Reduction of Charge Sought After State Finishes in Girl Mart Case.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., June 10. (AP)—Alexander Pantages, little millionaire of the theater, today faced a climax in one of the several court battles in which he has figured as the result of his alleged association with women.

The state rested yesterday in its fight to convict Pantages and three others on charges of conspiracy and violation of the juvenile laws in connection with operation of an alleged Hollywood "girl market."

Immediately Jerry Giesler, attorney for Pantages, pleaded for dismissal of the conspiracy charge, the more serious of the two accusations growing out of an asserted hotel party here last October with two girls the prosecutor said were minors.

Pantages, Jesse H. Shreve, wealthy local business man, and Olive Clark Day, and William Jobelmann, the latter two accused of operating a Hollywood agency which supplied the girls for wealthy men, were sent to trial.

If the decision of Superior Judge L. M. Turrentine is favorable to the defendants, the threat of a heavy penalty will be lifted and the case will proceed on the lesser charge of violation of the juvenile law. A ruling was expected today.

LOS ANGELES, June 10. (AP)—Raymond L. Mexican Youth Tells of Slayings

YOUNG RUBIO DENIES STORY OF OFFICERS

Says They Did Not Tell Him They Were Deputies; His Companions Claimed Not To Have Fired.

SERVICE IS HELD

Requiem for Slain Youths Is Preliminary to Sending Bodies Home; Officials Are Pall Bearers.

ARDMORE, Okla., June 10. (AP)—A tragic story of the slaying of Emilio Cortez Rubio, young cousin of the president of Mexico and Manuel Garcia Gomez, his student comrade, was told in county court here today as Deputy Sheriffs W. E. Guess and Cecil Crosby received preliminary hearing on charges of murder.

Salvador Cortez Rubio, surviving companion of the young Mexican student, pointed out Guess as the man who shot his friends on a trip from an Atchison, Kans., college to their homes but was unable to relate details of the shooting as he said he was standing in front of his parked car, blinded by its lights.

He denied the officers' story that they had informed him of their legal capacity and said he did not know if his friends had drawn pistols before Guess fired, as the deputies professed.

Previously solemn requiem mass had been sung for the slain boys in a little one-room Catholic church here, while students in Mexico formulated vigorous protests to the killings.

Heard Two Shots

Salvador heard only two shots fired, he said, apparently by Guess. The youth, 24 years old, said he and his friends arrived in Ardmore near midnight Sunday. They stopped at a soft drink stand for a sandwich but Gomez, suffering from malaria, did not leave the car. Gomez wore a blanket about his shoulders.

Leaving the stand they drove three blocks past a filling station, then stopped the car. Salvador said he left the car and went to the sidewalk. An automobile slowly followed their machine, he said, and stopped a little bit in front of the vehicle the youths were driving.

"Crosby got out and asked me what I was doing," Salvador said. "I explained and he told me to move on. He said nothing more to me."

Was Discussion

"Then I heard voices, a discussion between Crosby and my companions but I couldn't tell what was said."

Later, he saw Guess standing by the Mexicans' car. Crosby called to him to return to the front of his car.

"I asked Crosby what was going on but he probably didn't hear for he did not answer. When I was in front of my car I heard two shots and saw flashes. That was all I could distinguish. They were fired from the right hand side, apparently by Mr. Guess."

When the shooting was over, he stood for a moment, then Guess told him to come with him, he said.

Guess then searched him and handed him over to a city policeman who had arrived.

As he was taken past his motor car, he saw Emilio, his cousin, lying in the same position in the car in which he had left him. Gomez was lying just outside the car on the ground.

Breathed a Little

"I thought he was dead but some one pulled him two or three feet. I understood he breathed a little, then died."

He told the court he did not think either Emilio or Gomez shot. Neither he nor his companions had ever

Principals in Slaying of Mexicans

Left to right, Deputy Cecil Crosby, Sheriff Elmer Byrd and Deputy William Guess examining arms, claimed to have been seized after the killing of Emilio Cortez Rubio and Manuel Garcia Gomez, Mexican students, at Ardmore, Okla., about midnight Sunday. Below Salvador Cortez Rubio, who was with the two dead youths when they were fatally wounded by Guess. Emilio Rubio is a cousin of President Ortiz Rubio of Mexico. Salvador Rubio is also a relative of the Mexican president. Guess admittedly did the shooting, claiming the youths pulled guns when they sought to question them as they emerged from a parked car on an isolated Ardmore street. Both Guess and Crosby have been charged with murder. Salvador Rubio, the surviving member of the trio, said the officer did not reveal their identities, and denies his companions pulled guns.

SANTA ROSA ROBBERY HAS BEEN SOLVED

Jim Bryant, Emmett Rackley, and Onus Jackson Are Held; Latter Claimed to Be Fully Identified.

ONE IS CONVICT

Potter Sheriff Assists Officers of New Mexico in Tracing Men; Loot in Raid Totalled $8,000.

AMARILLO, June 10. (AP)—Jim Bryant and Emmett Rackley are in jail at Lawton, Okla., and Onus Jackson is held at Vega, Texas, all facing charges in connection with the robbery of the First National bank at Santa Rosa, N. M., May 12, Sheriff W. N. Thompson of Amarillo said today.

