SECOND FLIGHT BEGINS

ONLY $20,000 RAISED UP TO NOON TODAY

Committee Pessimistic But Plans to Continue Solicitations up to Deadline Set by Denver Officials.

HUGE LOSS SEEN

Million Dollar Asset Available If Citizens Raise Fund to Obtain Terminal and Right-of-Way.

Pampa today was admittedly on the verge of losing the Fort Worth & Denver 114-mile railroad connection, regarded as a million-dollar asset, through failure of citizens to give the $60,000 necessary for purchase of right-of-way through Gray county and terminal facilities here.

Discouraged more by local indifference than by the fact that only $20,000 had been pledged at noon today, the soliciting committees could see nothing but failure ahead. Unable to produce the necessary funds, the group will be unable to give the Denver line the guarantee which is awaited, and upon which construction of the $4,000,000 project depends.

Merchants Lose Heavily
In calculating the road as a million dollar asset, the committee did not take into consideration the $700,000 expenditure for labor and supplies which will be lost to Gray county laborers and merchants. Furthermore, the saving of 10 percent in freight rates which would be effected through construction of another trunk line will cost shippers hundreds of thousands of dollars in the next decade.

The general better business tone which launching of the rail project would inspire would be worth more than the $60,000 asked by the railroad, it was pointed out. Another committee member, Lynn Boyd, showed that depreciation of property values by 1 per cent would cost more than the Denver asks. The city valuation is more than $7,000,000.

The future stability of the city, it is feared, hinges on the big rail project. The psychological effect upon both the citizenship and the Panhandle people generally would be highly advantageous were the road built, but pessimism is feared when the Burlington system, parent of the Denver, announces indefinite postponement of its Pampa-Childress project.

Roads Hard Hit
With rail revenues falling and rail bonds suffering from earnings of less than 3 per cent this year, the railroads are expected to abandon new construction for several years, excepting that proposed in the Panhandle. The Rock Island already has backed out of its Quanah-Shamrock proposition, and it is known that the Burlington directors at Chicago are for delaying the Pampa-Childress project unless the right-of-way deeds are donated at once by the various communities.

Other communities along the line are completing their drives, but Pampa holds the key to the situation and it is to this city that they are looking expectantly and anxiously. The local right-of-way committee had a desperate look on its collective face as it decided this morning to push forward until the time limit is up. Chairman Mel Davis and other members were frank in admitting, however, that the outlook appeared hopeless.

Company Houses Being Repaired in Pampa Territory

One of the first favorable results of the recent increase in the allowable production of oil and the move toward price readjustment became known yesterday when three major oil companies let contracts to carpenters to repair, paint and remodel houses which have been vacant since last fall. Company officials indicated that they were getting the houses ready for occupancy. It is believed that drilling activity will be renewed. Confidence that "things are going to open up in the oil fields in a big way pretty soon" is a conviction shared by managers of supply houses, drilling contractors and many operators.

Action of the companies in getting their camp houses ready for new tenants is regarded as a reaction to the decision of Phillips Petroleum company and several other purchasing companies to increase their Gray county purchases to 8,000 barrels daily. Phillips company, alone, is buying 5,000 barrels of crude daily. The allowable production of the Panhandle field is now 48,000 barrels. A flat rate of 30¢ per barrel is now being paid for oil by Magnolia. Before the raise in price, several companies were paying premium for Gray county oil which is now more in demand than it has been for over a year.

Oil Fires Are Raging Again In East Texas Area

By the Associated Press
Fire raged again last night in East Texas' oil fields.

At Overton, Frank H. Allison, superintendent of production of the Tulsa company, was seriously burned when the Frank O'Quinn well spouted oil and fire simultaneously. Another man, unidentified, who was thought to have gone to a private home for treatment, was known to have been burned. Allison was burned about the head, face, and body.

At Kilgore the Bell and Grady-Stumpff No. 1 was ignited by a boiler, and late at night flames, 150 feet in height, leaped above it. Workmen about the well escaped. No efforts were made last night to extinguish the flaming well. Owners expected to have them "blown" today.

The T. & P. well, 1,200 feet south-east of the Gladewater depot, in city block 49, blew over the derrick at daylight today. It came in Monday but stopped flowing and workmen began deepening it yesterday. The wind shifted early today into the northwest, carrying the gas fog away from the business district of Gladewater. Preparations were being made to bring steam from a boiler 1,000 feet distant, in an effort to cap the gusher.

Workers at the Bell & Grady-Stumpff No. 1 Daniels, two and a half miles west of Kilgore, ran for their lives in time to escape death when they saw a streak of flame shoot from the boilers toward the well, soon after the well was brought in. It was the first oil well fire here in which men had not been either seriously burned or killed.

Hundreds of spectators flocked to the scene today as the well spouted flames 200 feet into the air. It was estimated to be burning at the rate of 1,000 barrels of oil hourly. Dwellers in nearby houses had been ordered out.

The Gulf Production company and Shell Oil company volunteered to assist in fighting flames at the Bell & Grady-Stumpff well near Kilgore. The problem of extinguishing it was not expected to be so difficult as was that of the Sinclair No. 1 Cole at Gladewater, several weeks ago, because the well was more accessible and there were no tools in the hole. The Gulf-Spear well, 300 feet distant, was endangered.

Museum Drive to Match State Fund Planned Tuesday

A drive for obtaining funds to assist the state in building the proposed museum of the Panhandle-Plains Historical society at Canyon was discussed and planned at a meeting of the directors at Canyon yesterday, T. D. Hobart announced this morning.

Mr. Hobart said that every member of the committee was present. They are Dr. J. A. Hill, W. H. Patrick, Clarendon, Horace Russell, Amarillo; H. E. Hoover, Canadian, and Mr. Hobart.

Governor Sterling recently signed the bill appropriating $25,000 to assist in building the museum. It is the plan of the society to raise $10,000 by September when it is understood the state will be ready to begin construction of the building.

FOR 126 MILES Proposed Road Would Operate in Lubbock Territory to Serve Six Counties of South Plains.

WASHINGTON, June 24. (AP)—Examiner Weed today recommended to the Interstate Commerce Commission that it permit the Texas and Pacific Northern Railway company to construct 126 miles of railroad in the Panhandle section of Texas.

