can come up with final vote projections showing Carter winning without California, but not

For Carter, the critical swing states are, Michigan, Ohio and New Jersey. In normal years, these should be safely in his column, but he is badly hurt in all three by the economy. If Reagan carries all three (plus California and Illinois), he likely will have 264 votes, only six away from victory.

One factor, however, has the pros on both sides scratching their heads: the hostages. On Election Day, the hostages will have been held in Iran for exactly one year. If the electorate comes to place some or all of the blame on Carter (Reagan hopes it will), then all of the pros' speculation may be out the window (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Immigration problems

By Anthony Harrigan One of the toughest problems facing the United States in the future is formulation of a new immigration policy.

The existing policy is no help at all. There are an estimated eight million non-resident aliens in the United States and another 4 to 10 million illegal aliens. The U.S. - Mexican border is virtually an open door. Everytime there is a political explosion in the Third World, the United States receives a flood of refugees.

If it is impossible to find and deport all the illegal aliens, it is equally impossible to continue to receive a flood of refugees. With unemployment expected to rise to 9 percent this year, the economy won't be able to support hundreds of thousands of newcomers.

Even without the illegal aliens, existing law makes no sense. The immigration law favors people from the Third World who are truly alien to American culture and institutions.

In 1978, the United States admitted 19,458 people from the Dominican Republic and 19,256 from Jamaica. But only 14,245 people were admitted from Great Britain, the country with which we have the closest cultural ties. In that same year, we admitted 168,000 from Indo-China. Common sense suggests a return to a preference system based on cultural affinity

The United States can't afford to siphon off the population of the Caribbean islands, for example. Specifically, we can't afford the so-called economic refugees who are leaving Haiti. To accept all of them would impoverish the United States

There was a time when the United States ended on unrestricted immigration to American productivity is declining as a result, and many companies are having their screw machine work done overseas. In the St. Louis, Mo, area the Wall Street Journal reported an immediate need for 56 gualified screw machine operators. That inspired an old-timer, Lawrence Tracy, to come out of retirement at the age of 72 to do something about the shortage He got the Department of Labor to finance a job training program in the St. Louis area. He is its chief instructor The first class of 12 students will begin training in July. During a 36-week course they will be taught shop mathematics, blueprint reading, machine-shop theory and machine-tool operation.

By the end of the course they should be ready to start as apprentice screw-machine operators with local populate this continent. But that time is long past. The U.S. should be highly selective in admitting new people. The country needs skilled people whose background enables them to make an easy adaption to our way of life.

> It's true, of course, that immigration to the United States is a safety valve for Mexico, which has a crushing population problem. But U.S. immigration law has to be devised for the United States, not for Mexico or any other country.

> The answer to the specific problem of Mexico most probably lies in a worker permit agreement, whereby Mexicans would be allowed across the border for seasonal work in agriculture and other enterprises. If the duration of visits isn't limited, the country gradually will become part of Mexico - certainly in cultural terms.

> The history of the world has been shaped by great migrations. Countries that receive migrants in vast numbers have to be very firm or their culture and perhaps political control are lost. The Roman Empire was dissolved by the flood of peoples pushing down from northern Europe and the East. They didn't have a feel for the Roman way, and Roman civilization eventually collapsed.

> The plight of refugees -- the boat people and the Mexicans, for example, has an emotional impact on the American people. But the problems of other peoples can't be solved by admitting everyone to the United States. A crowded nation, full of people with different cultural concepts and who speak other languages, is a nation that will have difficulty enduring and retaining its identity.

companies advertise in newspapers thousands of miles away, trying to lure them with inflated pay away from other

The National Screw Machine Products Association says that most manufacturing companies, now limited to one shift, could double their output per machine if they had enough skilled operators to run a second shift

If the St. Louis experience is typical, the Machinists' Union is no help. Apparently content to preserve the shortage, thus to bid up wages. the union has not encouraged apprenticeship programs.

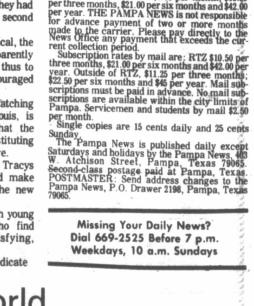

Sen. Tom Eagleton (D-Mo.), watching this training program in St. Louis, is enthusiastically recommending that the Department of Labor get busy instituting similar training programs elsewhere.