Jackson, who was arrested by Sheriff John Halliburton of Oldham county, has been in jail at Vega several days, and has been identified by employees of the Santa Rosa bank, officers said.

Bryant and Rackley were arrested at Lawton on information furnished by the Potter county sheriff, he said.

Bryant and Rackley were arrested several months ago from the penitentiary at Huntsville, where he was serving a 14-year sentence for bank robbery at Pampa in 1926.

New Mexico officers will go to Lawton to return Bryant and Rackley to Santa Rosa. Sheriff Thompson said he was informed today. A third man is held at Lawton as a suspect.

About $8,000 in cash and $40,000 in negotiable securities were taken in the Santa Rosa robbery.

Motions in Local Cases Overruled

Motions for rehearings in the cases of the City of Pampa against F. F. Todd and wife, and Melita LeFors against Emmett LeFors, were overruled by the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo, it was announced today. The court also overruled a motion filed by the city's attorney, Chas. C. Cook, for permission to argue orally the motion for rehearing.

Miss LeFors and the city have 30 days in which to try for a writ of error in the supreme court. If this is not done, action of the appeals court marks the end of the cases. In the trial court here, Judge Clifford Braly of the 114th district court instructed the jury to return a verdict in favor of the defendant, J. M. Shaw, giving Miss LeFors nothing.

The suit involved claims to Miss LeFors' share in valuable oil lands formerly owned by the LeFors family at LeFors. Newton P. Willis represented Miss LeFors.

A jury returned a verdict of $5,900 in favor of the Todds as against the city of Pampa. The suit grew out of the death of Mickey Todd, daughter, in an automobile accident in Pampa. The Todds claimed that their daughter's death was due to the negligence of the city in leaving open a ditch across a street. The case was tried three times in district court here before the appeals court affirmed the verdict three weeks ago. The amount of the last judgment was larger than that of preceding judgments.

W. M. Lewright was attorney for the Todds.

Identity Concealed—Charge Is Expected to Be Filed Today at Tahoka.

TAHOKA, June 10. (AP)—Arrest of a woman whose identity County Attorney G. H. Nelson would not reveal, and the prosecutor's indication that a charge would be filed this afternoon against an unnamed person, were developments in the unsolved shooting of Fred Chase, 33-year-old farmer of the Gordon community.

Chase was found dead late Tuesday in an automobile about a mile from his home. A bullet wound was in his head. He evidently had been dead since Monday night, J. K. Appiewhite, Tahoka undertaker, who brought the body here, said.

A woman was arrested last night in connection with the man's death and locked in the Lynn county jail here. That a suspect had been taken into custody was not generally known until this morning.

One shot had been fired from a .38 caliber automatic pistol found on the floor of the car beside Chase's body. A .32 caliber revolver was found in a door pocket of the automobile, investigators reported.

This Fish Story Gets the Ribbon

This is a fish story for those persons who don't believe fish stories, anyway.

L. P. Duvall, city employe, and family have just returned from a fishing trip at Lake Tulas. They caught enough fish to satisfy them—but that's not the story.

In telling his story to some cynical skeptics, Mr. Duvall mentioned that he used tobacco for bait and found it very satisfactory.

"You mean you used tobacco? Now look here, that's too much!"

"Yeah," answered Mr. Duvall, "and they liked it. When they came up to spit, I clubbed them over the head!"

POSSE WITH BLOODHOUNDS SEEKING KENTUCKY SLAYER

Revenge Killing in Mountains Is Aftermath to Recent Death of Fugitive.

SALVERSVILLE, Ky., June 10. (AP)—Revenge for members of his family having taken part in the search last week for Frank Johnson was blamed by Magoffin county officers here today for the slaying yesterday of David Wireman, 48. Wireman was killed by possemen after their guide, Brack Pinka, had been shot to death. Johnson was sought on an old murder charge, having returned to Magoffin county recently.

First reports reaching here last night from the Wireman home some 30 miles in the hills was that four persons had been killed, but Dr. Robert J. Gillespie, county health officer, returning here today, said that report had proved to be untrue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stroope visited at their farm near Laketon yesterday.

Judge Blythe Has No Favorites—Wife Is Assessed Fine

If you think Judge J. H. Blythe of the city police court has favorites that he won't fine, just ask his wife.

Recently, Mrs. Blythe drove up town, parked the machine and forgot all about it. But the traffic officer didn't. He watched it for two hours and then placed a ticket on the windshield. In police court her husband sternly regarded her.

She got off with a fine and a lecture.

Judge Blythe will dismiss over-parking charges against visitors to the city when he is convinced that they were thoroughly ignorant of city ordinances, but the docket shows he has no favorites when it comes to fining local citizens.

By RODNEY DUTCHER
WASHINGTON, June 10. (NEA).—Little sentiment has developed in the ranks of government for proposals of a five-day week in the federal service, but after July 1 nearly all government employees will be entitled to a Saturday half-holiday the year around.

Most of them have been working only four hours on Saturday since early March, but there remain the postal employees whose 44-hour week as voted by Congress goes into effect after this month and an undetermined number of government workers over the country who complain that they are not being granted their half-holidays because of the economy drive.