The examiner recommended construction of 80 miles of line from Big Spring to Brownfield and 46 miles from Lubbock Junction to Lubbock. The proposed lines would operate in Howard, Martin, Dawson, Terry, Lynn, and Lubbock counties.

He recommended that the commission disapprove of the construction of about 207 miles of additional line to operate from Brownfield to a point two miles beyond Vega, and from Dimmitt to Amarillo.

Wounded Girl Tells of Quarrel Concerning Dress

AMARILLO, June 24. (AP)—A sudden fit of insane rage culminating in an argument over a sleeveless dress his step-daughter was wearing was blamed today for the tragedy yesterday in which Alva Ray Loden, 29, beat and shot the girl, Josephine Mullen, and then killed himself. The tragedy was enacted at the Loden home.

Josephine, who is 13 years old, made a brief statement this morning to Dr. J. R. Wraether at the hospital, in which she told of the attack. The child has a good chance for recovery, the physician said, although she has been unconscious most of the time since she was found beaten and shot at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. She has severe lacerations on her head from blows with the butt of a rifle, and a bullet wound ranging through the side of her head.

"The girl told Dr. Wraether that her step-father had been despondent since he was released from the Potter county jail last week, after serving 30 days on a liquor conviction. He was jobless and was becoming more and more irritable, she said.

"Father seemed to get angry every time anyone spoke to him, she said.

Arthur Snideman Dies At Amarillo

Arthur A. Snideman, 57, died at Amarillo yesterday after a long illness, it was learned today. He is survived by his wife and son, Walter A. Snideman of Pampa, a salesman at Murfee's, Inc. He was also a brother-in-law of W. W. Merten.

CRANFILL PLAN MAY BE HALTED IF COOPERATION NOT IMPROVED

DALLAS, June 24. (AP)—Captain J. F. Lacey, chairman of the East Texas Oil Arbitration committee, said this morning that the Tom Cranfill plan for voluntary proration of oil production in the East Texas field probably would be withdrawn from consideration of the Texas railroad commission within the next 48 hours unless there was marked improvement "in the cooperation which we are receiving from producers in the field."

Trial of Deputy Is Begun

Bill Guess to Take Blame For Shooting Mexicans in Ardmore Affair.

ARDMORE, Okla., June 24. (AP)—Obtaining a severance, William E. (Bill) Guess, former deputy sheriff, accused of killing Emilio Cortes Rubio, cousin of the Mexican president, and his college chum, Manuel Gomez, went to trial alone for murder here today.

A jury panel which prosecutors said will not be qualified for the death penalty, was called and Judge John B. Ogden, of the Carter county district court, ordered missing veniremen arrested and brought into court.

Guess, who has taken full responsibility for the actual slayings on a residential street here June 7, sat beside Cecil Crosby, another erstwhile deputy sheriff charged with the murders.

Guess testified at the preliminary hearing he "shot from the hip," killing Cortes Rubio and Gomez at their parked motor car, "because they pulled a gun on me."

FRENCH REPLY TO DEBT PLAN IS READY NOW

PARIS, June 24. (AP)—The newspaper Intransigent today says that the main points of the French reply to President Hoover's war debts and reparations suspension are: (1)—Respect for the frame of the Young plan and return to this plan after a moratorium. (2)—Respect for the unconditional annuities. France proposes that the 612,000,000 gold marks (about $153,000,000) so represented be put at the disposition of the bank for international settlements.

The paper says that such a move would permit consolidation of German exchange and would serve to aid the Reich provisionally.

"In a word, France asks the Reich to make the unconditional payments but at the same time to profit by them."

WOMAN LOCKED IN VAULT AND IS STILL THERE

ROFF, Okla., June 24. (AP)—Two unmasked men today robbed the First State bank of Roff of an undetermined amount of money and escaped after locking Mrs. Fannie Tipton, assistant cashier in the vault.

Workmen at noon today were boring frantically through the walls to release Mrs. Tipton. A. M. Stewart, cashier of the bank, said the robbers hammered the combination lock after thrusting Mrs. Tipton inside.

J. H. Moseley of Waxahatchie is visiting friends here.

HILLIG AND HOIRIS ARE OVER ATLANTIC AS OTHER FLIERS TRAVEL TO BERLIN

Wiley Post and Harold Gatty Land Safely at Chester, England, Refuel and Take Off Again in Twenty Minutes—Former's Wife Gets News by Associated Press in Walters, Okla.

WERE 80 MILES OFF THEIR ROUTE

"Young Men in Hurry" Are Wasting No Time in Trip Around the World—Third Pair Plans Non-Stop Dash to Mexico City Before Attempting Ocean Crossing.

By the Associated Press
One team of ocean fliers reached Europe today and another team started out from Newfoundland hoping to duplicate the feat. Still a third team was preparing to leave New York non-stop for Mexico City.

Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, who left Harbor Grace yesterday, landed at an airdrome near Chester, England, early this morning and took off for Berlin.

Otto Hillig and Holger Hoiris took off from Harbor Grace this morning. Post and Gatty flew the ocean as the first part of their projected flight around the world. Hillig and Hoiris were on a non-stop flight to Copenhagen. Post and Gatty had expected to make Berlin their first stop and had fuel enough so that they thought they would stay in the air until mid-afternoon if necessary.

While the two ocean flights were still under way, Seth Yerrington and Edward Maloney began final preparations in New York for a non-stop flight to Mexico City as a "shakedown flight" preparatory to a flight across the Atlantic. They thought they might get away today.

CHESTER, England, June 24. (AP)—Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, "two young men in a hurry," on a flight around the world, landed safely at the Zealand Royal Air force airdrome near here this morning on a flight across the Atlantic, snatched a bite to eat and hopped off for Moscow via Berlin with the possibility that they might not even halt at the German capital.