Hopefully, some more Lawrence Tracys will come out of retirement and make themselves available to teach the new crop

And, hopefully, there are enough young men like my friend's son who find handcraft challenging, satisfying, rewarding.

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Texas Republicans begin a state convention today dedicated to the downfall of President Jimmy Carter on Nov. 4.

Joining them tonight and Saturday in efforts to keep Texas' key 26 electoral votes from going to Carter a second time will be George Bush, the vice presidential nominee and adopted Texan.

Presidential nominee Ronald Reagan will be in San Antonio 10 days from now, part of a major campaign drive through South Texas and the Houston area.

State GOP Chairman Chet Upham will rap the convention to order in midafternoon, standing in for Rep. Tom Loeffler, R-Texas, whose congressional duties kept him overtime in Washington.

Keynote speaker is Gov. Bill Clements, Texas' first Republican governor this century who says Carter's defeat is the prime aim of his administration.

Following Clements to the speakers stand will be former Texas Gov. John B. Connally, who lost his presidential nomination bid to Reagan and Bush. He and Clements habe been teaming in an intensive grass roots campaign throughout Texas' non-urban areas.

Jury convicts Borger man on murder charge

• HOUSTON (AP) — A state district court jury has convicted a Borger man of capital murder in connection with the June 11, 1979, shooting death of a Hutchison County jailer.

George Michael Hall, 24, was found guilty Thursday by the nine-man, three-woman jury which deliberated about five hours before handing down its verdict.

The state panel was to consider Hall's sentence today. Prosecutors have asked that the death penalty be imposed. Hall was charged with killing Jack Thompson, 43, when he and Clyde Jones, 27, also of Borger, escaped from a jail in the West Texas community of Stinnet.

Jones, who was sentenced earlier to life in prison for his part in the shooting, testified for the prosecution that he handed Hall the jailer's .357 magnum pistol and that Hall then shot Thompson.

"Texas has been the eye of the storm in every presidential election this century and it is the battleground against this time," Upham told the State Republican Executive Committee Thursday afternoon in a pre-convention meeting.

"We are going to have more operations going in Texas and more volunteers working than ever before," Upham promised. "We have a structure in place that is better than it has ever been before in Texas," Ernest Angelo, Midland, state campaign director for Reagan-Bush.

In its Thursday meeting, the SREC did its part by opening party ranks to Cubans, Puerto Ricans and other Hispanic peoples who want to join the battle for Reagan-Bush.

Without dissent, the 62-member governing body voted to designate the National Hispanic Assembly of Texas as an ad hoc committee to work for Reagan-Bush in the general election. The motion also called for the SREC to act as soon as possible to make the assembly an offical auxiallary of the state party.

"You need this group in Texas," Dr. Damaso Oliva, assembly chairman in San Antonio, told the state committee. He handed Upham a check for $1,000 and said "we want to help you." Dorothy Doehne, San Antonio, party vice chairman, explained that the party already had one official auxiliary, Mexican-American Republicans of Texas. She said there would be no duplication because the national assembly includes Cubans, Puerto Ricans and other Hispanic people in addition to Mexican-Americans.

Church hosts marriage class

The Bethel Assembley of God will host a "Marriage Enrichment Seminar" September 5.6.7, with Ted and Virginia Estes of Amarillo.

Mr. Estes, an ordained Assemblies of God minister is a graduate of Evangel College, Springfield, Missouri with a B.S. in Biblical Studies and Philosophy and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary with a Masters of Divinity.

Mr. Estes has also completed four units of Clinical Pastoral Education, emphasis on Marriage and Family Counseling. He is presently a chaplain in the Department of Pastoral Care at High Plains Baptist Hospiial.

The subjects to be discussed include: In the Beginning Marriage, "The Biblical Basics of Christian Marriage," The Cultivating of a Relationship, "Authority and Submission Issue," The Happy Marriage, "An Experience in Communications."

"The Work of Child Rearing" will be discussed during the Sunday School Hour and "The Beauty of Marriage" will be discussed during the Sunday Morning Worship Hour.

The church is located at the intersection of Hamilton and Worrell Streets. Pastor Paul DeWolf invites the public to attend this seminar. Sessions will begin at 7:30 nightly and 9:45 and 11 a.m. Sunday morning.

Congregation sets Appreciation Day

Rev. Cecil Ferguson, pastor of the Hiland Pentecostal Holiness Church will be honored by his congregation Sunday, Sept. 7.