The new laws provide a longer and more enjoyable week-end, but it is doubtful whether they will relieve much unemployment. The 44-hour week for postal employees was provided in a law which authorizes the extra expense incurred through the fact that the system operates 24 hours a day, but President Hoover and Director of the Budget Reop have decided that the half-holiday for other employees must be arranged without incurring any expenses chargeable to deficiencies. In both cases, however, where employees are required by public interest as interpreted by their superiors to work on Saturday afternoons they are entitled to compensatory time off on other days of the week.

Complete enforcement of the four-hour Saturday law already would have provided a certain amount of new employment, but according to many complaints received by the National Federation of Federal Employees it is exactly in the instances where they would require extra help that the half-holidays are being denied. In Washington the law is being observed, but most government employees serve in the field and that is where the complaints come from.

Although Senator LaFollette and the postal employees' unions, in seeking the 44-hour law, used the argument that it would help absorb some of the unemployed, that prospect probably will not be realized to anything like the extent once expected. Orders have gone through the service that the four-hour Saturday must be absorbed through equalization on other days and without any addition to the payroll wherever possible. The department also has had a policy of failing to fill its constantly occurring vacancies whenever it can be avoided and of cutting down unemployment of its substitute workers. Postal employees' unions estimate that about 10,000 substitutes have been affected and that at one time about 6,000 vacancies remained unfilled. Any extra employment made absolutely necessary by the 44-hour law is expected to do little more than fill vacancies and employ the substitutes for longer periods.

About 185,000 postal employees are affected by the 44-hour law. The other half-holiday law covers about 65,000 workers in the District of Columbia and about 215,000 in the field. To these may be added 15,000 field employees of the interior department, excluded in the act but granted the half-holiday by executive order of President Hoover. About 10,000 Panama Canal employees and about 125,000 rural letter carriers and other field postal employees were not covered by either act.

Two members of the crew emerged from the submersible two and one-half hours after it had been struck by the Chinese coastal steamer Yuta and four others reached the surface more than three hours afterward, all through the Davis escape apparatus. They were picked up by boats from British warships, attached to the British Far East fleet.

"FREE DELIVERY SERVICE"

An analysis of the happiness of 770 cultured "typical wives," according to a report made today by Dr. Robert L. Dickinson, M. D., of New York City before the American medical association, meeting in Philadelphia, shows that one-half of this number are unhappy married. The news comes to us by A. P.

As causes of unhappiness, Dr. Robinson found that complaints about relatives, money, work, management of children and the home were usually secondary. Among the disqualified he found in many instances evidence of "some shock in childhood related to the sex side of life."

The physician found 250 seeking compensations that included the arts, religion, morals, culture, social pursuits, political causes, or assumption of family responsibility, worry over financial irresolvability.

Regardless of whether the report above may be exaggerated, it illustrates the importance of avoiding sex-boogaboos while instructing children.

HUGE PIPELINE PROJECT READY

NEW YORK, June 10. (AP)—The record for long distance transportation of natural gas has been broken with the arrival at Louisiana, Mo., of Texas Panhandle's gas, carried over a pipeline 637 miles from the Texas fields.

Brokaw Dixon, Carner and McKee, supervising the construction of the new $40,000,000 Panhandle Eastern pipeline, announced the line on its completion will extend over 1,000 miles. It will be the longest single unit pipeline in the world.

Some 75 cities and towns in Kansas, Illinois, Missouri, and Indiana will be served by the line which will have a daily capacity of 130,000,000 cubic feet of gas.

PARTY IS HELD FOR VISITORS

Walden Dickinson entertained yesterday afternoon in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Dickinson, to honor Wilma Gilkerson and Virginia Lyon of Panhandle. The girls are visiting Mrs. Nannie H. Carter.

Games were played and refreshments were served to the honor guests and Willie Isbell, Ethel Hamilton, Fay Compton, Helen Jo Laugherty, Christine and Walden Dickinson, Miles and Max Marbaugh, Lloyd Hamilton, Wayne Kelly, Bill Ragdale, Jimmie Cox, and Leland Basham.

Miss Dorothy Schilling has returned from a two-week trip to Oklahoma City, Norman, Maude, Fletcher, and Cyril, Okla.

Mrs. Adine Darnell and children motored to Amarillo last night. Harry Walker, Walter Brindeman, D. McWright, and Frank Wright went to Miami last night and attended a swimming party.

Speaking of marriages, there have been two girls to "retail" against two Turkish customs in Yugoslavia recently, one against the ancient custom of arranged marriages which bring profit to the bride's parents, and the other against the modern idea that a movie star must marry money or a title.

In Rina, four years ago an aspiring star, went to Berlin, where she fell in love with M. Georgevich, a young student from Belgrade. He still had his military service to carry out and was not wealthy, so marriage seemed impossible. Miss Rina, however, promised to wait for him.

When success came to the young lady, there were men with titles and money waiting to marry her. But no—when she learned that Georgevich had been given a modest position in a ministry at Belgrade, she married him on the morning of the orthodox Easter.