"Hello, England, we've done it," said Gatty when their machine came to a standstill after a flight

HARBOR GRACE, N. F., June 24. (AP)—Otto Hillig and Holger Hoiris took off shortly after daybreak today on their trans-Atlantic "joy ride" to Copenhagen, Denmark. Their monoplane, the Liberty, roared down the flying field runway at 5:54 a. m., Newfoundland Summer Time, (2:24 a. m. Central Standard Time), swept gracefully into the air on the heaving shoulders of a brisk west wind, and headed into the rising sun.

The fliers had arrived at the airport 25 minutes before the takeoff. Their plane was being warmed up as they rode onto the field and a few minor details were taken care of while they waited for daybreak and the freshening wind.

Both seemed confident and Hillig apparently had suffered no ill effects from a cold he contracted yesterday while aiding the crew of the Winnie Mae, which preceded the Liberty across the ocean.

Hillig and Hoiris were about to climb into the plane and the crowd had already begun to wave goodbye, but the start was delayed several minutes while a taxicab was dispatched to the fliers' hotel for a forgotten package.

Needed the Wind
Everything finally packed safely in the monoplane's cabin, the two climbed aboard, leaning out a window, waved a cheery farewell to the small crowd of bystanders.

"Don't let that wind die down," was Hillig's parting shot. Hoiris, at the controls, smiled, gave her the gun, and they were off. They had 3,150 miles to travel before reaching Copenhagen and they expected to make the hop in 39 hours. Their monoplane carried 605 gallons of gasoline and 30 gallons of oil, sufficient fuel for 50 to 40 flying hours.

A gallon of water, a dozen oranges, coffee and bread—plenty to last us till we get there—comprised their provisions. The weather was auspicious. The last report they saw gave them clear skies on both sides of the Atlantic and reported a diminishing storm in mid-ocean. They hoped that the mid-ocean disturbance would have disappeared before they got far at sea.

On Third "Leg" of Their Flight to Denmark. They made an 800-mile flight from Teterboro, N. J., to St. John, N. B., last Friday to complete the first leg. The second leg, from St. John to Harbor Grace, was completed Monday.

SHAMROCK TO BRING BAND TO CITY THURSDAY

Shamrock's band of 30 pieces will play a concert of more than an hour here early tomorrow afternoon in connection with a trip advertising that city's July 4 celebration.

Led by Guy Hill, chamber of commerce secretary and drum major, the musical organization and trippers will stage a parade shortly after 1 o'clock. The band concert will follow, with the musicians on the east side of the city hall.

Mr. Hill told THE NEWS that his delegation was not going to make the usual hurried visit, but would eat lunch here and would remain for several hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Lawson have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smallwood and daughter, Betty Lou, of Rocky Ford, Colo., who will remain about a week.

Assets of the City of Pampa, March 30, 1931, total $1,387,291.20, according to the audit accepted by the commissioners yesterday from the H. V. Robertson Auditing company of Amarillo. Assets on the same date of the previous year were $1,874,740.31.

The bonded indebtedness at the end of the fiscal year in 1930 was $294,000, compared with $911,000 March 30 of this year. The net worth of the capital-surplus last year was $460,882.22 and this year was $694,000.43.

The audit shows that the total net revenue, March 31, 1931, was $34,017.46, after expenses were paid; although fixed charges, depreciation

ARE THEY SAFE?

The first question of Mrs. Wiley Post, wife of the round the world flier, when informed of the landing of Post and Harold Gatty at Chester, England, was "Are they safe?"

The Americans said they were about 80 miles off their direct course to Berlin and landed to get their bearings. They still had some gasoline in their tanks but refueled before leaving.

Not Fatigued
The crew of the Winnie Mae looked none the worse for their long flight across the Atlantic. They took a turn around the airdrome to stretch their legs, had a bite to eat, obtained weather reports and then, fulfilling their description as "young men in a hurry," climbed into their monoplane and set off for Berlin.

The airmen had about 700 miles to make between Chester and Berlin, where they planned to land at Tempelhof airdrome.

ON WORK FOR BOYS

Pampa children, or many of them, are idle. Supervised play would partly solve the problem of their idleness, and playgrounds will eventually be provided. Yesterday a father came to this newspaper and asked it to find something for his boy to do. "He is a reliable boy," said the father, "and I want to keep him that way. I thought that by placing him with a reliable business man he would be in good care during the day." It is not easy for a boy to find proper work and play in Panhandle communities far from creeks and old-fashioned farms with their myriad tasks. The wheat country offers little opportunity to keep profitably busy.—Pampa Daily News.

When business men take an interest in boys and try to help them, there is a chance for those boys to develop into manly men, honest, upright and industrious. On the other hand, when men pay no attention to the youth of the land, is it any wonder that boys go wrong?

But unfortunately at this time work is not to be had by men who are by no means bums. Good men, sober and industrious men, are doing any work that may be had in order to live. Under such conditions boys stand but a poor chance to get work. When times were good, older men had steady employment and were not on the waiting list for a job. Then the small boy had a chance to make a few dollars doing odd jobs. It is a hard matter now for boys to make their spending money and parents are not flush with coin, so the youngsters wander about aimlessly and try to find something to pass the time away. The evil one always finds work for idle

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

boys or girls. The problem is to give the boys and girls something to do that will be profitable and at the same time give the necessary outlet for youthful spirits.

The Boy Scout movement is a sure and safe remedy for idle, street gadding habits. Boy Scouts have an ample fund of activities to draw from that will prove interesting, entertaining and profitable, because the boys are being taught how to make themselves useful. The Boy Scout is on his honor to do right because it is right and no mother or father need worry about Boy Scout John Henry. For that reason business men in every community should sponsor the Boy Scout movement and stand behind the boys.

The old fashioned farm surely had a "myriad task" for boys and perhaps boys did not long for those tasks, either. There was too much work and too little play, but after all, it was the way of farmer dads to develop the working muscles of the old fashioned farm boy. And that reminds us of the old story of the little pup. A dog mother was seen to grab up her son and shake him so vigorously that he cried dogfully.

"What is she doing that for?" a visitor asked. "Don't know," grinned the owner of the dogs. "Guess she thinks that's the making of the pup."

Instead of shaking the boys, however, why not give them a lift on life's rugged road. Did you ever stop to think how much you, as a business man, are responsible for the kids of your own home town?