The day has been designated by his congregation as Pastor Appreciation Day, in recognition of Pastor Ferguson's outstanding contribution to the community as pastor and civic leader. Rev. Ferguson came to Pampa in August of 1972. Since that time he has earned the respect of the community through his involvement in the needs of this area.

The Sunday School youth, women of the church and the Board of Deacons will present special gifts to Rev. Ferguson during the 11 a.m. service.

The women of the church will honor Rev. Ferguson with a dinner in the park immediately following the morning worship service.

All friends of Rev. Ferguson are invited to attend this special recognition service

A DAILY INCIDENT!

Hardly a day passes without the newspapers reporting an automobile accident. Lives are lost and bodies maimed due to careless driving on our streets and highways.

Another daily incident which the newspapers often do not report, and to which others are indifferent, is the ruining of lives and character in the wretched, uneducated, and poverty-ridden parts of the great cities in our land. There are those who despair of ever getting out of their situation and so despondency sets in and a lack of desire to strive for worthly goals enters the spirit.

A loving God would have us aware of these whose lives, self-respect and character could be saved - if we were interested enough.

God often impresses the needs of His children upon those who attend His church. It is His will that we should show forth the love of God for mankind by helping all who are suffering.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long. persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

The singing Lunsfords will be featured at the First Free Will Baptist Church, 326 N. Rider St. Saturday evening, Sept. 6. The Lunsfords will also be performing during the regular church services, Sunday, Sept. 7.

Rev. L.C. Lynch extends a cordial invitation to the public to hear and enjoy the Lunsfords.

The First Free Will Baptist Church will also be host for the Gray County Singing from 2 - 4 p.m. Sunday Sept. 7.

Churches agree free education

AUSTIN - An official of the Texas Conference of Churches has commended the ruling by U.S. District Judge Woodrow Seals that Texas must provide free public education to all resident children, including "illegal aliens."

Rev. Dr. James C. Suggs, executive director of the ecumenical agency, also decried the announcement by Texas Attorney General Mark White that he will appeal the deicsion and seek a stay of Judge Seal's order to cease denying free education to children because of their immigration status.

Dr. Suggs called attention to resolutions of 1979 and 1980 Assemblies of Representatives of the TCC supporting "an open policy of public educational benefits to all persons residing in the state of Texas, regardless of citizenship.

SCORE A touchdown with homemade cream of tomato soup and open faced ham sandwiches.

Football time is also soup 'n sandwich time either before the game, as a lunch, or after the scores are in, as a hearty snack. Crisp fall weather calls for just that kind of heartiness that the duo provides. The locale is not important. Soup 'n sandwiches are equally welcome at home, school or office.

If you've ever wondered what homemade cream of tomato soup tastes like, here's your chance to find out. There are bargains in stewed tomatoes at your store, but you may also use the home canned variety.

For the soup there's a real flavor surprise in the onion and green pepper sauteed in butter. Your blender can puree tomatoes easily, and milk contributes wholesome flavor to this soup.

EAR ABB

DEAR ABBY: I know you advise women to pay careful attention to how a man treats his mother if you want to know how he will treat his wife. But how about this? I am a 34-year-old woman who is dating a man who is 36. He is twice divorced (no children) and lives with his 70-year-old widowed mother. This is my first big romance. I can understand his feeling of obligation to his mother, but he can't be away from her for more than 30 minutes without phoning to tell her where he is and when he'll be back. We seldom go anywhere without her, but when we do, he's constantly phoning to keep in touch. Incidentally, she is not an invalid. She's in good health but has never tried to make a life of her own. Her son is her whole life.

I have deep feelings about this man, but his attachment to his mother bothers me. He says he loves me, but I can't cope with this mother-son relationship. Does he have a problem, or do I?

DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE: You both have. But unless he realizes that his attachment to his mother is hampering his relationship with you, and he wants to overcome it, don't plan on a future with him. His only hope is to get into therapy and learn how to be a loving and caring son without allowing his devotion to his mother to consume him.

DEAR ABBY: The letters from people who are hard of hearing interested me because my mother has had that problem for years. I wonder how many of your readers know that there's a small piece of equipment that can be attached to the telephone receiver to amplify the sound? We put one on my mother's phone three years ago, and it has been a godsend.

sandwich. This time, serve them with creamy cole slaw on large, buttered sea round crackers which are then baked until the cheese is melted. You can assemble them, except for cole slaw and cheese, before the game.