The other girl, Radmila Milojevich, lives far to the south in a region which remained under Turkish control until the first Balkan war, in 1912. An aspiring husband left a professional marriage agent to her father, and it was decided that the bridegroom would pay 7,000 dinars (about $140) to the girl's father. According to an old custom the girl was not to see her husband until the wedding day.

Radmila warned that her husband must be young and handsome, and this was promised.

When that day arrived a youth who was both young and handsome came to take her to the church. Her smiles indicated that she was satisfied with the husband her father had chosen. The youth accompanied her to the altar.

But just as the priest was about to begin the service the handsome youth slipped away and a very ugly man appeared in his place. Radmila took one look, turned and ran out of the church.

Will that be enough true fairy tales for today?

DESPERATE EFFORTS FAILING TO END DETROIT'S SLUMP

HARRIS GOES INTO CONTEST AS KEY MAN

But Shakeup Move Comes to Naught As Athletics Go on Rampage.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer. The plight of the Detroit Tigers has become a serious matter to followers of the team. Due largely to injuries to Dale Alexander and Charley Gehring, the Tigers have lost the greatest part of their batting punch and the work of the rest of the team has suffered accordingly. Today they had dropped to last place despite the desperate efforts of Manager Stanley "Bucky" Harris to pull them out of the slump.

Harris, who had not played as a regular since he came to Detroit, went into the lineup himself at second base Monday in one of his numerous shakeups and for a while in yesterday's game against Philadelphia he looked as if the move might have brought success. But young Tom Bridges weakened badly; Waite Hoyt, relief hurler, proved no better and behind them the Tigers committed four errors. As a result, the Athletics scored ten runs in two innings to win 12 to 3.

The victory did not increase Philadelphia's margin of leadership, however, for Washington defeated Chicago 9 to 3. The other two American league games were rained out.

Cincinnati, making a determined effort to climb out of the National league cellar, made it six victories in their last seven games yesterday by trouncing the Boston Braves 7 to 2.

New York accomplished the day's big killing as they took second place away from the Chicago Cubs with a 10 to 2 triumph. The league leading St. Louis Cardinals held their 4-2 game margin with an 8 to 5 victory over Brooklyn.

Philadelphia exchanged places with Pittsburgh in the standing, going into sixth with an 8 to 3 victory.

HALF GAME LEAD IS HELD BY BEAUMONT

Fort Worth Panthers Continue Luckless—Spudder Back-Stop Leads Attack.

By The Associated Press. After dropping a doubleheader to Houston Monday night at Houston, Beaumont returned home Tuesday afternoon and beat Shreveport 4 to 2.

This win allowed the Exporters to hold their one-half game lead in the Texas league flag chase. George Malicky turned in his sixth victory, cutting the Sports down with five hits.

If the Fort Worth Cats continue to lose, they are going to have to unmask another assortment of nine lives. Tuesday night at San Antonio the Cats again were knocked off the pennant fence, 8 to 4. The Indians got some clever pitching from Ralph Stein and Chief Euel Moore, and this, coupled with opportunistic hitting, gave the Alamo city Redskins an easy victory.

It was the same old story Tuesday night at Galveston for the Buccaneers who dropped their 41st game of the season by losing to Wichita Falls 9 to 3. White pitcher for the Spudders, and even though he was saving for 10 hits, he was never in trouble. The Buccaneers scored three runs in the last of the sixth as their only serious threat. Hungling, new Wichita Falls catcher who hit a double and home run Monday night against Fort Worth, led the Spudders' attack.

At Houston the Buffaloes pulled one out of the fire by scoring a pair of runs in the last of the ninth to not only beat the Dallas Steers 6 to 5 but to stay within half a game of Beaumont. George Murray and Tex Carleton were the opposing pitchers and both went the route with Murray the loser.

TRAPSHOOTING STARTS GALVESTON, June 10. (AP)—The 54th annual trapshooting tournament of the Texas Sportsmen's association drew toward a close today with the state handicap championship event the only major item left on the program. E. F. Woodward of Houston won both singles and doubles titles yesterday, taking the singles for the second year in succession with a perfect score of 200.

Chick Evans Is Bitter Toward New Golf Spheroid

CHICAGO, June 10. (AP)—Charles "Chick" Evans of Chicago, low score record holder for the national open championship, believes there will be a thunderous cry of protest over the new golf ball when the "big shots" try the northern courses. "Out on the Pacific coast and down south, the boys generally agreed the new ball was all right," Evans said, "but wait until they get up north here and battle the stiff courses and the stiff winds. They'll not be within several strokes of their games with the new ball."

TENNIS MEET IS RAINED OUT ON TUESDAY

Allison's Experience Is Proving Too Much For S. M. U. Freshman Star.

JUST WORTH, June 10. (AP)—Just a few days before the third annual Texas District Lawn Tennis association state championship meet here yesterday, stopping second round matches and making it impossible to start first round men's doubles.

It started raining at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and continued through a greater part of the night, and just when the remaining second round matches in the men's singles will start today was uncertain, play also was scheduled to start today in girls' singles and men's doubles.

Yesterday's rain stopped the feature match in the second set between Wilmer Allison, third ranking United States Lawn Tennis association player, and Johnny Maddox, Dallas freshman from Southern Methodist university. Ted Hackney driving Maddox, after losing the first set 6-0, steadied himself and when rain stopped the second set, Allison was leading 3-1.