If you can not give the boys work, then give them some place to play. The pavement is no safe place for boys to play. Cars are too numerous for the safety of life or limb. Yet our boys must have recreation.

Ball is good sport, but who wants ball playing on the street? Too many plate glass windows that cost real money to replace when broken.

What a fine monument some man with land and money might erect to his memory if he should fix up a place for children to call their own, where they could play and be safe and happy.

What is land? What is money? After men die, they are soon forgotten.

But when they look out for the boys and the girls of their town, they will live even tho they have passed on to the place "where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest."

Now that the young people are home from school, it is time to begin to think of their future. And the question is often asked "Are you going back next year?" "Does it pay to attend college?" Parents often hesitate because money is hard to get and it takes money to finance an education. Yet the future holds more for the educated person that it does for the uneducated person. The young man with an education stands a far better chance to make good than the one without an education. The pick and shovel days are over. A young man today must have an education. He can not go out into the wilds and earn his living on the frontier, because the frontier no longer exists. He must compete with machinery. Therefore, the more he knows in a practical way, the better he will be prepared for his job of making a living for his family. So go to school and make good use of your time, young folks.—Higgins News.

The former emperor of China is reported taking vocal lessons. A Peiping event, as it were.

Radio waves, says a scientist, may soon be tuned in for heating purposes. When the time arrives some listeners doubtless will complain of cold receptions.

"All work and no play," as the actor sadly said when his show failed.

POST-GATTY

Chester, England, was: "Are they safe?" "Oh, I'm so glad. I think it's grand. I knew they would do it." Mrs. Post, reached by telephone at Walters, Okla., where she is visiting her brother, expressed her thanks to the Associated Press for the first news of her husband.

Gordon Post, younger brother of Wiley Post, expressed surprise when informed of the fliers' landing at Chester, England.

"I hope they are all right, but I am sorry they didn't reach Berlin."

BERLIN, June 24. (AP) — Wiley Post and Harold Gatty landed at Hanover from Chester, England, late this afternoon, refueled and left for Berlin an hour later.

I can't understand how they failed to make their goal."

Post is West Texan. ARLING, June 24. (AP) — West Texas lays claim to Wiley Post, who today was speeding to Berlin on a projected world-girdling flight against time. His wife, May Laine Post, whom he married in 1928, also is a West Texan.

Post, some 20 years ago when he was a barefoot lad, lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Post, on a farm 4 miles south in this county, and May Laine, then a 16-year-old girl, moved with his parents from East Texas to the Divide community in Nolan county, about 20 miles southeast of Sweetwater.

Post and Miss Laine met in Oklahoma, while she was living in Walters and he in Oklahoma City, and were married in 1928, coming into Texas for the ceremony, her parents said. She is now 22 years old.

Father and Son Are Reunited Here

Father and son saw each other for the first time in 20 years when M. M. Coolbaugh, local resident, shook hands with Roger L. Coolbaugh, his son, here Monday afternoon.

The son, his wife, and son, Leighton, arrived in Pampa from Niagara Falls, N. Y. They expect to make their home in this city. The son stayed behind when his father decided to go west many years ago. The younger Mr. Coolbaugh was impressed with "prosperous conditions and the optimistic spirit" here. "One can truly say that if he bears in mind conditions in the east," he said.

THEY CAUGHT FISH
Ivy E. Duncan and W. A. Bratton returned yesterday from northern New Mexico where they caught plenty of fish in the Red river, they reported.

Duncan said they did not bring any proof home and if they did "disbelievers and doubters would never see them. They can take our word for it." The two men left Sunday.

PUBLIC FORUM—

Editor, The News:
Rent seems to be the last thing to show signs of reduction, although it has always been too high to be coherent with good business principles. In many cases it is as high now as during boom days.

Everything else has been reduced, salaries, groceries, wheat, oil, and nearly every commodity the Panhandle has to sell except rents.

This condition is working a decided hardship on every one.

In most instances incomes have been so reduced that to collect the same rent as was collected two years ago is equivalent to raising it thirty-three and one-third per cent to fifty per cent.

Some of the more far seeing landlords have already reduced their rents thirty-three and one-third to fifty per cent, and all others should follow suit to keep in line with everything else.

Yours very truly,
CARSON LOETUS,
Secretary,
Pampa Business Men's Assn.

Miller on Trial on Theft Count

Charged with the theft of four sacks of cement from Mrs. Maude Jones, B. V. Miller is on trial in justice court before James Todd Jr.

The prosecution alleged in testimony presented by five witnesses, including Mrs. Jones, that Miller broke into her house in the Wilcox addition, took the cement and sold it, appropriating the money to his own use. Miller took the stand in his own defense just before noon. The case was delayed at 1:30 p. m., until late afternoon so County Attorney Sherman White could represent the county in a sanity hearing before Judge S. D. Stennis.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CULTURE CLUB FORMED TUESDAY

MRS. L. N. McCULLOUGH CHOSEN PRESIDENT—AMERICA IN THE FINE ARTS IS TO BE STUDIED

Organization of the Twentieth Century Culture club was perfected Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of charter members in the home of Mrs. Tom E. Rose, new president of Pampa's first Twentieth Century club. Including the new group, there are three Twentieth Century clubs in the city.

The executive board will be composed of the following officers, elected Tuesday: President, Mrs. L. N. McCullough; vice-president, Mrs. P. Ewing Leech; secretary, Mrs. Will R. Saunders; treasurer, Mrs. Carl E. Boston; parliamentarian, Mrs. E. C. Will; reporter, Mrs. Olin E. Hinkle.

Those named above, and the following other members attended the meeting: Mesdames M. W. Lewis, L. L. Sone, Neal Powers, J. T. Glover, H. D. Keys, R. M. Bellamy, two visitors, Mrs. Clyde Peak of Greenville and Mrs. E. W. Mitchell of the Twentieth Century club, and the hostess. Although they were not at the meeting, Mrs. W. C. deCordova, Mrs. A. G. Post, and Mrs. T. F. Morton also are to be charter members of the club.

The women chose for their consideration during the coming year a miscellaneous program on America in the fine arts. In addition there will be a federation program, a Bible program, a Texas day program, and a George Washington program. The group also will hold one open meeting, probably a breakfast in the fall, when a miscellaneous program will be given.