> CREAM OF TOMATO SOUP Yield: approx. 5 cups ¼ cup (½ stick butter) 1/2 cup chopped onion 1-3 cup chopped green pepper 1/4 cup all-purpose flour 2 tablespoons instant beef flavor bouillon 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/s teaspoon pepper 2½ cups milk 1 can (16 oz.) stewed tomatoes

Melt butter in a medium-sized saucepan. Saute onion and green pepper until tender, about five minutes. Stir in flour, bouillon and seasonings until smooth. Remove from heat and gradually stir in milk. Heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Boil and stir one minute. Place tomatoes and liquid in blender container; cover. Puree until smooth. Stir tomato mixture into milk mixture. Heat to serving temperature. Serve with open faced ham sandwiches.

> OPEN FACED HAM SANDWICHES Yield: 4 4 sea round crackers butter 4 slices (1-oz. each) smoked ham 2 tablespoons Dijon-style prepared mustard 1 cup creamy coleslaw 4 slices (1-oz. each) Swiss cheese Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Lightly butter crackers. Place on baking sheet. Place one slice of folded ham on each. Spread about 11/2 teaspoons mustard over each slice of ham. Top each with about 1/4 cup coleslaw and one slice of cheese. Bake 6 to 8 minutes or until cheese is melted and sandwich is hot. Serve immediately with cream of tomato soup.

Glitter brings glamour to homes

By BARBARA MAYER AP

A P Newsfeatures On the decorating front, mirrored surfaces have been cropping up a lot lately. So have foil wall coverings, shiny lacquered walls upholstery fabrics with a sheen, satin sheets, chandeliers, cut crystal stemware and brass and chrome accessories.

Shine, it seems, is in as a decorative ploy. And in large cities all over the United States, mirror-bright decorating schemes are becoming the height of fashion. The reason for the growth of interest in shiny interiors is in the times, according to one decorator.

"You can read the psychology of an age from its home furnishings," said Mary Knackstedt, a designer with offices in New York and Harrisburg, Pa. "Style supports us in troubled times. And glittery rooms are a little bit of self indulgence. The high anxieties which are common today, especially in cities, can be uplifted with glittery interiors, and that is why they are growing in popularity."

Bebe Winkler, a New York designer, echoed these thoughts, noting that "glittery rooms are a little like my red satin dancing slippers. They mean glamour and excitement and they bring some pizzazz to life.

Shiny wall coverings have been strong sellers for at least five years, except in New England where they don't go over at all, said one manufacturer. They are specially in demand in California, Texas and New York, added Charles Dorvetti, design director for James Seeman Studios, a wall coverings producer. It's the understated styles that sell best, he added, not the blindingly bright ones

Ms. Winkler agrees with the use of only a touch of glitter. "I like to use reflective surfaces, low-level glitter, for the air of glamour and sparkle they bring to a room," she said.

There are many ways to bring a touch of glamour into a room without turning it into the great white way. Glass and chrome tables, plexiglass furniture, brass accessories, shiny lacquered furniture, high gloss paint on the walls and even polished cotton can be used effectively to provide some reflective surfaces against which light can bounce and sparkle.

Glittery rooms are not hard to do, but lighting plays a more important role in a shiny room than in an ordinary room.

"It's very important to have several separate sources of illumination and to have dimming controls so that if the room develops too much of a glare, the lights can be toned down," said Ms. Winkler.

"It's a question of using mirrors, the play of color, marvelous lighting," said Ms. Knackstedt.

When you are seeking to create a glamorous setting, you can forget about lamps, she advised. Have your light coming from strange spaces and hidden so that only the effects are visible.

An excess of brilliant surfaces in a room can be too much of a good thing, added Ms. Knackstedt. A sparkling decorating scheme is fun in a foyer or small downstairs bathroom, places we are in and out of quickly.

But a glittery room is not usually a place where you want to spend a lot of time, she warned.

"Glittery rooms don't seem appropriate for country settings. But they are wonderful in big cities where people tend to use their homes mainly in the evening and to entertain quite a bit," added Ms. Winkler

Today's shiny rooms owe a great deal to the art deco period. The style popular in the 1920s and 1930s reached its most flamboyant form in the extravagant Hollywood film sets of the 1930s and 1940s.

"There is a 30- or 40-year gap in what people consider nostalgic," noted Lionel Libson, an executive with General Tire's wall

Harvesters open with Hereford tonight

By L.D. STRATE Pampa News Sports Editor

Larry Gilbert will be at the helm for the first time in his four-year coaching career when the Pampa Harvesters open the 1980 season tonight, but the former Texas Tech All-American doesn't feel burdened by the extra responsibility.