"Doc" Barr, one of the high ranking boy players, was expected to give Allison a hard battle providing Wilmer comes through in his remaining sets against Maddox. Barr eliminated G. Gwin of San Antonio, 6-1, 6-2.

The first round matches, incomplete Monday, were completed yesterday without an upset, but in the second round, Lucien La Coste, University of Texas entry and a seeded player in this tournament, lost to Charles Ewell, former Texas Christian university player, 6-6, 6-3, 6-2.

The only other seeded player to go out yesterday was Ted Hackney of Fort Worth. Ted lost to Allen Gwynn of Fort Worth, 6-6, 6-3, 6-3. Hackney and La Coste were the only men in the seeded sixteen to taste defeat. Other seeded men such as Early Taylor, Austin; Barr, Dallas; Jake Hess, Fort Worth; J. B. Adams Sr., Dallas; Donald Longcope, Houston, were victorious.

The girls' singles scheduled today, are expected to develop some of the finest tennis of the tournament with stars like Mary Zita McHale, several times Texas champion; May Cuerstorf, Wichita, Kansas champion; Frances Polvogt, runner-up in the Dallas city championship last year; and Estelle Thevenet of Dallas.

Woman Goes To Court to Obtain Change of Diet

CHICAGO, June 10. (AP)—Most folks go to a doctor or dietician for a change in diet but not Mrs. Anna Fry. She went to court.

"We've had chicken for three days," she complained to Judge Alfred O. Erickson. "All the neighbors have had chicken for three days. Now we've got to have rabbit stew for three days. The neighbors don't like to do so well. Neither do we and we want Joe put in jail."

Judge Erickson was astonished. He asked for particulars and was told she was complaining about Joe Pokover, her brother. "But I can't put a man in jail for being a good provider," the judge pointed out. "I know," said Mrs. Fry, "but Joe and I had an argument and he went out in the back yard and hung the necks of my 30 chickens and 11 rabbits."

Great Rookie Is Hitting Again; His Slump Vanishes

NEW YORK, June 10. (AP)—Joe Voshik, just about the classiest rookie of the 1931 season, has Lefty Grove to thank for pulling him out of a batting slump a few weeks ago that was threatening to ruin his first season in the majors.

Joe came up to Cleveland this spring from a background of two years in slow minor league company and a boyhood spent on the Cleveland sandlots. For weeks the American league's crack pitchers couldn't get him out. He hit everything and he hit it for distance. He was the spring sensation; another Ty Cobb, a 400 hitter plus.

"Then one day," says Joe, a blonde, curly-headed kid of 21 with a nice smile that brings out two deep dimples in his cheeks, "I marched up there and I couldn't hit a thing. I couldn't follow curves and I couldn't hit a fast one if they laid it right on my bat. I was in a terrible slump."

"The tough thing about a slump," explained the big-fisted 185-pound youngster, "is that you haven't any idea what's wrong."

"I sat on the bench a while and then Lefty Grove came to town with the Athletics. The first two times I batted against him he blew the ball by me. I never saw anything like it. The only thing I could do was shorten my swing and punch at the ball. I barely pushed the bat into one of his fireballs and it bounded off the right field wall for a double. The next time I just met it again, another hit. The slump was over. I've been hitting ever since."

Ugly Oregonian Is Here to Show Clingman Tricks in Mat Business

A well dressed, cauliflowered fellow walking about Pampa streets is Farmer Vance, one of the ugliest men in the United States. He is Otis Clingman's opponent for the Majestic match of Thursday evening.

Vance is from Portland, Ore., which he describes as "a real city." He has been twisting ears for 20 years in all parts of the world. He is one of the cockiest wrestlers ever matched here, not excepting Jack Rose. His vast assortment of tricks, scientific and pugilistic, inspires this confidence.

Vance didn't want to come to a "small town" but agreed to do so after being offered a guarantee and given a stiff argument in regard to the local boy's prowess.

Farmer Vance will be the last home appearance before he starts a long tour to the Pacific coast. The wrestling golfer, or golfing wrestler, is in tip-top condition. Red Michaels will meet Tommy Thomas in the semi-final event.

FIRST BASEBALL GAME AT NIGHT WILL DRAW CROWDS

California Owls and All Stars of Pampa Will Clash at Gulf Diamond.

The best baseball talent in this community will be mustered tonight for the nocturnal contest with the traveling California Owls, 2-1-2 miles south of Pampa. It will be the first night game for this community, and will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

Manager Murray Freundlich of the Pampa All-Stars believes that his aggregation will be the superior outfit. He is going to use the pick of the proposed Panhandle league club and the Gray-Carson league.

McKinley, All-Star ace, will be in the box with the veteran Pullian receiving. The Owls carry their own portable lighting equipment which consists of aerial and ground lights which makes the ball visible at all angles. The Owls have been playing under the lights for three years and have some well known players on their roster. Miss Mary Novak plays first base for the Owls. She is the only woman playing baseball under the lights today.

A grandstand has been erected and the field will be roped off so that cars may park around the entire diamond. The team will arrive here early this morning and the lighting system will be erected immediately upon arrival.