Program and details will be completed by the yearbook committee, consisting of Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Boston, and Mrs. Powers. Mrs. Will was named chairman of the constitution and by-laws committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. Leech, Mrs. Lewis, and Mrs. Keys.

The sweet pea was selected as the official flower and the rainbow hues as official colors.

Mrs. Boston will be hostess to the club at the next meeting, the first Tuesday in August.

The Rev. J. W. Watson of Lubbock, executive secretary of the Northwest Texas conference, will be in general charge of the meeting. Devotional will be led by the Rev. W. M. Murrell of Clarendon, presiding elder of the Clarendon district. Some interesting talks will be "Why a District Federation of the Adult Division," the Rev. J. O. Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, former president of the Business and Professional Women's club, was honored by that organization with a lawn party at the home of Mrs. F. P. McSkimming, Empire Booster station, Tuesday evening.

The spacious clover lawn when lighted was a beautiful spot to spend the informal supper hour. Sandwiches, salads, fruit, cakes, pies, lemonade, and ice cream were included in the bounteous meal, and on one green-frosted cake were the letters B. & P. W.

During a business session after supper the group voted to continue meeting during the summer, and officers for the new year were introduced.

Mrs. McSkimming, speaking for the club, presented Mrs. Mitchell a fountain pen and pencil set. Members present were Mesdames Lillian McNutt, Frank Foster, Frank Allison, Mabel Gee, M. P. Downs, H. E. ## Some FEMININE Fancies

By HOLLYCEE SELLERS HINKLE

Pampa's reputation of being active in club work was strengthened yesterday by the organization of the Twentieth Century Culture club. Although the primary purpose of the organization is cultural study, the group also looked forward yesterday to some significant social activities. Members chose the sweet pea as their flower and rainbow hues as their colors. Such a combination has interesting possibilities in entertaining.

Read this: "Glasgow—Scotland has nearly 200,000 women whose marriage prospects are dim. There are that many more women than men listed in the latest census returns, namely 2,516,887 against 2,323,887."

We congratulate any girl of Scotland who is able to keep a "date book."

True to our promise, we will give you some pointers on bridal bouquets today.

An NEA service writer reminds us that sentiment is the most important thing in connection with the bridal bouquet and refers to Colonel Lindbergh, who stepped into the garden and picked Anne's bouquet with his own hands.

The writer described four types of bouquets.

First, there is the arm bouquet which consists usually of a sheaf of white Calla lilies or sprays of yucca blossoms, white peach blossoms, or other sprays.

Second, there is the shoulder bouquet, which consists of a loosely arranged group of any type of blooms with ribbons trailing from it, each ribbon holding other flowers of the same kind. One pretty shoulder bouquet is an all-white arrangement of orange blossoms, lilies of the valley, and white violets.

Another type of bouquet is the old-fashioned nosegay, usually built up in a conventional design with color among the white flowers to give a bit of pattern, always backed by lace paper or tulle.

The last type mentioned is the relatively small corsage or shoulder bouquet which the bride wears when she prefers to carry her prayer book. This type is lovely when formed of two pale lavender orchids and a few sweetheart roses.

AMERICAN LEAGUE ROCKIES ARE BRILLIANT YOUNGSTERS

CRONIN AND CHAPMAN DO GREAT FEATS

Letter Has Specialty of Stealing Bases—A's Lead Is Reduced.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR. Associated Press Sports Writer. Two of the season's outstanding stars in the American league this year are a couple of young players who hardly have been in the circuit long enough to know their way around it. Joe Cronin, husky young Washington shortstop, came up to the Senators in the middle of the 1928 season and did not really begin to shine until last year, while Ben Chapman of the New York Yankees was a newcomer in 1930.

Cronin leads the league in batting in runs, in total hits, and in clutching triples. He is well up in the batting averages and is fielding brilliantly. Chapman, only a fair infielder who batted a little better than .300 last year, also is hitting along with the best and has made a specialty of stealing bases. The Yankee youngster stole three sacks in the second game yesterday as his chief contribution to New York's double victory over the Chicago White Sox. Chappie also made three hits and batted in four runs as the Yanks won 8 to 6 and 9 to 4.

Cronin helped the Senators take a pair of games from Detroit by hitting three times, batting in four runs and figuring in four double plays. Washington had an easy time winning the first game 10 to 3, but they played nine scoreless innings in the closing duel before batting around in the tenth to win 4-0. The twin victory enabled the Senators to reduce Philadelphia's lead 72 1-2 games as the Athletics got only an even break with St. Louis. Bob Grove pitched the champions to a 3 to 0 victory in the first game but the Browns, badly outlit, lasted to win the 12-inning second game, 5 to 4.

Cleveland stole some of the thunder from the American league leaders, who have been specializing in pitching, by sending out two moundsmen who pitched shutout ball against Boston. Clint Brown held the Red Sox to five hits to win the first game 13 to 0, then Willis Hudlin improved on the performance by granting only one hit as the Indians took the second 10 to 0. Only one double header was left when the weather got through with the National league program and in it Cincinnati overwhelmed Boston. Red Lucas turned in a three-hit pitching job to win the first battle, 3 to 0, then Larry Benton gave Cincinnati some more effective pitching and the Reds won, 8 to 4.

FIGHTERS ARE HIT HARD BY THEIR MATES

Both Principals in Coming Event Have Plenty to Do in Exhibitions.

CONNEAUT LAKE PARK, Pa., June 24. (AP)—Max Schmeling's chin is just another chin to Natie Brown, San Francisco heavyweight, newest sparring partner for the world's heavyweight champion.

The California heavyweight made his first appearance in the ring against Schmeling yesterday, and without exception, their bristling two rounds was the best of the current training drive.

Brown more than made good, giving the champion his best workout. He rattled left hooks and right crosses off Schmeling's chin to the delight of 1,900 spectators. Schmeling, a slow starter, warmed up to his work in the second round, and seemed to get Brown's measure. They say the champion did not unload his real dynamite at any time against Brown, but is certain to do so before the end of the week. The critics are curious to see what will happen, because Brown has a decision over Max Baer, has fought Larry Johnson, the Chicago negro, and is considered a capable ring man.