"I really don't feel any more pressure now than when I was an assistant," Gilbert said. "I always place a lot of pressure on myself, no matter what the situtation is."

Gilbert admits the public will be looking at him in a different light than when he was first assistant and defensive coordinator under Danny Palmer last season. "I know the team is in my name, so to speak, and I know the monkey will be on my back, but I don't feel like I've got anything more at stake now than last season. I'm going to prepare the same basically...with a lot of intensity." It will be quickness versus size when Pampa and Hereford kick off at 7:30 p.m. tonight in Whiteface Stadium.

'My main concern about Hereford is their physical size," Gilbert said. "Can we stay in there with them for four quarters.

I'm hoping our quickness can offset their size.' Hereford's defensive frontline averages 230 pounds per man while the offensive front weighs in at 223. Pampa's line contrasts sharply at about 180 pounds "Their experience at quarterback (Derek Dirks) and in the line, both offense and defense, are their strong points," Gilbert said

The Harvesters completed preparations for Hereford with their best workout of the week Thursday, but Gilbert was dissatisfied with the other practice sessions.

"We just haven't looked sharp since our scrimmage with Lubbock, but that could be because the players have had a lot of things thrown at them," Gilbert said. "Thursday's workout was encouraging. It showed the team is looking better as the game gets closer.

Gilbert listed Pampa's starting lineup as follows:

Offense-Cavin Coleman at tight end and Steve McDougall at split end; Gwinn

Greenwood and Pat Langford at guards; Ted Hutto and Mike Graham at tackles; Billy Ward at center; Sam Edwards at quarterback; Arthur Lee Williams and Bobby Dorsey at halfbacks; Leroy Kuhn at fullback

Defense-Harold Landers at noseguard: Robbie Leffel and John Schilling at linebackers; Ward and Ruben Ambrez at tackles; Clifford Anderson and James Borchardt at ends; Kuhn and Dorsey at cornerbacks; Andy Richardson or McDougall at weak safety; Clay Coffee at strong safety.

"These players have put in more hours than any team I've ever been around." Gilbert said. "Their work habits have been great and there's no doubt about their enthusiasm. They're going to go out and play some very intense football tonight."

Gilbert said the Harvesters would need as much support as possible tonight since the game is a sellout.

"I understand the enthusiasm is very high among the Hereford fans, so I want to encourage our fans to come out and back the Harvesters," he added

This could be a very long season for the Giants, who are vulnerable on defense and

Lopez leads World Series

CLEVELAND (AP) - Donna money winning title, all for the third straight year. Caponi Young says Nancy Lopez-Melton is the player to beat in the World Series of Women's Golf. She will get no argument from the first-round leader at the seventh and 13th holes

'Everybody knows she and missed four other attempts (Lopez-Melton) would be tough from 10 feet or shorter. in this tournament. Winning last week means she's got it together. These greens are fast.

They are perfect for her. "You'll have to shoot low numbers to beat her," Young said of the front-runner. Beth Daniel and Young put 1-under-par 71s on the scoreboard Thursday, but they still were two shots shy of Lopez-Melton's 3-under-par 69 at The Country Club.

Lopez-Melton was the only player in the select international field of 12 to avoid a bogey. "I really feel confident. My swing is coming back. My tempo is back. I don't have to think about my swing now. I just get up and hit the ball." said Lopez-Melton, who is bidding for her fourth victory of 1980.

"Earlier this year, if I bogeyed a hole, I was so negative. If I miss a green or make a bogey now, I don't give up. And this tournament really means something to me."

Lopez-Melton still has designs on capturing the Player of the Year crown, the Vare Trophy for low stroke average, and the

There is clearly an identity crisis going on in Florida, where the Tampa Bay Bucs are masquerading as the Miami Dolphins as the National Football League season begins Sunday

Ex-Dolphins like kicker Garo Yepremian, safety Neal Colzie, running back Gary Davis and cornerback Norris Thomas keep surfacing in Tampa Bay. Come to think of it, Miami is not a bad source for talent and remember, the Bucs weren't too shabby themselves last year when they nearly made it to the Super Bowl.

So start with Tampa Bay over Cincinnati and mix in upset specials like Buffalo over Miami, Cleveland over New England and Seattle over San Diego to get the pro picking season underway. The picks