J. B. Ricketts will call the balls and strikes and Buster Strickland will be on the bases. The All-Stars lineup follows: Coburn, 2b; Wells, 1b; Lister, cf; Honeycutt, 3b; Munds, rf; Hickey, ss; Fullian, c; Morgan, lf; McKinley, p; Fuller, p.

Chicago Banks Are Hit By Uncertainty

CHICAGO, June 10. (AP)—The Northwestern Trust and Savings bank, one of the largest of the northwest side, failed to open today as the result of heavy withdrawals the last two days.

Deposits as of March 25 were $14,000,000. The bank was one of the chain affiliated with the Foreman State National group, whose $200,000,000 in resources were absorbed Monday by the First National bank. Three other Foreman affiliates closed Monday, but one has since been absorbed.

The Second Northwestern State bank with deposits of $3,200,000, and the Lincoln State bank, whose deposits totaled $1,000,000, also closed today, making a total of 22 closed this week as a result of the uneasiness created by the absorption of the Foreman bank by the First National bank, the largest of the National Bank of the Republic with the Central Trust company.

KILGORE, June 10. (AP)—State rangers, headed by Sergeant M. T. (Lone Wolf) Gonzales, assisted Kilgore police last night in a surprise roundup of persons living in numerous camps in the river bottom here, as a result of which the city jail was filled with prisoners held for questioning.

One man arrested was identified by two victims as one of two robbers who participated in a series of holdups here Sunday night in which five persons were robbed.

MAY RAISE ALLOWABLE

AUSTIN, June 10. (AP)—A new oil production allowable for Texas probably will be set at the production hearing here June 22. The railroad commission announced the hearing date yesterday.

The present order under which Texas fields are operating will expire July 1. It allows production of 71-1/2 barrels daily for Texas, but the output has been considerably in excess of this figure as the result of East Texas overrunning its allowable 150,000 or 200,000 barrels daily.

THE MELLODY

Beryl Borcin, secretly in love with Tommy Wilson, delays his elopement with her half-sister, Irene Everett, but fails to convince him that it is his duty to finish college.

Later Irene postpones the marriage believing she is to become a radio singer. Securing an addition, she permits Beryl to go to the studio with her. While waiting Beryl sits down at a piano and croons melodies. One of the directors hears her and gives her a private test. He promises a contract later. Irene fails and is furious when she hears of Beryl's success. Time passes and no word comes from the studio. At last a letter comes and Beryl slips away for the interview. She is elated when presented with a contract. Her victory is bitter-sweet for her family and Tommy believe she robbed Irene of her chance. Beryl's debut is a success and she returns home laden with floral tributes.

Burning with envy, Irene decides to marry Tommy immediately by his own hand. She arranges the wedding and postpones. Mr. Hoffman, Tommy's uncle, wants a new house-keeper and offers inducements for an early marriage.

Success does not kill Beryl's love for Tommy, but she accepts invitations from some friends. When he calls, Irene greets him. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XIX

After the first flash of dismay in which Beryl realized that Irene had entangled Prentiss' admiration she wanted to laugh. Her victory wasn't funny that just when she made up her mind to encourage him she should find in Tommy's footsteps and succumb to Irene's shell of beauty?

Driving to the South Shore beach Prentiss in his black and chrome touring car, pondered the effect of this new conquest upon her sister's attitude toward Tommy. She could ponder undisturbed, for her companion had fallen strangely quiet. Was he thinking of Irene?

Beryl sighed, unheard against the wind that rushed against her face. There would be no problem for her to settle if Prentiss should transfer his attentions to Irene. She could slip back into her hopeless passion for Tommy. But did she want that? Perhaps a little effort on her part.

She moved closer to Prentiss. Beryl did not know exactly what she was doing. She'd never vamped a man. What would it lead to? How far did girls go and still have a retreat? What if she did not want Prentiss to care for her, to make love to her? What if he should do it and she found it abhorrent? Wasn't it cheap to lead a man on and then draw back? Hadn't he a right to feel offended when a girl did that?

All at once Beryl drew away from the man beside her. She was out of her depth and knew it. Prentiss heard her laugh and turned to look at her. "I'm a little rotter," she said to him. "I was trying to vamp you." "Yes, I know," Prentiss said. "Was I that crude?" Beryl asked.

Prentiss did not answer at once. Beryl was a new kind of girl to him. Not nicer than any girl he'd ever known, but astonishingly different. She brought new thoughts to his mind. "No," he said slowly. "I wouldn't say you were crude unless one judged you by crude standards. I should that that, without knowing it, you were being extremely subtle."

"I'm afraid," Beryl admitted, "that I don't understand." "I'm not sure that I understand, myself," he told her. "There's an idea among certain girls that they've an obligation to live up to all the things that have been said against the youth of today. When they go after a man it's something more than hammer and tong, tooth and nails. It's... well, never mind."

He paused and Beryl said: "Go on. Scold me. I deserve it." "They'd laugh at you," Prentiss declared, "but I've a notion that none of them ever got near the real thing, that thing that figured in the history of great loves. There must have been subtlety in that."