A New Playmate
GEAUGA LAKE, O., June 24. (AP) Bill Stribling has a new heavyweight playmate, a pudgy fellow named Frank Cawley of Wilkes-barre, Pa., and if their first training set is any indication of the kind of workouts to come, the southern challenger for Max Schmeling's heavyweight title is in for a few busy evenings.

Cawley, a stablemate of Tommy Loughran and a bower with a style faintly reminiscent of the Phantom of Philly, hove into camp here for the first time last night and immediately engaged Stribling in a two-round workout. He was fat but he was clever, and Bill discovered immediately he could not belt Frankie around as he has the less experienced youngsters who have contracted to prepare the Pride of Macon for his 15-round match with Schmeling in the Cleveland municipal stadium the night of July 3. Occasionally Stribling nailed his new spar mate with left hooks but he had hardly any luck at all with a straight right to the head, a punch he has been neglecting in favor of development of his left. And Cawley, who has beaten such fellows as Tom Heeney, Jack Gagnon, and Frankie Simms, slugged back quite merrily. He even borrowed Schmeling's best punch, a straight right to the head, and clicked it full on Stribling's ear on one occasion. Stribling wasn't up to the form he showed in a brilliant workout Sunday night.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press.

Bob Grove, Athletics — Held Browns to two hits, struck out six to win, 3-0, in first game of double header.

John Schulte, Browns—Singled in 12th to drive in run that beat A's in second game.

Ben Chapman and Tony Lazzeri, Yankees—Stole three bases apiece, twice on double steals, in second game of double header with White Sox.

Willis Hudlin and Clint Brown, Indians — Former stopped Red Sox with one hit, latter with five, as Indians won double header, 13-0 and 10-0.

Red Lucas, Reds—Blanked Braves with three hits, 3-0.

Fred Murrberry, Senators — Outpitched George Uhl to give Senators 4-0 triumph over Tigers.

Illinois counties will spend about $15,000,000 for highway purposes this year in construction of more than 900 miles of roads and 152 bridges.

A bill in the Wisconsin assembly would prohibit utilities from selling merchandise, such as stoves or refrigerators.

Mrs. Stafford and Mrs. English Are in Feature Match of Dallas Tourney

BY BILL PARKER

Associated Press Sports Writer DALLAS, June 24. (AP)—Featuring today's second round combats in the first annual Texas Women's State Municipal Golf association tournament was the Mrs. W. T. Stafford and Mrs. J. R. English Setto.

Mrs. Stafford, medalist Monday with an 89, yesterday eliminated Mrs. J. Dunagan of Dallas 8 and 6.

Mrs. English, current Dallas municipal champion, defeated Mrs. H. H. Clark of Dallas 7 and 6.

Another promising exhibition today was the match between Mrs. F. C. Roehon of Wichita Falls, one of the state's best shot makers, and Mrs. Bess Henderson of Dallas. It was Mrs. Roehon who left the first tee against Mrs. Don Zepernick of Dallas and riddled the Tension course with a medal score of 40, three over par, and finished her match at the tenth green, winning 10 consecutive holes to beat Mrs. Zepernick 10 and 8.

Two of the three out-of-town players who qualified in the championship bracket were eliminated yesterday. Mrs. W. Sikes of Amarillo lost to Mrs. J. D. Owens of Dallas, 5 and 4. Mrs. A. D. Stovall

A new club has been organized on the campus of the West Texas State Teachers college. The Palo Duro Hiking club is open to the entire student body and faculty, the only requirement for membership being a love for the out-of-doors. The initial outing of the organization was held last week when 99 fishermen wandered optimistically up and down the banks of a stream near Canyon. The membership of the club has grown until it is one of the largest organizations sponsored by the college, although it is only a week old.

THE MILD GIRL

By Ruth Deane Groves
BEGIN HERE TODAY
BERYL BOREN, secretly in love with TOMMY WILSON, delays his elopement with her half-sister, IRENE EVERETT, but fails to convince him that it is his duty to finish college.
Irene is jealous when she ails and Beryl succeeds in securing a radio contract. Beryl's debut wins applause and new friends but she cannot forget her hopeless love though she goes to parties with wealthy friends. Irene learns that Beryl is gay and tries to win him from Beryl. He is susceptible, takes her driving and to dinner.
Tommy's aunt dies and she loses both money and job through her husband. Tommy tells Irene of his bad luck and she breaks their engagement. When Prentiss asks her to marry him she accepts, fearing a quick marriage, fearing Prentiss will discover her deceit as she has told him it is Beryl whom Tommy loves.
When Irene dismisses Tommy, he yields to despair and drinks heavily. Beryl finds him and tries to cheer him up. She tells Irene she must either renew her engagement with Tommy or inform Prentiss how she has treated him. Irene promises but plans to outwit Beryl. She receives a telegram from Prentiss asking her to marry him immediately.
NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXXI
Mrs. Everett agreed that Irene's plan for frustrating Beryl's attempt to prevent her marriage to Prentiss was perfect. She helped Irene to dress with unusual care, and gave her all the money she had available in the house.
Irene stayed in her room until Prentiss called and then she went down to him immediately so that he would not talk with her mother when he found her in the room where Beryl might overhear.
Irene affected extreme agitation. She wanted Beryl, if she knew her, to think she was upset over her coming interview with Prentiss. To Prentiss she explained nervously that she wanted to talk to him alone—her mother had left the room when Irene entered it, as the two had arranged. She wanted to "go somewhere and talk with him."
"But don't you want me to speak to your mother—to tell her that we're going to be married?" Prentiss protested.
Irene smiled vainly at him. "Not yet—please," she begged. "I have something to tell you first."
"All right," Prentiss agreed, "but you know you said I'd asked your mother? He laughed. "What an old-fashioned sweetheart you are!" he exclaimed happily.
Irene took his arm. "Let's go," she said, and ushered him toward the hall. Prentiss became serious. "Is there something wrong?" he inquired anxiously.
"I tell you," Irene said, loud enough for an eavesdropper to hear. In her voice was a hint of tears and trouble, that ought, she thought, to satisfy Beryl that she was on her way to sacrifice herself.
Prentiss helped her tenderly into his car, his hopes at the moment less buoyant than ever they'd been before.
They had not driven far before he told her he'd have to know what was on her mind. Irene had been entirely wordless during the drive.
"It's mother," she said, as though with great reluctance. "She thinks we ought to have a fancy wedding. I'm all tired out arguing with her. The sensible thing is for us to be married quietly and go back to Oakdale right away, as your father wants you to."
"Then she doesn't object to your marrying me?" Prentiss asked eagerly.
"Well—she said she'd like us to have a longer engagement."
"I don't believe in long engagements," Prentiss stated firmly.
"I couldn't have any kind of wedding at all here at home," Irene said wistfully, "without inviting hordes of people. We know everyone 'in town."
Prentiss had visions of such an occasion. "Can't we be married all by ourselves?" he asked.
"I think that would be the loveliest way," Irene agreed.
"I've got to leave day after tomorrow at the latest," Prentiss informed her. "In fact I should leave tomorrow. Dad wouldn't send for me if he didn't need me. There was a threatened strike at the factory