Beryl, embarrassed, attempted a joke. "Slow, but subtle," she said with an awkward little laugh. It was coming to her now, the reaction of her behavior. Fighting impulses had been a life-long habit with her. She wondered why she had given in to these two—first to act as she had and then to confess her error. Couldn't one be a fool about honesty?

Prentiss spoke, as though he had read her mind. "The queer part of this is that you did it," he said. "Why did you?" "The honesty in her nature, which Beryl had just been questioning, was still in control. It dictated her answer. "Because I often want to do things that I won't let myself," she said. "Was it just an impulse? Didn't you have a reason?" he pressed. Suddenly Beryl became suspicious of him. "Say," she asked, "are you trying to analyze me or something?" Prentiss laughed. "You're right," he admitted. "I have been studying psychology these past two years. But you'll have to admit that I have a personal interest in this case."

"Oh, then I'm a case!" she said. "You'd make a dandy study. You'd make a dandy study. Oh, no, you wouldn't either. You're not complex enough. You're as clear and definite as a blue flame!" Beryl made a face. "You mean you can see right through me," she interpreted and smiled at the thought. "Imagine the shock it would be to him to trace her impulse in question to its source and find that it began with another man! He was far too attractive to be without all conceit."

Prentiss' next remark gave her a jolt. "Of course you're struggling with obstacles between yourself and some man you're interested in," he asserted calmly. "If you thought necking a pleasure you'd have begun it long ago—when you were five, say."

"My goodness!" Beryl gasped. "You're not mercenary," he went on ignoring her exclamation. "I looked for him at first. You weren't after Dad's money and I'm sure you're not in love with me. You had a good start before I met you. That leaves only a man!"

Beryl settled back in her seat, a strange smile upon her lips. Tommy wasn't quite a fool, either, she thought. "Life itself is something of a jokester," she said softly. Prentiss, whose thoughts had been far afield, started. "What?" he asked.

Beryl did not answer. They had arrived at the cottage on the South Shore and some of Prentiss' friends had come out to greet them. Beryl was welcomed, literally with open arms, for them. She had more private conversation with Prentiss that night. When they left they had another girl with them, a girl who lived on the North Shore. Something had happened to her escort. Beryl didn't know exactly what.

She only knew that her hostess had asked Prentiss if he would mind dropping this other girl at her home. The girl was quiet on the drive and Beryl sensed that she was emotionally upset. Beryl was glad of her presence.

Had Prentiss forgotten Irene? Beryl wondered because when they danced together at the party he had seemed just as he was before seeing her sister. She had rather dreaded the drive home with him. It might be that second thoughts on her conduct while in the evening would give him a new set of ideas about her. He might attempt experimentation.

All that had been in her mind when she dressed that evening was gone, gone for good. In its place better to be again living only for Tommy. There in the world that she had created for just the two of them, dream world though it were, she was safe. Going back to it she felt she had new faith in herself. She didn't like having her mind cluttered up with changing emotions. It was painful to be hopelessly in love, but it was familiar pain, a dear pain, if there can be such a thing.

She was glad not to have to talk about herself with Prentiss and glad to have a third person present. She wondered what would happen when the other girl left them. Would Prentiss follow up whatever had come into his mind at the party and try to make love to her? No, it seemed that he had been merely caught in the feeling of the moment—which was one of adulation and flattery toward her. He brought her—a celebrity—to the party.

This he told her on the way home. Beryl felt a touch of scorn toward the young man. Still his was a natural attitude and he had been honest as well as extremely decent not to take advantage of her own leekdown.

When they reached her home and Prentiss said he was thirsty she felt that it was not a rust to stay with her longer, so she let him come in. There asleep on the sofa was Irene. (To Be Continued)

Thunder Storms Leave 4 Dead

By The Associated Press

Sporadic thunder storms in Texas Wednesday left a toll of four dead, 300 families in West Texas facing want because of ruined crops and several washouts on railroads and highways.

Three children of the Ras Puston family, living on Kemp creek near Turkey, in Briscoe county, were drowned Monday night when a sudden headrise flooded their home.

W. S. Harmon, 45, farmer living near Britton, Ellis county, was killed late Tuesday when lightning struck the barn where he was doing evening chores. The barn was razed by fire.

Lightning struck Jack Lewis, 23, near Paris, late Tuesday, as he ran through the rain to his automobile and knocked him out of his shoes, hurling him dazed but unhurt about 15 feet away.

J. Claude Wells, chairman of the Hall county chapter of the Red Cross, Wednesday awaited a reply from Red Cross headquarters in St. Louis to his appeal for relief for approximately 300 families in Hall and Briscoe counties, whose crops were ruined by torrential rains Monday night.

Longview Man Is Accidentally Shot

LONGVIEW, June 10. (AP)—Elben Farley, 32, was shot and accidentally killed last night at the home of his brother-in-law, J. A. McVay, 31, filling station operator, and McVay was held today pending an investigation of the shooting.

Officers learned that the two men were armed and guarding the McVay home against an expected assault from a third man, who was sought by officers on a charge of a shooting with intent to kill McVay and his wife less than two weeks ago.

McVay and Farley were on good terms and were working and living together while getting a new filling station in operation.

McVay reported that at 11 p. m. last night, he was dozing to sleep when he suddenly was aroused and saw the figure of a man in the doorway. He said he fired, thinking it was the third man, against whom he and Farley were guarding. Farley was shot in the back of the head and died instantly.

Final decision as to the location of the road within the city limits of Pampa is expected to be made by the officials and members of the right-of-way committee.

Markets

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

NEW ORLEANS, June 10. (AP)—Cotton here had a quiet but steady opening today. Liverpool cables came in much better than due and first trades showed gains of 8 to 13 points which was hardly a full response to the strength of foreign markets. Prices improved slightly more after the start, July trading up to 8.22, October to 8.97, and December to 8.89, or 9 to 14 points above yesterday's close.

Later in the first hour, the market eased off slightly, losing 2 to 5 points of the early gain, owing to expectation of a favorable weekly weather and crop summary, due this morning.

On cross examination he told attorneys for the officers he knew two automatic pistols, a shot gun and some ammunition were in the automobile. The pistols were owned by Gomez, who apparently was taking them home for some protection on the trip planning to sell them after he arrived. The party had planned to drive from Atchison to Fort Worth before halting for rest.

ARDMORE, Okla., June 10. (AP)—In a little one-room frame Catholic church here, requiem masses benefiting those of high standing was held today for Emilio Cortes Rubio, cousin of President Ortiz Rubio of Mexico and his student companion, Manuel Garcia Gomez, slain by a Carter county deputy sheriff here early Monday.

The last rites were held in St. Mary's Catholic church, which seats 200. Hundreds of persons crowded the aisles and the throng overflowed into the street.

Salvador Cortes Rubio, another cousin of the president of the southern republic, who escaped the gun fire, sat dry eyed through the service.

San Angelo Banker Dies At Dallas

SAN ANGELO, June 10. (AP)—Robert Massie, 64, who died in Dallas this morning, was a financial power in West Texas ranch circles for years. He was president of the Wool Growers Central Storage company here, having served since organization 22 years ago, a director in the Central National bank of San Angelo and in the Ozona National bank and president of the Robert Massie Furniture company.

Mr. Massie, a native of Scotland, stopped in Canada as a lad of 16 to work for the Grand Trunk line. He came to Texas, arriving at Colorado in 1883, and started work on a ranch, taking his pay in ewe lambs and building up one of the largest flocks in West Texas and achieving a seventy section ranch, the only one he ever owned.

When acute dissatisfaction developed with the wool selling system, Mr. Massie was instrumental in forming the Wool Growers Central Storage company.

ed them. The officers said they displayed their emblems of authority and that Guesz fired when the students drew pistols. Salvador Cortes Rubio said he did not hear the deputies say they were officers and he believed his companions mistook them for holdup men.

Of Prominent Families

The youths were on their way from the Atchison college to Mexico for their summer vacation. All came from families high in the social scale of that country.

MEXICO CITY, June 10. (AP)—Mexican students are preparing a vigorous protest against the slaying in the president of Mexico, and Manuel Gomez in Ardmore, Okla. The protest will be sent to the Federation of Students in New York.

La Prensa says students here are greatly excited by the tragedy but nothing will be done by them until the results of the investigation of this "brutal attack" are made known.

Editorial El Nacional praises the rapid steps made in the United States to bring the killers to justice, but La Prensa says the great publicity given the case and the apparent efforts to render justice were caused by the fact the victims were well known. If they had been unknown youths of equal character and gentility, the paper says, the incident would have been passed over.

Consuls Present

Consuls here to represent the Mexican government, Prosecutor Shilling, and Frank Dudley, assistant attorney general, were at the church to pay last tribute.

The bodies were returned to the undertaking parlors immediately after the services and prepared for their long trip to Mexico City. They will be accompanied by Charles Clowe, Ardmore geologist, and special representative of Governor Murray. They will leave shortly after 4 p. m. today.

City and county officials bore the caskets to and from the little church.

Emilio Cortes Rubio and Gomez lost their lives beside a residential highway shortly after midnight Monday when Guesz and Crosby, believing the youths' parked car carried armed desperadoes, accost-

Carson Boasts Big Road Surplus

In the three years following the voting of a million dollars worth of road bonds in Carson county in 1926, a total of $275,000 was accumulated in the sinking fund for retirement of the bonds when they fall due, Abner A. Callaghan of Pahrump, former judge of Carson county, said while visiting here today.

Mr. Callaghan mentioned that when the bonds were voted in 1926 the valuation of the county was $6,714,000. In 1929 it was $14,500,000, and last year was $16,500,000. "The farmers of Carson county hardly know they are paying a road bond tax," the former judge declared. "I would like for the people of Gray county to know the exact status of our road bond because statements purported to have been made by me and other Carson county citizens have been circulated in Gray county."

Judge Callaghan said that Carson county not only expects to take up the bonds when they fall due, but to pay off remaining ones in advance. He pointed out that if the sinking fund continues to accumulate accordingly, the issue will be taken up by the county in three more years.

NO OTHER cereal so crisp. Rice Krispies actually crackle out loud in milk or cream. Children love them.

And such flavor! The taste of toasted rice. A different treat for breakfast. Wonderful for the kiddies' lunch. So wholesome and easy to digest. Rice Krispies are handy to use in recipes. Take the place of nutmeats. At grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