When I left and I'm afraid it's been called."
"Mercy! Can you handle strikes?" Irene breathed fervently.
"Well," Prentiss said, "I have ideas that fit in between those of my dad and the labor leaders. But he added hastily, "Will you marry me today, Irene?"
"Today?" she gasped. "Oh, Prentiss—no before tomorrow!"
"Why not today?" he insisted. "Now! You look like a bride. Let's drive right into the city. We can have it over at the city hall in no time. Of course, if you'd prefer a church—"
"But today!" Irene gasped anew. "Doesn't it appeal to you?" he asked. "To me it would be a great thing to do it. I think people miss a lot by delaying in order to make preparations. Just think—you left the house for a drive with me—you were Irene Everett. Wouldn't you get a kick out of going back as Irene Gaylord? A sort of surprise for yourself, you know. And it would make the whole thing so much easier for me."
Irene hesitated at him. He was not the lover of the night before. He was thinking of convenience—of business convenience. Well, she didn't mind, but she'd like him to be more ardent before she gave in to him. He'd never be so ready to neglect her then.
She would not yield until Prentiss had duly coaxed her. She knew, while he was about it, that he was headed for the city, but she did not protest. Soon after she consented to marry him they reached the Queensboro bridge.
The great city's northern towers spread out before her in a magic mist. It did not seem possible they could be so real. But Irene did not look long at them. It takes some minutes to cross over the Queensboro bridge and it is always a thrilling experience to those who bow to achievement. Irene's vision was filled with pictures of herself as the bride of a rich man's son. The towers of Manhattan, as seen from the bridge were out of her sight before she had given them a second thought.
"Drive down Fifth avenue," she said and Prentiss obliged her. Their progress along the world-famous street, halted at intervals by the traffic regulations, was like a trip to a fashion exhibition to Irene. There was a dress she could buy tomorrow—displayed in a window with all the accessories for a perfect costume. She could walk in and buy a lot. No asking of prices. And there was smart traveling equipment. She could have a case with solid gold fittings.
But it was not these things that brought on the fever of anticipation which had seized her. As they neared the corner where the famous jeweler's establishment which bears no identifying sign on the building is located she put a hand on Prentiss' arm and looked up at him like a child who sees a big platter of cakes.
"Don't you think we ought to get the wedding ring now?" she breathed softly.
"I'm glad you thought of it," Prentiss told her, and turned into a side street at the next corner.
Buying the wedding ring naturally led to buying an engagement ring. Irene was disappointed over the size of the solitaire. She wished she hadn't been so hasty, telling herself she might have known that Prentiss' funds would be low at the end of a season. If she had waited until they reached Oakdale she'd have been able to order what she wanted. Prentiss surely would let her have accounts wherever she liked. Well, an engagement ring was only the beginning.
She waited quite so efficaciously the rest of the way to city hall as she had been before they bought the rings, but Prentiss thought her slight withdrawal from his side the result of increasing shyness, and loved her the more for it.
Presently her hopes vanished, displaced by the golden promise of the future that lay before her.
She was radiant enough during the marriage to satisfy Prentiss that she loved him. He kissed her with everyone watching, not the wedding kiss, but another. Irene was thinking that she must get an armful of orchids—yes, an armful—to take home. They would help to impress Beryl.
The two witnesses to whom Prentiss had telephoned from the jew-

BEAUMONT IS PRESSED FOR HIGH PLACE

Split Season Is Only Seven Days Away - Houston Stages Retreat.

By the Associated Press. One game and a half in front with the probable split season only seven days away was Beaumont's view of the Texas league flag...

Probably the most important game was the Dallas and Houston affair in which Grady Adkins, Dallas right hander, limited the Buffaloes to three hits for a 3 to 1 decision.

At Wichita Falls, the Spudders had to wage a stubborn defensive game to retain an early lead that eventually beat Galveston, 5 to 4.

NOTICE TO PAVING CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals will be received by the City Commission of the City of Pampa, Texas, at the City Hall, up to 2:30 p. m., Tuesday, July 7, 1931, for the construction of certain Ripley street improvements...

Hornsby Asserts His Team Just "Getting Started"

NEW YORK, June 24. (AP)—Roger Hornsby, taciturn boss of the Chicago Cubs, views the situation with much the same equanimity as the youngster whose team was trailing 23 to 9 in the first inning.

"We're just getting started," Hornsby declared when encountered in the Commodore lobby. "Hack Wilson, our big punch, has snapped out of his long slump, all of us are beginning to hit and my pitchers are rounding into form. From now on I think we will be pretty tough."

"Another thing, we've been on the road most of the time since the season started, while the Giants and others have had long home stands. That isn't a good thing for a club that's having trouble getting started. After this trip it'll be our turn to play a lot of ball at home and it will make a difference."

There is no doubt in Hornsby's mind of the teams he has to beat. The Giants and the Cardinals have shown him enough to convince him they are of championship caliber and he makes no distinction between them.

Markets

COTTON UNEVEN

NEW ORLEANS, June 24. (AP)—Cotton here had rather a nervous and erratic opening. Liverpool cables were about as due but there were conflicting reports current over the attitude of France to the Hoover international debt proposal.

First trades were for one to three points down, but the market promptly rallied to 9.91 for October and 10.15 for December, or 2 to 4 points above the opening prices. Later in the first hour, prices eased off to 9.83 for October and 10.05 for December or 7 to 8 points below yesterday's close.

At the end of the first hour the market was quiet and steady with traders anxiously awaiting details of the French reply.

GRAINS IMPROVE

CHICAGO, June 24. (AP)—Influenced by reports that France had accepted President Hoover's moratorium proposal, grains averaged higher early today. Upturns, however, were checked by word that France's acceptance was conditional.

Opening 1-4 cent off to 1-2 up, wheat later held near to the initial range. Corn started unchanged to 1-2 higher and subsequently showed firmness.

Princeton Star to Defend Golf Title

CHICAGO, June 24. (AP)—The pursuit of George Dunlap's National Intercollegiate golf championship began today in earnest. The slender, blond Princeton star faced the uncertainties of two 18-hole matches today in competition with 31 of the nation's best college golfers to retain his crown when the tournament ends Saturday.

Dunlap's first assignment was O'Hara Watts of Southern Methodist university, who qualified modestly with a 36-hole total of 156 strokes. The champion scored a 72 yesterday for a two-day total of 156, fourth in the field.

Only Jack Deese and Sidney Noyes of Yale, and Randall Albern of the College of the City of Detroit were ahead of him. Reese had two 73's for 146 while the others had 149. Noyes, like Dunlap, had a 72, lowest 18-hole score of the tournament.

FAULTY PROCEDURE CITED

AUSTIN, June 24. (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeals today reversed and remanded the case of W. A. Schafer, convicted in Dallas county of the murder of Dorothy Jones and sentenced to 99 years in the penitentiary. Faulty procedure following retirement of the jury was given as ground for reversal.

American Pros Are To Battle Over 18 Holes

SCIOTO COUNTRY CLUB, O. June 24. (AP)—An un-billed act in Sir Walter Hagen's three-ring golf circus was scheduled at Scioto today and last place of young American pros battle over 18 holes for the tenth and last place on the Ryder cup team that meets the British expeditionary forces Friday and Saturday.

The three are Henry Cucl, Bridgeport, Conn., Denny Shute, Nevada, and Frank Walsh, Chicago. They tied at the end of the 72-hole qualifying round yesterday with a 302.

The names of Wiffy Cox, Brooklyn shot maker; Billy Burke, New York, and Craig Wood, Buffalo, were added to the American team yesterday. Burke led the field home with a card of 278 and Cox was second with 282 while Wood trailed for third by four strokes.

Highway Contracts Are Withheld in Four Projects

AUSTIN, June 24. (AP)—The state highway commission yesterday concluded its two-day letting of contracts for highway projects with awards totaling $3,756,948. The total for the two days would have exceeded $4,000,000 had not the commission withheld award of contracts on four projects.

Contracts awarded called for improvement of 351.5 highway miles of which 103.7 was concrete paving and 202 grading and drainage structures. Contracts for 28 bridges, mostly of the smaller type, and four railroad overpasses were also awarded.

The four contracts withheld were in Kimble, Houston and Anderson, Wheeler, and Erath counties. The Kimble county project was withdrawn to permit revision of plans. The Wheeler county project was withheld at the request of J. W. Zempfer of Amarillo, low bidder, who asked to withdraw his bid because of error.

Failure of the county to supply sufficient right-of-way caused the commission to cancel bids on grading and drainage structures on highway 67 in Erath county. The fourth contract withheld was for paving on highway 19 in Anderson and Houston counties. It was withheld at the request of the Columbia Construction company of Indianapolis, Ind., low bidder.

The average contract price on the projects was slightly more than 21 per cent below engineering estimates, reflecting the lowered price of construction materials. I. R. Lister is the new manager of the Magnolia filling station at the intersection of South Cuyler and Barnes street.

Next Institute of Teachers Is Set

The Panhandle Teachers Institute will be held at Canyon Sept. 3-5, according to John B. Healey, county superintendent, who attended a meeting of the executive committee yesterday at Canyon.

The institute will be attended by all teachers in Gray county this year, it was announced. Last year, teachers in the city schools did not attend the institute. R. B. Fisher, superintendent of local schools, was appointed conductor of the superintendents and principals department. The institute will convene at 1:30 p. m., Sept. 3, and will close at noon, Sept. 5. Josh Lee, head of the public speaking department, University of Oklahoma, will also be one of the speakers.

SHARE PRICES ARE ADVANCING STEADILY NOW

NEW YORK, June 24. (AP)—Share prices came back with a rush on the New York Stock exchange today, climbing $2 to $12 in a broad and active buying movement that pushed quotations generally above the high levels of Monday.

Although Wall street heard reports that the French cabinet's reply to President Hoover's moratorium proposal contained various conditions of acceptance, the strength of foreign markets indicated that the spirit of optimism had not been dulled and bullishly inclined traders here went to work enthusiastically.

News of an increase in cigarette prices to jobbers, in which the leading manufacturers participated, stronger markets for copper and lead, declaration of the regular dividend by Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company and reports that the oil situation in the southwest, especially east Texas, was likely to work out favorably, contributed constructively to sentiment.

Although the tobacco and oil stocks displayed marked buoyance—the American Tobacco issues jumped $12 and Standard Oil of New Jersey more than $3—floor traders had a chance to cheer when the old stalwart—United States Steel common, touched $100 a share. At that price it was up $3.05.

"MORE OF SAME"

KANSAS CITY, June 24. (AP)—After a siege of high temperatures yesterday which broke many heat records for the date in an area extending from South Dakota and Iowa to the Gulf, "more of the same" was forecast for today by government weather observers. One death and six cases of heat prostration were reported in Oklahoma and Missouri. Oscar Stehr, 20, died yesterday after collapsing in a wheat field near Clinton, Okla., two men who fell victims of the heat while at work were in an Oklahoma City hospital, and four persons were in Kansas City hospitals as a result of the unseasonable temperatures.
